City Petition Will Ask Cost Survey And Bond Election

Frequently we hear about families that go strong on disagreements and quarrels and even resort to throwing fists at times, but they are quick to disregard their differences and throw up a common front when someone else challenges an individual or the group.

Practically everyone has heard of such cases, and is amused by them. At the same time practically everybody is ready to admit that there is something admirable about them. We give the fellows credit for subordinating their petty personal affairs to the more important considerations of family spirit, prestige and welfare.

For about a half century we at Muenster rated very much as such a family. We've had our community squabbles, but we also had a mighty fine record of sticking together when the chips were down. We practiced that admirable virtue of placing community prestige and welfare above the personal satisfaction that might be derived from another person's disappointment.

Last Saturday the community . . . and anyone else that happened to notice . . . saw a regrettable disregard of that old spirit of community loyalty. A local man who has given far more than his quota of energy to community welfare, who has been chosen time and again as a community leader, who has been recognized for years as a man of judgment and integrity, was snubbed at the ballot box by more than a third of the local people.

There's no doubt in anyone's mind as to the reason behind this opposing vote. There have been differences—here, deplorable disagreements which should have been solved calmly long before they inflicted ugly scars, but which by no stretch of the imagination can be regarded as justification for this injury to community prestige and welfare.

This is not intended to imply that the other candidate is unworthy of support. On the contrary, he is a deserving man who, under other circumstances should rightly receive strong support from this community. But circumstances are different here. Muenster has a candidate who is capable, qualified, and above reproach in every respect . . . in addition to being a long time community leader and benefactor. He is entitled to our support as a matter of community loyalty and pride.

Now that Saturday's episode is over, we wonder how the dissenters feel about their achievement. Is the satisfaction of being spiteful great enough to offset the guilt of having betrayed their community?

The Texas Farm Bureau is promoting an idea that looks like a real dandy, both for the dairy farmer and for the dairy consumer. It will urge city governments to increase the butterfat requirement in milk from the present 3.25 per cent to 4 per cent. That's to be accomplished by means of city ordinances specifying that all Grade A milk sold within corporate limits must contain not less than 4 per cent butterfat.

It's hardly necessary to point out that such a change would go a long way toward relieving the present surplus of butterfat. A mere three fourths of a pound in 100 pounds of milk doesn't seem like a lot, but figured on the tons and tons of milk consumed daily in the cities it will make a big difference in the long run. There'll be much less surplus butter, bought with our tax money, getting rancid in government storage and eventually being dumped at a give-away price on foreign markets. Even though such milk should cost a little more, the deal is still a good one. We'd get the little extra we pay for whereas now we pay for it in another way but don't get it.

The movement could have another very desirable effect. When milk quality improves the public will like it better, and most likely will buy more of it. That brings on another round of benefits to the dairyman, the taxpayer and the consumer . . . a better market, less to be bought by the government, and more abundant use of the most complete and wholesome food.

Everybody ought to be wishing

A petition now circulating in Muenster and to be presented to the city council at an early meeting requests a survey to determine costs of general improvements including a swimming pool and, if necessary, a bond issue to finance the improvements.

The petition, which had 72 signatures up to noon Wednesday, is entitled "Petition to Vote Bonds—No Tax Rate Increase" and is worded as follows: "We, the undersigned property owners, residing within the limits of the city of Muenster, hereby respectfully petition the Board of Aldermen of the City of Muenster to survey and ascertain the probable cost of general improvements that shall include a swimming pool, and pass a resolution to submit a proposition to the citizens of Muenster to vote 'FOR' or 'AGAINST' THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS, or making the general improvements without a bond issue if possible, that the authority to issue bonds shall be to make the general improvements including a swimming pool, and other recreational facilities."

General improvements referred to in the petition are mostly expansions of the water and sewer systems. At this time some parts are served by undersized water lines which do not give adequate fire protection nor maintain pressure under heavy water use. Likewise extensions will be needed soon to service new homes. In all, expenditures of several thousand dollars are anticipated in the next few years.

The sewer system likewise will require a considerable expenditure before long. The disposal plant, designed originally for a population of 1200 will need expansion soon. Extensions are needed also as building continues and it is probable that another main will have to be built to the disposal plant.

Street work may also require some of the proposed bond funds, although the council has hopes of keeping up with paving progress out of current revenue. Under present arrangements the city pays for all base work and also for the surfacing at alleys and

Radar Introduced To Check Speeding On Texas Highways

Radar is coming to two highways in this area of Texas, according to a report recently sent out by Captain Jack Sutherland, commander of the Fort Worth district of the Texas Highway Patrol. The electronic system will be used in checking speed violations.

Sutherland said the highway patrol has secured several radar meters for use in selected areas of the state in an effort to curtail accidents and deaths due to speed. The first demonstration of the device in this area is scheduled for Aug. 5.

The radar equipment is even more accurate than an auto speedometer and Sutherland has invited court officials, officers and members of the press in Cooke County to see the demonstration in order to be familiar with the operation.

The machines, which are used in many other states and cities, will be operated by patrol officers who have been specially trained in their use.

Superintendent and 2 Teachers Named By School Trustees

H. H. (Howard) Homsley, former superintendent of Loraine High School, in Mitchell County, has been appointed as the new superintendent of Muenster High School, succeeding Weldon Cowan.

He is the second man to be appointed to the position since Cowan resigned. Early in May the board of trustees named Stanley F. Cernosek of Mercedes but received word from him about a month later advising that he had decided to keep his former job.

Superintendent Homsley, a native of Poolville, Parker County, received his bachelor's degree at Daniel Baker College and his master's degree at Texas Tech. He has been teaching in Texas public schools for the past 23 years.

The board also engaged the superintendent's wife as a faculty member at the school. She is a graduate of Texas Tech and qualified to teach English, homemaking or elementary classes.

Another teacher appointment, completing the school faculty for the coming year, is Sylvan Roach, a native of Waldron, Ark., and a graduate of the University of Arkansas.

Muenster Upsets Hooters 4-3. Takes Lead in Play-off

Dick Cain's Muenster Schoolboys really hit their stride during the past week shutting out Pilot Point 1-0 and upsetting the formerly invincible Gainesville Little Hooters 4-3.

The two games established Muenster as strong bidders for top honors in the current Summer baseball league. Previously tied with Pilot Point for second place standing, the boys' victory over the Bearcats put them into a 2 out of 3 play-off series with the undefeated and league leading Hooters. And the win over Gainesville put them in the lead for the series.

It was a typical story book ending that broke the deadlock Muenster and Pilot Point had stretched into two extra innings. In the bottom of the ninth Willie Walterscheid banged out his team's only hit of the game, a solid 2-bagger to center. Richey followed with a hot grounder which the second baseman fumbled momentarily and then threw wild to first, and Walterscheid romped home. That ended a pitcher's duel between Walterscheid and Crawford in which the visitor had a slight advantage. He allowed 1 hit and 4 walks while striking out 15 batters. Willie gave up 3 hits and 3 walks and fanned 16. Both teams made 2 errors and both had 5 to die on base.

The next game started like a scoring spree but settled down in a hurry and remained close the rest of the way. Gainesville led off with 2 and Muenster evened the score in its half of the same frame. In the second inning

30c Tax Proposal Rejected Tuesday By County Voters

The proposed 30 cent ad valorem tax intended to finance the purchase of highway right of way and the construction of other roads in the county failed to get approval in the special tax election Tuesday.

In an exceptionally light vote the people of Cooke County decided by a count of 740 to 676 that they do not want to assume the tax which was dropped by the state in 1951.

When the election result became known County Judge Shelby Fletcher said the defeat would probably result in loss of the $900,000 project for building a 4-lane road from Gainesville to the Grayson County line. Without the tax the county will not have sufficient funds to buy the necessary right of way to qualify for the project and the appropriation will most likely be transferred to some other area.

Fletcher explained that this leaves the county road and bridge fund as the only source of right of way funds, and it is already too heavily burdened to take on the additional expenditure.

Muenster voters opposed the tax by more than two to 1. The count in the north box was 63 for and 117 against. The count in the south box was 13 for and 52 against.

Muenster Named as State League Host For '55 Convention

Catholic State League delegates chose Muenster as the 1955 convention city and re-elected officers in the closing sessions of the fifty-fifth annual convention in Nazareth last Thursday.

Outstanding speakers, including Rev. B. J. Bottoms of Amarillo and Richard Hemmerlein of Syracuse, N. Y., chairman of the Central Bureau Sustenance Fund, brought informative and thought provoking messages on timely topics and Mrs. Ben Schwegmann Sr. of San Antonio, attending her 29th consecutive state convention gave a history of the League's Women Section. She was its second president. During the meeting she was honored with life membership as was Mrs. Ernest Raba, first president.

Among officers re-elected are President Joseph H. Steinle of Dunlay, and Mrs. Stephen J. Marturano of Jarrell, president Women's Section. Miss Agnes Frances Hermes of Lindsay, was elected treasurer of the Youth Section. J. W. Hess of Muenster continues as state director of the Rural Life committee and Rev. Louis Deuster is state spiritual director for the ensuing year.

Present from Muenster were Father Louis, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hess, Mrs. H. J. Fuhrman, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Becker, John Bayer Sr., and Robert Knabe. Delegates from Lindsay included Pete Block, Walter Nortman, Mrs. Val Dieter, Mrs. Ben Hermes, H. N. Fuhrmann, Maria Fuhrmann, Wilfred Bengfort, Joe, Angela, Marcella and Agnes Frances Hermes.

Two Named as Farm Queen Candidates

Miss Wanda Fay Richey of Marysville and Miss Nora Jo Christian of Era have been chosen as queen candidates by the Farm Bureaus in their communities, and will compete in the county contest on August 18.

Miss Richey, 16, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Richey and is a junior at Muenster High School. She is five feet, two inches tall and has brown hair and grey eyes.

Miss Christian is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Christian. She is 18, five feet, three inches tall, has blue eyes and dark brown hair and is a graduate of Era High last spring.

ST. ANNE'S SOCIETY TO HEAR CONVENTION REPORT

At their regular meeting Sunday night members of Saint Anne's Society will hear a report on the recent convention of the Catholic State League in Nazareth. A full attendance is urged.

The meeting will be held in the parish hall after evening mass.

Len Endres Named Armour Manager At Columbus, Ohio

Leonard J. Endres has been named general manager of the Armour and Co. plant at Columbus, Ohio. A report of the appointment was received last week by his mother, Mrs. M. J. Endres, in the form of a clipping sent by Len from a Columbus newspaper dated July 18.

For the past year Len was assistant manager of the Armour plant at Omaha and for about three years prior to that he was manager at Huron, S. D.

His career with the company dates back to 1934 when he started at a warehouse in Dallas. Since then he worked on the road and in practically every department of the Fort Worth plant before his transfer to Huron.

Run-off from 8 in. Rain Can Be Held In Lutkenhaus Lake

As a person looks over the valley that is destined soon to become the permanent pool of the Alex Lutkenhaus detention reservoir, and as he looks farther at the immense volume of space which is intended to serve as the flood pool in heavy rains, he begins to realize how effective the system of Elm watershed dams can be in preventing down-stream floods.

Months ago we were told that each dam is intended to hold the hardest rain in a 25 year period. Folks who have seen some of the worst gully washers know that means a lot of water, but such indefinite figures begin to take on a very real meaning as one starts figuring on the actual specifications of the pool.

H. W. Mayfield SCS project engineer discloses that the reservoir's permanent pool will have an area of 18 acres and a capacity of 127 acre feet, whereas the flood pool will have an area of 79 acres and a capacity of 1179 acre feet. This means that in case of a heavy rain the reservoir will detain 1052 acre feet of water.

Gainesville Group Gives Free Tickets For Owl Ball Game

Baseball fans of Gainesville, eager to promote out of town interest in their Owls, have designated Wednesday, Aug. 4, as Muenster, Saint Jo and Lindsay night and have worked out an arrangement whereby fans in those towns can attend the game as guests.

Tickets will be distributed among the merchants of these towns, probably by July 31, and persons wishing to see the game can have them simply for the asking. Besides, more passes will be available at the Locke Field ticket office for persons who fail to get them in their home town. All the fan has to do is identify himself as a resident of Muenster, Saint Jo, or Lindsay.

The Owl team, composed mostly of youngsters, has been playing a hot brand of ball lately and currently occupies third place in Sooner State League standing.

NEWS OF SICK AND INJURED

A. J. Higgins of Myra entered Gainesville Sanitarium Monday for surgery.

Klement, Robison Enter Run-off in Commissioner Race

Though the ballot will be considerably shorter the Democratic run-off election in August will be no less active here than the Primary held last Saturday. Still to be decided are the two races which drew top local interest in this year's political campaign . . . that for Governor and for Commissioner of Precinct 4.

Governor Shivers and his principal opponent, Ralph Yarborough are the contestants for the state's top job. Incumbent John Klement and Former Commissioner Earl Robison are in the run-off for the commissioner's job.

Votes last Saturday tallied to 565 for Robison, 516 for Klement and 88 for Hemphill.

Other county races, that is those concerning this area were all decided last Saturday. J. H. Riley defeated incumbent Tom Blount 2560 to 2311 for the office of county clerk and Mrs. Ruby Davis defeated incumbent Willie Mae Grundy for the office of county treasurer by a count of 2977 to 2006.

In races not concerning this area G. M. Boydston polled a majority over two opponents for re-election as Commissioner of Precinct 2 and W. A. Fletcher and Wesley Roach entered a run-off for Precinct 1 constable.

Unopposed candidates, who got a free ride into office were Sheriff O. E. Whisnand, Tax Assessor-Collector Rafe Piper, Judge Shelby Fletcher, District Clerk Woodrow Clegg, County Superintendent W. E. Chalmers, County Attorney L. V. Henry, Commissioner Blankenship of Precinct 1 and Commissioner Taylor of Precinct 3. All held the office before

Sister Philippa is New Superior at Jonesboro Convent

At a recent election held at Holy Angels Convent, Jonesboro, Ark., Sister M. Philippa became Mother Superior of the Olivetan Benedictine Community.

Sister M. Amora, former principal of St. Paul School, Pochontas, will act in the capacity of Subprioress assisting Mother Philippa in the direction of the community.

Mother Philippa previously served as Superior of St. Andrew's Cathedral School, Little Rock, where she was music instructor and also organist at the Cathedral.

She replaces Mother Perpetua, who has served as Prioress during the past nine years. She holds her Master's Degree in music from American Conservatory, Chicago, and has special training in church music, where her courses in Gregorian Chant will aid her in leading the community to a full participation in the Divine Worship.

Sister M. Amora, now Sister Subprioress, comes also well prepared for her duties. She is a native of Muenster and has two other Sisters in religion both of Holy Angels Convent. They are Sister M. Mildred, superintendent of St. Bernard Hospital, and Sister M. Lutegardis, Sister-in-charge of the X-Ray department. She also has a brother priest, the Rev. Henry Felderhoff of St. Patrick's Church, Denison, Texas.

Dr. and Mrs. Joe McGinity and children of Columbia, Mo., spent Wednesday here with his uncle and family, the Edd McGannons.

More layouts for driving schools are urged by high school students to combat traffic accidents. Education was named most effective in a nationwide poll sponsored by the Chevrolet Motor Division.

Expressways like this were ranked by 32 cities below such remedies as periodic driver physical and mental tests, regular car checks and stricter licensing. Regular car checks was second.

Her triple stand of pearls was a gift from the groom and she carried her mother's crystal and silver rosary. Carl Pelzel of Denton gave his sister in marriage.

Miss Anselma Felderhoff of Dallas, sister of the groom, was maid of honor wearing a pink orchid net dress with a ballerina length skirt of double layers of net, moulded bodice, and round neckline edged with ruffles. She wore a matching half hat adorned with valley lilies; matching nylon half gloves and carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations. Her rhinestone necklace and earrings were gifts from the bride.

Alois Pelzel of Pilot Point was best man.

Mrs. Pelzel attended her daughter's wedding in a blue ensemble with black accessories and Mrs. Felderhoff wore a grey and white floral print with black accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

Immediately after the services a reception and buffet supper was held in the school lunch room. Miss Celine Felderhoff of Dallas registered the guests. A dance followed in the RVOS Hall.

After the dance Mr. and Mrs. Felderhoff left on a wedding trip not revealing their destination. When they return they will make their home at 201 N. Grand in Gainesville.

Durbins Honored During Visit Here

M.Sgt. and Mrs. John Durbin and children, vacationing here from New Orleans while he was on leave, were honored with family get-togethers on Thursday and Saturday nights.

The Thursday affair was an outing at Leonard Park with a picnic supper for which everyone brought covered dishes.

Making up the party were Messrs. and Mmes. Al Yosten and children, Buddy Yosten, N. J. Yosten, Werner Cler and family, Werner Yosten and children, Joe Horn and daughters, Bernard Sicking and family, Ed Pels and family, Arnie Hess and family, Steve Moster, F. J. Yosten, Felix Yosten and children, Mrs. Bob Yosten, Mrs. Joe Swirczynski, Herbie Yosten, Herman Swirczynski and daughter Edna, all of Muenster and Mrs. Pauline Spires and children of Gainesville.

Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Steve Moster entertained at their home with a supper party on the lawn. Guests in addition to the honorees were Messrs. and Mmes. F. J. Yosten, Felix and Henry Yosten, and Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Yosten from Fort Worth.

The Durbins left Sunday afternoon in a new Chevrolet, a four-door Bel Air Powerglide in two-tone ivory and blue. From here they went to Fort Worth to spend overnight and Monday with the Ferd Yostens.

Sunday night the Yostens entertained in their home with a buffet supper honoring the Durbins. Other guests were the F. J. Yostens, the Henry Yostens and children and the Felix Yostens and family, and Margie Schoech, of Muenster; the Stan and Paul Yostens and their families, the Ed Swirczynski family and Andy Yosten all of Fort Worth. After the meal the men played sheep-head and the ladies visited.

Linda and Gloria Yosten and Margie Schoech remained in Fort Worth for an extended visit with their cousins.

Back From Canada Pilgrimages, Tours

Mrs. Alois Trubenbach and daughter Judy have returned from a wonderful trip to Canada where they made pilgrimages to nationally famous shrines and went sightseeing. There were 47 pilgrims in the party that left Detroit on June 25, by train.

The first stop-over was in the historic city of Quebec where they spent a day on sight-seeing tours. Then to St. Anne de Beaupre for a three-day pilgrimage at St. Anne's Shrine, and from there to Three Rivers, to the Shrine of Our Lady of the Cape, a week's Marian Year pilgrimage. And after that into Indian Territory to see the relics and the church of Blessed Ketheri, a young Indian girl; and to the Isle of Celeste, where the church contains relics of some 8000 saints. The relics, in ornate cases, line the walls of the church. Then three days in Montreal to visit St. Joseph's Oratory.

On the way home they spent a day and a half in Detroit and a day in Saint Louis on sight-seeing tours. The weather was cool all the time and in Canada, occasionally cold, they said.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kaderli visited in Sanderson during the weekend with her father, H. S. des Landes.

LOOKING AHEAD

by Dr. George S. Benson
DIRECTOR — NATIONAL EDUCATION PROGRAM
Searcy, Arkansas

The Agriculture Problem

When the 1954 wheat crop is harvested later in the year, this nation's 160,000,000 people actually will not need a grain of it. There will be no real market for the expected billion bushel harvest. Most of it is being produced, in effect, for sale to the U. S. government at a price above its market value. Approximately 800,000,000 bushels are on hand today, and that much wheat will meet the requirements of the American population for one year with enough left over to provide half the U. S. export volume for a year.

Most of the tremendous surplus of wheat is owned by the U. S. government because a glutted market would not absorb it at the rigid high support price set by our present agriculture program.

For the following basic reasons this situation in wheat, as well as situations in some other crops, is of vital concern to all the people of America:

Vital Facts

1. The surplus of wheat already owned by the U. S. government represents an outlay of $2-billion in tax money—as much as the federal government collected annually in taxes, for all purposes, just 20 years ago. 2. The taxpayers, or consumers, are in effect subsidizing production of wheat that isn't needed. 3. The agriculture program which brought about this situation says, in effect, that the economic law of supply and demand, the heart of the American private enterprise system, will not work in American agriculture.

Under the present high rigid support program, the U. S. government will be obliged this year to invest additional billions in wheat for which there is no market at the arbitrarily high fixed price. Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson asks with good reason: "How can even the most ardent advocates of rigid price supports argue that a continuation of the very program which helped create this situation will ever solve it?" If the government is forced to pay out another $2-billion for wheat, it will be adding an extra burden on each taxpayer equal to the full amount of federal taxes paid in the year 1933.

Abnormal Problems

No one can deny that a prosperous agriculture is necessary to a prosperous America. And no discerning person will deny that agriculture, as an industry, has problems unlike those in other industries. In the Arkansas county where I live we are sweltering in what appears to be a third year of drouth. Corn on our hill farm land is burning up before the ears can mature. Cotton is being stunted. Our truck crops are affected.

Drouth is, admittedly, an act of nature over which the farmer has no control; whereas most other industries can more nearly control their factors of production. Yet the farmer can adjust to periodical drouths. We are beginning to do it in our county. I visited briefly last week with the owner of a small farm who is adjusting his operation to what could be a permanent climate change in this region, toward a drier, hotter summer growing season. His corn acreage lies near a small stream. Last summer, when it seemed apparent we were in for a second drouth year, he went to Little Rock, and in an auto junk yard he found an old broken-down fire truck.

Improving Productivity

Today the old fire truck is pumping away, sending nourishing water to his corn field through a low-cost aluminum piping and spraying system. With this improvised irrigation, he produced 90 bushels of corn to the acre last year and expects the same this year. That's more than three times the average Arkansas normal-year production—and in a drouth year! This shows what enterprise can do. And it shows something else. This farmer can afford to sell his corn at a lower price and still make a profit, and more people will eat more of it. With the present rigid high support prices, we are being forced into a program of scarcity and controlled production; and away from the basic American idea of advancing production and freedom. A free agriculture, sparked by the wonderful ingenuity and enterprise of our American farm families can assure its own prosperity except in times of disaster—when a helping hand must be given. In the end, no one can manufacture prosperity for agriculture—except agriculture itself.

Only Christianity Can Conquer Communism

By Bishop Fulton J. Sheen

NO CIVILIZATION can long remain indifferent to religion. Eventually men will either love it or hate it.

Those who hate religion have been the first to appear in our Western Civilization which has turned religiously indifferent. For the communists have made the decisive step. Rather than believe only in individual atheism, they were bold enough to make it corporate and official. Theirs was a revolt against half-hearted materialism in the name of total materialism.

COMMUNISM FILLS UP THE VOID OF INDIFERENCE

as a vul- ture might fill the nest of a robin. This tyranny would never have had an appeal in any other age, when the world was still Christian. Now we of the western democracies have no faith, no philosophy of life, no common purpose. We knew what we hated when we went to war, but we cannot agree on what we love now that the war is over.

Communist atheism is a substitute religion; a faith to fight the Faith; the inspired gospel of Marx for the abandoned gospel of Mark; a god of earth for a God of Heaven.

HOW CAN COMMUNISM be met? By meeting communist enthusiasm with Christian enthusiasm. It takes Faith to conquer a faith; Philosophy of Life to conquer a philosophy of life; Total Religion to conquer a totalitarian anti-religion.

Communists have zeal but no truth; we Christians have truth but no zeal. They have passion but no ideals; we have ideals but no passion. Neither of us is right. They sin against the light; we sin against love.

OUR CRIME lies in not fulfilling our Christian duty, in sprinkling the fires of enthusiasm with the cold waters of indifference. We citizens of America and the Western world must snap out of the lethargy and rekindle the fires of enthusiasm.

We have lost our enthusiasm because we have taken our eyes off Christ. We have concentrated our whole attention upon public opinion, upon the military, economic, and political opposition from this quarter or that.

IF, WITH THESE THINGS still in mind, we act on what we believe, if we concentrate on Christ and what He preached, if we love as He loved and teach as He taught, then we can conquer the world.

Our enemies will be at peace with us, for our victory will be not power but the love of God. True religion will replace the denial of religion, and our converted enemies will use their zeal to spread the Truth of Christ.

"Farm to Live and Live to Farm" Is Farm Safety Slogan

COLLEGE STATION—In a recent proclamation, President Eisenhower designated the week of July 25 as National Farm Safety Week. He said, "I urgently request all farm residents to make every effort to develop safe work habits and skills, so they may 'farm to live and live to farm.' I also request all persons and organizations interested in farm life and welfare to join in a campaign to free as many farm homes as possible from the tragedies and losses caused by needless accidents."

In their endorsement of the observance, the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Committee points out that no better time could be selected for launching community and county safety programs than during Safety Week. A current undertaking of the committee is the "Lite-Farm Equipment" program and they suggest that plans be made now for commencing the actual job of applying reflector tape to all farm equipment which is used on the road after dark.

The committee points with pride to work done in Guadalupe county. A report from County Agent Henry New states that 4-H and FFA members have applied reflective tape to more than half of all the farm equipment in the county. They plan to complete the job during National Farm Safety Week. The county was selected by the National Safety Council last January as the one county in the nation where the program would be tried. The results speak for the interest that local farmers took in the program.

New says, "I like the program because it has made every one safety conscious and has given our leaders the opportunity they needed for building an overall safety program."

The State Committee believes the "Lite-Farm Equipment" program is a logical starting point for community and county safety work. Much farm equipment will be on the highways of the state during the next few months and needless accidents can be prevented if this machinery is properly lighted.

What You Can Do About the Weather

There's nothing much you can do about hot weather except talk about it (remember Mark Twain's crack?) But there are quite a few things you can do about yourself which, if they won't air-condition you 24 hours a hot day, will help you to be a little less hot.

First of all, take it as easy as you can. Relax whenever and wherever possible. Don't worry about either the heat or the humidity—don't even talk about it! Get plenty of sleep.

Eat sensibly. Salads and fruit are O.K., but they're not enough to keep you going. You still need proteins, carbohydrates and fats for energy and for strength to get through the uncomfortable days.

Eat an extra hearty breakfast in the cool of the day, go light on lunch. Cold foods are not cooling (except psychologically), because it's not the food but the calories they contain that raises body temperatures. So don't pass up hot dishes.

Drink plenty of water—12 to 15 glasses a day—cool but not necessarily icy; iced drinks actually interfere with the body's temperature controls. Alcoholic drinks, no matter how cold you make them, just make you hotter.

Wear light, loose, porous, light-colored clothing; avoid exertion in the sun. Be glad if you perspire (or even sweat!), for that's the body's way of refrigeration through evaporation.

Engraved high on the state capitol building in Lincoln, Neb., are these words which all of us should remember: "The Safety of the Government Depends on the Watchfulness of Its Citizens."

Everybody Wins

In case you didn't realize it, frozen foods are 25 years old this year. To those of us who remember when the iceman used to call at the back door regularly, it seems like only yesterday when Clarence Birdseye, the explorer-scientist came up with this revolutionary method of preserving foods.

Since the organization of Birds Eye Frosted Foods as a division of General Foods in 1929 more than fourteen hundred other processors, large and small, have come into the field. Last year they froze 3,400,000,000 pounds of the nation's nutriment in 300 different kinds of food under 1500 brand names. These comestibles came out of half a million frozen food cabinets in about 250,000 stores. And if you are an average American, you ate 36 pounds of them yourself.

But this billion dollar industry that has changed the eating—and housekeeping—habits of the nation, that has become a tremendous factor in the prosperity of the American farmer, did not happen overnight. For long years Birds Eye struggled almost alone to meet the staggering and unprecedented problems that came in unending succession. First, proper freezing equipment had to be developed and manufactured. Foods had to be studied to know what kinds were best to freeze. Farmers had to be encouraged and supplied with proper seed to grow crops for freezing.

At the outset there was no proper equipment for transporting, storing, distributing or retailing the frozen product. As a single example, there was no economical display case in which a grocer could keep frozen foods. And while Birds Eye grappled with one obstacle after another, many of the most far-sighted leaders in the food industry were sure it couldn't be done.

In the long history of human progress there have been few developments that were more visionary at the outset or have been more sweeping in their impact on public health and convenience, on the welfare of all who eat food, and all who produce it.

Twenty-five years later, Mr. Birdseye's cold proposition is the hottest thing in the world of nutrition.

The town of Keene, N. H., claims that its main street—175 feet from curb to curb, is the widest main stem in the world.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 8 proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding Section 16a to Article VIII to provide that in counties of less than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants, as determined by the last preceding census of the United States, the elections may be held to provide for an Assessor-Collector of Taxes; providing for submission of this Amendment to the voters of Texas; and providing the time, means and manner thereof.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 16a shall be added to Article VIII of the Constitution of the State of Texas so as to read as follows:

"Section 16a. In any county having a population of less than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants, as determined by the last preceding census of the United States, the commissioners court may submit to the qualified property taxpaying voters of such county at an election the question of adding an Assessor-Collector of Taxes to the list of authorized county officials. If a majority of such voters voting in such election shall approve of adding an Assessor-Collector of Taxes to such list, then such official shall be elected at the next General Election for such Constitutional term of office as is provided for other Tax Assessor-Collectors in this State."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State at the General Election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1954, at which election all ballots shall have been written or printed thereon the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment permitting elections in counties of less than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants to provide for an Assessor-Collector of Taxes; and AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment permitting elections in counties of less than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants to provide for an Assessor-Collector of Taxes."

If it appears from the returns of said election that a majority of the votes cast are in favor of said Amendment, the same shall become a part of the State Constitution.

Section 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 10 proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas by repealing Section 2a of Article VI and amending Sections 1 and 2 of Article VI so as to confer the privilege to vote upon members of the regular establishment of the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Air Force, or component branches thereof, who are otherwise qualified electors, and so as to limit voting by persons in the military service of the United States to the county in which the voter resided at the time of entering such service; providing for submission of the proposed amendment to the qualified electors of the State by referendum and publication by the Governor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 2a of Article VI of the Constitution of the State of Texas be repealed and that Sections 1 and 2 of Article VI of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereinafter read:

Section 1. The following classes of persons shall not be allowed to vote in this State, to wit:

"First: Persons under twenty-one (21) years of age.

"Second: Idiots and lunatics.

"Third: All paupers supported by any county.

"Fourth: All persons convicted of any felony subject to such exceptions as the Legislature may make."

Section 2. Every person subject to none of the foregoing disqualifications who shall have attained the age of twenty-one (21) years and who shall be a citizen of the United States and who shall have resided in this State one (1) year next preceding an election and the last six (6) months of the twenty-one (21) years and who shall be in the district or county in which such person offers to vote, shall be deemed a qualified elector; and provided further, that any voter who is subject to pay a poll tax shall have paid said tax before offering to vote at any election in this State and hold a receipt showing that said poll tax was paid before the date of the election next preceding such election. Or if said voter shall have lost or misplaced said tax receipt, he or she, as the case may be, shall be entitled to vote upon making affidavit before an officer authorized to administer oaths that such affidavit shall be made in writing and left with the judge of the election. The husband may pay the poll tax of his wife and receive the receipt therefor. In like manner, the wife may pay the poll tax of her husband and receive the receipt therefor. The Legislature may authorize absentee voting. And this provision of the Constitution shall be self-enacting without the necessity of further legislation. Any member of the regular establishment of the United States or component branches thereof, or in the military service of the United States, may vote only in the county in which he or she resided at the time of entering such service so long as he or she is a member of the Armed Forces."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at the General Election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1954, at which all ballots shall have been printed thereon the following:

"FOR the amendment of Sections 1 and 2 of Article VI of the Constitution of Texas so as to confer the privilege to vote upon members of the regular establishment of the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Air Force, or component branches thereof, who are otherwise qualified electors; and so as to limit voting by persons in the military service of the United States to the county in which the voter resided at the time of entering such service; and for the repeal of Section 2a of Article VI of the Constitution, which now permits qualified electors in military service to vote without payment of a poll tax in time of war."

Soil Conservation Notes

This is National Farm Safety Week—July 25-31.

This week is set aside to remind all those who work or live on farms of the importance of observing safety rules and always being alert to the dangers that surround every farm operation.

Last year 14,000 farm people were killed in accidents. Many more were injured. Let's help make our farms and highways safe. Make every week in every year Farm Safety Week. Remember, if you farm to live, be careful so you can live to farm.

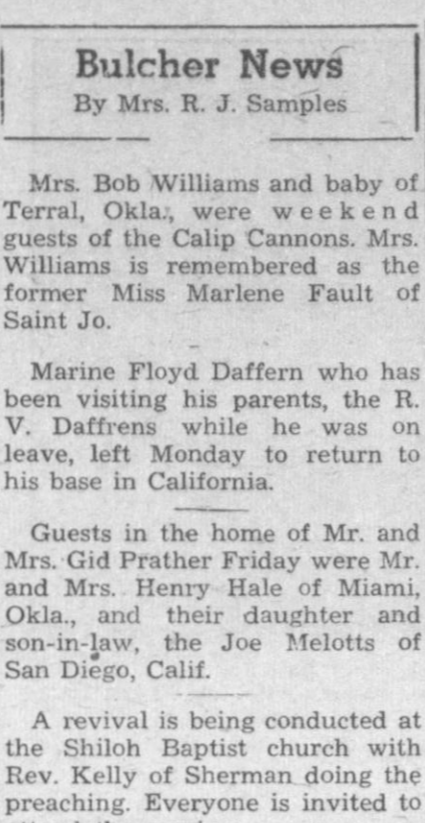

The danger of grass fires around Muenster has increased greatly during the past few weeks. The hot weather combined with the drought has left most of the pastures and roadsides dry and brittle. A match carelessly dropped or sparks from a worn-out automobile exhaust system can easily start a fire that can wipe out valuable livestock feed, fences, and even farm buildings. Extreme caution should be observed to prevent grass fires as long as dry weather continues.

Cooperators of the Upper Elmwood Soil Conservation District know the rains will come sooner or later and are building terraces to break up the long slopes on their fields and make the water run slowly to a safe outlet.

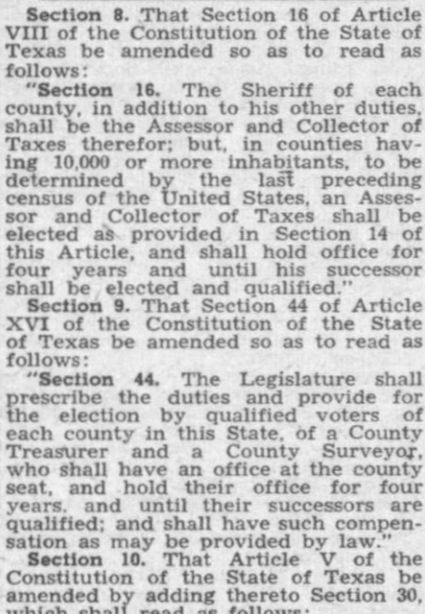

J. W. Fleitman just completed the construction of 6000 feet of terraces on his farm east of Muenster, and 9000 feet of field terraces on the Kaiser farm which he operates. The terraces are the low, wide, easy-to-cross channel type and in both cases outlet onto Bermuda grass waterways that were sodded to provide a safe outlet for the terrace water. The terraces will help protect some 60 acres of cropland from erosion.

Joe Mages has completed 4500 feet of channel type terraces on his farm east of Muenster. The terraces outlet onto a buffalo grass waterway that was sodded to provide a safe water disposal area.

Danglmayr Brothers have just finished 2800 feet of channel type field terraces on their south ranch. These terraces empty onto a King Ranch bluestem waterway that follows a natural drain across the field. The KR was mowed earlier and scattered over areas that are being developed into pasture. By cutting the KR when it is seeding and scattering the hay the grass can be started over more acres each year to control erosion and provide good grazing.

The harvesting of biennial sweet clover seed is still going on in the Muenster area. Cooperators of the district who have recently harvested sweet clover seed include Eddie Fleitman, Henry Pels, Ray and Alvin Cler, Paul Sicking, Joe Hoenig, Adolph Walterscheid, and Leon Young and Phillips Brothers at Saint Jo.

Ponds to provide livestock water and aid in the better management of pastures have recently been built on the Martin Bayer farm, the Matt Muller farm and the H. J. Lutkenhaus farm operated by Arthur and Harold Lutkenhaus.

4-H Club Groups at Annual Encampment

Fifteen 4-H clubbers from Muenster accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bayer and Rev. Christopher Paladino left Monday for the annual three-day summer camp at the Texas Power and Light company camp at Lake Trinidad. More than 100 4-H clubbers from Cooke County attended the encampment.

The three county extension service agents, Gerald York, Gene Sears and Miss Bernice Puckett, along with 14 adult 4-H leaders, made the trip with the young people in two school buses.

The camping period was divided between recreation and useful instruction in craft work. The club members were given their choice of making an electric brooder or an extension cord in keeping with camp's "Electricity" theme.

Margaret Elkins of the Downard-Fairplains club and chairman of the county 4-H Club council, was general camp chairman. She and the three other girls and four boys who attended the recent district camp at the same site served as junior leaders for the four groups into which the youngsters were divided.

The hostess served refreshments of pineapple parfait pie and iced tea to Mmes. Bill Searcy, Walter Rawley, Ray Swirczynski, M. H. King, Bill Hunt, M. D. Kaderli, Urban and Paul Endres, Dick Trachta and Al Wiesman and Ann Huchton.

Lindsay News

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Horn and children of Windthorst stopped in Muenster Sunday to pick up his mother, Mrs. J. S. Horn, and they all spent the day in Lindsay with the John Zimmerer family and Mrs. Horn's father, Theo Schmitz.

Lindsay-Gainesville Knights of Columbus Council No. 1167 will have its annual picnic for members and their families Sunday, Aug. 1. This year's outing will be held at the Albert Kubis picnic site two miles north of Lindsay. Everyone is reminded to bring food for the noon meal. Drinks will be provided and there will be special entertainment features during the afternoon.

Joe, Angela, Marcella and Agnes Hermes and Wilfred Bengfort represented the Lindsay CYC at the 55th annual convention of the Catholic State League in Nazareth last week and Angela Hermes was elected treasurer of the state youth section. Before returning home the young people went to Carlsbad, N. M., to make a tour of the caverns.

Mrs. Wm. Fleitman and daughter Mildred have returned from a 2800 mile auto trip through Arkansas, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Tennessee, Kentucky and Michigan. In Detroit they were joined by their daughter and sister, Clara, who is a student of anesthesia at Mount Carmel Mercy Hospital, for a sight-seeing trip into Canada. Enroute home they visited Mammoth Cave in Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Metzler and Mr. and Mrs. John J. Hess spent several days at Lake Texoma picnicking and fishing last week.

Softballers Beat Shell, Get Forfeit From Callisburg

An easy 11-5 win over Shell Wednesday night of last week and a forfeit by Callisburg Tuesday of this week gave the Muenster VFW Softballers credit for two wins and a current season record of 9-5. Though they can't seem to climb in the league standing the Muenster boys have a firm grip on fourth place. From that position down all the teams have lost more than half their games, whereas from that position up the three teams have really hot records. Beznar leads with 13-1, Gainesville VFW has 12-2 and TP&L has 10-4.

Muenster cashed in on errors in the Shell game to bring in lots of unearned runs which accounted mostly for the 11-5 win. Meanwhile Shell outit them 10-6 but got practically no help from Muenster errors.

Hartman pitched all the way for Muenster and Herr led the hitting with two singles. The other hitters were Cain, Endres, Hartman and Owens.

intersections. That amounts to about half of the total project.

The requested survey is intended to reveal how much money will be needed for suggested improvements and the city is asked to submit a proposition for that amount in a bond election.

About the most significant feature of the petition is that it proposes the improvements without a raise in local taxes. Belief that this is possible is based on the fact that, with these expenditures out of the way, the city can save enough out of its current revenue to retire the bonds on schedule, perhaps ahead of schedule.

Baseball Play-off - - -

Muenster scored and the visitors tied the count in the third. The pay off run came in the sixth as two walks and an error loaded the sacks and a sacrifice, brought in the big tally.

A tight pitching contest was the big feature again, and speedball Walterscheid came through with the better record. Like Hackler he allowed two hits but walked 3 and fanned 8 whereas Hackler walked 6 and fanned 6. Muenster boys made 4 errors and the Hooters made 5. Muenster had 6 left on base and Gainesville had 4.

enough to cover 1052 acres one foot deep.

The real significance of this storage volume becomes evident when considered in relation to the watershed draining into the pool. That's 2598 acres, and official SCS calculations say it will take a run-off of 5.45 inches over that entire area to fill the flood pool and start water flowing over the spillway.

That doesn't mean a 5.45 inch rain will do it, however. Here we start figuring with a few intangibles, such as how much water will soak into the ground and how much will drain out of the draw-down tube while the flood pool is filling up. The draw-down tube incidentally will release a 14 inch stream. So, figure in those two factors and make a guess. It isn't likely that anything less than an 8 inch cloudburst will send water over the spillway.

With 39 such dams controlling about half of the water on the Elm watershed, it becomes apparent that practically twice as much rain as before will be needed to break out of the creek channel. Not quite twice as much . . . because draw-down tubes will be releasing their streams . . . but still an awful lot more than used to cause a flood.

As a person considers the work in building one of the reservoirs he isn't surprised that it calls for a sizeable sum of money. First there's the job of clearing all brush and timber from the permanent pool. That's done partly for the sake of appearance and mostly to remove trash which would otherwise clog the draw-down tube.

Then surface dirt is peeled off and put aside for final surfacing on the dam and spillway.

Actual dam construction then consists of building the draw-down tube and the 14-inch drain pipe and also another drainage tube by means of which the owner can lower the level of his permanent pool if he wishes. Then dirt is piled, worked, soaked and packed to build the earthen dam and the spillway. Finally the structure is sodded to bermuda and irrigated until the grass is established, then a fence is built as a means of protecting the Farm Bureau success in this endeavor. Actually, as we think of it now, we are inclined to wonder why it was not done long ago. The minimum requirement was cut down during the war as a means of conserving butterfat. But the need for conservation ended years ago. And all this time we've been drinking poorer milk while paying out big tax money to stack up the surplus butterfat we'd have preferred to consume.

To our way of thinking the Farm Bureau could very properly expand this program to include ice cream . . . and bring on another round of benefits. More butterfat removed from the surplus market, a better product resulting in greater demand, which in turn results in more business for the dairyman. With less of his product going into surplus he'll get a considerably fatter milk check.

It's a good deal even for the local milk processing plant, which NTPA maintains here primarily to handle its surplus. Paradoxically the association makes its best profit when the plant does the least. It makes better money on Grade A sales than on milk products sales.
