VOLUME XXXIV

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 AUGUST 21, 1970

NUMBER 39

A civil suit that could possibly cause big headaches among the permissive universities of this country, and also bring campus violence to a screeching halt, has been filed by a group of students in George Washington University of Washington, D. C.

Those young people are demanding compensation on a charge of breach of contract for the university's failure to render services due them during a shutdown of classes in May. The school's administration had submitted to the demands of its radical student demonstrators.

The nation's sympathy is with the young folks who claim they have been cheated and who insist on being refunded for the several days while the school failed to meet its obligation. Success in their venture could establish a precedent that would make all the college presidents more eager to keep their class schedules intact.

The damage asked in this case isn't just peanuts. The plaintiffs say there are over 14,000 students and the actual value of time lost in the class moratorium, based on the school's charges, is estimated at $75 per student. Accordingly the total amount of their suit is $1,060,000, a sizeable lump that is calculated to strain even a rich institution's budget.

All of this may sound like just a publicity stunt, a way of dramatizing an injustice for the sake of making schools more conscious of their duty. But the students and the legal brains behind it say they are dead serious and they think they have a solid case. They say the school violated its contract with students and it is obligated both morally and legally to pay accordingly.

This thing could be the beginning of trouble for every university that knuckled under to radical student demands. It's a kind of trouble they deserve, and also a well deserved satisfaction to the students who got a raw deal.

More important, the suit, if it succeeds, will become a potent guideline for the future. It could become a stern warning to the permissive administrators, including some who are suspected of partiality to the revolutionaries. If the court says they will have to pay for lost class time you can bet that they'll get busy at the first mumble of a rumble.

Before leaving this topic, this column has a question for you, the reader. Have you heard of this case? Probably not, because it has received little if any attention in print or on TV. This column heard of it on the Fulton Lewis radio program, and only there. And it has wondered, of course, why the people who give so much coverage to campus revolution seem to ignore completely a story that points to a possible way of stopping the revolution. Most of us would regard this story as much bigger than those which play up the student rebellion. Well, here's hoping that the test case will be a winner — and that its news value will then be recognized by the media.

Another story which seems to be wasted on the big media (Continued on page 8)

Ray Rumley Gets AF Commendation

Ray Rumley, now stationed at George AFB, California, for three weeks of special training, has been a staff sergeant in the Air Force since August 1. He is a son of Mrs. Melba Kinsey.

Rumley recently received the Air Force Commendation Medal for meritorious service in Thailand from Feb. 13, 1969 to Feb. 9, 1970. The citation accompanying the award stated that his "outstanding professional skill, knowledge and leadership aided immeasurably in identifying problem areas in the field of aircraft radio maintenance and in developing and implementing procedures capable of solving these problems. Through his superior maintenance techniques and repair of vital airborne communications systems, the combat mission safety of the F-105 and EB-66 aircraft were vastly improved. The distinctive accomplishments of Sergeant Rumley reflect credit upon himself and the Air Force."

Council Appoints Mike Sloan Mayor

Muenster's new mayor is August 30 as closing date for Michael Sloan, manager of Cooke County Electric Cooperative Association.

He was appointed at the city council's regular meeting Monday night to succeed Earl Fisher, who resigned at the council's previous meeting two weeks ago.

Sloan will be sworn in at the next meeting to serve until the city's next regular election.

The council also considered a low rent housing program for Muenster, as proposed by John F. Gildersleeve of Pierce, Pace and Associates, architects and planners of Midland. The program is federally financed, is intended for couples with annual income of $3000 or less — plus additional allowance for each child — and is administered by a local authority.

The council told Gildersleeve that he is free to make a local survey with a view to developing a program. If he is able to obtain an option on a site or sites the council will appoint a housing authority to cooperate.

In other action the council approved the tax roll submitted by the tax equalization board and set Sunday

23 Boys Report For Tigers' First Practice Session

Football prospects at Sacred Heart High are looking much better this year. Coach Tom Joy was delighted to welcome 23 youngsters to his first practice session Monday morning, as compared with only 15 at the same time last year. The Tiger boss said it's going to be a pleasure to have two complete lineups for practice, and it will also be satisfying to have more reserve power for replacements at the games.

Joy pointed out, however, that he will be short on both size and experience on the substitution list. Only twelve of his boys were on last year's team. Experience of the other eleven is limited to their participation in junior high competition.

Nine lettermen are on the starting lineup. They are Seniors Tommy Felderhoff, Tim Bindel, Alan Hess, Bill Bartush, Kevin Swirczynski and Fred Fuhrmann; Sophomores Mark Schmitt, Melvin Luke and Gary Endres.

The other squad members are Junior Ross Felderhoff; Sophomores Larry Bayer and Myron Hess; Freshmen David Krahl, Kevin Pels, John Bartush, Kenny Hess, John Hesse, Mike Luttmir, Danny Voth, Jeff Fette, Karl Hess, Phil Endres and Dickie Moster.

Managers are Dwayne Rohmer, Ernie Martin and Milton Knaut.

Sunday, September 6 Is Homecoming Day

Dear Friend of Sacred Heart,

In a recent survey in our Parish the vote was about seven to one in favor of a Parish Homecoming.

This Homecoming will be on the Sunday before Labor Day, September 6, from 4 to 10 p.m.

This will not be a picnic, no chances, jack pot, etc. You will not be pestered for donations for this and for that. However, if you attend Mass here that Sunday, don't let the collection basket get by you.

This Homecoming will be a social event which we hope you will enjoy. You will be able to "chew the rag" with old acquaintances and meet new faces.

Supper will be served from 5 to 8 p.m. Various Parish Societies will sponsor entertainment such as bingo, beer, sandwiches, soft drinks, ice cream candy, hay wagon rides for the kids, hootenanny for the youth, and various games for both the young and the old. If you want to, you may bring some cards and dominoes with you.

It will be good to have you with us on the 6th.

Sacred Heart Social Activities Commission and the Pastor.

Dedication Nears For Math-Physics Building at CCJC

The newest structural addition to the Cooke County Junior College campus is the math-physics facility which will be formally dedicated at the John H. Parker Planetarium building.

An outstanding feature of this new addition is the modern planetarium built by Spitz Laboratories. According to school officials, the planetarium will be made available for use by area schools.

An open house is planned to coincide with the formal dedication ceremonies. An exact date for this event will be announced later.

Rationing Levels Off Water Consumption

Rationing has solved Muenster's water problem. Water Superintendent Joe Moster said this week that the schedule allowing only half the sprinklers to operate each day has reduced the high consumption figures but has not greatly affected the average daily use.

He said the city has consumed an average of 450,000 gallons a day the past ten days, and it is able to produce 475,000 gallons. There were four days when demand ran higher than the wells' output and the storage volume dropped accordingly. But the wells gained again during the next one or two days and refilled the tanks.

Actually, Moster said, the level of the storage tanks drops every day during the period of high consumption. About half of the daily volume is used between 4 and 10 p.m. During that time the rate of consumption is between 35 and 40 thousand an hour but wells are putting out about 19.8 thousand an hour. Storage volume sometimes drops as much as 100,000 gallons during the rush period but it usually recovers completely after midnight when production is faster than consumption.

Moster said the rationing is fine while the plant is operating normally. It helps equalize the demand and gives pumps a chance to keep up. But if one of the wells failed the city would be in trouble. That is why the council is anxious to get another well before next summer. It would provide a comfortable margin of supply for normal use and enough for emergency use.

Readings for the ten days since rationing started, in thousands of gallons, are as follows: 9th, 424; 10th, 552; 11th, 495; 12th, 497; 13th, 403; 14th, 543; 15th, 408; 16th, 340; 17th, 394; 18th, 452.

For 3 days starting the 10th water use was heavy and storage declined by about 125,000 gallons. Next day the storage gained about 70,000, then dropped another 60,000 but has leveled off since.

Hot and dry weather accounts for continued high consumption.

Paper Pickup Saturday
Sacred Heart High seniors will conduct a scrap paper drive Saturday, August 22. Persons with paper to give are asked to have it out at the curb by 1:30 p.m. for pickup.

Schools Enroll 761, 25 Under Last Year

For the second consecutive year scholastic enrollment declined at Muenster, and this time it plunged.

According to figures reported Tuesday the combined count of the two schools is 761, a drop of 25 from last year's 786, which in turn was a drop of 11 from the previous year's 797.

This puts the student count back practically to where it was in 1966, which was 762, an all time high up to then. In the next year the enrollment fell to 749 but in 1968 it took a gigantic leap to 797 which still remains the highest.

Assignments of Teachers Listed At Public School

Faculty assignments in Muenster Public School are listed as follows by Superintendent L. B. Brun.

Kindergarten, Mrs. Hollis Berry; first grade, Mrs. Josie Christian, second grade, Mrs. Josephine English; third grade, Mrs. Carol Dyer; fourth grade, Mrs. Barbara Robison; fifth grade, Mrs. Juanita Walterseid; sixth grade, Mrs. Prudence Selby.

Junior high (seventh and eighth grades) Mrs. Loretta Cash; Mrs. Patsy Sloan, also librarian; Mrs. Juanelle Turner, also high school PE; Ronald L. Smith, also high school band; Mrs. Juanita Bright, also elementary band.

High school: English, Mrs. Virginia Sims; math, Gary Chisam; science, Mrs. Marie Mosman; social studies and Spanish, Robert McDaniel; business, Miss Bettye Dodds; homemaking, Mrs. Judy Flowers, ag, Edgar Dyer; driver training, PE and assistant coach, James Laird; coach, Glenn Richardson; principal and coach, C. O. Cash; counselor, Tom Fluker; superintendent, L. B. Brun.

ment fell to 749 but in 1968 it took a gigantic leap to 797 which still remains the highest.

This year's big drop is explained principally by the smallest first grade in at least twelve years. It brings in only 45 pupils whereas the schools last year lost 60 by graduation. Added to that unfavorable balance is the loss of ten more in transfers in and out of the district.

The two schools shared in the loss of 25. At Sacred Heart the enrollment is 369, a drop of 16 since last year, and at the public school it is 392, a drop of 9 in the year.

Another breakdown of the figures shows that total elementary enrollment now is 530, a loss of 8 and the total high school enrollment is 231, a drop of 17.

Still other comparisons indicate that Sacred Heart's elementary count is 279, down 19 from last year and its high school count is 90, up 3 from last year. On the other hand the public school has 251, a gain of 11, in the grades, and 141, a loss of 20, in high school.

Mrs. Robison Gets Master's Degree

Mrs. Barbara Robison, fourth grade teacher at Muenster Public School, was among 444 candidates receiving master degrees at North Texas State University Saturday night.

Mrs. Robison has started her fourth year as a teacher here. She graduated from Cooke County Junior College in 1965 and received a bachelor degree at NTSU in 1967.

The trick is to get education out of politics — and get it into politicians.

Swimming Pool Closes August 30

Swimmers will have two more weekends at the Muenster pool, and the closing date is Sunday, August 30.

The city council in session Monday night voted to keep the pool closed Monday through Thursday since school started and open Friday from 4 to 9 and the regular hours, 2 to 9 on Saturday and Sunday.

That schedule applies to this weekend and the next, and that will end the season.

Gayle Sicking Is District FB Queen

Miss Gayle Sicking, the Cooke County Farm Bureau Queen, won the district Queen's Crown Friday at Redbud Auditorium at Texas Woman's University in Denton.

As the new queen, Gayle received a bouquet of flowers and a billfold. In state contest each girl entered will receive a wrist watch.

Going to Denton with her Friday were her mother, her aunt, Mrs. Tommy Hesse and J. D. Rumley.

Mr. Sicking was unable to attend, he was a delegate at the MPI meeting in Wichita, Kansas.

Miss Sicking will be a junior student at Sacred Heart High School this week. The five queens met each other at a Coke and Sandwich party prior to the contest, where they were briefed on the unrehearsed program.

FmHA Chief is Featured Speaker at Texas Electric Co-op Convention

Farmers Home Administration and electric cooperatives must unite and "provide the strength and wallop" to make the 1970s a decade for rural development, James V. Smith, FmHA administrator, emphasized last week in Houston during the 30th annual meeting of Texas Electric Cooperatives, Inc.

The need to expand the goals of rural electric systems from merely providing power to enhancing the total quality of rural life was the message conveyed to more than 800 rural electric leaders and ladies during the August 12-14 sessions by Smith and the other speakers. They included Lloyd Bentsen and Congressman George Bush of Houston, candidates for US senator from Texas; David A. Hamil, head of the Rural Electrification Administration; and leaders of the state's youth and young adult organizations.

"There is no alternative for the future," Smith said, "but to improve rural housing and the quality of living for all rural people, no alternative but to make our communities more modern and more attractive so that they can expand economically and provide the kind of job opportunities that rural people must have."

The FmHA head cited staistics which show the increased housing aid his agency has given the rural people of Texas. Only 241 housing loans were approved in 1960, compared to 4,600 last year. And the budget for housing in Texas was about $37-million last year, compared to about $75-million to be loaned this year.

Both Bentsen and Bush expressed support for continuance of the REA loan program.

Hamil challenged the rural electric leaders to "think big," as they did when they began rural electrification during the 1930s. "If the electric industry ever gets time to pick a theme song, it should look no farther than Schubert's 'Unfinished Symphony'. In our case, the job isn't finished because the consumer keeps us very much alive and on our toes with new demands and uses for electricity."

Representing Cooke County Electric Co-op at the convention were Directors J. A. Klement, Al Wiesman, Pete Skinner, Robert Lewis and Vincent Zimmerer and their wives, and Manager Michael Sloan.

Public Asked to Help POWs Get Better Treatment

Congressman Graham Purcell has asked his constituents to aid efforts currently being made to obtain more adequate treatment for American P.O. W.s at the hands of Hanoi. Purcell makes the request in his August newsletter.

Purcell has been active in attempting to obtain recognition by all Americans of the inhuman treatment of American P.O.W.s, together with the great anxiety that their wives and families are forced to endure as a result of the failure of the North Vietnamese to treat American Prisoners according to the Geneva Convention, or even release a list of those captured. As a result, Purcell says, "Over a thousand American families, many from Texas, live in a limbo not knowing if a relative is actually still missing in action, dead, or being held prisoner."

Purcell praised letter writing campaigns and other efforts such as those of the "United We Stand" organization of Ross Perot of Dallas, along with the efforts of the "Student Majority for Responsible Expression."

"However," Purcell said, "the individual who is not participating in these efforts may join them by writing either to the President of North Vietnam or to friends or relatives overseas enlisting their help in getting various governments to express concern to the North Vietnamese over this international issue."

Purcell stressed that the letters should seek two goals: first, humanitarian treatment of American prisoners, and second, that a list be released announcing the prisoners North Vietnam is currently holding.

Birth of military aviation in the U. S. occurred in Texas in 1910 when the whole U. S. Air Force arrived at Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio: one man.

Sister Bertha Observes Sixtieth Year in Convent

Sister Mary Bertha who taught second grade in Sacred Heart School for 30 years, ending that assignment in 1942, has celebrated her diamond jubilee — sixty years a member of the Olivetan Benedictine Sisters of Jonesboro, Ark. Ceremonies in the convent chapel honored nine of the order's members, five of them also former teachers in Muenster but for shorter periods. Their combined years of dedicated service to the Church totals 345.

This year ends Sister Bertha's 60th year as a teacher, all full time except for the past two years. For 30 years while she was in Muenster she instructed the small children for their First Communion and for many years she taught catechism in Montague.

Old timers, and some not so old, remember that she who had taken the vow of poverty for herself begged industriously on the streets of Muenster for the church, the school, or for any parish fund that needed a lift, and no one questioned for a moment her right to do so. Those were the days when money was tight and "chances" was a principal source of revenue. And nuns were not as free to come and go as they are today. She stopped people on the street and visited them in their places of business soliciting contributions for whatever the cause at the time might be.

Parishioners loved her, as did people of other religions, and persons who weren't particularly strong on any faith. Since leaving Muenster, Sister Bertha has taught in Arkansas schools continuing joyfully in the vocation she chose as a young girl coming to America from her native Switzerland.

The years have never been bleak for her. They have been filled with love and labor and prayer.

Today there is joy in knowing that her work has been well done and tomorrow there will be new blessings poured out on her and those with whom she comes in contact.

Fox Represents Farm Bureau at State Conference

Mr. E. V. Fox of Gainesville, president of the Cooke County Farm Bureau, will represent this county at a statewide presidents' conference August 27-28 in Brownwood.

The Brownwood meeting is part of a statewide effort involving county Farm Bureau leaders in developing a plan to upgrade the Farm Bureau program in Texas. Presidents of the 203 organized county units in the state are expected to attend the two-day session. The Cooke County FB directors held a special meeting August 10 to evaluate the total Farm Bureau program and to make suggestions that will be incorporated in the ideas to be considered at Brownwood. They recommended better public relations, equalized taxes and getting rural aid from city sales taxes.

At the Presidents' Conference, the county leaders will also receive a report from a team of specialists from Texas A&M University on projected changes in market demand, financing agricultural operations, costs of production, numbers of agricultural producers, etc.

County presidents will caucus by districts to nominate for a statewide committee of county leaders who will recommend to the state FB on servicing the county units.

CCJC Is Building Testing Lab for Soil and Forage

Service to the community is an integral part of the philosophy of Cooke County Junior College. In keeping with this concept a soil and forage testing laboratory is being constructed at the local college.

The laboratory is currently being installed under the direction of Bruce Barker, who will be responsible for chemical analysis of soil and forage, and Tom Davidson, head of the school's vocational agriculture division. The above mentioned instructors have spent the summer studying and reviewing soil and forage procedures and laboratory design at the Samuel Roberts Noble Foundation, Inc., at Ardmore, Oklahoma.

Beginning in October a schedule will be posted indicating times that area farmers and ranchers may bring soil and forage samples for analysis.

Take a Stand on Security Issues

The Enterprise this week joins the American Security Council in conducting its first straw poll on national security issues.

The poll, national in scope, also is being conducted by other newspapers throughout the country. Results are intended to give the President and the Congress a better understanding of the public's wishes on national defense and foreign affairs.

These results will be combined by the American Security Council with other participating newspapers' results, and published.

The American Security Council is a non-profit research and educational organization concerned solely with issues affecting United States security. It is dedicated to the principle that Americans must rise above partisan differences to work together for the nation's security.

The council is supported by dues paid by business interests, labor unions and public contributions. Its headquarters are in Washington but it is organizing state councils.

Cooke County FB Helps in Shaping Statewide Program

Cooke County Farm Bureau is currently involved in a statewide effort to evaluate current organization programs on the state and county level and establish goals and priorities, according to E. V. Fox of Gainesville, president.

In a special board meeting held August 10 in Gainesville the FB directors adopted a resolution committing themselves to the "leadership of other county Farm Bureaus in a joint effort to up-grade and strengthen the organization's program to better serve the needs of farm and ranch families."

The board also voted to send President Fox to a special statewide meeting of county presidents August 27-28 in Brownwood. The purpose of this conference is to chart a recommended course of action for the FB.

All of the 203 organized county Farm Bureaus in Texas are holding special board meetings this summer to evaluate current programs and set goals, President Fox said. A summary report of these meetings will be presented to the county presidents at Brownwood. In addition, the presidents will consider a special report that is to be prepared by agricultural specialists in the land grant system on trends in farm production, marketing, etc.

Recommendations on what the FB should do on both state and county levels are expected to come from the Brownwood meeting.

According to a procedural plan adopted by the TFB directors in June, a statewide committee will be appointed and charged with the responsibility of implementing the state-level recommendations. County Farm Bureaus will be urged to appoint similar county committees to carry out local programs and activities.

100 Unit Dorm Meets Urgent Need At County College

One of the most critical needs of Cooke County Junior College has been met with the construction of a one hundred unit student dormitory.

The structure was made possible through a three percent loan from the Department of Housing and Urban Development. It is to be entirely financed from student rental fees and will place no additional financial burden on local taxpayers.

According to J. Norris Scott, Dean of Student Services, the college has been reluctant in the past to accept applications of students who required campus housing. The new dormitory will make it possible to accept these applications. An increase in the number of out-of-district students is expected as a result.

The new dormitory is co-educational in design. The east wing will be occupied by male students and the west wing by female students. A common lobby equipped with wall-to-wall carpeting, comfortable furniture, and color television separates the two wings. Cokes and snacks are available in the main lobby. Each wing is equipped with laundry facilities, refrigerator, and a study area. All rooms are fully carpeted and individually air-conditioned. The dormitory will be supervised by a resident counselor.

B. Any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of this subsection who is eligible for retirement benefits under the laws of this state providing for judicial retirement may be involuntarily retired, and any person holding an office named in that paragraph who is not eligible for retirement benefits under such laws may be removed from office, for disability seriously interfering with the perform-

"(11) The Supreme Court shall by rule provide for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court. Such rule shall afford to any person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section, against whom a proceeding is instituted to cause his retirement or removal, due process of law for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court in the same manner that any person whose property rights are in jeopardy in an adjudicatory proceeding is entitled to due process of law, regardless of whether or not the interest of the person holding an office named in Paragraph A of Subsection (6) of this Section in remaining in active status is considered to be a right or a privilege. Due process shall include the right to notice, counsel, hearing, confrontation of his accusers, and all such other incidents of due process as are ordinarily available in proceedings whether or not misfeasance is charged, upon proof of which a penalty may be imposed. ### Mrs. Joseph Neu Has 99th Birthday

Mrs. Joseph F. Neu will celebrate her 99th birthday Friday, August 21, at the home of her daughter, the John Koppers at Valley View, where she is presently making her home.

Mrs. Neu has lived with her children since her husband's death in 1937. She married Joe Neu in Iowa in 1893 and they moved to Lindsay in 1898, just seven years after the land was laid out in building lots for the town of Lindsay. They settled on a farm three miles south of Lindsay. The farm is still owned by family members and her son, Joe J. Neu and his wife live there.

Mrs. Neu is still active, walks with a cane or walker when out of doors and attends church on Sunday. She spent some time in a wheelchair in 1966 when she broke her right hip and again in 1968 when she broke the left hip. She had surgery each time and at the age of 90 had surgery for gallstones.

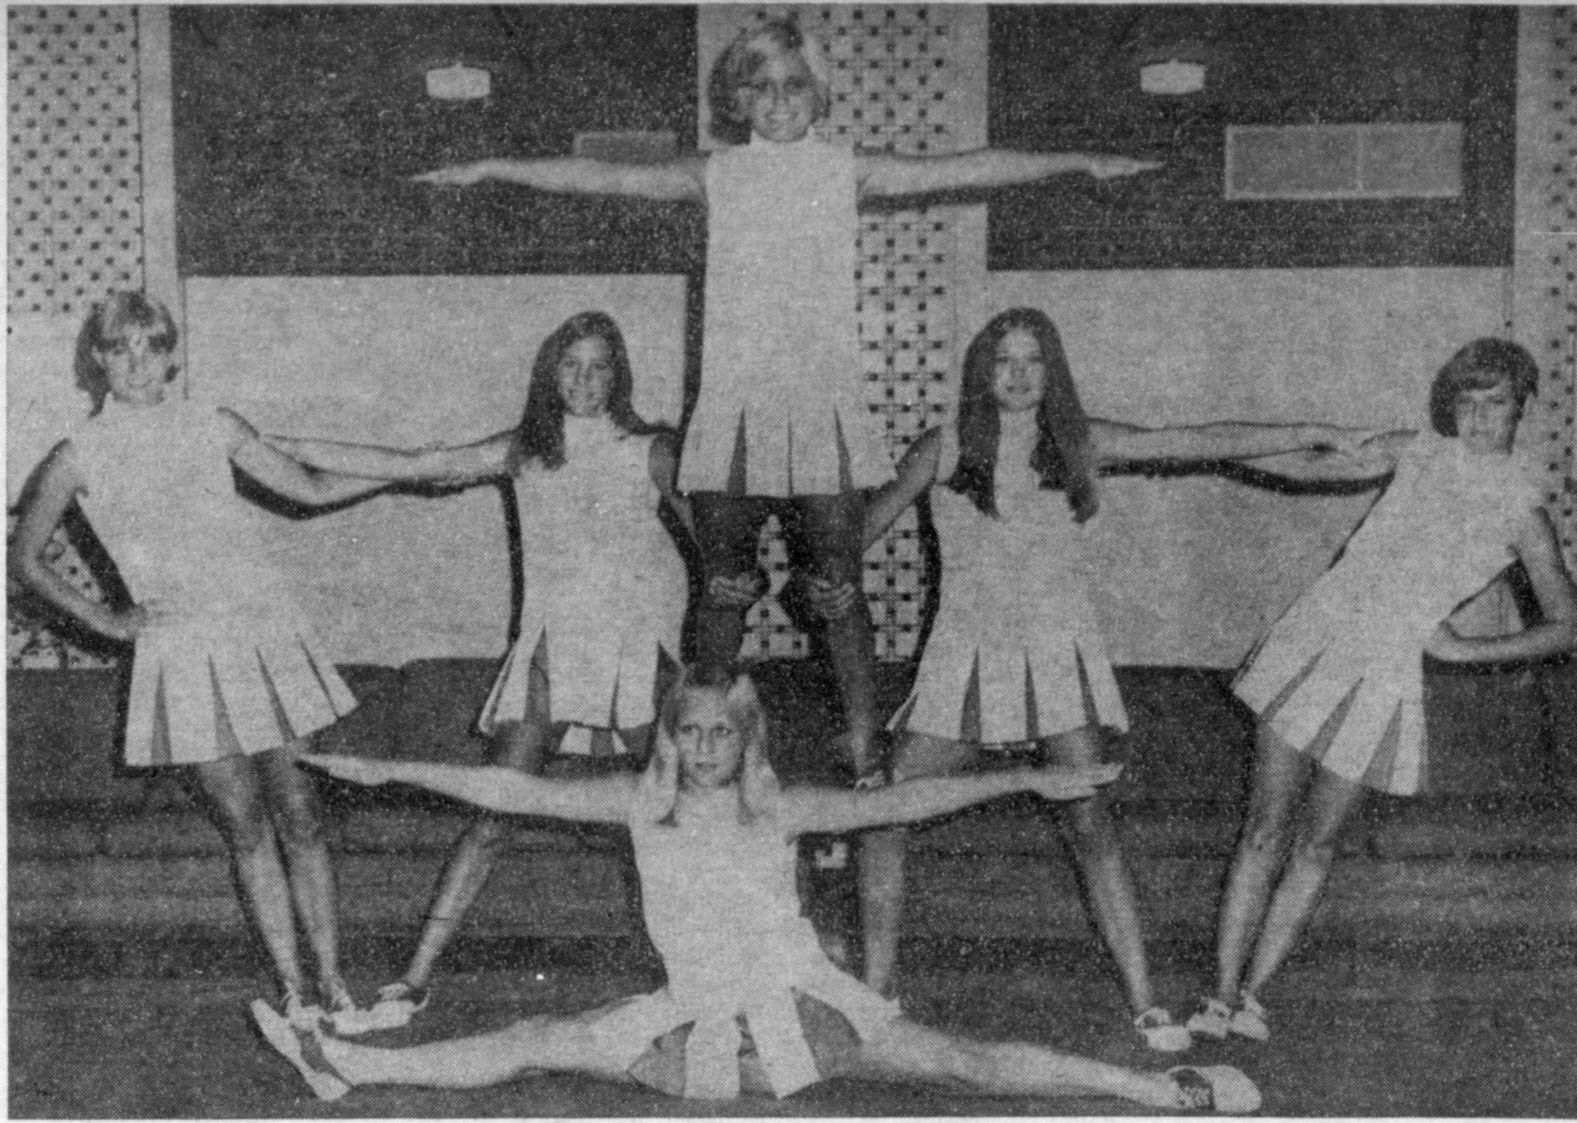

In her 80's she had her first airplane ride, going to Iowa to visit her brothers.

The Neu's had seven children, Joe J. Neu and Mrs. Joe Hermes of Lindsay, Mrs. John Kupper of Valley View, Mrs. Elmer Gore of Garland and Mike Neu of Formosa Beach, Calif. One son, Ted Neu, died several years ago and their youngest son, Alois died at the age of two during a flu epidemic.

She has 38 grandchildren and 68 great-grandchildren. She also has two brothers still living in Iowa and one sister in Nebraska.

Mrs. Neu also took care of Mary Reinart, now Mrs. William Walterscheid of Carlsbad, New Mexico. Mary's mother died when she was 10 days old and Mrs. Neu raised her until adulthood.

Eddie Hellman was the champ and Joe Moser the runner-up in a pool tournament last Friday night in the Rec Room. And sign-ups are already under way for a tournament booked on Saturday, September 5.

Ridlehuber Named County Chairman On Children, Youth

AUSTIN — County Judge W. W. Carroll has appointed Mr. Tom Ridlehuber of Gainesville as chairman of the County Committee on Children and Youth.

Judge Carroll acted in response to a request by Walter Richter, chairman of Governor Preston Smith's statewide Steering Committee on Children and Youth.

The Cooke County Committee is intended to give both youth (up to age 24) and adults an opportunity to contribute their ideas on the problems of children and youth — and their suggestions for solving them.

These ideas on problems and proposed solutions may be expressed by County Committee delegates in writing to the Governor's Steering Committee in Austin, or voiced in person at the Governor's Conference on Children and Youth Nov. 2-4 in Austin, Richter said.

With an expected attendance of some 600 persons equally divided between youths and adults, the Governor's Conference is intended to develop "input" of information and ideas from Texas into two national conferences.

The White House Conference on Children (0-13), is scheduled December 13-18 in Washington. The White House Conference on Youth (age 14-24), is now set for February, 1971, instead of next June as previously announced.

Confetti - - -

people was mentioned last week by Paul Harvey. It's about a new organization of Vietnam veterans who have a bellyful of our country's humiliations and frustrations in the war. They claim that U.S. is wasting precious time and blood trying to sweat out an honorable settlement with an enemy who has no honor. This thing cannot be ended on a humanitarian basis as long as we pull our punches in a strictly defensive campaign and allow the reds to choose where and how they want to fight.

According to these ex soldiers we can still bring the enemy to reasonable negotiations by fighting as we should have fought years ago. They suggest blasting the huge stockpile of supplies coming into Haiphong, along with every worth while military and industrial target in North Vietnam. They would hit where it counts instead of scattering bombs in a futile effort to destroy supplies that are scattered all the way south. They think that way would not only bring on a better settlement, but sooner and at less cost than our present method.

Regarding the merit of their suggestion we need only recall that the present method has been failing from the start, and that military science agrees with them. In all of history wars have been won by defeating the enemy.

The opinion of the ex soldiers makes sense, but unfortunately it is destined to fade out, and the country will eventually agree to a humiliating settlement.

Nevertheless we still wonder about the possibilities if their ideas were backed up by this country's old time spirit of unity and pride and national honor. Even though it's late we feel that it would not be too late if everybody, including doves and media, came out solidly in support of our side.
