VOLUME XXXVII

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 SEPTEMBER 14, 1973

NUMBER 43

The opinion polls say that people all over the country are tired of the Watergate circus and congressmen returning to their jobs from the Labor Day holiday have the same message from their constituents. So it's gratifying to learn that attention is being directed to the country's serious problems. Furthermore it seems like poetic justice that the president is getting a splurge of favorable publicity after having been smeared and insulted for months.

His statements on the energy crisis made sense and appealed to people. We have had months of comments by the experts, and occasions last winter and this summer when gas and gasoline were in short supply, and reports that certain cities or school districts would not be able to contract for their usual supply of fuel. There were plenty of warnings that the situation was serious. But the sensationalists of Washington insisted that their show must go on. Now, finally, they have learned that the public does not share their interest in the show.

Well, it's good to learn that the president is doing something about the energy crisis, particularly some of the things that were proposed all along to relieve the strain for now and eliminate it for the future. Over the long pull he predicts that the energy supply will be excellent and perhaps better than for any other industrialized nation.

And he also envisions a bonus benefit in outgrowing our dependence on Arabian oil. Unfortunately we were headed for a time when we might conceivably be forced to heed blackmail demands from the Middle East to avoid a real energy crisis.

To accomplish those things the president said that the ecological timetable would have to be adjusted. The clean air standards demanded by EPA would have to wait and other target dates postponed by its demands would be advanced.

One very important recommendation was increased use of coal with high sulphur content, thereby relieving the very high demand for gas and fuel oil. That makes sense. Why should the US quit using coal, its most abundant fuel, while running short of other fuel. True, coal has polluted the air a long time, but a little more pollution is better than cold homes and shut down plants. Of course the best plan for use of coal is accelerated research on clean burning.

Also urged is a sharp speed-up of nuclear power generators, another project that has been blocked for years by the environmental cranks in spite of abundant evidence that old fears of nuclear pollution have proved unfounded.

Probably the most definite good news is the call for action on projects that will enable us to use some of our present huge oil reserve in North Alaska. The president asked for prompt action on the Alaska pipeline which has been blocked by environmentalists objecting to the line's scars on the northern wilderness. Imagine that, when experience shows that thousands of miles of line in the 48 states cause no problem whatever, and even if one developed it would be seen only by the caribou. Related developments are fleets of huge tankers to transport oil from the pipe's end to the states and deep water port facilities to unload the tankers.

There are still more ways to help the cause, particularly inducements to oil explorers and producers. Increased depletion allowance will compensate for more of the current risk and more realistic gas and oil prices would encourage renewal of oil activity — to find new production and get more production from old, marginal wells.

President Nixon has the right idea. We can find ways to beat the immediate crisis in fuels, and especially we have plenty of opportunity to provide for the future. Still there's another approach to the problem that was not mentioned but could have a terrific impact on the subject.

As suggested by the president of a major oil company the Clean Air Act should be amended to encourage engine improvement for greater efficiency, thereby getting a cleaner exhaust that does not have to be purified — instead

Top Scholarship Of A&M Awarded To Curtis Klement

COLLEGE STATION — Curtis J. Klement of Muenster has been named a President's Scholar at Texas A&M University.

The Muenster High School senior was chosen for superior scholastic ability and outstanding leadership potential.

He will enroll with Texas A&M's Class of 1978 next fall with the University's most prestigious scholarship. As President's Scholars, the 40 honorees will each receive $1,000 a year for up to five years undergraduate study.

TAMU has recognized 151 students with the prestige award inaugurated in 1967. Twenty-nine President's Scholars enrolled this fall. The award is made in the high school senior year to give the Scholar extra recognition.

The program is designed to acknowledge academic prowess and leadership potential. It also helps keep the state's top students in Texas for their university studies.

The first awards in 1967 were supported with university funds. New grants were made possible by Texas A&M former students and friends through the President's Endowed Scholarship program.

President's Scholars are nominated by the student's high school principal. Selection from more than 600 nominees by the Faculty Scholarships Committee is based on high scholastic achievement and indication, through church, school and community activities, of non-academic interest and leadership ability.

Klement is in the running for top academic ranking in his class. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Roman J. Klement is active in FFA, athletics and academic activities. President of the National Honor Society and Junior Engineering Technical Society, he won first in UIL district number sense and slide competition, participated in a National Science Foundation summer science program at SMU and was elected Best All-Around. The TAMU President's Scholar lettered in football, track and baseball, is junior assistant editor of the annual and is listed as an Outstanding Teenager of America.

SH Tigers Go for Second Victory in Clash with Gunter

It's going to be a battle of the Tigers here Friday night at 8 when the Sacred Heart Tigers take on the Gunter Tigers on the local field.

And if determination can assure victory it will be the second win of the season for the local fellows. They are going into the fray expecting a stronger team than they barely beat last year. In that tussle Sacred Heart trailed 12-0 until the final quarter, then got the two TDs and the extra points that made the big difference.

Coach Bob Steele says that neither he nor the boys are misled by that 35-0 loss by Gunter last week. The opponent in that one was Collinsville, which tied Class AA Whitesboro in scrimmage and rates as quite a power in Class B this season.

Based on last week's win over S&S the Sacred Heart skipper has high hopes for his boys. He likes the way they operated early and late in the game and he has given attention to mistakes that had them stalled for a while.

Besides that they have an advantage in both weight and speed. Sacred Heart averages about 175, which is 10 pounds heavier, and also has a good combination of power and speed in the backfield.

Physically all the boys are fine except Johnson, who is currently out and wearing a cast for a badly dislocated thumb.

PTA Meets Sept. 17

Muenster Public School PTA will meet Monday, Sept. 17, at 7:30 p.m. in the school lunch room. The program will be presented by the school's YEP Club on ecology. Everyone is urged to attend. A social hour and refreshments will follow adjournment.

Hospital Auxiliary Will Meet Sept. 20

Members of Muenster Hospital Auxiliary are being alerted for their meeting next Thursday, Sept. 20, 8 p.m. Principal discussion will concern the organization's annual big benefit. This year's event will be a Variety Show themed Frontier Frolics scheduled for Oct. 28 and 29. Many local people will be involved. Funds realized will be applied to the hospital recall system.

To clean up thousands of pounds of charred maize following last Friday's grain bin fire, Muenster Milling Company cut a hole in the bin large enough to admit a tractor with shovel. The fire is believed to have smoldered for several days before being discovered Friday and broke into flame after enough grain was removed to expose the glowing mass to air.

5000 Bushels Maize Destroyed by Fire

Spontaneous combustion is acknowledged to be the immediate cause, but the problem is what caused the spontaneous combustion in a grain bin fire Friday night at Muenster Milling Company's storage facilities on South Main Street.

Total loss is estimated at near $12,000 for 5000 bushels of maize, plus damage of at least $1,000 if the bin can be repaired, and considerably more if it has to be replaced. However, a small part of the loss was covered by insurance, according to Arthur Felderhoff, owner.

Firemen were called to the scene at 5:30 p.m. after smoldering grain burst into flame. They tried until about midnight to bring the fire under control and remained on guard through the rest of the night.

After that the Mill's personnel were able Saturday morning to take on the job of cleaning out the remaining grain along with many chunks of still smoldering charred grain. They did that by cutting with a blow torch an opening in the north side large enough to admit a small tractor with front end loader. The debris, along with grain hauled away the day before, was piled on a vacant lot in the east end of town — so that nothing else will be endangered in case fire breaks out again.

Origin of the fire possibly goes back a full month to when maize which had been dried by a hot air blast was stored in the bin. Tests indicated that moisture condition had a big margin of safety and no one was concerned about abnormally high heat. It was taken for granted that the grain would soon cool down to normal temperature. Now some are wondering whether the pressure of the full bin could have caused a heat build-up near the bottom, where the fire was found.

First sign of trouble came early last week when persons smelled smoke in the area, however no one could find the source. The answer came Friday morning when whiffs of smoke were seen coming out of the top of the bin. Felderhoff decided to start hauling away whatever could be salvaged.

Unloading through a built in auger-conveyor was ruled out because it was routed through the elevator and might set the building afire. So a hole was cut in the side and a portable conveyor was installed there leading into trucks. About one third of the maize was saved.

Value of the salvage grain has not been definitely determined. All of it has a smoke odor and its feed value depends on whether livestock will accept it.

In the unloading process, grain men explain, the grain slides down from the top to the point of exit. So the emptying went on for several hours before enough grain was drained off to expose the smoldering fire near the bottom. At that point presumably air reached the red hot mass and flames broke out following an explosion which bulged out and slightly lifted the bin's roof. Felderhoff and Dolph Hellman were on a cat-walk above the row of bins and scrambled hastily to safety.

Fighting the fire was described as very similar to fighting a hay fire. Water rolls off and does not soak down. Cutting an extra hole in the bin firemen frequently doused surface flames then saw the blaze pop up again a few minutes later. Meanwhile grain and grain charcoal were being removed as best the firemen could.

In the smoldering process through at least several days the fire's action was similar to making charcoal. There was sufficient heat to char it but no air to let it burn. As a result the burnt grain mass fused together into huge boulders of maize charcoal. Men used picks and crowbars to break those boulders in chunks of a size that could be handled.

Muenster Knights of Columbus are shaping up plans now for a triple observance of Columbus Day. Grand Knight Eddie Fleitman announced this week that the council will have a dinner dance on October 6, a special ceremony including the annual Good Neighbor Award on October 13, and a family day on October 14.

The dinner dance is the organization's annual gala social event. It will be a Hawaiian luau beginning with a happy hour at 6:30. Dinner will be served at 7:30 and the dance, with music by Bill Tanner's Orchestra, will start at 8:30. Tickets will go on sale at Hamric's on September 24.

A week later, and a day after the patron's feast, the council will have a solemn observance in church. It will consist of Mass celebrated by Father Placidus, chaplain, followed by the council's presentation of its Good Neighbor Award to a local person of another faith. After that the council will have a hospitality hour in the KC hall.

The following day is family day featuring a get-together of adults and kids from 2 to 5 p.m. in the city park. In case of rain it will be in the KC hall.

The KCs also have plans under way for their annual New Year's Eve party and have booked Bill Tanner's orchestra for the music.

Members are reminded to mark their calendars for all these events.

Hornets Will Meet Boyd There Friday In Season Opener

Football teams of Muenster and Boyd high schools have three games on schedule for Thursday and Friday nights of this week.

First they will play a double header on the MHS field, the elementary kids starting at 6 p.m. and the high school B team at about 7:30. Next night at Boyd the Hornets will meet the Yellowjackets at 8 o'clock.

The headliner, of course, is the varsity game, in which the very small Hornets will take on some very big opponents. With two linemen over 230 and two others over 200, Boyd has an average of over 180 in the front wall whereas Muenster's average is only 146. The same applies in the backfield where Boyd has lots of weight and fair speed. Muenster will be much lighter but will probably have an edge in speed and quickness.

This will be the season's first for Muenster. It is the second for Boyd which went down 14-0 in last week's game with Trinity Valley. The MHS record so far shows good scrimmage tests with Saint Jo and Archer City.

Coaches Richardson and Moore were generally pleased with both of those and have been busy since ironing out the rough spots. There have been changes in technique, both offense and defense plus a few changes of position. Tom Bright and Tom Hennigan have swapped places, so now it's Bright at halfback and Hennigan at fullback. And Steve Klement, former back, has added strength to the line.

Richardson says the boys have been looking fine in practice, their attitude is tops, and they are eager for action. Physically all are in good condition except Lyle Klement who rates as doubtful.

Regarding the juniors and B team games, nothing is known here about the visitors, but the showing in scrimmages with Windthorst inspires confidence in the Muenster boys. The Little Monsters led in statistics and tied in score, the Bees led in both score and statistics.

Both teams have been improving in practice since then and are all set for action. Calvin Otto and Danny Fisher are not up to par physically but still rate as doubtful.

QB Club Takes on Jobs for Season

Members of the Muenster Quarterback Club meeting Tuesday night decided to take on responsibility for the public address system and the programs for the Hornets' home football games this season.

They will repair or replace the microphone, whichever is needed to restore the system's original quality. Also they'll provide printed programs and solicit sponsoring advertisers. The programs will be presented without charge at the admission gate.

Boy Scouts will be asked to have a detail present at each game to raise the flag while the national anthem is played by the school band.

Next meeting of the QB Club is next Tuesday night following the junior high game with Whitesboro.

Paper Drive Saturday

SHH seniors will conduct a scrap paper drive Saturday, September 15, beginning 9 a.m. Persons unable to get their paper out may call 759-4246.

27 of Last Year's Local Graduates Enroll in College

Twenty seven of last year's fifty five graduates in the two Muenster high schools are enrolled for continued study in college this year, according to reports this week from principals of Muenster High and Sacred Heart.

Thirteen of them, almost half of the total, are attending Cooke County Junior College and five are at Grayson County College. Two are at TWU and the remaining seven are scattered in as many colleges.

Those at CCJC are Carolyn Bayer, Larry Bayer, Gary Endres, Kenneth Fleitman, Lonnie Hellman, Marlene Herr, Myron Hess, Mark Schmitt, Paula Sicking, Hank Trachta, Debby Walterscheid, Carol Yosten and James Endres.

At Grayson County College are Nanci Fuhrmann, Elaine Sicking, Lois Sicking, Kay Wimmer and Darlene Wolf. And at Texas Woman's University are Patti Dittfurth and Becky Jaska.

Mary Beth Bartush is at Regis College, Denver, Colo. Joe Bright is at the University of Dallas. Lola Bright is at Incarnate Word College, San Antonio. Susan Endres is at El Centro College, Dallas. Doris Felderhoff is at Wayland Baptist, Plainview. Kim Reiter is at North Texas State University. Susan Sloan is at Midwestern University, Wichita Falls.

Dates Listed for 10 Football Games

Believe it or not, ten football games are on schedule for local teams in the next 8 days. Four of them are combined into two double headers and the other six have separate dates. For handy reference, here's when and where they will be.

Sept. 13, Hornet B & Jr. Hi vs Boyd, here, 6 p.m.

Sept. 14, Tigers vs Gunter, here, 8 p.m.

Sept. 14, Hornets at Boyd, 8 p.m.

Sept. 15, Tiger B at Lindsay, 7 p.m.

Sept. 18, SH Cubs at Valley View, 6:45.

Sept. 18, M Jr. Hi vs Whitesboro, here, 7:30.

Sept. 20, Hornet B vs Whitesboro, here, 7:30.

Sept. 20, SH 7th & 8th Grades at Aubrey, 6 p.m.

Four Students Get Scholarships from County A&M Club

Four Cooke County students in attendance at A&M University are receiving scholarships of $250 each through the courtesy of the Cooke County A&M Club.

E. F. Carson, secretary-treasurer disclosed this week that the club had sent a check for $750 to the college. Along with the club's balance of $250 this will provide financial assistance of $250 each to the four students. The funds are raised by various benefit events sponsored by the club during the year.

Young men receiving the award are John Caikik, senior of Gainesville; Donald Liedtke, junior of Gainesville; Jerry Baugh, sophomore of Gainesville, Danny Fette, sophomore of Muenster.

Big Time Wrestlers Will Perform Here Saturday

Big time professional wrestlers who are seen weekly on the Channel 11 TV program will bring their performance to Muenster Saturday night in a program sponsored by the second consecutive year by Sacred Heart Alumni.

Their show will be presented in Sacred Heart gym starting at 8:30 p.m. as a benefit for Sacred Heart School. It will consist of four matches including a tag team event.

The night's feature is hailed as a grudge battle between rough and tough Ivan Putski, a Polish strong man, and 300 pound Nicoli Volkoff of Russia. They will have it out in two out of three falls.

Another headliner is a team match in which The Great Scott and Bronco Lubich will be partners in wrestling Paul De Marco and Mack Quarry. After that the same four will put on two singles matches.

Meeting to Form Exercise Class Set for Sept. 18

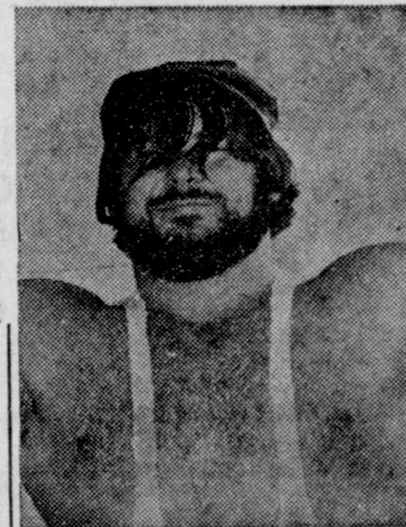

Women interested in exercising with a group are invited to attend an organizational meeting next Tuesday, Sept. 18, after evening church services. Place is Muenster High gym.

Mmes. Faye Hamric, Theresa Walterscheid and Jo Ann Pangel are organizing the class. All three are physical education majors and have taught PE. Local classes will be conducted on a teacher-student basis once a week.

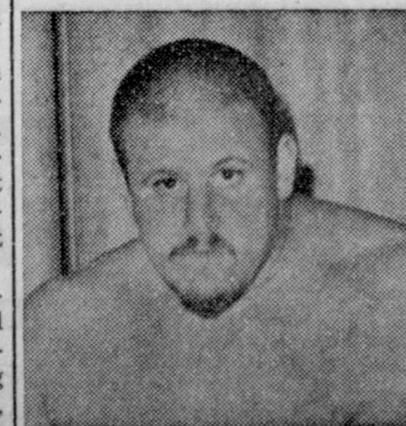

All interested women, married or single — no high school students — are invited to attend Tuesday night's meeting to discuss meeting night, time, dues, etc. They're asked to come dressed for exercising.

Scott vs De Marco and Lubich vs Quarry.

Ringside seats for the matches are available for $2.50 from Bob Steele at SH School, Tom and Jerry's Barber Shop and H & W Meat Co. in Muenster; or at the Firestone Store in Gainesville. In case they are not sold out in advance, the remaining tickets will be available at the matches. Other tickets, to be available only at the matches, are general admission for $1.75 and child's for $1.00.

Hillcrest Manor News

Sunday services, weekly game parties, birthday celebrations and visitors provide for spiritual needs and recreation and entertainment for residents of Hillcrest Manor. Each month one of the county's ministers and his group of singers conduct Sunday afternoon services from 2 to 3 o'clock. September is Sacred Heart's month. Father Placidus gives the homily. Sister Yvonne and her junior high choir members provide singing to their guitar accompaniment and to piano numbers. Other nuns from the local convent also are in the group. And once a month Mass is celebrated in the home. Father Placidus has succeeded Father Bede as officiant.

Hillcrest Auxiliary is responsible for fun and goodies each Wednesday when members visit at the home, conduct bingo games with prizes, read to bed patients, write letters for some and just chat with others.

A birthday party once a month usually turns into a festive affair with special guest entertainers, decorated cakes and gifts for each resident whose birthday occurs that month.

And visitors are frequent. They include the following the past week:

Mrs. Mathilda Wimmer had as bedside guests her daughter ters Mrs. Hugh Tarleton and Mrs. Rudolph Hromcik both of Fort Worth, Thursday; Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Mages of Dallas Sunday; and Mrs. Irene Cooper and a friend Mrs. Gladys Adams, both of Dallas, Monday. These met up also with local children and grandchildren who are in and out.

Visitors with Mrs. Susie Bernauer Thursday were her niece and husband, the Charlie Stelzers of Fort Worth. Local nieces and nephews are in and out regularly.

Mrs. Zena Martin's company includes family members from far and near. Her daughter and husband the R. P. Cains and Paula of Farmers Branch were Saturday evening visitors. Sunday guests included her brother and wife the Charleston Warners of Bowie, a daughter Mrs. Jo Hardison of Montague and a son James Ray Martin, wife and two daughters of Saint Jo.

Residents and staff of the home welcomed back LVN Kathleen Lynch of Forestburg Sunday. She was on duty to relieve LVN Kathryn Williams of Gainesville so she could join in a family reunion of some 65 relatives. Mrs. Lynch is a former long-time staffer.

LVN Ti (Mrs. O. R.) Cook is being missed. A long-time staff member while she lived at Forestburg, she has given up her work at Hillcrest since moving to Bowie.

LVN Nancy Brumm of Gainesville who is a part-time employee is on full time to let Mrs. Evelyn Fielder of Gainesville have a two-week vacation. She flew to Hawaii to visit her daughter and son-in-law and to get acquainted with a new grandson.

Mrs. Minnie Kinman, aunt of O. D. Garland, and a resident of the home, had a vacation visit with her daughter Mrs. Earl Brannon in Fort Worth. She returned Sunday, Mrs. Brannon bringing her and spending the day. Another visitor with the Garlands and Mrs. Kinman Sunday was a sister Mrs. Lucille Baker of Dallas.

Lon Williams spent Sunday in Marietta, Okla., with a niece. His daughter came from Nocona to take him and bring him back.

Ed Eberhart had a recent visit with his daughter and husband the William Flusches at Lindsay and plans to leave this week to visit another daughter Mrs. Isabel Stelzer and family at Post.

Angela Laake looks forward to seeing her brother Dr. Ernest W. Laake of Dallas Sunday. The two always get together sometime in September to observe their September birthdays.

Mrs. Jenny Schilling had her sister Mrs. Katie Wilder with her Sunday and the two had dinner together enjoying the fried chicken meal.

Jake Pagel spent a recent afternoon on the Nocona golf course with his son Jerome. Jake rode in the cart.

Tony McDonnell joined in the Hogan family reunion at Leonard Park on September 2. Mrs. Jack Hogan, chief cook, got off early that day to make the afternoon get-together.

Homemade light bread was a treat for all at the home this week when Mrs. Mathilda Wimmer shared hers with residents and staff. It was brought in by a daughter from Fort Worth and by a granddaughter Mrs. Victor Sicking.

"Hey, you, why are you throwing those nails away?" Back came the answer, "Why, they have the heads on the wrong end."

And the foreman yelled, thinking fast, "Don't be foolish. Save all that kind. We can use them on the other side of the building."

Formal Ceremony Installs Officers Of Honor Society

Installation of officers of the National Honor Society was held Wednesday, September 12, in Sacred Heart Library. The entire student body attended the special assembly.

Speeches were given by the five senior members about the requirements necessary for membership in the society. Candles signifying each of the five traits were lighted one by one as speeches were delivered.

Alan Rohmer lit the first candle as he discussed the meaning of Knowledge. Lanie Yosten chose to give her ideas on Service. Loyalty was Peggy Hoedebeck's selection, followed by Cheryl Bayer and her speech, on Scholarship. Beverly Walterscheid lit the last candle of Leadership as she presented her reading.

After the formal induction by Father Placidus, society sponsor, all the Honor Society members, their parents, and faculty attended a brunch in the student lounge.

Temper is a funny thing. It spoils children, ruins men, and strengthens steel.

SH Senior 4-Hers Reorganize, Plan Coming Activity

Sacred Heart High 4-Hers had their first meetings of the new term on Sept. 5 with Beverly Walterscheid, president, presiding at the girls' meeting and Jack Dangelmayr, president, presiding at the boys' meeting.

Slides were shown by Mrs. Marlea Thompson about 4-H and the many projects it has to offer its members.

At the girls' meeting 4-Hers wanting to sign up for food study groups did so while others signed up to be junior leaders for the younger members.

One of the new activities discussed was the Project Fair. It is designed for exhibiting any articles made for projects that do not already have a contest of their own. All members were encouraged to get their projects together.

During the course of the year the girls will be taking the project of Careers. The boys decided that they wanted to work on Small Engines as a project.

It pays to advertise with the Muenster Enterprise.

Special Liturgy Opens Football Season at SHH

In special liturgy, students and faculty of Sacred Heart High welcomed the 1973 football season. A special Mass, planned by the senior girls, was held September 7.

The Mass, celebrated by Father Stephen Eckart, assistant coach of the Tigers, was for the intentions of the players, coaches, managers, drill team members, and cheerleaders.

Coach Bob Steele and the entire Tiger team attended in a group. Members of the Tiger team participated in readings at the Mass. Jeff Fette read the epistle, Ricky Walterscheid the Scriptural Response, and Davy Krahl the Prayers of the Faithful. The offertory procession consisted of football players: Kevin Pels, John Bartush, Mark Hess, and George Luke, with Cheerleaders Cindy Bartush and Sally Endres.

Songleaders were the junior and senior cheerleaders: Lanie Yosten, Donna Knabe, Barbie Hess, and Laura Kralicke. Guitar players were Beverly Walterscheid and Karla Yosten.

Janice Yosten and Roy Brungardt to Recite Vows in Kansas September 22

High Goal Is Set For Missions at SHH This Year

Mission collections should be large this year at Sacred Heart High School, predicts Sister Theresina, mission moderator.

Eleven hundred dollars is the goal. This amount, hopefully, will be raised by weekly contributions from high school students the sale of donated gifts, and through Mission boxes located in the lounge at school.

Students have shown great interest in the missions this year. Weekly offerings vary from a nickel to a dollar, the most common contribution being a quarter. Several students saved money during the summer for the missions.

Sister Theresina urges everyone to remember the missions and will appreciate any donation from parishioners.

SH Students Have Holiday Sept. 14

There will be no classes on Friday September 14 for students of Sacred Heart School. On this day the faculty will attend a special in-service program that is sponsored by the Catholic School System for the Diocese of Fort Worth.

The Program will be at Nolan High School. Theme for it is "A New Creation." The faculty will hear talks by Reverend Alfred McBride and Reverend Philip Johnson. There will be a special liturgy and two planning sessions by the school staffs. Each principal will be a leader of his school staff group.

Mrs. West called to her husband, "Last year we sent Mother a chair for her birthday. What do you think we ought to do for her this year?"

Mr. West called back, "Electrify it."

4-H Club News

To many people, summer means taking it easy. But to 4-Hers summer is a busy season filled with camps, trips, contests and meetings. Besides regular activity, four Muenster girls have outdone themselves canning and winning ribbons in the County Fair.

Sharon Rohmer won five blue ribbons, two reds and one white. Barbie Hess secured one blue and two reds. Kim Reiter gathered up nine blues and four reds. And Sandy Reiter accumulated ten blues and five reds. Barbie also entered three items in the textile division winning two blue ribbons and one red.

Another activity that kept 4-Hers on the go was the 4-H Fair Booth. Senior members worked several hours to put up an attractive booth. Workers included Mary Lou Fleitman, Barbie Davidson, Sandy and Paul Reiter. As a result of the booth and handing out 4-H literature, 23 new members joined 4-H.

Getting up in front of a group can be a very frightening experience, but 4-Hers have found a project to tell how to tame the nervous jitters. The Public Speaking Project strives to encourage 4-H youth to acquire the ability to speak convincingly in public and to develop a pleasing personal appearance before an audience. They learn to recognize the necessity of obtaining all available information on a given topic and to organize the material to be presented. In addition to learning how to talk in front of a group, the Public Speaking project develops leadership talents and works toward achieving the broad objectives of character and effective citizenship.

We're certainly sorry to be losing a very hard working and popular member of the extension staff in Cooke County. Marlea Thompson will leave September 15 to take the position of County Extension Agent in charge of Home Economics in Burleson County at Caldwell. We know that Marlea hates to leave the friends and acquaintances she has here but this is truly a fine opportunity for her advancement in the Extension Service.

Marlea has been in Cooke County for 2 years and during that time has become one of the most popular and respected agents to work in the county. A very bright and ambitious young lady, Marlea has a great future ahead of her and we congratulate the people of Burleson county in receiving the talents of such a fine young lady. Marlea's husband Lex will attend Texas A&M University majoring in Animal Science and then transferring to Vet. School.

The County Horse Club will have a meeting Sept. 25 at 7:30 at the HD Building in Gainesville. 4-Hers interested in horses are encouraged to attend.

288 4-Hers, 26 adults and 8 guests have attended 4-H club meetings thus far in the 4-H year. This is a good number of young persons, but we're always looking for and encouraging more young people to take advantage of our programs, so if you're interested talk to a 4-Her, come by our office, or attend a 4-H club meeting.

Pamela Wright and Thomas Mosman Marry Saturday

Miss Pamela Jean Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray H. Wright of San Antonio and Thomas Michael Mosman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mosman of Muenster, were married Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in St. Margaret Mary's Catholic Church in San Antonio. Father Jerry Mosman of Fort Worth, brother of the groom, officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of candlelight silk organza over peau de soie. The collar, bodice and sleeves were enhanced with Alcan lace seeded with pearls. The hem of the gown and chapel train were bordered with the same scalloped lace. A Juliet cap held her veil and she carried a bouquet of pink roses, baby's breath, stephanotis, and ivy.

Miss Judy Wright was her sister's maid of honor and Mrs. Richard Wright, a sister-in-law, was bridesmaid. Ray Beznor of Gainesville was best man and Timothy Mosman of College Station, brother of the groom, was groomsman.

A reception followed at Pecan Valley Club in San Antonio. After their honeymoon trip the newlyweds will be at home in Garland. He is employed at Texas Instruments in Dallas.

H. Knabe Attends Firemen's Meeting

Fire Chief Herbert Knabe represented the Muenster Fire Department Sunday in the 81st semi-annual Firemen's and Fire Marshals' convention held in Munday.

Top attraction of the meeting was an address by Lee Herring of the Grand Prairie State Bank. And Eddie Pulliam of Olney was elected as the association's president for next year. Also Muenster was chosen to host the organization's spring convention, Saint Jo to host the 1974 fall gathering, and Wichita Falls will host the second annual West Texas Firemen's School in April '74. Instructors from A&M University will be in charge.

Fire Chief Knabe was accompanied by his family. They won a door prize and the travel prize for coming the greatest distance, 144 miles.

Bryan Hoenig, 8 Birthday Honoree

Bryan Hoenig celebrated being eight years old at a party Sunday afternoon when his mother Mrs. Gene Hoenig was hostess at the family home.

Five boy classmates Troy Yosten, Leroy Voth, Kent Reiter, Ronnie Fisher and Stephen Vogel, and Bryan's brothers Mark and Greg and his sister Amy were there for games, party favors of balloons and toy motorcycles and birthday cake, ice cream and soda drinks. The cake, simulating a football, was baked by Mrs. Hoenig.

Bryan's party was delayed from September 2 because that day was a big day at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lutkenhaus. Her mother, three aunts and an uncle were together for the first time in many years. Mother Mrs. Isabell Lindecker and Uncle John Boyles came from Gainesville to join their sisters Mrs. Babe Stevens, Mrs. Wess Walters and Mrs. Hazel Bigot, all three of Houston, who were in Muenster for the day. The Gene Hoenig family was there too.

M. Derichsweiler Former Resident Dies in Oklahoma

Funeral services were held Saturday morning in St. John's Catholic Church in McAlester Okla., for Matt Derichsweiler Sr., 72, and burial followed in Calvary Cemetery. He died Wednesday, Sept. 5, after a short illness.

Born in Muenster July 26, 1901, he was a son of the late William and Catherine Derichsweiler who were among the first settlers in the new colony.

He married Miss Marie Johnson July 26, 1922, in McAlester. She survives.

Other survivors are two sons Bill of McAlester, and Matt Jr. of Denison; nine grandchildren; one great-grandchild; one brother Bill Derichsweiler of Muenster; and two sisters Mrs. Susie Davis of Antioch, Calif., and Mrs. Mary Match of Tulsa, Okla. Also a number of nieces and nephews.

Among relatives at the funeral were Bill Derichsweiler, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Schmitz, Mrs. Fred Knabe, and Bill Knabe of Muenster, Mrs. Richard Zimmerman of Grapevine, Mrs. Dale Hess and Irven Derichsweiler of Lewisville.

Hillcrest Manor Hosts September Birthday Party

September birthday party at Hillcrest Manor Nursing Home had one honoree, Miss Angela Laake, the home's oldest resident who will be 91 on Sept. 28. The party was held Friday, Sept. 7.

Guest entertainers were The Boys' Club Actors from Gainesville who presented a playlet, "The Strange Tale of King Midas." The story illustrated that there are far more precious things in life than wealth.

Decorated cakes inscribed with Happy Birthday and topped with 91 were provided by Mrs. Charles Bayer, and Rosa Driever niece of the honoree. Both were made by Mrs. Bayer. They were served with punch to residents of the home and to guests. Assisting Mrs. O. D. Garland in serving were Mrs. Johnnie French, a visitor, and Miss Theresa Fleitman, staff member. The home's management and employees presented a joint gift to the honoree.

Cast of characters in the play included Carla Rickert as narrator, Darren Taylor as King Midas, Galla Ritchie and Kim Boggs as servants, Janice Ritchie as the wealthy traveler, Kim Boggs, Angela Hall and Janice Ritchie as princesses, Robert Kelly, John Walters and Carla Rickert as princes and Robert Kelly as Bacchus. Some of the actors played dual roles.

The play was directed by John Weatherred and Carajo Thompson. Costumes were by Etta Boggs and Thelma Kelly.

Jr. Honor Society Elects M. Reiter

Officers of the Muenster Public School chapter of the National Junior Honor Society were elected as follows in the organization's first meeting of the current school year.

Monty Reiter, president; Kimberly Klement, vice-president; Becky Fields, secretary; Margie Wolf, reporter; Connie Walterscheid, reporter. Faculty advisors and Gwen Trubenbach and Loretha Cash.

Let a smile be your umbrella and you'll get a mouthful of rain.

Local News BRIEFS

Larry Sicking is soldiering at Fort Hood now, transferred there following graduation from Fort Bliss Air Defense school. Formerly of Muenster, he is the son of Mrs. Tom Sicking now of Lindsay.

Former resident Harvey Booher was back in town Wednesday visiting Herman Swirczynski and making the rounds with him for pop calls with old friends. Mr. and Mrs. Booher of Chickasha, Okla., are in Sherman for a visit with their son and family while their daughter-in-law is in the hospital. Harvey drove over to do some work at Marysville Cemetery where his parents are buried, tried to find some cousins but they weren't at home, and then visited with Swirczynski.

Visiting Mrs. Bill Kathman Sunday and helping her observe her birthday were her daughter and family, the Stan Wylies of Grand Prairie and Mrs. Ruby Wylie of Gainesville. They brought gifts and all had dinner together.

Mrs. Joe Kathman is in San Antonio with relatives, her first trip back there since 1968. She's visiting her sister-in-law Mrs. Mary Bergman and her family including Viola and Art Arnold, also of San Antonio and Margaret and Charles Flens of Adkins. The ladies are nieces of Mrs. Kathman. She's also visiting Gayle and Douglas Wilde and Jane and Billy Rossi and son Chris. Douglas is Mrs. Flens' son and Jane is Mrs. Arnold's daughter. She made the trip by bus.

Mrs. Joe Vogel returned Sunday evening from a ten-day visit in Little Rock, Ark., with her daughter Mrs. Wayne Keys and children while Mr. Keys was a hospital patient in coronary care. His heart condition is improved and he is back at home now. Mrs. Vogel traveled by air going and returned with her son Leonard Vogel of Dallas who spent Sunday in Little Rock and brought her back to Muenster.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Swirczynski, joined by their daughter Miss Sonja Swirczynski of Denton, spent three days in San Antonio and attended the wedding of friends, Miss Margaret Kraus and David Jieknik in St. Gerard's Catholic Church. They also attended the annual "Texas Folklife Festival" spread over 15 acres at Hemis Fair Plaza.

S. A. Truck Due Sept. 20
The Salvation Army truck is scheduled to make its regular monthly visit in Muenster on Thursday, Sept. 20. Clothing, household items and appliances are welcome. Persons with discards to give may call 759-4311 no later than the day before to have the truck stop at their homes or places of business.

Order of the Arrow
Members of the Order of the Arrow in Muenster are reminded that a meeting of the Netopolis Chapter, to which they are assigned, has been called for Sunday, Sept. 16, 3 p.m. in the First Methodist Church, Main & Denton, in Gainesville.

Garden Club Looks To New Year with New Programming

Muenster Garden Club reorganized Monday night at its first meeting of a new club year, received new yearbooks and discussed coming programs.

Mrs. Wayne Richards and Mrs. Mel Stephens were co-hostesses in the Richards new home at Rosston.

Mrs. John Mosman, newly elected president, conducted the business, first since the club disbanded for the summer. Officers and heads of standing committees gave reports covering activities, expenditures and communications during the summer months.

Miss Sylvia Hofbauer and Mrs. Paul Endres distributed new yearbooks. Mrs. Ray Wilde accepted chairmanship of the Projects committee. Mrs. Harold Flusche gave a detailed report of suggestions and criticisms from judges of the spring flower show, and Mrs. Steve Moser reported extensively on cemetery maintenance.

Mrs. Mosman told about the Zone Workshop to be held Tuesday, September 18, at 10 a.m. in Cooke County Electric Co-op Building.

Mrs. Arthur Endres, immediate past president and newly appointed Zone 3 coordinator, was program speaker. She gave a detailed outline of the garden club structure from the national level to the local level, tracing through national, regional, state, district and local function.

The hostesses served a dessert course to 24 members. A cake decorated in a flower garden motif was the table centerpiece. Miss Hofbauer won the door prize. An arm basket of autumn flowers and foliage was on the registration table.

Next month's meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Arthur Endres with Mrs. Joe Luke as co-hostess and Mrs. Roger Taylor giving the program on terrariums and bowl gardens.

Granddaughter of Matt Mullers Is Wed in Ft. Worth

Mrs. Rosalee Richards of Arlington and C. D. Richards of Colton, Calif., announce the marriage of their daughter Wanda to Timothy A. Froehlich on Sept. 6.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Muller of Muenster. They were among wedding guests.

Double ring vows were pledged in Fort Worth at 12:15 p.m. Buffet and reception for family and friends took place in the evening at the Richards home in Arlington.

The couple will reside in Arlington where he has a retail business.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hennigan have welcomed their third son, six pounds 15 1/2 ounces, born at Muenster Hospital Wednesday, Sept. 5, 3:18 a.m. He's a brother for Mark and James, a grandson for the Fred Hennigans and Charlie Wolfs, and a great-grandson for Mrs. Mathilda Wimmer and Mrs. J. S. Russell.

It's another boy for Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Huchton — their fifth son — born at Muenster Hospital Thursday, Sept. 6, 5:32 p.m. He's another grandson for Mrs. Katherine Huchton and Mr. and Mrs. Willie Fuhrmann.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bridges of Gainesville have announced their first child, an eight pound seven and a half ounce boy born Tuesday at Muenster Hospital. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bridges formerly of Marysville.

Weekly Games at Hillcrest Manor Fun for Residents

Hillcrest Manor Auxiliary has added three more charter members who have joined Mrs. Leonard Endres, Mrs. T. Voth and Mrs. Arlin Naegeli. They are Mrs. Ervin Hamric, Mrs. Joe Hoenig and Mrs. John Fleitman.

Wednesday afternoon is weekly fun time for the home's residents. Bingo games with prizes are one of the popular attractions, with each win providing a gift, and domino sessions are organized also for ambulatory residents.

Auxiliary ladies visit patients in their rooms, read for them, write their letters, or just visit. Once a month there's a special treat of cookies and punch or some other refreshments.

Game prizes have been donated by local individuals and business houses and by local and distant relatives of patients. More Auxiliary members are welcomed and are invited to contact Mrs. Leonard Endres.

Clem Reiter, 76 Birthday Honoree

Clem Reiter was the honoree Sunday at noon dinner with his wife hostess in their home and family members as guests to help celebrate his birthday. He was 76.

A decorated cake and gifts made it a festive event.

Present were Messrs. and Mmes. Andy Arendt, Jimmy, Steve and Donna, David Arendt and Jeff, all of Lindsay, Andy Arendt Jr. of Garland, Gary Krahl of Era, and Tim Hartman and Mrs. Charles Knauf.

"Due to circumstances beyond our control..."

Texas Power & Light Company has a long, solid history of providing its customers with reliable electric power at the lowest price consistent with good service. The Company wants electricity to always be one of the biggest bargains in your budget.

However, there are circumstances beyond our control which indicate future electric rate increases are inevitable.

Higher Cost of Fuels The diminishing supply of natural gas and fuel oil has pushed the prices of these generating plant fuels to new highs and is significantly increasing the cost of producing electricity. TP&L's fuel bill was over $40 million last year, 30% higher than in 1971, and it's expected to be even higher in 1973.

Higher Cost of Construction Because of today's energy crisis, new generating plants must be built to operate with other fuels, such as lignite and nuclear materials. These plants are much more costly to build than gas-fueled ones, but to assure you an ample supply of electric power in the future, construction of new facilities is essential—and must be done even though TP&L faces additional rising costs for labor, materials and land.

Higher Cost of Financing The rising cost of money needed to finance new plants and other facilities has been increasing at a staggering rate.

All of these circumstances are beyond our control—and they make producing your electricity much costlier than ever before. However, TP&L will continue to use every practical method and every possible efficiency to keep the price of electricity low and still provide you with dependable electric service in the years ahead.

Muenster Teachers Oppose Merger of TSTA and NEA

Muenster teachers, at their first meeting of the school year, declined to approve a proposed merger of the Texas State Teachers Association and the National Education Association. Their reason was that they wish to delay a final decision until they have more complete information about the proposal.

The teachers also discussed plans for an induction ceremony and reception of junior and senior divisions of the national honor society. Mrs. Gwen Trubenbach and Mrs. Loretha Cash, advisors, will be assisted by other members of the faculty.

Preceding their business session, Don Allen, representative of American Fidelity Insurance Co. presented a plan approved by TSTA pertaining to salary protection and major medical expense.

Edgar Dyer, president of the local teachers organization, conducted the meeting.

Mrs. Joe Bezner Sr. Celebrates 86th

Mrs. Joe Bezner Sr. of Lindsay celebrated her 86th birthday Sunday at Frontier Manor Nursing Home surrounded by her family and residents of the home. She wheeled herself into the recreation area for the party. At the home to continue recuperation from a broken hip, she gets around well in a wheelchair.

Her children planned the party, served cake and lemonade and presented birthday gifts.

Family members present were Messrs. and Mmes. Bob Young and Jim, Frank Benenate, and Chris Darrington, Mrs. Leo Cutaia, Mary Ann Cutaia and Mrs. Nita Spires, all of Dallas.

Mrs. Isabel Galvan of Irving, the Bob Bezners of Richardson, the George Taylors and Mike of Hurst, the Mike Bezners of Gainesville, Mrs. Joe Schmitz of Frontier Manor, John Schmitz and Mrs. Ray Wilde of Muenster, and the Joe Bezners Jr. and JoAnn, the Bruno Zimmerers, Mrs. Phillip Metzler, Mrs. H. S. Fuhrmann and Diane Metzler of Lindsay.

Mrs. Bezner's children had been together earlier for a covered dish dinner at noon in the Joe Bezner Jr. home.

NOTES FROM THE LIBRARY

By Bettie Luke
 After a long absence (due to illness) I want to resume my column on Notes from Muenster Public Library. I hope everyone had a lovely vacation and ready to do a lot of reading or studying the coming season.

We have shelved so many new books this summer, among them "The Story of Public Lands," a gift from Armstrong, and "Yarborough of Texas" by Yarborough, a gift also.

"All the Women of the Bible" by Dean is a new book. Among Texana is "Texas Courthouses" and "Historic Sites of Texas" by June Rayfield Welch.

Something new at the Library is a cart of Paper Backs. This summer we received hundreds of good paper backs donated to us and as space is not available we are letting anyone take one or more if they bring us one or more in return.

Giant Okra Pod Weighs Ten Pounds

An okra pod weighing ten pounds? Nothing to it considering the okra being produced from two seeds planted by Mrs. Adolph Walterscheid. The ten pounder she showed recently was 30 inches long and 14 inches around. It was the only one she thought about weighing and measuring. Others are all sizes from slender pods upward depending on picking time.

Mrs. Walterscheid started with four seeds of the Mexican variety given to her by a friend. Two vines were lost early in growth, one to hail and one to wind. The two that survived have produced a vine some 40 feet in length and hundreds of pounds of the vegetable. Mrs. Walterscheid has shared with her family and friends. The okra has been fried, boiled, baked, gumboed and pickled. It has been eaten fresh, frozen and canned. The vines are still producing.

A teacher, in the hospital with a heart condition, received the following card: "Your local teachers association wishes you a speedy recovery by a vote of 118-56."

You must admit that prejudice is a great time-saver. It enables you to form an opinion without bothering to get the facts.

Electric Co-op Sponsors New Program to Identify Property

This week Operation Identification, which is sponsored by the Cooke County Advisory Committee of Cooke County Electric Cooperative, was officially launched.

A stenciling tool is available to individuals who desire to mark their valuables with their driver's license number and if they do not have a driver's license, their social security number. The stenciling of this electric engraver will give the law enforcement agencies another identification marking whereby they might trace the property if it is stolen. An inventory sheet and decal are also provided for those who participate in the program.

Operation Identification is designed to reduce losses to individuals incurred by theft and burglaries. It is positive action being taken by a community demonstrating real interest in the safety of its citizens and their property. This action is not to label a community, or county, or area as one where crime is a major problem. On the contrary, it tells the world that this particular community is safer than most because the people are interested in preserving safety and security.

This program is officially underway in Mountain Springs with community coordinator Fred Haynie. Charlie Kammerdiener will assist in Downward Fair Plains, W. W. Weems in Callisburg, Ray Lynch in Woodbine, and William Hermes with Hood. These individuals plan to work through the community clubs to further the program.

Other communities can activate this program as the electric engraving tools become and Community Services Department of Cooke County Electric Cooperative, P. O. Drawer 400, Muenster.

Don King, deputy sheriff, stated Operation Identification will benefit those who participate in the program and it will be a positive deterrent to crime and a most valuable tool in identifying property by enabling use of the state computer in tracing stolen property. Etching by electric tools is difficult to remove and attempts to remove it will be an alert to law enforcement officers that such merchandise is stolen. It will also enable the owner to more easily identify his property.

William Hermes is acting as coordinator with King in arranging law enforcement education programs to be presented at all the schools in Cooke County which have children served by Cooke County Electric Cooperative's service area.

Facts About Your Social Security

Almost one-third of the Nation's household workers could be eligible for social security retirement benefits in 7 years or less, according to Gus Jones, social security district manager in Sherman.

"Most women household workers are in their 40's, but 29 percent are over 55. These are the workers who could start getting retirement benefits in 7 years or less," Jones said. A household worker can get reduced monthly social security retirement checks beginning at 62 — or full benefits at 65 — if she has worked long enough in jobs covered by social security.

There are nearly 1.7 million household workers in the Nation, and 1.5 million are women.

A household worker's cash wages count for social security if she is paid $50 or more in a 3-month calendar quarter from one employer working as a maid, cook, cleaning woman, laundress, housekeeper, babysitter, etc., in someone else's home.

"This means," Jones said, "that a household worker's wages are covered by social security if she is paid as much as $3.85 per week in cash for 13 consecutive weeks in a calendar quarter.

"To get the proper social security credit for her earnings," Jones said, "a household worker should be sure to give her employer her correct social security number. The employer is responsible for sending a quarterly report of wages paid and the social security contributions to the Internal Revenue Service."

Lindsay News

LINDSAY — Glenn Bayer has finished basic Army training at Fort Ord, Calif., has had a visit with his parents, the Frank Beyers and has reported to Fort Sill, Okla., for a new assignment.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Arendt, Lisa and Jay were in Carrollton for a housewarming of their son and his wife the Hank Arendts in their new apartment.

Home economic students and their teacher Mrs. Keith Park held an open house for the girls' mothers to get acquainted with the teacher and the home ec program. Seventy-five were together for the Tuesday evening event. Punch and cookies made by students were served.

Lindsay is planning a Jaycee organization open to young men between the ages of 18 and 35. Those interested are invited to contact Bill Martin.

Robert Edward Eberhart has a new Army assignment at Fort Sill, Okla. He finished basic at Fort Ord, Calif. Son of Mrs. Ruth Eberhart and the late Bill Eberhart, his wife is the former Starr Early of Dallas.

Misses Betty and Joan Fuhrmann have returned to Dallas where they are attending the TWU Nursing Center gaining practical experience. Joan is a nursing major and Betty an occupational therapy major. They are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Fuhrmann.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Skinner and daughter Jodi are new residents for Lindsay, living on Hwy 82. Jodi is enrolled in Lindsay School. The couple also have a married son and daughter living in Cleburne.

Jason Paul Zimmerer had his first party for his first birthday when his parents Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Zimmerer entertained in their home. Others present were his brother Rudy, sisters Carol and Susie, grandfather I. A. Zimmerer, aunt Sister Dorothy Theresa and Miss Kathy Felderhoff.

Family members helped Curtis Macready celebrate his first birthday at a dinner party with birthday cake and ice cream. Parents Mr. and Mrs. Irby Macready were hosts in their home. Others present were the honoree's brother Kevin, grandparents Mrs. William Schmitz and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sandmann and their children Lisa, Jeff, Gina and Julie.

Mary Kay Bezner, dismissed from Gainesville Hospital Friday, was re-admitted Sunday as a medical patient.

Mrs. J. B. Wilde of Muenster visited her daughter and family, the Rufus Bezners Sunday and had dinner with them.

Health Tip: How about consolidating all your nagging little worries into one big complex?

Jane Zimmerer Is Married at Lindsay To Leslie Wilson

Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lynn Wilson are making their home in Gainesville since returning from their honeymoon. She is the former Miss Jane Marie Zimmerer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Zimmerer of Lindsay. Parents of the groom are Mrs. Carl Wilson Jr. of Gainesville and the late Mr. Wilson.

The couple repeated their double ring vows at Nuptial Mass in St. Peter's Church on Sept. 1, Father Damian Wevers, pastor, officiating at 5 p.m.

The wedding procession included the groom accompanied by his mother, the wedding attendants and the bride and her parents.

Presented at the altar by her father and mother, the bride wore a white Chantilly lace formal over taffeta. Tiny lace ruffles edged the square neckline and lace-covered buttons closed the Juliet sleeves at the wrists. Three ruffled tiers of lace formed the bouffant skirt which fell from the high-rise waist. The gown was designed and made by her mother.

The bride's veil was a fall of illusion secured by a tiara of small flowers and extended to chapel length. It was previously worn by her sister Mrs. Danny Jones. She wore a pearl necklace belonging to the groom's mother and carried a lace handkerchief, a gift from her mother. Her flowers were a colonial bouquet of white rose buds, gypsophilla and stephanotis.

Miss Patty Metzler was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Donna Zimmerer and Pam Wilson, sisters of the couple. Their short-sleeved gowns of green, pink, and yellow respectively were of dotted swiss designed to duplicate the bride's and they wore matching picture hats. Their flowers were nosegays in matching colors.

Leonard Blankenship of Gainesville was best man with Bobby Zimmerer, brother of the bride, and John McCracken of Plano, uncle of the groom as groomsmen. Larry Zimmerer and Chuck Bezner, cousins of the bride, ushered. Sammy Zimmerer, brother of the bride and Roy Metzler were acolytes.

Godfathers of the couple, Jimmy Zimmerer and Bob Bezner presented the offertory gifts.

Miss Patsy Spaeth, organist, played the wedding marches and sang to her own guitar accompaniment before and during Mass. Selections were "The First Time Ever I Saw Your Face," "Into Your Hands," "Twelfth of Never," "Let It Be Me," and "Wedding Song." During the final number the couple went to the Blessed Virgin's altar for presentation of a small-stemmed white gladiola which was handed to the bride by her small niece, Tonia Zimmerer of Grapevine.

On entering the church the bride handed her mother a long-stemmed pink rose. On leaving she handed her husband's mother an identical rose.

Wedding reception and dinner were held in the school cafeteria where Misses Susie Zimmerer and Sharon Hess, cousins of the bride, registered guests and Mrs. Henry Spaeth served the four-tier wedding cake.

Before dinner the newlyweds went to Frontier Manor in Gainesville to visit her grandmother Mrs. Joe Bezner Sr., who is recuperating there from a broken hip.

For their wedding trip the bride wore a pink two-piece suit with white accessories. She is a graduate of Lindsay

High and CCJC and is presently attending cosmetology classes at CCJC. He is a graduate of Gainesville High and is employed at Weber Aircraft.

Out of town wedding guests attended from Dallas, Grapevine, Irving, Richardson, Arlington, Hurst, Plano, Carrollton, Gainesville and Muenster.

Mrs. Wilson, mother of the groom, hosted the rehearsal dinner for 20 guests including the bridal party and immediate members of both families.

"Prudence for Security of a Family" is the program topic. A lawyer will be guest speaker. He will point out many things a wife should know in the event she is left a widow. Luncheon will be provided by the Lindsay group.

The smart man stays a step ahead of those who oppose him, and a step behind those who urge him.

"Doctor, I have four dimes in my ear I would like for you to get out. They got stuck in there last year, and—"

"Last year! Why didn't you come to me then?"

"I didn't need the money."

New arrivals: a boy for the Don Mullers; a girl for the Julius Hermes Jr.

R. L. Whitts Host Get-Together at Fort Worth Home

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Whitt were hosts for a get-together at their home in Fort Worth where a group was together on Labor Day for a backyard picnic and a program of slides with commentary by Mr. and Mrs. Gary Knight and son Eric of Austin.

The Knights returned recently from a vacation in London, England, Holland and Africa. They camped out in Africa for three weeks and brought back over a thousand slides. These included scenery, places of interest and a variety of animals. The only animal they missed was a lion... said they didn't see even one. While in Holland they visited Mrs. Knight's brother and family, the Michael McCradys.

Others at the get-together were Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCrady and Karol Ann of Austin, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cole Jr., Wren and Kevin, Lary Cole and Sherlyn all of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Yeats, Tamara, Lee Ann and Angela of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Whitt, Candace, Stacey and Randel of Euless, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Mitchell, Kari and Chad, Mr. and Mrs. Don Parham, D'Aunn and Brett, and Mrs. Madie Murrell all of Fort Worth.

Family Surprises Matt Muller on His 80th Birthday

Surprises greeted Matt Muller Saturday night at his home when his family through the fourth generation gathered to help him celebrate his 80th birthday. Sixty-four attended.

Everyone provided covered dishes for a delicious outdoor meal. Card games and visiting followed, gifts were opened and displayed and a decorated birthday cake was served with ice cream as the concluding highlight. Mrs. Julian Walterscheid baked her grandfather's cake. It was shaped as an open book, the pages inscribed with "Happy Birthday" and "80."

Seven of the eight children of the honoree and his wife, along with their children and families attended. Only the Don Mullers of Lubbock were not present.

Joining in the observance were Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Muller and four children, Mr. and Mrs. George Gehrig and their children and grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Knabe, children and grandchildren, all of Muenster.

Mrs. Rosalie Richards and daughter of Arlington, Mrs. C. C. Blanton and twins Monika and Michelle of Mineral Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Muller and family of Bedford and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hellinger and children of Lindsay. Also the honoree's sister Mrs. Joe Bernauer and his nephew Frank Bernauer.

Having some difficulty with his tie, the chap dressed in formal attire, ran into the street and asked the first man he met to help him.

"Sure," said the stranger, "I can tie it. But you've gotta lie down."

"Lie down?" was the mystified query.

"Yes. You see, I'm an undertaker."

Forestburg News

By Myrt Denham

FORESTBURG — Several folks around these parts had a last fling at short vacations or had out-of-town guests this past Labor Day Weekend. There were probably many that took trips and had company that we have no knowledge of. Will report on what we do know.

The Ross Littells, Stoney Point area, had as their holiday guests Mrs. Minnie Littell, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Zuschlag and son of New Braunfels. A cousin of Ross', Lewis Box of Healdton, Okla., was also a guest in the home Sunday, 2 Sept. Mrs. Zuschlag is the former Ola Mae Littell.

Mrs. Loyce Parsons of Dallas and Mrs. Pauline Seay of Nocona were guests of the J. M. (Meb) Dunns over the holidays. Mrs. Dorothy (Brown) Duck of Pampa was a houseguest of the Dunns the week prior to the holiday. The Dunn's daughter, Mrs. H. A. (Evelyn) Little of Oklahoma City arrived Sept. 4 for a visit. Roxie and Evelyn had a small birthday party for Meb on the 5th of Sept., he has reached the ripe age of 80. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Tom English, Pauline Seay, Juanita Bailey, Vera Mae McGee and Cleo Lanier.

Meb is one of Forestburg's distinguished senior citizens. (He is not much of a Mercy Bencher.) He was in the grocery business for years in Forestburg — then his wife's assistant while she was Postmaster. They both retired from the Post Office several years ago. What puzzles me about Meb is that the Bible says man's time on the earth is three score and ten and if he lasts any longer, it is because of strength. We associate strength with exercise and work — now where did Meb get his strength!

Visiting Mrs. June Eldridge and Connie for the holidays were June's sister and husband the C. A. Guffords and son Mike of Cambridge, Nebraska. Other guests were the Loyd Bewleys and children of Gainesville, the George Oosteens and children of Dallas and Mary Jo Reynolds of the Burg. Mrs. Bewley and Mrs. Osteen are June's daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Brewer of Weatherford, Oklahoma, spent the weekend holidays with his parents the Elmo Brewers, Dewey way. Gary attends Southwest State College at Weatherford. Gary and wife have just recently moved up there.

Enjoying a holiday outing and picnic at Nocona Lake Sunday, Sept. 2, were the Jack C. Dills and Vatoni, Faith Sandusky and boys — Willie and Steve. Also joining the festivities were the William Talleys and children of Saint Jo and the Charles Cooks and son of the Dallas area.

Myrtle McMillion, Dewey, made a fast trip to Orange, Sept. 1. She accompanied her brother E. B. of Bowie. They made such a speedy trip — returning Sunday — that we thought perhaps Tropical Storm Delia had something to do with it. Myrtle said no — seems they went to pick up E. B.'s wife who had been visiting with their son Harold and family.

Eula Bell Boyd and son Rickey, Dewey, and the Tony Vanns of Bowie made a trip to Arlington, Thursday evening, Sept. 6. They took in the Miami Dolphin and Dallas Cowboy football game in Texas Stadium.

The Uz Community had their annual Homecoming last Saturday afternoon, Sept. 1. We heard they had a good turnout, a lot of good food and a lot of good talk and telling of old day tales. Everyone there had a good time.

There will be a coffee at the Forestburg Community Center Wednesday morning, Sept. 19 at 10 a.m., to welcome all the new ladies who have moved into our community. All ladies in the area are invited to come and meet and welcome them to our community.

The latest word on Forestburg's oil well on the Jones land: From all indications they're going to make a well out of it — that is put a pump on it. We won't know its productive capacity till Casey starts getting his checks.

And the rains came. Our area's rain started about noon Wednesday, Sept. 5, and we ended up with about four inches. It was a much needed rain; however, it probably did some harm to our local tomato, cantaloupe and watermelon patches.

Howard Sledge has "retired" from his job with National Supply at Gainesville. Howard has quite a bit of property in the New Harp area. He and his wife Ruby live in a beautiful home along the blacktop out of Forestburg on the Alvord highway. Now, Howard, don't do like brother Roe and get you a bunch of hogs and then go a "diet" and then your wife will have to start letting out all your overalls.

There was a little visiting going on at the Jim Barnett's. They had as their guests Friday night, Sept. 7, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Medley of Bowie and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Barnett of Jackboro.

Ruth Smith, Rosston Road, is back to being school-girl again. She is enrolled in a Real Estate Appraisal course. Ruth is really very absorbed in this real estate business. Knowing Ruth — we feel certain she will be a success at it too.

Mrs. Clifton (Louetta) Bewley honored her granddaughter Dalana Bewley of Gainesville, with a birthday party Saturday, Sept. 8, at the Clifton Bewley home. Dalana's birthday won't be until the 11th but Louetta had the party a few days earlier. There were 10 little guests present — they played games and hunted for candy and gum which had been hid earlier. Ice cream and cake was served to all present. We would like to add that Dalana's other grandmother, June Eldridge, was also present.

Other Labor Day Holiday vacationers were the Ted Jacksons. Ted and Laura Belle left at noon Friday, August 31, for Pampa to visit the Johnny Brogdons. Ted and Johnny got in some fishing and Laura Belle and daughter Shirley got to go shopping. So all should have been happy. Sunday, Sept. 2, the Jacksons headed for Matador to visit another daughter and family — J. T. McCandless tribe. Also a granddaughter, Billie Dale Terrel, who lives on a ranch close to nearby Afton. The Jacksons got in on a big round-up at the McCandless' ranch. They made it back home late Monday evening — tired but happy after having a wonderful trip.

Friday evening September 7 at 8 p.m. a wedding display shower was held at the Forestburg Community Center honoring Mr. and Mrs. Gary D. Johnson. The hostesses were Mrs. Letha Roberts, Mrs. Wanda Monroe, Mrs. Shirley Lanier, Mrs. Wilma Mosley, Mrs. Merle Hudspeth and Mrs. Velda Freeman.

Folks don't forget that Forestburg Baptist Church Revival starts Sunday, Sept. 16, and lasts thru Saturday, Sept. 22. Jimmie Nelson of Fort Worth will be the guest speaker.

In last weeks column we mentioned what Forestburg needed was another Weinzapfel. Now before you Muensterites get too enthused, we were not referring to Henry. We have enough "Henrys" over here already.

The town eccentric has bought an old double-decker bus to go to drive-in movies. "I like," he explains, "to sit in the balcony."

PUBLIC NOTICE
SUMMARY OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS
SPECIAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 6, 1973

NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 8)

Article III, Sections 5, 24 and 49a and Article VIII, Section 6 of the Texas Constitution are amended to:

Provide for regular annual sessions of the Legislature. The regular session in each odd-numbered year would be for a period not to exceed 180 days. The regular session in each even-numbered year would be for a period not to exceed 60 days and would be limited to consideration of fiscal matters and any emergency matters submitted by the Governor. The 60 day session could be extended by the Governor for a period not to exceed 30 days;

Provide an annual salary for members of the Legislature not exceeding $15,000 per year and a per diem not exceeding $18 per day for each day of each regular session or special session;

Provide that no appropriation of money shall be made for a longer term than one year and direct the Comptroller to make annual estimates of anticipated revenue rather than biennial estimates.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to provide for annual regular sessions of the legislature; and to provide an annual salary of $15,000 and per diem for the members of the legislature, effective in January, 1975."

NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT (H.J.R. 7)

Article XVI, Sections 50 and 51 of the Texas Constitution are amended to:

Include within the scope of homestead protection the real property of a single adult person which meets the other requirements of homestead property, and to provide that a family homestead may not be abandoned except with the consent of both spouses.

Presently a single adult person is not entitled to claim a homestead exemption and a married man can abandon a family homestead without the consent of his wife.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to include within the scope of homestead protection the real property of a single adult person which meets the other requirements of homestead property, and to provide that a family homestead may not be abandoned except with the consent of both spouses."

NUMBER THREE ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 13)

Article VIII, Sections 1-a and 1-b of the Texas Constitution are amended to:

Extend the $3,000 ad valorem tax exemption to the residential homesteads of unmarried adults.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to extend the $3,000 ad valorem tax exemption to the homesteads of unmarried adults."

NUMBER FOUR ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 1)

Article XVI, Section 59, of the Texas Constitution is amended by adding a new Subsection (e) which:

Provides that no law creating a conservation and reclamation district shall be passed unless a copy of the proposed law is delivered to the commissioners court of each county and to the governing body of each incorporated city or town in whose jurisdiction said district or any part thereof is or will be located. Each such commissioners court and governing body may file its written consent or opposition to the proposed law with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives. Each special law creating such a district must comply with general laws then in effect relating to consent by political subdivisions to the creation of such districts.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment establishing certain requirements relative to the enactment of laws creating certain conservation and reclamation districts."

NUMBER FIVE ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 12)

Article XI, Section 7 of the Texas Constitution is amended to:

Provide that all counties and cities bordering on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico are authorized to levy a tax to pay for bonds issued for the construction of sea walls and breakwaters upon a majority vote of the resident property tax-payers. Counties and cities are presently authorized to levy such taxes and this amendment only changes the required vote from a two-thirds majority to a simple majority.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing counties and cities bordering on the Gulf of Mexico to issue bonds for the construction of sea walls and breakwaters upon a vote of the resident property tax-payers."

NUMBER SIX ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 26)

Article V, Section 8 of the Texas Constitution is amended by adding a new paragraph which:

Provides that the district court, concurrently with the county court, shall have the general jurisdiction of a probate court and in a probate proceeding shall also have the jurisdiction otherwise conferred on it by law. It also provides that the legislature may increase, diminish, or eliminate the jurisdiction of the district court or county court in probate matters, may adopt rules governing the filing, distribution, or transfer of cases and proceedings as between the courts having jurisdiction of probate matters, and may provide that all appeals in probate matters shall be to the courts of civil appeals.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment stating that the district court concurrently with the county court shall have the general jurisdiction of a probate court, and providing the jurisdiction thereof, and further providing that in any probate proceeding the district court shall also have jurisdiction otherwise conferred upon it by law, and further providing that the legislature may increase, diminish or eliminate the jurisdiction of the district court or county court in probate matters, and further providing that the legislature shall have power to adopt rules governing the filing, distribution and transfer of all such cases and proceedings as between district courts, county courts, and other courts having jurisdiction thereof, and further providing that the legislature may provide that all appeals in such matters shall be to the courts of (civil) appeals."

NUMBER SEVEN ON THE BALLOT (H.J.R. 6)

Article III, Section 49-b of the Texas Constitution is amended to:

Provide for an additional $100 million in bonds or obligations of the State of Texas for the Veterans' Land Fund. This amendment increases the present $400 million authorization to $500 million;

Remove the present provision which permits buying of land only by those veterans who served between September 16, 1940 and the date of formal withdrawal of United States troops from the armed conflict in Viet Nam. This amendment would allow all veterans who serve after September 16, 1940 to buy land from the Veterans' Land Fund, provided they are otherwise qualified;

Provide that, in the event of the death of an eligible

Texas veteran after the veteran has filed with the Board an application and contract of sale to purchase through the Board the tract selected by him or her and before the purchase has been completed, then the surviving spouse may complete the transaction.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to provide for an additional $100 million in bonds or obligations of the State of Texas for the Veterans' Land Fund."

NUMBER EIGHT ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 29)

Article XI, of the Texas Constitution is amended by adding a new Section 5(a) which:

Authorizes and requires incorporated cities, towns, and villages, regardless of population and notwithstanding the constitutional limitations on total tax rates, to levy such annual ad valorem taxes on the taxable property in the city, town or village as are necessary to pay the principal of and interest on, when due, the general obligations hereinafter issued by the city, town, or village. The legislature is empowered to limit by general or special law the total principal amount of general obligations which may be issued, but unless and until the legislature acts to do so, the limitations established by statute with respect to the total principal amount of bonds which may be issued by independent school districts shall apply as the rate limitation on cities, towns, and villages.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it appears on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize cities, towns, and villages to levy such ad valorem taxes as are sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on their general obligations hereafter issued subject to the restrictions provided by law."

NUMBER NINE ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 25)

Article VIII of the Texas Constitution is amended by adding a new Section 2C which:

Allows the Legislature, by general law, to exempt all real and personal property used by non-profit water supply corporations or cooperatives from all property taxes. The exemption would apply only to such property as is reasonably necessary to conduct the business of a non-profit water supply corporation or cooperative.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to exempt from property taxes certain property used by a non-profit water supply corporation or a non-profit water supply cooperative."

Sometime last year newspapers carried articles about national, state and local politicians not making out their income tax returns or getting delays as much as a year in filing their return. In one state the papers even named the political offenders. The Internal Revenue Service now estimates over 5,000,000 people are considered nonfilers.

Some don't file because the forms are too complicated to be submitted without costly assistance. Many just neglect the task till past the deadline then just forget. The big concern to the I.R.S. is the number of elected officials, lawyers, doctors, accountants and other professional people who do not file. The estimated loss in tax dollars is between 6 billion and 10 billion yearly. The I.R.S. is afraid this practice will grow into a tax payer's revolt which would take years to straighten out.

I made the remark early last week that I'd like a half inch of rain. Joe Dangelmayr said he'd like an inch more than that. A day later we had three inches and Joe's gauge registered full at 4 inches. Just proves "them that has-gets".

Some people are going to see a lot of football starting now. Our two schools have a total of seven teams so there will be games several nights each week and several games certain nights. Now if we'd start girls football and find a coach for the kindergarten group we could say — Muenster goes all out for the sport. With that much local activity it will be difficult to catch a TV game except on Monday night.

Within the next week to ten days the 1974 cars will be on display. Remember when that was such an exciting time to look forward to. There was so much secrecy about the new models and usually the body styles had drastic changes. Now we see pictures of the new cars months before showroom time and except for grilles there are few notable changes. The cars have reached a fine degree of comfort and styling so most changes are in the engine, transmission, electrical or fuel systems.

Exceptions this year will be in Ford's Mustang and Chevrolet's Camero, both to have drastic changes.

The administration lifted the ceiling prices on beef two days early (big deal). No one has noticed any big change. The live market is down some and retail prices have advanced. That is because at ceiling prices the retailer was not getting his money back. Some think meat prices will stay at near the present level, others say that with the number of cattle, hogs and poultry available the prices will go down. The demand or lack of it at the meat counter will now determine the price level.

The Enterprise now has a beautiful catalogue "The Flower Wedding Line" by Regency. We can now offer a wide selection of wedding invitations, thank you notes, announcements, bride's reception accessories etc. You're welcome to come look it over.

Don't forget Big Time Wrestling this Saturday night at the Sacred Heart High School Gym. It's entertaining to watch these 300 pound-plus men go at each other. The event is sponsored by the Sacred Heart Alumni Association. Tickets are available at Tom & Jerry's, H&W Meat Co. and at the High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Reiter had their son Reynold, his wife and son Steve as guests last weekend. They all had Sunday dinner with the Andy Arendt family at Lindsay.

Mayor Proclaims Oct. 14 German Day

By proclamation of Mayor David Bright, Sunday, October 14, has been designated as German Day in Muenster in recognition of the role of persons of German descent in the progress of our nation, our state and our city.

The proclamation observes the 289th anniversary of the establishment of the first German settlement in America and coincides with the annual German Day at Texas State Fair, which will again be preceded by an elaborate Saturday night festival including concert, dinner and dancing.

Bayer Son-in-law Administrator of St. Joseph Center

Bishop Thomas Tschoepe has announced the appointment of Jim Schwab, M.S.S.W., as administrator of St. Joseph's Center in Dallas. He succeeds Sister Corine Walsh, CCVI, who was transferred by her Order to St. Louis, Mo.

Schwab is married to the former Ruth Bayer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bayer. They and their young son A. J. reside in Dallas.

Schwab assumed his new post Sept. 1, and became the first lay administrator of the institution that grew out of the combining of Dunne Memorial and St. Joseph homes.

Sisters of Charity of the Incarnate Word will continue to operate on the staff of the center which is a child care facility with a treatment oriented program for boys and girls between the ages of 10 and 18 with behavioral problems that can't be worked out in their own homes.

Schwab is a native of Cincinnati, has his bachelor's degree from North Texas State University and his master's degree in social work from the University of Texas at Austin. He has been a counselor with Catholic Family and Children Services since 1971 and in that capacity has worked with many of the children at St. Joseph's and their families.

Before returning to complete his graduate work in Austin he was recreation supervisor at Dunne Memorial Home for Boys.

NEWS OF THE SICK

Aloys Voth of Lindsay entered Muenster Hospital Wednesday for surgery Thursday.

Lynn Crow of Nocona was dismissed from Muenster Hospital Monday after being a patient nine days for treatment of seven broken ribs and a fractured vertebra sustained in a motorcycle spill on Sept. 1. His wife is the former Rosalee Moster. She stayed here with her mother Mrs. John Moster during the time. Lynn has been fitted with a back brace he will be wearing for some time.

HOSPITAL NOTES

The following patients were dismissed during the past week from Muenster Memorial Hospital.

Tuesday, Sept. 4: Mrs. Eliza Willis, Saint Jo.

Wednesday, Sept. 5: Shawn Vogel, Muenster; Lowell Brown, Brownfield.

Thursday, Sept. 6: Stacy Jo Qualls and Mrs. Florence Leopard, Saint Jo, Kenneth Ing, Gainesville.

Friday, Sept. 7: Mrs. Donald Hennigan and baby boy and Ted Endres, Muenster; Bernie Bruce, B. J. Jarrell, Mrs. Harold Almon, Mrs. Steve Duncan and Mrs. George Brown, Gainesville.

Saturday, Sept. 8: Jack Small, Tyler; Mrs. Charlotte Overcash, Gainesville.

Sunday, Sept. 9: Mrs. A. J. Huchton and baby boy, Muenster; Alan Britain, Forestburg. Monday, Sept. 10: Denise Sicking, Muenster; Mrs. Lola Geurin, Saint Jo; W. S. Whaley, Bowie; Harold Crow, Nocona.

Tuesday, Sept. 11: Mrs. Martin Kralicke, Muenster.

One magistrate to another: "Listen, Bill, we're both magistrates, and we've both been charged with speeding, right? You hear my case, step down from the bench, and I'll hear your case." "I find you guilty, $1 fine." "OK, now it's my turn. Guilty. $150 fine." "But I only fined you $1." "I know, but there's too much of this going on. This is the second case of this kind we've had in here today!"

A "slight tax increase" costs us several hundred dollars, while a "substantial tax cut" saves us 70 cents.

Tigers ---

13 and the go-ahead TD. A run for extra points was stopped cold.

The third quarter belonged to Sacred Heart but in a rather futile way. The Tigers did not allow the Rams a first down and made three of their own but ran out of steam inside the 20. The splurge started with a fumble recovery by Kevin Pels. Four plays later a face mask tackle gave Sacred Heart 15 free yards to the 19 and the next four plays got only to the 11.

Finally the tide turned on the first play of the final quarter. Kenny Hess intercepted. Krahl made 6 and Pels crashed through for 14 to the 27. Four more plays reached the 16 and Krahl sailed around right end to the goal. The Tigers were back in the lead, 14-12, with 9:50 still on the clock.

Next the Rams made two first downs and lost a fourth down gamble in mid field. Then an exchange of kicks was followed by two Tiger first downs. However the next series ended in a fumble on the 13.

From there an attempted pass brought on a big rush and a fumble recovered by Sacred Heart on the 2.

Twelve seconds remained on the clock and Mark Hess dashed through a big gap for another 6-pointer. Endres connected with Bartush for two more points.

ETSU Appoints Student Teacher in MHS Ag. Dept.

Larry Cook, an agricultural education major of East Texas State University has been appointed a student teacher in the vocational agriculture department of Muenster High School for the first semester of this school year. He is currently spending a week as observer in the classroom and will be here assisting Edgar Dyer as teacher from November 5 to December 20. Cook's home is in Saint Jo.

Muenster High has been selected for several years as a student teaching assignment by ETSU. According to Dr. A. C. Hughes of the ETSU Department of Agriculture, only schools with outstanding Voc-Ag departments are selected for the assignment, and Muenster High's course, under direction of Edgar Dyer, has that qualification.

Student teaching is a part of the experience provided students who are preparing to become vocational ag teachers or professional agriculture workers. Besides enhancing their university work it provides valuable training under the guidance of an experienced teacher.

Cubs Start Loop Action with 26-8 Win over Saint Jo

Sacred Heart's Tiger Cubs of the seventh and eighth graders made a great start in both their season and their conference races Tuesday night by rolling over Saint Jo's Panther Kittens 26-8.

They were in control all the way and probably would have made the score more one sided if the team's youngsters had not been given considerable time. Eighth graders playing throughout the first half ran the score to 20-0, also made 117 yards rushing while the visitors were thrown back frequently for a net loss of 43 in the half.

Neither team made the required 10 on the first series, but Sacred Heart got going on its second chance. After Joe Sicking's 25 yard punt return Danny Walterscheid carried twice for 26 to the 14. Then Sicking got around left end for the first TD. Nice blocking was a big factor in each of the three runs and Bobby Hartman did a good job of running the show from the quarterback position.

The Cubs' next possession was more of the same story. Roger Haverkamp's 37 was the big gain in a 59 yard drive using six plays. Nice work up front helped again as Kenny Felderhoff, Danny Walterscheid and Joe Sicking kept gaining, and Danny Walterscheid made the last four yards.

The third TD early in the second quarter was set up by a bad pass to the kicker who was downed for a 14 yard loss by Bernie Fette. That was on the 13 and two plays were enough — 6 by Walterscheid and 7 by Joe Bartush. Bartush went over again for extra points.

Shortly after intermission a Saint Jo kick receiver was caught on the 2 and the third play after that was a disaster for the visitors. The ball was fumbled behind the goal line and Danny Walterscheid recovered it for a TD.

Facing seventh graders the Kittens then started moving. They made 68 yards on six plays including one 35 yard gallop and a 23 yard scoring play.

In statistics Sacred Heart led 7-2 in first downs and 144-20 in yardage. Teams broke even on fumbles with 1 each. Sacred Heart intercepted the only pass of the game.

Confetti ---

of the catalytic converter which is supposed to clean up the exhaust of today's cars.

One can hardly imagine how the absurd pollution control device for cars was ever sold to our American lawmakers. It is a monstrous imposition on the American customer and an insult to American intelligence. It makes a car cost more in the first place, also makes it use more gasoline thereby creating more pollution, and then is supposed to purify the increased volume of exhaust.

How much more sensible if industry had simply been told to build more efficient engines, which is possible already if the emphasis is on economy rather than power and speed. Using more of the fuel's potential, the engine would have a cleaner exhaust that would not need further cleaning. This would not add to the price of present cars and it would reduce operating cost whereas the other makes the car cost more and adds to operating cost. Can anyone dispute that the ecology nuts are on the wrong track?

The clean air gadget is a menace to our energy reserve as well as to our pocket books. Experts estimate that cars with the prescribed engine device and catalytic convertor will burn four million additional barrels of crude a day by 1985, and total additional consumption from '75 to '85 will amount to 10 billion barrels of oil — nearly one fourth of the nation's proven reserves, including those of Alaska.
