Hornets Lead Off With 13-0 Decision Over Whitesboro

On your toes, Cooke County! Here comes that 30 cent tax election again. It's coming because it is important and, as more than 700 persons indicated by their signatures on a petition, it deserves much more careful consideration than it received in the July election when the issue was almost completely obscured by the heat of the Democratic primary.

Of course it's hardly necessary to mention that at least a few hundred people in the county are already interested in the proposal. Some are enthusiastically in favor of the improvement program which is to be financed by the additional revenue, others are enthusiastically opposed to the idea of raising taxes, and others still are of the opinion that the idea has its merits but the 30 cent tax raise is too big a price to pay.

Needless to say, we have strong opinions on both sides of the issue. But it so happens that those are not the only ones concerned. Every person in the county, whether or not he has an opinion, has a stake in the outcome of that election on October 2. So it's up to him to get posted on the subject and then cast his ballot in the way which, according to his judgment, is best for the welfare of himself and the county. Maybe the proposed improvements are best. Maybe it's better to continue the lower tax rate, because, after all, a dollar saved is a dollar earned, and this involves more than $100,000 a year. Maybe the improvements, though admittedly good, are not worth the price the taxpayers will have to shell out for them.

So this really is a matter of being on our toes. Since the decision on October 2 is vital of us to learn as much as possible on the subject, make up our minds, and back up our opinions at the polls. If a big percentage of us will do that we need have no worries about the outcome. The voice of the majority, especially a well informed majority, is generally right.

Interest so far has indicated that there will be no shortage of information available on the tax election. That's gratifying. People will have plenty of chance to know what can be accomplished with the 30 cent tax, what can be done with a smaller tax, and what can be done by just going on with our present rate. They can learn what essentials are now supported by their taxes, what they can expect as essential expenditures in years to come. When they start juggling such facts and quite a few others around in their minds they will know for sure that the issue is well worth their votes.

Briefly, let's take a glance at some of the improvements that are badly needed in this county. First and foremost is a good system of roads. We now have hundreds of miles of gravel roads carrying enough traffic to justify a paved surface. Every year the state improves the situation slightly by giving us a few miles of F-M pavement, but at the rate we are going today's children will not live long enough to see a really good network of roads. Obviously, if we are going to have them we will have to build some ourselves. Even as regards F-M roads and highways, we have to do something about right of way.

Another mighty important consideration, now just beginning to show up, is flood control. Detention reservoirs are getting started. Eventually we should have about 40 in the county. The day will come when dams, spillways and drainage tubes need repairs. To neglect them would be to eventually discard much if not all the benefit they bring the county. A fund should be set up to keep the reservoirs in good repair.

Benefits deriving from those improvements are obvious. Pavement pays every one of its users in savings of time and car expense, frequently more than enough to pay a person's share of the tax to support it. Flood control prevents thousands of dollars of damage to downstream crops and other property. Likewise a good deal for every person concerned as well as the general economy of the county.

The question, however, is how much do these things cost? What will they cost several years from now? We should bear in mind

The Hornets of Muenster High opened their 1954 grid season with a bang Friday night outplaying and outscoring the Whitesboro Bearcats for a 13-0 decision.

With Joe Noggler as a stand-out and all the rest of the boys doing a man sized job, Coach John Hosea's charges left no doubt after the first few minutes that they were the more potent, but there was a lingering question as to whether they could shake off their fumbleitis long enough to cash in on their better performance.

The game was typical as a season starter, perhaps more so than usual. Time after time the Hornet precision and coordination was not up to its razzle-dazzle deceptive game. The ball got away frequently, sometimes for loss of yardage, sometimes for loss of possession.

Whitesboro's luck was equally bad, but because of a different type of attack the results were different. Bobbles occurred mostly on plunges. There wasn't much loss of ground but there was more

NEWS OF SICK AND INJURED

Miss Catherine Rollman was dismissed from M&S Hospital Sunday following a thyroid operation and is convalescing at her home here.

Mrs. Gus Knabe entered Gainesville Sanitarium Friday evening for medical care.

Mr. and Mrs. Werner Cler took their six-year-old daughter, Marcia, to Dallas Friday for x-rays. The little girl has a hip ailment and will need bed rest for the next two weeks. After that she'll have another series of x-rays. She's at home and would enjoy receiving cards.

Sisters Carmelita, Gregory and Agnes joined Mrs. John Kathman and daughter Anselma and Ben Haverkamp on a drive to Dallas Sunday to visit at St. Paul's Hospital with Sister Anselma. They report that she is improving—but slowly—and will remain in Dallas through this week. After that she will go to the motherhouse in Jonesboro, Ark., for further convalescence. Sister Anselma said to tell everyone many thanks for the get-well cards which she enjoyed immensely.

Buster Bezner, 9, son of Mrs. Freddie Schmitz of Gainesville underwent an operation for appendicitis last Thursday at M&S Hospital.

M. D. Kaderli Elected Director on Texas Electric Cooperatives Board

Maurice Kaderli, manager of the Cooke County Electric Cooperative, headquartered here in Muenster, was elected a director of the Texas Electric Cooperatives, Inc., recently at the annual meeting of that group in Austin. His election was in recognition of his leadership in the field of rural electrification.

He succeeds T. R. Qualls of Denton as director from this area for the organization, which is the state association of rural electric cooperatives having 78 rural systems throughout the state as members, and furnishing electricity for more than 300,000 farm families.

The recent national atomic energy legislation was given special consideration by the delegates to the meeting, who requested by resolution that the President and Congress now take steps to set up pilot plants for production of electricity through atomic energy throughout the country, and especially in Texas.

The work of Senator Lyndon B. Johnson in safeguarding the interests of consumers in the atomic energy bill was praised by several speakers, and resolutions adopted commended both Senator Johnson and Senator Price Daniel, and the entire Texas Congressional delegation, for their leadership in the successful effort to broaden patent rights and add preference rights for municipalities, co-ops, and other public bodies which were put into the final bill.

The two-day session was attended by almost four hundred representatives of the rural systems in Texas, who heard addresses by two national officials, Clyde Ellis, manager of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association, and Ancher Nelsen, Administrator of the Rural Electrification Administration.

VFW and Auxiliary Offer Cash Award In Safety Contest

Personal safety is usually the only reward for good driving habits, but youngsters of this community now have another inducement. For the next three months a $10 cash prize will be given to the boy or girl judged the safest driver of the month.

The idea originated at a VFW Auxiliary meeting a short time ago and VFW members decided at their meeting Tuesday night to cooperate in the contest. Each group will give $5 per month.

Every person of the community who is under 21 and has a driver's license is eligible for the prize, which is offered as an inducement for better driving in and around Muenster.

Seven judges will decide the winner. Their decision will be based on their own observations for the month along with recommendations from Deputy Bill Morris. The judges were not identified but it was mentioned that they live in different sections of town, so they can notice how youngsters drive on side streets as well as Main.

Paul Fisher Herd In DHIA Top Spot Month of August

Paul Fisher's herd took top honors for butterfat production in the Cooke County Dairy Herd Improvement Association during August, according to the association's statistics for the month.

Fisher's herd of Jerseys, Guernseys and Holsteins showed an average of 30 pounds of butterfat during the month and had a milk production average of 620 pounds.

Other high herds, in the order named, are those of Richard Fisher, J. W. Fleitman, Toney Nehib, Gainesville State School, and Hoedebeck and Myers.

The Frasher herd led in milk production with an average of 840 pounds.

The monthly summary released by Supervisor Carl Kemplin shows that 668 cows in 23 herds were tested. Of 471 cows in milk 93 produced 40 pounds of BF or over and averaged 540 pounds of milk. The average pounds of BF per cow was 22.

Among members with high BF producers and their averages are Martin Bayer, four cows averaging 40 to 46; Paul Fetsch, one, 46; Paul Fisher, eight, 44-55; Joe Fisher, one, 45; John Knabe, six, 40-67; Alfred Bayer, two, 47-48; Toney Nehib, two, 59-62; J. W. Fleitman, four, 40-44; Pete Prescher, two, 40-47; Ben Sicking, three, 44-46.

Individual top BF producer belonged to Richard Frasher and averaged 82 pounds. Second spot winner was a Jersey belonging to John Knabe. It averaged 67 pounds.

The two-day session was attended by almost four hundred representatives of the rural systems in Texas, who heard addresses by two national officials, Clyde Ellis, manager of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association, and Ancher Nelsen, Administrator of the Rural Electrification Administration. The NRECA is the national counterpart of the state association, and the REA is the government lending agency through which all of the systems have been financed.

Sept. 24-29 Set For Chest X-Rays

"Make sure your lungs are healthy — get a chest x-ray." That's the word this week from the Cooke County Tuberculosis Association and the Gainesville-Cooke County Health Department.

The mass chest x-ray survey will begin Sept. 24 and last six days. It's for everybody over 15 years of age; will be held in Hurley Motor company building, 201 South Commerce Street; no appointments will be needed; and the association is looking forward to county residents 100 per cent in having these free x-rays.

Dr. Ben R. Fisch, county TB association president and director of the county health department, has had mimeographed letters mailed to county residents announcing the free chest x-ray service.

Tigers Are Favored In Thursday Night Tilt With Nocona "B"

Father Christopher's Sacred Heart Tigers should win their season opening tussle with the Nocona B team here Thursday night . . . provided the Nocona rookies rank about the same as they did last year.

That is Father Christopher's estimate of his chances after considering that a stronger Tiger team last year won the contest by a top heavy score. Should the visitors show up with an increase of strength, however, the game could be disastrous for the Tigers.

Looking over his season's prospects the Sacred Heart skipper says he is not a bit down hearted about his boys even though he has no hopes of winning the academic league district title again. He has a smoothly operating offensive team that can be counted on to slip over quite a few TDs during the season.

When it comes to plain offensive power, however, the boys will be handicapped by their shortage of weight. The same applies to defensive where lack of weight and lack of experience are both apparent. To counteract the defensive shortcoming Father Christopher is putting extra emphasis on his offensive game. If he can't stop the opponents he hopes to outscore them.

His starters for the Thursday night game are Dan Owen and Frank Fleitman, ends; Larry Hennigan and Sylvan Walterscheid, tackles; Allan Eberhart and Paul Hesse, guards; Denis Hofbauer, center; Rodney Walter, Bernard Haverkamp, Carl Walterscheid and Tommy Herr, backs.

More than 600 See MHS Grid Opener

A crowd estimated at considerably more than 600 persons saw the Muenster Hornets upset the Whitesboro Bearcats in Leeper Stadium last Friday night. The estimate of the attendance is based on a financial report received Tuesday by Superintendent Homsley from Whitesboro.

The total gate receipt was $401.40. Based on the admission charge of 75 cents and 25 cents it was estimated that there were about 500 adults and 100 children besides band and pep squad members, who were admitted free.

Homsley said net receipts of the game were split 50-50 by the two schools. After deducting $20 for use of the field and $53.96 for officials' fees and expenses, each school received $163.72.

Irvin Poff is Guest Speaker at Garden Club Open Meeting

A discussion of local soil problems was presented for members of the Civic League and Garden Club Monday at an open meeting in the public school lunch room.

Irvin Poff, Soil Conservation Service soil scientist, was the club's guest speaker. He explained his lecture with soil and water demonstrations.

"God Almighty was the first and truest soil conservationist," he told his audience, "by letting nature use its methods which are sun, air, moisture, plants, soil and organisms."

He spoke on soil saving in general, and on Muenster soil saving in particular, pointing out local problems and giving advice on how to improve and preserve top soil.

In addition to Garden Club members and their guests, others hearing the lecture included members of the local veterans agriculture class and their instructor, and other visitors. Emmitt Yoder of the Muenster SCS office introduced the speaker.

This was the League-Garden Club's first meeting of the new year. The organization did not have meetings during the summer.

Mrs. Tony Gremminger, president, presided during the business session following the lecture and committee chairmen gave reports. New yearbooks were distributed and discussed. Programs during the coming months are on topics of general interest including the planting of bulbs, dried material, community holiday decorations, the value of the

Another Election On 30c Tax Raise Set for October 2

People of Cooke County will have another chance on October 2 to approve . . . or reject . . . a 30 cent ad valorem tax to raise funds for county road improvement and flood control.

Members of the county commissioners court ordered the election at their regular session Monday in response to a petition bearing 726 signatures. The petition was drawn up shortly after the tax was voted down on July 27 and was circulated in the county for several weeks thereafter.

The proposal, if approved, authorizes the county to take up a tax which had been dropped by the state in 1951 in accordance with provisions of a constitutional amendment approved by state voters in 1950.

When first introduced in the county the tax proposal was hailed as a means of financing the purchase of right of way for a contemplated four lane road from Gainesville east to the county line, and possibly also for the later purchase of right of way west of Gainesville. More careful study of state regulation pertaining to the tax reveals however that its revenue can be used only for providing F-M road right-of-way, building lateral roads and flood control.

Nevertheless the tax can still serve as an indirect means of providing right-of-way for federal roads. With more money coming into the road fund commissioners will be able to divert some of their present money into right of way purchase.

Interest in the election, both pro and con, is expected to get lively before the day of decision. Shortly after the petition for another election was introduced a group of about 30 business men of the county met to discuss the proposal. After considering the various factors involved many of them agreed that an adequate road improvement program can be supported on a lower tax.

Their opinions, as well as those of persons favoring the full 30 cent tax, are due to be known quite generally in the county before October 2. Whether the proposal is approved or defeated, the decision will at least be representative of the wish of the county. In the hurry-up election of July 27 people had little opportunity to become familiar with the issue. Only a small percentage of the county took enough interest to vote, and the proposal was turned down by a margin of 42 votes.

Another Course of Pavement Applied On Road and Street

Muenster's Main Street and the farm to market roads north and south were favored during the past week with an additional course of topping and repairs wherever they were needed. The extra application almost doubles the pavement's surface crust and adds immensely to its strength and durability.

The quickie job, which started Thursday morning and was finished Monday afternoon, consists of a single application of asphalt followed by a layer of crushed rock.

Both of the F-M roads and Main Street were built and are maintained by the state highway department.

Jerry Detten of Amarillo will spend this weekend here with his relatives of the Joe Lutkenhaus family. He'll make the trip with his uncle, Charles Detten, who will go on to Dallas.

The Alfred Bayers Selected as Farm Family for August

The Alfred Bayer family of Muenster—a conservation-minded family with outstanding programs in dairying and diversified farming—has been named Farm Family for August by the Gainesville Daily Register which honors an outstanding farm family or person each month.

The Bayers live on a 286-acre farm where most of the soil conservation practices recommended for their section of the Upper Elm-Red soil conservation district are being put into use. There are 156 acres in cultivation and 130 acres in improved pasture land.

Bayer's achievement in preserving the soil was recognized last year when he was selected as the outstanding farmer in Zone 3 of the Upper Elm-Red district. He has completed 100 per cent of his planned soil improvement practices called for in his agreement with the district.

He has built 10 miles of terraces, mostly with farm equipment, a large stock pond and a fine waterway seeded to Bermuda, Little and Big Bluestem. In spite of summer heat and drought he has some of the best native grass pasture in the area.

Alfred is married to the former Anna Marie Klement and they have four children, Joe David, 5; Melvin, 4; Paul, 2½; and Mary, 15 months.

A veteran of world war II, Bayer attended a veterans vocational agricultural school after his discharge from the army and has been applying his training to the soil since 1948 when he moved on his present farm.

Alfred refuses to take full credit for the soil building and improving job on the farm, saying his brothers Robert and Arthur shared equally in the work and are due their share of the praise.

The Bayers are also in the dairy business, their Grade A herd being composed of Jerseys and Guernseys, and they're participating in the hatching egg program in cooperation with McDonald Hatcheries of Fort Worth. The flock of New Hampshire hens is crossed with Delaware cockerels to produce the famed Indian river broilers. They also have 60 Rambouillet ewes and find wool and lamb production provides an annual cash supplement.

Alfred is an active member of the Dairy Herd Improvement association and a director in the Artificial Breeders association.

Being in the dairy business, he naturally places emphasis on feed and silage, and most of his cultivated land is devoted to such crops as oats, vetch and sudan, with some alfalfa.

For their selection as Farm Family of the Month the Bayers will receive a $25 cash award from the Daily Register.

Air Cadet John Donald Bergman and a buddy, both based near Houston, stopped here Tuesday night to visit his grandmother, Mrs. Wm. Bergman and the Herbert McDaniels. They left Wednesday morning to return to their base after spending a leave in Kansas and Oklahoma with relatives.

Shaves and haircuts of the average male consume 3,400 hours—427 working days out of his lifetime.

SIDEWALKS THAT CARRY YOU ALONG

Moving sidewalks are no longer just a dream. A New Jersey railroad uses a 227-foot moving sidewalk to speed up pedestrian traffic in one of its big terminals. The sidewalk creeps along at two or three miles an hour, fast enough to take the riders where they are going and slow enough to permit them to get off when they please.

LOCAL CDA COURT HAS REGULAR BUSINESS SESSION

Catholic Daughters of America held their regular business meeting Friday night in the K of C Hall with Mrs. Herman Fette, grand regent, presiding in the presence of Father Louis Deuster, court chaplain.

Routine business was followed by a discussion of the diocesan NCCW convention to be held in Abilene on Oct. 3, 4, 5.

Members decided to change the meeting dates of their next two meetings so as not to conflict with local football games scheduled for those nights. The October session will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 13, instead of Friday, the 8th.

Mrs. Ben Hellman will be hostess in her home for the September social on the fourth Tuesday, Sept. 28.

Celebration Marks 25th Anniversary of The Clem Hofbauers

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Hofbauer celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on Tuesday, Sept. 7, with an observance that began in the morning when the family attended an anniversary mass in Sacred Heart church at 6 o'clock, followed by breakfast in their home.

At 5:30 p.m. they were hosts for a reception and buffet dinner for 65 guests including family members and friends.

The refreshment table held a three-tier decorated cake and pink and white carnations decorated the home.

The china and silver and linen on the main table was the same used at their wedding 25 years ago.

Their attendants then were Miss Hattie Wimmer, now Mrs. Al Reiter of Gainesville, and she and her family were present. John Kleiss was best man, and he too was present at the silver anniversary.

Mrs. Hofbauer, the former Miss Helen Kleiss, wore a black sheer crepe dress with rhinestone trim and a white carnation corsage tied with silver ribbon.

During the evening pictures of the honor couple, of the family and of party scenes were taken and many lovely gifts were opened and displayed.

Mr. and Mrs. Hofbauer have lived in Muenster, on the same place, a farm south of town, all their married lives. They have four children: Mrs. William Hermes and Mrs. Ewald Fuhrmann, both of Lindsay, and Denis and Dale at home. They also have two granddaughters, Debra and Alyce Hermes.

Among guests at the celebration were Mrs. Hofbauer's mother, Mrs. Mike Kleiss, and her sister, Sister Aloysia.

The Hofbauer's actual anniversary date was Aug. 27, but they postponed the celebration until all family members could be together.

THE MOST IMPORTANT FACTS

There are two facts in our world today which, I feel, must be given high priority in the minds of every American, young and old. Our survival depends upon it. The facts are: (1) The world-wide Communist conspiracy, whose primary objective is to conquer the world, IS conquering the world. (2) Communism's Fifth Column force in America is more powerful and a greater menace today than ever before. During the next few weeks this column will discuss these two facts and what American citizens can do about them.

First, let's document our facts. FACT NO. 1 — Communism is conquering the world:

A special sub-committee of the U.S. Senate Foreign Relations Committee has officially charted the world-wide growth of Communism from a handful of Bolsheviks in 1917 to the enslavement today of more than 800,000,000 people in 11 countries, and the perfection of a Fifth Column of 5,000,000 hardened, disciplined conspirators working inside the 60 non-Communist nations.

God Shares His Work With Married Couples

By Rev. John A. O'Brien, of the University of Notre Dame

MARRIAGE IS A VOCATION—a high and holy one. To the married state God summons the overwhelming majority of mankind. They are charged with a mission of supreme importance—the conservation of the human race.

Love, courtship, and marriage are so often treated in a spirit of levity that it is worthwhile to point out that they are part of the divine plan. This is disclosed with simple beauty in the biblical book of Genesis.

ADAM WAS RICHER than any man in material wealth. He lived in the chaste beauty of nature's virgin landscape. But there still remained a void and emptiness that rested like a sombre pall upon his lonely heart. Then the Voice of God: "It is not good for man to be alone; let us make a helpmate like unto himself."

When Adam gazes upon the face of Eve, the emptiness of his heart vanishes. Life takes on a new meaning, a fresh significance. Moved by divine impulse, he plights his deathless troth to Eve. God then proclaims the law for all generations: "Wherefore a man shall leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife, and they shall be two in one flesh." (Gen. 2:24).

O'Brien

IT IS A GREAT MYSTERY of human love which makes two hearts beat as one. It is a sacred flame, for it is kindled by a spark from the eternal and uncreated love of God. God created a helpmate to be a companion for man, a promoter of his happiness and a protector of his virtue.

A woman is the complement to man's incomplete nature. God endowed her with that divine forgetfulness of self that enables her to find her happiness in ministering to the happiness of man. She increases the joy of victory and softens the sting of defeat. In short, the chief happiness on this earth is found in the bosom of the truly Christian home.

LOVE IS A SACRED THING by its very nature; it is an element of natural religion. It is peculiarly fitting that in revealed religion the consummation of love in marriage should be elevated by Christ to the dignity of a sacrament.

Holy matrimony places upon the shoulders of its recipients a mantle of holiness, indicating henceforth their partnership with God. Well has it been said,

A partnership with God is parenthood.
 What strength, what purity,
 what self-control,
 What love, what wisdom, should belong to those Who help God fashion an immortal soul.
 † Priestly Pastor Service, Washington, D. C.

tion is more difficult." And Attorney General Brownell could have added a fact which Herbert Philbrick, who was an FBI counterspy in the Communist underground for nine years, always emphasizes whenever and wherever he can get people to listen: "The truth of the matter is, and the Communists know this, we have not yet begun to win. We have not turned the tide. We are still losing."

Surrounding Us

Making preparations for the signal for internal revolution or for the big Soviet strike against the U.S.A., are the Fifth Columns in South and Central America, right on our doorstep. The Senate Committee reports the following statistics: Argentina, 40,000 Reds (more, incidentally, than Lenin had with him when he seized control of Russia); Brazil, 60,000; Chile, 40,000; Uruguay 15,000; Venezuela, 20,000. Mexico, the Central American countries, and Canada have comparable numbers.

Communists in our own country continue to widen their effectiveness with propaganda calculated to subtly undermine our people's faith in the American political and economic institutions. Philbrick and all the authorities on Communism say the Reds are masters of subtle thought control, and that through infiltration and a vast army of unwitting dupes, they are effectively reaching the minds of many citizens.

So the actual facts do show that the strength of Communism is growing, expanding; and that it is a menace to America from within as well as from without.

on the watch...

HOW LONG HAS IT BEEN since your watch had a checkup? A year? Or two? Or can't you even remember?

Well, here's a tip from our watch service expert on the care and feeding of your timepiece—whatever its make or model.

Your watch, he says, really takes a tougher beating than your automobile. It goes—and goes constantly—24 hours a day. In fact, with proper care, a jeweled-lever watch could serve you for the incredible equivalent of 90,000 miles.

That's why, when our watch service expert suggests you let him check up on your watch—it's really a tribute to your watch! (For what other machine will run at full speed day in and day out without a checkup?) And the short time he spends inspecting your watch today may save you big money by heading off future "time off."

So make it a point, won't you, to drop by for a watch check-up. Should any work need to be done, you can be sure we use only genuine factory replacement parts from Switzerland.

And naturally—all our work is guaranteed!

report, Communism, aided by its Fifth Column inside the government of France, has taken over half of Indo-China and is expected to gobble up the remaining half as it consolidates its newest conquest. With the vast manpower of Red China and with a Red Indo-China flanking southeast Asia, the huge nation of India, with its millions, becomes vulnerable, and with it the whole of Asia.

In Europe, meantime, the major nations show definite signs of weakening before the rising might of the Communist giant. This weakening has been achieved by infiltration of Reds in the European nations, their cunning propaganda, and their insidious seizure of political power. The U.S. Senate committee reports there are 450,000 Communist conspirators in France, with 100 Reds actually holding seats in the French Assembly; that in Italy there are 1,700,000 card-carrying Reds, with 218 occupying seats in the Senate and Chamber of Deputies. As this column is written, the leaders of England's Socialist-Labor Party—Atlee, Bevan and others—are on a good visit in Communist China, kow-towing to Communism's new strong man, Red Dictator Mao Tze-tung.

Menace Grows

Now let's examine FACT NO. 2

—the Communist Fifth Column in America is more powerful and a greater menace today than ever before:

Attorney General Herbert Brownell was interviewed by editors of the U.S. News & World Report. They asked: "Is the Communist Party (within our country) more or less active, Mr. Attorney General, than it was, say, a year ago? What does the FBI find on that?" The Attorney General replied: "They think it is a greater menace now than at any time... they (Communist conspirators) are better organized and detec-

AS GENERAL ELECTRIC SEES IT...

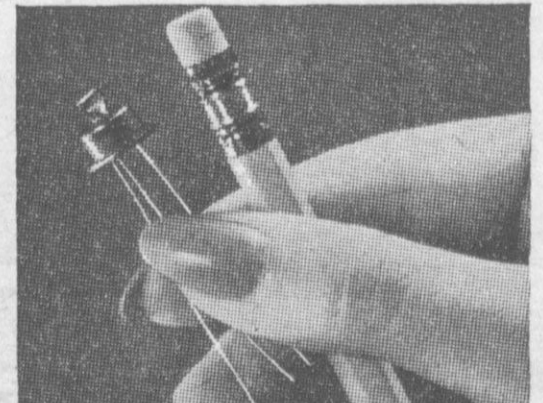

New products created 45,000 G-E jobs in the last nine years

And hundreds of new ideas are now being developed to keep employment high and help America live better

Tower of time cards shows jobs created by new G-E products. In a single pile, they'd reach 5 stories high.

One out of every five people working at General Electric owes his job to products G. E. didn't make before 1945. Will coming years bring as much progress? Actually, we believe there will be more. Many exciting possibilities are predictable as we learn how to make full use of atomic energy. Another important new development will be electronic machinery which will make work easier, production swifter—and create more jobs. New uses for gas turbines promise improved air, rail and ship transportation, and better power plants for industry. Research will make home appliances even more helpful. All these fields—and many others—are so promising that we expect to produce more in the next ten years than in all the previous 75 years of our existence. As we see it, in a free economy, America's industrial progress is not only continuing, it's rapidly accelerating.

Tiny job maker. The G-E transistor, not much bigger than a pencil eraser, does the work of a full-sized vacuum tube. It makes possible a wide variety of new electronic devices which will make your life more pleasant in the future and give employment to thousands of people.

FTC NEWS

As a service to its readers The National Photographer is pleased to conduct the following monthly column containing excerpts taken from the Federal Trade Commission's Official News Summary.

MISREPRESENTATION COMPLAINT (6211) ON "BUILD-A-BOOK" PHOTOGRAPHIC ALBUMS

The Federal Trade Commission has issued a complaint charging General Products, of Chicago, with misrepresentation in the sale of photographic albums and certificates for photographs.

According to the complaint, the partners have entered into agreements with a large number of photographic studios throughout the country whereby the studios agree to honor certificates for photographs issued to purchasers of photographic albums known as "Build-A-Book." These certificates provide that the holders are entitled to receive ten 8 x 10 portraits at the rate of two a year at intervals of not less than ninety days. The studio may make a charge of $1.00 for each sitting if the certificate holder does not order additional photographs. The price of the album, designed to hold 100 photographs, is $39.95.

The complaint challenges claims made by the firm in advertising, on its certificates and through its sales representatives to the effect that the person solicited was especially selected, was to receive an album free and that the charge made was for the photographs. It also cites as false and misleading the representations that the $39.95 price for the album-certificate combination was a promotional and reduced price; that the combination had a value of $114.50; and that the photographs were of natural good tone finish.

In issuing the complaint, the Commission noted that the challenged practices are in violation of trade practice rules issued last September for the Portrait Photographic Industry. The rules cover, among other things, misrepresentation as to finishing and coloring; misuse of the word "free"; misuse of the term "you have been selected," etc.; and deceptive pricing.

The foregoing Federal Trade Commission report appearing in "The National Photographer" is presented in the public interest by loss of possession. In all the ball changed hands ten times on fumbles, Whitesboro losing it 6 times and Muenster 4 times. However Muenster was thrown for a total loss of 71 yards and Whitesboro was set back only 19. So, in the net total of yardage the Bearcats had the better record, 110 as compared to the Hornets' 80.

It was in passing that Muenster racked up its big gains, with 4 out of 11 heaves accounting for 131 yards. Whitesboro gained only 7 yards on 2 completions out of 9 tries. As beautiful as those aerials were, however, not one produced a TD. Dougherty was hauled down 2 yards short of pay dirt after a 50 yard gain. Harris was stopped on the 11 after a gain of 32 and Noggler missed by a yard after picking up 38.

Scoring opportunities set up by the Dougherty and Harris completions both fizzled away in fumbles, but Noggler's completion to the 1 yard line led to the first counter. Richey closed half the gap on a quarterback sneak and Noggler knifed through for the six pointer.

That TD was in the third period and the other came about midway in the fourth as Noggler broke through for 58 yards of fancy sprinting and sidestepping aided by Dougherty's beautiful block just when trouble was moving in. Richey's handoff and a dash through a yawning gap at right tackle started the play.

Noggler kicked the extra point after the first TD, but lost his second chance on a bad pass from center.

Opening minutes of the game seemed to indicate that Whitesboro had the upper hand. Muenster received, failed to gain and kicked, and Winchester scampered back 30 yards to the Hornet 35. Six tries featuring Sapp and Arterburn, reached the 12 before a fumble stopped the first scoring threat. After an exchange of punts Muenster fumbled on the 13 and the Cats had another chance but lost it on another fumble.

The Bearcats lost another chance to score in the closing minutes of the first half. After recovering a Hornet fumble on the 11 they advanced 6 in three tries, then were stopped by the halftime horn.

First Game Marks Pointers as Stout Foes for Hornets

What's to happen when Muenster Hornets and Pilot Point Bearcats bump noggins here Friday night is anybody's guess.

A week ago dopesters thought they had it all figured with Muenster rating as a slight favorite. But that was before the Bearcats humiliated Callisburg 41-0 proving either that they are quite powerful or that the Wildcats are quite feeble. Assuming that the Wildcat crew isn't a complete washout this season, it's a reasonable guess that the Pointers simply are loaded and deserve respect, also that hot shot Vernon Coe, the 169 pounder who served up most of Callisburg's bitter defeat, is definitely someone to be reckoned with. He does everything in the backfield, most of it very well.

But then, there's the fact that the Hornets also have given their prestige a bit of a boost. Their 13-0 upset of Class A Whitesboro, which is due to be classed as AA next year, marks them as a considerably better than average Class B outfit.

So, even though Pilot Point is another Class A team and it started the season with a scoring spree, it has little if any statistical advantage over the Hornets. Dope might possibly be revised to rate the game as a toss up, but the Pointers still cannot be figured as definite favorites.

Probable starters for the Hornets are Wallace Dougherty and Jimmy Harris, ends; Lawrence Milner and Jerry Klement, tackles; Ronald Halmark and Jimmy Fisher, guards; Lloyd Trubenbach, center; Wendell Richey, Donny Whitt, Joe Noggler and Don Moon, backs.

that every mile of F-M road built by the state relieves the county of that much maintenance expense. Every mile of lateral pavement built by the county reduces future maintenance expense. Meanwhile increasing valuation every year, which is indicated by steady progress over the past several years, increases the total of tax revenue. Figuring these factors together one begins to wonder whether all of the proposed 30 cent tax is needed.

Or would it be better to start with the 30 cent rate, allowing a more intensive improvement program in the immediate future, and then taper off as maintenance expenses drop and valuations rise?

Many advocates of the tax see possibilities of shrinking road budgets and growing revenues in the future, and assume that the commissioners will have the good judgment to lower the rate when circumstances warrant. There's another problem. How do we know that commissioners several years from now can be depended upon to do that? The record of our federal government has shown consistently that ways are usually found to dispose of public funds. Without casting reflection on any future commissioner it can still be said that this is risky procedure.

Yes, there are pros and cons galore, all worthy of serious thought. Cooke County voters can well afford to be on their toes in making the decision.
