

A number of years ago politicians frequently referred to issues as "red herrings." Originated during the days when the threat of communism got more attention, the expression referred to diverting attention from one issue by creating another. The theory is that a smelly issue can be obscured by bringing out the more smelly herring.

Applying to the present, we have reason to wonder whether Watergate is not serving as a red herring to hide the smell of some other things that are going on in Washington. While public attention is being monopolized by the over-abundance of publicity demanding the impeachment of Nixon, little is heard about the shenanigans of the liberal element.

Between accusations of the Watergate variety there are, of course, many criticisms about the administration's handling of the economy. Actually, however the responsibility for our fiscal problems rests with Congress rather than the executive branch. And Congress happens to be controlled by the party that does the howling and points the finger.

A sampling of some of the wild spending by the present Democrat-controlled Congress was inserted recently in the Congressional Record by Rep. Symms of Idaho. The list includes: Chasing wild boars in Pakistan ($35,000); Studying the perspiration smell of Australian aborigines ($70,000); Studying Polish bisexual frogs ($6,000); Learning the difference between native American and Indian whistling ducks ($5,000); Studying mating calls for Central American toads ($20,324); A study to find out how fishing boat crewmen cause conflicts in Yugoslavian peasant towns ($15,000); A study to find out why people say "ain't" ($121,000); A study of medieval Spanish satire and invective ($8,500). All of those are real dandies but the prize appropriation was $5,000 for the poem "light." That's not the title, it's the entire poem!

It's easy to understand why the liberals like to have public attention diverted from this kind of absurdity. Also it's easy to see why they want attention diverted from their effort to take complete control of the national government. AFL-CIO labor boss George Meany says that big labor's aim in the next election is a "veto-proof" congress, with the power to over-ride any presidential veto.

The thought of that situation is enough to scare the average citizen stiff. It means that people obligated to big labor can take over complete control of our government and that the labor bosses would become the power behind our government.

This isn't just scare talk. From what is already going on, we know that the bosses are now influencing their kind of congressional action and will demand even more when they get more power. They pushed through the campaign reform legislation, which bans the big political contributions but does nothing to stop the greatest election abuse of all — the in-kind union contributions which take over campaign work and expense instead of giving money. Also it seems more than just coincidence that the House Judiciary Committee, most of whom are obligated to unions for past support, is doing just as Meany demands in striving for the president's impeachment.

The sad fact is that the present union-dominated liberals in Congress consistently refuse to put an end to union abuses even when the records show the changes are wanted by the American public.

A recent poll by Opinion Research Corporation reveals that by a ratio of 79 to 12 Americans feel that union officials should not be permitted to use compulsory union dues and fees to campaign for political candidates. But Congress permits this outrage to continue as the source of the funds used for in-kind contributions. In effect it says that the involuntary contributions taken from union members are permissible but voluntary contributions of corporations are not.

Congress also continues to do nothing about federal labor laws which endorse and promote compulsory unionism while giving states the option

Town Will Close For July Fourth

Business activity in Muenster will slow down to a snail's pace, or maybe a complete stop, next Thursday, the 4th of July. A poll of the firms this week indicated that all contacted will take off for fishing, swimming, visiting, loafing, the community picnic, or something.

Those who said they will close for the day are Pagel, Hofbauer, Fisher, H&W, Community, Shamburger, Hamrick's, Charm Shop, Wilde, Endres, Tuggle, Center, Electric Co-op, Ben Franklin, Rohmer's. And, of course, the post office and bank can be taken for granted.

Senior Baseball

The race for the title in the big league of summer baseball is going to the very last game. Following the Mill's 15-9 win over Center Wednesday night it is leading Center by a half game, and the standing may change in the final game.

Team records now are Mill 6-2-0, Center 5-2-1, Co-op 3-4-0, Endres 0-6-1.

Wednesday's game between Endres and Co-op was postponed for a week because of the absence of several boys on both teams who are at the Boy Scout camp this week.

Father John Walbe who has been pastor of St. Mary's Parish in Fort Worth is now assistant pastor to Father Herman Laux in Little Rock, Ark. Father Fintan Oldham who was assistant in the Little Rock parish is now at St. Mary's. Father Bede Mitchell is back in Lindsay after assisting with parish duties in Fort Worth the past three weeks.

Most men, when they think they are thinking, are merely rearranging their prejudices.

The group is evenly divided between senior and junior divisions, both having five 3-hour classes ending Friday and an exam Saturday. Students completing the course will receive the official Red Cross certificates and patches for their swim suits.

Enrolled in the senior class are Donna Sue Swirczynski, Susan Moser, Milissa Weinzapfel, Debbie Schneider, Lydia Robison and Marilyn Smith. The juniors are Connie Flusche, Carolyn Luke, Mary Luke, Linda Endres, Monica Gehrig and Lu Dyer.

After that course there will be a one week break through July 4 before the annual big swimming instruction program for beginners, intermediates and advanced swimmers which usually has an enrollment of 250 to 300. Registrations will be on Monday, July 8, and students will be divided into two groups, one receiving instructions July 9 through 13 and the other July 15 through 19.

There will be three 1-hour classes daily and each student is assigned to one of those classes. The result is that each student receives five hours of swimming instruction.

Drip Irrigation System Explained

Principles and methods of drip irrigation and sub irrigation were described last Thursday to a group of Cooke and Montague County people in the conference room of Cooke County Electric Co-op.

Bobby Reeder, research horticulturist with the Montague demonstration station, used a slide presentation to describe drip irrigation as the frequent or daily application of water to a specific area of the plant. In drip irrigation water drops to the soil surface without disturbing the soil structure, allowing the water to seep between soil particles. Once in the soil, the water moves by capillary action to the surrounding areas.

The same principle applies to sub irrigation, except that water is discharged below the ground surface. A characteristic of both drip — and sub-irrigation is that it prevents rather than relieves a moisture stress. It supplies the plant's daily moisture need rather than adding moisture after a plant starts to suffer. He also explained equipment for the irrigation method, which was pioneered and developed in Israel.

Wayne Keese, engineer of Texas A&M Extension Service, discussed economics and advantages of this type of irrigation, explaining that more acreage can be irrigated with the same volume of water, yield is higher, fertilizer can be spoon fed, and crusting or salt buildups on the soil can be avoided.

Daryl Tysdol of Texarkana stated that drip irrigation pays in increased yield, climatized control and extension of the growing season.

Dale Brown of Submatic, Inc. of Lubbock reviewed the mechanics of trickle irrigation and named some systems being used in the area. He said that the demand for supplemental irrigation is increasing in this area and interested persons can get information from Cooke or Montague County agents, or Bob Reeder of the Montague experiment station, or from Gene Davenport of Cooke County Electric Co-op.

The average weight of the human brain is 48 ounces.

Plans Complete for July Fourth Picnic

Members of St. Joseph's Society started the ball rolling and invited local clubs and societies to join them in adding their own fund raising projects. Eighteen other organizations responded and are working this week on their respective concessions to boost their respective treasuries.

Among headliners are fried chicken, barbecue, hot dogs, homemade ice cream and pie, cold drinks, candy, pop corn and peanuts for refreshments. And horse shoes, hay ride, fish pond, dunking pond, white elephant sale, auction, a variety of games with prizes, and surprises. The auction will begin at 8 p.m.

Along with these attractions there will be a number of carnival type concessions, and a plant sale, a book sale, bag, shirt and hat sale.

The Farm Bureau gave her an award for county leadership "in appreciation for assisting with organization of the local unit." Other groups have cited her for distinguished service to county citizens.

A native of Denton, she grew up at Quitaque and graduated from high school there. She has a B.S. degree in home economics from Texas Woman's University. Before joining the Extension Service, she was clothing supervisor for six years at the Methodist Home of Waco.

Looking back on her career, Mrs. Thurman says that "County Extension work is the most rewarding and challenging work that I am aware of, and to be in a progressive county such as Cooke is indeed fortunate. The 'latch string' at my home will be out to all friends."

Mrs. Tom Joyce Cunningham, District Extension Agent at Dallas, has not yet named a successor for Mrs. Thurman.

Ben Lukes Share Honors of Joint Birthday Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Luke were both honorees at a birthday celebration Saturday evening June 22 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Luke where a reunion and dinner were held with nine of the honorees' ten children and families attending.

Mrs. Luke's birthday was that day. She was 78. Her husband's birthday will be July 19. It will be his 87th.

The hosts provided fresh fried catfish caught that afternoon in their pond. Others all brought covered dishes for the feast.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Luke were brought in wheel chairs. It was her first time out since she broke a hip.

Granddaughters Mary Luke, Carolyn Luke and Cheryl Luke baked two birthday cakes. They also made crowns for their grandparents and crowned them king and queen for the day. And they presented Mrs. Luke a bouquet of red roses.

The honorees' children and their families present were Mr. and Mrs. Al Kuhn of St. Louis, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. Harold Luke of Arlington, Dr. and Mrs. Bernard Luke of Irving, Dr. and Mrs. Gene Luke of Denton, Father Eugene Luke of Subiaco, Ark., Messrs. and Mmes. Sister Theresina Sends Greeting from Switzerland
 Sister Theresina reports safe arrival in Switzerland and sends warmest greetings to each and every one of "my dear Muenster people. I simply cannot send cards to individuals."
 She says on arrival she was met at Zurich by her brother, sister, sister-in-law and nephew at 9:15 a.m. They went to Mass at Rapperswil, did some sight-seeing, ate dinner and stopped at Warrwil for coffee at her sister's home. Then to Neu St. John where she is headquartering. The nights are cool enough for a blanket and a featherbed!
 She says her people have made plans for trips, visits, dinners, and what not, with dates reserved. She attends daily two Masses, one completely in Latin, the other communal praying and singing in German with Holy Communion given in the hand, or on the tongue for those who abide by the old.

 Weather brings rain, rain and more rain.
 Sister Theresina noted that traffic is extremely heavy, cars, immense post autos, busses, heavy trucks, and they speed through her village at unheard of speed. Yet one can manage to keep alive by crossing the street at the right place well marked by large yellow lines.
 Doctor: "We can add 30 years to your life if you give up wine, women and song."
 Patient: "I'll settle for twenty years. Never really enjoyed music anyway."

Safe Boating Week Begins June 30
 Governor Dolph Briscoe has proclaimed the week of June 30 through July 6 Safe Boating Week in Texas.
 The Texas Safety Association, along with boating groups across the State, urged Texans to pay special attention to boating safety during the July Fourth holiday when water traffic is always heavy.
 The official proclamation pointed out that there are now 432,558 boats registered in Texas. "This increase in recreational craft greatly intensifies the water safety problem," reads the proclamation, "It is imperative that all boatmen observe the basic rules of boating safety if we are going to keep the loss of life and property at a minimum."
 In 1973 there were 74 boating deaths in Texas. Sixty-five of these contributed to drownings. Deaths like these can be prevented, according to TSA officials, if boaters will take the simple precaution of wearing a personal flotation device.

Linda Ann Voth Mark H. Fuhrmann Say Vows at Mass
 Muenster is home for Mr. and Mrs. Mark Fuhrmann who have returned from a wedding trip to Colorado. She is the former Miss Linda Ann Voth. The couple married June 15 in Sacred Heart Church. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Voth and Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Fuhrmann.
 Father Placidus Eckart celebrated the 5 p.m. nuptial Mass and heard the vows in a double ring ceremony.
 Presented by her father, the bride wore a gown of nylon sheer over taffeta with Chantilly lace edging the high neckline and forming the cuffs of the lantern sleeves. Several rows of the lace circled the skirt at the hemline and framed her cathedral-length veil.
 She carried a cascade of yellow and white daisies, gladiola flowerettes and stephanotis showered with love-knotted streamers entwined with a crystal rosary a gift from her aunt, Sister Agnes Voth. She wore a gold cross and chain, a gift from the groom, and had a 1953 birth-date penny in her shoe.
 Bride's four attendants were her sister Miss Brenda Voth, maid of honor, Mrs. Chris Cagle of Dallas, Mrs. Doug Gantt of Idaho Falls, Idaho, sister of the bride and Miss Mona Voth, another sister, bridesmaids.
 They were identically gowned in dresses of yellow floral with green stripe print on white with empire waist accented by green ribbon tied in a bow at the back and falling in streamers. The sleeves were puffed and the skirts gathered ending in a hemline flounce. They wore yellow picture hats with green ribbon trim and carried colonial nosegays of yellow and white daisies, gladiola flowerettes and yellow streamers.

 Michael Fuhrmann was his brother's best man. Another brother Steve Fuhrmann, the bride's brother Danny Voth and Steve Zimmerer were groomsmen. Johnny Anderle, Willie Wimmer and Bobby Bauer were ushers.
 Miss Mary Lou Kralicke was organist with Miss Beverly Walterscheid, Miss Carol Yosten and Mrs. Leon Klement, vocalists, playing their own guitar accompaniment. Their numbers included "Words," "First Time," "Service," and "Wedding Song" with "A Time for Us" as the organ processional and "Let It Be" when the couple went to the Blessed Virgin's shrine to place a floral tribute on the altar.
 Misses Sharon and Jeannene Voth, sisters of the bride, gave readings at the Mass and Pat and Kenny Fuhrmann, brothers of the groom, presented the offertory gifts. Denise Anderle, niece of the groom and Craig Voth, brother of the bride, each handed the couple a long-stemmed carnation for presentation on the Virgin's altar.
Wedding Reception
 Wedding reception, dinner and dance were held in the KC Hall at Gainesville. Mrs. Bobby Bauer and Miss Margie Felderhoff registered guests. Mrs. Jerry Walterscheid presided at the wedding cake served by Mrs. Johnny Anderle, Misses Pam Fuhrmann and Doris Schmitt.
 Mrs. Voth attended her daughter's wedding in a light green formal and the groom's mother wore a yellow formal. Both had yellow rose corsages.
 For their honeymoon to Colorado the bride wore a flowered white dress with white accessories. She is a graduate of Sacred Heart High, attended NTSU at Denton and is employed in the office at Muenster Hospital. He graduated from Lindsay High, attended Cooke County College and is employed by Norbert Zimmerer Construction.
 Rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents in their home.

Pre-Nuptial Parties
 A display shower was held June 9 at the home of the bride's parents where Mrs. Chris Cagle, Mrs. Doug Gantt and Misses Brenda and Mona Voth were hostesses. They presented yellow daisy corsages to the honoree and mothers of the couple and served punch and cake.

Two Teachers and Custodian Hired By Lindsay Board

Lindsay school board faced a full agenda at its Thursday night meeting when it hired a grade school principal, a third grade teacher and a custodian and appointed a tax equalization board after hearing a talk by a Mr. Ellis of the State Board of Education, and discussing future needs of the local district with him.

Hershel Wayne is the new elementary principal and eighth grade teacher. He was elementary principal at Callisburg last year. Virginia Armstrong is the third grade teacher. Mrs. Armstrong has been a special education teacher at Lindsay. Richard Nunnely was officially hired as custodian. He had been working the previous ten days.

Bill Martin is the new member of the tax equalization board succeeding Johnnie Arendt who chose not to serve. Martin will be serving with Henry Zimmerer and Gene Pelzel. A hearing will be held in July or August.

A group of high school boys attended the meeting to request a change in the boys' hair code. The hair and dress code was tabled until the next meeting.

In final business, Superintendent Hellman said he had received a resignation from Mrs. John Hoberer, lunchroom cook. It was decided to advertise for a replacement. It also was decided to turn 1972 delinquent school taxes over to an attorney.

Junior Baseball

The race is over in the junior division of summer baseball. In games of the past week Grewing's boys won twice and posted a lead that can't be beat in the remaining one game. Likewise Wilde is firmly established in second place and will remain there, win or lose in the last game, and the same applies to Bank and Tuggle.

Records now are Grewing 7-1-0, Wilde 4-3-1, Bank 2-4-2, Tuggle 1-6-1.

The big game of the week, and probably the season, was the 23 to 23 scoring spree by Wilde and the Bank. Other results were Grewing 14, Tuggle 3; Grewing 13, Wilde 2; Bank 20, Tuggle 5.

NOTES FROM THE LIBRARY

By Mary Moster, Librarian
A number of new books have been shelved at Muenster Public Library and are ready to be checked out.
Because Rose Fitzgerald

Kennedy "believes the story should be told accurately" she has written "Times to Remember." It is a fascinating account of the triumphs, tragedies and everyday life of her remarkable family. All proceeds from the sale of this book will go to the Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. Foundation for the mentally retarded.
Alistair Cooke's "America" is the best of the television film and the best from his- torical collections all over the country. It is an incomparable tour of the American past, a uniquely fresh and human portrait of ourselves as we were and as we are.

Solzhenitsyn's "The Gulag Archipelago" is a documenta- tion of the entire Soviet Sys- tem from 1918 to 1956. It is based on his 11 years in pris- ons, concentration camps and exile, as well as letters that he received from ex-prisoners and interviews that he con- ducted with 227 survivors of slave-labor camps.

In "The Snare of the Hunted" by Helen MacInnes a reviewer writes "excitement never falters in this story of chase, disguise, narrow es- capes and killings. Czechos- lovakia, Austria, the Italian border, and Switzerland are the colorful and well-por- trayed settings for the action. This is her latest highly super- ior suspense novel.
Another new suspense novel is "The Hollow Hills" by Mary Stewart. In it she re-creates the suspense and excitement of an ancient legend — how Merlin, the enchanter, helped Arthur become King of all Britain.
Be sure to visit the Book Booth at the July 4 picnic. There will be books and mag- azines (National Geographic) for sale — reasonably.

Thirty-seven per cent of electric generating capacity added by utilities in the United States during 1974 will be nuclear.

They started their eight- day trip on a Saturday, spent the first night in Amarillo with his brother Wayne Schmitt and family, and spent Sunday in Santa Fe seeing places of interest including the Miraculous Stairway, In- dians and churches.

The following day they vis- ited in Red River, N. M., and then drove on into Denver. With the Gremmings the Schmitts did extensive sight- seeing including Red Rock, Mother Cabrini's Shrine, Coor's Brewery, Heritage Square, Denver Mint where they watched money being made, Cathedral, Botanic Gar- dens, Denver Zoo, Museum of Natural History, and Casa Bonita famous for its food and entertainment. And Mmes.

Gremminger and Schmitt toured Cinderella City, the largest shopping center under one roof in the world. And Ted took them on a tour of the Denver Kraft plant.

On their way home Friday the Schmitt family visited the Air Force Academy and the North Pole where the children saw Santa at his workshop. Next was taking in the sights at Colorado Springs, and finally enroute home Palo Duro Canyon. They returned home Saturday night.

SCS Men to Teach Conservation at Boy Scout Ranch

Soil Conservation Service personnel will conduct a con- servation training camp at the Sid Richardson Scout Ranch on Lake Bridgeport in July. The five day camp is a part of the Longhorn Council Boy Scout training program.

It will be similar to the one held in July of 1973 in which SCS professionals gave the scouts training in soils, geol- ogy, wildlife, ecology and soil and water conservation at the grass roots level. The scouts learned first hand such things as how plants grow, the cause and prevention of soil erosion and things about the habitat of wildlife such as deer, quail and small game animals.

The Sid Richardson Scout Ranch provides a natural set- ting for the scouts to learn about wildlife since the ranch abounds with deer, quail and small animals. It also has sev- eral miles of shore line. Fossils and interesting geologic formations are available for study as well as different types of oil and topography. The scouts are given an insight in- to our ecosystem from the very beginning of soil formation from lichen and moss on rocks to plants being grazed by cat- tle and deer.

The camp includes a field trip to one of the local ranches where the scouts are given an opportunity to learn how a working ranch provides for deer and other wildlife along with raising beef cattle.

At the Panama Canal the Pacific Ocean is east of the Atlantic.

Ray Swirczynskis Cover 5554 Miles On Vacation Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Swirczynski are back from what they say is probably the best vacation trip they ever had. They were away three weeks sight-seeing and visiting through nine states and covering 5554 miles.

On leaving Muenster they headed for Colorado Springs,

Colo., spending three days there with Ray's sisters Mrs. Alex Knauf and family and the Clarence Erpeldings and sons. Mrs. Erpelding joined them on the rest of the trip.

Next were Denver, Cheyenne, Wyo., and Sun Valley, Idaho, where the sun stays out until 10 p.m. On inquiring if that's how Sun Valley got its name, the answer was no. It's because the sun shines every day of the year. It snows always at night and the sun shines again in the morning. From there to Missoula, Mont.

In Spokane, Wash., they really had the "red carpet treatment" seeing the Lehnertz Brothers. Gene Lehnertz is Mrs. Swirczynski's godfather and he was best man at their wedding in Illinois 34 years ago. All of the brothers have lovely homes and each has his specific job at the two Longhorn Restaurants and Catering services.

Bringing them up date on activities the Lehnertzes told about their catering at Expo 74 each night for dignitaries of each nation . . . Japan, Russia, the Philippines, etc. Several of the dignitaries visited the Longhorn Restaurant and Lounge and presented the Lehnertz brothers with plaques.

Expo 74 was something else. The theme was based on ecology and pollution. The traveling trio said the US and Russia tried to outdo each other in displays. Each country had a beautiful building and display, all set on the Spokane River with bridges and gondola rides. They spent two days there trying to see it all.

The second day there Clarence Erpelding flew into Spokane to make the rest of the trip with them. After five days in Spokane they went on to Grand Coulee Dam and then to Seattle to visit the Erpeldings' daughters Linda and Diane. Linda is married to Dave Allegere and they have a son Dave. Diane lives with them and works as a fashion designer on a newspaper there.

They traveled by ferry to Puget Sound to tour the Battleship Missouri and Ray showed them where he stood as a soldier when Gen. McArthur signed the peace treaty with Japan in 1945.

Next were Portland, Oregon, and northern California driving through the Redwood Forest into San Francisco. They took all the tours that time allowed — found that it hadn't changed much since their visit 12 years ago except for the extremely modern architecture of the new Hyatt Hotel on Union Square which was fascinating in itself. The night before they left smog started clouding out everything. They couldn't even see the ships in the bay.

From there they drove to San Jose to visit Mrs. Swirczynski's nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Bruce and two sons. They lived in Muenster at one time. On to southern California and the Grand Canyon in Arizona, the Painted Desert and Petrified Forest, and Albuquerque, N. M.

There they parted company with the Erpeldings who caught a plane back to Colorado Springs. While they were traveling their son Curtis arrived at home. He had been in Germany ten months.

Patsy Spaeth and Eddy Henry Plan August 2 Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spaeth of Gainesville announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter Patsy and Eddy Henry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Henry, also of Gainesville.

The couple has selected Friday, August 2, as their wedding date. The 6:30 p.m. service will be solemnized in St. Mary's Church.

The future bride is a graduate of Incarnate Word High School in San Antonio and graduated from North Texas State University with a bachelor of science degree in Education. She is kindergarten teacher for the Pilot Point Independent School District. Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Felderhoff of Muenster.

The prospective groom is a graduate of Gainesville High School and Cooke County College and is a senior at North Texas State University in Denton. He is a patrolman for the Gainesville Police Department.

The couple will make their home in Gainesville.

Farmers Will Be Asked to Report On Year's Crops

In early July, over 24,000 Texas farmers will receive an acreage and production questionnaire from Charles Caudill, Agricultural Statistician for the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, Austin, Texas.

Information from this survey will be used to determine harvested acreage and production of early harvested crops for the state of Texas and for each county. There are 254 counties in Texas, and reports are needed from many farmers so that each county will be well represented. Accurate estimates are of great importance to farmers in planning production and marketing and in providing an unbiased picture of Texas agriculture.

The Texas Legislature has provided a program of estimates for each county. Texas covers such a wide area that state totals alone do not provide adequate information on Texas' most basic industry — agriculture. This is a cooperative effort of USDA's Statistical Reporting Service and the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Reducing plan for energy users

Plan D How to save electricity when using washers and dryers

1. Choose proper wash cycle. ("Hot" setting isn't necessary with most modern fabrics.)
2. Use long wash cycle only with full laundry load.
3. If washer has water level control, choose level to match load size. (Saves hot water and energy used to heat it.)
4. Clean dryer's lint filter after each load to help dryer efficiency and reduce drying time.
5. Don't overdry clothes. Set timer according to garment's fiber content.
6. Sort clothes for drying by weight and texture of fabric to avoid extra run-time for 2 or 3 slow-dry items.
7. Vent dryer to outside to prevent indoor moisture build-up. Follow manufacturer's operating instructions carefully.

Conserve electricity and you help conserve one or more of the fuels needed to produce it: natural gas, coal and oil. Conserve fuels and you help assure that there will be enough to meet essential needs for electricity in the future.

When you pass a TP&L office, warehouse, generating plant or other facility, you'll see that we've turned off all non-essential lighting. And, in as many other ways as possible, TP&L is reducing its own uses of electricity.

If you would like additional information on conserving electricity, call or see the Customer Service Representative in the TP&L Office.

People nowadays are showing more concern with the higher things of life—especially prices.

A distraught mother made the following announcement to a group of wild children at a birthday party: "There will be a special prize for the one who goes home first."

Local News BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Graf — she's the former Catherine Fisch — visited cousins and her uncle Joe Trachta on their visit here Wednesday afternoon to Thursday afternoon. They spent overnight with the Paul Endreses. The couple came from Midwest City, Okla., where they attended the wedding of her niece, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Willis. Mrs. Willis is the former Rosemary Fisch. From Muenster they went to Grand Prairie to visit a daughter and family enroute back to their home in New Orleans.

Vacation in Muenster and Gainesville for Mrs. Frank Fancher, houseguest of Mrs. Ruth Needham, wasn't at all what she had planned. She picked up a "bug" on her way from Pasadena, Calif., and spent most of the first week as a shut-in. Mrs. Needham, Sid Andress and Mrs. M. H. King met her on arrival by air at Wichita Falls June 17.

Weekend visitors with the Paul Fishers were her sister and husband the Pete Hawthornes and son Jerry of White Oak and Jerry's fiancée Miss Sabrina Jett of Corpus Christi. Also Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hughes, Eddie Paul and Fred of Irving. Their daughter Terry is summering with her grandparents. And Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kleiss, Michelle and Brian of Sanger. Michelle who had spent a week with her grandparents returned home with her family.

At Myra, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Rosson are being entertained by vacationing grandchildren. With them this week are Marilyn, Gary and Carolyn Lennox of Dawson. Last week's guests were Kim and Rhonda Price of Corsicana. Their parents Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Price and Melissa were Sunday visitors, bringing the Lennox children and taking their two daughters home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynton McClendon of Dallas and Jerry Henscheid of Irving visited here Saturday, checking on their father Leo Henscheid, a surgical patient at Muenster Hospital, and visiting their mother at home. Mr. Henscheid was dismissed from hospital care Monday afternoon.

Add home improvement notes: new outside paint at Mrs. Al Walterscheid's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Phillips and twin sons Larry and Billy have returned from a vacation trip visiting Andy's mother in Meadville, Pa. Enroute they stopped to visit friends in Fairborn, Ohio. Sight-seeing there included the Air Force Museum of Aviation at Wright Patterson Air Force Base. They also visited in Columbus, Ohio, with his niece and husband Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts. On return they drove to Chicago to spend several days with Andy's brother Nevin Phillips and family, then visited friends in St. Charles, Ill., before returning home.

Roy Swirczynski and his sister Jill, Mrs. Steve Kralicke, came to Muenster together to visit their parents, the Bob Swirczynskis. Roy arrived in Atlanta, Ga., from Dubai, Saudia Arabia, on June 10, spent two days with the Kralickes and brought Jill home with him for a ten-day visit. Roy has a month's vacation from work with Sedco Oil Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Yosten had as guests Thursday to Sunday their daughter Mrs. Dan Phillips and Paul who took Kary Phillips back home to Dallas with them. Kary had visited his grandparents since Father's Day when they were at the Phillips home for a dinner party. Others there were Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Yosten and daughters Codi and Terri of Eules, Mrs. Justin Jezek of Celina and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Savage of Garland, making a small family reunion.

From the Record (Taneytown, Maryland): "The way the new jets go, you can have dinner on one continent and heartburn on the next."

Münster welcomes Hesperian Saving, who opened their office here last Monday. Hesperian is no stranger to us. Our people have been doing business with them for years. They are located in the old R.E.A. building just west of the Center. Mrs. Doris Hamer is the manager and welcomes everyone to come in and register for those 84,000 free green stamps.

The local organizations are working to make July the 4th a big day. With all businesses being closed and people wanting to stay off the highways, indications are the picnic will draw a big crowd. What ever you spend there whether it be for food, drink, play or chances it will be for a good cause.

Invite your friends from Lindsay, Gainesville, Saint Jo, Nocona, Myra, Forestburg and Rosston to spend the afternoon with us.

Wouldn't it be nice if just someone had the answer to the inflation problem. There are so many things we can do without but when food prices soar as they have been it hurts everyone. The cost of such items as coffee, sugar, potatoes and beans have more than doubled in the past few months and there is no end in sight.

Very soon we should be reading about homes, cars, and those items bought on time being repossessed. Already companies selling on credit are tightening up on their terms.

Congratulations to Gilbert and Elsie Endres on their 25th anniversary, June 23th.

Mint Asks for Return of Penny

"I'm calling on every American, especially young people, to get the penny back in circulation and keep it there," Mrs. Mary Brooks, Director of the Mint, said today. "I'm calling on the banking industry to welcome the return of pennies. I'm urging schools, churches, charities, retail establishments and others to examine ways and means to involve their members in collecting pennies for deposit."

The price of copper has retreated, closing at $1.10 per pound on May 24. There will be no aluminum penny. The 62 billion pennies produced during the past 15 years have no numismatic value and because of the huge mintage they will never attain great value.

Nevertheless, speculators and hoarders of pennies have caused what seems to be a shortage of pennies in certain areas of the country.

But there is no shortage of a supply of pennies.

Creating a shortage where it does not exist can adversely affect every public spirited citizen, taxpayer and conservator of the earth's resources. It is inflationary should merchants start to round off sales to the next nickel due to lack of pennies to make change.

Again, I'd like to emphasize. There are plenty of pennies. But they are in the wrong places.

It is estimated that over 30 billion pennies are in circulation — doing the job for which they were intended. Somewhere in this vast country of ours, however, in excess of 30 billion pennies are in hiding. These are the pennies I'm looking for. They are in dresser drawers, shoe boxes, pickle jars; most anyplace you can think of that will get them out of pocket and out of sight. They are unwanted, unused and unappreciated.

For the Mint to be forced to continue increasing its penny production to meet the current extraordinary demand is wasteful. Wasteful of a natural resource — copper — that cannot be replenished by man. And wasteful of the taxpayers' hard earned money. One billion pennies returned to circulation will save the taxpayers $10,000,000.

The current price and supply of copper allows us to continue production and distribution of the copper bearing cent. During the past 15 years, the Mint has pumped out over 62 billion pennies using some 202,000 tons of copper in their manufacture.

This year alone the Mint expects to use 33,000 tons of copper in cent production — making about 35 million pennies each working day.

If just 15 billion pennies could be lured out of hiding, the Mint, at current production figures, wouldn't have to make pennies for almost 2 years and it would represent a saving of $150 million.

The Statue of Liberty was erected in 1886.

Here's How to Get Education Grant

Students who need money for their education after high school may now apply for Basic Educational Opportunity Grants for the 1974-75 academic year.

The $475 million available is expected to provide grants ranging from $50 to about $800 with an average grant of about $475.

Although limited this year to full-time students who began their postsecondary education after April 1, 1973, the program is expected to benefit an estimated one million students who might otherwise be unable to continue their education.

Under the program, students in financial need may obtain funds to help pay their educational expenses at any approved college, university, vocational school, technical institute, or hospital school of nursing. The amount for which a student is eligible is based on a formula annually developed by the U.S. Office of Education.

To apply for a Basic Grant, an "Application for Determination of Basic Grant Eligibility" must be obtained, filled out, and mailed to BEOG, P. O. Box 2264, Washington, D. C. 20013. Within a month the student is notified of the amount of his eligibility index. He then submits this notification to the school of his choice, which calculates the amount of the Basic Grant to which he is entitled.

Application forms are now available at student financial aid offices at postsecondary institutions, high school guidance offices, Talent Search, Upward Bound, Student Special Services projects, and public libraries. If unavailable in your area, write to BEOG, P. O. Box 84, Washington, D. C. 20044.

Use the Phone to Contact SS Office

The easiest way to conduct Social Security business these days is by telephone, according to Gus Jones, Manager of the Sherman Social Security Office. Whatever the problem, from filing an application to reporting an event that affects Social Security or Supplemental Security Income benefits, it is generally much easier to telephone the Social Security Office than to drop by.

Also, in these days of gasoline shortages, it helps conserve energy. Jones said that although a telephone call is preferable, it is certainly not mandatory — just faster and more economical. "A visit to our office is more appropriate when a serious problem exists that requires more lengthy discussion," Jones said.

The Social Security Office in Sherman is located at 810 N. Travis. Their telephone number is 893-4301. Office hours are from 8:30 a.m. to 4:45 p.m., Monday through Friday, except national holidays.

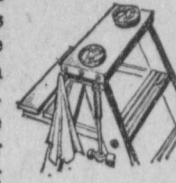

A representative may be contacted in Gainesville each Tuesday and Thursday from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon and 12:45 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. at the Federal Building. Those living in the Gainesville area may call the Sherman office toll free by dialing "O" and asking for ENterprise 6-2528.

Fixing Up The House

Here are some tips from the experts on how to overcome some common problems which frequently face the average homeowner. You may want to keep these ideas handy for future reference.

Insert small hooks into the side of a wooden stepladder. Use the hooks for hanging needed tools, wipe cloths, etc. . . . Jar lids nailed to the top of the ladder will hold nails, screws and the like.

Use old nylons to strain lumps from paint . . . When a paint job is finished, mark a stripe around the outside of the can at the level of the remaining paint. Later, you can tell how much paint is left in the can and its color.

Rub chalk on the tip of a screwdriver before inserting it into a screw and the screwdriver won't slip . . . A flexible piece of BX cable can be used in place of a plumber's helper to open clogged drains.

No More Squeaks When repairing or replacing stairs, drive nails in at an angle. The nails will hold better and allow less chance for squeaks to develop . . . If squeaks develop in floors, try pouring light oil or talcum powder between the boards.

To unstick a sticking door, apply pressure to open it only at the spot where it's sticking. Forcing other parts may strain the frame . . . When fixup jobs require a "level", and you don't have one, a glass measuring cup half filled with water makes a good substitute.

Always let plaster age a few weeks before painting over it . . . Fill well washed nail-polish or shoe polish bottles with each color paint you are using and label them. When walls become scratched, they can be easily touched up using the small bottles and applicators.

A non-abrasive aerosol foam cleaner is excellent for cleaning fiberglass, porcelain and other non-porous surfaces. Even though it's called a "bathroom cleaner", the foam works wonders in the kitchen and elsewhere. It's great for cleaning fiberglass boats and water skis anytime—and especially before storage.

Unlike abrasives such as steel wool and powder cleaners that can dull and mar finishes, the foam cleaner—developed by researchers at the Dow Chemical Company—lifts and removes soil easily and without surface damage. It also sanitizes as it cleans.

Safety Tricks With Hose Use a rubber hose slit down the middle to protect a saw blade when not in use . . . A couple of slit pieces of hose also make good grippers when you have to carry a piece of plate glass.

To locate wall studs, tie a magnet to a string and swing the string back and forth close to the wall. The magnet will stop at the lath nails.

to have Right to Work laws. It stubbornly maintains that attitude even though the ORC poll shows a ratio of 69 to 20 favoring a national law allowing people to work without forced membership in a union.

The poll in general indicates that a big majority of the American public does not want compulsory unionism, nor compulsory contributions to political campaigns, nor the present exercise of power by union bosses in politics. But the public wishes and the rights of millions of individuals are ignored as Congress obediently follows the program of organized labor.

Hopefully the American voting public will be alerted to the possible consequence if labor bosses can attain their goal of a veto-proof congress in the November election. When big labor has the congressional support to dictate legislation and to pass it over a president's veto, it means that labor bosses are more powerful than the president. Considering the kind of statesmanship they show nowadays, that's a terrifying outlook.

Along with all this let's remember that less than 20 million workers belong to unions and many of those are not voluntary members. They belong because it's their only way to hold a job. Now imagine the prospect of labor dictators, who rule less than ten per cent of our population, becoming the power behind our Congress.
