43 Hornets Start Football Practice At Muenster Hi

Football of the bicentennial year got under way at Muenster High bright and early Monday morning as 43 Hornets checked in to Coach Don Jones Don Osterman and Wade White. Almost all of them had a head start on the training program after having spent the past weeks on distance running or farm work.

They are in fine condition and will continue improving by using the weight program along with their regular training, according to Jones. The Hornet boss was optimistic about his boys' prospects, saying he expects their ability to be at least comparable to last year's outfit

Football Practice

Forty five eager Tigers headed by eleven lettermen from last year's team reported to coaches Ed Stock and Tom Stalik Monday morning for their first football practice. They went into a two a day schedule for four of conditioning in shorts before starting contact work Friday.

The good turnout was gratifying to the two coaches who face an ambitious schedule plus an 8-1-1 record to live up to. Tigers look for tougher competition in both pre-district and TCIL action.

Leading their operation are six seniors including five lettermen and thirteen juniors including five more lettermen and a number of boys who have had good experience on reserve or junior varsity. Next are the sophomores with one lettermen and ten others who saw limited service as last year's freshmen. And filling out the squad are fifteen freshmen who got the feel of the game in junior high.

The lettermen are seniors George Luke, Bob Grewing, Craig Sangster, Tim Sicking, and Billy Felderhoff; juniors Kenny Felderhoff, Bob Hartman, Fred Koesler, Danny Walterscheid, and Joe Sicking; and sophomore Joe Bartush. Attend State 4-H Event in Austin "We the people . . ." was the theme of the 1975 Texas 4-H Congress held recently in Austin, Cooke County 4-H members Sharon Voth of Lindsay, Pat Davidson of Muenster, and Billy Felderhoff of Sacred Heart 4-H were part of a group of 577 4-H members across Texas that assembled in the State Capitol. Congress sessions focused on the firsthand study of Texas government. During the opening assembly, the delegates were welcomed by the Honorable Mike Renfro, Travis County Judge, and Mr. Jeffrey Friedman, Mayor of Austin. Mr. Reagan Brown, Special Assistant to Governor Dolph Briscoe, gave the opening address on Government of the People. The Wednesday morning session was on Three pillars of Texas State Government. The Honorable Mark White, Secretary of State of Texas, the Honorable Ronald Earle, State Representative from Austin, and the Honorable A. M. Aikin, State Senator from Paris, discussed their jobs in the state government. They also sat as a panel and responded to questions from the delegates. To gain a better insight into the mechanics of the legislative process, the delegation was divided into 5 issue groups. Each issue group was divided into a group of senators and a group of representatives. Each issue group then developed a bill which was compromised in a conference committee and written with an attorney's help into an act. Four of the five were passed through a 4-H House of Representatives. Pat Davidson of Muenster was selected as one of the District 4 Representatives to sit on the floor and as a lady-in-waiting in coronation and parade pageantry of the Texas Rose Festival in Tyler, October 14 through 17. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Lehnertz of Tyler, a granddaughter of Mrs. Agnes Lehnertz of Muenster.

Miss Lehnertz will attend Texas A&M University this fall majoring in economics and political science. She has attended Mary Baldwin College in Staunton, Va., where she was a freshman class senator and was named to the dean's list. NATIONAL BUILDING CENTERS TITLE

Howhigh will gas bills go, and when will they level off?

There is no sure answer. It depends, to a large extent, on what Lone Star has to pay its natural gas suppliers.

Just a few years ago, Lone Star paid only about 19¢ for a thousand cubic feet of gas.

Today, we have to pay almost $2 for a thousand cubic feet of new gas.

But you are still being charged at a much lower rate than that. You see, we are still buying old gas at lower rates under old contracts. So the average cost for gas, the cost that primarily determines your bill, is still just a little over $1 per thousand cubic feet.*

As our older contracts expire, and new, higherpriced gas is purchased, the average price will continue to rise (even if we don't buy any new gas). We can foresee an average price of around $2 per thousand cubic feet in a few years.

That's quite a big increase. We know because we're almost paying that price right now for new gas. But it should rise much more gradually in the next year or two than it has during the past year. *Monthly reports on gas purchases filed with the Texas Railroad Commission are public record.

TP&L residential customers in 247 cities pay less for electricity than the people who live in Austin, Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit, Los Angeles, New York, Philadelphia, San Antonio, and Washington, D.C.... to name just a few.

PHILADELPHIA	$47.17
AUSTIN	$44.96
WASHINGTON, D.C.	$41.3	2
SAN ANTONIO	$39.43
DETROIT	$39.36	COST OF 1,000 KW HR.
CHICAGO	$38.75	RESIDENTIAL ELECTRICITY APRIL, 1976
LOS ANGELES	$37.17
GLEVELAND	$37.04
WAXAHACHIE	$34.37	N. S. C. C. S. S.

In Waxahachie and most other cities in the Texas Power & Light service area, 1,000 kilowatt-hours of residential electricity costs less than in most areas of Texas and the nation

We're not overlooking the fact that in recent years the area served by TP&L. Skyrocketing costs of producing and supplying power have left TP&L and other companies no choice but to ask customers to pay more for their electric service

Even so, the price of TP&L electricity today is far less than it would have been if we were not constantly working to hold down the price. One of the ways we're doing this is to build and operate generating plants which use lower coal as fuel rather than natura 100 lignite plants are now producing power for TP&L customers and others are under construction and being planned. For more than sixty-four years, Texas Power & Light has supplied dependable electric service at a fair price. We're working to keep it that way.

Forestburg News By Myrt

Denham

Almost five years ago. Mr and Mrs. Jack C. Dill and Vatoni and Faith, Steve and Willy Sandusky all of Forestburg, started planning a trip that would take them to the Nation's Capitol during the bicentennial year. Saturday, July 10 that dream came true as they set out together for a tour of the southern states. They visited ten of the southern states, touring each State Capitol. While spending three and half days in Washington, D. C. they visited Monticello in Charlottsville, Va. the home of Thomas Jefferson, Mount Vernon, the home of George Washington. They also visited Arlington Cemetery; the Smithsonian Institute; the Washington Monument; the U.S. Treasury; the F.B.I. Building; Lincoln Memorial; the White House and the Capitol Building. They also took a three hour poat ride down the Potomac. The trip was very eventful as they visited all the historical cities, monuments and government buildings. The group did a lot of sightseeing and had a lot of fun. They all agreed they learned more history in eight days then they had accumulated in all their years of school. After traveling over 3,000 miles, they returned home safely, maybe not quite as sound as when they left. but ready and willing to go again.

On Thursday, July 29, Jewell Dill and Vatoni drove to D-FW Airport to pick up Mrs. Wilma Hamm and children Cindy and Paul for a visit with the Dills and other relatives in the area. Mrs. Hamm is from Habor City, California and she is Jack C. Dill's niece, sister to Doyle Gates and granddaughter of Mrs. Blake Freeman. Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dill, Tim and Donna of Saginaw visited in the Dill home. On Sunday they returned home and Vatoni Dill went with them to spend a few day
