DISTRICT SUPERVISORS

J. W. Hess, Muenster V. W. Redman, Saint Jo
John Rice, Collinsville Ed Blackmon, Bowie
Willard Kemplin, Valley View

The red glow in the night sky and spiraling smoke clouds in the daytime around Muenster are not necessarily a passing freight train or a burning waste oil pit. More of them recently have been raging grass fires.

Have you been around an uncontrolled grass and brush fire north, south, east or west of Muenster during the last few weeks? Blackened hillsides are showing up in every direction. Some people say that it happens every year and that there is nothing to be done about it. This does not make sense to the rancher with over a hundred head of cattle in a wildly burning pasture. It does not appeal to the rancher who sees a racing fire headed straight for his house and barns. It does not suit the rancher who deferred grazing on his pasture all year so that the grass might regain vigor of growth and make a good seed crop. It does not appeal to the rancher who must start feeding hay to his cattle in a burned over pasture.

Those fires have endangered livestock, farm and ranch buildings and destroyed dry grass that must be replaced with hay. This however is not the greatest loss.

From the Range Conservation standpoint a burned pasture is a loss that cannot be regained. A good rancher knows that one-half of the year's growth of grass left on the land is like money in the bank. The grass mulch aids in controlling erosion, increases water intake of soils, and for several reasons means a larger production of forage grasses the next year.

Danglmayr Brothers have deferred grazing for full growing season several years in a row on one of the pastures at Valley Creek. The grass was getting thick and growing tall. Old cultivated fields had become covered with grass, and erosion had about stopped on them. Because of the carelessness of some unknown trespasser much of the good has been undone.

Earl Robison, Raymond Davidson and Bruno Fleitman have reseeded old cultivated fields to native bluestem grasses. The young seedlings were just large enough to find in the needle grass. You guess what a hot fire did to these seedlings.

Thirteen ranchers in the Muenster Work Unit area planted 657 acres of native grass on old fields and pastures with poor grass cover this year. These seedlings came up to good stands but the young grass is still small and hard to find. Where fire has hit these plantings, the job will have to be done over.

Old man weather can give some help by keeping the ground wet but each of us can be more help by using more care and less carelessness with fire.

The Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation District is cooperating with ranchers in the district to increase production on their rangelands and to conserve soil and water. The board of supervisors with J. W. Hess of Muenster as chairman, has arranged for a good supply of native grass seed for reseeding poor rangeland and old fields. Several local district cooperators harvested native grass seed and K.R. Bluestem seed to add to this supply. Because the chaffy seed cannot be planted with ordinary equipment the district obtained several special grass seed drills to rent out for the seeding job.

The native grass seeding season is here and Alois Trubebach, Danglmayr Brothers, Hubert Felderhoff, Earl Robison and Don and Reeves Cooke have their seed and are ready to go soon.

Can we help by saving the natural reseeding that was of so much potential help this year? A few more grass fires will destroy more of nature's reseeding than the district cooperators can match.

Sodality Observes Patron's Feast Day With Three Events

Members of the Sacred Heart High school Blessed Virgin Sodality, joined by members of the parish sodality, observed the feast day of their patron, the Immaculate Conception, on Friday, December 8, with a religious service, a Communion breakfast, and the reception of 24 new members.

The program began with attendance at the 8 o'clock High Mass, at which Rev. Cletus Post, spiritual director, officiated and group reception of the Eucharist. The breakfast, in the parish lunch room, followed the church services, and the reception of the new members preceded afternoon rosary devotions.

Seventy-five members and candidates attended the program. Rev. Father Cletus gave the invocation at the breakfast and was the principal speaker. Other speakers were Miss Celine Felderhoff, prefect of the high school sodality, Miss Kathryn Hartman, prefect of the parish sodality, and Miss Mary Nell Hellman and Billy Ben Boyles.

Decorations in the dining room focused attention on an improvised shrine at the center on the north side of the building where a statue of the Blessed Virgin was surrounded with greenery, flowering pot plants and candles.

Preparing and serving the breakfast were Mmes. Joe Hoenig, Ben Hellman, Frank Kathman, Tony and Ted Gremminger, Frank Bindel, John Fisher, Joe Horn and Frank Herr.

CDA Sends Relief Package to Europe

Members of the Catholic Daughters of America, meeting Friday night, decided to dispense with their Christmas social and give a gift to the needy instead. The gift, consisting of clothing was included in the NCCW shipment that left here this week.

The decision followed the reading of a letter from Mrs. Charles V. King, diocesan NCCW war relief chairman, who urged members to join in the last Holy Year clothing campaign sponsored by the NCCW for the store rooms of the Holy Father, suggesting that in this drive all women include a child of the war area in their Christmas shopping.

Other decisions at the meeting were that members attend rosary devotions in a group preceding their regular meetings on the second Friday of each month, and to hold the meetings in the church basement, instead of the K of C hall, during the months of January, February and March.

Mrs. Herman Fette, historian, who read the letter from Mrs. King, also read a letter from Mrs. Frances M. Mayer, supreme regent, who reported on her trip to Rome and told about her audience with the Holy Father and her presentation of a gift of $10,000 to him in the name of all Catholic Daughters of America courts in the United States for the Pope's relief program.

Hostesses for the first post-advent social, to be held after the January business session, are Mmes. Steve and Herman Fette.

Miss Ida Rohmer of Fort Worth was here for a weekend visit with her parents, the John Rohmers.

Dick Cain bought the first 1951 Chevrolet sold in Muenster. It is a shadow gray power glide 4-door sedan. Two other '51 models were bought on Saturday, the first day the new cars were shown. They are George Mollekopf's blue four-door sedan and Warren Barrow's fathom green four-door sedan. Barrow is superintendent of the Forestburg school.

The Most Rev. Bishop A Dangelmayr of Dallas spent Monday night here with his brothers, Joe and Albert, and left Tuesday morning for Amarillo to attend dedication ceremonies of the new addition to Price College.

Peace on Earth

People of good will have hoped and prayed since the dawn of civilization for "peace and plenty" on the earth. Philosophers have propounded ten thousand learned theories on how it could be achieved. But only one recipe for lasting peace has appeared. The Man of Galilee gave it to the world. Man has failed to make it work. Peace on earth thus remains a spiritual goal. It perhaps is THE goal, mankind's ultimate quest, the Why and Wherefore of life; for it cannot be attained until Christianity is lived in all nations, becomes a flame in all men's hearts.

On the other hand, "plenty" is a relative term in popular understanding. The word makes me recall the picture in my old school reader showing "The First Thanksgiving" as it was observed by the American pilgrims. The "plenty" in that picture was food—turkey, and pumpkin pie, and potatoes baked under the coals. The Pilgrims were thankful for their prospects in the new world, for their freedom, and for their "plenty" or sufficiency of food.

The Watchword

Unquestionably the Pilgrims would have been only a little less thankful had their harvest of foodstuff been considerably less bountiful. Yet "bread" — meaning, in its broadest sense, a sufficiency of food, or "plenty" — has become the great political and social watchword in our strife-torn world. Some people have made "bread" a god. The Communist leaders are marshalling great masses of humanity to make war over it — a war they describe as the "Have Nots" against the "Haves." In sections of Europe, in Asia and especially in the Orient, I have seen countless millions of poverty-stricken people whose every waking moment had to be concerned with seeking food for survival. Their agriculture had progressed little in the last thousand years. It is upon these people, uninformed and constantly at grips with hunger, that the Kremlin masters are waging their propaganda wars. Had these masses achieved any substantial degree of "plenty" it is doubtful that the Reds would have succeeded so well in this effort.

Our "Plenty"

Thus "plenty" is a practical stepstone toward peace on earth as well as a humane ideal. We in America have found a recipe for "plenty" — our freedom philosophy in government and our free enterprise, economic system. It hasn't made everybody rich but the poorest American citizen is twice as well fed as ninety-nine per cent of Asia's millions — and we are a nation of peace-lovers. The degree and the wide distribution of America's "plenty" caused the Communist plotters long ago to give up the idea of violent revolution here. So "plenty" is a factor in war or peace.

Until world-girdling, war-making Communism is overcome, we need as a nation to concentrate our thinking, and planning, and action on that objective. But if we are victorious there is a great challenging task awaiting—the expansion of "plenty" to the underdeveloped and unwisely used regions of the earth. We cannot do it by sending federal government funds and a handful of technicians to Borneo and Mandalay; or a steel plant or electric generator to Yugoslavia, or a combine to China.

The Great Hopes

The two great hopes for future peace and plenty on earth (and the expansion of Christianity) are education and research. Once the world menace of international Communism is overcome, we could take a fraction of the amount of money spent in Europe on the Marshall Plan and bring a million college-age youth to America to learn, first hand, what makes America tick. Those with aptitudes could be kept here for extended training in the ways American people get things done — in agriculture, in industry, in forestry and mineral development.

Think of what 100,000 Chinese with American agricultural and industrial knowhow, and with a first hand knowledge of our distribution and marketing system, could do in a generation in a free enterprise China! In 25 or 30 years such a force could bring that wallowing backward country up on the road of progress and plenty. The same thing could transpire in every other nation. And during that 30 years, American science, through research would be further exploring and developing the limitless possibilities of God's material blessings to the people of the earth—the natural resources.

Health Puppet Show

Last Wednesday we had a delightful surprise when we saw a comical puppet show. The whole school attended and enjoyed it immensely. Everyone made friends with Little Jack, the puppet. The best part of the show was the scene in which Jack visited the dentist. We learned that if we want to have good teeth we should brush our teeth twice a day, eat fruits and vegetables, exercise our teeth, and visit our dentist twice a year. This show was sponsored by the Cooke County Health Unit of Gainesville.

Physical Check-ups Help People to Live Longer, Healthier

AUSTIN — "Health examinations won't prevent old age, but many tens of thousands of persons, whose records of these examinations have been studied, have not only been helped to live longer, but also be sturdier and healthier, and enjoy more comfort and happiness by following the advice of the physicians who have made such examinations," declared Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. Once the individual leaves school, he assumes the responsibility not only for his choice of work and method of living, but also for his continued good health. But he often fails to apply the available methods of preventing disease and prolonging life. Hardly a day passes in which our attention is not called to the untimely death of some prominent person or acquaintance, which may be attributed to a preventable disease. So something should be done in the way of educating the adult group of the population, so they will voluntarily carry out those measures which prolong life and maintain good health.

It is our firm belief that if the diseases of the gastrointestinal tract, which includes the lips, tongue, teeth, mouth, stomach and bowels, are recognized in their early stage, their progress may be curtailed, adequate treatment advised, and many deaths might be prevented.

Today the medical profession realizes that many childhood diseases are now under control and that our present problem must center about the adult, encouraging periodic check-ups. Is semiannual consultation with your physician too great a premium to pay for many years of additional life, freedom from suffering and consequently short periods of hospitalization?

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Here's An "Expert" Example!

When our Main Street parking problem cropped up again, we announced a strict one-hour parking policy, and swore in extra deputies to enforce it.

We also sent over to the State Capitol for a traffic expert, to give us pointers. He turned out to be real helpful—spent a whole afternoon with us talking about zoning and such. And when he left the building he found a ticket on his car for overtime parking!

Could have gotten sore, I guess—or asked us to "fix" the ticket. But instead, he insisted on going over to the Sheriff's Office and paying his fine.

From where I sit, it's good to know people, like that young fellow, who refuse to be treated any different than anyone else. City people and farmers—those of us who prefer cider and those who'd rather have a cool glass of temperate beer—we're all entitled to the same privileges. That is, so long as what we do doesn't conflict with the law of the land.

Fisher Herd Leads DHIA Production Record For October

The Cooke County Dairy Herd Improvement Association's report for the past two months, released this week by Technician John J. Hoffman, shows Paul Fisher's herd in the lead for October and Richard Frasher's herd leading for November. In addition, Bell of the Fisher herd was the second high producing cow in October with a BF content of 71, and Dish, also of the Fisher herd, was second for the month of November with a BF content of 57, tying with a cow in the Frasher herd, which also included the champion producer both months, averaging 73 and 65.

In October 10 herds containing 179 cows were tested. The figure jumped to 11 herds and 202 cows in November. During the first month 37 cows produced 40 pounds of BF or over and during the second month four more cows joined the 40 BF producers for a total of 41. The average pounds of milk per cow during October was 600; during November 580. The average BF per cow was the same during the two months, 26.

October figures show three Muenster members with 9 cows in the 40 or over bracket as follows: Paul Fisher, seven, 47 to 71; Joe Fisher, one, 40; J.W. Fleitman, one 42.

The November summary lists 11 Muenster cows in the 40 or above class as follows: Paul Fisher, nine, 41-57, and Henry Pick, two, 42-44.

County Dairymen Plan 1951 Program

County dairy leaders, meeting in Gainesville Friday afternoon, planned their program for 1951. They set dates for two big dairy events and named a committee to make plans for the annual county dairy day sale, held every year in connection with the Cooke county fair in September.

March 29 will be Cooke County Dairy Day, the group decided and the dairy educational meeting will be held Jan. 25.

A prominent speaker will be sought to speak on "The Importance of Raising Heifers" for the March 29 program. A dairy judging contest will be held on that day.

The educational meeting will deal with all phases of dairying from care of animals to construction of Grade-A dairy barns.

John Voth of Lindsay was named chairman of the committee to plan for the annual dairy sale. Paul Fisher of Muenster and Richard Frasher of Gainesville are on the committee.

County Agent B. T. Haws was in charge of Friday's meeting.

Profitable Return Stressed in Study Of Pasture Grasses

COLLEGE STATION — Profitable returns is the idea being stressed in the pasture improvement investigations that are now being conducted by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, says Dr. R. C. Potts, associate professor of agronomy in charge of forage investigations.

Recent experiments show that pastures produce as much live-stock feed per acre as high yielding corn or sorghums on comparable land, according to Dr. Potts. He says that improved pastures produce total digestible nutrients equal to a .75 or 80 bushels per acre corn crop. On irrigated land, as far as cash income is concerned, pastures compare favorably with cotton.

Studies of comparative costs show that the cost of 100 pounds of digestible nutrients from pastures is $1.26; from hay, $1.74; from silage, $2.07; and from concentrates, $4.23. Dr. Potts points out also that the return per man hour of labor is much higher than from cultivated crops—six times as much as from corn and nine times as much as from oats.

Dr. Potts states that success in today's improved pasture programs depends upon the use of correct pasture plants. The new deeprooted grasses and legumes recently selected show much promise. Madrid clover, one of the most important of these, is valuable for fall to spring grazing in Texas if it is combined with oats.

Bur-clovers, crimson clover, white clover, perennial lespedeza, and new introductions such as coastal Bermuda hold special promise for pastures in Texas. Even Johnson grass, traditional scourge of the cotton fields, is a good pasture plant when combined with certain legumes and properly fertilized and managed.

Planting shotgun mixtures of 15 to 20 grasses and legumes at high seeding rates, hoping to obtain a stand of the suitable plants, is a poor practice, says Dr. Potts. He says that simple mixtures, usually one grass and one legume, are all that are necessary to do the job. Specific information regarding suitable pasture mixtures are available through the local county agent's office and other farm agencies.

Dr. Potts adds that plenty of fertilizer is another must for productive pastures. Large initial applications may be necessary to insure good stands of the desirable pasture plants. Additional applications will also be needed after the pasture is established to replace nutrients removed from the soil.

Grassland management begins with a farm-wide plan to fit livestock needs and make full use of soils and climate, says Dr. Potts. Although the plans may differ from farm to farm, they have certain features in common. Here again is a chance to ask for assistance from local agricultural experts in planning a program that is fitted to the farm, the land, and to the farmer.

Statistics show that more than a million women in the United States are overweight. These, of course, are round figures.

Texas livestock producers are losing millions of dollars annually because they are not controlling the lice that infest their animals. Only about 30 percent of the cattle in Texas are treated to control these parasites.

Henry Hess was in Muenster Saturday to attend the auction sale and to visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hess. His father, who recently had an operation, is recovering normally.

Basil and Leon Reiter of Muenster spent the weekend here with their sister, Mrs. Andy Arendt and family. Their mother, Mrs. Clem Reiter, entered St. Vincent's hospital in Sherman for surgery.

Paul Arendt Jr. was dismissed from Gainesville Sanitarium Sunday after a week of treatments for an eye injury and has hopes of having most of the vision restored. He punctured his eye ball with a piece of baling wire in a farm accident.

Visiting during the weekend with their mother and sister, Mrs. Sophie Schad were Sister Alma Sophie of Abilene and Sister Fortunata of Fredericksburg. Their traveling companions were Sister Ermalinda and Sister Clementia, respectively. The four nuns attended a journalism convention in Denton and also visited in Muenster with Sister Alma Sophie's sister, Mrs. John P. Streng and family.

Mr. Schmidkoper still enjoys good health and lives alone. Last Thursday he returned from a trip to Florence, Alabama, where he visited relatives two weeks. He made the trip with his sister, Mrs. F. J. Gruber and son, Bill.

His children are Mrs. Frank Haverkamp, Mrs. Henry Hess and John Schmidkoper. He has 19 grandchildren and four great grandchildren. The four great grandchildren are Nobert and Rita Fahrman and Theresa and Dorothy Schmidkoper.

During the twilight and dusk periods, you may not be helped in your own driving by having your lights on, but driving with lights on dim will help pedestrians and other drivers to see you. And that helps you to avoid accidents.

Tournament - - -

View, the boys winning 46-27 and the girls 56-16.

Wednesday night's games placed both of Prairie Valley's teams and both of Southmayd's teams in the championship bracket and placed Muenster teams and Era teams in the consolation bracket. Scores of those contests were: Prairie Valley girls 56, Era 13; Prairie Valley boys 35, Era 9; Southmayd girls 27, Muenster 12; Southmayd boys 43, Muenster 22.

Thursday night's program promises at least two top notch games between the Savoy and Sanger teams. Savoy boys traditionally lead the race in their own district and Sanger's boys have already acquired quite a reputation this season. The girls' game likewise matches two exceptional teams. Girls will play at 8 and boys at 9 in those games. Opening the Thursday program Callisburg's boys will play Goldburg and Callisburg's girls will play Prairie Valley.

Friday afternoon's program opens competition in the consolation bracket, which consists of all teams eliminated from the championship bracket in their first games. At 2 o'clock Muenster girls will meet Valley View and at 3 Muenster boys will meet Valley View. At 4 Era boys will meet the loser of Thursday night's contest between Goldburg and Callisburg, and at 5 Saint Jo girls will meet the loser of Thursday night's Prairie Valley-Callisburg game.

Friday night games continue the championship bracket plus 1 girl's game in the consolation semi-final. At 6 Whitesboro girls will play Southmayd. At 7 Prairie Valley boys will play the winner of Thursday night's Callisburg-Goldburg game. At 8 Whitesboro boys will play Southmayd. At 9 the loser of the Muenster-Valley View girls game will meet the loser of the Savoy-Sanger game.

Saturday morning brings the remaining three games of the consolation semi final, Saturday afternoon brings the four games of the championship semi-final and Saturday night will offer the girl consolation final at 8, the boys consolation final at 7, the girls' champion final at 8 and the boys' champion final at 9.

Each winning team in Saturday night's contests will receive a trophy. Other awards will be given to the most sportsmanlike boy and girl of the tournament and to each of the boys selected by coaches for all tournament teams
