It is very satisfying after these many months to know that the 52 hostages are out of the hands of their Iranian tormentors and back home with their families. It is also satisfying to know that millions of Americans were concerned and united, eager to bring the captives home as national heroes. The welcome extended them in Germany and again in the US is a matter of national pride.

However the subject is far from closed. There has been considerable talk about the commitment under duress, the exorbitant demand, and the shabby treatment our citizens received in captivity. Of course, the money transferred is already that much down the rat hole, but it brings on questions of whether we should reply by retaliation, also whether our surrender will give other terrorists the idea that it's good business to kidnap Americans.

Perhaps President Reagan has already indicated an approach to the problem by referring to the 52 captives as prisoners of war. This could imply that anyone who captures and holds a US citizen has automatically declared war on our country and is ready to assume full responsibility for that act. Very likely the time would come when our leaders would have to prove that their ultimatum is not a bluff, but after an incident or two of prompt and courageous action, we could expect more respect from the world's trouble makers...as when US officially responded to a North African tribal tough guy's ransom demand with "we'll have our man alive or you dead."

After all, America has lots to do to restore its world image. It's been pushed around by petty dictators and terrorists all over the world, and there have been few if any cases when we came out as winner of the incidents. Usually we have taken the soft and easy solution: to give in to the enemy and, after initial publicity, to abandon our demands for justice. We'd like to see the day when foreign governments will be hesitant about mistreating any of our citizens and when they will join us in dealing with terrorists of their lands who molest our citizens.

The President's reference to "prisoners of war" can also be regarded as a reminder of MIA and prisoners of the Vietnam war. Here is an unsolved problem that is much more serious than the Iran issue. The Viet victims are far more numerous and have been missing much longer, and there is no assurance that any of them are alive or well. All efforts to bring them home or get a statement on their fate have been answered with insult.

This situation seems especially sad now as we compare it with the relatively happy ending of this week...with exceptions for the rip-off and the torture. The prisoners of Iran were on a voluntary assignment, an interesting job with good pay. Everything went their way until a wild crowd of fanatic students went berserk.

On the other hand the Viet prisoners were draftees, assigned to an ugly job that few approved, and enduring the horrors of jungle warfare, some with injury, until their misery was succeeded by the worse misery of capture by merciless savages.

The stories that have come out of Vietnam testify that suffering there was much worse. And we can assume that any prisoners still remaining there are still enduring the misery. Friends and kin of those unfortunates must have felt depressed in the past 14

County Drug Rally Held

By Teresa Rainwater
Enterprise Staff Writer

A capacity crowd attended the drug rally sponsored by Families in Action in Cooke County, Tuesday night, January 27 in the Gainesville High School auditorium.

Mary Jo Graham of Gainesville, an active member in Families in Action in Cooke County, directed the rally and introduced Detective Sergeant Robert Farrell of the Gainesville Police Department. He said, "Almost all the crimes in Gainesville are drug related." He explained that the police problems in effectively controlling drug abuse are due to lack of manpower and money; technicalities regarding arrests, convictions and search warrants; and lack of public involvement.

Brigadier General Robinson Risner, Texas state director of Drug Abuse, Research and Education (D.A.R.E.), was the keynote speaker for the rally.

Risner served in three wars during his 33-year career in the army and was a prisoner of war in Viet Nam for 7½ years.

In his speech about the fight against drug abuse in Texas, he said; "I feel that I'm in my fourth war. It's the dirtiest war that I've ever been in." Speaking about Texans' War on Drugs, Risner said that it is the most challenging war he has been in or will ever be involved in. "The threat of this war is greater than any before because it threatens the young people in the United States."

As a father of eight children, Risner became strongly concerned in the drug-oriented society that he returned to from Viet Nam. As executive director of DARE, he has begun an intensive campaign to educate young people about drug abuse and to organize parent awareness groups in every county throughout the state. He said, "If you know a child or have one, you are a part of the drug problem."

Risner showed various pressure gas for a while after flames gave out.

Presumably residents turned off gas valves when they discovered the situation, but it was still likely that many valves would be open and allow gas to escape when it was returned to the lines...an obvious explosion and fire hazard.

Because of that possibility, the Gas Company has to be certain that all is safe at every location before service is restored to the line. Accordingly, the company applied a procedure which is planned and filed in advance for such emergencies.

The service crew, mostly from other districts, with local firemen as guides to help them locate customers, turned off all meters of the three cities while the broken main was being repaired.

When the line repair was finished about 3:30 a.m. the crew started restoring service individually to each meter.

First step in that procedure is to observe if the meter, when first connected, indicates a flow of gas. If so, it's a sign that a valve is open somewhere inside and must be found and turned off before the meter can be turned on. The turn-on operation includes lighting pilot lights.

The first customer to get back on the line was Muenster Memorial Hospital, which had a minimum of trouble from the gas outage. Heating lost only a few degrees of temperature, and service was restored in time to heat water for kitchen and surgery.

Others which got early connections are the nursing homes of Muenster and Saint Jo, which were warm by the time residents woke from a late sleep. Schools of Muenster and Saint Jo and restaurants and the milk plant were also on the priority list.

After that business houses received the attention, most of them getting the connections near opening time. Then came the long list of homes, which were inconvenienced most by the experience. Those with gas heaters, ranges and water heaters were hardest hit, but even they got relief from extra blankets as the temperature reached a low of 31. Those with stoves fireplaces and all electric hardly noticed the problem.

Abney said Wednesday that the job was finished about 10:30 p.m. Tuesday, however there are still some 12 to 15 houses which could not be connected because no one was at home. They will be connected as they ask for service.

In Abney's opinion the restoration of service was an over-all good job with special credit to the emergency plan and special thanks to volunteer firemen for their guide service.

Prosecution Rests In Luttmmer Trial

The prosecution in the trial of Eugene Luttmmer, 19, relative to the fatal shooting of Donna Kay Fisher, 18, at Muenster on January 20, 1980, rested its case shortly before noon Wednesday. The trial has been in progress since early Monday in the 235th District Court with Judge Larry Sullivan presiding, District Attorney Brook Smith prosecuting and Phil Adams defending.

Witnesses for the prosecution have been principally members of the victim's family. Mrs. Earl Fisher, her mother, testified in detail about a disturbance in front of her home followed by a shot. Looking out of the window she saw Donna's car and Luttmmer's truck in front, then went to the door and saw Donna partly in Luttmmer's vehicle. When she asked what was going on he said, "Oh my God! Oh my God! I shot Donna! I shot Donna!"

She also testified that later, at the hospital, she asked Luttmmer what happened and he said, "I didn't mean it. I didn't mean it." Cooke County Deputy Lawanna Hudson testified that at the hospital Luttmmer continually inquired about the girl's condition and nearly collapsed when he heard the grim news.

Mary Fisher, sister of the victim, said Donna told her

Revival Starts Sunday At First Baptist Church

A four day revival entitled a crusade for spiritual awakening will be held next Sunday through Wednesday in First Baptist Church of Muenster.

The nightly meetings, starting at 7:30, are open to all interested persons regardless of their religious affiliations.

Services will be conducted by the Reverend Alan Damron, who will be joined by his wife, Sarah in the vocal numbers.

Reverend Damron, currently a staff evangelist of Immanuel Baptist Church, Havre, Montana, is a native of Oklahoma and principally a resident of Texas. He started preaching at 16 in the downtown Dallas Rescue Mission and led a youth group in Calvary Baptist Church of Garland. He is a graduate of Howard Payne University, was ordained to preach in 1975 at the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary of Fort Worth.

He has served as a summer missionary in Denver, a music and youth director in Bertram, Ranger, Bend, Thrall and Sabinal.

The Reverend Damron and his wife have led in revivals, crusades, retreats, concerts, etc. for the past five years.

Romans 1:17 "For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith."

Most Water of Cooke County Has Excessive Salt Content

If you live in Cooke County, there is a good chance that you are taking in more salt than you realize.

A majority of the water systems in the 19 counties covered by the Texas Area 5 Health Systems Agency contain an excessive level of sodium. Studies have shown high sodium intake to be a significant factor in cardiovascular disease.

At the present time there is no standard set by the Texas Department of Health that requires public water systems to maintain certain levels of sodium. However, the National Academy of Sciences suggests a maximum of 100 mg. of salt to each liter of water. The American Heart Association recommends that heart and kidney patients consume a maximum of 20 mg. of sodium per liter of water.

Almost two-thirds of the water systems in Area 5 are over the recommended level of 100 mg. per liter.

Nationally, one-seventh of the public water systems exceed 100 mg. per liter. More than six per cent of the water systems in Area 5 have more than 500 mg. of sodium per liter. Nationally, .8 per cent of the systems exceed 500 mg. per liter.

In Cooke County the average sodium content is 199 mg. per liter of water.

If your water system has excessive sodium levels, what can you do to reduce the risk of developing cardiovascular problems? Health care professionals recommend reducing the amount of salt used on food or drinking distilled water. Individuals on sodium-restricted diets, such as high blood pressure or obese patients, especially should be aware of the salt content of drinking water.

There is no simple, inexpensive solution to the problem, but public awareness is the first step in the right direction.

Garden Clubs Observe Arbor Day

Arbor Day was observed on January 26 with traditional ceremony, in a program at 12:30 p.m., sponsored by the Muenster Garden Club, in which all members of the Junior Garden Club participated.

It was held in the Kindergarten area of Sacred Heart School, attended by students and faculty of K through grade 8, a number of parents and representatives of the Muenster Garden Club.

Father Denis Soerries led the invocation, followed by group singing of "America the Beautiful". Laura Flusche, a seventh grader read the letter from Governor Bill Clements, designating Friday, January 16, 1981 as Arbor Day in Texas.

The poem "Trees" by Joyce Kilmer was given by Julie Felderhoff and April Truebenbach.

Mrs. Ray Wilde, representing the garden club, spoke on the history and importance of Arbor Day. She noted that a little town in Switzerland probably had the first Arbor Day 1500 years ago when the village people planted a grove of tiny oak trees in their common, following it by an evening festival.

Arbor Day as we know it was first observed in Nebraska in 1872. The need for observing Arbor Day in Texas was first recognized by citizens of Temple in 1889 and a legislator from Belton introduced the resolution eventually resulting in the observance of Arbor Day on Washington's birthday.

The pecan, always popular in Texas, was officially designated the state tree in 1919. In 1949 the Texas Legislature adopted the present designation of the third Friday of January as Arbor Day.

A group recitation followed, on "What Trees Teach Us" by kindergartners Michelle Hennigan, Stacie Cler, Melissa Miller, Mandy Barnhill, Toni Reiter, Deann Bayer, Christy Yosten, Cody Truebenbach, Werner Becker, Jr., Eddie Lamkin, Vanessa Knabe, Julie Felderhoff, April Truebenbach, Tommy Greathouse and Aaron Berres.

It was followed by the group song "Smokey, the Bear" and a recitation of "What Do We Plant?" by Henry Abbey, given by second graders, Sharon Fuhrmann, Dawn Knabe, and Jason Enders.

"What Do We Plant?"
What do we plant when we plant the tree?
We plant the ship which will cross the sea,
We plant the mast to carry the sails:
We plant the planks to withstand the gales
The keel, keelson, and beam and knee
We plant the ship when we plant the tree.

What do we plant when we plant the tree?
We plant the house for you and me:
We plant the rafters, the shingles, the floors,
We plant the studding, the lath, the doors,
The beams, and siding, all parts that be;
We plant the house when we plant the tree.

Looking Ahead

by Dr. George S. Benson, President
NATIONAL EDUCATION PROGRAM
Searcy, Arkansas

PROMISE FOR THE FUTURE

The election of Ronald Reagan is not simply a victory for the Republican Party; it is a victory for the principles of the American Revolution.

If one compares the most recent speeches of Reagan with those he made 16 years ago on behalf of the Goldwater candidacy, a consistency will be noted. While it is true that his hard line has been toned down as a matter of political pragmatism, the dedication to principles is still present.

One can hardly exaggerate the importance of the change in direction which the election of Ronald Reagan will bring about.

The President-elect will take a leadership roll in stemming the flood of immorality in America. The Christian Right now has their man in the White House. At the National Affairs Briefing in Dallas in August, Reagan said to those assembled that he knew they could not endorse him but "I want you to know that I endorse you and what you are doing."

Private and Christian schools will have a staunch defender in Washington. Reagan said to the ministers and laymen in Dallas, "We will halt the unconstitutional regulatory vendetta launched by Mr. Carter's IRS Commissioner, against independent schools."

Reagan's understanding of the threat of Soviet Communism and the need for a new direction in U.S. foreign policy was made clear when he said,

"We can have a foreign policy which understands the danger we face from governments and ideologies that are at war with the very idea of religion and freedom. And most important we can get back to the idea that in a struggle against totalitarian tyranny traditional values based on religious morality are among our greatest strengths."

Demonstrating his understanding that disarmament has gone too far and our military strength has become too weak, Reagan promised:

"The peace we seek must be one based on principles which we hold in common with our friends abroad. And the underlying guarantee for the pursuit of peace must be a reservoir of American strength to serve as a deterrent to war and a shield to our friends. And it will require the careful measured renewal of our military strength so that we can restore that vital margin of safety which kept the peace for so many years."

Supporting the moral cleanup of America, protecting private education from federal harassment, a realistic foreign policy vis-a-vis the Soviet Union, and strengthening our defense structure are only a few of the vitally important changes we can look forward to under the leadership of Ronald Reagan.

But of supreme importance will be appointments to the U.S. Supreme Court which will surely be necessary during the next four years. Much of the movement away from the principles of the American Revolution and much of the threat to the internal security of the nation have come as a result of Supreme Court decisions. It is of paramount importance that federal court appointees be dedicated anti-communist constitutional conservatives. If Reagan makes such appointments to all the federal benches he will have earned his place in history as the savior of the American Republic.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Republican Gov. Bill Clements delivered his "State of the State" address to a primarily Democratic Legislature last week, beginning the second quarter of Texas' new political ballgame called "I can cut state spending better than you can."

The same governor who called the Legislature "a bunch of idiots" at an El Paso campaign blowout last spring was less caustic during his speech in the House chamber. He even went so far as to praise legislators for laying the groundwork for the present growth and prosperity.

Unfortunately for the taxpayers, Clements seems to have given up on providing any sort of tax relief to taxpayers... and he is by no means alone.

Clements did not say a single word about returning $1 billion to the taxpayers, a previous promise. And House Speaker Bill Clayton has also hinted there may not be much tax relief this session. Both Clements and Clayton want to use at least parts of state surplus funds to finance other state projects. Clayton wants money to find more water for Texas, particularly farmers and ranchers, and Clements wants to boost small businesses here.

Omitting any reference to reducing the number of state employees, Clements also called for:

- creation of a Texas Department of Commerce
- initiative and referendum
- guaranteed loans for small businesses
- fuel tax exemption for gasoline
- wiretapping
- a regional presidential primary

Clements also called for a state water trust fund, which is Clayton's brain-child project.

Battle of the Budget

Political trends come and go, but the basic legislative duty of providing a budget for spending tax money always remains. This season it is a prime issue.

The battle of the budget has already begun.

It has, and will continue to make, strange political bedfellows.

The Legislative Budget

Because I am an home economist who designs quilt tops, I am often asked for the names of people who do hand quilting. I finally decided to collect and publish a list of people who are interested in quilting for the public.

Board which draws up the preliminary budget has gone too far, according to some displeased state officials.

Clements last week submitted his own executive budget proposal which is some $500 million less than LBB.

And State Comptroller Bob Bullock blew his stack at LBB, saying they went into the red by some $210 million.

Real conflict comes when the legislators begin to make the cuts, first in appropriations committees, then in floor fights.

Campaign Promises

It's in those heated hours that most campaign promises are forgotten, but a few legislators try to keep their word.

Ironically, almost every legislator now in Austin ran on a recent campaign pledge to provide tax relief, especially property tax relief. But if the Big Three leadership (Clements, Clayton and Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby) set aside that priority, the lesser lawmakers are at a disadvantage to make tax relief a reality. The next few months will tell.

Feds Step In

Two weeks ago the House made an historical first when it voted to void the election of Alan Schoolcraft versus Al Brown in a San Antonio district. Republican Schoolcraft won that race narrowly, and Democrat Brown charged absentee balloting fraud. By some 20 votes, the House agreed to hold a new

Accent On Health

Texas Department of Health
Robert Bernstein, M.D., Commissioner

That often heard of ounce of prevention—in the form of fluoridation—can frequently accomplish more than the proverbial pound of cure by reducing dental bills and suffering.

"No other public health measure offers so much for so little," says Linda Crossett, R.D.H., administrator of the Texas Department of Health's Texas Fluoridation Project. "At a yearly cost of 25 cents a person, tooth decay in a community can be reduced by 65 percent among children from birth to 12 years of age."

"Conservative estimates show that 20 percent of the children growing up in communities with fluoridated water can reduce decay 50 percent among teenagers through age 16," she said.

Benefits do not stop with the young. Fluoridated water continues to benefit the teeth into adulthood, reducing tooth loss and the need for dentures.

"Fluoridation even helps the elderly by strengthening bones and reducing osteoporosis, in which bones become abnormally porous," says Crossett.

Texas has several areas where the natural fluoridation levels are high enough to protect teeth from decay. If fluoride levels are excessive, no disease results, but the enamel may become stained or "mottled," a term first used by Colorado dentist Frederick McKay in 1902. Some of his patients had mottled tooth enamel, but had little or no decay.

The first controlled studies on fluoridation began in 1945. Marshall, Texas was one of the first cities in the nation to implement controlled fluoridation. Thousands of communities have followed suit in instituting controlled fluoridation. Close to 60 percent of all Texans benefit from fluoridated water, either controlled or natural.

A dozen major Texas cities have controlled fluoridation, and nearly 600 Texas cities have naturally fluoridated water. Texas communities can now receive financial and technical assistance in fluoridating their water systems from the Texas Department of Health. Under a grant from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, communities installing fluoridation systems for the first time may be reimbursed for the cost of the equipment.

Optimum fluoride levels vary depending on average water consumption in a region, but recommendations for Texas are just below one part per million. Any community or private water system serving 1,000 or more people can receive assistance from the Texas Fluoridation Project. An estimated 430 such community systems are eligible.

Each community must file an application to begin the process of obtaining assistance with fluoridation. Write to Linda S. Crossett, R.D.H., Texas Department of Health, Bureau of Dental Health, 1100 West 49th Street, Austin, Texas 78756.

Now the U.S. Justice Department is looking into whether the Legislature must submit that decision to federal approval. Under the 1975 Voting Rights Act, any change in voting procedure or standards must be submitted to the Justice Department.

Other Events

In other action in the Legislature last week:

—The Senate Finance Committee approved a 6.8 percent pay hike for state employees following a plea by Hobby and despite opposition from Clements. Clements' chief budget officer warned the measure may be vetoed unless it was dropped to 3.4 percent.

—Clayton named 31 committee chairmen, including seven Republicans. Blacks won two chairs, Mexican-Americans won none, and women received two.

—A group of House dissidents formed a Democratic party caucus, declaring political war on Republican members. Although apparently organized in opposition to Clayton's wishes, caucus spokesmen said they want Clayton to join their group.

—A resolution was introduced by a Houston member to make Houston Oiler running back Earl Campbell an official state hero. The political gimmick is aimed at keeping Big Earl from being traded to a pro football team in another state. "If he's declared an official state monument, then he can't legally leave the state," one legislator explained.

months as they heard constant solicitude for the hostages but seldom a word for the forgotten men of Vietnam.

As a matter of fairness we should not be too critical about attention to the one group and neglect of the other. Very likely the media's solicitude, inspiring national unity on the subject, helped to keep pressure on the captors. Because of this, Iran may have been more inclined to settle and less inclined to harsh treatment. Nevertheless we have to wonder whether the subject was not exploited for the benefit of the media. The aim, it often seemed, was more to hold public attention than to reveal significant developments.

Regardless of hindsight on the hostage event, the important thing now is to determine how US will react. Will it try to retaliate for Iran's rip-off? Will it proceed to convince the world that we demand respect?

pushing the smoke into the lungs for a faster, stronger "high". There were "roach clips" shown that are used to hold marijuana cigarettes so one can smoke them to the very end without burning fingers.

Risner said drug paraphernalia comes in all shapes, forms and sizes—even to fit the tiniest hands. There are barbie dolls which have a starter kit for cocaine hidden inside; there are frisbes to hold marijuana in the center and to "throw to your friends;" there are space guns for blasting marijuana into the lungs; there are small footballs and various other toys and games aimed to attract and hook the very youngest.

The drug paraphernalia industry in Texas is the largest in the United States. Along with it, there are the pushers who prey on young children on school playgrounds and in parks. According to Risner, "There is nothing, not even a snake, that is lower than those who sell and provide drugs to our children and destroy their minds and bodies and potential."

Sally Williams, community co-ordinator with Texans' War on Drugs, explained the eight legislative proposals that will come before the Texas Legislature within the next two months.

The proposals would enable the law enforcement arm to control drug abuse, outlaw the "head shops", stiffen the penalties and make Texas "hard" on drug dealers and users. Presently, Texas is considered a "soft" state regarding drugs. More and more drug dealers have taken advantage of that by moving their operations to the state.

Miss Williams urged all concerned citizens, parents and children to write to their representatives to vote for and support the Texans' War on Drugs Committee legislative proposals. A short letter would suffice, she explained, but they must know the proposals are strongly supported.

Letters may be addressed to: Senator Bob Glasgow Capitol Station Austin, Texas 78711 Rep. David London Capitol Station Austin, Texas 78711

Upon his release from the Hanoi prison, Risner wrote "The Passing of the Night," which relates his experiences as a POW. He dedicated the book to the youth of America. At the rally, Risner presented his book to the principal of Gainesville High for the school library.

At the close of the rally, there was a question and answer period and a display of drugs and drug paraphernalia for the audience to examine.

Risner said in closing, "We want our kids to grow up in Texas able to realize their full potential as God and parents intended them to." He received a standing ovation.

Michael Abney is Over-All Winner in Pinewood Derby

The Cub Scouts' annual Pinewood derby was held Monday night, January 26 at the VFW Hall.

Winners from the Wolf den (third graders) were Michael Abney, 1st place; Aaron Perkins, 2nd place, and David Rohmer 3rd place.

The Bear den (fourth graders) winners were Eric Dankesreiter 1st place; Chad Fleitman, 2nd place and Shawn Vogel, 3rd place.

Webebo winners (5th graders) included Michael Walter, 1st place; Russell Simmons, 2nd place, and Scott Taylor, 3rd place.

The Grand prize winners were Michael Abney (Wolf den) winning 1st place championship; Eric Dankesreiter (Bear den) coming in 2nd, and David Rohmer (Wolf den) winning 3rd over all.

Best Design Awards were given to Rodney Knabe of the Wolf Den, Chris Klement of the Bear den, and Alan Hudspeth a Webebo.

A parent participation award was given to Den 2. Refreshments were provided by Den 4.

After the Grand Prize races were finished, the grand prize winner, Michael Abney, raced the Jaycees' car and the Boy Scouts car. Michael Abney won with the Boy Scouts coming in second; the Jaycees finishing 3rd.

Judging was done by the Jaycees and Mr. Hank Richroath talked to the parents about reorganizing the scout charter in April. There needs to be a cubmaster to re-charter.

Each boy who participated received a plaque presented by Mr. Richroath.

The Cub Scouts said, "We especially want to thank the Muenster Jaycees, Rudy Koesler and the Muenster Public School shop boys for making the trophies and Mr. Hank Richroath for attending."

Choose Tax Preparer Carefully

The choosing of a paid preparer by taxpayers to do their federal income tax returns should be done carefully and wisely. Most tax return preparers are honest and do not deliberately attempt to defraud either their clients or the IRS. However, a few misuse the responsibility of preparing a tax return for someone else, and the IRS has suggestions on how to identify these preparers.

Taxpayers should not sign a blank return, or one which is partially completed, or one prepared in pencil. These could be altered by the preparer. Preparers should be asked to sign the return in the taxpayer's presence, and give his or her identification number, as required by law. The taxpayer must be given a copy of the completed return.

Preparers who promise a refund, claim a special relationship with the IRS or boast of ways to beat the tax system should be avoided by taxpayers. The choosing of a preparer is particularly important because the taxpayer, not the preparer, is responsible for the accuracy of the tax return. As much care should go into the choosing of a tax preparer as the selection of an attorney, doctor or any other professional person, according to the IRS.

she had broken up with Luttmr, also that the accused had tried several times to phone her earlier on the day of the tragedy.

Two versions were given on Luttmr's explanation of the shooting. Miss Hudson said he told her that he was twirling the gun when Donna grabbed it and it discharged.

Janice Kincy, sister of Donna, said Luttmr told her in March that he picked up the gun and as he turned to put it down it discharged, striking Donna.

At the opening of the trial Defense Attorney Adams told the 8-man, 4-woman jury that the shooting was accidental.

Weather Too Nice?

Weather is still beautiful... perhaps too pretty for the good of the area. Low temperatures have been in the 30s and 40s and highs in the 60s and 70s, with lots of sun shine besides.

But is that good in the long run? Will the lack of severe weather allow insects to thrive and take over spring vegetation? Will the lack of rain leave the ground with inadequate moisture?

Actually, the moisture situation is serious. With only .11 inch during the week, the month's total now is only .19, which follows a low reading in December.

Low and high temperature readings have been recorded as follows by Steve Mosler. Jan. 22, 30 and 59; Jan. 23, 32 and 69; Jan. 24, 38 and 77; Jan. 25, 48 and 64; Jan. 26, 41 and 62; Jan. 27, 31 and 61; Jan. 28, 32 and 59.

Scouts Camp 3 Days at Denison

Troop 664 of Muenster Boy Scouts participated in a three day campout, January 16-18, at Eisenhower State Park in Denison. Purpose of the camp-out was to fulfill requirements for Citizenship in the Nation Merit Badges.

The Scouts were also privileged to be taken on a conducted tour of the Denison Dam Power Plant.

In Monday night's regular Scout meeting in the KC Hall, Craig Stoffels and Kirk Klement passed their progress review and advanced to Life Scout. James Bright is the Scout Scribe.

THE GREAT AMERICAN BEER SWITCH

Advertisement

50% of Michelob fans pull the switch for Schlitz

48% of 200 loyal Budweiser drinkers also prefer Schlitz

Schlitz' impressive showing against Michelob wasn't the first time loyal beer drinkers picked Schlitz over their brand. Results were similar in earlier tests against number one selling Budweiser.

In a live TV taste test conducted just before the second half of the Oakland/Houston playoff game, 46 out of 100 loyal Bud drinkers preferred Schlitz over their own beer. A week later, 100 more Bud drinkers were tested. This time 50%—exactly half—pulled the switch for Schlitz.

All in all, 48% of the loyal Bud drinkers tested liked Schlitz better. Prior to the test, the panelists had signed affidavits affirming that Budweiser was their beer. Most of them seemed confident that Bud would be their choice in the test. At least 48% left with a new outlook—and some, perhaps, with a new beer.

It was Schlitz vs. Michelob Beer—and former NFL Referee Tommy Bell called the score for Schlitz in the live TV taste test.

50 out of 100 Michelob drinkers pick Schlitz on live Super Bowl TV

100 million fans watched as Schlitz took on Michelob in the finale of "The Great American Beer Switch". The dramatic test was conducted live during half-time of the Super Bowl game.

The huge audience witnessed 100 loyal Michelob drinkers choose between two unlabelled beers—their own Michelob and today's Schlitz. The outcome proved a surprise to many Michelob drinkers who found themselves preferring the taste of Schlitz over the taste of Michelob.

Each of the 100 loyal Michelob drinkers was served two beers, one Schlitz and one Michelob, in unlabelled ceramic mugs. Tasters were told to indicate a tie, or make a choice by pulling an electronic switch left or right in the direction of the beer they preferred. To insure fairness, the testing was conducted by a leading independent consumer research firm. The results were validated by another top statistical research company, Erick and Lavidge, Inc.

Before the test, the Michelob drinkers probably thought they would pick their own brand. A lot of them seemed surprised as they watched the number of Michelob drinkers who preferred Schlitz flash up for national TV.

200 Miller drinkers tested: Schlitz is preferred by 37%

In the weeks following the impressive showing against #1 Budweiser, Schlitz went head to head against another leading beer—Miller.

In two taste tests appearing on live television, a total of 200 loyal Miller drinkers were asked to choose between their beer and Schlitz. Again, a significant number of Miller drinkers decided their beer was second best and pulled the switch for Schlitz.

Beer fans surprised at choice of Schlitz

Panelists who decided their beer was second best and chose Schlitz expressed surprise. Similar reactions have been registered in other taste tests across the country.

"I honestly selected the beer I preferred and it wasn't Miller," admitted Miller drinker, Albert Gualano.

"I'm genuinely surprised," exclaimed Guy D'Anne, "I thought Bud was better but I've been proved wrong." "Schlitz has much better flavor than Miller, and it goes down easier," attested Bill Weber, "I could drink it all night!"

Panelist Bernie Felsbit summed up the reaction of many of the Bud, Miller and Michelob drinkers when he said, "There may be a new beer in my future."

Loyal Michelob drinkers chose between unlabelled mugs of their Michelob and today's Schlitz.

"I was confident" states Schlitz Chief Frank Sellinger

The results of the taste tests were not unexpected for Schlitz Chief Executive, Frank Sellinger.

"Some people thought it was risky to do live TV taste tests in front of millions of people," says Sellinger, "but it didn't take nerve, it just took confidence."

Sellinger, a master brewer for 40 years, has helped brew some of the world's finest beers. Since joining the company three years ago, he has concentrated on making Schlitz the best premium beer on the market.

"They brought me here to brew the best," says Sellinger. "And this Schlitz is it."

It seems quite a few of the Bud, Miller and Michelob drinkers tested agree.

Do it yourself—try the "Great American Beer Switch" test

This test requires two identical mugs, a Schlitz and your regular beer, at equal temperature. Label the mugs "1" and "2" so the taster won't know which beer is which. Pour the beers to equal heads out of the taster's sight.

To ensure that the choice is made on taste alone, serve the beer in non-transparent mugs or have the taster close his eyes. Now let the taster sample both of the beers and choose the one that tastes better. Now you taste both beers yourself. Did you pick your regular brand? Or today's Schlitz?

Knabes Observe 44th Anniversary

The 44th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Knabe, Sr. was observed on Sunday, January 25 with a family reunion attended by their eight children and all their grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bayer and family.

It was the first time in twelve years that all of the family was together at the same time.

Attending the covered dish noon meal were Arthur and Frances Bayer and Keith and Nathan, Mrs. Janet Barnhill and Mandy of Muenster and Mrs. Julia Rogen of Sherman; Ethel and Fred Hennigan, Jr. of Saint Jo, Roger and Dianne Ellis of Valley View, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Hennigan and Joseph and Misty of Saint Jo, Mrs. Darlene Willot and Leroy of Bowie; Mr. and Mrs. Robt Knabe, Jr. and Eileen and Vanessa of Muenster; Mr. and Mrs. Tony Knabe and Mark, Margie, Michael and Melissa of Myra; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knabe of Muenster; Mrs. Katie Hamilton and Jana Kaye and Deann of Myra; Mary Streng and Shelly, Gina, Kim and Billy of Sherman; Mrs. Barbara Hacker and Glenn and Gregg of Valley View; Billy Jack Duberry of Sherman.

A family portrait was made and many informal pictures. There was much visiting and reminiscing during the afternoon and card and table games. Most of the guests stayed for supper.

The three tiered anniversary cake was made by Mrs. Billy Hennigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Knabe, Sr. were married in St. Mary's Church of Windthorst on January 26. She was the former Elizabeth Schroeder of Windthorst.

Illinois Relatives Visit Two Days

Mrs. Ray Owen and Lu Vogel entertained relatives recently for two days. They were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crain and his brother, Jerry Crain, all of Pesotum, Ill., who were enroute home after a visit in Arizona with Crain relatives.

Mrs. Crain is the former Pauline Hausman, youngest of the children of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hausman, former residents here in the early 1900's. Mrs. Joe Hausman was a sister of the late Joe Pautler, father of Mrs. Owen. Mr. Hausman was a cousin of the late Emil Vogel, father of Lu Vogel.

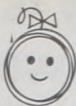

The Hausman family's home was on the farm now owned by the Martin Beckers. Mrs. Owen took her guests to see the farm; and Becker showed them a place in the original barn where Mrs. Crain's older brothers carved their names in the wood about 80 years ago. The lettering is still clearly visible.

Mrs. Ray Owen entertained for them with dinner Thursday evening, inviting also Mr. and Mrs. Alfonse Pautler, Hilda Pautler, Henry Pautler and Mrs. Julia Cunningham.

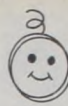

Personals...

Gary Rainwater spent three days quail hunting in South Texas during the past weekend. His wife Teresa and their children, Travis and Heather visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R.S. Weddle in Austin. They returned home to Muenster on Monday.

Mrs. Joe Schnitker (Bertha) is a resident of a nursing home in Denison, after hospitalization for a possible stroke. Cards will reach her if addressed to her in care of a daughter, Mrs. Ward Hughes, (Margaret) 130 Rand Drive, Sherman, Texas 75090.

Meeting Features Coupon Savings

Are you amazed at how high your grocery bill is each time you shop? If so you will be interested in two special programs planned on the "Use of Coupons and Refunding" scheduled for Thursday, February 5.

The first program will be at 9:30 a.m. at the Chamber of Commerce Building in Gainesville. A repeat program will be on Thursday night at 7:00, for those who find a night meeting more convenient.

Presenting the programs will be Mrs. Mitzi Eades, publisher of "Mitzi's Mad Money", a special publication on the use of coupons and refunding. Mrs. Eades is known to many as "Aunt Trash" because of her proven ability to save so much money from using items most people throw away. Mitzi, who now lives in Lake Dallas, has appeared on all of the metroplex news television stations explaining her success in using coupons. She writes a newspaper column which is carried in over 50 newspapers on the use of coupons and refunding. She is a contributing writer for Weekly World News which has a circulation of over one million.

Mrs. Eades feeds her family of six including four growing boys for approximately $100 a month. Last year she saved $3900 by using coupons and refunding which she says anybody can do.

The Coupon Refunding Program is being sponsored by the County Extension Service Family Living Committee as a part of a total program on managing Family resources. There will be a $2.00 charge per person with everyone attending receiving a packet of materials worth more than this amount. So that final preparations can be made interested people should make a reservation by calling the County Extension Service at 665-1966 or 665-4931.

Mitzi Eades, also known as "Aunt Trash", is an avid collector and user of grocery coupons. With a family of six, she saves from 50% to 90% each time she buys groceries.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION
 THE STATE OF TEXAS
 TO: FRANK LEE COX, Respondent;
 GREETINGS:
 YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED to appear and answer before the Honorable 16th District Court, Cooke County, Texas, at the Courthouse of said County in Gainesville, Texas, at or before 10 o'clock a.m. of the Monday next after the expiration of 20 days from the date of service of this citation, then and there to answer the petition of Henry Walter Pearce, Petitioner, filed in said Court on the 21st day of November, 1980, against FRANK LEE COX, Respondent, and said suit being numbered 80-506 on the docket of said Court, and entitled "In The Interest of Tracy Lynn Cox, a Child", the nature of which suit is a request to be appointed as managing conservator of the child. Said child was born the 6th day of December, 1975, in Fort Worth, Texas.

The Court has authority in this suit to enter any judgment or decree in the child's interest which will be binding upon you, including the termination of the parent-child relationship and the appointment of a conservator with authority to consent to the child's adoption.

If this citation is not served within ninety days after the date of its issuance, it shall be returned unserved.

The officer executing this writ shall promptly serve the same according to requirements of law, and the mandates hereof, and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and the seal of said Court at Gainesville, Texas, this 23 day of January, 1981.

Arbor Day

What do we plant when we plant the tree?
 A thousand things that we daily see;
 We plant the spire that out-towers the crag,
 Plant the staff for our country's flag,
 We plant the shade from the hot sun free;
 We plant all these when we plant the tree.

-Henry Abbey

A tree planting demonstration was given by kindergartners, Aaron Berres, Eddie Lamkin and Martin McCoy using Loblolly Pine seeds provided by the Texas Forest Service.

Two songs followed "Plant Seeds in My Garden" and "The Lord is Good to Me" by the kindergarten class.

Father Denis closed the program with the Benediction; "He that planteth a tree is a servant of God. He provideth a kindness for many generations... and faces he has not seen will bless him.

Later all kindergartners planted seeds of trees in their own containers, to care for at home.

Mrs. August Felderhoff was coordinator of the Arbor Day observance for the Muenster Garden Club and the SHS Kindergarten.

The "Beautify Texas" Council in its Winter 1981 official newsletter, has a simple statement, here taken out of context, that, however, bears import for everyone.

It could become a lead-in to preparation for Germanfest; it could become a blue-print for action; it could become a stand-out slogan applicable the year round; it could be one facet of a community wide improvement program; it could be just down-to-earth fact:

Record Year Reported by First Savings and Loan

According to M.R. Perry, president of First Savings and Loan Association, high interest rates made 1980 a trying year for many Americans, including those of us who manage the nation's financial institutions, but he was pleased to report that First Savings and Loan Association completed this year in strong condition. First Savings and Loan savers, of course, had a very good year in 1980. Thanks to the record high rates paid during the year, First Savings and Loan depositors earned a record $3,661,441 in savings account interest. Mr. Perry stated that savings balances at First Savings now total $41,824,295, an all time high.

"Of course, the record high rates First Savings paid to savers meant that we had to charge higher rates to borrowers; and the higher mortgage rates which were common throughout our community helped to slow the local housing market -- especially when combined with continuing high home prices. Even so, mortgage loans made by First Savings and Loan last year totaled $15,898, 503. First Savings and Loan now has $48,119,900 invested in real estate loans. That is an all time high. As a result of the growth of both savings and mortgages, the total assets of First Savings and Loan amounted to $55,129,553 at the year-end 1980, the highest ever."

Mr. Perry stated that in spite of a slow beginning, the 1980s hold great promise for home lending institutions. "Population trends indicate a record housing demand nationally, and we expect that our local housing markets will be strong too. The strength of our local economy, however, is to a considerable extent dependent upon the Reagan Administration's success in dealing with inflation. Although we expect no "miracle cures", we do believe that the new Administration is determined to bring the economy's inflationary excesses under control. Our own forecasts anticipate smaller-than-normal savings gains over the next few months, with a correspondingly slow local housing market; but we forecast improvement in both savings flows and housing activity during the second half of 1981. Of course, savings and mortgage lending activities will continue to be our main thrust--as they have been ever since our institution was founded 25 years ago."

Clyde Richard and the Preacher's Boy

Right after my pal Clyde Richard joined the church, we had a summer revival. The evangelist who came to preach the revival had a boy about our age.

This unfortunate boy was a little sissyfied, and he immediately, on visual inspection, decided that he was more than somewhat smarter than we were.

Neither of these things endeared him to us. But his read undoing came about as a result of a ring he wore. It was a silver saddle ring, complete with high horn and hooded stirrups.

Clyde Richard said to me, "I got to have that ring."

"How we gonna get it?" I asked, never doubting that Clyde Richard would soon acquire the ring, and that I would help him do it.

Clyde Richard was practical as Hitler.

"Let's kill 'im and take it," he said.

"Naw, we better not do that," I said. "I don't think his daddy would care, but his mother would probably get us in trouble for it."

Clyde Richard eased up to the victim and said, "That sure is a pretty ring."

"Yes, rather," said the sissy. "My father acquired it for me in Calcutta."

Clyde Richard stepped back a couple of steps and motioned for me with his head.

"Where's Calcutta?"

"Somewhere up the other side of Cisco, I think. I don't know exactly where," I said.

He stepped back to the sissy and said, offhand like, "I been to Fort Worth once myself, but they didn't have no rings like that 'un. Could I see it for a minute?"

"I suppose so, if your hands aren't soiled," replied the sissy.

I saw Clyde Richard's nostrils flare, and I knew the preacher's boy was in for a dose of culture shock.

Clyde Richard put the ring on his right hand ring finger and admired it in the light.

"I am a Royal Ambassador," the sissy said to me. "Are either of you anything?"

"Oh yes," said Clyde Richard. "We are the Curry Comb Mountain Killers."

"Huh," snorted the sissy, contemptuously.

"I think, if you will kindly give back my ring, I shall seek a more intellectual climate."

"I'll give it back to you right now," said Clyde Richard, as he buried that shiny saddle horn in the sissy's nose.

The sissy let out a terribly undignified squall and took off, yelling, "Father, Father!" every time he hit the ground.

Pretty soon he had "Father" and the deacons headed our way, which meant it was time for us to go where grown men in their only suits and Sunday shoes wouldn't follow, namely, into the canyon.

Pell-mell down the canyon wall we went, with Clyde Richard's sissy yelling for his only son to stop or else.

We thought we could outwait them, since it was the last day of the revival, and about dark, and the preacher would have to leave, taking the legal owner of the ring along. That time, though, we were out of luck; the injured party and the deacons settled in for a siege on the canyon rim.

Every little bit Clyde Richard's daddy would come to the edge and yell for Clyde Richard, but it didn't do him any good.

I figured we were set for the night, or until my mother sent my brother down to drag us back to the top, but Clyde Richard suddenly announced that we had just as well give it up, and started climbing up the cliff.

This stirred considerable interest among the enemy. They were waiting for us in a little cluster, all smirking except for Clyde Richard's daddy, who demanded that Clyde Richard hand over the ring.

"I can't," said Clyde Richard, sadly. "I lost it down in the canyon."

They searched him and they shook him, but no ring could they find.

His daddy, of course, offered to pay for the ring, but the preacher declined, saying it was just a cheap piece of costume jewelry he'd picked up in Abilene (Clyde Richard almost blew his act at that) and that an apology would be sufficient.

Clyde Richard mumbled that he was sorry.

The next Sunday we went down into the canyon and got the ring, where he'd hidden it.

Happy Birthday - Rita Cain

Going back to a simpler way of eating after holiday binges? Many have found that a bowl of soup with cheese and bread, served with a chilled salad, makes a satisfying supper.

One of the best eating soups is Creamy French Onion which uses four cups of the vegetable, thinly sliced and cooked in butter. Beef bouillon and milk are added for volume and flavor. This superb soup is served with thick slices of toasted Vienna bread sprinkled first with blue cheese, then topped with mozzarella cheese. It's broiled only long enough to melt the cheese. Float the cheesy toast atop the soup, but have enough to pass with it if the folks bring big appetites to the table.

Another delicious soup good enough for guests is Seafood Chowder, built around the traditional onion and potato, a creamy base of milk and canned cream of chicken soup, shrimp and delightful herb seasoning.

CREAMY FRENCH ONION SOUP

Yield: 5 cups
3 tablespoons butter
4 c. thinly sliced onions
1 teaspoon sugar
1/8 teaspoon pepper
3 T. all-purpose flour
2 cans (10 1/2 oz. each) beef bouillon, undiluted
1 T. cooking sherry
2 1/2 cups milk
Melt butter in heavy saucepan; add onions. Cover and cook 15 minutes. Uncover; stir in sugar and pepper. Cook over medium-high heat until onions are a deep golden brown, stirring occasionally. Remove from heat; stir in flour. Add bouillon and sherry, stirring constantly. Simmer, covered, 15 minutes, stirring occasionally. Stir in milk. Heat to serving temperature. Do not boil.

Toast Sandwiches:
4 slices Vienna bread, cut 1/2 inches thick
Butter
1/4 cup (1 oz.) crumbled blue cheese
4 slices (1 oz. each) mozzarella cheese
Toast bread on both sides, butter lightly and sprinkle 1 T. blue cheese on each slice. Top each with 1 slice mozzarella cheese. Broil until cheese is melted. Serve soup in heated bowls. Top each bowl with one cheese toast sandwich.

SEAFOOD CHOWDER

Yield: 6 cups
3/4 C. chopped green onion with tops
1 T. butter
2 C. cubed potatoes
1 lb. halibut filets, cut in 1 inch pieces
1 cup water
1/2 teaspoon salt
dash pepper
1 can (10 3/4 oz.) condensed cream of chicken soup
1 cup milk
1 pk. (8 oz) frozen cooked & cleaned shrimp defrosted
1/2 teaspoon tarragon
1/4 teaspoon chervil
3/4 C. chopped parsley
6 slices bacon, cooked & crumbled

Saute onion in butter until lightly browned. Add potatoes, halibut, water, salt and pepper. Bring to a boil. Cover; simmer 10 to 15 minutes or just until potatoes are tender, gradually stir in soup, milk, shrimp, tarragon and chervil. Bring to serving temperature over low heat, stirring occasionally. Do not boil. Stir in parsley and crumbled bacon.

MHS Loses to Ponder, Alvord

Hard times continue for the MHS basketball teams, which lost all four encounters with Ponder and Alvord during the past week.

The super efficient teams of Ponder went on scoring sprees that buried the Hornets 90-54 and the Hornettes 97-37. A Ponder girl poured in 48 points while Muenster girls scored as follows: Charlotte Fleitman 15, Stephanie Richey 7, Sandy Wimmer 6, Carla Walterscheid 4, Kyla Hale 2, Mary Winn 2, Peggy Winn 1.

Hornet point makers were Ricky Winn 22, Wayne Carroll 10, Larry Fleitman 8, Kevin Felderhoff 6, Steve Luke 4, Tim Schneider 4.

MHS girls at Alvord started fine for leads of 15-12 and 27-24 in two periods. But then Alvord caught fire and soared to a 42-33 third period lead. Muenster rallied for a 1 point lead at one time in the fourth but could not hold on. The loss was 47-43. Stephanie Richey led the way with 22, Charlotte Fleitman added 11, Kyla Hale 6, Sandy Wimmer 3, Sherri Hess 1.

Alvord boys led it all the way by counts of 13-9, 30-23, and 40-35 until the Hornets moved up to 46-45 in the final minute. They had possession and stalled for a final shot then lost the ball for traveling at 5 seconds before the end. A desperation effort to get the ball back resulted in a foul and Alvord added 2 after the final buzzer. Final score 48-45.

Hornet scorers were Ricky Winn 12, Kevin Felderhoff 10, Steve Luke 8, Tim Schneider 7, Wayne Carroll 4, Larry Fleitman 4.

SH Teams Play for Zone Titles In TCIL Tournament

Sacred Heart teams broke even with Notre Dame in double headers here and there during the weekend. On the SH court the Tigerettes won 15-38 and the Tigers lost 42-39. At Wichita Falls the boys won 56-52 and the girls lost 42-35.

As a result the teams are tied with ND for the lead in district standings, which actually do not count in the title race. The deciding factor will be a tournament at Wichita Falls this weekend for the North Zone championship. Meanwhile St. John's of Ennis and Gorman of Tyler are competing for the South Zone title, and later the zone champs will play for the district prize.

The Wichita tourney will be a round robin in which each team meets each other team once. Sacred Heart games are booked as follows. Thursday: ND girls, 7 p.m., boys 8:30. Friday: Christ the King, girls 3 p.m., boys 4:30. Saturday: Alamo, girls 10:30 a.m. boys 12:00.

Prospects of success are good for both teams, according to Coach Jon LeBrasseur... "but they need lots of improvement in making free throws and avoiding turnovers."

In the Tigerettes' home game of the weekend they jumped to a 13-4 first quarter lead and played even in the second and third for leads of 26-17 and 38-29, then gained again for the 51-38 final score.

Carol Walterscheid led the way with 19 points and 14 rebounds. Tammy Henscheid added 10, Susie Walterscheid 10, Virginia Bartush 8, Shellie Walterscheid 2, Anne Felderhoff 2.

In their home game the Tigers were in hot pursuit all the way by counts of 10-8, 19-16, 27-22 and 42-39. It was an unusual game with the Tigers getting only 2 free shots and the Knights 17.

Monte Endres had 9 points and 16 rebounds. Brian Bednorz scored 14, Kirk Mollenkopf 8, Greg Walterscheid 6, Gene Fuhrman 2. Likewise at Wichita, the competition was torrid. ND led 14-12 at the quarter and Sacred Heart led 28-25 at the half. They were tied at 37-37 ending the third and SH inched ahead for a 56-52 win.

Monte Endres accounted for 15 points, Brian Bednorz 14, Kirk Mollenkopf 12, Greg Walterscheid 7, Gene Fuhrman 6, Brian Herr 2.

Four Steps to a Healthier Heart

Heart disease is a reversible disorder! It isn't a sentence of death.

Growing evidence now shows that sick and clogged arteries can be cleaned up, that a combination of factors, particularly diet and exercise, can help ease heart disease, diabetes, and high blood pressure, and actually reverse atherosclerosis, a major cause of death.

Dr. Julian Whitaker of California, a pioneering scientist in this new treatment for heart disease, is a physician who at one time was a surgeon until he realized that many surgeries, particularly the popular "bypass" operation, were unnecessary in many cases and counterproductive in others. He has amassed convincing statistics of the efficacy of his program, which has saved many patients from surgery.

How does Dr. Whitaker do it? His patients stay at his own clinic, the California Heart Medical Clinic, following the program that Dr. Whitaker developed from his years of research and experience in treating about 1500 patients with heart disease and other problems. It consists of four essentials:

1. A very low fat, low cholesterol diet to lower the cholesterol level, ideally to 150 or to 170. It is at this level of blood cholesterol that reversal of clogged arteries begins to occur. (Most Americans have levels in the range of 220 to 270.)

2. Exercise. Combined with diet, exercise that raises the pulse rate to safe levels for at least half an hour, tends to reverse the atherosclerosis present in the arteries in the heart. Patients are carefully introduced to this phase.

3. Oxygen inhalation. Recent experiments indicate that increasing the oxygen in the blood will accelerate atherosclerosis reversal.

4. Vitamins and minerals, particularly vitamin C and vitamin E have a role in the reversal of atherosclerosis.

At his clinic, Dr. Whitaker accepts men and women with heart disease, diabetes and high blood pressure. Here they undergo the reversal treatment, are taught the regimen, and then go home to carry out the prescription on their own.

At the clinic in beautiful San Clemente, California, diets are carefully controlled and explained, directed towards reducing arterial clotting, and reversing the process that leads to heart attacks. Exercise of the aerobic type is taught to keep the heart pumping, the pulse rate sufficiently and safely elevated for at least half an hour. The techniques of oxygen inhalation are taught, and patients are carefully rehearsed in the importance of vitamins that help reverse arterial clogging.

The results of Dr. Whitaker's regimen are dramatic enough to have attracted widespread attention both among physicians and the lay public, and show all signs of leading the way towards successfully extending the life span of Americans who follow the program.

SH Junior Teams Lose at Montague

Junior High teams of Sacred Heart had a sad ending of their basketball season by being shut out at the Montague tournament January 15 and 16.

In the opener with Prairie Valley, the SH girls led 5-4 and 11-8 the first two periods. However PV took charge in the third and fourth for a 15-15 tie and a 19-16 win. Sandy Taylor scored 7, Sandra Hess 3, Rose Felderhoff 2, Tammy Grewing 2, Tammy Hess 2.

Their next encounter was with Slidell in the consolation semifinal, where, again, they started good but could not keep going. SH led 6-5 and 13-8 in two periods, they trailed 22-21 at the third and tied 26-26 at the end. Then they went scoreless in overtime and lost 28-26.

The future Tigers did likewise, except they were mauled in opener by Prairie Valley. The score was 50-15 as Chris Dangelmayr made 6, Kenny Hesse 4, Bret Walterscheid 3, Rusty Knabe 2.

The consolation semi final with Montague was better but still a one sided 25-13. Bret Walterscheid 11 and Rusty Knabe 2 were the only scorers.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Luke have recently moved to Euless. He graduated in December from Texas Tech University with a Bachelor's Degree in Mechanical Engineering. Jim has accepted a position as an engineer for Sedco-Hamilton in Dallas. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W.J. Luke and a graduate of Sacred Heart High School.

Bruce Fuhrmann received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Mechanical Engineering at Texas Tech University in ceremonies held on Dec. 19 at the close of the Fall term and was named to the Dean's List.

On January 5 he began work in Dallas for Carrier. He is a graduate of Sacred Heart High and a son of Mr. and Mrs. Val Fuhrmann.

MHS Juniors Lose 6 of 8

Muenster junior high kids have been busy lately with a tournament during the weekend and games with Forestburg Monday. However, with only two wins out of eight games, it has not been a satisfying schedule.

The only success was two one-sided games in consolation semifinals with Little Elm. Otherwise they started with losses and ended with losses.

In the girls division Muenster had the short end of a 16-11 game as Kim Eldred and Amy Davidson hit 4 each and Jackie Farrell made 3. Next they were at the long end of 26-8 over Little Elm and scorers were Kim Eldred 9, Rita Walterscheid 7, Jackie Farrell 3, Nita Meurer 3, JoEll Hellman 2, Amy Reiter 2.

Krum ran away with the consolation final 26-8, and scorers for Muenster were Jackie Farrell 4, JoEll Hellman 2, Kim Eldred 2. Junior boys started with a 61-12 loss to Sanger as David Winn made 5, Jay Mollenkopf 3, Ronnie Fisher 2 and Kevin Wolf 2.

Playing the consolation semifinal with Little Elm they trailed 8-4 at the first period and scored 21 the next three quarters while Little Elm scored 4. Point makers of the 25-12 win were David Winn 9, Ronnie Fisher 7, Jay Mollenkopf 5, Kevin Wolf 4.

In the final Muenster was outscored in every quarter and Ponder won 64-37. Scorers were David Winn 14, Ronnie Fisher 8, Jay Mollenkopf 7, Kevin Wolf 6, Mark Hoenig 2.

The games with Forestburg were more interesting, however both were losses. Girls went down 32-21 as Rita Walterscheid made 4, Kim Eldred, JoEll Hellman, Jackie Farrell and Amy Reiter hit 3 each, Jean Pagel and Jean Trubenbach made 2 each and Amy Davidson made 1. Bell scored 19 for the winners. Trayler 9, Reed 3 and Hamric 1.

The hotly contested boys game ended 31-27 favoring the Burg, whose two scorers were Holland 19 and Shults 12. Muenster points were made by David Winn 17, Ronnie Fisher 6, Kevin Wolf 4.

Here's Troy Wolf, 44, and Gene Fuhrman, 30, stretching for a rebound in Sacred Heart's game with Notre Dame. Janie Hartman Photo

Forestburg Wins Trophies at Home

Forestburg junior high teams claimed both of the champ trophies in the basketball tournament hosted by Forestburg during the past weekend. Second place winners were Montague girls and Saint Jo boys, and the consolation winners were Alvord girls and Prairie Valley boys.

To begin, Forestburg boys rolled over Alvord 28-8 with Shults scoring 16 and Holland 8. Also Forestburg girls beat Alvord 25-15, top scorers being Trayler 12, Bell 8 and Reed 4.

The wins advanced them to the champ bracket, where they took a pair from Slidell, the boys 48-31 and the girls 21-15. Boys top scorers were Holland 19, Shults 11, Lanier, Sewell and Smith, each 4. Trayler hit 9 and Bell 8 for the girls.

Then came the finals in which the boys beat Saint Jo 34-32 in an overtime thriller and the girls edged Montague 19-16, which was sweet revenge for a loss the week before. Holland had a big night scoring 25 and Shults added 9. Bell 8, Floyd 6 and Trayler made the girls' points.

The 26-Week Money Market Certificate

Put in $10,000, and get back $10,726

26-week return reflects interest earned on $10,000 principal and accumulated interest for 26 weeks at current rate.

Current rate of 14.371% yields 15.102%*

Staying ahead financially has always been a race. But the 80's present new, tougher challenges.

At First Texas Savings, we have ways to beat the 80's. Like our 26-Week Money Market Certificate. It offers the maximum rate allowed by law for maximum yields on amounts from $10,000. Rates for new certificates are set weekly and are good for the entire term.

Sure, our 26-Week Money Market Certificate is a good investment, but it's also a no-risk investment. Your money is insured up to $100,000 by a federal agency. And your deposit is backed by First Texas' over 1.6 billion dollars in assets.

Best of all, at First Texas Savings, your money is always available. Penalty on early withdrawal is 3 months' interest and only on the amount withdrawn. And as a convenient reminder, you will be automatically notified prior to renewal.

Also ask about our 2 1/2-Year Money Market Certificate.

So, before you put your money anywhere, remember: Others may keep you even in the 80's, but First Texas Savings will keep you ahead.

*Effective January 29 thru February 4, 1981.

Federal regulations prohibit compounding of interest on 26-Week Money Market Certificates. Annual yield assumes reinvestment of principal and interest at maturity at the same annual interest rate. However, the annual interest rate is subject to, and likely to, change at maturity.

Recent federal regulations require principal reduction if sufficient interest does not exist.

London Assigned to 2 Committees

State Rep. David London (D) of Leonard has been named to positions on the Health Services and Insurance Committees of the Texas House by Speaker Bill Clayton.

Clayton said Rep. London would serve in these capacities during the next two years of the 67th Legislature.

Rep. London, a rancher by profession, is serving his 1st term in the House.

The nine-member Health Services Committee has jurisdiction over matters involving the protection of public health, including supervision and control of the practice of medicine, pharmacy, dentistry and other healing arts, the Texas Department of Health, and mental health and mental retardation, and the programs found within these areas.

In addition, the committee has responsibility for matters relating to the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, the Texas Health Facilities Commission, the prevention and treatment of mental illness and mental retardation, nursing homes and their regulation and the Texas Commission on Alcoholism.

The eleven-member Insurance Committee has jurisdiction over matters concerning insurance and the insurance industry, including fire, life, casualty and other types of insurance, all insurance companies and other organizations of any type writing or issuing policies of insurance in the state, and the State Board of Insurance, including its organization, powers, functions and responsibilities.

First Texas Introduces Weighted Rate Mortgage

First Texas Savings Association Manager, Mary Lou Hess, recently announced the introduction of the First Texas Weighted Rate Mortgage - the third new mortgage service recently introduced by First Texas. The new mortgage loan combines a below market interest rate on the existing First Texas loan balance with the First Texas Rollover Mortgage rate on any additional funds advanced to the borrower. The resulting weighted interest rate is significantly lower than present market rates for new conventional mortgage loans. The new weighted rate loan is designed to stimulate sales of residential real estate by qualifying more people for residential mortgage loans.

For example, consider a home which was purchased in 1977 for $57,000 and on which a First Texas mortgage loan was made for $51,250 at 8.50% interest. The owner now wants to sell the home which has appreciated in value to $83,500.

Assuming a down payment of $8,500, the new buyer needs a new loan for $75,000 ($83,500 - $8,500). Also, assuming the remaining balance on the old loan was $50,000, the new loan amount of $75,000 is comprised of 67% ($50,000 ÷ $75,000) existing funds and 33% ($25,000 ÷ $75,000) new funds.

First Texas will lend the existing funds of $50,000 at the present special rate (11.50%) and the new funds of $25,000 at the present Rollover Mortgage loan market rate (14.75%). The two rates, when proportionately added together, result in a weighted interest rate (12.625%) significantly below the current market rates for new mortgage loans (14%-16%).

The lower interest rate enables additional prospective buyers to afford the new home. For example, principal and interest monthly payments on the $75,000 loan vary from a high of $978.39 per month at a 15.50% interest rate to a low of $807.72 per month at the example weighted interest rate of 12.625% - a difference of $170.67 per month.

The new Weighted Rate Mortgage is available only on residential real estate property on which First Texas holds the existing mortgage loan. The Weighted Rate Mortgage is variation of the First Texas Rollover Mortgage on which the interest rate is adjusted every three years. The Rollover Mortgage is an assumable loan and can be paid off without penalty. First Texas currently holds mortgage loans on approximately 45,000 Texas residences.

With over $1.7 billion in assets and 64 offices in 32 Texas cities, First Texas is one of the largest financial institutions in Texas.

Muenster I.S.D. Schedules Basic Skills Test Program

Third, fifth, and ninth grade students from the Muenster Independent School District will participate in the second Texas Assessment of Basic Skills test program scheduled for the second week of February.

The assessment plan, first of its kind in this state, is scheduled once each year under requirements set by the Texas Legislature during its 1979 regular session.

The Muenster ISD students will be among 700,000 expected to take the reading, writing composition, and mathematics test during the February 2-20 statewide testing period. Each of the tests will require a maximum of 40 to 60 minutes to complete.

The Muenster ISD will report its district and campus aggregate scores to the public at a May or June meeting of the board of trustees, according to Charles Coffey, district superintendent. "However, individual student scores will be reported only to the student, parents or guardian, and the school personnel directly involved," Mr. Coffey adds.

"This testing program is designed to help the student and the school improve achievement," Coffey points out. "For this reason, results will be reported in a manner that will help everyone become more effective."

"Third grade students were added to the annual testing sequence for the first time this year. The three tests will make up an annual assessment effort designed to help both state and local school officials improve their services," Coffey says.

Overall student performance, both by campus and by district, will be reported each year to the public by the local board of trustees.

CTB/McGraw-Hill of Monterey, California will help administer the 1981 test program and develop and field test new items for the 1981-82 series under contract to the State Board of Education. The California firm will also operate a computerized inventory of all test booklets to assure strict security at all times.

"Each test question will relate to a specific objective or skill students are expected to learn by the time they complete the particular grade," Coffey points out.

"We use the term 'criterion-referenced' simply because it is a short way of saying the answer to each question must lead back to a specific objective," Coffey explains.

Ninth grade students who do not make a satisfactory "exit level" score may re-take the test each year they remain in high school. However, they will not be required to take it more than once. Later attempts to improve scores and evaluate any remedial programs will be voluntary.

The annual test program will be administered by specially-trained personnel in each school district under the guidelines and supervision of the Texas Education Agency.

7th Graders Join Seniors in SAT

Four seventh graders of Muenster Public School and two of Sacred Heart were recognized for scholastic excellence last Saturday when they were permitted to join high school seniors in taking the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT).

According to Tom Fluker, counselor of the public school, this is a talent identification program sponsored by Duke University of North Carolina and conducted in the Southern States. Along with the recognition of being selected for the test, the student will receive a report and interpretation of the test grades.

The test was given in Denton last Saturday. It was not taken by high schoolers of the local schools because they had taken it on a previous test date.

The seventh graders are Amy Davidson, Mikael Fette, Scott Klement and Jean Pangel of Muenster Public School and Laura Flusche and Lydia Walterscheid of Sacred Heart.

How many do you have?

The price of electricity has gone up in recent years and must continue to go up to enable Texas Power & Light Company to keep pace with the drastically rising costs of producing and supplying electric power.

Even so, take a look at your most recent electric bill. Divide the amount of the bill by the number of days of service it covers. This was your average daily cost.

Now, make a list of the electric appliances and equipment in your home and think of the conveniences, comforts and pleasures they provided.

Isn't electricity still one of the best buys in your family budget?

Chamber Honors Eagles, Daurity

In recognition of the Valley View Eagles' outstanding achievement of winning the state Class A football championship, the Gainesville Area Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night honored the community with a special appreciation plaque.

The presentation was made by Chamber President David Howeth to Mrs. Mary Brirschenk, mayor of Valley View, at the Chamber's annual banquet at Cooke County College.

Another featured presentation was a distinguished service award to Arley Daurity, marketing director of First State Bank. He was cited as an inspiration to the membership for recruiting 43 new members for 1980, adding over $4,000 to the budget. A check donated by the two Gainesville banks accompanied the award.

Also Tom Parsons, retiring director, received a plaque for his service as treasurer and other retiring directors were given framed certificates of appreciation. They are Bill Cypent, Johnny Leftwich, Jerry Lewis, Tom Riddle, Pete Shauf, John Tracy and Tommy Turner.

Headliner of the program was Dr. Bill West of Houston, talking on How to Become a Winner. He said,

"To be motivated you must fit what you're doing, have faith in people, faith in the future, and put an element of adventure in your life."

Arts Council Announces Two Coming Events
The Cooke County Arts Council calls attention to a very special event on Saturday, January 31 when Carl Jones and the Golden Tones will play for a dance in the Knights of Columbus Hall beginning at 9 p.m. Admission is $10 per couple. Reservations may be phoned to 668-7281, 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. and to 665-2709 after 6 p.m.

The 19 piece orchestra plays the music of Glenn Miller and Tommy Dorsey. Members hope to raise money to purchase a portable electric piano as an addition to the band.

Another special event announced by the Cooke County Arts Council is the Cooke County College theatrical performance "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum" on February 26, 27 and 28 at 7:30 p.m. There will be an afternoon performance at 2 p.m. on Saturday. On Friday, a dinner at 6 p.m. will precede the show at a cost of $5 per person. Reservations for dinner must be made before Tuesday. Tickets for all shows can be obtained for $1.50 at the Cooke County College Bookstore.

Talent Search for Festival Continues
The search continues for local talent to entertain during the Germanfest on April 24, 25 and 26.

According to Johnny Fisher, entertainment chairman, roving entertainers such as guitar pickers and accordion players are wanted to mingle with the crowd, the more the better. Interested persons are asked to contact Fisher or Monica Hess soon, in time to be included on the Germanfest brochure.

Also suggested as a festival feature is a bikeathon. Anyone interested in sponsoring it is encouraged to contact Monica Hess, 759-4254.
