President Reagan's completion of a year in office is bringing out volumes of comment on the merits and demerits of his performance. Opinions vary, of course, depending on whether he is judged by conservative or liberal standards. His supporters insist he is one of the greatest, his opponents say he is terrible.

On specifics we have to give him a high mark for cutting the budget and taxes, a couple of achievements that can be explained entirely by his personal appeal. However there's disappointment in learning that the administration has to back track on the budget cutting. Visions of getting the operation out of the red in a year or two apparently are being abandoned, and tax collectors are feeling out the country on the acceptability of additional excise taxes on alcohol, tobacco and gasoline. As of now it seems that the public will go along with alcohol and tobacco tax, but it's howling about the gas tax.

An important goal for the president is to stop inflation, and his progress in that direction is a mark of success. The drop of annual rate from 12 percent to 9 percent is an impressive start. As all of us know, the deterioration of money value has been under way for years. It had acquired terrific momentum which had to be contained before the economy could reverse its trend and start back toward a goal of stabilizing values.

This is the goal we're hoping for. We want an assurance that a dollar will buy as much in December as in January. Not only that, we'd like to see the dollar's value as high in 1985 as in 1982. In this regard, we're primarily concerned with purchasing power a few years hence, but we also relish the thought that business people in an atmosphere of stable prices will be frequently inclined to offer more attractive prices.

Another welcome sign of progress is the occasional agreement by workers to accept a lower wage if the company will make a corresponding cut in the price of its product. While this results in a sacrifice by both labor and industry it could save a job for the worker and keep the factory in business.

It's easy to understand why both are in trouble now when an American auto worker gets $20 an hour and a Japanese worker gets $9 an hour. This is why import sales are rocketing and American car workers are losing their jobs. The fact that this situation is being seriously discussed is a sign that the president is on the right track. If the principals in other areas of the economy will do likewise the adjustments can become more widespread and slowly make changes for the better.

A serious problem as we think about re-adjusting the economic level is the extent of obligation facing multitudes of workers. Perhaps they would like to agree for less but payments on house, car, insurance, appliances and furniture, along with current bills for food, clothing, utilities and reasonable luxuries are devouring the present high wages. Lots of people could not make ends meet without their present income.

This condition presents a difficulty but not necessarily an impossibility. It can be overcome in an expanding atmosphere of cooperation by an increasing number of participants, all doing their bit to make money go farther. For instance, a worker can afford a pay cut if a combination of lower interest, price cuts and belt

Two Tigers listed on TCIL all-state

Two Tigers have been selected for the TCIL all-state football team, according to a report received Monday by Jon LeBrasseur, Sacred Heart athletic director. Hal Mollenkopf was listed as an offensive lineman and Brian Herr as a defensive back, both on the first team.

Ronnie Hess qualifies for Boston Marathon

Superbowl Sunday, January 24, was also a Supermarathon Day to Ronnie (Rumpy) Hess. That was the day on which he qualified as an entry in the Boston Marathon, the world's most prestigious race, to be held on April 19.

It happened at Houston's Tenneco Marathon, a 26.2 mile run completed by Rumpy in 2:45, five minutes less than the qualifying time of 2:50. He finished as No. 65 out of 3000 official entries.

Qualifying for the Boston Marathon has been Rumpy's goal since the Dallas Whitecock Marathon last year when he had to drop out after 17 miles. He tried at Whitecock again this year, finishing the run in 2:51.02, only a minute and 2 seconds over the limit. This time he made it with time to spare.

The Houston Tenneco is rated as one of the top marathons of the US, along with the New York Marathon, featuring great runners such as Benji Burden and Dick Beardsley, No. 1 and No. 2 at Houston, Bill Rodgers, 4 time Boston winner, and Jeff Wells 2 time Olympian.

Joining the 3000 official entries were some 500 running just for fun. Janet and Darlene Hess were in that group and completed 14 miles.

The Hess trio had visitors in Houston. Tom Joy, Rumpy's coach at Sacred Heart, was there with his family to cheer and send regards. So was David Norman, a cousin.

Hospital Auxiliary provides 2 IV controllers for hospital

Almost half the payment on two new items of hospital equipment was made by the Muenster Hospital Auxiliary at its meeting on January 21. Harriet Pagel, president of the organization, presented a $1500 check to Administrator David Bright to apply on the $3157 cost of two IV controllers recently acquired by the hospital.

Funds for this project were raised principally at the Auxiliary's annual Christmas dance on December 5, and the balance of the cost will await other fund raising projects.

Before returning to Cooke County he was a theatre manager in New York. He has three years of college acquired mostly during off-duty time while he was in the armed forces. He served nine years in Air Force Intelligence and saw service in Viet Nam.

DeVault says he is looking forward to making many new friends in Muenster during the upcoming campaign.

Fort Worth Fat Stock Show begins

The annual Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show has been considered a "must go" activity for hundreds of people, both locally and from elsewhere.

Beginning Wednesday, Jan. 27 and concluding Sunday, Feb. 7, the 1982 Stock Show will be the 86th year for the annual event, the longest continuously held yearly program of its kind in the nation.

The annual Stock Show and Rodeo is Fort Worth's most attended annual event, with more than 630,000 persons passing through the entry gates during the 1981 Stock Show. According to tradition, the city will become a beehive of cowboys, cowgirls and lovers of western pageantry during the show's 12-day run.

This year's livestock show and accompanying 22 performances of the World's Original Indoor Rodeo will pay out more than $440,000 in premiums and prize money...the most ever.

The entry list includes a record of 17,000 head of cattle, horses, sheep, swine, mules, donkeys, poultry, rabbits and pigeons.

New on the program this year will be a show, beginning at 8 a.m. Sunday, Feb. 7 in the Swine Barn, for Miniature Horses, sanctioned by the American Miniature Horse Association, headquartered at Arlington. Why the Swine Barn? These horses stand 34 inches or less at the withers.

Eight cattle sales are scheduled during the program, along with three equine auctions. The annual Sale of Champions, an auction for the top placing animals in the Junior Show, is scheduled to begin at 10 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 6 in Sale Barn 6.

Sanctioned by the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association, the annual Rodeo will feature events of bareback and saddle bronc riding, bull riding, calf roping, steer wrestling and the wild horse race. Almost 700 cowboy champions and challengers are entered.

Progress made on dusty street problem

Finally, the city of Muenster has its street problem under control. A work crew last Saturday removed all but a small portion of the crushed rock and dust resulting from last year's paving project, and a street sweeper will pick up the balance of the material.

Two circumstances related to the paving were responsible for the trouble. First, cool weather arrived early and the asphalt set up before crushed rock could be pressed into it by traffic. Secondly the rock was of a soft grade which ground into dust as traffic passed over it. The result was a city wide dust nuisance.

The city made two unsuccessful attempts to remove the material; first using its small street sweeper then leasing heavy duty units from Dallas.

Equipment used Saturday was a light weight road grader operated by Mayor Leo Hess. He spent the full day on the job, going over all streets on which the crushed rock had been spread, and moved the material into windrows and piles. Bernard Hesse followed with a front end loader placing the rock on a city truck operated by Chris Yosten and Councilman David Fette.

The final operation will be a follow-up trip with the street sweeper to pick up remaining dust and rock.

All of the material is stock piled on the city's storage lot for future use as base material or as street surfacing in isolated areas with insufficient traffic to cause a dust problem.

Meanwhile the city is waiting for warm weather to help finish last year's paving job. When asphalt softens a course of crushed rock, harder than before, will be spread to be pressed in by traffic. At the same time the remaining rock, now partly imbedded, will be pressed down with the next course of rock.

Jaycees will treat Germanfest helpers

An appreciation supper for all who helped sell beer and tickets during Germanfest is currently being planned by the Muenster Jaycees. It will be at the VFW Hall, Saturday, January 30. Guests are expected to start arriving at 6 and the meal will be served at 7.

Jaycees will send notices to the workers on their list. However there are a number of persons who just came in and helped. They are not on the list but they, too, are welcome.

To help the Jaycees determine how many to prepare for, these unlisted volunteers are asked to contact the Jaycees by writing to Muenster Jaycees, Drawer J, Muenster or by phoning Bert Walterscheid, 2847, or Chuck Bartusch, Jr. 2800.

Delinquent tax subject to penalty after Feb. 1

An important deadline occurs this month for property owners in Texas.

Kenneth Graeber, executive director of the State Property Tax Board, today reminded Texans that local property taxes assessed for 1981 by cities, counties, school districts and special districts must be paid by the end of January.

"Taxes not paid before February 1 are delinquent and penalty and interest begin to accrue", Graeber said.

The state tax administrator noted that delinquent 1981 taxes will incur a 6 percent penalty and 1 percent interest charge on February 1.

Combined penalty and interest charges will total 9 percent in March, 11 percent in April, 13 percent in May, and 15 percent in June.

Total penalty and interest on delinquent taxes reaches 18 percent in July, 19 percent in August, 20 percent in September, 21 percent in October, 22 percent in November, and 23 percent in December.

If not paid until January 1983, delinquent 1981 property taxes would be subject to a combined 24 percent penalty and interest charge. And, Graeber noted, the interest would continue to increase by 1 percent per month.

In addition, if a taxing jurisdiction or appraisal district has contracted with a delinquent tax attorney, its governing body may add an additional penalty to any tax delinquent on July 1.

The additional penalty may not exceed 15 percent of the taxes, penalty and interest due.

Graeber pointed out that some home rule cities may have different delinquency dates for 1981 taxes. "The Property Tax Code does not affect a city's delinquency date for its 1981 taxes if the city charter or ordinance provides an earlier delinquency date," he said.

He also noted that if a taxing jurisdiction mailed its 1981 tax bills after January 10, the delinquency date is postponed to the first day of the next month that will provide a period of at least 21 days after the date of mailing for payment of taxes before delinquent.

Taxpayers with questions are encouraged to contact local government tax offices.

Henrietta publisher will announce for legislature

Bill J. Glassford, publisher of the Clay County Leader, Henrietta, is to formally announce his candidacy for the Texas Legislature at a fund-raising beef barbecue honoring the veteran newspaperman Saturday, Feb. 6, in Henrietta.

Glassford, who has filed with the State Democratic Executive Committee, seeks the newly designated 80th District House post composed of parts of four current districts.

The fund-raiser is to begin at 6:30 p.m. in Clay County Community Building, Clay County Pioneers' Association Grounds, Henrietta.

Food is to be prepared by Iowa Park Mule Skippers, according to Poe Cabe, former Henrietta High School teacher and the candidate's campaign manager.

Glassford says his legislative concerns include availability of more information for the public concerning legislation in progress and legislation completed.

In the field of education, he urges a renewed emphasis on the teaching of personal responsibility of students in public schools, more attention to overcrowded elementary schools, and additional technical and trade field training choices for students in junior high and high schools.

He is concerned with the shortage of life style choices available to the more mature and infirm residents. In the area of health, Glassford sees a need for additional physicians and trained medical personnel in small communities and rural areas.

During his newspaper career, Glassford has been involved in the promotion of soil and water conservation and the preservation of the atmosphere.

He urges a renewed understanding of the word "free enterprise" in the sense that it can provide quality services and products at fair prices the consumer can afford.

Glassford, editor-publisher of the Henrietta weekly newspaper for 20 years, began his career in West Texas where he was co-owner of the Morton Tribune, a weekly newspaper, for ten years.

He and his wife, Jo Ann, a native of West Texas, purchased the Henrietta newspaper in 1961. They have three children and three grandchildren.

He has been actively involved in work within the United Methodist Church, chambers of commerce, public education, community health, Red Cross, Jaycees, Kiwanis, youth organizations and the American Legion.

A native of Keene, Texas, he was born and reared on a farm in Johnson County. He served more than four years in the United States Coast Guard and participated in the initial amphibious landings in North Africa, Sicily and Salerno, Italy.

Following an honorable discharge from the military service, he entered the University of Texas, Austin, where he received a degree in Journalism. He immediately entered the weekly newspaper field in West Texas.

Tickets for the fund-raising barbecue beef dinner are $10 each and may be purchased from any member of the candidate's campaign team or by mailing to Bill J. Glassford Campaign, P.O. Box 434, Henrietta, Texas 76365.

Looking Ahead

NATIONAL EDUCATION PROGRAM
Searcy, Arkansas

A Better Way

The national debt of this country recently passed the $1 trillion mark. Since 1946 we have spent well over $600 billion under U.S. foreign assistance programs, generally called foreign aid.

It might be said, therefore, that had we not given away that two-thirds of a trillion dollars, our national debt could now be only 1300 billion plus.

There can be no doubt that the American people have been concerned about the welfare of the less fortunate people on this earth. The extent of our generosity is demonstrated by what we have given in foreign aid.

Yet for all those $600 billion plus, the poor of the world seem little better off. And as we have seen, the so-called Third World nations hatch ever more schemes to cause us to spend more on aid programs through our participation in international organizations such as the U.N., the World Bank, and the International Monetary Fund.

Can we really justify pouring continued billions of dollars into programs which have been proved in general to be wastefully managed? When our federal government is spending about $60 billion a year more than its total income, how can we justify giving away billions we don't have?

To suggest that we should discontinue foreign aid in its present form is not to recommend that we should turn our back on the less fortunate. It is rather to say that we should rely on voluntary efforts and the private enterprise system which will find its way into any favorable climate.

Anything else is doomed to fail anyhow. The record of Socialism is a record of failure. On the other hand the record of voluntarism and private enterprise is a record of success - anywhere and everywhere.

Everyone has heard of Sears, Roebuck; Chase Manhattan bank; First City

Bank of New York; and Bank of America. Possibly you may not yet have heard of DATA, World Neighbors or the International Executive Service Corps. All these entities have one thing in common: they have aided the less fortunate people of the world either through private enterprise or voluntarism or both!

Wherever Sears has placed its stores in foreign countries it has assisted those nations in establishing industries to supply the company's stores. It brought in experts from the U.S. to advise fledgling businessmen and loaned money for plants and machinery. From its profits it supported agricultural organizations to improve breeding, financed college scholarships for bright young students and contributed heavily to charities. This is foreign aid at its finest.

Chase Manhattan, First National City and Bank of America have been actively assisting foreign businessmen for years by lending capital not available locally. From television set plants in Nigeria, to development of ore deposits in Liberia, to cattle ranchers in Panama, American private banks have been busy.

DATA stands for Development and Technical Assistance International, a voluntary organization of over 1,000 individuals and service groups which stand ready to solve problems for needy people all over the world.

World Neighbors has helped thousands of villages all over the earth with a "hand up, not a handout."

The International Executive Service Corps is a group of retired business executives who serve for short periods without pay to assist groups in foreign countries with their production and management problems.

These are just a few of the literally thousands of organizations in America which have found the way to really and truly aid the needy of the world voluntarily with private enterprise.

Congressional Comment

WASHINGTON, D.C. —

There are few programs that exemplify the proper use of minimal federal funds to encourage maximum accomplishments better than programs designed to serve senior citizens.

In early December of last year, I received a letter from a constituent critical of some of these programs, which prompted me to contact my District Advisory Committee on Aging. I rely on this group for guidance in matters concerning senior citizens. I was so impressed with the overwhelmingly positive nature of their comments and the many insights these individuals were able to offer about these programs, that I wanted to share some of these thoughts.

The group addressed critical comments ranging from an exclusive "social club" attitude of the senior citizen center in her county, to discrimination, inadequate contributions by financially able participants and the suggestion that federal funding should not be continued.

Virtually every response I received from the advisory committee enthusiastically espoused the value and worthiness of these programs. Although it was stated in many different ways, all of the respondents agreed with the Fisher County member who said, "Many tax dollars are spent needlessly, but I feel such is not the fact in this program. It has in some way made a number of people productive who otherwise might have remained dormant."

A professional woman from Clyde explained, "Our main goals are to keep persons 60 years and over active in community activities, to be a resource in the community, instead of a liability. The reason that I so completely support senior citizens centers is because they are preventive medicine."

Another Abilene professional explained further, "Older persons living alone frequently do not eat balanced meals and consequently their health begins to deteriorate.

Hence, they are soon candidates for institutional care with all its escalating costs."

With regard to all income levels being able to participate, a Ranger man commented, "I do not believe the program was designed for low income only, nor should it ever become another form of welfare program. People in West Texas have a well developed sense of pride and many of the 'truly needy' would not participate if it were identified as a low income program. It would indeed be sad if the program were rewritten to promote further segregation of persons based upon their economic status."

Still another commented, "Indeed we want to be a 'social club,' but we add quickly that there are no restrictions for membership except for age."

The respondents did not try to claim the programs were perfect. "I suppose there will be abuses in all programs as long as human nature remains as it is. Certainly these should not be tolerated when brought to the attention of those in authority," mentioned another individual.

Numerous constructive suggestions focused primarily around sensitivity training for the directors, open discussions in the community about the purposes of the program, clearer understanding of program objectives by all administrators, and in general, greater community involvement.

It was encouraging and heart-warming for me to hear about these many valuable programs being made available to our senior citizens. I believe many of us can join the Knox County woman who said, "I work with many senior citizens on other programs and I find that we owe them so much. Most of them have been taxpayers, leading citizens in their own communities and have set the cornerstones on which our country stands. Many of these individuals are now lonely, ill, depressed and heavy hearted. How can we afford to let them down?"

Enterprise and determination are among the key elements of the American spirit. Nowhere are these qualities displayed in more abundance than by our nation's disabled citizens.

People who have had to overcome disabilities to become educated, set up homes and move around their cities have shown us what can be accomplished through determination, a strong motivation to succeed and, in many instances, a great deal of ingenuity.

Employers have discovered that their disabled employees who possess these qualities make excellent workers. We have developed more sensitivity toward the needs of disabled Americans, and begun to realize that we as a people have an obligation and a need to bring the disabled into the mainstream of society.

The International Year of Disabled Persons in 1981 helped focus attention on the problems and needs of the 35 million Americans who are affected by physical or mental disabilities throughout their lives -- as well as the even more numerous temporary disabilities most Americans face at one time or another. A Senate resolution awaiting House action would make 1982 the National Year of Disabled Persons to continue this effort.

The disabled ask only that they be given the opportunity to participate fully in American society -- its work, its recreation, and its commerce.

Some of these activities -- most notably, education -- are the responsibility of federal, state or local governments. But increased public awareness has increased the private sector's role in this effort. This partnership of government, private organizations, employers, and individual citizens holds great promise for a brighter future for the disabled.

A nation's most valuable resource is its people. And we cannot afford to overlook what our disabled citizens have to offer. As individuals, our lives would be far less rich without knowing and coming into regular contact with our disabled neighbors. As a parent, I know that our children need the example of courage and determination demonstrated by disabled citizens.

I hope that all of us will be more aware of how we can contribute to the goal of full participation in society by the disabled, not just during designated years, but until the goal has been met.

Small-business Angle

by Wilson S. Johnson

Let Congress veto regulations

When Congress passes legislation and the president signs it into law, that is but the beginning of the process. Elected officials have nothing further to do with how that law is implemented. Instead, appointed administrators and career bureaucrats take over and write the regulations that bring the law to life.

In the regulatory explosion of the '60s and '70s, regulatory agencies mushroomed. Some likened them to a fourth branch of government. For small-business owners the result was an avalanche of paperwork with which they were not prepared to cope.

Since 1974, the National Federation of Independent Business (NFIB) has been surveying members quarterly to determine the main economic problems they face. Government regulation has consistently ranked among the top four. Some regulation is necessary but too often those writing the regulations do not understand the impact of their work on those they regulate. In many cases, regulations go beyond the intent of the Congress.

As part of an effort to reform regulatory procedures, Congress will soon consider a concept called "legislative veto." The idea is to give Congress the power to reject any rule or regulation that goes beyond the original intent of the law. Some say Congress already has "oversight" responsibility for the laws it passes, but oversight as it exists cannot remedy the excesses of the federal bureaucracy because Congress does not have the power to keep regulations from taking effect.

For small business, legislative veto would provide an avenue for appeal which does not now exist. Large corporations, with their teams of lawyers, statisticians and computers, can work directly with regulatory agencies or even go to court to challenge unfair or inequitable regulations. The small-business person cannot afford to do so. Under legislative veto, any person who thinks a regulation will cause undue hardship - or is not strong enough - can take his case to his senators or representative.

Legislative veto was one of the top priorities of the 1980 White House Conference on Small Business. President Reagan campaigned in favor of the idea. And when the NFIB polled its half million members, they responded overwhelmingly in support of the legislative veto. Now, members of Congress will decide whether or not they will accept responsibility for the effect of the laws they create.

Wilson S. Johnson is president of the National Federation of Independent Business, representing more than half a million small-business men and women.

Friendly persuasion.

What would it take to persuade you to join the Payroll Savings Plan and buy U.S. Savings Bonds? We could appeal to your patriotism. Or we could point out the dangers of not preparing for the future. Instead, we'll just point out in a very friendly way that Bonds are one of the easiest ways to save. Even if saving has always been difficult for you. The Payroll Savings Plan sets aside a little from each paycheck toward Savings Bonds. And that's a nice way of saving, because you'll hardly miss it. But if you need it, it'll be there. Just like a friend.

1982 'Year of the Eagle'

Want to know why the American bald eagle is called "bald?" Or why "eagle-eye" is an apt description for someone with good eyesight? These are just two of many questions about America's national bird answered in the current issue of Ranger Rick, the National Wildlife Federation's monthly publication for children.

A bald eagle isn't bald at all. His head is covered with white feathers. The word bald comes from the Old English word "balde," which means white.

And "eagle-eye" refers to the eagle's extraordinarily keen eyesight, which enables some of them to spot a fish from more than a mile away. An unusually high number of "cone cells," or specialized vision cells, give the eagle's eye its long-distance focusing capability, says Ranger Rick. The extra cells also make the eagle's eye large in proportion to the rest of his body. Some eagles have eyeballs larger than a human's.

The entire edition of the children's nature magazine is dedicated to the bald eagle, officially kicking off 1982 as the "Year of the Eagle." The year-long observance commemorates the selection of the bald eagle as this nation's symbol 200 years ago.

Among the other questions about the majestic bird answered by Ranger Rick are these:

—How high do eagles fly? No one knows for sure, says Ranger Rick. But they do fly high—even out of sight—by riding on top of rising columns of air, called thermals.

—How big is a bald

American Bald Eagle

eagle's nest? They are often huge, because eagles (who mate for life) tend to use the same nest, piling new materials on top of the old year after year. One of the largest nests ever found weighed more than a ton, and measured 20 feet deep by 9½ feet across. A new nest is small by comparison—about three feet deep and five feet across, according to Ranger Rick.

—Do eagles nest in the same place year after year? Not always. Some pairs have several nests in the same area, and they use a different one each year. But one pair of eagles nested in the same place for 20 years.

—How much do eagles weigh? A mature American bald eagle weighs between eight and twelve pounds. Most female bald eagles weigh a little more than their mates.

—What do bald eagles eat? They seem to prefer fish—dead or alive. Eagles are great fishermen, able to nab a live fish right out of the water by swooping down and grasping it with sharp talons. But eagles will also eat ducks, geese, turtles, rabbits, rats, squirrels—and even garbage.

Jim Collins enters U.S. Senate race

Today in Austin, Jim Collins officially filed as a candidate for the U.S. Senate. Collins, a conservative, is challenging incumbent Lloyd Bentsen in the 1982 Senate race.

"This year's U.S. Senate election gives Texans the clearest choice in decades between a liberal and a conservative," Collins said.

"Lloyd Bentsen is trying to fool Texans with his conservative rhetoric but his liberal voting record cannot be hidden."

Collins said Texans need another Senator in Washington who will consistently vote for less government spending. He noted that Bentsen voted against government spending bills only two times out of 145 votes from 1970 through 1980.

"I believe that we must cut wasteful government spending and help President Reagan in his effort to build our national defense second to none."

IRS 3 hour TV program tells how to improve tax returns

KERA-TV and the Internal Revenue Service will present "Your Tax Return: The Bottom Line on Improving Your Form," a three-hour program designed to help Texas taxpayers prepare their Federal Tax returns, on Sunday, February 7, 1982, from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. CST. Robert Guillaume, the star of the television series "Benson," will host the program.

The show will provide step-by-step guidance through the Form 1040 as well as a review of Form 1040 and Schedules A and B. A panel of IRS tax specialists will answer common taxpayer questions such as how does the new tax legislation affect the average taxpayer, when income averaging can be used to save money, how to claim the Earned Income Credit and what tax benefits are available to older Americans. Special accommodations for the deaf and hearing-impaired will be made.

"Your Tax Return: The Bottom Line on Improving Your Form" will also alert viewers to some commonly made errors on tax returns and to some tips on choosing a preparer. Information relating to payment of estimated tax and when to change one's withholding will also be covered. Viewers who have questions as they go through their returns can call the IRS toll-free number listed in their tax package. IRS tax assistants will answer regular taxpayer service phones during the three-hour program as toll-free phone numbers are flashed on the TV screen. Deaf and hearing-impaired taxpayers with TTY equipment will be able to use the TV/Telephone -- TTY Service for tax help. The TTY toll-free number for Indiana is 800-382-4059. Hearing-impaired residents of all other states, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands should call 800-428-4732.

Muenster Mutual losses drop membership and assets gain

Continued growth in membership and assets along with a drop in losses was reported Tuesday, January 26, at the 88th general meeting of the Muenster Farm Mutual Fire Insurance Association.

Secretary Ed Endres told 43 delegates from the organization's six districts that total losses for the year were $55,221.63, a welcome drop from the previous year's $61,663 and 1979 losses of $69,247.

Membership was reported at 1194, a gain of 16 for the year following a 1979 gain of 22. The total number of policies is 1509, a gain of 32 for the year, and the total insurance is $47,311,026, a gain of $3,597,269 for the year.

Another gain was in total assets which increased from $601,029 to $725,649, a gain of $124,619.

Fire and lightning accounted for most of the mutual's losses, the total being $37,418.69. Hail, theft, vandalism and storms added to $17,539. Major claims of the year were $11,050 for a house fire at Windhorst and $9,600 for a house fire at Valley View.

Other costs of the operation, along with the claims for losses, added to total disbursements of $168,403. This amounts to 36 cents per $100 of insured valuation, a drop of 1 cent from the previous year, however a long way from 26 cents in 1977 and 11.6 cents in 1976.

The assessment rate last year was 42 cents per $100 of insured value plus 5 cents additional for new insurance. Delegates at Tuesday's meeting voted to continue the assessment at that figure.

All of last year's officers were re-elected as follows: J.A. Klement, pres.; Al Walter, vice pres.; Victor Hartman, treasurer; Ed Endres, secretary. In addition the board includes a representative from each of the six districts. They are Alfred Bayer, Muenster; Charles Neu, Lindsay; Lawrence Hassenpflug, Valley View; Ed Darzapf, Henrietta; Adolph Vietenheiner, Windhorst and A.J. Mengwasser, Electra.

Catholic Life Ins. Union gains $50 million in '81

Catholic Life Insurance Union, a Texas fraternal life insurance company, continued to break sales records this year by doing more than fifty million dollars in new business.

Last year the quarter of a billion dollar firm netted more than thirty-six million dollars in new accounts, an increase of a million dollars from 1979.

"Fifty million dollars is quite a jump from last year," said Sales Director Tom Acker. "Ten years ago we probably didn't have fifty million dollars in new sales and continuing accounts combined; but we're really moving now."

CLIU, a legal reserve life insurance company, was organized in 1901 and has eighty-nine branches in Texas. It offers a full line of individual life insurance protection, including both term insurance and annuities, for more than thirty-three thousand Texas Catholics and their families.

"Unlike some of our competitors, we are a close knit organization. Our sales people actually live and are active in the areas they represent. They know their clients and their clients know them," Acker said.

In addition to a strengthened team effort, Catholic Life Insurance Union this year has also added two new programs to their line of insurance and has stepped up sales training.

"We try to offer the most extensive, complete sales training that is available to our agents. We are constantly planning sales seminars and improving our training programs," he added.

However, sales is not the only area where Catholic Life Insurance Union is making tremendous strides. In 1976 CLIU ranked twenty-fifth among the two hundred national fraternal life insurance organizations. In 1977 the company, however, began to climb in the national rankings going from number twenty-three to number twenty. In 1979 they rose to number nineteen and finally in 1980 captured the number eighteen slot.

National fraternal figures have not been compiled for 1981 yet, but CLIU officials are confident that they will at least maintain their number eighteen ranking and possibly move into a higher slot in the upcoming year.

The San Antonio firm has been under the guidance of Grand President Edward M. Sausin since 1963.

MRS. PAUL EDWARD THOMAS

Ruth Ann Luke weds Paul Thomas in two-ring nuptial at Dallas

Ruth Ann Luke and Paul Edward Thomas exchanged wedding vows in a double ring ceremony and Nuptial Mass in St. Rita's Catholic Church in Dallas on January 9 at 2 p.m. Father Robert L. Keane, S.J. was celebrant.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Luke of Dallas and the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Wimmer, Sr. and the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Luke. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Edward Thomas, also of Dallas.

Presented at the altar by her father, the bride wore a white silk organza gown with a Queen Anne neckline. Venise lace covered the entire bodice which was accented with tiny seed pearls and iridescents. The sheer bishop sleeves were also accented with Venise lace. The A line skirt flowed into a chapel length train completely edged with a row of delicate matching lace. A lace Juliet cap held her veil of bridal illusion enhanced with a scattering of lace appliques and seed pearls. Her bridal bouquet was a cascade of white roses, gardenias and baby's breath.

Attendants
Melinda Swepston of Houston was the maid of honor. Teresa Thomas and Carolyn Thomas of Dallas, sisters of the groom and Mrs. Caci Kochwelp of Houston were bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of royal blue Qiana with spaghetti straps and sheer chiffon capelets and carried bouquets of white rosebuds and baby's breath accented with royal blue ribbons.

Edward J. Thomas of Austin, brother of the groom was best man. Ken W. Luke of Austin, brother of the bride, James W. Thomas brother of the groom and Robert W. Pospick were groomsmen, Charles Kerin of Bryan groom's cousin, Calvin J. Otto of Denton bride's cousin and Gregory D. Norby of Flower Mound were ushers.

Rehearsal Dinner
The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at the S and S Tearoom for the wedding party and family members and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Luke of Vienna, Virginia and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hearne and Bill Hearne of Houston.

Reception
A reception for 150 guests was hosted by the bride's parents at the Marriott Inn. Paula Reeves presided at the bride's book. The bride's table held the three tiered wedding cake flanked by silver candelabra and an arrangement of white gladioli and mums, with a pyramid of champagne toasting glasses. A lighted fountain was the centerpiece of the buffet table which held an assortment of hors d'oeuvres.

After a wedding trip to the Virgin Islands, the couple will be at home in Dallas. The bride is a graduate of Texas A and M University and is a Certified Public Accountant employed by Peat, Marwick, Mitchell and Co. The groom is a graduate of Georgia Institute of Technology and is employed as an electronics systems engineer for Texas Instruments.

Rehearsal Dinner
The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at the S and S Tearoom for the wedding party and family members and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Luke of Vienna, Virginia and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hearne and Bill Hearne of Houston.

Among Muenster relatives attending the wedding were Charles E. Wimmer and Messrs. and Mmes. Tony Wimmer, Andy Wimmer, J.H. Wimmer, Lawrence Wimmer, Frank Zimmerer and Doc Reinart; also Mr. and Mrs. A.J. Felderhoff of Gainesville.

February 4 and 18 are set for "Mothers Day Out"

"Mothers Day Out" will be held Thursday, February 4 at First Baptist Church of Muenster, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The twice-monthly day-care program is for all children ages 1 through 5.

In order to provide more supervised activities, no fewer than 5 mothers will be assigned to work, and no more than 20 children accepted. If there are not enough mothers available to work, "Mothers Day Out will not be held that day.

Mothers who have not called to sign up for 1982, may phone Margie Klement 759-2555 or Teresa Rainwater 759-4180.

Personals...

Weekend visitors at the Wilfred Sicking home were Slim and Janet Vance who have just moved back to Fort Worth from Houston; also Karla, Jeremy and Melanie Scoggins of Fort Worth and Rose and Dalas Cunningham of Whitesboro.

Mrs. Wilfred Sicking and Mrs. Mary Jo Graham drove to Richardson Tuesday to spend the day with their sister, Mrs. Rita Chapman.

Assigned to work on Thursday, February 4 are Jan Cain, Margie Klement, Rita Russell, Diana Klement and Teresa Rainwater.

The second "Mothers Day Out" date for February is the 18th.

Herman Swircynski will observe golden wedding

To honor the golden wedding anniversary of Herman and Katie Swircynski, their children will host an Open House in the meeting room of the Sacred Heart Community Center on Sunday, January 31, 2 to 5 p.m. Plans for the celebration have been directed by the children of Mr. and Mrs. Swircynski and their families.

The honorees request the attendance of all their relatives, friends and neighbors and look forward to welcoming them. No local invitations will be sent in the mail. The Swircynskis also respectfully request that guests do not bring gifts.

Newmans honored on silver wedding

Mr. and Mrs. C.J. Newman of Kansas City, Mo. were honored with a celebratin and surprise party hosted by their children on January 16 to observe their wedding anniversary.

Alice Richardson also assisted in planning and coordinating the festivities.

The traditional silver and white color scheme was used throughout.

Highlight of the evening's entertainment was a home movie of the wedding of the former Mary Nell Hellman and C.J. Newman. Providing the film was Mrs. Monte Hellman (Mrs. Newman's sister, Doris.)

Some of the out-of-town guests at the anniversary party were Rayford

Newman, brother of C.J., Mrs. Clarence Hellman, mother of Mary Nell, and Ann Walterscheid, Peggy Gobble, Doris Hellman, and Queenie and Willie Walterscheid.

Camp Fire groups plant bulbs in Mid-Park project

On Wednesday, January 20, 1982, Camp Fire groups met at the Mid-Park to participate in a spring bulb planting project. The local groups planted yellow daffodils and yellow iris bulbs.

The project is Camp Fire's New Years gift to the community. Special "thanks" go to Mrs. Richard Ferber, for directing us in our efforts; to the Muenster Garden Center, for a bulb discount; and to David Fette, who keeps the Mid-Park watered.

The participating Camp Fire groups were: The Rainbow Bluebirds, leader - Janie Hennigan; the Butterfly Bluebirds - leader - Peggy Walter, assist. Lou Moster; the Happy Bluebirds - leader - Jeanne Greathouse, assist. Glenda Cler; the Rainbow Adventure Camp Fire group - leader - Gwen Carroll.

'The Odd Couple' opens January 28

"If all you've seen of 'The Odd Couple' is what you've seen on television," says Roger Boyce, co-director with Dick Powell, "you really haven't seen 'The Odd Couple' yet. The charm and humor of this original stage version would be hard to equal."

The play by Neil Simon, was hailed by critics after its Broadway opening as "wildly, irresistibly, incredibly and continuously funny."

'The Odd Couple' will be presented by the Butterfield Stage Players at the BSP Playhouse opening on January 28 through 31 at 7:30 p.m. Thursday through Saturday evenings and a Sunday matinee at 2:30 p.m.; also February 4 through 6, (Thursday through Saturday evenings.)

All seats are reserved. Call 665-8152 for reservations.

Members of the cast are Dan Weber, Jack Mercer, Brent Hadaway, Don Dudley, Roger Boyce, Dick Powell, Sandy Scivally Carpenter, and Karen Stanley.

Butterfly Bluebirds have two projects

Butterfly Bluebirds are participating in two major projects during January and February. The Aluminum Can Drive will benefit a Camp Fire fund for the purchase of an animal for Frank Buck Zoo; and a letter writing, valentines and posters project will "Salute Hospitalized Veterans."

During their January 13 meeting, 3:30 to 4:30 in the SHHS Homemaking Room Tonya Knabe lit the Blue Bird "Quiet" candle. Melanie Wilde led the Blue Bird Wish and Jami Flusche led the Pledge of Allegiance to the U.S. Flag. Jennifer Walter called Roll and led the uniform check; and Dyan Fisher collected dues.

The group played "Alice is a Camel." Misty Vogel was hostess, serving oatmeal-chip cookies and Kool-Aid; and Cheramie Moster helped with hostess duties.

Mrs. Peggy Walter explained about the Aluminum Can Drive now in progress during January and February. It is a part of the Help Young America Help Your Community, sponsored by Colgate-Palmolive. She appealed to parents, friends, neighbors, asking them to save aluminum cans and put them in bags for Bluebirds to pick up. Peggy Walter, leader, may be phoned at 4410; Lou Moster, assistant leader may be phoned at 4564. Bluebirds will place posters about the aluminum can drive throughout the community.

During January, Camp Fire members will write letters, make valentines and posters to send to V.A. Hospitals in Asheville, North Carolina and Kerrville, Texas. Camp Fire has been involved in this program since 1976. In addition to its value as a craft, the project has been very fulfilling to participants, teaching them about veterans, service to others and patriotism.

In an informal ceremony, Peggy Walter distributed song patches to members who earned them on December 15 by attending the 1981 Christmas Caroling Party at the Gainesville Court House and Community Center.

Before adjourning, the Butterfly Bluebirds practiced on their "Secret Dance".

The next meeting will be on January 27 at 3:30-4:30. Tonya Knabe will be hostess and will bring her favorite record. Mrs. Peggy Walter and Mrs. Lou Moster are leader and assistant leader, respectively and Urban Endres is group sponsor.

Rodger Boyce plays his favorite comedy role as Oscar Madison in Neil Simon's "The Odd Couple". He portrays Oscar as a divorced sports writer who has elevated slovenliness to an art form. Dick Powell, plays the fastidious Felix Ungar as a "nut for neatness" who compulsively re-cooks all his wife's meals and re-cleans the apartment after she spent all day doing housework. Boyce and Powell are also co-directors.

New Arrival

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Koesler announce the birth of a daughter, Raegan Ann, at Flow Memorial Hospital, Denton, on Tuesday, January 26, 1982 at 12:25 a.m., weighing 8 lb. 8 oz. She is a granddaughter for Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Koesler of Muenster and the first grandchild for Mr. and Mrs. R.B. Cargile of Ardmore, Okla. Mrs. Anna Walterscheid of Fort Worth and Mrs. Robert Cargile Sr. of Mt. Pleasant are Raegan Ann's great-grandmothers. Mrs. Rudy Koesler is the former Martha Cargile.

Introducing "The Garden Editor"

Editors Note:

The "Garden Editor" column by Ted Brice, who is a noted garden columnist, will appear weekly in The Muenster Enterprise.

Mr. Brice is a resident of Dallas, Texas, and will be available to give Garden Club Programs.

Mr. Brice's articles are published in many newspapers, and he has had articles published in national publications. Mr. Brice has one of the most complete privately-owned horticulture libraries in the South. He writes his Garden Editor Column from actual gardening experience. He is a member of The American Garden Writers Association, the American Rose Society, the Royal Horticulture Society of England, the National Chrysanthemum Society, where he is an accredited judge, as well as many local plant organizations. Any readers have specific gardening questions they wish answered in his column, or Garden Clubs who would like a program, should send their request to "The Garden Editor, in care of The Muenster Enterprise, Muenster, Texas 76252.

The Bellingrath Gardens by Ted Brice Garden Editor

There are few places in the world where the magic of rapturous beauty is still found. One is Bellingrath gardens, on Isle-aux-Onies River, near Mobile, Alabama.

Visitors entering this vast and lovely estate soon realize they have discovered a wonderland. Overhead, from branches of aged oaks, cascade graceful wisps of Spanish moss, and the sun-drappled, flowered-bordered paths excite the eye with loveliness. Man and Nature have harmoniously combined efforts to fashion a magnificent garden. The trail that winds so casually through the whispering pines is frequently enhanced by an artful vista that delightfully blends with the natural surroundings.

One of the charms of Bellingrath Gardens is that it is truly "The Garden for All Seasons." Mr. Bellingrath was fond of comparing his beloved "Charm Spot of the Deep South" to a lovely lady with 52 gowns, one for each week of the year. The metaphor suggest the constantly changing beauty of the Gardens, ever enchanting, never the same.

The new year greets the continuing exquisite beauty of camellias, more than 4,000 of them in hundreds of varieties; and azaleas are ablaze with color usually in February-March, with more than 250,000 plants in spectacular bloom. February also is the time when the Gardens are blanketed by more than 100,000 multi-colored tulips, hyacinths, daffodils and freesia. Roses appear in profusion from April to late October; and from April to September a variety of brilliant foliage plants and flowers, including mountain laurel, dogwood, salvia, caladium, allamanda, hydrangea and gardenia, brightly decorate the Gardens. In October-November, more than 60,000 plants of Chrysanthemums, with millions of blooms, create the world's largest outdoor display of mums. And the year is closed with brilliant poinsettias of all shades during early December. A visit to Bellingrath is a must to every gardener or camera buff. Too good Gardening until next week from Your Garden Editor, Ted Brice.

Sumac quint loses thriller to Valley View to tie for county title with play-off on Jan. 28. Mr. and Mrs. Al Kuntz celebrate 25th wedding anniversary at Lindsay. Ewald Hoelker is appointed postmaster at Lindsay. Joe Albers of Great Bend, Kansas, returns here for a visit in his former hometown. Lindsay Mothers Society returns Mrs. Jos. Hundt, Mrs. Lena Zimmerer and Mrs. Anna Schmitz to office for another term. Mr. and Mrs. Tony Hermmes announce arrival of twin boys Cecil and Cyril.

5 YEARS AGO Jan. 21, 1977

Muenster Mutual reports best year ever in 1976. Another bout of cold weather hits over weekend. Funerals held for W.F. Davidson, 88, of Hays; Frank Sandmann, 82, of

The cold weather of the recent days has sorta played havoc with my obtaining news for this column. Everyone seems to have the same answer - "It has been too cold to go anywhere and no one has come to visit".

Mr. and Mrs. G.D. Wylie, Jr. attended the wedding of their nephew Gene Tipton in the home of Gene's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Tipton of Boliver Sat. night Jan. 9.

Bill Jackson of Decatur came up to the Burg on Tues. the 12th to check on his parents, Ted and Laura Belle Jackson. Guess he thought mom and dad might have gotten frozen "in or out" or something.

Mrs. Ruby (Orrell) Mitchell of Beaver, Okla. passed away Sat. Jan. 9 and funeral services were held Tues. Jan. 12 with burial at Valco, Okla. Mrs. Mitchell and the late Ada Jackson were sisters, therefore, she was Ted Jackson's aunt.

Young Miss Ericka Cain of Thackerville, Okla. visited with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. J.T. Willis recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Zuecklog of New Braunfels and Mr. and Mrs. H.A. Littell of Oklahoma City visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ross Littell the middle of last week.

Mmes. Cleo Lanier, Veda Brogdon, Beth Dill and Imogene Evans attended the annual Community Club recognition banquet in Muenster Thurs. night Jan. 14.

Driving up from the Lake Jackson area to visit with Mrs. Elva Carter on Fri. the 15th to Sat the 16th were her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Barton and her granddaughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Graham and Jennifer.

Mrs. Tammy Fenoglio and Mrs. Cheryl Stoner and daughter of Bowie visited with Mr. and Mrs. Eddie McClure and Becky Fri. Jan. 15.

Mrs. Iva Stufflebeam of Arkansas City, Ark. spent the week of Jan. 11 with her friends Rev. and Mrs. Odell Harris.

Mrs. Donna Scott and children of Lewisville spent Fri. nite and Sat. the 16th with her parents Mr. and Mrs. A.B. McMillion while Donna's husband Blakie was in Saint Louis on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton bewley visited with Mrs. Regina Blankenship in the Muenster hospital Sat. Jan. 16. It is this writer's understanding that Mrs. Blankenship is still a patient there and has undergone surgery on her leg. Also Mrs. Blankenship will celebrate a birthday on Wed. Jan. 20.

Mrs. Veda Brogdon's nephew, Dale Harwell of Houston, visited with Veda and Barney on Mon. Jan. 11. Dale is a lawyer and was up in this area on a case.

Mr. and Mrs. Troy Greenwood and Lareza visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Poteet and Mrs. Bessie Greenwood Sat. Jan. 16.

Mrs. Shirley Lanier, and children Janice and Charles and nephew Jeff Lanier along with Chris Gresham drove to Fort Worth Sat. Jan. 16 to visit with Phyllis and Rickie Teakell. Phyllis honored husband Rickie with a surprise birthday dinner and party- and he really was surprised. All his family from Wichita falls attended plus relatives from the Metro-plex area.

Rev. and Mrs. Odell Harris motored to belton Fri. Jan. 15 where they spent the night and on Sat. Rev. Harris preached at the funeral for Mrs. Jewell Russell. Mrs. Russell has relatives in Bowie and Henrietta. Mrs. Harris says they "met up" with all the snow in the Waco, Temple and Belton area on their trip.

Mrs. Wanda Perryman and Millie Reynolds must really have had some urgent business and shopping to do Sat. Jan. 16 as they braved all that severe cold weather for a day-out in Denton.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Berry and sons of Nocona visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. Dude Berry Sun. Jan. 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Starr Mann visited with Mr. and Mrs. Barney Brogdon Sun. Jan. 17. Veda says that Starr is feeling fine and doing very well since his recent surgery.

Ted Jackson and son-in-law Jack C. Dill were in Bowie Sat. Jan. 16 attending the livestock sale at Bowie's auction barn. Don't know if they sold or bought - but I'd be a selling with all the cold weather and high price of feed.

Mrs. Norma Morby brought her father Willie Orrell home Sat. Jan. 16 to spend the weekend in his home in the Burg. On Sun. Norma took Willie back to Gainesville to the home of son Leo. Willie's Forestburg neighbor, Mrs. Minnie Sirman says that Willie seemed to be feeling well and looked much improved.

Mrs. Claude Barclay of Alvord and her daughter Mrs. Buena Mae Westbrook of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Barclay and Jennifer of Sanger were all visitors of Mr. and Mrs. A.G. "Charlie" Barclay on Sun. Jan. 17.

Jan. 16 weekend visitors with Mrs. Atrice Sledge were: Cecil Foster of Denton, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Volkman of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Sledge of Nocona, James Thurman, Vera Mae McGee and Shirley Lanier of the Burg.

Jason Brogdon of Gainesville and Jennifer Scott spent the weekend of Jan. 16-18 with their grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Barney Brogdon. Veda took Jason home to Gainesville on Mon. the 18 and then visited with her daughter Mrs. Marjorie Orrell and sons. Might add here that Jason's mother Cheryl is a patient in a Sherman hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Jackson visited with Allen Taylor and daughter Verna Mae and Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Taylor Sun. p.m. Jan. 17. J.W. is Allen's brother and they reside in a mobile home close to Allen.

Mrs. Jeanette Montgomery of Greenwood visited with her mother Mrs. Cleo Lanier Sun. Jan. 17.

Jeff Lanier celebrates his 15th birthday Fri. Jan. 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards and Mrs. Merle Hudspeth attended a district workshop at Floral Heights United Methodist Church in Wichita Falls Sun. afternoon Jan. 17.

Rev. and Mrs. Odell Harris spent the day on Mon. Jan. 18 at the Gainesville Hospital with Mrs. Merle Rosson of Era who underwent surgery there.

Visitors in the Clifford Hudspeth home on Mon. Jan. 18 were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Phillips of Wichita Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ensey of Altus, Okla. and Charles Hudspeth of Duncanville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Littell, Mr. and Mrs. Talbert Fanning, Mr. and Mrs. Perryman Denham, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Brewer, Mrs. Kenneth Woods and J.T. Willis all of Forestburg attended funeral services for Carl Green at Bethel Baptist Church in Nocona Mon. Jan. 18 at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Charity Boyd, mother of Mrs. Vesta Carter and Lester W. Boyd, Jr. is a patient in the Bowie Hospital as of Sun. p.m. Jan. 17. Mrs. Millie Reynolds was admitted to Bethania Hospital on Mon. Jan. 18 and was to undergo surgery there on Tues. the 19th.

This writer called our good friends, Lorraine and

Party honors Justin Bindel

Justin Bindel, whose first birthday was January 25, was honored with a party on Sunday hosted by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bindel of Wichita Falls.

A clown theme was used in table decorations and a clown birthday cake was baked and decorated by Justin's Grandmother Pruitt. The cake was served with punch.

Pictures were made and gifts were displayed including a clown afghan made by Justin's Grandmother Bindel.

Guests were the grandparents, Messrs. and Mrs. John Pruitt of Wichita Falls and Wilfred Bindel of Muenster, also the maternal great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe J. Neu of Lindsay. Others were Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Garcia and daughter, Laura of the Colony, an uncle Chris Pruitt, an aunt Kelly Pruitt and a cousin, Price.

Everette Steinke Sat. afternoon the 16th. The Steinke's reside in Edwardsburg, Michigan, just north of South bend, Ind. Lorraine said they were snowed in for three days last week with temperatures below zero, on Sat. they were expecting another blizzard with temperature at zero degrees while we were chatting. The Steinke's resided in the Forestburg area some years back and their oldest son, Walter graduated from high school here. They well remember our "warm winters" compared to the deep-freeze they are living in now.

Many Forestburg folks recognized last weeks picture, did you? It was of Marion Sockwell at the age of twenty. Wasn't she a beauty? Though the years have brought about their changes, as they do to all of us, Marion is still a most lovely and charming lady with a great sense of humor which all of us appreciate.

Who would this lovely young Forestburg Charmer be?

Party honors two birthdays

Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Koessler were birthday honorees Saturday evening January 23 at a covered dish supper in the home of a daughter and family, Mary Alice and Dan Bayer and children Denise and Melissa. Mrs. Koessler's birthday was on January 20 and Mr. Koessler's on January 27.

Gifts were opened and displayed and an evening of singing was enjoyed by the group, with Denise Bayer accompanying on the guitar.

Christi Klement baked and decorated a special birthday cake to serve with ice cream as dessert for the family party.

Attending were Gretchen and Larry Kostyniak and son Brian; Sister Francesca Walterscheid, and Mrs. Anna Walterscheid all of Fort Worth; and Rudy and Martha Koessler, Leon and Christi Klement and daughter Andrea; Fred and Karl Koessler; Tina Tisdale; Wilfred and Lillian Walterscheid and the hosts, all of Muenster.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION THE STATE OF TEXAS

TO: Thelma Parsons, Doris Parsons, Mary Ruth Parsons, Alma Parsons, Ray C. Flint, heirs of Sam Parsons, and the unknown heirs of Sam Parsons, Deceased, Defendants, Greeting:

YOU (AND EACH OF YOU) ARE HEREBY COMMANDED to appear before the District Court of Cooke County at the Courthouse thereof, in Gainesville, Texas, by filing a written answer at or before 10 o'clock a.m. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 15th day of March A.D. 1982, to Plaintiff's Petition filed in said court, on the 25th day of January A.D. 1982, in this cause, numbered 82-036 on the docket of said court and styled Jimmie Lee Halachoulis, et al, Plaintiff, vs. The Heirs, Known and Unknown, of Sam Parsons, Deceased, et al, Defendant.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to-wit: To Clear Cloud on Title of land located in Cooke County, Texas, consisting of two tracts:

TRACT ONE:
An 80 acre tract of land described in a deed from Z. Haralson, et ux, to J.M. Parsons, dated November 12, 1888, and recorded in Volume 49, page 227 of the Deed Records of Cooke County, Texas.

TRACT TWO:
An 80 acre tract of land described in a deed from I.N. Stiles, et al, to J.M. Parsons, dated December 8, 1903, and recorded in Volume 87, page 108 of the Deed Records of Cooke County, Texas.

If this citation is not served within ninety days after the date of its issuance, it shall be returned unserved.

The officer executing this writ shall promptly serve the same according to requirements of law, and the mandates hereof, and make due return as the law directs.

Witness, Bobbie Calhoun, Clerk of the District Court(s) of Cooke County, Texas.

Issued and given under my hand and the seal of said court at Gainesville, Texas, this 25th day of January A.D. 1982.

Bobbie Calhoun Clerk,
District Court
Cooke County, Texas.
By Joy Huddleston, Deputy.

Alamo switchgrass joins list of recommended area grasses

Livestock producers who are planning to seed range or pasture grasses in Upper Elm-Red Conservation District should consider planting Alamo switchgrass, a new native grass strain selected and released by the USDA Soil Conservation Service (SCS) in cooperation with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

Gary Rainwater, district conservationist for SCS at Muenster said Alamo was selected from a single robust plant found growing several years ago on the northern bank of the Frio River near Three Rivers, Texas. It is adapted to the eastern half of the state where average annual rainfall amounts to 25 inches. The grass will grow in the Texas Panhandle but does not usually produce seed.

"Alamo is similar to kleingrass, except it greens up two to three weeks earlier in the spring," Rainwater said. "It also stays green until a heavy frost in the fall, giving it a growing season that's four to six weeks longer than kleingrass. It appears to be about equal to kleingrass in productivity."

Alamo can be planted in pure stands or in a mixture with other grasses. Two pounds of pure live seed per acre are recommended for planting pure stands.

For information, contact personnel at the SCS office located at Muenster, telephone number 759-2515.

Dairymen support self-help concept of product promotion

The Dallas-Fort Worth Division of Associated Milk Producers, Inc. (AMPI) held its annual membership meeting on Tuesday, January 19 in Arlington, Lee Wolf of Gainesville, President, Dallas-Fort Worth Division, presided over the meeting of the voting delegates and the general session.

AMPI is a cooperative whose function is to market members' milk. The Dallas-Fort Worth Division is a geographical division of the seven state Southern Region of AMPI.

One of the major business decisions made by the voting delegates of the twelve districts was to support the concept of self-help promotion of dairy products on Commodity Credit Cooperation stocks. The effort is national in scope. The proposed plan includes financial support from all dairy farmers toward a promotion program with emphasis on butter and cheese.

The voting delegates also voted to support the Texas Department of Agriculture in the extermination of fire ants. Fire ants are a hazard to agriculture in that they disrupt cultivation of all crops.

Several Cooke County dairymen serve in roles of leadership for the dairy cooperative. Lee Wolf of Gainesville was elected president of the Dallas-Fort Worth Division of AMPI and will continue to serve as District Director of AMPI District 9. Serving with Wolf are First Vice President Grady Lankford of Howe and Second Vice President Bob Holloway of Wise

Deadline extended for response on soil-water program

The deadline for responding to the Secretary of Agriculture's preferred soil and water resources conservation program has been extended two weeks, George C. Marks, state conservationist for the USDA Soil Conservation Service said today.

Marks said the deadline, originally set for January 15, 1982 has been moved to January 29. To date, more than 3,600 responses have been received at the SCS state office in Temple.

The main features of the proposed national conservation program are increased roles for local and state governments in conservation work and targeting a greater portion of USDA dollars and staff to critical soil and water resource problem areas.

The program is the USDA response to the Soil and Water Resources Conservation Act of 1977 (RCA). SCS and Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service offices throughout the state have a supply of a leaflet that summarizes the program containing a pre-addressed, postage-paid response form.

The offices also have a reference copy of the full report of the program and draft environmental impact statement.

SCS has been designated to collect the comments in Texas. The mailing address is P.O. Box 648, Temple, Tx. 76503.

SH weekend tourney is vital to TCIL titles

At this stage of the TCIL season, Sacred Heart Tigerettes have a record of 4-0 and the Tigers a record of 1-3. It appears the girls have it made and the boys are out of the race. However the picture for both can turn around this weekend at the district tournament hosted by Sacred Heart.

The tournament accounts for half of the season record, hence a playoff will be required if the regular schedule winner fails to win the tourney. If the Tigerettes win the tourney they have the trophy, otherwise they have another chance in the playoff. On the other hand Tigers have to win the tourney to remain in contention. In that case they would have a shootout with the regular season champ.

The tourney is booked for two nights and one afternoon in the SH gym. Coach Jon LeBrasseur announces that Sacred Heart and Notre Dame, girls and boys, are booked for 7 p.m. Thursday; Sacred Heart and Alamo are booked for Friday, 7 p.m.; Notre Dame and Alamo with start Saturday at 1 p.m.

The SH teams closed out their regular season Saturday night by dividing a pair of games with Notre Dame. Tigerettes won it by a count of 38-24 and the Tigers lost 58-48. The SH girls were in control all the way, gaining to 19-10 at the half and improving their margin an additional 5 points in the second half.

Anne Felderhoff led SH scoring with 13. Susan and Carol Walterscheid each added 10. Connie Stoffels made 3 and Marilynn Hartman 2. Susan Walterscheid also had 15 rebounds.

The Tigers made a good start for a 14-8 lead but the Knights took over for the next two periods for leads of 26-22 and 38-27. In the fourth both teams stepped up their tempo and upped the count to 58-48.

Neil Hesse was the top Tiger performer with 20 points and 11 rebounds. Greg Walterscheid scored 11, Gene Fuhrman 10, Brian Herr 4, Gene Haverkamp 2, TJ Walterscheid 1.

Junior High teams win two trophies

Both of Muenster's junior high teams returned with trophies from a tournament at Forestburg last weekend.

Both started by losing the opening game to Montague and proceeding to the consolation bracket where both defeated Forestburg. Then, in the consolation final Muenster girls won over Prairie Valley and the boys over Slidell.

Playing Montague, Muenster girls fell behind 6-2 in the first half and both improved slightly as Montague won 18-15. Rita Walterscheid scored 7, Deann Walterscheid 4, Amy Davidson 2 and Melanie Richey 2.

In the next game they scored 13 in 3 periods while Forestburg got only 4. And in the fourth the home team gained but not enough. Muenster won 17-13. The scorers: Rita Walterscheid

10, Dana Dankesreiter 2, Judy Biffle 2, Melanie Richey 2, Deann Walterscheid 1.

Playing Prairie Valley the girls started with a 6-4 deficit and gained to a 19-8 third period lead, then survived a VW rally for their 23-17 win. Rita Walterscheid hit 11, Deann Walterscheid 5, Amy Davidson 4, Melanie Richey 2, Sharon Russell 1.

In a strong fourth quarter Muenster boys almost won their opener with Montague, which went on to take the champ honor. They trailed 25-18 at the third period and ended at the short end of 31-28. Kevin Switzer scored 12, Jeff McAden 9, John Anderle 4, Darren Walterscheid 2, John Eldred 1.

The future Hornets were in control of all of the second game and allowed the entire roster to share in a

H2O sponsors volley tourney

Twelve teams are scheduled to play in the H2O Adult-Youth Volleyball Tournament on Saturday January 30.

Games will begin at noon in the Muenster High School gym. Each game will last approximately 15 minutes or until 15 points are scored, whichever comes first. Awards will be presented at approximately 5 p.m.

There will be an entry fee of $1.00 which will be used to pay for refreshments for the entrants. Further information is available from Ronnie Hess or Theresa Walterscheid.

Sandy Wimmer is the unsuccessful contender for a rebound in this game with Alvord. Jill Walterscheid is also identifiable. Hornets were nosed out 40-37.

Muenster and Era divide a pair

Muenster High basketball teams were 2 out of 3 winners in a weekend program at Era, the varsity teams dividing honors and MHS junior varsity running away with their game.

In the girls game Muenster was cold for three quarters and trailed by counts of 6-2, 12-5 and 21-13. Then they finally got organized, combined hustle and pressure and gained to a 25-25 half time win. They continued the hustle in overtime and ended at the happy end of 29-28. Stephanie Richey had a great night for 20 points. Carla Walterscheid made 4, Charlotte Fleitman 3, and Sandy Wimmer 2.

MHS boys started fine with a 15-11 first quarter lead but trailed 29-25 at the half after a few changes of the lead. In the second half Muenster was in hot pursuit but could not catch up. Era led 36-33 at the third and 51-49 at the end.

Kevin Felderhoff scored 14, Dale Swirczynski and Tim Schneider hit 12 each, Wayne Carroll made 6, Gary Klement 4 and James Huckaby 1.

The JV game was a disaster for Era's girls. They made 2 in the first period and remained blank the rest of the game while Muenster ended at 27. Scorers for MHS were Jill Wimmer 10, Kim Eldred 6, Cindy Tisdale 6, Paula Russell 2, Jackie Farrell 2, Pam Hermes 1.

Cub Scout News

Although attendance was slight, Cubs who did attend had a great fun time and heard about three major coming events at the Pack 664, Muenster Cub Scouts first meeting of 1982 Monday, January 25.

Brian Reiter opened the meeting with the lighting of the Cub Scout Spirit Candle; Ryan Bayer and Jason Gehrig presented the flags. The year began with a big "bang" when everyone blew up a balloon until it popped and then joined in singing "We're here to have some fun."

Cubmaster Lupe Evans announced current events and told that Cub will attend a special movie with Camp Fire Groups on Tuesday, Jan. 26 in Gainesville.

The Blue and Gold Banquet is scheduled for Feb. 7. Scouting Birthday will be observed Feb. 7-13 and all dens are preparing a display for the Charm Shop - Hamric store windows.

Cooke County Cub Scout summer day camp, held annually in Muenster, will be June 21-24, in the City Park. Parents were invited to sign up to be on the staff for this big event.

The annual Pine Wood Derby will be on March 7 at 2 p.m. Derby kits were distributed to cubs at the close of the meeting. Boys who were absent are asked to come to The Hut to pick up their Derby kits. This project is paid for by the Pack.

Den 2 recited the Cub Scout Promise and gave its meaning; all Cubs recited the Law of the Pack; Den 4 sang "A Commercial Mix-up" which they are preparing for the Blue and Gold Banquet.

The Webelos Den sang the "Warm" song to the delight of all the cubs. Words were distributed so all could join in singing.

Ceremonies for presentation of advancements were brief because badges were delayed in arriving. Mothers pins were presented to Laura Stewart and Paula Reiter, whose Bobcat Mothers Pins did not arrive in time for last month's meeting.

Refreshments were served by cubs of Den 2.

Alvord sweeps series with MHS

Alvord High teams came to Muenster Tuesday night and took over. They beat both of the MHS varsity teams as well as the junior varsity boys.

The Hornets trailed for three quarters by scores of 10-7, 24-18 and 33-26, then came to life in the fourth and closed the gap to a 36-36 tie then turned cold and missed three 1 and 1 opportunities while the visitors added 4 points.

Charlotte Fleitman scored 11, Stephanie Richev 8, Sanny Wimmer 7, Jill Walterscheid 7, Carla Walterscheid 4.

The Hornets led in the first quarter and broke even in the fourth but the periods between were their undoing. Counts ending the periods were 12-8 favoring Muenster, and 23-20, 35-26 and 51-40 favoring Alvord the rest of the way.

Kevin Felderhoff scored 14, Tim Schneider 12, Dale Swirczynski 6, Gary Klement 5, Wayne Carroll 3.

Muenster kids were out-sized and outclassed in the junior varsity game. Alvord rolled to a 30-13 lead in three quarters and coasted to its 37-22 win. Hornet point makers were David Winn and Kevin Wolf, 6 each, Jay Mollenkopf 5, Corey Klement 4, Craig Felderhoff 1.

Humans are among the few animal species which care for their young, says National Wildlife magazine. In fact, 99 per cent of the world's million or so animal species that have been identified simply give birth or lay their eggs and move on.

Forestburg FFA sponsors Area V grass judging contest

All chapters of Area V Future Farmers of America are invited to a special grass judging contest sponsored by the Forestburg FFA next Monday, February 1, at the Forestburg school.

The purpose is to help area teams prepare for the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show competition to be held on February 6.

Any FFA chapter in Area V may enter two teams in either junior or senior divisions of the competition. Entry fee for each team is $5.00, and prizes will be plaques to the top three teams of junior and senior divisions as well as plaques to the top three individuals of each division.

Registration of teams will begin at 1 p.m. and the contest will begin at 2.

Forty plants common to the Montague County area will be laid out for the contest and an additional 40 will be available for study and identification while contest cards are being graded.

Chapter Sweetheart

Tina Wade, sweetheart of the Forestburg FFA chapter, received an official FFA sweetheart jacket at the chapter's regular January meeting. Presentation was made by the chapter president, Jeff Carter.

Tina, elected to the honor during a fall meeting, will represent Forestburg FFA at a District 1 sweetheart contest in February.

Student Council meets at MHS

The MHS Student Council discussed preparations for officer elections, during their January 21 meeting in the Library. Voter registration is to be held January 27 and 28 at noon in the Library. Student Council members also made plans to construct a banner for the gym.

CCD NEWS

"Love Your Enemies" was the theme of the liturgy offered by the second grade CCD class on Wednesday, January 20 during the CCD Mass at 8 p.m. in Sacred Heart Church.

The banner, carried in the entrance procession, displayed happy faces and sad faces drawn by all the second graders and then glued to the banner, to be placed near the altar during Mass by Chris Kubis.

Michael Gobble gave the theme. Tina Klement gave the first Reading and the following, Sammy Walterscheid, Michael Vogel and Lori Schmitz gave the Responsorial Psalms; and Amy Dankesreiter gave the Gospel Acclamation.

Eight second graders, Stephanie Wimmer, Kristie Bierschenk, Douglas Hennigan, Ryan Sicking, Cheryl Hacker, Charity Gilbreath, Tonya Knabe and Connie Black offered the Offertory petitions.

Offertory Readers were teamed with classmates who carried gifts to the altar in the Offertory procession. Chad Simmons explained the picture of Jesus that Dyan Fisher carried to the altar. Jennifer Lippe explained the picture of an unhappy face that Charles Hermes carried. Leslie Klement told about the picture of a smiling face carried by Rex Huchton. Shelly Reeves explained the Offertory gifts of bread, water and wine presented at the altar by Larry Switzer, Kenneth Walterscheid and Johnny Mosler.

Julie Hess gave the Communion Meditation.

Father Denis Soerries was celebrant and Mass servers were Ronnie Walterscheid, Troy Pagel, Jon Fleitman and Samuel Fleitman.

Team-Teachers of the second grad CCD class are Mrs. Clyde (Sharon) Walterscheid and Mrs. Larry (Kathy) Vogel.

TIA plans youth Mass and luncheon

The TIA Spiritual committee section of the Youth Ministry of Sacred Heart Parish has planned a special Youth Mass for Sunday, January 31 at 11 a.m. Themed, "You've Got a Friend in Jesus", TIA members have planned music, liturgy and readings; they will act as ushers and have designed a special banner.

Following Mass, there will be a covered dish meal in the Community Center cafeteria. Everyone planning to attend is asked to provide a covered dish (one per family), which should be brought before Mass to the cafeteria through the south entrance. Everyone, any age, is welcome to attend both the Mass and meal. Youth groups from surrounding areas have been invited to share in the occasion.

Coming Events

Two dates to remember are the monthly Youth Ministry meetings on Monday, February 8; and the TIA Spaghetti supper on February 14.

One of Russ Linn's proudest possessions is this picture made in 1915 when he was a member of a crew working cattle near Holbrook, Arizona. He said the area was "between the Painted Desert and the Petrified Forest." Linn was the Horse Herder. He furnished riding equipment and bedding for the crew. In his outfit when this picture was made were 45 riders plus the cook, 400-600 head of horses and frequently between 12,000 and 15,000 head of cattle in a roundup. Linn also mentioned that salary for a "wrangler" started at $35 per month, plus board. W.R. (Russ) Linn will be 92 years old on his next birthday, February 6. In the above picture he is standing beside the outfit's cook, Sam Lacy of Adamana, Arizona. The rider at left is not identified. Note the early vintage car in the center background; also the black iron kettle and huge coffee pot in front of Cook, Lacy.

Grandparents entertain

It was a big day at the J.T. Willis home in Forestburg, when little Miss Erica Catherine Cain of Thacker-ville, Okla. came to spend New Year's Day with her grandparents John and Catherine Willis. She is their first grandchild and this was the first babysitting they did for the little girl. That was a very enjoyable day for the grandparents as well as for Erica Catherine, six weeks old. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harroll Cain. Mrs. Cain is the former Peggy Willis.
