It was satisfying to note that the US House of Representatives a few weeks ago vetoed an ordinance by the City of Washington to further liberalize its already too liberal sex laws.

The proposed law would have sharply reduced the penalty for forcible rape, and would also have legalized homosexuality, sodomy, fornication and adultery between consenting persons, including young people aged 16 and over. Teachers would be able to seduce "consenting" youths with no penalties attached.

Rep. Phil Crane sponsored the veto resolution, which passed by the very impressive margin of 289-119. The vote, though gratifying, also reveals the sad news that 119 congressmen have shabby morals, and the capital's city council is no better, a fact which concerns us even though we live far away.

In spite of their claim to home rule rights, the 600,000 people of D.C. are mostly federal employees who are vitally involved in our interests in government. Under the circumstances we the people can reasonably expect our employees to live up to the country's standards. Being on the nation's payroll besides, those characters have even less claim to their separate set of gutter laws.

Something more is revealed in the identity of supporters to the city amendment, like the American Civil Liberties Union, Americans for Democratic Action and National Women's Political Caucus. Their ideals obviously flow in the same gutter as those of the Washington officials. They were joined by a number of liberal religious groups who made a big issue of the stand taken by the Moral Majority and Archbishop Hickey of Washington.

A point made by the religious liberals and their congressional ally, Rep. Dellums of California, complains that the Moral Majority and the bishops are interested in this issue, but somewhere I learned there is a separation of church and state. The intellectual four-flushers like to assume that this remark is always sufficient to dispose of the subject, but their problem is that they miss the issue completely. This isn't a matter of a church and the government, but all churches and their relation to morality, which our forefathers regarded as the foundation of good government.

The trouble with the immoral derelicts of the immoral minority who try to talk on issues like these is that they completely ignore the one essential fact, that this is God's world operating according to His plan...and their refusal to admit the fact is far from proving that it does not exist. Besides, experience has shown very clearly that ignoring this fact can lead to a big mess.

Our hope is that congressmen will stand behind their refusal to compromise morality in DC government and go still farther in doing likewise for other cities and states of our country. No matter how the wise guys try to rationalize the issue, it remains a fact, as our forefathers told us, that morality is essential to good government.

A related fact on this issue is that the characters who maligned supporters of the congressional veto, such as the National Council of Churches, were on Washington's side. In violation of their own preaching on the subject they were meddling in the issue of separating church and state.

First, second and third place winners show the trophies they won at the PP&K competition sponsored Saturday by the Jaycees.

Regional PP&K scheduled November 7

Fifty five youngsters reported for the Punt Pass and Kick competition sponsored by Muenster Jaycees last Saturday on the Muenster High field.

Since then Gary Rainwater and Mark Lippe, co-chairmen announced that Lindsay Jaycees will join them in a regional PP&K to be held on Saturday, November 7, 2 p.m. on the MHS field.

Entries in that contest will be the top three of each age group from Muenster and Lindsay, and the competition is open to each group regardless of standing in the first contests. And trophies will be awarded to the leading three of each age.

In last week's local contest trophies were awarded to the three leaders of each group and the fourth was listed as an alternate in case an eligible member of that age does not report for regional.

The winners and their scores were named as follows.

8 year old: Paul Black 150, Ryan Gehrig 135, Terry Felderhoff 125, Brad McDaniel 120.

9 year old: Billy Don Covington 198, Donnie Boydston 195, Jerry Brawner 170, Steve Koelzer 161.

Texas votes Tuesday on 7 amendments

Qualified voters of Texas will go to the polls next Tuesday, Nov. 3, to decide the fate of seven proposed new amendments to the state constitution. As usual public reaction to the expected changes has been mild, which is expected to be reflected by a mild turnout at the polls.

Voting in Muenster will be done in the customary locations. The north box will be in the Knights of Columbus Hall between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. with John Pagel as the election judge. The south box will be in the VFW Hall between 7 and 7 with Paul Fisher as the election judge.

A light vote is expected here as in most of the state because of apparent lack of public interest. The proposal receiving most attention is Number 4, hailed as a provision to increase the state's water resources and criticized as a plan whereby all of the state would pay but West Texas would be the principal beneficiary.

The proposed amendments in order of appearance on the ballot are as follows.

1. Authorizing cities, towns, and other taxing units to encourage the improvement, development, or redevelopment of certain areas through property tax relief and the issuance of bonds and notes.

2. Authorizing the Commissioner of the General Land Office to issue patents for certain public free school fund land held in good faith under color of title for at least 50 years as of Nov. 15, 1981.

3. Allowing the legislature to grant to a state finance management committee the power to manage the expenditure of certain appropriated funds.

4. Authorizing the use of a portion of the excess revenues of the state for water development, water conservation, water quality enhancement, and flood control purposes; authorizing the use of the state's credit, not to exceed $500 million, to guarantee the bonds of local governments in the financing of projects for such purposes; increasing the interest rate that may be paid on previously approved but unissued state bonds; and authorizing a program to retire state bonds.

5. Providing for the inclusion of livestock and poultry with farm products as exempt from taxation.

6. Authorizing a political subdivision to provide property tax relief for owners of residence homesteads and changing certain property tax administrative procedures.

7. Authorizing the issuance of additional bonds to finance the veterans' aid program and to increase the maximum interest rate allowable on veterans' land fund bonds.

TFB president supports Amendments 4 and 5

The passage of two amendments important to Texas farmers and ranchers will be considered by voters on the Nov. 3 election ballot, according to Carroll Chaloupka, Texas Farm Bureau president.

Proposition 5 will include livestock and poultry with other farm products already exempt from property (ad valorem) taxation. The passage of Proposition 5 is being sought because it corrects inequities in property taxation, Chaloupka said. Presently, the Texas Constitution reads: "farm products in the hands of the producer are exempt from all taxation..." However, in 1976, former Texas Attorney General John Hill ruled that livestock and poultry are not "farm products" and thus could be taxed.

"Passage of this amendment will eliminate the inequity caused by that decision," the Farm Bureau president said. "Presently, only one-fourth of one percent of tax revenues are generated by livestock and poultry," he said, therefore, elimination of this tax would not be a burden on school districts in lost revenue. Passage of Proposition 5 would assure fair, uniform tax treatment for all food producers across the state, he said.

Proposition 4 is a constitutional amendment that will provide new methods of financing water development, conservation, quality and flood control projects within the state.

Under the provisions of Proposition 4, $500 million will be pledged to guarantee locally-issued water project bonds, and the amendment will dedicate as much as half of the state's surplus revenue to the Water Assistance Fund.

"Passage of Proposition 4 will help local communities finance water supply, water treatment, sewage treatment and flood control projects on a sound, long-range basis that is most equitable to all parts of the state," said Chaloupka.

"We favor this amendment for the reason that Texas must face up to growing water problems now, and this plan gives us a sensible way to do that," he said.

Long time resident

Mrs. Felix Becker dies

Funeral service for Mrs. Felix (Rose) Becker, 89, will be held at Sacred Heart Church Friday, October 30 at 10 a.m. and burial will be in the parish cemetery directed by Nick Miller Funeral Home. Pallbearers will be grandsons: Chris Sicking, Joe Sicking, Carl Sicking, Don Sicking, Kenneth Becker and John Becker.

Rosary service will be held in the chapel of Miller Funeral Home Thursday at 4 p.m. and 8 p.m.

Mrs. Becker died of cancer Tuesday at 8:25 p.m. in Muenster Memorial Hospital after being hospitalized 10 days. She had been in failing health about eight months.

She was a native of Pesotum, Ill., born August 27, 1892, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Hartman, who moved to Muenster in December 1905. She has been a resident of the community since then.

She was married on January 26, 1915, to Felix Becker, who died on Sept. 27, 1968. They were farmers.

Survivors are two sons; Leo Becker of Muenster and Vincent Becker of Olney, Maryland; three daughters, Mrs. Alphonse (Ida) Hoenig; Mrs. Joe (Hilda) Sicking, and Mrs. A.A. (Rose) Sicking, Gainesville; 20 grandchildren; 9 great-grandchildren; 4 brothers, Victor Hartman of Muenster, George Hartman of Fort Wayne, Ind., Albert Hartman of Dearborn, Mich., and Leo Hartman of George West, Tex.; and 2 sisters, Mrs. Joe (Frances) Vogel of Muenster and Mrs. Carl (Emma) Luke of Hereford.

Flood Disaster assistance center is open at Gainesville

Disaster Assistance Centers have been opened in four Texas counties to accept applications for aid from residents in the affected flooded areas.

State and federal officials said the centers, serving Stephens, Cooke, Parker and Taylor counties, are in operation from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Oct. 28, 29 and 30.

The four centers will close at 6 p.m. Friday, Oct. 30, officials said.

Cooke County's disaster center is located in the Community Center at Gainesville.

A toll-free telephone inquiry "hot line" - 1-800-772-5929, also has been opened to answer questions from people needing assistance. The line is operational from 8 a.m. until 6 p.m. until further notice.

The four counties were declared major disaster areas by President Ronald Reagan Oct. 23 as the result of flooding which began Oct. 12.

Robert Broussard, federal coordinating officer for the recovery operation, and of-officials of the Texas Division of Emergency Management said aid which can be made available are low interest loans to repair or replace homes, personal property and businesses, temporary housing, farm and ranch assistance and grants from the Texas Department of Human Resources for those ineligible for other types of federal or state aid.

Two of the counties -- Stephens and Cooke -- also were declared eligible for federal aid to repair damaged public facilities such as roads, bridges, parks and utilities.

A gala open house today is showing the new district office of Texas Power and Light Company in Gainesville at the corner of Dixon and Elm Streets. Company officials from Dallas and Sherman have joined District Manager Tom Parsons in hosting the event and showing such conveniences as increased parking, drive-by window and expanded phone service. The former TP&L home at Main and Rusk served the company for 41 years.

This crash occurred at the intersection of Highway 82 and Mesquite at 3:25 p.m. last Thursday. Robert Stovall, investigating officer, said the Ford Ranchero had been east bound on Highway 82 and the Ford LTD had been north bound on Mesquite. The drivers, both out of town, were unhurt.

COMMENT

Instructions from the... Owners Manual

by Mark Emerson

Sometimes you hear persons say, "Why did that have to happen to them, they're such nice persons?" Or perhaps you've heard, "Why was that child born with that defect?" Usually when you hear these thoughts it's because someone has suffered some illness perhaps one even unto death. What the scriptures would have us know is that these illnesses that occur in the lives of others and even ourselves need not flood our faith with seeds of doubt.

There are three types of sickness displayed in the scriptures and each has its own specific reason for being. The first sickness is the sickness unto death. Through sin man has alienated himself from God. The curse of this sin is death. Through Jesus' death and resurrection we've been given life eternal. Glory to God!! Two resurrections are spoken of in the Book of Revelations. The first is the resurrection of baptism, the second is the resurrection of our earthly bodies after death so that they will join our spirits after this world has ceased to be. Hallelujah!!

The second type of sickness is to the glory of God. This sickness is displayed throughout the book of Job. God allowed Satan to inflict illness upon Job for the purpose of showing Job's righteousness and to show that he would not curse God.

There is another similar sickness in the ninth chapter of John where Jesus has come upon a blind man. His disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, for him to have been born blind?" "Neither he nor his parents sinned," Jesus answered, "he was born blind so that the works of God might be displayed in him." Having said this he spat upon the ground, made a paste with the spittle, put this over the eyes of the blind man and said to him, "Go wash in the Pool of Siloam". So the blind man went off and washed himself, and came away with his sight restored.

With these two illnesses we can see that God allows persons to be born with an illness and even to be afflicted with one later on in life. These illnesses are for the purpose of giving glory to God so others might see their healing and so that others might see the great strength with which they endure their trials until their healing comes.

Another sickness is the sickness unto chastisement. A primary example is found in the 9th chapter of Acts where we learn of Saul's conversion. He was known for his tremendous persecution of the early Christians and God was displeased with him. Starting with the third verse we learn, "Suddenly, while he was traveling to Damascus and just before he reached the city, there came a light from heaven all around him. He fell to the ground, and then he heard a voice saying, 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?' 'Who are you, Lord?' he asked, and the Lord answered Me, 'I am Jesus and you are persecuting me. Get up now and go into the city, and you will be told what you have to do.' The men traveling with Saul stood there speechless for though they heard the voice, they could see no one. Saul got up from the ground, but even with his eyes wide open he could see nothing at all, and they had to lead him in to Damascus by the hand. For three days he was without sight, and neither took food nor drink." Later we learn of Saul's Miraculous healing and the natural response we have is, "Well, this is St. Paul and he was a great man of God and this has nothing to do with me." This modern day rationality must be dealt with and rebuked from our own spirits. God wishes to display power in our lives as in any other saint of the Church. Jesus said, "You will do greater things than I have ever done," and his words for us are the same yesterday, today and forever. We're not to exclude ourselves from God's working.

So let us see and understand that when suffering any illness we are called not only to renew in our spirits, but in our minds and bodies as well.

NCCW will have diocesan meeting

The General Assembly of the Fort Worth Diocesan Council of Catholic Women will be held at St. Joseph's Hospital on Nov. 4, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. There will be two special speakers, Carolyn Gerster and Dominican Father Gilbert Graham. Registration at $6.00 per person covers all fees for the 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. meeting. All ladies of the Fort Worth Diocese are invited.

The next North Deanery meeting will be in Pilot Point on November 19, 10 a.m. to noon. The program will be on "The Constant Vigil of Prayer," preceded by Mass.

This year marks the 60th anniversary of NCCW, celebrated during the convention in Kansas City October 5-9.

These items were announced during the North Deanery meeting held in Muenster when Peggy Kocurek of Fort Worth was the guest speaker and Muenster members served the noon covered dish luncheon.

Clements warns Amendment 4 failure could lead to future tax increases

Governor Bill Clements warned Texans this week that defeat of Amendment No. 4 in the general election on November 3 could lead to higher taxes in the future.

Clements made the remarks at a meeting of Water for Texas Committee, a statewide organization of prominent leaders who are backing the amendment, which would provide a plan for setting aside a "nest egg" from the state's budget surplus to help finance water projects.

The governor was responding to published claims of some opponents that passage of the amendment "will lead to higher taxes down the road."

"The truth of the matter is, Texans are more likely to face increased taxes if we DON'T pass Amendment No. 4," Clements declared. "That's simply because the surplus will be frittered away every two years with the help of some lawmakers opposing Amendment No. 4, and we'll end up facing a water crisis down the road that people will demand we take care of, even if it does mean a tax increase."

The proposed amendment, backed by the governor, a two-thirds majority of the Legislature and a committee of prominent leaders throughout the state, would provide for three actions:

1. Allow an increase in interest that can be paid from the current limit of 6 percent, now preventing sale of more than $200 million in authorized and urgently needed state bonds, to a more realistic rate of 12 percent.

2. Create a loan guaranty program which will enable local communities to issue water project bonds at a lower rate because of backing of credit by the State of Texas.

3. Set aside one-half of the state's budget surplus every two years to create a priority "nest egg" fund to assist local governments in financing of water and sewage projects and pay for vital research programs.

Support grows for Amendment 3

Statewide support is growing for Proposition 3 on the Nov. 3 constitutional amendment election. Don Cavness, coordinator for the Sound Financial Management Committee for Texas, said Friday.

Cavness said the proposed amendment will be an effective tool for better management of state funds in the interim between legislative sessions.

"It also will be necessary to create the financial management committee in order to allocate anticipated federal block grants here in Texas," Cavness said.

The proposal would create a seven-member committee composed of the governor, the lieutenant governor, the Speaker of the House and two senators and two House members.

"The legislature has chosen to delegate to this committee the power to handle funds during the interim and save the cost of special sessions when emergencies arise," Cavness said.

He pointed out the committee members already are the officials charged with raising and spending state funds.

"This in no way can be construed as a concentration of power over the state's budget process because these committee members already are charged with that responsibility," Cavness said.

He also released a list of more than 40 persons from throughout the state who are members of the Sound Financial Management for Texas Committee.

CHINA TODAY

Recently it was my privilege to be the guest of a friend on a two-week tour in China where I had served as a missionary for eleven years. It has been forty-five years since I, with my family, departed from China to become the President of Harding University, at that time Harding College. Naturally, I was anxious to see what thirty-two years of communism has done for China.

In some areas certain changes were very quickly apparent. In other, far more important areas, very little change had taken place. Young women were serving as clerks in the hotels, as waitresses in the hotels and restaurants, teaching in the schools and doing many other things that young women did not do fifty years ago. It was gratifying, however, to observe that the dress of the women was still very modest as it has always been in China.

In agriculture, such as in the harvesting of wheat and rice, however, I was able to observe very little change. We traveled perhaps 1,500 miles by train right through the very heart of China. The yield of rice and wheat looked good, but the only harvesting we saw was by hand with people grasping a handful of wheat stalks or rice stalks with the left hand and then cutting them off with a little sickle held in the right hand. This handful was laid down on the ground, another handful was seized, and cut off and laid with it. When enough was gathered it was tied in a bundle and then another accumulation was started and soon another bundle. As many as twenty or thirty people might be seen harvesting in one five-acre field.

Then we saw thousands of people involved in threshing the grain. This was done by spreading out the straw, with the grains still in the heads, on a threshing floor. One or two oxen were driven round and round on that threshing floor about a hundred feet in diameter. Usually a sled was tied behind the oxen and sometimes a beam of metal was dragging behind the sled. Perhaps a man was standing in the middle of the circle with a rope reaching to a ring in the nose of the oxen. By this means the oxen were pulled in closer or let out farther so they didn't go round and round in exactly the same path. Other people were busy with forks pushing the straw back toward the middle of the threshing floor because the walking of the oxen and the dragging of the sled tended to crowd the straw toward the outside. Finally, it was finished off with a flail and then the straw was pushed aside with forks. The next process was to wind the grain. A man might stand on a box and pour the grain slowly and allow the wind to blow away the chaff. Finally, the cleaned wheat was put in sacks ready for market.

Naturally, I thought over and over of how many days of work had been invested for each bushel of grain that was produced. The productivity per man-hour was very, very low. We were told that about ninety percent of the people live on the farms and live by farming. This means that because of these slow, antiquated harvesting methods and similar practices it requires ninety percent of the people to feed the nation. That leaves a relatively small percentage to serve as industrialists, industrial workers, school teachers, policemen and soldiers.

China needs to improve agricultural efficiency to free farm workers for other jobs. To do this she will need to import agricultural implements on a vast scale. But China's greatest impediment is the collectivist system itself.

a double standard for years. In fact, it has been responsible for introducing the array of shabby morals which is tolerated today in classrooms and courts, in the media and in the depraved trash of books and magazines. It's really high time for government people to become aware that the immoral left has exercised its violation of church and state principles for a long time. They have a long lead in sponsoring the work of Satan. To be actually fair, government ought to discredit them on lots of issues and let the way of God have a chance.

Have you ever noticed how the immoral minority has twisted lots of clean words and phrases to its exclusive dirty use?

Separation of church and state is one good example. Originally it was intended to prevent adopting a denomination as the state religion, but the more common use now is to ban God from government.

Liberate is a favorite of the Reds, but with no relation to liberty or freedom. This means to separate people from their legitimate government and impose the iron rule of communism.

Gay until lately meant happy, cheerful, carefree, but perverts are using it for homosexuals, an insult to God and a disgrace to the human race.

And there's the word love. It's sacred, often used by the Savior, identified in scripture as the greatest of the virtues. But it's been debased to one of the dirty words.

These words and many others have been stolen from civilized vocabulary and befouled to serve the purpose of Satan, and the media has not objected. There's no doubt that civilization is slipping.

Small-business Angle

by Wilson S. Johnson

UNCLE SAM SLOW TO PAY DEBTS

It might seem hard to believe that the federal government is slow to pay its bills, but if you talk to small-business people with government agencies as customers, you will hear example after example of bills going unpaid for weeks and even months.

A General Accounting Office study showed that in one month in 1978, 30 percent of government bills went unpaid for more than a month. The average for those unpaid bills was 74 days.

Small-business people are concerned about their own credit ratings. When a customer (in this case the government) is slow in paying the small firm, the proprietor is hard-pressed to pay his suppliers. Often, the only recourse is to borrow money to pay the bills, and in times of high interest rates, that is no solution at all.

A firm in Washington, D.C., which does work for several federal agencies and departments, has not been paid by some for more than three years. Repeated billings and letters have gone unanswered. A man in Georgia was chastised by an official of one federal department for being two days late completing a job. He wrote back, explaining the circumstances and reminding the bureaucrat that his department had not paid the small-business man on time in six years! A contractor in Delaware waited almost five months for more than $10,000 due him for work he did for Uncle Sam.

Scores of such cases are reported to the National Federation of Independent Business each month. Now Congress is trying to do something about its slow-paying uncle. Representative Jack Brooks (D-Texas) has introduced a bill in the House of Representatives which would require the federal government to pay interest to firms on the amount due after the required payment date. Brooks points out that small business accounts for about 90 percent of the suppliers of commercial products bought by the federal government. He thinks his bill will ease the financial burden those companies face in doing business with the government and that it will encourage more small businesses to go after government contracts, thereby increasing competition for government business. Brooks' bill would also force recipients of federal grants to pay on time. Apparently there are some big offenders in that category too. Senators Lowell Weicker (R-Conn.) and John Danforth (R-Mo.) have introduced similar legislation in the Senate.

It is a shame to think a law must be passed to force our government to play by the rules the rest of us have been observing all along, but if that is what it takes, so be it. Small-business people everywhere will be watching anxiously as Congress debates "prompt payment" legislation.

Wilson S. Johnson is president of the National Federation of Independent Business, representing more than half a million small-business men and women.

LET'S KEEP THE WATER RUNNING IN TEXAS!

In cities and towns all across Texas, local water problems are threatening to erupt into one enormous statewide crisis. Countless communities are facing growing water supply, water treatment, sewage treatment and flood control problems estimated to cost a staggering $50 billion over the next 25 years. To make matters worse, federal funds for water projects have recently been slashed.

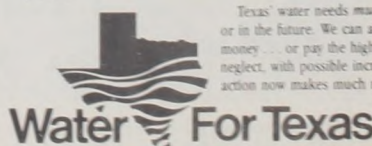

But on November 3, Texans have the opportunity to adopt a plan, already passed by two-thirds of the Legislature, which would harness a portion of our state's budget surplus to help shoulder that heavy local burden.

The plan is proposed Constitutional Amendment No. 4.

Passage of Amendment No. 4 would:

- Make possible the sale of more than $200 million in authorized and urgently needed state bonds to address a backlog of needed projects.
- Create a loan guaranty program to enable local communities to save millions of dollars in issuing future bonds.
- Begin to build a "nest egg" for the future from a part of the state's budget surplus to assist local governments in financing water and sewage projects.

Texas' water needs must be met, either now or in the future. We can act now, and save money... or pay the higher price later for our neglect, with possible increased taxes. Sensible action now makes much more sense for Texas.

Don't overlook insulation in clean-up after flood damage

An item that is easily overlooked in a clean-up after flooding is insulation, according to instructions from the Texas Agricultural Extension service of the A&M System. As pointed out by Gene Davenport of Cooke County Electric's consumer service division, the insulation easily escapes notice because it is out of sight, but may have lost much or all of its insulating quality.

All types of insulation are subject to damage when water soaked. Loose fill, such as vermiculite, will settle to the bottom of walls. If not removed it will cause odors and eventually cause decay of studding.

Rock wool batting insulation will also bunch and settle, create odors and cause decay of studding.

Fiber glass batting will also bunch but not develop odors. And reflective surfaces, such as aluminum foil will probably lose their reflective ability and their insulating effectiveness.

The point to keep in mind is that all loss of insulating quality results in loss of heat in winter and entry of outside heat in the summer, with consequent increase of utility bills.

Water heaters are subject to the same damage. Flood soaked insulation bunches, leaving some areas between water tank and outside jacket without insulation permitting the water tank to lose heat and require more gas or electricity.

Persons with after-flood insulation problems are invited to contact Gene Davenport at Cooke County Electric Co-op.

Candidates for 1981 Homecoming Queen at Sacred Heart High School have been announced by the Student Council. Four senior girls were named by their classmates and Tiger football players will vote to select the winner, who will reign over the homecoming events. Her name will be revealed during half-time activities at the Tiger - Notre Dame game on November 6. Senior candidates are shown in the front row l. to r. Tina Hesse, Donna Trubenbach, Sharon Voth and Susie Felderhoff. Named by underclassmen to serve in the queen's court are princesses: Rose Felderhoff freshman; Marilynn Hartman sophomore; and Karla Jo Hartman junior.

Veterans Pictures Requested

For the "Photos From the Past" feature, the Muenster Enterprise is requesting pictures of Servicemen in uniforms to use during the first two weeks of November, in observance of Veterans Day. We hope to include representatives of all branches of Service, dating from World War I to the present, and we are requesting parents, wives or family members to bring the pictures to us. All pictures will receive TLC and will be returned. Please bring or send them, identified by name and Service.

VFW Auxiliary plan for Veterans Day

The traditional Veterans Day service will be held at the cemetery on November 11 following the 8 a.m. Mass in Sacred Heart Church. Plans were made during the VFW Auxiliary meeting on October 19. Mrs. Gilbert Knabe presided for the meeting and Mrs. Al Walter was chaplain pro tem.

Treasurer Mrs. Leo Hesse reported on a successful bake sale and invited interested persons to add to the fund with personal donations for cancer aid and research.

Trustees reported on their book audit. Members agreed to bring gifts to the November meeting for children at Denton State School. A basket will be placed at Ben Franklin Store for this purpose, also. Suggested gifts might be Golden Books, puzzles, nerf balls, toys, games, scarfs, billfolds, etc. Mrs. Norbert Koessler served refreshments to 18 members and also won the door prize. Mrs. Ray Voth volunteered for hostess duties in November.

Firemen attend course on basics

Four members of the Muenster Volunteer Fire Department have completed their three-hour classes on "Fighting Basic Structure and Ground Cover Fires" and will receive certificates. They are Harvey Schmitt, Alvin Hartman, Jim Gehrig and Herbert Knabe.

Members attending part time were Gary Rainwater, Red Henscheid, Andy Knabe, Ronnie Felderhoff and Jim Vogel.

The classes were taught by Jim Nichols of the Texas Forest Service in the Community Center of Gainesville. About 70 members from the county's several fire departments attended.

Classes were made up of films and slides of actual fires along with lectures, discussions and demonstrations on the most advanced fire fighting techniques and also getting the maximum fire fighting effect from a minimum of water.

United Way drive delayed by flood

After having attention sidetracked by the flood, United Way interest in Cooke County has started a comeback. Larry Kinard, community chairman reported Wednesday that the 1981 drive has reached $1,500 in Muenster and $36,547 in Cooke County. Both are near 25 percent of their respective goals of $5800 and $125,000.

However the response of two participating agencies during the flood should serve as an inspiration for generous giving, Kinard said. Salvation Army and Red Cross spent $21,000 on relief services during the distress. Their combined share of this year's United Way budget is $22,800.

Dick Howe honored at Memorial Mass

A Memorial Mass for Richard Howe, 60, of Forestburg, was held Sunday at 5 p.m. in Sacred Heart Church with Father Stephen Eckart officiating and Father Denis Soerries concelebrating. Eileen Fisher also participated in the service as vocalist and song leader.

Funeral service and burial were held during the week at Richmond, Vermont. Howe sustained a fatal cardiac attack at his home Monday night of last week and was pronounced dead on arrival at Westgate Hospital, Denton.

In his short eulogy Father Stephen referred to a saint who asked an artist to paint a picture of death on his wall. The result was the traditional old man with a scythe, which did not please the saint. He asked that a golden key be painted on the picture to replace the scythe. He intended death to be symbolized by the key to heaven.

In that light Mr. Howe's death was described as receiving the key. It's the beginning of an endless life with God, as promised by the Savior when he said "those who believe in me will never die." "Richard knows that Jesus keeps His word, and this happy thought of eternity is a blessed comfort in our present sadness," Father Stephen added.

Charles Buffingtons Complete wedding trip to South Texas

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Buffington are at home in Dallas, following return from their wedding trip to South Texas. They were married in Sacred Heart Church of Muenster on Saturday, October 17 in a 5 p.m. Nuptial Mass celebrated by Father Stephen Eckart.

The bride is the former Elizabeth Kralicke of Irving, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Martin Kralicke of Muenster and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence B. Buffington of Houston.

Presented at the altar by her father, the bride was wearing a wedding gown of candlelight chiffon with appliques of candlelight Alencon lace, veiling a silhouette of pleated chiffon around her shoulders. The molded bodice was fashioned with a Victorian lace collar and adorned with a myriad of bridal pearls. This pattern of lace also edged the sheer yoke. The slim skirt swept into a chapel train, accented with a wide border of matching Alencon lace. For her headpiece, the bride chose a candlelight satin hat with matching Alencon lace appliques and a wisp of net veiling, giving a total look of elegance.

She carried a candlelight lace fan with a cluster of candlelight rosebuds and matching ribbons. In keeping with tradition, for "something old" she had her great-grandfather's gold cross and she "borrowed" her sister's pearl earrings.

Attendants

Mrs. Dianne Walterscheid of Muenster was her sister's matron of honor. Cindy Church of Irving and Mrs. Marlene Endres of Muenster, friends of the bride and Leslie Buffington of Dallas, groom's sister, were bridesmaids. Their dresses were designed with antique lace tops and rust taffeta skirts, each edged with a deep flounce. They carried nosegays of cream spider mums and rust pom pom mums.

Kristen Kaiser and Ryan Kaiser, niece and nephew of the groom, were flower girl and ring bearer.

L.B. Buffington of Houston was his son's best man. Dr. Steve Kralicke, bride's brother of Grapevine, Phillip Marsh of San Antonio and Larry Schmal of Plano, friends of the groom were groomsmen.

Terry Walterscheid, bride's brother-in-law and Robert Kaiser, groom's brother-in-law were ushers.

The church altar held arrangements of cream spider mums, rust pom pom mums with matching satin ribbon; similar ribbon bows marked pews for relatives.

Preceding the ceremony Gene Merkel sang and accompanied himself on the guitar as guests assembled. The bride's sister, Mrs. Laura Pels of Houston was the organist, presenting traditional wedding music. At the Offertory Mrs. Cecilia Kafer sang "Because" and "Oh, Perfect Love;" and "Ave Maria" as the couple knelt at Mary's Altar. Dr. Kralicke sang "The Lord's Prayer" at Communion.

Reception

The bride's parents hosted a reception, dinner and dance in the Sacred Heart Community Center for 300 guests. Ed and Ginny Schneider catered the dinner and "Sage" played for dancing.

Friends of the bride, Linda Hintz of Grand Prairie and Terrie Trotter of Bryan presided at the guest book.

The bride's table was centered by the three tiered wedding cake decorated with candlelight frosting and a satin wedding bell on the top. The chocolate groom's cake was decorated with mocha floral trim. A series of graduated brass candleholders with cream colored candles, were placed to either side of the bride's cake.

Betty Rose Walterscheid cut the cake, assisted in serving by Mrs. Sandy Pegg, Ms. Michelle Heflin, Mrs. Susan Wright and Mrs. Sharlene Hartman.

Guest tables were decorated with autumn leaves, fall colored ribbon, pine cones and cream colored candles.

Rehearsal Dinner

The groom's parents were developed from a chance visit to Teutopolis, Ill. and Effingham, Ill. by the Martin Beckers last summer was an event of Sunday, October 25, for descendants of Muenster pioneers, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Knabe.

Brian Kostyniak baptized

Baptismal service for Brian Lawrence Kostyniak, infant son of Larry and Gretchen Kostyniak of Fort Worth, were held in Sacred Heart Church of Muenster on Saturday, October 24 at 5 p.m. with Father Stephen Eckart officiating.

The baby's baptismal sponsors were an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Klement. The long christening gown and matching cap, and a white satin blanket were gifts from the paternal grandparents.

Following the church service Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kostyniak of Denison hosted a dinner and cocktail hour in the Community Center for about 40 guests.

Blue and white candles and small baskets of flowers adorned guest tables. A blue and white decorated christening cake, inscribed: "God Bless Brian" was cut and served by Mrs. Dan Bayer and Mrs. Leon Klement. Melissa and Denise Bayer secured signatures of out-of-town guests.

Among those attending were the great-grandmothers Mrs. Anna Walterscheid of Fort Worth and Mrs. L.M. Bond of Denison; also Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sager and Mr. and Mrs. Barry White and daughter Carrie of Denison and Sister Francesca Walterscheid of Fort Worth.

We've debated nuclear power long enough...
let's get on with it.

We Americans have always recognized the need for full and orderly discussion of important public issues. From the neighborhood improvement association to the United States Congress, free-ranging debate helps us decide what to do, when, and how. And when the facts are in, we do it.

After 30 years we're still debating — and delaying — nuclear power. Some people worry that it's not safe, or too costly, or that the fuel's too scarce. The facts are:

- In the 24-year history of U.S. commercial nuclear power there has never been a nuclear-related fatality.
- Electricity made with nuclear fuel is competitive with electricity made from other fuels.
- We have the largest proven reserves of nuclear fuel in the free world, and a dollar's worth of nuclear fuel contains as much energy as $10 worth of imported oil.

At your electric company, we believe the debate on nuclear power has served its purpose and now it has gone on long enough. Most Americans agree that we should be developing the potential of this domestic and less costly fuel.

The record shows that nuclear power is clean, efficient, competitive and safe. And to supply the electricity we need to keep this area attractive for living and working, it's necessary. So let's get on with it.

PHOTOS FROM THE PAST

In last week's Photos From the Past, the baby in the "short" dress was Frank Hoedebeck. The baby in the long dress was his sister, Frances, Mrs. Clem Reiter. The elaborate garments were made by their mother, Mrs. Fred Hoedebeck, Sr. The wide, crocheted lace edging, lace insertion and rows of pin tucks were all handmade. Think of the washing, starching and ironing!

Three couples attend Fair and game

The Alvin Hartmans and the Bob Hartmans spent Saturday at the State Fair in Dallas and attended the NT-SU-UTA football game at the Cotton Bowl. Meeting them there were the Eddie Stocks of Dallas. Beta Kappa welcomes pledges

Beta Kappa of ESA held its Pledging Ceremony on Tuesday, October 27 at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium of the Cooke County Electric Co-op Building. New pledges honored were Margie Wimmer and Debbie Hess. They are shown in the above photo with, l. to r. Jan Cain, Mmes. Wimmer and Hess, Louise Fisher and Jeanne Greathouse.

During the meeting that followed, members decided to make Christmas Advent bags for residents of St. Richard's Villa. They also planned a turkey raffle for December 24 at Fischer's Meat Market. Tickets are available at Fischer's, Hofbauer's and from Beta Kappa members.

Members also commended Jeanne Greathouse and Marcie Wilde for hosting Rush parties at both homes.

An award was presented for a special contribution during the year by a member Pam Fette, who received the Golden Link Award for the Educational Program she presented at a meeting.

Wanda Flusche was hostess for the Pledge Ceremony meeting and served a buffet of pick-up foods. She also gave the educational talk on Foster Homes. The club's next meeting will be on November 10. Margie Wimmer was reporter for the October meeting. Staff Photo

Muenster Library purchases new reference books

Muenster Public Library has purchased two 1981 sets of reference books. "The New Book of Popular Science" in six volumes presents major topics from all fields of science in a manner that upper elementary students can fully comprehend. This set provides current, accurate and in depth subject coverage students need to complete class-room assignments and research projects. The major areas covered are Astronomy and Space Science, Computers and Mathematics, Earth Sciences, Energy, Environmental Sciences, Physical Sciences, Biology, Plant Life, Animal Life, Mammals, Human Sciences and Technology. This is an unusually attractive reference tool.

"Lands and Peoples" in six volumes is an invaluable social studies resource providing up-to-date information on the political and social changes taking place in the world today. Every country in the world is represented by a separate article which provides statistical, geographical, economic and historical information as well as specific details about the people and their way of life. This 1981 edition has over 1,600 color photographs and over 250 maps in color.

Other new reference books are a two volume set of the "Founders of Freedom" which are the biographies of the signers of the Constitution of the United States and of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. The new two volume set of the "Presidents of the United States" includes the life of President Reagan. Also included are the chronologies of the vice-presidents and defeated candidates for the presidency from 1789 to the present time, presidential election returns from 1789 to the present as well as the members of the United States Cabinets from 1789 to the present. Other reference books include a five volume set of Encyclopedia of Art, Encyclopedia of Science and Technology, Encyclopedia of Military History, Encyclopedia of American Facts and Dates, Encyclopedia of World History, The Dance Encyclopedia, Dictionary of Saints, and Famous First Facts.

Library Hours Tuesday - 8:30 to 5:00; Wednesday - 2:30 to 5:30; Thursday - 8:30 to 5:00.

Hood Club meets Oct. 14

J.T. Barker presided for the Hood Community Improvement Club on October 14, 1981. He discussed a crime prevention program which he had attended. In this program neighbors help by looking out for one another's places and perhaps report unusual happenings to those in authority.

The turkey supper was discussed and planned. This will be held on Saturday, November 7, 1981 at the club building. Serving time will begin at 5:00 p.m. Tickets will be $4.00 for adults and $2.00 for children under twelve. A complete turkey and dressing meal will be prepared and served by the ladies in the community. Dessert and drinks are included with the meal. This project is a fund raiser to make needed improvements to the club building and grounds.

All members who can be asked to come to the club building on the Wednesday afternoon before the supper to help clean the building and do needed yard work. The date will be November 4, 1981.

Members enjoyed a potluck meal as refreshments. The next scheduled meeting will be on Monday, November 2.

Cindy Ramsey memory honored in 8th grade Liturgy

A Liturgy in memory of Cindy Ramsey, a former classmate who died last year, was planned and presented by the eighth grade CCD Class during the CCD Mass on Wednesday, October 14 in Sacred Heart Church. The 8th grade class is taught by Sister Cecilia Marie and Sister Cabrini.

Cindy Ramsey's family attended as special guests.

The entrance and Offertory processions were narrated by Tammie Reiter who also read a poem about Cindy, preceding the entrance. In the procession were Danny Serna, carrying a picture of Cindy to place on a table in front of the altar; Mass servers Jeff Hellman, Jeff Walterscheid, Scott Hudspeth, Alan Hudspeth and Kevin Anderle, and Father Stephen Eckart, celebrant.

The first Reading was given by Dana Dankesreiter, with Response by John Anderle. Petitions and Prayers of the Faithful were given by Deann Walterscheid, Valerie Vogel and Darren Walterscheid.

In the Offertory procession were Rose Herr, with a lighted candle to place on the altar in Cindy's memory; Sharen Wolf who carried flowers in her honor; Karen Wolf who carried Cindy's Bible, because this was very important to her; and Tonya Fisher, who carried Cindy's track shoes, signifying the sport she loved most.

Offertory gifts were presented by Stuart Luke, Rita Walterscheid, and Pen-ni Hess.

The Communion Meditation: "On The Other Side of Death" was read by Jean Pagel. Organist and song leader were Mmes. Eileen Fisher and Ruth Felderhoff.

Students of the 7th grade class taught by Mrs. Theresa Walterscheid participated in the October 21 CCD Mass and Liturgy. They included Mark Hennigan with the First Reading; Kelly Hennigan with the Response; and Brian Klement and Samuel Fleitman with the Offertory petitions. Kristi Pagel, Rhonda Trubenbach and Daniel Klement presented Offertory gifts at the altar.

Mrs. Nick Block has six 4-H Gold Star grandchildren

The family of Mrs. Nick Block of Lindsay and the late Mr. Block has long been dedicated to high achievement in 4-H Club work. Their daughters were very active in 4-H, winning many honors and awards as students and later as adult leaders. And the Block's grandchildren are continuing what has become a family tradition. Six grandchildren have been named Gold Star 4-H winners in their home counties.

Linda Sandmann, a Lindsay High School senior and daughter of Clem and Rita Block Sandmann was named Cooke County's 1981 Gold Star 4-H girl last month and became the fourth daughter in the Sandmann family to earn the honor, sharing it with Dolores, now a senior at TWU; Kathleen, Mrs. Nick Schroeder; and Mary Ann, a freshman at TWU.

And two grandsons of Mrs. Nick Block have been named Gold Star 4-H boys in Grayson County. Don Fleitman, a senior in Denison High School is the Gold Star 4-H boy for 1981 in Grayson County. In 1980 his brother Mike won the Gold Star honor. Mike is now attending Texas A&M University. They are sons of Herbert and Mary Jane Block Fleitman of Denison.

Fishing in 4-H

The Cooke County 4-H program has recently completed a sportfishing project. This project was initiated to help 4-H'ers who like to fish gain a better knowledge of fish and fishing. The material covered in the fishing project was basic, and about anyone who has fished very much would be aware of the information presented. The project was adjusted to fit about any need, but it consisted mainly of classroom instruction and a fishing trip. A field trip was also planned during the September meeting when instructions were given on the project.

Forestburg FFA is second in grass judging at Waco

The Forestburg FFA senior grass judging team won the second place banner in the Heart O' Texas Fair contest at Waco. Douglas Edwards was third high scoring individual and received a belt buckle. Other team members were Falcia Bell, fifth high; Veronica Edwards, seventh high; individual and Jeff Carter, eighth high.

The top three teams in the contest were: Stanton FFA, 1129; Forestburg FFA, 1055 and Dawson FFA.

Cookie Myers has 4-H program October 20

Cookie Myers, Assistant County Agent presented the program "Who Are You?" to members of the Muenster Community 4-H Club during the October 20 meeting in the cafeteria of the Muenster Public School at 3:30 p.m.

Members reported on the Achievement Banquet for 4-H Clubs, held at Cooke County College on October 5. A report was also given on the Fishing Project, recently completed. 4-H'ers who planned to participate in the "Share-the-Fun" project and a Rifle Project, signed up for these. If enough interest is shown in the Rifle Project, attempts will be made to find an adult leader to teach the members.

The next meeting will be held on November 10. Regular meetings are scheduled for the 2nd Tuesday of each month. On November 10 the Crafts meeting will be held.

Officers this year are Stephen Becker president; Wayne Becker vice president; Amy Davidson secretary; Amy Bayer song leader; Carl Zimmerer recreational leader; Shelly Zimmerer council delegate; Andy Burnette alternate delegate; and Jill Walterscheid reporter.

Forestburg FHA has Halloween party

The Forestburg FHA will entertain young children of the community on Friday, October 30, with a Halloween party in the school gym from 6 p.m. until 7 p.m. There will be prizes, games, a spook house, grab bag and refreshments.

Following the party the children will be Trick or Treating in the community. The party will be held on Friday to allow everyone in the community to be present on Saturday when the Forestburg School will hold its annual Halloween Carnival, sponsored by the PTO at 6:30 p.m.

King and Queen of the Carnival will be chosen in three age levels, elementary, junior high and high school. All Forestburg high school students are helping to sell tickets for a drawing as a fund raising project.

Mrs. Jo Ann Sicking is faculty advisor to the FHA.

Kindergarten Muenster ISD

Travis Trachta's 6th birthday was observed in Kindergarten on Tuesday October 20. His mother, Mrs. Tom Trachta, who was unable to attend, sent cupcakes for refreshments. His classmates placed the candles on the "class birthday cake" and sang the Happy Birthday Song for him.

Albert Knabe was 6 years old on Friday, October 23. His mother, Mrs. Andy Knabe, observed the day by bringing cupcakes baked in ice cream cones, and punch to serve in Kindergarten.

Goblins and ghosties and things that don't bump in the night

Tiny spooks and goblins are busy getting their scary costumes and masks ready for the big night. Halloween is coming!

The ancient observance of All Hallow's Eve is almost strictly for the younger set these days. They take full advantage of the occasion to mooch candies and other goodies from willing neighbors, chanting the call, "Trick or Treat!"

Although Halloween has been tamed somewhat in recent years, and many parents and schools organize parties to replace the traditional neighborhood rounds, a lot of kids will still opt for that old standby, trick or treating. You can help make this Halloween a safe and memorable one for the little ones by giving some thought to safety, suggests the Texas Medical Association (TMA).

It's a good idea to accompany youngsters on their neighborhood treks, since in their excitement they may be less than cautious about traffic hazards. Also, encourage them to go trick or treating early in the evening while it's still light outside.

When making your small spook's costume, use bright colors for visibility. You might even sew on some reflective tape that can be easily seen in the dark. Don't make loose-fitting costumes that may catch on fences or other obstacles. And make sure that costumes aren't so long the little ones trip over themselves.

Masks that cover the entire face can be dangerous. They often block vision and, if they slip, they can even block breathing. A "skin mask" made of grease paint or make-up is safer, and a lot more creative, too.

If the giddy goblin wants a light, give him or her a flashlight, not a candle. Never allow small children to carry around sharp objects that can hurt them if they happen to fall.

Difficult though this may be, convince your children not to eat any goodies until you have inspected them first. There have been a few incidents of twisted individuals giving children fruit or candy with needles, razor blades, glass or drugs hidden within.

Be considerate of other people's children. Try to make your goodies nutritious. Also, keep pets indoors--bands of noisy children may excite them. Keep outdoor lights on so small ghosts won't stumble.

If you take reasonable safety precautions this Halloween, the Great Pumpkin will grace your pumpkin patch this year!

Muenster Scouts at Camporee

Boy Scouts of Muenster Troop 664 spent an enjoyable and educational weekend campout at Sid Richardson Scout Ranch near Bridgeport last Saturday and Sunday. They took part in many events and won second place, overall, in the Camporee, scoring 94 points. The winning troop scored 95 points. Judging was based upon scouting skills and scouting spirit.

Scouts attending from Muenster were Alan Hudspeth, Ronnie Walterscheid, Pat Hellman and Brian Wimmer, with Assistant Scoutmaster John Walterscheid.

Forestburg 4-H meets Oct. 22

Twelve members of the Forestburg 4-H Club attended the October 22 meeting in the Forestburg school. Page Sirman gave a demonstration on table settings. Members discussed the Montague County Food Show and made suggestions for future programs.

The cooking group reported on completion of the 6 hour cooking project.

Mrs. Judy Farrell and Scott were guests at the meeting. Next month's meeting will be held on November 11. Krista Shults is club reporter.

Cub Scout News

Pack 664 held its monthly meeting Oct. 26 at the VFW Hall. Cub Brad McDaniels lit the spirit candle and then the flags were posted by Webelos Murlin Evans and Jeff Walterscheid. An induction ceremony was in store for Brian Reiter who has just joined Pack 664. The ceremony stressed the importance of the family in the Cub Scout program. Brian will be in den 2 with Patsy Bayer as his den leader.

Three cubs advancing into the Bob cat rank were Raymond Stewart, Chad Bayer, and Jerry Brawner.

Webelos Jeff Walterscheid, Jason Gehrig and Murlin Evans read from their logbook on a few points that were worked on for their citizenship activity badge. Other Webelos who received their citizenship badge were Shawn Vogel, Danny Black, Keith Vogel, and Eric Dankesreiter.

Goodwill bags were distributed to all cubs present and den leaders will distribute bags to cubs that were absent.

The traditional "Turkey Shoot" has been set for November 8, Sunday at 2:00 at the Muenster Park.

District Scout Show will be Saturday, December 5 at the Tarrant County Convention Center in Fort Worth.

A special thanks was given to David Bayer for building an advancement ladder, which should be ready for use at the November pack meeting. Anyone who would like to help the Cubs by filling a goodwill bag with reusable goods is asked to call cubmaster, Lupe Evans, November Pack meeting will be November 30, at the VFW Hall at 7:00 p.m.

Den 4

Cubs of den 4 met at den leader Lupe Evans house on Tuesday, October 20, and preceded on a field trip to the Fisher Dairy to watch the evening milking. Mr. Fisher explained the process to the boys then let them watch the feeding of the baby calves. Refreshments

Area V FFA banquet held

More than 1000 FFA members from 119 chapters attended the Area V FFA awards banquet and round-up at Fort Worth Monday night. Highlight of the event was a speech by Rafe Foreman of Idalou, state president of FFA.

Awards and recognitions were made as follows.

Area individuals receiving the honorary Lone Star Farmer degree were C.E. Cox of Gainesville, Eddie McDonald of Bridgeport and Ronnie Clark of Valley View.

Foundation award winners were Toni Fortenberry of Slidell, Traci York and Tammy Davidson of Era and Leslie Alexander of Valley View.

First place judging teams recognized were Bowie in Livestock, Forestburg in Land, Plant Identification and Range and pasture; Callisburg in Ag Mechanics and Sweepstakes, and Valley

View in Dairy Cattle. District 1 chapters receiving superior chapter certificates were Boyd, Bowie, Bridgeport, Callisburg, Chico, Decatur, Era, Forestburg, Gainesville, Gold-Burg, Muenster, Nocona, Paradise, Saint Jo, Slidell and Valley View.

Forestburg members attending were Jeff Carter, Douglas Edwards and Ricky Woodard.

Tiger Tales

SHH Juniors of the Algebra II class held a going away party for Mrs. Betsy Fleitman on Thursday. They presented a gift from the class.

Juniors are getting ready to take the PSAT tests on Tuesday, October 27.

Muenster Police Chief Helen Tompkins prepares to speak to the young women's group and to show two films.

Police Chief's talk stresses safety on the streets

Muenster Area Chapter 5 of the Young Homemakers of Texas presented a special program open to the public as part of their regular monthly meeting on October 8, when they hosted Helen Tompkins, Muenster Police Chief. She showed a film "Safety on the Street" followed by a question and answer period.

Mrs. Tompkins stressed the importance of avoiding deserted alleys, buildings, parking lots and darkened stairs and emphasized the risks of hitchhiking.

She said that, although children don't always "listen to parents", it remains the parents' responsibility to stress again and again the dangers of the street and the dangers inherent to bribery with "goodies."

Mrs. Tompkins also discussed various types of burglar alarms available today. And she urged all who ever need assistance of the police to ask for help quickly and have their phone numbers readily available.

Members thanked her for a thoroughly informative program.

During the business meeting that followed, members recited the "Lord's Prayer" in unison. Coming events and community projects and the Area 5 convention in Plano were discussed and year-books were distributed.

The visit to St. Richard's Villa for mothers and children will be a fun time dress-up in costumes on October 29 at 6 p.m. FHA members will bring cookies and YHT members will furnish punch.

Mmes. Janet Fisher and Glenda Russell were hostesses for the October meeting and Sue Trachta won the door prize. Members will report their Current Stationery sales during the October 29 meeting. Mrs. Karlyn Hermes is reporter for the YHT.

PALE YUCCA
(Yucca Pallida)

Pale yucca is a low growing plant that is usually found in clumps of many plants. The leaves are blueish green in color and may be up to 16 inches long. The leaves are usually 1/2 inches wide with yellowish margins, minute teeth and somewhat wavy.

The flowers are on erect stems up to 7 1/2 feet tall with numerous branchlets up to 8 inches long. There will be many flowers, yellowish green in color and may be up to 16 inches long. The leaves are usually 1/2 inches wide with yellowish margins, minute teeth and somewhat wavy.

The blossoms in early days were made into pickles or cooked like cabbage. The Indians fermented the fruit of various species of yucca to make an intoxicating beverage.

Pale yucca is usually found in the Blackland Prairies from Cooke County south to Austin.

The smaller-leaved yuccas are often called "bear-grass" because of the grass-like leaves. They can be transplanted easily, preferably in early spring or late winter.

Fishers see northeast fall foliage and shrines

Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Fisher and Mrs. J.A. Fisher have returned from a Fall Foliage Tour to northeastern states for eleven days.

They also attended the celebration on October 13 of 64th anniversary of the Apparition of Our Lady of Fatima at the National Blue Army Shrine in Washington N.J. There they attended Mass celebrated by Fr. James Lebar and heard John M. Hoffert speak on the Miracle of Our Lady appearing to the three little children.

In the afternoon they were present for the ground breaking for the Pilgrim and Retreat House, also the Rosary Procession with the Pilgrim Virgin statue followed by a Mass celebrated by Archbishop G.H. Pearce. It was attended by 10,000 persons.

During the trip they enjoyed spectacular scenery and beautiful foliage enroute and returning. They drove to Litzitz, Pennsylvania to visit the Mike Lardners and family, who took them to Gettysburg and to the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Shrine Center and the Our Lady of the Mountain Shrine. They also toured the Amish Country, with beautiful weather favoring them throughout.

Tigers take Big D Chargers

Another welcome relief from a disappointing season was enjoyed by Sacred Heart's Tigers last week in a close and hotly contested 7-0 decision over the Dallas Christian Chargers.

The win is their second of the year and just in time to serve as a morale builder for this week's very important district opener with Tyler Gorman. The Tyler school as well as Notre Dame of Wichita Falls are the Tigers' loop opponents.

Father Stephen had the district action in mind after the game when he reminded his youngsters they would have to use their opportunities to stay in contention in the TCIL games. The Tigers lost possession on five turnovers last week.

Their only successful drive came early in the second period starting on

Matthew Zimmerer observes birthday

A birthday dinner in the home of the Ray J. Zimmerers, Jr. was held Sunday in Wichita Falls for Matthew Zimmerer. In the afternoon a birthday cake and ice cream were served and Matthew opened his gifts.

Those attending, in addition to his parents and brother Scott were the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Zimmerer.

Joe Matthews and several other friends and relatives stopped by and brought gifts.

their 33 yard line. The play that started the flow of adrenalin was Neil Hesse's pass to Brian Herr for 28 yards. An 8 yard run by Hesse plus 7 on another pass to Herr reached the 24 and eight plays of tough football finished the job. Curtis Hesse went over left tackle for the last 2 yards. Curtis Hesse kicked the PTO raising the score to 7-0 with 4:04 remaining in the period.

For a while after that, the Chargers appeared to be on the way to a matching TD. They started from their 22 and moved 46 yards to the Tiger 32 as time was running out. They tried a field goal there and had it blocked by the Tigers.

The first quarter presented two opportunities in which the Tigers started good but failed to keep going. A 46 yard punt return by Steve Hennigan plus a 13 yard gain by Neil Hesse reached the 23 where a pitch-out went astray and was recovered by a Charger.

Next play the ball came back on a Charger fumble and the two next series ended in punts.

Then the Tigers made 21 yards to the 28 in two first downs before being stopped cold on the 25 on four unproductive efforts.

On first possession of the third period Tigers had another hot streak, starting with a 12 yard pass to Curtis Hesse and a 16 yard run by Hesse. Five more plays reached the 17 where the drive ended abruptly in an interception.

Two plays later T.J. Walterscheid recovered a fumble giving his team another chance for the Charger 22. But SH promptly fumbled it back.

Still another opportunity came near the end of the period. A high snap from center spoiled a punt and tumbled to the 20 where the Tigers took possession. On the very next play they lost it again by interception.

The fourth quarter was free of turnovers but limited in gains. Early in the period the visitors advanced 33 yards in 8 plays, then lost 21 of the gain in two busted plays. Sacred Heart's best of the period was a 25 yard gain by Neil Hesse.

Tiger standouts were Neil Hesse, 67 yards on 12 carries, Curtis Hesse, 38 yards on 13 carries, and Brian Herr, 35 yards on two pass completions, also T.J. Walterscheid, 2 fumble recoveries, and Greg Walterscheid, 1 fumble recovery, along with Wade Walterscheid, Curtis Hesse, Mark Miller, Hal Mollenkopf, Mike Bartush, Floyd Truebenbach and Mike Dangelmayr.

Tigers meet Gorman in TCIL opener

The situation for Sacred Heart's Tigers has improved somewhat as they go into their TCIL district race, but it's still far from a cinch. After playing lots of big and potent opponents they are more comfortable competing in their own class even though they may be slightly over matched.

This week the opponent is Gorman High of Tyler and the action will be at Tyler, Friday night at 7:30. As seen by Assistant Coach Virgil Henschel the teams are about equally handicapped by shortage of experience both having lost almost all starters in last year's graduation. Neither is up to 1980 when Gorman dumped the Tigers 21-7 on the SH field.

Other factors that may have a bearing are slightly more speed and more weight favoring Gorman. And the 3-5 record compared with the Tigers' 2-6 is also more impressive.

Henschel chooses to ignore the signs, however, saying his boys have their eyes on the district title, and they're ready, mentally and physically. That means, of course, that they need to show the ability they have shown at times and avoid the mistakes they have made at other times.

Physically the team is fine except Ricky Hennigan. He's doubtful, still favoring an injury from last week.

The team will go to Tyler by bus Thursday.

Route Suggestion

Suggestions on driving to the game are offered as follows by Coach Jon LeBrosseur. Approaching Tyler exit 1-20 to Hwy 69 and follow to Loop 323. Exit right and follow 323 to Gorman High.

Full of fun, sun, bratwurst and ale, and with muscles beginning to tighten in the late afternoon chill, these weary wanderers appreciate the use of their canes as they head home. This scene will be typical at Fort Sill's second annual International Volksmarch, October 31 and November 1, "more fun and games than you thought possible this side of the Rhineland."

EASY STEPS TO

DO-IT-YOURSELF ENERGY MANAGEMENT

"to keep your dollars from flying out the windows...doors...attic...walls"

- ✓1. Weatherstrip all doors and windows.
- ✓2. Insulate the attic. There are a number of materials available for this do-it-yourself job. A minimum of R26 is recommended for this area.
- ✓3. Insulate walls to a R19 and pier and beam-crawl space to a R13.
- ✓4. Clean or replace filters on heating units at least every month and have periodic check-ups on these units to keep them in top operating condition.
- ✓5. Turn your thermostat to 68 degrees in the winter and still maintain a comfortable home while saving energy.
- ✓6. Insulate all hot water pipes and heating system ducts in unheated passages.
- ✓7. Fix leaking faucets and be certain to turn spigot completely off when you are through with the water.

Jaskas honored at SMU game

Bobo and Virginia Jaska, "Aggie Parents of the Year" are enjoying a very special year as representatives of all parents involved with the over 33,000 student body. They will be particularly honored on Saturday, October 31 during the A&M-SMU football game and will be presented on the 50 yard line.

News of Hornet Spirit Moms

Mrs. Evelyn Sicking is chairman of activities for the Hornet Spirit Moms this week when MHS Hornets face the Saint Jo Panthers in their annual game. Last week's chairman was Mrs. Joyce Huckaby, when the Hornets played Perrin.

MHS host Panthers Fri.

The signs point to an easy victory for the Hornets this week, so the Junior Varsity Hornets are counting on a fair share of the action. That's how it was last week when Muenster rolled up a 35-0 lead over Perrin and Coach Peters sent in his reserves for about half of the game.

This time the opponent is Saint Jo, laboring under of a record of 1-7, the win being a 10-7 decision over Perrin on a late field goal.

Regarding the District 8-A title race the game is meaningless. Paradise has the championship all but sewed up with a 3-0 standing and a win over Muenster to break the tie in case the two come out even. Era and Alvord, each at 1-1-1, have even less chance.

Coach Peters was disappointed last week by Alvord's loss to Paradise, thereby putting the Panthers comfortably in front. He had hoped for an assist via Alvord's win. It was a last chance to be rescued after Muenster's impressive record was made futile by a tragedy of mistakes.

However, the season isn't over. Peters said the Hornets are playing for pride since the trophy is out of reach. They fully intend to end with an 8-2 record.

Hornets whip Perrin

Muenster High's game with Perrin last week was a breeze in which the Hornets ran up 35 points in about half of the playing time and then watched the Junior Varsity give the visitors a more even game.

The JVs gave up a touchdown in their part of the contest, allowing the visitors the satisfaction of getting on the board. The end result was a 35-6 decision for Muenster but a disappointment in its district ambition. MHS needed an assist from Alvord to stay in the 8-A race and failed to get it. Paradise beat the Bulldogs 22-8. So now Paradise is 3-0 and Muenster is 2-1. By winning the last two while Paradise loses its two, Muenster can still be No. 1, but that is very unlikely.

Next best possibility is two more wins for Muenster and one for Paradise, in which case the teams are tied. But then Paradise would get the nod because of its win over Muenster.

As seen by Coach Peters, this probably ends the district race for the Hornets, but it does not end the season. The boys can keep playing with pride and end with an 8-2 record. Opponents still on the schedule are Saint Jo here Friday and Alvord there next week.

The trend of last week's game became apparent on Muenster's first possession, which followed David Flusche's interception on Perrin's second series. With 60 yards to go the Hornets scored in four runs, 12 by Gary Klement, 34 by Kevin Felderhoff, 11 by Flusche and 3 by Dale Swirczynski. Swirczynski kicked true for the PAT upping the lead to 7-0 at 7:47 in the first period.

The second score came faster. Perrin fumbled the kickoff and Gary Klement recovered on the Pirate 23. A holding penalty moved the ball back to the 33 after which Felderhoff's pass to Tim Schneider gained 14 and Felderhoff's run reached the 11. Swirczynski scored from there. Trying for the kick after TD, the center's snap was high, Swirczynski went back and picked it up, scrambled momentarily among defenders and then unloaded to Flusche who scooted to the end zone. The busted one-point try came out as a 2-pointer. MHS led 15-0 at 6:18.

Promptly after that Perrin kicked on first series and Muenster started its third drive from its own 38. Klement gained 20 and a pass to Vance Wells gained 16 to the 26, but a fumble ended the drive on the 21. Following the Pirate kick four plays later Muenster made another start, with 54 to go. Eight plays overcame a holding penalty and the distance. Klement going 38 on the touchdown run. Swirczynski's kick made the count 22-0 at 9:07.

JVs then got their first turn at the action, and Pirates responded with a 53 yard drive ending in a fumble on Muenster's 15. So, with time running out, the regulars returned to the field. Nine plays, including 20 each by Felderhoff, Flusche and Swirczynski, and Swirczynski's 1 yard plunge, produced the fourth touchdown just before the half ended. Swirczynski's kick made it 29-0.

During the fast moving half Muenster gained 254 in rushing and 37 in passing for 12 first downs whereas Perrin had 81 in rushing and no passing for 5 first downs. The next half was destined to be about even after the regulars signed off with a 66 yard scoring drive in seven plays, including passes to Wells, Schneider and Tate and Felderhoff's 16 yard TD romp. The kick missed. The score was 35-0 at 8:49 in the third period.

Hornet JVs started then with an on-side kick recovered by Mark Hoenig, but promptly fumbled at midfield.

The turnover inspired a

Perrin drive which went 42 yards before running out of steam on a fourth down effort on the 6.

Hornets got back to the 23 before they too stalled, giving the ball back at the 23. Three plays later the visitors got their touchdown on a 17 yard pass. The scoring was ended at 35-6 at 8:32 in the last period.

For the rest of the game the teams broke even. Each completed a first down and failed to make the second series.

Klement headed the night's rushing with 102 yards in 5 carries. Flusche had 49 on five carries and Swirczynski made 44 on 5 carries.

Felderhoff baptism held Sunday

Kelly Ann Felderhoff, daughter of Tim and Ramona Felderhoff, was baptized on Sunday, Oct. 25, 1981. The ceremony took place at noon at Sacred Heart Church with Father Stephen Eckart officiating. Mark Felderhoff and Carol Walterscheid served as godparents. Kelly Ann wore the same baptismal gown that her mother wore when she was baptized. She also wore a "magic Hanky" bonnet, a gift from her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Walterscheid, and a St. Christopher medal, a gift from her godmother, Carol Walterscheid.

following the ceremony, in the Tim Felderhoff home. Guests included the grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Walterscheid and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Felderhoff, the great-grandmother Mrs. Catherine Hermes. Other guests were aunts, uncles and cousins, Glenn, Carol, Lloyd and Vicki Walterscheid, Terry Felderhoff, Patty Fuhrmann and Hollie of Grapevine. Dale and Marilyn Trevathan and Joshua of Tyler, John and Cheryl Felderhoff and Ray of Garland, and Mark Felderhoff and Terry Flusche.

You old Forestburgers will remember this gentleman — especially if you used to go to Forestburg on Saturday afternoons, in the old days. He was always there.

Forestburg News

by Myrt Denham

Last week I mentioned how much everyone in the area was enjoying the much needed rain - but then came the deluge that really did so much damage. Don't believe those rams were enjoyed so very much. However, all the area lakes, ponds and stock tanks are full of water and the creeks are running. First time in years and years.

Chandler Perryman of Torrington, Wyoming visited with his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. W.T. Reynolds from Saturday p.m. Oct. 10th to Mon. Oct. 12th. On Sunday the 11th they visited another sister, Mrs. Joe Denham of Bowie. Chandler owns and operates a Barber Shop in Torrington. He and his wife Thelma have three children, two daughters and one son—all are grown, married and with families.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Holland and Brent drove to Denton Saturday p.m. Oct. 17th to visit with their daughter Christie and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Osama Rashid. Kenneth took a vacation the week of Oct. 18th to gather and work up his bumper pecan crop.

Master Chris Carter of Bowie visited with his dad Johnny and his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Jack Carter from Thursday Oct. 16th to Sunday the 18th. Jack's father from Denton also spent the same weekend with them.

Janice Lanier of Wichita Falls celebrated her birthday Friday Oct. 16th. On Saturday the 17th she was honored with a party in the home of her mother Mrs. Shirley Lanier. Some of those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Teakell of Fort Worth, Charles Lanier and Randall Griffith of Wichita Falls and several other guests.

The First United Methodist Church of Saint Jo and the Forestburg United Methodist Church had their quarterly conference meeting at the Forestburg United Methodist Church Sunday Oct. 18th at 7 p.m. A good crowd attended and after the meeting there was a period of fellowship in the church Annex with the folks attending enjoying refreshments.

There is a Bible Study every Wednesday night at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Rev. and Mrs. Odell Harris, the Nazarene Pastor and his wife. Everyone is invited to attend these studies. Refreshments are served after the study.

The following news item was sent to us by Rex Anderson: Bill Miller of Portland, Oregon was met at D/FW Airport on Friday October 16th by Billie and Rex Anderson and taken to their home in Euleus. Mr. Miller had been in Washington D.C. on business for the Retired Teachers Association. Later that afternoon the group returned to D/FW to meet Mrs. Miller who flew in from Portland. After visiting at the airport the Millers went on to Dallas with his brother and sister. The Millers taught school at Forestburg from the mid-thirties to the Springs of 1943. At that time they moved to Portland, Oregon to work in the Shipyards during WW II. At the end of the war they accepted positions with the Portland School System. Their son, Ramsey, lives in Oregon and their daughter, Lee Anna, lives in Hawaii. After attending a college re-union in Commerce, Texas the Millers flew on to Los Angeles where Mr. Miller conducted a conference for Retired Teachers Association.

Shirley Lanier and Cleo Lanier attended the Open House for the Harlow Ranch at Nocona on Sunday afternoon the 18th. They were taken on a tour of the buildings, etc. The two Lanier ladies did not attend the meeting together — neither knew the other was going. Mrs. Pauline Seay of Nocona went with Cleo. They enjoyed the open house, tour and refreshments served them.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack C. Dill and Vatori visited with Jack's mother Mrs. Beulah Dill of Era Sunday p.m. the 18th.

Mr. and Mrs. Cotton White of Bowie and Charles Hudspeth of Duncanville visited with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hudspeth Sunday October 18th.

Mrs. Myrtle Fanning returned to the Yes-ter-Yer Home in Saint Jo Friday October 16 after being a patient in the Muenster Hospital.

Mrs. Veda Brogdon and Mrs. Becky Scott and Jennifer were in Gainesville on business, shopping and to visit with Mrs. Marjorie Orrell and sons on Saturday Oct. 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dill, Keith and Kody and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Dill and Brady ventured down to Dallas Sunday October 18th to take in the State Fair. They report having a wonderful time and that there was huge crowd in attendance.

Albert Curnutt of Clovis, New Mexico, Mrs. Della Sigman and Rachel Reynolds of Bowie visited with the Bennett and Jimmy Joe Reynolds families Monday October 19th. Albert, Bennett and Jimmy Joe are cousins.

Seems as if tupperware parties are trying to get a "toe-hold" in the area again. Faith Sandusky had a small one Tuesday night October 20th. Attending were: Mmes. Vesta Carter, Laura Belle Jackson, Jewell Dill, Gayle Edwards and Veronica, Jeanne Talley of Saint Jo, Mrs. Lanney Sappington of Saint Jo and Myrtle Denham. It really turned into a fun time evening for all of us.

Mrs. Vesta Carter and Mrs. Nema Barnett were in Bowie Wednesday the 21st on business and shopping. They also visited with Mrs. Joe Denham and Myrtle McMillion in the Bellmire Home.

Perryman came in Thursday a.m. the 22nd after making a run into the burg and informed me that the local cafe was open once more. He said there were about 15 pickups surrounding it. Perryman said that all the local loofers were "back in the saddle again." We learned that a Mr. and Mrs. Moss are running the cafe and it opened it's doors on the 17th of Oct.

Saw and heard my first geese heading south on Monday Oct. 19th. Guess cold weather is heading our way.

Billy Bob Greenwood, 47-year-old Forestburg, Texas, rancher, died Thursday in a Bowie, Texas, hospital.

Services were at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Forestburg Church of Christ with Roscoe Raymond, minister, and C.E. Cole, minister of the Saint Jo Church of Christ, officiating. Burial was in Perryman Cemetery under direction of Scott-McCoy Funeral Home.

A native of Forestburg, Greenwood was born May 19, 1934. Survivors include a daughter, Delene Langley of Dallas; his mother, Mrs. Georgia Greenwood of Forestburg; three sisters, Wanda Magee, Wynona Riddles and Jo Ann Greenwood, all of Forestburg; three brothers, Buford of Forestburg, Delbert of Sunset, Texas and Truman of Pilot Point, Texas, and one grandson.

Last weeks picture was of George Volkman and his wife, Vera. The Volkman name has been synonymous with Forestburg since it's beginning. They were of German descent and the whole family was always known as hard working thrifty farmers. George's mother was one of the survivors of the Kennan family Indian Massacre. She was a small baby at the time but grew up to marry and raise a large family of which George was a son.

Jim Collins announces for Senate

Saying that Texans want a Senator who "will vote Conservative to end Inflation and get back to lower interest rates," Texas congressman Jim Collins announced that he will run for the U.S. Senate in 1982.

Collins announced his decision at five press conferences Saturday around the state in Dallas, Houston, San Antonio, Midland/Odessa, and Amarillo.

"The people of Texas have told me in my travels around the state that they have more government than they want, more regulations than they need, and more taxes than they can afford to pay. What these Texans told me is that they want strong, conservative representation in Washington. It is for this reason that I am today announcing my candidacy for the United States Senate," Collins said.

Collins said the difference between him and the incumbent Senator is the difference between a Conservative and a Liberal. "The incumbent has voted for more and more government spending. I have voted for less and less spending. Government spending is what is causing today's high interest and inflation rates. Talking conservative doesn't help the elderly on fixed incomes increase their purchasing power, you have to vote conservative. Bentsen's voting record during the past ten years shows he voted against only two of 145 Spending Appropriations bills.

During his eight terms in the U.S. House, Collins has led the fights to oppose forced busing, reduce the massive growth of Congressional staffs, and give the American taxpayers a "Taxpayers' Bill of Rights".

"Texans need to send a conservative to the Senate who will vote against spending bills. Young people today can't buy a house because the interest rates are too high. Young men and women can't start a business with a 20% interest rate and a 10% profit. This is the result of elected officials who vote Liberal.

Texans don't want a Senator who will give away the Panama Canal and weaken our national defense. I believe I can give Texas the strong, conservative leadership it deserves," Collins said.

TAX FREE... Interest on 1 Year Savings Certificates

The ALL SAVERS CERTIFICATE has been approved by Congress as part of President Reagan's Economic Recovery Program. Under this program, banks may issue one year certificates with the first $1,000 ($2,000 for couples filing jointly) of interest earned being TAX- EXEMPT.

UPDATE: It is permissible to convert your 6 month Money Market Certificates to the new ALL SAVERS CERTIFICATES without penalty or loss of interest. To determine if this conversion is advisable, contact one of our friendly officers.

For example, a married couple filing jointly with a net taxable income of $20,000 would realize a return equivalent to 16.19% if the interest was taxable... If their income was $50,000, that equivalent would be 24.28%. (Based on ALL SAVERS CERTIFICATES earning 12.14%).

Muenster State Bank
759-2257 Member FDIC

"Our interest is in our community."

The tax exemption plus 3 month's interest is forfeited if the certificate is cashed before 1 year. $500 minimum required. This offer is subject to Federal regulations.
