Parish Drive Nets $7000 for College

Last Sunday's one day drive in the Sacred Heart parish netted about $7000 for the proposed diocesan sponsored university to be built in Dallas.

J. M. Weinzapfel, co-chairman disclosed this week that reports late Sunday added to $3526.50 in cash contributions plus $3298.50 in pledges. However the report was incomplete. Some workers failed to submit reports and some others gave only partial reports, explaining they did not get to see their prospects.

Final results of the drive are to be tabulated at a special meeting Thursday. Weinzapfel is hopeful that all contacts will have been completed by that time.

About 80 persons participated in carrying out the local campaign. Father Louis Deuster and J. M. Weinzapfel, as co-chairmen, were assisted by four sectional chairmen, who in turn were assisted by twelve captains and 60 workers.

Monsignor Charcut Addresses Grads At Baccalaureate

Monsignor Paul Charcut in his baccalaureate address to Muenster High School graduates in Sacred Heart Church last Sunday night emphasized the many opportunities that await them in developing the limitless possibilities which Almighty God had made available to human beings when creating the earth.

He said that all the progress which is now in sight, along with much that cannot even be imagined at this time, is all part of the great Divine plan to let mankind learn the secrets of the earth and use them for its own welfare and for the honor and glory of God.

Monsignor Charcut named a few of the possibilities that appear to be in sight at this time. To relieve the hunger which has plagued half the earth from the dawn of history by farming both the desert and the ocean. To divert atomic power into con-

Hornets Beat Saint Jo 8-6 in Short Game

If the game played at Saint Jo last Monday goes down on the record as officially completed, the Muenster High Hornets are tied for second place in this year's district baseball race.

It gives the team a conference record of three wins and two losses, which is the same as that marked up by Era and Sanger. Callisburg is the champ with 4 wins and Valley View and Saint Jo occupy the cellar.

The problem concerning the Saint Jo game was caused by a shortage of time. As the game started Coach Bob Williams said his team would have to leave at 3:15. Both coaches were confident they had plenty of time to finish the game and gave little thought to the time limit. But the game dragged more than expected and only 5 innings were finished when the Hornets took off at 3:15. And the Hornets were ahead 8-6.

With the score that close the Saint Jo coach wants to play off the remaining two innings rather than accept the 5 inning score. Williams says that with school ending this week there isn't a chance to finish the game. That's the present status, and the Hornets do not know whether the game will be officially marked up as a win or a loss.

For the first four innings the Hornets had things their way. They scored in every frame for a total of 8. But Saint Jo rallied for 5 in the fifth and cut the Hornets' lead down to 2.

NEWS OF SICK AND INJURED

Leonard Reynolds is a patient at Veterans Hospital in McKinney for observation and treatment.

Mrs. Paul Endres has recovered from an illness of mumps that confined her to her home for two weeks.

Auxiliary Sponsors Buddy Poppy Sale

Members of the Muenster VFW Auxiliary will observe Buddy Poppy Day, Saturday, May 29, by selling buddy poppies in town and continue into the following day by selling the poppies at each of the masses at Sacred Heart.

Mrs. David Trachta, chairman of the poppy sale committee, pointed out that proceeds of the buddy poppy sales, as in past years, goes to disabled American war veterans, partly as wages to those who make the flowers and partly as a donation to the VFW home for widows and orphans of veterans at Eaton Rapids, Mich.

15 Will Receive Diplomas Thursday In MHS Graduation

Rev. Herman Redder Tells NCCW Group About Marian Year

Particularly appropriate in this one hundredth anniversary year was Rev. Herman Redder's talk at the Sherman Deanery meeting of the National Council of Catholic Women in Lindsay last Thursday afternoon, when as the principal speaker he chose as his subject Mary and the Marian Year.

"We must all become 20th century Marys," he said as he emphasized that this year is dedicated as a year of good example, a crusade of action, and a time of prayer.

Another highlight of the program was Mrs. Ed Schad's review of Ethel Cook Eliot's "Roses for Mexico" the story of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

Mrs. E. T. Noyes, deanery president, conducted the business session after Very Rev. Herman Duesman, deanery moderator, gave the opening prayer, and Mrs. Lawrence Zimmerman, president of the host parish, welcomed visitors.

Mrs. Herman Fette reported on the recent board meeting that she and Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel attended in Dallas. Mrs. Fette is diocesan chairman of war relief and Mrs. Weinzapfel is diocesan Rural Life chairman. At the same time Mrs. Fette resigned as deanery chairman of war relief and Mrs. Joe Fisher Sr. accepted the office.

The meeting was held in St. Peter's parish hall and was followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament in St. Peter's church. The afternoon concluded with a social hour and refreshments served by women of the Lindsay council.

Ninety-five women were registered including 19 from Muenster. Seven parish pastors were present: Very Rev. John Duesman of Sherman, and Rev. Fathers Herman Redder of Gainesville, Christopher Paladino and Joseph Weinzapfel of Muenster, William Lane of Gainesville, Anthony Gajda of Valley View and John Untereiner of Pilot Point.

Good Grain Crop Awaits Harvest

So far, so good, is the crop situation in this community nowadays but farmers are getting nervous as more rain threatens to delay their harvest.

Last week's 3.5 inch rain provided all the moisture needed to assure a good quality of matured grain... provided other complications do not set in. Tuesday's additional .42 inch did little to help or harm but it did postpone cutting for at least a few days. Favored with dry weather from now on, farmers can look forward to a harvest comparable to last year's bumper crop. More wet weather will cause worries at least, perhaps reduce the yield.

Many fields are ready or almost ready for harvesting now. Combines will be operating as soon as they are dry enough.

Mrs. Herman Fette Heads CDA Court As Grand Regent

Catholic Daughters of America Friday night named Mrs. Herman Fette as grand regent of the local court when they unanimously accepted the slate of officers as presented by the nominating committee.

Other new officers to serve with Mrs. Fette are Mrs. Ben Hellman, prophetess, Mrs. Arthur Hellman, financial secretary; Mrs. Ed Cler, historian; Mrs. Paul Fisher, lecturer; Mrs. Steve Moser, organist; Mmes. Joe Hoenig, Joe Horn and Herbert Meurer, trustees.

Returned to office are Mrs. John Mosman, vice grand regent; Mrs. Charley Hellman, treasurer; Mrs. John Fisher, monitor; Mrs. Ted Gremminger, sentinel; Mrs. Joe Swirczynski, trustee.

Mrs. Paul Fisher, grand regent, conducted the business meeting. It was announced that Mrs. Davis Lambright of Fort Worth, district deputy, will preside at the formal installation ceremony at the June meeting.

Mrs. Joe Horn gave a report on the state convention held in Wichita Falls and the court voted a $5 donation to the local Boy Scouts' summer camp fund.

In accepting the grand regency Mrs. Fette announced her resignation as deanery chairman of the war relief committee but will continue in office as diocesan chairman of war relief, NCCW.

During the social hour Mrs. Jos. Fisher Sr. and Mrs. Earl Fisher served refreshments.

E. L. Williams, 73, Passes at Saint Jo

Funeral services for E. L. (Bay) Williams, 73, long time resident and retired grocer of Saint Jo, were held Friday afternoon, May 7 at 3 o'clock in the Saint Jo Baptist church and burial followed in Saint Jo cemetery under direction of Dougherty Funeral Home.

Mr. Williams died at his home Thursday morning after a long illness.

Survivors are his wife and two sons, B. L. and O. K. Williams, all of Saint Jo, four grandchildren including Mrs. Kyle Waggoner of Muenster, and three great grandchildren.

Three Day Pass

Tigers Take Third In State Academic Baseball Tourney

Texas Military Institute of San Antonio had too much batting power for the Sacred Heart Tigers in the semifinals of the Southwest Academic League state championship baseball tournament in San Marcos last Friday afternoon.

The Tigers went down in a 12-0 defeat but copped third place the following day in the tourney's consolation game, defeating St. Edward's Academy of Austin 1-0.

All went well for three innings in the game with TMI, but one homer in the fourth and a hitting spree combined with walks and errors netted 7 runs in the fifth. Four more runs in the sixth salted the game away for the Cadets. Walterscheid, Henscheid and Mollenkopf all shared in the futile effort of stopping the TMI slugfest which included 3 homers in the total of 8 hits. Sacred Heart got only 1 hit.

Mollenkopf's home run in the first inning was the one and only run in the game with St. Ed's. Henscheid allowed four scattered hits to keep his opponents under control through all seven innings. The St. Ed's hurler, however, gave up only two hits.

B. Bruns disclosed Tuesday that the eight boys have their exhibits ready and more can enter any time before the items are taken to Dallas Thursday.

Winning entries in the Dallas show will be shipped free of charge to the national judging in Dearborn, Mich.

Local students entries will come under three classifications, determined by students' age and grade levels. Those who have submitted exhibits are Joe McElreath, Wayne Schmitt, Lawrence Milner, Donald Flusche, Ronald Fette, Claude Lehnertz, Jerry Sicking, Dan Hamric and Charles Hallmark.

Gets Assignment

Rev. Joseph Weinzapfel has received his assignment and will assume assistant pastor's duties at St. Bernard's parish in Dallas this weekend.

Two Native Sons Have First Masses At Lindsay Sunday

In Saint Peter's Church at Lindsay Sunday two newly ordained priests, Rev. Bruno Fuhrmann and Rev. Nicholas Fuhrmann, cousins, will celebrate their first solemn masses and Lindsay will honor them with a community dinner and parish picnic in the Lindsay Hall.

The two Benedictines were elevated to the priesthood last Sunday by the Most Rev. Albert L. Fletcher, Bishop of Little Rock, Ark. Relatives attended the ordination ceremonies in the monastery chapel at Subiaco, Ark.

Father Bruno, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fuhrmann, is the second son of the family to enter religious life. An older brother, Brother Michael, is also at the abbey. After completing his elementary education at Lindsay Father Bruno began study at Subiaco making his vows in 1949.

He will celebrate his mass Sunday morning at 9 o'clock assisted by Rev. Conrad Herda as archpriest; Very Rev. Leo Koessler as deacon; Rev. Nicholas Fuhrmann as subdeacon; Rev. Vincent Orth as preacher and Rev. David Flusche as master of ceremonies.

Lt. Ray Stewart Given Posthumous Awards at Perrin

At Perrin Air Force Base Sunday Mrs. Raymond W. Stewart received the Air Medal and Purple Heart awarded posthumously to her husband, 1st Lt. Raymond W. Stewart.

She received the awards from Brig. Gen. John S. Hardy as Colonel Eugene E. Fletcher, commander, read the accompanying citations. The Air Medal is awarded for meritorious achievement while participating in flight.

Lt. Stewart was shot down over Korea on August 25, 1951. He was flying one of the Air Force's old fighter planes, the F-51, which was hit by anti-aircraft fire and burst into flames. His squadron members did not see him parachute to safety and he was presumed missing until January of this year when it was determined that he was not a prisoner of war.

Stewart was a veteran of world war II. He was a P-40 fighter pilot in Europe during that conflict.

Hundreds of people, including scores from Muenster, watched the simple ceremony. It was a special feature of Perrin's Armed Forces Day program. The two Stewart children, Ricky, 5, and Shari, 3, did not accompany their mother. She is the former Miss Evelyn Wiesman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wiesman of this city. Lt. Stewart was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Stewart of Galveston.

Other awards presented during the ceremony were an Air Force Scroll to Mrs. Tommie Parker of Childress, Texas, who saved the lives of two pilots after their jet plane crashed near her home, and the Air Medal and Purple Heart to Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wisdom of Bonham awarded posthumously to their son, 1st Lt. Warren Wisdom.

Quite a number of times in past centuries there has been concern, even panic, over that great catastrophe foretold in scripture. Someone gets a notion that signs are shaping up just right for the end of the world. The word gets around and thousands of people get the jitters. Some even commit suicide because they can't face the terrible things they expect.

Anyone afflicted with such fears might have done well to hear Monsignor Charcut's baccalaureate address to the Muenster High graduates last Sunday night. The monsignor was telling the youngsters about all the opportunities awaiting them in this wonderful and complex creation provided by Almighty God for His favorite creatures. Such as applying atomic power for industrial and domestic use, harnessing the sun's energy, farming the ocean and converting the desert into a garden.

All these things and many more have been put in the Lord's book of knowledge, he pointed out. We know that mankind has already mastered a good deal of it. We know also that many things remain to be learned, but we have no idea how much of it still lies beyond the limits of our imagination.

Graduates of this year are destined to learn some of the secrets which were known only to God since the beginning of time. Some will have a part in discoveries, others will share in the magnificent blessings made possible by them. Really, it does seem that the opportunities are unlimited.

To the prophet of doom such ideas have little meaning. He thinks that regardless of flights of fancy concerning the wonders ahead there's still nothing to keep that last day from crashing in and wiping out future dreams along with present realities.

Here, however, is where Christian philosophy gives special significance to the possibilities which are in sight. God put those things in the book of creation. He wants them to be learned for the development of His favorite creature, for His Own greater honor and glory.

If that's the case, and it does seem very reasonable, there's little reason to worry about the end of the world for quite a long time. As things appear now, at least, it will be many a year before mankind masters the many wonders that are within sight. When those goals are attained many more will appear over the horizon.

Of course there is a catch to all this. Will man in his folly bring on the day of doom? We've seen the effect of the atom bomb, then of the hydrogen bomb. Now scientists claim they can make another which will compare with the H bomb in destructive force as the H bomb did with the A bomb. It sounds dangerously close to being a wrecker of civilization, and so far they are afraid to do anything about it. Terrifying possibilities are there. At the same time it seems probable that those who develop the terrible weapons will go slow when their own existence is at stake. So, even figuring in the human angle, it would seem that nobody has cause to worry about the end of the world.

On the subject of human development, Charles Lindbergh offered a fine thought recently in his speech accepting the Guggenheim prize in aviation. He said that we are misusing our wonderful progress in flying, that the airplane should have brought the world's people more closely together but it is being used rather to intensify the split between peoples.

The same could be said of other developments. The immense power of the atom is used destructively more than constructively. Likewise for radio and TV. Wonderful inventions but so frequently used to spread subversive and immoral messages.

Lindbergh had the situation figured out correctly. Mankind's spiritual development is not keeping pace with his scientific development. If anything, the order seems to be reversed. We are slipping spiritually while going ahead materially. We're discovering lots of secrets of God's universe but pausing too seldom to think of how the possibilities happen to be there.

Nevertheless, that bit of Christ-structive rather than destructive channels. To capture and use the sun's energy directly.

All these things and many more are written in God's great book for us human beings to learn and use. Some of this generation will be privileged to discover them. More will be privileged to develop them. And the world will be privileged to benefit from them.

Monsignor Charcut gave his baccalaureate sermon during the 7:30 evening mass at which Father Patrick Hannon was the celebrant. Father Louis Deuster introduced the speaker.

Ushers for the processional and recessional were Virginia Wolf and Beverly Murray.

12 4-H Boys Get Pigs as Prizes for Essays About Pigs

Twelve Cooke county 4-H Club boys, including one from Muenster and three from the Lindsay club, proved that they know about pigs.

Their reward: pigs. The boys wrote essays outlining their facilities, feeding program and reasons for wanting pigs.

The animals, presented Saturday, were donated by the Sears foundation, Gainesville Kiwanis club and Waples-Platter Wholesale Grocery of Fort Worth. All the pigs were vaccinated against cholera by Dr. Gordon Yeargan and were taken to the fairgrounds and numbered, the boys drawing for the one they were to receive.

Winners of Sears gilts are William Fisher, Muenster, and Frank Sandmann, Lindsay. Cyril Hermes of Lindsay won the Sears boar and Gilbert Hermes received the pig donated by the Kiwanis club.

Next spring, the boys will return the choice sow pig from their litter to be awarded in the program next year.

Relax Film Shows War Relief Work by Church Groups

A new film "The Works of Peace" will be an added attraction at the Relax Theatre this Friday and Saturday and members of the NCCW urge everyone to see it.

The 45-minute movie brings for the first time on-the-spot scenes from today's areas of greatest need and tension showing the world-wide work of War Relief Services now completing its tenth year. It is narrated by His Excellency James H. Griffiths, Auxiliary Bishop of New York.

People who have contributed clothing and other items in war relief drives will see their works in action in this film. They'll see their gifts reach the needy around the world.

Special arrangements were made by Relax Owner George Letson and the local unit NCCW to secure the film, released by War Relief Services - NCWC, New York.

TP&L Names New Officers, Directors

A new chairman of the board, two new vice presidents, and four new directors of Texas Power & Light Company have been named, W. W. Lynch, president of the company announced.

W. W. Lynch, president and general manager of the company, has been named Chairman of the Board, succeeding John W. Carpenter. Mr. Carpenter, who announced his resignation in Dallas earlier this week, will remain on the Board of Directors and in addition will serve as chairman of its executive committee. Mr. Lynch will also continue to serve as president and general manager of the company.

All the appointments were made Wednesday in a stockholders meeting in Dallas and in a board of directors meeting in Temple.

The two new vice presidents are Charles W. Woodridge, who has been assistant to the president since January, 1953, and L. A. Byron, Manager of Operations of the company.

The four new directors named are Karl Hoblittelle, prominent Dallas business and civic leader; George L. MacGregor of Dallas, President of Texas Utilities Company; Joe N. Weatherby of Brownwood, automobile agency owner; and G. H. Wilcox of Sherman, chairman of the board of directors of the Grayson County State Bank.

He ordered two dozen roses to be sent to his beloved on her twenty-fourth birthday.

"A rose for every precious year of your life," the card read. Then, because the young fellow was one of his best customers, the florist threw in an extra dozen.

Ray Roberts of McKinney in Race For State Senator

Ray Roberts, McKinney and Collin County business man has announced his candidacy for the office of State Senator from the Ninth District, comprising Collin, Cooke, Fannin, Grayson, Hunt, Rains and Rockwall Counties.

Mr. Roberts is 41 years of age, married and has one daughter. He is a native of Collin County and operates a farm machinery and truck dealership. As a farm operator and small business man, Ray Roberts is eminently qualified to know the problems of the District he seeks to represent in the Senate.

Ray, as he is known to his many friends, received his education at Texas A&M College, and North Texas State Teachers College, and Texas University. During World War II, he served four years in the U. S. Navy. He has also served as a Navy Investigator with the U. S. Senate Preparedness Sub-Committee helping to eliminate waste in the armed forces. He is a member of the First Methodist Church, Jimmie Geigas Post American Legion, and Lone Star Post Veterans of Foreign Wars.

In making his formal announcement for his first public office, Roberts states, "I believe that the people of this district are entitled to honest, dignified and aggressive representation in the Senate of Texas. I pledge myself to do all in my power to provide such representation impartially and without restriction placed upon me by any group or individuals."

"I seek this office as a Democrat, as I have been an active Democrat all of my life and have always supported the nominee of the party."

"Since I will be unable to see each and every voter in the Ninth District, I respectfully solicit the active support and influence of my friends and neighbors in winning this high office," Roberts said.

TP&L Employees Set Safety Record

A new safety record was rung up by Texas Power & Light Company employees at the close of the work day on Monday (May 17) when they reached the grand total of four million manhours accumulated without a lost time accident.

"This is a record never before achieved in the history of any major power company," said TP&L president, W. W. Lynch, who made the announcement today.

"This attainment," he said, "means more than national recognition or awards. It means that since last August 19, no person employed by Texas Power & Light has been injured to the extent that he had to be off the job, that no one of them was disabled, and that none of their families suffered the loss of any of its members through an on-the-job accident."

Program Features S.H. Class Night

Class night exercises for seniors of Sacred Heart High school featured an entertaining program highlighted by the presentation of awards to honor graduates and outstanding students.

The event was held Wednesday night, May 19, in the parish hall with Clara Flusche, class president, emceeing the program, Father Louis presenting awards, and parents, relatives and friends attending.

For the opening number the Glee Club sang three selections. After the songs JoAnn Starke gave the salutatory address, Marilyn Miller read the class history, Thomas Moster recited the class poem which he composed himself, and the seniors sang their class song.

Alice Koelzer and Berta Neusch stalked the juniors after which Rosina Hess, Theresa Mae Felderhoff and Georgia Ann Hartman retaliated by parading the seniors, and Marcella Hess read a humorous script entitled "Can You Imagine?"

Clara Flusche presented the class memorials, a dictionary and stand, an electric fan and a rock collection. Theresa Mae Felderhoff gave the acceptance address. Two musical numbers consisted of a piano duet by Carrie Ann Gehrig and Allen Dale Eberhart, and a vocal duet by Clara Flusche and Edna Hesse.

Distribution of gifts to the seniors followed with Frances Knabe, Margaret Mary Schad, Clara Streng, Cecilia Zimmerer and Henrietta Magas in charge. Gifts included a present to each senior from the faculty, ball point pens from Muenster State Bank, billfolds for the boys from Manhattan Clothiers; miniature cedar chests for the girls from Scott Brothers and a gift to each graduate from the junior class. Classmate gifts, appropriate nicknacks, were accompanied by clever, and often humorous, verses. Reverting to seriousness, Mary McGannon recited "At Graduation Time."

Father Louis presented awards and the evening closed with the farewell address by Alma Henscheid, valedictorian.

Award winners are Jerry Henscheid, a thousand dollar scholarship to St. Edward's in Austin for passing the university sponsored examinations; Alma Henscheid, Valedictory, English, Bookkeeping medals and Balfour honor key pin (four awards); JoAnn Starke, Salutatory and History medals (two awards); Thomas Moster, Service medal; Edna Hesse, Citizenship medal; Basil Reiter, Honor medal for a straight A report during the entire year and the Latin medal (two awards); Claude Walter, General Science medal; Theresa Mae Felderhoff, Typing award and Clara Streng, Short hand award.

Those who made profession are Alma Henscheid, Edna Hesse, Marilyn Miller, Carrie Ann Gehrig, Dolores Haverkamp, Nelda Bayer, Carol Voth, LaVerna Hess, Basil Reiter, Georgia Ann Owen, Caroline Hesse.

MHS Prom Stresses Good Luck as Theme

"Good Luck" was the theme carried out in this year's junior-senior prom by students of Muenster High School last Friday night.

A large and realistic rainbow, beautifully made by L. B. Bruns and Ervin Hamric, half circled the east side of the gym and formed an arch over the orchestra, the Twilights. A spot light, changing colors, played over the rainbow adding further to the effectiveness of the scene.

Huge wish bones, horse-shoes and four-leaf clovers, along with rainbow colored balloons were used as decorations throughout the gymnasium and smaller models of the same good luck charms were used for table adornment. Guests entered the dance floor through an archway of pink rambling roses.

Franklin Farmer, class sponsor, and a committee of students were in charge of decorations and Mrs. Bill Searcy was in charge of refreshments served during intermission.

MHS Class Night Held By Seniors

Seniors of Muenster High School held their annual class night exercises Thursday night, May 13, in the auditorium. This is the program the students arrange by themselves and produce without the assistance of the faculty.

The scene depicted the living room of Billy Ben Boyles, class president, who had his class mates over for a visit. The curtain opened on the group doing the Bunny Hop.

LaQueta Cain interrupted the dance to read the class history, and Billy Ben followed with a mock prophecy in rhyme and presented each student with a comic gift. The real class prophecy was then given by Joyce Wiesman, junior, who came over to visit the seniors, and Mary Nell Hellman read the class will.

Another guest, Superintendent Weldon Cowan, arrived to announce honor students and awards winner and to present medals. Top students are Eugene Walter, Balfour award for scholarship, loyalty and achievement; Wayne Schmitt, Industrial Arts; Patsy Cain, Home Economics; Julia Wolf, Science; Jimmy Jack Biffle, Agriculture; Joe Noggler, top boy athlete; Mildred Fisher, valedictory and best girl athlete (two awards); LaQueta Cain, salutatory.

Mr. Cowan also presented gifts from three business houses: ball point pens from the Muenster State Bank, miniature cedar chests to the girls from Scott Brothers, Saint Jo; and billfolds to the boys from Manhattan Clothiers, Gainesville. Another gift for the class was a $200 check from the activity fund for the graduates to use on their senior trip.

Norma Klement, speaking in behalf of the entire student body, presented Mr. Cowan an electric razor as a parting gift.

After the program junior class members entertained the seniors in the Home Economics room and served refreshments.

Class Memorial this year, as in the past, is more sidewalk at the school. This year's 50 feet will extend west. Class members did the work themselves and poured the concrete Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Meurer were in San Antonio this week at the annual state bankers' convention.

LOOKING AHEAD

by Dr. George S. Benson
 DIRECTOR — NATIONAL EDUCATION PROGRAM
 Searcy, Arkansas

A COUNTERSPY'S WARNING

In the spring of 1940 a young church worker in suburban Cambridge, just outside Boston, was attracted to a new youth organization called "The Cambridge Youth Council." He carefully noted on the Council's letterhead the names of prominent citizens, including nationally known educators at Harvard and Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He also noted that the objectives outlined were in harmony with the youth work he had been doing in his church. So he joined the Council and became active.

The young church worker's name was Herbert Philbrick. Nine years later he was to be revealed as the most famous FBI counterspy in the history of our struggle against Communist infiltration. Herbert Philbrick was an overnight guest in my home recently, on the occasion of his appearance at our Freedom Forum. It was an enjoyable and extremely informative experience for my family. He is an humble, genuine American, a devoted husband and father, and an unquestioned authority on the terrible menace of international Communism.

Effective Voice

In his forum address he showed himself to be one of the most effective voices in America today for acquainting the American people with the true facts about the dangerous Communist penetration of our way of life and the Communists' cunning techniques for influencing public opinion in the direction they want it to go.

When he joined the Cambridge Youth Council, Herbert Philbrick was a sincere but uninformed do-gooder, a member of the Governing Council of his local church, the editor of the church newspaper. He worked as an advertising man in Boston. At first he accepted the Council at face value. Within a few months, however, "I woke up," he said, "to discover much to my shock that the Cambridge Youth Council was not a legitimate youth organization. It was a complete phony, an absolute fraud, and furthermore, it was dominated and controlled by persons I suspected of being members of the Communist Party."

Contact FBI

He went to the FBI and it confirmed his suspicions: The Cambridge Youth Council, said the FBI, was "a Communist front," and it added that Philbrick had been a typical Red front dupe. But in coming to the FBI he was breaking out of the "dupe" service. The G-men suggested he might become an FBI counterspy and devote a big part of his life to a dangerous mission for his country. That's how Philbrick began to live three lives—(1) a respectable Boston advertising man, (2) a secret fellow-traveler and later a high-ranking Communist; and (3) a secret counterspy reporting every move of the Red underground to our government.

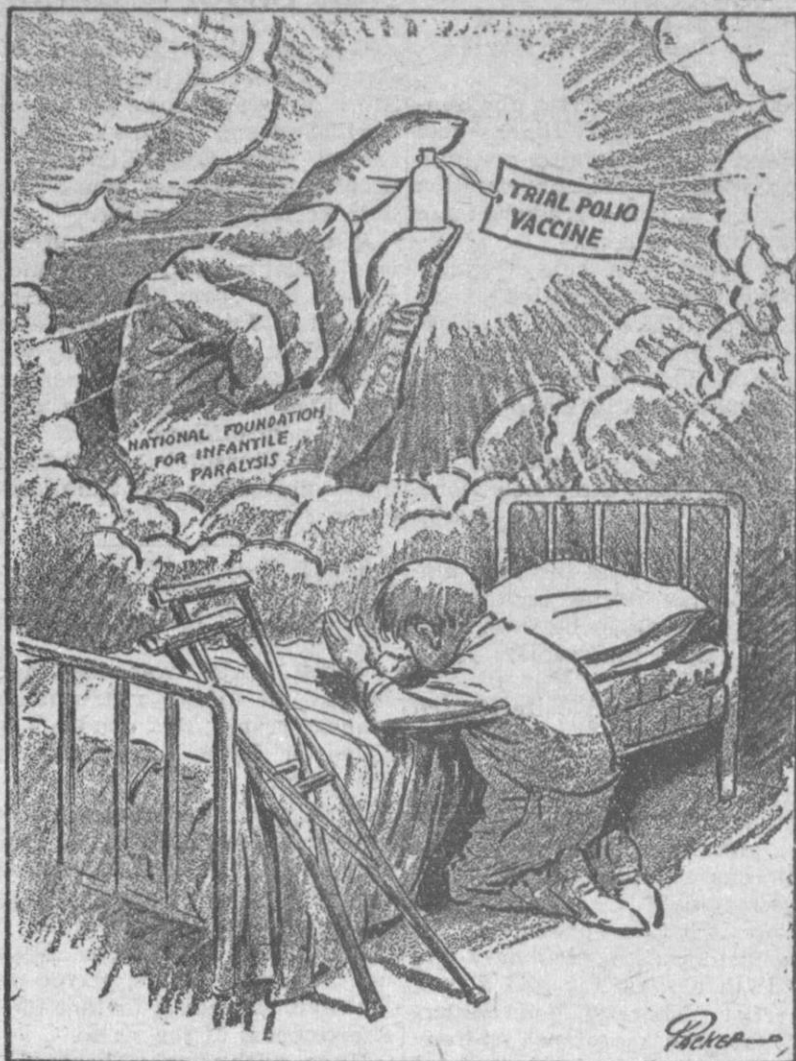

Herbert Philbrick is a modest self-effacing man. He told me that had he known what he was getting into in his three-sided life, he would have "thought a long time" before agreeing to undertake the mission. He had no idea at the time of the cunning, the brutality, the great hidden power of the Communist conspiracy. One factor in his becoming a Communist and a counterspy was his curiosity.

Still Losing

"I wanted to find out," he said, "how these (Communist) characters were able to manipulate things in such a fashion as to victimize not only myself, but the 300 to 400 young Cambridge people we had as members of the Cambridge Youth Council. All the church organizations were represented in this organization; we held our meeting at the Y.M.C.A. at no cost to the Communist Party, and I wanted to know how it was they were able to pull such a trick as slick as that. Somebody knew how to operate in a very clever and a very vicious fashion."

Philbrick advanced until he was one of the most valued comrades. What he learned in nine years about the power and influence of the Red underground network in America, and of America's apathy to what's going on, leads him today to say: "We have not turned the tide against Communism. We are still losing."

"Please Make It Work for Other Kids"

Bad Case of Backfire

Lavrenti P. Beria, "liquidated" chief of the dreaded and powerful secret police under Stalin, may be gone—but he seems not to be forgotten.

Vladimir Petrov, one of Beria's boys, who was detailed to the Kremlin's Australian embassy in 1951, went "over the hill" and asked the Australians for asylum. Later Soviet guards bungled the job of spiriting his wife out of the country by plane. And she was rescued by Australian officials to join her husband in a secret hiding-place.

Three days later, Captain Nikolai Khokhlov of the Russian secret police and two East German Communist agents gave themselves up to American authorities in Bonn, West Germany. They also delivered to US Intelligence agents detailed information on the MVD secret police set-up and new, silent, electrically-fired weapons

Television Has A Sacred Trust

By Pope Pius XII

The following are excerpts from a speech by Pope Pius XII on the subject of television.

THE RAPID PROGRESS which television has already made draws our attention more and more to this marvelous instrument which science and technology offer humanity. It is destined to have a profound influence for good or evil on public and private life.

In recent times the movies, sports, not to mention the dire necessities of daily work have increasingly tended to keep the members of the family away from home. Thus the natural blossoming of domestic life has been upset. We must be glad that television contributes efficaciously to reestablish the balance by providing the whole family with an opportunity for honest diversion together, away from the dangers of bad company and places.

WE EARNESTLY HOPE that the spiritual links which bind the great Christian family will be drawn still tighter, and that a greater knowledge, a deeper understanding, and a wider extension of God's reign on earth may follow the use of this marvelous instrument in diffusing the light of the Gospel message in men's minds.

When we think of the incalculable value of the family which is the very cell of society, and reflect that within the home must be begun and carried out the physical as well as the spiritual development of the child, we cannot fail to proclaim to all who have any position of responsibility in television that their duties and responsibilities are most grave before God and society.

ONE CANNOT IMAGINE anything more fatal to the spiritual health of a country than to rehearse before so many innocent souls even within the family circle those lurid scenes of forbidden pleasure which can undermine and bring to lasting ruin a formation of purity, goodness, and healthy personal and social upbringing.

One of the reasons, less noticed perhaps but real nonetheless, for the spread of so much immorality, is not the lack of regulations, but the lack of reaction of good people, who have not known how to make timely denunciations of violations against the public laws of morality.

TELEVISION SHOULD not only be morally irreproachable but also should become an instrument of Christian education. As our predecessor Pius XI said in an address to the motion picture industry: "Just as the advances in art, science, even in technical perfection and industrial production are true gifts of God, so also they must be directed to the glory of God and the salvation of souls."

with which they were sent to kill a Russian underground leader. The three, who had been given special assassination training in Russia, gave themselves up after Khokhlov's wife pleaded with him not to become a murderer.

Thus, there may be hope that Russia is becoming too bloody even for the Russians.

"St. Patrick" was the password George Washington used during the Revolutionary War.

Oldest Resident of Area Observes 95th Birthday Wednesday

Relatives, friends and neighbors stopped in to visit Aunt Mollie Montgomery Wednesday when open house was held at the Montgomery home. It happens once a year—May 19—when Aunt Mollie has a birthday. This was her 95th.

She is the area's oldest resident, has lived in her present home 76 years and is Aunt Mollie to everybody for miles around. She enjoys her birthdays because she likes people and visiting and Gospel singing. "Peace in the Valley" is her favorite song.

There are seven Montgomery children and 23 grandchildren. "And so many great grandchildren we've lost count," Aunt Mollie chuckles. There are a number of great, great grandchildren too.

Her life has been an interesting and active one, filled with devotion and care for her family, neighbors and friends.

Mollie Jane Hunt, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hunt, was born May 19, 1859, near Bowling Green, Ky., where the family lived during the Civil War. They migrated to Fannin County, Texas, in 1870 making the trip in a covered wagon with four horses and were on the way nine weeks. She often thinks of that trip in comparison with today's fast travel.

They moved to Bloomfield in Cooke County in 1871 and Mollie married J. S. Montgomery there on March 19, 1876. Two years later the couple moved to Bulcher. Muenster was not colonized until 11 years later. The Montgomerys farmed and since April 7, 1878, she has lived in the same house in which her husband established their home. He died in February 1908.

Aunt Mollie is still alert with a keen mind and quick humor. She can draw a vivid word picture of the Bulcher community in the early days. She remembers especially the seige of meningitis which took many lives and left others blinded and crippled. She nursed the sick all through the epidemic and escaped the disease. Doctors were scarce. Travel was difficult. Medicine did little to relieve the suffering.

She is the mother of ten children, two of whom died in infancy and had four sisters and three brothers who preceded her in death. For the past 35 years she shares her home with her son, Edd J. Montgomery and his wife. Since early childhood she has been a member of the Baptist church.

Her children are Mrs. Mary Hyman of Leon, Okla., W. C. Montgomery and Mrs. Noah Pittman of Saint Jo, E. J. Montgomery and Mrs. Nora Thompson of Muenster, Mrs. Electa Howard of Decatur and Robert Montgomery of Wichita Falls. Another daughter, Mrs. Hallie Hyman, died in 1947 in Shamrock.

Last Sunday a pre-birthday celebration was held at the Montgomery home. Guests brought covered dishes for the noon meal and gifts for Aunt Mollie. The group enjoyed visiting and singing.

SHOWER COMPLIMENTS FRANCES ANN HENNIGAN

Miss Frances Ann Hennigan, bride-elect of Victor Sicking, was complimented with a miscellaneous gift shower Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Pete Prescher at Gainesville with Mrs. Leo Prescher as co-hostess.

The honoree received a corsage of white carnations from the hostesses who directed a series of paper and pencil games. Winners presented their awards to the honor guest.

The hostesses served ice cream, cake and cold drinks to 25 guests.

Miss Hennigan and Mr. Sicking will be married next Tuesday in Sacred Heart church.

The A. J. Schillings and son John moved this week to make their home in Abilene. Mrs. Schilling and the boy had been in Seymour during the school term and "Moco" had been working in different parts of the country near there.

Biologic Balance On Farm Provided By Useful Wildlife

Every farm is a complex living community based on the soil. Working with the soil, and dependent on it, are plants and animals that convert plant nutrients, moisture, and sunshine into food and fiber for man. It is a successful community only if all the living things in it are working for the benefit of the whole community.

If there are not enough grasses in the community, the soil loses its ability to take up and hold moisture. It may become eroded and lose its power to produce corn for hogs. If there are not enough earthworms, the same thing can happen. If there are not enough squirrels, there will be fewer acorns planted and in time there will be fewer oaks. If there are not enough cottontails—one of whose functions is to feed foxes—foxes may look to the farmers poultry for food. On the other hand, if there are too few foxes to eat meadow mice, there may be so many meadow mice that there will be less alfalfa for dairy cows. If there are not enough song birds, there may be too many destructive insects, resulting in a shortage of grain for useful insects to pollinate alfalfa, sweet clover, and vetch, or these legumes will not produce seed.

Thus we see that a successful farm community must have an abundance of useful wildlife and a low number of the harmful kinds. It must have what is called a favorable biologic balance.

You may be surprised at the wildlife population living on well managed farms. Studies made on Ohio farms having soil conservation plans in effect tell the story. On a 100 acre farm with about one-third of the fence rows in woody cover, 15 acres in protected woods, 25 acres in good pasture, and 60 acres in a 4-year rotation with 2 years of meadow, the useful wildlife population was estimated to be: Several million beneficial insects, mostly destroyers of other insects and some that help pollinate fruits and legumes. More than 400 beneficial birds, of 40 kinds. More than 1,000 beneficial small mammals, many of which are effective insect destroyers.

Present on well-managed farms in this area are the adapted game birds and animals—quail, rabbits, and squirrels to offer sport and food for you and your friends. Fur-bearing animals like raccoons, skunks, foxes, and opos-

THIS FARMER PREPARED for the wrong kind of disaster. He built a nice strong storm cellar as a precaution against tornadoes. He should have provided against erosion, the slow but sure disaster that eventually drove him from the place. Note the level of soil under the house. The rest of the soil used to be that deep. When the soil leaves a farm, the people must also leave.

sums provide recreation and cash income for you and your family. These valuable animals occur in greatest numbers on farms that use the land wisely and provide places for them to live.

Colorful, energetic song birds add much the enjoyment of rural life through their music and their movements. Who doesn't enjoy the songs of the mockingbird and the meadowlark—or the sight of robins busily feeding their young? Bumblebees, wild honey bees, and other wild insects, formerly much more abundant than they are now, once helped farmers to produce legume-seed yields 4 times as high as those obtained today. Their numbers can be increased through good land management.

Land primarily suited for use as cropland, pasture, and woodland produces wildlife as a secondary crop. In addition, there is land on every farm that can and should be used to produce useful wildlife as a primary crop—it is wildlife land. It consists of areas, usually small, that cannot be used economically to produce other crops but that are well adapted to the production of useful wildlife. Small areas of wildlife land well distributed over the farm, when coupled with proper use and management of other land, make the whole farm an efficient unit for the production of all crops, including wildlife.

Legume Seed Yield Increased by Bees

If you grow soil improving legumes, you need honey bees. Many of our most important legumes require cross-pollination in order to produce seed and it's up to the honey bees to do the job for us. The use of one colony of bees per acre has increased seed yields of sweet clover and vetch as much as 75 percent. Fields of Hubam clover which yielded 350 pounds of seed per acre, jumped to 500 lbs. per acre through the use of bees. Researchers at Texas A&M College have shown that placing one-tenth to one colony of bees per acre within a mile of a field of vetch increased the yield from 410 lbs. of seed per acre without bees to 713 lbs. per acre with bees. When the number of colonies were increased to three colonies per acre and moved to within one-half mile of the vetch fields, the seed yields sky rocketed to 1277 lbs. of seed per acre.

A by-product of this system is plenty of delicious honey for the table or for a cash crop. It pays to have bees around.

MRS. RAFE McELREATH CONDUCTS WMS PROGRAM

Mrs. Earl Robison, president, conducted the business session and Mrs. James Cole led the opening prayer. Mrs. Jack Biffle gave the devotional.

It was announced that the WMS will meet on May 25 at 1:30 in the church for a book review. Mrs. Jack Biffle will be in charge. The book, by John Caylor, "Study of Missions in Evangeline's Country", will be reviewed.

BEES placed near legumes during the pollinating season can increase seed yields as much as seventy five per cent.

"Doctor," said the patient, rushing into the physician's office, "you've just got to do something about this insomnia of mine. It's driving me crazy."
"Now, now," soothed the medic, "surely it can't be as bad as all that."
"It can't, eh? Why, I can't sleep even when it's time to get up!"

Confetti - - -

ian philosophy still makes sense. If the wonders are here to reveal the Greatness and Glory of God, that is what they are going to do in the end. Material progress will continue, and eventually the Lord will receive the appreciation He is entitled to.

A note on the McCarthy-Stevens TV show. One man says he's heartily in favor of the investigation because this is the best return he has ever had for his taxes.

In a way the thing is a sorry spectacle. Men with big responsibilities wasting time calling each other liars while they should be passing necessary legislation or doing important administrative work. Nevertheless it has its brighter side. People all over the world have an opportunity to notice that top level disagreements in this country get a full hearing.

Reds like to ridicule it, but there's a good chance that it is helping American prestige in spite of them. Thinking men have an opportunity to realize that it isn't fatal to disagree in America. Things like this do not happen in communist countries. When two men disagree there one gets liquidated.

At the same time people in America are learning a few things. The investigation has its merits although it is a needless waste of public time and money.

Rev. Francis Zimmerer of Fort Smith, Ark., is vacationing with his parents and family, the I. A. Zimmerers.
