Anita Bryant and Jerry Falwell will eventually prevail, but for now they will have to co-exist. That is how Paul Harvey reads the moral situation in this country after commenting on the meeting of Congressman Gerry Studds with his Massachusetts constituents concerning the recent sex with pages incident in Washington.

Addressing his home folks, the homosexual, Studds, expressed no regret for his misdeeds. Rather he seemed to be proud of what he had done, and defiantly defensive of his life style. The significant thing is that he insisted on his right to do as he pleases and claimed to be as good as others who live by the rules.

His arrogance in wickedness was disgusting, but understandable because that is his depraved nature. However the crowd reaction was most disappointing. It not only accepted his filthy disclosures, but cheered and applauded more than twenty times.

Therein lies the real tragedy of this situation. Not only that a person has sunk to this level of evil, but that public permissiveness has sunk to the level of accepting and even applauding it. Based on this incident, Paul Harvey had good reason to observe that the nation will have to co-exist with the evil for a while. Nevertheless the country can also take stock in his remark that standards of Bryant and Falwell will come after this era of evil. More satisfaction can be found in the promise of Christ when founding his church. "And hell shall not prevail against it."

Relative to this show of depravity by Congressman Studds, this column backtracks slightly on its remarks a few weeks ago when the House censured Studds and Congressman Dan Crane for their sex affairs. Studds with a male page, Crane with a female page. Con found fault on the ground that the accusers had plenty of sins of their own. It just seemed out of line for sinners to make a big issue of other people's misdeeds. In fact, sympathy for Crane was proper. He was repentant, and apologized for his disgrace to his country and his family. But Studds was different. His attitude and behavior deserved no sympathy. Furthermore a sub-human character of his kind isn't really fit to have a part in leading the country.

Back to the idea that the guidelines of Falwell and Bryant will eventually take over, we have to wonder how long the country will have to continue on its present course before it sees the folly of its ways and makes a change. This thing reminds us of the Scripture, people rebelling against the laws of God and generally messing things up and bringing on the "punishment of God", which may actually have been the natural consequence of the wrong they did. In these times also it is possible for crimes like homosexuality, promiscuity and abortion to lead to consequences which might be interpreted as a punishment from God. Likewise the result of other evils like greed, falsehood, tolerance of crime, hatred, treason, etc could become so severe as to be regarded as

The Selective Traffic Enforcement Program (DWE) which began on June 15, 1983, in Cooke County and extends to August 31, 1983, has been very successful so far, the Texas Department of Public Safety says. There have been 137 DWI cases filed in Cooke County by the Department of Public Safety troopers from Cooke, Crayson and Collin counties since the Selective Traffic Enforcement Program began. There was a pre-trial hearing August 10 for 76 of these cases filed in Cooke County, and several of the defendants pleaded guilty at that hearing. Those pleading guilty were assessed a fine of $300 plus $71.60 court cost and one year of probation. No exact number of guilty pleas have yet been recorded.

The drinking and driving habits of Cooke County drivers have been altered by the Selective Traffic Enforcement Program and the troopers are altering their working hours to correspond with the hours of the drunks, the DPS says.

So far in 1983 Texas traffic fatalities have dropped about 20 percent and authorities are crediting the state-wide crackdown on drunk driving. Through the first six months of 1983 Texas law enforcement authorities have reported 1,610 traffic deaths as compared to 1,921 during the same period last year.

School buses, a rather unfamiliar sight for more than three months, are back with the beginning of the new school year. And, area residents are having to again get used to the increased amount of traffic from pedestrian children as well as more car and bus traffic, not to mention the different speed limits at certain times of the day near the schools.

Enrollment down 6.8% at MPS

With a starting count of 397, students of Muenster Public School resumed their scholastic routine Tuesday. According to Superintendent Charles Coffey, a few more students are expected, however the total is still a big drop from last year's 426.

Two factors account for most of the decline, he said. The high school lost 38 by graduation last year and added only 26 in this year's freshman class. Besides, the count fell in several other grades as the number moving in was lower than the number moving out. The continued economic slump in the oil industry was the principal cause.

Enrollment in high school is 111 and in the grades is 286. Last year it was 126 and 300.

Total scholastic enrollment of the community will be told after classes start at Sacred Heart next Monday.

Returning to classes Tuesday, students of the public school found a number of welcome additions in equipment and curriculum as well as changes to the buildings and grounds.

Keeping pace with the computer age the school added two new computers, bringing the total number to five and expanding to more students and additional subjects. Superintendent Charles Coffey said the units will be available for the first time to the elementary students as well as for additional hours to high schoolers, including business students.

More equipment for business students is three new electric typewriters.

City holds hearings for block grants, taxes

The City of Muenster Monday night conducted hearings on its intended application for block grant funds to assist in the funding of community development projects and also on tax rate increases.

The grants, provided by the US Department of Urban Development and made available through the Texas Department of Community Affairs, is intended for small cities and the maximum grant possible is $500,000. The amount granted depends on the portion of funds approved.

Muenster's request is for separate categories in the over-all lake project such as lake construction, pipeline, treatment plant and reservoir.

Relative to taxes the hearings were on authorizing increase of the 1983 effective tax rate more than 3 percent. The effective rate is the rate sufficient to yield the equivalent of last year's revenue on the present valuation.

As pointed out by City Secretary Celine Dittfurth, last year's rate of 35 cents per $100 of valuation raised $101,907 on slightly more than $29 million of total value. To produce the $101,907 on the present total value of $31,445,402 would require an effective rate of $30.725 per $100. The city is aware of needing more than a 3 percent increase on the effective rate hence it conducted the hearing on authorizing the raise. The rate hike was approved and the actual rate will be set after budget needs are determined.

Regarding water district rate, no tax was charged last year and the effective rate is zero. The proposed rate for this year is 12 cents per $100 valuation, requiring authorization of more than a 3 percent tax raise.

The newly remodeled Hut in Muenster will hold its Grand Opening on Saturday, August 20. Merchandise prizes totaling $200 will be offered in drawings, and refreshments will be served. Maternity, child and infant wear are available at The Hut. With maternity wear purchases, The Hut gives free baby travel kits. In the photo, Lupe Evans, owner is showing the newest styles in maternity wear to Mrs. Chris Cain.

Superintendent search extended

City officials are still searching for a city superintendent to succeed Steve Moster, who has held that position in a part-time capacity since his semi-retirement three years ago, and they hope to have one hired by the end of September, City Mayor Ronnie Felderhoff says.

Felderhoff had said when the search began in early July that the Council hoped to find a replacement by the end of August. Since that time, 23 have applied for the job and Felderhoff says they will be accepting applications through the second week in September. They then hope to fill the position by the end of the month.

Of the first 21 who applied, all but seven or eight were rejected during a preliminary screening by city officials. Felderhoff said the Council will continue to screen applicants until they narrow the choices to three or four, and then begin personal interviews to select an individual.

The council is looking for an individual who has experience in water and sewer systems, street maintenance, and has a knowledge of

'Burg ready for festival

Forestburg is presently in high gear shaping up for the annual watermelon festival and homecoming on Saturday, August 20.

The big event will kick off with a 10 a.m. parade expected to include antique cars, buggies, floats, riding clubs and bike and motorcycle riders. Entries will register at 9:30 at the Forestburg school and compete for one trophy. An old time western shoot-out follows the parade.

A lunch featuring fried chicken and ham will be served at 11:30. Next there will be a tobacco spitting contest and a fiddler's contest featuring fine fiddlers from all over the state. Best performers will receive trophies. The craft show, with ribbons to the winners, will start at 2 p.m.

Other attractions, contests, etc, are a watermelon toss in men's, women's and children's divisions; a 3-legged race; a watermelon eating contest; a water balloon toss; and a tug of war.

At 7 p.m. there will be a fun run, 5 miles long, with

Good News

Psalm 1:1-3
Happy the man who follows not the counsel of the wicked
Nor walks in the way of sinners, nor sits in the company of the insolent,
But delights in the law of the Lord and meditates on his law day and night.
He is like a tree planted near running water,
That yields its fruit in due season, and whose leaves never fade. (Whatever he does, prospers.)

Perspectives

ABOUT THE only thing the Christine Craft lawsuit will affect is Christine Craft's bank account — she won her lawsuit and a half-million dollar judgment. The one thing it's not likely to change is the public's perception of television news anchors and the way those people fit into the world of journalism.

Christine Craft filed suit a couple of weeks ago against KMBC-TV in Kansas City after the station demoted her because, she said, the station management thought she was too old and unattractive.

She based her case on the assertion that age and attractiveness have nothing whatsoever to do with journalistic competence. And, to a certain extent, she's right. But then journalistic excellence isn't the only thing news anchors and station managers have to be mindful of. And that's not their fault. It's the public's fault. The anchorman or anchorwoman could, conceivably, go on camera and do a very fine job of reading the top news events of the day to millions of people with uncombed hair, or unbrushed teeth, or no make-up, or a crooked tie, but they simply can't.

The public simply won't accept it. The public wants a news anchor that they both enjoy listening to and enjoy looking at; but that doesn't necessarily mean "young and attractive." What matters to the public is whether it feels at ease with the person reading them the news. The audience isn't really thinking all that much about journalistic competence or excellence when it stares at the evening news anchor. And quite frankly, that's because the anchor's on-camera duties don't have much to do with journalism in its purest sense. Christine Craft is no exception to that rule.

Ever since news anchors came into existence on television, they have been criticized for being too "Hollywood." Often, this has been blown out of proportion. It's probably fair to say that age and appearance have little to do with journalistic excellence. But since a news anchor's duties have little to do with journalism, why are we talking about journalistic excellence in the first place? The simple fact of the matter is, age and appearance DO have something to do with how well news anchors are accepted, and that has a lot to do with a station's ratings.

The audience makes the rules — rules that have to be followed by station managers. And no matter how hard Christine Craft, (or anyone else) may try, those rules aren't likely to change.

Looking Ahead

FREEDOM SHOULD be the most important aspect of life to every American, but the evidence is unmistakable that since the passage of the so-called Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the advent of the Great Society in 1965, we have been losing our freedoms at an accelerating rate.

As a wise man once wrote a few years back, "Freedom ... can be lost — just as surely, just as completely, and just as permanently — tax by tax, subsidy by subsidy, and regulation by regulation, as it can be lost bullet by bullet, bomb by bomb, and missile by missile."

Freedom will only be regained and retained when the spirit of liberty lives again in the hearts and minds of our people. Since 1940 this Program has been attempting to get people to think about freedom and the threats to individual liberty through broadcasts, newspaper and magazine columns, and a monthly newsletter.

A number of years ago, Dr. Hans Sennholz of Grove City College put his finger right on the essence of the problems. He said:

"In this world of natural scarcity, man must work in order to live. To guarantee an income regardless of what the individual does, is to destroy productive effort. The beneficiaries become drones and parasites of productive individuals whose own efforts are thereby discouraged. It is immoral and self-defeating."

Recently, a new means to teach people about the immorality, fraud and destructive nature of our welfare programs has come on the market in the form of a board game called "Public Assistance — Why Bother Working for a Living?" The inventors of the game intended it "to be a parody of government liberalism, able-bodied loafism, and welfare fraud."

Similar to "Monopoly," players roll dice to determine board position and pay or receive play money according to their fortune. The object of the game is to accumulate as much money as possible in several circuits around the board.

Players move back and forth between two tracks. One labeled "Working Person's Rut" results in experiences familiar to us all: paying bills from meager paychecks, reverse discrimination, welfare taxes and similar "Working Person's Burdens."

The other track is the "Able-bodied Welfare Recipient's Promenade." Players on this track collect money by having illegitimate children, by fraud, or any of the multitude of ways we pay people not to work.

The great English historian, Thomas B. Macaulay, warned us over a hundred years ago that we would be "plundered and laid waste by barbarians" which will have been developed within our own country by our own institutions.

This coalition of millions of beneficiaries, the huge welfare bureaucracy and their affiliated special interest groups represent a formidable threat to America. Anything, such as this game, that can get people thinking about the welfare mess is a valuable contribution to the struggle for national survival. All of us want to help young or old who are truly needy. But the able-bodied who won't work and the well-to-do who manage some way to be on government welfare are a disgrace to us all.

The Owner's Manual

Editor's Note: Due to a production error which caused last week's Owner's Manual to be difficult to understand, last week's column is being published a second time this week.

TWO WEEKS ago we noted that a book could probably be written on the subject of wisdom. An even bigger book could be written on the subject of love. We will look briefly at this subject this week and will try to discuss it from time to time in the future.

Evangelist T.D. Hall gives the following definition of "Agape" love: "Love is meeting the needs of another without demanding personal reward and without any regard to its cost." A person demonstrating this type of love sees a need, acts to meet this need, and does not even consider whether or not they will receive a reward or even a compliment or an acknowledgement of their actions in return.

One example of some men who displayed this type of love is found in the second chapter of the Book of Mark. Jesus had come back to Capernaum and was inside a house speaking to a crowd gathered outside. Some friends of a paralyzed man brought the paralytic to see Jesus, but due to the large number of people gathered there, they could not get in. We see the actions they took in verse four: "And being unable to get to Him because of the crowd, they removed the roof above Him; and when they had dug an opening, they let down the pallet on which the paralytic was lying."

At first glance this may seem like an insignificant act for these men to perform, but stop and think about the sacrifices they had to make. Not only was physical effort

Heritage News Forum

WHILE MEMBERS of Congress continue their war of words on Central America, recent polls show that the American public is more confused than ever.

A recent New York Times/CBS News poll on El Salvador for example, disclosed wide gaps in the public's knowledge. The percentage of Americans who even knew which side the Reagan administration is supporting in the Salvadoran struggle was a mere 8 percent. The only item of agreement, which bears little statistical validity if 92 percent of the respondents are uninformed, was opposition to sending U.S. combat troops to El Salvador, something President Reagan currently has no intention of doing.

With widespread ignorance being the rule rather than the exception, the public sorely needs to be better informed about the goings-on in Central America. There is much more at stake than the public's bias attitude would indicate.

One good analysis of the situation can be found in an August Reader's Digest article by roving editor David Reed, a veteran globetrotter who has covered many of the world's trouble spots for the magazine. Make no mistake, Reed says, the guerrilla movement in El Salvador is anything but a local matter. Instead, Reed asserts, the Soviet Union "is focusing its might on Central America in an effort to bring that key region under the control of pro-Soviet client regimes." Cuba, propped up by $12.8 million a day in Russian subsidies, carries out the dirty work for Moscow, sending a barrage of materials into that region, and training guerrillas and urban terrorists, he says.

On lesson is clear from the Indochina War: revolution is not accomplished without outside support.

When that support is Marxist, the side effect is the perpetuation of instability, violence and genocide as that revolution if forcefully transferred from one nation to its neighbors. For Vietnam, it was Cambodia. For Cuba it is Nicaragua. For Nicaragua it became El Salvador.

What is America's stake in Central America? To listen to some critics, the U.S. is up to its usual bullyboy tricks. But these are the same people who even today won't acknowledge the anguished cries of the millions of Indochinese who died at the hands of Communist "liberators." Forget our humanitarian reasons for stopping communism, and try this: San Salvador, the capital of El Salvador, is closer to Washington, D.C. (1880 miles) than is Los Angeles (2300 miles). Central America is on our doorstep. If we don't help our Latin neighbors, no one else will.

Self-sacrificing love is required of the believer. Though not many are called on to sacrifice their lives, all can give sacrificially of their time and worldly goods to help those in need.

Recently an 18-member study panel on Latin America was organized by the prestigious World Affairs Council of Pittsburgh, and chaired by Daniel McMichael. The panel found that the Western Hemisphere today clearly "is threatened by a pattern of penetration and infiltration from Havana and Moscow." This offensive, warned the study team (which included former Florida Senator Richard Stone, now the U.S. special envoy to Central America), "must be met by a U.S. program — in concert with other concerned Latin nations — to halt the exportation of terrorism, armed attack and violent revolution, and prevent creation of more Marxist-Leninist states in the region."

The appetite of the Communist world for armed conquest, modern history shows, is insatiable. The American people should know this, even if their elected representatives don't.

Divine punishment. Common sense tells us that the road to ruin is paved with a lot of evils which are easily recognized in this day of violations of the will of God. The country's all-inclusive fault is that too many of its self-styled intelligentsia have the belief that they can get along without God. Unfortunately they are not aware that many current problems result directly from this misguided idea, and many more troubles will come from continued disregard of God.

We can't doubt that time will eventually solve our problems for us. We'll get back in line when we finally realize what we have done.

But will that be soon enough? Will we have time to restore the American Way before this thing wrecks the country leaving the pieces to be picked up by communism?

Actually, our mission looks like a hurry-up project. Operation renaissance needs to get going now and to be well established for the next election so that the right kind of thinkers, as many as possible, can start reviving the American Way. Allowing folly to keep going can only compound the inevitable consequence.

To the Editor:

Just a note to mark up a big plus for the Germanfest. The German Fun Run, which is sponsored by the local Knights of Columbus, spends all the profit earned at the Germanfest on charity and youth related projects in the area. In closing our fiscal year, I thought the public might enjoy a look at how some of our profit was spent in the 1982-83 year from September 1982 through August 1983.

Carla Otto weds Tracy Wilson in 2-ring ceremony at Gainesville

The wedding of Carla Rose Otto and Tracy Paul Wilson was held on Friday evening, August 12 at 7:30 p.m. in a traditional ceremony with double ring rites at Temple Baptist Church in Gainesville, officiated by Rev. Glenn Bishop.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Alphonse Otto of Muenster. She is a 1980 graduate of Muenster High School and attended Cooke County College, North Texas State University and Stephen F. Austin State University.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Allon Dwain Wilson of Rt. 2, Gainesville. He is a 1980 graduate of Callisburg High School and is employed by Academic Press of Denton as a printer-pressman.

full length lace sleeves, and flared, satin skirt pleated in to the lace-edged, shaped waistline. Wide applied scalloped lace edged the hemline, matching a narrower edge on the yoke.

She carried a white orchid, surrounded by pink sweetheart roses, lavender and purple forget-me-nots, English ivy and white baby's breath.

Attendants

The maid of honor was Lou Dyer, a friend of the bride; and the bridesmaids were Janel Lutkenhaus of Muenster, Jana Barnes of Gainesville, and Sharon Voth of Muenster, all friends of the bride. The junior bridesmaid was Stephanie Milam of Gainesville, niece of the groom.

Their orchid gowns, in evening length, were designed with shaped necklines, off-shoulder puffed sleeves, princess bodices and flared skirts. Waistlines were accented with bias belts, matching rosettes and long ties. All dresses were also made by the bride's mother. Each girl carried long stemmed roses with forget-me-nots, ribbons and greenery.

Amy Otto, bride's niece and Stacy Wilson, groom's niece were flower girls, wearing long dresses of pink with orchid floral pattern. Amy carried a basket of flowers and Stacy carried a basket of petals to scatter. Jacob Krahl, groom's cousin was ring bearer.

Kevin Harvick of Gainesville was the groom's best man. Danny Head, David Hunter and Mark Swarner all of Gainesville and friends of the groom were groomsmen. Ed Otto and Tony Otto, bride's brothers of Muenster, Joe Odom, and Alan Stubblefield, friends of the groom were ushers.

Lisa Otto, bride's niece of Garland and Dwain Milam groom's nephew of Gainesville were candlelighters. Lisa was dressed identically to the flower girls.

Wedding music included organ and piano music by Pat Hennigan, Sr. before the ceremony as guests were arriving, and during the lighting of the unity candle, and accompanying vocalists Carla Krahl and Ronny Hardin. Ed Otto, bride's brother sang The Wedding Song to his own guitar accompaniment.

Reception

A reception followed in the fellowship hall of Temple Baptist Church.

Sherry Morrison, groom's cousin and Keith Otto, bride's nephew presided at the bride's book before the ceremony and at the reception.

The three-tiered white wedding cake was made by an aunt of the groom. Five small round cakes formed the first layer. Decorations were in orchid and pink flowers with white doves and bells. Cake servers were Marilyn Koelzer, Brenda Felderhoff, Johanna Odom and Donna Taylor.

The couple will reside in Denton.

Two vacation in Tennessee, Illinois

Two sisters, Mmes. Julie Cunningham and Agnes Owen have returned from a two-week vacation in Tennessee and Illinois, where they attended two family reunions and did extensive sightseeing, sharing the long drives in Mrs. Owens car.

In Memphis they were guests of Mrs. Owens' daughter and family, Betty Jo and Thomas Hollis and sons Jeffrey and Willie for two days. In Pesotum, Ill. they visited four first cousins among the relatives of their late father, Joe Pautler; and were houseguests of the Charles Crains, also being entertained at dinner with Mrs. Frances Riley and the Bill Martinis, visiting also the Martin Clers and Mrs. Anna Billman.

On Sunday they attended the reunion of the Hausemann family. Mrs. Hausemann was the former Frances Pautler, sister of Joe Pautler. One hundred relatives signed the guest book, and Agnes and Julie were the only Texans. They also visited Mrs. Joe Cler and Flora Myers.

On Monday they drove to Ramsey, Ill. preparing to attend a reunion of relatives of Herb Cunningham, Julie's late husband. They were houseguests for one week of her niece and family, the Remon Logsdons and also visited a brother-in-law, Jim Cunningham and other relatives including sisters of Herb Cunningham, Angie Godberson, Julia Bergen, Eileen Weaver, Margie Smith and Dorothy McNary and their families. The reunion was held Saturday night and at noon Sunday.

Returning to Memphis for one day, they toured Graceland, home of the late Elvis Presley, and were overnight guests of the Hollis family. They returned to Muenster on August 9.

Jeanette Hundt, Paul Houston united in nuptial at St. Peter's

Jeanette Marie Hundt became the bride of Paul David Houston of Denton in a Nuptial Mass and double ring ceremony in St. Peter's Church of Lindsay on Saturday, August 13 at 5 p.m. Father Cletus Post, pastor, was the officiating minister, at an altar decorated with lighted candles and arrangements of gladioli. Candelabra entwined with stephanotis, English ivy and ferns decorated the sanctuary.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mary C. Hundt of Rt. 2 Gainesville and the late Gregory C. Hundt. The groom is the son of Mrs. Helen Albert of Columbia, Missouri and Paul Houston of Buffalo, Mo.

Accompanied to the altar by her brother, Roger Hundt, the bride was wearing an elegant ivory formal wedding gown trimmed in Schiffl lace. It was designed with a high neckline of Schiffl lace, and sheer, flocked, full bishop sleeves. The skirt, fitted at the waist, was highlighted by its satin ribbon and lovely, flowing flocked chapel train. Her matching bridal hat of Schiffl lace was adorned with seed pearls and, at one side, a cluster of silk rosebuds and pearls, completing the bride's old fashioned look. She carried an arm bouquet of Calla Lillies. Her dress and those of her bridesmaids were designed by Barbara Quincy for Murray Hamburger.

Attendants

Claudia Zimmerman of Lindsay was her sister's matron of honor. Doris Harrison of Gainesville, another sister, was her bridesmaid. They were identically attired in lovely antique pink, tea length dresses trimmed in ivory Schiffl lace, featuring high lace necklines. Matching Jena picture hats enhanced their attire. The bridesmaids also carried calla lilies.

Julie Zimmerman, niece of the bride was flower girl, wearing a long ivory dress trimmed in Schiffl lace, and carrying a basket of wild flowers. She wore a wreath of flowers in her hair. Gregory Hundt, bride's nephew was ring bearer.

David Carson of St. Louis was the best man. David Bernardy of Arlington was the groomsmen.

Roger Harrison and Rudy Zimmerman, both bride's brothers-in-law and Chris Hundt, bride's brother of Arlington were ushers. Jason Zimmerman, Joseph Strittmatter and Patrick Strittmatter were candlelighters and Mass servers. Beautiful wedding music was presented by Pat Hennigan, Jr. organist, Terry

MRS. PAUL DAVID HOUSTON

DeGarmo flutist and Cecilia Kafer vocalist. Selections included "Ave Maria", "One Hand, One Heart", "Evergreen", "Ode To Joy" and "You'll never Walk Alone."

Reception

A reception, buffet dinner and dance followed in St. Peter's Parish Hall in Lindsay.

Glenna Hellman of Denton and Donna Haverkamp of Austin secured signatures of 250 guests in the bride's book.

The bride's table was covered with a lace tablecloth and held appointments in crystal and china, and crystal candelabra. The three-tiered wedding cake, decorated with fresh flowers, was made by Della Voth of Lindsay. Reception assistants and cake servers were Amy Harrison, Emily Corcoran and Amy Strittmatter. Guest tables were decorated with baskets of fresh and silk flowers and English ivy.

Guests danced to music by Carl Jones and the Golden Tones.

The bride is a graduate of Lindsay High School and received her degree at North Texas State University in 1982; she is currently enrolled there in the graduate school and is employed by Royce Coleman of Denton. The groom is a 1980 graduate of the University of Texas at Arlington and is a Geotechnical Engineer employed by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. When they return from a trip to New Orleans, they will be at home in Denton.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Sawyer of Rt. 6, Gainesville have announced the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter Traci to Frankie Stoffels, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stoffels of Muenster. Father Victor Gillespie will officiate at 5 p.m. in Sacred Heart Church of Muenster on August 27. Attendants will be Mrs. Terry Hess and Mr. Donnie Gilbreath. The bride-elect is a graduate of Muenster High School and is attending Cooke County College. She is employed at Courtney's in the Gainesville Shopping Center. The future-groom is a graduate of Sacred Heart High School and is employed at AMPI. They plan to reside in Muenster.

Endres attend Wisconsin event

Attendance at Volkfest at Waunakee, Wisconsin, honoring Centennial Families, of which the Endres family is one, was the inspiration for a trip by Muenster relatives who spent about ten days vacationing in the area and attending related programs. Centennial families are those who have retained ownership of land within the same family for more than 100 years.

Arthur and Sue Endres, Gilbert and Elsie Endres, Mrs. Elsie Horn and Mrs. Gen Pels left Muenster on July 27, returning on August 6. During that time they were guests of Endres relatives, made side trips for sightseeing.

On Sunday they attended a Field Mass at Kappel Park, an area owned by Larry Endres in Waunakee, Wis. The Kappel is a 1/2 size replica of a chapel built in 1857 by Arthur Endres' great-grandfather, John Endres, on a mountainside, to fulfill a solemn vow.

The Field Mass was celebrated by Bishop Cletus F. O'Donnell of Madison, Wisconsin and four priests. The Ashton Men's Choir sang; some of the songs were in German. More than 60 families whose roots are German, Irish or English were honored.

Two days earlier on Friday a concert was held in the park and German style beer in the Bier Garten followed. St. Stephen's Orchestra of Augsburg Germany presented the program at 7:30 p.m. preceded by the Volkfest Choir. The 5th annual Volkfest Run was held Saturday morning with more than 1,000 runners and an official dinner was held Saturday night. Guests of honor were the German Vice-Consul and the Director of the German-American Heritage Institute.

Partial features of the weekend Volkfest were Pancake Breakfasts, Art Shows, Ethnic and American Foods, Soccer Games and the German Bier Garten, German Bands, a German Mannerchor and Jazz Bands.

Following the Volkfest weekend, Messrs. and Mrs. Endres, Mrs. Horn and Mrs. Pels drove to Caspian, Michigan to visit Mr. and Mrs. Leo Laviolette (she is the former Dolly Endres) and then to Rockford, Ill. to visit nieces and nephews. They left Muenster on July 27 and arrived home on August 6.

News of the Sick

Happy news for Keith and Donna Hess comes with word that they brought their baby son, Travis Dean, home from the hospital Sunday. He was born June 30 and remained hospitalized until August 14.

PIK means income... and taxes!

Let Edward D. Jones & Co. show you the right tax-free investments to protect your PIK dollars.

This year, the federal government has taken some of the guesswork out of farming with its Payment-In-Kind program. They've guaranteed a certain amount of commodity you'll have available to sell. Sounds good, doesn't it? But here's something else they've guaranteed - you'll still have to pay taxes on that PIK income.

So, this year, while your production costs are down and while you've got some guaranteed income, let Edward D. Jones & Co. show you how to keep those PIK dollars in your pocket - with careful, conservative, tax-free and tax-advantaged investments.

SCHOOL NEWS

Sacred Heart School August Newsletter

School starts soon: Sacred Heart School will open its new year on August 22 at 7:55 a.m. All students will report to their home rooms.

Home and School Association meeting: The first meeting will be Monday, August 29, at 8:00 p.m. in the Community Center. This will be a good opportunity for all parents and teachers to meet and get acquainted.

New teachers at Sacred Heart: We welcome to our faculty the following teachers: Nellwyn Hess, special reading and special education; Gail McGraw, high school English; Beverly Martin, third grade; Rosalie Reiter, algebra and geometry; Ellen Norwood, kindergarten; and Loretta Felderhoff, computer science.

Registration: Sacred Heart held registration on August 1-3. Parents who have not registered their children should come by the secretary's office and register as soon as possible.

Dismissal time: On August 22, school will be dismissed at 11:30 a.m. On all other days, school will be dismissed at 3:10 p.m. There will be early dismissal on one Friday per month. You will be informed each month in the newsletter and by note. The Texas Education Agency will allow early dismissal for teacher inservice and teacher's meeting only one day per month.

School lunch program: Sacred Heart School will again participate in the school lunch program. The price per meal for K-5 is 75 cents, and for grades 6-12, the price is 85 cents. An adult lunch will cost $1.00. Free and reduced lunches are also being offered. Please check with the office if you did not do so at registration.

Kindergarten: We have seventeen kindergarten students presently enrolled. Nine of these attended the Young Children's Learning Center last year. We wish to continue the Montessori training in which they made so much progress. We will expand our curriculum to include some Montessori materials.

Opening Liturgy: Holy Mass for the opening of the new school year will be offered at 8:00 a.m. on Monday, August 22. We invite all to come worship with us.

Improvements: Our sincere thanks to all who have worked to improve the looks of the school and the playground. The high school hallways have received a new paint job. Sylvan Walterscheid and helpers have repaired and painted the playground equipment. Virgil Henscheid has the football field in tip-top shape.

Majorettes of Muenster High spent four days last week polishing up their routine at the NTSU camp and returned home with merit ribbons and pins along with a spirit baton. Jackie Farrell received two superior and one excellent ribbon plus an honor roll pin. Renate Hess received two superior ribbons and an honor roll pin. Pam Hermes and Rose Herr each got superior and excellent ribbons. As a group they were rated excellent on their home routine and finally in the grand champ evaluation. They extend special thanks to Laurie Rohmer and to Butch and Jimmy Jack Biffle for transportation to and from NTSU. Pictured here are: front, Pam Hermes and Rose Herr, back, Jackie Farrell and Renate Hess.

Forestburg expects higher enrollment

Students of Forestburg, expected to number about 135, a 7 percent increase over last year, will begin their school year Monday, August 22, at 8 a.m.

The school calendar will be basically the same as in the past. The first semester will end before Christmas and the second semester, to end on May 16, will include a spring break, March 12-16 which may be used as make-up days if time is lost because of bad weather. Saturdays will be used if more make-up days are needed. The total school year consists of 175 class days.

A change on the calendar this year will be extending the kindergarten from a one-semester to a full year class. The action was taken by the school board because of an unusually large class, probably 17 pupils.

Teacher duty began Monday, Aug. 15, with inservice at Forestburg. On Tuesday they had special education inservice at Gainesville State School. Wednesday they attended general education inservice at the Bowie school. And Friday they are having a teacher workday at Forestburg.

Physical improvements during the summer were held to a minimum because of extensive renovating and remodeling a year ago, which included a new roof, gym floor, and complete repainting and re-flooring. This summer's work consisted of principally clean-up and fix-up plus installation of new playground equipment and a softball backstop. The only remaining jobs are construction of a security fence around the garage and replacing the bus garage doors.

The school's personnel includes: Glenn Morris, Superintendent; Dan Hamric, principal and HS math; Lester Boyd, principal and social studies; Kenneth Reynolds, science; Beth Dill, home economics; Charles Edwards, agriculture; Diana Grimes, English; Hollis Adams, coach and American history; Dolly Orrell, special education; Marilyn Petty, seventh and eighth grades; D.J. Rater, fifth and sixth grades; Fay Hamric, third and fourth grades; Teresa Adams, first and second grades; Linda Hudspeth, kindergarten; Sue Sirman, resource aid; Mary Jo Eldridge, teacher's aide; Ray Phillips, custodian; Wynona Riddles, head cook; Linda Huckaby, assistant cook; Mary Lou McCandless, Ceil McCandless, Betty Hardy and Charlene Richard, bus drivers; Casey Jones, Pres., Gordon Wade, v.p., Johnny Moseley, secy., Glen Romine and Mike Wilson, school board members; Faith Sandusky, tax assessor-collector and school sec.

Sister Corinne has transfer to Lawton

Tom and Rosemary Dankesreiter and her parents, Tony and Theresa Hermes of Lindsay took Sister Corinne Koesler to Lawton, Okla. after her vacation here with her Koesler relatives. Sister Corinne was recently transferred to Lawton from Lady of the Lake Convent in San Antonio. She does parish work with Vietnamese and Laotians, teaching religion. She took the Dankesreiters and Hermes on a tour of the church, school, rest home and hospital where she also ministers.

Lisa Hughes named to honor roll

Miller Lite is No. 17 in 78-team tourney

Miller Lite closed out a great season during the weekend at Tyler winner two of four games in the Class C state slow-pitch softball tournament and coming home as No. 17 in the field of 78 participating teams. This gives them a 30-19 season record including first, second, third and fourth places in tournaments.

The event was a big three-day party, the players being accompanied by their wives, staying together in the same motel, usually eating together and ignoring the clock. They started games as well as swim parties in the wee hours. The tourney's daily schedule was from 8 a.m. to 4 a.m. and consisted of 169 games on 5 fields.

Miller Lite started the tournament Friday midnight with a 10-6 win over a Victoria team and won again 8-3 in a game at 9 p.m. Saturday.

Next game at 3 a.m. Sunday was the crucial one. Had they won they would have been in the title race, but they got nosed out 6-5.

However they gave the opponents a run for the money as two runners with the possible winning run died on base in the last inning. The final game at 10 a.m. Sunday was a 9-6 loss. In the double elimination tourney, it was the end for Miller.

Despite the loss, the team can point to a fine batting record. The team average was over .500, including .555 for Gary Felderhoff, .467 for Tom Flusche and .400 for Roger Endres.

In closing the players are happy about a fun season with a good record and specially grateful to Clyde Fisher for being a good sponsor.

This Miller Lite team was No. 17 out of 78 entries in the Class C state slow-pitch tournament. Members are Front: John Schneider, Kim Nix, Brian Herr, Dave Flusche, Kirk Mollenkopf, Tim Schneider; middle: Dale Swirczynski, Claude Klement, Jim Endres, Gary Felderhoff, Bob Hartman, Roger Endres; back: Chuck Fisher, Terry Walterscheid, Bob Hermes, Nick Walterscheid, Carl Walterscheid, Mark Lippe.

MHS-Boyd scrimmage is 'iffy'

A few "ifs" are involved in the scheduled scrimmage of Muenster Hornets and Boyd Yellowjackets Friday night. If the virus epidemic does not clear up in a hurry, the team may not be in condition for a scrimmage. During the week several boys have been absent from every practice, the low attendance dropping below twenty. Another consideration is that recovery takes time, so being rid of the bug does not mean a player is up to par.

Another if is that Boyd has an improvement project under way and the field may not be ready for use. If so, the coach said, he may prefer to bring his team here.

Whatever develops, Coach Peters hopes to have the practice. He's anxious to see how the boys can perform, especially against Class AA competition.

The outlook is better for Sacred Heart's tussle at Era. Coach Virgil Henscheid said that the virus so far has not migrated from MHS and his Tigers are in normal condition. He expects an interesting and rewarding experience from teams that are even evenly matched. Era has gained in size and experience since last year and Sacred Heart was hurt by the 1983 graduation.

Lindsay Knights likewise are physically fit for their scrimmage at Alvord, and the test should be fruitful to both teams. Alvord is expected to be a good solid team and Lindsay, though not rated as high as last year, still seems to be a powerhouse. Coach Grady Roller is anxious for a look at the action and the stats.

Golf Tourney

Members of the Muenster Golf Association will have their monthly scrambles tournament next Sunday, August 21, at the Nocona Municipal Course. Tee-off time is 9 a.m.

Reds continue lead in slo-pitch

After the seventh game on the twelve game schedule, the women's slo-pitch softball league is headed by the Reds with a perfect 4-0 record and the Greens are next with a standing of 2-1. Yellows are at the 1-3 mark and Blues are in the cellar and a standing of 0-3. Scores of the last four games were Aug. 4, Green 21, Yellow 11; Aug. 9, Red 21, Green 10; Aug. 11, Yellow 12, Blue 9; Aug. 16, Red 21, Yellow 7.

Our next issue of BEST VALUES will be published on August 31, advertising deadline is August 25

This past week we saw again many insect problems. It is just that time of year for damage to ornamentals and trees.

To begin, let's mention one beneficial insect we are seeing. Lacewing fly eggs are appearing on pecans and pecan leaves. You will notice them as small white eggs laid singly on a thin stalk or thread. The adult and larvae which are often called aphidions will feed on aphids. Another beneficial insect larvae that is also active now is the larvae and adult ladybird with orange spots. Both ladybird beetle and lacewing fly adults and larvae are active now. One reason is the build-up of aphids or plant lice.

The sticky substance you're finding on the leaves of your pecan or ornamentals is called honeydew and is a substance secreted by aphids. A mold can form on leaves of plants as a result of the honeydew. The mold known as sooty mold will appear black. Aphids are small, soft bodied insects. There are many species but the ones we see now are yellow or green in color and can cause problems by secreting toxins into plants while they feed on the plant. There are many natural enemies (the beneficial insects) and rain. But, now we have been dry for a long period of time so an insecticide may be needed but do several things first. Many times aphid population can be reduced by washing plants with a heavy stream of water. And homeowners check for those beneficial insects because your insecticide will kill them too.

We're also seeing the presence of a very large wasp around yards, flowerbeds and in gardens. This wasp is a cicada-killer and burrows in the ground. They are solitary wasps that prey on the lard cicadas that are so active in the summer. They don't try to protect their nests like other wasps so there is little danger of them stinging you. Their appearance is bad but will rarely sting unless they are handled.

For those who are raising a few pumpkins, be on the lookout for squash bugs. Squash bugs attack all members of the cucumber family. Leaves of infected plants will wilt, turn brown and die. You have two phases, the nymph and adult that feed on plants. If noticed when young, squash bugs can be controlled with Sevin. Adults will require thiodan. Be sure and read the label for use of any chemical. Responsibility for effects of chemicals and residues that are left lies with the user. So read that label.

Hightower raps Block's refusal

U.S. Secretary of Agriculture John Block's refusal to act on relief requests from drought-stricken West Texas ranchers has caused the worst economic crisis for that area in 30 years, Texas Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower charged at a news conference last week in the U.S. Capitol.

Accompanied by Texas Farmers Union president Mike Moeller and two ranchers from the drought area, Hightower urged the Department of Agriculture to implement three steps to keep hardpressed farmers and ranchers from bankruptcy, including one action Hightower said would actually save taxpayers money.

Hightower's three recommendations included federal disaster payments to drought area cotton farmers whose crops did not come up due to the lack of moisture in the ground, activation of the Emergency Feed Grain Program to give cattle, goat and sheep ranchers a subsidy of up to three cents a pound on the purchase of feed to maintain livestock which normally would be grazing on the now parched range land, and release to the ranchers of 17.5 million bushels of deteriorating corn in storage in West Texas since the 1980 Russian grain embargo.

The 17.5 million bushels represent only the poorer quality corn in storage, Hightower said, and is less than half of the 43 million bushels being stored at an annual cost to the government of $5 million.

"USDA has assured the corn and sorghum producers associations that it would not release that grain on the local market, which would unfairly depress the price," Hightower explained, "so it's just sitting there and deteriorating. We have visited with Carl King of the Texas Corn Growers Association and Elbert Harp of the Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Association, and they are very supportive of our proposal to release that corn as long as it's not for resale but only goes to the ranchers in the drought area to keep their own livestock alive. And releasing the corn would save the taxpayers the cost of storing it."

On July 15, Block refused a request by Hightower and Gov. Mark White to implement the Emergency Feed Grain Program, but said he "would keep a close watch on the situation and if the drought expands and becomes more serious, we will again consider the need."

At Wednesday's news conference in Washington, Hightower displayed a bag of West Texas dust collected that morning in Martin County.

"It doesn't get any more serious than this," Hightower said, "or any dryer. And this area is bigger than the state of Pennsylvania. How much does it have to expand to get Secretary Block's attention? Since Gov. White and I first called it to Block's attention on June 21, dozens of ranchers have gone out of business because they simply couldn't afford to feed their livestock, and the survivors have been forced to liquidate 50-60 percent of their cattle and 70 percent or more of their sheep. Timely action could have prevented that. If Secretary Block is willing to act now, he can prevent the total devastation of the ranching industry in that area. If our ranchers don't get help in the next month or so, the cattle herds will be reduced by 90 percent and the sheep industry will be virtually wiped out."

"The livestock out there is specially bred to survive that arid climate, and if the foundation herds have to be sold off, it will take years to rebuild them. For a lot of ranchers, it's already too late. The survivors deserve our help."

Time to control peach tree borer
It's time to apply insecticides to control one of the most destructive insects attacking peach trees, the peach tree borer. The adult is a moth and will be in fields in July and August. The eggs are laid, hatch, and larvae burrow into the trunk of your tree. Borers take a year to complete their life cycle. Borers that burrow into trunks of the trees this August or September will mature into adults the following year.

Damage to trees is caused by the larvae. They feed under the trees bark and in severe cases they can cause a tree to die.

For our area control using chemical can be achieved through trunk spraying during a period from now until about September 1. Trunks should be sprayed from below scaffold limits to ground level. Sprays mixed with water should be used in sufficient liquid to allow a little runoff. A single application of a spray Lorsban® (Chlorpyrifos) can be used. Be sure and not contaminate any fruit and do not apply within 14 days of harvest.

Forestburg News

By Kyura Orrell

Dude and Bula Mae Berry were visited by their son, Mike Berry and his girlfriend, Stephanie Grimes of Lewisville and stayed for supper. Other visitors in the Berry home were the Henry Berry family from Nocona.

"Get Well Soons" to Mrs. Decie Ellzey who has taken ill while in Temple attending a family reunion and is now a patient at the hospital there.

Dale and Linda Hudspeth and their kids spent some time recently at Lake Eufaula in Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ensey and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hudspeth returned to the Burg August 9 after a three-day travel vacation to Canada. On their way north, the group stopped at Yellowstone National Park, the Glacier National Park and enjoyed the scenery at Flat Head Lake in Montana. After a short visit in Canada, the Hudspeths and the Enseys returned to the Burg by way of the Little Big Horn, Custer's battlefield in South Dakota and Mount Rushmore. In Sutherland, Nebraska, the troop stopped to visit a friend, Mrs. Dave Roberts.

Colin O'Brien of Wichita Falls is visiting this week with his grandparents, Clifford and Merle Hudspeth and the Dale Hudspeths.

Visiting Clifford and Merle Hudspeth over the weekend was their daughter, Carolyn Wood, granddaughters Tayna Bolten and Amanda James and great-grandchildren, Blayne James, Mandy and Candis Bolten, all of Wichita Falls.

Spending the week with Leo and Dolly Orrell is their grandson, Christopher Scott Orrell of Texarkana. Also during his visit, Chris got a chance to visit with his great-grandfather, Willie Orrell.

This week, the teachers of the Forestburg Independent School District are attending a week of inservice before school begins. The week is designed to let the teachers get their rooms in order and familiarize the new teachers with the old system. School will start for the students August 22 in Forestburg. The new teachers are Beth Dill, homemaking; Linda Hudspeth, kindergarten and Hollis Adams, coach and History. Diane Goins will be Beta club sponsor and president of A.T.P.E., a teachers organization. Linda Hudspeth will serve as secretary.

There was another rodeo in the Burg. This rodeo was exciting and had a heavy turnout of local and area folks. The proceeds from the concession stand go to the Fire Department and to the Young Homemakers.

The Ms. Watermelon festival pageant will be held this Friday night, August 19 in the school gym. Michele Hudspeth, last year's winner, will crown the winner in the first formal activity of the Forestburg Watermelon Festival practice for the evening will be Thursday night. There will be three age categories.

As a teaching aid the school has a video recorder with reproduction facilities whereby educational programs and technical information can be kept for presentation at classes, assemblies, etc.

Especially appreciated by the elementary are four air-conditioning room units. A study on alcoholism is being added as a part of the health classes for all grades of junior high and high school.

Likewise changes are found to the building's exterior and the grounds. The elementary wing has been favored with a new insulated roof and rain run-off at the band and ag areas is improved by gutter and down spout changes. Also at the north part of school surface changes were made to improve drainage.

At the baseball field the infield has been sodded and the area west of the field has been converted into an elementary playground. And a road of crushed rock has been established east and north of the old football field.

Lawn improvement consists of tilling and re-sodding the entire area west and south of the main building plus a complete change of lawn near the cafeteria and science building. The job included replacing some six inches of rocky dirt with good dirt and sodding it.

At the football field a new sidewalk is installed between the entrance gate and the west grandstand, a retaining wall supports a steep terrace near the entrance, and a submerged irrigation line surrounds the track to prevent deterioration from extended dryness. The inside of the track is protected by football field watering.

basic accounting principles. Also, a college degree would be beneficial, the mayor said.

Besides the professional requirements, the Council has listed one other prerequisite for the job. The winning candidate has to be someone who has plans to stay on the job long enough to provide necessary stability. Felderhoff said in the July the Council didn't want someone who intended to use the job as a stepping stone; they want someone who plans to stay for at least several years.

The salary for the new superintendent hasn't yet been determined, but Felderhoff said the Council expects to spend at least $19,000 to $20,000 to fill the position.

Steve Moster, who has been Muenster's city superintendent since 1946, has said he will stay on in an advisory role after his successor is hired.

entry fee of $6.00 or $5.00 for advance entry, and trophies in men's and women's divisions. Also at 7 p.m. there will be a toilet paper wrap contest in which an entry uses a roll to wrap a partner, then a toilet paper watermelon wrap.

A couple more zany contests are women kicking off slippers for distance; and men racing to a pile of shoes, picking out their own, putting them on, and racing back to the starting point.

Watermelon festival T-shirts rather than trophies are the prizes at several contests.

Final event of the festival is a watermelon and western dance at the rodeo arena.

Rosemary Dankesreiter attends workshop

Mrs. Rosemary Dankesreiter attended a piano workshop in Fort Worth, presented by Carol Noona on Thursday, August 4, 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. It was held in the Scott II Room of the Wm. E. Scott Theatre on West Lancaster

St. The workshop offered new piano teaching techniques for beginning and advanced students. Mrs.

Noona and her husband Walter are recognized and extremely talented piano teachers and artists.
