

There's a reason why the radio and press have been commenting so much lately about President-elect Eisenhower's coming trip to Korea. There's a reason why that trip became so much of a campaign issue from the first day it was mentioned. People are gravely concerned about the so called police action and they are anxiously hoping that Ike will find a way to end it, or at least to end some of the agony that American men have to endure over there.

We feel confident that Ike will improve things from a military standpoint . . . by either hitting the enemy with an all out effort or inflicting the greatest possible damage with the least possible loss to our forces.

Meanwhile we have to face the fact that any success he has on his trip is only a small beginning toward solving the Asiatic mess. The big decisions will have to be made in Washington.

Senator Styles Bridges of New Hampshire, ranking Republican member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, has an article in this month's American Mercury outlining what he calls "a positive proposal" to deal with the problem. His suggestion is that we take the initiative and deal out the punishment rather than attempt to hold the enemy after conceding any number of advantages.

The man suggests that we wake up first of all to the very evident fact that we are at war, not just a police action, that our enemy is international communism and that the field of conflict is all Asia. We are not actively engaged, and unless we join with them to check the relentless red advance we are likely to wake up some day to the grim reality that all our Asiatic friends have been wiped out. Can there be anything more absurd than our present policy of holding the line in Korea while the enemy goes on gobbling up the rest of Asia?

"There is no parallel of latitude nor national boundary," says Senator Bridges, "on which we can sign an armistice and go home. We are in a great world power struggle which must end in the disarmament of our enemy or in the defeat of America."

Another fact, he points out, and one that must be acknowledged, is that China, the heart of Asia, has been lost, and can be regained only when armed communism collapses in Asia and our idea prevails.

The next fact for us to recognize is that, in spite of all the communist gains so far, we still have millions more friends in Asia than the reds do and they are waiting on our leadership to take up the fight against communism. So our immediate job is to understand, enumerate and rally our Asiatic allies.

With these facts in mind, Bridges believes that America and her allies should start exerting pressure wherever possible on the communists. Methods suggested to accomplish this include lifting restrictions on weapons on the field of battle, blockading communist ports and supporting commando raids and armed rebellion against the reds.

In view of the dismal failure of our weak policy during the past several years, it is hard to imagine how the powers in Washington can find fault with such suggestions. Everybody knows by now that the policy of containment does not work. Any thinking man should have known from the beginning that the enemy has the advantage if he is permitted to choose the time and place of attack and at the same time enjoy immunity from attack.

Just think what has been going on. During all the red expansion in Asia we did not lift a finger until Korea. And even then we were not allowed to hit troop and supply concentrations across the Yalu. Isn't it about time to dish out some of the grief to the reds? Isn't it about time to start mobilizing our Asiatic friends, who now live in daily fear of being next in the communist conquest, in a crusade to annihilate the red scourge? Why should decent people live in fear while tyrants sleep easy? Why not reverse this thing? Rekindle the hope in decent hearts and

Lone Star Applies To City Council for Gas Rate Increase

The Lone Star Gas Company's application for a rate adjustment affecting approximately 275 residential and commercial customers in Muenster was approved by the City Council at its meeting on November 14, 1952. The increase to the average residential user (family unit) will amount to less than 3 cents a day, it was pointed out by B. O. Yeakley of Gainesville, District Manager for the gas company. He stated that similar rate revisions have been sought throughout Lone Star's operating territory in Texas and Oklahoma.

Mr. Yeakley expressed appreciation to the City Council for "consideration of the gas company application," pointing out that the "new rate makes it possible for us to continue to maintain our standard of service on the plane desired and expected by our customers."

The gas company manager emphasized that residential and commercial rates charged by Lone Star have not been increased generally within the last twenty-five years, but, conversely, the rates were reduced ten cents per thousand cubic feet in May, 1942. He said the new rate here is only three cents per

Panthers Overcome Early Hornet Lead For 20-12 Victory

The roving trophy which is at stake annually in the football clash between Muenster's Hornets and Saint Jo's Panthers remained in Saint Jo Friday night. Coming from behind for a 20-12 triumph the Panthers claimed the golden horse shoe after it had spent two years in the Hornet trophy case.

By their victory the Panthers also established themselves as strong contenders for the 11-B conference title. Muenster slipped down to third place leaving Saint Jo and Sanger to decide first and second places in the clash at Saint Jo this Friday night.

The story of the game in brief is that the Panthers clicked beautifully for most of the time whereas the Hornets failed to continue clicking after a good

Loop Title at Stake In Tigers' Finale Friday at Buckner

The Tigers of Sacred Heart High will be playing for the championship of the North Texas Academic League, or at least a tie for first place honor, when they take on the Buckner Orphans at Dallas Friday night.

To date every team in the loop has lost at least one game, and if the Tigers can pull through this week's tussle without another loss they will at least share top spot with another team.

Boys Ranch, playing Catholic High of Texarkana Friday night, has a similar chance to share the top honor.

The same may apply to Catholic High, depending on how it came out in a game with Buckner. To date Father Cletus Post, Tiger coach, has had no report on that contest. If Catholic High won that it is in the one-loss group with Sacred Heart and Boys Ranch. That one loss was to Lanier, the game being decided on penetrations after a 19-19 tie. Sacred Heart lost to Catholic Hi and Boys Ranch lost to Sacred Heart.

In case of a tie the coaches concerned will decide whether to have a play-off or flip a coin for the title.

In the event that Catholic High lost to Buckner and trips Boys' Ranch this week the Tigers have a clear shot at the title. And, still assuming Catholic Hi lost to Buckner, losses by both the Tigers and the Ranchers could really tie up the conference standing. That would mean that each of the five teams has won two and lost two.

Endres Gets Award For Safety Effort

Presentation of a Highway Safety Award for contributing to traffic safety has been made to Endres Motor Company, Muenster by the Texas Automotive Dealers Association, the state organization of new car dealers.

The award is in recognition of the local dealer's lending an automobile for high school driver training during the 1951-52 school year to Muenster Independent School, and to Saint Jo High School.

C. B. Smith, Austin, State Safety Chairman for the dealer association, described this contribution to safe driving by the local dealer as a significant service to the community the state and the nation.

In Texas alone last school year, more than 250 members of the authorized dealers association loaned cars to schools in their community where "behind the wheel" instruction is given in high school training.

It was estimated by E. A. Kinsel, Beaumont, president of the state association, that this represents an investment of more than $500,000 which Texas new car dealers have in a "revolving" fund devoted to safety education.

Clothing Drive for Korea and Europe Sponsored by NCCW

The annual Thanksgiving clothing drive is in progress here and will continue through November 30. Pastors at Sacred Heart church announced the opening of the drive Sunday.

Parishes throughout the United States are cooperating in the campaign to bring relief to Korea and refugees of Europe, the Near and Far East.

It is the annual clothing collection requested by Pope Pius XII, conducted by the National Council of Catholic Women under the auspices of War Relief Services—National Catholic Welfare Conference.

All items will be shipped to the Holy Father's storerooms.

Local contributions are to be deposited in the Sacred Heart rectory garage.

Since the need is especially great, the sponsor group urges everyone to take part. Clean, usable clothing, bedding and shoes are solicited. Shoes should be matched and tied together.

In his letter announcing this year's drive the Holy Father praised the noble record of the Catholic women of America and added, "By eliminating want, you become messengers and promoters of peace."

FFA Boys Compete In 5 Year Farm Plan

A complete 5 year farm plan including conservation, improvements, crop rotations, stocking and grazing program, etc., is the latest project taken up by vocational agriculture students at Muenster High.

The project is being conducted as a contest with four teams of four members each in the competition. When completed, plans are to be judged by personnel of the local soil conservation work unit and the losing three teams will treat the winners at a party.

All teams are starting the contest with the same hypothetical farm. Instructor Ralph Maglaughlin gave a description of a 320 acre tract of land, its types of soil, contour and original buildings, and told the boys to work out their own programs to operate at a profit while conserving and improving the land and also adding buildings and fences to fit their recommended programs.

Murray Cox Will Give Program Here

Murray Cox, WFAA farm editor will be in Muenster some time next February, according to plans revealed by Superintendent Weldon Cowan Tuesday. In reply to a recent invitation Cox said he would like to come but has no open date until February.

His program, consisting of his own remarks and agricultural films will be open to the public as well as to students.

The Lions Club at a meeting Tuesday night voted to time one of their February dinner meetings so they can have Cox as their guest.

Brick Work Starts on New Church Job Six Months After First Dirt Moved

On Wednesday, November 12, six months and two days after digging started, the first bricks were laid at the new Sacred Heart church, according to Nick Yosten's progress report on the project.

The day the job started Nick started jotting down notes and he intends to keep jotting until the job is finished.

Among other things his figures reveal that more than three months was spent on an excavation job that removed more than 4000 cubic yards of dirt and rock, most of which had to be blasted out of a solid rock formation for the basement, foundation and air duct tunnels. About 1200 yards of the dirt was hauled back for a fill after air duct tunnels were finished.

First concrete, for the foundation footings, was poured about three months after excavation started.

Since then 16 car loads of crushed rock and 4200 sacks of cement have gone into foundation, basement and tunnels. Concrete work is still in progress. The job at this time is the two outer sections of the main floor. The center section, to be run in two or three weeks, will complete the concrete work.

Meanwhile four brick layers are working at the east end of the building. They have almost finished facing the foundation wall up to the level of the sanctuary floor and will start the main wall immediately thereafter. Other bricklayers will start on the main wall early next week. About 20 bricklayers will be working when the job is in full swing.

The wall of the church will be about 19 inches thick. It will consist of three common bricks, a face brick and inside facing of white stone.

Other work scheduled to start soon is installation of air ducts under the main floor and heating and cooling equipment in the basement. Cement work on the basement is finished. It consists of an equipment room 34x65 and a storage room 17x14.

According to Floyd McAdams, superintendent, the project will last more than another year. He hopes to have it ready for Christmas 1953.

Parish to Sponsor Turkey Day Picnic For Church Benefit

Thanksgiving will be observed in the traditional way in the Sacred Heart parish next Thursday by a special mass of Thanksgiving followed by an all day parish picnic and a dance in the VFV hall at night. Proceeds from both the picnic and the dance will go to the new church fund.

The featured event is a boxed chicken dinner to be served at noon. Other attractions are the usual bazaar concessions.

Because of the chilly season the celebration will be held on the grounds adjoining the church. The parish park was voted out because of the chilly season.

Tigers Overpower Boys' Ranch 20-6 At Homecoming

A large crowd of Sacred Heart Homecoming fans was treated to a thrilling and pleasing football spectacle as the Tigers outplayed and outscored the favored Boys Ranch Ranchers 20-6 Thursday night.

They saw the local boys, after playing on even terms with their visitors in the first half, return and practically take command of the field in the second.

Performance of the two teams was almost exactly even in the first half. Both had 4 first downs, the Tigers had total gains of 156 and the Ranchers 159. Also each had a touchdown, and the extra point after touchdown was the margin of the Tigers lead at half-time.

In the next half the Tigers picked up 177 yards and 7 first downs while holding the Ranchers to 31 yards and 2 first downs. They also increased their lead by two touchdowns.

Former Local Man Burned in Explosion

Lloyd Waggoner, 32, formerly of Muenster, sustained serious burns Saturday at about 2:30 a.m. in an explosion in the oil mill where he is employed in Sherman. Cause of the explosion, in which one of the three men involved lost his life, was not definitely determined, but is believed to have been caused by dust ignited by electrical equipment.

Kyle Waggoner visited his brother at St. Vincent's Hospital Monday. Others at his bedside were his parents, the J. O. Waggoners, and O. G. Rennels. Rennels gave blood for a transfusion.

Edna Hesse Reigns As Queen at Annual Homecoming Event

The crowning of Miss Edna Hesse as the 1952 football queen, a 20-6 victory of the Tigers over the Boys Ranch Ranchers, and a dance in the VFW Hall were high spots on an eventful homecoming program attended by a large crowd of Sacred Heart High Tiger boosters on Thursday night, Nov. 13.

The colorful coronation ceremonies took place on the 50 yard line before the game.

The queen and her princesses entered the field from the north. At the 30 yard line their escorts met them and they proceeded to the center of the field.

Tiger Co-captain Joe Felderhoff crowned the queen and she presented him with the homecoming football. Co-captain James Mollenkopf presented Her Highness with a bouquet of white mums.

Queen Edna wore a lovely gown of white taffeta with a bouffant nylon net overskirt and a white brocaded satin cape with a long train.

Princess Caroline Hesse carried the football. She wore a pink ballerina length dress with a net overskirt and was escorted by Sylvan Walterscheid. Princess Theresa Mae Felderhoff carried the queen's bouquet. She wore an aqua organdy frock and was escorted by Donald Bayer. Princess Dolores Haverkamp, runner-up in the queen's contest, carried the crown. She wore an orchid taffeta dress with a net overskirt and was escorted by William Walterscheid.

Train bearers, tiny Rachael Endres, Cynthia Stoffels, Judy Dangelmayr and Barbara Jean Esker, wore white floor length dresses.

After the ceremony the queen and her party occupied places of honor in the grandstand.

The school's pep squad formed a guard of honor for the royal party and sang the school song, following it with the Tiger song.

Tigers Win - - -

An interesting point is that the Tigers did not attempt a pass until the fourth quarter, then opened an aerial attack that paid off in a big way. They completed 4 of 6 tosses for 81 yards. The Ranchers, on the other hand went strong on passes the first half but completed only 4 out of 12 for 36. In the second they tried 4 completing one for 6 yards and having one intercepted.

The visitors started by making two first downs but losing the ball on downs on the next series then recovering a Tiger fumble and losing on downs again.

Sacred Heart snapped back then with a 69 yard push featured by Gil Knabe's 31, Albert Knabe's 14 and Mollenkopf's 10, but stiff Rancher resistance held on the 3.

Taking over the Ranchers completed 2 passes to the 20 and Herod picked up 8 before Bagby got loose on a 72 yard dash to the goal.

The visitors did not hold their lead long. On the second play after kickoff Gilbert Knabe raced 67 yards to a touchdown shaking loose one tackler on the way. Albert Knabe carried over for the extra point.

The rest of the half saw the Ranchers threatening after recovering a Tiger fumble on the 30. Two passes got to the 11 but the Tiger defense broke up the attack there.

Sacred Heart started the third quarter by recovering a Rancher fumble but failed to advance, then allowed a first down and claimed the oval again on Felderhoff's interception. After a first down they lost it on a fumble and got it back 4 plays later on Herod's kick.

Then followed a Tiger drive for 42 yards that fizzled out on the 16 and the visitors took over.

Herod's unexpected kick on the first offensive play caught the Tiger backs flat footed. The ball sailed beautifully with the stout breeze and tumbled on to the Tiger 8. Mollenkopf kicked on third down and Felderhoff recovered a Rancher fumble on the Tiger 43. Another kick 4 plays later had the visitors back to their 23. Holding then and partially blocking Herod's kick the Tigers had the ball on the Ranchers' 40.

At that point Mollenkopf's screen pass to Gil Knabe paid off for 28 and Endres' heave to Felderhoff completed the distance.

Allowing Boys Ranch one first down and holding on the second series, the Tigers claimed the ball on downs on their 34 and started another drive. Two passes, Gil Knabe to Felderhoff for 22 and Mollenkopf to Gil Knabe for 19 were the big gains in the 66 yard push ending in Mollenkopf's conditions We believe it highly crash from the 1 foot line. Mollenkopf hit the line again for the extra point and the final count of 20-6.

Gas Rate Increase

thousand cubic feet higher than the rate charged by Lone Star prior to the 1942 reduction.

"Under the new rate," Mr. Yeakley said, "the increase per customer (family unit) will average 79 cents per month or less than 3 cents a day. Of each additional 79 cents paid by the customer each month, 42 cents will go to various taxes, thus leaving the company only 37 cents."

"The Lone Star Gas Company has taken a great deal of pride in the fact that we have been able to furnish a good, adequate and dependable fuel service to our customers at the lowest possible price conducive to good business and sufficient earnings," he continued. "Our application for the rate revision here represented only the most essential and absolutely minimum increase consistent with present economic conditions We believe it highly conservative.

The additional revenue," he said, "is required to meet losses in net income due to increased taxes, costs of gas in the fields, rising costs for gas exploration and development, wages and salaries and numerous other items. We are confident that our customers as well as regulatory bodies understand our situation because all businesses—and individuals, too—have had to wrestle with the problem of rising costs."

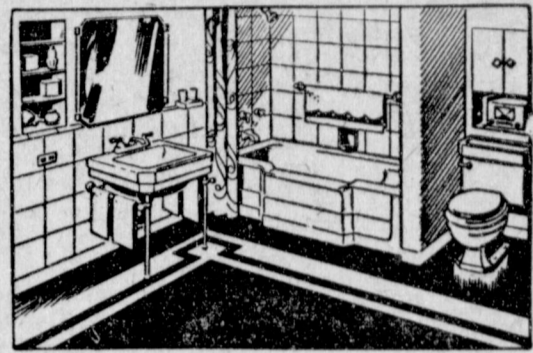

Texans Pay Sharks 100 Million a Year

A conservative estimate of the usurious interest that small borrowers in Houston are paying to loan sharks is $15,000,000 a year, declares Fisher G. Dorsey, Houston Better Business Bureau president.

With such a toll in a single city, the total extorted in the entire State probably would not miss $100,000,000 very far. If this vast amount were spent for food, clothing, automobiles, travel, the movies and for personal services (including medical and dental care), there would be corresponding benefit to the health and happiness of the thousands of families involved. Spent in this way, the great amount would mean increased business in all lines and, indirectly, would benefit farmers, livestock raisers, workers and the public in general.

Recognizing the seriousness of the situation, the State Bar of Texas is on record as favoring legislation to regulate the small loan business and set charges at a reasonable figure. A special small loan law committee of the State Bar has drafted a bill embodying these principles and the Junior Bar Association has endorsed the bill.

The American Way

CANADIAN EXAMPLE
 By George Peck
 The banking system of the Dominion of Canada differs greatly from that of the United States in one respect. Canadian laws permit, in fact, encourage branch banking. The result is that most of the banking business in Canada is handled by ten large chartered banks, each with several hundred branches located across the Dominion.

But though the banking systems of the two countries may differ, they have one thing very much in common. Both are under fire by socialist propagandists who demand that the banks be nationalized. In Canada, they would put the Canadian government into the banking business and are making much capital out of the fact that the mother country, England, has nationalized her banks.

A few years ago, Canada's ten chartered banks replied to the "crackpots" by making a joint announcement in publications throughout the Dominion. A part of this declaration so aptly describes the advantage to the general public of private banking over that of government, that it is well worth repeating again and again. It read:

"Ten competing chartered banks are the very opposite of a State Monopoly such as would come about if all the banks were rolled into one by nationalization. Under State Monopoly, if you failed to get accommodation at one bank you could not go to any of the nine others to seek it. YOU CAN TODAY."

One of the Canadian banks, the Royal Bank of Canada, on its own behalf, also inserted an announcement in Canadian magazines and newspapers, carrying a message which should be read and heeded by every American. So I pass it along:

"Every business started as an idea in the mind of some individual. Every shop, every farm, every factory, every worthwhile enterprise from banks to movie theaters, came into being because some individual had faith in an idea and the courage to back it. Every Canadian has this right—the right to build his future in his own way—to go into business for himself if he chooses—and to reap the reward of his enterprise. So it has always been. That is the very essence of our free way of life, the solid foundation of our greatness as a nation."

In this same announcement, the Royal Bank of Canada gave just about as good an answer to the question, "What is Private Enterprise?" as I have ever read or heard. It defined Private Enterprise as follows:

"It is the natural desire to make your own way, as far as your ability will take you; an instinct that has brought to this continent the highest standard of life enjoyed by any people on earth. It is the spirit of democracy on the march." Naturally, these Canadian banks, in their own self-interest, have steadfastly combated any and all individuals or groups who have sought to destroy them by relegating private banking to the scrapheap and having government take over the banking business. But, at the same time, they have rendered a further service to all the Canadian people by pointing out in simple, easily-understood language, the advantages enjoyed by all under Private Enterprise and the drawbacks inherent in government ownership.

Were the Canadian government to take over the banks, it would only be a question of time until it took over businesses of all kinds, both large and small. Right here is a lesson that workers in Canada and in every other country should learn—the sad fate that befalls labor unions when there is only one boss—the State. All they have to do is to contemplate the unhappy experiences of workers in many European countries where one State Boss has replaced the many employer bosses. The sad plight of labor in England is the most recent of these. What applies to Canada, to England and other countries is equally true here in the United States. During war emergencies we were given a close-up picture of the futility and ineptness of government in business. True, we grumbled at the bunglings of the bureaucrats, but accepted their invasion into our privacy and freedom as just another of the inevitable horrors of war.

Now, we have a "Police Action" in Korea and we are faced with the constant threat of another world-wide war. These emergencies provide the bureaucrats with a pretext to keep bureaucrating, and the socialists to scream for nationalization of our basic industries and businesses.

Our friends above the Great Lakes, by their determination to keep their economy free, have shown us a splendid example. They continue to pursue a course that we in the United States can very well applaud and travel with them.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Going... Going...
 Almost Gone

Granny Robinson put on quite a show the other night at the annual White Elephant auction held at the Women's Club.

Towards the end of the evening, she had the ladies battling for anything she put up. "What am I bid for this woman's lovely black coat here—good as new? Who'll say ten dollars?" she asked.

Granny held the coat up, and commenced describing the coat's lining, sleeves, buttons—really "selling hard." Then, suddenly, she took a close look and blurted out "Land sakes, no more bidding please—this is my own coat!" From where I sit, what almost happened to Granny was good for a laugh, but sometimes when people "get carried away" with their own talk it's not so funny. I prefer a glass of temperate beer while listening to my favorite radio program—you may like soda pop—or cider. I suggest we hold on to our personal opinions—and believe in them—but take a good close look at them before we try to "sell" them to our neighbor!

Soil Conservation Notes

How late can vetch and rye be planted and still make some grazing and a seed crop? That question seems to be cropping up with surprising regularity these days at the local soil conservation office as teasing light showers continue to sharpen the edge of indecision of farmers badly in need of grazing for their livestock.

According to Emmitt Yoder, local soil conservation technician, vetch and rye will give early spring grazing and a satisfactory seed crop if planted in a moist soil up to December.

The moist soil part of this seeding requirement has been the joker in the deck so far this year.

Vetch should not be seeded until the soil has a moisture penetration of FOUR to SIX inches.

There are two main reasons behind this recommendation:

First: Vetch requires inoculation with nitrogen-fixing bacteria if it is to grow off good and give benefits of a soil improving crop. These bacteria that are put on the seed at planting time are living plants and as such they require moisture to live.

They soon die in a hot, dry seed-bed.

Second: The showers we have been having serve only to sprout seed near the soil surface. Once sprouted the plant has no sub-surface moisture to keep it going so chances are that it will die. If vetch is planted on old vetch land where inoculation is already present in the soil it should be planted deep so that light showers will not cause it to sprout.

Remember the recommendation. Four to six inches of soil moisture before seeding vetch this fall.

Some areas of the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation district have been fortunate in getting more rainfall than has the Muenster vicinity. At Dye Mound, Roy Kingery has applied phosphate and vetch seed to over 100 acres of old field area and brush cleared land. Kingery is planting vetch to add nitrogen and organic matter to the soil so that it may be seeded to native grass and King Ranch Bluestem later. Also at Dye Mound, Wayne Thompson has re-sown 50 acres that was in vetch and rye last year. At Forestburg, Johnny Moore and Clifford Hudspeth have each planted 20 acres of vetch and rye. Moore used the district-owned drill located in that area to put phosphate and vetch on his field.

Claude Cannon, north of Muenster, used a district-owned combination grain-fertilizer drill to put vetch and phosphate on 70 acres of fields and pasture lands on his farm. Cannon used seed he harvested last summer. He is drilling vetch into pasture sods to improve the soil and increase the growth of the pasture grasses as well as to provide badly needed grazing this winter.

"RICE IN THE DIET" IS TOPIC AT 4-H MEETING

"The Place of Rice in The Diet" was explained by Miss Bernice Puckett in a lecture and demonstration at the 4-H Club's regular monthly meeting at S. H.

Because of the large number of members, Miss Puckett held the meetings in three divisions. At 10:30 a.m. she met the junior group. In the afternoon beginning at 1:15, she met both the intermediate and senior groups.

Carrie Ann Gehrig, presided at the senior meeting. Besides the demonstration, Carol Ann Voth gave a paper entitled "The Most Nearly Perfect Food"; Patsy Fette spoke on "What Milk Lacks to be a Perfect Food"; and Beatrice Zimmerer read a paper entitled "Care of Milk". The freshmen girls entertained with a humorous selection "A Smile is Quite a Funny Thing".

An argument is where two people are trying to get the last word first.

GENE AUSTIN, nationally known singer and composer, will be in Nocona December 2 to present a concert at the Nocona high school. Time of the show is 8 p.m.

Known best for his "My Blue Heaven," Austin is coming to Nocona under the auspices of the Nocona Rotary club. Proceeds are to be used by the Rotary club for community youth work.

The music teacher was proudly presenting her pupils in a recital. After the extended musical program, ice cream, cake and fruit were served. One of the young musicians had brought her little brother along as a guest. As the youngster was taking his departure, the teacher said, "Well Jimmie, did you enjoy the recital?"

"I sure did," Jimmie replied happily, "all but the music."

BEING THOROUGH

in the performance of our duties, we regard no detail, however small, as of minor significance. Every task, no matter how trivial, receives our careful attention.

40th Anniversary Observed Nov. 12 by The Ben Sandmanns

Surrounded by their children and grandchildren, relatives and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sandmann of Lindsay observed their ruby wedding anniversary on Nov. 12 with a celebration that was second only to their memorable experience of 40 years ago.

The day's program began with an anniversary Mass in St. Peter's church in the morning. Rev. Conrad Herda officiating.

The social observance began at 6 p.m. with a reception and dinner in the parish hall for 180 guests, among them the honor couples' attendants of 40 years ago, his brother, William Sandmann, and her sister, Mrs. Joe Bengfort, the former Elizabeth Hermes.

Ben Sandmann was married to Miss Catherine Hermes in Lindsay in 1912 and they engaged in farming since that time. They are at home a mile south of Lindsay. Both enjoy good health and are active in community and parish work.

Mr. Sandmann has lived in Lindsay for 61 years and his wife has lived there 45 years. He was born in Windthorst, Kansas, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sandmann, and she is a native Texan, born in Bastrop county, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clem Hermes.

They are the parents of 13 children, 11 of whom are living, and have 15 grandchildren. Four of the children are married. They are Ann, Mrs. George Bayer, and Rose, Mrs. Edgar Klement, both of Muenster, Henry of Valley View and Julius of Lindsay.

Living at the family home are Herman, Clem, Joe, Bernard, Jim and Ethel. Herman and Clem have both seen service in Korea. Clem has been discharged and Herman is at home awaiting his discharge. He was wounded during the first winter of fighting in Korea. The only member of their family unable to attend the celebration was one son, Max, who is in the air force at Weaver, S. D.

The anniversary theme was stressed in ruby red decorations throughout the hall. The table was covered with a white silk cloth embroidered in red, a gift from Clem, sent from Japan while he was stationed there. The centerpiece was a three-tiered white cake ornamented with red. Arrangements of red carnations and candles further decorated the board.

Mrs. Sandmann attended the celebration in a black crepe dress with a red carnation corsage. Mrs. Joe Bengfort also completed her costume with a red carnation corsage.

BETTY ANN BENGFORT HONORED WITH SHOWER

Miss Betty Ann Bengfort, bride-elect of Charles Stoffels, was honored with a miscellaneous shower Sunday afternoon in the home of her parents, the Joe Bengforts, north of Lindsay.

A trio of hostesses, Mmes. Norbert Zimmerer, Pete Stoffels and Leonard Bengfort, directed appropriate games and served refreshments of ice cream, cake, salted nuts, mints and coffee to 30 guests.

The party rooms carried out the honoree's chosen colors of white, yellow and royal blue in decorations. The gift table held the engaged couples' pictures flanked with arrangements of yellow mums and blue forget-me-nots.

The wedding date has been set for November 25.

The prospective groom is the son of Mrs. H. P. Stoffels.

Mrs. Adam Beyer spent Friday and Saturday in Muenster helping her daughter and family, the Ferd Luttmers move from the farm to their home in town.

Hornets Lose - - -

start. The Panthers hit their stride late in the first half and kept control both offensively and defensively from then on.

Their total gains for the game were 226 as compared with the Hornets' 106. First downs were 13 to 5. In the second half especially they took the initiative with 115 yards against Muenster's 28.

Muenster racked up the first score late in the first quarter on an 80 yard drive featured by Jones' 39 yard gain. Hamric went over for the counter on a quarterback sneak and Noggler's kick for extra point was blocked.

The Hornets scored again about midway in the period after recovering a fumble on the Panther 12. On the fourth play Aytes took Hamric's pass in the end zone for the second TD. Again Noggler's try for extra point was blocked by Tom Harris, who was one of the Panther line stalwarts all night.

After that the game was Saint Jo's all the way. Thurman started it with a 24 yard gain. Williams passed to Myracle for 27 and Young hit pay dirt seven plays later to complete the 63 yard drive. Thurman's kick was good and Muenster led 12-7 at half time.

make the despots cringe in terror... and eventually wipe them off the face of the earth.

In case there are any who oppose such a policy on the ground that it will provoke a world war, let them consider the predicament already existing and getting worse every day. The war of communism against the free world is going on now, and we are losing it because our allies are being enslaved. We have a choice of doing something now or piddling around until the odds are hopelessly stacked against us. Or, to put it another way, we can fight communism in Asia now, with the help of millions of allies, or wait to fight alone on our home soil when Moscow decides to strike.

Another thing to bear in mind is that the two principal powers in this world conflict are America and Russia. As things are going now Stalin sits back and laughs while we waste men fighting his expendables. Why not do it as Stalin does? Depend on allies to handle the Asiatic situation. Meanwhile keep our men in reserve to discourage any Russian scheme of pouncing on us.

An interception and 50 yard run back to the 21 by Williams early in the second half set up the second Panther touchdown. Following a short gain Williams plowed to the 6 and Young went the rest of the way. Thurman's kick put the Panthers ahead.

A deadlock followed and continued until late in the final quarter when Williams powered his way for a 30 yard gain to the Hornet 5 and went over on the next play. An attempted pass for extra point was knocked down, and the final count was 20-12.

Mrs. Walter Huchton and three sons are here for a visit with her parents, the John Bengforts, while M.Sgt. Huchton is being transferred by the air corps. The family lived in Sherman while he was stationed at Perrin Field.

Four things come not back—the sped arrow, the spoken word—time past, the neglected opportunity.
