The resignation of James Watt as Secretary of the Interior comes under the heading of both good and bad news. On the bad side we have the fact that he was a devoted conservative and an able administrator of his office. As such he was a loyal supporter of the Reagan policy as well as a conscientious steward of the vast resources that were entrusted to his care. James Watt was good for our country and his resignation, therefore has to be regarded as bad news.

On the other hand he was outspoken and inclined to the use of expressions which irritated his political foes, especially the kind of remarks that add a shock effect to statements that might otherwise express the ideas adequately. The effect no doubt is what he intended. And the resulting reaction is what might be expected. The liberals, both Democrat and Republican disregarded the essence of his remark and directed criticism to him personally.

The statement of a few weeks ago is a classic example. Equal employment opportunity has been encouraged in the US for many years as a desirable goal in all kinds of occupations. And Watt was reminding all that he abides by the policy. The intent of the statement is self evident. But unfortunately he did not say he had chosen minorities and the handicapped for his jobs. Rather he added the touch that was certain to attract attention. He said "I have a black, I have a woman, two Jews and a cripple. And we have talent."

In fairness, it ought to be noticed, first of all, that the quote which hit the media disregarded the last few words: "And we have talent," which deserved to be included as a sign that he was pleased and proud of his selection, and also that quality rather than just complying with the guideline was an important consideration in choosing.

Even without the remark, however, the statement was one that could have been received favorably as well as unfavorably. The simple content was that minorities and handicapped received the considerate treatment our country encourages. And the slang expression can be regarded as the more emphatic way of saying it.

But the slang expression was also the statement which is subject to the unfavorable treatment of political foes. The nation saw how it was taken when it became aware of how much approval and how much disapproval.

Well, we have seen the issue snowballing until Watt, despite his value as a capable cabinet member, had to see that political foes were determined to have his scalp. Because of that he could foresee that he was rapidly becoming a liability to the conservatives of government as well as a liability to the next Republican campaign.

The end result is that Watt's resignation is good news. He has, in effect blocked the liberal plot to use him as a weapon against the president and conservatism.

Banquet observes 75 years of 4-H

Cooke County's annual 4-H achievement banquet, combined with a program commemorating 75 years of 4-H activity and growth in the county, was held Monday, 7 p.m. at Cooke County College under sponsorship of Cooke County Electric Cooperative.

Highlights of the event were presentation of awards for this year, a "brief walk" down the 75 year memory lane, and listing of gold star boys and girls during those years.

Gene Davenport of Cooke County Electric presented that part of the program, stating that the beginning in 1908 consisted of presenting a gallon of seed corn to each of 25 boys for their year's project. And in 1912 girls joined the organization as a tomato club. Since then projects have increased and multiplied, now including livestock, food, nutrition, child development and veterinary science.

For several years gold star pins were presented at a dinner during a short course at A&M to 100 outstanding members of the state who were selected from county nominees. Later the custom changed to honoring the outstanding 4-H boy and girl of each county.

Lori Butler, gold star girl of 1982, was mistress of ceremonies and gave the invocation at the event. Robert Lewis, co-op president extended a welcome and a number of the county's civic leaders presented awards. They were the four county commissioners, Robert Bayer, C.E. Watson, Kenneth Alexander and Jerry Lewis; also Orville Anderle, chairman of 4-H and youth committee; Mike Sloan, manager of the Electric Co-op; Bill King of Gainesville National Bank; Werner Becker Jr. of the Farm Bureau; Gene Davenport of Electric Co-op and Allen Fleitman of First State Bank. All of the attendance joined in reciting the 4-H prayer, "Help me, oh Lord, to live so that the world may be a little better because

Stenholm bill would raise farmers' voices

Congressman Charles W. Stenholm has introduced a bill in Washington to let farmers and ranchers speak their minds on the nation's agricultural policy.

"Secretary of Agriculture John Block recently brought 70 'farm leaders,' some of them producers, but most of them agribusiness executives, to Washington for what he called a Farm Summit," Stenholm said. "He said the purpose was to get ideas for the 1985 Farm Bill. I think it might be a good idea to find out what farmers and ranchers think about that, too."

Stenholm's bill, the Federal Agricultural Policy Review and Development Act, requires the USDA to survey all agricultural producers on basic policy questions and publish the results. The survey would probably be conducted in conjunction with regularly-scheduled meetings of the county offices of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Both the survey and any scientific poll would be non-binding on the Secretary and the Congress.

"The 1985 Farm Bill may well be the most crucial farm legislation of our time," Stenholm said. "We should take this opportunity to chart a steady course for agriculture for the rest of this century. The time has come for a fundamental re-examination of our basic policies. Both farmers and consumers are going to have to approach the coming legislation with realism and pragmatism.

"For Congress to make the right decisions in 1985, we need to know how producers feel about some of the more important issues. This is not a referendum, but it is a way for farmers and ranchers to make their voices heard loud and clear in Washington," the Stamford Democrat said.

"Farm policy isn't made just by farmers, of course," Stenholm said. "But in the past, it has often seemed that farm policy is made by everybody but farmers. My bill will require that producer opinion is part of the policy process."

Stenholm's bill requires USDA to poll producers on the following issues:

- Export policy and the importance of exports;
- Policy on trade sanctions, and the effect of embargoes;

Congressman Charles Stenholm is the guest speaker for Muenster's C of C banquet in January.

- The structure of price support programs, and whether they should continue;
- The advisability of paid diversion programs;
- Whether supply management should be voluntary or mandatory;
- The advisability of "no net cost" programs.

IDB to solicit ideas for policy

Muenster Chamber of Commerce members will have at least an informal say in the initial activities of the newly-formed Industrial Development Board. Members were told at their monthly luncheon meeting Tuesday that the new board will solicit suggestions in the near future on what it should do and how it should do it, even though the board was intended to function independent of the Chamber of Commerce.

At the board's first meeting recently, it elected Urban Endres president, Henry Weinzapfel vice president and Doris Hamer secretary/treasurer.

The Chamber also heard a report from Daryl Ferber, this year's Christmas Parade chairman, who said the event will begin at 1 p.m.

Nov. 26 and will for the first time include a mini-parade at 11 a.m. for children age 8 and under with their bicycles, tricycles and wagons. Also, all participants in the local parade will be welcome to participate in Gainesville's parade the following week to promote this year's Christmasfest theme.

Johnny Fisher reminded and urged members to participate in the Christmasfest, which is designed to promote Muenster as a "great place to shop" for Christmas. For the $150. fee, participating merchants will receive a Christmas wreath for their storefronts and cooperative advertising and promotion in several area newspapers. Some of

KC award goes to Biffle brothers

Jimmy Jack and David (Herky) Biffle are the choice of Muenster's Knights of Columbus to receive their Good Neighbor Award of 1983. The presentation is made annually by local KCs to someone of another faith in the ecumenical spirit of encouraging greater harmony among the creeds.

Normally it is made to one person but the Knights this time chose brothers who are working together in the Jimmy Jack Biffle Oil Company.

Ben Fleitman Jr., grand knight of the Muenster KCs presented plaques to the brothers following the 9 a.m. Mass in Sacred Heart Church. In the presentation he called special attention to generous contributions and extensive services given to the community.

Both are natives of Myra, sons of Jack and Mildred Biffle. Jimmy Jack was born Aug. 30, 1938 attended school at Myra and Muenster and East Texas State University. He was married to Collette Hellman in May 1960, and they have three children, Jim, Brad and Judy. He is a director of Cooke County Electric Co-op and of Muenster Memorial Hospital.

Herky was born June 14, 1950, attended school at Myra and Era, was married to Mildred Richardson in June 1971. They have two children, Jason and Melissa.

Also at the Mass Grand Knight Fleitman read excerpts from a KC article enumerating challenges now facing the members. One is to continue serving the deaf, with emphasis on providing educational and recreational facilities, through devoted personal involvement. Another is to continue increasing membership as well as improved public relations and community service. And another is to provide sound programs for youth and family and senior citizens.

The program at church was followed by a communion breakfast at the K of C hall presenting more activity relative to observance of Columbus Day, the feast of the order's patron, Christopher Columbus. There the grand knight showed a K of C film entitled "KC, you and me," a brief outline of KC aims, ideals, services, activities, etc. Fleitman also reminded the gathering that a radio message from Supreme Knight Virgil Dechant would be presented on Station KGAF at 1:30 p.m.

Fleitman also listed the council's selection of Families of the Month since the last listing in March. They were: April, Wayne Klement; May, Harold Bindel; June, Walt Klement;

Please see KC, page 3

The annual Good Neighbor award sponsored by the Muenster KC Council became a dual event with honors to Jimmy Jack and Herky Biffle, brothers, both of the Jimmy Jack Biffle Oil Company.

Good News

1 Corinthians 12:12

The body is one and has many members, but all the members, many though they are, are one body; and so it is with Christ. It was in one Spirit that all of us, whether Jew or Greek, slave or free, were baptized into one body. All of us have been given to drink of the one Spirit. Now the body is not one member, it is many... As it is, God has set each member of the body in the place he wanted it to be. If all the members were alike, where would the body be?

Drought buster arrives

Muenster was the happy receiver of a 5.43 drought buster during the weekend. The rain came in two parts, the first on Friday and measuring 2.98 in., the second on Saturday and measuring 2.45. Friday's edition was mostly soaked up by the bone dry land but much of Saturday's drained off, filling Brushy Elm Creek bank to bank. So, suddenly moisture condition is fine and the year's total to date is 23.06 inches.

Right, left or what?

FEW THINGS in this mostly confusing world are more confusing than the labels which individuals use to classify their political philosophies. The hazier the terms "liberal" and "conservative" become, the easier it becomes to make enemies in conversation.

The two classifications, for the most part these days, have almost no concrete meaning. Ask two different people to define either term, and you'll get two different definitions every time. That can be the source of both frustration and anger in an environment — dinners, parties, etc. — where the topic of conversation will invariably turn to the world of politics. Some day, like it or not, those who haven't yet, will be confronted and forced into a conversation of a political, governmental, or otherwise unpleasant nature.

In a minute, a worthwhile suggestion for those of us who'd prefer not to risk offending someone and possibly celebrating our ignorance on the subject — even if it means passing on the chance to be eloquent and profound for one fleeting moment. But first, a review of political generalities.

In a general sense, many view conservatives as being "realistic" while liberals are viewed as being more "idealistic" — one the dreamer, the other the realist.

People like George Washington had dreams, but then so did Martin Luther King. So much for generalities.

As far as issues are concerned, conservatives generally support lower taxes while liberals are of a different opinion.

Conservatives are against a high level of government intrusion into private life while liberals ... wait, liberals claim to be for personal freedom, too. Let's try another one.

Abortion — conservatives are against it and liberals are for it.

Conservatives favor spending money on a strong national defense program, while liberals would rather spend it on welfare. Isn't national defense in the interest of our welfare? Never mind.

Conservatives also (in general, once again) oppose racial and gender quotas and forced busing; they are in favor of censorship of "obscene" material in school books. (We're trying to define "conservative" and "liberal" here, to define "obscene" would be another fiasco entirely.) Conservatives also promote prayer in public schools.

For all of these, in general, liberals hold a differing (but almost never totally opposite) opinion.

The truth is, liberals and conservatives are almost never at completely opposite ends of any spectrum. And the reason for that is, quite simply, that there are very few dyed-in-the-wool conservatives or liberals left in this world.

And for that reason, if you're ever confronted and questioned on a political topic, it's best not to claim either label unless you're quite ready to defend yourself. And you will very likely have to defend yourself; any person who would raise the issue of politics in an otherwise friendly and pleasant atmosphere is the same type of person who would gladly make you look like an idiot if given the chance.

So, what to do? Claim you're a moderate. Doing that will accomplish one of three things: 1) those present will get the impression you really don't care and they'll forget the whole silly thing; 2) they'll get the impression you don't know diddly squat about politics and you're just trying to worm your way out of the room or 3) they'll run scared because nothing's more confusing than a moderate, including conservatives and liberals.

Morton Kondracke

The moderate in Reagan

THE COLD-BLOODED shooting down of a defenseless airliner with 269 people aboard was such a shocking event that people were momentarily stunned.

Now, though, we are all reverting to form, reading into the Soviets' action our own vision of reality.

Right-wingers are fulminating, demanding an all-out crusade against the Soviet anti-Christ. Some liberals are saying this only proves we must dispense with nuclear weapons forthwith. Moderates, like me, say wait a minute, let us temperate about this, but firm.

The only person to have broken his mold is President Reagan, and a welcome development that is.

The usual pattern for Reagan would have been to go into a spasm of righteous indignation and view this outrage as the last straw — the moment in a movie when the bad guys have hit moral bottom and when the time has come for the townspeople to take courage and reach for the rifle on the wall.

From past performance, we might well have expected the president to demand from his advisers a list of the strongest possible economic and diplomatic sanctions. The State Department and some of his White House political advisers then would have fought to moderate his instincts while National Security Council hawk urged him to be forceful. Both sides would lead to the press their version of the battle for the president's mind, and the United States would look confused, divided, irresolute.

Nothing of the kind happened this time. White House aides say that from the moment he was informed that KAL flight 007 was missing and believed downed by the Soviets, he was "mad as hell," but determined "not to make this a U.S.-Soviet thing, but to keep it as the Soviets versus the world."

Reagan did get recommendations from some National Security Council subordinates for strong sanctions and he got some harshly worded speech drafts from other White House aides, but these reportedly were minority opinions not in keeping with the tone he himself set for deliberations on what to do.

What came out was a strategy about which there has been no high-level disagreement — no fights — between National Security Adviser William Clark and the supposed softies in the administration, Secretary of State George Shultz and White House chief of staff James Baker.

The Reagan response was a combination of stirring rhetoric and temperate policy — a combination that has been roundly condemned by right-wingers (and the Soviet Union), but which, I think, has produced a bounty of political and international benefits for Reagan and the United States.

The president observed that the Soviets had violated an elemental international norm — the tradition of aiding ships and planes in distress — and had committed a massacre and then lied about it. He canceled some cultural and transportation talks with the Soviets, demanded they apologize and pay restitution for the attack and urged a boycott of commercial air traffic with Moscow. He vowed to continue nuclear arms talks.

Now the right is condemning Reagan (not for the first time, either) for being weak and vowing (also not for the first time) not to campaign for him in 1984.

It is demanding its usual battery of measures against the Soviets, including cancellation of the just-concluded grain and pipeline deals, a pullout from arms talks, expulsion of Soviet diplomats, a boycott of the Madrid conference on European security, denial of further bank credits to the Eastern block and crash construction of a space-based anti-missile system.

Many of these items were considered in a National Security Council meeting, but were rejected as likely to draw attention away from what the Soviets had done and onto U.S. "over-reaction," according to Reagan aides.

What the president and others in the administration did was to disclose the evidence, set a moral tone and let the civilized world react naturally. The effect on Soviet prestige has been wretched.

There is a semi-hidden agenda behind the Reagan approach. It is to rally Congress to pass his defense budget and the MX missile system and the European allies to permit deployment of Pershing II and cruise missiles. The president deems these to be of long-term importance to American defense and to U.S. bargaining power in negotiations with the Soviets.

Reagan's televised appeal for the MX has led liberals to react as reflexively — albeit belatedly — as conservatives did. Their argument runs that the Soviets' action shows what a dangerous place the world is and how urgent it is, therefore, not to build destabilizing new weapons.

For moderates like me, however, the MX and Euromissiles are important not as weapons to be actually deployed, but as bargaining levers in negotiation — inducements to make the Soviets give up the super-missiles and Euromissiles they already have deployed.

In the Korean massacre affair, Ronald Reagan has acted like a canny moderate for a change. Would that he could do it more often.

God-given talents

TODAY WE will look at one of the visits of Jesus to the home of Martha, Mary and Lazarus; whose home in Bethany seems to have been one place that was always open to Jesus. Luke 10:38-40 says, "Now as they were traveling along, He entered a certain village; and a woman named Martha welcomed Him into her home. And she had a sister called Mary, who moreover was listening to the Lord's word, seated at His feet. But Martha was distracted with all her preparations; and she came up to Him, and said 'Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the serving alone? Then tell her to help me.'"

I would now like to ask you, "Which one, Martha or Mary, do you believe loved Jesus the most?" Many of you will answer, Mary, and give as your reason that the fact that she seemed to care more about spiritual needs than her physical needs. Mary was devoted to Jesus and evidently found deep fulfillment in hearing Him teach. The Gospel records suggest that she was a perceptive person and that her devotion to Jesus was complete. Evidently she was one of the few persons (if not the only one) who really heard some of the things He was saying. While the disciples were arguing about the chief offices in the new administration, Mary must have perceived that His kingdom was not of this world.

Others might say that Martha loved Jesus the most because she was so concerned about meeting the physical needs (hunger) of her Lord. Martha probably was the hostess and felt obligated to provide the very best for Jesus and His disciples. Martha wanted everything to be just right, and likely she continued to stand up and bustle about even after the meal was placed on the table. She became perplexed when Mary did not eagerly share the table-serving duties with her.

I believe it would be safe to say that neither Martha nor Mary loved Jesus more than the other, but both were using their chosen medium of ministry and the talents that God had given them to serve Him in their own special way. Jesus had no word of criticism for Martha as long as she was involved in doing her kind of ministry. If the gift of service was her chosen medium of ministry, she was entitled to keep on doing it.

However, when Martha stepped out of the role of servant and attempted to direct the actions of Jesus, He replied in Luke 10: 41-42, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and bothered about so many things; but only a few things are necessary, really only one, for Mary has chosen the good part, which shall not be taken away from her."

What a lesson is this verse for us. How many times are we more worried and bothered about what somebody else is doing, when we should be more concerned about how we can use the talents God has given us to better serve the Lord?

Christ needs all kinds of people and talents in His kingdom. Every person has a gift that can be used for Christ. The tragedy of churches and of persons is that so many are failing to follow the example of the Bethany sisters in serving Jesus. The active Christian must one day cease from his activity, but the contemplative spiritual believer, like Mary, may continue to sit at Jesus' feet throughout the whole of life, and even to death itself. To learn of Jesus and live in communion with Him is the highest privilege of saints.

Letters to the Editor

Council meeting report was biased

To the Editor

Here are several comments on the biased reporting of the last City Council meeting. Not all questions proposed were answered. Not all those in attendance (presenting the petition) were even mentioned in the article and they did make some very strong points against the proposed lake site, tax raises, the present price of the lake, the raising of water rates and the misrepresentation of the facts at the 1981 bond election. Also, mention was made of the neglect of informing the people of another possible site for the proposed lake.

The reason the original copy was removed was because 2 members of the council said a copy could be brought in later on in the week.

The report of the meeting in the paper and actually being there were hardly that recognizable to me. But then, 'everyone' is entitled to an opinion as is so obvious by all reports of this lake issue.

I would like to say to all the citizens of Muenster — if you have never attended one of your 'city council' meetings, it just might be high time you did so.

United Way campaign needs help

To The Editor:

Dear People of Muenster, I need your help. I am working with the United Way Campaign for the Muenster area. Our goal this year is $6,000.00. All of the money that is contributed from Muenster and even more is used directly in Muenster. This money is used to help sponsor both girls and boys Little League summer baseball programs, Tee-Ball, Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Bluebirds, Cub Scouts, Free Red Cross

Swimming Lessons, 4-H & FFA, Boys Club and other programs to help our youth. These programs teach our children so much, I would hate to see any of our benefits cut back. The youth of today are the adults of tomorrow. Please help us to help them. Any contributions can be brought by or mailed to Box 195, Muenster.

Thank you for your support.

Muenster Library not all books

Like most other libraries larger and smaller, the Muenster Public Library isn't all books, shelves and 'Quiet, Please' signs. Ever since its beginning, the library has grown steadily not only in the number of volumes on its shelves, but in the number and variety of services it makes available, as well.

One such service makes it possible to check out a book through the local library even though the library may not have the book. The Interlibrary Loan Program involves the sharing of books and other materials among cooperating libraries.

Books on a wide variety of subjects are available through the program. Photocopies of newspaper and magazine articles and materials on microfilm are also available. Rare books and many just-released and very popular books are not available through Interlibrary Loan.

The wait for such materials usually is less than two weeks, and usually it is free of charge, though not always.

Some 25 periodical publications are received by the Muenster Public Library. Also, the Abridged Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature serves as a guide to those publications, which are kept children's activities. The most popular items for children during the summer were the 37 read-a-long paperback books with accompanying cassettes.

Films can be ordered through the North East Texas Library System (one of ten parts of the Texas Library System) for schools and clubs.

One item currently on order will enable the library to follow the example shown by so many other areas of society — entering the computer age. A Commodore 64 microcomputer with 16K memory, color monitor and cassette unit is scheduled to arrive soon.

Another compact film projector is scheduled for arrival soon, also.

Almost all of the audio-visual equipment and the majority of the books purchased since the library's beginning have been made possible through the Texas State Library System and the local library's membership in that system.

But during the entire time the Muenster Public Library was busy adding projectors and magazines to its list of services, it was also adding books — lots of books — as the accompanying table illustrates.

Survey seeks views on public education

Editor's Note: This is the fourth and final installment in a series of articles on public education written by Betty Pyle, President of the Texas Classroom Teachers Association. This week's article is a statewide opinion survey regarding public education.

By Betty Pyle
President, Texas Classroom Teachers Association

The Texas Classroom Teachers Association (TCTA) is a voluntary non-profit organization with more than 25,000 teacher members statewide. The association is a non-union professional group, opposed to collective bargaining for public school employees. Among the primary purposes of TCTA are promotion of quality service to students and the community, and the development of the highest possible professional practices among teachers.

In working toward these goals, TCTA shares the concern growing among Texans about the quality of education in our public schools. TCTA is committed to devoting its resources to help raise the standard of education in our schools to a level worthy of our state and our children. As a part of this effort, the results of the following survey will be presented to the Select Committee on Public Education, the blue ribbon panel currently reviewing the issues facing education and seeking solutions.

This opinion survey is designed to ascertain the opinions of the public regarding our state's education system. The results of this survey, on a statewide level, will be published after they have been compiled by the nationally recognized polling firm of George Shipley and Associates.

Ceremony at St. Mary's unites Donna Schmidkofer, Rickey Hess

Donna Kay Schmidkofer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Schmidkofer of Rt. 6 Gainesville, became the bride of Rickey Francis Hess, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Hess of Rt. 2 Gainesville in a Nuptial Mass with double ring ceremony on October 8. Father Nicholas Fuhrmann was celebrant and officiated in St. Mary's Church at 5 p.m.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of Lindsay High School. She attended Cooke County College and is a Registered Nurse employed at Gainesville Memorial Hospital. He is a machinist employed by Peterbilt in Denton.

The couple has returned from a wedding trip to Florida and a cruise to Nassau in The Bahamas, and is now at home in Lindsay.

The altar before which the couple exchanged their vows was enhanced with lighted candelabra, floral arrangements of white and teal in the bride's chosen colors, and the Unity candle. White silk bows marked center-aisle pews and English ivy was lined along the communion rail.

The bride was presented at the altar by her father. For her wedding, she chose an original designer gown by Fink made of shimmering white satin and featuring an exquisite princess style high neckline bordered with Alencon lace. Appliques of Alencon lace embroidered with tiny seed pearls covered the entire bodice to the natural waistline. The back of the bodice was of matching lace and was closed with tiny covered buttons.

Long fitted sleeves were beautifully adorned with appliques of Alencon lace. The A-line skirt flowed gracefully into a chapel length train, with a deep flounce of Alencon lace bordering the skirt. Elegant appliques of matching lace and tiny seed pearls were scattered on the skirt and train.

Her illusion bridal veil was attached to a lace cap, and drifted full length over the train.

In keeping with tradition, the bride carried a lace handkerchief, gift from Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sampert; she wore a new penny in her shoe; a blue garter made by the groom's great-aunt, Mrs. Vincent Zimmerer; and for sentiment she wore the ring belonging to her late great-grandmother, Mrs. John (Appalonia) Bayer, a Muenster pioneer.

Her bridal bouquet was a traditional silk arrangement of teal and white silk rosebuds on a circle of white satin, and with her First Communion rosary entwined.

Attendants

Kim Selby of Era was the maid of honor. Patsy Schmidkofer, bride's sister of Gainesville, Nancy Hundt of Denton, Sharon Reed of College Station and Lisa Hess of Lindsay, both groom's sisters were bridesmaids. They wore identical dresses of teal chiffon lined in taffeta, and designed with attached blouson overlay accented with pleats on the bodice were Mass servers.

Wedding music by Patsy Henry organist and Jerry Kneupper guitarist was traditional. They also presented vocal solos and duets as guests were arriving and during Mass.

Participating in the liturgy were the bride's godparents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Schmidkofer and Mr. and Mrs. Truman Wolf uncle and aunt of the groom who presented Offertory gifts; also Mrs. Polly Pelzel, bride's aunt as lay minister and Bobby Zimmerer groom's cousin as lecturer.

Reception

A reception, catered dinner and dance followed at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Gainesville, hosted by the bride's parents. At the guest book were Jessica Hogue, Sarah Hogue and Erica Larson, bride's nieces. They were identically dressed in teal and gray floral prints.

The bride's table was covered with white lace over teal taffeta and held a floral arrangement of teal roses and white baby's breath, also an engagement picture of the couple. The bride's portrait was displayed on an easel.

The wedding cake was three tiered, white and decorated with accents of teal ribbon, and held a cluster of tiny teal rosebuds and white baby's breath on the top layer. Assisting in serving were Joanie Schadt, Michelle Neu, Melinda Mages and Kathy Schmidkofer.

Guest tables held wicker baskets of teal rose rings, and the wedding party's table held arrangements of teal silk roses with white baby's breath, accented with brass candle holders.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents in their home on October 7. Members of the wedding party and both families were guests.

Mrs. Henry Koelzer honored on 75th

Mrs. Henry Koelzer was the very surprised honoree on her 75th birthday when a party was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Henry Walterscheid on Saturday evening, October 8 with dinner prepared by her daughter Carolyn. Centerpiece for the dinner table was a birthday cake in original design by Betty Rose Walterscheid.

Hosting the surprise with Carolyn and Joe Henry were family members, Stephen Walterscheid of Denton, Pam and Ray Newman of Gainesville, Karen Walterscheid of Gainesville, Gary Joe and Alisa Walterscheid and daughter Amy Beth of Myra.

Adding to her special happy birthday was a phone call to Mrs. Koelzer from her sister in San Antonio, Sister Ann Theodore Wiesman.

Karen Sarah Fuhrmann of Lindsay and Kelly Jay Davis of Saint Jo have selected November 26 for their wedding day. Their engagement and forthcoming marriage have been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Fuhrmann of Rt. 2, Gainesville. Parents of Davis are Mr. and Mrs. R.D. Davis of Saint Jo.

Father Denis Soerries will officiate in St. Peter's Catholic Church of Lindsay at 11 a.m. The bride-elect is a graduate of Lindsay High School, attended Cooke County College and graduated from Texas Woman's University in Denton with a Bachelor of Social Work Degree. She is employed at the Texas Department of Human Resources in Gainesville. The future-groom is a graduate of Saint Jo High School, attended Cooke County College and North Texas State University and graduated from Midwestern State University with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in accounting. He is employed as an accountant for Dosier and Odom CPA in Nocona.

Symphony plans 1983-84 season

The Cooke County Symphony Guild will be launching the 1983-84 season of the Cooke County Symphony and Choral with a unique fund raising event on Sunday, October 23, at 4:00 p.m. Dr. Harold Alan Kafer, Music Director of the Symphony and Choral, and Cecelia Kafer will present a benefit recital on the campus of Cooke County College in the Activities Center. Following the recital, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m., twin champagne receptions will take place at two of Gainesville's historic Victorian homes. The simultaneous receptions will take place at the residences of Beverly Graham and Jan Fox. These structures are across the street from each other at 203 and 204 Church Street respectively. This will be the kickoff event for symphony season ticket sales, and Guild representatives will have tickets available at both reception locations. "Since the Tasting Lunch last May was such a success, we wanted to stage an event this fall that was equally imaginative," says Kathryn Kittrell, Executive Director of the Guild. "This event will be a delight to the eye as well as the ear. Our audience will have an opportunity to hear great music and see beautiful architecture. We are especially grateful to Beverly and Jan for opening their homes for this occasion."

Tickets are $10.00 for the recital and both receptions, and ticket holders are free to visit both homes during the receptions. Tickets are available by calling Mrs. Kittrell at 665-2784 or Cecelia Kafer at 665-4229 after 3:30 p.m.

THINK ABOUT ALL THE THINGS ELECTRICITY DID FOR YOU TODAY...

HERE'S HOW TO FIGURE WHAT IT COST YOU.

When you look at your average cost per day for electricity and then think about all the things electricity does for you, it's easy to see that it's a real good value.

On your monthly electric bill, look at the date your meter was last read (Pres. KWH Read. DATE) and then the date it was previously read (Prev. KWH Read. DATE). Count the number of days between the two dates. Divide that number into the amount shown under TOTAL CURRENT MO. BILL.

The result is your average cost per day for all the conveniences, comforts and pleasures that electricity makes possible in your home.

Electricity... a real good value and one of today's best energy values.

Jerry Fettes honored on silver anniversary

Jerry and Delette Fette of Waco celebrated their silver wedding anniversary on Sunday, October 9 with a reception in their home, 2 to 5 p.m. hosted by their son, Jerry Ray Fette, and attended by a number of relatives and friends.

The registration table held a portrait of the couple made on their wedding day, Oct. 11, 1958 at St. Mary's Church of the Assumption in Waco. The wedding reception followed in the parish hall of St. Joseph Church in Bellmead, near Waco.

For the anniversary reception Sunday, the refreshment table was centered with a floral arrangement on a white linen and lace cloth, holding the tiered anniversary cake, the crystal punch service and trays of tiny sandwiches and sweets.

Among local guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Voth and Joanie; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hess; Mrs. Herbie Herr; Mr. and Mrs. David Fette and Russell; Bernie Fette; and Mr. and Mrs. R.N. Fette and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fette of Wylie.

They also enjoyed visiting with Don and Barbara Bayer who were among Waco guests.

Following the reception, relatives, friends and reception assistants were supper guests of the host and his parents, before departing for home.

Jerry Fette, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fette, retired several years ago from the Texas Dept. of Public Safety, Drivers License Division, after 20 years service and is now an agent for National Farmers Union Insurance.

Mrs. Fette, the former Laurel Delette McKee, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McKee who attended the party Sunday. She is a vocational counselor in the Waco Independent School District.

Clers see New England sights during vacation

Aileen and Ed Cler have returned from a spectacular vacation spent traveling in New England, sightseeing in the Adirondack Mountains, sailing on the Bay of Maine, viewing fall foliage at the time it was just beginning to turn into its autumn beauty, and enjoying the company of her sister and other friends in Antrim, New Hampshire.

Departing on September 18 and flying from DFW, they spent 15 days with her sister, retired Army Col. Jane Hoehn, R.N., and retired Lt. Col. Ann Bogrette, R.N. who own two cabins at Gregg Lake.

Among the unusual events was a drive up Mt. Washington to see the weather station where the strongest winds in North America have been clocked. On the day they visited, average winds were 64 miles per hour. The record set in 1930 was 231 m.p.h. They also visited the Mt. Washington Museum where buildings are held down by huge chains in addition to foundations.

On Saturday, Sept. 24 they accompanied a tour group on a Whale Watch in the Bay of Maine, on a 70 ft. boat. It is a spot where whales spend the winter. They saw five hump-back whales and their calves. At about 8 or 9 months of age, the calves averaged 1½ to 2 tons each. They also saw three fin-back whales.

Average temperature in the area during the Cler's visit was 50 to 60 degrees daytime and 40 degrees at night — just right, they said, for supper in front of the fireplace.

They visited Keene State

University in New Hampshire and heard a concert by the U.S. Marine Band. Very memorable was a visit to the open air Cathedral of the Pines, a memorial to a World War II soldier casualty; also a visit to Memorial Bell Tower, a national inter-denominational memorial to all American Women War Dead, also in the Cathedral of the Pines.

They also went sightseeing in Vermont. Another treat was picking wild cranberries in cranberry bogs which abound in the area.

The Cler's returned home on Oct. 2 and were met by a daughter and son-in-law, Sandra and Leon Fuhrmann. Jane Hoehn, who also owns a home in Florida returns there annually in Mid-October to spend the winter and spring until mid-May.

Attending a dinner at noon were the maternal grandparents, Tommy and Virgilla Herr of Muenster and the paternal grandparents, Chalky and Polly Haverkamp of Whitesboro; also Karla and Monica Haverkamp of Whitesboro and Brian Herr and Sondra Hess of Muenster.

Later in the evening they were joined by Charlotte and Bill Dangelmayr and Shawn of Muenster; Deb and Bob Walterscheid and Leah and Allison of Lindsay; Toot and Peanuts Sandmann and sons of Lindsay; Sharlene Schilling and family, Karen Haverkamp and Courtney, Mary and Lee Haverkamp, the paternal great-grandparents, all of Muenster; Janet and Oogie Pagel and Amy of Valley View. Tiger defense gang tackles a would-be runner of the Dallas Blazers. Identifiable are Nick Hess 60, Brent Walterscheid 68 and Mark Hesse 43.

Tigers demolish Blazers

Sacred Heart's Tigers, back at full strength after being badly disabled by illness and injury a week earlier, ran rough-shod over Temple Christian's Blazers here Saturday. They piled up 26 points the first period and 13 more in the second, then coasted to their easy 39-0 win.

In addition to the lopsided score the game was featured by an even dozen turnovers, an interception and eleven fumbles, resulting principally from the rain-soaked field.

The runaway started with Sacred Heart's first possession. Following Mangum's kickoff return of 33 yards to the SH 48, the Tigers put on a 52-yard drive in eight plays, Neil Hesse crashing through for the last yard.

After the next kickoff the visitors punted on first series and the Tigers were on their way again. The drive went 37 yards in 9 plays the big one being a screen pass, Neil Hesse to Jim Bartush for 20 yards. Hesse scored from the 5.

Moments later the Blazers again had to punt on first series and Neil Hesse returned the kick 54 yards for the next TD. His PAT pass to Mangum was good for two more points.

With only 1:09 remaining in the period SH still had another score coming. Blazers fumbled on their first play after kickoff and Troy Yosten recovered for the Tigers on the 9. Two plays later Mark Hesse scored from the 7 with 1 second showing on the clock.

The next quarter likewise was all Tigers' but with the tempo slightly slowed down. Blazers kicked on their second series. The punt return reached the 24, from where SH promptly moved to the 11. But the next series stalled just short of first down and possession changed to the Blazers. However a Blazer punt ending the series was low, hitting a teammate and tumbling into the end zone. Bartush recovered it there for a touchdown. A PAT pass failed to connect.

On second series after the next kickoff the Tigers went back into business on Bret Walterscheid's fumble recovery. Next play Bartush scooted 26 to the 10 but the following series soured and SH had to give up possession on the 7. Blazers likewise stalled and lost ground giving SH another chance at the 1. Kyle Walterscheid scored on the next play. Switzer's kick added a point. Tigers led 39-0 with less than a minute remaining in the first half.

After that the game settled down to a defensive contest, the only progress on either side being a first down by the visitors during the third quarter. The teams were considerably better matched when Tiger youngsters got into the action. All were permitted to play.

The final period presented slightly more action, Tigers making two first downs and the Blazers 3. In addition Kyle Walterscheid and Switzer each recorded a fumble.

Statistics	SH	TC

Cubs edged 14-8

The Tiger Cubs of Sacred Heart were at the short end of a 14-8 score here Saturday in a preliminary to the Tigers' game with Trinity Christian Blazers. Their guests were a youth club team of Fort Worth.

The Bucs threatened in the scoreless first period after Deano Bayer's interception at the visitors' 46. Next four plays reached a first down at the Cowtown 21 but four more tries were fruitless and they lost possession at the 20.

The second period was about even. Each team made a pair of first downs and stalled on the third series.

However the third was more lively. SH stalled after two first downs, and the visitors finished their next drive, a distance of 60 yards in 10 plays. A facemask penalty and a pass interference helped the drive but penalties and busted plays hindered. An 8-yard scoot eventually finished the job. A PAT kick failed leaving the count at 6-0.

Cubs replied quickly continuing into the fourth period with a 55 yard drive in seven plays. Wayne Becker and Greg Bell shared the rushing job, Bell scoring from the 1 and going over again for extra points. The Cubs led 8-6.

Moments later Cubs were moving again and missed a first down by inches on the 20 yard line. That's where Fletcher of the visitors broke away and streaked 80 yards for a TD. The boy holds a national record for 13-year-olds of 11.5 seconds in the 100 meter dash. A PAT run added 2 points for a final score of 14-8.

Regardless of the loss, coach Walterscheid was pleased with the boys performance and progress on both offense and defense.

Quarterback Neil Hesse here steps off a portion of Sacred Heart's big yardage in Saturday's win over the Dallas Blazers. Among his helpers are Bret Walterscheid 58, Darrell Hess 50 and Nick Hess 60.

Little League teams win two

Muenster members of the Boys Club pee wee league won both ends of a double header played here Tuesday night. The 5th and 6th graders, coached by Larry Holloway beat Saint Jo 22-6 and the 3rd and 4th graders, coached by Larry Gobble, Dale Swirczynski and Clifford Sicking took Enderby Gas of Gainesville 16-0.

First score for the little fellows was a 64-yard run by Helmut Koelzer. Jason Biffle followed over to make it 8-0.

The next one resulted from a drive starting at midfield. Ryan Sicking made the TD on a 10-yard run and Mike Gobble ran the extra points.

The older kids first drove 45 yards and ran out of steam on the 15 yardline, but the second effort paid off. It started with a fumble recovered by Jeff Hellman on the Saint Jo 7. Three plays later Jeff scored from the 2. The try for extra points failed.

The second score came shortly after. Oilers were on the 19 after Saint Jo's kick, advanced 12 yards and then got the TD on a pass from Jerry Brawner to Scott Hudspeth for 7 yards. Hellman's run made it 14-0.

Next score, early in the second half was on a 19 yard run by Donnie Boydston and Brawner's run added bonus points.

Saint Jo's TD was made on Walter Smith's 37-yard sprint. The PAT run failed leaving the count at 22-6.

SH hosts Trinity Valley Thursday

Sacred Heart Tigers, back at full strength and enthusiastic about their surprising big win over the Dallas Blazers last week are looking forward eagerly to their game with Trinity Valley this week.

The contest will be held Thursday night on the Tiger field at 7:30. Coach Virgil Henscheid announced this week that the date has been changed from Friday to Thursday and the game will be preceded by a Cub game at 5:30.

Regarding prospects, Henscheid said it appears to be about even. The visitors are expected to be bigger and speedier but younger and less experience than Sacred Heart. On the other hand the Tigers are physically ready and at their best of the season.

Oilers lose 22-12 to Gainesville

Muenster's KC Oilers were the losers by a count of 22-12 to Gainesville National Bank in their game last week Thursday on the Boys Club field in Gainesville.

They were the first on the scoreboard when in the first quarter Jerry Brawner made a 39 yard TD run. The score remained at 6-0 when a run for extra points failed to get across.

However, the lead did not last long. Still in the first period the Big G Bankers completed a drive with a 4-yard run and sweetened the count with a run for two bonus points.

The second quarter was temporarily bright for the Oilers as they were working on a drive which included a 27 yard pass from James Hennigan to Tony Grewing. However the opportunity was lost in a fumble on the GNB 20 yard line.

Third quarter was a standoff, neither team allowing the other to gain. But the fourth made up for lost time with two touchdowns for GNB and 1 for Muenster. The Gainesville kids started it early in the period by capping a drive with a 5-yard dash. The run for extra points failed. Gainesville led 14-6.

Then Muenster took its turn. James Hennigan got loose on a nice 41-yard dash to the goal, but the PAT run failed leaving the Oilers behind 14-12.

The Gainesville kids still had scores in their system. A 6-yard run was good for 6 and the PAT try was good for 2 more.

Boys who led the Oiler defense were Billy Covington, Michael Bierschen and Michael Abney. The offense standouts were Jerry Brawner, James Hennigan, Tony Grewing and Scott Vogel.

Bells over MHS, barely

Leslye Wells, 23, follows his blocker Neal Flusche 22, during last week's 9-7 loss to Bells. The Hornet on the ground is Shawn Flusche 32.

One big play was the big difference in the Hornets' 9-7 loss to the Panthers of Bells last week. In overall performance the two teams were very near even with Muenster having the edge in the first half and Bells in the second.

Actually the switch of momentum came with the opening kick-off of the second half when Mike Waldow of the Panthers received the ball at the 15 and, after a bit of neat maneuvering, broke through and scooted all the way to the end zone.

A try for the double PAT failed leaving the visitors trailing 7-6, however it seemed to be the spark that inspired them to take charge. Before intermission Muenster led 7 to 1 in first downs, but after the half Bells led 6-3 in first downs and proportionately in rushing and passing.

The end result is that Muenster's standing in the 9-A race now drops to 1-2 and the season to date is 3-3. Bells, on the other hand continues its perfect record, 6-0 in the season and shares the lead at 3-0 with Valley View in the district race.

Regardless of the loss, MHS coaches were proud of their boys performance, especially during the first half when they dominated. The Hornets were solid in defense and also gained consistently. However the problem is that they did not put it together and missed scoring opportunities on turnovers, busted plays and incomplete passes.

The one successful operation came in the second quarter. Starting from midfield it gained 20 yards in short plays until Johnny Eldred connected with Kevin Wolf with a 30 yard touchdown pass. Neal Flusche's PAT kick added a point. Muenster led 7-0 at half time.

The quickie touchdown on second half kickoff was definitely the turning point of the contest. In spite of failing on this two-point conversion attempt the Bells boys were fired up to full potential, holding MHS to occasional short gains and pounding consistently for more substantial gains of their own. Their pay-off came late in the third period following a drive which the Hornets halted at the 20. That was close enough for a field goal attempt by Waldrum. The kick was good and put Bells ahead 9-7 at 1:44 in the third period. During the final period the teams were deadlocked again with the MHS boys, including a half dozen freshmen, doing a fine job of holding the husky Panthers. Standouts of the Hornets were Ronnie Trubebach (nine tackles), Bryan Klement, Tim Fleeman, Neal Flusche, and Leslye Wells.

Hornets standing, 1-2

In spite of their 1-2 district standing Muenster Hornets are keeping the spirit up as they take on the loop leading Eagles at Valley View Friday night. Recalling that they upset the favored green clads in the two past years, they have the feeling that it can be done again if they'll give all they have and possibly get a few breaks to boot.

Looking forward to the event, Coach Peters says the boys have grounds for confidence. They were the equals of Bells last week in all but the score, so they are not intimidated by the underdog rating.

Another encouraging factor is the steady improvement of a sturdy line and the progress of freshmen and sophomores who have seen lots of action during the injury and illness riddled season to date.

At this time the Hornets have a record of 1-2 in 9-A and the Eagles have 3-0. To the MHS boys that means it is high time for a change of the trend, especially since this is the last chance for a part in the playoffs.

Kickoff time is 7:30 Friday at Valley View.

Muenster juniors lose at Bells

Muenster Juniors were definitely outclassed and outscored by the youngsters of Bells last Thursday night. The score was 24-0 and likely would have been more one sided if the fame had not been halted in the third quarter because of rain.

Nevertheless the Muenster coaches are not unhappy about the outcome. They say their hosts have both size and talent, and the absence of Scott McAden, because of illness, had Muenster operating at sub par. Regardless, they are pleased with the boys progress and regard the tough competition as valuable experience that helps build for the future.

The Oilers, third and fourth graders sponsored by the Muenster Jaycees in the Boys Club junior league, include the following. Front, Scott Wilde, Ryan Sicking, Helmut Koelzer, Rex Huchton, Justin Ramsey, Barry Hess; second row, Martin McCoy, Darren Klement, Douglas Hennigan, Larry Switzer, Sammy Walterscheid, Michael Gobble; third row, Mark Flusche, Jason Biffle, Tony Perryman, Michael Vogel, Kelly Bell, Gary Hess, Chad Simmons. Top Coaches Larry Gobble and Dale Swirczynski. Not pictured, Billy Parks and Coach Clifford Sicking.

Lindsay wallops Gunter

Lindsay High Knights were hot again last week, mauling the Tigers of Gunter 53-16 and holding on to a tie with Prosper for second place in the west zone race of District 9A.

Their romp to the big win was not hindered by the injury of Doug Anderle in the previous week's game. John Dieter was moved to the tailback position and Victor Schmidkofer succeeded Dieter at full back. Both did fine in their new assignments. Dieter rushing for 195 yards and Schmidkofer for 101. In fact, Lindsay outclassed its opponent by a measure of 428 to 91 in rushing. But not in passing. Gunter led in that department, 108 yards to 5.

The Knights started slow, scoring only one of their eight touchdowns during the first quarter. That resulted from a 56 yard drive ending in Dieter's five yard plunge and a kick for the bonus point.

Second quarter was more productive. Lindsay led off with a 56 yard drive in 11 plays. Big gains along the way were runs of 17 by Schmidkofer and 18 by Kenneth Fuhrmann, and the pay-off was a 1-yard plunge by Dieter. The PAT kick failed.

Then it was Gunter's turn. In one of the big plays of the game Hunter connected with Ed Pitts for a 69 yard scoring play. A PAT pass added 2 and the score was 18-8.

Promptly after that Lindsay was on the way again. The drive went 59 yards in 9 plays, the big ones being by Mike Hermes for 11 and Dieter's 22-yard dash for the TD. Mike Corcoran's run added 2.

Dieter's 13-yard run. Schmidkofer's PAT run added two bonus points. Lindsay led 29-8 at half time.

Gunter started the second half scoring following recovery of a Lindsay fumble on the Knight 35. The Tigers took it in from there, the scoring play being a 6 yard pass, Hunter to Gravelly. A PAT pass John Pitts to Ed Pitts added 2 points.

Lindsay responded with a 61-yard drive for its next score. Key plays were a 10-yard run by Dieter, a 9 yard pass Corcoran to Schmidkofer and a tough 25-yard TD run, facing fourth and two, by Dieter with two defenders hanging on. The try for extra points failed.

Late in the third period Lindsay started another drive and finished it seconds into the fourth period. The distance was 49 yards in six plays and key gains were 17 by Dieter, two 9-yard gains by Schmidkofer plus a 5-yard TD run by Schmidkofer.

Shortly after the Knights made a 35-yard drive in six plays, Tim Carpenter making the last 9.

And finally, Knight defense got into the scoring business. Mike Hermes intercepted and returned 30 yards to the end zone.

Golf tournament delayed and by rain and rescheduled

Last week's bountiful and very welcome rain came just in time to conflict with the SH Alumni's golf tournament on October 9. So the date is changed to Sunday, October 23.

However other plans are unchanged. It's an 18 hole 2 member scramble to be played at Gainesville Municipal course with a shotgun start at 8:30.

Teams may be men, women or mixed and the entry fee is $36.00 per team including green fees. A cart can be reserved by adding $10.50 to the fee.

The tourney is divided into five equal flights of 12 teams each and its list of prizes is valued at almost $2,000. Prizes for the first four places in each flight are listed as follows. First, 20 balls, second, 16 balls, third, 12 balls, fourth, 8 balls. Besides, merchandise prizes and balls will be given for longest and most accurate drives and nearest the pin approach.

Other attractions are three free balls and a packet of tees when checking in, a mulligan sale with raffle, free beverages during and after the round, and sandwiches available.

Open letter from Coach Peters

Dear Hornet Fans,

As you know our Hornets have faced many adversities this season. This group of boys - or should I say young men - have been injured and ill all season. This is one of the best groups of boys I've ever worked with. They are coachable, sincere, dedicated and respect authority. Even when lacking natural skills they are working hard to overcome inexperience and lack of ability of speed (what coaches called God given talent).

These boys deserve lots of support and enthusiasm. We are asking for your total support these last four games. We'd like to see that victory line 150 yards long the rest of the season. Crowd enthusiasm can win ballgames. I believe Belts' fans proved that to us.

So, Hornet fans, whatever the reason you might have to not give these boys your all - Think about it - They are giving you theirs.

I have a challenge for you. There's a steak dinner for anyone who out-yells my wife Friday night.

God Bless You & Your Hornets Coach "Pete"

County Agent's Report

Ammonium nitrate is probably the most used form of nitrogen for top-dressing of small grain and grass in our area. Most producers calculate the cost per pound of nitrogen in selecting either ammonium nitrate (33.5%N), ammonium sulfate (21% N) or urea (45% N) when making their selection. There has been a trend in certain areas of the state relating to the decrease in supplies of ammonium nitrate. For this reason producers in Cooke County in the next few years may be looking at alternatives to ammonium nitrate.

The major factor to consider in nitrogen efficiency is the amount of nitrogen that volatilizes or escapes in the form of gas into the atmosphere. We will use ammonium nitrate as a basis to evaluate other forms of nitrogen. Research has shown that ammonium nitrate has a low potential for volatilization. A great deal of research has been conducted at Texas A&M by Extension and Research Soils Specialists with the following observations and results. Ammonium sulfate is a very effective nitrogen source with acid soils. An advantage of ammonium sulfate is that it contains approximately 26% sulfur. Sulfur is one element that has been shown to be deficient in some sandy, acid soils. A disadvantage is that significant amounts of volatilization can occur on alkaline soils and also on acid soils that have been recently limed.

Urea has even more problems and must be applied under ideal conditions to reduce volatilization. Some research has shown as much as 50 to 60% gaseous losses from urea spread under unfavorable conditions. Some conditions causing losses from urea include high humidity, warm temperatures, or failure to get the urea in the soil (trapping it on leaf surfaces). Incorporation helps hold urea in the soil. The greatest losses of urea have occurred when applied on the surface of moist soils.

We have mentioned some pretty high volatilization percentages associated with both ammonium sulfate and urea. Actually, losses will average about 20% of applied nitrogen.

In purchasing we need to consider several things - availability, cost per pound of actual nitrogen, weather conditions, and the soil types in Cooke County.

County Hay Show - will be held Wednesday, October 26, at Cooke County College Activities Center. A Feeding Value program will be presented that night at 7 p.m. We need hay bales by October 17 so that a chemical protein analysis can be run on the samples

To enter hays, call the County Extension Office at 665-7731 or Doug Robison and T.J. Davidson at Cooke County College at 668-7731. Beef and Forage Breakfast - will be at 6:30 a.m. October 26, at the Daisy Inn located at Highway 82 and I-35 in Gainesville. Dr. Dale Lovelace, Forage Specialist, will present the program on Alfalfa. Variety Selection, Herbicides and Other Management Decisions will be discussed.

To enter hays, call the County Extension Office at 665-7731 or Doug Robison and T.J. Davidson at Cooke County College at 668-7731.

County farm to be honored

The Texas Family Land Heritage Program will honor a farm in Cooke County this year for maintaining continuous agricultural production for a century or more.

The Cooke County honorees are: Mr. and Mrs. Edward Floyd Carson, Valley View, owners of Carson's Corner Farm.

A short history and pictures of the farms and ranches to be honored this year will be published in the 1983 Family Land Heritage Registry," Hightower said.

"The annual registry is proving to be an invaluable source for Texas genealogists and historians."

TP&L offers average billing plan

Beginning Nov. 1, Texas Power & Light Company will offer an Average Billing plan in order to give its customers a built-in device to budget for monthly electrical service.

Mike C. Murphy, TP&L District Manager in Gainesville, said the Average Billing plan will smooth the monthly swings from high-use months of summer to the lower-use winter period.

"We have done extensive research on ways to help our customers cope with managing their energy dollars. The answers always point toward sound energy management in the home and good budgeting," Murphy said.

"The Average Billing plan accommodates both these items," he said. A customer who participates in the Average Billing plan will be charged a monthly average of the past 12 months of service. The average will be updated with each new bill. Murphy said the Average Billing plan also takes care of unusual events in a customer's electrical usage. "If you add a room to your home, your bill will increase in increments until a 12-month average shows that the new level of electrical use has become part of your pattern of life," he said.

He said the customer's monthly bill will specify the amount of electricity actually used each month.

Customers who have lived at their present address for fewer than 12 months still can participate in the Average Billing Plan. The average for new residents of a dwelling will be based on the number of months available to calculate it.

Murphy said that all TP&L residential customers are eligible for the Average Billing Plan, which is offered without cost.

Customers who would like to participate in TP&L's Average Billing plan should contact the local TP&L office.
