Knights Admit 23 New Members in Initiation Sunday

Twenty three new members joined the ranks of the Knights of Columbus in a district K of C initiation held here last Sunday.

Four of the candidates, Father Cletus Post, Glenn Hellman, John Fisher and James Knabe joined as members of the Muenster Council. The other 19, consisting mostly of Perrin AFB personnel joined as members of the Sherman and Denison councils.

The initiation was the featured event of an all day program beginning with group attendance at the 8 o'clock mass and breakfast in the lunch room. After First Degree ceremonies in the KC hall knights were joined by their ladies for dinner in the lunch room after which the K or C's continued with the second and third degrees of their initiation.

At the dinner Grand Knight Herbert Meurer was toastmaster and Matt Theisen of Muskogee, former Muenster resident and past state deputy of Oklahoma was the principal speaker. Other speakers were Fathers Anthony Schroeder and Cletus Post and District Deputy J. W. Fisher.

After the initiation members and ladies assembled in the KC hall for a lunch and party.

During the initiation visiting ladies were entertained by a committee of Catholic Daughters in the home of Mrs. Ben Seyler.

News of Sick And Injured

Fred Hennigan returned Tuesday evening from Gainesville sanitarium where he was a patient several days for a check-up and medical treatment.

Mrs. Ben Hellman is up and around after a week's illness of flu.

Mrs. Thomas Felderhoff is recovering nicely from an operation for appendicitis performed last week Thursday at Gainesville sanitarium.

Ray Wilde underwent dental surgery in Dallas Monday.

Alvin Hartman returned home Monday from Oklahoma City where he was a hospital patient a week and had an operation and treatments to correct an old injury to his right elbow. He is doing fine but is still taking penicillin treatments and will return for a check-up next Wednesday. In the meantime he is off duty at the Enterprise office.

Harry Sicking returned from Fort Worth Tuesday after spending 10 days in Harris Memorial Hospital for an operation to remove more bone from his forehead. He received serious injuries in an oil field accident on March 5 and underwent an operation for removal of crushed bone at that time. When he advances farther in his recovery he will require another operation to insert a metal plate in place of the missing bone. Specialists at the hospital estimated it will be about six months before the operation can be performed. Meanwhile Harry is up and around but is not permitted to work. His mother, Mrs. Henry Sicking, stayed in Fort Worth with him while he was hospitalized.

Illness confines Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel to her home this week.

Mrs. Frank Seyler was improved Wednesday after being seriously ill with pneumonia and a heart ailment in Gainesville sanitarium. She was taken to the hospital last Friday with pneumonia and the heart trouble afflicted her later. Her daughter Mrs. Elwyn Hope of Fort Worth is nursing her and her other children including the H. P. Hennigans of Albuquerque and the Terrell Johnsons of Dallas attended her bedside. They returned to their homes Wednesday.

WITHOUT BATTING AN EYE—The child, above, isn't handling little kittens. She is calmly packing live bats. The girl is part of a group collecting 700 hibernating bats in the depths of unused Black Ball Mine near Utica, Ill. The flying mammals are gathered in jars and poured into boxes for shipment to research organizations. The mine will be used as a vault—if the present tenants can be ejected.

75 Attend Annual Father-Son Banquet Given by FFA Boys

Twenty-two fathers and about 30 other persons were guests Tuesday night at the annual Muenster FFA Father-Son banquet held in the study hall of Muenster High School. The meal, financed by the local FFA chapter, was prepared and served by the FHA girls under the supervision of Miss Ruby Kelly.

County Superintendent Hubert Moss, speaker of the banquet, gave a historical account of the progress of modern scientific agriculture emphasizing the many opportunities offered in present classroom study on methods of profitable farming, stock raising and conservation.

Glenn Hellman gave a summary of the chapter's supervised projects, which are estimated to have a total value of $7600. The high value, he explained, is due more to the quality than the quantity of projects.

Toastmaster Emmett Walterscheid opened the program by calling on Rev. Anthony Schroeder for the invocation. Jeanette Fisher gave a piano solo after which Wilfred Klement extended the chapter's welcome and Arthur Hellman responded for the dads. Following Glenn Hellman and Superintendent Moss, Brother Bill Hodges closed the program with benediction.

Two surprise events on the program were the presentation of an official FFA jacket and tie to Instructor Ralph Maglaughlin by the FFA boys and the presentation of a vase to the FHA girls for their home-making department.

Special guests were L. I. Samuel, Area 5 FFA supervisor of Arlington, the instructors and presidents of the Era, Valley View and Saint Jo FFA chapters, members of the local school board, men teachers of the public school, and several Muenster business men.

Wolf Hotel Porch Destroyed by Fire

A fire discovered about 5:15 Wednesday afternoon destroyed a wooden back porch on the Wolf Hotel but the timely arrival of firemen prevented any serious damage to the main part of the building.

The blaze started in the lower part of a 2 story addition and high winds rapidly fanned it into a roaring fire. However the accessibility which favored the flames also favored the firemen. They had no trouble getting to the fire and got it under control in a few minutes.

Flames spread through one window into a room and ruined several quilts stored there.

VFW is Ready to Erect Safety Sign

A traffic safety sign sponsored by the Muenster VFW Post in cooperation with the county-wide safety campaign sponsored by the Gainesville Rotary club has been completed and probably will be erected before the end of this week.

Doyle Hood, appointed by the VFW to take charge of erecting the sign, said it will be located north of the highway in front of the Hennigan Garage.

The sign is similar to that on the court house lawn at Gainesville except that it mentions the local VFW post instead of the Rotary Club as sponsors. Like the other it has a green traffic light to burn for deathless days in the county and a red light that will burn 2 days for every traffic death. Prominently displayed is the message "Keep the Green Light burning — Don't cause the Red Light to burn for you". Another part of the sign will show deaths to date this year in the city, the county and the state.

Air Force Ready for More Enlistments

Air Force enlistments were thrown wide open today as the quota system, in operation since January, was suspended.

Sgt. 1st Herbert Mulkey, commanding the Sherman U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station, said all volunteers for the Air Force will be accepted. Previously the 37 counties in North Texas serviced by the Dallas Main Station had been limited to six a day.

The quota was imposed after recruiting stations were mobbed in January and training facilities were stretched to the limit. Lackland Air Force Base near San Antonio, central training base for this area, at one time had twice as many airmen as the base was originally set up to handle.

Increased training facilities have made it possible for the Air Force to take the lid off enlistments for the time being, Mulkey reported.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Yosten and daughter, Karen, spent the weekend in Houston with her sister, Mrs. Ray Stewart and family. Stewart, a member of the air corps reserve, has been recalled for service with duty in Korea. His wife and children will come to Muenster next week for a visit with her parents, the Henry Wiesmans.

Guests of the F. J. Yostens and Steve Mosters Sunday were Mrs. Yosten's sister and husband, the Tony Bergers and two daughters, Stella and Doris, and Joe Pavlicek, all of Tours.

Humble Station Has $1800 Fire Damage

Fire of undetermined origin on Wednesday night of last week caused about $1800 worth of damage at the Hamric Humble Station.

Stan Wylie driving past the station about 11 o'clock discovered the fire in its early stage and reported to the telephone office immediately. A few minutes later firemen were on the job fighting the flame while it was still confined mostly to the station's front office.

R. E. Hamric estimates that his loss of about $1200 is evenly divided in merchandise and equipment. Office furniture, a cash register, an adding machine, an electric power wrench and several smaller items will need expensive repairs and practically all merchandise in the room was ruined. Damage to the station, owned by Herbert Meurer, also was estimated at about $600. It required several new windows, ceiling and electrical repairs, several spots of new plaster, general cleanup and painting. Both Hamric and Meurer have their losses partly covered by insurance.

Repairs, now under way, are expected to be complete about the end of next week.

WITH THE MEN IN SERVICE

Pvt. Alvin Fuhrman returned to Fort Hood Thursday after spending a 10 day leave with his parents and family. He is a member of the Second Armored Division and will leave Fort Hood when his outfit is moved.

Pvt. Gerald Bayer, US 54056497 Co. D, M. P. R.C.T., 8801-1 TSU, Camp Gordon, Ga. That's Gerald's address and he's training to be a military policeman, according to a letter to his parents, the Frank Bayers.

Since April 1 it's Private First Class Julian Walterscheid. The promotion was made at Chanute AFB, Ill., where he is enrolled in a welding school.

Pat Stelzer recently received a promotion and is now a captain in the army air corps. The new rating was given in Japan where he is on duty in food service. His Australian born wife and their two children are living in Japan with him. They have been there about a year and will remain there another year.

J. L. Cole, airman apprentice, left Thursday to return to Whidbey Island, Washington, after spending his first leave with his parents, the Earl Coles. He had just completed a special course with the navy air corps and was to receive a new assignment when he reported back to his station.

Muenster Hi Team Loses First Three

Losing 14 to 21 at Boyd Tuesday afternoon the Muenster High baseball team extended its losing streak to three straight. For a while the boys appeared headed for their first win as they led 12 to 5 in the fifth, but the team went to pieces after a few tough breaks.

Other losses were to Paradise 8 to 0 last Friday and to Saint Jo 9 to 0 the preceding Tuesday.

Next games on the schedule are Chico there Friday and Bridgeport here next Tuesday.

MHS Choir to Sing at Whitesboro Sunday

The Muenster High School choir, under the direction of Miss Juanita Weinzapfel, will sing the high mass at the Whitesboro Catholic Church next Sunday at 10. The occasion is a special service in connection with Confirmation ceremonies to be administered by Most Rev. Bishop A. Daglmayr.

The choir sang here last Monday at a high mass commemorating the octave of the feast of Saint Joseph.

Sicking, Wimmer Are Big Winners In School Election

B. J. Sicking and J. J. Wimmer were the winners last Saturday in what was probably the most active school trustee election in the history of this district. Out of the total of 581 votes cast Sicking received 364 and Wimmer 352 while Frank Schilling received 217 and Paul Endres 211.

As a result Sicking continues for another three year term as a member of the board and Wimmer succeeds J. B. Klement, who declined to seek reelection because of his heavy work schedule as Commissioner of Precinct 4.

The heavy local ballot also returned Ben Seyler to the county school board as the representative of Commissioner's Precinct No. 4. Voters here gave him a sweeping majority over Jimmie Cole by a count of 378 to 59. In combined returns from Myra, Lindsay and Sivells Bend Cole led Seyler 28 to 26.

Rich R. Kirby was unopposed as candidate for Precinct 3 representative on the county school board.

At Myra Ike Fulton and Lester Bridges were unopposed for re-election on the school board.

At Lindsay Pete Block won 20 to 1 over Herman Zimmerer.

Don't Dump Trash On Right of Way, Commissioners Ask

Members of the county commissioner's court this week issued a general request to all residents of the county to "please refrain from dumping rubbish on the county road right of way."

Their request followed the appearance of several county farmers asking that the court take action to stop dumping on the right of way beside their farms.

The men's complaint, Commissioner J. B. Klement explained, is that the junk is unsightly and unsanitary and that high water scatters it over their land where it can cause injury to livestock and damage to farm equipment. A special nuisance is junk that fouls up mowers sickles in an alfalfa field.

Klement added that commissioners also have their troubles with the junk. Broken glass and sharp pieces of steel in the drainage ditches sometimes cause damage to equipment tires and if graded to the road surface it becomes a hazard to all traffic.

Unless the public cooperates in eliminating this nuisance the court will be forced to take legal action.

Clean-up Postponed To Next Wednesday

The city cleanup has been postponed from Saturday, April 14, to Wednesday, April 18.

Mrs. Tony Gremminger, chairman of the Garden Club's clean-up committee, advised this week that no truck will be available to collect the trash on Saturday. Dick Cain has offered the use of his truck any time except Friday and Saturday and Mrs. Gremminger, after consulting with Scoutmaster Nick Miller has set the date for Wednesday, after school.

As usual Boy Scouts will pick up trash bags and boxes from curbs and load them on the truck.

Mrs. Ben Hellman learned this week that her son, Gus Hellman and wife, lost their home in Corpus Christi and most of their household goods in a fire. They saved only their clothing and a few items of furniture.

Schedule of Coming Events

FRIDAY, April 13, CDA meeting at 8 p.m. in the K of C hall followed by social.

The big shots in Washington continue to befuddle their wishy washy policies with foggy thinking. Now they are deploring the disagreement between our two top generals of the Korean war without stopping to consider that the statements are unrelated and do not necessarily indicate that the two men are in disagreement at all.

General Ridgeway is credited with the remark that peace will have to be achieved by diplomacy, and MacArthur draws the administration's criticism for stating that the way to win in Asia is to support a Nationalist Chinese invasion of the Chinese mainland.

To our way of thinking the statements are on two entirely different subjects. One refers to complete victory and the other only to a cessation of hostilities . . . and both make darn good sense.

MacArthur himself and lots of people in this country agree with Ridgeway that our chance of military success in Korea is slim . . . as long as we have to fight under present handicaps. If Reds are permitted to enjoy a sanctuary in Manchuria, the best we can ever accomplish is a stalemate, and the only means of attaining peace is through diplomacy.

On the other hand Ridgeway can be and probably is in complete agreement with Mac's opinion that the Reds of China and all-Asia can be completely defeated by turning loose the trained troops of Chiang Kai Shek.

If all circumstances are actually the way they appear on the surface, we're convinced that Truman and Acheson and other moguls with the final say-so ought to have their heads examined. It's hard to imagine a more welcome relief to our war strain than the sudden entry of more than half a million fresh, trained and determined men on our side of the fight. At the same time it's hard to imagine a more dependable estimate of those men's chances than the opinions of MacArthur and Chiang, who probably know more about the Asiatic set up than the combined brains of all Washington.

Our country's official attitude looks silly indeed, and the very fact that it appears to be so silly encourages this column to continue believing that our present policy isn't our real policy at all. Developments may be more to our liking when the time finally comes to reveal our plans.

In relation to Mac's proposal we must bear in mind that our administration, if it agrees, cannot afford to admit agreement until the day the attack is launched. Imagine how effective the plan would be if Truman sent his assurance that it is agreeable, and we'll have equipment to Formosa as soon as possible. Chiang would find quite a reception committee of Reds waiting for him on the Chinese mainland.

Hence this column's opinion on the Chinese Nationalist affair remains optimistic, and only history can tell whether the optimism is justified.

While we're sweating out the answer we can only say that the administration is either exercising admirable patience in enduring a lot of undeserved abuse or it is being hopelessly pig-headed. Events have proved that our policy on the Chinese civil war was all wrong and indications now are that the administration is simply too stubborn to admit the boner and correct the injustice of a few years ago. We hope and still believe that this stubbornness is an act for Stalin and his cronies and the final revelation will be the good news we've awaited all along.

Until then let's hope that the controversy can be kept sufficiently under control to avoid a strain on this country's morale.

Some 100 relatives and friends joined the honor couple in celebrating the event. After the presentation of anniversary gifts to the honorees the guests enjoyed games, music, singing and refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Fuhrman have lived in Muenster eight years coming here from Lindsay where they spent 19 years. They lived at St. Jo, Iowa, for the first three years after their marriage.

Mrs. Fuhrman is the former Elsie Flusche. She married Mr. Fuhrman at St. Jo, Iowa, on March 29, 1921. Attendants at their wedding were her sister, Clara, now Mrs. Carl Gimple of Valley View, and H. S. Fuhrmann of Lindsay. They were present at the anniversary party. Mrs. Fuhrman was presented with a bouquet and Mrs. Gimple with a corsage for the occasion.

Mr. Fuhrman engages in farming and dairying. The family lives northeast of town. There are six children, Bill, Alvin, Mrs. Gilbert Endres, Rosalee, Coralee and Jerry. Alvin is a private in the army stationed at Fort Hood as a member of the Second Armored Division. He was at home on his first leave and attended the celebration.

In addition to relatives and friends from Cooke County the guests included the A. C. Flusches of Denison.

Mrs. Frankye Shields will be hostess for the next meeting.

Improvements At Bulcher Inspected By County Agents

Community improvements at Bulcher were checked by county agents recently in connection with the state-wide Rural Community Progress contest sponsored by the Farmer Stockman magazine.

Those at Bulcher included B. T. Haws, county agent; Bernice Puckett, home demonstration agent; W. I. Glass and Lida Cooper of Denton, district agents; Ed McKay, Hunt county agent; and Mrs. Aubrey Russell, Hunt home demonstration agent.

Meeting the party for an inspection tour were E. Newby, chairman of the improvement contest; Mrs. Johnnie West, vice chairman; Mrs. R. H. Sharp, secretary, and Mrs. E. Newby recreation chairman.

They visited places where improvements had been made including the Earl Robison's new home and farm buildings, the Calip Cannon home, and the homes of R. J. Samples, J. M. Shields and Buck Pickett. They noted roadside fencing, road signs and name plates on mail boxes in the area.

The group then inspected the park and playground, the community center building and the newly erected church.

During the morning coffee and strawberry shortcake were served.

The visitors were highly complimentary of work done, Mr. Haws said, and gave pointers on what might be done during the coming year. The visitors said that Bulcher was one of the outstanding communities in the contest in which 16 are participating. Seven of the communities will compete in the state judging.

WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER

By ED GOSSETT

Washington, D. C., April 7—The Senate this week finished the so-called "great debate." It perhaps was not a very great debate after all and no one is sure what, if anything, was accomplished. Of more importance perhaps, is the debate now going on in the House on the so-called Manpower Bill, i.e., the draft and universal military training bill all rolled into one. Congress is certain to extend the draft. There is much opposition to the present provisions in the bill on universal military training. The bill, in brief, provides that a commission be appointed by the President with power to draw up a Universal Military Training bill. This commission would report a bill to Congress and if Congress did not repudiate the bill by resolution within 60 days of its submission, it would become law. Many of us feel that this is an unwise delegation of legislative power and that Congress, and not some commission appointed by the President, should write UMT legislation. We do not want Anna Rosenberg doing it. It is hoped this provision of the bill will be changed before final passage.

In the newsletter he is mailing out this week, my colleague Congressman Olin Teague, of College Station, discusses a UMT bill he has drawn. Of his bill, he says: "Under this UMT program, the average youngster would be liable for 4 months basic military training in a special training corps in his eighteenth year. Immediately upon completion of basic training he would have to elect one of nine alternate programs to enter to fulfill the balance of his UMT requirements. Among these alternates are additional active duty; entry into one of the reserve programs; entry into an officer training program (including college ROTC) or entry into a university for military technical or specialist training. The program would be directed by a civilian commission to be appointed by the President. The main advantages of this program would be that (a) it is definite and would allow the youngsters and their families to make definite plans; (b) it would not be necessary to interrupt a youngster's education or career since 4 months basic training could be taken during a summer and an alternate program selected which should fit in with whatever plans he had; (c) the program would be controlled and directed by civilians; and (d) the program would build a large, trained reservoir of manpower on a permanent democratic basis."

I agree substantially with Congressman Teague. It has always been my contention that a UMT program should, first, be controlled by civilians, and secondly, it should give to the young man at least a half dozen alternate methods through which he could satisfy the requirements. It should be designed to be the least disruptive of normal living and designed to build character and intellect, as well as train the youngsters to fit into a useful slot in the event of war. Few of us would subscribe to the European style of Universal Military Training. National strength lies in a great deal more than simply armies and armament. We have created and are creating many things through scientific techniques and synthetic processes. Men of strong character cannot be produced through synthetic processes.

One amendment which will be very controversial to this bill, is the so-called Winstead amendment. This amendment provides that "insofar as practical" the Government shall respect a boy's wishes as to service in a segregated unit. Adam Powell, Negro Congressman from New York, is offering an amendment to strike this provision. The socializers in our country have been very successful and are making rapid strides in their program to abolish all forms of segregation. They may eventually succeed in the complete mongrelization of American society.

The Displaced Persons Commission was before the Subcommittee on Immigration upon which I serve, this week. They are asking for a six months extension of the DP program. By March of this year, 240,000 DP's had been admitted. The program ends under present legislation, on June 30, by which time it is estimated that 265,000 will have been admitted. The Commission wants to extend its life six months in order to bring in an additional 35 or 40 thousand. The current newsletter from the U. S. Customs Service in New York reports on several alleged DP's whom they have intercepted and searched a few days ago. One Leiser Weitman had in the heels of his shoes 11 packages of diamonds totaling 718 carats worth more than $100,000.00. Later in the detention house he was found to have 1100 more carats concealed inside his body, of the value of $650,000.00. On the day following Weitman's apprehension, one Ella Hoffman just arrived from Holland, had concealed 1674 carats of diamonds of the value of $696,000.00. Later, in a cache found in the hollowed supports of her luggage was found other diamonds of the value of $600,000.00. A few days later, great quantities of Jewelry and silver were found concealed in the luggage of one Joseph Orzechowski. One hundred and fifty-six watches were found artfully concealed in the baggage of one Jacob Weirza. The custom's officials are to be commended for this good work. Of course, no one knows how many get by with smuggling or how many wolves in sheep's clothing are admitted.

Dashing through the "dough" — in a wild-horse sort of way 'Round and 'round we go — "gripping" as we pay; Bills and belles and bawls — make things tough and tight, What nerve it takes to work all month — and be broke pay-day night.

Where does our money go — what makes it slide so slick? It goes only half as far — or gets there twice as quick. "Buck" won't do for us now — as much as it once did, 'Cause we won't do as much for it — and that's why it has slid.

—Lane D. Webber

Buzz And The Off-Key Baritones

Reverend Lester of the church out on Hillsboro Road coaches his Young Peoples' Choir late Thursday afternoons—after high school basketball practice lets out.

Buzz Ellis pastures cows next to that church. Around 5 o'clock they used to make a lot of racket about wanting to go home. That made it kind of rough on the choir.

When Buzz learned what was going on he said to Reverend Lester: "I never yet heard of a cow that could moo on key. So, I'll just move 'em in a little earlier..." This started me to thinking. Buzz doesn't go to that church. And he's so tone-deaf he couldn't carry a tune in a bucket!

From where I sit, you might say that Buzz didn't have much in common with those singers. But he doesn't divide folks into groups he's "with" or "agin." Your politics, your personal preferences—or the fact that you like a moderate glass of beer—mean nothing either way to Buzz. He's a real neighbor to everybody!

Ella Mae Voth And Norbert Rohmer Wed In Gainesville Rite

Miss Ella Mae Voth and Norbert Rohmer exchanged marriage vows on April 3 in Saint Mary's church in Gainesville during a solemn nuptial mass. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Voth of Lindsay and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Rohmer of Muenster.

Rev. John Schumacher of DeSota, Ill., a cousin of the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Tony Trubenbach of Muenster, officiated at the double ring ceremony and his brother, Rev. Lawrence Schumacher of Henry, Ill., was celebrant of the mass. Father John and Father Peter Molloy assisted as deacon and sub-deacon.

The bride wore a gown of white slipper satin with fitted bodice and full skirt, petal point sleeves and a marquisette yoke edged with two rows of gathered chantilly lace adorned with rhinestones. Her fingertip length veil fell from a satin crown set with seed pearls and she carried a shower bouquet of white carnations an stephanotis on top of a white prayer book.

She carried a white handkerchief belonging to her Grandmother Trubenbach for something old and borrowed, wore blue earrings and had a penny in her shoe for luck.

Miss Gloria Voth was her sister's maid of honor wearing a yellow gown made similar to the bride's. She carried yellow carnations.

Martin Becker of Muenster was best man. Ben Voth and Arnold Rohmer were ushers.

Breakfast, dinner, a reception and buffet supper and a dance were on the program of the day's nuptial festivities.

The breakfast and dinner were held in the home of the bride's parents at Lindsay and the reception and supper were held in the Muenster parish hall. The dance was in the K of C hall.

Some 250 relatives and friends attended the reception and supper. Mrs. Thomas Felderhoff presided at the guest book. The triple-tiered wedding cake was cut by the bridal pair and was served to the guests. Mrs. Henry Spaeth baked the cake.

After their wedding trip the newlyweds will reside in a new home on her father's farm about five miles north of Lindsay.

Out of town guests at the wedding included the groom's brother, Pvt. Urban Rohmer of Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

New Coins

Somebody asks where all the pennies have gone — and the answer is that they can't circulate fast enough to keep up with the demand. The pennies are very busy nowadays in parking meters, cigarette machines and other places. There are billions of pennies, but they are scarce. It's a sign of how much business is going on. And it is a fact that 18 billion of these coins are in circulation.

Coins, from copper cents to silver dollars are flowing through the country or are being held in reserve in top volume. Sales taxes are taking more and more pennies. A large volume of trade requires a large volume of pennies, nickels, dimes, quarters and half-dollars — just for the purpose of making change.

Silver dollars have not been circulated in the East for long years — but in the mid-West silver dollars are popular. But here is a big piece of news, showing that there are $1,001,664,799 of half-dollars, quarters and dimes.

Tokyo.— Sgt. Douglas MacArthur, Venice, California, and Sgt. George Patton, Cleveland, Tennessee, are both with the 452nd Light Bomb Wing. Sgt. MacArthur says he is a second cousin of the General, but Patton is not related to the late General Patton of World War II fame.

You'll get more for your money in a 2-plow McCormick* FARMALL* C

More year-round utility. McCormick Farmall C stars at all jobs on all crops. There's a complete line of matched McCormick implements... every machine you need for every crop you grow.

More convenient use. When you cultivate, for instance, you watch the forward-mounted gangs while you face comfortably ahead. No tiresome twisting and turning.

More complete hydraulic control. Farmall Touch-Control lifts and lowers tractor-mounted implements with a fingertip touch. But that isn't all! It holds planters and cultivators to their work. And it gives you selective control of left and right gangs or delayed lift of rear gangs.

More power at the drawbar. Farmall C weight is distributed to give top-notch performance with both pull-type and mounted implements. 54-inch high wheels have big ground-gripping surface.

More riding comfort. Your ride is cushioned by upholstery, by spring mounting, and by a hydraulic shock absorber. You sit up out of the dust zone, away from engine heat.

More years of service. More than a million farmers have found that Farmalls stay dependable year after year, and that parts and service can always be had at reasonable cost. That's why so many early Farmalls are still in regular use. It's why Farmalls have such high trade-in values, too.

It's easy to buy a McCormick Farmall C. With the Income Purchase Plan you can pay for it while it earns money for you. Ask us to show you — right in your own fields — what a Farmall can do for you.

*McCormick and Farmall are separately registered trade marks of International Harvester Company.

ishers who have been double crossing us all along by continued shipments to Red China. Peace (for England) at any price, is the slogan, as long as America pays the price (in the blood of our soldiers) and as long as a profitable though blood smeared trade can be carried on. By what kind of twisted thinking does the president prefer the opinion of such men over that of a proven soldier and patriot?

By a very fine thread of hope this column continues hanging on to the belief that the admin-dismissal by President Truman is a clear indication that the column up to here was written before Tuesday midnight. Under the circumstances it appears now that the last paragraph above is rather futile. The controversy certainly does not seem to be under control and there's no denying that the country's morale is in a strain.
