NUMBER 42

The coming of another Labor Day brings back the usual repetition of widespread oratory reminding the American public of the great things that have been achieved by the hard work of working people, and particularly through the cooperation of labor and industry in our economic system. It's been a good arrangement having organized labor strive for the best possible working conditions as well as a pay level to support the comfort and security befitting human dignity. Thanks to the efforts of dedicated leaders, working people were able to overcome the servitude and poverty of their one time second rate status.

Back in the early days of American industry the principal concern was a just division of the fruits of production. Men of Samuel Gompers caliber, while admitting that the investors providing material, equipment and shelter, along with those directing the operation were entitled to reasonable earnings, the same applied to labor, the third element of the production process. Before long it was generally understood that prosperity was more attainable at good wage rates than poor rates. The reason was simple. The workers themselves became better customers when they could afford a better living.

These economic basics, while explaining past success, now suggest at least one reason for current problems. The wage rate which once enabled workers to be good customers and at the same time made it possible to produce at prices others could afford, did not continue at the right level. Labor leaders, in their effort to guarantee the good life for their members, were increasing production costs to the point of pricing their product out of the market. Like it or not, we are faced by the fact that American sales declined at home as well as abroad and the net results were extensive layoffs and shutdowns. This fact glares out at us from sales floors and shelves everywhere. Look at cars, motorcycles, electronics, clothing, almost any line, and notice how much is foreign made.

The consequence is that millions of people have lost jobs, meaning office personnel as well as production line workers; and furthermore their business has declined. On the other hand they have become an expense to the government receiving help at taxpayer expense.

Leaders of our country, in Labor and government, really need to give this situation some serious thought. The problem leaves no doubt that a good thing has been overdone and the economy can't afford the high cost of labor. If restraints had been applied years ago many factories would still be open and many workers would still be employed.

A few industries have applied this principle lately in a program of reducing pay to keep more people on the job. If widely adopted it would help immensely by reducing lay-offs and increasing purchases, but apparently the idea has not found popular support. Many workers are unwilling to accept less pay because of obligations or high-living habits, and others prefer welfare to a wage cut. However, all can understand that the entire country can

MHS extends homecoming welcome

School is hardly started and already it's homecoming time at Muenster High School. The festivities will take place Friday and Saturday of next week, September 17 and 18 with a hearty welcome to all former students and friends.

The featured event is a football game between the Muenster High Hornets and the Windthorst Trojans. The visitors will be favored but the home team will be extra eager not only because of the occasion but also to show old friends of Windthorst that their former coach is doing a good job.

Game time is 8 p.m. following a parade from down-town to the stadium and a pre-game show by the band. Another pre game activity is identifying the homecoming queen from the field of four candidates and crowning her royal highness. Ceremonies will be directed by Robynn Walterscheid, chairman of this year's celebration. The candidates have been elected and the football team will elect the queen from that group. Nominees are Seniors

Stephanie Richey, Kyla Hale, Ginny Fisher and Shelly Zimmerer. Princesses representing other classes are Freshman Dolle Pagel, Sophomore Amy Reiter and Junior Debbie Bindel.

After the game exes and friends will have a reception in the school lunch room. The homecoming committee is especially anxious for a crowd there hopefully to have the biggest and liveliest get together in years.

And the final event is a homecoming dance in the VFW hall Saturday night with music by Hard Times.

Harvest Hoedown, bigger and better

The 1982 Harvest Hoedown, now rushing up to a September 25 observance, is beginning to look like a delightful event. Debbie Klement, chairman, said this week that city cooperation is fine and more and bigger events are planned.

The Hoedown, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, is intended as an appreciation event to friends who have been buying in Muenster as well as an occasion for stores to offer special values.

Plans of the day include another drop of ping pong balls from an airplane, except the number is doubled from 200 to 400. Each ball picked up can be redeemed at local stores, some for bonus value.

Principal attraction will be a drawing, the prizes provided by business people who will conduct registrations in their stores and combine all tickets for the drawing. A special prize added by the Chamber of Commerce will be 4 tickets to the Cowboy's game with Cleveland on November 25. A minimum age of 18 is required for registering.

Another attraction is Shorty the Clown in circulation during the 10 to 5 duration, presenting a magic show, shaping balloons and signing autographs. And Danny Darwin, Texas Rangers pitcher, will be mingling with the crowd and giving autographs.

Besides there will be a pie baking contest, everybody is invited to enter. And hot dogs will sell again for 25 cents each. Chamber will provide the makings, Friends of the Library will serve and get the proceeds. Another non-profit group, highschool cheerleaders will be helped by the Chamber for their lemonade stand in the Mid-Park. Reduced prices are in the plans too, for Coke and Dr. Pepper.

Father Harry Fisher is transferred

Father Harry Fisher is involved in a three-way change of pastoral assignments announced last week by Bishop Joseph P. Delaney of the Fort Worth Diocese.

Effective October 1 he will become pastor of Sacred Heart Church, Seymour, along with St. Mary of the Assumption Church in Megargel and St. John Church in Bomarton.

Father Harry will be succeeded at St. Thomas Aquinas Church in Pilot Point by Father Augustine Luca, former pastor of St. Mary of the Assumption in Fort Worth. His assignment becomes effective September 13.

Father James Boyle, the former Seymour-Megargel-Bomarton pastor, has been named a full time associate judge for the diocesan tribunal with residence at St. Patrick's Cathedral.

Father Harry Fisher, native of Muenster and veteran of World War II, was ordained May 30, 1964 after studies in St. Mary College, St. Mary, Ky., St. Bernard's in Cullman Ala., and St. Maur Seminary in South Union, Ky. He has served as pastor at St. Mary, Gainesville; Holy Family, Fort Worth; Sacred Heart, Wichita Falls; St. George, Fort Worth; and St. Rita, Fort Worth before his assignment to Pilot Point.

Funeral held for Joe Kleiss

Funeral service for Joseph Kleiss, 78, lifetime resident of the community was held Friday, 10 a.m., in Sacred Heart Church with Father Denis Soerries officiating at a Mass of Christian Burial and Father Bruno Fuhrman concelebrating.

Father Denis in his funeral homily praised Joe as a man of simple faith and service to God, whose patience in suffering was an inspiration. The speaker also referred to the faith as a consolation to survivors, saying it helps endure sorrow in the sadness of departure.

Others participating in the ceremony's special liturgy were the Sacred Heart Men's choir, Mike Kleiss in the scriptural readings; Gina Hofbauer in petitions; Jayna Hofbauer, Angela Hofbauer, Michelle Kleiss and Jeannine Walterscheid in offertory presentations; and Bryan Kleiss, David Rohmer, Scott Vogel, Jason Gehrig and Ryan Gehrig as mass servers.

Burial was in Sacred Heart Cemetery directed by Nick Miller Funeral

Home and pallbearers were Gary Hermes, Michael Hofbauer, Mark Mollenkopf, Michael Walterscheid, Kenny Walterscheid, Joey Walterscheid, Damian Walterscheid and Craig Walterscheid. Father Placidus led a rosary in the funeral home chapel at 4 p.m. Thursday and another rosary was recited at 8 p.m.

Joe Kleiss was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kleiss, early residents of the community. He was born in Muenster August 21, 1904. Since his youth he has been associated with his brother John in a farming and livestock raising operation.

Survivors are two brothers, John of Muenster and Al of Subiaco, Ark., three sisters, Mrs. Rosie Walterscheid and Mrs. Clem Hofbauer of Muenster and Sister Aloysia Kleiss of Stuttgart, Ark.; and nieces and nephews.

Among relatives attending the service were Sister Aloysia of Stuttgart; and Mrs. Al Kleiss and daughter Ruth and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kleiss of Subiaco. Failing health kept Al from coming.

Twenty-four receive CPR certificates

Twenty four persons of the community have received certificates on completion of three classes in cardio-pulmonary recitation taught here in recent weeks by Laura Yeargan, R.N. a certified CPR instructor and paramedic on the staff of Cooke County ambulance service. The program was organized and directed by Joann Walterscheid.

Each class consists of 8 hours of lecture, demonstration and practice. Two classes were held at Muenster Memorial Hospital and one at the TP&L conference room. Those who received the certificates are Theresa Walterscheid, Dea Swirczynski, Gloria Becker, Shirley Hess, Norma Jean Bayer, Renata Hess, Tommie Sue Hess, Ruth Barnhill, Adeline Sicking, Aileen Knabe, Janet Felderhoff, Alma Wolf, Terrye Flusche, Wanda Flusche, Delores Eberhart, Danny Eberhart, Karla Walterscheid, Tina Hesse, Diann Caplinger, Henry Weinzapfel, Jane Weinzapfel, Wilfred Luttmier, Joann Pagel and Delores Hofbauer.

Governing structure of CLIU changed at state convention

More than 800 persons, including delegates, families and guests were in attendance at the 78th statewide convention of the Catholic Life Insurance Union held August 20-22 in the Marriott Hotel of Austin. The gathering was the largest ever in the 81 year history of the fraternal benefit society with 88 branches throughout Texas.

The convention highlight was an address by Bishop Vincent Harris of Austin in which he praised CLIU for its services to God and community and emphasized "the importance of good insurance in the Catholic family. Among featured awards were those to the "Twelve Apostles," identified as the top sales representatives of the organization. One of the twelve was Pat Knabe of the Muenster branch, who earned the honor for the third consecutive year.

For the first time Catholic Life also presented branch awards; to Selma-Converse for outstanding branch, to St. Lawrence for community service, and to Rockne-String-Prairie branch for membership. The convention also adopted constitutional amendments altering governing structure from a central administration by four elected state officers and four state trustees to a board of eight district directors and eight deputy directors, each serving a two year term and elected by the district. Home office personnel are appointed by the board.

In the district elections Andrew Roewe of Windthorst was named director and Harold Bindel of Muenster was named deputy director of District 8. The new board then met and re-appointed Edward M. Dausin president and executive officer, a position he has held since 1963. During his 20 year tenure Catholic Life has grown from $25 million of insurance-in-force to more than a quarter billion, and assets have increased from $7 million to $28 million. The 35,000 member society has headquarters in San Antonio.

The 1000 member Muenster branch was represented at the convention by Dan Haverkamp, Tim Hartman, John D. Fleitman, Harold Bindel, Dennis Hess, Herman Grewing, Roger Taylor, Pat Knabe and Herbert Knabe.

Good News

John 14:1-6

"Do not let your hearts be troubled. Have faith in God and faith in me. In my Father's house there are many dwelling places; otherwise, how could I have told you that I was going to prepare a place for you? I am indeed going to prepare a place for you, and then I shall come back to take you with me, that where I am you also may be. You know the way that leads where I go."

"Lord," said Thomas, "we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?" Jesus told him: "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through me."

Barbeque supper sponsored by Myra Firemen

Myra's volunteer firemen are getting set this week for their annual benefit event to raise money for equipment. It will be held Saturday, September 11, 5 to 9 p.m. in the city park.

The headliner is a barbecued supper with adult plates at $4.00 and child plates at $2.00.

Another feature is a drawing for prizes which have been provided by business people of Muenster and Gainesville.

Three wheat meetings called

Three wheat variety update meetings will be held in various parts of Cooke County on Tuesday, September 14, 1982, for county grain producers, according to an announcement by Craig Rosenbaum, extension agent.

Jim Blalock, extension agronomist, will be at the following locations and times to update producers on varieties, disease resistance, and yields of wheats for the Cooke County area. The meetings are free and open to the public.

Valley View, 8 to 9 a.m., FFA classroom; Muenster, 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. Cooke County Electric Co-op; Lindsay, 11 to noon, Parish Hall.

Mild and Dry

Moderate and dry continues to summarize Muenster's weather. Steve Mosler's records of the week show a top temperature of 97 but a range of 91 to 95 on other days. The only 100-plus day of September was 102 on the first.

Meanwhile moisture is less pleasing. The year's total remains at 28.39 after a week of zero readings, and the total is only .35 since 1.52 inch on August 1, about 5 weeks ago.

Low and high temperatures of the week were recorded as follows.

September 2	77 and 97
September 3	75 and 94
September 4	64 and 91
September 5	61 and 93
September 6	60 and 95
September 7	66 and 95
September 8	68 and 95

Looking Ahead

PEACE OFFENSIVE
While the "Peace Offensive" is a communist tactic designed to assist the Reds in their march toward world conquest, this obviously does not mean that all groups involved in the "Peace Offensive" are Communist-dominated or that all leaders are Communists.

Unfortunately for us and for the cause of individual freedom world-wide, many groups and individuals will cooperate with the Communists and their front groups. The Communists long ago learned the value of the so-called "united front" in which they work with non-Communists to achieve certain limited objectives.

And when you stop to think about it, does it really matter whether people working against the best interests of the nation are card-carrying members of the Communist Party, U.S.A. — or is the important point the consequence of the action. We submit the latter is the case.

Almost thirty years ago, in testifying before the Reece Committee investigating the subversive activities of "Tax-Exempt Foundations," Dr. David N. Rowe, then of the Yale University faculty, now retired, a recognized expert on China and Communism in general, addressed himself to this point. He said:

"In much of the activity that has to do with identification of Communist activity in the United States, it has seemed to me that we are going off on the wrong track when we limit ourselves to efforts to identify overt Communists, or let us say organizational Communists, people who carry a card or who can be positively identified as members of an organization subject to organized discipline."

"For every one of those that you fail to identify, and it seems to me we even fail to identify most of those, there are a thousand people who could not possibly be identified as such, because they have never had any kind of organizational affiliation, but among those people are many people who advance the interests of world communism, in spite of the fact that they are not subject to discipline and do not belong to any organization.

The people who can be tailed and tagged by the FBI are a very, very small minority. They occupy a very powerful position and a potentially important one, but the people who do the important work are unidentifiable, and if I were planning to infiltrate the United States, I would see to it that they were unidentifiable."

The facts are that millions of Americans are doing the important work of the Communists and many of them are active right now in the "Peace Offensive." They will be found among these groups which sent some 200 representatives to an organizational meeting at Riverside Church, New York City on October 31, 1981:

Catholic Peace Fellowship, Center for Defense Information, Church Women United, Clergy and Laity Concerned, Communist Party, U.S.A., Educators for World Peace, Jewish Peace Fellowship, Lawyers Committee on Nuclear Policy, Lutheran Church, National Conference of Black Churchmen, Presbyterian Church, United Church of Christ, United Federal of Teachers, U.S. Peace Council, Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, and Women's Strike for Peace.

Some of these groups are Communist, some are Communist fronts, but of course the vast majority of the people in these groups are not Communist, but their efforts on behalf of the "Peace Offensive" are most important and valuable to the Communist cause.

Said Dr. Edward Teller, "Father of the H Bomb": "If the nuclear freeze goes through, this country won't exist in 1990." Think about it!

Letter to the Editor

My very dear friends,
It would be waiting too long until Christmas to have a little chat with you because friendship is a precious and delicate relationship between human beings.

One must cherish the old friends and on the other hand constantly make new ones. I had a wonderful chance to do the latter between August 14 and 27 at the Benedictine Manor in Hot Springs, Ar. I socialized daily for hours to my heart's content.

The Benedictine Manor, which many of you know, has some hundred permanent residents. With these I visited at meals, in their rooms and during recreation time.

Since the Manor also serves the public as a fine eating place I met lots and lots of people especially on Sundays and Fridays. On Sundays they just poured in to the large dining hall as they came from attending services in their respective churches. On Fridays people came for the fine sea food.

This visiting with people was really an immense treat for me because of the great variety of people I got to meet. Time and again I met people who lived in Texas or who had relatives there. Some even knew a lot about Muenster and had relatives there. Likewise I had the pleasure of meeting people of Swiss descent and a great number who had visited Switzerland. I got to talk with people who had lived through the horrors of World Wars I and II. I remember in particular the ladies from Latvia and Hungary. They told me in details about their experiences.

I also conversed with people of high educational attainment, artists in various fields and just kind, lovely, old people. There were also teenagers and children. It was simply a marvelous crowd of human beings. I enjoyed also the opportunity of using my German, French and Spanish.

I could go on and on, but I don't want to bore you to death. I could tell you about the amusement I enjoyed.

In the meantime, my very dear friends, I live in spirit also with you. I thoroughly enjoyed all the photos of the past and the present. I took particular notice of the faculty of Sacred Heart School, most of whom I remember.

My heartfelt good wishes for a successful school year to the faculty and students of both schools.

Congratulations of the warmest kind wherever and to whomever due and deepest sympathy to those who lost dear ones.

Thanks for papers, letters, cards and greetings!!

Forever your friend,
Sister M. Theresina, OSB.

I enjoyed Mark Emerson's column in this paper and would like to attempt to write a similar column pertaining to interpretation of selected scripture passages from the Bible. Lack of time will probably prevent the column from being written on a weekly basis, but hopefully I will be able to put something together at least twice a month, more if time permits.

I would like to encourage reader participation. If you have favorite scripture passages you would like to send to me along with your interpretation of what they mean, or questions about various scripture passages, please send them to me and I will try to use them.

This column will not be used to discuss controversial issues of any kind, including local and national issues, political views, or even controversial religious denominational doctrines. The views presented will be my beliefs as to what I think the interpretation should be after studying the various commentaries available to me, but I encourage everyone not to blindly accept my view, but to only

Correction

Taxpayers of Muenster who read two two weeks ago in the Enterprise that their city sales tax fund has reached $654,080.04 to date this year don't really have anything to cheer about, and the regular property tax can't be omitted after all. The corrected figure is $65,080.04. The simple explanation is that an extra digit got into the figure and was not discovered before it got into print.

CAPITOL UPDATE

John Tower
U.S. SENATOR for TEXAS
142 RUSSELL OFFICE BUILDING
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510

Labor Day is a time when we honor working men and women. It is a holiday dedicated to the social and economic achievements of American workers, to their contributions to the strength, prosperity and well-being of our country.

Certainly, the greatness we have achieved as a nation rests on the shoulders of generations of hard-working Americans. Our vast resources would have laid untapped had it not been for the ingenuity, tenacity and effort put forth by those who settled our land. In return for their work, they found that here, more than anywhere else in the world, success and prosperity were determined by an individual's actions rather than family or background.

It is in this spirit which we honor on Labor Day. It also is a day in which we note the progress made in the past century in improving the lives of those who work.

Today's laborer enjoys the protection of wage and hour laws, regulations mandating a safe workplace, unemployment compensation to provide for necessities of life when a job is lost and a host of other safeguards against exploitation. These advances have been crucial to the development of a prosperous America. They went hand-in-hand with increasing productivity which made U.S. industry the envy of the world.

Unquestionably, the organized labor movement of the early 20th century is responsible for many of these reforms. And certainly, organized labor will continue to play an important role in the economic life of the nation.

However, union leadership must understand that for its members to prosper, industry must be healthy and able to compete both within the nation and in world trade.

Part of our economic difficulties today result from a failure on the part of both management and labor in past years to remember that if productivity does not increase along with wages, prices are driven upward — fueling inflation and making U.S. goods less competitive in the world market.

I am encouraged at the spirit with which many unions are working with management to make U.S. industrial facilities more productive and more price competitive. Many plants are staying open, and many jobs are being saved by this cooperative effort.

The goal of the trade union movement at its inception was to make labor a partner of management, to give workers a voice in business. If this partnership works well — with listening, concern and compromise on both sides — we can rebuild our industrial might and bring renewed prosperity to the nation and all of its people.

HELPING THE KIDS

By Edwin Feulner

The nearly 2-percent increase in the gross national product during the second quarter (April-June) of 1982 is the good news. The bad news is that more than 10-million Americans — most of them through no fault of their own — still are unemployed.

While there are pockets of prosperity around the country, there also are segments of the economy that are deeply hurting; the auto and housing industries are staggering. Similarly, while there appear to be many jobs for people with certain skills — computer experts and engineers, for example — there are very few jobs for people with no skills.

For most people the economy will get better, and the job picture will improve. Unless something is done quickly, it'll be a long time, however, before prosperity reaches the street corners of South Philadelphia, Roxbury, or the Bronx.

Clarence M. Pendleton, Jr., Chairman of the U.S. Civil Rights Commission, has started the ball rolling. He wants business and organized labor to agree to an emergency measure that would allow unemployed teenagers to work at jobs for less than the minimum wage. Pendleton says it would require suspending the minimum wage for a minimum of six months to create new jobs in the private sector.

Best of all, his proposal doesn't involve government. There are no new programs. No new agencies. No more bureaucrats. No fat budgets. Just a throwback to yesteryear, when neighbor would help neighbor because they knew the job needed to be done.

Why blame the minimum wage, you ask? Well, according to Dr. Walter Williams, an economist at George Mason University, the minimum wage (now $3.35) has priced many kids out of the job market.

"Many supermarket owners would ... hire teenagers at two or three dollars an hour to bag groceries, assist customers with their parcels, and sweep floors. Airline companies might like to hire teenagers, supervised by adults, to clean, vacuum, and empty ashtrays in airplanes or terminals," Dr. Williams says. There are many other jobs like these that kids could do but are prevented from doing by law or collective bargaining agreements.

Dr. Williams — himself a product of the Philadelphia ghetto — says quite correctly that the minimum wage tends to discriminate against anybody who can't produce $3.35 worth of goods and services per hour. Common sense tells us that it is a losing proposition for an employer to pay an untrained street kid $3.35 per hour when the kid only produces $2 worth of work per hour. Employers, more often than not, don't hire such marginal workers, especially in a recessionary economy. And the person in the labor force most likely to fall into this category is the teenager.

The statistics tell an interesting story. For instance, only about 12 percent of the U.S. labor force works for wages at or around the minimum level. Of this 12 percent, more than 99 percent are not heads of households. Yet, proponents of a high minimum wage argue its merit in terms of household income needed to support a family of four. What they are saying, in effect, is that 17-year-olds should not have jobs unless they can make enough to support a family of four. Make sense?

Pendleton's plan can work only if union officials and business leaders want it to work. Let's hope they can pull together to solve this problem.

PROPERTY TAXES— GOOD INTENTIONS AREN'T ENOUGH

I want to talk this week about taxes and good intentions.

As I travel around Texas, I notice that what's known as the Peveto Bill is the subject of much talk and controversy. This bill, named after state representative Wayne Peveto, is a tax reform law, legislation of the best intention.

The law was designed to end confusion and unfairness in the way property taxes were assessed. Property was often on different tax rolls at different values. Older properties went years, sometimes decades, without being revalued or updated. New construction and newly sold property was on the rolls at more correct values and so people who owned it paid a higher share of taxes. Some property was simply left off the rolls entirely. The system was confusing and inequitable.

In an attempt to correct these problems, the Peveto Bill created property tax appraisal boards for each Texas county. These boards were charged with the responsibility of setting all property at its full value—as residential or commercial property or as land used for agricultural purposes. Taxes could then be levied on this accurately assessed property according to the needs of the taxing entities.

It sounded good, but it hasn't worked. The biggest problem is that the people on the appraisal boards are appointed, not elected. They are not accountable to the taxpayers. So now we have a new, faceless bureaucracy to deal with. It amounts to taxation without representation.

My opponent has been on both sides of this issue, first supporting the bill in the legislature—then doing an about-face and calling it bad legislation after it was passed. The Peveto Bill, though well-intentioned, has created problems which must be dealt with in the next legislature and as your next Lt. Governor, I will do just that. If you have any thoughts on this subject, please write me at 1213 W. 34th, Austin, 78705.

gain if it will come down off its high-cost level and make sacrifices for the sake of more employment, a better break at the market place and relief for taxpayers.

Union leaders in Labor Day messages like to tell what great things they have done for workers. Our country's economic distress now offers an opportunity for statesmanship, not necessarily in pay increase but job increase and better values at the store.

A subject now getting considerable thought is a reduction of the minimum wage. Opponents claim it is not fair to pay so little but supporters say it will be good for employer as well as employee. Employers could hire needed helpers at pay that the job justifies, and youngsters could have an income besides keeping out of trouble.

Solutions like these no doubt are too simple to appeal to big time economists. But really, doesn't it seem like good sense to reduce the cost while increasing the number on the payroll?

Rhonda Endres and Kenneth Hartman exchange vows in 2-ring nuptial Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hartman are on a wedding trip to Colorado, following their marriage in Sacred Heart Church on Saturday afternoon at 5:00, officiated by Father Victor Gillespie, celebrant of the Nuptial Mass with double ring ceremony.

The bride is the former Rhonda Endres, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Endres. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hartman, all of Muenster. Both are graduates of Sacred Heart High School. The bride also attended Cooke County College and is employed at The Center Restaurant and also as a teller at First Texas Savings. The groom is a route salesman for Gilbert Endres Distributing Co.

Presented at the altar by her father, the bride was wearing a white chiffon wedding gown with Venise lace trim. The bodice with lace appliques featured a Queen Anne neckline and sheer bishop sleeves. The empire waisted skirt was edged in Venise trim that continued into a long chapel length train. The gown was especially designed for the bride by Joelle of New York.

Her matching picture hat was accented with delicate smocking in the crown and adorned with bridal pearls, with attached veil in back completing a look of total elegance. Her bridal bouquet was an arrangement of pink and burgundy orchids and roses and forget-me-nots with greenery. In keeping with tradition she wore a gold cross and chain necklace formerly belonging to her late maternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Franz Hesse; and borrowed pearl earrings.

Attendants

Brenda Felderhoff a friend of the bride was her maid of honor. Marlene Endres, bride's sister-in-law was matron of honor. Laurie Endres, bride's sister and Monica Hartman, groom's sister were bridesmaids. They were identically gowned in mauve chiffon and carried bouquets of pink and mauve carnations. In their hair they wore wreaths of delicate pink and burgundy forget-me-nots and white babies breath.

The three little flower girls, dressed alike in pink and carrying baskets of flowers and wearing wreaths in their hair were Karri Endres, Nicole Endres and Leslie Bezner, nieces of the bride. The ring bearer was Eric Bezner, nephew of the bride.

Bobby Hartman was his brother's best man, Roger Endres, bride's brother, Danny Walterscheid, groom's cousin, and Greg Gieb, a friend were groomsmen. Monte Endres, bride's brother and Brian Hess, Mike Hesse and Brian Bindel, friends of the groom were ushers. The groom ushered his mother to her place in church. Nephews of the bride, Glen Swirczynski and Jason Endres; and Troy Pagel were Mass servers.

The liturgy of the Mass included petitions by Jeanna Hartman, groom's cousin, readings by Eddie Stock, former football coach at SHHS; Offertory gifts presented by Julie Bezner, Chris Pagel and Christy Yosten; and Herbert Miller and Joe Felderhoff, uncles of the couple, assisting as Eucharistic ministers at Communion. After the ceremony the bride placed a red rose on the Blessed Virgin's altar, where the groom lit a candle.

Wedding music was given by Ruth Felderhoff organist, and Debbie Hess, Christi Klement, Doug Yosten, Susan Metzler and Roger Endres, vocalists, in group and solo selections before and during Mass.

The church main altar held arrangements of pink carnations and lighted candles. The front altar held the Unity candle made by the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Tony Felderhoff. Tall floor candelabra with lighted candles stood near the communion rail.

Reception

A reception, catered dinner and dance followed in the Sacred Heart Community Center, hosted by the bride's parents. Guests danced to music by bride's brother Roger Endres and "Hardtimes".

Mary Lou Hess and Carol Koelzer registered guests in the bride's book, at a white wrought iron and glass table made by Herbie Walterscheid.

Decoration in the reception room included arrangements of pink and burgundy carnations surrounding lighted hurricane globes on guest tables. Floor candelabra entwined with flowers and greenery stood behind the bride's table. A wall decoration there was made with a large white organza Austrian shade design, with several white wicker baskets of burgundy and white flowers suspended on wide white satin ribbons on which were inscribed the couple's names. Above the dance floor a large hanging basket was hung, filled with overflowing with white flowers, bells and satin ribbons. All decorations were by Mrs. Arnold Knabe.

The bride's table held two crystal wine glasses for the couple's champagne toasts, gifts from the groom's parents. The three tiered white wedding cake, decorated with flowers in the bride's chosen colors, and made by Betty Rose Walterscheid was served by Amy Walterscheid, Angela Endres, Vickie Schmitt, Debbie Schmitt, Anne Felderhoff and Rose Felderhoff.

The horseshoe shaped chocolate groom's cake was served from a table holding a beige, handmade cloth and a brown candle brought from Germany. Special guests were Mrs. Dora Henschel, bride's grandmother and Messrs. and Mmes. Tony Felderhoff and Victor Hartman, groom's grandparents. Guests from out of town came from Lindsay, Gainesville, Dallas, Fort Worth, Austin, Amarillo, McKinney, Killen, Denton and Pilot Point.

Rehearsal Dinner

The rehearsal dinner was held on Sunday, August 29, at 4:30 p.m. in the Gilbert Endres Budweiser meeting room, hosted by the groom's parents.

A bridal shower in the TP&L meeting room was hosted by Marlene Endres, Monica Hartman and Laurie Ann Endres. A personal shower was given by Brenda Felderhoff.

When the couple returns from a wedding trip they will be at home in Muenster.

Patricia Davidson, Eugene Gilliland united in Gainesville

Patricia Gay Davidson of Temple became the bride of Eugene Rosser Gilliland of Norman, Okla. on Saturday, September 4 in a traditional double ring ceremony in Whaley United Methodist Church of Gainesville. Rev. John F. Allen, pastor of Garland United Methodist Church was the officiating minister and blessed their vows in a setting created by lighted candles in tall candelabra entwined with English ivy, arrangements of yellow gladioli, and the Unity candle placed on the communion table.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davidson of Muenster and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Gilliland of Rt. 2, Gainesville.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was wearing a formal floor length wedding gown of white peau de soie with a chapel length train. The shaped band of the square neckline was covered with lace and pearls. The high, fitted bodice had front and back pin tucks, and a partial belt and a back bow. Sheer full sleeves were gathered at the wrists to lace cuffs trimmed with pearls. The dress, made by the bride's mother was particularly treasured and borrowed from the bride's sister, Becky, Mrs. Tom Felderhoff Jr. who wore it at her wedding five years ago.

The bridal veil of illusion was fingertip length and attached to a lace and pearl headband.

She carried a bridal bouquet of yellow roses and white daisies and wore a gold cross and chain, a gift from the groom. For tradition she had a birthdate penny in her shoe and wore a blue garter and a Texas A&M garter.

Attendants

Barbara Davidson of Longwood, Florida was her sister's maid of honor. Arreva Mae Marcell of Plano groom's sister and Amy Davidson of Muenster, bride's sister were bridesmaids. They wore semi-fitted gowns of yellow polyester, designed with square necklines and pin tucks on the bodice; and elbow length sleeves with buttoned cuffs. A sheer over-skirt was printed with clusters of blue, gold, apricot and green flowers. They wore gold butterfly necklaces, gifts from the bride; and carried bouquets of yellow daisies and blue and apricot carnations with white babies' breath and blue ribbons.

Emily Felderhoff, bride's niece was flower girl, wearing a long white dress with lace and ruffle trim on the skirt, and lace, ruffle and yellow ribbon trim on the bodice.

Ray Nichols of Gainesville was the best man. Jess Laird of Palestine, both friends and Mike Davidson of Denton, bride's brother were groomsmen. Wade Brorsen of Bryan, bride's brother-in-law and Michael Marcell of Plano, groom's nephew were ushers.

Becky and Tom Felderhoff, bride's sister and brother-in-law were candlelighters.

Wedding music was presented by Annetta Earle, organist and Mrs. Susan Laird of Palestine, vocalist. Included were the traditional wedding march processional and "Joyful, Joyful We Adore" as the recessional. Mrs. Laird sang "The Wedding Song" and "O Perfect Love".

Reception

A reception followed in the Fellowship Hall of the Church.

Kathy Brorsen, bride's sister of Bryan and Ola Jean McRae of Temple presided at the guest registry, at a table covered in white and decorated with yellow ribbon roses made by the groom's mother. Also on the table were a decapaged wedding invitation made by Mrs. Eddie Fleitman, and a yellow candle and flowers. A bridal portrait was displayed on a nearby easel.

The bride's table was covered with white lace over a white cloth, with accents of yellow ribbon roses; also an arrangement of yellow carnations and white daisies, and tall tapers in crystal candleholders. The groom's table was covered with a beige cloth with brown accents. A silver coffee service and the chocolate groom's cake decorated by the groom's mother were placed there. The three tiered white wedding cake, decorated by Betty Rose Walterscheid with yellow roses, held a top arrangement of bells and doves. A bridal figurine was placed between tapers.

Serving the cakes and punch were Tracey Klement of Denton, Doris Koesler of Muenster, Mary Becker of Temple and Susie Tolson of San Antonio. Members of the house party included Ima Jean Smith, Betty Stephenson, and Davie Mae Enderby, all of Gainesville.

A table covered with a white embroidered cloth, held a buffet of pick up foods. The centerpiece was a tall silver candelabra with yellow candles.

Special guests at the wedding and reception were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Louise Siegmund of Gainesville and the groom's grandfather Eugene French of Gainesville.

Guests from out of town came from Florida; Oklahoma; London, England; Dallas, Temple, San Antonio, Denton, Aledo, Valley View, Palestine, Bryan, Willis Point, Whitesboro, Garland, Arlington and Muenster.

When the couple returns from a wedding trip to San Antonio, they will be at home in Norman, Oklahoma. The bride is a 1977 graduate of Muenster High School, a 1981 graduate of Texas A&M University with a bachelor of science degree in Journalism. Prior to her marriage she was a reporter for the Temple Daily Telegram and will be a reporter for the Oklahoma City Times.

The groom is a 1974 graduate of Lindsay High School, a 1978 graduate of Texas A&M University with a bachelor of science degree in wildlife and fisheries sciences; and received a master of science degree in zoology from Oklahoma State University in July 1982. He is employed by the Oklahoma Dept. of Wildlife Conservation as a research biologist.

Rehearsal Dinner

The rehearsal dinner was given by Curtis and Genie Gilliland in their home on Marysville Road, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Ginger Preston of Florida and Gwen Schneider of Gainesville.

A shower honored the bride-elect, hosted by women of Whaley United Methodist Church; another by friends in Temple and a display tea by Mae Marcell.

It takes one second for the wings of small hummingbird to beat 70 times.

Youth Diet Needs Supplements Too

It's a common human failing to ignore our state of health until we are ill. Likewise, we are more concerned about supplementing our diets when we are more aware of our mortality, say in our 30's or 40's, rather than in the more "immortal" period of our preteens.

But I feel it's important, especially with today's nutritionally threadbare foods, to supplement our children's diets. Unfortunately there are not too many formulations I can recommend, as most contain too much sugar, unsuitable vitamin dosages, high toxicity levels or a total absence of the latest scientific discovery, trace elements.

One new formula has come to my attention that appears to comprise such essentials. Called Grow 'N Up, it's formulated for children aged 3-13, and the dosage is based on their weights rather than their ages.

For example, the product is the only child supplement to contain the trace minerals selenium, GTF chromium, and carotene. It also contains the optimum amounts of magnesium, zinc, iron and manganese. Its formula also deletes or replaces those nutrients that are already plentiful in the diets of most children or that have low toxicity levels. Hence it does not contain calcium, phosphorus or vitamin D. In addition, it is formulated with carotene rather than preformed vitamin A.

Stoffels entertain weekend guests

Labor Day and weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Stoffels and family were Janel Stoffels and Brenda Warden of San Antonio and Mark Stoffels of Shreveport, La. Janel and Brenda returned Friday from a two week trip to England, France, Germany, and Belgium, where they did extensive sight-seeing, especially in London, Paris and Munich.

Families visit

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hennigan of Albuquerque visited with her sister Margie Endres in Fort Worth recently when the family of Mrs. Henry Hennigan held a reunion there to observe her birthday. Margie and a friend, Mary Wade were also guests at the birthday party. They both also visited in Muenster last Saturday to attend the Endres-Hartman wedding.

Guests of Mrs. Ben Luke during the weekend and on Labor Day were her daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Denny of San Antonio and a son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Harold Luke of Arlington, who visited Sunday afternoon.

News of the Sick

Ray Klement is convalescing at home since Labor Day and after 4 weeks of hospitalization at Westgate Medical Center in Denton. He underwent abdominal surgery twice. His daughter, Janice Lamanna R.N. of Denver, Colo. remained at his bedside for a week and has now returned to her home. His wife and their family made daily trips to visit him in Denton.

A son, Lloyd Klement and a son and daughter-in-law Lynn Joe and Cindy Klement, all of Houston were with him also during surgeries and spent the past two weekends here.

Mrs. Gene Klement underwent eye surgery Wednesday in Presbyterian Hospital in Dallas, and will probably be hospitalized for five days. Cards will reach her addressed to Presbyterian Hospital 8200 Walnut Hill, Room 618, Dallas, Tx. 75231.

Growing Child

P.O. Box 620N, Lafayette, Indiana 47902 (317) 423-2624

Do you worry what your toddler is doing while you are busy in the kitchen? Do you feel that you must keep him in a play pen to keep him out of trouble while you are putting away the groceries or washing dishes?

Growing Child, the monthly child development newsletter, suggests arranging things for safe play in the kitchen or involving him in your work.

Safe Kitchen Play: Be sure that all potentially harmful substances-cleaning compounds, detergents, metal polish, furniture polish, anything your child might swallow-are carefully out of his reach. Knives and other sharp objects should be unreachable, pot handles turned in. Now just look around your kitchen and you will find any number of safe things for play and learning. A cardboard carton turned on its side makes a house or a cave; on its bottom it can be a car or a boat or just a comfy place to crawl into and count your treasure.

Pots and pans and spoons make wonderful music. A collection of light-weight packages or cans will make Toddler's very own pantry shelf. A round cereal box or empty coffee can rolls almost like a ball. Empty cans with tops and bottoms removed are fun to look through, and small ones fit into or will drop through larger ones.

A salad basket or a small plastic pail will serve to carry treasures from here to there. Empty paper towel or bathroom tissue rollers can be looked through. Measuring cups and spoons fit together and come apart endlessly and in many combinations. Small cardboard boxes make good hiding places for small toys and fit inside larger boxes.

Helping: There are times when the sights and sounds and smells of your cooking operation are very attractive to a toddler, and he is apt to come in just to see what is going on. These are moments when you might wish he were in another room and not underfoot. But instead of saying "Go away, Mommy's busy", why not take a moment to involve him, in a small way, in what you are doing?

As Toddler hangs around, probably sucking his thumb, take note of what you are doing. Is there any action or part of an action that he can do? If you are opening a can, hoist him up and show him how the handle of the can opener turns, then leave the handle in a position where he can make about half a turn himself by pulling it toward him.

Then set him down, finish opening the can and show him how the lid can be raised to reveal the contents. You might point to the picture on the label, say "Peas", or whatever, then dip out a few peas with a spoon and hold them beside the picture. "See, here are the peas." The significance of the picture as an indicator of the contents will not be lost on him.

Now you can bring the pan down to his eye level and show him how the can's contents are poured into the heating pan. Pouring is and will be a fascinating operation to him, and he might well be shown the pouring anytime he is around. His hand is too small to hold the can, even with your guidance. But you can give him the empty can, with the lid safely folded in, and direct him to drop it in the garbage sack.

How many jobs should a toddler participate in at one session? He himself will give you that answer. He will stay with you for one or more activities, then seem to lose interest and wander off. But that's so that he can digest what he has experienced. He has to ponder the idea that grownups pour and stir things, and push buttons. You may even see him pouring and stirring with new purposefulness in his self-play not long after he has helped you in the kitchen. There will be times, of course, when you are too rushed to let him join in your activities, and in these cases he must accept the idea that you have nothing for him to do. But on more relaxed occasions the kitchen can serve as a center for new experiences, an interesting place where important things happen, and where he has a chance to learn about the way big-people things are done.

The growing Child newsletter follows a child's development month-by-month. For more information on the social and physical development of children from birth to six years old, write to Growing Child, PO Box 620N, Lafayette, In. 47902. Include child's birthdate when writing. A year's subscription to the newsletter costs $11.95.

Patti Ferber, Daniel Winters exchange vows

Patricia Jo Ferber became the bride of Daniel Wayne Winters on Saturday, August 21 in a Nuptial Mass with double ring ceremony in Sacred Heart Church. Father Victor Gillespie officiated and heard their vows at 5 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ferber of Muenster. She attended Byron High School in Byron, Minnesota and graduated from Muenster

High School in 1980, where she was secretary of the JETS Club. She was assistant merchandiser to the Children's Dept of J.C. Penny Co. in Denton, and has now transferred to Penys in Gainesville.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Winters of Gainesville. He is a 1979 graduate of Gainesville High School and is a glazier employed by Gainesville Glass Co.

Presented at the altar by her father, the bride was wearing an original wedding gown of white crepe with three layers of ruffled lace around the neckline; and an over-skirt of point d'esprit lace, caught up in scallops around the hemline, each tied with a yellow satin ribbon. Her veil of Matching point d'esprit was waltz length and was attached to a lace headpiece trimmed with tiny yellow satin roses and pearls.

Her bridal flowers were yellow roses, yellow and white mums and baby's breath. In keeping with tradition: she wore a locket belonging to a great-aunt, Margaret Cassidy of Winona, Minn.

Attendants

Dominique Roy of Dallas a friend of the bride was the maid of Honor, Carla Sprate of Rochester, Minn, bride's sister and Deborah Winters of Gainesville, groom's sister were bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of blue dotted swiss with lace inserts in the skirts and a ruffle around the neckline.

The bride's gown and veil and the attendants' dresses, all featuring lavish lace detail, were designed and made by Mrs. Ferber.

The best man was Michael Bond, groom's cousin of Gainesville. Groomsmen were Jeff Herrington, a friend and Donald R. Young, groom's cousin, all of Gainesville.

Ushers were Michael Luster of Gainesville, a friend, and David Ferber of Rochester, bride's brother.

Wedding music was presented by Glenn Wilson, organist of Gainesville and Christina Larson, violinist of Denton. Selections included "Ave Maria" and the Meditation theme from the opera "Thais".

Yellow mums and lighted candles decorated the main altar and the couple's Unity candle was placed on the front altar. Pews in the center aisle were marked with lace bows and long lace streamers, each centered with yellow satin ribbon rosettes.

Reception

A reception, buffet and dance were hosted by the bride's parents in the VFW Hall, for 50 guests.

Angela Bale, cousin of the bride presided at the bride's book; and Sandra Bale, another cousin and Deanna Winters, sister of the groom, were reception assistants.

The bride's table was decorated with a basket of yellow and white silk daisies, and blue and yellow candles. Guest tables held baskets of yellow and white silk daisies; and an arrangement of reed bells with blue and yellow daisies and ribbons was a wall accent.

The white, three tiered wedding cake was decorated with yellow flowers, and stood over a colonnade with mirrors and yellow votive candles.

The bride's cake, all decorations and the buffet meal were all catered, prepared and served by Mrs. Ferber.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by parents of the groom, at The Dutchman in Lindsay and a shower was given by Mrs. Donald Young and Dominique Roy on June 27.

The couple is now at home in Gainesville.

Hess home named Yard of the Month

The Muenster Garden Club announces the selection of the yard and home of Janet and Ronnie Hess for Yard of the Month honors in September. Especially mentioned were trimmed poodle trees, a variety of attractive shrubs, healthy well-cared for lawn, and a decorative cedar fence.

St. Anne's Society hosts local Sisters at dinner

St. Anne's Society welcomed the local Benedictine Sisters back for the school year at a covered dish supper in the Community Center meeting room Sunday evening at 6:30.

Honored guests were Sisters Cabrini, Carmelita, Cecilia Marie, Monica, Fidelis and Romana. Other guests were Father Victor Gillespie and members of the St. Joseph's Society.

St. Anne's September business session followed the meal. Mrs. Denis Walterscheid presided. She announced the NCCW Deacons meeting for Thursday, Sept. 16 in Lewisville, when women of St. Philip the Apostle parish will be hostesses. The program will be on "Prayer." Registration will be at 9:30 a.m. Lunch will be served by parish members.

Another event planned will be the Muenster Thanksgiving picnic. Co-

Chairmen include Mrs. Ronnie Hoagland and Dorothy Hartman, assisted by the following: Catherine Walterscheid, Cake Walk; Monica Hartman, Home made candy; Margie Starke, arts and crafts; Dorothy Fisher, country store; Carol Fleitman, soft drinks; Peggy Grewing, children's games; Millie Voth, Peggy Walterscheid and Jim Gehrig, tickets.

Mrs. Hoagland said the dinner menu will include turkey and dressing, country sausage, sauerkraut, salads, pie and coffee.

Mrs. Harold Knabe gave the secretary's report and Mrs. Leo Henscheid the treasurer's report. She also read "Her, Again?"

Thirty members and 5 guests attended. Marie Henscheid won the door prize. After adjournment they joined St. Joseph's Society for table games.

Hogan family holds reunion Labor Day weekend

The annual family get-together of the Hogan clan was held during the Labor Day weekend. Principal events were a Saturday night dinner at The Center, a dance in the VFW Hall, a coffee Sunday morning at 9:30 and a covered dish dinner at noon.

Approximately 150 relatives gathered for the weekend. Special guest of honor was Mrs. J.S. Hogan, 93, who was surrounded by five of her six living children. Included were Cloyce of Fort Worth, Frank of Saint Jo, Bobby Heffner of Amarillo, Naomi Smith of Lubbock, Eula Grace Cain of Muenster.

Other family members came from Amarillo, Lubbock, Wichita Falls, Fort Worth, Burleson, Denton, Dallas, Bellvue, Handley, Springtown, Perryton, Graham, Longview, Gainesville and Muenster; and Moore, Okla. and Marietta, Okla.

Two great-great-grandchildren gave the opportunity for two, five-generation family pictures.

Festivities included a gathering Sunday morning at St. Richard's Villa when Mrs. Richard Cain hosted coffee and doughnuts for the church group and a number of relatives honoring Mrs. J.S. Hogan, a resident at the Villa. Chris Cain was in charge of the Devotional and was assisted in leading the singing by Eddie Ramsey, LaQuita McCollum, Judy Hartman, Rita Richey and Naomi Smith. Bobby Heffner of Amarillo was pianist Sunday morning.

Tigers roll over Nocona

Sacred Heart's Tigers got off to a fine season start Friday night by rolling over the Nocona Indians 27 to 12.

It was a matter of doing the right thing at the right time as the consistently put points on the scoreboard while their visitors were running neck and neck with them on statistics. The Indians led 12-10 in first downs, 72-9 in passing yardage and 4 to 1 in completions; and SH led 200 to 110 in rushing.

Over-all Coaches Virgil Henscheid and Julian Walterscheid were pleased with a good job, especially on outstanding defense and definite improvement in blocking. But they were not pleased with their passing record of 1 completion out of 14 tries.

The Tiger with the mostest was Darrell Herr, who accounted for 124 of Sacred Heart's 200 yards and 3 touchdowns. Hager was it for Nocona. His runs and passes added to 110. Mike Dangelmayr and Greg Walterscheid were the defense standouts for SH.

Tigers got started early by recovering Nocona's fumble on the kickoff and going 34 yards in 8 plays for the first TD. Wade Walterscheid's 11 yards was the big gain and Ricky Hennigan's 2 yard plunge was the scoring play. SH led 7-0 at 9:04.

Possession changed seven times before TJ Walterscheid recovered a fumble setting up the second Tiger TD. From the 7 Ricky Hennigan gained 2 and Darrell Herr made the last 5 on an option play. Curtis Henscheid's kick added a point at 2:04 in the first period.

Then it was Nocona's turn, after a kickoff return to midfield. The steady drive went 49 yards in 12 plays with Hager doing most of the running and Uesleton going over for the score at 5:41 in the second. A run for extra points failed.

The rest of the second quarter had only a lonely first down for SH, but action picked up quickly in the third. After Wad Walterscheid's 28 yard kickoff return to the Tiger 43 and 4 yards on the next run, Darrell Herr broke away on a 53 yard scoring ramp, with a fine block by Lonnie Henscheid, and Curtis Henscheid booted the bonus point. Only 49 seconds of the second half had been used - as the scoreboard read 20-6. The only action in the remainder of the third period were a first down and a fumble recovery by Nocona and two fumble recoveries by Sacred Heart.

More turnovers featured the fourth; a recovery by Curtis Henscheid and two interceptions by Nocona until the Indians got organized at midfield. They used 8 plays in going the distance, the pay-off being a 23 yard pass to Weaver at 3:22. On the next kickoff an on-side backfired and Greg Walterscheid took possession with 47 to go. Five plays from there were enough as Darrell Herr accounted for 15 and 26. Curtis Henscheid added an extra point at 1:43.

Mike Dangelmayr, 40, knocks down an Indian pass in Sacred Heart's 27-12 win over Nocona Friday night.

Nowhere to go: Floyd Trubenbach, 62, and Mike Dangelmayr, 40, are closing in on this Nocona runner.

Tigers and Eagles will meet Friday at 8 at Valley View

The always potent Eagles of Valley View will be the opponents Friday as Sacred Heart's Tigers square off for the second encounter of the season. The game will be at Valley View, starting 8 p.m.

Indications are that it will be a toss up with the outcome to be determined by the breaks. As seen by Coach Virgil Henscheid, the Eagles have most of last year's talent back on the job with benefit of the year of growth and experience and probably more backfield speed. However the absence of the extra versatile Kassen at quarterback is a minus factor. As regards a 26-14 loss to Paradise, Henscheid thinks a pair of extra hot Panthers had an extra big night, and the Eagles still have lots to use on the Tigers.

Sacred Heart's win over Nocona, he said was better than it looked. Tiger defense was stingy except two big scoring plays, rushing was good, and passing was on target. However the pass catching was awful. Improvement in that respect will do lots for team offense. A reading of potential on both sides seems to assure a good contest.

Volleyball starts at Sacred Heart

Volleyball at Sacred Heart High begins shaping up under the coaching of Jon LeBrasseur with 15m the roster and more expected. The girls are heading for a seven game schedule starting next Tuesday.

Muenster Hornets lose 20-14 to Callisburg

There was lots of pride and little disappointment at Muenster High following its 20-14 opening loss to Callisburg last Friday. Trailing 20-0 during the first 4 minutes, Hornets and fans had gloomy visions of a long night, but then MHS got organized and showed a lot to be proud of. The feeling was extra pleasing because the Hornets, besides being rated as underdogs, were riddled by injury. Ronnie Fisher, Stephen Vogel, Dwayne Walterscheid and Garland Tate were sidelined and either or all could be out for the season.

The game started as a disaster for MHS as Williams Strickland took the opening kick, busted through the middle, and sprinted 89 yards to the goal.

Following the next kickoff the Hornets failed to move and kicked, and the Callisburg boys were back in possession on their 39. So, on first offensive play Strickland did it again; broke through and went all the way. Pethel's kick upped the score to 13.

And that wasn't all. Muenster fumbled on its first series, then held the Wildcats on their next possession, but fumbled as Callisburg punted, giving the Cats a fat set-up at the 2. Hollandsworth promptly scored from there on a quarterback sneak. As Pethel added the bonus point the time was 8:03 and Muenster trailed 20-0.

That's when, eventually, the Hornets shook off their jinx. For the rest of the game they outgained and outscored, and showed possibility of developing into a competitive team. After kick-off they made a first down, exchanged punts, and made a 64 yard drive on the way to their first score. The TD resulted mostly from 2 plays, a pass from Kevin Felderhoff to Wayne Carroll for 12 and a scoring scout for 41, by Carl Sicking. That happened at 11:13 in the second period.

With 137 yards on 27 carries, Sicking was the No. 1 rusher for MHS, whereas Strickland led the Wildcats with 156 yards on 19 carries.

A 25 yard pass, Hollandsworth to Strickland, appeared to start another Wildcat drive but Hornet defense held firm and took possession after Callisburg's punt. The Hornets then gained 60 yards to the 10, and facing a fourth down, they called on Kevin Felderhoff for a field goal. It missed. The score at half time remained 20-7.

Starting the second half, Callisburg's interception stopped Muenster on first series and Strickland almost got away on the next play. He sailed 40 yards to the MHS 16, but a big threat ended on the next series when Muenster intercepted with 84 yards to go.

Runs by Sicking and a pass to Carroll reached the 30 where a quarterback sack forced a punt. Fortune smiled on the Hornets a few plays later as a fumble recovery gave them another chance from the 9, and an interference ruling on a pass to the end zone gave Muenster a first down on the 1 yard line.

Felderhoff scored on a quarterback sneak on the last play of the third period. The score 20-14.

The score apparently shook Callisburg, sparking the team's best effort of the evening. Muenster had possession for two series but otherwise Callisburg dominated with Strickland again heading the show. The Wildcats' final drive started on their 20 and gained 65 yards on 5 first downs before running out of time on the 15.

Muenster Jr. Hi will host Saint Jo

Junior high kids of Muenster Public School will have their season's first taste of action Thursday night as hosts to the youngsters of Saint Jo. Kickoff time is 6 p.m.

The Muenster High School Quarterback Club will meet on Tuesday, Sept. 14 at 7 p.m. in the Library.

Quarterback Kevin Felderhoff had ample protection in getting off this pass in the game with Callisburg. In the action are Neil Flusche 22, Chris Rohmer 72, Tim Fleeman 60, Leslye Wells 23 and Joe Hennigan 61.

Hornets look for first win Friday

Another tough contest for Muenster's Hornets appears to be in sight this week as they invade the domain of their ancient rivals, the Saint Jo Panthers.

As appraised by Hornet Coach Leonard Peters, the Black Cats have improved considerably during the past year when they were mostly light weight and inexperienced beginners. They have gained in both size and know-how, as shown in last week's win over Savoy.

On the other hand MHS is about at the same stage that Saint Jo was in '82. Upper classmen of the lineup include only four of last year's veterans and a few who are back after a year or two of absence. Others are mostly sophomores.

However, they looked better than their rating in last week's 20-14 loss to Callisburg. Their coaches were pleased with their spunk in bouncing back after trailing 20-0 in less than four minutes. And they were equally pleased with performance in dominating the rest of the game. They are showing progress in spite of injuries that kept four out of uniform in the Callisburg game. At this time the coach is still wondering who will be ready for this week.

Aside from health problems, the Hornets came up with encouraging signs in their first outing. After Callisburg's explosive start the Hornet defense took charge and allowed only limited gains while the Hornet offense dominated. The game also revealed new talent in Carl Sicking and Wayne Carroll plus good possibilities in the passing game.

Spirit Moms begin Autumn activities

It's time again for Autumn activities by the Spirit Moms in support of the Hornet teams of MHS. Spirit Moms for this past week were Mmes. Eileen Vogel, Linda Walterscheid and Sharon Wolf.

The group made number tags and snack bags for the lockers, also small sweat towels with players' numbers. Seniors and juniors received red towels with white numbers; sophomores and freshmen received white towels with red numbers.

Numbers and letters for the towels were donated by Tops & Teams. The Spirit Moms expressed their thanks to Deb. Klement for the donation and time. In this project they were assisted by head cheerleader, Stephanie Richey.

Special Liturgy opens CCD year

The theme for the opening liturgy for the CCD '82-'83 year in Sacred Heart Church was "Welcoming the Lord".

Dennis Hess, chairman of the CCD Commission, gave the welcome. Sister Romana Rohmer, CCD coordinator carried the banner in the entrance procession, followed by Mass servers Douglas Evans, Raymond Stewart, Ricky, Jeff and Joe Paul Walterscheid, and Father Denis Soerries, celebrant.

Mark Hennigan and Jana Hamilton gave the readings and Debbie Bindel led the offertory petitions. Offertory gifts were presented by Lisa Russell, Diann Pagel, Shayne Wimmer and Tara Walterscheid.

Mrs. Irene Hartman presented the communion meditation and Mrs. Betty Rose Walterscheid led the prayer for vocations. As in past years, the prayer for vocations will be offered in unison at all CCD Masses. The liturgy for the opening class was planned by Mmes. Theresa Walterscheid and Betty Rose Walterscheid.

Knights win season opener 27-7 over Sadler-Southmayd

by Donna Arendt

The Lindsay Knights backed up their Number 1 rating in Class A Friday at Sadler-Southmayd by pushing over the Rams 25-7. The Knights played an excellent first quarter as they scored three touchdowns and allowed the Rams only one. They started their first scoring drive when, on the opening kickoff, the Rams fumbled and Doug Hermes recovered. From this recovery Gary Weems ran 15 yards to set up the first score. Sophomore quarterback Steve Corcoran ran the ball in to score with less than 2 minutes into the first quarter. The PAT kick attempt by Leonard Fuhrmann failed making the score 6-0.

Lindsay's second score came when Gary Weems ran 20 yards for a set-up on the 1 yard line and John Dieter went over from there. The PAT effort failed again leaving the score at 12-0 for Lindsay.

The next score was made by S&S when Anthony O'Hanlon broke away from several Knights and ran 55 yards for a touchdown. The Ram PAT was kicked by Ricky Crow narrowing the score to 12-7.

On the Rams' kick-off, Leonard Fuhrmann returned the ball 63 yards to the 6 setting up the Knights' third touchdown in the first quarter. From there Weems eased into the end zone with 1:18 left on the clock. The kick again failed but the Knights had a comfortable lead of 18-7 in the first quarter.

In the second quarter the Knights set up another scoring drive. The backs all had a share in the drive, starting with Leonard Fuhrmann's 31 yards to the 4 yard line to make it 1st and goal. But two penalties pushed the Knights back 10 yards, before, on 4th down, quarterback Steve Corcoran passed to Mike Hermes in the end zone to score. The extra point by Fuhrmann was good to give the Knights 25 and the Rams 7.

The Knights and the Rams had their turns with the ball but no more scoring took place in the game. The Rams had several players hurt including their quarterback.

The Lindsay Knights host the Callisburg Wildcats Friday at 8:00 p.m. for their first home game in pre-season for Lindsay.

A&M biochemist says iron deficiency is worldwide problem

COLLEGE STATION — Nearly 20 percent of women in their child-bearing years exhibit some degree of iron deficiency ranging from iron depletion to anemia, warns a Texas A&M University biochemist.

Iron deficiency ranks as the most serious nutritional disease in both humans and plants today, said Dr. George Bates, and is second only to protein/calorie malnutrition in the worldwide severity of its effects.

The beautiful blue Burro's Tail

by Ted Brice
The Garden Editor

The spindle-shaped leaves on the dangling tassels of Burro's Tail create a plant of such symmetrical grace that you'll never tire of looking at it.

Besides its beauty, Sedum morganianum is one of the fastest growing of all succulents. It possesses an unusual metabolic property that allows it to use carbon dioxide during the night, as well as during the daylight hours, for the perpetual synthesis of food and water. This characteristic, called Crassulacean acid metabolism, is also shared by the Jade Plants, and it results in dramatic increase in growth.

Burro's Tail is certainly one of the loveliest of all succulents. It grows with long, dangling stems lined with chubby leaves bunched banana-fashion along the entire length. These tidy, tumbling braids are an unusual color that sparkles in contrast to the greens in your foliage window. The Burros' Tail plants are green, all right, but they're frosted with blue sheen, in much the same manner as blueberries and plums. The effect is a stunning silver-blue shimmer.

In its native land, the dry plateaus and semi-arid regions of Central and Northern Mexico, Burro's Tail grows in fast-draining porous soil in a climate that produces hot days and cool nights with a minimum annual rainfall.

Use these natural preferences as a guide to the culture of the easy-growing Burro's Tail, and be careful not to over-water the plant. It stores moisture in its leaves so it shouldn't be watered until the soil is completely dry. Be sure to hang the plant where it won't be bumped, because the stems shatter easily, dropping leaves like raindrops. The fallen leaves, however, can be inserted into moist soil for rooting.

Most plants are killed by TLC (Too much Tender Loving Care) such as over-watering and too much direct sun light. This plant the Burro's Tail is one of the easiest to kill by over-watering yet it is the easiest to grow by neglect. The Burro's Tail should be grown in a hanging basket or in a pot that has room for it to trail over the side for several feet. This is an excellent plant for balconies and porches. Good gardening until next week from your Garden Editor, Ted Brice.

No need to wait for low-cost financing!

FORD LEADS THE WAY WITH 9 3/4% ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE

NO PAYMENTS 'TIL SEPTEMBER, 1983!

Buy any new Ford tractor between now and November 30, 1982, and we can help arrange financing through Ford Motor Credit Company for qualified buyers for up to one full year at a low 9 3/4% ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE. A qualifying down payment or trade-in is required. Finance charges will not begin to accrue until March 1, 1983... and on annual payment schedules you'll make no payments until September 1, 1983! New related implements are eligible when purchased and financed with your new Ford tractor. Certain restrictions apply. Physical damage and credit life insurance are not included.

Choose the financing terms that suit you best!

Term	12 mo	24 mo	36 mo	48 mo	60 mo
ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE	9 3/4%	10 3/4%	11 3/4%	12 3/4%	13 3/4%
Cash price	$25,000.00	$25,000.00	$25,000.00	$25,000.00	$25,000.00
Down Payment/Trade-in	6,000.00	6,000.00	6,000.00	6,000.00	6,000.00
Amount Financed	19,000.00	19,000.00	19,000.00	19,000.00	19,000.00
FINANCE CHARGE	1,852.50	3,115.62	4,629.35	6,417.44	8,505.35
Deferred Payment Price	26,852.50	28,115.62	29,629.35	31,417.44	33,505.35
Annual Payment	$20,852.50	$11,057.81	$ 7,876.45	$ 6,354.36	$ 5,501.07

Example of a typical credit sale transaction, not necessarily for a particular Ford tractor.

OR LEASE AT 9 3/4% ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE!
The same low financing rates offered to purchasers also apply to leasing programs on new Ford tractors and implements... as low as 9 3/4% Annual Percentage Rate for up to 12 months. That means big savings, whether you buy or lease!

OR GET BIG CASH DISCOUNTS!
Factory incentive allowances now make it possible for us to offer substantial cash discounts in lieu of special financing. Ask us how much you can save on the tractor of your choice!

British mini-series: shades of public TV

By Ann Ferrar

It may feel like you're watching public television when you tune into "Penmarc," a 12-part novel-for-television premiering Sept. 26 on The Entertainment Channel. It is a classy British mini-series of the strain so commonly seen on PBS — those BBC reruns that are essentially sophisticated soap operas.

Julian Bond, who adapted the BBC version of "The Duchess of Duke Street," seen here on public TV, did likewise with "Penmarc." Based on a Gothic romance by Susan Howatch, the series focuses on the lusts and intrigues of the snobbish Penmarc family, who wheel and deal over the fortunes of Penmarc, a grand old estate in England's lush Cornwall region.

The first episode begins in 1867, when papa Penmarc deals his only daughter, Maud, a dirty hand by appointing her male cousin heir to the estate. When Maud plans to marry that cousin, and thus stay in line for the inheritance, her father pulls a double whammy by marrying her off to someone else.

Maud then embarks on a bitter struggle to regain the estate, involving her son in her plans. The conclusion of part one sets the stage for some steamy stuff that should make for engaging Sunday night viewing.

Faye Dunaway

"Mommie Dearest," the film that put wife hangers in vogue, is playing this month on HBO. The Movie Channel and Showtime. Faye Dunaway portrays Joan Crawford in this melodramatic film, based on the autobiography by her daughter Christina (played by Diana Scarwid).

Crawford is depicted as obsessive, neurotic and violent toward Christina. In the film's most infamous scene, mother beats daughter with a wire hanger. This is not to be confused with a documentary on child abuse — the violent sequences seem to be there for their own sake, and most of us can only wonder just how accurate a portrayal of Crawford we're getting.

JD DART

JD DART talks back when the pressure is on!

Our goal is to have the parts you need in stock when you need them. And we generally meet that goal. But for those times when we don't have the part you need, we put our JD DART machine to work. It gives us a direct telephone connection to the John Deere parts system computer. We ask the computer about your part, and we get an answer—out loud in plain English. We can tell you in minutes where the part is, when it will be shipped, and approximately when it will arrive. We push a few buttons and the part is ordered, complete with shipping instructions. You can plan your work schedule with confidence. We can plan ahead for the repair job. All thanks to the computer that talks back when the pressure is on!

PUBLIC NOTICE
BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS
OF PROPOSED
CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS
GENERAL ELECTION
NOVEMBER 2, 1982

PROPOSITION NO. 1
ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 1 proposes a constitutional amendment that prohibits any state ad valorem tax. Receipts from previously authorized state ad valorem taxes that are collected after the effective date of the proposed amendment shall be deposited to the credit of the general fund of the county collecting the taxes and may be expended for county purposes. Taxes collected before that date shall be distributed by the legislature among educational institutions eligible to receive those funds under prior law. The proposed amendment also repeals a section of the Constitution levying an ad valorem tax for a construction fund for 17 state colleges and universities.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment repealing the state property tax."

PROPOSITION NO. 2
ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 62 as amended by Senate Joint Resolution 10 proposes a constitutional amendment that would eliminate the $60,000,000 ceiling on state welfare aid during any fiscal year.

The amendment would set the state welfare spending limit at $160,000,000 for the 1982-1983 biennium.

The amendment further provides that, for each subsequent biennium, the maximum amount spent for state welfare shall not exceed one percent of the state budget.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize the legislature to provide assistance through the appropriations process to needy persons and to place a ceiling on payments for needy dependent children at one percent of the state budget."

PROPOSITION NO. 3
ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 8 proposes a constitutional amendment that would exempt machinery and equipment used in the production of farm and ranch products from taxation. No dollar limits would be imposed and the exemption would apply to corporations and partnerships as well as to families and individuals.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment exempting implements of husbandry (agricultural machinery and equipment) from ad valorem taxation."

PROPOSITION NO. 4
ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 77 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the Legislature to set a four year maximum term of office for board members of certain water districts and conservation and reclamation districts.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the Legislature to provide terms not to exceed four years for members of governing boards of certain water districts and conservation and reclamation districts."

PROPOSITION NO. 5
ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 119 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize Tarrant and Bee counties to hold county-wide elections to abolish the county treasurer's office by majority vote.

Should the county treasurer's office be abolished, the duties, powers, and functions of that office would be transferred to the county auditor or the successor to the auditor's functions.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to abolish the office of county treasurer in Tarrant and Bee counties."

PROPOSITION NO. 6
ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 6 proposes a constitutional amendment that would raise the constitutional interest rate limit on state general obligation bonds from 6% to 12%. The new 12% ceiling does not, however, apply to bonds issued by the Veterans' Land Board.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment increasing the maximum interest rate allowed on state general obligation bonds to a weighted average annual interest rate of 12%."

Results revealed in wheat variety demonstration plots

Results from the uniform wheat variety demonstration, conducted on the William Hermes farm near Hood, show that Texred variety produced a yield of 34 bushels per acre, with a test weight of 59 pounds, according to Craig Rosenbaum, Cooke County Extension Agent.

This variety produced a gross income of $128.86 per acre, based on a price of $3.82 for hard and $3.43 per bushel for soft wheat at Continental Grain Company in Fort Worth on July 26.

Statistics on the other varieties in the demonstration were: Coker 68-15, test weight of 59, and yield of 32 bushels per acre; Sturdy, 55-27; H-114, 54-27; Vona, 53-27; and TAM 106, with a test weight of 53 pounds and a yield of 27 bushels per acre.

Rosenbaum pointed out that all of the yields were adjusted to 14 percent moisture content and gross was based on 1 cent per pound discount on bushel weight below 60 pounds.

The demonstration plots were planted on November 24, last year and harvested July 26.

"This demonstration was planted early, fertilized well and seemed to be mature enough in the spring to resist leaf rust, and then came the rains," commented Rosenbaum.

"Mr. Hermes swathed and let dry five days prior to harvesting. A conservative loss estimate was 50 percent due to shattering and lodging."

An application of 94-58-0 was applied preplant. Jim Blalock, Extension Agronomist, and Charles Julian, Farm Demonstration

Assistant, both with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, assisted with the harvest and data analysis, according to Rosenbaum.

Fallacies & Facts

Fallacy: Most people believe that all those strips of rubber tread that lie beside roads and highways come from retired tires.

Fact: About half of the rubber on the road comes from new tires. Nearly all rubber on the road comes from truck tires and is caused by underinflation and tire abuse, not poor quality. The fact is that retread tires are a sensible, economical alternative to the high price of new tires.

For free brochures, write to Tire Retread Information Bureau, Box 374, Pebble Beach, CA 93953.

lines, truckers, taxi companies, the military and millions of cost-conscious motorists reduce their tire expenses. Because of retreading, nearly 50 million tires will be recycled this year. That means more than one and one half billion pounds of rubber will not become part of our solid waste disposal problem.

They're the tires that can be good for our environment. For free brochures, write to Tire Retread Information Bureau, Box 374, Pebble Beach, CA 93953.

Arbor Day Foundation gives free trees in September

The National Arbor Day Foundation is giving ten free trees to all the new Foundation members joining during September, 1982.

The free trees are part of the Foundation's effort to promote fall tree planting.

A Colorado Blue Spruce, White Flowering Dogwood, Red Maple, Norway Spruce, Walnut, Red Oak, American Redbud, European Mountain Ash, Flowering Crab Apple, and

Butternut tree will be given to each new member joining during September. The six-to-twelve inch trees will be shipped this fall postage paid with enclosed planting instructions.

"Fall is an excellent time to plant trees because the roots establish themselves over the winter and support faster tree growth in the spring," John Rosenow, foundation executive director, said. "However the advantages of fall planting are often overlooked. This is why the National Arbor Day Foundation is making this special offer."

The National Arbor day Foundation, a nonprofit organization, is working to improve the quality of life throughout the country by encouraging tree planting. The Foundation will give the ten free trees to new members contributing $10 or more during September.

To become a member of the Foundation and to receive the free trees, a $10 membership contribution should be sent to TEN TREES, National Arbor Day Foundation, Arbor Lodge 100, Nebraska City, NE 68410 by September 30, 1982.

Mr. and Mrs. T.J. Amis came Saturday for a visit with her mother Mrs. Estelle Kelley. Mrs. Kelley and Mrs. Amis attended the hamburger cook-out at the Dan Richardson Lake. On Sunday the Amis and Mrs. Kelley attended church at The Nazarene at Prairie Point, had lunch at the Red Rooster in Marietta, Ok., then drove on to the Wichita Mountains and looked at the wild life there in the Wild Life Reserve.

Mrs. Lena Brown was admitted to the hospital in Decatur Sunday Sept. 5 for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Penton were in Bowie Aug. 31 to attend an auction sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Maberry attended the steak dinner and party at K-Bobs Steak House in Gainesville given by the Vita-Ferm Co. and representative Paul Smith. The program included a speaker and pictures of the product. Patrons were in attendance from Okla. and Texas.

The regular Tuesday Bible Study was well attended in the home of Mrs. Josephine Berry, August 31. The next study will be held in the home of Mrs. Ellen Berry Sept. 7.

W.C. English entered Memorial Hospital Saturday Sept. 4 for treatment.

A fire was discovered at the Cahparral Ranch around 6 p.m. in a hay field. The Rosston Volunteer Fire Dept answered the call using both trucks.

Mrs. Bobbie Dill and Mrs. Ellen Berry were Gainesville visitors Wednesday.

Thursday, Sept. 2 Mr. and Mrs. C.A. Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cravens, and Mrs. Lela Martin of Gainesville came for Mr. C.W. Martin's birthday dinner, bringing food, cake and home made ice cream. It was also Mrs. C.A. (Minnie) Knight's birthday. We wish both a happy birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brown and Mrs. Estelle Kelley were in Muenster and Gainesville shopping Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Penton were Gainesville visitors Thursday Sept. 2 and had lunch at long John Silvers.

Your out-of-town friends and relatives will enjoy reading about your week end guests and family gatherings; and your guests will appreciate your thoughtfulness in recording their visit.

Ross-Point Club elects officers

Election of officers and the annual meeting at Dan's Lake for members and guests, with a picnic supper and fellowship were features of the September 4 club meeting of the Ross-Point Community Club.

New officers are Tom Richardson president; Anna Kirk 1st vice president; Jim Penton 2nd vice president; Mrs. J.Y. (Agnes) Brandon secretary/treasurer; Wilma Richardson reporter.

Outgoing officers are Stan Lovett president; Wilma Richardson 1st vice president; R.B. Durham, Jr. 2nd vice president; Anna Kirk secretary/treasurer; Jim Penton reporter.

During the business meeting, minutes were read and approved; reports of the successful Sam Bass event were happily received; and growth of the Progress Club funds for future development in the community and for the tennis court were discussed.

The dinner was delayed when a fire alarm was given for a fire spotted in the Chapparral Ranch holdings. The Rosston Fire truck responded to the phone call. Club members returned with the good report that all was under control. Then on to the bountiful picnic dinner! Jim Penton completed his last assignment as reporter.

Miss Lois Bewley, Clyde and Lonnie's weekend guests were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ferguson and Larry Parsons of Gainesville, Mr. and Mrs. J.Y. Brandon and Wesley Holley. Mr. Holley has recently been discharged from the Marines.

Hearn Kuykendall and daughter Dallis Allen of Fort Worth and Mr. and Mrs. H.D. Cook were visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Martin Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Buckie

Kelley of Irving came Sunday evening for a visit with Mrs. Estelle Kelley and to help Estelle celebrate her birthday. Dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lanny Kelley of Era, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kelley and Mr. and Mrs. T.J. Amis. Mrs. Buckie Kelley served home made ice cream and cookies and also brought Mrs. Kelley a lovely gift. Estelle's birthday is Sept. 16. Happy Birthday to Estelle.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brown left for Graham for a few days camping in a park there. While here they have had their camper parked at Mrs. Estelle Kelley's. They will return to their home in Boger.

Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Martin went to Gainesville Monday Sept. 6 where they joined Mr. and Mrs. C.A. Knight, and Mrs. Lela Martin for a trip to Sherwood Shores to visit Mr. and Mrs. Charles Craves. Mr. and Mrs. Charley Craves of Whitesboro and Mr. and Mrs. Woody Curry of Collinsville were also in attendance at the hamburger cook-out. On their return trip they stopped in Whitesboro with Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Cravens.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Maberry attended the cook-out at the Dan Richardson Lake Saturday night.
