Mrs. J. H. Coursey 30 Year Resident Dies Suddenly

Let's hope that this week will mark the end of a disappointing lull in the hospital's financial campaign. After two years of inactivity, work is under way now to get the drive rolling and try to make up for at least some of the lost time.

Directors of the Hospital Authority have decided that it is high time to get more money into the fund. So far they have spent over $244,000, of which about $43,000 had to be borrowed. Within a few weeks they expect a Hill-Burton federal check for $122,000 covering its half of expense to that point. After which the loan will have to be repaid and the hospital's balance will be about $79,000.

At the present rate of construction, and expense, the fund obviously cannot last long. More money is needed very soon. The big question is how much can be raised by the time the fund runs out. That's a very important question to the hospital project, because it will determine how much additional money has to be raised by bonds or another kind of borrowing.

A candid presentation of the case admits that the total of our share cannot be raised through voluntary contribution before the building is finished — unless we are favored by good fortune of miraculous proportion. We have to take on some debt. But how much? And what kind of terms can we expect? The answers to those questions depend upon community response in the next few weeks. Generous giving will allow greater cash payments and require a smaller debt. Poor response will have the opposite effect.

That fact leads to another. Our ratio of donations to date and the debt remaining determines a sort of community credit rating. The more that ratio favors us the more favorable our deal will be for financing the remainder of our project.

It's easy to see why that is true. In the first place smaller debt means less credit risk, which in turn demands a lower interest rate. Besides a smaller debt can be paid off faster — and shorter terms require less interest.

The foregoing lays the facts on the table as clearly as this column knows how. Danger of losing our project is practically nil, but the possibility of making it burdensome still exists. We can extend our campaign a few years into the future and handle it easily or we can drag our heels and have a long struggle with it.

Because of these facts, directors and workers are reviving the campaign with an earnest plea for community wide cooperation. They ask people to respond generously when contacted — as payment on a promise already made, as an original payment, or as an addition to a previous gift. They urge people to think the subject over and to determine the amount of donation by their own conscience rather than by the rumor of how little someone else has given. Success in the drive is assured if all will consider their part of it honestly, without effort to evade responsibility — then resolve to give as much as possible instead of as little as possible.

Lots of remarks have been made pertaining to the drive, some of which deserve special thought now as the campaign is being revived. For instance: "I'll give later, when I can see construction actually under way." The answer to that is self evident. Their gifts are eagerly awaited now.

Another one goes back to the days before the county hospital bond election: "I'll give later if I'm not stuck by a county-wide hospital tax." There again they have the answer to their remark. And it can be added that the local hospital project is due the credit for their present tax saving on that issue. As close as the vote was, our hospital was a definite factor in the outcome. Some giving is in order as an expression of appreciation for tax savings.

Another popular reason: "I don't have the money now, see me later." Which brings up the question "was it a reason or an excuse?" If a reason, perhaps circumstances are different. If an excuse, conscience is the best source for an answer. One that jolts our civic pride is the remark that our project is too big for Muenster, so they have no confidence in its success. Such people need to be reminded that some other people, experts on the subject and better qualified to judge, have shown confidence in our project.

H. Skaggs Elected New Chairman of Soil Supervisors

Harold Skaggs, representing Zone 5 on the Upper Elm Red Soil Conservation District Board of Supervisors, is the new chairman of that board. He succeeds Willard Kemplin, who died recently of a heart attack.

He was elected Thursday of last week in a meeting of the supervisors, and Tony Walterscheid of Zone 3 was elected secretary to succeed Skaggs. John Crowmover of Zone 2 continues as vice-chairman.

Keith Kemplin is the board's new member, elected by Zone 4 farmers to succeed his father. He is 40 years old, operates a 400 acre grain and stock farm north of Valley View, has been a district cooperator since 1947 and was named champ conservationist of the Zone in 1953. He is also a custodian of district equipment.

Another member of the board of supervisors is E. C. Chandler, representing Zone 1 of the district.

Formal Opening Sunday Will Show County FB Home

A fitting climax to ten years of progress is the formal opening of Cooke County Farm Bureau's handsome new office building next Sunday afternoon between the hours of 2 and 5.

Sharing in the open house ceremony will be the McKinney Production Credit Association, which has its Cooke County office in the Farm Bureau building.

The new building is located on West Highway 82 just west of Interstate Highway 35 and at the south side of the road.

A general invitation from officers and directors of the FB discloses that everybody is welcome to attend and members are especially urged. Members are also reminded to bring along their prospective members to make them better acquainted with the bureau and its organizational set-up.

Special attractions of the open house will be door prizes, refreshments and souvenirs, and the showing of the building itself.

The front of the building consists of three rooms: a main office with a small office at either side. Behind those three is a large room used for meetings and parties. The party equipment includes a soft drink bar on casters, which can be set up in any part of the room or rolled into a corner in case of a crowded meeting, also a cabinet and sink for preparing food and washing dishes.

A central heating and cooling plant controls air temperature, ceilings are acoustical tile, walls are of walnut finish paneling.

The Farm Bureau has grown substantially during its ten years in Cooke County. The chapter opened in July 1953 with 38 charter members and ended the year with 51 members. At this time there are over 500 members.

Since 1956 headquarters for the county FB has been in its present location. The space was rented until FB bought the property in 1960. Construction on the new building started in 1962.

Jacksboro and Bellevue Teams Win SH Tourney

Geer Tanks of Jacksboro and Jo's Beauty Shop of Bellevue won the champ trophies in the invitation volleyball tournament sponsored by Sacred Heart Alumni last week in the Sacred Heart gym.

Runners up of the champ bracket were Lindsay who grudgingly gave in to Geer Tanks in the men's division and Sivells Bend Whizettes who lost to Jo's Beauty Shop in the ladies division.

Muenster had a cinch to keep the two consolation trophies at home. Going into that bracket were Muenster Mill and Sacred Heart Exes, and the Millers were the winners.

In the ladies division SH Alumnae met Muenster Bluebirds in the consolation finals, and the Alumnae were the winners.

Trophies were awarded after the last games to champ and runner-up of each division and also to the consolation winner of each division.

County Voters Approve Issue of Bonds for College

By a ratio of more than two to one voters of Cooke County Tuesday approved a $350,000 bond issue to finance the addition of two new buildings at Cooke County Junior College.

The final count, as reported by Mrs. Ed Liedtke, election judge, was 1446 to 579 in favor of the improvement.

John H. Parker, president of the college, announced Wednesday that plans for the proposed expansion will proceed as fast as possible. He thinks that bids can be asked promptly after the 30 day election contest period ends, that work can start in about two and a half months and that the completed facilities will be ready in September 1964.

The proposed additions are a science building and a combined library-administration building. Together they will add about 23,000 square feet of space to the college.

The additions are made necessary by the school's rapid increase in enrollment, which has averaged 16 per cent annually for the past 10 years and a much larger increase in recent years.

When the main building was erected three years ago the enrollment was a full time equivalent of 200. Now the full time equivalent is 401 and the actual count of students registered is 614. If the present rate of growth continues the school will have an enrollment of 1200 by 1970.

Other additions have been made since the college was transferred from the city to the county but did not require a special election for financing. They were financed out of the maintenance fund which is supported by a 20 cent tax.

The bonds just approved, to be financed by a 10 cent tax, will mature in ten years and will bear interest at 2 1/2 per cent the first five years and 2 3/4 per cent the next five years. Since the tax is approved for that specific improvement it will be discontinued as soon as the bond is paid off.

Boy Scouts Will Hike and Camp Out

Boy Scouts of Muenster Troop 664 and their scoutmaster Ed Schneider will have a hike and overnight campout Saturday. The group will hike some eight miles to the Al Walter farm for the outing.

The time for departure is set for 9 a.m. Saturday, the return is scheduled for 9 a.m. Sunday. Outdoor tests will be the order of the day and will include cooking, fire building and staking.

Solemn Rites End 40 Hours Service

Forty Hours Adoration in Sacred Heart Parish closed Tuesday night on a solemn note with ceremonies including a procession, litany of the saints, Benediction, and the Te Deum, after weekly novena devotions.

Little girls in white participated in the procession, each carrying a long stemmed red carnation. Altar boys carried lighted candles. Father Frederick Smith of Denison carried the Blessed Sacrament in the procession and gave the benediction.

Other visiting clergy present were Father Dan O'Connor of Denison, Father Edward Devers of Sherman and Father Richard Sokolski of Gainesville.

Pastor Father Alcuin and the dozen or more parish pastors of a wide area who customarily attend the closing services were absent this year. All pastor of the diocese were called to Dallas for a meeting with their bishop, the Most Rev. Thomas K. Gorman.

Booklet Offered On Bobwhite Quail

Farmers who want to help the Bobwhite Quail can get a lot of help from Information-Education Brochure No. 101 recently published by the Texas Game and Fish Commission. It is entitled "Habitat Needs and Management Suggestions for Bobwhite Quail in Texas," and explains how to provide for the basic needs of food, water and cover.

The brochure can be obtained by writing the Texas Game and Fish Commission of Austin.

NEWS OF THE SICK

Mrs. Nig DeBorde had surgery Wednesday at Medical Arts Hospital in Dallas after X-rays, tests and observation for about ten days.

Andy Hofbauer continues as a patient at St. Paul's Hospital in Dallas. His doctor has not said when he will be dismissed.

Robert Knabe Jr. is going to be laid up at home indefinitely with a broken leg. He sustained a bad break between the right knee and ankle last Friday in an oil field accident. Pipe fell on him. He was at Gainesville Hospital over the weekend.

Terry Knabe, baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knabe, is continuing recovery at home after illness that put him in Wilson N. Jones Hospital at Sherman for five days. He was dismissed Tuesday.

Tony Wimmer is recovering from major surgery performed at Baylor Hospital in Dallas March 15. He has been dismissed from the hospital but is staying in Dallas for some time to be near his doctor.

A fall during play at home resulted in a broken right arm for Doris Jean Felderhoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Felderhoff, Saturday. The little second grader is attending classes with her arm in a sling.

Baby Colynda Henscheld, daughter of the Virgil Henschelds, is recovering from illness that put her in Gainesville Hospital five days. She was dismissed Monday.

Mrs. John P. Janicki of San Antonio has let her parents, the Jake Pagels, know that she is back at her home, dismissed from Brooke General Hospital where she underwent kneecap surgery Jan. 24.

Mrs. J. H. Otto is back at home, dismissed Wednesday from Gainesville Hospital where she was a patient since Feb. 15 when she suffered a cracked pelvis bone in a fall at her home. She is making steady progress toward recovery. She was up and around in a walker this week at the hospital and can walk some with help.

News of the Men in Service

Home From Germany
Back from Germany are the John McDonnells and their baby son John Robert. They had been living in Siegelbach while he was on overseas army duty. After this week of visiting with her parents, the John McDonnells here and his father Emmett McDonnell in Dallas, the soldier's new assignment will be at Fort Sill, Okla., where he will be in officer candidate school. While he is there his wife and son will be dividing time between Muenster and Dallas. They flew from Germany to New York and drove their car the rest of the way home arriving Saturday. Emmett McDonnell accompanied them to Muenster for a visit with the Mosmans Sunday.

Based In South Carolina
A former Muenster young man, S.Sgt. Roy Baumhardt, has been graduated from the Amarillo AFB technical training center as an aircraft structural repairman and has been reassigned to Charleston AFB, South Carolina. He was trained in the assembly, inspection and repair of aircraft frames. Sgt. Baumhardt, a graduate of Sacred Heart High School, is the son of Mrs. Callie Baumhardt, formerly of Muenster now living in Sherman. Roy entered the service in June 1949.

Settled In Korea
Word from Mrs. C. D. Richards, the former Miss Rosalee Muller of Muenster, advises that her husband who was recently called for overseas duty is settled in Taegu, Korea. Mrs. Richards and the children are continuing living in their home in Stoughton, Mass., and she says they are getting settled into a routine without the "chief" which isn't easy. Mrs. Richards still sells clothing and recently learned that she placed 11th in sales in New England for 1962. There are over 300 demonstrators in the area.

Recollection Day Scheduled Sunday By KCs and CDAs

A Day of Recollection sponsored jointly by the Muenster K of C council and the Muenster CD of A court will be held from 1 to about 5 p.m. Sunday afternoon.

It will be conducted by Father Harold A. Gaudin, S. J., of the Montserrat Retreat House of Lake Dallas.

Knights and Catholic Daughters along with their wives and husbands are especially urged to attend, and any others will be welcome.

The program begins with a conference at 1 o'clock and closes with a papal blessing following a 4:30 mass.

Tim Mosman with Texas Aggies on TV

Tim Mosman was one of five Texas Aggies appearing on a TV panel recently when the Texas A&M students participated with other colleges and universities of several states in a model General Assembly session.

The aim of the model UN meeting is to give students a better understanding of international affairs. The A&M group adopted the Republic of China for their talk. They also made appearances before business and professional clubs.

Tim Mosman is doing graduate work for his masters degree in history and government. He expects to get his degree this summer. Meanwhile he is teaching a freshman class at A&M. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mosman.

Soil Conservation Awards Banquet Set for May 9

This year's awards banquet honoring conservation champions of the Upper Elm Red Soil Conservation District will be held in Gainesville on Thursday, May 9. It will be the district's fourteenth annual conservation awards program.

Plans for the event were made last week Thursday in a meeting of representatives from the banks newspapers and radio stations of the Upper Elm Red District. First State Bank of Gainesville hosted the meeting and also the supper which followed at Mo-Jo Lodge on Leeper Lake.

The banquet will be held in the Gainesville Armory beginning at 7 p.m. Tickets will sell at $3.00 per person and 500 to 550 guests can be accommodated.

Superintendent W. O. Echols of the Gainesville schools will be opening chairman, Texas Ranger Lewis Rieger will be master of ceremonies, and Farm Director Walter Olivo of the Sherman TV station will give the narration as scenes of the champion's conservation achievements are projected on a screen.

Awards will consist of nine wooden plaques, hand carved by the Bavarian Wood Carvers of Muenster. The outstanding conservation farmers of the five Zones will each receive a plaque and one of them will also receive an award for outstanding conservation farmer of the district. The farmer doing the best job of reclaiming a worn out farm receives a plaque, and both persons in the best landlord-tenant conservation team will also receive the awards.

Muenster Boys Have Entries in 4-H & FFA Show

Fat steers entered by Muenster boys in the Cooke County 4-H & FFA Livestock Show on March 15 received two blue ribbons and three red ribbons.

And hogs entered by Muenster boys received one blue ribbon, eight red ribbons and one white ribbon. The awards were given on the basis of classification. Competitive judging applied only in selection of champion and reserve champion in each division.

Blue ribbon steers were shown by Don Hartman and Roy Hartman. Red ribbon steers were shown by Joe Hartman, James Dangelmayr and John Dangelmayr.

In the hog show John Walterscheid had a blue ribbon animal judged the reserve champ and also four red ribbon winners. John Stoffels had four red ribbon animals and one white ribbon animal.

Fund Campaign For Hospital Will Resume Thursday

Muenster's drive for hospital construction funds will be reopened this week at a special meeting of directors and solicitors Thursday night in the bank.

Plans for the kickoff were made at a directors' meeting last week Wednesday. It was agreed there that waiting for unsolicited donations is bringing little money to the fund, so the time has come to go asking for it.

A financial report at that meeting showed that construction to date has exhausted the building fund plus an additional $43,000 which had to be borrowed. Payments so far are slightly over $244,000.

However the point has been reached at which the hospital authority can apply for its first installment of the Hill Burton grant. Payment of $122,000 is expected soon, of which about $79,000 will be left after the loan is repaid. Directors point out that the amount will not go far at the present rate of building progress, hence more money is needed soon.

The total amount still to be raised is about $215,000. Contract price on the hospital and equipment is $666,000 and an additional $50,000 is needed to assure the first two years of operation. Hill-Burton will give $300,000, leaving $416,000 as the community's share of the project. The amount raised to now is $201,000 and the amount remaining is $215,000.

Directors are hopeful that a substantial part of that will be raised in the revived campaign. They explain that the greater the amount of cash, the smaller the amount to be borrowed. Generous response could mean that the authority will gain in several ways: a smaller loan for a shorter time at a lower interest rate.

Construction on the hospital continues at a steady pace. Roofing is finished and so is concrete for the floors. Brick wall is about half finished. Metal lath for partition walls is started. Meanwhile work is well advanced on wiring, plumbing and heating and cooling installations.

Several equipment orders have also been turned in. Some of the major items are X Ray equipment, sterilizer, distilled water unit, surgical lights and kitchen equipment.

Tuesday of this week Mother Philippa and Sister Mildred of Jonesboro Convent were here to consult with the architect in specifying requirements for drapes, furnishings, etc. Bids on those items are expected soon.

Weather Bureau Radio Transmitter Recovered Here

A special radio used by the U. S. Weather Bureau to transmit information on temperature, pressure and moisture of air at various heights was found in a field last Sunday by Charlie Fisher.

A tag on the instrument identifies it as a Radiosonde sent up at Abilene, Texas on March 5. It was carried by a balloon set to burst at a height of about 17 miles. As the balloon burst a parachute opened and slowed down the descent of instrument and remains of the balloon. While afloat the radiosonde transmitter was tracked by a special receiver at the ground station.

Fisher said the object probably came down about a week before he found it. He recalls seeing an object floating at a distance near dark but forgot about it until he found the instrument Sunday.

He has complied with instructions on the instrument: removed the busted balloon and a battery, folded an aerial inside the box and put the instrument inside, then mailed it to the Weather Bureau for repair and re-use.

FHA Will Sponsor Benefit March 27

TIME TO PICK UP OUR MARBLES

Wonder if our friends who consider the United Nations "the last best hope for peace in the world" have been checking up on the low comedy pulled off by the "underdeveloped nations" when its General Assembly voted 57 to 14, with 18 absentions, to impose sanctions on Portugal for its policies in Angola. The Soviet Union led the parade of half-civilized delegates that carried the motion to impose sanctions by a 4 to 1 vote.

United States, Britain and France voted against them; and as each of the three have veto power in the Security Council, sanctions are dead.

When the government that has made a vast concentration camp of Eastern Europe can lead a group of Asian-African delegates, most of whom would be more at home at a cannibal barbecue than in a council of civilized nations, it's time Uncle Sam told Adlai and his aids to put their check books in their pockets and come home. downturn, but it is a good deal better than either a speed-up of the slowdown or a deepening of the downturn and does suggest that the climate is about right for an adjustment to the readjustment. Turning to unemployment, we find a definite decrease in the rate of increase, which already shows that there is a letting up of the letdown. Of course, if the slowdown should speed up, the decrease in the rate of increase of unemployment would turn into an increase in the rate of decrease of employment. In other words, the deceleration would be accelerated."

A MODERN PARABLE

"Once upon a time there was a farmer who took the milk produced by two cows and sold it to a factory worker in a city. With the process he bought two shirts. So the farmer had two shirts and the city worker had the milk from two cows.

"Later, a politician told the farmer he could get more for his milk if he sold a smaller quantity. He also told the factory worker that he should work fewer hours and get more for his labor. So the next time the farmer brought to market the milk from only one cow. He got as much money for that milk as he formerly got for the milk from two cows. But when he went to buy shirts, he found that the price had doubled so he got only one shirt.

"Now the farmer had one shirt and the factory worker had the milk from one cow. If they hadn't listened to the politician — but had continued to produce as efficiently as before — each would have had twice as much.

CUT SPENDING, TOO

A great deal is being said these days about the possibility of an income tax cut next year and entirely too little about reducing federal spending.

But one person who has spoken out in the past few days is Charles B. Shuman, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, who urged defeat of proposed reductions in federal income taxes unless matched by cuts in government expenditures.

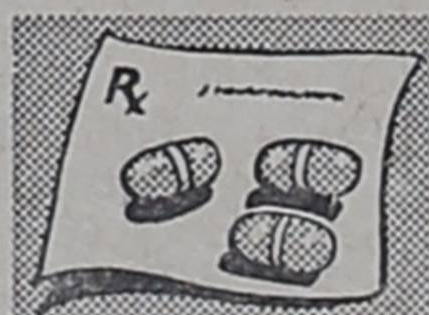

Mr. Shuman takes the sensible position that tax reduction without a cut in spending would mean a further deficit — which would result in more inflation and a lessening of confidence in our fiscal responsibility.

Taxes are high. We believe business and individuals alike need some tax relief.

But we believe even more strongly that this country needs some relief from government spending.

1.5 Billion Pounds Given to Needy by Catholic Services

For the sixth consecutive year shipments of relief supplies by Catholic Relief Services, the overseas aid agency of American Catholics, exceeded one billion pounds. The totals for 1962 surpassed those of any previous year. There were 2,240 shipments, comprising 1.5 billion pounds, valued at $124 million to needy areas in over 70 countries around the world.

In addition to shipping and distributing relief supplies, Catholic Relief Services, as part of its program of resettlement, assisted 30,000 Cuban refugees in finding homes and jobs in the U. S. More than 150,000 Cubans have arrived in the U. S. since Castro's communist regime took over three years ago. Of this total about 100,000 are registered with the refugee resettlement office of Catholic Relief Services.

The principal means supporting the manifold charitable works of Catholic Relief Services throughout the world is derived from the annual Catholic Bishop's Relief Fund Appeal. This is a collection taken up in all Catholic churches throughout the U. S. on the middle Sunday of the Lent season, March 24, 1963 this year.

During the past year a total of 40 million needy persons benefited from the relief programs of American Catholic Relief Services. All food, clothing, medicines, and other supplies were distributed in the name of the American people, without regard to race, creed, or color.

Assistance in the fields of education, health, and welfare is another phase of the programs carried on by Catholic Relief Services. To help solve the problems that plague the underdeveloped countries of Latin American and the emerging nations of Africa, Catholic Relief Services has been instrumental in setting up and supporting various socio-economic projects.

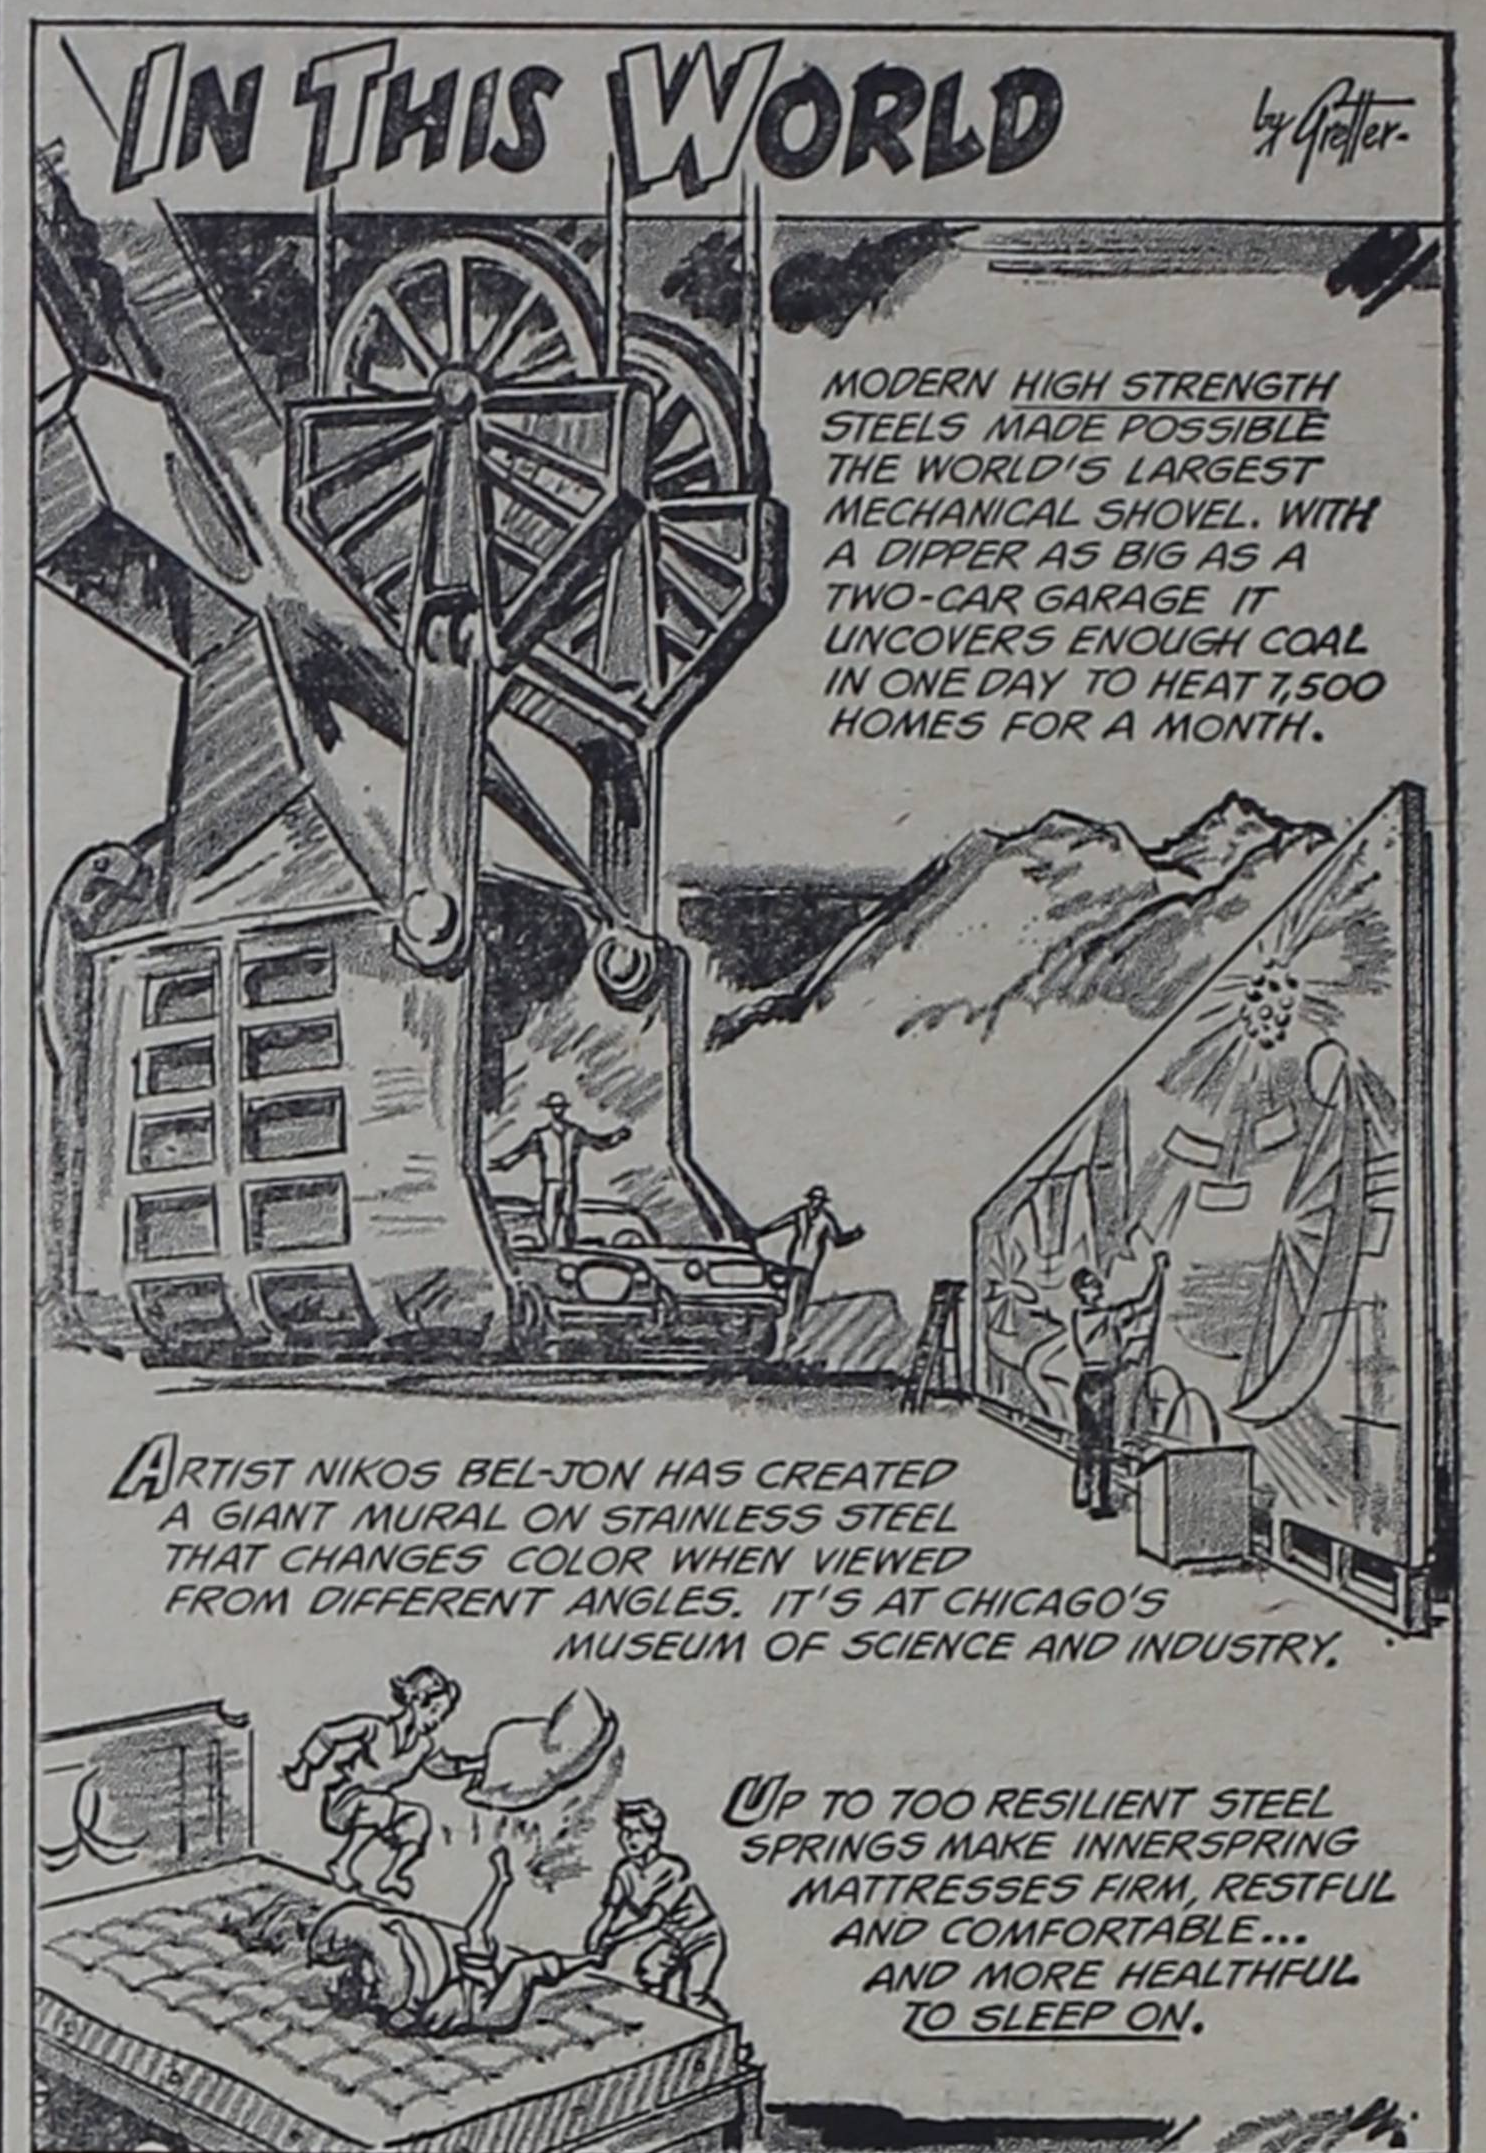

According to a report published by the U. S. Agency for International Development (AID), Catholic Relief Services is the largest American voluntary overseas relief agency registered with the U. S. government.

HD Club Has Film For March Program

Muenster Home Demonstration Club members had a film as the program for their March meeting and met at the Public School so that others could see the film. It was entitled "To Smoke or Not to Smoke."

Joining members and guests for the showing were seventh and eighth graders and high school students and their teachers of the Public School.

Afterwards the home demonstration club's regular meeting was held. Mrs. Paul Fisher presided for routine business and gave a report on the county council meeting she attended. Of importance there was announcement of the district meeting to be held in Corsicana on April 11. Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Albert Fleitman plan to attend.

In other business a nominating committee was appointed in preparation for the election of officers at next month's meeting. Serving on this committee are Mrs. Joe Hoenig, Mrs. Al Fleitman and Mrs. Bernard Wolf. Members also discussed topics for next year's program to be listed in the new year-books.

Mrs. Norbert Walterscheid was hostess for the meeting and after adjournment served coffee and cookies to 11 members.

Meeting for April will be in Mrs. Clyde Fisher's home and Mrs. Bernice Thurman, home demonstration agent, will give the program on "Being a Good Hostess and Guest."

Kathy Trubenbach And James Whitt Say Wedding Vows

Sacred Heart Church was the scene of nuptial services Saturday evening when Miss Kathy Trubenbach became the bride of James Whitt. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Alois Trubenbach and Mr. and Mrs. Buford Whitt, all of Muenster.

Father Alcuin Kubis officiated at the exchange of vows in a double ring ceremony before the altar banked with pink gladioli and white carnations and lighted by tall tapers.

Mr. Trubenbach presented his daughter in marriage. She was a lovely bride in a light pink bouffant lace dress over satin with ballerina length skirt and long fitted sleeves. Her sheer pale pink veil fell in tiers from a queen's crown to shoulder length. She carried a colonial bouquet of a white orchid and carnations.

The couple's sisters and brothers were wedding attendants. Miss Riya Trubenbach was maid of honor in blue and Miss Linda Whitt was bridesmaid in lime green. Their dresses were identical with wide gathered skirts, fitted bodices girded with wide cummerbunds and topped with brief jackets with elbow length sleeves. The costumes were of organza over taffeta. They carried nosegays of white carnations.

Lloyd Trubenbach and Donny Whitt of Grapevine attended the groom. Bill Blythe, bride's brother-in-law, ushered.

Mrs. Norbert Walterscheid, vocal soloist, and Anthony Luke, organist, provided wedding music.

After the service the newly-married pair went to the Blessed Virgin's shrine where the bride placed a single long-stemmed pink rose on the altar and lighted a taper.

Immediate member of both families were guests for dinner in the home of the bride's parents and the newlyweds left afterwards on a short honeymoon. He is employed at Tuggle Motor Company and until they secure living quarters in Muenster they'll be at home in Gainesville. For traveling the bride wore a red linen suit with black accessories.

Among out of town relatives at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Donny Whitt and children of Grapevine, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Whitt, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Whitt and daughter and Mrs. Billy Whitt and son Keigh of Fort Worth.

Domino Tourney At Myra Benefits Improvement Club

Myra's 42 and domino tournament was great fun according to the large crowd that attended the event Friday night. Seventy-four got in the play to win the champ trophies.

Winning in the 42 series were Mrs. David Black of Myra and Kenneth Boggs of Gainesville.

Elimination in the domino tournament continued the next night and on into the morning hours before the playoff ended. The trophies went to Walter Berry and Johnny Hoberer, both of Hood.

Players attended from Era, Hood, Gainesville, Myra, Muenster and Bowie. The tournament was a benefit for Myra Community Improvement Club. Hostesses served coffee, hot chocolate and pie.

Officers of the recently organized improvement club are the Rev. Max Love, chairman; Jimmy Jack Biffle, vice chairman; Mrs. Johnny Barthold, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Parker Fears, program chairman.

Pancake Supper at Forestburg Friday Red Cross Benefit

Members of Forestburg Home Demonstration Club are sponsoring a benefit this week Friday for the Red Cross. The event will be a pancake supper in the school cafeteria.

Serving will begin at 6 p.m. and will continue as long as anyone comes. Sausage and coffee go with the hotcakes and admission price will entitle those who attend to "all they can eat." The sponsoring group is preparing for a big crowd, Friday 22. Everybody is invited.

A gunman appeared at the paymaster's window of a large plant and demanded: "Never mind the payroll Bud. Just hand over the welfare fund, the group insurance premiums, the pension fund, and the withholding taxes."

"There are two kinds of men who don't understand women — bachelors and husbands."

GOOD HEALTH

COMES IN

SMALL PACKAGES

You may have wondered why so many of today's medicines come in small packages. It is because these wonder drugs are so effective there is more cure in tiny tablets, capsules and drops than there was in bottlesful of yesteryear's medicines.

The package may be small, but the results are BIG! Truly, prescribed medicine is the biggest bargain for the money.

In Muenster for a visit with the Ray Swirczynskis are her sister and brother-in-law, the Lawrence Bruces and his mother, all of Norris City, Ill.

Visiting in McKinney Tuesday with the Dickie Cains were her parents, the Norbert Klements and daughter Shirley and Debbie Cain.

The CCD Discussion Club headed by Mrs. Roy Endres met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. M. J. Endres with 11 members present. They studied the chapter on "Actual Sin."

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Berend of Hereford spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hess and family.

Dr. Kenneth Dobbs was in McKinney Sunday attending a medical meeting. His wife and children drove along and stayed in Dallas with her parents, the John O'Rourke, visiting there until Tuesday when her father and her brother Frank O'Rourke brought them home.

Mrs. E. S. Lawson spent the weekend visiting her daughter and family, the M. L. McGowans in Gainesville.

Mrs. Dick Cain and Mrs. Wendell Richey visited in McKinney Wednesday with the Dickie Cain family.

The CCD Discussion Club of which Mrs. Steve Moster is chairman held its March meeting in the Moster home Sunday night with Mrs. Moster as leader. The group of eight studied the chapter on "Actual Sin." After adjournment the hostess served refreshments of lime sherbert and cake, carrying out a St. Patrick's Day theme.

The CCD Discussion Club headed by Mrs. Al Hess as chairman met Sunday night in the Paul Fetsch home. Mrs. Hess and Mrs. Ed Klement led the lesson on "Actual Sin." After study, Mrs. Fetsch served refreshments to eight members. Next meeting will be in the Ed Klement home.

Miss Alice Walter has returned to Muenster to be in charge of Marilyn's Beauty Salon. She'll start Monday, March 25, and be on duty every day of the week. Being back at home Alice will live with her parents, the Oscar Walters. She is an experienced operator in complete beauty care, a graduate of a Dallas beauty college and has been working in Dallas the past six months.

Muenster was well represented in Dallas Sunday at a meeting of AG Grocers. The meeting with a banquet and floor show was held in Memorial Auditorium. Among those present were Mrs. Andy Hofbauer, Larry and Miss Jeannine Hofbauer, Miss Dorothy Hartman, Miss Helen Hess, Ronnie Endres, Bobby Pels, Donny Hess and J. W. and John Fisher. Joining the group were former Muensterites Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Gremminger of Garland.

er Muensterites Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Gremminger of Garland.

Fifteen members of the CCD Discussion Club of which Mrs. Raymond Zimmerer is chairman met Sunday night in the George Gehrig home for their March study. Mrs. Zimmerer led the lesson and Mrs. Gehrig served refreshments during a social hour of games afterwards.

Former Muensterites, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bernauer presently of Austin, will soon be moving back to Muenster to reside. They have bought the Alois Rohmer home, 220 N. Oak Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McElreath and children Ronnie and Charlotte were Sherman visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sparkman and Sammy drove to Saginaw Sunday to visit his mother, Mrs. J. B. Sparkman at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joe Hemphill. They also visited Sam's other sister and family, the Terrell Collins. Enroute home they stopped in Fort Worth for a visit with the Hershel Coffmans. Mr. and Mrs. Willis Robison of Gainesville visited with V. M. Ramsey while the Sparkmans were away.

Mrs. Leonard Owen Is Party Honoree

A come and go shower party was a courtesy for Mrs. Leonard Owen Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Leo Lawson as hostess in her home.

A pink and blue color scheme was stressed in the party rooms with peach blossoms and lilacs as the floral complement. A large stork held a vantage spot.

The refreshment table was covered with lace and held the crystal punch service and cake. Miss Margaret Ann Lawson assisted in serving. Plate favors were miniature Easter chicks carrying the message "June 1963."

Twenty-three guests attended including the honoree's mother, Mrs. Ted Gregory of Bonita, her sister-in-law, Mrs. Don Gregory of Gainesville and an aunt, Mrs. George Miller of Bellevue.

A young woman was having her dreams analyzed by a psychiatrist. One day she told him she hadn't dreamed the night before. "Young woman," snapped the psychiatrist, "I can't help you if you won't do your homework."

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL * OUR STRENGTH

Grass planting in the Muenster-Saint Jo area is all but halted on account of lack of moisture on recently plowed seedbeds. And cooperators are urged to wait for a rain if they have any doubt whether moisture is sufficient for grass planting.

Gene Lanier of Forestburg finished planting about 33 acres to Coastal Bermuda recently. Twenty acres was on cropland fields and the remainder on land recently cleared of timber.

Glen Huckaby has planted 20 acres of Coastal Bermuda on two of his places east of Forestburg. He hopes to be able to dig his own roots from these plantings in a year or two. He used a homemade press wheel planter.

R. T. Brock finished planting 30 acres of Coastal Bermuda on his place south of Saint Jo last week. Early seedbed preparation left sufficient moisture to plant.

George Bayer has planted eight acres of cropland to Bermuda grass using the district's two row sprigger.

Frank Needham has cleared 24 acres of timbered bottomland north of Muenster and will plant it to Common Bermuda after a rain. Bayer Brothers also planted 30 acres of Common Bermuda on old cropland fields for Mr. Needham.

Bankers, newspaper men, radio and TV personnel throughout the Upper Elm-Red District made plans last week for the district's annual awards banquet. It will be held May 9 in the National Guard Armory in Gainesville to honor outstanding farmers and ranchers of the district.

Land-and-water vehicles have been introduced which can carry cargo or troops "just about any place on earth." The cargo carrier can exceed 35 mph in water or on land. The pillow-tired troop carrier can overcome virtually any barrier — swamp, mud, tundra, deep snow or water. It moves along at 6 mph in the water, 25 mph on land.

Eunice Knauf and Tim Wimmer Set Wedding May 11

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Knauf have announced the approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Eunice Knauf, and Tim Wimmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wimmer, all of Muenster.

May 11 is the wedding date selected by the couple. The ceremony will be solemnized at nuptial mass in Sacred Heart Church with Father Alcuin Kubis officiating.

Selected attendants are Misses Eileen Knauf and Carol and Ruth Wimmer, and Roy Wimmer, James Walterscheid and Bobby Pels. Janet Pels and David Wimmer will be flower girl and ring bearer.

Both are graduates of Sacred Heart High and he attended Barber College. They will make their home in Gainesville. She is employed at Schad and Pulte and he at the Turner Barber Shop.

Flower clusters of the pussy willow are called catkins.

Collie dogs were developed in Scotland for sheep tending.

Marysville News

By Mrs. John Richey

Mrs. B. G. Lyons is happy over the arrival of her sixth great-grandchild, born to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Eastin of Gainesville in Baylor Hospital, Dallas, Sunday. The little girl weighed eight pounds 14 ounces and has been named Angela Jean.

Sunday visitors with Mrs. B. G. Lyons and her daughters, Mrs. Vivian Maupin of San Antonio and Mrs. Marie Stiles of Gainesville who came Saturday, were another daughter, Mrs. W. O. Grant of Alta Loma, and the Bill Paces of Ardmore and his father, Roy Pace of Waco. Mrs. Grant had been to Dallas to see her new grandchild, the Eastin infant. Mrs. Lyons accompanied Mrs. Stiles, Mrs. Grant and Mrs. Maupin to Ardmore Monday to visit the Bill Pace family and Mrs. Maupin left Tuesday for Dallas on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Robison visited her brother and family, the Ivan Davidsons Sunday to check on Ivan who was dismissed from a Sherman hospital Friday after being a surgical patient. Other visitors were the Raymond Davidsons of Fort Worth and Mrs. A. S. Holcombe and son Mike of Gainesville. Also Sunday, the Robisons had a telephone visit with their son Douglas of Spur.

Mr. and Mrs. Bo Snow of Greenville visited overnight Thursday with her parents, the W. F. Davidson, enroute to Williams, Arizona. Sunday visitors with the Davidsons were the Samuel Bakers of Gainesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Siegmund of Walnut Bend were supper guests Thursday with his sister and family, the Charles Davidsons.

*"Government should do for people
only what people
cannot do for themselves."*

When Abraham Lincoln spoke these words, he was recognizing the dangers of a government which does too much for people.

America was founded and has grown through individual initiative and private enterprise, but more and more we have permitted government to do things which we can and should do ourselves.

Today, private enterprise businesses of practically every kind and size face the competitive activities of government-owned businesses: paint factories, cement plants, bakeries, trucking operations and hundreds of others.

Through such agencies as Tennessee Valley Authority and the Bonneville Power Administration, government is steadily increasing its role as a producer of electric power.

Government-owned business not only competes with private enterprise; it does so with the advantages of no Federal tax payments, and little or no interest payments. Ironically, government businesses are operated primarily with the tax dollars collected from private enterprises and individuals.

If we are to preserve our free enterprise system and retain our personal freedoms, we must recognize and speak out against the increasing dangers of government in business.

Thirty-two attended the meal. Board members are Jack Biffle, Lee Livingston, Jake Biffle Jr. Jake Huddleston, Clarence Matthews, Bill Hunt and Roy Townsely.

New Nylon Zipper Offers Advantages

There are many advantages in the new nylon zipper according to Bernice Thurman, home demonstration agent. It is much smaller than the metal one and about half as wide. It is so flexible that it can be tied and untied; yet it is as strong as the metal one. It is snag resistant. Should the zipper catch in clothing, it can be readily opened at any point, the snag removed, and re-zipped.

The zipper should be closed before washing, dry cleaning, ironing or pressing. It should be ironed or pressed with a warm, not hot iron, which is recommended for all nylon products. If a higher temperature is required for the garment fabric, a press cloth should be used over the zipper. Dry cleaning fluids have no effect on the "Dymetra" coils.

Jewelry Can Add Right Accent if Chosen Carefully

The jewelry you wear reflects a bit of your own taste and personality. Even inexpensive jewelry can add just the right accent to your costume, if it is carefully chosen.

Proper choice means certain styles and textures are best for different occasions. And when more than one piece of jewelry is worn, the pieces should be related in texture and type, but not necessarily "matched sets". Look for modern and conventionalized pieces rather than those that have a naturalistic design.

"Accessories Around the Clock," a colorful new bulletin written by the extension clothing specialists of the Texas A&M College system, gives suggestions for choosing jewelry for street, travel or business costumes, as well as for dress and party wear.

You can get a copy from your county home demonstration agent's office on the ground floor of the courthouse or telephone HO5-4931.

Check the Family Clothing Needs For Coming Season

Check family clothing needs for spring and summer now. An attractive wardrobe is within the reach of everyone. It's not necessary to spend a lot of money in order to be well dressed. The important thing is to plan well and choose wisely.

Check the clothes you have on hand; include your accessories. Decide which ones you will continue to use and which you will give away. Make necessary alterations, bringing garments up to date or putting them in first class condition. This will extend your clothing budget.

Other ideas for cutting clothing costs are given in the extension bulletin, "Wardrobe Dollars and Sense". Ask for a copy from Mrs. Bernice Thurman, county home demonstration agent on the ground floor of the courthouse, or call HO5-4931 and she will mail you one.

Skip the sulphur and molasses— get a CHEVROLET SUPER SPORT

Chevrolet Super Sports* have a charm that soothes your springtime yen for romantic adventure as fast as you can slip into a bucket seat. (Especially the Impala's, with its adjustable new Comfortilt steering wheel*.) Front bucket seats are a great start, but Super Sports also feature plush all-vinyl interiors, special interior-exterior trim in tasteful touches, and a veritable feast of goodies we call performance options*. Chevrolet and Chevy II Super Sports invite adventure in convertible or coupe form. That same Super

Sport zing applies to the Corvair Monza Spyder, very breezy with its air-cooled 150-horsepower rear-mounted engine, and 4-speed shift*. Ditto for the new Corvette Sting Ray, a magnificent thoroughbred among pure-blood sports cars with not a single sacrifice in comfort. Both Spyder and Sting Ray come in coupe or convertible styles. All Chevrolet Super Sports are like spring days—you've got to get out in them to savor them. So catch yourself a passing zephyr and waft on down to your Chevrolet showroom.

*Optional at extra cost.

Fluorescent powder, a material often used in law enforcement, now is used by scientists in tracking boll weevils.

The technique was developed at the South Carolina Agricultural Experiment Station and with it workers are able to "tag" weevils with a coating of the powder and find them after they are released in fields.

An ultraviolet light is carried at night by workers and any weevil in its glow will light up, allowing researchers to see the insects from as far as 12 feet away. They can even be seen through a young, thin cotton leaf, according to scientists.

Even the path taken by the boll weevils will show up, allowing study of their movements on the cotton plant. The powder has no apparent physical effect and remains effective for more than three months.

Lindsay News

Sunday's day of recollection in St. Peter's Church was marked by an attendance of some 100 men from Lindsay, Gainesville and Valley View. It was sponsored by the Knights of Columbus. Father Thomas Taaffe, pastor of St. Mary's Church, Gainesville, was retreat master. The conferences began at 11 a.m. and closed at 3:30 p.m. Lunch was served at noon in the school cafeteria.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nortman and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hermes report a fine time on their recent trip to Arkansas. They were weekend visitors with Father Herman Laux at Subiaco Abbey and saw other former Lindsayites there. They toured the new abbey church and other points of interest, joined by Father Herman and Brother Louis Fuhrmann the two couples drove to Clarksville, Ark., to visit former Lindsay pastor, Father Conrad Herda. They also had a brief visit with Sister Baptista, the former Margie Fuhrmann, in Fort Smith, Ark. After their return, the Nortmans had as visitors one evening Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boerner of Orange Grove, Texas, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Boerner of Pilot Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Danny Owen and children Danieta and Perry, joined by Mr. and Mrs. Alfons Pautler of Muenster, were in Fort Worth for a weekend visit with the Clarence Owens and Willie Romos.

Monday Meet Set For Club Leaders

A meeting of Craft Club leaders has been called by Mrs. Raymond Laux, club president, for next Monday, March 25, in her home. And she invites all to be present at 2 p.m. The club's second anniversary will be April 7. Leaders wish to thank all who have helped during the past two years with Gold Bond points and in many other ways. Thanks also to Father Damian and Father Pascal of Fort Worth for recent donations to the club.

Birthday Party Is Honor for Three

The Raymond Laux family is all together again since Mrs. Laux and the new baby Curtis Lee are back at home. Tommy Joe and Billy Ray had also been in Fort Worth with their mother. They were all at the home of her sister, Mrs. Willie Romo and family for about three weeks.

While they were there the families joined in a birthday celebration honoring Clarence Owen on his 60th and his grandson, Kenneth Laux, on his 15th. Mrs. Romo and Mrs. Laux baked the cake shaped like a football field with the candles as players. Being surprised as an honoree at the party was Mrs. Romo who also was a March birthday. The Laux children came from Lindsay bringing a cake with 18 candles for her.

The party was in the Romo home with the following attending: Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Owen, David and Billy Owen and Patty Thompson, all of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Laux and family and Mr. and Mrs. Romo and children.

Clothing Is Topic For 4-H Clubbers

Lindsay 4-H Senior Club girls had an interesting discussion on clothing at their March meeting. They discussed "What Do People Think About You?" in regard to clothes worn.

Marcy Neu led the opening prayer and pledge. Betty Haverkamp called roll and read minutes of the previous meeting. Judy Bezner gave a report on the Share-the-fun Festival and Dolores Voth counted 27 members present. A junior leaders' meeting was set for Monday, March 25.

Pastor of St. Patrick's

Father Fred Mosman, native of Lindsay, has been named pastor of the new St. Patrick's Church in Dallas. He assumed his pastorate on St. Patrick's Day.

The Benedictine Sisters have shown their confidence by agreeing to be administrators. The State Health Department showed its confidence by approving our application for federal aid. The Hill Burton agency, after its own study, showed confidence by approving the grant.

Even without such expert opinion, people might consider that their own confidence and support, added to that already shown by so many local people, would greatly improve the hospital's chance.

Many times in the past this column has enumerated the hospital's merits and has appealed to community pride to hasten completion of the job. And now it adds a reminder that a big and quick response can mean a lot to us financially. The more cash we provide the less we'll have to borrow — and pay interest on — also the lower interest we'll have to pay. Our drive can determine whether we pay a high rate of interest on a big amount or a low rate of interest on a small amount. It's definitely worth a big effort.

FIRST BIRTHDAY. Kim Zwinggi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Zwinggi of Lindsay, celebrated her first birthday Sunday with her parents as hosts. They entertained in their home with a dinner for the grandparents, Leo Zwinggi of Lindsay and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grewing Sr. of Valley View, and the little honoree's godparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alrich Zwinggi and their children Danny, Donna and Chris of Gainesville.

Fleitman Family Has Get-Together

Mr. and Mrs. William Fleitman were hosts at a family dinner Sunday while all their children were at home for the weekend.

Together with their parents were Sgt. and Mrs. Henry Fleitman of Colorado Springs, Colo., Miss Clara Fleitman of Wayne, Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lindeman and family of Scotland, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Reeves and daughter of Jacksboro and Mr. and Mrs. George Krahl and family of Gainesville.

Sgt. Fleitman and his wife Annette were on a weekend pass from Fort Carson. Miss Clara Fleitman returned to Michigan by plane Monday after a week's vacation with her parents.

Tigers Lose 13-2 At Pilot Point

Adam Wolf and his Sacred Heart Tigers are convinced that they have started their baseball season against the toughest foe on their schedule. Pilot Point's 13-2 win Monday sort of proved that their 16-0 win in the first game was no accident.

Rated as one of the better Class A teams of the state, the Bearcats cashed in their own hits and the Tigers' errors for a total of 9 runs in the first inning. After that the game steadied down, but Pilot Point already had it in the bag.

Francis Fuhrmann pitched for Sacred Heart allowing 10 hits while his team mates made 3 errors. Meanwhile two Pilot Point pitchers gave a total of seven hits.

Sacred Heart's leading hitters were Dale Bayer and David Hess, each with two singles. Francis Fuhrmann, Dennis Hess and Jimmy Otto got one hit each.

Next action for the Tigers will be with Collinsville here Friday afternoon.

Agriculture is something like farming, only farming is doing it.

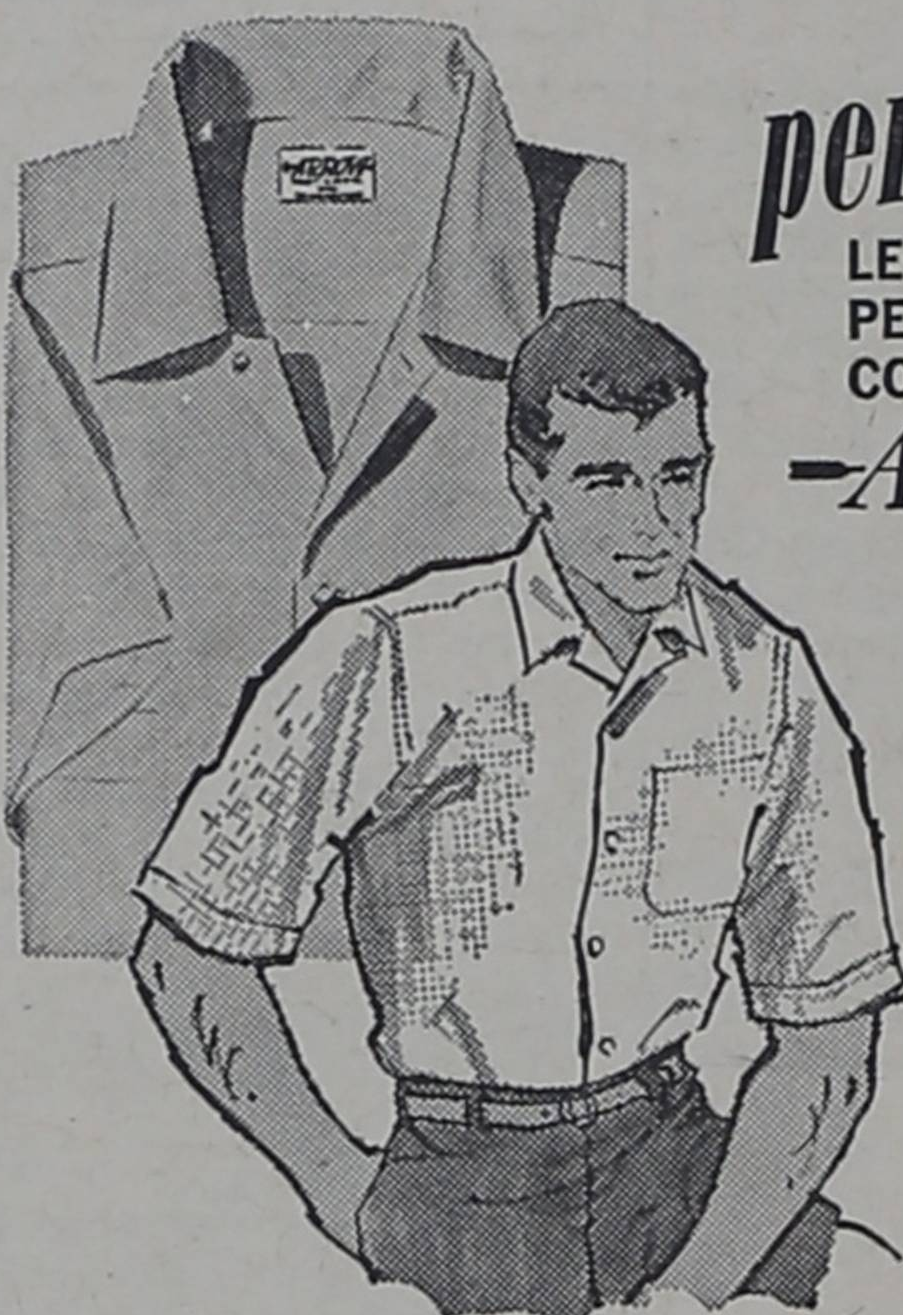

Camp Fire Girls Activity

In observance of Camp Fire Week, Muenster Blue Birds and Camp Fire Girls will attend 7:30 a.m. mass in Sacred Heart Church Sunday, receive Communion in a body, and have breakfast in the Parish Hall afterwards. The girls' parents will be their guests.

Second Grade Blue Birds met March 15 in the club house for business and afterwards the 12 girls and two leaders Mrs. Richard Swirczynski and Mrs. Ed Schneider went to the Henry Yosten farm. Carol Yosten was assisted by her mother in serving refreshments. Then they all toured the dairy farm and watched Mr. Yosten milk a cow.

Skeptics sneered at Henry Ford when he entered his Model T in America's first coast-to-coast auto race in 1909. After 22 days of driving 4,100 miles over mud-covered roads, through snow storms, across streams and in heavy rain, the Model T was the first entry to cross the finish line.

Beetles are the largest of all insect groups, reports the Chicago National History Museum, ranging in size from the tiny featherwing beetle to the Goliath beetle, a giant African insect as large as a mouse. It would take 23,000,000 featherwings, the Museum advises, to equal the weight of a single Goliath.
