Elm-Red District Flood Control Need Told at Hearing

Members of the Agricultural Committee of the House of Representatives were told last Friday of flood control needs in the Upper Elm-Red soil conservation district and were also reminded that the district, lying at the headwaters of the vast Trinity watershed should properly be among the first considered in the government's flood control program.

Claude Jones, vice president of the First State Bank of Gatesville and chairman of the bankers organization assisting conservation work in the district, outlined the local district's needs at a special Congressional Flood Control Hearing held at Gatesville. He pointed out also that the preliminary flood control plan of the district calls for 23 detention reservoirs to check flood waters before they reach the larger reservoirs down stream.

The hearing, held at Gatesville, was attended by more than 500 landowners, district supervisors and bankers from Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Kansas. Many of them were called upon to present their views on the needs of flood control and soil conservation.

Secretary of Agriculture Charles Brannan and Soil Conservation Regional Director Louis Merrill were among those who presented views before the committee. Each emphasized the need of flood control in the national conservation program.

House Agricultural Committee members present were W. R. Poage of Texas, Carl Albert of Oklahoma, E. C. Gathings of Arkansas, John L. McMillen of South Carolina, Clifford Hope of Kansas, Ernest Bramblet of California, Harold Loure of South Dakota and Wm. S. Hill of Colorado.

Those who represented the Upper Elm-Red District at the hearing were Claude Jones, J. W. Hess, J. M. Weinzapfel, Clyde Wells and Tom Hickman.

SONNY WALTERSCHEID, holding one of his grand champion broad-breasted bronze turkeys, poses with Joe Ferrantello, who bought Sonny's pen of five birds (about 125 pounds of live weight) for $485. Sonny is vice-president of the Sacred Heart 4-H Club and raised the turkeys as a club project from poults he purchased at the Muenster Hatchery.

Hornets Win 26-0 In Non Conference Tussle at Bryson

The Bryson High Cowboys were the victims Friday night as the Muenster Hornets entered another victory in their 1951 season record. The score was 26-0.

About 150 Hornet fans who made the trip to Bryson found their favorites in fine mid-season form and confining their attack almost entirely to orthodox line plays. There were only two passes, one completed and the other intercepted, and a complete absence of the spread formation used frequently in previous games.

The victory gives the team a season record to date of 4 out of 5. The loss was the non-conference tussle with the Valley View Warriors which did not mar the perfect record in district competition.

Sporting new uniforms, the team looked good in two ways as it carried the ball for 80 yards and the first TD in 8 plays shortly after the opening kickoff. Prior to that, however, it had a couple of surprises as Anderson returned the kick off to his 47 and on the next play passed to Beck for 13 yards. But the Hornets defense held there and the Cowboys kicked after three futile attempts to gain.

Assisted by the fine play of the rugged forward wall Hellman, Nogger, Hamric and Richey took their turns at toting the (Continued on Page 10)

Mrs. H. E. King of Hood Community Claimed by Death

Funeral services for Mrs. H. E. King, 69, of the Hood community were held Wednesday of last week at the George J. Carroll and Son chapel with Rev. Edwin Cumbe, pastor of the Myra and Hood Methodist churches officiating. Burial was in Fairview cemetery at Gainesville.

Mrs. King died about 5:30 the previous Monday at her home near Hood after an illness of several months.

She was born Feb. 8, 1882, near Thackerville, Okla., and was married to H. E. King Sept. 13, 1903, in Walnut Bend. They have lived at Hood since 1908.

Hospital Dismisses Poss Swirczynski

Herman "Poss" Swirczynski, claiming to be as good as new and apparently headed for complete recovery, returned home Monday after a nine weeks siege of critical illness in Saint Anthony's Hospital, Oklahoma City.

His skull crushed in an accident in the Shawnee cheese factory on August 14, he has had two brain operations and hovered between life and death for several weeks. Definite improvement came only a few weeks ago and his memory returned only last week.

In spite of his progress, however, his doctor recommends all possible rest and suggests that friends wait about a week before they begin visiting him.

Poss says that except for his weakness and poor sight he's doing fine and expects to be out in circulation in a few weeks. He is due to return to the hospital for a check up in six weeks.

SHHS Tigers Meet Jesuit Hi Reserves Here Next Sunday

Indications are that it should be anybody's ball game when the Sacred Heart High Tigers and the Jesuit High Ranger reserves meet on the local field next Sunday afternoon at 2. The two teams are about on a par, judging from the five-touch-down defeat handed each by the Texarkana Eagles.

Probable starters for the Tigers are Fred Hennigan, center; Wm. Walterscheid and Randy Bayer, guards; Dan Haverkamp and Willard Hartman, tackles; Gilbert and Albert Knabe, ends; George Mollenkopf, David Endres, Ronald Herr and Joe Felderhoff, backs.

Other games on the Tiger schedule are Whitesboro, there, on October 26, and Saint Mary's, here on Nov. 11.

Football Queen Race Underway at MHS

Plans are progressing for a gala Homecoming ceremony at Muenster High School, and eight contestants, two from each of the high school classes are busy soliciting votes in the annual queen's contest.

Candidates are Margie Baumhardt and Jeanette Walter, seniors; Anna Grace Herr and Anna Grace Fette, juniors; Carol Hellman and Julia Wolf, sophomores, and Rita Cain and Margaret Myrick, freshmen.

The preliminaries will end at the school's annual Halloween party on Oct. 31, and the four top contestants will enter the runoff race.

The contest will close on November 6.

Runners-up in the queen's race will be members of her court, and the grade school will participate by having duchesses in the royal ceremony.

The ceremony will take place on November 9 when the Hornets play Sanger. There will be a dance after the game.

Spending Sunday with the Needham families were Mr. and Mrs. George Andress of Borger and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Yarborough of Wichita Falls.

Barbara Boyles, 10, Killed Instantly as Swing Overturns

A tragic accident on a swing brought instant death to Barbara Jean Boyles, 10 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. (Jud) Boyles, last Sunday afternoon about 4:20 o'clock.

She sustained a broken neck when the frame supporting a settee type swing pulled loose from the ground and toppled over. The swing, of the type used on porches, was mounted on a pipe frame on the lawn of the Boyles home.

The child was alone in the swing at the time of the accident and other children were playing in the yard nearby. None of the children, however, were able to give a clear account of the tragedy.

A crowd estimated at more than 300 persons visited the Boyles home at the recitation of the rosary Monday night and other hundreds, including most children from the Sacred Heart parochial school, visited Monday afternoon and Tuesday morning. The total number of visitors is believed to be over a thousand.

Again at the requiem mass and funeral services at 8 o'clock Tuesday the Sacred Heart church was jammed full. Father Louis Deuster gave a brief address of consolation and officiated at services, both in church and in the cemetery.

Bearers were six cousins of the deceased: Mary Nell Hellman, Gretchen Hellman, Jane and Carol Hellman, and Kay and Jan Chandler, George Carroll and Son, directed. Born here on Sept. 20, 1941, Barbara was in the fifth grade of the Sacred Heart School.

Survivors besides her parents are two brothers, Billy Ben and Thomas; two sisters, Dolores and Gwen; and the grandmothers, Mrs. Ben Hellman of Muenster and Mrs. J. W. Boyles of Denton.

Out of town relatives who came for the funeral are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hellman and daughter of Corpus Christi, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Hellman of Corpus Christi, Mr. and Mrs. John Chandler and three daughters of Dallas, Mrs. Eddie Hart and daughter of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Boyles of Dallas, Mrs. Edith Jones and two children of Denton, Miss Polly Boyles of Fort Worth and Mrs. J. W. Boyles of Denton.

PTA Completes Plan For Halloween Party

Eats at the public school PTA's Halloween party will consist of sandwiches, pie and coffee instead of the chili supper originally planned.

That change was agreed upon Tuesday night at the PTA meeting after the committee was reminded that the event, falling on the vigil of All Saints Day, is a meatless day for Catholics. Serving will begin at 7 o'clock under the direction of Mmes. T. S. Myrick, Rudy Hellman and M. L. McGowan.

The Halloween party begins at 7:30. It will feature contests, concessions and games sponsored by the school's classes.

High spots on the program following the PTA business session were Superintendent Cowan's remarks on the recent administrator's conference at Austin and discussions by members on questions submitted in a question box.

Herbert Meurer presided at the meeting. Miss Midgett and Mrs. Ashlock led the group in a sing song, and FHA girls served cookies and coffee.

SOVIET OIL OUTPUT SMALL

The Soviet Union's inability to produce enough oil for its economic and military needs, despite the fact that it covers between one-seventh and one-sixth of the surface of the globe, is evidence that a controlled economy cannot compete with free economy, says the writer William Henry Chamberlin.

Russia includes many areas "geologically promising" for oil production, Mr. Chamberlin added, pointing out, however, that the maximum achieved, even with the aid of German scientists and forced labor, was 37,000,000 tons a year — "less than 15 percent of the American figure."

Evolution of man: A week old boy; a wee cold boy; a weak old boy.

Coralee Fuhrman, Robert Pulte Wed Thursday Morning

Miss Coralee Fuhrman became the bride of Robert J. Pulte of Gainesville in a double ring ceremony performed in Sacred Heart church here at 8:30 Thursday morning. Rev. Father Cle-tus directed the exchange of vows and officiated at the nuptial high mass.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Fuhrman of Münster and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Pulte of Gainesville.

Arrangements of white mums, banked fern and candles adorned the altar before which the couple exchanged vows and white satin streamers marked pews down the center aisle of the church.

Anthony Luké, organist, played the wedding marches and remained at the organ to assist the choir in singing the Gregorian Chant Mass.

Mr. Fuhrman gave his daughter in marriage. She was a lovely picture in a wedding gown of candlelight satin designed with a fitted V bodice of Chantilly lace, petal point sleeves and full skirt that extended into a cathedral length train. Her finger-tip length veil cascaded in tiers from a shirred head-piece with orange blossom clusters at each side. She carried a bouquet of white pom-pom mums centered with a purple orchid, and a silk and lace handkerchief that her mother carried at her wedding 30 years ago. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift from the groom.

Twin Sister Maid of Honor

The bride's twin sister, Miss Rosalee Fuhrman, was maid of honor wearing a ballerina length frock of forest green velvet with a bouffant over-skirt of net, square neckline and short cuffed sleeves. Her matching Juliet cap was circled with ruffled net and her gloves were accented with net ruffles at the wrist. She carried an arm bouquet of bronze mums.

Miss Rosalie Bayer of Lindsay was bridesmaid. Her velvet costume of rum-cola was identical to the maid of honor's as were her accessories and flowers.

William Pulte, brother of the groom, was best man and Leroy Metzler of Grand Prairie was groomsman. Gilbert Endres and Francis Wiese were ushers.

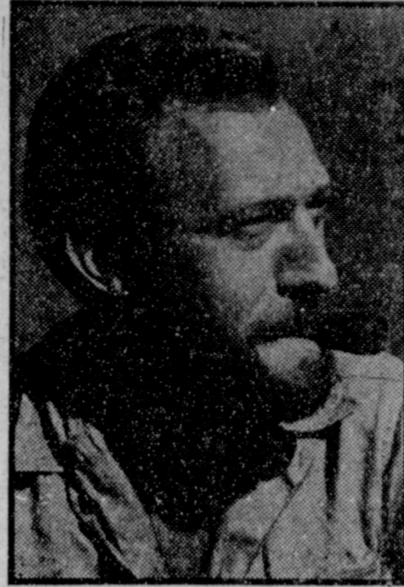

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Fuhrman wore a navy blue costume with gray accessories. Mrs. Pulte's wedding dress was deep purple and she wore black accessories. Both had corsages of white pom-pom mums.

Wedding Day Festivities

After the services, the bridal party and parents had breakfast at the Pulte home. Immediate members of both families were guests for dinner in the Fuhrman home and a reception for some 275 guests began in the parish hall at 5 o'clock. A buffet supper was served. Miss Ruth Pulte, sister of the groom, presided at the bride's book.

The bride's table carried out her chosen colors with decorations of mum and greenery and was centered with a large decorated wedding ring cake flanked with tapers. Throughout the hall floral arrangements were placed at vantage spots.

A dance at the Lindsay hall concludes the day's festivities

PIP OF A PIPE — Lost 1000 years ago by a Cohonina Indian when his home burned down, and just found by a University of Illinois expedition to northern Arizona, is this old pipe which resembles a large cigar butt. Painted with a dull black design, the odd smoking-piece is exhibited by Russel C. Féy of Chicago, Ill., one of the expedition members studying the little-known Cohonina culture.

The American Way

By George Peck

America Needs A Man

Away back in 1944, I had the pleasure of hearing Captain Eddie Rickenbacker enumerate fifteen qualities which he believed should be possessed by the man to be elected to the Presidency in November of that year. We didn't elect that kind of a man then, but Captain Eddie's blueprint still holds good for November 1952.

It is an exacting yardstick evolved by America's Number One Ace of World War I, but surely somewhere in this nation of over 150 million people there is a man who measures up to it. We must find him if America is to be saved the fate that has overtaken Great Britain. Here follow the fifteen qualifications as outlined by Captain Eddie seven years ago:

1. A man who has convictions with courage and character to put them into action.
2. A man who will not cater to or coddle minorities or pressure groups.
3. A man who will think in terms of the welfare of the great American majority.

4. A man who will recommend amending our labor laws to protect the American laboring men and women from racketeers and false leadership. (This has been partially accomplished by enactment of the Taft-Hartly law.)

5. A man who will respect States' Rights.

6. A man who will guarantee to return all delegated wartime power to the elected representatives of the people when the war is over.

7. A man who will surround himself with America's ablest men and women.

8. A man who will reduce bureaucracy to the minimum.

9. A man who will reduce and keep government expenses within the earning power of the people to pay.

10. A man who will think in terms of America First, in order that America will last, as Churchill, Stalin and Chiang Kai-shek, think of their own.

11. A man who will cooperate with other peoples of the world to insure a lasting peace, but not at the expense of the American people alone.

12. A man who believes in free enterprise and our form of government.

13. A man whom the American people can believe after he is electd as well as before.

14. A man who will go to the American people with promise of legislation for their approval limiting the presidential term to six years, or two terms of four years each—our traditional and God-given heritage. (This was accomplished by an Amendment to the Constitution limiting a President's tenure of office to two terms of four years each.)

15. A man who will add the Fifth Freedom to the Atlantic Charter—the Freedom of Opportunity. With a Fifth Freedom, we are then placing a foundation under the four sides of the Atlantic Charter—permitting it to endure and weather the storms of the ages as have the pyramids that were builded centuries ago.

Were Captain Rickenbacker listing these qualifications today, undoubtedly he would amend number four to read: "A man who will recommend FURTHER amending of our labor laws FURTHER to protect the American laboring men and women from racketeers and false leadership."

An it is quit possible he would substitute for number fourteen the following: "A man who will purge our Nation's Capital of disloyal Federal employees and the Judases who peddle government favors and hand-outs for 'thirty pieces of silver'."

A LESSON FROM EXPERIENCE

"... True security can never be fashioned out of slavery, injustice, and corruption. It must be founded firmly on the laws of God, and dedicated wholly to the dignity of man... There is no security without freedom; there is no hope without opportunity; there is no progress without incentive."

—Benjamin F. Fairless, president, United States Steel Corporation.

WHO ARE THESE 800,000 MEN THEY CALL "KNIGHTS"?

Whether you are a Catholic or not, you should know the truth about the Knights of Columbus.

Is it, as sometimes rumored, a secret society with designs against our government? Do its members really take an oath to destroy non-Catholic institutions and to promote Catholic political power?

If such rumors were true, the Knights of Columbus would not deserve the friendship and trust of non-Catholic citizens, which it invites and merits. Actually there is no more thoroughly American organization than this fraternal order of Catholic men.

It is composed of plumbers and lawyers, farmers and doctors, business men and scientists—of Catholic men at every level of the social and economic scale. Some are rabidly partisan Democrats, others equally staunch Republicans. On political and public questions, they "choose up sides" with all the freedom and enthusiasm of any other citizens.

The Knights of Columbus was formed in 1882, by a small group of the men of St. Mary's Church, New Haven, Connecticut. They had met, at the invitation of Father Michael J. McGivney, not to form a national fraternal society, but to "render mutual aid to the members of the parish and their families."

In the years that since have ensued, the Knights of Columbus has grown into a fraternal order of 800,000 members, spread over the United States, Canada and other countries of the Western World. But its purpose of "mutual aid"... and its principles of charity, unity, fraternity and patriotism... have remained unchanged through those 68 years.

Millions of dollars contributed by the American people have been spent by the Order for the relief of victims of fire, flood and famine... for the support of Christian youth work... for aid to Christian education. In World War I, and immediately thereafter $44,000,000 was expended by the Knights in support of our troops and in the rehabilitation of veterans. Ever after all these years, veterans of the first great conflict still remember the Knights of Columbus huts in France with their friendly invitation: "Everybody Welcome—Everything Free."

Nearly one out of every six Knights served his country in World War II, and many laid down their lives.

Despite these and many other signal demonstrations of its principles of charity, unity, fraternity and patriotism, some people have the most absurd beliefs and suspicions about the Knights of Columbus, just as they do about the Catholic Church. Even today, misinformed people give publicity at times to a false alleged Knights of Columbus oath which has been proved to be fraudulent, and which scores of others have been forced publicly to admit is untrue.

This message... and others explaining Catholic beliefs and practices... are published by the Knights of Columbus so that our non-Catholic neighbors may judge us as we really are—not as we are often misrepresented to be. We believe that truth, as Lincoln said, "is generally the best vindication against slander."

If you would like to know more about the Knights of Columbus... about the ideals, history, achievements and aims of this international society of Catholic men... we shall gladly send you free an interesting pamphlet on the subject. Write today for Pamphlet No. 9—KC.

It Takes Strong Character To Master Self

By Bishop Fulton J. Sheen
 No saint ever found it was easy to be good. This is the great mistake most people make in judging them.

John the Evangelist, for instance, who is praised for his charity, once induced his mother to use political influence, and on another occasion, when the city of the Samaritans rejected Our Lord, he and his brother, James, asked Our Lord to rain down fire from the heavens and destroy the city. This was not charity.

In fact, there must have been a tendency to hate in John, for not without aptness did his Master call him who wanted to send down lightning, a Son of Thunder. But sometime or other in John's life, he seized upon the weak spot in his character, namely, want of kindness to fellow-man, and through cooperation with grace, he became the great Apostle of Charity.

Moses Conquered Anger

Moses is another example. The moral quality always associated with him is meekness, but Moses was not born meek. He probably was very hot-headed, quick-tempered and irascible. He killed an Egyptian, and that was not the mark of a meek man.

He was the first one to "break" the Ten Commandments. Coming down from the Mount where he had spoken with God, he found his people adoring the Golden Calf, and in a fit of anger smashed the Tablets of the Law.

Apparently, the weak spot in Moses was hot-headedness. But he took hold of the worst in him, and later on, in his attitude toward the fickleness of Pharaoh, the ingratitude and waywardness of those whom he delivered, his patience to his sister and brother, and his final disappointment at not entering the Promised Land, we find him described in Sacred Scripture as, "a man exceedingly meek."

Temptations Are Opportunities

He acquired meekness by fighting ill temper. He rooted out the worst in him, and with God's help became one of the best of men.

The temptations of the saints were for them opportunities for self-discovery. They revealed the breaches in the fortress of their souls which needed to be fortified, until they became the strongest points. This explains the curious fact about many saintly people, that they often become the opposite of what they seemed to be.

When we hear of holiness of certain souls, our first reaction is: "I knew him when..." Between the "then" and the "now" has intervened a battle, in which selfishness lost and faith won.

Too Much Crowd

A drunk bumped into a telephone pole and said, "Excuse me, sir."

Farther down the street he collided with a fireplug and said,

"Excuse me, little boy."

Still farther along he banged into another pole and fell to the ground stunned. Then raising his head on one elbow, he muttered, "Guess I'll just lay here until the crowd passes."

OIL PROGRESS WEEK

OCTOBER 14-20

Oil Progress means more to Texans!

This week the United States will focus its attention on the oil industry's contributions to the high American standard of living, to the nation's industrial progress, and to the national defense. This is Oil Progress Week.

Texans know the story well: as home folks in the oil country, they share the oil industry's pride in supplying the resource that powers a major share of the country's industries, all its airplanes and automobiles, most of its ships and trains.

Texans realize, moreover, that oil's progress means even more to them than it does to many other Americans. For example, the value of the crude oil produced in West Texas* in 1950 was approximately a billion dollars. This is not "boom money." West Texas uses it to pay taxes, salaries and wages; it buys homes, groceries, light and heat; doctors collect a portion of it; landowners receive royalty and lease payments; a sizable portion of it is reinvested in the further development of the region's oil resources.

In a word, the progressive development of the petroleum resources of West Texas has enormously stimulated its thriving industrial, commercial and agricultural development, and this is the more, the plus, that oil's progress means to West Texans. Modern, efficient production practices will conserve the oil and gas resources of the region, and oil's progress will continue to mean more to West Texas for many years ahead.

* The shaded area is the region called West Texas by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

D. 1951, in this cause, numbered 4121 on the docket of said court and styled Pansy Lee Nieball, Et Al Plaintiffs, vs. Blanche Jordan Et Al Defendants.
A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows: to wit:
That L. C. Way and wife Dora Way died intestate in Cooke County Texas, on the 27th day of December 1931, and the 2nd day of March 1951, respectively, and at the time of their deaths each was the owner of a community one-half interest in and to that parcel of land lying and being situated in the City of Gainesville, Cooke County, Texas, and being a lot 100 feet by 200 feet in Block 41 of the Montgomery Addition to the said City of Gainesville, and being the same property, less 50 feet theretofore conveyed by I. NEW VACCINE SAVES HOGS

A new vaccine developed by industrial research is said to give pigs immunity to hog cholera, which now costs farmers millions of dollars every year. An industrial laboratory spent five years developing the vaccine. It has been tried on 10,000 hogs in various parts of the country, and found to immunize them within a week after treatment. The immunity is said to last at least six months, and tests are now being made to determine whether it gives lifetime protection against the diseases.

Half of Cars are Likely to Fail New State Inspection

AUSTIN.—Almost half of the cars now operating in Texas may fail the new state-required inspection an expert believes.

George Busby, chief of the inspection division of the Texas Department of Public Safety, says he hopes 50 percent may be a bit high but that he fully expects 40 percent to fail.

"A lot of the defects the inspection will disclose will be minor. Some, of course, will be major," he said.

But minor defects will have to be corrected just as major ones before a certificate will be issued.

The certificate must be presented to the county tax collector next year as a requisite to securing new license plates, just as a car title and the cash have been requisites in the past.

The new requirement was voted by the last Legislature.

Certificates are now at the printers. As soon as they are ready, the Department of Public Safety will designate official inspection stations and distribute the certificates — and rejection slips.

The state has ordered 4,000,000 of the certificates and 2,000,000 rejection slips.

The inspection, which costs the car owner $1, will cover brakes, lights, horn, windshield wipers and steering gear.

If any of those things show defects, the owner may take his car wherever he wishes to get it fixed or to fix it himself. But he must return in seven days to the station where the rejection

To: Dorothy Hunter Defendant, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to appear before the Honorable 16th District Court of Cooke County at the Court House thereof, in Gainesville, Texas, at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 19th day of November A. D. 1951, then and there to answer Plaintiff's Petition filed in said Court, on the 2nd day of October A. D. 1951, in this cause, numbered 16001 on the docket of said court and styled Cleve Hunter Plaintiff, vs. Dorothy Hunter Defendant.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to wit:

Being a suit for divorce from the bonds of matrimony, for the reason of excess and cruel treatment on the part of defendant toward plaintiff, and for such other relief to which she may be entitled, as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Gainesville, Texas the 3rd day of October A. D. 1951.

slip was issued to get the faulty item rechecked without additional charge. If it goes more than seven days, it'll cost another dollar for a complete new inspection of all items covered by the law.

One state which recently passed a similar inspection law found 44 to 45 percent of its cars defective, Busby said.

It was that experience which led him to get the rejection slip order at 50 percent of the certificate order.

"It's just a shot in the dark. We had to start somewhere and that seemed to be a reasonable supply that would avoid a shortage developing."

WASHINGTON. — The average Communist in Korea is a peasant farmer, five feet seven inches tall, weight 140 pounds, with less than five years' schooling. This is the statement of Eighth Army Intelligence officers in the Army Information Digest just issued here.

The same average soldier receives 30 cents a month pay, never has any leave, is poorly fed on a diet consisting of rice as a staple, has no amusements, post exchanges, canteens, or chaplains. In training he spent as much time listening to propaganda lectures as learning to use weapons. The United Nations never is mentioned in such lectures and the United States is always named as "the enemy," the report continued.

Every man in the Communist army, from top to bottom, is watched. At squad level, every two men are responsible for a third, says the report.

Win at Bryson

ball for substantial gains to pay dirt. Hellman went over for the counter but his kick failed.

The second touchdown was a repetition of the first. Holding the Cowboys on 3 attempts they took a kick and started their march from the 35. All four backs had their turns with the ball and Hellman again was the player to cross the goal. For the second time the high wind hindered his attempted kick for extra point and the ball went wide.

For the rest of the half Bryson made its strongest bid of the game. Covering a muffed kick-off on the 48 they advanced 15 on Anderson's pass to Rollins and ran twice for 15 more and a first down on the 18. Another line play for 4 and the threat ended abruptly as Hellman intercepted a pass and squirmed through the Cowboy team back to his 40. After the excitement, however, an official ruled that one of the Hornets had clipped a Cowboy on the 16 and the Hornets were penalized from that point back to their 1. Three plays netted a first down on the 18. Three more gained 9 and the Hornets decided not to take a chance. Bryson, taking the kick, completed a first down by inches as the half ended.

The Hornets opened the second half with another scoring drive. In 8 plays they carried the ball from mid field to a score, Noggler totting on the pay-off play. Hellman's run was good for the extra point.

The next drive was interrupted by Bryson's interception on the 33. After allowing one first down the Hornets took over on downs on their own 45 and completed two first downs before losing on the interception. Anderson's quick kick on the third down caught the Hornet backs off guard and Hellman followed the ball back to his 10 before starting his return. He was nailed on the 15. From there it was the same story except that Noggler's 46 yard romp provided an extra thrill. Richey went over for the TD and Noggler ran for the extra point.

In the closing minutes Bryson made another bid for a score driving from their own 39 to the Hornet 25 but the threat ended as they lost possession of the ball on downs.

Women Control Nation's Spending

More and more American women are achieving financial independence under our free enterprise system.

A recent survey shows that women directly control the spending of 80 percent of the national income, own 65 percent of the accounts held in mutual savings banks, and constitute about 43 percent of the stockholders who own the nation's corporations. What's more, the survey revealed, they hold title to 40 percent of the 30,000,000 homes in this country, and pay 30 percent of all inheritance taxes.
