VOLUME XXXV

MUENSTER, COOKE COUNTY, TEXAS 76252 MAY 28, 1971

NUMBER 27

One of the more gratifying signs of our times is the report that Lawrence Welk and his Champagne Music Makers will remain on the TV airways by popular demand.

This show-down got under way a few weeks ago when ABC notified Welk that his show, after 16 years on the network, would not be renewed for the 71-72 season.

In addition there have been many business firms offering to sponsor the Welk show on a syndicated basis.

According to the report the coming year's schedule will have 32 new one-hour shows, 20 of which will be repeated to complete the year's total of 52 weeks.

Sunday's TV gave the country another version of political breast beating over the Vietnam issue. Entitled "The Calley Case, A Nation's Agony," it hammered away at establishing a public guilt complex.

One member of the panel brought up a point that deserves thought, but unfortunately was not developed when another person brought up another idea.

In contrast, the man said, we have many accounts of far more gruesome incidents than the enemy committed as standard, officially sanctioned procedure.

It's all right to refer to My Lai as the nation's agony, but not in the way it is being done. This attitude points the accusing finger only at us.

A small portion of the other side of this issue is available in an article of this week's Twin Circle. Its account of the Harvest of Terrors, based on the report of an official US Mission, states that over 5000 local and national South Vietnamese government officials were murdered between 1957 and 1965.

The article also quotes from a US State Department study in 1967 listing several methods of terrorism by the Hanoi backed Reds.

Harvest Outlook Is Encouraging Despite Drought

The grain crop at Muenster is a pleasant surprise. After one of the driest seven months periods in local history, and indications of a general crop failure, the yields are showing up much better than expected.

Reports from the farmers to local grain dealers indicate more than half a normal crop as a community average, perhaps nearly two thirds of normal.

The good report applies to oats, barley and wheat. The only wheat received through Wednesday is a load from Arthur Hellman at Tony's Seed and Feed.

Two favorable factors seem to apply to all three of the grains. Weeds and grasses are less prevalent, so grains are coming in with less trashy foreign matter.

However, the quantity of oats expected is rather limited. One reason is that a number of farmers were discouraged with the outlook a few weeks ago and turned in their livestock expecting to realize more than by harvesting.

All factors considered, the beginning of grain harvest here is exceptionally pleasing. Favorable weather through cutting time can bring a fair crop out of an apparent crop failure.

General opinion of old timers in this area: dry weather is seldom as hard on grain crops as it seems to be.

Story Hour Starts June 2 at Library

Muenster Public Library will again conduct a story hour, once a week beginning Wednesday June 2 and continuing through July 7, from 10 to 11 a.m.

Children ages four through the fourth grade are invited to attend and three-year olds who enjoy stories are also welcome.

1.06 Inch Rain

At last! A rain that's more than just a teaser. Wednesday night's shower measured 1.06 inch, not a great deal by usual standards but the biggest Muenster has had since September.

On Dean's List Miss Darlene Hess is a member of the Dean's List for the past semester at North Texas State University with a grade average of 3.5 out of a possible 4.

Library Begins Summer Schedule

Muenster Public Library has changed to its summer schedule — open each Tuesday and Thursday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Memorial Sunday To Honor Deceased Of Armed Forces

Deceased service men of Muenster will be remembered Sunday in the annual memorial service conducted by the VFW Post and Auxiliary in cooperation with the pastor of Sacred Heart Church.

Services will follow the 7 a.m. Mass and will begin with a procession from church to the cemetery. A color guard and a rifle detail from the post will take the lead.

Also in the procession will be officers of the Auxiliary with wreaths to be placed on the monuments and Cub Scouts with floral tributes to be placed on service men's graves.

Special places of honor and special flowers — corsages for the ladies and boutonnières for the men — will be given to Gold Star Parents. There are nine: Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fleitman, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bayer, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Weinzapfel, and Mmes. R. R. Endres, John Felderhoff and Leo Mosier.

The procession's first stop in the cemetery will be at the crucifixion group in the center where the pastor will lead in prayer for all deceased of the community and one of the wreaths will be deposited.

Procession will continue to the service men's graves where Auxiliary officers and Cub Scouts will place their flowers, the pastor will lead in prayer and deliver the memorial address, and veterans will conduct the traditional military services consisting of a three-volley rifle salute and taps.

Buddy Poppy Day Sunday will also be Buddy Poppy Day in Muenster. Auxiliary members will accept contributions in the annual campaign after all services in Sacred Heart Church. They will be at the church doors with poppies.

Hospital Adopts $438,516 Budget

A budget of $438,516.06 has been adopted by directors of the Muenster Hospital District for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1971. The figure was set at the board's annual public hearing in the hospital last Wednesday night.

The anticipated cost of operation is $52,762 higher than last year and makes allowance for an increase of patient census as well as price increases due to inflation. David Bright, administrator, said that the daily census figure is expected to increase from 18 to 18.6, which is consistent with last year's increase, and drug and supply prices, like this year, are expected to go up 15 to 25 cents.

The budget is divided into two parts. Expected operational budget, that is, the income from hospital charges and paid out as hospital expenses, is estimated at $400,121. And the revenue from a hospital district tax of 65 cents per $100 of valuation is expected to be $38,395.06.

Principal sources of the anticipated income were listed as follows: Room and board (room rate) $198,535.50; X-Ray department $45,070; Laboratory $27,042; Operating room, emergency room, delivery room and anesthesia, $48,572; Drugs, oxygen, medical supplies and other charges $80,901.

Major expense items were listed as follows: Salaries, $194,749; Utilities $13,817; Food, $12,150; Radiologists and pathologists, $20,060; Drugs, $19,010; Supplies for medical, X-Ray, laboratory, laundry, maintenance, housekeeping, linens, etc., $61,593; Administrative expense including postage, printing, freight, fees, etc., $11,000; Depreciation of facilities and equipment, $34,000; Employee welfare and retirement, insurance and contingencies $33,739.

MS Degree Earned By Margie Endres

Miss Margie Endres was among graduates at the University of Texas, Arlington, in commencement exercises May 17 when she received her Masters Degree in Science. Her mother, Mrs. R. R. Endres, spent four days with her at Fort Worth and attended the graduation program. Miss Endres will continue her social work in Fort Worth.

Swimming Pool Will Open June 1

The swimming season at Muenster begins next Tuesday, June 1, Dan Hamric, pool manager, announced, Wednesday as more than a week of preparatory work was drawing to a close.

The place has received a general fix-up and paint-up, including a new coat of special non-skid paint on the floor surrounding the pool as a precaution against falling.

Hamric said that the pool operation this year will be about the same as last year — except a raise in admission price. The charge now is 25 cents for children under 13 and 50 cents for everyone who is 13 or over.

The same personnel will be back on the job. That will be Dan Hamric, David Fette, Janel Stoffels and June Stoffels. The pool will be open daily except Monday from 2 to 9 p.m. and it will be available for private swimming parties on Mondays or before or after the regular hours.

The annual Red Cross swimming instruction classes are booked to start the first week of July. By then, Hamric said, the morning air should be less chilly and the kiddies can be more comfortable.

NEWS OF THE SICK

Russ Linn is confined to his home on account of an eye injury sustained May 15. His left eye was injured by a piece of wire that hit the eyeball while he was working on his farm. He was hospitalized in Sherman under care of a specialist and since being released is a shut-in except for trips for eye treatment and check-ups.

Sunday Is the Day For Fishing Derby Sponsored by JCs

It's time again for the annual fishing contest sponsored by the Muenster Jaycees. Harold Flusche, chairman, announced this week that the date is next Sunday, May 30, from 2 to 5 p.m., and the location is the lake on Triple F Ranch (formerly Hugo Lutkenhaus place) 1 mile west of town on Highway 82.

The derby is open to everyone, kids and adults of both sexes and all ages. And it will be held in two divisions. The junior division is for kids of 9 and under, the senior division for all over 9.

Two prizes are offered in each division: for the largest fish caught and for the largest number of fish. The junior age group may be helped but not the senior group. Flusche said he's been busy lately axing willows and generally getting the shore line in shape. He said the lake is relatively free of moss and fishing should be good.

There will be no charge for entering the contest, nor for the Cokes which will be served.

Contestants and visitors are reminded that the lake can be reached by two routes. One is a mile west to the Triple F ranch and follow the road to the lake. The other, recommended for bicycles — to avoid the highway hazard — is the road past Alfred Bayer's. People going that way are asked to cross the fence on the walk-over provided there.

Andrie told the graduates to excel in the field they choose as they go out into the world and not to be satisfied by being average. He said he has high hopes for the youth of today as leaders of tomorrow. His talk began with humorous experiences he has had as a member of the Dallas team.

48 Local Students Receive HS Diplomas

Muenster High

The hope of the future depends on people who believe in God, the Ten Commandments and the Constitution, graduates of Muenster High School were reminded last Thursday night in their commencement address by Dr. A. E. Shasteen, president of Cooke County Junior College.

He told them that problems are not solved by frustrated and misguided critics but by people like those who brought our country to its present standard of greatness.

"Ours is not a sick society," he said, "but the most enlightened, unselfish and compassionate in history." The past generation has made more medical and scientific progress than was made for the century before. It built more schools, hospitals and libraries, also trained more professional and technical men.

It increased production while decreasing work, created luxuries formerly not available to kings, extended help to the needy and aged. Dr. Shasteen urged the graduates to keep those traditions in sight as they make their start in the adult world, to continue with those standards as they take on their mission of tackling current problems.

He advised eighth grade graduates to go to high school, saying he hopes all will be graduating again in four years. Also he advised a college career for the high school grads if they have the inclination and ability for college work, but he pointed out that opportunity awaits many who choose to develop other skills.

He quoted statistics showing that in 1975 four skilled technicians will be needed for every college graduate. So, taking a job or learning a trade also present good possibilities for a useful and happy future.

Cooke County Junior College offers a good start toward either goal, he added, in vocational technical training or in the first two years of college. Other speakers on the commencement program were Patty Felderhoff in the valedictory and Debbie Yosten in the salutatory.

High school diplomas were presented by Urban Endres, president of the school board, assisted by Superintendent L. B. Bruns. Eighth grade diplomas were presented by Ed Cler, vice-president of the school board, assisted by Principal C. O. Cash.

The program opened with an invocation by Ramon Luke, eighth grade salutatorian, and closed with benediction by Diane Yosten, eighth grade valedictorian. Miss Bettye Dodds played for the professional and recreational and also gave a vocal solo with Kristi Stormer accompanying.

The night before graduation the students attended a special commencement of the Sacred Heart CCD program of religious instruction for public school students. It was held at 7:30 p.m. in church with graduates of the high school and eighth grade in caps and gowns. At communion the grads received the Blessed Eucharist under species of both bread and wine.

Father Placidus praised students for good attendance and application during the year and the instructors for their dedication. He awarded certificates of appreciation to the teachers and assistants and certificates of perfect attendance to about twenty five students.

Dona Brewster to Be Demonstration Agent, Parker Co.

Miss Dona Brewster, assistant home demonstration agent for Cooke County the past three years has been appointed home demonstration agent for Parker County. Beginning July 1 her office will be in Weatherford. Succeeding Miss Brewster in Cooke County will be Miss Marlea Ann Thayer of Grant, Neb., who will assume her duties July 1. She is a May graduate of Kearney State College at Kearney, Neb., and also attended Doane College at Crete, Neb.

The thing hardest to keep, even more than money, is quiet. Cub Scouts Meet Monday Muenster Cub Scouts will meet Monday, May 31, in the Bartush Show Barn, 7:30. Highlight of the evening will be rocket races. The boys have been working on rockets as their project. Parents are urged to attend with their sons.

Sacred Heart Hi

A guideline recommended to the graduates of Sacred Heart High as they pursue careers in this changing world is always to be a credit to their school, themselves their families and to God.

The advice was given by Brother Adrian Gandin, S. C., principal of Bishop Dunne High School, Dallas, in his commencement address at the 7 p.m. Mass in Sacred Heart Church Sunday night.

Brother Gandin told the seniors that their job in life will be to cope with a fast changing world, as indicated by the fact that the past 60 years have had more changes than the previous 300. We have entered an age of automation, computerization, greater concern for environment and human relationships along with a great deal of confusion and complexities and conflicts with faith. Through all of this the graduates' real goal is to steer a straight course in harmony with fundamental truths they learned in school. Hold to those basic principles as a point of reference when judging the merits of changes which are to come.

Diplomas to twenty high school graduates and thirty one eighth grade grads were awarded by Bishop A. Dangler, assisted by Father Placidus, superintendent of Sacred Heart School. He also presented awards for the high averages in junior high. Laura Kralicke received the honor in the eighth grade. Sharon Rohmer and Dean Sicking tied for seventh grade honor and each received an award.

There were no high school awards at the commencement. All had been presented the evening before in the annual all-awards banquet.

Processional and recessional at the commencement service was a combination of trumpet and vocal renditions of sacred hymns. The congregation and trumpets alternated in presenting the verses.

Special ceremonies during the Mass was a presentation of symbolic gifts by teachers at the offertory and reception of communion under species of both bread and wine by the seniors and the eighth graders.

Herbie Herr is New Commander VFW District I Herbie Herr of Muenster Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 6205 is the new commander for District I. He was favored for the office during the annual election of officers at the district meeting in Lewisville during the weekend.

Muenster Ladies Auxiliary also placed one member on the district roster. Mrs. Don Flusche was elected flag bearer. The convention opened Saturday afternoon with registration and a social hour from 4 to 5 followed by a dance at night.

Breakfast Sunday was followed by the noon banquet for which Mel Stanley of San Angelo, Department senior vice president was guest speaker on VFW and what it stands for.

Officer election was the principal business during closed meeting of the VFW and Auxiliary in the afternoon. It was announced that the state convention will be held in San Antonio June 17-19 and the next district meeting will be hosted by Greenville July 31-Aug. 1.

District I is composed of 19 posts in Cooke, Denton, Grayson, Hunt and Collin Counties with some 5000 members. Members from Muenster's organizations at the district meeting were Commander and Mrs. J. H. Wimmer, Quartermaster and Mrs. Herbie Herr, Mr. and Mrs. Dink Hudspeth, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Schilling, Bernard Hesse, Maurus Rohmer, Carl Schilling, Pat Hennigan, Arthur Felderhoff, Henry Pels Jr. and Meinrad Yosten.

On Disarming

Some people will never be content until we disarm completely, throwing ourselves on the mercy of Moscow and Peking. But does anyone know who will be the leaders in the Kremlin a few years from now? Can anyone guarantee they will not try to take over the world if we abandon the role that history has thrust upon us, the role of leader of the Free World?

The present Kremlin leadership is bad enough. In the words of Senator Henry Jackson (D-Wash.): "I regard the Soviet Union as an opportunistic hotel burglar who walks down the corridors trying all the door handles to see which door is open."

In the past we have always been able to count on our ability to defend ourselves against attack. Today however, we are less and less able to defend ourselves. General Arthur Trudeau warned some years ago that we are "the world's greatest nuclear nudist colony." Dr. Edward Teller urged six years ago that we should put "the greatest possible stress" on a defensive missile system. Yet we have none.

General Curtis LeMay, as Air Force Chief of Staff, urged that we develop a 100-megaton nuclear weapon because Russia already has it, and that we need it as a deterrent against aggression. But we have failed to keep up with the Soviet Union, and she can now destroy more than 95 percent of our nuclear power in one all-out attack. General Thomas Power, former head of the Strategic Air Command, feared before his death a few months ago that the United States would be subject to a "yield-or-else" ultimatum in the next few years if we let Moscow continue to get further ahead of us in the nuclear field. Now General LeMay has come out with the same prediction. LeMay predicted recently that "within 18 months" Russia will serve a "capitulation-or-else" ultimatum to the United States, and that President Nixon will have no choice but to succumb to Soviet demands.

Russia already has "the finest strategic weapons system in the world," said LeMay, while "we have become a second-rate power." It is wrong, he said, to believe we have a strong national defense system. "Like it or not," we are at war with the Communists — and we'd better do something about it fast, before it's too late."

The oceans used to protect us, but now they are full of subs with nuclear missiles. At a moment's notice the skies can be even more deadly. We had better heed the experts. Our only security is a strong defense.

Stockade Veterans

Herb Philbrick, who lives in Washington, D. C., sent us his eye-witness account of the veterans who demonstrated against the war in Vietnam. The image on TV, he pointed out, was that of responsible servicemen, legitimately concerned with the welfare of our nation. What Philbrick observed was "rabble for the most part, low-grade, foul-mouthed alcohol-drenched riffraff — the type you usually find in the stockade or brig."

Hundreds of park benches were torn up and $75,000 worth of flowering trees and shrubs were destroyed around the Washington Monument, reported Philbrick. Ten of the 50 American flags around the monument were torn down, and the other 40 were saved only because the Park Police absorbed physical attack in rescuing them.

In order to avoid serious injury from the mob, the Park Police had to take refuge inside the Monument for 11 hours, until 4 a.m. A $17,000 restroom trailer on the grounds was also set afire and destroyed. The mob of alleged veterans broke into the basement of the Monument and smashed electric lights, including most of the expensive spotlights around the Monument.

The wire services mentioned that "two anti-war members of Congress came to address the veterans." Perhaps we should mention who they were: one was Rep. Paul McCloskey, who has done everything he can to discredit U. S. defense of Southeast Asia. The second was Rep. Bella Abzug, who was condemned as early as March 18, 1941, by the liberal New York Post as a person who had "generally followed the Communist party line." She was a wheelhorse in the National Lawyers Guild, cited by a congressional committee as "the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist party."

She has been active in other organizations controlled by the Communist party, including the National Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions, and the Civil Rights Congress. At a Communist meeting in Prague she co-sponsored a resolution denouncing "persecutions directed against the leaders of the American Communist party by the Government of the U.S.A."

"If you were not told these things through your usual channels," concluded Philbrick, "you were cheated." People sometimes argue about sins of commission being worse than sins of omission. But when it comes to news reporting, you have to commit the omission, and that is what our network media so often does.

Something to Think About

Alabama football Coach Bear Bryant admits the younger generation's attacks on his generation make him boiling mad.

"My group discovers a cure for polio, built the jet airplane and put a man on the moon," says Bryant. "Until these young folks do some performing instead of talking, I'm not conceding the game to them." — Amarillo Globe-Times.

LET'S NOT FEED THE FIRE

Minimum Wage
Considerable pressure is being exerted on Congress to increase the minimum wage right now to $2 an hour, rather than wait until 1973 as proposed in a House bill.

The proponents contend that the increase would give the economy a lift by creating additional spending power. This is fallacious reasoning.

Minimum-wage jobs are given to those who lack the experience or know-how to step into higher wage brackets. They are the first step in the ladder.

By removing this bottom rung, not only will many of these jobs be eliminated, but all wages will be pushed up so that inflationary price increases soon would blunt any benefits from the increase.

When you add these factors to the increased difficulty that employers will have with lower-wage competitors overseas, it seems likely that a higher minimum wage will do more harm than good to those it is intended to benefit.

43,000 vs 240,000

In the last 9½ years, the Vietnam war has brought death to 43,000 Americans. During the same period in the U. S. 240,000 persons were killed by drunken drivers.

Moral indignation and even violent protest has been expressed about the Vietnam casualties. The response to the highway carnage has been massive apathy and unconcern.

There is an urgent need for greater involvement of religion to stop the drunk driver.

As Paulist Father James F. Cunningham told delegates to a National Safety Congress, "We have dined into our ears hour after hour the problems of the Vietnam war. Yet, we have here a greater war free from all the complexities of ideology and politics." Noting that in this war there were "no Congressional medals, no Purple Hearts, and no purpose — only a waste of God's precious gift of life," he declared, "This calls for the application of moral and ethical standards." — Claude News

Each million people we add to our population requires an additional 172,000 beef cattle at today's food consumption rates.

The Shelter of the Law

The American Bar Association reminds us that law is a kind of love. What higher expression of man's feeling is there than that which seeks justice, equality and compassion for all men?

Law shelters and protects. It is necessarily restrictive because our own freedom is limited by another's. Yet law usually represents the best thinking and the highest ideals of mankind.

Without law there would be no equality, no freedom, no justice, no constructive change. Through law we are all bound together with our common needs and conscience. Without man's laws, life on earth would soon degenerate into jungle law. It is only because of laws that we can have our freedom.

Well, What Do You Know? fun, games and knowledge

by MARTHA GLAUBER SHAPP, Editor, The New Book of Knowledge

Do you know what a frigate was?

A frigate was a warship of the 18th and 19th centuries. A frigate was usually full-rigged (having three or more masts with full sets of sails on each mast), and it had two decks on which guns were mounted. The United States warship Constitution ("Old Ironsides") was a frigate.

Do you know how we hear?

The human ear can hear sounds of many different frequencies and intensities. It can tell the difference between an explosion and a pistol shot. It can hear a lion roar and a mouse squeak. It can hear a shout and it can hear a whisper. What happens when sound waves reach your ears? How do you hear and identify the sounds?

The ear receives sound waves and changes them into electrical signals that are passed on to the brain. When the brain receives the signals, it translates them into the sensation of sound.

What do you know about crustaceans?

A crustacean is an animal that has a hard shell, jointed legs, and two pairs of feelers. There are more than 25,000 kinds of crustaceans, including shrimps, lobsters, crayfishes, and crabs. They range from microscopic in size to a giant crab that is more than 12 feet from the tip of one outstretched claw to the tip of the other. Most crustaceans live in the sea, some are found in fresh water, and a few live on land.

Cheryl Reiter and James Drozd Are Married at Mass

Miss Cheryl Reiter and James Wayne Drozd were married at 5 p.m. Saturday, May 22, in Sacred Heart Church with the Rev. Frowin Schoech of Subiaco, Ark., cousin of the bride, officiating at the double ring ceremony and Nuptial Mass.

Cheryl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Reiter of Muenster and James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Drozd of Gainesville.

Presented by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of candlelight chiffon organza over peau. The empire silhouette was designed to show fitted sleeves overlaid with Venice lace to the elbow and ending in cuffed bishop sleeves at the wrist. Lace overlay added elegance to the flowing paneled organza train accented by a high Dior bow.

Her elbow-length veil fell from a Camelot cap of Venice lace and she carried a bouquet of white stephanotis, yellow sweetheart roses and daisies.

Misses Lynn and Kim Reiter, sisters of the bride, and Miss Sheila Hennigan of Fort Worth attended the bride. They wore yellow formal length dresses with empire bodice and puff sleeves, had a wreath of yellow flowers in their hair, and carried bouquets of multi-colored spring flowers.

Little Miss Nancy Neu of Lindsay, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl and Tony Kubis of Beaumont, nephew of the bride, was ring-bearer.

Joe Pulte, Gainesville, best man, Ralph Maniss, Gainesville, and Tommy Pierce of Centerville attended the bridesgroom.

William T. Drozd of Garland, brother of the bridegroom, and Harry Kneupper of Gainesville, cousin of the bride, were ushers. Paul and Lloyd Reiter, bride's brothers, were candle lighters and acolytes.

Sister Yvonne's Sacred Heart Junior High Girls Choir with Miss Mary Lou Kralicke, organist, provided wedding music. Mrs. Norbert Walterscheid was vocal soloist for "On This Day" before the service. The choir sang "One Hand, One Heart" after Mass when the bride placed a long-stemmed orange mum on the Blessed Virgin's altar.

Adding wedding sentiment, the bride wore for something old and something borrowed a gold cameo brooch which formerly belonged to her great-grandmother, the late Mrs. Henry Sandmann and a ruby and pearl ring formerly belonging to her grandmother, the late Mrs. George Spaeth.

Wedding reception and buffet dinner were held in the VFW Hall where Misses Sandy Reiter, sister of the bride, and Sara Drozd of Austin, cousin of the bridegroom, registered guests.

For their honeymoon to New Orleans and the Mississippi Coast, the bride changed to a gold silk dress with beige accessories.

She has graduated from Sacred Heart High and from North Texas State University at Denton.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Gainesville High and is in the U. S. Air Force, stationed at Kelly AFB, San Antonio, following a tour of duty in Vietnam.

They will make their home in San Antonio where she will be teaching in elementary grades.

Mrs. Reiter attended her daughter's wedding in a lime green crepe knit dress accented with matching Venice lace and a yellow glamelia corsage.

Mrs. Drozd, mother of the bridegroom, wore an orchid knit dress accented with white pearls and a white glamelia corsage.

Schedule, Rosters Listed in Boys' Baseball Program

The kids baseball program sponsored by Muenster Jaycees is booked to start next Wednesday night even though a few team rosters are incomplete and a few more managers are needed.

Tom Joy, program chairman, said Wednesday that anyone who failed to get to last Sunday's sign-up will still be welcome and can get into the program by contacting him. He'll be at home, Phone 4337, most of the time this week and in his office at Sacred Heart High next Sunday from 2:30 to 3:30. Managers may be adults or college students or high school students. Joy added that umpires will be needed, too. Anyone who wants to help is asked to contact him.

A slight change in administering the program was adopted this year. To assure return of uniforms each player will be required to make a deposit as he receives the uniform and can get his money back when he returns the uniform. The money will be in the form of a check, post dated for August 1 and will be negotiable then if the uniform is not returned. Cash is not wanted as a deposit.

Also filled out application slip must be submitted when uniforms are issued. These are the slips signed by a parent indicating the child's permission to play and excusing the sponsor from liability in case of injury.

The boys program has a junior and a senior division of four teams each. Their seasons will consist of a triple round robin in which each team plays the others three times. Games will be on Monday, Wednesday and Friday with the two divisions alternating nights. Game time is 7 and 8:30 o'clock.

Mrs. John Mosman Gets Appreciation Plaque from JETS

Members of the Muenster chapter of Junior Engineering Technical Society (JETS) honored their adviser, Mrs. Marie Mosman, with a plaque at their year-end meeting and wiener roast Monday night. It was a retirement gift in appreciation of thirteen years of dedicated guidance of the club and its students.

The plaque, presented jointly by Ernest Jaska, advisory engineer, and Danny Fette, president, is a creation by Ludwig Kieninger of Bavarian Woodcarvers. It shows a microscope super imposed over an open book and her name inscribed along with that of the honoring organization.

The local JETS club was organized by Mrs. Mosman in 1958 as one of the chapter member clubs of the state. It is now the only chapter between Sherman and Wichita Falls.

An organization for science students, the JETS hold monthly meetings at which a professional engineer or scientist tells the students what they might expect in requirements, obligations and rewards in his profession. Also on the program are field trips to interesting industries and to the annual JETS statewide meeting and competitive testing at Texas A&M University.

In accepting the plaque Mrs. Mosman said the most satisfying reward for her efforts is the outstanding academic performance of some of her students.

Tips on Mum Care Given to Assure Color in the Fall

COLLEGE STATION — Proper planning now can guarantee a strong, sturdy plant later to support flower heads of blooming chrysanthemums this fall, reminds Everett Janne, Extension landscape horticulturist at Texas A&M University.

Large clumps of small green plants will soon appear where plants were carried over from last fall, Janne says. He suggests dividing these clumps saving only the best ones for replanting. The entire clump should be removed from the perennial border with a spading fork or shovel and placed in the shade out of the wind. This should be done when preparing beds for the coming season.

Fertilizer should be incorporated into the soil at a rate of two to three pounds per hundred square feet of bed area, the specialist advises. Several inches of coarse sphagnum peat moss or well-decomposed compost should also be added over the entire bed.

Raking and leveling the bed after spading is important to assure removal of all trash and debris, he adds. The selected plants from the clumps can be spaced about 15 inches apart. Pinch out the top of each plant selected to encourage branching.

After planting, Janne says to water the bed thoroughly. A mulch of coarse peat moss, redwood bark or pine bark will provide an attractive, yet effective way to conserve moisture and reduce weed growth.

Each time a new shoot produces about three sets of leaves, pinch out the top set to encourage side breaks from the leaf axil, the specialist advises. This pinching of the tip growth should continue until mid or late July. After then, discontinue pinching so that flower buds may develop properly.

Fertilizing every three to four weeks and watering at regular intervals will produce strong stems and large leaves, the specialist assures. The compact, bushy plants will have little tendency to fall over when the flower heads are produced.

"There's only one thing that bugs me about this revolution bit," said the radical, "what happens to our employment checks when we overthrow the government?"

Cooke, Montague Counties Eligible For Drought Loans

Farmers Home Administration State Director J. Lynn Futch announced that Cooke and Montague Counties have been designated by the Secretary of Agriculture for the making of emergency loans to farmers and ranchers who have sustained substantial losses on account of the drought.

This designation continues in effect through June 30, 1972, and will authorize emergency loans to be made to those persons who suffered substantial losses from any adverse weather conditions, such as high winds, hail, or flood, that have occurred or might occur during the period of this designation.

Funds are available and applications for such loans may be made at the FHA County Office located in the Federal Building, Gainesville, Texas 76240.

A Texan went to Israel and saw one of the small farms. He said to the farmer, "Is this your whole farm? Why, back in Texas I get in my car at 5 in the morning, and I drive and drive, and at dusk I just reach the other side of my ranch."

The Israeli thought awhile, and replied, "I used to have a car like that."

TP&L industrial consultants help bring new jobs to town

During 1970, more than 60 new industries were located in the area served by Texas Power & Light Company. When in full operation, they will offer more than 3,700 new job opportunities. And they will generate new purchases of goods and services and provide new tax dollars for the support of schools, police and fire protection and other essential community needs. TP&L's Industrial Development Division, in cooperation with local Chambers of Commerce and other organizations, works continuously to tell industry about the advantages of plant locations in the area served by the Company.

"How come the IRS is giving tax exemptions to far left organizations bent on destroying our form of government and at the same time considering denying tax exemptions for private education academies bent on maintaining our form of government? Texas has or has had newspapers with distinctive names. Among the most appropriate are the Austin States-man, the Hereford Brand, and the Bowie Blade.
Among the most unusual names were the Paris Dinner Horn, the Rising Star X-Ray, and the Cisco Apert. The longest name probably was the Eastland Daily Oil Belt News. The most felicitous name is borne by the newspaper at Ferris — the Ferris Wheel.

Lindsay News

Father Herman Laux who has been in pastoral work at Rowena will be heading for Lindsay Sunday for a few days before going to Subiaco Abbey for annual retreat. After that he will be stationed at various parishes while pastors are on vacation.

Father Damian Wewers, pastor, has announced that the formal dedication of the new cafeteria will take place June 13 at 5 p.m. with the Most Rev. Bishop John Cassata of the Fort Worth diocese officiating. Parish organizations are planning refreshments and entertainment to follow the ceremonies.

Pre-school classes started Wednesday, May 26, with Sister Ferdinand teacher.

Raymond Lutkenhaus and Willie Fuhrmann are back at home, dismissed from Muenster Hospital.

Lindsay 4-H Community Club elected officers for next year at their final meeting of the current year and named Barbara Rohmer president. She'll be assisted by Dwayne Hellman, vice president; Mary Ann Voth, secretary; Nancy Hundt, Joan Schad, Dolores Sandmann, and Sharon Voth, recreational leaders; David Nortman, reporter, Randy Hermes and Betty Rohmer, council delegates.

Lindsay High students won all three top places in this year's oratorical contest sponsored by Cooke County Farm Bureau. Robert Hundt, junior son of the Joe Hundts, was first; Elaine Krahl, sophomore daughter of the Martin Krahls, was second and Don Metzler, sophomore son of the Leroy Metzlers, was third. They spoke on Citizenship. The trio will attend the three-day seminar at Waco on July 20.

Lindsay school board re-elected officers at the May meeting. They are Ray Haverkamp, board chairman; Weldon Bezner, vice chairman, and Leonard Bengfort, secretary. In other business the board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Wanda McCullem, second grade teacher. The group made a tour of the new cafeteria and discussed hiring school personnel.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Badgett were hosts in their home for a birthday celebration when their son Andy was one year old. Family friends were guests for a barbecued chicken supper. About 25 attended from Lindsay, Gainesville, Muenster and Denton.

Before classes dismissed at Lindsay, cheerleaders for 1971 were elected by this year's football team and pep squad from a group of girls who were rated by outside judges. New cheerleaders are Brenda Beyer, Patsy Arendt, Betty Mae Rohmer, Carol Bezner and Carol Felderhoff. All are planning to attend cheerleading school this summer. Head cheerleader will be named later by the pep squad.

Sister Ethelreda presented her piano pupils in recital at the convent last Sunday afternoon. Family members and friends attended. On the program were Carla Haverkamp, Anita Marie and Michael Stephens, Linda Geray Julie Bengfort, Susie Zimmerer, Renee Wilde, Michelle Pelzel and Sandra Bezner. The final number was played by Michelle Pelzel accompanied by her father Gene Pelzel on the guitar.

Activity Day at Lindsay High was a big success with sophomores selling cup cakes and lemonade as part of their fund raising activities, and speeches by candidates for student council officers and their campaign managers. And baseball games with seniors vs juniors and sophomores vs freshmen. Juniors won. The following day, all students except seniors voted for student council officers. New officers are Steve Felderhoff, president; Jerry Metzler, vice president; Claudia Hundt, secretary-treasurer.

Members of the annual staff for 1971-72 were elected by Lindsay High students during the last week of school. Brenda Beyer automatically became editor after being assistant editor this year. Others on the staff are Judy Beyer, assistant editor; Claudia Hundt, classes editor; Patsy Arendt, advertising; Mark Metzler, sports; Beverly Gossett, activities; Carol Felderhoff, junior assistant. Mrs. Mary Holland is sponsor.

19 Get Diplomas In Commencement At Lindsay High

Stuart Ervay, Ph.D., instructor of Secondary Education at North Texas State University, was commencement speaker. He was introduced by Tom Fluker, counselor at Lindsay High.

Susie Bezner presented piano selections before the program and played the processional and recessional. Janie Zimmerer, salutatorian, gave the welcome address and Cathy Arendt gave the valedictory. Father Damian Wewers led the invocation and gave the benediction.

Ray Haverkamp, president of the board of trustees and Superintendent Glenn Hellman presented diplomas to graduates and Henry Schroeder, principal, and Superintendent Hellman presented awards to outstanding students.
