Encouraging news from Washington this week tells us that Congress has given priority to the matter of dealing with criminal traitors who arrogantly boast that their intention is to destroy the country. Monday's report did not specify what measures are being taken by the legislators, but one may assume that awareness of the urgent need for action is an indication of considerably tougher policies.

The criminals who have been bombing public buildings and killing policemen are public enemies who must be stopped by whatever means is necessary. Policemen and the FBI must be freed of every possible encumbrance in their search for the scoundrels and our courts must disallow those misguided notions of fairness which enable criminals to go free a few hours after they have been arrested.

Most important of all the country must restore capital punishment for capital crimes. It is absurd that revolutionaries can murder people, or agitate a riot that results in killings, or openly incite mobs to murder and arson, and still remain free to circulate in public and bring on more tragedy.

It's high time for people at the top in our government to realize that things just can't keep going as they are. Permitting it to continue would help the Black Panthers and SDS Weathermen and the other self proclaimed militant enemies to carry out their plans of destruction. The nation has to call a moratorium on some of the legal courtesies which supposedly guarantee all of the accused's rights but actually make a mockery of justice. It needs to brush aside the technicalities and concentrate on determining guilt or innocence.

An item currently in the news tells of efforts to have a murder conviction reversed because a defending attorney was not given a list of prospective jurors. Other convictions have been nullified because the accused was not warned before his confession, or other regulations were overlooked in obtaining evidence.

Such absurd miscarriages of justice must end. Society must realize that its most important goal is bringing the criminal to justice. If evidence of his guilt is conclusive he should be declared guilty and sentenced accordingly. It is ridiculous to claim that he is absolved of guilt because of a mistake made by an officer or a prosecutor.

The big problem in this wave of violence now haunting the country is not the resourcefulness of the enemy but rather the ease by which he is enabled to prey on the country. None of us can be convinced that the criminals are smarter than police and FBI. Still they seem immune to arrest and prosecution.

Probably the majority of them are already known to the officers, and lots more would be known soon if the cops and the feds were told to go after them, and to bear in mind that the country's first concern is to bring criminals to justice regardless of shenanigans about their rights.

This is being written before Congress spells out the methods it will allow in pursuit and prosecution. The ideas presented are wishful thinking based on a strong confidence that our leaders, once awakened, will take the measures necessary to handle the situation. The ideas are also based on a conviction that our police, if permitted, are very capable of bringing in the scoundrels. Well, this is a time to hope and pray that national leadership is thinking straight.

Another problem of the week, presented to the Supreme Court, is the issue of desegregation by busing. Back in 1954 it was decided that desegregation meant permitting children to go where they please. Civil rights extremists aren't satisfied. They say freedom of choice is not enough. You have to mix the races to desegregate. The country is anxious to hear what the high court thinks.

Choir to Sponsor Benefit Saturday

Members of Sacred Heart Men's Choir are extending a general invitation for attendance at a benefit dance they will sponsor Saturday, Oct. 17, in Muenster Parish Hall beginning at 8:30.

The Polka Tones will provide music featuring waltzes and polkas. Food and drinks will be available. Tickets are $1.50 per person.

Drive-In Service Awaits Finish of Bank Remodeling

Muenster State Bank's new drive-in window is finished, but drive-in service will not be available for several more weeks. Bank President Herbert Meurer says it will have to wait until the rest of the remodeling is complete.

As it is, the drive-in window is too far from the rest of the teller area. After the change the teller counter will be next to it and the same personnel will give both inside and outside service.

The window is at the south side of the building, its service box sliding outside to a car parked on the driveway. The box can be operated electrically or manually and communication with the customer is by means of microphones. Available services are making deposits, cashing checks or getting change. The window is classed as bullet resistant and is actually bullet proof for smaller caliber bullets.

Changes still to come in the bank's main room consists of a general re-arrangement and moving bookkeeping equipment to the former directors' room. The teller department will occupy about one fourth of the space and will be by the drive-in window. The north half of the room, approximately, will be divided into private offices for the officers. The remaining part of the room will be lobby space.

Changes are under way gradually to occupy the recently completed two-floor addition at the back of the building. Its main room is a combined directors room and lounge with snack bar, coffee and iced drinks. Other rooms are a rest room and small storage rooms below and a large storage room above.

One part of the re-arranging consists of converting a former storage room into a safety deposit room. All the deposit boxes, including one section of new boxes, along with customer chairs and tables, will be located there.

The finished job will also include parking area behind the building for bank personnel. Street space will be left for the public.

Tigers Lose 39-20 To Cowtown Boys

The Falcons of Fort Worth Country Day School were gracious hosts when the Sacred Heart Tigers came to see them Saturday. They settled for a win of 39-20 when they could have had a much more decisive score. Tom Williams, former Tiger coach, is an assistant coach at the school.

The Cowtown boys had the advantage in every way. A husky line and big, fast backs, and lots of reserves. Furthermore, the Tigers were considerably below their normal strength with five regulars absent or ailing. Kevin Swirczynski and Mark Schmitt were not in uniform. Fred Fuhrmann, Tim Bindel and Kevin Pels were there but not up to par.

Day School got started on its very first play as the tailback broke away for a 68 yard scoring sprint. A kick upped the score to 7-0.

Next TD started with a Tiger fumble on its 24 but the Falcon offense failed to click and gained only 3 on four tries. From their 21 the Tigers were pushed back 10 before fumbling again. The Falcons had only 11 to go and made it in two plays.

The kickoff that followed was an on-side attempt that went sour. Sacred Heart was on the Day School 40, but lost ground on the series and had to kick. The Falcons were 84 yards from the goal. Eleven plays were enough, and a kick made the count 20-0.

Shortly later, after a Sacred Heart kick, the Falcons scored their fourth TD on a 54 yard pass play. Then their reserves came in and Sacred Heart held the score to 26-0 at half time.

Starting after intermission Falcon regulars were back and went 60 yards to a touchdown in nine plays and added another point after touchdown.

Then the reserves returned and the Tigers went to a quick touchdown. A pass from Gary Endres to David Krahl made 9 and Krahl got loose on the next play for a 56 yard run to

600 Students Get Diphtheria and Tetanus Boosters

About 600 students in the two Muenster schools are participating today in a diphtheria and tetanus immunization program sponsored by the State Health Department and Muenster Memorial Hospital.

The Health Department has furnished the toxoid and the hospital furnished needles for administering.

Mrs. Martin Kralicke is in charge of the program. She reminds parents not to be concerned if a small nodule rises at the site of injection. That is a normal reaction. She also said that the immunization period following these shots is about four years.

Permission for the immunizations has been granted by the parents and includes permission for small pox vaccinations. That part of the program is delayed until about mid November for the benefit of almost 100 elementary and high school football players.

MHS Classes Pick Queen Candidates For Homecoming

Candidates for the honor of queen at the Muenster High homecoming were named Wednesday in separate elections of the four classes.

They are Debbie Yosten, senior; Kristie Stormer, junior; Candy Wimmer, sophomore; and Dolly Bayer, freshman.

One of them will be chosen in an election by members of the football team and her identity will not be revealed until the crowning ceremony at half time of the homecoming football game. The other three candidates will be honored as princesses. Their escorts will be four of last year's graduates: Bobby Bruns, John Felderhoff, David Fette and Tommy Henschel.

Principal event of the homecoming is the football game between Muenster and Lake Dallas. After that the exes will socialize at a dance in the K of C hall.

It's Tax Time

Taxpaying time is here again. People of Muenster have received their annual pink slips reminding them that they are indebted to the county, the city and the school district. And a number of them have already remitted.

On an average, the total tax bill for taxpayers of the city will be $5.20 per $100 of assessed valuation. However the valuations vary on the three statements and one's total tax could not be calculated on any one of them.

The city and the school district each has a tax rate of $1.50 per $100 of valuation. The county rate of $2.20 includes assessments for five separate funds. The state rate is 37 cents, county rate is 82 cents, lateral road fund rate is 6 cents, Cooke County Junior College tax is 30 cents and the hospital district tax is 65 cents. The hospital district tax applies to property within the area of the district but not to other property of the county.

Total valuations of the county, as reported by Assessor-Collector Jo Hillis are $51,786,152, a gain of $1,179,139 over last year's figure. Tax bills sent out by the county office add to $800,160.70. Amounts due the separate funds are $157,608.46 for the state, $424,637.63 for county administration, $25,567.40 for FM and lateral roads, $152,838.77 for the junior college and $39,508.44 for the hospital district.

Reports from the two local tax offices indicate that over 3300 statements were mailed for a total tax bill of more than $173,000.

Mrs. L. B. Bruns at the school tax office said that total assessed valuation is $9,662,380, a drop of $203,470 from last year's. The tax rate is $1.50 counting for a total tax bill of $144,935.70 on more than 2800 statements.

The city's rate is also $1.50 and, as reported by Miss Theresa Becker, city secretary, the total bill on 525 statements amounts to $28,734.27. It is based on a total valuation of $1,915,618, a gain of $31,189 since last year.

Past experiences at both local offices indicate probable collections of 97 per cent by February 1. After that date taxes become delinquent and subject to penalty.

Muenster PP&K Kids Eliminated

One of Muenster's entries received honorable mention in the PP&K zone competition at Greenville last Saturday, and none of them advanced in the national program.

Kenny Hartman had a score of 155.5, which was just four feet less than that of the first place winner. He improved on his previous week's score by 25.5 feet.

All of the others, however, had the misfortune of losing points. The boys and their scores at Muenster and Greenville respectively are as follows: Chris Jaska 118 and 115. Kenny Felderhoff 194 and 160.5. Tim Wolf 190 and 161. Bobby Endres 196.5 and 150. Alan Britain 245 and 190.

The contestants went to Greenville with John Yosten of Endres Motor Co.

KCs Will Present Good Neighbor Award Saturday

The annual good neighbor award of the Muenster K of C Council will be presented after a special Mass commemorating Columbus Day at 7:30 Saturday night in Sacred Heart Church.

The award is presented each year to a local person of another faith in the ecumenical spirit of promoting better understanding among the faiths. Members at the council's regular meeting last Wednesday night were urged to attend the Mass and presentation. Afterward they are invited to a social gathering at the KC Club.

Also at Wednesday's meeting the council held a wake service in memory of Albert Reiter, a council member who died recently. Reiter's family attended.

Three presentations also featured the meeting. Father Bede Mitchel, chaplain, was given an appreciation certificate from the state KC office.

Marty Klement received a hand carved wood plaque from the council in appreciation of two years of service as grand knight.

And Joe Hoening gave the council an olive wood gavel which he brought back from his recent tour of the Holy Land.

Carl Walterscheid Starts Operating Sinclair Station

Carl Walterscheid will start Saturday as the full time owner-operator of the Muenster Sinclair Station after spending two weeks at the Sinclair training center in Fort Worth studying car servicing, inventory, bookkeeping and other subjects related to the station.

Carl, former manager of the local J & L Store, has owned the station since October 1, when J & L closed its store.

Hornets to Meet Powerful Nocona In 12-A Opener

Muenster's Hornets will make their debut in class A competition Friday night . . . and how! . . . when they take on the classy Indians of Nocona. The game will be at Nocona, starting at 8 o'clock.

The Indians are heavily favored. Rated as the best bet for the 12-A title, they are approaching the loop opener with an awesome pre-season record. They have lost sided wins over Class A Holliday and Archer City and Class AA Bowie and Henrietta besides a tie with Class AA Electra. They have size, power, teamwork and reserve depth, according to the appraisal of the Hornet boss, Glenn Richardson.

On the other hand Muenster's team is much smaller in individual weights and depth and boasts a less impressive record. The Hornets have four wins over B teams and a loss to Whitesboro, its only Class A opponent.

Despite those odds, Richardson says, his boys do not concede anything. Their game plan is to play hard and alert, try to avoid mistakes and hope for some breaks. And they'll be depending a great deal on speed and passing in their offense.

The Hornet's confidence got a nice lift in their game with Era last week. In Richardson's opinion the game was their season's best and it did more than any other for their morale.

Inspired Hornets Clobber Era 31-6

An inspired team of MHS Hornets turned in their top performance of the season as they walloped Era's Hornets 31-6 here Friday night.

They stunned their visitors on the very first play with a 41 yard pass from Jim Endres to Earl Koelzer and followed with Tim Hennigan's 17 yard gain to the 4. After a plunge for 3 by Hennigan, Endres sneaked over for the TD. Endres followed up with the first of four successful kicks for extra points.

About midway in the quarter, following Era's punt, MHS moved again but failed to keep going. Henry Knabe's runs for 11 and 15 and a pass to Koelzer for 42 were the big gains in a drive to the 17 but Era braced there and the next four tries got only 6.

However an interception and good run back by Jim Endres gave Muenster another opportunity at the 18. Era defense allowed only 3 yards on three plays after which Endres kicked a field goal from the 25. That was the third play of the second quarter.

After a series and kick by Era, MHS moved again, and failed again to finish the job. The ball went over on downs on the 33, but Muenster had it two plays later on an interception by Gerry Cash on the 28.

Two crashes at the line by Hennigan got to the 17, two more runs made a yard, a pass was incomplete, then Endres connected with Glenn Felderhoff for a touchdown.

On Era's next kick Koelzer made one of his several good kick returns giving MHS good position on Era's 38. A pass to John Schneider for 8 and a reverse play by Koelzer for 26 put Muenster on the 4, and Hennigan scored three plays later.

CEF Hears Report On State Meeting

The Muenster Chapter of the Citizens for Educational Freedom held its second meeting of the school year Tuesday evening in Sacred Heart High School Library.

The matter covered at this meeting centered around a report on the proceedings at the Second Annual Meeting of the Texas Federation of the Citizens for Educational Freedom held in San Antonio on October 4. This organization is concerned with exploring the possibilities of state aid to private schools; but, more specifically, it is interested in a bill to be presented before the state legislature that will provide some state funds to pay part of the salary for teachers in non-public schools.

The Muenster Chapter was represented at this state-wide meeting by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Endres, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Endres, and Sisters Georgia and Yvonne.

County's Hanging Jury Of 1862 Was Efficient

The following article is taken from the October 10, 1970 Newsletter of Texas Good Roads Association.

Gainesville is a progressive courthouse town straddling Interstate 35 and US 82 where those major highways cross in Cooke County, 64 miles north of Fort Worth. Seven miles above, the Red River turns and twists like an indecisive snake until it eases into huge Lake Texoma. Gainesville had an early history of danger and violence. Indians harassed the area as late as 1868. The California Trail, the Chihuahua Trail, the Butterfield Overland Mail Route—all came through in their time.

Gainesville has lived down its reputation for wildness, except that someone is always bringing up the Great Hanging of October 2-17, 1862.

The story has no relevance now, but it is still grimly fascinating to think of 42 men

Odds Appear Even As Tigers Take on Lindsay Knights

Fans at the Sacred Heart field Friday night can look forward to a well matched game. That's the opinion of Coach Tom Joy, whose Tigers will take on the Lindsay Knights in a non-conference scuffle, starting at 8 o'clock.

Both teams are small, both are short on reserve strength, and both are recovering from injuries received two weeks ago. Joy said some of his youngsters are still aching but he expects all of them to be able. And he presumes the Knights too will have recovered, especially after an open date last week.

As regards comparative records the Tigers enjoy the better rating. Their season's score is 3-2 whereas Lindsay's is 1-3, however Lindsay probably had the tougher schedule.

Considering all factors Joy regards the teams as about equal and expects a hotly contested game.

Phone Company's Change Schedule Delayed 5 Months

A delay of five months can be expected in the local telephone company's conversion to one-party service and its introduction of direct distance dialing.

Alvin Fuhrman, co-owner and manager of Muenster Telephone Corporation, said Wednesday that he has a letter from Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. advising that its installation of DDD equipment is delayed by strikes. Originally due to be ready by June 27, 1971, it has now been dated for completion on November 1, 1971. The equipment, to be installed at Denton, will service the DDD calls from here.

Fuhrman added that the Muenster system is also having troubles of its own. Shortage of copper has delayed delivery of wire to be used in converting to 1-party service. Accordingly the local project's completion date has also been pushed back from June 27, 1971, to November 1, 1971.

Hospital Auxiliary Sponsors Oct. 31 Masquerade Ball

Muenster Hospital Auxiliary has completed plans for a Halloween Masquerade Ball in the VFW Hall, Saturday, October 31. It will be a benefit, proceeds to apply to a new machine for the hospital, the organization's present project.

The small machine is an electronic transmission device for transmitting an EKG reading over the telephone by a cardiologist as an electrocardiogram is taken. In other words, an instant reading.

The benefit ball will begin at 9 p.m. and while costumes are not a requirement for admission, members hope a goodly number will come masqueraded. Admission is three dollars per person. Chips and dips are included.

Tickets are on sale now by members and in local business houses. Table reservations must be made in advance, the dance committee said. In charge of this are Mrs. Dickie Pagel and Mrs. Walter Grewing. A phone call will reserve a table.

Music for dancing will be provided by Eddie Dees.

swinging from the same big elm limb, one after another.

Cooke was one of 18 Texas counties that voted against secession, along with seven others in the North Texas area sometimes called The Forks of the Trinity. As civil war blazed, tensions rose in the divided borderland. Confederates uncovered a Unionist Peace Party Plot. They infiltrated the "Order," identified at least some of the plotters and, "precisely at daylight" on Oct. 1, 1862, sprung the trap.

With Gainesville under martial law, the unionists were tried by a "Citizens Court" for "disloyalty and treason." The legality of the proceedings was dubious, but none of the Court's decisions was reversed. The box score read: 39 convicted and promptly hanged; two killed trying to escape; three soldiers turned over to a court martial and hanged.

The hanging tree was "a large widespreading elm tree about one mile east of the town of Gainesville." A fairly contemporary account of the trials closes each case history somewhat monotonously: "Found guilty & hung."

Whether the surviving citizens considered the Citizens Court an orderly forum of justice or a vigilante band depended considerably upon one's viewpoint, but it does seem the Confederates tried to give every man a fair trial before they hung him.

Cooke County has had four courthouses (not counting Jim Dickson's house at nearby Fort Fitzhugh which served the first two years, 1848-50). The first one was a one-room notched-log cabin on the square, finished in 1851 and unfortunately wrecked by Jim Dickson's bull who was merely trying to get in out of the sun. A frame courthouse with an odd-shaped dome was in use at the time of the hangings. The third one, a two-story rock structure, was built in 1878 and burned in 1909. The present capitol dates from 1911 and, like its predecessor, stands in the middle of the square.

Cooke County was named for William G. Cooke, a Texas Revolutionary figure. Gainesville's name honored General Edmund Pendleton Gaines of the U. S. army.

Gala Program to Greet Alumni at SH Homecoming

Program details for Sacred Heart High's annual homecoming celebration Saturday, Oct. 24, have been completed.

Invitations have been mailed to ex-students whose addresses were available with special invitations to graduates of 1940, 1950 and 1960. Everyone is welcome, even urged, to attend. A mailed invitation is not necessary.

While the Alumni Association was finishing plans for a social hour and program for ex-students, Sacred Heart High Tigers named queen candidates and princesses for the royal court, and practiced to best the Greenhill Hornets.

The homecoming game will start at 7 p.m. Queen crowning will take place at half time. Social and program for ex-students will be held after the game. And there will be two dances.

Queen candidates announced this week are seniors Donna Endres, Nancy Endres, and Twins Darlene and Denise Walterscheid. The student body selects the queen and her identity remains secret until the coronation ceremony.

Paper Pickup Saturday Sacred Heart High seniors will conduct a scrap paper drive Saturday, Oct. 17, from 2 to 4 p.m. Persons with paper to give are asked to have it out at the curb by 1:30 p.m. for pickup.

Trash Haul Saturday Sophomores of Sacred Heart High will conduct a trash haul Saturday, Oct. 17, beginning at 9 a.m. Price per barrel is $1.25 and garbage cans are seventy-five cents. Persons with trash or garbage to haul are invited to telephone 759-2730 or 759-4477.

has issued a statement declaring that an adequate guaranteed income is "a matter of right." Since this view is typical of that held by "liberals" in general, comment is in order.

A society which concedes the "right" of an individual to wealth produced by another, will not long remain free and self-governing or be able to maintain prosperity. Once the right of the state to take the property of some and give it to others is firmly established, the process will go on until the last bone of the last taxpayer is picked bare and all are reduced to the near-poverty line. Does a man who has worked little and produced little have a "right" to the property of a handworking individual whose property represents the distilled sweat of his brow? Who has a better right to property than the man who has produced it?

The thrifty have a Christian duty to help the needy, but the latter have no "right" or title to a portion of their wealth.

To assert one's right to the wealth of others is coveting and, if implemented, stealing. Society did not rise above the level of savagery until it recognized the right of men to enjoy the fruits of their labors without danger of despoliation by others. That is why coveting and stealing are forbidden, not only by the Ten Commandments, but by parallel statements in other religions.

If people have a "right" to the wealth of others, they will produce less and less wealth of their own. Already too many live from the labor of their neighbors. We need less talk of rights and more of responsibilities. Under the proposal of FCNL one could loaf or drink or gamble away his own income and then rely on the necessities of life upon the dispossession of others. Christian Freedom Foundation

Sleep on Silent American

Bill Gibbons, Editor of the Gaffney (South Carolina) Ledger burned up the keys of his typewriter recently, going after the so-called "silent American." Wrote he, (in part):

"Sleep on, silent American. Turn your ears away from the clamor of the mob in the street, the thunder of artillery shell in a Cambodian jungle, the wail of a starving child. Sleep on, silent American. If tomorrow's headlines frighten you, just don't look."

"Sleep on, silent American. Don't worry about the student protestors who are commandeering administration buildings and bombing banks and exalting false gods."

"Sleep on, silent American. Say nothing, think nothing, do nothing — and the problems of this nation may vanish. Don't be intimidated by your children. Tell your toddler to go to his room and play with his toys, but not bother you. Your eight-year-old had books and games and a color tv in his room. It's not necessary for you to go into his room to hear his prayers. Let him entertain himself."

"Sleep on, silent American. Tell your teenager to go have himself a good time. Throw him the car keys and give him a ten-dollar bill. But don't ask him where he is going. That would be a violation of his privacy and an infringement on his rights. Never ask him who his heroes are. Don't require him to work and earn his own money."

"Sleep on, silent American. Do not bestir yourself to go to the polls on election day. Politics is a mess anyway. Never be seen with your hand over your heart and resist the urge to put an American Flag on your lawn. Applaud nudity in the theatre and pornography on the newsstands; this is the New Morality, haven't you heard?"

"Sleep on, silent American. Go to the golf course on Sunday morning; you've worked hard all week and deserve a little time off to relax. Of course, you might drop the kids off at Sunday School and give them a quarter to drop into the collection plate. Lie back in the hammock of complacency and inhale the amnesia of indifference."

"Sleep on, silent American. You have everything to lose."

Universities Need Minimum Standard

In almost any field of endeavor that we can think of right off hand, there are certain basic minimum standards required for employment. An alcoholic or even a heavy drinker, will not be employed as an airplane pilot. An embezzler is not likely to be employed as a bank clerk; indeed, the bank is inclined to hire only those who have a reputation for a high degree of honesty and integrity. There are minimum standards for those in the field of law; if you don't meet them, you're out and no questions asked. The same is true in the field of medicine.

Since this is true, it is reasonable to assume that — of all places — colleges and universities should likewise recognize and establish certain basic minimum standards of moral, intellectual, and academic integrity; and that failure to meet those minimum standards would automatically block participation or employment in the academic community.

It is painfully apparent, however, that many schools and colleges today recognize no standards at all. It is shocking that Dr. Miller Upton, President of Beloit College in Wisconsin should write to President Nixon to confess his "shame" that "a convicted murderer, dope peddler, or one committed to the forceful overthrow of the government" not only receives "a respectful hearing, but . . . a handsome honorarium" at many colleges and universities today. The distinguished and talented cartoonist, Al Capp, told the delegates at the tenth anniversary convention of Young Americans for Freedom that "our colleges have only one problem; the lunatics are running the asylum." Isn't it time for the people of America to lay it on the line?

The largest and most powerful organization in the academic community is the National Education Association. So far as we can determine, the only evident reason for its existence is to extract the largest possible number of dollars from the pockets of taxpayers. Isn't it time for the NEA to seek to establish and enforce minimum standards in the field of education — which means no communists, no criminals, no perverts allowed?

There are, at the local level, many fine, self-sacrificing, hard working conscientious teachers in our schools. Throughout our country there are thousands of dedicated, unselfish school board members who are doing their best to provide our youth with a good education. But at the top leadership levels, in high places, the meaning and purpose of education is being betrayed — and it is time for a change.

Behind the Mirage

Remember the good old days when glib economists and money managers spoke of a "little inflation" as a good thing? Not so surprisingly, this kind of economy quackery appears to be passing out of vogue, and for good reason. People are beginning to realize where a little inflation can lead.

A recent authoritative projection based on trends of the last year or so has come up with the following figures: "If inflation continues to run at six percent a year (compounded) for the next 30 years, a person earning $10,000 today will need $57,000 for the same standard of living then. Today's $20 bag of groceries will then cost nearly $115. A TV set now selling for $500 will cost nearly $2,900. An auto with a current price tag of $3,000 will go for over $17,000. A $25,000 home will jump to more than $147,000."

This is the hard-rock reality that lies beneath the purple mirage of a little inflation. It can wreck the financial security and independence of everyone except the few who always manage to survive and thrive in the chaos of monetary disaster.

HELP KEEP TEXAS HIGHWAYS BEAUTIFUL

You are the one who can help eliminate highway litter. It isn't easy. The easy way to get rid of cartons, cans and containers is to leave an ugly, expensive trail of refuse along the road.

Responsible citizens don't litter.

Mrs. Endres Hosts Get-Together Club

Members of Muenster Get-Together Club had their October social with Mrs. R. R. Endres hostess in her home and spent the afternoon playing progressive 42.

High scorer in the series was Mrs. Joe Hoenig while Mrs. Joe Kathman won the consolation award and Mrs. Joe Horn drew the door prize.

After the games the hostess served a plate lunch to the group.

SH High School Is Chartered in Thespian Society

Sacred Heart High School has been accepted for membership in the National Thespian Society as Troupe 3043 with Brother Thomas Moster as sponsor.

The National Thespian Society is an honorary, non-social, dramatic organization in secondary school theatre. The society recognizes and honors high school students who excel in the dramatic arts.

Charter members at Sacred Heart are Bill Bartush, Cletus Bayer, Peggy Endres, Mary Lou Kralicke, Donna Rohmer, Doris Schmitt, Gayle Sicking and Kevin Swirczynski.

Local officers are Kevin Swirczynski, president; Bill Bartush, vice president; Gaye Sicking, secretary-treasurer. The group meets the first Tuesday of each month.

All dramatic productions and the annual spring musical will be staged under direction of the National Thespian Society.

One out of every 20 persons in the U.S. wears a uniform on the job. According to the best available estimate, this represents a total of about 10 million persons.

Council Officers Of SH High Attend Denison Meeting

Student Council officers Donna Rohmer, president and Peggy Sicking, vice-president are attending the annual fall Convention of District III Texas Association of Student Councils this Thursday, Oct. 15 in Denison. Sister Mary John is attending as sponsor.

Sacred Heart has taken an active part in District III Conventions, held twice yearly. The general agenda includes speakers from the North Texas area and a variety of discussion groups. The students use the groups as a means of finding solutions to school problems and exchanging ideas on activities.

Delegates to the spring convention will be Phil and Gary Endres, and Cletus Bayer.

Franciscan Third Order Group Has Officer Election

Members of the Third Order of St. Francis, Sacred Heart Fraternity, at their October meeting Sunday held annual election of officers.

Mrs. Leo Henscheid was re-elected prefect to serve a second term. Mrs. Frank Herr was named vice prefect to succeed Mrs. Herbert McDaniel. Miss Lu Vogel is secretary succeeding Miss Elizabeth Herr and Mrs. Joe Fisher is treasurer succeeding Mrs. Frank Herr. Mrs. R. R. Endres continues as novice mistress.

The meeting in Sacred Heart Church began with the order's office led by Mrs. Henscheid. She followed with a reading "For Those Who Find It Hard to Love."

She also read a farewell letter from Father Bertin Miller revealing he will no longer be making visitations with tertiaries. Formerly headquartered in Chicago, Father Bertin made annual visits with Third Order members. He was here with the local group twice. He is now with the Paraclete Apostolate in the St. Louis area.

The meeting ended with the Franciscan Crown Rosary. Twenty members were present.

The fraternity has four novices: Mmes. Alois Haverkamp, Bill Kathman, Tony Otto and Jake Wolf.

10 SH Seniors on Discussion Club

Ten seniors make up Sacred Heart's Great Books Discussion Club this year.

Attending the group discussions are: Mary Bayer, Peggy Endres, Donna Endres, Nancy Endres, Joanie Rohmer, Karolyn Schoech, Denise Walterscheid, Darlene Walterscheid, Peggy Sicking, and Tim Bindel. Leading the group are Mrs. Tom Joy, Mrs. Paul Endres, Mrs. Ed Schmitt, and Mrs. Joe Felderhoff.

So far the group has discussed two selections, "The Shadow Line," and "Psychology: Briefer Course." The discussions are held on the second Monday of each month.

NYC Program Aids SH Students

Sacred Heart School is one of the many area schools benefiting from the Neighborhood Youth Corps Program. This government funded program has been carried on at Sacred Heart for approximately six years. In the past the number of students on this program was seven. In recent years, however, the number has been limited to two students.

The purpose of the government in sponsoring such a program is to hire and aid needy students in the attempt to lessen the possibility for students to become drop-outs. In some cases drop-outs are placed on the list of workers if they qualify and continue some type of schooling.

There are also certain guidelines that make the students eligible. There is a maximum family income, according to the number of children in the family, and the students must be at least 16 and not older than 21.

Students on this program at Sacred Heart do chores at both grade and high school, under supervision. This arrangement is economical for the parish, containing the budget, by not paying extra help for the work performed by these students.

Headquarters for the N.Y.C. in this area, is in Sherman, Texas. Periodically an official is sent to the schools to check on the performance of the students.

Cubs Drop 18-0 Game at Ft. Worth

Sacred Heart's Tiger Cubs had nothing but trouble when they played the junior high kids of Fort Worth Day School at Cowtown last Saturday. When it was over they were on the short end of an 18-0 score.

Mark Hess and Kenny Walterscheid made a few nice runs, but the rest of the game was mostly disappointment. The Cubs drove to the 10 in the second half but could not finish the job. Earlier they were inside the 10 after Day School fumbled a punt, and were also stopped.

Day School scored once on a 50 yard run and completed two drives.

The Cubs' next one will be with S & S Tuesday night at 6:45 on Sacred Heart field.

Laughing sickness, or Kuru, affects only the Fore tribe of New Guinea and is 100% fatal.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Klement of Lindsay have announced the birth of a son at Flow Hospital in Denton. He arrived Saturday, Oct. 3, weighing eight pounds 4 1/2 ounces. Others welcoming him are brothers and sisters Doug, David, Kattie, Madge and Ralph, and grandparents the Albert Klements of Lindsay and the Harold Warrens of Lake Whitney.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Hellman of Gainesville are proud parents of their first son, a brother for their daughters Dayna, DeAnna and Darla. The newcomer has been named James Daryl. His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hellman of Muenster and Mrs. Hallie Flowers of Gainesville. The newcomer checked in at Gainesville Hospital Sunday, Oct. 11, 3:35 a.m. weighing nine pounds nine ounces.

Alvin Fuhrman Is Among Honorees at German Day Ball

Five-year-members of the German Day Council which included Alvin Fuhrman, co-chairman on the council for Muenster, were honored at the 1970 German Day Ball in the Marriot Motor Hotel Ballroom Saturday night.

Each honored member received a marble paper weight with the German Day emblem inscribed with their names and years of service on the Council.

The buffet dinner featured German food including knock wurst, saur kraut and various pastries. Dinner music was by the North Town Orchestra. Singing on the program was by the Dallas Frohsinn Singing Society and a German Air Force men's choral group from Fort Bliss, Texas. Music for dancing was by the Polka Peppermints.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Fuhrman attended from Muenster. Among others they saw there were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fuhrman of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Flusche and Mrs. Ray Lewis of Dallas accompanied by the latter's sister Sister Michael Marie Fuhrmann. Over 1000 people were present.

This year's program honored Werner Von Braum of space age fame who gave the main address at the dinner. Bishop Cassata gave the invocation.

Excitement Packed Schedule Precedes SHH Homecoming

Students at Sacred Heart High are anticipating spirit and excitement as their Homecoming week unrolls October 19-24.

Monday the football team selected four senior girls as queen candidates and one girl from the three remaining classes as princesses. The candidates are Donna Endres, daughter of the Donald Endres; Nancy Endres, daughter of the Ed Endres; Darlene and Denise Walterscheid, twin daughters of the Denis Waltersheids.

The princesses are Junior Ann Bartush, daughter of the Charles Bartushes, Sophomore Susan Endres, daughter of the Ray Endres; and Freshman Alane Yosten, daughter of the Larry Yostens.

The student body voted Tuesday for the queen. Her identity will remain secret until the halftime at the Homecoming game when she will be crowned by one of the football boys.

Monday the four classes will have their homerooms decorated with the theme of "Tiger Spirit." One room will be judged the best and the winning class will be awarded points in the Student Council's point system.

Tuesday night at 8 o'clock the annual Powder Puff game will take place. The Senior and Freshmen girls will challenge the Junior and Sophomore girls.

Wednesday will be "Tiger Tail Day." On this day all girls must wear their hair in pig-tails, no matter what length of hair they have.

Thursday night they will have their bonfire. Each class will select a relay team and a race will be run from downtown to the bonfire sight. The winning class will light the bonfire.

Friday will be "Spirit Day." All students will dress in red and white instead of the usual uniform.

During the entire week the senior class will sponsor a sponge throwing game. Effigies of the Greenhill Hornets will be painted on a board leaving a hole for the head of one of the Seniors. The other students will pay a small charge to throw sponges at their heads. This spirit-raising activity will take place during the students' lunch break.

The climax of the week will be the game Saturday night. The Tigers will play host to the Greenhill Hornets. After the game there will be a dance in the V.F.W. hall with "Otis" playing.

Dates Listed for 70-71 ACT Tests At Sacred Heart

Students at Sacred Heart High who are planning to attend college will have five opportunities to take the ACT Test Battery during the 1970-71 school year.

Last year nearly one million students in the U. S. and overseas wrote the five-part test, which is required or recommended for applicants at more than 1,800 colleges, universities, two-year colleges, scholarship agencies, and athletic conferences.

The 1970-71 ACT test schedule (with registration periods in parenthesis) is: October 17 (Aug. 24 to Sept. 28); Dec. 12 (Oct. 5 to Nov. 9); Feb. 20 (Nov. 23 to Jan. 18); April 24 (Feb. 1 to March 22); July 17 (April 5 to June 14).

Students can obtain registration packets and other ACT informational materials from any member of their high school guidance staff.

The ACT Test Battery includes a series of tests designed to measure a student's ability to perform the kinds of intellectual tasks typically required of college students. Subjects covered are English, math, social studies, and natural sciences. Another part of the examination consists of questions about the student's academic and non-academic background, immediate plans for college, and career aspirations.

Fee for the test, which takes about 3 1/2 hours to complete, is $6. Results are sent to colleges and other institutions designated by the students.

Sister Mary John Seyler recommended that students write the ACT test either late in their junior year or early in the senior year. This is to allow the students and their parents and counselors to make maximum use of the resulting ACT reports as valuable counseling tools in pre-college planning.

With national headquarters in Iowa City, Iowa, ACT is a nonprofit corporation that provides educational services for use by students and institutions of higher education in the United States and overseas.

Muller Grandsons In Service Are Widely Separated

The Richards brothers in the armed forces are widely separated according to word from their mother Mrs. Rosalie Richards. She reports that Matt who is in the Navy is now in Submarine School at Groton, Conn., after completing boot training at San Diego, Calif. He joined the Navy on May 28. Since he is close to Stoughton, Mass., where the family lived for six years during his father's tour of army duty, Matt has enjoyed visits several times with old friends there.

His older brother Aaron is stationed in Okinawa and has just been advanced to sergeant. He's in the Marines — on the job training as a C.I.D. Agent. He extended in order to get into this line of work. Aaron has been overseas since July 2, 1969. He was in Vietnam from July to November, then Okinawa six weeks, then three weeks of cold weather training in Japan and now in Okinawa. He is due to return to the states in July 1971.

The boys are grandsons of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Muller of Muenster.

Their addresses follow: Sgt. Aaron P. Richards, 2515987; MP Co. Hq. Bn. (CID) 3rd Marines; FPO San Francisco, Calif. 96602.

John M. Richards S.A. B756321; U. S. Naval Sub. School; Class 71-7 Sect. 273, Box 24, Groton, Conn. 06340.

Muenster, Nocona Juniors Will Play

The Little Monsters of Muenster Public School will play their first junior 12-A game Thursday night at 6:45 when Nocona's youngsters invade the MHS field.

Indications are that they will have their hands full. Nocona's team is made up entirely of eighth graders whereas the Monsters have a number of theirs from the seventh. Size will favor the visitors.

Muenster kids will go into the game with a record of four straight wins.

Local News BRIEFS

Weekend visitors with Capt. and Mrs. Henry G. Victor Jr. and two sons were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Victor and daughters Alice, Grace and Susan of Miami, Okla. Capt. Victor is on a flying R&R leave from Korea. They all visited also with Mr. and Mrs. Al Schmitt, parents of Mrs. Victor Jr.

Weekend visitors with Mrs. Oscar Detten were her daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Bill Farrar and son Steven of Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Fisher flew in from Houston Saturday and spent until Tuesday with his parents the John Fishers. Sunday the parents hosted a dinner reunion for the visitors and Monday the two couples and Chuckie Fisher drove to Wichita Falls to visit the Joe Galloway family.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hennigan of Fort Worth arrived Tuesday to spend a few days with their son and family, the Pat Hennigans.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Falck of San Antonio spent the weekend with her parents, the Jake Pagels.

Wilbert Vogel ended a vacation visit here with his parents and family, the Joe Vogels Wednesday and flew to London to spend a month in England before returning to his job in Algeria.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Fisch and son Stephen of Chicago, Ill., arrived Saturday to spend a ten day vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wiesman and family. Get-togethers and dinner parties are honoring the visitors.

Mrs. Tony Gremminger spent the weekend in Pilot Point with her daughter and family, the Robert Mayers and attended confirmation services with them Sunday. LaTina Mayer was one of the members of the class.

Mrs. Lena Bernauer of Gainesville, formerly of Muenster, underwent major surgery at Gainesville Hospital Monday.

Visiting last Thursday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Klement and helping Mrs. Klement celebrate her birthday were a daughter, Marcy and family, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Marr and sons Jimmy and Pat of Fort Worth. They brought gifts for Mrs. Klement and a decorated cake which was served with other refreshments.

Public Invited to Rev. Billy Graham Movie Here Oct. 31

"The Restless Ones," considered the most successful motion picture yet produced by Evangelist Billy Graham, will be shown in Muenster on Oct. 31 in First Baptist Church. There will be no admission charge and everyone is invited. The time is 7:30 p.m.

With the accent on youth, this feature-length film deals imaginatively and dramatically with the teen-age crisis. With a background setting provided by the 1963 Billy Graham Los Angeles Crusade, and artfully woven into the story pattern, "The Restless Ones" is a hard-hitting, bold approach to our social problems.

Here is a film which dares to be different, a story which will stir the heart and mind. Having seen "The Restless Ones," you will never be the same.

As one reviewer said, "Here is a picture that tells the world the truth and comes up with an answer, not an easy answer, but an answer from beyond us." This answer will satisfy, challenge and inspire young and old alike and will appeal to churchgoers and non-churchgoers. The Christian message comes through in the midst of a realistic teen-age situation, clearly and without cloying. Swift-moving plot episodes highlight the opportunities facing the church.

Screen writer James Collier has skillfully brought into focus the contemporary plight of both teen-agers and parents. A sensitive script, produced by World Wide Pictures under the direction of Dick Ross, has resulted in a "break-through" in "The Restless Ones."

Julia Myrick, 4 Birthday Honoree

Julia Myrick, 4 years old Tuesday, Oct. 13, celebrated Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Myrick in Arlington.

Eight young guests were present including Kristy and Rene Stelzer, cousins from Muenster along with their mother Mrs. Pat Stelzer. Grandmother Mrs. T. S. Myrick was a special guest. Also at the party were the honoree's sister Jill and her brothers Joe and Jeff.

Birthday cake and punch were served.

pay dirt. Krahl went over again for extra points.

Tigers did it again on their next possession as Dickie Mosier made end runs of 35 and 40 and Tom Felderhoff went in from the 5.

On its next possession Sacred Heart moved again. Nine plays made 80 yards in which big gainers were 30 by Tom Felderhoff and 15 by Mosier. Fred Fuhrmann made the last 15.

At that point, with the count at 33-20 and about half of the last period remaining, Falcon regulars returned for more action. They started with a fumble and had to wait for the Tigers to finish a series before firing a scoring pass from the 32. Kick for bonus point was blocked. The score was 39-20.

State Employees Demand Pay Raise

State employees want a 17 per cent pay raise within the next two years. They served notice of their desire at the annual meeting of the Texas Public Employees Association. TPEA's legislative program for 1971 seeks a three-step (10.2 per cent) raise effective next September; and a two-step (6.8 per cent) hike the following September; plus a 3.4 per cent merit raise for half of the employees.

Also requested are "career incentive" benefits — a $10 a month automatic raise after three years of service, ranging up to a $60 a month supplement for employees with 30 years' service.

Substantial pension benefits also were included in TPEA's far-reaching legislative package which would give retired employees with 30 years' service 50 per cent of their base pay.

State employees also want their travel allotments boosted to $16 a day per diem and 12 cents a mile.

Purcell Proposes Prison, Fine for Disrupting Trial

Congressman Graham Purcell called today for a Federal law to make it a prison offense to deliberately disrupt court proceedings.

Purcell cited the trial of the Chicago 7 and the Black Panther case in New York as examples of how shouts, curses, singing, and violence can be used to try to undermine the courts.

"Our Judicial system is the very bedrock of our freedom," he said. "We simply cannot allow our courtrooms to be turned into three-ring circuses."

Purcell's comments came as he introduced a bill to impose up to 5 years in prison and $5,000 fine against anyone found guilty of obstructing the proceedings of the Federal Court or grand jury.

"All through history our courts have carefully safeguarded the rights of the accused," the Congressman said. "Now we find that to continue to safeguard those rights, we must also safeguard the courts themselves."

"Those who deliberately disrupt and sabotage our courts are chipping away at the foundations of the freedoms they so wantonly flaunt. The Chicago 7 might never realize it, but the best friend they have is the sanctity of the American Judicial process. I don't intend just to sit around and watch a few people like them destroy it."

Gift Party Fetes Mrs. Charles Ivers

Mrs. Charles Ivers of Fort Worth was the honoree at a gift party Sunday afternoon when Mrs. Johnny Pagel and Mrs. Dickie Pagel were co-hostesses in the latter's home and guests presented layette gifts.

Guests included the honoree's mother Mrs. Jerome Pagel, her grandmother Mrs. Jake Pagel, and an aunt Mrs. Hal Falck of San Antonio who was week-ending in Muenster. The hostesses served coffee and small cakes topped with storks or baby dolls.

The boys brought a donkey into the classroom one day, just for a joke. "I see," said the teacher, "there is one more of you this morning."

the clock Era put two beautiful plays together for its only score of the night. Billy Nash, who accounted for most of the team's ground gains, broke away for a 36 yard run. Two plays later Mike Cook, who caught six of the team's passes for total gains of 115, caught a bomb from Jim Kirchenbauer for 37 yards and the TD. A run failed. The score was 24-6 with 28 seconds left.

After intermission the teams swapped methods of offense. After trying 18 passes the first half Muenster went to the ground and passed only six times in the second. Era had passed seven times the first half and passed 16 in the second.

Era started the second period strong. Passes to Cook for 30, 14 and 12 were big plays in a 65 yard drive to the 4, but Muenster's defense halted it there. Four more plays lost 2. Muenster took over on the 6.

Then the ball went the other way. Runs by Henry Knabe and Tim Hennigan and a pass to Cash for 30 gained 79 yards to the 15 before being stopped by Cook's interception.

That was the first of four turnovers on as many plays. Alan Miller intercepted for Muenster. Era recovered a fumble, then John Schneider intercepted for Muenster.

The ball was 58 yards from pay dirt and MHS used 6 plays to get there. Hennigan ran 16, Koelzer 14, Hennigan 8, Endres 19, then Endres scored from the 1 on a sneak. The score was 31-6 with 9:28 on the clock.

During that time Era put on another good drive but was stopped by Schneider's interception at the 17.

Two Infant Boys Baptized Sunday In Joint Service

Two infant boys were baptized Sunday in a joint service at 3 p.m. with Father Bede Mitchel officiating in Sacred Heart Church. The babies christened were Bart George Henscheid, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Henscheid and John Richard Herr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Herr.

Attending as godparents for Bart were cousins Mr. and Clinton Endres.

John Richard's godparents are an uncle J. D. Rumley and an aunt Mrs. Tony Marr.

Members of both families attended the services and each group had refreshments afterward at the homes of the babies' parents.

SH First Graders On TV Monday for Patriotic Program

Sister Genevieve's first graders of Sacred Heart School presented a televised program Monday morning in observance of Columbus Day.

Patriotic recitations and songs by the class of 29 originated in the local studio and were telecast live by Alvin Fuhrman who also gave the commentary for channel 2 viewers.

Recitations and songs included "Here Comes the Flag," "There Are Many Flags," "Pledge of Allegiance," "America the Beautiful," and "God Bless America." The program lasted about 15 minutes.

Slow talkers average about 450 words during a three-minute phone call, but a determined caller may squeeze more than 600 words into the same period.

Nation to Observe Cleaner Air Week

Pollution of the air is perhaps the most serious of all the dangers our advanced civilization has created. We can purify our water before we drink it, and we can detect and remove contaminated foods. We can restore the polluted landscape. But we must breathe the air as it comes to us, polluted or not.

During the week of October 25-31, Texans — like Americans throughout the nation — will be observing the 1970 version of "Cleaner Air Week." The Texas State Department of Health's Air Pollution Control Division will be concentrating much of its attention on the formation of "Cleaner Air Week" committees across the state.

The objective of "Cleaner Air Week" is three-fold: to create better understanding of community, state and regional problems related to the protection of the nation's fresh air supply; to promote cooperative effort by everyone toward the solution of such problems, and to encourage individuals and groups to play major roles in coordinated control efforts, particularly at the community level.

During the special week, Texas will be focusing on the problem of pollution. Air pollution causes, its consequences and cures will be brought before the public.

Air pollution has been traced as a definite contributor to such health problems as emphysema, bronchitis, lung cancer, colds, pneumonia and bronchial asthma.

The economic loss from air pollution has been estimated at more than $60 per year for each man, woman and child. Crop damage, corrosion, cleaning bills, wasted fuel, accidents from reduced visibility — these known effects keep mounting.

Air pollution is a "mix" — compounded from exhausts of millions of automobiles, emissions from power plants and industries, effluent from incinerators and heating plants, smoke from backyard trash fires and municipal rubbish dumps.

To meet our challenge in this state, the Clean Air Act of Texas was passed by the Legislature in 1965. A Texas Air Control Board was created the following year. The State Health Department, in carrying out the Board's air control program, has the authority to file law suits and seek injunctions against offenders of its regulations.

Election of officers was the principal business at the first meeting of Lindsay High School Science Club this term. Elected are Tommy Eberhart, president; Robert Hundt, vice president; Judy Beyer, treasurer; Gary Krahl, reporter. Twenty-four members attended. Club Sponsor Mr. Green met with the group.

Pat Hermes is this year's winner of the annual outstanding member of the Breakfast and Noon Optimist Club. Pat, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Hermes Sr., is teaching school in Korea this term. His parents accepted his award for him.

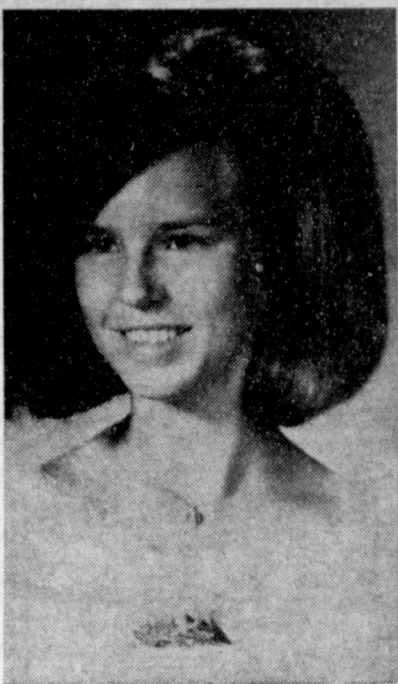

Sister Michael Marie Fuhrmann visited Cooke County relatives a week and left here last Thursday for Dallas to be with relatives before returning to San Antonio. She headquartered with her sister Mrs. Albert Klement while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry W. Long of Yukon, Okla., have named their new son Val Dean. He was baptized in St. Mary's Church at Gainesville by Father Robert Grant with Mrs. Loretta Davis and Joe Bayer of Dallas as godparents. Mrs. Long is the former Woosy Loerwald, daughter of the Frank Loerwalds of Gainesville. The baby is the first great-grandson for the Fred Bodovskys of Gainesville. Mrs. Cecilia Loerwald of Gainesville is great-grandmother again.

Fifteen members attended the October meeting of Lindsay Community 4-H Club, saw a film on conservation, welcomed two new members Beverly and Diane Vanover and elected Gene Rohmer recreational leader. David Nortman presided. Randy Hermes led the inspiration, Steve Haverkamp called the roll and Betty Rohmer reported on the county council meeting.

There were 120 Knights of Columbus and their ladies together for Sunday Mass and dinner observing the feast day of their patron Christopher Columbus. Father S. Szarka of Grapevine was guest speaker and celebrated Mass in the KC Hall at Gainesville. At the catered dinner, Grand Knight Ed Wolf welcomed guests. Also attending from Grapevine were Mr. and Mrs. Randy Bayer.

A man was moving along a dimly lighted street when a stranger slipped from the shadows and stopped him. "What do you want?" asked the man nervously. "Would you be so kind," asked the stranger, "as to help a poor unfortunate fellow who is hungry and out of work? All I have in this world is this gun."

Sharon Loerwald And David Arendt To Marry Nov. 22

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin (Red) Loerwald of Lindsay have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter Sharon and David C. Arendt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Arendt, also of Lindsay. The wedding is planned for Nov. 22 at 5 p.m. in St. Peter Church.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Lindsay High School and is employed at Bell Telephone Corp. The future groom is also a graduate of Lindsay High and is a senior at NTSU in Denton working toward his degree in secondary education in math.

We'd like to ask the State Department: With all these goodwill trips, how come we don't have any?

A man, filling out a job application, came to the question: "Have you ever been arrested." His answer was, "No." The next question asking "Why," was meant for those who answered in the affirmative. Nevertheless, he answered it with, "Never got caught."

Well, What Do You Know? fun, games and knowledge

by MARTHA GLAUBER SHAPP, Editor, The New Book of Knowledge
Would you like to do the spirit ring trick?

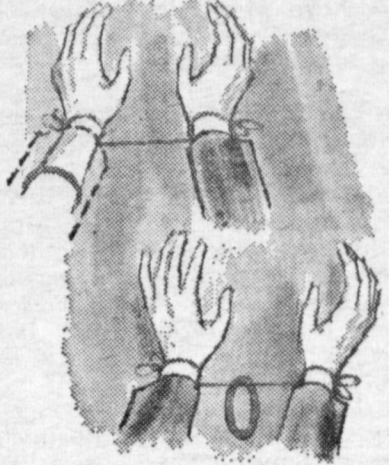

Here is a baffling magic trick you can do to mystify any audience. The magician's wrists are tied with a length of cord. He then takes a solid ring, which his audience has been allowed to

They may be plastic bracelets, alike in size and color, obtainable at any store where novelty jewelry is sold, such as a five-and-ten.

Beforehand, slip one of the rings over your arm as far up as it will go, as shown in the illustration. It will be hidden by your sleeve. The pressure of your arm will hold it in place.

Give someone in the audience a piece of cord, and ask him to tie each end fairly tight around your wrists, as shown. There should be about a foot of cord between the wrists. Hold your hands up while they are being tied, to prevent the ring on your arm from slipping down.

Next, hand out the duplicate ring for examination. When it is returned, turn your back and quickly put it into your shirt pocket or inside coat pocket, at the same time allowing the ring on your arm to slip down over the cord. Turn around and show the ring now hanging from the cord to your puzzled audience.

examine, and turns his back for a few minutes. He then causes the ring to appear on the cord.

The secret is that, unknown to the audience, two rings are used. (For a free booklet, "The Magic Carpet," illustrated in color from The New Book of Knowledge, send name and address to Martha Glauber Shapp, Box 47, Putnam Valley, New York 10579.)
