for the score. The Comets came back to gain a 7-6 lead before the end of the first half. Muenster fumbled on their own 23 and it took but a couple of plays for the Dallas eleven to score. Parvin capped the short drive, twisting around his own right end for the final 12 yards. He added the extra point himself with a plunge through the line.

The third quarter was a scoreless duel, but in the fourth a hard charging Comet line trapped David Klement behind his own goal for a safety, giving St. Joseph's a 9-6 margin.

With only two minutes left a 17 yard run by Parvin and two 15 yard passes from Larry Watkins to Parvin netted the visitors another TD. The final 15 yard heave being good for the score. Parvin once again cracked the Muenster line for the extra point.

The Cubs' next opponents will be the St. Thomas school of Fort Worth. The game will be played there Sunday afternoon, starting at 1 o'clock.

plays later Moster pounced on a Bells fumble on the 2 and Mollenkopf crashed over for the first TD. The rest of the half saw the visitors' attempted comeback spoiled by two more fumbles.

Early in the second half Bindel's interception set up the second Tiger scoring drive. Gilbert Knabe's 16, his brother's 11 and Mollenkopf's 7 reached the 2. Gilbert Knabe slipped through for the counter and Walterscheid added a point on a quarterback sneak.

Bayer's recovery of a Bells fumble started another Tiger push, which reached pay dirt as the quarter ended. Albert Knabe dashed 11 yards for the TD and Mollenkopf plunged over for the extra point.

The Bells team, especially Stanley, clicked nicely on the 67 yard drive that produced its only score early in the fourth period. Stanley went over from the 1 where he had put the ball on a 21 yard pass from Marlow the previous play. Reamer carried over for the extra point.

The final Tiger touchdown came 4 plays later. Albert Knabe returned the kickoff 25 yards to the Tiger 42. Bells recovered a Tiger fumble at the same place. Mollenkopf intercepted a pass on the 44. Next Albert Knabe took Gil's 25 yard heave and sprinted the rest of the way.

In the closing minutes Bells put on another drive but ran out of time on the 25.

TATTERED LAUNDRY

The following little item is reprinted from Time magazine: "Now that Malenkov himself has criticized the shoddiness of Soviet consumer goods, Pravda is washing some of the tattered laundry out in public, complains that Soviet rayon underwear does not survive a single laundering, that men's shirts fall apart in the tub." In past times similar official criticisms of Soviet production and distribution agencies have appeared, and have usually proved a prelude to wholesale liquidations of managers and technicians who somehow fell out of favor with the powers-that-be. But what is significant to us Americans is the character of the system that makes manufacture and sale of such shoddy goods possible.

The answer, of course, is found in the nature of communism and socialism. The state owns practically everything—including all of the factories and the vast majority of retail outlets. There is no competition as we understand the word. If the consumer doesn't like what he is offered, or thinks the price excessive, he has the privilege of doing without and going cold or hungry.

Contrast that with conditions in the United States. Every manufacturer is in direct competition with other manufacturers, and all are trying to sell the public on their trademarks. Every store from the biggest chain to the smallest independent is competing with other stores for consumer patronage. The result is the best deal for our money that the cost of carrying on business will permit.

"THE WORST THING THAT CAN HAPPEN TO LABOR"

On many occasions, labor leaders have denounced the profits earned by industry—saying, directly or by inference, that these profits amount to a species of robbery, with the working people the principal victims.

Happily, that attitude is not universally true, as an editorial in the August issue of The Electrical Workers' Journal attests.

The editorial began by quoting Samuel Compers, one of the great labor leaders and organizers of all time, as saying: "The worst thing that can happen to labor, is for the employer not to make a profit."

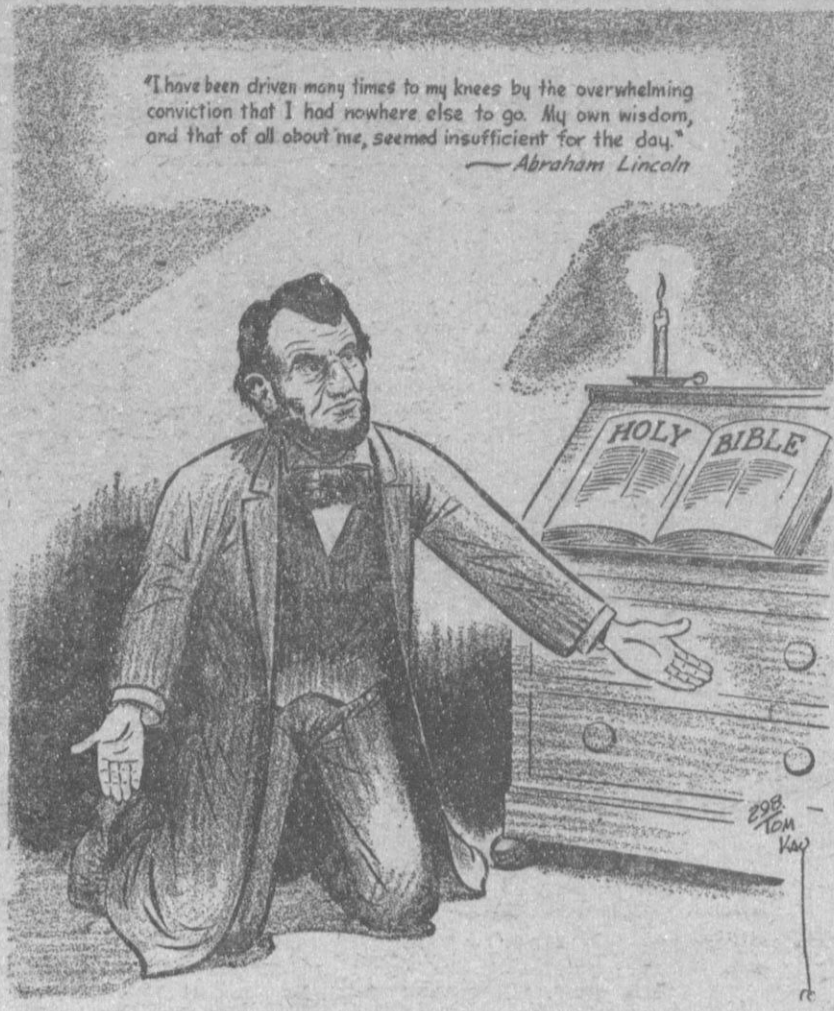

Then it continued: "It's still the right, the just, the honorable thing to 'give a good day's work for a good day's pay,' and when any member of organized labor forgets that, he is stealing, whether his conscience tells him so or not."

"We of organized labor earnestly desire labor-management cooperation. We want free collective bargaining. Well, we must never forget for an instant our part, the labor part of labor-management cooperation. We must have the employer's interest at heart, if we expect him to have our interests at heart."

This is the attitude that, in the long run, will do more to advance the welfare of labor than anything else.

A night watchman heard noises in the dark warehouse. Drawing his revolver, he went to the door and called:

Come out with your hands up, so I can see who you are. If you don't I'll come in and see who you were."

CALLING THE TUNE

A great many people still seem to believe that it is possible to get all kinds of handouts from the federal government and still keep our freedom and independence.

"They should ponder this sentence from a 1942 U. S. Supreme Court decision: 'It is hardly lack of due process for the government to regulate that which it subsidizes.'"

The Court simply said, in judicial language, that when government pays the bills, it can call the tune to which we must all dance.

FAMILY'S TAXES AVERAGED $1,723

Federal tax collections for the fiscal year ended last June 30 averaged $1,723 for each of the 40,400,000 American families.

According to Internal Revenue Commissioner Andrews, the total collected by the Federal government during the year amounted to $69,600,000,000. It set a new record, being about $4,600,000,000 higher than the previous high set in fiscal 1952.

REPORTS COST MILLIONS

More than 1,500,000 man-hours are consumed annually by automobile companies in filling out forms and questionnaires for the Federal government, according to data supplied by 22 out of 49 motor vehicle manufacturers queried. The total time was said to be equivalent to a year's work by a full-time force of 750 employees. The cost of filling out the forms was estimated at more than $5,000,000.

88,000 CUT OFF GOVERNMENT PAYROLL

The Civil Service Commission reports that 88,000 Federal employees were cut off the payroll between January and the end of July.

The layoffs averaged about 11,000 a month, with the total rising to 18,000 in July. The August total was expected to be even larger. As of July 31, the number of government employees was 2,447,200.

SHOES COST $75 IN WARSAW

A pair of men's shoes costs the equivalent of $75 in Warsaw, where the Communist Polish government is running the economy.

A Warsaw paper received in Stockholm gave the tip-off on prices in the Polish capital. The article reported it was impossible to obtain reasonably-priced shoes of any kind. Thousands were said to be searching vainly every day for various wardrobe items. The paper blamed shortages on the Communist distribution services.

THEY CAME AND SAW—AND THEY STAYED!

The late King Carol, of Rumania—a country now behind the Iron Curtain of Communism—sent, during his days in power, 14 of the brightest young men in his land to study in England and the United States.

Some time passed, and the king was asked how his experiment had worked out.

"The seven who went to England were very smart," he reported. "All of them got big jobs when they came back to Rumania."

"How about those who went to America?" he was asked.

"They were smarter yet," the king replied. "They stayed there!"

The Hawaiian Islands are known as the "Crossroads of the Pacific."

F. B. I. Chief Indicts Broken Homes

By J. Edgar Hoover, Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation

ONE WINTER EVENING while idly chatting, Allen, age 17, confided in his 16-year old friend, Bill, that he was "broke" and would like to make some money. Burglary, they decided, would answer their problem.

They entered an electric service company by forcing the rear door. The boys broke in to the safe and removed several rolls of money. Before leaving, they set fire to the building. Police picked up the youths before they had gone a block. Both boys were armed.

Mr. Hoover

BILL WAS TURNED over to juvenile authorities. Because of his record, he was sent to the State Training School. Allen was indicted by the grand jury on two charges of burglary and one charge of arson, and was sentenced to two years probation on each charge.

Allen was the product of a broken home. His parents had been divorced several years and his mother had remarried. Allen left home to live with his brother because his father drank excessively and was abusive. At different times Allen lived with his brother, his father, and at various rooming houses. Although his mother asked him to live with her, he was living in a shabby rooming house at the time of his arrest.

Allen admitted participating in four burglaries with Bill and stealing a gun.

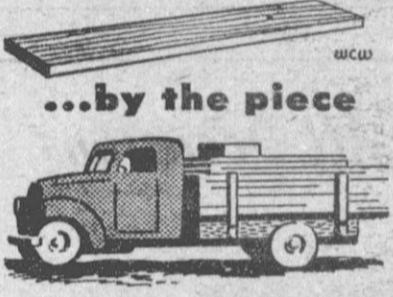

BILL'S FATHER had remarried and both parents had children by previous marriages to support. Bill's school records show that his grades were poor and that he was often tardy or absent. He was sullen and had the habit of lying and stealing and frequently fought with his brothers and sisters.

This case shows the evils of broken homes. To remedy the problem of youthful crime, we must strengthen the spiritual structure of our homes. Parents, as the child's first teachers, must dispense along with love and affection, an overflowing measure of moral and ethical teaching. The future of America demands that we show every child the necessity of placing family and national interests above his own.

IN TRAINING their children, many parents discount or eliminate the teachings of God. In their eagerness to prepare their children for the material things of the world, they miss the most important thing—religion. Their failure to instill in youngsters the necessity to follow established moral and ethical teachings places their security and ours in jeopardy.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

One for the Books!

Noticed the Missus had a red ribbon tied around her finger at breakfast one morning last week. "What's that for?" I asked. "Your memory slipping?"

"It's not for me," she answers, "it's to remind you, and everybody else who asks what it's for, to contribute to the Woman's Club Library Fund. We need $200 and we figured we'd get more help if we could get people to ask us about it."

Well, as it turned out, the red ribbon worked just fine. The ladies are having the library all fixed up—and there's enough money for some new books, too.

From where I sit, it would be a fine thing if we had some sort of private reminder when we forget the rights of our neighbors. Like when we start telling them what we think is best. I may like a travel book and a temperate glass of beer while you prefer a cup of tea with your historical novel. Let's both remember not to "put the finger" on the other!

Miss Irma Hofbauer, bride-elect of Ewald Fuhrmann of Lindsay, was complimented with a gift party Wednesday night, Sept. 23, in the parish hall here with Mrs. Earl Koelzer, Mrs. William Hermes and Mrs. Joe Zimmerer as hostesses. The gift table was covered with a lace cloth and was centered with a bride doll. After the honoree opened and displayed her shower gifts the hostesses served refreshment plates to 40 guests. Twenty guests who were unable to attend sent gifts.

The hostesses conducted a series of games and guests wrote "Advise to a Bride". For the best advice LaVerna Hess received an award and in turn presented it to the honor guest.

Miss Hofbauer and Mr. Fuhrmann will be married in Sacred Heart church on Oct. 7. She will be attended by her sister, Mrs. William Hermes and the groom's sister, Miss Louise Ann Fuhrmann. Mr. Fuhrmann's attendants will be his brother, Bert Fuhrmann and the bride's brother, Denis Hofbauer.

 with a McCormick MF drill. Low, rubber-tired wheels make possible much smoother, faster travel in the field and on the highway.

You can do three different jobs at once with a McCormick MF drill

- 1. Seed grain, soybeans, and other crops with yield-boosting accuracy. The McCormick MF drill sows both large and small seeds in any desired quantity per acre. Furrow openers, built for your soil, place seed at uniform depth for even germination and uniform ripening of the crop.
- 2. Distribute commercial fertilizer in any quantity from 30 to 1,135 pounds per acre as you seed. The MF drill ordinarily places fertilizer in the row with the seed, but it can be equipped to distribute fertilizer separately. Big capacity fertilizer hopper lets you work longer between refills.
- 3. Seed grass, clover, or alfalfa at the same time you sow and fertilize the nurse crop. The grass seed attachment for the MF drill lets you vary the seeding rate as little as one quart per acre. Grass seed can be released through the grain tubes or sown broadcast.

We'll be glad to give you complete details on how this drill helps crops grow faster — how it makes fertilizer go farther by placing all plant food within easy reach of the plants. A wide range of sizes and equipment enables you to select a McCormick MF drill that's tailor-made for your needs. See us for more facts when you're in town.

Soil Conservation Notes

The planting of winter legumes for soil protection and improvement is being delayed by continued hot, dry weather in the Muenster area.

Cooperators of the Upper Elm-Red soil conservation district are being cautioned by technicians of the local SCS about sowing legumes in a hot, dry seedbed. For maximum soil improvement all legumes should be inoculated at time of planting.

The inoculant contains bacteria that attach themselves to the roots of legumes and fix nitrogen in the soil. These bacteria must have moisture to live. They are also killed by excessive high soil temperatures. Therefore, to best insure survival of the bacteria, inoculated legumes should be planted in a moist seedbed.

J. W. Fleitman has just completed 4500 feet of channel type field terraces on his farm east of Muenster. In order to properly protect the sloping field it was necessary to plow down some old terraces that were already in the field. The old terraces were built with excess grade and had unprotected outlets for the water, therefore did not do a satisfactory job of removing excess water from the field. The new terraces are built to district specifications, they are broad and easy to cross and outlet onto a Bermuda grass waterway that was sodded to provide a safe terrace outlet.

Alfred Sicking has just completed 4000 feet of field terraces on his farm near Myra. He built the terraces with a three-disc plow, using the island method of construction. These terraces outlet onto pasture grass.

4-H MEETINGS SCHEDULED

Cooke county 4-H clubs will begin organizing this week for the school term, and county agents have arranged a schedule of meetings including the following:

Tuesday, Oct. 6, St. Mary's, 11 a.m.; Myra, 1:30 p.m.

Wednesday, Oct. 7, Muenster Public school, 10:30 a.m.; Sacred Heart Senior, 12:30; Sacred Heart Jr., 1:30.

"How did you get your prize bird-dog back? Last time I saw you you thought he had been stolen."

"Well, I thought and thought about it and then I put an ad in the paper saying: Lost or ran away, liver-spotted setter name Bill. Will probably show signs of hydrophobia in about three days . . . and, do you know, that dog came back the next morning."

Duplicating America's costliest cars, feature after feature, Ford is worth more when you buy it . . . worth more when you sell it!

A FEW MINUTES on the telephone calling the dealers who sell America's finest cars will reveal there are at least eleven models among four makes with price tags over $4,000!

Now the interesting thing is that in feature after feature the Ford car duplicates each of these fine cars, and for less than half the fine car price!

Look under the hood of the most expensive cars and what do you find?

A V-8 Engine! Well, the Ford car has a V-8, too. In fact, it has had a V-8 since 1932, and since that time Ford has built more V-8's — by millions — than all other manufacturers combined. And there's no other builder in Ford's price range that's seen fit to offer one yet!

But the engine, as fine as it is, is only one of many things that make a fine car fine.

Automatic shifting, for example. All the fine cars offer it in one form or another because it's one of the things that make a fine car fine. But if you've never driven a Ford with Fordomatic you've missed one of the finer things of life. This amazing transmission not only does away with clutching and shifting forever — it gives you exactly the amount of power you want, when you want it — automatically.

Fine car power steering, too. The big, heavy costly cars offer it for the same reason they offer power brakes. It's a man-sized job for a 120 pound woman to handle a car weighing two tons or more without it — especially when parking. Our "Master-Guide" has two distinct benefits.

First, it gives a hydraulic power assist right down at the wheels and just enough to take out the work. You don't relinquish one particle of control — rather your control is more complete and far easier.

Second, being hydraulic, "Master-Guide" power steering absorbs those fatiguing steering wheel tremors caused by ruts and roads in bad repair. And you don't pay a fine car price for "Master-Guide."

But there is another fine car feature — the Ford ride. Books have been written on the subject of riding quality in an automobile, but the payoff comes on the pavement — or lack of it! Many people associate a comfortable ride with excess weight, but it's not weight alone that makes for comfort. If it were, those big five-ton trucks which you see every day would be the most comfortable vehicles on the road.

Without being technical we can tell you that what's been done with the suspension and springing system gives the Ford a softer ride, a smoother ride than many cars which tip the scales at better than an added half ton.

What about room? Here's an interesting point. If you've felt that only a costly car offered enough room, you just ought to sit down in a Ford even if you're out-size and six feet four! The so-called big car is bigger on the outside, but unless you buy a limousine with those little jump seats, it's not one passenger bigger inside.

Visibility is another fine car Ford feature. We say Ford cars offer "full-circle" visibility because they all have huge, curved one-piece windshields and a huge rear window to match . . . plus side windows that mean every passenger gets room with a view!

How beautiful is a Ford? A great English poet, John Keats, once wrote "Beauty is Truth, Truth Beauty" — well, he could have been writing about our car for its beauty comes from honest, clean lines in every dimension. In fact, we think most people agree — even our competitors — that the appearance of a Ford Car leaves very little to be desired. It is "at home" wherever it goes and it goes everywhere.

But what about Ford quality? Does it too match the fine car? Is the sheet metal of the body panels as thick? Is the finish as good? How about the trim and things like that? Well, as far as we can determine, the sheet metal is identical in thickness in practically all instances. As to finish — we believe Ford's baked-on enamel has no equal in any car. Ford upholstery fabrics and trim are less costly, but they're less delicate, too, and if anything, more durable.

How then is it possible to give you this fine car at half the fine car price?

Part of the answer lies in Ford manufacturing skills and knowledge as evidenced by the V-8 engine. Part of it comes from the ever increasing numbers of cars Ford produces and the economies they make possible. And, part of it comes from Ford's willingness to give greater values than might be expected in cars selling in Ford's price range. And that's the Ford idea.

Who Uses Oil Lamp?

Consider the kerosene lamp. Some of them which were made 50 years ago are just as good now as they were then—they can produce just as much light. But who uses them?
Americans don't wait until something is worn out or breaks down—as soon as somebody discovers a better product or better process and gets them into production, we buy them and put them to work. That never-ending "American Way" makes for ever more jobs, an ever increasing standard of living.

RETURN FROM CONVENTION HELD IN WASHINGTON, D.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Meurer returned Monday from Washington, D. C., where they attended the National Bankers Convention. The special train stopped in Chattanooga, Tenn., for sight-seeing enroute. In the nation's capital, President Eisenhower was one of the principal speakers at the convention. Bankers' wives received special invitations to visit the White House and their tour was extremely interesting. The entire time spent in Washington was planned to give the bankers and their wives a convention to be remembered for a long time with pleasure.
The Meurers went from there to New York, spending three days with her sister and family, the Tom Galleries, who took them on sight-seeing tours including a three-hour boat ride around Manhattan Island. They also attended one of the new stage shows and saw "Cinerama".
Mrs. Herbert Fette joined the personnel at the Ace Cafe Friday.

Mrs. Robert K. Maupin of San Antonio, her daughter, Mrs. Robert H. Moore and six-week-old daughter, Vivian Jeanette, of Galveston, left Tuesday after a visit with Mrs. Maupin's parents, the B. G. Lyons at Marysville, and her sister, Mrs. W. C. Stiles and family at Gainesville.

Recent new car deliveries include a Ford Custom 2-door to Ben Luke, a Ford pickup to Ralph Maglaughlin, a Ford Custom 2-door to D. C. Kline, a Ford Custom 4-door to Norman Luke, a Ford Victoria to George Mollenkopf, a Ford Custom 4-door to Cooke County Electric Co-op, a Ford pickup to Ray Thomas, a Ford Victoria to Oscar Miller, a Ford pickup to Roe Sledge, a Ford Custom 2-door to H. Cooke County DHIA August Report Rates Knabe Herd Second John Knabe's herd of Jerseys was second high as butterfat producers in the Cooke County Dairy Herd Improvement association during August being topped only by Masten and Roane's Holsteins. Two other Muenster men, J. W. Fleitman and Paul Fetsch, had high herds for the month.

Almost one-fourth of the cows in the association were in the upper bracket producing 40 pounds of butterfat or over, according to the organization's summarized report for the month. Four hundred and sixty-five cows in 23 herds were tested with 111 in the 40 or over butterfat bracket. Average pounds of milk per cow was 580, and average pounds of butterfat per cow was 22.

High herds for the month, in the order named, belonged to Masten and Roane, John Knabe, Albert Klement, Toney Nehib, J. W. Fleitman, Paul Fetsch, Henry Frasher and H. F. Schniederjan. Cows producing 40 pounds of BF or over include those belonging to Alfred Bayer who had three producing from 40 to 50 pounds; Martin Bayer, one, 44; Paul Fetsch, five, 40-46; C. A. Fisher, two, 40-41; Joe Fisher, three, 42-52; Paul Fisher, seven, 40-57; J. W.
