Nogglar, Walter and Richey Picked for 10-B Dream Teams

Joe Nogglar was one of the three unanimous selections on the 10-B all-district team elected Saturday night in a meeting of the conference coaches held at Era, but he was the only member of the Hornet squad to land a spot on the mythical eleven. Two other Muenster players, Wendell Richey and Eugene Walter were named on the all-district second string.

The other two unanimous choices were Buddy Hinzman of Sanger and Leroy Belz of Era.

Era, the district champ, dominates the two teams with a total of 7 players, three of which are on the first string. Sanger also had 3 players voted on the first team, but had none on the second team, hence rated with Muenster and Saint Jo for over-all honors.

Alvord was the only team not placing a man on the first string and Sanger was the only team not placing a back field player on either string. Muenster and Era lead in the selection of backs with one each on each team.

Four of the first stringers are making the honored list for the second time. They are Nogglar, Turner of Valley View, Dunn of Saint Jo and Hinzman of Sanger. Of those Nogglar and Turner each has another year to play and each is expected to be a strong candidate for next year's district team.

Listed for honorable mention in the coaches' balloting were Knabe and Boyles of Muenster; Wilson, Weaver and Banks of Callisburg; Sherrill of Era; Peyton, Thomas, Holloway and Davis of Alvord; Martindale and Myers of Valley View; Price of Saint Jo; Perry and Shelton of Sanger.

The all-district lineups are as follows:

1st Team	Pos.	2nd Team
Lewis (E)	E	Dyer (VV)
Hinzman (S)	T	Harris (SJ)
Harrison (C)	G	Berry (E)
Ashcraft (S)	C	Leftwich (E)
Dunn (SJ)	G	Walter (M)
Belz (E)	T	Eason (E)
Kerby (S)	E	Parr (A)
Nogglar (M)	B	Garner (C)
Turner (VV)	B	Stockton (A)
Christian (E)	B	Richey (M)
Thurman (SJ)	B	Reiter (E)

Letters in parenthesis indicate the schools, Muenster, Saint Jo, Era, Callisburg, Sanger, Valley View and Alvord.

Era Wins Trophy, Muenster is Third In 10-B Grid Race

The Era Hornets, champions of the District 10-B 1953 football conference, were officially declared the winners and were awarded the trophy Saturday night at a meeting of the district coaches in Era. The Era gridders laid claim to the loop title the night before by defeating the Callisburg Wildcats 7-0.

Another prize awarded at the meeting was the district sportsmanship trophy, which went to the lightweight Valley View Eagles who went through the conference schedule without winning a single contest.

The final standings in the thoroughly knotted conference race which had three possible title winners a week ago, is as follows:

Era	5	1	0
Sanger	4	1	1
Muenster	3	2	1
Callisburg	3	3	0
Alvord	3	3	0

High, Low, 3 Ties In Academic League

Final standings in the District 3 race of the Southwest Academic League finds the Sacred Heart Tigers in the lead with a perfect record, three of the remaining four teams tied for second place and Boys Ranch in the cellar with losses in all conference games.

Laneri, Buckner and Catholic High of Texarkana all have a 50-50 record with two wins and two losses each. Laneri beat Buckner and Boys Ranch. Buckner beat Boys Ranch and Catholic Hi. Catholic Hi beat Laneri and Boys Ranch.

Annual Invitation Basketball Tourney Set for Dec. 14-19

The Fourth Annual Invitation basketball tournament is the next big athletic event on the athletic calendar at Muenster High School. Coach Troy Stewart disclosed this week that the tourney will be held in 8 sessions starting Monday, Dec. 14, and ending the following Saturday night. Games are to be played Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights, Friday afternoon and night, and Saturday morning and night.

To date ten schools have accepted invitations to enter both the boys' and girls' divisions, and Coach Stewart expects another entry in a few days. Those eleven schools along with Muenster will complete a 12 team bracket in each division.

Participating schools entered to date are Muenster, Saint Jo, Forestburg, Prairie Valley, Goldburg, Callisburg, Antelope, Era, Valley View, Collinsville and Chico. All are Class B schools.

17 Men Enroll for Adult Shop Class

Seventeen men reported Monday night at Muenster High School to organize an adult wood-working class under the supervision of L. B. Bruns. The group decided to meet on Mondays and Wednesdays from 7 to 10.

The class is as large as can be accommodated in one group, Bruns said, but if more wish to enroll it will be split into two groups, each having two sessions a week.

Enterprise Installs Larger News Press

Coincident with the beginning of a new volume, the Muenster Enterprise begins another chapter in its history this week.

The occasion is a change of presses. The ancient model which has been printing the Enterprise for the past seventeen years, and which had reached retirement age before it was put to work here, has been replaced by a larger later model.

It is a No. 2 Miehle, the type of press used in many larger commercial plants to do precision printing such as the multi-color work in magazines. It can do a better quality of work than its predecessor.

Another equally important consideration is that it prints four pages at a time instead of two. That will save printing time. And eventually it will save folding time also. A folding machine can be used in connection with four page sheets whereas few if any folders are available to handle two page sheets. So the folding here has been done by hand.

For the first few days, however, it definitely has not been a time saver. Getting acquainted with it and making adjustments has run into lots of extra hours. It even arrived under a jinx. Unloading it during last Thursday's rain turned out to be a long, messy job.

7 Tigers Named on All District Teams Of Academic Loop

The Sacred Heart Tigers, champs of District 3 of the Southwest Academic League, dominate the first and second all-district teams selected last week by coaches of the loop. They placed three players on the first string and four on the second string.

Catholic High of Texarkana shares honors with Sacred Heart on the first team selections. The total number of players elected to the two mythical elevens from each of the five member teams is as follows: Muenster, 7; Laneri, 5; Texarkana, 4; Buckner, 4; Boys Ranch, 2.

The two lineups as announced this week by Father Christopher Paladino, Tiger coach, are as follows:

1st Team	Pos.	2nd Team
Cunningham (L)	E	Herr (M)
Davis (T)	E	Gilbert (B)
Yosten (M)	T	Watts (B)

Parish Gives $525 To Dallas Orphans

Sacred Heart parish this year contributed $525 to two Dallas orphanages, the St. Joseph's Orphanage for girls and the Dunn Memorial Home for boys. The donations, were given to Sister Bridget, orphanage superior of St. Joseph's, and her assistant during their annual visit here last Sunday.

Rev. Louis Attends Jubilee at Subiaco

Rev. Louis Deuster represented Sacred Heart parish in Subiaco, Ark., on Thursday at a program commemorating the seventy-fifth year of the founding of Subiaco Abbey and the fiftieth year of the religious profession of its abbot, Rt. Rev. Paul M. Nahlen, O.S.B., and Brother Bernard, O.S.B.

The day began with a Pontifical Mass at 9:30, followed by dinner at 12 o'clock and an afternoon program.

On the golden jubilee of his profession Abbot Paul, who became head of the Abbey on March 23, 1939, could look back and see great strides made forward. Alumni Hall, a large modern educational plant, stands as a monument to his efforts.

Before assuming the abbacy he was president of Corpus Christi College-Academy for 12 years. He was reared in Conway, Ark., studied and was ordained at New Subiaco Abbey, and took post graduate work at Louisville, Ky., then was head prefect and teacher of commercial subjects at Subiaco Academy for many years.

Father Abbot recently returned from a visit in Rome, where he had an audience with the Holy Father, and an observation tour of Europe.

Cagers Improve in Second Tussle With Southmayd Teams

In the second basketball double header of the season the Muenster High boys and girls improved their previous performance, but still failed to break into the win column.

The opponent was Southmayd, in the latter's gym Monday night. As a curtain raiser Muenster's girls forced the game into two overtime periods before being nosed out 30-28. In the contest played here a week earlier Southmayd won by the comfortable margin of 33-22.

Southmayd's boys had no trouble winning 50-36, but the significant point is that the Hornets narrowed the margin to 16 points whereas it was 32 points in the previous game, which followed only a single day of basketball practice. Southmayd does not participate in football and has been able to work out on the court since September.

Coach Troy Stewart is starting the season with four of last year's regulars. They are Donny Whitt, Wendell Richey, Wallace Dougherty and Joe McElreath. Others in uniform are Joe Nogglar, Dick Cain, Alvin Fleitman, Dee Kaderli, Lloyd Trubenbach, Jim Harris, Billy Boyles, Eugene Walter, Don Moon, Hubert Richey, Jerry Wimmer and Jim Hellman.

Coach Bob Williams squad includes Rita Cain, Margaret Myrick, Louise Butler, Gretchen Hellman, Collette Hellman, Mildred Fisher, Clara Fisher, Mary Nell Hellman, Lu Rose Henscheid and Loraine Feitman.

The season schedule, as announced this week by Coach Stewart includes four non-conference games followed by the annual invitation tournament Dec. 14-19. The conference schedule, consisting of a double round robin begins Jan. 5 and ends Feb. 2. After that Muenster will play a post-season game with Saint Jo.

Games scheduled are: Dec. 1, Callisburg, there; Dec. 3, Callisburg, here; Dec. 7, Saint Jo, there; Dec. 10, Collinsville there; Dec. 14-19, Tournament; Jan. 5, Forestburg, there; Jan. 8, Callisburg, there; Jan. 12, Saint Jo, here; Jan. 15, Prairie Valley, here; Jan. 22, Forestburg, here; Jan. 26, Callisburg, here; Jan. 29, Saint Jo, there; Feb. 2, Prairie Valley, there; Feb. 4, Saint Jo, here.

Tigers Lose 25-6 In Bi-District Tilt With San Marcos

Aspirations of the Sacred Heart Tigers for bi-district and league honors along with their district championship were given a rude setback at San Marcos Saturday afternoon by the husky and skilled Cubs of San Marcos Baptist Academy.

A decided weight advantage combined with a dazzling aerial attack, along with effective exploitation of the Tigers' tough breaks, enabled the Cubs to romp off with a 25-6 decision. The victory advanced them to the position of co-contenders with Texas Military Institute for the championship of the Southwest Academic League.

Sacred Heart, with a perfect season and a record of 13 straight since starting its winning streak last year, is District 3 champ of the league. San Marcos Baptist Academy is the District 2 winner and TMI is District 1 winner. TMI drew a bye for the semi-final game.

Two factors spelled doom for the Tigers in spite of a decidedly better record in rushing yardage. Their gains were wasted eight times, on 4 fumbles and 4 intercepted passes. And they were baffled by the Cub passes, which added to a total of 195 yards. Gains on the ground were 208 to 118 in favor of the Tigers.

San Marcos took an early lead when the Tigers lost the ball on downs on their own 43 and eight plays later the big bruising Cubs crossed the double stripes. Jack Starrett, 187-pound passing ace, went the final three yards for the TD, but the extra point try failed and the Cubs led by 6-0.

Early in the second quarter the Cubs broke into the scoring column. (Continued on Page 9)

Rain Measures 1.15

More rain, in the amount of 1.15 inches fell Thursday of last week to improve the already excellent moisture condition in the Muenster area.

Added to lighter rainfall earlier in the month it raised the month's total to date to 2.79 and the year's total to 30.64.

Paul Fisher Has Top Producers in DHIA in October

Paul Fisher's herd of 22 cows won honors as the top producers in the Cooke county Dairy Herd Improvement association for the month of October, according to the summary for that month.

The cows produced an average of 890 pounds of milk with a butterfat content averaging 41. Twelve of the animals were in the 40 or over bracket for BF production, one reaching 76 and tying for individual honors with a cow owned by H. F. Schniederjan.

Twenty-three member herds were tested during October. There were 528 cows in milk producing an average of 690 pounds of milk and averaging 27 pounds of butterfat. 194 cows of the association produced 40 pounds or more of BF.

Members with high producing cows include: Alfred Bayer, nine cows averaging 41 to 69 pounds of BF; Martin Bayer, six, 43-52; Paul Fetsch, eight, 41-59; C. A. Fisher, six, 40-52; Joe Fisher, three, 40-50; J. W. Fleitman, 13, 40-71; Toney Nehib, six, 40-70; Peter Prescher, eight, 44-73; Ben Sicking, three 40-57; John Knabe, 10, 40-54.

An ad in a magazine a short time ago presents a bit of history which is too often overlooked in the story of America's first Thanksgiving observance.

It is the account of the two miserable years the Pilgrims spent before that abundant harvest which inspired the grand feast of 1623.

Records of the colony show that those Puritan settlers started this country's first experiment in socialism. All land was under control of the governor and his councilors. All the harvest was put into the common storehouse from which each individual received his equal share.

Naturally food was scarce until the first harvest, but even then it was so pitifully short that each person's ration was only a quarter of a pound of bread a day.

By spring of 1622 the basic weakness of socialism had established itself firmly in the colony. Dozens complained that they were too weak to work, and those who were willing complained that they had to support the loafers and got none of the benefits of their extra effort. Everyone wanted the soft jobs. Men and women alike rebelled when the hard jobs were pushed off on them. The result was another year of scarcity.

It was then that Governor Bradford and other leaders of the colony decided that they had been failing because "they thought they were wiser than God". They had been disregarding man's nature as a free and intelligent being and expecting him to work under a system of modified slavery.

So, in the spring of 1623 the economy of the colony was changed to what we call the free enterprise system. Governor Bradford gave a tract of land to each family, telling them to use it as they wish and to gather the harvest into their own storehouses.

The effect of the decision was almost miraculous. Dozens who claimed to be ailing before worked at their land with initiative and ambition. Women and children went to the fields with their husbands. The colony was transformed from a resentful, bickering, lazy community to a happy bee hive of activity. And when the harvest was gathered the colony had abundance instead of famine.

That was the year of the first Thanksgiving feast that we read about in Colonial history. In keeping with the deeply religious atmosphere of the settlement those good people assembled to feast and thank their Heavenly Father for the blessings He had bestowed on them, most likely to thank Him also for the wisdom to adopt an economic system that brought them both freedom and abundance.

As we pause to give thanks on this 330th anniversary of that first Thanksgiving we ought to be aware of those very same factors. We still enjoy an abundant harvest. God keeps doing His part by showering abundant blessings on our efforts. But more important, he sustains us in the wisdom to continue a system that harmonizes with His Divine law.

So, as we offer thanks, let's be mindful first of our freedom. Let's thank Almighty God for the privilege of being able to do as we wish, then let's thank Him for the many, many, blessings that result from freedom. After all, if we were operating as those colonists first did, or as millions of unfortunates in many countries are still doing, we would have considerably fewer efforts on which God can apply his blessings. In keeping with that old saying "God helps those who help themselves," let's be thankful for the privilege of being able to help ourselves.

benefit of those who do not who failed to notice of volume number on this edition, the column would like to add here that this day is an occasion calling for the Enterprise's special thanks. It's the beginning of another year, a time to offer thanks for favors of the past year and all preceding years.

Yours truly certainly has reason to thank Almighty God for that precious gift of freedom. Without that ingredient this paper simply would not exist. Can you imagine a paper like this, or any (Continued on page 10)

Gladys Hoffman and Billy Joe Mayer Say Vows Tuesday

Miss Gladys Ann Hoffman became the bride of Billy Joe Mayer Tuesday morning in a solemn and impressive service performed in Sacred Heart church at 9 o'clock. Rev. Louis Deuster officiated at the double ring ceremony and was celebrant of the nuptial high mass.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Hoffman of Muenster and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mayer Sr. of Pilot Point are parents of the young couple.

The bride entered the church with her father who escorted her to the altar and gave her in marriage. She was a lovely picture in a gown of candle-light satin. The princess line bodice was fashioned with a wide decollete neckline outlined by satin petals re-embroidered with seed pearls and filled in with an illusion yoke. The long fitted satin sleeves tapered to points over her hands. Tiny covered buttons extended down the back of the tightly moulded bodice into the extremely full princess skirt that swept into a wide chapel length train.

Her veil of imported silk illusion extended in misty tiers beyond her fingertips from a pointed Chantilly lace half hat edged by tiny seed pearls. She carried a white mother-of-pearl prayer book topped with a white orchid surrounded by stephanotis. Her jewelry, a single strand of pearls, was a gift from the bridegroom, and her pearl ear rings were borrowed from her sister, Mrs. Earle Otto. Adding a bit of sentiment, she carried a white linen and lace handkerchief that her mother carried at her wedding.

Sister Is Bridesmatron

Mrs. Earle Otto was her sister's matron of honor and Miss Frances Mayer of Fort Worth, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. They were identically attired in dresses of gold iridescent taffeta designed with a wide deep V neckline outlined by a set-in band of shirred taffeta. Covered buttons extended down the front of the moulded bodices. The full skirts, fashioned of unpressed pleats, were waltz length. They wore gold taffeta braided hats and mitts to match their dresses and carried arm bouquets of bronze mums. Their single strands of pearls were gifts from the bride.

Robert Mayer Jr. of Pilot Point was best man for his brother and the bride's brother, T. J. Hoffman of Wichita Falls, was groomsman. Allan Hoffman, another brother of the bride, and James Heitzman of Pilot Point, were ushers.

Yellow and white mums, greenery and candles adorned the altar before which the couple exchanged their vows.

Anthony Luke, organist, presented the traditional processional and recessional and remained at the console to assist the church choir in singing the Mass of the Angels.

Mrs. Hoffman attended her daughter's wedding in a navy blue suit with navy and pink accessories. She wore a shoulder corsage of bronze mums. Mrs. Mayer, mother of the groom, wore a navy costume with navy accessories and a corsage of bronze mums.

Wedding Day Festivities

Immediately after the services, a wedding brunch was served in the home of the bride's parents to members of the bridal party and Father Louis.

At 4 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman were hosts for a reception in the parish hall and at six o'clock a buffet supper was served to about 200 guests. Mrs. T. J. Hoffman, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Don Stephens, sister of the groom, presided at the bride's book. A dance in the VFW hall at night concluded the day's festivities.

The reception hall stressed the bride's colors in floral arrangements of mums and autumn leaves. The bride's table held the tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom in an open wedding bell backed with a lucky horse shoe. White tapers in bronze candelabra flanked the cake.

After the meal Miss Joaline Mollenkopf presented two vocal solos for which Sister Dolores played the piano accompaniment.

When Mr. and Mrs. Mayer left on their wedding trip she was wearing a three-piece brown suit with brown and white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Mayer is a graduate of Sacred Heart High with the class of 1953 and has been employed at the J. B. Wilde Chevrolet Garage in the bookkeeping department. Mr. Mayer graduated from Pilot Point High in 1947 and spent two years in the army, stationed at Camp Chaffee, Ark.

WE CAN BE THANKFUL

Washington, D.C., Nov., 1953—At a time when we are horror-stricken at the atrocity reports from Korea, frustrated by the roadblocks in the way of Korean peace, disgusted with apathy of our European Partners toward their own salvation and sick at heart over the sell-out of our own trusted public servants to Communism, it may seem we haven't much for which to raise paeons of Thanksgiving.

But we can still agree that the Pilgrims sparked one of the world's great ideas when they decided to risk their lives and assume unpredictable hardships in an all-out effort to found a new way of life for themselves and their descendants in a new hemisphere. And if that resolute band who survived the first winter on a more desolate coast than they had headed for, in a more rigorous climate than they expected, and hemmed in by the most savage of all the aborigines in North America, felt the urge to give thanks to the Almighty . . . then so, perhaps, should we.

We can be thankful that the way of life they founded has thus far been preserved to us. We can be thankful for the bounty of our land. We can be thankful for the progress in the arts, in science and in industry that have given the nation strength, and brought the economic equality of man far closer than in any other land. We can be thankful that we still pray to the God of the Pilgrims.

But, in giving thanks, we should pray too for courage, for intelligence, for renewal of that richest bequest of our forefathers—the spirit to conquer. For we shall need the utmost courage to retain our freedom in this world-divided. We must have courage to spare—for those nations where the lame is dying, and only the embers of freedom glow. We shall need the intelligence to make full and proper use of the bounty of our fields, so that it shall not be wasted, and destroyed—as it has been—while millions hungered. And we shall need to continue and advance our efforts to make more and better things for more people . . . for that is the true road to peace.

Above all, we can give thanks that these opportunities are still ours.

NO TIME FOR TAX INCREASES

Last May, the President recommended to Congress that the social security tax be frozen at its present rate of one and one-half per cent, and that legislation passed by the previous Congress which would increase the rate to two per cent next January be rescinded. No action was taken, even so, it is not too late, for when Congress meets again it can, if it will, adopt the freeze policy and make it retroactive to January 1, 1954.

Thanksgiving Day Is More Than Turkey

By John Mulhall
 NEXT THURSDAY America's factories, fields, and offices will be deserted. Tractors and typewriters will gather dust while America turns to Thanksgiving feasts.

But Thanksgiving Day is more than a visit to Grandmother and her turkey. It is a day for giving thanks. For we eat turkey only because God gives it, and we visit Grandmother because God gives her length of days.

THE PILGRIMS KNEW the harvest of 1621 was not just their own work. So they thanked God for His generosity. We know America's blessings are not simply our own work. So we thank God also.

This Thursday America goes to Grandmother, but it also goes to God. Americans will pour into their churches this Day to offer sacrifice to Him and commune with Him.

AMERICA ON ITS KNEES will touch the Heart of God and give Him reason to continue His blessings. By this national act we tell Him we remember not only the gift, but also the Giver.

America is enriched by having this day. It is an annual reminder of our dependence on God. By this American custom we say that God is the Creator of all we are and have.

TO FORGET THIS would hurt our Nation. For only the ungrateful take the gift and ignore the giver. When the benefactor is a man, ingratitude is rude; when the benefactor is God, ingratitude is immoral.

May Abraham Lincoln's charge no longer be true: "We have been the recipients of the choicest bounties of heaven. . . But we have forgotten God. We have forgotten the gracious hand which preserved us in peace and multiplied and enriched and strengthened us, and we have vainly imagined in the deceitfulness of our hearts, that all these things were produced by some superior wisdom and virtue of our own."

THIS THANKSGIVING Day make sure that family prayer and church are part of the day's activities. Only by these will we fulfill our American tradition.

On this, the first Thanksgiving Day since the Korean Armistice, may we make our own the prayer of General Jonathan Wainwright, the hero of Corregidor: "Oh, God, our Father, today we give Thee thanks for the things we take for granted, for freedom, for security of life, for food and shelter and loved ones. . . Keep us sympathetic and generous. . . Lord of Hosts, be with us yet, lest we forget."

† Paidist Feature Service, Washington 17, D. C.

limitations of governmental power, not the increase of it."

That was said more than 40 years ago by one of the greatest students of government who ever sat in the White House—Woodrow Wilson. And the warning he issued is a hundred times more important and timely now than it was then.

The overriding lesson that modern history teaches is that when we give government virtually unlimited power, freedom dies—and oppression and tyranny take its place.

The Missus Keeps Posted

Ever since our electricity was cut off last year on account of me forgetting to mail in the payment, the Missus has been sort of leery about giving me letters to mail.

At first she'd ask if I mailed them, then double-check my coat pocket at night. She stopped that, and I figured she was convinced I'd learned my lesson.

Then yesterday, I got a postcard at the office in a familiar handwriting. I turned it over and by golly it was from the Missus herself! It read: "Thanks, Joe, for mailing my letters." Well!

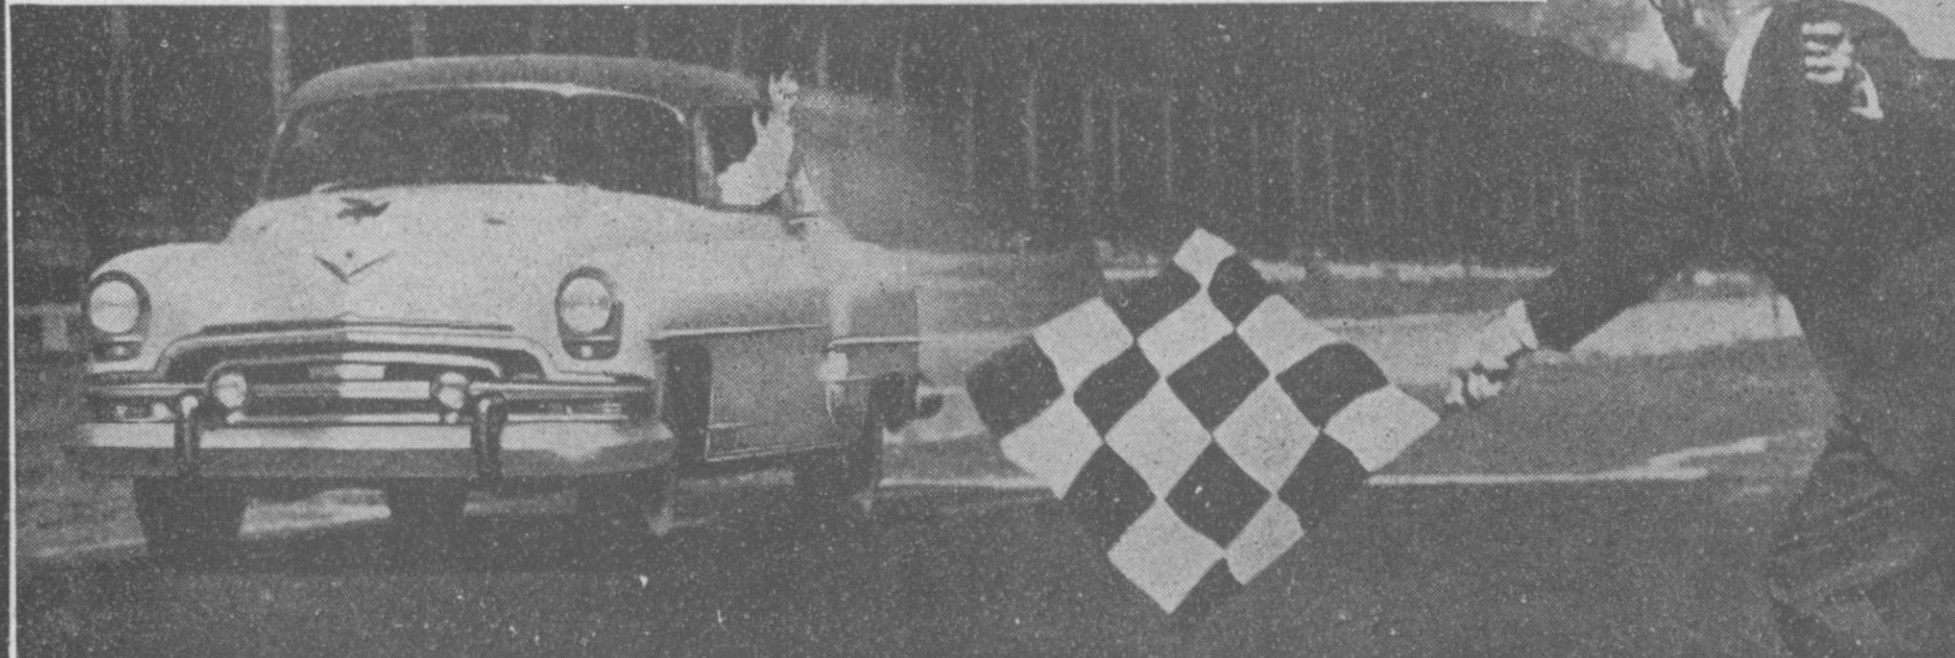

Looks like she figured I still needed some checking-up and slipped that postcard in the last batch of letters.

From where I sit, an occasional check-up is a good thing. Check-ups on just how tolerant we are of other people's preferences and tastes, for example. I like a glass of beer with supper, you may prefer cider—but if I ever try to switch you to my choice, simply "address" me with a reminder of your rights.

Adolph Fuhrmann Gets Award From Progressive Farmer

The Adolph Fuhrmann Family, Route 2, Gainesville, Texas, is one of eleven farm families in Texas selected by The Progressive Farmer magazine to receive the "Master Farm Family" award. This is one of the highest honors that is given working farm families in America. The award is based upon distinguished accomplishments in farming, home-making and community service. "For a great many years The Progressive Farmer has had the conviction that we could render no greater service to Texas agriculture than to seek out and honor farm families of outstanding merit," says Eugene Butler, vice-president and editor. "In almost every line of human endeavor distinguished accomplishments are recognized and publicly honored. This has not always been the reward of farmers. Many notable farm families have gone unnoticed, unhonored regardless of their splendid records. It was to honor at least a few of our finest farmers that inspired The Progressive Farmer to make the Master Farm Family Award."

"The Master Farm Family program is not a contest," he pointed out. Families compete only against the Master Farm Family standard. There are certain minimum requirements. The family must take good care of the land, while making it pay a reasonable profit on farming operations. There must be a good house with attractive surroundings. The family must take an active part in community life. And they must show interest and leadership in good schools, farm organizations, Vo Ag, 4-H clubs, soil conservation, and all those group activities that are so vital to a happy, prosperous farm life.

Any visitor to the Adolph Fuhrmann home can see why this family was chosen to receive the Master Farm Family Award. Says C. G. Scruggs, associate editor of The Progressive Farmer:

"Mr. and Mrs. Fuhrmann show that large acreages aren't necessary for good opportunity and good farm living. By making every acre count through improved farm practices such as rotations, legumes, etc., and marketing feed and pasture through livestock and poultry, the Fuhrmanns make a good living for their family. And every visitor to the Fuhrmann farm is impressed by its neatness."

The Fuhrmanns will be honored along with ten other Master Farm Families at a State Award Dinner in Dallas next January. Also, their story will be told in a well-illustrated article in The Progressive Farmer magazine sometime in 1954.

Soil Conservation Notes

The Fish and Wildlife Service made its semi-annual delivery of fish Thursday, Nov. 12. Co-operators of the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation district who received fish for farm ponds were Henry Henscheid, Alphonse Hoenig, Joe Flusche, Arthur Lutkenhaus, Bill Becker, Frank Trubench, Norbert Klement, Urban Endres, Joe Fisher Sr., Richard Harris, John Kreitz, Joe Starke, Elmer Dunn and H. B. Perryman.

Fish orders from this Service can be made through the local soil conservation service office.

Not only does a farm pond furnish stock water and aid in erosion control, but it also can be a source of food and recreation for the farm family. Properly stocked and managed, an acre of water can be made to produce more food than an acre of land. Improperly managed ponds are of little value as far as fishing is concerned. Heaps of fun and plenty of fresh fish for the skillet come with proper management of a farm pond.

Bluegills and Bass are furnished free from the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service and they may also be obtained from the State Fish and Game Department. Orders from the U. S. Service are also made through the local SCS office.

If a pond is properly fertilized it may be stocked with 100 Bass and 1000 Bluegills per acre. Unfertilized ponds should be stocked with not more than half that number, but by all means have the pond free of wild fish before stocking, urge technicians of the local work unit.

Fish do not eat fertilizer but it causes the growth of green microscopic plants throughout the water. On this greenery odd bugs, fleas and worms feed. Bluegills feed on these tiny insects and Bass feed on little Bluegills. The two varieties maintain a proper balance through management and continued fishing while Channel Cat may be added from time to time. They do not spawn in ponds.

Begin fertilizing the pond about

March with an application of a complete fertilizer. About 100 pounds of 6-8-4 plus five pounds of ammonium nitrate or 100 pounds of 8-8-2 per acre is about right. This application should be repeated on an average of every three or four weeks until frost in the fall. Winter applications are not necessary.

Begin fishing the pond the second summer after it is stocked. This will have given the Bass and Bluegills time to spawn. Do not be afraid of over-fishing with pole and line as the young fish will be making growth. The young fish will not grow properly if the pond is permitted to become overstocked.

We'll make your car Run RIGHT... and SAFE!

Make it a habit to see us at the first sign of trouble.

140 Cars Bad News Due in Mails Soon

WASHINGTON—It is going to take 140 railroad cars to haul them, but the Bureau of Internal Revenue says it is about ready to send you your 1953 income tax blanks.

The returns, which must be filed by March 15, 1954, in most cases, have been rolling off the government printing presses here at the rate of 30,000 an hour for several weeks.

Tigers Lose

urn once again. Jim Miller intercepted a Tiger aerial and romped to the Bengal 20-yard line. Ronald Mafridge, 185 pounds of sheer power bulled his way for 14 yards and then pulled a spinner play to plow off tackle for the final six into paydirt. Once again the extra point try failed.
The Tigers bounced back into contention minutes later when the brilliant running of Gilbert Knabe came to the front. Knabe burst through the big Cub line behind rugged blocking and scattered 38 yards before being overhauled on the Cub 22. He then backed up and shot a perfect pass to Tommy Herr for the only Muenster touchdown.
After a series of pass interceptions in the late stages of the second quarter, Starrett started a passing attack from his own 45 and, following gainers of 25 and 18 yards, finally hit Mafridge with a 14-yard scoring aerial. Tex Brockett ran for the extra point to make it 19-6 at the half.

The Tigers came out strong in the third quarter and held the home team scoreless. They made a couple of drives of their own, going as far as the 22 and the 14, but both times costly fumbles ruined their chances to score.
Finally, in the fourth quarter, the Cubs recovered another fumble on the Tiger 37 and Starrett once again took to the air. Passes of nine and 20 yards put the ball on the eight and Tom Wherry crashed for the final steps into paydirt.
Gilbert Knabe was Sacred Heart's top star of the game, and his twin brother, Albert, who had been out with a fractured ankle since early in the season, returned to the lineup for a fine performance in his high school grid finale. Outstanding Tiger linemen were William and Sylvan Walterscheid.

Confetti - - -

of the dailies you customarily see, behind the iron curtain? Freedom of expression would not last long there. Nor could it get the advertising support to continue if dependent on the scarcities of iron curtain countries. There are other blessings to be thankful for, of course but that happens to be the first, before any others are possible.

Thanks also to all the folks who contributed in any way to this paper's continued success the past year. By their advertising, their subscriptions and their printing orders they have enabled the Enterprise to close another successful year.

Frequently this paper is praised as being worthy of a town twice the size of Muenster . . . to which the stock answer is that Muenster's progress and initiative would do credit to a town twice its size. That's another thing yours truly is grateful for.

In a way this issue also opens a new era in the history of the Enterprise. The old press, which was considered as practically worn out when it printed Volume 1 Number 1 of this paper, has been replaced by a larger, later model. It's a dandy, capable of doing some really nice work . . . if we can develop a skill equal to its quality.
