16 Amendments Will Appear on Nov. 8 Ballot

AUSTIN, Tex. —Texans will vote on 16 proposed amendments to the State Constitution on November 8.
Major interest has been attracted to two amendments:
No. 11 would double the Texas Water Development Fund from $200,000,000 to $400,000,000 and broaden its use to include water filtration, treatment and transportation facilities.
No. 7 would repeal poll tax

(already nullified by federal court decision) and substitute annual voter registration.
Other amendments would:
Increase elected judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals from three to five (No. 9).
Exempt agricultural lands in urban areas from full-value taxation (No. 1).
Provide that taxes or bonds voted by school district will not be in-validated by changes in boundaries (No. 10).
Remove limitations on voting by armed services personnel (already invalidated by federal court) (No. 14).
Set legislator's term beginning on opening day of regular lawmaking sessions (No. 16).

Remove Arlington State College from the permanent university fund (No.3).
Authorize Legislature to pass laws to accomplish the following:
Create airport authorities (No. 2).
Set terms of conservation district directors up to six years (No. 4).
Provide a statewide retirement system for employees of counties and subdivisions (No. 5).
Permit benefit payments to survivors of law officers, prison guards and firemen killed on duty (No. 6).
Ease voting restrictions for those who have recently moved (No. 8).
Provide for dissolving hospital districts (No. 12).
Permit major counties to consolidate some governmental functions and make contract with each other for services (No. 13).
Authorize acceptance of private or federal funds for aid to physically and mentally handicapped (No. 15).

SO-CALLED COMMENT ON 'SO-CALLED'

The little grammatical gimmick "so-called" is a phrase which we'd like to see dropped from news stories, articles of political comment and loaded phrases. You only use it when you are trying to make somebody or something look bad.
For example, there are liberals and conservatives and Democrats and Republicans. But that's not quite the same as so-called liberals, so-called conservatives, so-called Democrats or so-called Republicans. Preceding a noun with this phrase is a way of holding your nose in print. And that doesn't contribute anything to the power or the logic or the persuasiveness of an argument.
Take a simple sentence: Mr. Jones is the father of two boys. Now try it this way: "Mr. Jones is the so-called father of two so-called boys." In this second sentence it's quite obvious we think poorly of Mr. Jones and his boys, but we aren't straight-forward enough to say it or to explain our reasons for it.
"So-called" is a snide, sneaky expression, and we don't like it. That is our opinion. But we realize that some other so-called persons have their own so-called opinions and they won't pay any attention at all to this so-called line of reasoning.

YOU MAY BE SURPRISED, TOO

We were surprised, and imagine you may be too, to learn that Shriver's War on Poverty program has a CCCD agency which actually promotes a kind of union of welfare recipients, collects a dues fee of $2 per person on welfare, and instructs "members" how to "get" all the money to which they are entitled.
All the money to which they entitled extends to a whole range of classifications. The editor of one of the Freedom Newspapers obtained a copy of "The Welfare Rights Handbook" which opens with this sentence: "Do you know that you are not the only one who is having problems with the Welfare Department?"
The pamphlet then asks if the recipient knows "his rights," describes eligibility and how to get aid for children, tells how much personal property they may own, how to make applications, how to get immediate aid, gives considerable direction on how to entertain male friends so the recipient will not be disqualified, and goes into detail on dates and entertainment without the welfare department determining the woman is living with a man. It describes home visits and searched, explains the "right" to appeal and advises the hearing is not open to the public. It describes what to do in case of over payment or underpayment, talks about professional services, medical care for children, dental care, and birth control.

The pamphlet is put out by the Welfare Rights Organization, 528 Seventh St., Oakland. This is in the area where able-bodied men on welfare successfully refused to take jobs picking fruit and harvesting vegetables on nearby farms, and the grounds of lack of training and inconvenience.
In a way, all of this is "old stuff" and to be expected. But what isn't expected is that an agency of the War on Poverty apparently is organizing recipients of welfare to demand more and more welfare and do less and less work — one agency of the federal government working against the declared aims of other agencies of both state and federal governments.
—Pampa, Texas, Daily News

Maybe it has occurred to you that all this subsidized idleness might weaken us morally and spiritually to the extent that someday — and soon — we might lose sight of the rewards of honest work and become a nation of nogoodniks?

The bureaucratic tendency seems to be that if you have a bad problem, then create an even worse situation.

The name on the guarantee: Bulova.

People who guarantee things hate to pay off. And Bulova is no exception.
That's why they put so much into their watches. Even their low-priced Caravelle® watches.
They range from 10.95 to 29.95 and they have: an unbreakable mainspring, waterproofing,* shock-resistance, anti-magnetic protection.
And a jeweled-lever movement where every jewel is a working jewel.
You can see that Bulova isn't taking unnecessary chances when they guarantee a Caravelle.
But guarantee it, they do. In writing.
And they live up to their guarantee. When occasionally something does go out of whack.
That's why if you really love her, Joe, you should put it in writing. On the back of one of our Caravelle watches.

THE "ENEMY INTO FRIEND" MIRACLE

Poland has received large loans from America, some still outstanding, and Polish ships are among the chief carriers of war materials to North Vietnam.
Yet all this is defended by Secretary of Defense McNamara on the ground that it is the Administration's policy to attempt to "build bridges" to Communist nations by allowing trade with them and providing credit assistance.
Can he possibly think the American public gullible enough to swallow such patent hogwash?
We are squandering out substance in an effort to buy friends among our enemies. A more criminally foolhardy tactic cannot be imagined!

IT HAPPENED 25 YEARS AGO

Oct. 24, 1941

Muenster Protestants establish regular schedule of services. Four local young men, Jimmy Lehnertz, Richard Wimmer, Albert Stoffels and Ed Martin are called to report for the armed forces in the November draft. Local women organize Red Cross sewing club. Work on sewer line will be resumed early in November, says WPA. A farewell party honored Paul Yosten who left to enter the armed services. Father Herman Laux of Rhineland visited at Lindsay with relatives this week. Mrs. Raymond Zimmerer is recovering from an operation. Herman Stoffels goes to Coleman cheese factory as head cheesemaker.

School Spirit Day, one of Sacred Heart School's pre-homecoming "warm-ups," was also red and white day. Students from grades one through 12 wore red and white to classes Friday instead of regulation uniforms.

Before the day was over Janie Fleitman was named Miss School Spirit and Andy Klement was chosen as Mr. School Spirit. Both are seniors. Their parents are Messrs. and Mmes. Bruno Fleitman and Gene Klement. Along with those titles and honors for their class, seniors also won the red and white "spirit sticks" for being the class with the most school spirit.

In other warm-up activities classes competed in a pep rally and lighted torch relay Friday night starting at the intersection of Main and the Highway and ending on campus with a bon fire. The juniors won this event. Tommy Hess was the fleet-footed runner that carried the torch that lit the fire.

First prelude to homecoming was a powderpuff football game on Wednesday night. Senior and freshman girls bested junior and sophomore girls.

TRY THE WORLD'S TOUGHEST 2-DOOR

This new Chevy pickup looks so good you could call it a 2-door. (You could also call it the toughest Chevy pickup ever built!)

This Fleetside pickup's got a lot more than good looks going for you.

It's got new construction to bring you more durability, working ease, comfort and safety. Check that new all-steel pickup box, for example. New full double-wall side panels and tailgate keep your load from leaving its mark on Chevy's good looks. And new measures have been taken to help keep out rust and corrosion. Like the one-piece wheelhouses that now protect sheet metal against tire splash.

Inside, the color-keyed cab looks and feels like a pleasant place to work. There are a number of new safety features, too: an energy-absorbing steering wheel and a dual master cylinder brake system, to name two.

And here's another thing the new Chevy pickup's got going for you: it rides better than some cars. Choose from 26 Fleetside and Stepside models now at your Chevrolet dealer's.

Lindsay News

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Schmidtkofer and Mrs. Henry Hess made a business trip to Fort Worth one day last week and stayed to attend wrestling matches at night.

Children and grandchildren of Mike Fuhrmann cheered him with visits Sunday in observance of his 78th birthday which was Saturday. He spent this birthday at Gainesville Hospital where he is a patient several weeks, transferring there from Muester's Golden Years Home. He has improved from illness that made hospitalization necessary but is not ready to be dismissed.

Mr. and Mrs. Doc Kasperik and two children are new residents in Lindsay moving from Gainesville. They are occupying the former Clara Dieter place while their new home is being built in the south part of town.

Mrs. Henry Hess Birthday Honoree

Surprises greeted Mrs. Henry Hess for her birthday when her daughters got together and planned the observance.

While Mrs. Hess was making a business trip to Gainesville her daughters and grandchildren gathered at the family home with covered dishes and had dinner waiting for her when she returned. A shower of gifts added to birthday joy. And there was a birthday cake.

Present were Mrs. Winston Fangman and daughters Sharon, Bridget and Anita, Mrs. Paul Hess and sons Stacy and Gary, Mrs. Gus Berend accompanied by Mrs. A. J. Berend, both of Windhorst and Miss Margie Hess of Gainesville.

Lindsay School Set For Homecoming

Lindsay is ready to welcome a homecoming crowd Saturday night when the Knights tangle with the Quinlan High Panthers. Game time is 7:30.

Before the game a homecoming queen will be crowned. Her identity will not be revealed until the coronation ceremony. There are four candidates: Janet Arendt, Margie Fuhrmann and Linda Corcoran, seniors, and Joanie Zimmerer, junior. Three of them will be princesses in the queen's court. The four were chosen by high school students.

A dance will conclude homecoming festivities.

Sophs Will Treat Soldiers and Sick

At their regular meeting the past week members of Lindsay Sophomore Class chose projects for the term and decided on their class motto, song and mascot.

Projects are writing letters and sending cookies to service men in Viet Nam, and for Halloween, taking sweet treats to hospital patients. Motto chosen is "The higher we climb the better we view." Class song is "More," and a Siamese cat is the mascot. A stuffed cat has been purchased and was shown.

Twenty-three class members and Sister Bibiana, class sponsor attended. Henry Arendt, president, presided.

Project Planned By Lindsay Class

Freshmen of Lindsay High School at their recent meeting decided on their project for the term — helping orphans of the war in Viet Nam. They plan to send money and discussed several benefit events. Plans were made to show films and serve refreshments. Date for this event has not been set.

Steve Zimmerer presided and Father John Walbe gave the program after business. He gave a talk on gun safety, illustrating with several types of guns including an antique Colt .44.

Experience is something that helps you recognize a mistake when you make it twice.

Knights Tie 24-24 At Westminster

In a see saw game loaded with action the Knights of Lindsay had to settle for a 24-24 tie at Westminster last Friday night. As a result they now have a 2-1-1 standing in their eight-man district race.

The contest was almost as close as the score. The hosts led 15 to 10 in first downs and Lindsay led 265-254 in total gains. However on punting Lindsay had troubles, and a blocked punt accounts for the 2-pointers marked up by the enemy. Even so it could have been worse. If Westminster rather than Lindsay had recovered it over the line it would have counted for a TD.

Lindsay was first to count as Danny Eberhart, replacing injured Brian Bezner got loose on a 62 yard sprint to the goal. That was on Lindsay's third offensive play.

Before the first quarter ended both teams scored again and Lindsay led 12-6. Louis Gieb went over for the Knights after a 30 yard pass from Mike Hundt to David Arendt reached the 1. Two more TDs plus bonus points put Westminster ahead 22-12 at the half.

In the third period another long pass, Hundt to Gieb changed the count to 22-18. Next came that safety making it 24-18 for the home team.

Finally in the fourth the Knights caught up on a Hundt to Gieb combination for 28 yards. And for the fourth time Lindsay failed to add extra points.

Confetti - - -

Our determination to win. We talk about easy terms instead of unconditional surrender. The enemy, with no reason to fear, understandably holds out for his own terms.

Those are the big gripes of the country today. But there are many more. Such as federal interference in education. Strings are attached to those billions of funds scattered among schools around the country. Schools do as Washington says or the funds are cut off.

Such as the scandals of the War on Poverty with its oversized staff of overpaid administrators and its many projects of questionable merit — all of which have raised many complaints but little if any corrective action.

Such as the welfare program, which has become a subsidy to loafers and moral derelicts. Something's wrong and drastically needs correcting when people are allowed to make a career of drawing compensation for having illegitimate children or refusing to work.

Such as the notion that integration is more important than education. Nothing is more absurd than the present practice, to please civil rights fanatics, of transporting children from one area to another to achieve racial balance. How about the rights of those children, both races, and their parents?

As David Lawrence says, our government urgently needs a responsible majority with the judgement and integrity to do something about the mess in our country. The party in power has failed miserably in its responsibility.

People who don't like those conditions have the opportunity of making their protest on November 8, by voting for the other party.
