NUMBER 46

The world holds its breath Tuesday wondering what will be the consequence of President Sadat's assassination. Will the terrorists or fanatics or whatever variety of misguided extremists they happen to be, permit sane leaders to restore peace and order, or will they pursue a wild inclination toward igniting the Middle East powder keg with the intention of picking what they can from the shambles.

According to early reports, the first signs are encouraging. Sadat's successor is described as a good, capable man dedicated to preserving Sadat's kind of Egypt including peaceful relations with all others in that part of the world. For that we can be grateful. However we have to remember that this is an unstable time, an occasion when the enemies of civilization are tempted to exploit the situation in the hope of establishing their ugly plans more firmly.

We can imagine that the radicals are scheming furiously to intensify the hatred already existing, but we hope that calm leadership will help good people preserve the peace. A thought that comes to mind in this tragedy is that world terrorists are selecting big targets lately. Not long ago they chose President Reagan and Pope John Paul. Like Sadat they are known for strong opposition to Communism and all would be prime victims in reducing world resistance to red expansion. It is difficult to think of the three intended victims without suspecting a connection with the global conspiracy. Likewise, it comes natural to wonder why important people of the Red world are not chosen for the assassin's bullet.

Do these various signs have a bearing on the source of world terrorism? While the signs hardly justify a direct accusation they do justify suspicion. They support many other reasons to believe the Red claim that it intends to take over the world.

Bringing the murderers to justice is the instant and unanimous goal of all decent people. But we have to admit that the idea is futile. The terrorists operate by a different system. They keep their identity hidden or hide behind the protection of renegade nations and if apprehended they exploit civilization's own laws to escape the punishment they deserve.

A start in the right direction, we think, is to unify the anti-terrorist countries, those operating on morality and common sense, into an alliance for right in an atmosphere of war. Let it be known that terrorists are mortal enemies and the death penalty is mandatory if convicted. Let that apply whether a person has actually committed a crime or just belongs to the conspiracy.

If this seems too harsh, let's remember that no punishment is too severe if the criminal has been warned. The only requirement to avoid punishment is not to be one of them. Also suggested is the old saying about fighting fire with fire. Everyone knows what happens to the opposition in the red countries. They are executed, eliminated as possible future enemies. Terrorists operate the same way, and it seems reasonable to do unto them as they do unto others.

The idea is ruthless, beyond doubt, but we have to admit that it is effective. Terrorists must be made to understand that they are like spies in war, fully aware of the risk. There will be fewer of them if concerned nations will really go after them seriously.

United Way drive begins

The 1981 United Way drive is under way in Muenster with a goal of $5,800, an increase of $689 over last year's $5,111 total collection.

Larry Kinard, community chairman said Tuesday that collection packets have been delivered to eleven workers who have set October 31 as the date to finish their job. Cooke County United Way this year has budgeted

$124,961 to fifteen participating agencies. Those are American Red Cross, $14,000; Boy Scouts, $9,200; Camp Fire of Cooke County, $22,500; County Council on Alcoholism, $500; 4-H and FFA $3,500;

Gainesville Boys Club, $43,200; Muenster Youth Council, $3,000; Salvation Army, $8,800; Camp Sweeney, $7,500; USO, $650; N. Tex. Reading Service (for the blind) $135; Mini-Bus Service, $2,000; County Voluntary Action Center, $1,000; Texas United Way, $376; Local VW office expense, $8,600.

United Way workers of the community this year are Henry Weinzapfel, Kenneth Selby, Dennis Hess, David Fette, Roger Taylor, Virgil Henscheid, Tom Hesse, John Pagel, Dolphy Hellman, Larry Hennigan and Monica Hess.

Gold Star boy and girl honored

Linda Sandmann of Lindsay and Trey Yarbrough of Era were named Cooke County's Gold Star Girl and Boy Monday evening during the annual 4-H Achievement Banquet in Gainesville.

The Gold Star awards were presented by Mike Sloan, manager of Cooke County Electric Co-op, hosts of the annual event.

Frankie Enderby of Gainesville and John Sandmann of Lindsay were winners of the Farm Bureau Leadership awards, presented by Leonard Hartman, president of Cooke County Farm Bureau.

The "I Dare You" Award, won by Sherri Jo

Brown of Era, was presented by Bill King of Gainesville National Bank.

Sixty five 4-Hers completed all required projects and ribbon activities, thus qualifying for attendance at the banquet, where they were accompanied by parents and adult leaders for a total of 140. Speaker for the after dinner program was Johnny Glenn of Denton, who teaches public speaking to 4-Hers in Denton County and has carried the project state-wide.

Masters of Ceremonies for the program and dinner were last year's Gold Star winners, Kelly Fuhrmann of Lindsay and Eddie Pybas of Sivells Bend. Vincent Zimmerer, president of Cooke County Electric Co-op, gave the welcome. Precinct 2 Commissioner Kenneth Alexander and Precinct 4 Commissioner Robert Bayer presented Cooke County medals to the 65 4-Hers who attended.

A special presentation of "The 1980 Yearbook of Agriculture" came from Congressman Ralph Hall who was represented by Mike Allen. Gold Star winners were the recipients. During 1980-81, portraits of Kelly Fuhrmann and Eddie Pybas were displayed in the First State Bank of Gainesville and were given to them Monday evening by Allen Fleitman. New portraits of Linda Sandmann and Trey Yarbrough will be displayed by First State Bank during 1981-82.

Muenster 4-Hers who qualified to attend by completing all required projects and ribbon activities were Michelle Kleiss, Stephen Becker, Wayne Becker, Andy Burnette, Darren Cheaney, Amy Davidson, Darwin Sicking, Valerie Vogel and Carl Zimmerer. They are shown in the accompanying picture on page 3. Not shown are Michelle Kleiss and Carl Zimmerer.

City has gripes with county and tax appraisal district

The City of Muenster has gripes to discuss with two of the official organizations of the county. One concerns a rural fire protection contract with the county commissioners court, the other concerns the cost of operating the Cooke County Tax Appraisal District, a part of which is charged to Muenster.

The matters were discussed Monday night at the city council's regular meeting.

It was pointed out that when the city signed a contract with the county in August, 1980, to answer rural fire calls, it was agreed Muenster would receive $2250 for the coming year's service plus $2250 for the previous year when Muenster firemen answered the calls without a contract. The council noted that pay for the prior service has not been received and payment for last year's contract, which expired in August, is also overdue.

The council decided that this matter should be brought up as soon as possible at a commissioners' meeting. It has sent a letter asking for a place on the agenda of an early meeting.

Complaint number 2 concerns a charge from the county tax appraisal district for Muenster's share of the operating cost, which is calculated at near $5,500 a year payable quarterly. The city of Muenster is one of eleven units included in the tax district, and others, too are concerned about the charges. The principal item of contention is an expense of $60,000 in addition to $221,000 in salaries for 15 persons. The city has appointed Bertha Hamric to join an Ad Hoc Committee studying the budget, and has decided to postpone payment until charges are justified.

Council declines to increase fluoride content in city water

Satisfied with local dental health, the Muenster city council declines to increase the fluoride content of its water to near double strength. A letter from the state health department was read at Monday's council meeting urging an increase to 2.7 mg/l as a means of reducing tooth cavities. The council observed that people have ample opportunity for fluoride treatment in dental creams, and there has been no complaints about tooth decay. The city says Thanks, but No Thanks.

A change of policy on curb construction was introduced at the city meeting and will be considered further at the next session. The proposal is to require curbing as a part of future building projects because it will simplify procedure in developing a paving project. In the present arrangement the property owner may find it inconvenient to finance curbing on short notice, but it would be there and paid for if included in the initial cost of a house. The ordinance, if adopted will apply to residential buildings only.

It's official now, the library building is owned by the city. Since an agreement at the last council meeting the legal requirements of the sale are complete. The price paid was $25,000. Also at the meeting the council approved its semi-annual contribution of $1800 for operating the library.

Also, the council asked Gary Rainwater for recommendation to control floodwater in the city park from Maple Street drainage. It will be presented at the November meeting.

John Pagel and J.W. Fisher were re-appointed to the park board.

Another park subject was the Myrich mini park, a Garden Club project since its origin several years ago. The city was asked to take over its care but declined on grounds of manpower shortage.

A final consideration is a new pickup truck for the Water Department. It was OK'd on condition that the old unit be used to replace the worn out vehicle on the fire department's hose truck.

Good News

Romans 4:13 When God promised Abraham and his descendants that the world would belong to him, he did so, not because Abraham obeyed the Law, but because he believed and was accepted as righteous by God.

UIL prohibits alcohol consumption

Don't drink at games

Partaking of alcoholic drinks on public school property is a violation of the state law, hence it is illegal to drink at high school football games, and the offender is subject to the penalty of the law.

In addition, according to Superintendent Charles

Coffey, UIL regulation states that the school can be held accountable for the misdeeds of its fans and its team can be required to forfeit any honors received during the season.

Muenster fans who attend the games are urged to attend not to drink there.

YHT to present public awareness program

CHIEF OF POLICE HELEN TOMPKINS

Police Chief Helen Tompkins of the Muenster police department will be the speaker and program leader for a special meeting arranged by the Muenster Chapter of Young Homemakers of Texas, tonight Thursday, October 8. The meeting will be held in the MHS Auditorium at 7:30 p.m. and is open to the public.

She will show two films "Strangers on the Street" and "Safety on the Street" and will follow it with a question and answer session.

Public Awareness is the first step in keeping a community relatively safe and crime free. Of particular concern is a special awareness of where children are at all times, their safety to and from school - their whereabouts when not at home.

The YHT urges the community to help children realize that the policeman is their friend and protector, more than just the cop who gives tickets to speeders.

The Muenster Young Homemakers chapter extends an invitation to all to attend tonight, Thursday, October 8,

Autumn is here

Suddenly it's autumn. It arrived Wednesday with a temperature drop to the 50s and a slow soaking rain which has local land in great condition. Up to now October already has 4.75 inches of rain and the year's total is 31.88 inches, which is near normal at this time.

Steve Moster's moisture readings until 2 p.m. Wednesday are as follows. Oct. 1, .01; Oct. 6, .92 and Oct. 7, 2.87. All of those were the customary 7 a.m. readings, and an additional .95 inch fell between 7 and 2 on Wednesday.

Low and high temperature readings of the week were as follows. Oct. 1, 70 and 84; Oct. 2, 58 and 84; Oct. 3, 63 and 86; Oct. 4, 74 and 92; Oct. 5, 72 and 93; Oct. 6, 70 and 72; Oct. 7, 54 and 57.

Cooke County's Gold Star Boy and Girl were named during the annual 4-H Achievement Banquet on October 5, held in the Cooke County College Activities Center. They are Trey Yarbrough of Era 4-H Club and Linda Sandmann of Lindsay 4-H Club. Shown with them are Vincent Zimmerer, president of Cooke County Electric Co-op and Mike Sloan, general manager of the Co-op, which annually hosts the event.

Soil Conservation zone 3 will elect director next week

Wednesday, October 14, is election day for a soil and water conservation district director for Zone 3. The election will be held in the Muenster City Hall at 7:00 p.m. J.H. Bayer of Muenster has been serving as the director for this zone for the past 15 years. This is an open election and the director will be elected depending on the wishes of those attending the election meeting.

Cooke County Agricultural Agent, Neil Tibbets will be in charge of the meeting.

Zone 3 of the Upper Elm-Red SWCD is located in Precincts 3 and 4 of Cooke County. It includes all the West side of Cooke County. To be eligible to vote in a soil and water conservation district directors election, a person must own agricultural land within the subdivision where the election is being held. He or she must live in Cooke County, all or part of which is in the SWCD district. The voter must be 21 years old.

Soil and Water Conservation District Directors serve a term of five years. The term of office begins the day after he or she is elected. Directors do not receive a salary nor do they receive pay for their services.

The work of a soil and water conservation district director is some of the most valuable assistance a community, county, or state can secure at any price. This makes it necessary to select and elect the very best qualified individuals to serve as district directors who love the land and are willing to spend some time in getting conservation on the land.

Letters to the Editor.....

Dear Moms,
 Since most of us are responsible for the nutrition our athletes receive before a game, I thought you might be interested in an article I read in the September issue of "Texas Coach Magazine" concerning that topic. The article I refer to is "Guideline for Pre-Event Eating" by Paul Laywell of College Station.

In the article, Mr. Laywell discusses five main points of concern.
 1. Eat enough to prevent any feeling of hunger or weakness during competition.
 2. Too much sugar in pre-event meal may hinder performance.
 3. The type of food and time of eating should be such that the stomach and upper intestine are empty at event time.
 4. Drink fluids.
 5. The menu should include familiar foods and those foods that the athlete may be convinced will "make him win."

The following suggestions for a meal to be eaten three to four hours before competition are made by the American Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation: one serving of roasted or broiled meat or poultry; one serving of mashed or baked potatoes (no butter or sour cream); or half cup rice, etc.; one serving vegetables; one cup milk; two teaspoons of jelly or other sweet; one serving of fruit or juice; one serving of sugar cookies or plain cake. Salt the food well and drink two cups of extra beverages.

 The following foods are also acceptable: cold cereal, pancakes, rice, noodles, pasta, fresh fruits and juices.
 Mr. Laywell also mentioned foods that should be avoided. Among them are green beans, lettuce, hot beverages, fluids containing caffeine, fried or spicy foods.

Your best bet are carbohydrates and limited protein and fats.
 Remember this is just the pre-event meal. All other times we should follow the four basic food groups.
 If you would like to read this article, I will be glad to share it with you. He explains the analytical reasoning behind each point discussed.
 Sincerely, Sandy Peters

Dear Fans:
 You cannot build school spirit by merely holding pep rallies, pointing signs, forming victory lines, and doing similar things. The best spirit is built by loyalty to one's team. Loyalty means supporting the team, win or lose. One must cheer loudly and in unison for the maximum effect. As the noise begins to build, spirit on the field or court builds.

Fans everywhere, nowadays, have a tendency to leave when it seems their team cannot win. This is the most disheartening thing that can happen. This is when the team needs fans the most. If fans desert the team players may develop the attitude of not caring, and if they do not care they surely will lose.

Fans, come to the game, cheer the team, and do not abandon the boys when they need you most. It is easy to cheer when your team is winning, but the team needs support when it is losing.

Confetti...

Getting back to the assassination, the civilized world is praying that responsible world leaders will react with calm and good will. If they will cooperate with Sadat's successor in carrying out his policies of a peaceful Middle East, the chances are that the masses will cooperate. Of course it is assumed that Egypt's leaders at the same time need to go all out in pursuit of Sadat's killers. Fortunately some of them were caught, and hopefully some of them can be influenced to tell what they know. We have a feeling that there will be fewer enemies around to prevent the restoration of a responsible government.

Meanwhile lots of us average people need to understand that it's time to participate in the global recovery job. We Americans can help by getting behind current moral, social and economic efforts to make this a better nation. We need to remember that this is God's world and we make a mess of it unless we do things His way. Besides, we need to realize that we have everything to win and nothing to lose by turning to prayer. It's not that we have to bank on miracles, but we can bet on Him using His own ways to do a lot of good.

Father's will. Through the new dispensation our relationship with the Father has been completed in Jesus Christ and we are no longer bound by the law. Just the same, the laws and rituals of the church are still here with us and they are used by the Spirit to show us our errors and free us. Paul illustrates this in Romans 7:6. "But now we are rid of the Law, freed by death from our imprisonment, free to serve in the new spiritual way and not the old way of a written law."

Those of us that limit God by laws and rituals are much like the Jews for they sin and fall short of the Glory of God. The Spirit said through Jeremiah "They broke that covenant of mine, so I had to show them who was master." But that same Spirit said, he would make us friends when he continued in Jer. 31:33, "Deep within them I will plant my Law, writing it on their hearts. Then I will be their God and they will be my people. There will be no further need for neighbor to try to teach neighbor, or brothers to say to brother, 'Learn to know Yahweh!' No, they will all know me, the least no less than the greatest - it is Yahweh who speaks - since I will forgive their iniquity and never call their sin to mind."

With all the past talk of Jesus as Master we can't lose touch of the dual principle of the gospel, which at first glance might seem contradictory. Nevertheless, we must consider not only what Jesus said about His place as Master but also as friend.
 In most of the mainline denominations you'll find both ends of the gamut represented in the congregations and parishes. One group has almost over emphasized the 'God on the mountain' if you will or the 'God of the burning bush'; a Lord so awesome in nature that he has almost become unapproachable, because of the laws and restrictions they have placed around Him.

On the other end of the gamut we see the group of believers that have an almost chummy type of relationship with the Lord and have lost sight of the Lord of awesomeness. This second relationship is referred to by Jesus, "I no longer call you servant because a servant does not know his master's business; I call you friends because I have made known to you everything I have learned from my Father." John 15:15.

In the old testament men and women chosen of God were called servants of God because they lived by the law. They did not know the

by Wilson S. Johnson

EQUAL ACCESS TO JUSTICE FOR SMALL BUSINESS

Ever since the 1960's, when the growth in the number of federal regulatory agencies began to mushroom, there have been suggestions that a fourth branch of government has emerged in the United States. The impact of the thousands of new regulations issued in the past ten years has had a particularly severe impact on small businesses.

Small business people do not have large staffs to assist with record keeping, nor do they have attorneys on the payroll to advise them of the implications of every new rule coming out of Washington. They do not subscribe to the Federal Register, the voluminous document where all new rules and proposed rules are published.

Furthermore, when small-business people are cited for violation of a government regulation, they frequently pay the fine because they cannot afford to fight the government in court. A small-businessman in New Jersey thought he was right and OSHA was wrong, and he did challenge the agency in court. He won the case, but it cost him more than $9,000 to do so. A small manufacturer in Wisconsin, also charged with safety violations, and also convinced that he was right and the inspectors were wrong, nevertheless opted for a reduction of the fines assessed against him, because he could not afford the cost of a prolonged legal battle.

But beginning October 1, small businesses will have a fighting chance in their disputes with government regulatory bodies. The Equal Access to Justice Act, passed by the 96th Congress last year, requires reimbursement of court costs and attorneys' fees for small-business owners who successfully defend themselves against the government in civil suits. The National Federation of Independent Business fought long and hard for such a law, because surveys by NFIB have shown that one in twenty-five small firms are fined each year. Needless to say, the government was not always correct in its findings in those cases, but more often than not, the small-business response to a citation is to pay the fine rather than challenge the agency bringing the charge - because the cost of the challenge is prohibitive.

The new law allows a corporation with less than $5 million net worth and individuals with net worth of less than $1 million to recover from the federal government the direct court costs (filing fees, expenses of witnesses, reports or studies necessary to the case) as well as "reasonable attorneys' fees."

Most small-business people will never need to invoke the provisions of the Equal Access to Justice Act, but for those who believe that they have been wrongly cited for violating a government regulation, the law puts them on a somewhat more even footing with their adversary. Moreover, the law serves notice to all government regulators that their performance will be monitored and their fairness tested. And those whose budgets reflect excessive payments of court costs will be identified as having regularly overstepped their authority.

Wilson S. Johnson is president of the National Federation of Independent Business, representing more than half a million small-business men and women.

Congressman Charles W. Stenholm

Congressional Comment

WASHINGTON, D.C. —
 With primary attention directed toward the economic recovery program, which will be continuing, other major issues to be addressed by Congress this year have been overlooked to some degree.

I have discussed the Omnibus Farm Bill, due to be considered by the full House either this week or next, at considerable length, but I would like to touch on some other important issues that Congress will be tackling sometime this fall or the beginning of 1982.

IMMIGRATION — Some heated battles are expected during hearings on the White House's comprehensive immigration and refugee policy during hearings expected in Congress in late September.

Most controversial provisions deal with granting amnesty to illegal aliens already in the country, as well as plans to set up an experimental "guest worker" program; create penalties for employers who knowingly hire illegal aliens; and enforce existing statutes more strictly.
 Because Texas shares such a large border with Mexico, these proposals will be of special interest to the state and its economy, especially those aimed at stemming the flow of nearly 500,000 undocumented aliens per year into the country.

CLEAR AIR ACT — The Act comes up for renewal September 30, but could be extended in its present form until an agreement on proposed changes can be reached. The White House is seeking to ease the standards, especially those controlling emissions from cars and coal-fired plants.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE —
 Both the House and Senate are considering legislation aimed at reducing crime and improving the criminal justice system. The House will consider a bill that would reauthorize federal funds for state and local law enforcement agencies to use in their fight against crime. We expect this bill to come to the House floor by the end of September.

The Administration also has been considering strengthening existing legislation, but has yet to bring any specific plans to Congress.

AWACS SALE —
 A negative vote by either the House or the Senate could block proposed sale of five Airborne Warning and Control Systems (AWACS) surveillance planes to Saudi Arabia. The President feels the sale could help slow Soviet inroads into the Middle East, while some members feel the sale, part of an $8.5 billion package, could endanger Israel's national security.

MX MISSILE — Indications point to the White House proposing a scaled-down version of the MX missile, placing about 100 missiles in about 1,000 underground shelters in two counties in Nevada. There had been some discussion of considering portions of West Texas and New Mexico for the sites, but plans for that secondary site have evidently been dropped.

Those are some of the highlights of major legislation that is "waiting in the wings" for action by the House this session, but primary focus of action on the Hill continues to be the economy and related problems.

CAPITOL UPDATE

John Tower
 U.S. SENATOR for TEXAS
 142 RUSSELL OFFICE BUILDING
 WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510

When a person decides to make a career of the armed services he is relinquishing many of the benefits of civilian life. He loses much of his freedom of choice as to where he will work, what hours he will work and what job he will do. He even puts his life at risk. With all this, should we also ask him to work for less money than he can make in the civilian sector?

Almost any skilled, experienced member of the armed services could earn more outside the military. For instance, a civilian air traffic controller earns an average of $33,000 a year. His military counterpart earns an average of $15,000. A tank mechanic who earns that or less can get a job starting at $20,000 as a diesel mechanic.

Moreover, there is little pay incentive for skilled and experienced personnel to advance. A brand-new recruit in the armed services today earns $501 a month base pay. The E-5 with eight years of valuable experience only earns $829 in base pay.

Clearly, we must do something. Our biggest manpower problem in the services is retention of these vital, experienced middle and senior enlisted people. The Navy alone is short 22,000 petty officers. Many of our front-line combat units are not optimally ready for operations because of extremely serious personnel deficiencies.

The question is which approach is most effective and cost-efficient. The House has passed a military pay bill giving a 14.3 percent across-the-board increase to all levels.

The Senate bill, on the other hand, "targets" the money to those pay grades in which the pay inequities are largest and the retention problem most severe.

With the Senate approach, a starting recruit would receive a 7 percent increase to $536 a month base pay. Incidentally, this same recruit will realize an additional 18 percent increase by being promoted from E-1 to E-3, the normal progression during the first year. He will not realize this percentage increase from promotion at any other time during his career.

The E-5 with eight years experience, however, would receive a 19 percent pay increase, to bring his base pay to $987.

Similar targeting in officer grades would help in the retention of middle-level officers, who help provide the "middle management" to the armed services.

The Senate bill actually would cost $173 million less than the House version. A conference committee is trying to work out a compromise between the two versions of the bill.

Concentrating our resources on the areas in which the biggest problems exist simply is good management. We cannot afford not to take decisive action to begin to make military work comparable in pay -- if not in inconvenience -- to civilian work. But we have limited resources, and must direct them in a way which will do the most good.

Studies show starting pay is not a major factor to the young man or woman deciding whether to join a service. Educational and training opportunities, as well as a desire to serve, weigh heavily on the initial decision. But a person with a family to support and career opportunities elsewhere has to consider salary when deciding whether to make the service a career.

Our men and women in the armed services are skilled and dedicated. Let's help them make serving their country a satisfying career.

Auxiliary plans annual bake sale

The VFW Auxiliary bake sale to benefit its Cancer Aid and Research project will be held at Fischer's and Hofbauer's on Friday, October 16, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The benefit is an established project each year when all auxiliaries contribute to the National Office for two special funds, 1. cancer grants to help stricken members and 2. cancer research centers to find a cause and cure for the dreaded disease.

Each auxiliary member is asked to bring baked items wrapped and named, with a suggested price attached. Cash donations are requested from members unable to bake. All members will be contacted by phone.

Auxiliary members wish to remind the public that better selections are available during the early hours of the sale. The VFW Auxiliary asks that everyone "Help Us Help Others Fight Cancer."

Included among the major award winners at the 4-H Achievement Banquet were John Sandmann of Lindsay 4-H Club who received the Farm Bureau Leadership Award, Sherri Jo Brown of Era 4-H Club at center, who received the "I Dare You" Award and Frankie Enderby of Gainesville 4-H Club, winner of the Farm Bureau Leadership Award. ## Muenster and Era may be playing for North zone title

The North Zone title of District 8-A may be on the line Friday night when the two Hornet teams, Era and Muenster, clash in their district opener.

According to the record so far, each team has good reason to respect the other. They have lost to Lindsay and defeated S&S by comparable scores, and they have had close games with Valley View, Muenster as a winner and Era as a loser. Standings are Muenster 4-1 and Era 3-2.

Other factors seem to lean in favor of Era, which happens to be the pre-season choice to repeat as zone champion. Muenster, on the other hand, rates about fourth or fifth in the zone.

Facts that impress Coach Peters are that Era has good size and quickness and exceptionally good quarterback and end. In experience they are about equal with nine seniors on each side.

At the same time Peters has lots of confidence in his boys. He was especially impressed last week by the super effort of his seniors to make up for the absence of David Flusche and Vance Wells, who were out with injuries. Early this week both are doubtful as starters.

The inspired play was most apparent in the line where Muenster boys got the jump consistently on the husky Rams. MHS dominated offensively and defensively in that respect, however so did Era a week earlier. All signs point to a good show for the fans.

A reminder to the fans. Effective this week, kickoff time for Hornet games is 7:30 p.m.

Buzzings from MHS Spirit Moms

The Hornet Spirit Moms are planning a car caravan to Friday night's football game at Era.

They invite all Hornet fans to meet on Main Street in front of Hamric's at 6:30 p.m. The Spirit Moms will distribute red and white antenna streamers for the cars. They will then travel in a group to Era where they will announce their arrival by sounding the car horns.

Refreshment Moms this week are Mary Evelyn Hermes and Betty Rose Walter-scheid. Spirit Mom for this week is Jane Monday. Her assistants are Meredith McDaniel, Stacey Walter-scheid, Faye Hamric and Michelle Monday.

The good word for this week -

We're hammered down We're victory bound Keep on truckin', Hornets!

Two ring nuptial unites Sharon Voth and George Luke

Mr. and Mrs. George Bernard Luke are at home in Midland where the groom is an electrical engineer employed by Sun Oil Company. They were married Saturday, October 3 in St. Peter's Church of Lindsay with Father Eugene Luke of Subiaco officiating for the Nuptial Mass and Father Cleus Post also attending in the sanctuary.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Voth of Gainesville and Mr. and Mrs. Anthony F. Luke of Muenster. The bride is the former Sharon Rose Voth, a graduate of Lindsay High School and a senior at North Texas State University where she was an accounting major. The groom is a graduate of Sacred Heart High School and the University of Texas at Austin with a degree in Electrical Engineering.

The bride was presented at the altar by her father. She was wearing a formal wedding gown of white silk organza and Alencon lace, designed with a high lace collar above a sheer yoke that was edged in a petal pattern of lace to form the deep sweetheart neckline. Matching lace covered the bodice, dropping to the basque waistline and extending over the shoulders to form part of the sleeves. Sheer full long bishop sleeves were gathered to slim lace cuffs. The full skirt was banded at the hem with matching lace and edged with a ruffle of crystal pleating that swept upward in the back. The border of lace and crystal pleating completely encircled the hemline and cascaded into the cathedral length train.

Her bridal jewelry was a diamond and ruby pendant on a gold chain, a gift from the groom.

Her waltz length bridal veil of illusion was attached to a Juliet lace cap. All lace on the wedding gown and veil was re-embroidered with seed pearls and sequins. The bridal bouquet was an all-white cascade of roses and Stephanotis with pearl accents. Entwined among the flowers were a gold cross and chain formerly belonging to the bride's late paternal great-grandmother Mrs. Tony Trubench, Sr. and now borrowed from her grandmother Mrs. Henry Voth, Sr. Also entwined was a rosary made by Sister Amora Felderhoff, a gift from the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Hubert Felderhoff.

Attendants

The bride's sisters, Doris Voth and Mary Ann Fridell were maid of honor and matron of honor, respectively. Bridesmaids were Terri Luke, groom's sister-in-law, Mary Luke, groom's sister and Judy Scott, a friend. They were identically gowned in burgundy organza over burgundy polyester. The skirts were hooped with two ruffles at the hem, one of which was gathered up at the side. They carried bouquets of burgundy and rose colored gladioli, roses and gypsophila.

The best man was Tim Sicking of Gainesville, groom's friend and former classmate. Groomsmen were Melvin Luke and Frank Luke, groom's brothers and Peter McGee and David Callen, friends. Ushers were L.W. Voth and Glenn Voth, bride's brothers and Paul Becker, bride's cousin. Jacob Luke, groom's nephew, was ring bearer.

Wedding music was presented by cousins of the bride. Mrs. Patsy Henry of Gainesville was organist and guitarist and played traditional wedding marches. Beverly Trubench of Muenster was flutist, presenting "Annie's Song." Mrs. Sharon Denny Root of Baton Rouge, Louisiana sang "Edelweiss" and the "Ave Maria."

Offertory gifts were carried to the altar by parents of the couple.

Church decorations included arrangements of white gladioli and mums on the center altar, an arrangement of burgundy and rose carnations on the Blessed Virgin's altar and a myriad of lighted votive candles in the sanctuary. The communion rail was decorated with English ivy and votive lights.

Reception

Parents of the couple hosted a reception in the Knights of Columbus Hall in Gainesville for 400 guests, following the church service.

Brenda Becker and Susan Fetsch presided at the guest book. Reception assistants were Robin Larkin, Mary Beth Crouch, Pat Brandesky and Barbara Buchanan, classmates of the bride. Rohmers catered dinner and "Leather and Steel" played for dancing.

The bride's table held the wedding cake, groom's cake, and bride-and-groom-dolls. The two tiered wedding cake surrounded by four heart shaped cakes were made by the bride's mother, and cut by her aunt Mrs. Mickey Spaeth. The groom's cake made by the bride, shaped in the letters UT, was cut by Carolyn Luke. The dolls were made by Mary Luke.

Guest tables, covered in white, held burgundy bands, rose candles and burgundy and rose colored satin rice roses. A wall decoration behind the bride's table displayed three wicker mats with wedding bells and flowers in the bride's chosen colors. Guests attended from Oklahoma City, Okla. Baton Rouge, La. Lewisville, Dallas, San Antonio and Round Rock, and Cooke County.

The rehearsal dinner on Friday evening was given by the groom's parents in their home. Mass on Sunday morning in their home at 10 a.m. was celebrated by Father Eugene, and attended by relatives. Brunch followed.

On August 23 a miscellaneous shower in Gainesville was hosted by Mary Ann Fridell, Doris Voth, Terri Luke, Mary Luke and Sheryl Hasset; and on September 25 a surprise shower was hosted by friends of the bride in Denton.

Christian Broadcasting Network marks twentieth anniversary

At 3 p.m. on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 1, 1961, the first feeble signals began transmitting from a shabby, one-kilowatt UHF television station on the banks of Scotts Creek in Portsmouth, Va. The weak, black-and-white image barely reached the city limits. Few people watched. Total broadcast time: 2½ hours.

The Christian Broadcasting Network was on the air. Barely. And, at that, two hours later than the air time announced by the new operation's president, Pat Robertson. That CBN was broadcasting at all was considered a miracle.

Today, 20 years later, the same man, Dr. M.G. (Pat) Robertson, heads an international broadcast operation, one of the most sophisticated and efficient in the world, and CBN television signals are bounced off satellites to an audience of millions, 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

On Thursday, Oct. 1, NRB Executive Director Dr. Ben Armstrong presented Pat Robertson a special award from the National Religious Broadcasters in recognition of two decades of outstanding service. The presentation took place on "The 700 Club" TV show, aired live at 10 a.m. (Eastern) in many cities.

CBN-associated enterprises today include a graduate-level university; four owned-and-operated UHF television stations, in Atlanta, Boston, Dallas, and Portsmouth/Norfolk, Va.; an FM radio station in Norfolk, the nucleus of a National satellite radio network just being launched; and one of the nation's largest cable TV programming distributors, the CBN Satellite Network, which provides 24-hour variety entertainment to 2,670 cable systems with 13.5 million subscriber households.

In addition, millions more watch CBN programming—such as "The 700 Club," a magazine-style weekday show; "Another Life," CBN's new continuing drama; "USam," CBN's latest offering and the nation's newest morning show—through syndication of the shows to broadcast TV stations nationwide. For example, "The 700 Club," CBN's best-known product, is syndicated to 150 broadcast stations in addition to being shown on the four O-and-O stations and CBN Satellite Network.

These shows are part of CBN's emerging new concept of wholesome, family programming which includes news updates; "This Week on Wall Street" financial analysis; "American Trail" reports on Americana, and others in addition to several religious programs. The network, according to Robertson, is in the midst this anniversary year of offering an alternative to the diet of sex, violence and profanity offered by the three major broadcast networks.

Even the broadcast facilities have changed drastically. From the little station in Portsmouth, CBN's new $22 million headquarters and production complex in Virginia Beach are state-of-the-art facilities.

The staff is equally impressive. Efreim Zimbalist Jr., famous Hollywood actor, will be host on a special 13-part documentary series, "X-Posé," dealing with pornography. Noel Paul Stookey, of Peter, Paul and Mary fame, is taping a children's show, as is David Freyss, former producer of "Sesame Street." Gilbert Moses, a director of "Roots," also is on board. Terry Meeuwsen, a former Miss America, co-hosts the early morning show. And the list goes on.

Today, the ministry side of CBN includes crisis counseling centers in some 80 cities staffed by 10,000 volunteers; "Operation Blessing," a nationwide program that matches good and services for those in need; and an international radio and television evangelistic outreach that includes Japan, China, India, the Philippines, Australia, and much of Latin America.

The expression "pulling the wool over his eyes" goes back, it is said, to the days when gentlemen wore powdered wigs. If you pulled a man's wig (wool) over his eyes, he would be unable to see what was going on.

Newly married couple plans move to Wyoming

Cathy Flusche marries Daniel Kent

Cathy Jane Flusche became the bride of Daniel Blake Kent of Wichita Falls in a Nuptial Mass with double ring ceremony on Saturday, October 3 at 5 p.m. Father Stephen Eckart officiated in Sacred Heart Church.

The bride is the daughter of Don Flusche of Muenster and Mrs. Dorma Garner of Gainesville. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kent of Wichita Falls.

Presented at the altar by her father, the bride was wearing a formal white wedding gown of organza and Venice lace. The fitted, slightly raised bodice featured a Queen Ann neckline trimmed in lace appliques and pearls. Long sheer bishop sleeves were appliqued with lace and were cuffed at the wrists. The full skirt was also appliqued with lace and a lace hem around the skirt swept into the chapel length train. Her triple tiered fingertip length veil of bridal illusion drifted from a lace Juliet cap.

She carried a bouquet of white roses and white forget-me-nots in which was entwined a blue rosary, graduation gift from her grandmother, Mrs. J.P. Flusche.

Attendants

The bride was attended by a friend, Barbara Potter of Wichita Falls as maid of honor and a cousin Missy Flusche of Muenster and other friends Toni Graham of Garland and Janel Lutkenhaus of Muenster as bridesmaids. They were identically gowned in royal blue full length dresses designed with spaghetti straps, fitted bodice, with white lace shrug overlay and full skirts. Each wore a decorative comb in her hair, with blue forget-me-nots, and each carried a nosegay of white carnations, blue forget-me-nots and babies breath.

Jami Flusche bride's cousin was flower girl, wearing a royal blue dress with white lace pinafore, and carrying a white basket of similar flowers, also wearing blue flowers in her hair.

The ring bearer was Travis Trachta of Muenster, cousin of the bride. Bruce Wallen, a friend of the groom of Evanston, Wyoming was the best man. Chris Neeb of Wichita Falls, Dwight Campbell of Park City, Utah and Mike Brantley of Wichita Falls, all friends of the groom were groomsmen.

Mark Mathis of Dallas, groom's cousin, Quint Stires and Gary Tahmahkera both of Wichita Falls and Jack Flusche of Muenster uncle of the bride, were ushers.

Altar boys and Mass servers were Steve and Dickie Trubebach, friends of the bride and Neil and Shawn Flusche cousins. Four cousins of the bride were Offertory ushers, including Kenny Hermes, Bobbie Hermes, Stephen Hermes and David Martin. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Clement, uncle and aunt of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Allan Ballard, brother-in-law and sister of the groom presented the Offertory gifts at the altar.

Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Ruth Felderhoff, organist, and vocalists Joel Mathis, groom's cousin and Scott Martin, a friend. Some of the vocal selections were "Beginning Today", "Rainbow Song" and "Wedding Prayer."

Reception

Following the church service, the bride's father Don Flusche hosted a reception, buffet dinner, and dance in the Sacred Heart Community Center. Carmen Flusche, the bride's sister and Terrye Flusche, a cousin secured guest signatures in the bride's book. Reception assistants were the bride's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Bobbie Hermes of Muenster and Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Hermes of Lindsay.

The three tiered all white angel food wedding cake was decorated with touches of royal blue flowers. It was served by Kathy Neeb of Wichita Falls, Kim Felderhoff and Karen Walterscheid, both of Muenster and all friends of the bride.

The bride's table and guest tables held white cloths and royal blue napkins. English ivy and sprays of blue and white forget-me-nots were entwined among votive candles.

The Hayfever Band of Dallas played for dancing.

The rehearsal dinner, hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kent, parents of the groom, was held at The Dutchman Restaurant in Lindsay.

The bride is a graduate of Muenster Public High School and attended Cooke County College and Midwestern State University. She was employed as the Aquatic Director of the YWCA in Wichita Falls. The groom is a graduate of S.H. Rider High School in Wichita Falls, Midwestern State University and North Texas State University. He is an oilfield technician.

After a brief wedding trip the couple plans to reside in Wyoming.

Former area resident writes from valley

Mrs. Helen Schmitt, who is 86 years old and a former resident of Alice, Texas has now moved to San Diego, Texas. She is a long, long time subscriber to The Muenster Enterprise. A note from her daughter, Mrs. Frances Schmitt Luna told that Mrs. Schmitt is a niece of 110 year old Mrs. Elizabeth Neu of St. Richard's Villa, and treasures news of her and other relatives here.

Mrs. Schmitt is the former Helen Neu, daughter of the late William and Josephine Neu, pioneers of the Lindsay area. Mrs. Luna said that she was raised in the Hays Community and attended Hays School and has lots of good memories of that area.

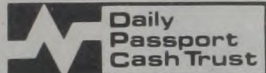

The first mailboxes were erected in Paris in 1653. However, messengers, fearful for their livelihood, put mice in the boxes to destroy the mail; thus, no further attempt to install mail boxes was made in Paris until 1758.

Make Halloween Fun Marshmallow Creations

Everyone thinks of Halloween as a magical time. Ghosts and goblins rule the neighborhood; mysteriously costumed figures go from house to house, and empty shopping bags become full of assorted goodies to take home and gloat over. It's time once again for that yearly ritual—but many parents are finding that an at-home Halloween get-together, planned around kids' favorite treats, is just as much fun as the traditional trick or treating. The secret is to provide lots of entertainment with games, a "scariest costume" contest, and some creative party project ideas that are great to eat after they're finished.

Assemble a group of princesses, pirates and assorted monsters on Halloween eve; turn the lights down low, and set out the ingredients for some "make your own" treats. Children of any age love to make things, particularly if both the fixings and the final creations are good to eat. Just a few delicious ingredients from the supermarket—Kraft miniature marshmallows, marshmallow creme, and decorative candies—are the basis of a host of fun cupcake creations.

Each child can make an individual Goblin Cupcake Witch, Indian or Ghost with just a few easy ingredients. The Kraft Kitchens have created some exciting Halloween treats that are surprisingly simple to make. Start with large home-baked or store-bought cupcakes; turn them upside down, and frost all over with Angel Mallow Frosting, which an adult can make ahead of time. Then, take a package of Kraft miniature marshmallows, and place them in even rows all over the frosted cupcakes. Distinctive facial features and decorations are added with candy corn, gumdrops, chocolate shot and other candies.

Serve the Halloween party treats with kid-pleasing beverages—apple juice, cider, or hot chocolate with miniature marshmallows. Then watch them have as much fun eating as creating!

CUPCAKE GOBLINS

- 12 cupcakes
- Angel Mallow Frosting
- Kraft miniature marshmallows
- Colored sugar
- Candy corn

To create goblins, invert and frost cupcakes. Cover with marshmallows. For eyes, cut marshmallow in half horizontally, dip cut side in colored sugar. Use candy corn for nose.

12 goblins

Variations:

Wicked Witch: Create face features with decorative candies and miniature marshmallows. Create hat from colored paper; decorate with miniature marshmallow halves.

Injun Man: Create face features with decorative candies. For feathers, arrange gumdrops and miniature marshmallows on toothpicks; insert in cupcake.

ANGEL MALLOW FROSTING

- 1/4 cup sugar
- 1 egg white
- 1 tablespoon water
- 1 cup (one-half 7-oz. jar) Kraft marshmallow creme
- 1/2 teaspoon vanilla

Combine sugar, egg white and water in double boiler; beat with electric or rotary beater over boiling water until soft peaks form. Add marshmallow creme; beat to stiff peaks. Remove from heat; beat in vanilla. Tint frosting with food coloring, if desired.

Michael Abney Celebrates 9th

Michael Don Abney was 9 years old on September 24 and was honored with three observances.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Abney and his sister Candice entertained with a birthday party at Muenster Park on Saturday afternoon September 19 when a birthday cake, decorated like a football field, was served with ice cream and cold drinks. Attending were Mrs. Waylon Poole and Scott, Heather, Chris Tate, Jason Walterscheid, David Rohmer, Rodney Knabe, Joe Weinzapfel, Mike Bierschek, James Hennigan, Joe Paul Walterscheid and Jerry Brawner.

The evening before, on Friday, Sept. 18 Michael began the birthday celebration with a slumber party at his home after the football game, when his guests were David Rohmer, Jason Walterscheid and Chris Tate. Saturday morning the boys spent at "Hoedown."

His grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Denver Abney of Lexington, Okla. came for a surprise visit on his birthday Thursday, bringing with them a cousin, Nancy Abney of Wayne, Okla. The same day Michael's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pittman of Lexington phoned with birthday greetings.

A subscription to the Muenster Enterprise is an ideal, last minute gift for relatives, friends, neighbors and former residents. Each week it will be a reminder of your thoughtfulness. The Enterprise will send a suitable card with your greeting.

PHOTOS FROM THE PAST

Do you remember the Forestburg Old Timer who looked like Walter Brennan, shown in last week's picture? That was Charlie Grant, the great-grandfather of Perryman Denham. He died more than 50 years ago and was a Forestburger since Indian days. Well-liked and respected by local people, he earned their ultimate respect when they called him "Uncle Charlie."

PHOTOS FROM THE PAST

Three young men, former Muenster residents, show the latest styles of a long ago time. Old timers will recognize them. Can you see family resemblances? This picture was loaned to us by Mrs. Clem Reiter.

TAX FREE... Interest on 1 Year Savings Certificates

The ALL SAVERS CERTIFICATE has been approved by Congress as part of President Reagan's Economic Recovery Program. Under this program, banks may issue one year certificates with the first $1,000 ($2,000 for couples filing jointly) of interest earned being TAX- EXEMPT.

UPDATE: It is permissible to convert your 6 month Money Market Certificates to the new ALL SAVERS CERTIFICATES without penalty or loss of interest. To determine if this conversion is advisable, contact one of our friendly officers.

For example, a married couple filing jointly with a net taxable income of $20,000 would realize a return equivalent to 16.19% if the interest was taxable...If their income was $50,000, that equivalent would be 24.28%. (Based on ALL SAVERS CERTIFICATES earning 12.14%).

Muenster State Bank

759-2257 Member FDIC

"Our interest is in our community."

The tax exemption plus 3 month's interest is forfeited if the certificate is cashed before 1 year. $500 minimum required. This offer is subject to Federal regulations.

SCHOOL NEWS

Sacred Heart School newsletter

by Stephen Beyer, principal

Good News

Recently, Dr. James Coleman produced the results of his lengthy study on Public and Private schools in America. Below are some of his conclusions.

1. Overall, the evidence shows that discipline in the Catholic and other private schools is both stronger and fairer than in the public schools, with discipline in the Catholic schools being strongest and that in the other private schools most fair.
2. On other measures of student behavior as well, students in the Catholic and other private schools show far fewer "problems" - as reported either by students themselves or the principals - than do those in the public schools. Catholic school students do about half again as much homework as do public school students.
3. The answer is that in the areas in which both sophomores and seniors were tested (in reading, vocabulary, and mathematics), students in Catholic schools and students in other private schools scored about two grade-levels higher than did students in the public sector.
4. Further, even when the backgrounds of students are statistically controlled, much of these differences remains - differences in homework, in student attendance and in-school behavior, and differences in the disciplinary climate perceived by students. These differences can reasonably be attributed to differences in school policy rather than student background.

Tuition Tax Credits

Here is some information concerning Senate Bill 550 (U.S. Senate) from the National Catholic Education Association:

Mr. William P. Gallagher, executive committee member of the National Forum of Catholic Parent Organizations (a Commission of NCEA) and the executive director for the New York State Federation of Catholic School Parents, presented testimony on S. 550 before the Subcommittee on Taxation and Dept. Management of the Senate Committee on Finance. Mr. Gallagher introduced and developed five arguments in favor of S. 550: 1. Philosophical argument. Parents are the primary educators of their children and, as such, have the right and obligation to choose educational programs for their children. Government's role is not to mandate what should be taught, but rather to allow the parents a share of their own tax dollars to be used for their own educational choice.

2. Historical argument. A brief history of nonpublic education in the United States seems to indicate that (a) religiously-affiliated schools came first in America and were publicly funded, (b) bigotry has often reared its ugly head against Catholic school parents in America, and (c) this injustice to Catholic school parents should be remedied through the passage of S. 550.

3. Constitutional argument. Since no one is sure of this issue, and since reputable lawyers argue on both sides of this question, why not judge S. 550 on its merits as good public policy and allow the Supreme Court an opportunity to rule on its constitutionality?

4. Public education impact argument. The experience in other nations where parents are helped by the government to choose nonpublic schools has not led to a weakening of public education in those countries.

5. Cost argument. Evidence was presented to show that relatively speaking, S. 550 would not be too costly. In fact, a slight shift of population from public to nonpublic schools would pay for the cost in savings in state and local taxes.

Mr. Gallagher concluded that on the basis of public policy, justice and cost, Congress and the President cannot afford not to enact S. 550 into law.

Tyler Football Game Bus

On October 30th, the Sacred Heart Tigers will play Tyler Gorman in Tyler. Mrs. Lucille Hesse has arranged to have a bus available for all interested parties. The bus will leave Sacred Heart at 3:00 p.m. and will cost $10.00 per person. Anyone interested, please call Mrs. Hesse at 2538.

First Confession & First Communion

Monday night, September 28th, our second graders celebrated the sacrament of reconciliation for the first time. Sr. Cecilia Marie prepared the children for this very important occasion in their lives. The following students received the sacrament. Bernice Bartel, Vickie Bayer, August Felderhoff, Jami Flusche, Mark Flusche, Jason Frost, Scot Hennigan, Shirley Henscheid, Dana Hess, Gary Hess, Gregory Hess, Bethany Hoedebeck, Darren Klement, Kristen Klement, Helmuth Koelzer, Cheramie Moster, Stevan Nasche, Cindy Schilling, Lisa Schilling, Misty Vogel, Jennifer Walter, Chris Hess, Melanie Wilde, Scott Wilde.

On Monday, October 5th, we will begin the catechesis for first communion with a parent's seminar. The seminar will begin at 7:00 p.m. in the Community Center Meeting Room. All second grade parents should attend.

Fire Prevention Week

Fire Prevention Week is October 4-10. In observance of the week, Muenster Volunteer Fire Department is sponsoring a Fire Prevention Poster Contest for grades K through 6.

Films will be shown to stress the importance of fire prevention. These films will be shown Monday, October 5th.

Posters will be picked up Thursday evening October 8th and returned as soon as possible. Prizes in the poster contest will be as follows: 1st place - $5.00; 2nd place - $3.00; and 3rd place - $2.00.

WANTED: Classroom Coordinators, Roommothers, Roomcouples

Please consider the addition of Classroom Coordinators (room-mothers) for each grade K-12. At least one parent couple from each grade could be responsible for maintaining teacher-parent contacts when a teacher needs assistance finding drivers, sponsors, helpers, etc. Class Coordinators could report at the Home & School meetings, could take turns attending Board meetings, and could help organize when volunteers are needed. Open communication is needed between grade school and high school, between parents, and between parents, teachers and Board members. Classroom Coordinators could be the framework providing involvement, enthusiasm and ideas. Please contact the school office or your child's teacher if you are interested in helping.

Calendar of Events

- Oct. 5 - Yearbook signing party 1:30-3:00 in school gym 7:00-9:00 p.m. First Communion Parent's seminar
- Oct. 6 - The seniors will be taking the Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery (ASVAB). The results of this test will give our students guidance in their choice of careers.
- Oct. 9 - Senior Day - no uniforms required for seniors. Seniors should be appropriately dressed.
- Oct. 12 - Student Holiday. Teacher in-service day.
- Oct. 27 - The juniors will be taking the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test (PSAT). This test helps to give our students information about themselves. It also helps them to qualify for the National Merit Scholarships.
- Oct. 31 - The Diocesan School Board meets in Muenster.

From the Principal

One of a principal's major roles is that of observer. S/he should constantly observe people and things to determine the "temperature" of the school. I have been observing our teachers (in their classrooms and out of their classrooms) and our students (in and out of class and at school functions). I can confidently assure you that in my professional judgement, our school is "running" well. I believe the recall of one incident will confirm this judgement. Last Sept. 11th, our football team and drill team visited F.W. Trinity Valley. During the half-time festivities our drill team was treated to some very rude behavior. Our drill team was hurt by this unfortunate behavior. The next week, at Valley View, our drill team performed very well. After their performance, they marched off the field and stood at attention while the opposing drill team performed. Our drill team truly expressed the principles of Christian behavior that our school tries to teach. We should be proud of our drill team, our football team, our teachers and our students. They are truly "something special!"

ACT Testing

Juniors and seniors who are thinking of going on to school after graduation will want to take note of a recent announcement by Mr. Beyer, Principal about the national test date schedule for the ACT Assessment Program.

Mr. Beyer reported that students who want to take the test portion of the ACT Assessment on the first 1981-82 national test date, October 17, must have their registration materials completed and mailed before the September 18 deadline. The full 1981-82 schedule of test dates and deadlines is as follows:

Test date
October 17, 1981
December 12, 1981
February 20, 1982
April 3, 1982
June 12, 1982

Registration Deadline
September 18, 1981
November 13, 1981
January 22, 1982
March 5, 1982
May 14, 1982

Hospital Notes

Dismissals this past week at the Muenster Memorial Hospital were as follows:

- Tuesday, Sept. 29 - Johnnie Moulder, Saint Jo.
- Wednesday, Sept. 30 - Weldon Sicking, Muenster; Lisa Amorosa, Gainesville; Kenneth Guest, Stephenville; Frances Clevenger, Nocona.
- Thursday, Oct. 1 - Jeanie Hess, Marie Kappas, Muenster; Carol Brossart, Forestburg; Tressie Hale, Saint Jo; Patrick Murphree, Decatur; Virginia Grimes, Gainesville.
- Friday, Oct. 2 - Wm. DeBorde, Muenster; A.V. Freeman, Forestburg; Shirley Keck, Nocona; Edalene Smith, Lake Kiowa; James Erwin, Saint Jo; Marshall Hopkins, Saint Jo.
- Saturday, Oct. 3 - Marie Mosman, Pam Kuhn, Muenster.
- Sunday, Oct. 4 - Kerry Tuggle, Venita Thomas, Muenster; Joseph Muller, Valley View; Joe Knabe, Muenster (Exp.).
- Monday, Oct. 5 - Johnny Fisher, Muenster.

The basic student fee for using the ACT Assessment is $8.50. (In order to comply with legislation, some test dates and student fees are different in the state of New York). Students can obtain ACT Assessment registration packets, as well as other college and career planning materials, from the counseling office.

At area test centers on national test dates it will take students about three hours to complete the four exams (English, math, social studies, and natural sciences) that make up the ACT Assessment's test section. The program's other section is a two-part questionnaire, which is completed at home by students as part of the registration process. In order that students may be familiar with the character and format of test items and responses, a copy of a full-length test booklet is available in the school office. Students who wish copies of additional tests may obtain them upon request from ACT at cost.

Information reports resulting from the tests and the questionnaire are sent to the students and their high school counselors, as well as to those colleges and other institutions specifically designated by the students. In it, it is recommended that students use the ACT Assessment during their junior year or early in the senior year so that resulting information will be available in time to be of maximum assistance to students and their counselors in education and career planning. Sacred Heart students who are uncertain if they need to use the ACT Assessment, or are concerned about location of the nearest test center, are urged to contact Mr. Beyer.

Recommended or required for use by applicants at nearly 2,700 colleges, other postsecondary educational schools, and scholarship programs, the ACT Assessment is used each year by nearly one million students.

The ACT Assessment Program is one of several educational services provided by the American College Testing Program (ACT) with national headquarters in Iowa City, Iowa.

Grade 5 presents CCD Mass liturgy

The CCD Liturgy on Wednesday, September 30 in Sacred Heart Church, was prepared and presented by Sister Monica Swirczynski OSB and the 5th grade class that she teaches.

Tara Walterscheid gave the First Reading, followed by the Response by Kim Hess, and the Petitions and Prayers of the Faithful by Cheryl Bayer, Deanna Bierschen, Staci Sicking, Denise Bayer and Eric Dankesreiter.

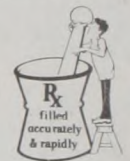

Offertory gifts were presented at the altar by Keith Vogel, Jeff Walterscheid, and Shane Wimmer.

Mass servers were Joe Pagel, Michael Pagel and Michael Bierschen, and fifth graders Weldon Hermes and Keith Klement. Father Stephen Eckart was the Celebrant.

Butterfly Bluebirds reorganize

Second grade Butterfly Bluebirds have reorganized. Their members are Amy Dankesreiter, Dyan Fisher, Jami Flusche, Kelli Ford, Tanya Knabe, Cheramie Moster, Misty Vogel, Jennifer Walter, and Melanie Wilde. Peggy Walter is the leader and Lou Moster is assistant leader. Urban Enders is group sponsor.

The girls attended the Fall Fling in Gainesville on September 29, accompanied by Mmes. Moster, Walter and Judy Flusche. All group levels attended the event held at the VFW on the outdoors area. Mrs. Anne Heffron, Cooke County Camp Fire Director led a songfest. And there were games, a wiener roast with chips, cookies and cold drinks.

Butterfly Bluebirds will meet on the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month. Jennifer Walter will bring refreshments to the Oct. 14 meeting, 3:30 to 4:30 in the SHH Home-making room.

Service held for Joe Knabe, 78

Funeral service for Joe Knabe, 78, a lifelong resident of the community, was held Tuesday, Oct. 6, at 10 a.m. in Sacred Heart Church with Father Stephen Eckart officiating at the Mass of Christian Burial and Father Harry Fisher concelebrating. Also participating were the Sacred Heart Choral Group, a grandson, Terry Knabe, in scriptural readings, and a granddaughter, Janell Knabe, in a poem, "Yesterday's Cross" and John Nasche and Randy Fleitman as mass servers.

Burial was in Sacred Heart Cemetery with Father Fisher conducting the graveside rites and Nick Miller Funeral Home directing. Pallbearers were grandsons: Greg Knabe, Duane Knabe, Jackie Knabe, Terry Knabe, Ronnie Reynolds and Frankie Ramsey. Monday evening services were a rosary at 4 p.m. and a wake service at 8 p.m. in the chapel of Miller Funeral Home.

Joe Knabe died at Muenster Memorial Hospital Sunday ending a long illness. He had been in failing health for several years and his condition deteriorated more rapidly during the past year, requiring five admissions to the hospital.

He was born in Muenster on March 18, 1903, a son of Mr. and Mrs. August Knabe, early residents of the community. He was married on May 28, 1928, to Mary Katherine Klimpt, who died on November 30, 1960. He was a carpenter, retired about 12 years ago, also a member of St. Joseph's Society and the Knights of Columbus and a charter member of the Muenster Volunteer Fire Department. He was a resident of St. Richard's Villa about ten years.

Survivors are seven sons: Harold, Richard and Gilbert of Muenster, James of Montague, Fred of Argyle, Leon of Davenport, Iowa, and Gerald of Gainesville; one daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Reynolds of Forestburg; 30 grandchildren; 21 great grandchildren; four brothers Bill, Bob and Albert of Muenster and Lawrence of Gainesville; and seven sisters, Marie Herson, Agnes Hess, Hilda Reiter and Kate Reynolds of Muenster, Christine Hellinger and Marcella Hillinger of Gainesville, and Leona Richardson of Grandburg.

A subscription to the Muenster Enterprise is an ideal, last minute gift for relatives, friends neighbors and former residents. Each week it will be a reminder of your thoughtfulness. The Enterprise will send a suitable card with your greeting.

Leavenworth eryngo (Eryngium leavenworthii)

Leavenworth eryngo is a native, warm-season, deep-rooted, spiny, perennial forb that reproduces by seed and short sturdy rootstocks. The smooth, stout, rigid stems branch freely near the top and are 1 to 3 feet tall. The color-ful thistle-like plant has leaves that are deeply divided into sharp spiny-toothed parts that are mean to walk through when mature. The seed heads turn purple as they mature. They are protected above and below by spiny, purplish leafy bracts that have a metallic color. These seed heads are oval to round, 1 to 1 1/2 inches long and 1 inch in diameter. The flowers are densely clustered in the seed head and appear from July to October with the purplish cast increasing in intensity as the plant matures.

This unusual plant is found primarily on the shallow limestone prairie soils. Rather large areas of thick stands are common on the limestone rocky slopes throughout the bluestem prairies. Even though this plant is rarely an abundant forb, it is always noticed because it adds color to the prairie landscape.

The eryngo is unpalatable and is not eaten by livestock. It is harmful more as an obstacle to movement of man and animal than as a competitive invader.

The plant retains its purple color for a time when pulled and can be used for attractive arrangements. Other common names are Purple thistle, Blue thistle, and Button Snakroots.

NOTICE

CITATION BY PUBLICATION
THE STATE OF TEXAS
TO: ELDON JONES, dba Jones Paving Company, Defendant,

GREETING:
YOU (AND EACH OF YOU) ARE HEREBY COMMANDED to appear before the District Court of Cooke County at the Courthouse thereof, in Gainesville, Texas, by filing a written answer at or before 10 o'clock a.m. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 5th day of October A.D. 1981, to Plaintiff's Petition filed in said court, on the 30th day of March A.D. 1981, in this cause, numbered 81-133 on the docket of said court styled Crowbar, Inc., a Texas Corporation, Plaintiff, vs. Eldon Jones, dba Jones Paving Company, Defendant.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to-wit: That the Court order relinquishment by the Defendant of its claim of a mechanic's lien and removal of the same from the Plaintiff's property to wit being a certain 164.387 acre tract of land situated in the W.C. Winters Survey, Abstract No. 1101, located in Cooke County, Texas.

If this citation is not served within ninety days after the date of its issuance, it shall be returned un-served.

The officer executing this writ shall promptly serve the same according to requirements of law, and the mandates hereof, and make due return as the law directs.

Witness, Bobbie Calhoun, Clerk of the District Court (s) of Cooke County, Texas.

Issued and given under my hand and the seal of said court at Gainesville, Texas, this 20th day of August A.D. 1981.

Bobbie Calhoun Clerk,
District Court
Cooke County, Texas 454-L1

Scouring hints chart for cleaning kitchen utensils

Do you use the proper scouring pad for every kitchen utensil or surface? With the growing range of materials now used for kitchen utensils, a single pad simply won't do the job all the time.

The pad you need to scour a cast iron or stainless steel pot is likely to ruin a non-stick finish or permanently scratch heat-resistant glass, copper and porcelain enamel.

"Use and care booklets for kitchen utensils get lost or completely ignored," notes Bob Posten, research director at Airwick Industries' Chore Boy Division and an expert in scouring products.

"And, unfortunately, most people only hunt for them after they've ruined an expensive pot or casserole."

To help you make the right choice before you start cleaning, Chore Boy has prepared a brightly colored 6" by 9" household scouring hints chart that you can keep right by your kitchen sink.

The chart lists a dozen everyday kitchen scouring chores, and the proper abrasive or non-abrasive scouring pads and sponges to safely and effectively do the job.

To receive this chart, just send your name, address and a proof of purchase from any Chore Boy product to: Chore Boy Household Hints, P.O. Box 3121, Union, NJ 07083.

Airwick Industries Inc., a subsidiary of the CIBA-GEIGY Corp., has developed and marketed such leading household and personal products as Stick Ups® concentrated air deodorizer, Refrigerator Stick Ups® refrigerator freshener, Carpet Fresh® rug and room deodorizer, Plush® dry cleaner and conditioner for carpets, and Binaca® breath fresheners.

Popeye's spinach diet low in needed minerals

All Popeye has to do to get enough iron in his diet is squeeze open a can of spinach. But the rest of us need a varied selection of basic foods to provide our daily intake of minerals.

There are approximately 50 nutrients needed by the body everyday. Eight nutrients (protein, vitamin A, vitamin C, Thiamin, Riboflavin, Niacin, Calcium and Iron) are called leader nutrients because selecting foods that meet the Recommended Dietary Allowances (RDAs) for these will provide the other 42 nutrients that follow. But numerous trace elements are just now beginning to be identified as important to human nutrition says Dr. Walter Mertz, director of the Nutrition Research Center and the Chairman of the Nutrition Institute of the United States Department of Agriculture. He has researched the nutritional aspects of liver disease and the trace element chromium.

In some parts of the world there exist severe medical problems because of the lack of an intake of trace elements. "However, in the United States the problem is one of sub-optimal intakes, not a deficiency. A well balanced diet will easily meet the requirements of these elements," he said.

The relationship between trace elements and proper diet is a crucial one, Mertz stressed. "There are elements we know we need that we can't make in a laboratory because we haven't yet been able to isolate them," Mertz said. "The only way we can get them is in food."

"Trace minerals are unique," he continued. "In many cases we are talking about elements which occur in the body at the rate of one part per billion. That's equivalent to one drop in about 15,000 gallons. However, consider this: 15,000 gallons of jet fuel will carry a Boeing 707 from Dallas to Rome, Italy. But in terms of nutritional needs, that one drop of jet fuel, which we pointed out as representing a trace element, will make the difference in whether that plane makes it to Rome or not."

Mertz presented his viewpoint before reporters and health professionals attending the Sixth Annual Nutrition Press Symposium, Co-sponsored by Dairy Council, Inc. and Texas Cattle Feeders Association, the symposium took place January 15 and 16 in Dallas, Texas.

Hornets roll over Rams 26-14

A game that was rated as a toss up became another win for Muenster High's Hornets last week. The score was 26-14 over Sadler-Southmayd in a contest featured by the absence of regulars David Flusche and Vance Wells from the lineup (both with injuries) and the presence of two freshmen, Ronnie Fisher and David Winn.

Fisher had fans looking toward the future as he started with impressive gains of 76 yards. However the front runner was Gary Klement, who stepped off 168 yards, and Dale Swirczynski came through in several plays for a total of 32, including two touchdowns. Another major ground gainer was Tim Schneider as receiver of Kevin Felderhoff's four completed passes for a total of 90 yards.

Defensively, the Hornets were stingy, except allowing two big plays. A pass went 84 yards for a TD and a 75 yard punt return scored the other touchdown. Otherwise the MHS line headed by James Huckaby, Glenn Hermes, Doug Walterscheid and Chris Rohmer consistently got the jump on their heavier opponents and shut down the rushing yardage to 73, and a net of only 5 in the second half. More defensive stalwarts were Dale Swirczynski, David Winn and Klement.

The Hornets started with a 70 yard drive in 7 plays by Klement and Company. Klement gained 65 yards in four carries. Dale Swirczynski made the remaining 5, including a 1 yard dive for the touchdown. Swirczynski kicked the extra point. MHS led 7-0 after only 2:18 of playing time.

For a moment it seemed that the Rams were about to even the score in a hurry. Derek broke away on the second play of the team's first possession with nothing but space in front of him. But Klement was behind him and eventually caught up after a 41 yard gain to the Hornet 27. Then MHS defense took charge. The series ended with a fouled up field goal attempt, and Muenster was 63 yards from its next score. The drive was another quickie, needing six plays including a 38 yard pass from Felderhoff to Schneider. Klement slanted in from the 11 for the score. A bad pass spoiled the kick for extra point. Muenster was ahead 13-0 at 5:48.

The third TD started with the punt following the S&S first series. Klement returned it 20 yards to the Sadler 46 and five more plays reached the end zone. Big gains were Felderhoff's pass to Schneider for 17, Klement's romp for 16 and Swirczynski's 9 yard scoring run. A pass for two bonus points failed to connect. MHS led 19-0 at 2:21 in the first period.

Another Hornet score seemed to be in the making as Swirczynski recovered a Ram fumble on second series of its first possession. But Muenster failed to keep going and punted to end the first series. Immediately after S&S made the big play of the night, an 84 yard touchdown pass to Higgins. Crow's PAT upped the count to 19-7 at 10:15 of the second period.

From then until intermission Muenster made two starts but failed to keep going. The first effort gained two first downs and ended in an interception. The second also moved the chain twice and ended with a fumble.

Hornet momentum continued into the second half. Rams had to kick on first series, after which the Hornets were 54 yards away. Ten tries did the job with Felderhoff scoring on a 1 yard quarterback sneak. Key gains were 21 and 12 by Klement. Swirczynski's PAT made the count 26-7 at 6:44 in the third.

After the next kickoff the Rams had to punt on the first series and so did the Hornets, and then the Rams made their second big play. Steve Elsbecker started his punt return at the 25, drifted to the left and sailed all the way down the left sideline to pay dirt. Crow's extra point ended the scoring with 4:05 remaining in the third period.

However a hot contest continued. With Hornet reserves involved in almost all of the final period, a defensive standoff developed. The Hornets made four first downs and S&S three, and they also intercepted twice whereas the Rams intercepted once. Winn made a shootop catch after Klement deflected the ball, and Garland Tate caught the other. Elsbecker intercepted for S&S.

Muenster Juniors drop two to S&S

Seventh and eighth grade kids of Muenster Public School had a big evening of experience but another loss on their record as they hosted the boys of Sadler-Southmayd last Thursday. Muenster Seventh Graders went down 27-6 and the Eighth Graders 44-6.

Both games were more pleasing than the score. In the opener Seventh Graders played an extra good second half making the only score of the period. Stephen Wimmer made the touchdown on a run of about 50 yards.

The visitors scored in every period of the second game, however the home boys gave them a tussle all the way. Coach Peters said it was their best of the season, and the visiting coach said it was the best opposition his team has had. Peters described the Little Rams as exceptionally good. The future Hornets got their touchdown in the third period completing a drive of about 65 yards. Johnny Eldred scored on a quarterback sneak.

Next action for the Little Monsters will be Thursday at 6 p.m. on the MHS field hosting Era's junior high.

Jaycees sponsor PP&K on Oct. 17

Youngsters of ages 8 to 13 are invited to participate on Saturday, Oct. 17, 2 p.m., in a Punt, Pass and Kick competition on the MHS football field.

The event is sponsored by Muenster Jaycees who were co-sponsors with Endres Motor Company for several years. Endres Motor has joined Ford Motor Company in withdrawing from sponsorship.

According to Gary Rainwater, project chairman, five age groups, 8 to 13, will participate, and each contestant will compete with those of his own age group. And trophies will be awarded to the first three places in each age group. Cooke County Beer Distributors have donated $200 for use in providing the fifteen trophies. Method of competition is the same as before and consists of three parts: punt, pass and place kick. In each case the score is determined by the length of a kick or throw less the distance from a center line. Then the final score is determined by adding the three separate scores.

SH celebrates first victory 18-6 Tigers beat Bulldogs

That long awaited day for Sacred Heart's Tigers arrived Friday. They broke into the win column with a well deserved 18-6 decision over Alvord's Bulldogs. They did it by overcoming a 6-0 first half deficit with the best performance of their season to date.

Coach Virgil Henscheid said they just played a solid game without mistakes. They moved the ball well with the help of good blocking and avoided turnovers, whereas their visitors saw efforts wasted by an interception and a fumble. The Tigers made 16 first downs during the second half whereas the Bulldogs made only 4.

Over all statistics also favor the Tigers. They led 20-12 in first downs and 288 to 263 in total yardage.

However the happy second half was preceded by some unhappy moments in the first quarter. Early in the game Curtis Hesse recovered a Bulldog fumble on the 27 and the next series reached the 15, but four more tries fizzled out at the 10.

Then opportunity promptly knocked again. On second play after giving up possession, T.J. Walterscheid intercepted putting SH back in business at the 19. Curtis Hesse's 15 yard gain gave the Tigers a set up on the 5 and they blew it on the very next play by a fumble on the 1 foot line. Neighbors recovered for Alvord.

Three plays later the visitors missed a big thrill when Hale got loose and set off on a 94 yard run. But that opportunity likewise was lost when Rick Hennigan overtook him after a 45 yard gain. The remaining 6 minutes of the quarter was a standoff. The only first down was a gift as SH was penalized 15 yards for a face mask tackle.

However the trend took a sudden change on the second play of the second quarter. Neighbors fired a pass to Hale for 32 yards and one to Whetsell for 13, and the Bulldogs were only 23 yards away. Three more efforts reached the 10, a holding penalty lost 5 yards and Hale went over guard with a delayed play for the game's first score. A run for two extra points failed. Alvord led 6-0 at 9:28 in the period.

Tigers had to kick on first series after kickoff, after which Alvord kept its series alive with a fake punt for a 22 yard gain to Sacred Heart's 23, but the threat ended when the next series failed to move the ball. For the balance of the period neither team made any progress.

The second half opened with Mike Dangelmayr's 13 yard kickoff return to the Tiger 41, the point of departure for a 59 yard drive to the goal. Principal gains of the ten plays were 14 yards by Rick Hennigan and a 15 yard penalty for roughing. Curtis Hesse scored from the 7 via a good hole at left guard. Curtis Henscheid's kick failed leaving the score at 6-6 at 8:17.

Alvord responded with a 31 yard kick off return and gained 11 to Sacred Heart's 47 on the next play but fumbled three plays later and Hennigan recovered on the Tiger 38.

Curtis Henscheid's 17 yard gain gave the Tigers a first down but they had to punt on the next series and Alvord started again. Five plays gained 31 to midfield, then Mark Miller intercepted for Sacred Heart on the Tiger 35, which became the starting point for the next TD.

Neil Hesse launched the 65 yard drive with a 38 yard pass to Brian Herr at the 27. Curtis Hesse's 10 plus three short gains plus Hennigan's 4 yard plunge produced the score just before the period ended. A pass for extra points failed. The score was 12-12.

As the fourth period opened Alvord had to kick on first series and Sacred Heart on second series, after which Alvord followed 21 yards of gains with a fumble at mid field. Curtis Henscheid recovered. The Tigers made the distance in four plays plus a 5 yard penalty, the big gain being a 26 yard pass from Neil Hesse to Curtis Henscheid. Curtis Hesse scored from the 12 at 6:11 and a pass for bonus points failed. The scoring was ended at 18-6.

For the balance of the game the Tigers continued dominating but ran out of time. Eight plays advanced 54 yards to the Alvord 17 and the Tigers were on the 12 when the buzzer sounded.

Curtis Henscheid's gain is cut short as a Bulldog nabs him from behind. Other Tigers are Hal Mollenkopf and Mark Miller.

Tigers will host Falcons of Fort Worth Country Day

After playing in their own class last week, the Tigers are returning to the big time competition as they meet Fort Worth Country Day School on the local field Friday night. Based on UIL enrollment standards the Tigers would be rated as Class A and their visitors as 3A.

The comparison applies also to the records to date. Sacred Heart is 1-4 against tough competition whereas the Falcons are 4-1 against comparable opponents. They have a 42-14 win over Fort Worth Christian, which edged the Tigers 13-12. And they barely lost to Pilot Point, currently rated as a state powerhouse. As Coach Virgil Henscheid sees them, they are potent in every position with special emphasis on a 220 pound fullback and a sharpshooter quarterback. The odds are heavily stacked in their favor.

However Father Stephen and Henscheid are also impressed with their own boys. They liked what they saw last week...the best game of the season, especially in the second half when they took charge of the field and scored three TDs while shutting down the visitors' rushing almost completely.

Over all, it was their best coordinated effort so far, according to Father Stephen. The game will be played on the Tiger field starting at 7:30. Fans are urged to remember that the time change from 8 p.m. becomes effective this week.

Curtis Henscheid and Mike Bartush have this Bulldog under control as Curtis Hesse and Greg Walterscheid rush up for a piece of the action.

Alvord kids beat Tiger Cubs 34-6

Sacred Heart Cubs lost their game before they got started at Alvord last week. The home team led 26-0 at half time, after which the SH boys did much better and ended at 34-6. They needed a half game to stop the Alvord kid who was involved in four scores in the two periods. After that they kept the game more interesting.

The Cubs' score came in the third period on a 15 yard pass from Kenny Hesse to John Nasche ending a drive of about 60 yards.

The Cubs will play again Friday at 5:30 preceding the Tigers game with Fort Worth Country Day at 7:30.
