VOLUME XXXVII

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 MARCH 23, 1973

NUMBER 18

All of us recall rumors about flying saucers and theories as to whether they are occupied by inhabitants of another planet, but so far none of us earth inhabitants has come up with conclusive evidence that other intelligent beings actually exist.

However, when we consider the scientific data about other stars and planets in the universe we are inclined to assume that there must be other inhabited places, perhaps millions of them. At least we can say that chance leans very much in that direction. It's hard to imagine that the creator made those many many other places but did not wish to have any of them inhabited by the equivalent of us. Indeed it would seem rather conceited of us to think that we are the only intelligent creatures in all that vastness.

Scientists tell us there are 100 billion stars in the Milky Way Galaxy and there are about 10 billion other galaxies each with that many stars. Also, since planetary formation is probably a normal by-product of star formation, there are probably millions of earth-like planets floating around in space.

The thought of this immensity, out to infinity, ought to inspire some appreciation of the infinite power and knowledge involved in the creation. No one can think about it without acclaiming the popular song "How Great Thou Art!" At the same time we have to wonder how the atheists can persist in their denial of God. Do they actually think that the billions of wonders outside our world, or for that matter the billions of wonders in our world, can be explained as mere chance? They are smugly satisfied with their scientific achievements but so very unscientific in failing to observe that the things they discover had to be put there by someone of infinite intelligence and power.

One wonders how much longer the unbelievers can continue learning about the universe and the marvels of our own planet without coming to a realization that they must be wrong. The present stage of progress offers at least a faint hope that the obvious will soon become apparent to all.

This thought leads to an interesting theory. It seems that a motive behind creation was to present the many facts whereby men would gradually attain a proper appreciation of God. Will that time actually come? If so, will we have reached the ideal society in which everyone knows it's God's world and lives accordingly?

Meanwhile we individuals can derive a fair idea of our insignificance. On this speck of the universe we're already one in billions, but in all the universe our importance shrinks to the vanishing point. Sort of gives us thought to be humble about.

At this time when so many of us are working on the 1040 Form it's not surprising that some people are figuring out how much time we taxpayers spend in getting out the annual report — not to mention all the money we have to remit with it. One guy supposes that each taxpayer or his tax service spends about four hours on a return, which adds to the humongous total of 300 million man hours or the equivalent of 150,000 men working 40 hours a week for 50 weeks.

But that's only a part of it. Still to be figured in are the additional millions of man hours spent by employers collecting employee payments by the week or month and remitting to IRS, plus the reports on those transactions and the W-2 forms at the end of the year, and the special services of lawyers and accountants who give tax advice. Finally, let's not forget the thousands of IRS employees who work full time at processing our reports and following up on mistakes or fraud.

As mentioned before, this country needs a simplified income tax — one that just takes a portion of the gross income, a report that any taxpayer can fill out in minutes, and which can also be checked in a hurry by IRS. We like the thought of taxpayers saving on fees and time. We also like to think that the government would need fewer people for processing.

That Rough Spot On Main Street Gets Concrete Dip

The low place on Main Street in front of the city hall, subject to being gouged into big holes in every heavy rain, hopefully is receiving its final repair job now.

Highway Department workmen started Monday on the job which involves replacing asphalt pavement with concrete across the full width of the street. The first step is installing the concrete dip for the east half of the street and allowing it to season for a week to ten days. Meanwhile traffic is routed to the west side of the street. Then traffic will be confined to the east side while the other side of the concrete dip is built.

The spot has been a problem for many years. Big volume drainage combined with heavy traffic, including big loads, has given more punishment than the asphalt street can take.

Awards Presented To Cub Scouts in Special Program

Muenster Cub Scout pack, resident as "Knights of the Tournament" in coats of armor with helmets, shields and swords, all made by themselves, received awards at their Tuesday night meeting carrying out the Knight theme.

The group entered the KC Hall to the call of the trumpet by Ronnie Weinzapfel beside flag bearers mounted on their den horses.

The meeting room was decorated with a wall mural of a castle and a fiery dragon made by Den 3.

Scoutmaster Bob Walterscheid presided for awarding of honors. Cubs Greg Luke, Doug Walterscheid, Tim Schneider, James Bright and Kurt Klement became Knights of the Order of the Wolf, and Mark Miller and Glenn Fisher received golden arrows. Badges were pinned on by their mothers.

Den I won the tournament and Den II won the attendance ribbon and served refreshments to the pack, parents and family members and other guests.

Den Mothers Mrs. Alvin Fuhrman, Mrs. David Bright and Mrs. Ernest Jaska and their assistants helped with program planning.

Barney "Big Indian" Barnett, right, will be featured in a snake show Saturday and Sunday as an attraction of the Jaycees third annual rattlesnake hunt. In a pit with dozens of rattlers he will demonstrate how to catch, handle and milk them, and also tell how to treat snake bites.

Jaycees Sponsor Rattlesnake Hunt, Dance, Snake Fry Saturday, Sunday

Muenster Jaycees are ready for their third annual rattlesnake hunt to be held here Saturday and Sunday with headquarters in the parish hall.

Hunting on both of the days will be 9 to 6 o'clock and check-in time will be at 6 p.m. Sunday. At that time six trophies and three cash prizes will be awarded and possibly also a special award. The special is a $50 cash award offered for a rattler measuring 6-ft. 6-in. or more. In last year's hunt there was no taker for that prize.

The other six prizes are $25 in cash plus a trophy for the longest snake, $25 and a trophy for the most total weight of snakes, $10 and a trophy for the shortest snake, and first, second and third place trophies for snakes with the most rattles.

MARILYN OTTO, eighth grader at Sacred Heart School, will represent Muenster Saturday in the Cooke County Spelling Bee at Cooke County Junior College. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Otto, she won the crown in Sacred Heart's spelling bee February 27.

Plans Begin for Soil Conservation Awards Banquet

Planning for this year's Soil Conservation Awards Banquet will begin Thursday afternoon when a special meeting will be held at Gainesville's First State Bank to select the time and place and key personnel of the program: Chairman is William A. Claunch who has served as program chairman of the event for the past six years.

Banquet sponsors are the banks, newspapers, radio stations and TV stations within the Upper Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation District. All of them are invited to send representatives to the meeting at the First State Bank. Afterward they will be guests of the bank at the traditional charcoal steak supper at Mo-Jo Lodge on Leeper Lake, Okla.

Honor Society Receives Charter

Members of the Muenster chapter of the National Honor Society in their first meeting last week received a charter plaque from-Principal Charles Cash along with a copy of the society's constitution.

Members discussed the constitution and noted that their organization stresses service as well as scholastic excellence. They also chose the last Monday of each month during the school year for their meeting.

Curtis Klement, president, conducted the meeting. Fifteen members and adviser, Mr. Chisam, were there.

Lindsay Will Lose Post Office; Goes RFD on April 1

Lindsay is losing its post office. As of April 1 its patrons will be served through rural route 4 out of Gainesville.

Residents have been notified to erect mail boxes for the new postal service. Word of the change was made last Thursday.

Close of the post office will mean loss of a vital part of the fast-growing Lindsay community.

Almost from the beginning there was a post office and a postmaster. First office was established on June 26, 1892, following colonization in the spring of 1891. Anton Flusche, founder of Lindsay, was first postmaster. He served until the mid 1920s. The office was located in his drug store connected with his home.

Mrs. Mary Albers was next postmaster and the office was moved to a separate small building west of the grocery store. Fred Mosman followed as postmaster until 1937 when Ewald A. Hoelker became postmaster and moved the office to Hoelker Grocery. Hoelker resigned on Oct. 13, 1972 and Robert Baker of Gainesville became postmaster.

Baker who has been an employee of the postal service 26 years in Gainesville will return there.

Old timers recall that the postoffice started with five boxes. There were 20 when Hoelker started as postmaster. Today there are 120 boxes, nine rural patrons and a number of general delivery patrons.

Demise of the post office will be felt by Lindsay residents in several ways, among them the convenience of getting their mail and transacting postal business on the same trip they do their grocery shopping.

Scouts Will Have Campout at River Saturday, Sunday

Boy Scouts of Muenster at their regular meeting Monday night made more plans for their upcoming weekend campout. They will be at their campsite on the Charles Bar-tush ranch adjoining Red River northeast of Valley Creek.

Planned activity, taking up more than half of the boys' time, will consist of inter-patrol contests and an environmental project to check erosion and improve footing on the hillside trail leading to their campsite.

The schedule calls for assembly Saturday morning at 7:30 at the KC hall to load for a ride to the entrance of the Bartush place — leaving about 1 1/2 miles for the boys to hike. A few more volunteers to carry the boys will be appreciated.

The event closes again with a field mass at 12:30 Sunday followed by a picnic dinner, with family members participating in both. However there will be a change in location this time. This will be at the campsite instead of the bluff a few hundred feet above. To reach it visitors will continue north at the DeBlanco place, instead of turning east, follow the road to the river and then eastward to the campsite.

SHHS Will Host Track Meet Sat. At Gainesville

Coach Bob Steele is all set to host 22 track teams of North Texas at the Tiger Relays sponsored by Sacred Heart High on the Leopard track in Gainesville.

The meet will be held in A and B divisions with 15 teams competing in Class B and 7 teams in Class A.

In the B group are Sacred Heart, Sadler-Southmayd, Gunter, Aubrey, Lindsay, Saint Jo, Era, Valley View, Prosper, Celina, Tom Bean, Collinsville, Anna, Celeste and Alvord. Celina, which has held hot records for several years, rates as the favorite, however Sacred Heart looms as a strong contender.

Muenster and Callisburg appear to be top prospects for the class A division. Others booked for that meet are Pottsboro, Howe, Farmersville, Lake Dallas and Cistercian.

Free advice costs you nothing unless you take it.

Local Members Enter Fifteen in 4-H Stock Show

Eighty nine animals were on exhibit last Saturday at the annual 4-H livestock show, which is a preliminary to the countywide junior stock show to be held Thursday and Friday. The event was attended by a large number of spectators, parents and 4-H members.

Muenster members had fifteen of the entries, including the reserve champion swine shown by Cindy Sangster. And her brother, Craig Sangster, received a red ribbon in the swine division.

And Albert Zimmerer, Deryl Zimmerer and Janet Sicking were white ribbon winners.

The show had 53 steers, 21 swine and 15 lambs on exhibit. Many of them will be at the county wide show and auction Thursday and Friday.

UIL Competition Starts Thursday With 1-Act Play

This year's district competition in Interscholastic League will get under way Thursday night when the one-act plays will be presented at Cooke County Junior College — and the schedule will continue into the second week of April.

Betty Dodds is directing the play and the cast includes Kay Wimmer, Patti Dittfurth, Lenora Fleitman, Becky Jaska, Debbie Reynolds and Shirley Swirczynski.

Next in line is a golf tournament. Glenn Richardson is the coach and his entries are Jim Endres, Terry Walterscheid and Kirk Johnson.

Volleyball is booked for next week Thursday in Sanger. Coaches are L. B. Bruns and Charles Cash. Team members are Jeanne, Shirley, Janet and Joyce Swirczynski, Sandy and Patti Dittfurth, Doris Felderhoff, Nancie Fisher, Becky Jaska, Darlene and Margie Wolf, Janet Wimmer, June Stoffels, Julie Sicking, Becky Fields and Debbie Schneider.

Next weekend on Friday field events in junior and senior divisions will be held at Pilot Point and the next day track events will be held at Nocona.

Track and field for seventh and eighth graders will be held at Nocona on Monday, April 3. And the next day is scheduled for tennis.

Literary events will be held April 5 and 6 at CCJC. And finally, girls track will be held on April 11.

Tigers, Hornets Are 6th and 7th In Nocona Relays

Sacred Heart Tigers were sixth and the Muenster High Hornets were seventh in a field of 31 teams at the Nocona relays last Saturday.

Leading them on the scoreboard were Seymour with 98 points, Community 90, Bowie 52, Bishop Lynch 42 and Pilot Point 31.

Sacred Heart made 28 and MHS 26 and they were trailed by Boyd 24, Jacksboro 20, Saint Jo 18, Callisburg 4, Era 3, Nocona 2, Sanger 1. Lindsay and Valley View failed to scratch.

The Tigers did their scoring by placing second, third and fifth in six events whereas the Hornets got points in only three events. Mark Lippe was first in the 120 hurdles and in the high jump and Lyle Klement was third in the mile run.

Point makers and the events for Sacred Heart were as follows:

Mile run, John Bartush, 6th. 880 run, Kevin Pels, 3rd. Pole Vault, Kevin Pels, 3rd. 220 dash, Davey Krahl, 5th. 100 dash, Davey Krahl, 5th. Mile relay, Gary Endres, Kevin Pels, John Bartush and Davey Krahl, 5th.

A man used to dream about the salary he is now starving on. That's inflation.

Carol Yosten Wins First in District Will Go to State

Carol Yosten, senior at SHH, led a field of contestants in winning first place in the district essay contest sponsored by garden clubs of District II. She was Muenster Garden Club's entry, qualifying by winning top honors in the local contest early in March.

As district winner she advanced to state competition in Dallas.

Topic of the essay, memorized and given orally before three judges, was "Water, Wisdom or Waste?" Miss Yosten won fifteen dollars cash for first place. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Yosten.

Muenster Garden Club also had a winner in the poster contest on the same theme. Marlene Pagel, S.H. eighth grade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Pagel won third place on her water color art work.

Accompanying Miss Yosten to Sherman was her mother, and Mrs. John Mosman, Muenster Garden Club delegate and Mrs. Wayne Richards.

Muenster is 4th In Girls Track Sponsored by SH

As expected, Lindsay's team of talented track girls ran off with the high honors at last Friday's meet sponsored by Sacred Heart High on the Saint Jo track. But one of the day's surprises was the fourth place taken by the totally cold team of Muenster High.

Coach Glenn Richardson was highly pleased with their initial record and hopes that a few weeks of practice and experience will result in a still better performance at the district meet.

The team to beat then will be Frisco, which finished second at Saint Jo. No other 14-A teams were in the meet, so they remain unknown in the district contest.

Team scorers at Saint Jo were Lindsay 167 1/2, Frisco 90, Marietta, Okla., 81, Muenster 51-5/6, S&S 51 1/2, Lake Dallas 41, Whitesboro 17 1/2, Sacred Heart 12, Pottsboro 9 1/2, Era 4.

Mary Bartush made all the points for Sacred Heart winning first in the shot put and 5th in the 880 run.

Events in which Muenster High scored are as follows:

Discus, Gina Felderhoff, 4th. High jump, Doris Felderhoff, 1st.

Triple jump, Doris Felderhoff, 6th. 440 relays, Becky Fields, Laura Sicking, Debbie Schneider and Melissa Weinzapfel, 4th.

The same quartet ran 6th in the 880 relay.

440 yd. dash, Barbara Davidson, 5th.

220 yd. dash, Becky Fields, tie for 5th.

60 yd. dash, Laura Sicking, tie for 4th.

80 yd. hurdles, Doris Felderhoff, 4th.

100 yd. dash, Melissa Weinzapfel, 6th.

80 yd. run, Gina Felderhoff, 6th.

Mile relay, Mary Lou Fleitman, Barbara Davidson, Sandy Dittfurth and Doris Felderhoff, 2nd.

Benefit Bazaar Sunday Afternoon

Sacred Heart Parish Hall grounds will be the scene of a benefit bazaar Sunday afternoon sponsored by SHH seniors.

Beginning at 1 p.m., attractions will include a bake sale, rummage sale, white elephant sale, and crocheted items sale. Refreshments also will be sold.

Dan Sicking Has Champ Steer at FFA Project Show

Dan Sicking exhibited the grand champion steer and Dean Sicking the reserve champion at the annual project show of the Muenster FFA Chapter Monday. The top winners were selected from the seven animals classified as blue ribbon winners out of a field of ten.

Those ten beef cattle along with one fat lamb have been taken to the annual Cooke County junior livestock show and auction which is open to all FFA and 4-H members of the county. The animals will be displayed and judged Thursday and will be sold Friday. Customarily that is when area business men bid generously to reward the junior stockmen for their efforts.

Other animals in the Muenster FFA show were three swine, four sheep, three dairy animals, two feeder calves and one beef breeding animal.

Judging by Jack Clark, Era High ag teacher, was based on merit rather than competition, except in choosing the champions from seven blue ribbon winners. Exhibitors of those blue ribbon steers were Dan Sicking, Dean Sicking, Mike Davidson, Randy Barnhill, Lyle Klement, Damian Luke and Ray Luke. Red ribbons went to Bobby Endres and Andy Serna and a yellow ribbon to Jim Endres.

In the hog division Kenny Koelzer had a blue and a red, Kirk Johnson a yellow.

In the fat lamb division Damian Walterscheid and Leo Lutkenhaus had blues. Leo Lutkenhaus also got red ribbons on a yearling ewe and an aged ewe.

Tony Cler won a blue on a dairy bull under six months; David Wimmer got a blue and a red on dairy heifers under six months.

Monte Reiter got a red and Johnny Eckart a yellow on feeder calves. Weldon Sicking won a blue on a beef stocker.

Muenster Hosts 24 Volley Teams In Tournament

Twenty four volley ball teams will be at the Sacred Heart gym next week for the annual tournament sponsored by the Sacred Heart Alumni. Bob Steele, Tiger coach is directing the show.

The tourney will have 12 men's and 12 ladies' teams who will be divided by the preliminaries into champ and consolation brackets. And following the finals, trophies will be awarded to winners and runner-up in both brackets of each division. It means that all teams reaching the finals are assured of trophies.

All preliminaries and eliminations plus two semifinals will be completed by Thursday night. The other six semifinals will be played Friday and the finals Saturday.

Games will start nightly at 6 o'clock. Admission charge for each night's program will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children and players.

Refreshments of barbecue sandwiches, cold drinks, coffee, popcorn and candy will be available throughout.

Teams of the men's division: H&W, The Center, DWP and Bud's Studs of Muenster; Montague Texaco, Montague Independents, The Family of Era, North Texas Cabinets of Aubrey, Nocona Boot, Stoneway and 6 Jokers of Saint Jo and Lindsay Boosters.

Ladies' entries are Hopalongs, Tom's Blazers, Zeroes, Doodle Boppers, Ding-a-Lings and Gigis of Muenster; Interstate Housing and Weber Aircraft of Gainesville, White Auto and Corley's Super Save of Saint Jo, Nocona Boot and Keck's Texaco of Montague.

Senior Play Friday

Muenster High seniors under direction of their sponsors, Betty Dodds, Robert McDaniel and Glenn Richardson, will present their class play, "Onions in the Stew," Friday night at 8 in the MHS auditorium.

Cease Fire Communist Style

Although Mr. Kissinger and the Administration insist that "both sides" will honor the cease fire agreements to end the war in Vietnam, there are many discouraging signs that the Communists are still behaving like Communists. Typical is the report from Southern Baptist missionaries, concerning the fate of Vietnamese pastor Dinh Ngoc Chau, his wife, children, and members of his congregation at the Ai Lien Baptist Chapel near Bein Hoa, northeast of Saigon.

Believing that they could at long last gather to worship without fear, on the day of the cease-fire the Baptist flock met in their chapel to offer prayers of thanks for the long-awaited peace. But three hours after the cease fire deadline, Viet Cong with their Soviet weapons surrounded the chapel. They tore down the Vietnamese flag, raised their Red VC flag in its place, and told the people; "From now on you will obey us!"

Despite warning by the VC not to leave, the little group of Christians fled over rough terrain to the safety of South Vietnamese troops nearby. With the war supposedly Reverend James F. Humphries, the Baptist missionary for South Vietnam commented wryly, "The question now is, will it survive the peace?"

This was but one of nearly six thousand recorded violations of the truce by the armed communist guerrillas still roaming the Vietnamese countryside. Isn't it time that they retired to their sanctuary to the North, and let the South Vietnamese live in peace?

Bumps-a-Daisy, Wow!

Auto body repair may go the way of the buggy whips and high-button shoes, if industry forecasters' predictions come true.

In 1985 you might be driving a car that doesn't dent, scratch, or break on moderate impact, according to Thomas E. Salisbury, president of the Firestone Synthetic Rubber & Latex Co., because car makers will rely heavily on rubber.

"Rubberized impact-absorbing bumper systems and grilles are just the beginning," he contends. "In future years, large quantities of rubber and rubber-plastic alloys will be used to construct automobile bodies."

By the 1980's rubber and plastic-modified rubber will be used in panels for doors, trucks and hoods, as well as many of the smaller parts, he predicted.

The "Floodlight", an Iowa Public Service Company publication, forecasts, "Energy from the sun could someday supply our electrical needs without polluting the environment. It is still only a dream of mankind... some say a fantasy. But, enough solar energy falls on the U.S. every 20 minutes to fill the nation's entire needs for a year."

Still Growing

In spite of a great deal of talk these days about birth control, population growth restrictions and fertility level reductions, the United States of America continues to grow like Topsy. Statistics just released by the U. S. Census Bureau report that as of March 1, 1973 we have surpassed the two hundred and ten million figure by 380,316 souls.

This is somewhat startling to learn, in view of the fact that as of the 1970 census, U. S. population numbered a little less than 205 million. This means that our population increase alone, in the past three years, is equal to more than the entire U. S. population in 1800. Indeed, even by the year 1880, we still had only fifty million people in what was then 47 States. Or, to make another comparison, we have doubled our population since 1920. It took us 300 years to reach the first 105 million; only 53 years for the second.

In the last year, since March 1, 1972, we have added more people than the entire population of Detroit. Indeed from Feb. 1 to March 1 of this year, we grew by 84,522.

That is a lot more mouths to feed, bodies to clothe, and — in time — families to house. And what happens when all of them reach the age to drive their own cars? It boggles the mind!

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:
 We have an important day coming up; that is, April 7 — CITY ELECTION!

Why is this day so important? Through the ballot box the citizens of a democracy determine the path that democracy takes; thence, the voters of Muenster will determine the policies of Muenster by their votes on Saturday, April 7.

Muenster has great potential for growth both industrial and residential. Because of our close proximity to one of the fastest growing areas in the nation and the national trend of returning to rural living, our town could become "the ideal community." Let's make it so by our united efforts! COME OUT AND VOTE!

Food Counts Most

History may record that the American farmer was a decisive influence on the course of events leading to peace. Free enterprise agriculture in the United States has made this country an important food larder for the entire world — notably for communist countries where agricultural efficiency and the incentives to produce are abysmally low. U. S. News & World Report states, "A need for food is influencing policies. Russia is buying some 30 million tons of grain abroad. Red China is buying too, from Canada, U. S., Argentina. . . . Hungry nations, like hungry people, want to stay close to the sources of food supply. Only major source for food in such quantities is the U. S."

Many have professed surprise when increased American military pressure on North Vietnam brought no retaliation from the big communist powers. The explanation for this lack of response may well turn out to be that the food-producing capacity of U. S. farmers was more important to Russia — and China — than the military plight of North Vietnam.

 Major Projects

Muenster Hospital Auxiliary members are concentrating their efforts on two major projects and a benefit event. That was on the agenda at their March meeting.

Hospital administrator David Bright met with the group and reported on the "Alert System," one of the Auxiliary's biggest projects to date. It was started some time ago and planned as a local system. Plans now are to extend it into an area-wide system.

Area-wide, it was explained, would include Dallas, Fort Worth, Denton, Wichita Falls and all points between — a tie-in with all emergency facilities, ambulances, police, hospitals, doctors, etc.

Various aspects and details are being considered and checked so that Muenster Hospital will have the best equipment to meet its needs now and in the future. The Auxiliary hopes to have funds ready when the time comes to receive equipment.

A new project is the Auxiliary's acting as an instrument of public information and a local contact for persons deciding to will their bodies and/or vital organs after death for use in research or transplants. Members are studying literature from Texas Southwest Medical School, Texas Lions Eye Bank, and Human Growth, Inc. Mrs. David Bright accepted chairmanship in securing more information before presenting it to the public.

In order to boost treasury funds, members planned their annual benefit spring dance and set it for April 28 in the KC Hall with Bill Tanner's Orchestra playing. Theme will be "Over the Rainbow." Advance ticket sales are in progress. General chairmen are Mmes. Arthur Bayer, Mel Stephens, Andy Wimmer and Charles Bayer.

In other business conducted by Mrs. Arthur Bayer, members decided to meet every other month and that elected officers assume duties in January for two year terms. Current officers will continue until January 1974. They are Mrs. Arthur Bayer, president; Mrs. Mel Stephens, first vice president; Mrs. Dan Hamric, second vice president; Mrs. Andy Wimmer, treasurer; Mrs. Charles Bayer, secretary.

Chevy Introduces New Estate Wagon

DETROIT—Chevrolet Motor Division today announced the addition of a new, wood-paneled custom estate wagon to its popular Vega lineup.

Highlighting the estate option on the Kammback wagon, in addition to the woodgrain paneling treatment are special wheel trim rings, a new sport steering wheel, deluxe interior appointments including custom seat trim, instrument panel assist handle, adjustable driver seat back and rear ash trays.

The manufacturer's suggested retail price of the Vega Kammback wagon is $2322.90 while the new estate wagon option is an additional $211.50.

"Using the new estate wagon option, our Vega buyers will be able to maximize economy of operation while enjoying the added advantages of new distinctive luxury in the car's interior and exterior."

The Vega Kammback wagon continues to rise in popularity accounting for 19.4 percent of total 1972 Vega sales, or more than 64,000 units.

While the basic style has been continued in 1973, there are 318 new product refinements and improvements added to this year's model. Eight new exterior colors, four of them exclusive to Vega, and special "Vega by Chevrolet" emblems contribute to the personalized identity of this year's models.

Featured inside are a new mini-console with Vegas equipped with automatic transmission and a new European-style simulated leather boot with the optional four-speed transmission.

Vega's advanced body features include steel side guard beams in the doors, double-panel roof construction, a power ventilation system, and full foam molded seats with all-vinyl trim.

Continued for 1973 are the two versions of Vega's highly advanced four-cylinder aluminum overhead cam engine, computer selected springs and standard front disc brakes.

Other key product highlights for 1973 include:

—new front bumper with stronger mounting for improved protection

—new Chevrolet built three and four-speed manual transmissions with improved linkage design

Mrs. Walterscheid Issues Statement In Trustee Race

I am running as an independent candidate for position 5 of the Muenster School Board.

In my opinion, a truly effective board should represent a broad cross-section of the community that it serves. This effectiveness can be promoted by having board members of various vocations and points of view.

In past years I have taught in several school systems and I feel that these experiences can help me make a contribution to our school board, school system and primarily the youth of our community.

Minimum Tillage Is Answer to Many Farming Problems
 Are you looking for ways to reduce soil erosion in your farming operation? Minimum tillage farming may be the answer to your problem.

Minimum tillage is a system of farming in which cultivation is limited to the operations that are essential to produce a crop. Herbicides are used to control competition instead of the usual methods of cultivation.

You may ask what are some of the advantages of minimum tillage farming. These advantages normally occur: Saves time — with most systems only one or two cultural operations are required from harvest to harvest. Some conventional methods require as many as 6 to 10 trips over the field between harvests.

Lower production cost — fewer trips saves labor, fuel and equipment. However, costs of herbicides may offset part of these savings.

Conserves moisture — a mulch of crop residue on the surface keeps the soil cooler in summer and warmer in winter. Evaporation of moisture is reduced and this often extends the planting season when needed. In dryland farming the moisture saved is enough to substantially increase crop yields.

Soil erosion reduced — the most important benefit from minimum tillage is the reduced soil erosion. Research has found that by switching to minimum tillage erosion can be cut by 95 percent. Since residue is on the surface each piece of residue acts as a small dam to slow runoff and reduce soil movement. Surface residues from the previous year's crop is often the only measure that will prevent wind erosion on cropland. What better way could farmers help fight pollution than by keeping silt out of streams and dust out of the air, since by volume, these are the state's greatest pollutants.

Improves soil structure — by reducing the trips over a field, compaction with heavy farm equipment is greatly reduced. Well managed soils tend to improve in structure and tilth. This increases the ability to catch and store moisture for use by crops during dry periods.

Wildlife food and cover — stalks and seeds from previous crops offer wildlife such as quail, dove and other wildlife food and cover which is needed to have wildlife. Bare ground does not offer much for these birds and they will move on.

These are a few of the advantages of minimum tillage farming operations. Should you be interested in finding out more about this type of farming operation, contact your local Soil Conservation Service Office. The technicians available will be able to provide you with the information.

Area Appraised as Tourist Attraction

Phil Davis, Chief of Community Development with the Texas Tourist Development Agency accompanied by Gene Davenport with Cooke County Electric, spent two days in Montague and Cooke Counties visiting with community leaders and developers in tourist and recreational development. They visited the parks and playgrounds in the area and discussed with community leaders the further development of recreational facilities. He talked about promotional literature that is presently being used and what could be done to improve the present promotional program.

He discussed leasing of land for hunting and recreation and how this can add to a rural family income. The many flood control reservoirs in the area were noted and how these might be developed to where they could become a greater asset to the owner and area.

It was stated that from the Agency's study that a community that can attract just twenty-four tourists a day, or eight average car loads, gains the equivalent in travel revenue of a new industry with a $100,000 annual payroll. The same study stated that a tourist dollar is turned over seven times in the community in which it is spent — more than any other dollar.

When costs go up, solving the problem isn't easy for TP&L

Texas Power & Light Company's costs of bringing you dependable electric service have risen drastically in recent years. And, they're still going up.

For example, TP&L uses thousands of racks ... a small but essential piece of hardware which is attached to poles as a support for power lines. In 1952, the price of a rack was only 49¢. Today, the price is $1.00.

In 1952, TP&L spent about $23 million on new generating plants, lines and other facilities needed to produce and supply electric power. In 1972, construction costs amounted to almost $110 million. This increase was brought about partly by the increasing demand for electricity and partly by inflation. In recent years, environmental and esthetic considerations have added new costs. Power plant fuel, a major cost item to TP&L, has gone up in price more than 500% since 1952.

Texas Power & Light, and most electric utility companies, have a solid history of keeping electric rates as low as possible, consistent with good service. In fact, TP&L's average charge per kilowatt-hour in 1972 was substantially less than in 1952.

However, if reliable electric service is to be provided in the future, rising costs must eventually be passed on in the form of increased rates to the consumer.

Count SS Benefits In Retiring Plan

Increasing emphasis is being placed on retirement planning. For many people it is important to find out early what part Social Security plays in their retirement according to Gus Jones, Manager, Sherman Social Security Office. You can do this by calling or contacting your Social Security Office, Jones added.

By furnishing your name, birth date, address and social security number, you can obtain an estimate of your monthly social security benefit amount. Your representative will also be glad to discuss possible benefits for your spouse or children.

When the retirement date is known in advance, the application for social security benefits can be filed up to three months before that date. Early filing will help you get the first check when it is due. You can file your application by calling your Social Security Office. You will be advised what evidence you will need to furnish.

The office in Sherman is located at 810 N. Travis and office hours are 8:30 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. Monday through Friday. A representative may also be contacted in Gainesville each Tuesday and Thursday from 9:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon in the Federal Building.

Pupils Told How To Drill for Oil

Pupils of Mrs. Robison's fourth grade in Muenster Public School heard the story of producing oil when Jimmy Jack Biffle spoke in the classroom last Thursday.

Using the blackboard to illustrate, Mr. Biffle explained drilling procedures as well as the general nature of oil producing formations.

He had brought with him samples of oil and oil sand along with pictures, logs, a microscope, a jeep light and other items used in drilling. The lecture was followed by a question period.

Lens-View

The state cattlemen are meeting in San Antonio this week and from all reports they are having a good convention. It is always more pleasant to attend such gatherings when conditions have been favorable. This year the rains, grass and prices have made the outlook brighter for the cattle raisers. No political or trade organization can take credit for the better conditions as it was mother nature who made it so.

Attending the 9 a.m. Sunday Mass where we had the opportunity to hear the men's choir for the first time in years gave us a pleasant surprise. Whether it is new voices, different songs or more practice, the choir is one of which the parish can be proud.

Many words have been spoken about the holes in the street on north main. The street is now being repaired by the state highway department and should be trouble-free in the future. Water will be running across the street during heavy rains but will drain off quickly. The Muenster City Council has been criticized for allowing the street to deteriorate but all they could do was to make temporary repairs and wait for the highway department to do the complete job.

The Enterprise needs old pictures. Later this year a special edition will be published showing the progress of business in the city over the past 50 to 70 years. Pictures of places of business of past years will help make a historical success. All pictures sent in will, after their review and possible use, be returned to their owners.

The surest way of establishing credit is to work so hard that you won't need it.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mosman attended ceremonies at Holy Trinity Seminary Sunday when Tom Clohertz, a former schoolmate of their son, Father Jerry Mosman, was ordained a deacon during 9:30 a.m. Mass. Afterward they were among guests for dinner in the home of the deacon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clohertz. From there the Mosmans went to visit her sister Catherine, Mrs. Terrell Johnson, who is back at her home in Dallas continuing convalescence from a heart attack. Her doctor has prescribed bed rest for the next two months.
