Muenster Donates Ton of Clothing For World's Needy

A bit of bragging seems to be in order as two fine Muenster football teams pack their uniforms in moth balls. According to the usual standards of judging, a team is credited with a successful season if it pulls through with more wins than losses. When the percentage runs up to 800 or 900 the team is usually in line for profuse praise. And properly so. Very few teams finish with that kind of record.

So we of Muenster have good reason to be proud of the performance of either one of our teams. Standings of 900 and 800 respectively qualify for a place with the elite outfits of the state. And their combined record practically puts the community in a class by itself. Though this column hasn't been digging into this kind of statistics it ventures the guess that no other two-team town in the state can match our record. The Hornets and Tigers have done a really magnificent job.

That applies especially to the Hornets who racked up that 9 to 1 record and a season score of 310-68 in spite of being the prime target of practically every team on their schedule. Before the boys reported for their first practice, word got around that they were the ones to beat in the 10-B race. Every team was out to trip the Hornets, every team tried to be at its very best when it met Muenster.

Nevertheless the boys breezed through a season of nine one sided victories and the one 13-12 loss to Sanger in the deciding game of the district race. In spite of that loss we can derive a little satisfaction from the fact that our team has a better season record than the champ. The Indians have an 8-2 standing and the poorer showing in comparative scores with common foes of the season.

More satisfaction derives from their manner of playing. They have a good record with opponents, as revealed by the honor of winning second spot in the district coaches' vote for the sportsmanship trophy award.

The Tigers' record is almost as good as far as figures are concerned, and actually better in relation to their dim prospects at the beginning of the season. With practically all the power lost from the Academic League district champ team of last year, the parochial lightweights were figured to land in the district cellar, or at best one or two steps up.

But they took to their job of developing an alert and coordinated unit and opened the season by surprising their fans, their coach, and perhaps themselves also.

Like the Hornets they ran into one district foe that was too much for them, but unlike their neighbors they had to spring upsets to come through with other conference wins. Considering that they played an up-hill game through most of the season their 8-2 record is magnificent.

In their manner of playing also, they rate a word of praise. They're known as fellows who tackle and block for keeps while giving their opponents a clean and friendly game.

Again this column has the pleasure of inviting attention to the Volume and Number just below the heading on the front page of this paper. Volume XIX, Number 1. This is the first paper in our nineteenth year of publication. And like all the other Thanksgivings since 1936, this is a happy birthday to us.

It was just a coincidence that the first issue of the Enterprise came out on Thanksgiving. After several weeks of organizing that happened to be the week when we were ready to go. But a considered choice could not have been better. For years this column has been convinced that every anniversary is a special occasion for thanksgiving, so it could not come on a more appropriate date.

There are a lot of blessings for which this paper is thankful, first and foremost of which is the fact that the Enterprise has long been accepted as a vital unit in an industrious and prosperous community.

It's obvious that we of the staff could not continue our efforts if we could not enjoy comfort and security. Nor could the plant continue operating if it were not kept up to date with replacements and Muenster citizens donated more than a ton of clothing, bedding and shoes in the sixth annual Thanksgiving clothing drive for the world's needy which ended here Tuesday.

Clothing and bedding filled 32 large cartons while shoes, packed separately, amounted to eight full bags weighing almost 300 pounds. Mrs. Joe Swirczynski, mission chairman for the local unit National Council of Catholic Women, supervised the sorting and packing. Ten ladies assisted her with the work after which men of the parish roped the boxes and delivered them to the depot.

The drive, as in past years, was requested by Pope Pius and will help replenish the Vatican store-rooms. From there it will be sent to destitute people all over the world.

In addition to the ton shipment there are several hundred pounds of clothing that was held back principally on account of its light weight—summer wear articles. These are stored at the local mission center and will be shipped later to Latin-American needy.

Muenster's shipment was tagged for War Relief Services, National Catholic Welfare Council, San Francisco, Calif., and will be re-routed from there. Sacred Heart parish pre-paid the freight to the coast city where the NCWC takes over.

Hornets Dominate Selections on 10-B All-District Teams

Muenster dominates the 10-B all-district teams for 1954 with 3 players on the first string and 4 on the second. The selections were made by district coaches at their season-closing meeting in Callisburg Monday night.

Sanger, the district champ, rates second honor on the two mythical teams with a total of 6 but has best representation on the first team with 4. Other selections award Era 1 on the first team and 4 on the second, Valley View 1 and 2, Alford 2 and 0, and Callisburg 0 and 2. The second team has 14 players because of a 2-way tie for a tackle position and a 3-way tie for a backfield position.

Joe Noggler, leading district scorer with exactly half of Muenster's 310 total points, was the only unanimous selection for the mythical team. Tommy Turner of Valley View missed a similar distinction by only one vote. Moon missed the first team by only 2 votes. Both teams were named on the same ballot, players with high votes being named on the first string and next high on the second.

Members of the first team are: ENDS: Dougherty (M) and Odum (S); TACKLES: Clement (S) and Peyton (A); GUARDS: Hallmark (M) and Kerby (S); CENTER: Leftwich (E); BACKS: Noggler (M), Turner (V V), Shelton (S) and Holloway (A).

Second team members are: ENDS: Smith (E) and Martin (V V); TACKLES: Southard (E) and tie of Weaver (C) and Eason (E); GUARDS: Fisher (M) and Ashcraft (S); CENTER: Trubenbach (M); BACKS: Moon (M), Durham (E), Crowsey (C) and tie of Richey (M), Amyx (S) and Christian (V V).

S.H. Alumni Elects Henry Yosten Prexy

Henry Yosten heads the Sacred Heart Alumni as president for a new year. He was elected Thursday night when the annual election of officers was the principal business at a meeting of the organization.

Other officers were re-elected. Mrs. Norbert Walterscheid continues as secretary and Alvin Fuhrmann remains treasurer. Billy Joe Miller, retiring president, automatically assumed the vice-presidency. Miss Albina Magee was named reporter.

Members discussed plans for the year's program and will appoint chairmen to head committees.

Pilot Point Women To Hostess NCCW Meeting Tuesday

Pilot Point's Saint Thomas parish women will hostess the quarterly meeting of the Sherman Deanery National Council of Catholic Women next Tuesday, Nov. 30, and according to the program released this week the session promises to be informative and entertaining.

A highlight of the afternoon will be a report on the national convention recently attended by Mrs. A. J. Koriath of Sherman in Boston where President Eisenhower was among many prominent speakers. Mrs. Koriath is national chairman of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine.

Also on the program is a talk on Rural Life by Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel, an address by Rev. John Duesman, deanery moderator, and an entertainment feature by students of St. Thomas school. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will conclude the meeting and a social hour with refreshments will follow.

Hornets Smother Eagles 39-12 In 1954 Grid Finale

Eight seniors of Muenster High closed their schoolboy football careers in a blaze of glory Friday night as they co-captained the Hornets in a scoring spree that overwhelmed the Valley View Eagles 39-12.

Joe Noggler especially made it a big night by scoring four touchdowns and three extra points, along with three more touchdowns that were called back by the officials. That performance marked him as the winner in the heralded contest with the Eagle ace, Tommy Turner, who stepped off about ninety per cent of his team's ground gains and threw every one of its 29 passes.

Between them the two lads accounted for the lions share of the action in a fast moving tussle that added up to a total yardage, on rushing, passing and kick returns, of 933. Muenster rushed for 386, passed for 60 and returned kicks for 170. Valley View's comparative figures were 81, 128 and 108.

The Eagles got almost a third of their yardage on the opening kickoff as the shifty Turner used excellent blocking to perfect advantage in a 90 yard return before being nailed by Richey on the 5 yard line. Three line plays added 2, then Turner passed to lanky Kenneth Martin for the first score.

Trubenbach blocked the try for extra point and the score stood at 6-0 at the end of the first minute.

Muenster's tying score took no longer. Moon received the kickoff on the 30 and fumbled as he was tackled on the 40. Ronnie Hallmark, who has three kickoff touchdowns to his credit for the season, scooped up the ball and put on a beautiful broken field run until hauled down on the

Exes Overpower Tigers, Win 6-0

Former members of the Sacred Heart Tigers made good Wednesday night on their boast to show the 1954 squad a thing or two about football. They earned a 6-0 win and marked up the better record in a drawn out exhibition contest seen by some 250 shivering fans.

From start to finish the tussle was mostly defensive and delayed by frequent times out to give the panting Exes a chance to regain their breath. Apparently that was all they needed, because they finished as potent as they started.

Favored by a considerable advantage in size and a pick of talent for several seasons back, the Has-beens did the better job both offensively and defensively. They made 10 first downs while holding the schoolboys to 4, and managed to combine three of those first downs in 47 yard touchdown drive featuring a 20 yard pass from George Mollenkopf to Reynold Reiter and two good gains by Gilbert Yosten, the second for 16 and the TD.

Both on the ground and in the air the Exes gave the Tiger of-

SHHS Tigers Coast To 19-14 Win Over Windthorst Team

Father Christopher's Sacred Heart Tigers brought their very successful 1954 football season to a pleasant close Friday night by taking an early lead and coasting to a 19-14 win over the Windthorst Trojans.

The Tigers kept the situation under control all the way through, first marking up a two touchdown lead then turning the field over to their reserves until their visitors cut down the margin. After that regulars again stayed on the job until they had regained a safe margin and let the second stringers continue the game.

Playing their first grid season the inexperienced Archer County boys did not have a chance against the seasoned Tiger crew that had sacked away the runner-up title in the district race of the Southwest Academic League and a season record of 7 wins and 2 losses. Against the Tiger youngsters, however, their season of development and advantage in size were enough for two easy touchdowns.

Sacred Heart made a fast start on Herr's 22 yard kickoff return

MHS B'Ball Girls Win 3 and Lose 1

Two wins for the B team and a win and a loss for the A team is the record of Muenster High School's basketball girls during the past week. The four games were played as two double headers in the local gym, Muenster winning both from Bridgeport and splitting with Collinsville.

In the curtain raiser last Thursday night local girls trailed 5-10 at the end of the first quarter and nosed ahead for a 15-13 lead at the half. By the end of the third quarter they increased their margin to 23-19 and at the end they led 31-23. Evelyn Haverkamp hit more than 60 per cent of her tries for a high score of 20 points.

The A game saw Muenster leading at the quarter and half, lag-

2 New Buildings Planned; 2 Repair Jobs Going on Main

Emphasis in Muenster's building and improvement lately leans toward business sites with two new structures in the planning stage and two more being worked over for early occupancy.

Martin Kleuser and son, Charles, architects of Dallas, were here Monday taking notes preparatory to drawing plans for future homes of the Charm Shop and the Variety Store. Construction on both buildings is due to begin some time after the first of the year.

The Charm Shop building, being built by J. M. Weinzapfel, will replace the present structure and will be considerably larger, its front extending 50 feet from the north wall of the bank. Space for two and possibly three business locations will be provided.

The Variety Store will occupy the present site of Main Cafe, which Anthony Luke bought some years ago from L. A. Bernauer. Its front will extend 68 feet north from the Dixie Drug store and, like the other, is intended to accommodate more than one business.

Special remodeling is in progress now at the Meurer building, formerly occupied by the Post Office and Nick Miller, and the former barber shop between the present Post Office and Wiese Jewelry.

Scott Brothers of Saint Jo and Nocona hope to move a furniture stock into the Meurer location on or about the first of December.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Hamric will occupy the other location with their men's clothing store, which has been crowded into a small space in the Charm Shop for the past several weeks. Their location is ready but they are waiting for display cases and floor covering. They expect to move some time next week.

Hornets Awarded Runner-up Trophy In 10-B Grid Race

runner-up in the race for district The Hornet football team, championship was also runner-up for the district sportsmanship trophy. At a meeting of district school officials in Callisburg Monday night, coaches voted Alford as winner of the sportsmanship award for the season and favored Muenster as their second selection.

Three votes were cast by each coach on a basis of 3 points for first selection, 2 for second, and 1 for third, and the final tally was 10 for Alford, 7 for Muenster, 6 for Sanger, 4 for Era, and 3 each for Callisburg, Valley View and Saint Jo.

During past years the sportsmanship trophy had become regarded as a consolation award to the low team in the district race, but officials decided before this season to consider sportsmanship only in casting their votes, thereby restoring the intended purpose and value of the award.

Other business at the meeting consisted of officially declaring Sanger as winner of the district champ trophy and Muenster as winner of the runner-up trophy, naming first and second all-district teams, and electing Cecil Wilson, Sanger superintendent, and L. L. Browning, Sanger coach, as chairman and secretary for the next year.

Final standings in the district race are as follows:

Muenster	5	1	0
Era	3	2	1
Alford	2	3	1
Valley View	2	4	0
Callisburg	1	5	0
Saint Jo	0	4	2

Local News BRIEFS

Among the first students to arrive for the Thanksgiving holiday vacation were Joe Felderhoff and Jerry Reiter of St. John's Seminary, San Antonio. The boys caught a ride with a classmate part of the way and Joe's parents, the Tony Felderhoffs, met them in Fort Worth Wednesday to bring them home.

The Ben Lukes have as holiday guests the Harold Lukes and son and Mrs. Luke's sister of Dallas, Bill Luke and Miss Aileen Cunningham of Midland, Ray Luke of Subiaco, Ark., and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kuhn of Fort Worth.

Lt. and Mrs. F. P. Swan and children of Pensacola, Fla., are holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gimple at Valley View and are also stopping in for visits with relatives and friends in Muenster and Lindsay.

The Tripoli Club met at the home of Mrs. Albert Herr last Wednesday night. Guests for the games and refreshments were Mmes. Earl Walterscheid, Ray Voth, Vincent Zimmerer, Paul Arendt Jr., and Andy Arendt.

Mrs. Ben Seyler and Mrs. Callie Baumhardt spent Monday in Scotland and Windthorst with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Deith and Mrs. Henry Deith Sr., all of Lexington, Okla., spent Tuesday with the Joe Bergmans. The two families were neighbors about 30 years ago when the Deiths lived here south of town.

Hugh Jackson attended a dinner and reunion of ex-students of Azle High in the new school building there Saturday. About 360 former students were present, among them 10 of the 16 of Hugh's graduating class. The Civic League sponsored the affair as a benefit for Azle's new fire hall.

IDEAS WELCOMED

With next month's Civic League and Garden Club program on "Community Holiday Decorations," Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel, in charge of the program, asks that residents plan their outdoor Yule adornment and let her know. She would also like to hear suggestions for beautifying the community and the city. Call or write her before Dec. 5, so that she has the information by the next meeting on Dec. 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Batte of Fort Worth visited the J. T. Coles Sunday.

Cinemascope Comes To Relax Theatre

Cinemascope, the modern movie projection method which presents a panoramic view with a three-dimension illusion, will come to the Relax Theatre Sunday.

Manager George Letson said Wednesday that projection equipment is installed and ready to go, and the special wide silver screen is waiting for installation.

The special anamorphic lens attached to the projector is an adjustable gadget which can be used in showing either cinemascope or conventional film. In one position it spreads the image to the full 26 foot width of the new screen. In the other it projects the average image about 14 feet wide. By a simple change the operator switches from a cinemascope feature to conventional newsreel or comic film.

The screen further improves the quality of the image. Besides being almost twice as wide as before it has a silvered surface instead of the former plain white. It gives a clearer image for conventional as well as cinemascope pictures and helps create the three dimension illusion. However, the increased screen size applies to width only. Its height will actually be about a foot less than the old screen. The effect is to present a more complete and realistic background for action shown in the movie.

The change does not mean that all future shows at the Relax will be in cinemascope. Many good pictures are still available only in conventional films, and the management does not intend to by-pass them.

Hornets Win - - -

Eagle 23. Three more plays did the job. Noggler jabbed at the line for 4, Moon broke through for 18 and Richey sneaked over for the last yard. Noggler's kick put the Hornets ahead 7-6.

The rest of that quarter and deep into the next was taken up by a deadlock in which Muenster made good yardage but was stopped by fumbles whereas Valley View cracked the Hornet defense for an occasional first down.

On their first series the Eagles kicked and Noggler returned 23 to the Valley View 42. Two tries each by Moon and Noggler reached the 10 where a fumble loused up the scoring chance.

Again the Eagles kicked on the first series. Muenster lost the ball by inches on a fourth down gamble. Valley View moved the chain once and kicked on the next series.

Then the Hornets opened another drive. From their own 25 they went to the Eagle 16 in 5 plays, were set back 15 by a penalty and then fumbled the ball away.

A short gain followed by another penalty on the Hornets moved the Eagles to mid-field. A 5 yard donation on a penalty plus Turner's 15 yard scoot moved the marker to the 30 but the next four tries fell short by 4 and the Hornets claimed the ball on their 24.

At that point Noggler got away on the first of his three non-scoring touchdowns. The run was a beauty with good footwork behind good blocking to midfield and a sprint to the goal. But all the play netted was a 5 yard penalty. Moon and Noggler added 10 on the next two tries and Noggler kicked. On the play, however Valley View drew a roughing penalty, and the 15 free yards set up the Hornets for another series on their 45.

Five plays reached the Eagle 39 where Noggler broke through for a TD that counted, then kicked true for a 14-6 lead.

The second half opened with another sensational kick off return. Richey received, headed for the right side of the field and handed to Noggler who streaked to the left. Whitt and Dougherty disposed of two defenders and Noggler beat the others to clear ground, after which he had it made.

After forcing the Eagles to kick in their first series Muenster took over on the 28. Noggler added 3 and Moon 22 and Noggler got away on his second "practice" touchdown. The next four plays fell short of first down, after which Turner's 12, Haynie's 6 and Turner's 5 reached the Hornet 28. Three incomplete passes followed by a completion for 9 was short for the first down and Muenster was in business again, on its 19.

Noggler made 3 and Moon 4 and Noggler was off for a 74 yard scoot across the field.

Finally it was Valley View's turn again, after covering an onside kick attempt on the 46. Turner ripped off 20 to the Hornet 34 then flipped to Haynie for a touchdown. Trubenbach again blocked the try for extra point.

Muenster's next score came as the result of a 53 yard drive on runs by Moon and Noggler and Richey's 10 yard pass to Whitt. Noggler went over from the 7 and kicked the extra point.

The Eagles came back with a drive featuring Turner's runs and passes to Martin and Johnson. Following alert action on an on-side kick attempt they started on the Hornet 46 and got to the 15 before losing the ball on downs.

On the next play Noggler broke away on his third futile touchdown gallop. Officials ruled that a Hornet block on the 33 came from the wrong angle and stepped off a clipping penalty to the 18. However, three more plays redeemed Noggler's futile gallop. Noggler made 20, Moon 12 and Richey's heave to Whitt made the remaining 50. Whitt took the pass on about the 25 and was almost in trouble when Dougherty disposed of the threatening tackler. Valley View snapped back with a last minute surge on three passes that netted 51 yards to the Hornet 38 as time ran out.

Next to Noggler, Moon was the strong runner of the game. His power plunges, always good for gains, accounted for about one third of the Hornets' rushing yardage.

Rugged line work explains to a great extent the success of the Hornet offense as well as the very limited success of the Eagles' ground game. Hornet backs found plenty of holes to go through whereas the Eagles were so thoroughly stopped that they elected to pass on more than half of their plays. They originated 29 pass plays and 27 running plays whereas the Hornets rushed 46 times and passed only 5 times.

And the aerial game paid off for the Eagles. It netted 128 yards whereas the rushes gained only 81.

Standouts in the Hornet line were Fisher, Trubenbach, Hallmark and Dougherty. Martin and Haynie, with a good record of snaring passes, were the most potent Eagle linemen.

HORSEPOWER TELLS THE STORY

What enterprise is the greatest user of power in all its forms? The answer, according to an item in Country Gentlemen, is agriculture—and its lead in this field is huge. Our farms now have 115,672,600 horsepower available—in tractors, trucks, electric motors, stationary engines, and so on. By comparison, all our factories use only 28,800, 000 horsepower. Here, in a simple set of statistics, is the story of this century's agricultural revolution. The internal combustion engine and electricity have transformed farming into an advanced and complex business. Farm equipment of a thousand and one kinds has made it possible for a smaller farm population, working a relatively fixed acreage, too feed a vastly increased non-farm population. And it has given the farmer more than the means to increase his production, and to earn a better living with less physical work. It has given him the means to conserve and improve his land in the process—and to save it for future generations who will be called upon to meet a still greater demand for food and fiber.

THE WHOLE STORY

Dr. George W. Crane is a widely syndicated columnist who often writes on questions and problems suggested to him by readers. Recently he dealt with the complaint of a farmer. The farmer said that steers he sold for 25 cents a pound wound up in the butcher shops in the shape of dollar a pound steaks, and reasoned from this that the packers were making huge profits. Dr. Crane looked into the matter. He found that at the start of this year the packers paid $258 for a 1,000 pound steer. That steer dressed out at only 590 pounds, for which, at the average wholesale price, the packers received $241.90. In other words, they sold it for $16.10 less than

Thanksgiving Is A Thank-You Day

By Rev. Hugh Calkins

YOU REMEMBER the story of the ten lepers cured by Christ. The hero of the story is the man who remembered to say Thank You. He was alone in his gratitude.

One out of ten certainly seems like a poor average for men cured of a vicious disease. Yet in our self-centered world of today would the average of people truly grateful to God be any higher?

OH, YES, I KNOW that all over the world today, most of us will toss God a vague nod, as we piously mutter: "Well we certainly have a lot to be thankful for." But it won't be the bright, smiling, glad, "Oh, thank you" of Calkins appreciative children to a loving Father. It will be the dutiful but dull "Thank you" of etiquette observing strangers.

For to most Americans God has become a stranger, and giving thanks has become a forgotten virtue.

ALWAYS AND EVERYWHERE, however, we should give thanks. At the days end and its beginning. In our homes, factories, fields and offices. Not only in health and wealth, but in sickness and poverty.

When Governor Bradford of the Plymouth Colony set aside a day for praise and thanks to God in 1621, it was a lean, hard year. Old records tell us our forefathers reaped only barley and corn in that harvest and "the peas were not worth gathering, for we feared they were sown too late."

YET EVEN FOR THEIR MEAGER BLESSINGS, so sharply in contrast with our lush prosperity today, they originated a day of special thanks. How their charming gratitude exposes our selfish neglect towards God.

There are many ways to show our gratitude to God each day. A godly use of God's gifts, health, money, time, talents, family influence, friends, prayer each morning and evening, especially family prayer.

WE SHOW OUR GRATITUDE by eagerness to do the things that are pleasing to God, by our anxiety to make a fitting return for all the goods showered on us. In gratitude's language, deeds thunder over mere words.

Thank God, today as a family in family prayer, not only for all the blessings He has given you, but thank Him too for those who won't remember to say, "Thank You."

MAYBE YOU AND YOUR FAMILY can make amends for the modern version of "Were not the ten made clean? Where are the nine?"

† Pastoral Feature Service, Washington 17, D. C.

they paid for it. That difference, plus a very small profit, was made up by selling hide, hair and other non-edible by-products.

On being told this, the farmer said that it must be the retailer who was making the big money out of beef. Again Dr. Crane investigated. This time he found that water loss and unsalable bones and trimmings cut the 590 pound carcass to 450 pounds of marketable meat. Only a little of this provided high-priced steaks, while much of it became hamburger and moderately priced cuts. So the butcher got a total of $291.40 out of his $241.90 steer—a gross profit of $50. And that had to cover rent, wages, insurance, taxes and all his other expenses, not just a profit.

Dr. Crane made the point in these words: "Too many Americans see only the cash register gross sales. They fail to deduct the many costs and overhead charges."

TIME WANTED!

And in my dreams I came to a beautiful building, somehow like a bank, and yet not a bank, because the brass marker said, "Time For Sale."

I saw a man, breathless and pale, painfully pull himself up the stairs like a sick man. I heard him say: "The doctor told me I was five years too late in going to see him. I will buy those five years now—and then he can save my life."

Then came another man, also older, to say to the clerk: "When it was too late, I discovered that God had given me great capacities and endowments, and I failed to develop them. Sell me ten years so that I can be the man I would have been." Then came a younger man to say: "The company has told me that starting next month I can have a big job if I am prepared to take it. But I am not prepared. Give me two years of time so that I will be ready to take the job next month."

So they came, ill, hopeless, dependent, worried, unhappy—and they left smiling, each man with a look of unutterable pleasure on his face, for he had what he so desperately needed and wanted—time.

Then I awoke, glad that I had what these men had not, and what they could never buy—time. Time to do so many things I wanted to do that I must do. If that morning I whistled at my work, it was because a great happiness filled my heart. For I still had time.—Paul Speicher in R&R Magazine.

Basketball Games -

ging at the third quarter and finally coming through for a final 3 point lead. The counts were 6-2 and 14-12 favoring Muenster, 20-24 favoring Bridgeport, and 31-28 favoring Muenster. Butler was the local hot shot with 14 points. Cain had 7, Myrick 6 and Hudspeth 4.

Playing Collinsville Tuesday night local B stringers had a walk-away, and every girl in uniform had a chance before the game was over. Scores by periods were 15-1, 24-3, 34-9 and 40-21. Haverkamp led with 19.

The main event was different, however, even though Coach Homsley's charges threw a temporary scare into their visitors, winners of last year's Muenster invitation tournament. MHS led at the intermission and third quarter, but the Collinsville whirlwind finish was too much for them. The lead changed with 3 minutes to go and during the remaining time the visitors pulled ahead for a comfortable margin. Scores by periods were 17-16 Collinsville, 29-25 Muenster, 36-30 Muenster and 48-40 Collinsville. Cain and Myrick shared the local high point honor with 14 each.

Next on schedule is a pair of return games at Collinsville next Tuesday.

The following Friday opens the boys' season when girls and boys of Slidell come here for a double header. Admission charge for that program will be 20c and 35c.

Building And Improvement Notes

The new J. W. Fleitman home, which had been waiting for workers since last summer, is moving along nicely now. Outside work is finished, inside work is well advanced. It will be a 4-bedroom, 2-bathroom house.

Another job making good progress is John Hacker's 3-bedroom house in northwest Muenster. They are working on inside walls. Henry Stelzer's house has just had a general overhaul including interior changes, new siding, room and paint.

Oscar Miller is building a cellar beside his new home completed a few weeks ago.

Curbs are being built at the homes of Albert Rohmer, Alphonse Felderhoff and R. N. Fette.

That long awaited market recovery arrived in time for last week's sale. Besides, as usual, we topped the market price on most of the stock we sold. It was a good deal for lots of sellers.
