NUMBER 45

This column is indebted to the Texas Farm Bureau's current bulletin for an explanation of what happened in the recent election in Chile. Despite widespread assumption by the American press and enthusiastic claims by the communist press that Salvador Allende was elected president, the fact is that he is the leading candidate, with 36 per cent of the votes cast, but still has to be approved by the Chilean congress to win the office.

That approval, it seems, is far from assured. Allende needs 101 votes of the congress to be chosen. The "popular-front" coalition group which supported him in the election has 81 votes. That's fairly close, but perhaps not close enough if the opposition is alert to the possibilities that can develop in any country which allows the reds to become prominent in government. Some of the hard fisted dictatorships of today started as coalitions.

Perhaps the Chilean congress is mindful also that communism so far has not won a free election anywhere, and it would be reluctant to impose on the people a fate which they avoided in the election.

So, maybe the Chilean election is not as bad as it seemed to be. Maybe Allende will not be the president after all. Maybe the nearness of communist success will serve to jolt the country into realizing that it needs to be more alert.

Along with telling the election score, Farm Bureau commented that "those who follow world news on numerous occasions have warned that the Communists can be compared to cancer cells in that they grow on the edges and decay in the middle. Another way of expressing the situation is that they are parasites living off the fringe of life around them, dying on the inside. Their progress is dependent on attaching themselves to other movements.

"The election in Chile was no different. The Communist candidate withdrew from the election and threw his support to Allende who was head of the Havana-based organization of Latin American Solidarity. Allende was running on the Socialist party ticket. Communists attached themselves to it not to help it but to take it over, as a cancer takes over living cells.

From Washington Whispers of US News and World Report: Representative Edith Green (Dem.), of Oregon, whose special House sub-committee held more than four months of hearings on campus unrest, tells friends: "I am convinced there would be no campus riots if it weren't for some faculty members."

The lady seems to support the opinions of lots of people who think that the whole sorry mess could have been avoided if all faculty members had exercised some basic American virtues like loyalty, integrity, patriotism and respect for life, property, law and order.

It is satisfying to hear the congresswoman say that the students are not at fault. We like to believe that the great majority of them do not want violence and destruction, and they do want to attend class and learn just as they paid for. They were caught up in the turmoil only because some faculty members were actively promoting the violence or were allowing revolutionaries to promote it.

In this regard one should make a distinction between real students who are there to learn and the fake students whose interest is revolutionary instead of scholastic. And especially the hard core revolutionaries and criminals who are allowed to use the lecture halls and mingle freely with students. Apparently the Oregon lady meant that faculties are to blame either for subversive activity and influence or permissiveness, or both. America's great silent majority generally goes along with that opinion.

Tigers Brace for Tough Contest at Era Friday Night

Friday night's game is the toughest of this season so far. So says Coach Tom Joy as he sets his sights for the upcoming encounter of his Sacred Heart Tigers with the Era Hornets at Era.

It isn't just that Era can be depended upon year after year to come up with lots of spirit and strength. The record in early season games speaks for itself. The Hornets have a 12-8 decision over Collinsville and they held the husky Boyd powerhouse to four touchdowns in the mud last week.

However, the Tigers too have a nice record. With three wins in a row, including the TISC opener with Trinity Valley, they definitely are an outfit that can't be taken for granted. Joy firmly believes they have the potential to make this one their fourth straight.

Team strength, he said, should be a little better than last week. Tim Bindel has recovered from his injury of two weeks ago, Wayne Grewing is shaping up after a late start, and the rest of the boys are up to their usual condition.

Muenster Juniors Nip Whitesboro 8-0

The Little Monsters of Muenster Public School Elementary eventually were 8-0 winners in what appeared to be a scoreless stand-off at Whitesboro last Thursday night.

It was late in the final quarter when the Muenster kids kept a drive going all the way. It was good for 35 yards and Steve Klement made the last 3 by crashing into the middle. He also went over for the extra points.

Before that the Monsters' best effort went to the 20 and the other attempts were halted on the first or second series. Bearkittens had a similar experience. They got going only twice and their best advance was stopped inside the 10 shortly before the first half ended.

First public motion picture was shown in 1895 in Paris, France.

September Rainfall, 11.61 Inches, Second Wettest Month on Record

From one extreme to another. The community's rainfall measure of 11.61 inches is the wettest for September in the local weather record's 24 year history, and the second wettest for any month on record. The wettest ever here was 12.43 inches in April 1957.

The other extreme was the dry spell which preceded the heavy rainfall of the past half month. The measure for June, July and August was 2.31, and the early part of September had .63 more. It was less than 3 inches in 3 1/2 months. Though not a record dry for three months, it definitely rates as a drought. And the two weeks beginning on Sunday the 13th, definitely rates as a wet spell — with a measure of 10.98 inches. Muenster had almost four times as much rain in two weeks as in the previous fifteen weeks.

Total rain measure of the year at the end of September is 29.56 inches.

Tigers Win Third Nudge Rams 6-0

A thrilling 95 yard kickoff return by Freshman David Krahl at the beginning of the second half was the extent of the scoring and the measure of Sacred Heart's victory at Saddler-Southmayd last Friday night.

The 6-0 win was especially gratifying to the Tigers after a rugged first half in which they had stopped the rambunctious Rams at the 2, 10, 6 and 20 yard lines. In the second half the playing was mostly in S & S territory but the Tigers' best advance got only to the 15.

The Rams started the game with authority. They used only four plays plus 25 free yards on penalties, to advance 65 yards to the Tiger 10, but a fumble there ended the drive abruptly.

Unable to gain, Sacred Heart had to kick on its first series and the Rams started again from midfield. Three big plays gained 40 to the 10 yard line before Sacred Heart defense braced successfully for the second time. Next four tries gained 8. The Tigers took possession on the 2.

Following that Sacred Heart made its only showing of the first half. Fred Fuhrmann and Kevin Swirczynski shared the carrying job in eleven plays that ground out 33 yards to the 35. Then the drive suddenly fizzled as the next three efforts lost yardage back to the 20.

After the kick the Rams started again at midfield and went to the 13 in three plays. Two more reached the 6 and the next two lost ground to the 25.

Three plays later the Tigers fumbled on the 38 and the Rams completed a pass to the 20 as the half ended.

Krahl's kick return followed four successful goal line stands seemed to knock the spirit out of the Rams, or fire up the Tigers. S & S started with a first down, had to kick on the next series and Swirczynski stormed through to block it on the Rams 45.

The Tigers went to the 23 in 6 plays, then two penalties pushed them back 30 yards and they fumbled in midfield.

A penalty and four plays advanced S & S to the Tiger 40 after which a penalty and a big set back by Alan Hess lost 25 yards.

With 35 to go the Tigers made their best threat but it was not quite good enough. Four tries went to the 20. The next four reached the 15.

Hornets Will Host Lindsay Knights Friday Night at 8

According to the dope sheets MHS Hornets will be the favorites when they meet Lindsay's Knights Friday night at 8 on the Hornet field.

But Coach Glenn Richardson is far from cocky about the outcome. Recalling his boys' loss to Whitesboro last week, he said they had lots of room for improvement and they are likely to need it.

Lindsay's 30-16 loss to a good Collinsville team last week indicates ability. Besides, there's the fact that the Knights are traditionally better than usual when they play Muenster. So, it appears that the Hornets have a job cut out for them, and they'll need to work at it.

Physically the MHS fellows are in good condition. They will be at full strength, that is, the revised strength since Jerry Eckart broke a leg in practice last week and went out for the season.

Cubs Blast Era in 52-0 Scoring Spree

Sacred Heart's Tiger Cubs went on a scoring spree Tuesday night crushing the Era juniors under a 52-0 count.

They started early as Gary Fetsch recovered a fumble on the fourth play on the Era 10. Three plays later Tim Felderhoff went over from the 2 and repeated for extra points.

Next time Era kicked on its first series and the Cubs were 30 yards away. A pass from Gary Endres to Karl Koesler for 23 was the best gain in five plays. Tim Felderhoff scored and Mark Hess added 2 points.

First play after the next kickoff Gary Fetsch intercepted and on the next play Mark Hess went up the middle 18 yards for a TD. Tim Felderhoff added 2.

Early in the second quarter the visitors lost possession on the Tiger 37. Two passes from Endres to Koesler were the big gainers in the nine play scoring drive. One was good for 22. The touchdown toss went for 16.

For the rest of the period Era gained 53 yards to the Cub 18 before losing possession on Doyle Klement's fumble recovery. As the half ended Cubs were in possession. Count at intermission was 30-0.

Starting the third quarter the Cubs for the first time lost possession on a fourth down play. Shortly after that Era did likewise, and Sacred Heart was 53 yards away. Seven plays were enough. Terry Hess made the last 13 and also went over for extra points.

Both of the last touchdowns were made by Tim Felderhoff, on runs of 8 and 5. Leon Bayer added 2 for the final count of 52-0.

Tiger Homecoming Plans Progressing

Invitations are going out to all graduates. Honored grads this year are those of classes 1940, 1950 and 1960.

This year's homecoming football game will be the Tigers vs Greenhill Hornets. Kick-off time is 7 p.m.

Whitesboro Trims MHS 14-0 in Rain

The odds were really stacked against the Hornets in their 14-0 loss to Whitesboro's Bearcats here Friday night. The first and biggest factor was the Whitesboro team itself with smoothly operating attack that hacked away relentlessly for steady gains. In addition there was the sloshy field and constant rainfall which put a damper on the Hornet's effort to use speed and passing as a means of offsetting Whitesboro's power and weight advantage.

The game's trend was apparent in the first drive. Following kickoff the visitors ground out five first downs in 13 plays for 65 yards to the 15. Hornet defense allowed 7 on the next three tries and the Bearcats threw their only pass of the night.

Earl Koelzer's interception stopped the visitors on the 6 but the Hornets could not move and had to kick on their first series.

The visitors started from their 38, made a first down and kicked on the next series, after which Muenster fumbled and the Bearcats had another chance with 30 to go.

Seven plays were enough. Knight powered over from the 2 early in the second period. Neighbors added bonus points and the visitors led 8-0.

Third play after kickoff Tim Hennigan stepped off 21 to the Bearcat 39 but the next four efforts were a yard short. Muenster lost possession on the 30.

Whitesboro came back with a drive that was halted on the 10 and, following Muenster's kick on first series, returned from midfield to the 10 before being stopped by the Hornets just before the period ended.

During the second half Quarterback Jim Endres tried to pass in spite of the downpour but it did not help. Five of the attempts were completed for short gains while three were picked off by the enemy. Meanwhile defense against the running game tightened on both sides as each team got less than half of its first half yardage.

However the Bearcats did not slow down until they had their second score on the board. Following Muenster's failure to move the Bearcats started from midfield and scored in eleven plays. Crockett went over from the 4 and a run for extra points was stopped short.

For the rest of the game Muenster made three first downs and Whitesboro one. Meanwhile the Hornets lost possession three times on interceptions and once on a fumble. Also they had to give up the ball twice on kicks and once on a fourth down gaffe.

reduced postal service without complaining." Among the reductions cited by Purcell were deliberate delays of first class letters, closing of post offices, and reduction of service on weekends, and elimination of individual postmarks in several smaller towns in Texas.

"As complaints have mounted regarding postal service in Texas," Purcell said, "it has become increasingly clear that postal officials have deliberately allowed or actually directed postal slowdowns. Under the guise of saving money, postal officials have deliberately overridden postal regulations by directing that only handwritten letters were to be processed on weekends, with typewritten and business letters delayed until the following Monday. If true, this is clearly an outrage to the public and a violation of postal regulations. Since repeated complaints to the Post Office Department have done nothing to improve service, Congress must now take a hand."

According to Purcell, the House Committee investigating team will commence its investigation in North Texas, spending three days in the Wichita Falls area. The group will then move to El Paso and return to Dallas, Ft. Worth and the surrounding areas on October 5, 6, and 7. The team, which includes experts in mail handling and other complex postal procedures, will investigate individual post offices, and conduct sessions with postal officials and workers, interested citizens and business and civic associations. Purcell invited representatives of the latter group to contact the investigating team through his district offices in Wichita Falls and Dallas.

"The Lunatics Are Running The Asylum"

So said Al Capp at the Tenth Anniversary convention of Young Americans for Freedom at Sharon, Connecticut, describing circumstances at a few college campuses in our country today.

"The new lunacy now dominates the old ceremonies," Mr. Capp told the 500 YAF delegates, representing 50,000 students from all part of the country. "It has made carnivals of commencements, so obscene that only the student hysterics and hyenas, the brawlers and the bedwetters, the muggers and the arsonists, the criminals and the creeps, can safely attend them."

"Some come to those ceremonies solely to stomp out of them, shrieking slogans from old editorials in the Daily

Worker or from the sermons of William Sloan Coffin. Some, whose talent for obscenity has earned them the honor of speaking for their class, come to curse their parents, guests and faculty hosts. But the mindless and mannerless minority all come, in complete confidence that no matter how beastly their acts, how foul their mouths, they will be welcome and protected.

"Two students this year, more typical of the majority, didn't dare come to their graduation. They knew their colleges would not dare protect them from the hyenas, or even from being hurt by them."

"These two had committed such social crimes as attending classes instead of riots, and of getting married before they moved into an apartment together."

"But, most unforgivable of all, these two came from families considered by many in Princeton's Social Science Department, to be more ill-bred than the Jukes of the Kallikahs, they came from families which had each bred a president."

"1970 is the year Julie and David Eisenhower were, in effect, barred from their graduations. It is the year Jerry Rubin and Abbie Hoffman took charge. It is the year of the lunatic."

Al Capp placed the blame squarely upon the "intellectuals" running the colleges - described by Capp as "the world's highest paid baby sitters." The university administrators who have allowed the new Hitlerites of the Socialist Scholars Conference and others to teach hatred and spread venom are directly responsible for the tragic deaths and destruction we have seen this past year. There are some who hope that we may be able to shame the academic community into initiating reform. But we doubt it. Those who have no sense of decency have a similar lack of capacity for shame.

Why?

Almost 1,600 U. S. Servicemen are now listed as "missing-in-action" or "prisoner-of-war" in Southeast Asia.

Over 1,100 are listed just as "missing-in-action." Slightly over 400 U. S. Servicemen are known to be "prisoner-of-war."

More than 200 Americans have now been held by the Communists in North Vietnam for more than five years.

Less than 300 imprisoned Americans have ever been allowed to send mail to, or receive mail from, their families. The Communists have refused to abide by a single one of the articles of the Geneva Convention Agreement regarding treatment of prisoners-of-war — an agreement which they signed in 1957.

The Geneva Convention Agreement calls for nothing more than what any civilized people would consider minimum with regard to prisoner treatment. And although they gave their solemn pledge to abide by those standards, the Communist North Vietnamese have blatantly violated every one of the stipulations to which they pledged themselves.

So reads a fact sheet now being distributed by the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

In the meantime, on Capitol Hill, a handful of U. S. Senators are constantly criticizing our Vietnam policy; are constantly demanding that we abandon the South Vietnamese to the tender mercies of the Communists; are constantly attacking and criticizing the government and the leaders of the anti-communists in Vietnam; but who have yet to utter one word of complaint, against the Communist Viet Cong or one word of sympathy for the wives and children of American POW's, or issue one demand that the Reds abide by their Geneva Convention agreements.

Well, What Do You Know? fun, games and knowledge

by MARTHA GLAUBER SHAPP, Editor, The New Book of Knowledge

What do you know about Bastille Day?

In 18th-century France, dissatisfaction and social unrest combined with other factors to produce a revolution. In 1789, after the failure of the harvest, hunger became widespread and violence broke out. On July 14, Paris mobs attacked the Bastille, an ancient prison that symbolized the power of the monarchy. The fall of the Bastille marked the beginning of the French Revolution, and today the French people still celebrate July 14 as their independence day.

Why do you hear the sound of the sea when you hold a large shell close to your ear?

You have probably held a large snail or conch shell to your ear and heard the sound of the sea. This phenomenon occurs when a weak sound somewhere in the air about you has the same frequency as the shell. The shell "catches" the vibrations and vibrates in sympathy. The air in the shell then vibrates and amplifies the original sound. What you hear is an amplified sound wave in the air around you.

Do you know what sulfur is?

Sulfur is an element and a yellow nonmetal. It was known to the ancients, and its older name is brimstone. It is used in the production of sulfuric acid, the most important chemical in industry next to air, water, and salt. It is also used in the hardening (vulcanization) of rubber. And it is a component of gunpowder. Protein molecules contain small numbers of sulfur atoms, so sulfur is essential to life.

On Electing A President

On the eve of the last Presidential election in 1968, a fear grew that a close contest could lead to a deadlock in the Electoral College and a protracted delay in the selection of the next President. The fear proved groundless. As it had for 200 years, the mechanism of the Electoral College worked smoothly, and Mr. Nixon assumed office on schedule. However, this did not prevent a movement getting underway in Congress to abandon the Electoral College in favor of direct election of the President.

The so-called Bayh amendment to establish the direct election process passed in the House of Representatives while many people were still disturbed over what they considered to be a "near fiasco." Since then, as Time magazine put it, "... there have been some serious second thoughts..." about the merits of the Bayh amendment. Theoretically, direct election of a President would be a simple process; but, as Time points out, "... opponents are arguing that it might well be even more chaotic and dissatisfying than the Electoral College system." If there should be a deadlock among candidates in the direct election of a President, the loser would be compelled to ask for a nationwide recount of votes which could hold up the election outcome for weeks.

Time concludes, after a lengthy discussion of the direct election proposal, "Changing the method of electing a President will not merely change how votes are counted... there is a possibility, not yet fully appreciated, that the entire political makeup of the country might be affected in ways yet unanticipated and unexplored." Debate over methods of electing a President has shown one thing; representative government and the freedom we enjoy under it is a highly perishable commodity.

Fight Brewing on Amendment to Set Land Tax Limits

A fight is brewing over the proposed constitutional amendment to set the maximum limits on tax assessments of farm, ranch and timber land.

An amendment (No. 3) on the November 3 ballot would authorize the Legislature to provide a uniform method of assessment for lands, based on their capability to support livestock raising or farm and forest crop production.

A 15-member special committee headed by State Sen. Wayne Connally of Floresville has completed the last of 11 hearings over the state on this measure. Its tentative report summarizing testimony favoring the amendment will be presented before November 3. Committee's recommendations to the Legislature will be delayed until next year.

"Agriculturists are saying they can no longer operate if taxes continue to increase as they have in recent years, Connally told newsmen. "When land on one side of a barbed wire fence is assessed at $1,000 an acre, and the same land on the other side of the fence at $150 an acre, somebody is going to cry."

An earlier amendment (1966)

which had the same general purpose is "unworkable," say proponents of Amendment No. 3. Present provisions apply only to individual land owners, exclude timberlands and owners who earn less than half their income from their farm property.

Texas State Teachers Association is opposing the new amendment on grounds that it "could destroy the tax base of many school districts" and open the door to favors for other groups.

Connally maintains the proposal would not result in major revenue loss statewide and that the Legislature would have to appropriate supplemental funds to districts suffering income decline.

Saint Jo Man Is Fr. Bede's TV Guest

Monday night's guest with Father Bede Mithel on Channel 2, Cable TV, for Muenster viewers was Clifford Kuykendall of Saint Jo, a veteran of World War II. He was the only survivor of about 30 on a torpedoed submarine, the Tullibee. Kuykendall was shot at and hit several times by the Japanese while he was in the water waiting for rescue — and he survived. He told about his experiences on the interview with Father Bede.

Next Monday night, Oct. 5, the program will consist of explanations and instructions on confirmation by Father Bede preparatory to the bishop's visit here to confirm on Oct. 18.

Adult converts, candidates for confirmation, will be the studio audience.

Monsters Wallop Callisburg 22-6

Glenn Richardson's Muenster Juniors made it three in a row Tuesday night as they tripped the Callisburg kids 22-6 on the local field.

The Little Monsters dominated the game all the way. They moved the ball regularly and twice put their gains together for a pay off across the goal line. The other drives did not go all the way but a big play following a blocked punt added more points.

First drive started early and went for 70 yards. Randy Wolf's pass to Neil Huchton for 15 yards put Muenster on the board and Steve Klement's run upped the count to 8.

Callisburg's turn came next. It was a break-away good for 45 yards and 6 points. A try for bonus points failed leaving Muenster in the lead 8-6.

Still in the first half the Monsters put on a sustained drive for 50 yards. It ended in a 15 yard romp by Klement and Wolf passed to Huchton for bonus points.

The last TD came late in the game shortly after a fumble recovery on the 20. Klement stepped off 15 yards for the counter. A try for extra points was short.

Another scoring opportunity came and went as Mike Davidson blocked a punt but the ball was fumbled away inside the 10 on the next play.

Next action for the Monsters will be at Era next Tuesday night.

Tips from The Hatchery

I don't pretend to be smart enough to forecast our coming Winter weather, but I do know that several continuous days of freezing weather can play havoc with your lawn. Play it safe. Put it to sleep with Waco Fall & Winter Lawn Fertilizer. It's later than you think. Better do it before quality season starts.

If you have peach, plum or apricot trees it's time to put those crystals for bore protection around them now.

With plenty of under-the-house moisture there's gonna be a big crop of termites. Yep, they work during cold weather. So does...

Cub Scouts Have Train Ride, Picnic

Muenster Cub Scouts of Den I had a fun day Monday with a train trip and a picnic lunch. It was a school holiday while Sacred Heart teachers attended a meeting in Dallas.

Accompanied by Mrs. Alvin Hartman, den mother, and Mrs. Herbie Miller, assistant, the six youngsters drove to Ardmore in the morning and boarded the Santa Fe for a ride to Gainesville. Mrs. Miller accompanied the boys and Mrs. Hartman met them on their arrival. The lads made a tour of the train including the dome car and the diner.

Back at Gainesville they went to Leonard Park for the picnic at noon.

Cubs in the group were Paul Bartush, Phil Wolf, Gary Henschel, Mark Felderhoff, Bert Miller and Kenneth Hartman.

Pity The 1910 Motorist

Rural Society Didn't Horse Around

All motorists at one time or another are irked by regulations imposed on automobiles. But consider the potential plight of the driver 60 years ago, when an organization called the Farmer's Anti-Auto Protective Society sought passage of even more restrictive traffic laws.

Found in the automotive library of Sears, Roebuck and Co., the proposed regulations make current vehicle laws mild by comparison. The suggested rules were as follows:

1. Automobiles must be seasonably painted — that is, so they will merge with the pastoral ensemble and not be startling.

2. On discovering an approaching team, the automobilist must stop off-side and cover his machine with a tarpaulin, painted with the scenery.

3. In case a horse will not pass an automobile, notwithstanding the scenic tarpaulin, the automobilist will take the machine apart as rapidly as possible and conceal the parts in the grass.

4. In case an automobile makes a team run away, the penalty will be $50 for the first mile, $100 for the second, $200 for the third mile, etc., that the team runs, in addition to the usual damages.

5. On approaching a corner where he cannot command a view of the road ahead, the automobilist must stop not less than 100 yards from the turn, toot his horn, ring a bell, fire a revolver, hallo and send up three bombs at intervals of five minutes.

6. Automobiles running on the country roads at night must send up a red rocket every mile and wait 10 minutes for the road to clear. They may then proceed carefully, blowing their horns and shooting rockets.

7. The speed limit on country roads this year will be secret and the penalty for violation will be $10 for every mile an offender is going in excess of it.

Insurance on Muenster State Bank deposits is raised to $10,000 by FDIC. The Nick Millers return from 6,000 mile trip. Andy Stelzer and Rose Mary Dieter marry at Lindsay. Foundation work gets under way on the new home of the R. N. Fettes. Sailor Tommy Otto is in Sicily after being in France. A grade A dairy barn has just been finished at the Joe Fleitman Jr. farm. Farmers, Ranchers Assist in State Crop Estimates

Information supplied by some 25,000 Texas farmers and ranchers will become the basis for the official crop production estimates for each county and the State.

County Agent Neil Tibbets said a representative number of farmers and ranchers in Cooke County will be among the 25,000 in Texas receiving the questionnaire from State Statistician Cary Palmer of the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service in Austin. The questionnaire will be mailed during the last half of October and early November. Accurate estimates are of great importance to producers in planning their production and marketing, farm program participation and also for providing an unbiased picture of Texas agriculture, emphasized Neil Tibbets.

The program of estimates for each county is provided by the Texas Legislature. Since Texas covers such a wide area and with great diversification of production, State totals alone do not provide adequate information on our most basic industry, Agriculture, the county agent explained. This is a joint project, he said, between the Texas Department of Agriculture and the Statistical Reporting Service of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Because of the importance of the program, the county agent urges every producer in the county who receives a questionnaire from the Crop and Livestock Reporting Service to fill it out completely for his farm or ranch and return it to the Austin Office of the Reporting Service.

Mrs. Wilder Sees Idaho Kin First Time in 63 Years

Back in Muenster after an 11-day trip, Mrs. Katie Wilder reports a great time in Idaho Falls and Blackfoot, Idaho, with cousins she hadn't seen in 63 years, and with a sister in Prescott, Arizona, she hadn't seen in five years.

In Idaho Falls she was the guest of her cousin and husband Mr. and Mrs. Joe Phillip and they took her to Blackfoot where she was the guest of her cousin and husband, the Henry Henscheids and another cousin and his wife, the Joe Siegers. All of them except Mr. Phillip are early-day Muenster residents.

Although the cousins kept in touch through letters there was much family history to catch up on. The Henscheids and the Phillipps told about their golden wedding anniversary. They were married in a joint ceremony and had a joint celebration on the 50th anniversary. Mrs. Wilder came back with pictures.

Sight-seeing included fields of Irish potatoes ready to harvest and machinery to do the work. Also fields of sugar beets which are harvested after the potatoes. It was Mrs. Wilder's first visit in that part of the country.

Temperature was down to 26 degrees in Blackfoot and overhead sprinkling for irrigation froze on the beet leaves giving the fields a silvered look.

On return Mrs. Wilder stopped at Prescott, Ariz., with her sister Mrs. Mary Bollinger and Mrs. Bollinger's son Joe Kremer. They reviewed the last five years of family history and showed her how Prescott had grown since 1965.

Sight-seeing including Coconino Canyon and a mountain that took them around 184 curves going up and down.

Mrs. Wilder traveled by bus and saw scenic views through Colorado and Utah with a stop-over at Salt Lake City on the trip to Idaho.

Clean Air Development

A secretary at Detroit Diesel Engine Division of General Motors holds a cutaway fuel injector which has been improved to substantially reduce exhaust emissions. In combining this latest refinement with other design changes made during the mid-1960's, engines built today emit 90% less hydrocarbon (an element in smog) and 40% less carbon monoxide than engines of 10 years ago.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

by Eual Davis

How would you like to get extra grazing this fall? Extra grazing from improved permanent pastures can be obtained through the use of fertilizer. Now is the time to apply nitrogen for that extra growth. Through the continued use of the recommended fertilizer each year you can expect about a ton of forage for every 30 pounds of nitrogen applied. Where else can you get that much grass for $3.00. This may be the way for you to get the extra grazing you did not get this summer because of the lack of summer rains.

Terraces should be maintained annually to keep soil and crop loss to a minimum. There are usually several different needs for terraces to be maintained. Waterholes in terraces are one of the most common causes of crop losses. Terrace outlets should be opened or plowed out each year to be sure they drain properly. Water does not have to stand on any crop very long before crop loss begins. Soil loss can be prevented by keeping terraces maintained at the proper height. This is one way of being sure that the terraces will not top when that big rain comes. Should the terraces be low in any place and that big rain comes they will break and erosion will occur between each terrace. Anyone needing assistance with terrace maintenance is asked to stop by the local Soil Conservation Service office.

At Albuquerque a tourist was introduced to an Indian who was said to have a perfect memory. Skeptical, the tourist asked: "What did you have for breakfast on Nov. 10, 1921?" "Eggs," the Indian answered. "Oh, everyone eats eggs for breakfast," scoffed the tourist. "This man's a fraud." A few years later he revisited Albuquerque, and there was the same Indian on the station platform. "How," the traveler greeted him jovially. "Scrambled," came the Indian's reply.

Cheryl Janicki and Lt. W. W. Wakefield Say Vows at Mass

The main chapel of Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, was the scene of the candlelight Nuptial Mass of Miss Cheryl Ann Janicki and Lieutenant Walter William Wakefield III on Sept. 26 at 7:30 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of CWO and Mrs. John P. Janicki, Colonel and Mrs. W. W. Wakefield, also of Fort Sam Houston, are parents of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Jake Pagel of Muenster are the bride's maternal grandparents. As she proceeded to the altar on the arm of her father, the bride presented a long-stemmed red rose to her mother. The bridal gown was of ivory silk organza with fitted bodice and long full sleeves of venice embroidery organza. The high waistline was accented with ivory ribbon that formed streamers down the embroidered organza chapel length train. A starched lace headpiece held her veil and she carried a nosegay of white rosebuds and stephanotis.

Miss Donna Janicki attended her sister as maid of honor. Misses Janelle, Starla and Renee Janicki, also sisters of the bride, were bridesmaid.
