Klement and Whitt Awarded Degree of Lone Star Farmer

Now that the curtain has come down on the big Republican show in Chicago, perhaps it isn't too early to indulge in a bit of wishful thinking. If there ever was a time in the past twenty years when prospects looked really good for a change in Washington, this is it. With Eisenhower and Nixon heading the GOP ticket there is lots of basis for hope that the donkey's goose is cooked.

That is especially true if the Democratic convention will now oblige by selecting a candidate who shows special affinity to the present administration's policies and methods. The rumor it that Harry's favorite is Harriman, a character reputed to be every bit as Fair Dealish as himself. No choice could be more pleasing than that for the opposition.

Of course there's always a chance that Demos will wise up and select candidates of more conservative views, like Russell or Keffauver. Men like them could possibly hold a large block of the more conservative Democratic votes that might otherwise be cast in protest against creeping socialism and corruption. But even such people will have a tough fight against Ike.

Actually the GOP nomination is a sort of compromise between the wild socialistic policies of the administration and the more conservative element headed by Taft. As such it may turn out to be a very fortunate selection. While it is still possible that Taft's policies would have been better for the country, it is also true that Ike's policies have a better chance of getting into the White House. That is the important point. As a middle of the roader Ike is due to poll all the votes that would otherwise have gone to Taft plus a lot of former Democratic votes. . . people who are fed up with Fair Deal radicalism but still would not risk a swing to the right as far as Taft favors.

As regards the old propaganda line that Taft can't be elected, we'll never know now, of course. Considering the vast number of people who are disgusted with the present administration and who know Taft's record of integrity, and who could be influenced by a campaign plea for a return to solid Americanism, it isn't at all fair to assume, as many did, that he did not have a chance. This column for one does not underestimate the sincerity and intelligence of the average voter, and it does believe also that people would have had plenty opportunity to see the light before election day came around.

Another point not to be discounted too lightly is the Democratic propaganda line claiming that Taft would be the easiest man to defeat. It could be, you know, that such talk was intended to destroy Republican confidence in him. If Truman et al were so sure they could beat the Ohioan they should have designed their propaganda to encourage, not discourage, his nomination. Recalling what Taft did in his senatorial election two years ago, there's plenty of reason to believe the administration was actually afraid of him and it preferred to have anybody but him as an opponent.

However, all that is now a thing of the past. Win or lose the Republicans are staking their hopes on Ike, and millions of us citizens are fervently hoping they will be able to put him over. We've had plenty of the New Deal and Fair Deal ordeal. We're more than ready for an administration that will bring back to public life the traditional virtues on which the birth and progress of this nation were based.

Some of Eisenhower's critics complain that his foreign policy is too similar to that of the administration. As regards general policy that may be true, but it's a safe bet that he would make fewer boners. What appeals to us most, however, is his domestic policy. He believes in more individual dignity and responsibility, more efficiency, less bureaucracy and less taxation. His is a formula of greater Wilfred Klement and Billy Whitt, members of the Muenster chapter of Future Farmers of America, have qualified for the degree of Lone Star Farmer and will receive their awards Thursday night at a banquet in Adolphus Hotel, Dallas.

The title earned by the two local vocational agriculture students in the highest state honor that can be won by a FFA member. It is based on records of the boy's agricultural projects and also on his participation in FFA chapter activity. Eligibility is determined by the executive committee of the Texas Association of Future Farmers of America. Only one FFA honor is higher than that of Lone Star Farmer. It is the title American Farmer, which requires a much greater record of achievement and usually is attained only after a year or two of continued FFA work after the member's graduation from high school.

The banquet at which Klement and Whitt will receive their degrees is a part of the 24th annual state FFA convention, which opened Wednesday morning and will close Friday night.

Local members attending it are the two Lone Star Farmers, Clyde Muller, Edward Pick and their sponsor, Ralph Maglaughlin. They went in their chapter pickup, decorated especially for participation in the FFA parade on opening day.

After the banquet Thursday night Maglaughlin will return home in order to take other boys to the last day of the convention. He invites any present FFA members and any boys who expect to be members next year. Those who wish to go are asked to meet him at the public school at 7 o'clock Friday morning.

Warning to Tots: Stay in Grandstand

A warning is in order to little fellows attending softball games. Don't get out of the grandstand. Lately more and more children, some of pre-school age, have been wandering out in front of the stand and mingling with players on benches. That's dangerous. There's too much chance of being hit by a foul ball.

Parents or older brothers and sisters accompanying the tiny tots are urgently requested to keep them behind the wire netting.

WITH THE MEN IN SERVICE

Pvt. Hank Walterscheid telephoned his wife Tuesday night from Fort Sam Houston where he was being processed and said he would know by the end of the week where he would be stationed.

S. Sgt. George Swirczynski of Waco is spending a 15-day leave here with his parents and family.

According to recent letters home, Julian Walterscheid and Rupert Hoenig, airmen second class, are both kept busy on Okinawa repairing airplanes. They mentioned spending most of their free time together, not letting a day pass without a visit. They added that this is typhoon season over there but so far they have had only one small typhoon. They included regards to all their friends here.

Admirals of the future, college students from all over the nation, including Johnny Furbach of Amarillo, formerly of Muenster, are deep in their studies toward reserve officers' commissions at Terminal Island. After the course of reserve officers training young Furbach will enter Bradley University in Peoria, Ill., for two years of college before doing active duty. His address is: John R. Furbach SN, USNR 20335; Reserve Officers Candidate School, U.S.N.S., Long Beach 2, California.

Come and Give the Boys a Cheer

Want to see a good ball game? Come to the Muenster ball park Sunday afternoon and see the Auctioneers play the boys who nosed them out by one run at Denton Tuesday night. The visitors have a good club but the Muenster kids are determined to avenge that last game.

Regardless of what happens at the game, however, . . . even if the boys get the socks beat off them. . . there's something else about the game that is worth a thought. The team deserves better support than it has been getting. All through the season so far it has been putting on a fine exhibition of sportsmanship and skill. Between games it has put, in long hours of faithful practice.

But the kids are discouraged by the slim crowds that turn out to cheer their efforts. They'd like to see more faces and hear more voices.

Why not make a date to see them more frequently in future games? . . . starting Sunday!

Adults Invited to Join Students in Community Band

Plans are under way to organize a band in Muenster. . . a community band if enough persons are interested, otherwise a high school band.

At a Lions Club luncheon Tuesday noon Superintendent Weldon Cowan said that Muenster High has engaged an additional faculty member who will serve as music instructor to students and as director of whatever band can be organized.

The new faculty member is Bill G. Searcy, a native of Bandera, Tex., who will receive a degree of Master of Music Education at NTSTC this summer.

In connection with that announcement Cowan asked the Lions Club to solicit the cooperation of other community organizations in helping the band with its instrument problems.

Members voted in favor of tackling the project and to start it by asking residents of the community to donate discarded band instruments. The next objective is to raise funds with which defective instruments can be repaired and renovated and possibly also to buy a few larger instruments such as band members are not expected to buy for themselves, provided those instruments are not located hereabouts. Small instruments are to be furnished by the players themselves. If found locally and renovated they are to be furnished to members at their actual cost.

Cowan said he and Searcy are agreed that a community band is more desirable than a Muenster High band. Besides being larger and better it offers opportunities to children not attending the public school and also makes use of older and more experienced musical talent of the community. As regards music students it offers as much opportunity for experience as the smaller band would.

Muenster Delegates Attend Convention Of Catholic League

Rev. Louis Deuster headed the Muenster delegation going to Shiner to attend the 53rd annual convention of the Catholic State League of Texas, held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Delegates representing the parish societies were Frank Klement, R. R. Endres, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hoenig, Mrs. Joe Fisher, Sr., Mrs. J. W. Fisher and Jerry Fuhrman. The two cars left early Tuesday morning after attending four o'clock mass read by Father Louis.

During the Catholic Day program Wednesday Father Victor of Pleasanton presided and gave awards in connection with the Rural Life program. Father Victor was recently honored as the outstanding professional man in Texas in Rural Life Work. The League yearly sponsors awards for this work. Among those honored was J. W. Hess of Muenster for outstanding work in soil conservation.

Miss Fette, Polio Patient, Improving

Florence Fette, polio patient at Parkland Hospital, Dallas, since Tuesday of last week, is improving but still has a long way to go, according to a report brought back by her parents Wednesday. The paralysis in her throat has not cleared completely, however fever has dropped and her condition has improved generally. Doctors expect to move her out of the isolation ward in a few days.

Auctioneers Win 3 Lose 1 in Past Week

Dick Cain's team of school boy ball players have been going strong during the past week winning three games in a row and losing the fourth by a single run.

Tuesday night at Denton the Auctioneers were nosed out 4-3 by a team of Denton's Junior Leaguers. The boys played a fine defensive game behind the steady pitching of Cotton Walterscheid but allowed the opposition to put over a four run rally in the third. Muenster scored in the fourth, fifth and seventh.

Previous games were a different story. Playing Windthorst here last Thursday night the Auctioneers went on a scoring spree and won 13-2. The first two innings were tight, each team scoring one. In the next four frames Muenster scored 3, 6, 2 and 3. The visitors additional tally came in the fifth. Walterscheid pitched his usual good game and Fisher got a homer.

Wendell Richey pitching against Callisburg Friday night made a slow start allowing 3 in the first and 2 in the third. After that, however he pitched a scoreless game as his teammates came from behind and built up a comfortable margin. A lone tally in the third was followed by 2, 6 and 3 in the next three innings.

Playing Lindsay here Sunday the Auctioneers had a tougher game. They took an early lead and held it until the sixth when the visitors tied the score at 9 all. Two runs in the last of the sixth gave the Muenster boys their winning margin. Fisher started on the mound and Cotton Walterscheid took over in the third. Cotton helped his own cause by slapping out a homer in the fourth.

Immigrant Family Moves to Muenster

Mr. and Mrs. Franz Wolf, their 17-year-old son and six-year-old daughter, are new residents in Muenster. They moved here from Lindsay where they lived several months since coming to the United States. They are at home in Joe Trachta's house adjoining the Alfons Pautler home. The Wolfs, whose home was originally in Eslovakia, Yugoslavia, were expelled from that country in 1945 during Tito's regime. The family then consisted of six members including a nine months old baby and Mr. Wolf's aged mother. One daughter, 12, died in a camp in Austria. The grandmother also died. They were prisoners there for four years. Mr. Wolf is employed on the construction work now in progress at the new church.

Tough Digging in Solid Rock Delays New Church Progress

After two and a half months of digging, workmen at the new Sacred Heart church have finally hit bottom and started coming back out of the ground.

First concrete was poured Tuesday. It is a part of the footing for the foundation and basement wall at the east end of the building.

Excavating for the basement turned out to be a Herculean job. The hole is approximately 50 x 60 feet by 16 feet deep. . . including 12 1/2 feet through solid rock.

And still the digging is far from being complete. F. W. McAdams, superintendent for Cowdin Brothers, said Wednesday that there will be several more weeks of digging to get a solid base for the rest of the foundation and footings for tunnel walls under the church floor.

The men are encountering rough formation on that work.

There's about 2 feet of surface dirt, then a layer of rock and another layer of dirt before reaching solid footing at about 4 feet. The layer of rock is causing the grief. All of it has to be broken with air drills and moved away by hand.

The last job of rough digging will be for the front tower formation. It will go through the same formation plus an additional three feet of rock to reach a harder rock formation.

Meanwhile carpenters have started building forms for the foundation at the east end of the structure. Concrete will be poured as soon as forms are ready, then other basement work will be started while foundation work continues at the front end.

Judging by the present rate of progress, McAdams said, it may be Christmas before the church gets out of the ground.

Summer Vacation Will End Sept. 8

Summer vacation for students of the Muenster public school will come to an end on September 8, Superintendent. Weldon Cowan revealed this week.

Cowan also said that the school will have a more comprehensive program requiring 14 teachers instead of the 12 who served last year. The addition of the music department and expansion of mathematics and physical education programs accounts for the increase.

Two places on the faculty, are still vacant, one teacher for math and another for speech and library. Former teachers returning this year are Weldon Cowan, L. B. Bruns, C. R. Coe, Ralph Maglaughlin, Frances Mitchell, Marie Mosman, Ruth Coe and Waldine Midgett. New teachers are Troy Stewart, coach; Bill Searcy, music; Patsy Scott, homemaking; and Weldon Holland elementary.

The school year consisting of 176 days will end on May 22. Holidays are 2 days for Thanksgiving, 1 day on Dec. 8, 2 weeks for Christmas and 2 days for Easter.

Modern Home Will Replace Landmark

One of Muenster's oldest buildings is giving way to the march of progress. Work started this week on tearing down the home of Mrs. Joe Fleitman to make room for a modern three bedroom home.

The old 8 room square house was built about 60 years ago, according to old timers of the community. Mrs. Fleitman said the house was there when she came to Muenster 59 years ago. John Bayer, who also arrived here in '93 said he thought the place was built the year before. Joe Fisher Sr. also thought it was built in '92.

The age of the house is indicated also by the presence of some old style square cut nails. Most nails however are the round cast type now commonly in use.

Members of the Fleitman family are taking down the house and salvaging materials for use in the next building. They are finding frame lumber as good as new. Present flooring will serve as sub floors, and wall board will also be used and covered with wallpaper.

While the old house is being removed and the new one built Mrs. Fleitman and daughter, Anna are living in a one story addition at the west side of the house. That part of the present building will be removed after the new house is occupied.

When Will Stalin Strike?

Our nation's effort to secure world peace occupies the prominent position on the 1952 political stage. Major personalities of both political parties place that objective first. Communism, on the other hand, is dedicated to making war—to the violent overrunning of the non-Communist world. But a great many American citizens and an astonishing number of political leaders do not yet recognize the major factors governing Russia's planning for world domination. Communist Russia will launch an all-out attack only when two conditions prevail in America: (1) when it is certain that American industrial production can be crippled for a considerable time through Fifth Column activities, strikes, sabotage, etc., and (2) when the people of America have been so weaned away from their support of the basic principle of private ownership of property and the tools of production that they will offer little resistance to its destruction.

Stalin A Realist

It's as simple as that. Stalin knows he cannot win so long as the full industrial might of this free enterprise nation stands united against him. For instance, this nation produced more armament than our enemies and all our allies combined at the height of World War II. Foregoing strikes and sabotage we can do it again. Therefore, Stalin's sole hope lies in his ability to sabotage our production capacity and with the aid of his Fifth Column and its dupes, to so destroy the confidence of our people in our present system that they will offer little resistance.

These are elemental facts. Even a schoolboy ought to be able to understand them. Yet, the apathy of the American mind to these decisive facts is so apparent that ex-Communist Whitaker Chambers foresees the end of human liberty and the overrunning of the world by Communism. Chambers declares that most Americans do not know the nature of Communism and do not understand the mind of the Communist. This is strikingly apparent among some important government leaders — witness President Truman's remark in 1948: "I like old Joe. Joe is a decent fellow."

Chambers Sees Doom

In his best-seller book, "Witness," Chambers reveals that his break with Communism and rebirth of loyalty to America was, to him, a return to a hopeless cause. The world, he explains, "does not know or even want to know two facts that it must know to survive: (1) the meaning of Communism, (2) the nature of the Communist mind."

"I wanted my wife to realize clearly one long-term penalty, for herself and for the children, of the step (deserting Communism) I was taking," Chambers writes. He says to his wife: "You know, we are leaving the winning world (Communism) for the losing world (freedom)." Then he shows that during the 13 years between his break with Communism and the writing of his book following the sensational Hiss trial, he found little evidence to indicate an awakening by the American public to the terrible facts of our crisis. "Almost nothing that I have observed, or that has happened to me since (the break with Communism in 1938), has made me think that I was wrong about that forecast," he writes in his book.

Other Warnings

Chambers' gloomy forecast of the defeat of the forces of freedom by Communism bolsters the grim warnings of others who understand Communism and the nature of Communists. In the past year I have talked personally and searchingly with Matthew Cvetec, who was a Communist nine years for the FBI; with Louis Budenz, ex-Communist editor of the Daily Worker; with Dr. J. B. Matthews, former chief investigator of the House Un-American Activities Committee; and with present and former FBI officials. None of them scoffs at Chambers' forecast. Like Chambers, they are trying to arouse the American people to the true danger.

Every citizen can do something to combat the Communists' highly organized work seeking to weaken our industrial production, our love of country and our support for the American way of life. First, the citizen must become informed by reading books such as 'Chambers'

Good Home Life Is Basis Of Civilization

THE HOME is the basis of civilization. It is the rock bottom upon which the social edifice rests. Whatever weakens the home, undermines society and brings a nation to spiritual and moral decay.

He who would strengthen a nation had best begin at home. The home is the basic unit of society, the foundation of civilization, and the place where all reform to be effective must begin.

The home which will render the greatest contribution to the moral and spiritual welfare of the individual, to the prosperity and happiness of the nation, and to the stabilization of the peace of the world is the home in which God reigns.

the most important school. The mother has been constituted by God as the first and the most effective teacher.

Like soft wax the mind of a child receives impressions with ease. It is these first impressions which sink the deepest and remain the longest.

THAT IS WHY no professional teacher can ever be a proper substitute for the home as a training school for the young. The most that these persons and agencies can do is to supplement the work of the mother in her home.

If the training is neglected by the mother, then no human agency is capable of repairing the loss. It is final and irreparable.

THE HOME is the ideal training school also because example is a more powerful teacher than precept. The example of the parents the child drinks in with every breath. It is this example which influences the child and makes him responsive or unresponsive to the ideal of living for God and Country.

To the educators, statesmen, and social planners who are searching for an answer to the ills that beset our land, we say: Put God into the homes of America.

To the fathers and mothers who are groping for the path to enduring peace and love and happiness, we say:

"PUT GOD into your home and keep Him there—and all will be well with you and with America."—by Rev. John A. O'Brien, University of Notre Dame.

Those who guide the destinies of peoples and nations can plan no worth-while world if they ignore the authority of God and deny Him His place in all phases of human activity . . . in education, society, economic life, and in the home.

I CALL UPON my fellow countrymen of all faiths, Protestants, Jews, Catholics, inviting all believers in a Supreme Being to stand shoulder to shoulder in the vitally important task of building homes in which God reigns, and in which His law is the code of the individual and social conduct of its members.

The home is the first and

Life Story of PRICE DANIEL

Texas Candidate for U. S. Senator

Price Daniel, Texas' trustbusting, crime fighting Attorney General and defender of the State School Lands was born in Liberty County, Oct. 10, 1910.

ALWAYS A HARD WORKER

Hard work has characterized his whole life. At the age of 9, he worked as a ranch helper and newsboy in Liberty. Later, while attending high school in Fort Worth, he helped pay his way by working as a cub reporter on the Fort Worth Star-Telegram. He worked on the Waco News-Tribune while attending Baylor University, where he earned degrees in journalism and law.

LAWYER AND LAW-MAKER

Back home in Liberty, Price Daniel opened his law office at the height of the depression. His office was on the same spot where General Sam Houston, hero of San Jacinto and Texas' first U. S. Senator, had his law office 100 years earlier. Daniel struggled to make ends meet, earning $75 a month his first year. He soon won a brilliant reputation as a lawyer, and was elected to represent the people of Liberty and Hardin Counties in the Texas Legislature.

SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE

During his six years in the House, Daniel sponsored much constructive legislation for better schools, conservation of natural resources and full payment of old-age pensions. He opposed a State income tax and a general sales tax, being one of the "Fighting 56" who defeated the sales tax amendment.

In his third term as a legislator, Price Daniel, at the age of 32, was elected Speaker of the Texas House of Representatives. Here he vigorously fought waste and extravagance in State govern-

WORLD WAR II VETERAN

While still Speaker of the House, Price Daniel waived his legislative exemption and enlisted in the Army as a private. He served three years, having overseas duty in the Pacific with both the Army and Marines. He was discharged as a Captain. He is a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion. He is the only veteran in the Senate race.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

Ninety days after returning home from the service in 1946, he won a whirlwind campaign for Attorney General. As the "People's Lawyer" for six years, Price Daniel has won a national reputation for his fight to save the Texas tidelands and his battle against organized crime. In over 5,000 lawsuits he has recovered or saved vast school fund properties and more than $14,000,000 in cash. Twice he has been re-elected without opposition. In 1948 he polled 1,231,881 votes, the largest number ever received by a candidate in Texas.

ACTIVE IN CHURCH AND CIVIC AFFAIRS

Price Daniel has been active in the Church and civic affairs of his community and still operates his small farm and ranch at Liberty. He taught a Men's Sunday School Class at the Baptist Church in Liberty and is now President of the W. R. White Bible Class in Austin. He is co-publisher of two weekly newspapers and a life-long Democrat.

Albert M. Biffle States Policy As Sheriff Candidate

Albert M. Biffle, Candidate for Sheriff of Cooke County, is a native son of this county, born of pioneer Cooke County families. Mr. Biffle is 38 years of age, married and has one child. He is a graduate of Gainesville High School and has spent nearly all his life in Cooke County.

In making the race for Sheriff, Albert M. Biffle has issued the following statement to the voters of Cooke County.

"I am deeply grateful for the vote and influence given me in my previous campaign for this office. The results were most gratifying—lets keep the ball rolling to put new interest into Cooke County law enforcement."

"If elected to serve as Sheriff, I will have no other business interest except the duties of this office and will faithfully devote my time to them. I shall always be aware of the fact that I am a servant of the people and shall do my utmost to fulfill my obligation to the people. I intend to represent all the people regardless of position, race, creed or color. I am for Cooke County War Veterans and their efforts 100%. public office. Qualifications are not based on experience alone. Many of our most successful public servants rose from obscurity to give us excellent services. Through years of study, the desire to improve one's governing bodies, self sacrifice and hard work they have proved their ability to do a good job."

"Albert M. Biffle is such a man, reared by a widowed mother, a poor boy all his life but not afraid of hard work. With ample law enforcement education in his back ground, young enough in years to be energetic, old enough in years to have sound judgement Albert Biffle can give Cooke County what it needs in law enforcement."

"Good government requires an informed and interested public. Because we live by a democratic way of life changes are in order ever so often. That way we progress otherwise we become complacent."

"With these things in mind, I respectfully ask you to give a young man a chance to prove by his energetic efforts his ability to bring to Cooke County, a very efficient scale of law enforcement."

"Support a native son of Cooke County. B for Biffle for Sheriff. Give me your vote and I will repay you with service."

Do You Want Lower Taxes?

Your present County Judge, JOHN ATCHISON, not only favors lower taxes, but he has actually done something about it. You don't have to guess or take anybody's word about his stand, or depend on promises as to what he will do. During all of his 3 years in office, your County tax rate has been lower than it was before.

There are now only 4 counties out of the 254 in the whole State with a lower tax rate than Cooke County. Some are more than 4½ times as high. And JOHN ATCHISON is recommending another decrease in Cooke County's tax for this year.

If you want an economical County government, if you want to eliminate waste and extravagance and unnecessary spending in your County government so that your tax bill can be held to the minimum, then vote on July 26 to re-elect JOHN ATCHISON County Judge.

575,000 4-H'ers Get Training to Cut Farm Accident Toll

Farm safety surveys made by 4-H'ers show that matches within reach of small children and stairways littered with toys, jars and other articles were much in evidence as fire and accident hazards in rural homes.

Chicago—(Special)—More than 575,000 4-H Club boys and girls throughout the nation are receiving training in farm accident and fire prevention this year. The outstanding feature of this training in the National 4-H Farm and Home Safety program is to check and remove from farms and homes any conditions likely to cause fire, accidents or injuries. These 4-H surveys are acclaimed a valuable contribution to the nation-wide campaign to reduce the annual toll of 15,000 farm people dying and 1,300,000 being injured as a result of rural accidents each year.

Here is a report, made by a 4-H girl on behalf of her local club, after making a safety survey of every home in the community: "In all homes having stairways that we visited, the stairs were full of toys, jars, tools and other articles," she stated. "In many homes people used kerosene to build fires. They also had oily cloths and papers stored close to the stove and flue. Matches and unlabeled bottles of poisonous liquids were within reach of small children.

"On several farms visited, boards with rusty nails pointing upward were much in evidence. In our local schoolhouse, the ceiling plaster in the classroom was loose. If it fell it would cause severe injuries to the pupils.

"After we had made our survey, we called a community meeting. Attention was called to the hazards we had found. Immediately following the meeting everyone present began work necessary to make our community a safe one. Every hazard we had found was corrected."

Medals of honor are presented to five county winners having the best 4-H records in safety work, and a trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago is awarded to the State champion. Eight of the latter will be selected as national winners, who will each receive a $300 college scholarship. Awards are provided by General Motors for the eighth consecutive year. The program is conducted under the direction of the Co-operative Extension Service.

WE ALWAYS BELIEVED IT
In the Army, women don't seem to stand up to men as cooks. Officials of the Third Army Food Service School tabulated a year's culinary operations and found not a single woman had graduated with top honors. A spokesman at the school guessed that women failed to equal men in proficiency because "the girls like to take their time and be finicky with small meals. They've had to cook meals for more than 100 men at a time." Added the spokesman: "I guess it's demoralizing."
