

Sheep And Goat Buying Here To Get Under Way

Applications for Sale of Sheep and Goats Will Start Monday.

The program for buying sheep and goats in Brown county under emergency drouth program will begin soon, it was announced by County Agent C. W. Lehmberg. Purchases will be made only of ewes over one year old and female Angora goats over two years old.

Stunted lambs, kids, wethers and bucks will be purchased. The program will not be started until it is possible to arrange the processing of sheep that bought for shipping. Buying of sheep and goats that are condemned will not be started before those that are fit for food shipment.

Sheep and goats will not be purchased until producers have listed to the County Agent the number of sheep and goats they wish to sell. A summary of these will be made by the County Agent and sent to the State drouth office at College Station and it in turn will be sent to the regional sheep office, where state and county quotas will be established. As soon as quotas are established they will be furnished to the County Agent then buying of sheep will be started.

Applications on sheep and goats will start at the County Agent's office next Monday, Sept. 3. Those who wish to sell sheep and goats should lose no time in making up because no quota can be made for the county until all applications are in.

DAIRYMEN FORECAST HIGHER PRICE FOR MILK IN BROWNWOOD

Milk prices in Brownwood are set certain to be advanced at early date, members of the Brown County Milk Producers Association announced this week. They are forecasting a price of 15 cents for the fifteen or more dairy farms included in the association is given as the cause of expected price increase.

We are compelled to raise the price to the level of production," Jack Smith, a veteran dairyman, states. "Feed prices increased from 100 to 400 percent and other overhead costs advanced in proportion; and must either get a living price for our milk or go out of business," Mr. Smith added.

A definite announcement of a price advance is expected within a few days. According to present plans the wholesale price will be raised from six to eight cents a quart, which in turn will result in a ten cent per quart price. The present ten cent per quart retail delivery price will be continued.

Smith and other dairymen state that milk prices in Brownwood are now much lower than in other parts of the state. About one-third to one-half the milk production is handled through retail dealers, the remainder being delivered direct to consumer by the producer.

Boys Club Visits Santa Anna Group

Twenty members of the Brownwood Lions Club attended an inter-club meeting at Santa Anna Tuesday afternoon. Coleman Lions were well represented at the Santa Anna luncheon.

Harley Sadler and members of company, now showing in Brownwood, accompanied the Brownwood delegation to Santa Anna and provided the entertainment for the inter-city luncheon.

What Drouth Has Done to Corn

Striking evidence of what the record drouth has done to the corn crop in the nation's granary in the midwest is shown here. The few kernels on the ear of corn which the St. Louis county, Missouri, farm lad is holding give a good idea of what the yield will be when shucking time comes around.

PARTY WILL EXPLORE ROCK FORMATIONS DISCOVERED AT BOY SCOUTS' CAMP GROUNDS

PLANS were being completed this week by a group from Brownwood who will visit the Boy Scout camp grounds on the Billy Gibbons ranch in San Saba county Monday for the purpose of exploring a find of peculiar rock formations near the camp grounds. The party will be headed by Miles W. Beck of the bureau of chemistry and soils, U. S. Department of Agriculture, and will be met at the site by Dr. E. H. Sellers, chairman of the department of zoology of the University of Texas, who will head a group of scientists from Austin.

News of the archeological find was brought to Brownwood by Dr. G. C. Schurman, pastor of the First Christian Church, Brownwood, who visited the site recently and made preliminary survey of the formations. Dr. Schurman and family will be with the group visiting the site Monday. Others who are planning to make the trip include: Dr. Ned Snyder, Dr. John Snyder, Chester Harrison, C. B. Nickels, Joe Hamilton and several others. Including some from San Saba. All plan to take their families and have a picnic lunch at noon at the Boy Scout camp.

Interesting discoveries are expected by Mr. Beck, Dr. Sellers and others who have become interested in the formations. Dr. Schurman has prepared the following description of the formations:

"In San Saba county in the fork formed by Brady Creek and the San Saba River near the place where the Indian Trail crosses the San Saba and where the famous massacre took place, a group of amateur archeologists found a peculiar rock formation that has all the appearance of being artificial.

"This is in a small wash that has, no doubt, formed in the late years since the Indians have gone and in only partly exposed at the present time. It lies horizontally with just a slight lean caused by the settling of the ground. It is as smooth as a brick pavement and composed of what appears to be large bricks or cobblestones. The joint lines are straight and the stones joining conform as exactly as would a brick wall. Some of these stones have been loosened and their sides have all the appearance of being fired or baked, and adhering to those sides is a substance very much like our present day mortar.

"The amateurs have concluded that it is either the covering of a grave of Indians killed during that ancient battle or it is the foundation for a council fire, but they are very anxious to have expert judgment upon it before it is disturbed.

"In that same vicinity is some sign writing on the cliffs of the Brady Creek which to one who knows might indicate something of what the rock formation might be.

FINAL SIGN-UP FOR CORN-HOG REDUCTION IS BEING COMPLETED

This week will see the final sign-up of corn-hog contracts completed, it was announced by County Agent C. W. Lehmberg. Most of the contracts have been completed, but there still are a few out. These will be finished up this week, and the contracts forwarded to the state board.

In the next three weeks, Mr. Lehmberg expects to receive the first of the corn-hog checks. This will be the first of two payments. As soon as these are received, compliance work will be undertaken.

Second payments will be made immediately after completion of the compliance work. This consists of measuring the corn acreage and recounting the pigs.

WINK PALMER AND IKE MULLINS WIN COUNTY POSITIONS

T. Winston (Wink) Palmer will be Brown county's first tax assessor-collector and I. C. (Ike) Mullins will serve another two years as county treasurer, so decreed the electorate of Brown county in the run-off primary Saturday. These were the only two county offices decided in the run-off election, all others having been definitely determined in the July 28 election.

Palmer, a newcomer to Brown county politics, won the nomination for tax assessor-collector by decisively defeating Lee Meek, the present tax collector. Palmer had led the ticket by more than 500 votes in the July primary and had been rated as the favorite to defeat Meek, a veteran of the courthouse, in Saturday's balloting. However, Mr. Meek made a determined and intensive campaign prior to Saturday's election and many had believed the final outcome would be closer.

Palmer has never sought nor held public office before and when he announced for this important office early this year few conceded him more than an outside chance to win. Palmer's aggressive style of campaigning, a pleasant personality and persistent work brought him through with a comfortable plurality in the first primary and he took advantage of this vote margin to sweep into office over Meek. Two other veterans of the courthouse were candidates for this important office in the first primary. They were Mrs. J. L. Karr, present tax assessor, and R. C. Gotcher, county auditor.

Palmer will take office January 1 and will be immediately confronted with the difficult task of collecting 1934 taxes, and reorganizing the two offices into one unit.

County Treasurer Mullins won re-nomination after a hot race with Sol Baker, of Blanket, who entered the run-off campaign with a slight plurality. Mullins' margin of victory was 379 votes.

New Officials.
Brown county's official family for the next two years will be:
County Judge — A. E. Nabors.
County Clerk — W. E. (Bill) Burleson.

County Attorney — Conner Scott. Sheriff — W. E. (Jack) Hallmark. County Treasurer — I. C. Mullins. Tax Assessor-Collector — T. Winston Palmer. County School Superintendent — F. D. Pierce. District Clerk — Luther Wilson. Commissioners Court — Precinct One, E. S. Thompson; Precinct Two, H. I. Stapp; Precinct Three, Charles B. Palmer; Precinct Four, J. A. Bettis. Justice of the Peace, Precinct One — E. T. Perkinson. Constable, Precinct One — Eastman Kitchen.

Official Vote Count Scheduled Saturday

Returns from the second primary election of last Saturday will be canvassed by the Democratic executive committee of Brown county Saturday at 2 p. m., Dr. Thomas H. Taylor, county Democratic chairman, has announced. After the canvass and the official vote is determined, nominees of the party will be certified to the county clerk.

BROWN COUNTY GIVES HUNTER MAJORITY IN GOVERNOR'S CONTEST

Tom F. Hunter, defeated by James V. Allred, attorney general, in the 1934 gubernatorial "derby," received a majority in Brown county Saturday. Hunter's margin being 478. The total vote in the governor's race in the county was, Hunter, 3,288; Allred, 2,810. However, Allred carried the four city boxes by 118 majority, the Brownwood vote being, Allred, 1,435; Hunter, 1,317. Brown county was one of the original Hunter counties two years ago.

Joe Moore, of Greenville, who ran a poor second in the statewide vote for lieutenant governor, received a majority in Brown county, polling 2,986 votes to 2,781 for Sen. Walter F. Woodul, of Houston, who won the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor Saturday.

One of the major upsets in the county vote was the majority given William McCraw, of Dallas, over Sen. Walter C. Woodward, of Coleman, for attorney general. Woodward was given a majority over McCraw and Clyde E. Smith July 28 and had been expected to lead McCraw in the run-off. Woodward received about 500 votes less Saturday than he did July 28.

John H. Sharp, winner of the race for associate justice of the supreme court, was given a slight majority by Brown county voters over H. S. Lattimore. Lon A. Smith, incumbent, piled up nearly 1,900 majority in the county over John Pundt in the contest for railroad commissioner.

As was expected, Charles L. South, of Coleman, polled an overwhelming majority over Carl Runge, of Mason, in the county vote for congressman.

ALLRED WINNER IN RACE FOR GOVERNOR

James V. Allred of Wichita Falls was winner over Tom F. Hunter of the same city, for the Democratic nomination for Governor in the run-off contest Saturday. Walter Woodul of Houston was nominated lieutenant governor, defeating Joe Moore of Greenville; William McCraw of Dallas defeated Walter Woodward of Coleman for Attorney General; Lon A. Smith of Austin defeated John Pundt of Dallas for Railroad Commissioner and Judge John H. Sharp of Ennis defeated Judge H. S. Lattimore of Fort Worth for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court. Nearly one million votes were cast in the run-off, setting a new record for run-off contests.

The figures in all major State races follow:

Governor—Allred	496,546	Hunter	452,200
Lieutenant Governor—Moore	367,519	Woodul	513,433
Attorney General—McCraw	493,457	Woodward	408,664
Rail Commissioner—Pundt	359,588	Smith	499,653
Supreme Court—Lattimore	428,461	Sharp	445,655

Former Brown Co. Boy Is Elected To Legislative Post

J. Bryan Bradbury, 22, native of Brown county, was nominated representative from Taylor county in Saturday's run-off, according to the Abilene Reporter. Young Bradbury is a lawyer, having begun the study of law upon graduation from high school in 1929, and taking the bar examination after home study. In the legislature he will replace the veteran R. M. Wagstaff, who was not a candidate for re-election.

Bradbury is the son of Bob Bradbury, who formerly operated newspapers in this section of the state. The elder Bradbury at one time edited a paper at Zephyr, later at Mullin and Lometa. For the past six years he has been operating the Standard Printing Company in Abilene.

Cotton Checks Are Received By Agent

Three installments of cotton checks, totalling $4,520.03, have been received by County Agent C. W. Lehmberg since last Friday. These included 38 checks for $917.63; 66 checks for $1,219.31 and 117 checks for $2,383.16.

These are checks for this year's cotton crop and are of the same series as those received a month or more ago. They are checks for first installments on this year's program.

JAMES V. ALLRED

CHAS. L. SOUTH
Will Be The 21st District's First Congressman

SOUTH WINNER IN CONGRESS RACE BY MAJORITY OF 4,500

Hon. Charles L. South, of Coleman, district attorney of the 35th judicial district, defeated Judge Carl Runge, of Mason, in Saturday's Democratic run-off primary for the right to represent the new 21st congressional district in January. Judge South registered a most decisive victory over his Mason opponent, the new congressman's majority being slightly more than 4,500. Most political experts had predicted a much closer race—in fact many had said that the winning candidate would not poll more than a 1,900 majority.

By polling a commanding majority of 4,495 votes in the 35th judicial district, Judge South far exceeded well throughout the district to easily hold the overwhelming vote given him in what might be termed his home counties. Brown and Coleman counties alone gave the new congressman a majority sufficient to carry him through, his margin in these two counties being 5,344. Judge South carried thirteen of the twenty-seven counties of the district with Runge having the edge in the other fourteen. Included in Mr. South's column, however, were all but one or two of the most thickly populated counties in the district.

The total vote in the spirited congressional campaign was, South, 28,373; Runge, 24,047.

The vote by counties follows:

	South	Runge
Bandera	115	402
Brown	4,505	1,522

JIM NED AND BAYOU ARE BANK FULL FROM RAINS ON WATERSHED

Rains on the watershed of Lake Brownwood have brought the Jim Ned creek and Pecan Bayou bank full above the Lake Brownwood dam, with the level of the water rising slowly as more water from contributing streams is flowing into the nearly empty lake.

Water is still some below the top of the coffer dam, which is holding back the water in the streams, but should additional rains fall on the watershed the coffer dam will be under water.

There is considerable water between the coffer dam and the main dam and the gates, closed for several weeks, are completely submerged. No water is being lost from the lake.

Boatmen ventured back onto the lake this week for the first time since the big lake was emptied through the jamming of one of the flood gates. They were able to follow the channel of the creeks up for several miles above the dam.

There was some speculation as to what course the water board will take in repairing the damaged track that caused the flood gate to remain open, in event heavy rains fall before work is undertaken. At present the gates are closed, and are under water, but in order to repair them, it may be necessary to release water below the coffer dam. If the coffer dam is not submerged at that time, this will not affect the level of the lake but should the lake fill to any great extent, much water would be lost through opening the gate.

It is thought that the gates could be repaired by divers in event this course is decided upon.

Pecan Growers See Short Crop, Higher Prices

Winter Meeting of West Texas Association Will Be Held In November at San Saba.

The West Texas Pecan Growers Association held its annual summer meeting in Brownwood Tuesday, elected officers for another year, chose San Saba as the host city for the winter meeting in November, and transacted other business of importance during the busy one-day session.

J. L. Rainey, of San Anelo, was elected president of the association, succeeding W. J. Millikan, of Bend. Wendell Mayes, editor of the Brownwood Banner, was elected secretary-treasurer.

Work for the pecan industry being done by the government in the two federal experiment stations located in Brownwood was endorsed in a resolution passed by the association, this resolution being unanimously adopted following a visit to the two stations by the growers from the fifteen counties represented at the Brownwood meeting. Copies of the resolution will be sent to the congressman from this district and to the United States Department of Agriculture. The resolution also requested that the experiment work in Brownwood be continued and enlarged.

Several committees were named by the pecan men at the closing session Tuesday afternoon. W. J. Millikan, of Bend, N. E. Scudder, and I. E. Bacon, both of San Saba, were named as the program committee for the winter meeting. Lynn White, of Georgetown, Wayne Hillin, of San Angelo, and Guy Risien, of San Saba were named as the exhibit committee for the winter pecan show. A committee to study and keep informed on the tariff question regarding pecans was also appointed with E. C. Easley, of Waco, W. S. Price, Jr., of Gustine, and H. G. Lucas, Brownwood, as members.

Pecans this year should sell for 12½ cents per pound, considering the short crop and the price of competing nuts, a committee on price appointed at the morning session reported at the afternoon session. The association voted to ask all pecan growers to ask this price for their pecans this year.

The association went on record as asking the AAA to assist growers in working out an agreement for seedlings.

Only 15 Per Cent Crop
Reports from possibly 50 counties showed that the pecan crop is about 15 per cent of normal this year. The best crops reported were in Comanche county and in sections along the Concho river where there are low water dams. The drouth and damage by insects have caused the short crop, growers agreed. Squirrels and crows also are doing a great deal of damage in some sections, it was reported. The insect giving the most trouble is the case-bearer.

WELL IS BEING DUG AT NEW STATE PARK

Workmen furnished by relief headquarters in Brownwood have been busy the past few weeks on a number of improvements at Lake Brownwood Park. Projects underway at the park include the building of a septic tank near the club house, the construction of a number of modern pit type toilets, the digging of a well and the cleaning out of an old spring.

The well being dug was started last year and has been dug almost through solid rock. Workmen are now down to a depth of more than forty feet. The spring being cleaned out is an old one. It flows about one gallon of water per minute.

From eighteen to thirty workmen are transported to the park daily in two trucks. James C. Jones is overseer of the work and Joe Edgar Wright is assisting Mr. Jones.

After every election in which Ferguson-endorsed candidates are defeated, editorial big guns have boomed forth the news that Fergusonism at last has been eliminated from Texas politics. And yet, every so often, Ferguson, or some member of his family, stages a come-back that is at once a surprise and a condemnation of the double-jointed primary system in vogue in Texas.

The Ferguson Issue

The elections of last Saturday showed practically all Ferguson-endorsed candidates snowed under by an avalanche of votes. In at least one race, that for associate justice of the supreme court, this issue was paramount. In others, it seemed to us to be secondary. But in all cases, Ferguson endorsement was a burden no candidate could carry to victory. The exception was the race for lieutenant governor, practically won in the first primary, and in which Walter Woodul, endorsed by Ferguson, repudiated that endorsement. He also carried the endorsement of R. S. Sterling and Dan Moody, both outspokenly anti-Ferguson.

But as we look back over elections of the past, we fail to recall any in which Ferguson has been successful in his efforts to name a winner for a major office in Texas, other than himself or his wife. The Ferguson name is still a potent factor in Texas politics, and will be for some time to come, but his ability to name a Governor, other than by the negative route, is negligible.

Ferguson was repudiated in Saturday's voting, but he has not passed out of the picture. Rather, he tried to spread his influence over too many candidates. He can't name a slate—not could he at the height of his power. But you may count on it—he will be back for more in a few years.

Chivalry in defeat is a more becoming garment even than chivalry in victory. It is easier to be a good winner than a good loser; thus the good loser is the better sport.

Turn The Other Cheek

The Brownwood Bulletin with ardor and venom supported a losing candidate for Congress from the new twenty-first district. Amid the congratulations of the multitudes of the district comes this discordant note from The Bulletin:

"The nomination of Charles L. South of Coleman to represent the new Twenty-First Congressional district clearly illustrates the facility with which the people can be deluded by cleverly executed political strategy. The better man was defeated while the better politician was successful. We imagine both are quite well satisfied."

While we hold no brief to speak for Judge South, we feel sure that he can take that unwarranted slur, just as he took the attacks of the campaign with a smile and went on to victory. But to us it seems to be a wholly unnecessary slap in the face to some 4,500 "deluded" Brown County citizens, to say nothing of a majority of the voters of the big district. And it takes a more vivid imagination than ours to picture the late candidate from Mason as "quite well satisfied" with the results. Maybe he is, but it is apparent that some of his supporters are having difficulty in ridding their systems of spleen.

Incidentally, we consider the nomination of Judge South to represent this district in Congress as the commendable achievement of an intelligent electorate. So long as voters select men of the high type of statesmanship as Judge South for positions of importance in our government, we need not worry about the stability of our republic.

Our Congressman

With but a few minor exceptions, Judge South will go to Congress in January with the best wishes of the people of the new district. Barring an upset in precedent, he is destined to serve the district for many years to come. We predict that he will be of great value to the big district, and will serve with distinction to Texas, the district and himself.

The Louisville Courier Journal recently published a cartoon showing a figure of a frightened man, labeled "Taxpayer", walking down a dark street. Lurking in doorways, preparing to spring upon him were a number of hold-up artists, named "Bureaucracy," "Waste," "Political Expediency," and others of similar nature.

Recovery Enemy No. 1

Which causes the Industrial News Review to comment that the cartoon is not at all far-fetched. So far as the average citizen is concerned, predatory taxation and officialism is Recovery Enemy Number 1—no highwaymen ever lived who could equal their depredations. They take money that would otherwise be invested—and thus stifle purchasing power. They take money that would be spent for a thousand and one necessities and luxuries—and thus keep our commerce and trade in the doldrums.

Today government—federal, state and local—takes about 30 per cent of the national income, and some authorities place the percentage much higher than that. In other words, at least 30 cents out of every dollar you earn is not yours to spend. A great percentage of it goes to feed predatory tax eaters and officialism, either directly, through income, property, license and similar taxes, or indirectly, through hidden taxes on the things you wear and eat and use. It is lost to productive enterprise—to the businesses which provide jobs and opportunities for employment and investment, and which, if allowed to develop normally, would create new sources for taxation.

If the present trend continues, it won't be long until that 30 per cent becomes 40, 50 or 60 per cent. And when that time comes, we will all gradually become wards of government—private industry will have been literally starved to death, confiscated by taxation, and the tax-fed bureaucrat will reign supreme.

Considerable complaint as to the lack of fire in Texas politics this year has been voiced. We regret the same cannot be said about the weather.—Tom Bean Times.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD By William Ferguson

Fifty Famous Frontiersmen By ELMO SCOTT WATSON

"The King of the Missouri!"

INSOFAR as the Missouri river is an American stream, the man who was hailed far and wide as "The King of the Missouri" should have been either an Indian chieftain or an American. But he wasn't. He was a Scotchman of distinguished birth, an officer in the British army during the War of 1812.

Kenneth Mackenzie was his name and both his ancestry and his personal characteristics had something to do with his assumption of "kingship" in the American fur trade. He served his apprenticeship in the old Northwest Fur company which, after a bitter struggle, was merged with the older Hudson's Bay company. When that happened, Mackenzie lost his job only to become an associate, and the ablest one, with Joseph Renville in the Columbia Fur Co., whose success with the Indians in the Northwest forced John Jacob Astor, head of the American Fur company, to buy out Mackenzie and Renville.

Then Mackenzie enlisted under the A. F. C. banner and quickly rose to leadership. In 1829 he built Fort Union at the mouth of the Yellowstone on the Missouri. It was to be his job to develop the fur trade in a region which the traders from St. Louis, after efforts lasting 20 years, had failed to exploit. But Mackenzie did it. He opened trade relations with the hostile Blackfeet and in 1831 made a treaty between them, their hereditary enemies, the Assiniboines, and his company which stands as one of the most remarkable exploits in the record of the relations of red men and white.

From his headquarters at Fort Union he ruled with an iron hand over an empire larger than many a European principality. Noted for his hospitality, he was particular as to who should sit down at his table with him. Clad in full dress uniform, he dined in formal state, waited on by a full staff of servants—a feudal baron reigning in the wilderness.

But one of the things which made him so successful as agent for the A. F. C. brought about his downfall. He had always freely dispensed liquor to the Indians to help his trading operations. When the United States government shut down on that in 1832, it marked the beginning of the end of the "king's" usefulness. A year or so later Mackenzie sold out his interest in the American Fur company, retired to St. Louis where he entered the wholesale liquor business and there he died April 26, 1861, a forgotten figure of the days when beaver was king.

Diplomats in U. S. There are exactly 69 foreign countries that are represented diplomatically in the United States. Ambassadors and ministers reside in Washington while consuls usually have their offices in the cities that are the greatest trade centers.

POSTAGE STAMP GLUE A member of Congress from the State of Illinois, Mr. Dirksen, started a one-man battle the other day to have use of foreign glue substances on postage stamps discontinued, and American products used instead.

"If our farmers only knew what they are licking when they lick a stamp—" said Mr. Dirksen, with a shudder, and left the rest to the imagination of his hearers.

He explained that he had discovered that the stickum on postage stamps is made from flour imported from Java and other Dutch East Indian countries, duty free. He insisted that since American Indian corn produced in this country would answer the same purpose, the use of the imported article should be discontinued in deference to American agriculture.

It is a little difficult to conjure up visions of ruination for American agriculture because the glue on postage stamps is imported from abroad, but Mr. Dirksen's stance is well taken. In fact it's impregnable. Nobody likes the taste of postage stamp glue anyhow, and now that they know where it comes from they will like it even less.

Two Hurt In Auto Crash Near Brady

C. A. Lindsay suffered a broken rib and possible internal injuries, and his young daughter, Myrtle Lindsay, was cut about the face when the car in which they were returning from a trip to San Antonio was in collision with another auto about nine miles south of Brady Wednesday night.

Mr. Lindsay and his daughter were taken to Brady for medical treatment, after which they were brought to their home here. Occupants of the other car also were injured, but the extent of their injuries is not known. The Lindsay car was practically demolished.

To my friends who supported me in the late run-off I am sincerely grateful. Yours truly, J. W. GOLSON.

But "Times Are Better"—Business wheels again turn and labor which has borne the brunt of hard times, looks up to see brighter days ahead. Spending now creates jobs for men anxious to work. ## MAKING Smart CLOTHES

This is the time when smart fashion doctors pull a style rabbit jaundiced eyes. About this time of year even your loveliest white dress begins to lose its snowy freshness. Even your crispest cotton looks a bit bedraggled. And when you are invited out to a very special luncheon or tea nothing in your whole wardrobe looks appealing to your out of their hats and suggest—the dark satin dress. If you haven't ever owned one about this time of year, you have a thrill coming to you. You have no idea how much a frock of this type will do for your wardrobe—and your entire outlook on life. When you put it on, you will begin to feel smart and interesting again, and a bit complacent about your fashion-fightness. Make the frock we've pictured for you in dark satin—black or brown or that new dark green—with white satin contrast near your face, a becoming foil for summer tan. It is really cool, with its lowish neck and short sleeves. This is a Butterick Pattern and may be bought at your favorite department store.

VACCINATION TO BE MADE COMPULSORY

School and health officials of Brownwood met the past week-end for the purpose of discussing the vaccination of the city's school children. The meeting resulted in a decision to indefinitely enforce, from the beginning of the 1934-1935 school year, provisions of the law requiring that school children be vaccinated against smallpox.

Teachers will be instructed not to classify any child not vaccinated until a certificate is presented from the family physician showing that the requirement has been met.

Arrangements have been made with the Red Cross for the furnishing of smallpox vaccination points without cost to children whose parents are on direct relief or work relief rolls of the county. Members of Brown-Mills County Medical Society will vaccinate these children without cost. In cases of children whose parents are not able to have work done but are not on the relief rolls, the vaccine will be furnished by the P. T. A. and the physicians will do the work free of charge.

Those attending the meeting were: The health committee of the school board, composed of Superintendent E. J. Woodward, P. C. Barneş and Dr. H. B. Allen; Dr. Joe Young, president of the Brownwood Medical Society; Dr. Ernest Cadenhead, secretary of Brown-Mills Medical Society; Dr. J. M. Horn, city health officer, and Dr. Roy G. Hallum, county health officer.

Brown Co. League Enters Second Half

The current season of the Brown county baseball league came to a close last Sunday with but one game being played, Fry hanging a 1-0 defeat on the league leading Brownwood team. The Brownwood team not only failed to score but also failed to get a hit off Kemp, the Fry hurler.

The play-off for the 1934 league championship will get under way next Sunday with a double-header being played on the Woodland Heights diamond, the first game being between Brownwood, holders of first place, and Fry, the fourth place team. The second game will bring together the teams that finished second and third, Woodland Heights and Brookesmith, respectively.

The winners of Sunday's games will meet in a best two out of three game series to determine the league champions for 1934. The managers of the two teams will decide when and where the final games will be played.

Mineral Wells Girl Missing From Home Is Located In City

Hazel Butler, 14-year-old daughter of Jim Butler, operator of a tourist park five miles east of Mineral Wells, whose disappearance from home Monday night, August 20, had occasioned the beginning of a nationwide search for fear she was a victim of kidnapers, was found in Brownwood Sunday by members of the city police department and has been returned to her parents.

The girl had been staying at the Frank Martin residence at 1506 Third Street since Tuesday night of last week. She became acquainted with some of the Martin children at a swimming pool Tuesday evening and told them that her mother was supposed to call for her at the pool but had not. She was invited to remain at the Martin home that night and had remained there. She told her hostesses that her name was Hazel Jackson but neighbors who had read descriptions of the girl in various papers, notified police who had already begun a search for her in Brownwood. Her father had arrived in Brownwood before the girl was found.

Hazel told police that she had left home of her own accord but gave no reason for her disappearance. The father likewise was unable to explain why she had left home. Butler said his daughter had $25 of her own money saved up but that she did not take this with her, leaving home without a penny.

Mr. Butler returned home immediately with his daughter who seemed glad to be able to return to her loved ones after almost one week of adventure.

Its members are for the most part, citizens of Brownwood and Brown County. Every dollar paid into this Association comes back to Brownwood people, either in death claims or expenses of operating the Association.

It is the desire of the officers of the Association to build this into the largest company of this kind in this part of the State, and they ask the cooperation of Brown County and Brownwood citizens in their efforts.

During the past week, more than fifty new members have been added to the Company. For further information, write,

WARNING: It has been brought to our attention that certain parties formerly associated with our Company are going to the members, proposing to transfer them to some other Association. These parties are not in any sense transferring your policy to a new Association, but are asking you to drop your policy in your present company, and take out an entirely new policy in some other company, so that they, these agents, can earn a commission on the sale of the new policy to you, thereby causing you to lose all you have put into your policy in your present company. When such an agent approaches the policyholder, he usually presents the argument that he is doing him a great favor. The truth of the matter is that this character of agent is merely painting a picture that will benefit financially the agent and not the insured.

Ab Jenkins praises Firestone tires in toughest endurance run he ever made.

Lake Bonneville, Utah Aug. 10th, 1934

Dear Mr. Firestone:

Under A.A.A. supervision, I have just completed a 3,000-mile run on the hot salt desert at Lake Bonneville, Utah, averaging 127.2 miles per hour, breaking 77 Speed Records—without any tire trouble. Firestone Tires gave an almost unbelievable performance, with temperatures as high as 120 degrees.

Last year I made a similar run with a car of less power and speed using tires of another make whose national advertising featured blowout protection. Yet, I had a blowout and made a number of tire changes.

This year I also used Firestone Spark Plugs and a Firestone Extra Lower Method of any kind.

If every car owner knew what my Firestone Tires went through in strength and heat protection Gum-Dipping means in safety from blowouts, that make Firestone tires safe ever made in my test, this is the toughest run I have ever made in my 22 years of breaking speed records.

Sincerely yours,
Ab Jenkins

FOOTBALL PRACTICE STARTS THIS WEEK

The Lions of Brownwood High School will begin their football practice sessions Saturday when Coaches Bill Keeling and Mac Miller issue uniforms to sixty or more boys aspiring to places on the 1934 high school eleven.

Keeling, a former football star with Austin College, has assumed his duties as athletic director and head coach at Brownwood High School and with the assistance of Mac Miller, who has been connected with high school athletics here the past three years, will attempt to put the Lions on the football map of Texas.

The new coaching combination at B. H. S. will have only one, possibly two lettermen, around which to build their 1934 eleven, but with about twenty members of the 1933 squad and several good prospects coming up from last year's junior high eleven, prospects for a winning team are not too bad.

The Lions face a difficult schedule which includes five Oll Belt games, tilts with Thomas Jefferson, of San Antonio, and with Polytechnic High, of Fort Worth. The complete schedule follows: Sept. 21—Thomas Jefferson at San Antonio.

Sept. 29—Coleman at Coleman. Oct. 6—Polytechnic (Ft. Worth) at Brownwood. Oct. 13—Cisco at Cisco. Oct. 20—Breckenridge in Breckenridge.

Oct. 27—Open. Nov. 3—Abilene in Brownwood. Nov. 10—Eastland at Eastland. Nov. 17—Open. Nov. 23—Ranger in Brownwood. Nov. 29—Open.

RECONCILIATION PROBLEMS ARE DISCUSSED AT MEETING HERE OF LOAN REPRESENTATIVES

Debt reconciliation problems were discussed at a district meeting at the Brown county court house last Friday by representatives of the federal and state governments and by A. C. Williams, chairman of the Federal Land Bank of Houston. The meeting was presided over by E. A. Tweedy, Waco, district supervisor, with J. H. Brown, county chairman of Brown county, in charge of local arrangements.

Twenty-five farmers and interested in this work, representing the twelve counties in the district, attended the meeting. Those represented were Comanche, Erath, Eastland, Hamilton, Coleman, Mills, San Saba, Concho, Menard and Garza.

Mr. Williams in turn outlined briefly the organization and structure of the various units that compose the Farm Credit Administration, of Houston. He described the manner in which loans are made by the Federal Land Bank, advising that appraisals on farms are based on the normal earning power of the land for agricultural purposes.

"After 16 years of operation," said Williams, "the Federal Land Bank of Houston had outstanding loans amounting to about $150,000,000. Since May 1, 1933, the bank, acting for itself and as agent for the land commissioner, has closed loans aggregating in excess of $100,000,000."

In discussing the work of debt reconciliation committees and its relation to the program of the Federal Land Bank, Williams said: "It is not our duty to insist that creditors make concessions in cases where farmers are more deeply in debt than the earning power of their farms can be expected to carry. The Federal Land Bank just determines the maximum amount it can lend and from that point the responsibility of adjustment cannot properly be held within our province."

The meeting here was one of a series being conducted by the officials over the state to give information to debt reconciliation committees and recently appointed debt commissioners.

Round table discussions of problems encountered in their work occupied the attention of secretary-treasurers of National Farm Loan Associations of the Brownwood district Friday morning. S. R. McWhirter, district supervisor, presided over this meeting and led in the discussion of the various problems. The secretary-treasurers attended the debt reconciliation meeting held Friday afternoon.

Those in attendance besides Mr. McWhirter included: A. C. Hargis, assistant treasurer of the Federal Land Bank; L. L. Adams, collection supervisor, Federal Farm Loan Bank; Ward McConnell, Federal Land Bank appraiser in this territory; and the following secretary-treasurers: C. M. Carpenter, Brownwood; H. L. Stewart, Comanche; Oren H. Ellis, Stephenville; W. B. Jones, Dublin; Claude Strickland, Cisco; M. H. Perkins, Citizens; R. V. Wood, Coleman; W. C. Dew, Goldthwaite; J. B. Hagen, San Saba; J. H. Hart, Shiloh; and Earle Johnson, Eastland.

NEW SCHEDULE MADE BY CANNING PLANT

The Brown county canning plant, on Coggin Avenue, has announced a regular program for canning, this calling for the canning of meat every morning and the canning of fruit and vegetables in the afternoons.

Producers taking their products to the plant receive 60 per cent of the canned meats and fifty per cent of the vegetables and fruits.

Miss Myrtle Gaines, of Bangs, superintendent of the plant, called attention to the fact that the plant has not been shut down and that it now is operating almost at capacity.

CENTRAL TEXAS SCHOOL of ORATORY

OFFERS

The Power of Speech

Whether you are a business man, teacher, executive or a student it is your greatest asset to express yourself clearly and concisely. The Central Texas School of Oratory exerts every effort to relieve the tension and strain of public appearances from its students. Conclusive evidence of the success we have merited appears in the fact that we have tutored sixty students who have competed in the Inter-scholastic League Meets in the past three years and out of this number fifty have won places for the school they represented, forty advanced to County Meets, thirty were awarded places in the district and eighteen were given the honor of representing their district in the final state meet.

You owe it to yourself and to your child to see that they are given the advantage of Public Speaking. Whether they reap honors upon themselves are immaterial to the multitude of good that it will do them in removing the self-consciousness that they are naturally placed in. A well trained faculty, modern methods and individual training are but few of the many advantages offered by the CENTRAL TEXAS SCHOOL OF ORATORY.

The Fall Term Begins September 10. Arrange now to avail yourself of the opportunity to gain the power of speech.

Sunday Shows From A Common Sense Viewpoint

When the question of whether or not the picture shows should be open on Sundays in Brownwood is brought to you do you not think it would be wiser to consider this question from a plain, common sense point of view. If Sunday shows come it is nothing to be alarmed over. It is not a plague about to settle on the community.

With the exception of Brownwood and a few smaller towns over the state every other town and city have their picture shows open on Sundays. Surely they must be proving more beneficial than harmful or they would be voted out.

Then consider just what is a moving picture. It is nothing more than a method of relating stories and incidents by means of pictures and voices. As to its being right or wrong to have them on Sundays, could there possibly be any difference between going down to a drug store on Sunday and buying a copy of "Treasure Island" and reading it for amusement and buying an admission ticket and seeing the same story enacted in pictures? Is there any difference in buying the Sunday funny papers and laughing at the cartoons and buying an admission ticket and laughing at the movie cartoons? If we fish, go swimming, play golf, ride about town in our auto for pleasure on Sunday we have to pay money for the privilege. If we listen to our radio we have to buy electricity to run it.

There are hundreds of men and women who do not care to fish, cannot play golf, do not have autos or own radios. Isn't it only fair that these people be given the privilege of attending the movies on Sunday if they desire that form of amusement?

A movie show is not a place that lures people away from worship. It is not a temptation to do wrong. It is simply a place where one can go for a very moderate sum for an hour or two of wholesome enjoyment. Where he can travel to the far places of the earth, where he can see actual scenes of the big news events of the day and hear talks by great people. Where he can see plays by the world's best writers... plays in which good is ever triumphant over evil.

Wouldn't it be pleasant on a cold, rainy winter Sunday to be able to make up a party and drive down and enjoy a picture show?

Someone once said something about "idleness being the devil's workshop." Wouldn't it be much better to give men and boys who now idle about the streets on Sundays something to do... somewhere to go?

Any hotel man can tell you how the traveling public lights shy of Brownwood on Sundays because its picture shows are not open. Are we not just as much entitled to the money they spend as a neighboring town?

In the election on Saturday, September 8th, won't you cast your vote for Sunday movies and give Brownwood an even break with other towns in the state!

KEROSENE

THIS refrigerator is not a makeshift. It's the same nationally advertised Electrolux that is serving thousands of city homes so satisfactorily. It's the famous air-cooled refrigerator that has won the endorsement and backing of the great gas industry.

In the city Electrolux operates on gas. In the country it uses inexpensive kerosene. A wickless glow-type heater replaces the tiny gas flame used in cities.

In every important respect this rural Electrolux has the identical cabinet—sturdy and gleaming white—that's found in the finest city apartments. Electrolux offers the same money- and time-saving conveniences, gives full protection for foods . . . speeds the preparation of, crisp salads and delicious desserts.

Electrolux has no moving parts. This means that it has nothing to wear and become noisy—nothing to need costly repairs. Electrolux uses no water.

It costs remarkably little to run . . . its five-gallon tank holds enough kerosene for more than a week, needing only occasional attention.

COURTNEY GRAY WINS LEGISLATIVE POST

Courtney Gray, serving his second term as Brown county judge, Saturday won the Democratic nomination as representative of the 125th legislative district, defeating J. W. Golson, of Coleman, by a margin of about 1,500 votes. The 125th district is comprised of Brown and Coleman counties. Mr. Golson has represented the district in the state legislature the past two years and was seeking nomination for a second term.

Judge Gray was given more than a two to one majority by Brown county voters and polled an excellent vote in the home county of Mr. Golson. Judge Gray and Mr. Golson won the right to enter the run-off by leading a field of five candidates in the July 23 primary. Those eliminated in the first primary were A. W. (Gus) Slaughter and C. M. Kilgore, of Brownwood, and D. D. Knight, of Coleman county.

Judge Gray will assume his new duties when the legislature convenes early in January.

The vote by counties in the legislative race was:

	Gray	Golson
Brown	4,219	1,761
Coleman	1,799	2,791
Totals	6,018	4,552

NEWMAN IS WINNER OVER DARROCH FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY

Judge A. O. Newman, of Coleman, won the Democratic nomination for district attorney of the 35th judicial district, Brown, Coleman and McCulloch counties, in Saturday's run-off primary, defeating J. C. Darroch, Brownwood attorney, by a majority of 611 votes. Judge Newman will succeed Charles L. South, also of Coleman, who Saturday was nominated for Congress from the new 21st congressional district.

Judge Newman will assume his new duties on January 1st unless Judge South wishes to retire prior to that time.

The two candidates in Saturday's election carried their home counties by substantial majorities, with McCulloch county deciding the race. The voters of McCulloch gave Judge Newman a majority of 1,028, more than enough to offset the majority taken by Darroch in the combined vote of Brown and Coleman counties.

The vote by counties in the district attorney's race was:

	Newman	Darroch
Brown	2,152	3,813
Coleman	2,924	1,850
McCulloch	2,161	1,133
Totals	7,237	6,626

FLOUR as cheap as any merchant can sell it and stay out of jail. Looney's.

From Wing Palmer to the Good People Of Brown County!

THANKS! THANKS! THANKS!

By your good vote last Saturday I was elected to serve you in the newly created office of Tax Assessor-Collector.

Words actually fall me in an effort to fully express my appreciation to you citizens for the honor you have bestowed upon me.

I haven't done anything, but you have certainly done something for me, and I again repeat that I cannot work too hard or too long, night or day, to show you my deep and sincere appreciation. My services will be at your disposal twenty-four hours every day.

To my opponent in this race, Mr. Lee Meek, may I state that I have never known a finer gentleman. He made a clean race for which I am grateful to him. I regret that it was impossible for both of us to win.

Again, thank you.

Gratefully yours,

WINSTON (Wink) PALMER

Drouth Broken By Several Showers

Most of Brown county has had one or more good rains since last Thursday night when the city of Brownwood and immediate territory received 2.38 inches of rain. The following afternoon several parts of the county had big rains, especially south of the city at and near Brownwood Country Club, which had more than two inches that afternoon. Sunday, most of the county had rain with the Country Club vicinity receiving another downpour. Brownwood did not receive any rain Sunday.

The rainfall of the past week has gone far toward relieving cattlemen of the county, many of whom were totally without water for their livestock. In addition the much needed moisture will be of untold benefit to ranges and will enable the farmers to plant fall feed crops. Little benefit to cotton will be noted but the rain will be worth thousands of dollars to farmers and ranchmen of the county.

Baptist Association Holds Annual Meet

The Brown County Baptist Association held a two-day session in Bangs as guests of the Bangs Baptist Church, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Between 50 and 75 Baptists from Brownwood attended the convention and large numbers from over the county also attended.

Speakers on the two-day program were: Dr. Karl H. Moore, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Brownwood; Dr. W. R. Hornburg, pastor of the Coggin Avenue Baptist Church, Brownwood; Rev. C. V. Carroll, Rev. R. M. McGinnis, Rev. Otis Cahill, Rev. R. O. Ekruat and Rev. A. H. Rucker.

Women of the Bangs church served lunch to visiting messengers both days of the meeting.

WAGE SCALE HIKED FOR CITY PROJECT

The wage scale for laborers on the city of Brownwood project which calls for the laying of several thousand feet of new and larger water mains has been raised from 25 to 35 cents an hour, this action having been taken by City Council in regular session Tuesday night. Half of the pay will be made in cash, the other half to be applied on water rental debts.

Mayor Thompson stated that two carloads of pipe have been ordered and should arrive at most any time. The pipe will cost about $3,500. The city expects to spend about $15,000 on the water mains project.

Woman Hurt When Struck By Auto

Mrs. J. F. McLeskey, of Brownwood, suffered a broken left knee and numerous injuries about her head and body Monday afternoon about 4:30 when struck by an automobile as she was crossing West Anderson street from the Hopper & Stanley corner to the Southern Hotel.

The car, driven by a Mrs. Holt, case worker at Brownwood relief headquarters, was turning into West Anderson from Center Avenue when it struck Mrs. McLeskey. Faulty brakes were blamed for the accident.

Mrs. McLeskey was rushed to Central Texas Hospital and according to latest reports, she is recovering satisfactorily from her injuries.

To The Voters of Brown County

I wish to take this method of thanking all my friends and supporters, for their loyal support in Saturday's election. It is difficult to express in words my appreciation. I have the kindest feeling toward the voters supporting my opponent. I will endeavor to give the very best service of which I am capable to all alike, to the end that Brown county may be represented fairly and well in every transaction through this office.

LOCAL OBSERVANCE OF CENTENNIAL IS PLANNED BY BOARD

Brown county's Centennial Advisory Committee, which was organized Tuesday afternoon of this week, is making plans for a big celebration in 1936 as part of the statewide observance of the 100th anniversary of Texas Independence. Mrs. H. F. Mayes was elected chairman of the Brown county committee and Mrs. Harry McGhee was named secretary. The advisory board, as named by the representative in the state legislature from this district, includes Mrs. Mayes, Dr. Thomas H. Taylor, Mrs. E. J. Miller, Mrs. J. W. Trapp and James C. White.

The exact nature of the celebration to be held in Brownwood and other details of the proposed celebration are yet to be worked out but discussions of plans will be begun next Tuesday afternoon when representatives of all local clubs and civic organizations meet with the advisory board to offer suggestions. The meeting will be held at the Carnegie Library. Mrs. Harry McGhee, Mrs. E. J. Miller and Miss Bess Dobbs, named as a committee to outline the proposed celebration, will have their plans ready to be presented at the general meeting Tuesday.

It is necessary that details of the proposed celebration be worked out at once, in that an application for approval of the celebration in Brownwood must be presented to the State Centennial Commission prior to November 1, 1934.
