MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 NOVEMBER 20, 1970

NUMBER 52

With increasing frequency we are reminded by radio, TV and the press that pollution is rapidly moving into lead position as the worst threat to our country's survival. While we worry about social and economic problems like the breakdown of law and order and the influence of totalitarian government, or the chaos of runaway inflation, we apparently don't bother about the ecological catastrophe that is gradually building up in front of our eyes.

One would think that the whole country would be shocked by the story of Lake Erie, which has been so badly contaminated that fish can no longer live in it. Expected reaction is a prompt demand all over the country to prevent such tragedy everywhere else — to determine the cause and go to work at eliminating it.

Well, it seems that scientists know the cause: certain ingredients of modern cleansing detergents, but we haven't heard of any reports to eliminate the ingredients. Much has been said too about the ill effects of insecticides and herbicides. Besides killing off insects and birds which serve humanity by helping preserve a balance in nature, these poisons are carried by run-off rain water from the countryside to rivers, lakes and ponds where they can cause more damage to fish.

At the rate this tragedy is proceeding, it would not be surprising to learn in a few years that the major lakes and streams of this country had lost their fish. It's certainly not a pretty thought when we wonder how long our food supply will be adequate in the population explosion.

Only recently we decided that possibilities in raising fish and farming the sea would go far in sustaining human life. But now we learn that our folly is destroying many vital resources just before we will need them. One can hardly imagine how many people of future years will be hungry because of present ecological blunders, nor how many more will be affected by the expected contamination of offshore ocean water.

Ecology people tell us that the Mississippi River is little more than a huge sewer carrying with it the domestic and industrial wastes of most big Midwestern cities. That can't go on long without damage to oysters, shrimp and fish, in the Gulf. That is the water which, according to a West Texas water development plan, was to be diverted from the Mississippi and pumped through a system of locks and channels to West Texas. We wonder, will the condition of the water cancel out that plan?

There is so very much that could be said on the subject of ecology, things that make sense to us and which we'd observe if we had the cooperation of government or big industry. For instance, people would gladly quit using the offending detergents and go back to regular soap if the words were spread and the soaps were available. They would like cars with engines that create more power and less exhaust. They would like to salvage paper, cans, bottles, etc. for the two fold purpose of saving money and reducing the volume of rubbish.

This ecology problem also has another side, which is almost as serious as the direct damages being done. And that is the waste of vital natural resources. This is especially true with regard to our petroleum supply, which, the experts agree, isn't really inexhaustible.

Reserves are enormous, but it also happens that staggering amounts are withdrawn from those reserves every day. Eventually there will be a shortage. That's inevitable. Well, why not put more serious thought on engines that are more efficient — giving us more power for our money as well as a better quality of exhaust? Why not re-process more paper? American Paper Institute estimates that 200 million trees were saved last year by re-cycling eleven million tons of paper.

Ecology is a comparatively new word which came into common usage only during the past few years and was known to very few a generation ago. But it's becoming more important every day. It concerns a number of bad habits by which we are making the country ugly and putrid, it concerns a waste of natural resources which will be needed but not available at a future date, it concerns the tragic

Kathmans Observe 50th Wedding Anniversary at Mass and Reception

Golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. William G. (Bill) Kathman who were married in Muenster 50 years ago Monday, Nov. 16, was celebrated by the couple Saturday.

Father Placidus Eckart, pastor, officiated at the anniversary Mass at 4 p.m. in Sacred Heart Church and directed the renewal of vows the couple pledged a half century ago.

Mrs. Kathman, the former Miss Annie Lutkenhaus, is a native of Muenster, born 77 years ago the daughter of pioneer residents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Lutkenhaus.

Mr. Kathman is a transplanted Texan — considers himself a native because he was only six months old when his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clements Kathman brought him to Muenster from Bow Valley, Neb., where he was born 77 years ago.

The goldenweds have two daughters, Mrs. W. E. Insel of Gainesville and Mrs. Stan Wylie of Grand Prairie. They have nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. All attended the celebration.

A grandson, Jimmy Wylie, furnished music at the anniversary Mass, playing the organ. Grandchildren Eddie Insel and Jeanette, William and George Wylie presented the sacred vessels at the offertory.

Attending the couple for the anniversary were her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Val Acker of Nazareth, Attendants 50 years ago were his brother John Kathman and Miss Frances Bernauer, both since deceased.

After Mass a reception and dinner were held in the Parish Hall to honor the goldenweds.

Granddaughters Linda Insel and Jeanette Wylie registered 115 guests.

Since 1960 Mr. Kathman is retired from the Farmers Marketing Association. He enjoys doing odd jobs around his home. Mrs. Kathman's hobby is flowers which she cultivates inside and outside her home. And both are avid domino players.

Mr. Kathman is the only one of his family of six boys still living. Mrs. Kathman has one brother, Joe Lutkenhaus of Muenster, living. She came from a family of nine children.

For the anniversary celebration she wore a gold-tone brocade dress with matching jacket and a corsage of cymbidium orchids. She also wore a gold cross and chain that she wore at her First Communion and at her wedding in 1920.

Among out of town guests from a distance were Bill and Miss Emma Kathman of St. Stephen, Neb., Mrs. Agnes Brockman, Mrs. Helen Burt, Mrs. Dan Acker, Louis Acker and Mr. and Mrs. Luke Acker, all of Nazareth.

5 Tigers Named On All Conference Selections of TISC

Five of the Sacred Heart Tigers were listed in all-conference selections of the Texas Independent Schools Conference made by the coaches in their post season meeting Monday night. Coach Tom Joy was there representing Sacred Heart.

He said that Bill Bartush was named a first team defensive tackle and Kevin Swirczynski was named a first team linebacker. Fred Fuhrmann was named a second team offensive back. Tommy Felderhoff received honorable mention for linebacker and Alan Hess received honorable mention for offensive guard.

The dream team is dominated by the top teams, especially Dallas Christian which had a perfect record 6-0 and Fort Worth Christian 2-4, Sacred Heart 1-5, Trinity Valley 0-6.

Lake Dallas Is Champion of 12-A

The neck and neck race for District 12-A championship ended in a tie last Friday night as Sanger and Lake Dallas were winners over Muenster and Pilot Point Both came out with a record of 4-1-1, so the big decision was referred back to their tie game at the opening of the district race.

Lake Dallas got the nod on penetrations and received the title as well as the privilege of meeting Aledo of 11-A in bi-district at Arlington Friday night.

Other final standings of the district are Nocona 3-2, Muenster and Pilot Point 2-3, and Frisco 1-4.

Selections for the all-district team are delayed until Lake Dallas completes its post season play.

Hearing Tuesday To Tell Status of Highway Project

People who wish to be brought up to date on the status of the Highway 82 project from Muenster to Saint Jo are invited to attend a public hearing conducted by the Texas Highway Department on Tuesday, November 24, 2 p.m. in the auditorium of Muenster High School.

Proposed improvements on this section of road provide for expanding the existing two-lane highway to a four-lane divided highway on a usual right of way width of 240 feet including the present 100 foot right of way.

Maps and drawings showing the proposed location and geometric design, along with any other available information relative to the project, will be on display at the hearing. The same documents are on file at the Resident Engineer's office, North IH 35, Gainesville, at the Cooke and Montague county courthouses and at the Muenster and Saint Jo city halls.

Schedules for right of way acquisition and construction will be discussed at the hearing.

The Men In Service

On Overseas Leave

Army Specialist Four Pat Hennigan is at home on an overseas leave before going to Korea on Nov. 30. He's visiting his parents, the Pat Hennigans and family. Another in-service son, Pfc. Mike Hennigan of Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, was at home for a weekend visit and Miss Sheila Hennigan came from Fort Worth to round out the family circle.

Settled In Vietnam

S.Sgt. Tony Marr reports being settled in Vietnam with the Army. His wife, the former Alma Herr, and their small daughter Michelle are living in Muenster while he is overseas.

Army Postpones Wedding

The wedding of Miss Emily Conrady and Pvt. Andy Klement will not take place according to plans this Saturday when the prospective bridegroom was to have been on leave. The Army changed wedding plans. Andy finished advanced training at Fort Polk, La., this week and was due a leave before further assignment. Instead he was transferred to Fort Knox, Ky., for APC (Army Personnel Carrier) training for three weeks. He was one of eight from his outfit selected for the course and was not granted as much as a weekend leave. Meanwhile wedding plans are pending, awaiting leave time. Andy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Klement. The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Conrady of Windthorst. The wedding will be there.

City Wants to Keep Highway Overpass

A request to retain the Highway 82 overpass here will be presented by the city at a hearing to be conducted next Tuesday by the Texas Highway Department on the proposed expansion of the two-lane road to a four lane divided highway.

Members of the city council at their regular session Monday night agreed that their special concern is to keep an overpass over Maple Street near the park so that children on bikes or afoot will not be endangered going to the swimming pool. Since the MK&T tracks are being removed the highway department will have a choice of adding two lanes to the overpass or remove it and build a four lane surface road.

Also regarding the highway, councilmen agreed to ask the highway department for a no-parking zone at the south side of the highway in front of the Center. Big trucks, often parked there, are a traffic hazard.

On its street paving project the council heard a report that all street paving is finished except the park driveway, and it should be finished this week.

A change of commercial water rate was adopted and will become effective when a new ordinance is approved. It continues the present rate up to 40,000 gallons a month, after which the old rate is 35 cents for each additional thousand and the new rate is 35 cents per thousand for the next 360,000 gallons and 30 cents per thousand thereafter.

In effect the rate is the same for 400,000 gallons, after which the new rate is 5 cents per thousand cheaper. Another effect is a higher charge to the milk plant which has had a special contract rate since quitting its own well several years ago. That rate, originally slightly over cost, has been below cost lately. Hereafter the plant will be charged the regular commercial rate.

Concerning its proposed new water well the council was advised of available sites and agreed to get together at an early date to see all of the locations and make their decision.

An industrial waste ordinance was recommended, based on ordinances in the cities of Dallas and Sulphur Springs. It was considered and altered jointly by representatives of the city and the milk plant and is due to be written soon for formal presentation before the council.

Good news for employees was approval of a pay increase for all city workers.

Drug Education in Texas Schools Proposed by TEA

About 200 adults of the community were at the MHS auditorium Tuesday night to hear of plans by the Texas Education Agency to teach drug education in Texas schools.

James C. Snyder, consultant in drug education in Region 11 of the TEA, said that pilot programs will be introduced in a number of schools next year for the purpose of determining the nature of the course to be started the following year. Probably it will become a part of the health class, he said.

Snyder said the instruction is planned because the growing problem demands more than an occasional special program on the subject. They need to study it to become adequately informed.

The speaker also conducted a special program on drugs featuring a film on a lady who told in plain words the shame, misery and heartache of being an addict for more than thirty years.

The film and the speaker both stressed that the average addict starts by just trying a marijuana cigarette on a dare or as an experiment. Sometimes they are hooked on the first one, sometimes it takes more. One never knows and the only safe policy is to avoid the first one.

Snyder also talked about effects of the different kinds of drugs and variations in effect due to body chemistry and psychology. He listed a number of symptoms which can be expected of people on dope and urged getting professional psychological help for those who are willing to accept it. Those who refuse help ought to be reported to the police.

Muenster to Have Dinner and Dance Thanksgiving Day

Muenster will have its traditional Thanksgiving dinner again this year on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 26, with the traditional feast of roast turkey, country sausage and all the trimmings.

Serving will start at 11:30 a.m. in the Parish Hall.

The dance at night will be sponsored by Sacred Heart High seniors who have engaged Otis to play. It will be in the VFW Hall.

Hospital Auxiliary Will Welcome Donations in Lieu of Christmas Cards

For the second consecutive year the Muenster Hospital Auxiliary presents an opportunity for members and friends to divert Christmas Card money to a charitable cause and also to save the hours usually spent on sending the greetings.

The organization welcomes donations to its current project in amounts equivalent to a person's normal expenditure for greeting cards and stamps, the donations to be in lieu of Christmas cards.

Mrs. Gerald Walterscheid, chairman, announced the organization's decision this week, saying that a list of donors will be kept and published but the amounts will not be revealed. She added that the arrangement serves a double purpose of helping a worth cause and saving scarce pre-holiday time.

Donations this season will be applied to the Auxiliary's current project, which is to pay for the Endoscopic Set it recently bought for the hospital. The set, costing about $2,000, consists of a number of pieces for diagnosis and treatment of throat and chest.

Donations will be accepted by Mrs. Gerald Walterscheid.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Stoffels and small son Johnny have returned to their home in Hopewell, Virginia, after a week's vacation here with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stoffels and family.

Father Bede Mitchel was dismissed from Muenster Hospital Sunday and went to Windthorst for a week or two of convalescence there as the guest of Father Cletus Post.

LUDWIG KIENINGER, owner-operator of Bavarian Woodcarving Studio, is pictured here with a partial view of the large group sculpture he recently completed for the chapel of Holy Trinity Seminary at the University of Dallas in Irving. The group, depicts the crowning of the Blessed Mother as Queen of Heaven by God the Father and God the Son with the Holy Spirit, symbolized as a dove, hovering above. The four figures are mounted on a cross measuring 20 x 14 feet. The cross is stained dark brown, the figures stained light brown and antiqued. National Farm-City Week Stresses Interdependence of All Americans

COLLEGE STATION — The period from Nov. 20-26 is National Farm-City Week and every citizen has a stake in its observance. Nowhere else in the world, points out Chas. K. Baker, Extension economist, do so many depend on so few for their food and fiber needs. The 5 percent of our population engaged in agricultural production gives the other 95 percent benefits unsurpassed anywhere, says Baker. In 1969 we spent only 16.5 percent of our incomes for food as compared with 24 percent some 20 years ago and this despite the fact the producer is getting about 9 cents less out of every food dollar than he received 20 years ago. Too, notes Baker, production expenses have continued to rise; thus, keeping the cost-price squeeze a major problem for agricultural producers.

Our producers, says Baker, are continually searching for better and more efficient ways to keep the food and fiber supply lines filled. Today the U. S. farmer produces enough food and fiber for 45 people, about 39 at home and 6 abroad. A decade ago he supplied the agricultural needs of only 24 people.

Other problems of common interest to farm and city residents are also cited by President Nixon in his Farm-City Week proclamation. He said, "With two-thirds of our population crowded onto two percent of the land, many of our people are denied economic opportunities, adequate living space, health, cultural fulfillment, and those spiritual values without which no nation can achieve greatness. The time for action is at hand — for careful plans to be formulated, and for decisions to be made at local governmental levels, to foster the improved distribution of population and accompanying economic activity needed during the decade of the 1970's and beyond. The Government can provide assistance, but the effort will succeed only as Americans take part in developing a policy of sound national growth.

"In this effort, city dwellers and rural people alike have reason to work together toward common goals. The well-being of urban America and the welfare of rural America will increasingly intertwine as our total population expands. Better living in the one depends on better living in the other.

"I request that leaders of agricultural organizations, business groups, labor unions, youth and women's clubs, civic and fraternal associations, schools and others join in noting not only the interdependent roles of the producers and consumers of America's agricultural abundance but also their opportunities for cooperation in building for the future."

Baker notes that Farm-City Week observances in Texas will follow no set pattern but the objective of all will be the same — to help rural and urban residents understand each other's problems and further develop the appreciation each should have for the other. In other words, he says we just couldn't get along without each other.

Woodson of Gober Elected President At FB Convention

Ft. Worth — The Texas Farm Bureau elected two new officers, one new director, and adopted state policies and national recommendations at its 37th annual meeting here Nov. 8-11.

J. T. (Red) Woodson of Gober in Fannin County, a grain, and livestock farmer, was named president of the 121,158-member organization, succeeding Sidney Dean of Victoria. Carrol G. Chaloupka, Dalhart, was elected secretary-treasurer, replacing H. L. King of Brownfield who remains on the board; and M. F. (Mike) Frost, McAllen, was re-elected vice president.

Dan Pustejovsky, Hillsboro grain and cotton farmer, was elected state director from District 4, a position formerly held by Woodson.

Adopted resolutions on matters of national interest will be sent to the annual meeting of the American Farm Bureau Federation which will be held Dec. 6-10 in Houston. Approved resolutions on state issues become state policies to guide the TFB in 1971.

The 772 voting delegates from 152 county Farm Bureaus adopted a national recommendation which said, "Now is the time to phase out government programs relating to wheat and feed grains since they are not serving the best interest of farmers."

A new cotton recommendation calls for a return to a market-based economy, but stipulates a seven-point transitional program "to lessen the impact of a sudden, or short-term progressive withdrawal of compensatory payments."

In other actions, the delegates said every effort should be made to inform the general public that usage of agricultural chemicals is subject to stringent federal and state regulations and that farmers are using these chemicals in accordance with federal and state laws.

"We oppose a complete ban on the use of any agricultural chemical and recommend that continued use be determined on a product-by-product and use-by-use basis," delegates said.

In the field of education, the farmers and ranchers said that students taking part in a school boycott or strike should be expelled, and participating teachers should be fired.

As for taxes, the TFB delegate body recommended that a study be made on "a broad-based tax or some other method of financing education in our state school system so that equitable costs may be borne by a great portion of our citizens."

They recommended that only real property owners be eligible to vote in bond and ad valorem tax elections.

Miss Harletta Capps of Vernon was selected TFB Queen for 1971. regulations and that farmers Cooke County Farm Bureau's delegates at the convention were Messrs. and Mmes. M. B. Bayer, J. T. Cole, E. V. Fox and Mmes. Al Walter and George Berry.

71 Farmer's Tax Guide

The 1971 Farmers Tax Guide will be available at your County Agent's office, as well as all the Internal Revenue Service offices, within a few days. If you are one of that vanishing breed of Texans that still till the soil for a living, you had better pick up a copy and start plowing through this year's tax problems. You may be interested in a copy even though you simply live on a farm, work for wages or a salary, and farm for food — and maybe a little profit. Actually the Farmers Tax Guide is as valuable for the city dweller who owns a farm and does his farming through the windshield of his car as it is for the on-the-farm dweller. The price is right — it's free.

Our Shrinking Oceans

It used to be that oceans seemed so vast that nothing man could do would alter the seas of the world in any way. Much to nearly everyone's surprise, this is not the case.

The National Oceanography Association, a citizens' organization for a strong national ocean program, recently quoted Dr. Max Blumer, a scientist with the Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution as saying that although it is believed that, with proper measures, Lake Erie can be cleaned up in a matter of decades, "the ocean is so big, and its circulation so broad, that it is very likely that any pollution, of whatever degree, is irreversible." Once the oceans are polluted, said Dr. Blumer, "four or five hundred years would be required to balance its effects."

The NOA quoted President Nixon as warning: "Contamination of the ocean has begun. Chemical wastes from factories, heat from power plants, domestic wastes and sewage from cities and towns, insecticides and fertilizers from land runoff, atmospheric fallout of gasoline vapors, low-level radioactive waves from reactors, laboratories, and hospitals are all flowing into the ocean. The sheer bulk of the material disposed of and the present of new types of non-degradable waste products are now beginning to affect the ocean at an increasing rate. . . . As a consequence, ocean pollution — once of little concern because the ocean was considered so large as to unlimited in its capacity to absorb wastes — is recognized as a growing problem."

What is needed, says the National Oceanography Association, is a stronger national ocean program; public support for oceanography, and appropriate public, industrial and government action — in that order.

Proceeds from the bazaar and bake sale added $320 to the court's treasury. Mrs. L. A. Bernauer won the door prize.

Mrs. Tony Gremminger gave the library report including a visit from a state representative who was well pleased with Muenster Public Library facilities and lauded the women who put in so many volunteer hours.

Before the meeting ended members all signed a get-well card for their chaplain Father Bede Mitchel.

After adjournment refreshments of cookies and coffee were served to 25 present and Mrs. Gremminger won the door prize.

Third Order Hears Ft. Worth Speaker

Members of the Third Order of St. Francis, Sacred Heart fraternity, joined by members from St. Mary's Gainesville, and St. Peter's Lindsay fraternities gathered here Sunday afternoon to hear a speaker from Fort Worth on new rules and regulations of the order.

Speaker was Mrs. Betty Sulak who had attended a meeting in Chicago in September and brought back proceedings of that meeting to fraternities of this area. She was accompanied to Muenster by Mrs. Bernadette Becan, also of Fort Worth.

They were introduced to the assembly by Mrs. Leo Henschel, local prefect, in SHH library following the order's monthly prayer service in Sacred Heart Church.

A group of 40 was present including six from Gainesville and four from Lindsay.

Miss Lu Vogel Has Illinois Vacation

Back from a three-week visit in Illinois, Miss Lu Vogel reports seeing cousins by the dozens and visiting places of interest in Chicago, Pesotum, Champaign and Urbana.

In downtown Chicago she was a guest of Mrs. Ralph Bosch for luncheon in the Athletic Club and a tour of Marshall Fields department store, St. Peter's Church and Lake Michigan. Also a visit with a cousin, Mrs. Paula Wesselmann who is an early-day Muenster resident.

In Pesotum she visited the home of her late parents, the Emil Vogels and while the houseguest of Mrs. Frances Bosch met all the Hausmann families who lived in Muenster 1902-1909, also Tony Kleiss, the Leo Tempels, the Hartman families and Cecilia Hettinger whose last visit here was in 1924. On All Soul's Day she attended cemetery services seeing the graves of her great-grandparents who were born in 1824 and 1829.

In Champaign and Urbana, the twin cities, highlights included Lincoln Square and the Trade Mart.

Five of the club members told about a tour they made Nov. 2 through the north part of the county to see fall foliage along Red River. They ended at Mrs. Rudy Hellman's cabin at Moss Lake for refreshments.

The delayed October meeting was held on the 28th in the TP&L community room with Mrs. Henry Pick as program leader reporting on a training session she attended in Gainesville when an entomologist from Texas A&M Extension Service, H. A. Turney, was speaker discussing insecticides — uses, benefits and dangers.

School to Provide Free Lunches for Needy Students

A new program whereby Muenster Public School cooperates with federal and state agencies to provide free and reduced price lunches to needy children will become effective on November 30.

Superintendent L. B. Bruns announced the program this week after attending a meeting at Birdville for Region 11 of the Texas Education Agency. The program is made possible under provisions of the recently approved Public Law No. 91-248.

Bruns also announced that an increase of lunch prices becomes effective at the Public School on November 30. The new charge is 35 cents per meal for students of grades 1 through 8 and 40 cents for teachers and high school students. However the prices do not apply to all children. Those who can qualify because of financial-need will receive 20 cent, 10 cent, or free meals.

Basis of determining eligibility is family income relative to the family size. A table indicating who can qualify and to what extent has been prepared by Mr. Bruns and is being sent along with application forms to the parents of all public school students. Additional copies are available at the school.

Parents are urged to reply promptly so that the list of eligibles can be completed next week. The completed application signed by an adult member of the family should be sent to Superintendent L. B. Bruns, Muenster Public School, Box 430, Muenster. Applications will be reviewed promptly and the family will be notified within three days. Information on the application will be confidential.

Tigers - - -

The Tigers made two first downs to the 19 but drew a 15 yard holding penalty on the next play.

Otherwise the period was played mostly in mid field with Sacred Heart making three first downs and the Christians four.

The home team started the second half as it did the first. After stopping the Tigers on the first series and getting benefit of the strong wind on Sacred Heart's kick, the Christians were 43 yards away.

Two big plays were enough. First a run for 20 yards, then a one yard gain and a blast through the line for the remaining 27. A kick raised the count to 14-0.

On their next possession the Cowtown boys threatened again. Six plays gained 37 yards to the 8. Four plays later the Tigers recovered a fumble on the 1.

However they did not keep it long. Three plays later they fumbled and the Christians were back in business on the 10. Again the Tigers held and took possession four plays later on the 5.

An exchange of kicks followed that, then Sacred Heart put on its only scoring drive, for 54 yards.

Fred Fuhrmann almost got loose, and went for 34 before he was stopped on the 20. Three more tries got to the 8. A fouled up play there lost ground back to the 24, however a pass interference ruling gave the Tigers a set-up on the 2. Fuhrmann went in from there and went over again for extra points.

Just before the end Sacred Heart hopes got a temporary lift when the Tigers were on the Christian 31. However the four tries netted only three yards as the Cowtown team took possession for the last time.

Muenster Juniors Nudged by Sanger

The elementary kids of Sanger were too much for the Little Monsters but they had a big job in winning 8-6 on the MHS field last Thursday night.

They gained frequently but were not able to put their gains together until late in the contest. Muenster had the opposite experience, going to the closing minutes of the first half before making a first down, then putting together their three big plays of the half for a touchdown.

The visitors got to the Muenster 15 as the first quarter ended but could not keep going. Again, near the half, they failed to make the distance on a fourth down play and Muenster was on its 18.

Then a pass from Wolf to Britain gained 31, a pass to Bright gained 9, and on the next play was another pass to Britain for 42 and the TD.

Early in the fourth Sanger kids put their drive together. It went for 77 yards and used five plays, the big one being a 35 yard scoot to the end zone for the tying score. Then came the difference. Sanger made the extra points on a crash into the line. Muenster's try on a pass had failed to connect.

The game was the season's last for the youngsters and gives them a record of 5-2-1. They beat Callisburg, Valley View, Era, Whitesboro and Frisco; lost to Nocona and Sanger and tied Lake Dallas.

down but then came an interception. After holding for four plays the Hornets got another first down but had to kick on the next series.

Back on their 18 the Indians gained 7 before Frizzell broke through the middle and found the way open for a 75 yard gallop to the goal.

Still determined, the Hornets came back with a pair of nice passes. Endres connected with John Schneider for 11 to midfield, then with Gerry Cash for 36 to the 14. But an interception there by Tidwell put a sudden sad end to the rally.

Minutes later, just before the third period ended, Muenster was in scoring position for the third time after an attempted Sanger punt was spoiled by a bad pass from center.

From the 15 they lost 10 as Endres was smeared on an attempted pass, then three more passes failed to connect.

Shortly after that the Hornets also denied the Indians a TD. After Tidwell's second interception Sanger was 21 yards away. Four crashes at the line got to the 10, two more gained 3 and two passes were incomplete.

Still trying to get on the board Muenster made a first down but had to wait for an exchange of kicks before starting again. Then, from their 20, they made three first downs to midfield, their best sustained effort of the night, and fell short by 2 yards on the fourth series:

Classical Club for Study of Latin Is New at SHH School

A classical club, open to members of the junior and senior classes who have had two years of Spanish will in the immediate future add another attraction to scholarly students of Sacred Heart High School. Sister M. Theresina, club sponsor, who has taught Latin practically during her entire teaching career expressed regret that the many intelligent students who graduate from Sacred Heart High had not been able to take a two-year course in Latin. She therefore conceived the idea of a Classical Club the object of which is to acquaint members with the greatest possible knowledge of Latin in the short time available. There will be no assignments nor credits — only knowledge for its own sake — which is of course the ideal condition, Sister pointed out. And since members of the club will have a good knowledge of English and Spanish, Latin will present no great difficulty. Sister Theresina said she does not believe in teaching Latin for its own sake as much as for the immense value it offers through English derivatives. If, for instance, she it offers through English derivation from Latin were removed from Declaration of Independence there would be nothing left but a skeleton of prepositions, conjunctions, etc. She went on to emphasize that in the fields of science, mathematics, medicine and in English, Latin is an asset that can never be over-emphasized. Several of the parents of students presently or recently attending Sacred Heart High have at times expressed their appreciation of the Latin course they had during their high school years and expressed regret that their sons and daughters did not have this chance, Sister Theresina said. She added that time and again men in the armed forces have returned to their Latin teachers and told them that due to their knowledge of Latin they had obtained a higher rank because they excelled in tests due to their knowledge of English derivatives. If things work out as planned the Latin class soon will be in progress, she concluded.

Wilde on Chevy District Council

Ray J. Wilde of Wilde Chevrolet Co. has just returned from Dallas where he served as spokesman for district dealers at the Dallas Zone Chevrolet Dealer Council.

Wilde was elected to the council by Chevy dealers of this district under a nationwide program pioneered in the industry in 1937. Purpose of the council is for the company and its dealers to better communicate and plan for mutual progress.

The Chevrolet National Dealer Council is organized at district, zone, regional and national levels. Dealers in nearly 500 districts elect from their group a dealer to represent them at the zone level, and those zone representatives select members of the regional councils. Dealer recommendations originating at the district level proceed through zone, regional and national levels to Chevrolet executives in Detroit.

Crowning ceremonies were held before the homecoming football game when the Lindsay Knights made it a near perfect homecoming by defeating Callisburg Wildcats 20-14 in an important District 9-B game. It was Friday the 13th and the weather was cold, wet and miserable, but the homecoming crowd was jubilant.

Participating in the royal ceremonies were the four queen candidates with identity of the winner unknown until the crowning ceremony.

As they came on the field Carol Felderhoff, sophomore, led the royal march escorted by her brother Steve Felderhoff. She was followed by Brenda Beyer, junior, escorted by her cousin Glenn Bayer; Patty Metzler, senior, escorted by co-captain Tommy Eberhart and Janie Zimmerer, escorted by co-captain Anthony Felderhoff.
