VOLUME XIV

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS, JUNE 16, 1950

NUMBER 30

In principle the Montague County sage, A. V. Grant, is a hundred per cent correct in storming for a resolution instructing the Texas legislature to begin secession proceedings at once. When one party to a contract has violated the terms of the contrast the other has a reasonable right to declare the contract null and void.

Back in 1845 when the Republic of Texas applied for admission as a state in the United States of America it specifically retained the title to all of its domain, including the tidelands, and it was accepted into the union on those terms. This very fact was mentioned in the dissenting opinion of Justice Reed. "In my view," he said, "Texas owned the marginal area by virtue of its original proprietorship; it has not been shown to my satisfaction that it lost it by the terms of the resolution of annexation."

Since the title has been neither sold nor given nor transferred in any other way since 1845 the plain fact is that Texas still has a valid title. . . that is, according to the standards of justice that used to prevail in this country.

But all of that is meaningless when an autocratic and avaricious central government decides on a big steal, and when a subservient supreme court degrades its own dignity by being a party to the crime. Regardless of all the legal jargon expounded in the decision, the one important fact is that Texas has not in any way relinquished its title to the tidelands.

As a matter of fact the federal government's stand in this case is in diametric opposition to the basic principle upon which this nation was founded. When the original 13 colonies made their historic agreement their only purpose was to unite for the welfare and security of all. Not one the states surrendered one iota of its title to the land or other resources it then claimed. Nor was the principle changed as other states entered the union. To this day our federal government remains just what the word implies, a union of sovereign states and it has no right to land or any other natural resource which was not specifically and validly transferred to it by a state.

Since the federal government is big and powerful it's easy for us to be confused about its rights. But let's take the same principle and apply it on a smaller scale, and notice how it works out. Suppose all the business men of a town unite in an association for their mutual benefit. The thing gets results, business flourishes, the town grows, and the association's fees for services eventually grow into an office building, warehouse, trucks and various other assets.

There's no question that the association as such had a right to acquire property. But then oil is discovered on a member's property and the association promptly steps in to claim the property. Does anyone think that the association has a right to such a claim? Then how can anyone say that our federal government has a right to take property away from a state?

The supreme court has set quite a precedent here. If these claims are valid, what's to keep the federal government from filing its claim to every other resource in the United States? All it has to do is state that mines, factories, forests, etc., lie within the limits of the nation and that it will henceforth collect all the royalties and taxes deriving therefrom. The violation of states' rights would be no more definite than in this tidelands case.

That's why the column says that in principle our good Montague County friend is altogether proper in his secession talk. If Uncle Sam doesn't have to stick with his part of the agreement, why does Texas have to? The only trouble is that the proposal isn't altogether practical. Remember what happened when several states seceded a little less than a hundred years ago?

And even though secession were possible it would not be (Continued on Page 10)

3 Muenster Boys Win in State 4-H A and M Roundup

Three Muenster boys won state wide honors Monday in the annual 4-H roundup at Texas A&M College.

Ray Luke and his team mate, Lee Wolf of Gainesville, won first place in the range management demonstration contest scoring 271 out of a possible 300.

Billy Whitt and Douglas Robison were the other local lads bringing home the honors. As the county's team on dairy demonstration they won second place in state wide competition.

Also winning second place honors for the county were Frank Haverkamp and Leonard Hermes of Lindsay. They were in the tractor maintenance contest.

The six boys were part of the county delegation consisting of 18 boys, 6 girls and 5 adult leaders who participated in representing the 17 county area designated as Extension District 4. Places on the district teams were determined several weeks ago in contests held at Arlington.

In Monday's events six county teams competed to win the one first and two second places.

Approximately 2000 boys and girls from all parts of the state were at A&M for the 4-H roundup. They slept in the A&M College dormitories and ate in the college dining hall. Their program consisted of the contests on Monday, a recreational program on the A&M softball field Monday night, and speeches and more recreational sessions on Tuesday.

Ruffnecks Treated Rough by Nocona And Valley View

The Ruffnecks were treated rough in their only two league games of the week for a disappointing tumble from second place tie to fourth place in the league standing. Both losses were heartbreakers.

The first was at Nocona last Thursday night. After ruling the field for six innings and apparently headed for a sure victory the boys weakened in the lower half of the last frame and permitted the Nocona fellows to slip over a 4 run rally. Almost before anyone realized what was happening the score changed from 4-1 to 4-5.

Against Valley View here Tuesday night the sad count was 6-4 and the margin was accounted for by two tough breaks. Vincent Becker was called out for missing second base after trotting around on a long homer. Another time the umpire ruled in favor of Cooley on a hotly disputed decision at home following his attempt to stretch a three bagger into a homer. Nevertheless the game was a close one each team starting with 2 in the first and 1 in the second. Muenster forged ahead with 1 in the third and Valley View evened the count in the fifth. The visitors 2 in the seventh decided the game. Cotton Endres pitched 5 innings and Cecil Cain finished the game.

In other league games Valley View beat the Merchants, Nocona beat Saint Jo and the Chicks beat Saint Jo.

League Standings.
Valley View	8-1	.888
Nocona	7-3	.700
Chicks	6-3	.666
Muenster	5-5	.500
Merchants	2-7	.222
Saint Jo	1-9	.100

BRIGHT SPOT

Since Monday Fisher's Market is one of the bright spots in town. Green and red neon has the place looking like a Christmas tree after dark. A similar improvement installed at J. C. Trachta's remodeled drug store about three weeks ago along with the new Relax building does wonders toward dressing up that section of the main drag. Another new improvement at the drug store is a cooling unit, installed this week.

Roderick Reiter of Kerrville is visiting here this week with relatives of the Reiter and Bernauer families.

Ruffnecks Win 7-6 At Madill Monday

An off schedule game Monday night did wonders for the Ruffnecks' morale though it did not help their league standing. Playing the Madill, Okla., Merchants there they launched an early barrage that gave them a 6-2 lead in the second. During the next four innings however Madill added 4 to tie at 6-6.

Entering a tense seventh Gene Schmitz broke the tie with a homer which proved to be the margin of the Ruffneck victory. Another big movement of the game was in the second when Jack Reiter's long double drove in 3.

Hartman was steady on the mound and got air-tight support except for three errors which allowed as many runs. Other stalwarts were Mike Luke with exceptionally hot fielding and Bruns with steady hitting.

Montague County Meeting Demands State's Secession

NOCONA, Texas — Two hundred Montague county people voted unanimously Monday night to ask the legislature to take Texas out of the union and make it a republic again.

They voted in a mass meeting called to protest four decisions of the United States Supreme court which took away Texas tidelands and banned segregation in colleges and in railroad dining cars.

A. V. Grant, Nocona and Saint Jo lawyer, who called and conducted the meeting, said it was one of three scheduled in different cities in the state this week. Grant said a meeting would be held in Waco Tuesday night, called by Baylor university students, and that former Congressman Martin Dies would speak to a state-wide meeting Saturday in Huntsville.

The resolution passed at Nocona called on Gov. Allan Shivers to summon a special session of the Legislature to "reconstitute the Sovereign Republic of Texas and do all things necessary to facilitate our sovereignty."

Grant previously had told the crowd, which cheered his remarks:

"Whether you believe in going this strong or not, we have got to show the Federal government that we are sore enough about the tidelands decision to threaten to pull out of the union."

Grant said the tidelands decision was "not of the court's doing." He said the nine court members had been told how to vote by high federal politicians.

"The bigwigs ordered a 4 to 2 vote," Grant shouted. "That was so if Texas raised enough sand and made it look like the Democrats might lose an election, the remaining five members of the court could overrule this decision and make the court back up."

Grant said the Texas tidelands decision threatened every piece of property by the State of Texas since 1848.

"I don't know why Tom Clark when he sued for the tidelands didn't sue for Nocona or Dallas, or the oil lands of the University of Texas. He could have and he would have gotten them."

"The court had held that Texas has no privileges which were not given to the other forty-seven states—meaning that Texas cannot make use of provisions in its Treaty of Annexation by which Texas retains not only tidelands, but all other public lands as well."

"Many land grants have been made by Texas since then," Grant continued. He said the decision would knock the props from many farms and ranches which derived early titles from the state.

New car owners in the community this week are Maurice Pagel, a black Custom Ford 2 door; John Haverkamp, a Style-line Chevrolet 4 door; James Bezner, a Fleetline Power Glide Chevrolet 4 door; and George Mollenkopf, a Chevrolet pickup. Grewing Bros. have a new Ford pickup.

Mothers Initiate Plans For Annual July Fourth Picnic

Members of St. Anne's Society initiated plans Sunday for the annual parish observance of the Fourth of July. The program for the occasion will be sponsored jointly by the women and by members of St. Joseph's Society.

According to preliminary plans discussed the picnic will take place on Sunday July 2, and the dance will be held on Tuesday night, July 4.

If plans of the sponsor groups work out this year's picnic will be held out of doors, somewhere in a shady timber. Activity will get under way at about 11 a.m. with lunches and cold drinks and will continue through the afternoon and evening. The women named committee chairmen to take charge of food and other details. The dance will be held in the K of C hall, and again lunches and cold drinks will be available.

The sponsoring societies will place the proceeds in their treasuries which they are endeavoring to build up to purchase stained glass windows for the new Sacred Heart church.

Temporary School From Myra Expands Hatchery Facilities

The addition of a 20x40 building this week practically doubles the space at the Muenster Hatchery. Work is under way now putting it on a permanent foundation and making repairs.

It is the frame building used last year as a temporary school while Myra's new school building was under construction. Besides being practically new it is especially suited for a brooder house because of the ample window space in the south wall.

C. F. Gobble, hatchery manager, said the additional space will not only relieve present inconvenience but reduce congestion and the possibility of spreading diseases. With all brooder chicks out of the building, none of the newly hatched chicks will be exposed to infection. He explained that in the future people who get their chicks immediately after hatching can rest assured they are not getting diseased chicks. Up to now the hatchery could not be certain on that point.

After a new roof and a general check-over for possible damage from the 6 mile haul the building will be ready for use.

Local Grain Crop Badly Damaged by 6 inch Cloudburst

Harvesting in the northwest part of this community took another beating Saturday night when a cloudburst unofficially reported to measure about 6 inches flooded lowlands and caused further delay to urgently needed work on higher levels. Some farmers of the vicinity said that rain gauges with a total capacity of six inches were full to the brim.

Approaching from that direction, the rain apparently was mostly spent before it reached the city of Muenster. The measure on Steve Moser's official U S weather gauge was exactly 2 inches. In some areas south and east of town the rain was so light that a few people were returning to the fields on Tuesday.

Damage was widespread all along both the Brushy Elm and the Dry Elm creeks. The bridge across Brushy Elm near the Sinclair pump station was partially wrecked and its east approach was washed out. Another bridge crossing Dry Elm on the North Muenster FM road had its approach washed away.

Just south of town rampaging water in the Brushy Elm topped the floor of the bridge by a foot or more but caused no damage beyond washing away the road shoulders and several chunks of pavement. The bridge held firm. Grain fields along the creek, however were cleared in the lower spots and the bundles deposited in underbrush farther down stream.

The city's sewage disposal plant along the north bank of the creek was completely under water. After the flood receded a four foot deposit of silt remained but the operation of the plant apparently has not been affected. Steve Moser reported Tuesday that no sewer troubles had developed up to then.

Up to late Tuesday field activity in the area has been practically at a standstill. One combine and a few mowers had returned back into the field.

Meanwhile grain crops continue to suffer from the long delay. Besides losses from falling there is the increasing damage to test caused by the lush growth of weeds, and grasses. Moisture from the green vegetation, when combined along with the grain, impairs the quality of the grain.

Local Ball Team Edges Capps 10-9

Muenster's baseball team got a terrific scare Sunday afternoon but edged out a 10-9 victory over Capps Corner to make it two straights in the T and O league. It was the local boys' second victory over the Capps nine.

The early innings seemed to be an easy walk-away for the Muenster boys as they hit steadily to accumulate 10 in the first seven, usually leaving one or two men on base. Meanwhile Capps got 5 but the last two frames were different.

They added 1 in the 8th and 3 in the 9th when Al Monroe, one of the team's heavy hitters, came up with 2 out and 2 on. By the time he fouled 8 or 10 he had Muenster in a nervous strain but a hot grounder to third was handled perfectly by Bruns to end the suspense.

Cotton Endres started at the mound and retired in the second in favor of Mickey Luke when the Capps hitters got rough. From then until the ninth Luke had no trouble.

Next on the schedule is Fleetwood here next Sunday at 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Lawson and daughter, Margaret Ann, have returned from a ten-day vacation tour to Hot Springs, Ark., Nashville, Tenn., and points of interest in Mississippi, Alabama and Louisiana.

MR. AND MRS. FRED HOEDEBECK OBSERVE GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoedebeck observed their golden wedding anniversary Monday, June 12 with an all-day celebration that included a religious service and a reunion of family and friends.

The day's program began with a solemn high mass in Sacred Heart church at 9 o'clock with Rev. Paul Hoedebeck, O.S.B., son of the couple, as celebrant. Rev. Anthony Schroeder and Rev. Andrew Wewer were deacon and subdeacon and Rev. David Flusche of Subiaco was master of ceremonies. Grandsons of the honor couple, Basil and Leon Reiter, and Gene and Phillip Hoedebeck were servers at the mass and Anthony Luke, organist, and the church choir provided the music.

White and yellow gladioli adorned the altar before which Mr. and Mrs. Hoedebeck renewed their wedding vows with their son as officiant. Baskets of seasonal flowers decorated the sanctuary and the communion railing. Mrs. Hoedebeck wore a bemberg sheer grey dress with black and white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. Her sister, Mrs. John Weber of Cincinnati, Ohio, who was maid of honor at her wedding 50 years ago, was also present.

Sharon Schumacher and Mary Sue Hoedebeck, flower girls, carried baskets of glads and fern. They wore floor length yellow organdy frocks with matching halo hats. Patsy and Shirley Hoedebeck and Florence Ann Spurgeon, also flower girls, wore white dresses and carried bouquets of white and yellow daisies.

The parish hall was the scene for other festivities of the day. After the church service the honor couple and the Reverend Fathers had breakfast.

At 1:30 dinner was served to about 200 relatives and friends and after the meal informal diversion and visiting continued through the afternoon and group pictures were taken.

For the dinner the honorees, 12 of their 13 children, and five members of the clergy were seated at the main table. It was laid with white linen and held an elaborately decorated four-tier cake flanked with gold candles and arrangements of yellow roses. Throughout the hall roses, daisies and glads in baskets held vantage spots.

Rev. David Flusche was toastmaster, and Rev. Anthony Schroeder was principal speaker. In his talk Father Anthony said the priest who married Mr. and Mrs. Hoedebeck 50 years ago must have given three blessings instead of one as they were blessed with 18 children and had lived their lives to the letter as good Christian parents. Father Paul, in behalf of the family, extended thanks to all who had assisted in making the day such a splendid success.

Immediately preceding the meal Miss Juanita Weinzapfel presented "Ave Maria" as a vocal solo, her mother, Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel, playing the piano accompaniment. Later Miss Weinzapfel sang "Silver Threads Among The Gold".

While the honorees cut their wedding cake, Sonny and Norma Jean Walterscheid presented "Wedding Bells", Sonny playing the accordion and Norma Jean singing.

Basil Reiter recited a poem, "Happy Anniversary Wishes", and Leon Reiter presented a poem entitled "Because". Another selection by the Walterscheid duet was "I Love You Because".

Misses Charlotte and Betty Ann Hoedebeck, granddaughters of the couple, presided at the guest book. It was an attractive hand made book made by a granddaughter, Mrs. Andy Arendt.

Married in Illinois

Fred Hoedebeck and Miss Anna Schumacher were married June 5, 1900, in St. Anthony's church in Teutopolis, Ill. They moved to Muenster in 1909, farming here until 1930 when they moved to Tishomingo, Okla. In 1940 they moved to Denison and then returned to Muenster in 1945. They still engage in farming, both enjoy excellent (Continued on Page 10)

News of Sick And Injured

Mrs. Jake Pagel is confined to her home with the mumps since Saturday.

Billy Voth, three-year-old son of the Ben Voths, sustained a broken arm Monday when he accidentally fell off the bed.

M. H. Grammer is back at his home in Myra after being a patient at Gainesville sanitarium for treatment after suffering a heart attack. He will be confined to bed about a month.

Miss Patsy Gremminger is confined to her home this week with the mumps. Also quite ill on account of mumps is Mrs. Earl Fisher.

Mrs. Frank Kaiser underwent surgery at Gainesville sanitarium Tuesday morning and will be a patient there about a week. Leona, 7, and Bill, 2, children of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Appel of Houston, who came to Muenster last week with their mother to visit relatives of the Fisher families, are quite ill in Gainesville sanitarium with a virus infection. Leona became ill Friday and was taken to Dallas for diagnosis. She was moved to Gainesville Monday. On that day Bill became ill and joined his sister in the sanitarium.

Nuptial Wednesday Unites Lillian Knabe And Herbert Fette

An impressive double ring marriage ceremony Wednesday morning at 8:30 united Miss Lillian Knabe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Knabe, and Cpl. Herbert Fette of Cheyenne, Wyoming, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fette. The nuptial service took place in Sacred Heart church with the pastor, Rev. Anthony Schroeder, officiating at the exchange of the marriage vows and at the nuptial high mass.

As the wedding guests assembled Miss Mary Ann Felderhoff presented a vocal solo, "Heart of Jesus". She was joined in the chorus by Willard Hartman. Anthony Luke, organist, played the accompaniment and remained at the organ to play the processional and to accompany the choir in singing The Mass of the Blessed Virgin. After the mass Miss Felderhoff, joined by Mr. Hartman, presented a hymn in honor of the Blessed Virgin.

The altar before which the couple exchanged their vows was banked with white and yellow gladioli and greenery. Four white baskets of daisies and two potted ferns held vantage spots in the sanctuary.

The bride entered the church on the arm of the bridegroom. She was a pretty picture in a ballerina-length dress of white bridal satin. The slim fitted bodice was designed with a high Peter-Pan collar, butterfly sleeves and self covered buttons down the front. The full skirt was box-pleated. Her shoulder-length veil and full length gauntlets were of chantilly lace, and she carried a white prayer book topped with a purple or-child showered with white satin streamers tied in love knots. For something borrowed she wore earrings belonging to Miss Ernie Zipper, and for something blue she carried a linen and lace handkerchief.

Miss Anselma Knabe was her sister's maid of honor, and Miss Florence Fette, niece of the groom, was bridesmaid. They wore identical ballerina-length dresses of printed organdy in tones of green and yellow, respectively, with fitted bodices, scalloped double collars and box pleated skirts. Ruffled halo hats of matching organdy and white nylon gloves completed their costumes and they carried colonial bouquets of Esther Reed daisies.

Jerry Fette, brother of the groom, was best man, and Alvin Hartman was groomsman. Jimmy Fette, nephew of the groom, was one of the mass servers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Knabe wore an aqua crepe dress with white accessories, and the groom's mother wore a navy sheer dress with black accessories. Both had shoulder corsages of wanda orchids.

After the church service, members of the bridal party, parents of the couple and the officiating minister were guests for breakfast in the Henry Fette home with Mmes. R. N. Fette and Joe Voth, as hostesses. The table appointments were of crystal and the centerpiece was an arrangement of pink roses. Six pink taffeta hearts were arranged to cross the center of the white linen laid board and miniature pink plastic inverted umbrellas filled with mints were favors.

At 1 p.m. a sumptuous dinner was served buffet style in the parish hall to members of both families. The bride's table carried out her colors of white, green and yellow and was centered with a large decorated wedding cake. Green and yellow candles flanked the cake and bowls of daisies adorned the long board.

Miss Clara Mages presided at the bride's book.

Throughout the hall baskets of daisies and arrangements of gladioli were used in decorating. An informal reception during the afternoon was concluded with the serving of a buffet supper. At night a wedding dance was held in the K of C hall with the Hogan Boys string band playing.

The bride is a native of this city and a graduate of Sacred Heart High school with the class of 1948. Cpl. Fette was born in Muenster, attended Sacred Heart grade school and graduated from high school at Subaco Academy in Arkansas in 1946. After his graduation he was employed as linotype operator for the Muenster Enterprise until he enlisted in the army air corps in August 1948. He took his basic training at Sheppard Air Force Base, served at Francis E. Warren Air Force Base for five months, then attended photographer's school at Lowry AFB in Denver, Colo. Since his graduation he is stationed at Francis E. Warren AFB. He is on a 17-day leave from army duty.

The couple's wedding trip will be their trip to Cheyenne, Wyoming, where he will report for duty on next Monday and where they will make their home. For traveling Mrs. Fette has a lavender printed silk dress with a white topper and other accessories in white.

Among out of town relatives at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Devers and sons of Valley View, Leonard Knabe of Borger, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meurer and Mrs. Henry Thoele and daughter, Miss Maxine of Windthorst.

Pre-Nuptial Party
 As a pre-nuptial courtesy the bride was honored with a miscellaneous shower and party last Thursday evening in the Ted Gremminger home with Misses Marilyn Gremminger and Rosalee Fuhrmann as co-hostesses. Fifteen guests presented gifts to the honoree and enjoyed games and refreshments.

Mariana Flusche and Sgt. Simeroth Wed Saturday at Decatur

Miss Mariana Flusche, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Flusche of Decatur, formerly of Muenster, became the bride of Sgt. Joe Perry Simeroth, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Simeroth of Porum, Okla., at 11 a.m. Saturday, June 10, in the Church of the Assumption in Decatur. The bridegroom is stationed at Carswell Air Base in Fort Worth.

Rev. Edward Devers, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony and officiated at the nuptial mass in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends of the couple. Rt. Rev. Msgr. L. J. Kempfhus of Memphis, Tenn., a close friend of the family, was present in the sanctuary.

Miss Juanita Weinzapfel of Muenster presided at the organ for the wedding marches and presented the other nuptial music. At the offertory she sang "Ave Maria" (Rosewig).

Mr. Flusche gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a white organdy wedding gown over taffeta. It was designed with a basque bodice and gathered skirt extending into a chapel length train. Her veil and gloves were of all-over lace and she carried a colonial bouquet of white roses.

Miss Della Flusche was her sister's maid of honor and Miss Jo Ann Flusche, also a sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. Their dresses were of yellow and blue organdy, respectively, designed similar to the bride's, and they wore matching picture hats. Their bouquets were of dyed daisies to match their dresses and their lace mitts were gifts from the bride.

Carl Simeroth of Porum was his brother's best man and Larry Flusche was junior groomsman. Arnold Flusche of Decatur, George Tate and Howard Boyd of Fort Worth were ushers and James Flusche was mass server.

Immediately after the wedding a brunch was served in the home of the bride's parents to about 40 guests. Msgr. Kempfhus gave a toast to the bridal couple.

At 2 o'clock a reception began in the Flusche home. The newlyweds cut their wedding cake and it was served with punch to about 100 guests. The home was decorated throughout with gladioli and daisies.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bernauer, Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel, Miss Juanita Weinzapfel, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Flusche, Mrs. Henry Henschel and Miss Verena Henschel of Muenster; Msgr. Kempfhus and Miss Frances Bernauer of Memphis, Tenn.; Mmes. C. D. Mitchell and T. L. Anderson of Gainesville.

After the couple returns from a wedding trip they will be at home in Fort Worth at 2319 Lipscomb. For traveling Mrs. Simeroth wore a blue linen two-piece suit and a corsage of daisies.

Mrs. Peter Bindel is back in Muenster after spending about a year in Windthorst. Her daughter, Mrs. Fred Steinberger, brought here to this city Friday and remained until Sunday to visit relatives.

ST. ANNE SOCIETY NAMES CONVENTION DELEGATES

At their regular meeting Sunday afternoon members of the Saint Anne's Society named Mmes. Ben Hellman, M. J. Endres, H. J. Fuhrmann and J.W. Fisher as delegates to the Catholic State League convention to be held in Lindsay July 23-24-25.

At the same time it was announced that members of the guest committee in Lindsay are desirous of knowing of any rooms available in Muenster for overnight guests to the convention and Mrs. M.J. Endres was appointed as local chairman. Anyone having rooms available is asked to notify Mrs. Endres this week, if possible, so that she can submit her list to the Lindsay committee.

Mrs. Tony Gremminger gave an interesting account of the NCCW meeting held in Gainesville last week and read a report of achievements accomplished by the three local women's societies during the past three months. A report is handed in at each quarterly meeting of the NCCW.

Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel spoke briefly on the retreat for women to be held in Denison this weekend and advised that she and Mrs. J. W. Fisher would be taking cars. Ladies interested in attending the retreat should get in touch with either Mrs. Weinzapfel or Mrs. Fisher.

Members discussed having a day of recollection here some Sunday in the fall and will make definite plans for that event later.

Thirty five members attended and Mrs. John Hartman won the attendance prize.

Weekend guests in the home of the J.W. Fletchers were her mother, Mrs. F. M. Shiflet of Pilot Point, Mrs. Shiflet's sister, Mrs. J. W. Honssinger of Lubbock, Mrs. J. A. You can haul more loads... more miles... for less... with Chevrolet Trucks

Take time out to talk to some Chevrolet truck users. You'll find it revealing. You'll discover that Chevrolet trucks pay their way by hauling more loads—more miles—for less! And you'll find that this extra measure of value is even more apparent in the new Chevrolet models. Definitely, they're America's first-choice trucks. Heavy-duty units feature a brand-new 105-h.p. Valve-in-Head engine with the power to pull heavy loads and conquer steep grades. They offer new Power-Jet carburetion for smoother, quicker operation. They bring you the fast, safe shifting of Chevrolet's 4-speed Synchro-Mesh transmission. But whatever your hauling requirements, Chevrolet trucks are your best bet. See them in our showroom. You'll agree.

WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER

By ED GOSSETT

WASHINGTON, D. C. June 9. —The most sensational news in Washington this week was made by the Supreme Court. On Monday the Supreme Court handed down numerous decisions, some of which will become historic.

In the Texas Tidelands Case the Court brushed aside all of our contentions and laid federal claim to all of the marginal sea within the described boundaries of Texas. It is my hope and belief that Congress will override the Supreme Court's actions in these tidelands cases. We will probably not get this job accomplished before the next session of Congress.

Three other cases decided by the Court give evidence of a social revolution that is going on in this country. Congress will probably do little or nothing to stop this revolution. In the Sweatt Case the Court held that the University of Texas must admit Negroes to her Law School. In the Henderson Case the Court held that separate facilities on trains for Negroes was unlawful.

In the McLaurin Case the Court held that Oklahoma University's separate seating of the Negro, McLaurin, in the classroom was discriminatory. In other words, these three cases in effect set the stage for outlawing all forms of segregation.

On the day following the Court's action in these cases, under the one minute rule, I made the following statement to the House of Representatives:

"Mr. Speaker. Yesterday might well be called 'Black Monday'. Yesterday's Supreme Court decisions in the Tidelands Cases, Sweatt Case, the Henderson Case and the McLaurin Case, mark a new low in Anglo-Saxon jurisprudence. The Supreme Court has definitely established itself as a political arm of those who would wittingly, or unwittingly, destroy Anglo-Saxon civilization.

"In the absence of congressional action, the Tidelands Case legalizes the theft of property by a superior sovereign. This however is a minor evil compared to the destruction of character which portends from the other decisions. States rights,

State laws and State constitutions are gradually being destroyed.

"If Solicitor General Perlman has his way, America will eventually be Communized. If the Perlman gang continues their successful attack upon American institutions, the Russians can one day take this country without firing a shot. The delivery of atomic secrets to the Russians by spies and traitors is of small consequence when compared to the destruction of American principles by executive fiat and judicial decree. Our foundations are rotting and are being eaten away.

"Mr. Speaker, I hope the gloom and pessimism to which I now succumb is not justified. I hope there is enough integrity and intelligence left in this country to stem the tide that now threatens to overwhelm us.

"However, Mr. Speaker, the time may well come when the inscription above the Supreme Court should be changed to read:

"Gas Chamber of American Liberties."

On February 22, 1832, speaking at a George Washington centennial birthday celebration, Daniel Webster had the following to say of constitutional government.

"Other misfortunes may be borne, or their effects overcome. If disastrous war should sweep our commerce from the ocean another generation may renew it; if it exhaust our treasury, future industry may replenish it; if it desolate and lay waste our fields, still, under a new cultivation, they will grow green again, and ripen to future harvests. It were but a trifle even if the walls of yonder Capitol were to crumble, if its lofty pillars should fall, and its gorgeous decorations be all covered by the dust of the Valley. All these might be rebuilt. But who shall reconstruct the fabric of demolished government? Who shall rear again the well-proportioned columns of constitutional liberty? Who shall frame together the skillful architecture which unites national sovereignty with States rights, individual security, and public prosperity? No, if these columns fall, they will be raised not again. Like the Coliseum and the Parthenon, they will be destined to a mournful, a melancholy immortality. Bitterer tears, however, will flow

The American Way

GRAPHIC ILLUSTRATION

By DeWitt Emery

Everyone, business man, farmer, wage earner, white collar worker and everyone else, has in one way or another felt the devastating effect of excessive taxation. A graphic illustration of how far this has gone, almost to the point of confiscation, is given by the current newspaper advertisements of the Union Oil Company of California.

In 1949, Federal, state and city taxes took 18% of the total income of the company. In other words, out of every dollar in sales 18% had to be used to pay taxes.

Stockholders, the real owners of the business (in fact, there wouldn't have been any Union Oil Company if these people hadn't put up the money to finance it), received only 5c per dollar of sales.

The employees of the company did almost three times as well as the stockholders, but still had to take a back seat to the tax collector. The employees received 14c per dollar of sales.

Could anything be more absurd or, for that matter, any more dangerous to our free enterprise system and our American way of life than for taxes to take almost exactly the same over them, than were ever shed over the monuments of Roman or Grecian art; for they will be the remnants of a more glorious edifice than Greece or Rome ever saw, the edifice of constitutional American liberty."

amount from the total revenue of the company as is paid the stockholders and the employees?

It's perfectly true that the services rendered by the various agencies of government which are supported by taxes do contribute something to the operation of the Union Oil Company or any company. But is this contribution worth as much in dollars or in any other measurement of value as is the contribution made by the stockholders who finance the company and the employees who run it?

The Union Oil Company has 37,245 stockholders. These people are the ones and the only ones who brought the company into existence and who keep it going with their investments.

Where did these stockholders get the money they put into this company? The chances are that in practically every case the money came from savings which were made possible by industrious, thrifty, even frugal living. These people put their faith in themselves and in our free enterprise system. They definitely do not belong to the group which spends every dollar it gets hold of because the government owes them a living and will take care of them, come what may, from the cradle to the grave.

Of course, what the tax collector takes from the company doesn't by any means tell the whole tax story. The employees have to pay taxes individually on the salary or wages they receive and the stockholders have to pay taxes on their dividends which materially increases the government's take.

The whole point is how much more of this can business and industry take without cracking wide open. If it cracks, what happens to all of us, wage earners, salaried employees, stockholders, professional people, in fact, our entire population?

That, my friends, is the $64 question.

The excessive taxation we are laboring under is based on extravagance, wasteful, unnecessary governmental expenditures. I have said before and I repeat with even more emphasis, if that's possible, that unless the big spending program of our Federal Government is drastically reduced in the immediate future, it can only result in a national collapse which would bankrupt you, me and everyone in the United States.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Oh—My Aching Feet!

Other night just as I was settling down with a book and a mellow glass of beer, the wife calls down, "Joe—I almost forgot—you and I age going over to the High School and take dancing lessons!"

Now, I can waltz with the best of them, so I put up a quiet struggle against going but it was no use. Turns out it was the class in square dancing. And from the look on some of the other men I judged I wasn't the only one there who had been taken by surprise!

Miss Williams and Curly Lawson taught us what to do with our feet, and before it was over, darn if I wasn't actually enjoying myself. Going back next week, too!

From where I sit, we sometimes get an idea into our head for or against something and then hang onto it for dear life. Whether it's square dancing, or the right to enjoy temperate beer or ale now and then, we owe it to ourselves as Americans to take an open-minded attitude—that's even after we make up our minds about it!

and nephew, Clara, Linda Lou
and Junior Brueggemeyer,

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rauscher and family of Valley View were Sunday dinner guests of their daughter and sister, Mrs.
Vincent Felderhoff and husband.

Sgt. Reynold Reiter is here to spend a 20-day furlough with his parents, the Clem Reiters.
He will report back to Hamilton
Field in California on July 30.

Al Kuntz and sons, Gene and John and Mr. and Mrs. A. E.
Barnes and daughter, all of Valley View spent last Monday in Wichita Falls.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Kubis of Lindsay is here staying with her greataunt, Mrs. J. S. Horn, who is recovering from recent surgery after a broken hip.

Mmes. Al Eberhart and M. J.
Endres will be hostesses for the regular social for Catholic Daughters of America next Thursday, June 22, in the parish hall and invite a full attendance.

Mrs. John Eberhart Jr. of Ol-ney, Ill., who was in Gainesville during the past week visiting at the bedside of her father, Jim Sparkman, visited relatives of her husband's families here before returning home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Carter visited the George Mollenkops and other friends here the latter part of last week enroute to New Castle, Wyoming, to make their home. Their daughter, Mrs.
Albert Steinberger and family
also reside in New Castle.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wilde and their daughters, Mmes. James ert is employed there and returned after a visit here. Reynold who is on army leave will return to Muenster with his mother.

Joe Fette and family drove to Dallas Sunday to visit Mrs.
Fette who was staying with her daughter, Miss Emily Fette. Mrs.
Fette is regaining her strength after recent surgery. She did not accompany her family home as previously expected and her young daughter, Della, remained in Dallas with her. Mrs. Fette and Della returned home Wednesday.

Catholic Daughters Have Silver Social

A silver social was held by members of the local court Catholic Daughters of America on Wednesday evening, June 7, at the home of Mrs. Ben Seyler.
The social took the form of a lawn party.

Mrs. Herman Fette, chairman in charge, and her committee members, Mmes. Paul Fisher, M. J. Endres and Joe Horn, were assisted by other members in arranging the evening's program.

Decorations stressed the court's colors of purple and gold and were noted in an attractive guest book presided over by Miss Olivia Stock, and on the refreshment table where Mrs. Nick Miller arranged an artistic centerpiece in fan shape.

The assemblage heard an interesting account of the recent biennial state convention in Laredo reported by Mrs. Lawrence Roberg grand regent, and Mrs. John Mosman, district deputy.

During the refreshment hour an entertainment program was presented. Miss Anselma Knabe and Billy Ben Boyles read the poems they wrote for entry in the CDA poetry contest. Miss Knabe's won first locally, then took first place in the state contest and is now entered in the national contest. Billy Ben's was second place winner in the local contest.

Little Misses Becky Mosman
and Elaine Sadler of Saint Jo presented a tap dance and a ballet number, and Sonny and Norman Jean Walterscheid entertained with accordion and vocal selections.

The hostesses served dainty refreshments to about 80 members and guests.

A free will silver offering, taken during the social, was placed in the court's general fund.

Miss Knabe's Poem Wins First Place in CDA State Contest

The poem, "Meditation" submitted by Miss Anselma Knabe in the annual Catholic Daughters of America poetry contest has been declared first place winner in state competition and has been forwarded as the Texas entry in the national CD of A competition, officers of the Muenster CD of A court announced this week.

In the local contest Billy Ben Boyles' entry, "The Holy Year," was judged second place winner. Billy is an 8th grade student at Sacred Heart School and Miss Knabe is a junior in Sacred Heart High School. Following are the two entries.

MEDITATION

I look upon the crucifix
And see Thee, Lord of all;
My eyes upon Thy face I fix,
Sweet Savior, hear my call.

Thy face is filled with kindness,
It shows but love for me;
Still in my human blindness,
I do naught to comfort Thee.

To gaze upon Thee, purest Lamb,
It oft would make me cry;
That I, poor sinner as I am,
Have nailed Thee there to die.

Oh Jesus, dearest Savior,
Let me ease the pain;
And win again Thy favor
Lest Thou shouldst die in vain.

—Anselma Knabe, '51

THE HOLY YEAR

'Tis the Holy Year of nineteen-fifty,
With our religion let's not be thrifty,
Our Holy Father says, "Let's not sleep",
Let's gather in the stray sheep."

He warns the oppressed not to be misled
By false promises of states which we'll dread.

The Holy Year is a time of repentance,
To renew our religion before our last sentence.

This New Year's Eve was started with class

Priests were permitted to offer mid-night mass.
The purpose to beg God's blessings this year
So all can live in peace and not in fear.
—Billy Ben Boyles

2 LOCAL SCOUTS GO TO PRE-JAMBOREE SESSION

To train for their activities at the National Boy Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge, Pa., late this month, Joseph Felderhoff and Randy Bayer joined six other Cooke county delegates on a weekend trip to Camp Wisdom, Grand Prairie.

One of their lessons at the pre-Jamboree training session was to learn to cook with charcoal. There will be no firewood available for Scout camp fires in historic Valley Forge.

To Randy Bayer came the honor of serving as a patrol leader on the jamboree trip. He will be in charge of a Texas troop. The boys leave June 24 for the jamboree.

GDA MEETING FEATURES OFFICER INSTALLATION

The installation of newly elected officers featured the regular monthly meeting of the Catholic Daughters of America in the K of C hall Friday night. Mrs. John Mosman, district deputy, presided at the impressive ritual.

During the business session, Mrs. Steve Moster, lecturer, was named program chairman and will arrange a short entertaining program to be held at each monthly meeting after the business session. Members also decided to have an attendance award at each meeting. To receive the award a number must be present when her name is called. If the member whose name is drawn is not present that award will be carried over and added to the next meeting's award until a winner is present.

Members agreed that during July and August meetings will begin at 8:30 instead of 8 o'clock.

70s and 80s Were Dark Era in Texas Wildlife History

AUSTIN, Texas — The dark era for Texas wildlife back in the 1870's and 1880's is described by A. S. Jackson, wildlife biologist for the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission, in the May issue of TEXAS GAME & FISH. His article, headed "When Game Was Plentiful," emphasizes that the doom of the once mighty herds was sealed by the advent of repeating rifles, models of 1873 and 1876.

Jackson's research yielded a Henrietta Journal item about a man "living near the Red River" killing 278 head of deer in a circumference of ten miles from his house." The San Antonio News on August 31, 1877, told about two brothers, in two weeks time, shooting 67 deer, 219 turkeys (104 in one day), 3 bears, 46 ducks and 30 quail and that they also bagged 275 pounds of wild honey.

A Hardin County newspaper, on July 21, 1878, quoted venison hams at 25 cents each. A Mason County news item carried in the Galveston Daily News on August 24, 1879, reported a man killed more than 100 deer "so far this year." The article continued: "Our woods are alive with deer and other game. We hear a number of men in this section who are following no other pursuit this year but that of killing deer (because) the skins when dressed bring a fancy price. One month later a news report stated that a Mason man "made $112 this year from deer pelts."

The Brownsville Cosmopolite on December 26, 1880, quoted the current price of mallard and teal ducks in the local markets at a little over four cents each. The same month, the Henrietta Shield stated that "A load of wild turkeys was brought to town last Sunday and sold at fifty cents apiece." But, about the same time, another quotation for turkeys was 25 cents each.

Jackson, in his graphic account of the wanton destruction, continued: "Throughout the newspaper record of game slaughters was found no note sounding the word conservation. Indeed, public opinion seems to have been asleep to what was happening."

Then Jackson concludes: "If one is sickened after reading the entire collection of notes at one sitting, he must be at the same time heartened by the changes which have followed, changes which reflect by contrast, an awareness on the part of news editors to wildlife, values and needs, and an awakened public consciousness."

Flock Mortality is Biggest Handicap to Texas Poultrymen

COLLEGE STATION.— Laying hens are not so fortunate as the "proverbial cat". They have one life to live and the length of that life, says professor E. D. Parnell, department of poultry husbandry, Texas A & M College System, may well determine whether the poultryman uses black or red ink for his book-keeping job.

If you're an average poultryman, Parnell hopes you are not, you lost 17 percent of your growing turkeys and almost 20 percent of your laying chicken hens during 1949. That was on a national basis but the record in Texas was even worse. He says 24 percent of all laying hens in Texas die sometime during their first year of egg production. Poultrymen, he points out, who suffer such flock losses are burning or burying their poultry profits with the dead hens.

He says there are lots of good drugs available to help with the fight against diseases but their use is only a part of the answer. Preventive practices must be used more widely, he believes so the poultry just will not have any excuse for getting sick.

Here are some practices that poultrymen have found mighty effective for preventing disease outbreaks, says Parnell. When new birds, unless it's day old stock, or when birds are returned from shows or contests, keep them isolated for a few days and watch them closely for possible disease outbreaks. If one occurs, never add them to the flock.

Keep the young and old stock completely separated at all times. This is one place where segregation pays off. Such a practice may be hard to follow on many farms but it pays big dividends.

Use deep, dry litter in the poultry house. If the litter is kept dry and the mud puddles are eliminated, disease germs will have a hard time surviving on the farm. A good sanitation program plus close checking, immediate treatment or removal from the flock of all possible disease carriers, says Parnell will go a long way toward keeping a lot of the young hens that die every year on the job. And this in turn can materially increase your poultry profits.

A lady drove to the automobile dealer's to complain that her new car was using up too much gas. The dealer pointed to the choke button which was pulled out from the dash. "Do you know what that is for?" he asked.

"Oh, that," said the woman airily. "I never use it, so I keep it pulled out to hang my handbag on."

Kammerdiener-Krahl Wedding Solemnized In Gainesville

Miss Nancy Dee Kammerdiener and Martin Krahl exchanged marriage vows on Monday, June 5, in St. Mary's church in Gainesville, with Rev. Peter Molloy, pastor, officiating at the single ring ceremony and at the nuptial mass.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kammerdiener and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Krahl, all of route 1, Gainesville.

Miss Ann Gallagher, church organist, played the wedding marches and accompanied the choir in other nuptial music including 'Ave Maria' and 'O Lord I Am Not Worthy', at the offertory and the communion. Entering on the arm of the groom, the bride was attractively gowned in white eyelet embroidered organdy. The fitted bodice was accented with a V neckline emphasized with a double collar, and the straight fitted sleeves came to petal points over her hands. A white orchid surrounded by lilies formed the colonial bouquet that she carried.

The bridal veil added a note of sentiment. It was borrowed from her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ted Schniederjan. For something blue she wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the groom.

Miss Frances Streng, cousin of the groom, was bridesmaid and Miss Lydia Krahl, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. They wore taffeta frocks in shades of yellow and lavender, respectively, with corsages of daisies.

Eddie Krahl, best man, and Charlie Kammerdiener, brothers of the couple, attended the groom. Emmett Sicking and Ted Schniederjan were ushers.

Festivities for the day included breakfast and dinner in the home of the groom's parents, and a reception in the parish hall. About 75 relatives and friends attended the dinner and reception. The bride's table, covered with lace, held a four-tier wedding cake, flanked with red roses and greenery. Miss Laura Streng presided at the bride's book. At the reception Miss Billy Marie Witt served the cake after the couple cut it, and Miss Eugenia Holly presided at the punch service.

During the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Krahl left on a wedding trip to tour Colorado. They will make their home in Myra when they return.

Mr. Krahl was born and educated in Scotland, Texas, and Mrs. Krahl, a native of Gainesville is a member of this year's graduating class of Gainesville High School.

Among out of town wedding guests were Messrs. and Mmes. R. Lindemann and daughters, Alphonse Prescher and children, Joe Prescher and Arthur Miller and daughter, all of Scotland; Messrs. and Mmes. John Streng, Thomas Sicking and Joe Luttmir, and Misses Stella and Clara Streng of Muenster; Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Sicking and daughter, Joan, of Myra.

MRS. J. E. KLEMENT HOSTESS TO GET-TOGETHER CLUB

Mrs. J. E. Klement entertained members of the Get-Together Club in her home on the first Wednesday of the month for the regular social.

The party rooms were decorated with seasonal flowers and four tables were arranged for a progressive 42 series. At the conclusion of the series prizes were presented to Mrs. Joe Luke for high score, Mrs. John Hartman for low tally and to Miss Anna Hellman who secured the galloping award.

Sunshine pal birthday gifts were received by Mmes. Clarence Hellman and Joe Horn.

The hostess served a delicious plate supper to members and two guests, Mmes. Bill Becker and Marty Klement.

Mrs. Joe Luke will entertain the club for the meeting in July.

Thursday guests of the Ervin Hamrics were his sister, Mrs. G. E. Garrett, and cousin, Mrs. Leroy Scott, of Houston. Burt and Dan Hamric accompanied them when they left for Oklahoma City to visit relatives and spent the weekend with their aunt, Mrs. Ruby Pace.

HAVERKAMP-STURM RITES ANNOUNCED FOR JUNE 27

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Haverkamp have announced the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Bertha, to Johnnie Sturm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sturm of Gainesville.

The couple has set June 27 for the date of the wedding. It will be solemnized in Sacred Heart church at 8:30 a.m.

Meanwhile a series of pre-nuptial courtesies are being planned for the bride-to-be.

Ernie Zipper of Dallas spent the weekend with her parents, the R. M. Zippers.

Russell Kline of Tulsa, Okla., visited here several days during the past week with the George Mollenkopf family. He is a nephew of L. V. Henry of Gainesville where he also visited.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pels and three sons left Monday for a vacation trip to points in Colorado, Iowa and Kansas.

Marilyn Gremminger of Wichita Falls was here for a weekend visit with her parents, the Ted Gremmingers.

LINDSAY, TEXAS

Some of the cooperators of the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District have finished harvesting their grain crop and are busy plowing the land in preparation to seeding a summer legume crop. Chinese Red peas and Guar are legumes that will be used to produce a green manure crop. Chinese Reds will grow fast and produce a lot of green top growth which can be turned under in time for the fall seeding of grain.

H. D. Embry of the Clear Creek Soil Conservation Group has alternated his rows of corn with rows of summer peas for soil improvement.

George Bayer and Alphonse Luke have used volunteer vetch for hay. The vetch volunteered in oats and the two crops were baled together. The combination makes a good hay. Vetch is a five-way crop. It is used to furnish winter grazing. It is a legume soil building crop and benefits the soil even more when used as a green manure crop. It may be used for hay or it may be turned into a cash crop by harvesting the seed. Besides these advantages it is a good honey crop because it stays in bloom for a long period.

The deadline on the Muenster State Bank waterway and Pasture contest is drawing near and many of the plantings are in need of maintenance. A mowing now will greatly improve the appearance and growth of the Bermuda grass and Buffalo grass on many of the waterways and earn the owner a few more points.

Eugene Klement has mowed part of his waterway and intends to finish the job as soon as possible. Clem Hofbauer and Paul Endres have also mowed the weeds and Johnson grass on their waterways.

This has been a good grass year and native grass meadows have made an excellent growth. Cutting the meadows now, or in the near future is desirable from two standpoints. A cutting now will result in a higher protein hay, than can be obtained from a later cutting. Young plants have a higher protein than more mature plants. An early cutting will allow the grass to recover enough to produce seed to thicken the stand and to maintain the vigor of the old plants. Grazing a meadow after haying it thins the grass by preventing extra growth and reseeding. Good grass meadow management requires an early cutting and no grazing until after the first killing frost.

A new roof has been put on the Ted Redman farm home northwest of the city this week.

John Myrick has gone to Artesia, N. M., to spend the summer and work with his uncle, Jim Miller.

Rev. Edward Devers of Decatur visited members of the Fisher families here from Sunday through Thursday.

Father David Flusche of Subiaco, Ark., is doing parish work in Sherman for a few weeks. He visited relatives and friends here Monday.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfonso Koesler were Mr. and Mrs. Max Koesler Sr., Michael Koesler, and Mr. and Mrs. Max Koesler Jr., all of Vinita, Okla. The Oklahomans also visited relatives of the Fuhrman families and one night Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Hess entertained with a party in their honor. About 40 relatives from Lindsay and Muenster were present.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bezner have as their guest their grandson, Joe Bezner of Detroit, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bezner and family of Franklin, Texas, spent the weekend with his mother and other relatives.

Mrs. Anna Wiese is in Muenster since Wednesday to spend several days with Mrs. M. J. Endres.

Miss Betty Lou Bezner is back at home for the summer following completion of her sophomore year at Our Lady of the Lake College in San Antonio.

Robert and Margaret Gruber returned from a vacation trip to Florida Monday evening and Margaret has until July 3 when she returns to her work in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Jesse Galvan and daughter, Peggy, have gone to Dallas to visit relatives and will return to their home in San Antonio from there. While here they visited Mrs. Galvan's mother, Mrs. Joe Bezner and other relatives.

A dinner in observance of her birthday honored Mrs. Rufus Bezner Sunday in the home of her parents, the J. B. Wildes. Immediate members of the family and the honoree's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Eberhart, were guests.

Mrs. Anna Wiese has returned from a week's visit in Fort Worth where she was guest of her son Vincent and family, and the Al Bierschens in whose home she made the acquaintance of her new great-nephew, Stephen Wayne.

The word "Texas" is derived from the Indian greeting "Teh-las", which meant "Hello, Friend". Hence the reference to Texas as meaning "friendly".

All of the honor couple's children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren except one son, Bob of Ada, Okla., who was unable to attend, and one grandchild, Mrs. Adolph Knabe, and little son, of Hereford, who could not be present, joined in the reunion.

Of the 18 children of Mr. and Mrs. Hoedebeck four died in early childhood and one daughter, Cecilia, died at the age of 20 years.

The living children are: Mrs. Clem Reiter, Frank and Norbert Hoedebeck of Muenster; Leo of Gainesville; Mrs. Alfred Spurgeon of Oklahoma City; Roy, Eugene, Alfred and Mrs. J. M. Howell, all of Denison; Joe of San Diego, Calif.; Cletus of Dallas; Father Paul of Subiaco, Ark., and Bob of Ada Oklahoma. There are 33 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Out of Town Guests

Among out of town guests, from more distant places, were Messrs. and Mmes. Cletus Hoedebeck and family of Dallas; Eugene, Alfred, and Ray Hoedebeck and their families, John Howell and A. C. Flusche and Mrs. Lillian Sacra, all of Denison; Messrs. and Mmes. Joe Hoedebeck and daughter, Buddy Coker and child, Hulen Coker and son and Dillard Kerbs and son, all of San Diego, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Spurgeon and four children, Mrs. Eckroat, her daughter, Mildred and children, and Margaret Eckroat, all of Oklahoma City; Oklahoma Mr. and Mrs. George Lowry and Mrs. Sarah Coker of Tishomingo; Sgt. Reynold Reiter of Hamilton Field, Calif.; Robert Reiter of Hereford; Mr. and Mrs. John Weber of Cincinnati, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Schroeder and son of Windthorst; Rt. Rev. Abbot Paul Nahlen and Rev. Fathers Paul Hoedebeck and David Flusche of Subiaco, Ark.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Rebentish of Dallas were here the latter part of the week to visit her sisters and brother, Mmes. L. A. Bernauer and John Meurer and Frank Kaiser.

Mrs. L. W. Flusche and daughters, Della and Jo Ann, of Decatur, and their guests, Msgr. L. J. Kempfues and Miss Frances Bernauer of Memphis, Tenn., visited here Monday as guests of the L. A. Bernauers.

Rev. Herman Laux, former Muenster pastor, now of Altus, Ark., visited here Monday morning. He spent until Tuesday in Lindsay with his parents and other relatives and then left to join Rt. Rev. Edward Burgert of Windthorst on a vacation trip to Colorado, Utah and other points of interest. Accompanying Father Herman to this city was Tommy Moster who returned home after a week's visit in Subiaco and Altus.

100 RELATIVES GATHER FOR REUNION SUNDAY

A family reunion for members of the Fisher, Pulte, and Knauf families brought together about 100 relatives.

The group gathered at the Valley Creek school house bringing basket lunches for a picnic feast and after the meal enjoyed informal diversion, visiting and picture taking.

All of the Joe Fisher Sr. children were here for the occasion including Miss Ida Fisher of Compton, Calif., Capt. and Mrs. Charles Taylor and children of Dayton, Ohio, and Mrs. Leo Appel and children of Houston. Mrs. Appel, unfortunately could not be with the group because two of her children became ill with virus infection after they came to this city and she was with them at Gainesville sanitarium.

Special recognition was given during the meal to Mrs. Paul Fisher and Miss Louise Pulte, who observed their birthdays.

Gainesville relatives present were Messrs. and Mmes. Charles, Ed, Joe and William Pulte and their families and Leo Schmitz and family. Another out of town guest was Rev. Edward Devers of Decatur.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Smith and daughter Sibyl Elaine, of Hot Springs, Ark., and Mr. and Mrs. W.A. McKay and Peggy of Lubbock spent the weekend here with the ladies' brother, Marvin Morrison, and with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Luebbert and daughters of Fort Worth spent the weekend visiting the Bill Stelzers here and his parents at Lindsay. Mrs. Luebbert's mother, Mrs. Anna Havis, returned to Muenster after spending four weeks in Fort Worth.

the solution. What Texas needs to do is wake up and realize that nothing will ever be accomplished by mere yapping as long as it continues to support the hay-wire element of national politics.

As Allen Duckworth of the Dallas Morning News pointed out Sunday, we're only getting what we voted for. Back in 1948 we all were told quite plainly what the present Democratic party stands for. Truman and his cronies made no bones about the tidelands and civil rights issues, but Texas voted for him. At this very time Truman makes no bones about his desire to get rid of the legislators who have stood with the South in defense of traditional democracy and a crowd of Texas numb-skulls hand him a $100,000 check to help do his job. How's that for absurdity?

But let's not be too downhearted about this thing. Instead, let's notice the encouraging trends indicated in a few primary elections in various parts of the country in recent weeks. Almost invariably the result has been the same. Harry's fair haired queer deal boys are losing ground to the conservative straight thinking Americans. Really it should have been rather humiliating to his royal nibs after that "triumphal" non-political jaunt of a few weeks ago.

It's beginning to look as though the country is getting fed up with pinks, perverts, potatoes, and Pendergastism.
