$750,000 Fine Not So Fine!

Because Johnny Dolly (above), of the famous dancing Dolly twins, was charged by French authorities of evading payment of a luxury tax on a diamond ring, a Paris court has fined her $750,000. "I was the biggest hit in France and now I get the biggest fine," said Miss Dolly. "Not so fine."

FEDERAL FUNDS FOR CITY IMPROVEMENTS HINGE ON ELECTION

Possibility of a $112,000 street and water improvement project in Brownwood has been greatly enhanced by the approval of loans and grants in that amount by the federal government. The approval was made by the Public Works Administration on an application made by the city of Brownwood last year. Such a project, if carried to completion, will mean the employment of about 600 men for several months duration, this within itself being of no little importance to the city in efforts to deplete ranks of jobless men.

An election must be held in Brownwood before the loan and grant can be made but indications are that city officials will order this election next Tuesday night when city councilmen meet to consider this project. Chester Harrison, secretary of the Brownwood Chamber of Commerce, met with city council Tuesday night of this week and brought the information from Washington that the Brownwood application had been approved.

The city applied for $34,000 for water mains improvements and extensions and asked for another $78,000 to be used in a street paving program. Of the total amount, the federal government will make a grant of thirty per cent, the remaining seventy per cent to be a loan secured by bonds issued on the city of Brownwood. These bonds will draw four per cent interest and will not be sold. They will be given the federal government as collateral for the loan granted.

City officials expect little opposition to the issuance of the bonds. The amount to be used on water mains will be paid out of earnings of the water department and city officials say that the street paving funds can be taken care of out of the general fund without raising the city tax rate.

Mayor Thompson believes this chance to secure the loan and grant is a golden opportunity to get necessary improvements made at a minimum cost to the city.

Two More Days After Today

Saturday Night at 8 o'Clock Closes The Big Event

When the old town clock strikes 8 o'clock Saturday night, the Banner Campaign will be brought to a close, the seals on the ballot box will be broken, and the judges will begin their final count of the votes.

After the total votes have been tabulated and the final totals arrived at, the judges will make the award of the prizes, which includes the new 1934 Dodge Coach, purchased from Abney & Bohannon at a cost of $965.00, also the new 1934 Plymouth Coach purchased from Patterson Motor Co. at a cost of $740.00, besides the motor cars, there are several big cash prizes, the active candidates that do not receive a prize will receive a 10 per cent commission on their sales.

THANKS TO CANDIDATES AND FRIENDS
The Banner and the Campaign Department take this method of thanking each candidate in the campaign for their time and untiring efforts in making this drive the success that it is. We also wish to thank their many friends, and ours, for such loyal support and interest as has been exhibited. We regret very much that it is impossible for us to award an automobile to every candidate; however, there are several nice cash prizes, and a guarantee of ten percent commission to all other non-prize winners.

The winners of the two automobiles may call for their cars as soon as the decision of the judges has been announced. Checks covering all cash prizes and cash commissions will be mailed Monday.

May the best candidates win!

OFFICIAL CHECKS WHEAT IN COUNTY

B. H. Henderson, checker for wheat acreage in this section of Texas, spent two days in the county the past week. He checked about five per cent of the wheat farms in the county. Mr. Henderson worked with County Agent C. W. Lehmburg.

Mr. Lehmburg says that all of the wheat acreage in the county has been checked but that all the land has not been measured. This work is expected to be completed within the near future.

Mr. Henderson has 18 counties in his district and works under the direction of John R. Edmonds, of Amarillo, who is in charge of the wheat reduction program in Texas.

July 15 Date For Invitation Golf Tournament Here

Brownwood Country Club officials have announced dates for their 1934 invitation golf tournament, an annual classic for golfers of this section of Texas.

The tournament will be held on July 15-19. Qualifying play will begin on July 15th, this being chiefly for the benefit of Brownwood participants. All qualifying play will end on the sixteenth with match play being scheduled to start on the seventeenth, ending on the nineteenth.

Between 100 and 150 players are expected to take part in this year's invitation tournament.

Davis Campaigning In Race For Senate

E. M. Davis, former state representative and former judge of Brown county and now a candidate for the state senate, has been making a most active campaign in the interest of his candidacy during the past week. He spoke at Bronte and Robert Lee the past week-end and did much personal work among the voters in those sections.

Judge Davis left Tuesday afternoon of this week for Mason, Menard and Fredericksburg where he planned to spend the remainder of the week in interest of his candidacy. Judge Davis reports that he has received much encouragement throughout the district. He will continue an active and intensive campaign until election day.

Dr. J. N. Arvin New City Golf Champion

Dr. J. N. Arvin, veteran Brownwood golfer, won the 1934 city golf championship Sunday afternoon when he defeated B. P. Bludworth, 2 and 1, in the finals of this year's city tournament.

Other flight winners were, J. M. Ellis, second flight; J. Claude Smith, third flight; Brooks D. Dozier, fourth flight; Shep Clardy, fifth flight. Consolation winners were: C. E. Boyd, first flight; O. W. Williams, second flight; Bud Canady, third flight; Bruce Francis, fourth flight; J. L. Helms, Jr., fifth flight.

Miami, Fla., claims to have more winter visitors this season than at any other time in its history.

STATE CANDIDATES FILE FOR PLACES ON JULY BALLOTS

Candidates for state office who filed with the State Democratic Committee prior to June 4, were certified this week for places on the ballot of the Democratic Primary July 28, at a meeting of the committee in Austin.

A proposal that the question whether Texas should repeal her state prohibition laws be voted on at the primary elections was not favored by the committee.

State Ballot.
Following is the official state ballot:

For County Treasurer: J. P. (Ted) Gist.

Allred To Speak Here On Thursday

Attorney General James V. Allred, candidate for governor, is scheduled to speak in Brownwood Thursday, June 14, at 8 o'clock from the court house lawn.

Mr. Allred, who is considered one of the leading contenders in the race for Democratic nominee for Governor of Texas, is a forceful speaker, and his visit here is certain to attract a large crowd from all over this section.

Most of the county and district candidates are planning to be on hand for the Allred speaking which promises to be the largest political gathering of the present campaign.

Allred's rise in politics has been little short of the sensational. Following his appointment by Governor Pat M. Neff as District Attorney of the Wichita Falls district, he was elected to the full term there in 1924. Then in 1930, by reason of his record as district attorney, he was the choice of the voters for Attorney General of Texas. For the past two years there has been urgent demand that he enter the race for governor of Texas.

Special Program Is Arranged By Spanish Veterans for July 8

Job Wheeler Camp No. 16 United Spanish War Veterans, is planning a big meeting for July 8, the next regular meeting date of the Brownwood post. It is planned to invite members from several adjoining counties to the July 8th meeting and an interesting program is being worked out for this occasion.

The Joe Wheeler camp held a regular monthly meeting Sunday afternoon at the Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Hall, this being the first held since the post was host to the state convention in May.

Reports on the convention were made at Sunday's meeting. The camp voted to extend, thanks to Brownwood citizens for help during the state convention.

Dr. Taylor Leaves For Rotary Meet

Dr. Thomas H. Taylor, president of Howard Payne College and district Rotary governor, left Brownwood last Friday night on his journey to Detroit, Michigan, where he will attend the Rotary International Convention from June 25 to 29.

Dr. Taylor spent one day in Dallas and two days in St. Louis on his trip to Detroit. From June 19 to 23 he will attend the Rotary International Assembly or training school for district Rotary governors at Mackinac Island in northern Michigan.

Dr. Taylor was elected district Rotary governor several weeks ago at a district convention in Abilene.

Brownwood Dog Will Appear In 'Our Gang' Film In Fort Worth

Tuffy, a Boston bulldog owned by Silas Gotcher, of Brownwood, has been selected to play the part of "Pete" in an "Our Gang Comedy" to be filmed in Fort Worth soon. This dog is well known to Brownwood people who have seen it perform.

The picture to be filmed in Fort Worth will include a cast of Fort Worth children who will take the parts of the children who appear in the regular "Our Gang Comedy" pictures. The Brownwood dog will take part of the famous dog called "Pete" that appears regularly in the films.

SPARKS BACK ON JOB AFTER OPERATION

Robert D. Sparks, manager of the Lyric and Gem Theatres, is back on the job after a recent operation for appendicitis.

EARLY REOPENING OF CITIZENS NATIONAL BANK IS ANTICIPATED

An early opening of the Citizens National Bank at Brownwood, recently reorganized, is anticipated following a meeting of stockholders of the bank Tuesday afternoon of this week.

Although no official statement as to progress being made toward reorganization was issued following the Tuesday meeting, a number of stockholders feel certain that the bank will be open within a short while.

The new bank will take over all assets and liabilities of the Citizens National Bank in Brownwood which has been closed for more than a year. In all likelihood all deposits of the closed bank will be paid immediately after the new bank opens for business.

Stockholders of the new bank will likely meet within a short time to elect officers of the organization formal opening of the bank.

Chester Harrison, who has been in Washington recently, made a report to the stockholders at Tuesday's meeting.

WATER DISTRICT MAY GET FEDERAL LOAN

Certain legislation now before Congress will, if passed, enable the Brown County Water Improvement District No. 1 to obtain a loan through the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for completion of the irrigation phase of the Lake Brownwood project. Under present laws no loan or other financial assistance can be given the Brownwood lake project.

Bills which provide that the RFC may loan money to water district that have not fully completed their projects for the purpose of refinancing and for completion of the projects have been passed by both the Senate and the House, according to information here. The bills are now in committee conference and differences are expected to be ironed out and the bill reported out at once.

A number of telegrams to Texas Congressmen and Senators urging passage of the bill have been sent from Brownwood.

If the bill is passed then the local district will be in a position to ask for a loan from the RFC, possibly to refinance and to complete the irrigation phase of the Lake Brownwood project. It is pointed out. An application for such a loan was made by the district some time ago, but it was found the district was not eligible because the project had not been fully completed.

Brown County Wool Brings 22-24 Cents

Roddie Brothers, of Brady, recently purchased 33,000 pounds of Brown county wool, paying from 22 to 24 cents for the wool. The wool has been shipped from the warehouse of the Brown County Wool & Mohair Producers Association. Some wool is still being held in storage in Brownwood, the owners refusing to sell at current prices.

According to reports received in Brownwood from Comanche, growers of that county sold 60,000 pounds last week to a Boston firm at 24 1-2 cents a pound.

Sub-irrigation using home-made concrete tile has spread to King county gardens where the county agent has helped install five this spring.

Twenty-three log canning club houses were built and equipped with modern steam pressure canners in Marion county last season, and are now ready for the use of any of the farm families living in those communities.

Jack Shelton Is Elected Head Of Jersey Cattlemen

Former Brownwood Man First
Southerner To Be Honored By National Association.

The state of Texas, and Brown county in particular, felt highly honored last week when the American Jersey Cattle Club, at its annual convention, elected Jack Shelton, of Luling, as its president. The 1934 convention of the club was held in New York at the Waldorf-Astoria and was the sixty-sixth annual session.

The election of Mr. Shelton was more notable in that he is the first man from the South or Southwest to be chosen as head of this great organization, which incidentally is the oldest dairy breed association in the United States, having been organized in 1868. Mr. Shelton succeeded George W. Sisson, Jr., of Potsdam, New York, who has held the presidency since 1931.

Mr. Shelton visited relatives and friends in Brownwood immediately before going to New York to attend the national convention of the organization that he now heads.

Luling Foundation Farm.

Jack Shelton is manager of the Luling Foundation Farm, a million dollar agricultural project established by Edgar B. Davis, oil man of San Antonio, Texas, in 1927, to encourage diversified farming as a solution of some of the problems of one-crop cotton farming and to improve agriculture in general in Texas.

As manager of this 1200-acre place, Mr. Shelton directs the administration of many special activities, extensive crop and livestock departments which include a purebred Jersey herd of approximately 200 head, a herd of 50 Hereford cattle, 600 head of sheep, 50 head of hogs, and a poultry department.

WORK RELIEF HERE IS RESUMED UPON RECEIPT OF FUNDS

The county relief administration has received $5,500 for the continuation of work relief throughout the county. Work relief was resumed Tuesday on a number of projects in the county.

Projects on which work is now under way include lateral roads in each of the four commissioners precincts, the laying of water mains in the city of Brownwood, repair of the Junior Service League's community house in Brownwood, and improvements at Lake Brownwood Park.

Work cards to men on the county relief rolls were issued over the past week-end and on Monday by Assistant Administrator Murrell Dutton.

The work relief will end the end of this week, unless additional funds are received prior to that time. However, additional funds are expected to be received the latter part of the month.

It's A Queer Egg, But A Hen Laid It

The queer looking object which has attracted considerable attention in The Banner's show window during the past two weeks, is actually a hen egg.

The egg, small, and pumpkin shaped, was laid by a Rhode Island Red hen, belonging to Creed Bien, of Route 4, Brownwood. The hen before and since has been laying normal eggs.

The egg has been examined by hundreds of curious people during the past two weeks.

Welfare authorities report they have succeeded in bringing about a 50 per cent decrease in juvenile delinquency at Greensboro, N. C.

The Case For Allred

With so many candidates for Governor of Texas in the field this year, every voter should be able without hesitation to make a satisfactory choice before the July primary. As for ourselves, The Banner long since has come to the decision that the most acceptable of the group is James V. Allred, present Attorney General. Closing of the lists this week makes it certain that the popular Jimmie will have the support of this newspaper.

Allred has been a spectacular character since his entry into state politics several years ago, and his course as Attorney General has tended to keep him in the public eye since election to that office. He is a candidate who attracts enthusiasm, and a personality who inspires confidence. There are other and more important factors which governed our decision to give the Wichita Falls man our support, however.

During his years in public office, Allred has been harassed by powerful private interests which have been antagonized through his efforts to enforce the law. He was subject to the most bitter campaign an official has faced in recent years in his successful effort toward re-election two years ago. Through all this, and in spite of the fact that it no doubt weakened his power as a vote-getter, Allred has remained true to the people who elected him to office, and has done his best to further the best interests of all the people.

In these days of personal politics, platforms do not mean as much as in past campaigns. The candidate elected is expected to follow the dictates of the party platform framers, who will gather in Galveston after the election. But it is important to know how the candidate stands on certain issues. Several of the serious contenders for the office have advocated policies so radical and so untried as to smack of communism. Allred's points toward a conservative middle ground which should be acceptable to the voters seeking a stable government.

Prohibition has been injected into the campaign with more importance than we feel the question warrants, and in this Allred's stand at least to us is satisfactory. He favors a speedy submission of the repeal of the state prohibition law to the people of the state, where this question should be decided without delay. Personally, he is dry, and frankly states that he will vote against repeal, although favoring submission.

At present there appear to be only three other important contenders for the office. C. C. McDonald, Edgar Witt and Tom Hunter. Maury Hughes showed some strength earlier in the campaign, but seems to be weakening. Clint Small is not as strong as when he ran four years ago, and aside from his West Texas residence, which he now must share with three other candidates, has little to bring him into the good graces of the voters.

McDonald is pledged to a continuance of the Ferguson political policies, without the glamour of the Ferguson name, or the warm support of the Ferguson following.

A surprising feature of the campaign is the growth in strength of the Witt and Hunter causes, during the past few weeks. Neither is a colorful character, but both are commanding a loyalty that may put them into a run-off with Allred, provided McDonald is not the man Allred must beat.

Allred speaks in Brownwood this week. Those who are in doubt as to whom they will support, as well as the supporters of other candidates, should join the Allred friends in hearing this candidate, who is almost sure of being someone's opponent in the August run-off.

A year or two ago there was much discussion of consolidation of Texas counties, with a view to reducing expenses and simplifying county government. Much has been done, with the home-rule amendment and other amendments to be before the voters in November, toward pointing the way toward consolidation of county offices, and even combining city and county government. But little has been heard lately about consolidation of counties.

Now comes the San Antonio Light with a proposal for consolidating the 254 counties of Texas into seven counties to serve the entire state. Main arguments are based on the theory that citizens now can travel as far by automobile in an hour as formerly was the case in a day's time, and hence county seats 150 miles from the borders of the county would be as accessible as all seats of county government were in the horse and buggy days.

The Light says: "If, instead of being cut up into 254 small counties, Texas were divided into seven major counties or districts, each generally homogeneous in its interests, Texas would have less but better government at a far lower cost than under the present antiquated plan. Useless public offices would be eliminated and administrative overhead reduced with no denial to the people of essential services." The Light also prints a map of suggested divisions.

We are not so sure such a plan is practical. While there would be a considerable reduction in the actual expense of operation of the seven units, as compared with the 254, the tremendous increase in cost of citizens doing business with their counties would probably offset this.

Some improvement is needed, but not such a drastic change as suggested. Imagine the cost of Brownwood citizens having to travel to Austin or Abilene to the county seat to do business with their county officials. And the poor candidates, with a commissioner's precinct larger than a congressional district, and a constable in command of more territory than a United States Marshal!

THE BANNER'S SCRAP BOOK

It's Agarita Berry. (San Angelo Evening Standard) West Texans thought for years that the pretty, tasty red and pink berries they had been gathering and eating from those stickered bushes on their ranches were "algerita berries"—but they were wrong.

The berries are "agarita" berries (pronounced ag-a-rita with the "g" as in "gas"), also known as "agrito" berries. Miss Nettie Shultz, county home demonstration agent, has been advised by the biology department of C. I. A. at Denton.

The berries common in this section are wild currants, it is further pointed out. The scientific name is berberis trifoliata. The "algerita"—that's almost what we've been talking about all these years—is a chaparral berry, not common in this section, Miss Schultz learned further.

"Cattle Chatter," in Ward County News, Barstow: "Harry France tells the best old time tale heard in many a day; The old six outfit working down on Devil's River was dismayed when the tire from one of the wagon wheels became unwielded and there they were. Bedding for 50 men was piled high, so high that it required a full length stake rope to hold it on. San Angelo was the closest blacksmith shop and Add Lynn, the boss, did not know what to do. An old trail driver with the outfit told him to kill the oldest Spanish bull they could find, cut out the hide from the ears to the tail and bring it to him. For three days while the hide was drying the group played poker. Then this bull hide was put on in place of the iron wheel and for three weeks they traveled on it working the country and returning to the head of Dove Creek. Had it rained the hide would have given down."

Livestock tests have proved that calves can be weaned from milk at 50 to 60 days of age without handicapping growth.

Boy Scout News

Attending Life Saving Institute Clarence McKinney, assistant scoutmaster of Troop No. 1, Brownwood, is attending a seven-day Red Cross Life Saving Institute being conducted in Eureka Springs, Ark. After attending this institute and taking the necessary examinations, McKinney will become a regular life saving examiner, and can give instructions to other in both Junior and Senior Red Cross life saving. He will go with the Boy Scouts of the Comanche Trail area to the annual camp near Richland Springs in July, as one of the supervisors in water activities during the two weeks the camp is held.

Camp Billy Gibbons. Scout officials are looking forward to having one of the best water front activity programs that the scouts of the Comanche Trail Council have ever had the opportunity of participating in. The activities this year will be under the supervision of Cliff Pouncy and Clarence McKinney, who are both well versed in Red Cross life saving and first aid work. Both will hold examiner's certificates. All Scouts are being urged to bring their canoes and boats to camp this year as specialization courses will be given in camp this year.

The camp dates have been announced several times but for fear some have missed same—will give them again. First period begins with lunch July 10th, closes with breakfast July 17th. Second period begins with lunch July 18th, closes with breakfast July 25th. Camp fees $5.50 for one week; $10 for two weeks.

Troop No. 1 Wins First Place First place in the Boy Scout swimming meet held at Lakewood swimming pool Friday night in connection with the formal opening of the pool for the summer. Troop No. 7 won second place. Troop 1 also won the diving contests which were staged.

A demonstration of life saving was put on by Clarence McKinney, Red Cross life saving examiner. Hilton Gilliam gave a demonstration of fancy diving.

The Scouts will stage another swimming meet on July 4th. Scoutmaster Dan Gill and fourteen of his Scouts hiked to Lakewood late Friday afternoon. They took their supper and bedding with them. Several were participants in the swimming meet held there that night. All passed swimming tests and some passed fire building tests. They spent the night in the open and hiked back to town after having breakfast there.

Howard Payne Notes

Registration for the summer term at Howard Payne College for the summer term is said by college officials to be the largest for a summer session in a number of years. Most of the students were registered Monday and Tuesday of last week but some are still being registered at this time. The summer session opened June 4th and will continue until in August. Many of those enrolled for the summer term are public school teachers who are attending college to take new subjects which are to be required by the State Department of Education. Several of the new courses, offered this summer for the first time are in the physical education department. Teachers in the public schools are to be required to have training in physical education and these new courses are offered to give them that training. Among the physical education courses offered are "Theory and Practice of Games and Play," "Theory and Practice of Basket Ball and Track" and "Introduction to Physical Education."

Teachers for the summer term are: O. E. Winebrenner, Natural Sciences; Miss Cleo McChristy, English; G. A. Brooks, Education; Miss Annie Shelton, History; Miss Edna Haskew, English; Miss Eula McFarland, Home Economics; F. Y. Robnett, English; Mrs. Lucretia Davis Weaver, Modern Languages; Mrs. Hattie Price Baker, Elementary Education; J. Horace Shelton, Mathematics; Joe Bailey Cheaney, Physical Education and Education; McAdoo Keaton, Physical Education and Mathematics; W. A. Todd, Bible and Greek; I. A. Hicks, Commerce; W. F. Adams, Mathematics and Physics; Arthur Johnson, Bible; Miss Elizabeth Early, Public School Music; and Miss Frances Camp, Public School Art.

Fourteen Schools Get Classification

Fourteen Brown county schools have received classification from the State Department of Education, according to an announcement from the office of County School Superintendent F. D. Pierce. The schools made application during April and May and their grades were returned by District Supervisor O. L. Davis this week. It is required that any school, to receive classification must make a grade of at least 80 out of a possible 1,000 in order to get a classification certificate. These certificates are good for one year only and must be renewed each year.

Mr. Cardwell has six acres of clover about waist high that he intends to thresh for securing the planting seed, because he plans to sow 60 acres this fall for winter grazing.

He uses this system of temporary pastures in connection with ensilage feeding from his trench silos, and with his system of permanent pastures.

Since following this system of temporary and permanent pastures and ensilage feeding Mr. Caldwell says his feed bills have been lowered, his stock are in better condition, that it takes less time to care for them, and that his labor income is larger than formerly.

Falfurrias — The importance of waiting until maturity to serve heifers was recently illustrated in an exhibit of two fresh heifers from the herd of Garland Lasater in Brooks county.

Canton — Van Zandt county 4-H club boys are keeping the farm records of their dads in the new AAA record book recently issued to help farmers keep up with production and acreages of crops included in the adjustment programs, reports W. D. Seals, county agent. Club boys are also conducting a better seed program with corn and cotton to furnish a supply of reliable seed to farmers next year.

Mobeetle — A registered pig chain started in 1932 by local business men with 14 Wheeler county 4-H club boys has been extended this year to farmers, according to Jake Tartor, county agent.

Edna — To help balance Jackson county farming 4-H club boys are demonstrating that beef calves bred and fed in the county make modest profits to supplement the cotton income.

Religion of the Pygmies — Unlike many primitive peoples, the pygmies do not indulge in worship of the dead, but they do believe in a highest being, to whom first fruits and other offerings are made and to whom the dead go.

Openings at the Poles — One of the earliest Ohioans of note was John Cleves Symmes of Butler county, who (besides being a gallant officer in the United States army and in the War of 1812) advanced the theory that the earth was penetrated at the poles by openings into a habitable region within.

It is in pique. The stiff little bow at the neck of the dress is made of the fabric of the coat and lends harmony to the whole costume.

This is a very practical outfit for the coat may be worn over other dresses, too. Or you might make two coats — one in white and the other in a harmonizing pastel color—to go with the one dress.

This is a Butterick Pattern and may be bought at your favorite department store.

NEW SCHEDULE FOR BROWN COUNTY BALL LEAGUE IS ARRANGED

Interest in the Brown county baseball league is steadily increasing and as the 1934 pennant race grows older, the league games are destined to draw larger crowds. The Brownwood team continues to lead the title chase with only one defeat to mar its 1934 record. Brooksmith is staying close on the heels of the Brownwood aggregation and has an excellent chance of finishing out front.

At a league meeting last Thursday, the remainder of the 1934 schedule was revised. The regular schedule will close on July 22nd, after which the four teams out front will engage in a play-off series, similar to the Shaugnessy plan now used in the Texas League. In addition to the Sunday games booked for the remainder of the season, each team will play seven week day games, one each with other league members. These games are to be arranged by the respective team managers.

The revised and corrected schedule follows:

June 17th.
Woodland Heights at Brownwood.
Zephyr at Cross Cut.
Winchell at Fry.
Brooksmith at Early.

June 24th.
Fry at Woodland Heights.
Early at Winchell.
Brownwood at Cross Cut.
Brooksmith at Zephyr.

July 1st.
Zephyr at Early.
Cross Cut at Brooksmith.
Woodland Heights at Winchell.
Brownwood at Fry.

July 8th.
Fry at Early.
Zephyr at Brownwood.
Brooksmith at Winchell.
Cross Cut at Woodland Heights.

July 15th.
Brownwood at Brooksmith.
Winchell at Woodland Heights.
Early at Cross Cut.
Zephyr at Fry.

Light for the Bedroom
H. H. & C. Toland

Good lighting in the bedroom is an invaluable aid in "getting the effect of a frock." Finding the right accessories in the bureau drawers, and locating elusive collar buttons.

ONE by one, science is smashing Life's lovely illusions. The latest to go is the chubby little lamp with the highly colored shade that was wont to hold sway in the lady's chamber. Science has pushed it off the bedside table once and for all, by declaring that the human eye requires quite as much light to read in bed, as it does to read any place else.

Purpose of "Boudoir" Lamps
The ten units of light which normal eyes need as a minimum for comfortable reading cannot be supplied by anything less than a 60-watt lamp bulb, and the so-called "boudoir lamp" usually located only a 25-watt. A comfortable reading posture implies a wide circle of useful light, which can be obtained only by a lamp with a reasonably tall base and broad shade. The boudoir lamp had neither. So since it provided too little light for reading, and didn't throw "that little" in the right place, it has been relegated to a decorative role in the home, and a new lamp has come to take its place on the bedside tables of the land.

Although the new lamp is really of some use, it is quite as attractive as the boudoir lamp. In general it is characterized by a tall base, but slender so that it does not appear out of scale with the small bedside table. The height of the base makes a broader shade suitable. This combination insures a wide circle of useful light on the book of the reader-in-bed, who can now enjoy a comfortable reading posture, and no longer needs to be a contortionist. Neither is there any further need of squinting, for the new lamp, being larger, carries a lamp bulb of the 60-watt size, equal to the task of providing enough light for normal eyes.

For use between twin beds, the lamp with two arms, two bulbs, two shades is proving very popular, since it enables two to read comfortably as well as simultaneously. The convenient height of the junior floorlamp, its broad shade and three sockets combine to make it admirably suited to bedside service too.

Although these lamps are primarily practical, doing a real lighting job, they are in tune with the most frivolous bedrooms. The shades are tinted to carry out the color scheme of the room, quite as effectively as the highly colored shades on the old boudoir lamps. Deep color is not good for lamp shades, since it distorts the real color scheme of the room, and absorbs much of the light that our eyes really require.

Avoid High-Colored Shades
Again at the dressing table, shades of high color have been discarded, and in their place we find pale tints or white shades. Twin lamps, tall enough to bring the lamp bulb at the face height of the person before the mirror, shaded in pale parchment, enable madame to see herself "as others see her," which any woman knows is a decided advantage.

In the bedroom the ceiling fixture comes into its own. In no other room in the house is there so much need of general illumination — to "get the effect" of a frock, to find the right accessories in bureau drawers and to aid in the location of elusive collar buttons. But even in the bedroom a bare bulb must be kept from view, so the center fixture must have shades, either small individual ones of glass or parchment, or a larger globe that shields the entire fixture from view.

Child Survey Work In Texas Will Get Under Way At Once

Austin, Tex., June 13.—The first important state-wide relief project designed to benefit the so-called "white collar class" is to go into effect Friday, June 15th, when enumerators employed on a work-relief basis by the Texas Relief Commission, will begin a child survey, according to Director Charlie Dresden.

An analysis and comparison of findings is to be attempted and the information will be used by the state relief administration and other public agencies for the expansion and improvement of the care of children.

This is the first child census undertaken in Texas.

An effort is to be made to study special groups of children and their families, for example, the families of ex-service men and women. All families investigated who have blind, crippled or otherwise handicapped members under 55 years of age, will be recorded and studied. "The ex-service group is an age group that has children within the range of child welfare activities and is therefore subject to an unusually interesting and informative study," said Director Dresden.

While the survey is primarily directed at the children of Texas,

All World War Vets Invited To Attend June 15th Meeting

All World War veterans are invited to attend the meeting of the Isham A. Smith Post of the American Legion, to be held at the club rooms in Memorial Hall Friday, June 15, 1934, and it is expected that several hundred will be present to meet with their old friends. A program of entertainment has been arranged.

In a recent report from the State Department of the Legion a decided gain in membership has been shown over last year. The Brownwood post ranks 18th in point of total membership and the State has almost 500 posts. The Brownwood post had an increase in membership over last year, of about 50 per cent and it is hoped the June drive will be sufficient to put the post in the leading ten for the State.

The drive now on closes with the meeting Friday night and is headed by A. S. Gainey and Ray Morgan, Loser to entertain the winners.

As matters of utmost importance will be brought to the attention of the ex-soldier it is hoped that all will attend whether they become members or not.

The district convention will open at Sweetwater Saturday, the 16th, and delegates from Brownwood will be named and will carry to the commander, in whose honor the drive has been made, the memberships that have been gotten in the last two weeks.

PECAN PRODUCTION PROBLEM WILL BE DISCUSSED JUNE 20

Marketing agreements affecting surplus pecan production will be explained at a meeting of growers in Brownwood on June 20, at 2 p. m., according to announcements made this week. This meeting, along with others to be held in pecan growing centers of the state, has as its purpose the perfecting of arrangement to stabilize and control the marketing of pecans placing the industry under the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. Unsatisfactory prices in the past few years has led to this concerted effort on the part of the growers.

The first meeting of this kind was held at Lampasas Monday, June 11. Meetings were held at San Saba, Mason and Menard on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Other meetings are scheduled as follows:

Paint Rock, June 15; San Angelo, June 16; Comanche, June 17; Ballinger, June 18; Coleman, June 19; Brownwood, June 20; Rising Star, June 21; Cisco, June 22; and Eastland, June 23.

J. E. McDonald, state commissioner of agriculture, has attended all meetings held and will be in Brownwood on the 20th. Mr. McDonald has offered the facilities of his office for this work. H. G. Lucas, of Brownwood, president of the National Pecan Marketing Association, has been working on a marketing program for several months. Members of the state department conferred with him recently on marketing problems.

In addition to meetings listed above, other members of the state department of agriculture will conduct meetings as follows:

Frederickburg on June 20, Llano on June 21, Uvalde on June 21, Leakey on June 22, Junction on June 23 and Kerrville on June 24.

valuable information will be gained respecting adult disabilities and related handicaps, thus enabling the relief commission and other public agencies, to obtain accurate data on which to base rehabilitation work in the future.

The net result of the survey will be an actual count of the number of sick or crippled children in Texas. The condition of children of ex-service parents will be available as well as a record of crippled, blind, mentally handicapped and otherwise disabled persons under 55 years of age.

It is estimated the survey will include about 250,000 cases. In view of this large undertaking, especial care has been directed at the introduction of the most modern methods of statistical collection and recording.

Selection of Enumerators.
The house-to-house canvass method will be undertaken in each county. Enumerators will be selected and employed locally by the county relief administrator upon the endorsement of the relief case supervisor.

A standard questionnaire will be followed by the enumerator in each interview thus providing a basis for accurate comparison and analysis.

In discussing the possibilities embraced by this inquiry, aside from the tremendous possibilities for employing persons within the "white-collar" group, Director Dresden pointed out that not only the State, but local political subdivisions, will have an abundance of reliable information on which to build future public or private relief programs. It will be possible to locate crippled and otherwise handicapped persons, assist them through funds now available or make it possible to obtain further assistance for their rehabilitation.

Finally, it will permit of the continuance of child welfare work on a much larger and more efficient basis in the future.

Director Dresden said today this survey program is in line with the announced policy of Administrator Harry L. Hopkins who recently rounded out a relief survey into child life will constitute an epochal precedent, having great possibilities for building better and healthier families in the future.

Associated with the relief mission in this study are the American Legion and Auxiliary, the Rehabilitation Department, Department of Education, Division of Child Welfare, State Blind Commission, Division of Child Hygiene and the State Department of Health.

TWO MORE DAYS! After Today

And the Race for the Two Big Automobiles and Cash Is Over!

THE LAST PUBLISHED STANDING

Special Notice

According to the rules of the campaign, the Ballot Box in the Brownwood Banner "Everybody Wins" Campaign has been locked and sealed and is placed in the Banner office between the hours of 9:00 a. m. and 3:30 p. m., where it will remain until Saturday evening, June 16th. Candidates and their friends are to drop their votes and subscriptions in the sealed Ballot Box from now on until the close. The standing of every candidate as it appears today includes every subscription and every vote that has been cast for publication up to and including Monday night, June 4. The votes as they appear today will remain unchanged from this time on until the final count by the judges, except in the case of corrections of any error that may exist.

If this standing is not correct, according to YOUR figures, be sure and check with the Campaign Manager

NOT LATER THAN FRIDAY NIGHT

The Judges will accept these figures as absolutely correct.

Candidates Read This!

Some of the candidates the past few days seemingly are not taking an active part in the campaign. Accordingly, with the rules those candidates failing to make a cash report in the ballot box this week will have their names dropped and will forfeit all right to a prize or a commission.

TAKE WARNING -- DO NOT COMPLAIN IF YOU FAIL!

WARNING!

Every candidate is urged to compare her vote totals with the records of The Brownwood Banner. If the Banner count is not correct, according to your figures and records, notify the Campaign Manager immediately so that the proper correction can be made before the close of the campaign. No corrections will be made after Friday, June 15. Every candidate MUST verify and attest to the correctness of her count by Friday, as the Judges will accept last count as absolute and final.

LIST OF PRESENT ENTRANTS IN THE BROWNWOOD BANNER'S EVERYBODY WINS CAMPAIGN

Table listing names and amounts for District No. 1 and District No. 2. District No. 1 includes names like Miss Helen Burt, Mrs. B. D. DePriest, Mrs. W. T. Harris, etc. District No. 2 includes names like Mrs. R. H. Scott, Mrs. V. E. McGaughey, etc.

ABSOLUTE FAIRNESS

In order to maintain the strictest secrecy as to the number of subscriptions turned in by each individual candidate during the last few days of the race, the contest is being brought to a close in a sealed ballot box.

No subscriptions whatever are being accepted through the campaign department this week, but instead, final collections are being placed in the box - locked and sealed - located in the Banner office. By so doing, no one, not even the campaign manager, can possibly know the voting strength of the respective candidates, which precludes any possibility of favoritism and insures fairness to the minutest degree.

Locked and sealed, the ballot box is now located where it will remain until the closing hour of the contest - 8:00 o'clock Saturday night, June 16.

Notice to Contestants

The Brownwood Banner Ballot Box, locked and sealed by Fred Andrews of the Citizens National Bank, who retains the key, is located in the Banner office from 9:00 a. m. to 3:00 p. m. daily, where all ballots cast during the last week of the campaign are to be deposited. The climax comes Saturday night, June 16th.

Ten weeks of enthusiastic work and hustle on the part of the candidates in this great campaign will culminate in the closing scene Saturday night at 8:00 o'clock. The awards of the valuable prizes will be announced in the Banner of next Thursday, June 21. The prizes include the two big automobiles and many big Cash Awards. In addition to this a cash prize equal to 10 per cent of all receipts that she has turned in will be paid to each contestant who does not win one of the six big prizes, provided she has made a cash report each week since entering the campaign. Never before in the history of this section has there been such a distribution of costly awards, and never before such an exciting battle to land them.

MOST SUCCESSFUL CAMPAIGN

When the final hour arrives the count will be declared closed. The judges will then break the seals, unlock the box, and immediately thereafter or as soon as the votes can be issued on the subscriptions contained therein, the last count will be started.

Each of the leading candidates has turned in hundreds of subscriptions, and the enthusiasm of the candidates has been augmented by the hearty response the people have made to their solicitations. The final week will give the total volume of the campaign a big boost. Each contestant is devoting every minute of her time to getting in as many votes as possible before the closing hour. Enthusiastic boosting on the part of their friends is proving an important factor in the race. Awarding the prizes will be the greatest event of its kind in the history of this section, and interest bordering on excitement will prevail from now until the closing hour - next Saturday night, June 16, at 8:00 o'clock.

DR. GUY DAVIS, President Daniel Baker College.

ELMER HAYNES, Secretary Brownwood Retail Merchants Association

FRED ANDREWS, Citizens National Bank

All three of these gentlemen are well known to everyone in Brownwood and the surrounding counties, and the final results, as determined and give out by them will be beyond dispute.

FRUIT MUST BE 'IN THE PINK' FOR SATISFACTORY CANNING

If you'd have your canning bear fruit, Mrs. Housewife, read today's article by Mary E. Dague — the second of six written for this newspaper.

BY MARY E. DAGUE

The condition of all fruit for canning is of the utmost importance. It should be perfectly ripe, but not the least bit overripe. Bruised and blemished places must be carefully cut away and only the sound part of the fruit used.

On account of the acidity, most fruits are very easy to can in the home kitchen. To be sure, they will keep if canned by the old-fashioned "open-kettle" methods, but the flavor and quality are finer, the food value is greater and the work is not heavier if the "pack" method is used.

Sterilize Thoroughly

The cans, rubbers and lids must be thoroughly sterilized before being packed with any product. To sterilize: Wash first in hot soapy water. Then place jars and tops in a big dish pan or the boiler of the hot-water bath canner.

Brother Estel Allen filled his regular appointment. Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Byrd is visiting Mrs. Byrd's mother of Cross Cut.

Mr. Leonard Jennings has already threshed his grain. The combine is running in several places.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Wadkins and Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Byrd are still trying to catch fish. They spent Friday night on the Bayou and caught two.

Mr. John McFarland is still working on the highway down close to Brownwood.

Mrs. Grady Ayers visited Mrs. Wilburn Wadkins Monday morning.

They have decided to have the pie supper on Saturday night, July 7. Everybody is invited to come and especially all the candidates are invited to attend and will have a chance to speak.

All the young ladies are invited to come and bring a big, juicy pie.

rest on the lids. This lifts the glass from the direct heat at the bottom of the pan or boiler and prevents breakage. If clamp-top jars are used the metal of the clamps lifts these jars and the lids are placed on edge between the jars. Cover cans with cold water, bring to the boiling point and boil ten minutes. Add rubbers for just a minute. Remove cans from boiling water as they are needed for filling.

Test cans for perfect sealing. To do this fill can with boiling water after adjusting a new rubber on can and completely seal. Turn can upside-down and while cooling examine for air bubbles. If there are none the can may be used with safety.

Use New Rubbers.

It is not economy to try to use last year's rubbers. Buy the best on the market and plan to have a new rubber for each jar of fruit or vegetable to be canned. Good rubbers are elastic but firm and when stretched will return to their original shape.

Adjust rubbers on cans before packing. Pack loosely to within one-half inch from the top. Half seal.

To half seal turn the top as far as possible with the thumb and little finger. If clamp-top, put top ball over cover but do not press clamp down onto can.

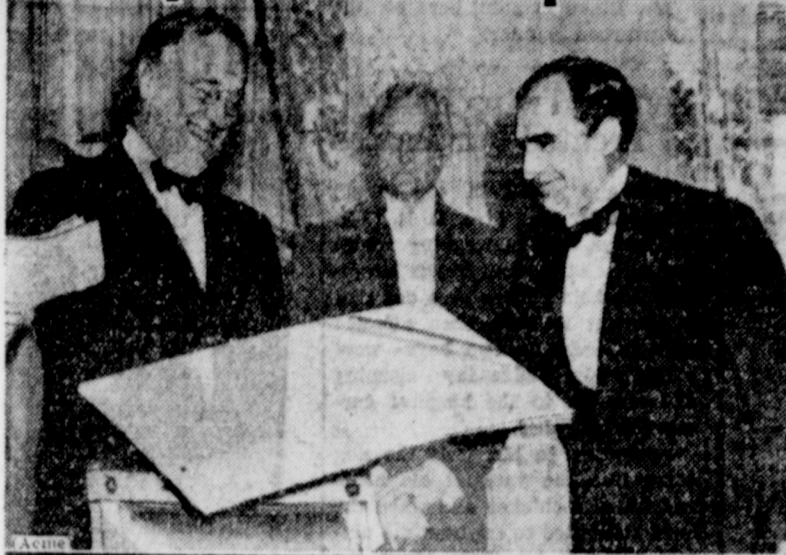

Put can into canner containing enough boiling water to cover the tops of the jars by at least two inches. If canning in oven, pre-heat to necessary temperature.

After processing for the required period of time, remove from oven, completely seal and cool as quickly as possible, without letting a direct current of air strike the cans.

Fruits are canned in thin, medium and heavy or thick syrups.

Fruits are washed, peeled or pitted or hulled as the case may be, preparing it just as you would for immediate table use. Then it is pre-cooked for three minutes in syrup and packed hot in hot sterilized jars. Half seal, process,

Zephyr Twins Being Treated For Rabies

Ted and Ned Cole, 4 year old twins of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Cole, of Zephyr, are undergoing rabies treatment at Central Texas Hospital after being bitten by a dog that is thought to have been affected with rabies. The two boys were bitten early Wednesday morning and brought to the hospital during the morning.

According to Mr. Cole the dog came into the yard at his home and killed a chicken and when the boys attempted to frighten the animal away it bit them about the body. Mrs. Cole rushed to their aid and kept the dog off herself and the boys until her husband arrived from the field.

When he came to the house the dog was gone and he traced it for more than an hour before it was killed. The head was sent to Dallas for examination and no report had been received Thursday.

Mr. Cole said that the dog had bitten several other dogs in that section of the county. The first trace of the animal was at Chapel Hill Tuesday afternoon and from there it went toward Jenkins Springs and then on toward Zephyr. The number of dogs and other animals bitten by the dog is not known.

Troop 1 Winner In Scout Swim Events

Boy Scout troops of Brownwood participated in a swimming meet at Lakewood Swimming Pool last Friday night in connection with the formal opening of the pool for the summer. The Scouts plan another swim carnival on July 4th.

Troop number one of Brownwood took first place in the swimming contests held last week but other troops of the city expect to dethrone the No. 1 troopers on the 4th.

Clarence McKinney, of Brownwood, gave a demonstration of life saving in connection with last Friday's meet. Hilton Gilliam, manager of Lakewood, gave an exhibition of fancy diving. A band concert preceded the various swimming and diving events.

Winners in the Scout events were:

50 yard free style race: Fred Abney, troop 1, first; James Thomason, troop 7, second; Jack West, troop 1, third.

25 yard back stroke: L. P. Pittman, troop 7, first; James Lynch, troop 1, second; Jack Wilks, troop 7, third.

25 yard tree style: John Wood, troop 1, first; James Thomason, troop 7, second; Paul Davis, troop 7, and Chester Paris, troop 1, tied for third place.

200 yard relay: Troop 1, J. W. Snider, Chester Parks, John Wood and Fred Abney, first; Troop 7, L. J. Pittman, Jack Wilks, James Thomason and Paul Dally, second.

Troop 1 also won the diving contests which were staged.

Season passes to the pool were given the winners of first place in the different events.

COMPLIANCE BOARDS BEING DISCONTINUED

All local NRA compliance boards are to be discontinued after Friday, June 15, according to information received this week by Sam H. Bass, chairman of the Brownwood compliance board. After the 15th, the state NRA compliance directors of board will administer the National Recovery Administration program, as well as the adopted codes.

Local compliance boards were set up throughout the nation to administer the administration's program, these boards being designed to function only until codes could be adopted by industries of the nation.

General Hugh S. Johnson, NRA administrator, advised Mr. Bass of the change in a recent letter. Mr. Bass has had office space on the third floor of The Brownwood Bulletin building. This office will be closed very shortly.

General Johnson's letter to Mr. Bass follows:

"When you were selected to serve on a local Board to administer the President's Re-employment Agreement in your community, your period of appointment was for 45 days. That period has been extended on several occasions and each time you have willingly and voluntarily continued to devote your time and efforts to aid in the drive for National Recovery.

"The President and his Administration fully realize the great amount of work entailed in performing the duties which were assigned to you, and sincerely appreciate the manner in which you have unselfishly donated your services in this emergency. The splendid results obtained through your efforts are to a considerable degree responsible for the success the NRA has achieved thus far in attaining the objectives of the Recovery Program.

"There is still a small percentage of the nation's employers who are not yet operating under an approved code. Therefore, the agreement which the President entered into with employers to raise wages and shorten hours has been extended indefinitely. However, I am not asking you to continue the task of administering the President's Re-employment Agreement after June 15th. Because of the head, he is opposed to further levy of new taxes but favors the better collection of taxes now assessed and their reduction through sound economies.

fact that there are only a small number of employers operating under the PRA. I believe that the State NRA Compliance Directors can now assume the responsibility of administering the Agreement. The State Director will advise you in the near future of the disposition to be made of the records of your Board."

Mr. Bass has received notice from Z. E. Avery, state NRA field supervisor, will be in Brownwood in a few days to investigate violations here. Mr. Avery is in Temple and is expected in Brownwood at any time.
