CONFETTI By CON FETTE

Much has been said, and more will be said during the next few weeks, about the fitness of Abe Fortas as chief justice of the Supreme Court. Senate committee investigation on the subject along with unoficial observers leaves little doubt that Fortas, as associate justice, has made decisions that do not harmonize with generally accepted principles of Americanism.

There are some who think that these considerations are purely academic because of the fact that Fortas should not even be regarded as a candidate for the position. How can he be when the job is not available in the first place? When Chief Justice Warren submitted his resignation with strings attached he raised a question as to whether the resignation is real. Since Warren is still there, does a vacancy actually exist? Many people think that Fortas is not really a candidate unless and until Warren actually quits the court.

Furthermore many people think that Warren is out of line in his attempt to name a successor. On that count, if on no other, Fortas ought to be rejected. Such shenanigans should not be permitted in our selection of a Supreme Court justice.

But getting back to the matter of fitness: it's hard to imagine that the controversy is still going. It seems that just a few instances of his performance are more than enough to disqualify him. Fortas is the man who supported the ban of prayers in public schools, who said that teachers and public servants cannot be required to take the loyalty oath, who reversed the convictions of lower courts on pornography charges. All of these decisions are a mockery of traditional American principles and a threat to American security. They indicate very plainly that Fortas is unqualified on grounds of morality and patriotism. They violate basic principle so drastically as to raise a question on the propriety of any of his future judgments.

The mere fact that the man is still being considered is disturbing. The office of Supreme Justice is one of great honor and responsibility and dignity. It calls for the very highest type of character that can be found in this country. It should automatically disqualify any person with the counts against him which Fortas has. And that's not all. The record seems more than sufficient to disqualify Fortas also as Associate Justice. A person would think that impeachment is in order.

The whole sorry situation makes one wonder about the kind of thinking that goes on in Washington. Our entire country knows in its heart that Fortas does not belong on the Supreme Court, nevertheless the men at the top, entrusted to act in the public's best interest, decline to stand on principle in making their decision.

What's going on? Does this mean that the persons concerned are playing politics with this most important issue? Are they compromising principle to swap support for various pet projects? Or have they allowed themselves to become brain washed by the kind of permissive theories that characterize some of the Supreme Court judgments? Have Senators too come to ignore ideals that used to be sacred?

Our country has adopted some crack pot ideas in recent years, especially on the subject of human rights. For instance the over solicitude for an accused person, reaching the absurd extreme of permitting criminals to escape justice. Or allowing known communists to teach or to work in defense plants. Or failure to ban pornographic literature. Somehow the idea got around that government must bend over backward to respect the rights of criminals and subversives. Despite conclusive proof that they are unworthy, they must be regarded as equals of the worthy.

A record of favoring the overthrow of our government must not deprive them of a "right" to teach their poison or a "right" to work in the government or defense plant. What absurdity!

Most of the country agrees with you and me that the public's rights are violated when the so called rights of criminals and subversives are observed. Despite a Supreme

SHH Homecoming Program Complete For Gala Oct. 5

Continuing with program details for Sacred Heart High's annual homecoming celebration Oct. 5, members of the Alumni Association have mailed invitations to ex-students whose addresses were available and have sent special invitations to graduates of 1948 and 1958, the honored classes of this year.

It was pointed out however that an invitation is not necessary to attend. Everyone is welcome.

In connection with notices to the honored ex-students, Alumni members ask a return of their reply cards as soon as possible and no later than Sept. 30.

Festivities include the football game at 8 o'clock, crowning of a homecoming queen at half-time, and two dances after the games. The Sounds, Inc. will play in the Parish Hall and The Bishops Four will play in SHH Gym.

For ex-students and Alumni members, added attractions are a social hour and buffet at 6 p.m. and a short program at 7 o'clock, also in the Parish Hall. Members of the honored classes will receive passes to the football game and dance.

Sacred Heart High students also have a part in pre-homecoming activity. Each class has charge of decorating one of the various areas of action and a new attraction is planned. Seniors will let students and friends of the school "hit the opposition" in the form of an old car. It will be painted in colors of the opposing team and is destined to have many sledgehammer dents by countdown next week.

Homecoming queen candidates announced Wednesday this week are Carla Rose Schilling, freshman; Donna Kay Endres, sophomore; Darlene Hess, junior; Diane Hess, senior. Identity of the winner will remain secret until time for the coronation ceremony.

Hornets Slip Past Chargers 16-14 in Big D Grid Classic

The Muenster Hornets did a super sized job Friday night in Dallas when they came from behind and jolted the Pleasant Grove power house by the upset count of 16-14.

It was a game in which all advance dope favored the big and husky Chargers. They had trampled all opposition last year — including the Hornets by a count of 44-0 — and they started this season in the same manner. Almost everyone, except the Hornets and some enthusiastic supporters, thought the Hornets would do well to avoid being slaughtered. Well, the final whistle found Dallas fans stunned and Muenster fans delirious.

Glenn Richardson and his boys got an inspiring sample of success the first time they got possession. They hammered away at their huge opponents averaging about 4 yards a play until suddenly Sam Sparkman almost got loose on the ancient Statue of Liberty stunt. He gained 23 to the 2 and Clifford Sicking went over to finish the 50 yard drive. Quarterback John Monday made 2 more points on a keeper play.

A Hornet fumble in the second half put the Chargers in business only 37 yards away. The fumbles, incidentally, added considerably to the troubles the Hornets had with their husky foes. They lost possession that way five times.

Pleasant Grove cashed in the first, gaining a first down on four power plays and going the remaining 25 on a pass. A run for bonus points was good making the half time score 8-8.

The third quarter featured stubborn defense play, each team doing a good job of holding the other in check. Then one of the Muenster fumbles seemed to give the incentive for another Charger drive. It went 60 yards ending in a 20 yard pass play. Pleasant Grove tried a kick for extra point but failed. It led 14-8 with about six minutes to go.

What happened next cast a gloom over Muenster and gave a very comfortable feeling to Big D people. Receiving the kickoff Muenster fumbled. Chargers were in possession with only 25 yards to go. But the Hornets were still

Drought Relieved By 2.12 in. Soaker

Welcome relief from several weeks of dryness came to the community Monday and Tuesday in a slow soaking rain that measured 2.12 inches.

It came at an ideal time for some farmers who had done much or all of their fall seeding and it was almost as good for those who still have to plant. Soil condition has been helped wonderfully. Hay and pasture crops also have received the booster for another surge of growth.

Along with only .64 inch for the previous part of this month, the rain brought September's measure up to 2.76. The year's measure now is 38.33 inches.

3 Scouts Admitted To Order of Arrow

Three members of the Muenster Boy Scouts, Dale Cash, John Felderhoff and David Fette, were admitted into the Order of the Arrow last Saturday night in ceremonies at Camp Wisdom, near Dallas. Prior to that the trio had spent the day at the camp in preliminaries for the initiation.

They were taken to camp by Charles Cash Friday night after the Hornets' football game at Pleasant Grove, came home 'the next night with Frank Felderhoff. The three boys, along with David Bright, had been selected for the order at the Texoma scout camp in August. Bright was initiated at Texoma about a month ago.

College Contacts For Area Seniors Set at SH High

Sacred Heart High School's second annual college night conference has been scheduled for Wednesday night, October 16, in the high school building.

This is the meeting in which students and their parents will have an opportunity to learn about courses, costs, requirements, etc., for attending college and also specific information about a number of colleges.

Seniors and their parents from both Muenster schools are welcome. Juniors, too, or former students who are thinking about college, are welcome.

The program will consist of brief remarks to all by representatives of several colleges, after which the representatives will be available for private consultation.

Sister Roberta, principal, said that the schools invited to send representatives are North Texas State University, University of Dallas, St. Edward's University, St. Paul's School of Nursing, Texas Women's University, University of Texas, Texas A&M University, Cooke County Junior College, Our Lady of the Lake College, Clark College of Dubuque, Iowa. Up to now acceptances have been received from the first four listed.

3 False Alarms in Scrap Lumber Fire

A fire to get rid of scrap lumber caused a lot of commotion at the Mel Stephens place Saturday night. Firemen made two dry runs to the fire and ignored two reports about it. Stephens, on the hill a fourth miles south of town, had his fire under control all along, but people who saw it did not know that. Three of them called in the alarm, and two firemen made the trip without waiting for the alarm.

The fire fighters found a live one the preceding Wednesday night when they answered a call to a pasture fire two miles northeast of Marysville. An intentional fire to clear brush got out of control and cleared off about 300 acres before it quit. Muenster firemen were on the job about two hours. People of the area remained several hours more to be ready in case of another flare up.

Student Teacher Assigned to MHS

Shelly Hughes, a native of Whitesboro and a vocational agriculture major at East Texas State University, has been assigned to Muenster as a practice teacher in agriculture under direction of Edgar Dyer.

Hughes is spending this week in the ag classes as an observer and will return in November as a student teacher.

Hospital Auxiliary To Stage Gay 90s Review on Oct. 6

Members of Muenster Hospital Auxiliary have made final plans for their benefit show — Gay 90s Review — and have swung into practice for the presentation which they will stage Sunday, Oct. 6, 8:15 p.m. in Muenster High Auditorium. Mrs. James Shelton is directing rehearsals.

The show will include a melodrama, "Our Little Nell," starring Mrs. Roy Monday in the title role and including Andy Wimmer as the city slicker, Ervin Henscheid as the boy friend, Dr. Larry Tisdale as the detective, Norbert Koesler as the father and Mrs. Paul Fisher as the mother.

Other acts will include a barbershop quartet, a lineup of can-can girls, and music of the gay 90s. Admission will be $1.00 for adults and fifty cents for children under 12. Plans were completed at the organization's meeting Sept. 19.

Mrs. Ervin Hamric presided for the brief business session and Mrs. Jake Wolf won the attendance prize. After adjournment Mrs. Hamric presented Dr. and Mrs. Alfredo Antonetti who were in charge of the program, showing slides of Cuba.

After the program Mrs. Martin Kralicke and Mrs. Rufus Henscheid, refreshment hostesses, served coffee and cookies to about 75 members and guests present.

Bees and Juniors Go to Whitesboro

The Little Monsters and the Bees of Muenster Public School will both see action Thursday night on a double header football program with the Whitesboro teams in Whitesboro.

Grade school kids will play first starting at 6 o'clock. High school B teams will start at 7:30.

Four 9-B Teams Remain Unbeaten

Four members of District 9-B remain undefeated following the second week of pre-conference competition unraveled last Friday night. They are Muenster, Era, Valley View and Windthorst. Meanwhile Lindsay sustained its first loss and Saint Jo its second. Team standings as of now are Muenster 2-0, Era 2-0, Windthorst 2-0, Valley View 1-0, Lindsay 1-1, Saint Jo 0-2.

Sacred Heart also maintained its undefeated status through its second game. Notre Dame, a future opponent of the Tigers has a win and a tie. And Celina, the probable team to meet 9-B's champ for bi-district honors has a close loss and a close win in two tough games.

Scores last week: Muenster 16, Pleasant Grove 14 Sacred Heart 21, Alvord 14 Windthorst 5, Chico 0 Era 33, Callisburg 18 Valley View 14, Prosper 6 Saint Jo 8, V. View (Kamay) 12 Lindsay 0, Gunter 64 Notre Dame 43, Bryson 0 Celina 8, Sanger 7

Sales Tax Rate Increases Oct. 1 To Four Per Cent

Beginning next Tuesday, October 1, sales tax in Muenster will be upped from three to four per cent.

The increase complies with the law passed in the last legislature raising the state sales tax from two to three per cent.

Before the state law was changed the City of Muenster adopted a local sales tax of one per cent, and it became effective on July 1. And now the state increase of one per cent becomes effective.

The net effect of it all is that sales tax in Muenster has doubled since June 30. Until then local people paid two per cent. For the next three months they have paid three per cent, and after Tuesday they will pay four per cent.

Administration of the tax law remains unchanged. Business people will collect the entire tax and remit to the state, and the local share is later returned to the city, less a fee for collecting and paper work.

City sales tax payments are expected near the end of the quarter following that in which they are collected. The first 30 days are allowed for remittances, then more time is needed to complete the period's records before sending out checks.

The amount of revenue to be received by the city in sales tax is not known, however the estimate as used in the city budget is $15,000 a year.

To assist people in computing taxes at the new 4 per cent rate, the city has procured charts showing the tax on sales up to $100. The charts are available in the city hall.

Discussion Units On Great Books Being Organized

Great Books Discussions, presented by Sacred Heart School in cooperation with the Great Books Foundation, a non-profit educational organization, are now being organized for students.

There will be two groups, one for students of the sixth through the eighth grades, the other for students in the ninth through twelfth grades.

Both groups will have 90-minute discussions with two certified Junior Great Book Leaders. The younger group will meet Saturday mornings once every three weeks, or possibly once a month. That is still to be decided. The older group will meet once every three weeks in the evening.

Discussions will be based on readings from the Junior Great Books. Each participant must have a set of these books to make the discussion experience meaningful. Sets may be ordered through Sacred Heart High School. Checks in the amount of $6.00 should be made payable to Great Books Foundation.

Grand Knight Marty Klement said this week that the date is not definitely set, but time is running short for persons who expect to join but still have not signed up.

He said 22 candidates of the Muenster council are waiting now. They will be received into the council in first degree ceremonies here and will advance to second and third degree in the district initiation hosted by Muenster council.

J. B. Wilde, 73, Dies After Long Illness

J. B. Wilde, 73, native and life-long resident of Muenster died Thursday, Sept. 12, in a Wichita Falls hospital where he was transferred from Muenster Hospital four weeks earlier for treatment. On Tuesday, Sept. 17, he underwent major surgery which he failed to survive. He was a prominent Muenster businessman and retired Chevrolet dealer.

Requiem Mass was celebrated in Sacred Heart Church Saturday at 10 a.m. by Father Benedict Buegler assisted by Father Placidus Eckart and burial was held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Sacred Heart Cemetery.

Bearers were Hubert Andrews, Bobby Hess, David Jacobs, Herbie Knabe, Earl Ralston, Buddy Reed, Cecil Sawyer and Bobby Walterscheid.

Rosary service was held at Miller Chapel, 4 p.m. Friday, and the wake service was held at 7:30. Family rosary services were held Saturday night and Sunday afternoon.

Local FFA Teams Compete Saturday In Grass Judging

Two teams from the Muenster FFA chapter will be among the contestants Saturday in the 19th annual grass judging contest sponsored by the Upper Elm Red Soil and Water Conservation District. About 100 4-H and FFA members living within the district are expected to participate.

The contest will be held in the gym of Cooke County Junior College. Registration will begin at 8 o'clock and judging at 9.

Members of the Muenster senior team are Henry Sicking, Clinton Bayer, David Stormer and Ernie Walterscheid. On the junior team are Allen Fleitman, Carl Bayer, Kevin Sicking and Claude Klement. All four members of a team compete in a contest and the highest three grades are added to determine the team score.

Three Big Plays Give Tigers 21-14 Win over Alvord

Three big plays paid off handsomely for the Sacred Heart Tigers last Friday night enabling them to mark up a 21-14 win over Alvord in spite of playing second best through most of the game.

The first of those was a 26 yard scoring romp by Lee Roy Hess, another was a 75 yard kick return by Hess, and the third was Melvin Schilling's 35 yard return of an intercepted pass. The rest of the game was mostly under Bulldog control as they led 11-6 in first downs and 179-100 in total gains.

A fumble by Sacred Heart in its first offensive series gave the visitors their first chance. The fumble was recovered on the 31 and a pass the next play reached the 2. The Tigers dug in there and held for three plays before Alvord made the final foot. A run for extra points failed.

Following an exchange of kicks, the Tigers then grouped two nice plays for a catch up TD. Don Schneider passed to Tim Endres for 9, and Lee Roy Hess exploded through the line and sailed 26 yards to the goal. A place kick by Hess put Sacred Heart a point ahead before the quarter ended.

The Tigers got their next break about midway in the second period when Hess got loose on his fine kick return. He followed that counter with his second place kick of the night and boosted his team's lead to 14-6. That was the score as the half ended. The count of first downs was 6 for Alvord and 2 for Sacred Heart. The Tigers had originated only 15 offensive plays for all of the first half.

The third quarter opened with Sacred Heart kicking to end its first series and the Bulldogs going from midfield on only four plays. First one was stopped cold. Next one picked up 27, the third was a pass for 9 and the fourth was good for 11 to the end zone. An end run for 2 knotted the score at 14 all.

The tie was in effect only a short time, however. After kickoff the Tigers had to kick on their first series and Alvord returned it to its 32. First try lost 3 and the second one was a pass. Schilling intercepted.

KCs Plan Event For Columbus Day

Muenster Knights of Columbus will observe the feast of their patron on Sunday, October 13 with a three part event in the K of C Hall. There will be a Mass at 7 p.m. followed by refreshments of finger foods, and then a dance.

Columbus Day this year is Saturday but the local event is postponed for the convenience of members who want to attend other events as well. Also on schedule Saturday are a Sacred Heart football game and German Day celebration in Dallas.

Odds Are Stacked Against Tigers in Tilt With Trojans

Joe Felderhoff and his Sacred Heart Tigers have another big one ahead of them this week, probably their biggest of the season so far. The Trojans of Windthorst have acquired a big reputation in their two first games, and Sacred Heart is impressed.

The high scoring Trojans stacked up about 50 points each in their games with Valley View Warriors and Chico Dragons. By way of comparison, the Tigers and Warriors rate about even, each having a one touchdown win over Saint Jo. So the record points to Windthorst as the favorite.

Another factor is three injuries on the Tiger team. Jim Dangelmayr's foot injury will probably keep him out of the game. Danny Schmitt and Paul Bayer are still handicapped by injuries that had them on limited service last week. That hurts especially because the small Tiger roster is short in reserve strength.

Despite the odds, however, Felderhoff hopes to see his Tigers come through with their third consecutive win.

Kickoff time is set for 8 o'clock Friday night on the Tiger field.

LET GEORGE DO IT?
 That old saw, "Let George Do It," has a special meaning in this election year. Only once in the last century — the last Presidential elections — has a third-party effort made an important difference in the electoral outcome. In 1812, Theodore Roosevelt received 27 percent of the votes; Taft 23 percent. Had their votes been combined, Woodrow Wilson would have been defeated. This year again, the pundits are saying that a third party will have an important bearing on the Presidential election. To our knowledge no responsible observer has seriously suggested that George Wallace is going to defeat Mr. Nixon and Mr. Humphrey. What is suggested, and what the Wallace supporters pro- pound is the prospect that Mr. Wallace will attract sufficient votes to prevent either of the major party candidates from being elected, in which event Mr. Wallace may do some bartering with the electoral delegates he wins, or force the election into the Congress.

But in the end, either Mr. Nixon or Mr. Humphrey is going to move into the White House. Not even George Wallace himself can really believe that he will be moving in.

In essence then, the third party is really saying to the voter: don't cast your vote for either Mr. Nixon or Mr. Humphrey. Don't make a choice. Vote instead for George Wallace and let him make the choice.

Stripped of the oratory and hoopla, this is the apparent meaning of the third-party candidacy. The voter may choose between Nixon and Humphrey, or he may transfer his vote to Mr. Wallace, and authorize him to make the decision.

If the polls are to be believed, a very substantial number of Americans are disposed to "Let George Do It." That is their privilege.

*Conclusions of an extensive, impartial public opinion survey conducted nationwide under the auspices of the National Cooperative Highway Research Program.

But we hope that each voter who declines to make the choice himself will fully understand that in 1968, "Let George Do It," is more than just a trite phrase.

DON'T IGNORE HIM!

There is no longer any doubt but that former Governor Wallace of Alabama has quite a following in most parts of the nation. Reports on a national scale indicate this and tourists from various sections on the Eastern Seaboard volunteer reports showing favorable response to his candidacy in their particular sections of the country. In the face of conditions now prevailing in these United States we are not surprised this man has gained a considerable following.

If the election were held within the next several weeks, we believe the nation as a whole would be shocked at the number of votes he would tally. We think an added surprise to the nation would be to learn his strength outside the South. He is a man with whom both the Republicans and the Democrats must cope; he is not to be ignored.

I AM A REACTIONARY

Just for the record — and without apology — I AM A REACTIONARY! I re-act to sin and sadism, riots and revolution, gutlessness and Godlessness! I re-act to Hedonism and humanism; to philosophies and sophistries which seek to destroy those values which made this country great; which fashioned the fabric of civilized mankind.

I re-act to dancing the permissive polka with those who'd whirl me all the way to Hell while whispering that God is Dead and the Devil a myth; to those ministers who'd convert my house of worship into a hootenany hall or political forum.

I re-act to the emasculation of my Faith in the name of humanistic togetherness; to my love for the Holy Bible my loyalty to the flag and my esteem for the police.

I re-act to being scoured with the last of collective guilt — as if I personally poured liquor down the alcoholic's throat, peddled the heroin, mugged the little old lady, created the slum and invented The Bomb!

I re-act to the glorification of welfareism over work; Pot over pink lemonade; the Pill over purity; demonstration over dedication; desire over discipline, nihilism over nobility, selfishness over sacrifice, hauteur over humility, "rights" over right. I re-act to student radicals my American friends as "Fascist beasts" and Ho Chi Minh as Santa Claus; to those who consider love as nothing more than the sex act; who preach "peace" to promote surrender. I re-act to student radicals who are so enamoured of their own worth that they must destroy all other worths — who are FOR nothing except their "right" to be against everything!

I re-act to the stupefying sentimentality of amateur dogooders who, like carved wooden monkeys, see no evil, speak no evil and hear no evil — even when it runs riot with a shotgun, molotov cocktail or plastic bomb; who would re-write Little Red Riding Hood to have her "rehabilitate" the wolf while screaming "hatemonger" at the rescuing woodsman!

You'd better believe I'm a reactionary. In my book, it's time all responsible adults began re-acting instead of suffering the insults, inconveniences and intimidations of a noisy minority who would sacrifice their own freedom and ours on the altar of atheistic materialism. If we did, the kooks and creeps would soon crawl back under their rocks, and this tired old world would have time to bind its wounds and regain its sense of humour.

CARRY YOUR OWN LOAD

When you get right down to it, it is a miracle that the federal budget isn't bigger than it is. From every quarter, individuals and large organized blocks of the electorate besiege Washington, D. C., for financial help for everything from babysitting to dredging a fishing lake. This is a habit that will have to be broken if we ever expect to bring the size, cost and growth of government under any sort of control.

It is refreshing occasionally to see an organization that wants the government to cut back on its spending and assistance to its members. The American Farm Bureau Federation has long been doing just that, arguing that the federal crop-support programs should be discontinued and that there should be greater reliance on the free market. As it stands now, too many farmers have become dependent on government for an important part of their income. Farm subsidies have become a serious drain on the nation's taxpayers, and the problem of low farm income has not been solved.

The strength of the nation and the future of freedom would be a lot more secure if more organizations and individual citizens were willing to work for curtailment of federal spending, benefits and control in their own particular areas of interest.

AN "UNDER 30" POLL

So much has been written of the "generation gap" and the militant activism of the under-30 group, that most elders must assume that everyone in that age bracket is politically left-of-center. This assumption was dispelled recently by the Gallop Poll showing Republican Nixon leading both Humphrey and McCarthy in the presidential sweepstakes. Among voters in the 21-29 age group, Nixon led Humphrey 43 to 23% with even George Wallace edging out HHH by 2 percentage points; against Gene McCarthy, supposedly the idol of the young, Nixon tied the Minnesota senator at 38%, with Wallace coming in at 20%.

A NATION WILL DIE

There has been much said but little accomplished to help the Biafra people of Africa. This nation is at civil war and is gradually being annihilated by means of starvation. The millions of Biafrans are isolated in one area of Africa with a blockade which prevents foods, medicine and any other help from arriving. How much better it would be if the black people of America turned their efforts from burning and looting to help other blacks who are a lot less fortunate. Most black Americans live high on the hog in comparison to the black Biafrans.

Angeline Hess and Cyril Yosten are Married at Mass

Miss Angeline Hess and Cyril Yosten pledged wedding vows in a double ring ceremony at nuptial Mass Saturday afternoon with Father Placidus Eckart officiating at the 4 o'clock service in Sacred Heart Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hess and Mr. and Mrs. Felix Yosten.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an Empire gown of white peau topped by a coat of Chantilly lace which swept into a chapel train. A flower headpiece held her veil and she carried a gardenia, stephanotis and feathered carnations.

Adding sentiment to her wedding, she wore a gold chain and cross which the bridegroom's mother wore at her wedding and tiny cultured pearl earrings, a gift from the bridegroom. And she carried her mother's rosary.

Bride's attendants were her sister Miss Florence Hess, maid of honor, Miss Martha Berryman of Dallas and Miss Monica Yosten, sister of the bridegroom, bridesmaids. They wore identical floor-length Empire dresses of yellow crepe, designed and made by the bridegroom's mother. Each carried a single white carnation and wore daisy headpieces.

Clinton Endres was best man, James Fleitman, cousin of the bridegroom, and his brother Tom Yosten were groomsmen. Arthur Bayer ushered.

Cheryl and Brian Hess of Dallas, niece and nephew of the bride, were flower girl and ring bearer.

Tim, Melvin and Clarence Hess, brothers of the bride, groom, sang hymns at the communion and after the service. The couple received under both species of bread and wine. After Mass, Cheryl and Brian Hess presented carnations to the bride and she placed them on the Blessed Virgin's altar while the bridegroom lit a vigil light.

Wedding reception with a cocktail hour and catered dinner were held in the Knights of Columbus Hall for about 100 relatives and friends. They were registered by Misses Gloria and Bernadette Yosten, sisters of the groom, who flew in from San Francisco, Calif., for the wedding.

Mrs. Hess, mother of the bride, wore an aqua knit dress with black and white accessories and Mrs. Yosten, mother of the bridegroom, wore a blue crepe dress with beige accessories. Both had corsages of yellow gladioli.

Lutkenhauses See Churches and Kin On Visit In Iowa

Vacation trip this year took Mr. and Mrs. Alex Lutkenhaus to Nebraska and Iowa to visit relatives they know and to get acquainted with some they had never met.

After two days with Bill and Miss Emma Kathman at Bostwick, Neb., they went to Iowa to look up Lutkenhaus relatives left there when part of the family migrated to Texas and settled in Muenster in 1890. Alex's grandfather Joseph B. Lutkenhaus left two brothers there. All three were wagon makers and ship builders and later built churches. Three of the churches are still standing and Alex and his wife visited these in Fort Atchison, St. Lucas and Festina. Festina's church is 125 years old and Alex rang the bell in memory of his grandpa. All the churches have steeples 165 feet high.

Relatives they met there told them that none of the kinfolk had ever returned. They were the first.

Another highlight was the couple's visit to St. Anthony's Chapel, the smallest church in the world, now a state shrine. It holds six people. Alex's grand-uncle Anton Lutkenhaus helped build this now nationally known church in 1893. The Lutkenhaus brothers, of which Alex's grandfather was one, helped build some 15 churches in Iowa. There are no nails in the buildings. The brothers followed their ship building methods in church construction.

Still another highlight of the trip was a sight-seeing tour of the Billy Clocks Exhibit at Spillville, Iowa. This exhibit is rated the most unique in America and attracts visitors from all quarters of the United States and foreign countries.

Also of interest to Mr. and Mrs. Lutkenhaus was a tour of the Bryant Art Center Galleries at Harrison, Ark.

Cub Scouts Will Have Meet Monday

Muenster Cub Scouts will begin regular meetings again next Monday and Scoutmaster Leonard Reiter invites boys who are not members and who wish to join to be there with their parents. He hopes to expand the program and boost the number of dens from five to at least six or seven. New members will be enrolled Monday. Eight, nine and ten year olds are eligible.

The meeting is set for 8 p.m. in the VWF Hall and will include a display of projects by each den, entertainment by the boys and refreshments.

Back from 3 Week Iowa, Idaho Trip

Mrs. Albert Henscheid and Bill Henscheid returned Monday from a three-week visit with relatives in Iowa and Idaho and sight-seeing including Yellowstone National Park and the Black Hills. It was a round trip by jet — their first air travel.

The two flew to Omaha, Neb., where the Joe Henscheids of Westphalia, Iowa, met them and took them home. From there the four, joined by a cousin Mrs. Al Muller of Westphalia, headed for Blackfoot, Idaho, with sight-seeing side trips on the way.

At Blackfoot they visited the Henry Henscheids, did more sightseeing, went to Rupert, Idaho, to visit cousins and spent the last week back in Westphalia.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pels Jr. met her mother and uncle on their return at Love Field Monday afternoon.

There is no joy in the land of our competitors today. But let us ask you this. Should we have made Caprice shorter instead of the longest Chevrolet ever built? new variable-ratio power steering, liquid tire chain you can apply to your rear wheels at the touch of a button?

Should we have given you less power, instead of the largest standard V8 in its field? Some people think so. Our competitors.

HANDLE MANURE AS A LIQUID--

Quickly, Easily,
At a low cost!

The new Clay Honey Wagon liquid manure spreader allows one man to load and spread 5,000 gallons per hour. It's the first real answer to getting usable manure (liquid, solids and bedding) out of pits or livestock areas and spreading it on your fields. Easy loading is provided by Honey Wagon's dual purpose PTO-powered pump which produces a vacuum in the big 800 and 1,475 gallon tanks. Tank fills in 4 minutes or less. Reverse process and pump produces pressure to force manure out in exceptionally even, 25-foot-wide spray pattern. Agitator in tank homogenizes solids and liquids to keep tank from ever clogging. Isn't it time you started handling your manure the logical way... in a liquid? See us today for complete details... or better yet...

Brucellosis Test Nears Completion

by Neil Tibbets, County Agent
The Brucellosis testing program in Cooke County is near completion and we hope that all livestock owners who have not tested their beef cattle will do this voluntarily in the near future. The testing lab that we had in the county for about the last five months has been moved to Denton. We have one tester who is working in the county and you may contact Glen McElreath at HO5-4838.

Local veterinarians may still test your cows as they have during the program. The infection rate in Cooke County has been low, and the county should be certified as soon as the other herds are tested. Testing has started in Clay and Montague Counties, and this will tie Cooke County in with the western half of the state that is certified at the present.

Cooperation has been excellent with beef cattle producers and local veterinarians in getting this job done in the county.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

WATERWAY ESTABLISHMENT
Waterway establishment is very important prior to the construction of terraces according to the supervisors of the Upper Elm-Red Soil and Water Conservation District.

There are several very important steps in the establishments of a good waterway. Start with a good seedbed that is prepared early in the fall. Now is a good time to plow the area deep that is to be sodded. Leave it rough so it can store all the moisture possible. During the winter go over it with a tandem disk and harrow or drag to smooth the ground and control any weeds that have come up during the fall and winter.

After the grass has been planted there are two very important things to be done to help insure a good cover of grass. They are applying a liberal amount of fertilizer and control weeds and other competition. Without doing both of these things a good stand of grass can not be expected. Therefore making it longer before terrace construction can begin.

Anyone interested in terrace construction and waterway establishment should come by the Soil Conservation Service office. The technicians will work with anyone on this or any other soil and water conservation problems they may have.

Richeys' Vacation Covers 1700 Miles

Mr. and Mrs. John Richey of Marysville have returned from a 1700 mile trip which took them sight-seeing in Arkansas, Tennessee, Alabama and Mississippi. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Coy Fite of Ringgold.

Highlights included Mountain Valley Springs at DeQueen, Ark., Crystal Mines near Hot Springs, the Capitol grounds, Grand Ole Opry and the Hermitage at Nashville.

Most unusual sight was the Kudzu curtain draping trees in Tennessee and Mississippi. Natives told them the vines have edible tuber roots and originated in China where the vine was used to stop wash-outs. Cattle eat the foliage which grows so dense on trees it kills the trees eventually because no sunlight can get through.

Every year more people seem to love their country for the same reason that Grandpa loved his old Jersey cow — because he can milk it.

Texas Added 1000 Miles Of Highway in Past Year

AUSTIN — National Highway Week, the last full week in September, is one time each year when attention in Texas focuses on highways and the men who build them.

These men are busy building and maintaining our highways every week in the year. Highway Week is an appropriate time to check over the last year and see what's been happening along what many say is the best highway system in the world.

First of all, that system grew by almost one thousand miles of designated highways from 68,057 miles to 69,985 miles. The lion's share, 545 miles, was added when the Texas Highway Commission approved the 1968 Farm to Market Road Program bringing that system to a total of 39,405 miles. A year ago, the system had 38,662 designated miles. More than 37 thousand of those miles are open to traffic and another 630 are under construction.

Two-thirds of the Texas portion of the interstate Highway system are now open to traffic. According to the June, 1968, quarterly report, 2,005 miles are "under rubber" and another 462 miles are under construction.

on the State's designated 3027-mile Interstate system.

Construction under contracts totaling $685 million is in progress on Texas highways at the present time. During the past year, ending August 31, almost $396 million worth of work was completed.

Maintenance costs during the past fiscal year totaled $101.5 million, protecting the $5.5 billion investment of the people of Texas in their highway system.

Texans drove more miles during the past year — 58 billion — in more vehicles — 6.7 million — than ever before. Yet the fatality rate dropped from 6.2 deaths per hundred million vehicle miles driven in 1966 to 5.8 in 1967.

Yet even one fatality is a tragedy, and the Texas Highway Department continues to spend more than $1 million every year on research to make the highways safer. The Highway Commission also has approved a $60.6 million program for highway betterment and farm to market road improvements during the coming year. This accelerated program to increase highway safety involves 1,177 projects in 224 counties.

Safety devices developed through Highway Department-sponsored research are being incorporated into the highway systems. The breakaway sign support, which yield when struck by a vehicle, is being installed on Texas highways as well as in others throughout the nation.

Situated just off the main lanes of Interstate Highway 35 near Georgetown is this Texas safety rest area complete with rest room facilities, picnic shelters, grills, trash disposal, drinking water and a travel information display. For the benefit of motorists the Texas Highway Department supplies all the comforts of home.—TEXAS HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT PHOTO.

Developed by Texas Highway Department researchers in cooperation with those at Texas Transportation Institute at Texas A&M, the breakaway support received national recognition in December, 1967. The Federal Highway Administration then directed the installation of the breakaway support for signs and light standards on all federal aid highway projects.

In another safety move, the Texas Highway Department last year completed installation of the first 150-foot light tower in the nation, to light the interchange of IH 30 and US Highways 59 and 71 on the Texas-Arkansas State line. Four additional 100-foot light towers, two in each State, insure daytime visibility for night traffic at the important interchange.

The latest safety installation involves the field testing of a vehicle impact attenuator (VIA) at a Houston interchange. The VIA is constructed of steel barrels welded together and placed in front of a roadside obstacle such as a bridge abutment or supporting column. This device cushions the impact of a colliding vehicle.

Motorists long have been pleased with the numerous roadside parks along Texas highways — another safety feature. A glance at the Official Texas Highway Map, with its small green dots representing roadside parks, is sufficient to assure any motorist that he is never far from a place to pause and relax. In fact, one of every seven roadside parks in the entire nation is in Texas.

Making their debut on the 1968 map are small green squares, representing safety rest areas in the Interstate system complete with rest room facilities, drinking water, covered picnic arbors, fireplaces, and travel information displays — all in pleasant, well landscaped parks. There are now twelve pairs of comfort stations-safety rest areas (at each location there is a complete facility on each side of the divided Interstate route) and four more pairs are under construction.

When the Interstate system is complete, there will be a safety rest area on each side of the highway on an average of every 37 miles, and rest room facilities will be included wherever water is available.

Many of the vehicles parked at safety rest areas in 1967 bore out-of-state licenses. The Department's Texas Visitor Industry Report showed 1967 as the second billion-dollar travel industry year for Texas. More than 15 million visitors came to Texas by automobile last year, and they spent $808 million. The average travel party spent six days in the State and drove more than one thousand miles over Texas highways.

Travel counselors at two new Highway Department Tourist Bureaus in Amarillo on Interstate Highway 40 and in Laredo in IH 35, joined those at seven older bureaus on major highway gateways to the State to welcome tourists and assist them in their journey. Highway Department travel counselors in San Antonio also welcomed visitors to HemisFair, from their station in the Institute of Texas Cultures. The Department also maintains an informative center in the State Capitol at Austin.

Another tourist attraction, the Judge Roy Bean Museum and Information Center at Langtry on US 90, will be

Dental Check Up Urged at 3 Years

COLLEGE STATION—When should a child first see the family dentist?

By his third birthday or as soon as all 20 of his primary teeth have appeared, urges Bernice Kitching, Extension Family Life Education Specialist.

Never neglect the primary teeth. If one of these teeth is lost prematurely, the space may close and the permanent teeth can't grow into proper position, according to the Texas A&M University specialist.

Early visits to the dentist make possible preventive dental care. On the first dental visit, routine cleaning and careful inspection of teeth and gums may be all that is necessary for your child, Miss Kitching said. However, Texas records indicate that this is often not the case.

Lindsay News

Mrs. Alvin Loerwald and Mrs. Joe Zimmerer spent last week in Houston with their sister, Mrs. Paul Devers and her daughter, Miss Barbara Devers. Miss Devers had been in a Houston hospital after a car wreck that broke an ankle, injured her back and caused cuts and bruises. She was hospitalized until the nurses' strike. Her mother, of Wills Point, went to Houston to take care of her in a motel. Mrs. Loerwald and Mrs. Zimmerer went to help. Miss Devers, who was due to graduate from dental school with her class, missed the commencement program but received her diploma. This week her mother moved her to Dallas to stay with a sister and continue medical treatment. Alvin Loerwald, joined by daughter Karen of Dallas, drove to Houston for Mrs. Loerwald and Mrs. Zimmerer and they went to San Antonio to see HemisFair before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Reiter and children and Mr. and Mrs. Andy Stelzer, all of Post, visited during the weekend with their family here and the ladies' father, Mike Dieter, at Gainesville Hospital. He is a patient since suffering a stroke the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Frederick and friends, the Ray Ruckegals, all of Louisville, Ky., visited last week with cousins of the Fredericks, Messrs. and Mmes. Frank Haverkamp and John Hess.

Lindsay 4-H Community Club will meet Thursday, Oct. 3, 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria. Principal business will be election of officers and a talk on parliamentary law. Assistant County Agent Moore will be guest speaker. It will be his first meeting with the group. Members will also complete plans for their benefit bake sale to be held Oct. 6 after the 9 o'clock Mass. There will be a party after the meeting.

Hornets

playing to win. They held Pleasant Grove to 5 yards in four tries and started their 80 yard drive with four minutes remaining.

Sicking got most of the toting assignments as ten determined linemen and backs managed to clear the way for consistent nice gains. When Sicking reached pay dirt the clock showed 32 seconds remaining.

That tied the score at 14-14, making the try for bonus points the all important play of the game. Another big effort did it with Sicking going over for the winning points.

In the remaining half minute the Chargers missed a pass and completed one that reached mid field.

The Hornets have an open date this week, will host Collinsville in their next action.

Court decision, we maintain that such characters have automatically disqualified themselves for sensitive jobs or lenient treatment by law enforcement officers.

We wonder whether some of the permissive attitude of the Supreme Court has rubbed off on Senate members. Perhaps they are expected to overlook Fortas' faults as he overlooks the faults of public enemies.

Flusche Families Get Together for Supper Reunion

It was a pleasant evening for the Flusche families Sunday when they gathered in Muenster Parish Hall for a reunion with a covered dish supper. Ten of the 12 children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Flusche attended.

A highlight of the reunion was colored slides shown by Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Henscheid of their trip this spring in and around Germany. Included were pictures of family members and the birthplace of Henry Henscheid, father of Rufus.

Attending were the Al and Conrad Flusches of Decatur, the Andy Flusches, Monica Fetsch and Bob Noyse of Dallas, Father Hubert Neu and Father Robert of Wichita Falls, the Joe J. Neus, Lawrence Zimmerers, Gerald Metzlers, Julius Hermes and Tony Flusche, he's a cousin of the late Joseph Flusche, all of Lindsay.

The Jerry Sicking family of Myra, James Bayers and Johnny Kubiceks of Valley View, Fathers Placidus, Andrew and Benedict, the Henry Henscheids, Raymond Zimmerers, J. P. Flusches, Paul Fetsches, Gus Lutkenhauses, Rufus and Ted Henscheids, Wilfred Bindels, and family members and Don Flusches.

ted it on the run and kept going to pay dirt. Lee Roy Hess booted his third extra point for the night, and the count was 21-14.

That was the end of the scoring for both sides, but statistically the final quarter was the best for the Tigers. They led in first downs by 4-2. As time ran out they had just finished three first downs in a row and were still going.

An explanation is in order regarding this paper's report last week on the city budget. As pointed out by Mayor Earl Fisher, the amount of $18,144.85 shown as ad valorem tax revenue is only the portion available to the city's general fund.

Actual ad valorem tax revenue is expected to be $27,285.49, on the basis of a $1.50 rate and total valuation of $1,819,034. However after allowance for delinquent taxes and provision for bond retirement the estimated amount for the general fund is $18,144.85.

Good examples have twice the value of good advice.
