Leader of Moral Forces for Speaker

Representative Dallas Blankenship of Dallas is receiving wide support for Speaker of the next Texas House of Representatives, where he has served eight years and is recognized as leader of the moral forces. He wrote the Blankenship drug store liquor bill which curbed the liquor prescription racket in dry territory and recently was endorsed by Dallas County on the district court bench

As a leader of the "Immortal 56," Blankenship helped prevent a general sales tax being placed in the constitution. He is a native of Bell County, a graduate of S. M. U. and served overseas in War I.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY FOR SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

Mesdames Don C. Cooke and Fred V. Parnell entertained the young people of the Sunday School classes of the Liberty Baptist church with a Hallowe'en costume party Saturday evening.

Only candles lighted the party rooms presenting an eerie atmos-phere appropriate for the occasion. Ghost stories were the feature entertainment of the evening and an improvised cemetery was visited where the hoot of owls and the rattle of bones were heard and where ghosts darted in and out among the tombs.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryon Sears and Rev. Parnell assisted with the en-

YOUR HEALTH

AUSTIN, TEXAS .- With the approach of cold weather, Dr. Geo. W Cox, State Health Officer has issued some timely advise concerning room temperature and its relation to health.

"It is very important that inside temperature be maintained at around 68 to 70 degrees," Dr. Cox said. "Thousands of homes are continually overheated in the winter, and a degree of heat is often demanded that would not be tolerated in the summertime."

In a room that is overheated, the body pores are open, and the moment that the outside temperature is encountered, much harm may result. Colds, influenza, bronchial troubles and even pneumonia may take advantage of this bodily abuse, and take a serious toll in sickness and even death. "An inside temperature of from 68 to 70 degrees is not only more healthful, but actually more com-fortable," Dr. Cox said. "When added to these factors, the resulting economy is considered, it might be well to check up and see what your thermometor reads. A thermometor kept within the range suggested, plus the careful maintainance of proper humidity, will help to prevent needless sickness and protect the good health of your family."

In his eye was a look of determination, his breath was coming in short gasps. She had eluded him, but now his hour had come and his purpose was not to be thwarted again. He rushed and threw his arms about her neck, half dragging, half carrying her to the parson's. He kicked vigorously upon the door and when the parson came demanded: "Do you tie knots?" "Why yes," said the Resourceful Salesman — Ah. parson. "Then tie a hard one on that proves it's a real car. It's this heifer calf of yours: she's nigh ruined my garden!"

garage. Still, they realize that the sole purpose behind it is to protect their interests, and for that reason are willing to accept the Some things, however, seem totally devoid of purpose, except to add an unnecessary burden on the individual and place a larger nu mber of political pets on the public pay rool. This applies especially to tax and ration forms that ould be filled out less frequently with equal effect and far more economy. It also applies to various hand-out agencies whose subsidies are more than equalled by operating expense.

Let's hope that when the war is over and we no longer have to bother with war time economy we can eliminate some of the of ficial horse play and get back to traditional Americanism. That is, the brand of democracy that recognizes each individual's responsibilities and rights. Put an end to subsidies, mollycoddling and other political shenanigans that have never been anything more than a bid for votes. The government's job is to protect the rights of citizens and help them to help themselves, not to give handouts or play one group against the If an industrialist is taking an unfair return from his factory crack down on him. If a union is getting hoggish, crack down on it If farmers are being gypped, crack down on the gyppers instead of digging into the public sock for a dribbling of consolation money. The average self respecting American has one plan of living and only one. He wants to take care of his own affairs without government interference but he wants the government to stand ready as a dependable recours violated. Originally our government was planned with that objective in view. It isn't too late to change back. But if we don't, God help us. We'll drift into the same kind of fanaticism we're fighting
