Santa arrives in town...

Parade a success

MUENSTER...The weather held off for the Christmasfest parade Saturday. The skies were cloudy but no rain fell on the 28 entries in the parade. The third annual Christmasfest parade began promptly at 1 p.m. as Police Chief Helen Tompkins led the parade onto Hwy. 82. The official Christmasfest banner, carried by four Girl Scouts, was followed by the Muenster High School Marching Band. The band, dressed in their red and white uniforms, played Christmas music as they marched along the parade route.

The entry from Red River Liquor, winner of the Theme Award, was a delightful nativity scene with small children as the Holy Family and the angel. "The whole float is handmade, including the sheep," said Herbie Miller, owner of Red River Liquor.

This was followed by the Muenster Cub Scouts, Troop 664, who came as a wagon train to depict life as pioneers. The Muenster Bluebonnet Bluebirds, winner of the President's Trophy, celebrated 150 years of Texas Christmases with their entry in honor of the Texas Sesquicentennial. The Sparks Campfire Kindergarten had Grandpa and Grandma watching the presents and little girls waiting for Santa. The Coors Light Beer-wolf paid a visit to Muenster to welcome Santa, and the Muenster Boy Scout Troop 664 had a Christmas campout. The Don Martin family of Gainesville were the Checkerboard Family with a small horse and covered wagon and even a puppy tagging along behind. The float entered by the Muenster Telephone Corp., "We Help You Keep In Touch," won Best Business Entry award with a lovely depiction of a mother and child waiting for a call from Grandmother, portrayed by Daryl Ferber.

The Gainesville Antique Auto Club had eight antique cars and trucks entered. Mick McClanahan from Lake Kiowa drove his 1932 Ford V-8 Roadster that won Best of Show at Autofest this year. He won the Antique Car award. There were several cars and trucks entered, including the KGAF convertible, Busch van, a white Renault convertible entered by KDNT, and an 18-wheeler owned by Miller Beer. There was a horse-drawn wagon filled with toys driven by Buddy May and a buggy decked out to go to grandma's house owned by Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Sawyer. Three groups, 24 K Ranch, Saint Jo Riding Club and Cooke County 4-H Horse Club, were near the end of the parade with their horses and saddles decorated for Christmas. The Cooke County 4-H won the Equestrian award.

Last, but certainly not least, came Santa on the Muenster Volunteer Fire Department truck. He rode into town in style and made a lot of boys and girls happy.

He stayed on the stage at Mid Park to visit with all the children lined up to talk with him. He heard a great number of requests and he said he would see everyone again on Christmas Eve.

After the parade, the crowd gathered around David Klement of KGAF, who did the announcing, for the winners of the prizes given away by the Muenster Chamber of Commerce. Rather than ask the merchants to donate prizes this year, the Chamber purchased most of them. The winners were: Rose Hudspeth, a GABBY Bear; Tim Bindel, a 48-qt. cooler from Gilbert Endres Dist.; Nancy Lippe, a 42" Heirloom Delux Ceiling Fan; Doug Fleitman, a pair of Simmons Binoculars; Lou Mosler, Custom Calling Telephone Set; Sharlene Hartman, a Schlitz beer mirror from Cooke County Dist.; MarySicking, a 48-qt. cooler from Cooke County Dist. If you have not picked up your prize, be sure to go by the Chamber office between 9-12 or 1-4 to receive your prize.

Comments heard around town Saturday afternoon seemed to express the thought that "this year was the best yet."

Lively Chamber meeting discusses garbage problems and parade winners

A well-attended Muenster Chamber of Commerce monthly luncheon meeting lasted well past the usual adjournment time Tuesday as Muenster Mayor Richard Grewing carried Muenster's garbage plight "to the people." Grewing, City Manager Joe Fenton and Alderman Willie Wimmer explained the many problems and corrective measures taken in response to the many complaints about increased garbage rates. Costly problems and headaches for the city included:

- Losing the old dumpsite on Art Bayer's property, then needing legal assistance and a Sheriff's Deputy to retrieve equipment left there. The equipment - a trailer with tank to fight possible fires - had flat tires and was chained to some of Art Bayer's equipment.
- Professional engineer costs of $1,000 to $1,500 to make tests on the proposed new dumpsite on Grady McElreath's property.
- Core analyses of the new site which costs $1,100 each.
- Legal expenses at $200 per hour.

Continuing fees and equipment expense to dump garbage temporarily at a Gainesville landfill. Mayor Grewing said, "This is costing money and legal proceedings are not even started." He cited opposition by Charles Bartush, Sr., King Koch, Doug Robison and Art Bayer as a major reason the city does not yet have a state permit to use the new landfill. The Soil Conservation Service and professional engineers have called it a very good and safe landfill site. Grewing said all state directions would be followed, dams would be built to keep trash in and water out of the dump. Water standing in the pit would have to be sucked out and taken to the sewer plant. All garbage must be enclosed during transport. "If Gainesville turns us away," Grewing stated, "or if we have to line the pit, we just have to go back to burning trash in barrels. Muenster's not big enough to pay for it." He further stated, "It (dumping at the old site) was perfectly all right as long as Art Bayer was getting $250.00 a month. But as soon as we decided to go to Grady McElreath's land, he shut us out and encouraged others to hold out for $1,000 a month because (Grewing quoting Bayer) "they have to have a place to dump and we can get it."

Several members present asked what they could do to help. The mayor asked for word-of-mouth and understanding. He said, "When three people can tell 3,000 people what to do, it's not right."

Certain members stated that they hoped to see all the facts exposed and suggested that the city require residential garbage customers to share more of the burden through higher residential fees. When contacted concerning the landfill controversy, Charles Bartush, Sr. said, "Last week's article in The Enterprise states the facts very well. If everyone will read it completely, they will understand that our only concern is for the safety of the environment."

When questioned Wednesday about the alleged $1,000.00 rent demand, Bayer replied, "I was getting $250.00 a month for a one and one-half year extended contract in order for the city to have time to get

Inspector says dump problems minimal

Texas Department of Health inspector Aubrey C. Anderson visited Muenster's former dump site last week for inspection purposes. The inspection was prompted by allegations from attorney Mary Kelley and engineer Robert S. Kier during a closed meeting in Austin with the State Health Department. Kelley and Kier, representing area residents Charles Bartush Sr., King Koch and Doug Robison, contended that the old landfill site on Art Bayer's property north of Muenster had been poorly maintained and possibly had been used to dump hazardous wastes.

Wednesday morning, Dec. 10, Anderson reported by phone that problems he saw on the site were negligible. He estimated that 15 minutes to one hour of work would completely clean up the site for closure by the state. He said no major dirt work was needed. The barrels possibly containing hazardous chemicals were empty, burned out and corroded. Very little burned debris remained uncovered. When asked about what remedial action the state would require and when, he stated, "No hurry because the exposed area is very minimal and not hazardous. I've got a hundred unauthorized dump areas with open faces in much worse shape than this one. The Austin office will state closure requirements."

The city of Muenster is currently waiting on written permission to enter the site and finish covering and cleaning.

Murlin achieves Eagle Scout

Murlin Ray Evans became a Cub Scout in 1979, joined a Boy Scout Troop in Muenster in 1982, transferred to a Gainesville Troop in 1983, advancing through each rank; and earned the Arrow of Light and the Order of the Arrow, also the Parvuli Dei and Ad Altare Dei religious medals.

On Sunday, Dec. 7, he achieved Scouting's highest level for students, the Eagle Scout Award. The presentation was made in a formal Court of Honor ceremony held at 3 p.m. in First United Methodist Church in Gainesville. Participants included Kevin Steffy, Frontier Trails District Executive as Court of Honor chairman; Rev. Elwood S. Poore with the Invocation; fellow Boy Scouts for Presentation of Colors, Douglas Evans, Sam Walterscheid and Jeremy Wilhoit; Jeff Walterscheid and Jeff Wilhoit for Presentation of Eagle candidate; Sterling Smith, Voice of the Eagle; and five participating Eagle Scouts: Eddie Hansford, Dr. Bob McElroy, Phil Newton, David Spaeth and David Fette.

Also Douglas Evans, escort for Eagle's mother; Bob Wilhoit with Presentation of Eagle Award; Ed Coombs with the Eagle Charge; Buck Rogers, Catholic Scouting Committee Chairman, with the Christian Charge; John Beck, District Commissioner, with congratulatory letters; and Father Denis Soerries with the final Benediction.

A reception followed in the Fellowship Hall.

Murlin Ray Evans, 15, is a son of Lupe Evans and the late Murlin Joe Evans. He is a sophomore at Muenster High School and a member of Sacred Heart Church.

For his Eagle service project, he led a group in the "Don't Mess With Texas" litter campaign by cleaning and painting oil drums to be distributed throughout the community; and making citizens aware of the cost of littering by distributing literature, litter bags and "Don't Mess With Texas" bumper stickers at three fast food stores in Muenster. He is interested in Journalism and works part-time at The Muenster Enterprise.

When he attended the National Jamboree at A.P. Hills, Virginia in 1985, he was his troop's hometown news correspondent for The Muenster Enterprise, Gainesville Daily Register, Cooke County Leader and Lewisville News.

Walterscheid receives award

Wilmer Walterscheid of Texas A&M University has been awarded the President's Meritorious Service Award for his "extraordinary contribution to the construction of the superconducting Cyclotron."

Walterscheid has been with the Cyclotron Institute for more than 19 years since completing electronics school at Texas A&M University.

At the beginning of this project, he and his family spent more than two years on assignment at the National Cyclotron at Michigan State University.

Three hundred and forty persons, selected from the entire faculty of Texas A&M, were nominated to receive the award. This group was narrowed to 10 selectees. Presentations will be made by University President Frank Vandiver at a special Christmas coffee on Dec. 18. Honorees will be presented plaques and $500 bonus checks.

In addition to the award, Walterscheid has been placed in charge of the final assembly of the K500 Cyclotron, which is scheduled for completion in April of 1987, and he has received a Merit raise for his outstanding work. Wilmer Walterscheid is a 1954 graduate of Muenster High School and the eldest son of Mrs. Alfons (Gusta) Walterscheid of Muenster.

Good News!

A third time Jesus asked him, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was hurt because he had asked a third time, "Do you love me?" So he said to him: "Lord, you know everything. You know well that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep."

Exhibits will be judged on beauty of the religious theme. Judging will be held on Saturday night, Dec. 20, when judges and a guide will begin making rounds within the city limits just after dark. They will be happy to visit homes outside the city limits, if residents will notify Allen Sicking, 759-2907.

The KC billboard east of town is showing its Christmas poster as a reminder of the true meaning of Christmas.

Muenster Knights will host the annual children's Christmas party on Sunday, Dec. 21, at 7 p.m. for children, grandchildren, nieces, nephews and friends of KCs. The preceding evening, Knights of Columbus will visit St. Richard's Villa with caroling and gifts, and a party at 7:30 p.m. for members, spouses and guests.

Letters to the Editor

My very dear friends,

The day is already far spent as I begin this traditional message to you. Of necessity, it will have to be brief. Besides, I had the pleasure of being written about and even shown with my relatives from Switzerland on the occasion of my Diamond Jubilee on July 11, and then I sent you, a month or so later, a very long message.

The above celebration got me very far behind in my correspondence, because it necessitated very much, and so I find myself in a serious condition with my Christmas messages. So much for my valid excuse for a brief message.

I wish each and everyone of you, my dear friends, a bright, happy Christmas and a wonderful New Year.

Thanks also a million times for all the love you have sent to me in the beautiful cards which came my way last Christmas, on my Diamond Jubilee on my Birth and Feastday. God bless you for these messages and messages sent through persons who visited Muenster.

I told you repeatedly how I keep close contact with you through The Muenster Enterprise, the Sacred Heart Church and School bulletins and your joys, your sorrows, your every sentiment find an echo in my heart.

On Aug. 12, I received a phone call from Hawaii from someone I had met in New York on my last trip to Switzerland. I faintly recalled that the promise of a call was made, but I could not identify the person. Sorry! It was a gentleman's voice.

Between October the third and the sixth, I had two friends who had come all the way from Bethlehem - not in the land of Juda - but in Pennsylvania, to privately celebrate my Diamond Jubilee. The friends were Eileen and Emily Fielding. The former could not stand the heat of summer, and therefore they chose a cooler season. They were the nieces of Sister Stella Kaiser of our Community. She was their favorite aunt. We had a magnificent time together. They gave me the name of "fun nun." I don't remember the year of Sister Stella's death.

Now, just one more item! The famous Bazaar! You might know that I went there to thoroughly enjoy myself in seeing the fabulous booths, so orderly arranged and tended to by Sisters and of course Oblates and lay people.

You might know that my greatest delight was to meet people, young and old. And many a former student of Holy Angels Academy or St. Paul's in Pocahontas delighted my heart.

I must stop. I wish to apologize to the Editor of The Muenster Enterprise for being so late with my Christmas message. I will only blame myself if the message will have to wait until 1987. May it be a joyful one for all who read the message ... and for the one who sends it with lots of love.

First Texas, Gibraltar announce reorganization

First Texas and Gibraltar Savings Associations have announced the reorganization of branch administrative responsibilities throughout the state.

All regional branch administrative functions for First Texas and Gibraltar will now be handled by three Division Directors. Based in Dallas/Fort Worth, Houston and Austin, these Directors will be responsible for a state network that includes 107 branches.

"This is an important change in our management structure because it will allow us to respond faster and even more effectively to customer needs," said Lonnie Umbenhow, Sr. Vice President, Branch Operations. "We constantly monitor our customer service through outside research firms. Although our findings indicate our customer service has been very good, the new system moves decision makers closer to the branch level. Therefore, our branch managers will have a wider range of resources in order to answer customer inquiries and handle customers' concerns."

Branches in the North Texas area, previously administered by James O. Rivers, will now report to Vice President, Division Director, Paul W. Craig. Craig will have responsibility for the entire North Texas and Dallas/Ft. Worth area.

First Texas and Gibraltar comprise the largest savings and loan holding company headquartered in Texas with nearly $9 billion in assets. It is the twelfth largest S&L in the nation and the largest one that is privately held.

Luncheon after personal interviews of the finalists are conducted.

For applications and additional information, please contact Raymond McDaniel, Jr., Chairman, Omar Burelson Congressional Intern Selection Committee, P.O. Box 543, Abilene, Texas 79604.

a state permit for the new site. Mr. McElreath signed a $300.00 a month contract two years ago. Why didn't I ask for $1,000.00 on the extended contract? Who are these others I have encouraged to hold out? They should come forward with their locations. Perhaps the city could get a permit from the state for their sites. Then maybe we'd all be satisfied."

In reply to Mayor Grewing's statement, Arthur Bayer said, "I don't agree with the new site because it is directly across from the old site. The smoke from the old dumpsite was polluting Keith Bayer's home location. The new one will also because it is closer to my property than to any others. Actually, Mr. McElreath deserves the good fortune of having the new site on his property. After all, doesn't everyone want to have a city dump on their property?"

The Chamber did entertain several more pleasant subjects.

Christmasfest Lighting and Decorating Contest winners were: Best Overall Business - Bouquets & Gifts for "White Christmas;" Most Unique - Modern Floors; Best Nativity - The Hut for "Winter Fantasy."

In the Individual Judging, winners were: Best Overall - Arthur Felderhoff; Most Unique - Tina and Ben Bindel for "Snoopy's Christmas;" and the Nativity - Harold Flusche.

Williamson named to budget task force

Governor William P. Clements has announced that State Representative Richard F. (Ric) Williamson (D-63) who represents Cooke County has been appointed to the governor's 10-member State Budget Select Task Force.

Williamson, who is concluding his first term of office, had the following comments, "Governor Clements feels a responsibility to take a bi-partisan approach to solving the numerous economic problems that confront the state of Texas. I am deeply honored that the governor has selected me as the Democratic party state representative to serve on this task force.

"Our objective is to shape the governor's budget proposal in such a manner that both the Senate and the House can work with Governor Clements to respond to the expectations of all Texans that government act responsibly in addressing the problems that face our state," he commented.

"On a personal level, I think that all citizens of Cooke County - Democrats, Republicans and Independents - can be proud that they are represented by a person who, in just his first term of office, is accorded this degree of respect from his peers with regard to his knowledge of state budget matters. Appointment to the task force places me in a position to greatly influence the future path of state government."

Sister Bernadine Bangle dies at age 81 in St. Louis

Sister Bernadine Bangle, who was on mission at St. Paul Medical Center in Dallas for many years, died on Dec. 3 in St. Louis, Mo. after a very short illness. She was 81 years old and would have celebrated her sixtieth anniversary as a Daughter of Charity on Jan. 5, 1987.

She is survived by her religious sisters, the Daughters of Charity of the St. Louis Province, and by a blood sister, Mrs. Bertha Hook of Severna Park, Maryland, one niece and by hundreds of friends, including numerous physicians at St. Paul Medical Center and Muenster Memorial Hospital.

Sister Bernadine Bangle numbered among her Muenster friends, patients at St. Paul's Hospital and their families whom she counseled, guided and assisted in prayer through long illnesses. She was a special friend of her co-worker, Maxine Morris, formerly of Muenster.

In 1971, Sister Bernadine wrote a letter to Maxine, instructing that it be opened after her death. In the letter she requested that her obituary be sent to The Muenster Enterprise for publication, saying "because the good people in Muenster will pray for me."

The Enterprise is honored to comply and joins the hundreds who mourn her passing.

Sister Bernadine Bangle was buried Friday, Dec. 5, from Marillac Provincial House, 7800 Natural Bridge Road, St. Louis, Mo. 63121.

Water Board considers conservation rule changes

The Texas Water Development Board has directed its staff to publish for public comment a proposed rule change that would require Board approval of an applicant's water conservation plan before the release of Board funds to build a water-related project, but not as part of the Board's initial commitment to provide financial assistance to build the project.

The state water plan legislation approved last year by Texas voters requires a local government applying for financial assistance from the Board to develop and implement a water conservation program.

Under provisions of the proposed rule change, an applicant would have the option of submitting its water conservation plan to the Board for approval when the application is first considered, or a subsequent meeting of the Board after the Board has made the initial commitment but before funds are actually released.

The Board also directed that the rule amendment should allow the Board the opportunity to change the amount of its initial financial commitment to a project if the conservation plan shows that a smaller commitment is adequate.

The Board also directed its staff to include in the rules a requirement that a member of the Board's water conservation staff meet with a potential applicant in the pre-application process.

The changes in the water conservation requirements were suggested by the Board's staff in an attempt to help streamline the application process. The staff attempts to provide loan commitments to local governments as soon as possible to avoid delaying the construction of needed water supply and wastewater treatment projects.

Littlest Angel nears

The Littlest Angel program is nearing countdown and applications were accepted from latecomers during the past week. Angels will be removed from trees on Dec. 18.

Packages should be taken to the Campfire office or Boys' Club no later than Dec. 18. Delivery of gifts will begin on Dec. 19 and continue through Dec. 24. More than 300 applications have been screened and accepted. However, sadly enough, there remain 200 families and 60 elderly persons who will not receive food baskets because sufficient donations have not been received.

Some examples of unusual donations that have been received are the following: The Joe Walter Workshop Jaycees raised $950. A local band, Kazmir, and the Gainesville Road Riders Club sponsored a dance in Muenster and raised $528. Gainesville State School gave $100. Gainesville Middle School raised $650 towards their goal of $900. K mart is opening its doors at 8 a.m. Saturday for Gainesville Middle Schoolers who have "adopted" 30 angels.

There are two members of the Littlest Angel Board of Directors living in Muenster. They are June Bartush 759-2800 and Debbie Hess 759-2890. Also Mary Ellis of Rosston, 665-8805. Phone any for more information.

Workshop planned for CCC

GAINESVILLE - "Cooke County College and you - what a team!" That's the theme of a special workshop being planned here for prospective students who want to learn more about earning college credit at CCC.

Date of the workshop is Dec. 15 (Monday), and it's open to all interested persons, reports Dorrice Leander, member of the CCC Counseling Center staff and coordinator for the event.

The workshop is scheduled from 7 to 8:30 p.m. in the Little Theater located at the west end of the CCC Student Center on campus.

"Uncertainty, anxiety, lack of information - they're all quite common among so many of those who are considering the possibility of enrolling in college," Leander observes.

"Giving reassurance and encouragement and, most important, straight answers is what this workshop is all about," stressed Leander.

She says similar pre-registration workshops conducted at various off-campus extension sites recently have been tremendously successful - not only among recent high school graduates newly beginning college but also among older students wanting to continue their education, perhaps after many years.

Also at the workshop will be representatives of CCC's popular programs in nursing and paramedicine. Because the admission process for these programs is somewhat more involved than for others offered at CCC, interested persons are urged to inquire about admissions as soon as possible.

"We'll have college catalogs, spring class schedules and all the other materials and information anyone will need for enrolling in classes in January," says Leander. "Now is the perfect time to start planning to attend classes, and this workshop can really help get a student off on the right foot."

Registration for spring semester 1987 classes at CCC is set for Thursday and Friday, Jan. 15-16. Classes begin Monday, Jan. 19.

St. Richard's Villa News

Thanksgiving was a busy week at St. Richard's Villa. Marie Walterscheid, Carl Smith, Rosie Walterscheid, Theresa Vogel, Loyce Kermickel, Bobby Olney, Francis Reiter went out for dinner with friends and relatives.

St. Richard's served the traditional turkey, dressing and all the trimmings; the day was filled with visitors and everyone enjoyed the holiday.

John Kupper's family visited on the following Sunday; Judy Hartman was by to see her grandmother, Mrs. Edna Hogan; Mr. and Mrs. J.M. Howell from Houston stopped by to see Francis Reiter.

December was just as busy. The birthday party was held on Thursday, Dec. 4. Lorraine Hughes, John Kupper, Bertha Bewley celebrated their birthdays; music was furnished by Joe Hoening, Sonny Walterscheid and Norma Clifton, complementary corsages were furnished by Lora's Flowers & Gifts; everyone stayed up late and enjoyed the festivities.

Decorating for Christmas started on the 5th and residents and staff got into the Christmas spirit with a seated dinner hosted by Jerry and Betty Rose Walterscheid. Mrs. John Kupper helped furnish transportation and helped served the dinner. It was a real treat and everyone enjoyed the outing.

Those able to attend were Jewel Jones, Buck Ware, Barney Barnett, Rosie Walterscheid, Frances Reiter, Nig Wilson, Paul Thornberry, Beulah Clement, Mary Jane Arcola, Carl Smith, Loyce Kermickel, Theresa Moster, Louise Knussman, Marie Walterscheid. It was a wonderful day and everyone enjoyed being in the countryside. Again, "Thank you."

St. Richard's residents are busy getting ready for their annual Open House Dec. 20, from 2 to 8 p.m. and looking forward to Santa in the evening. At this special time of the year, they look forward to seeing all their friends and relatives, and volunteers who help them all year long.

Combining western hospitality with the convenience and service of a luxury hotel, Del Webb's High Sierra Casino/Hotel has the ingredients to make this your best ski vacation ever.

Del Webb's is located on the south shore of Lake Tahoe, just minutes from the Heavenly Valley ski slopes and Squaw Valley, the site of the 1960 Winter Olympics. It's the perfect place to put up your boots, tip back your hat, relax, and make yourself at home when you're not skiing. Each room is tastefully-appointed, with cable TV, room service and a majestic view of Lake Tahoe or the Sierra Nevada Mountains. The hotel also has hot tubs, a video arcade, a tour desk, several specialty shops and free valet parking.

Fortunes have been won in Del Webb's casino. The gambling goes round-the-clock, so when you come off the slopes, try your luck at blackjack, roulette, craps, keno, baccarat and the slot machines.

When you've worked up an appetite, Del Webb's has five restaurants to satisfy it. Later, grab your partner and a drink and get ready for a little Cotton-Eyed Joe and some live country and western music in the hotel lounges.

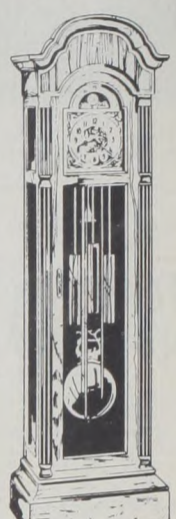

Another favorite resort you may select is one of the finest on the south shore of Lake Tahoe. Just a short drive from the slopes at Heavenly Valley and the 1960 Winter Olympics site at Squaw Valley, Harvey's Resort Hotel/Casino can be considered your skiing basecamp. Each luxurious room is equipped with color TV, computer door locking, special bathroom amenities, room service and a view of the Sierra Nevada Mountains or beautiful Lake Tahoe. Also at the hotel, you'll find barber and beauty shops, a gift shop, an ice cream parlor, a video arcade with an electronic shooting gallery, and free valet parking.

Come try and win a fortune in the hotel casino. Harvey's casino is open 24 hours a day and is one of the most complete and exciting in South Lake Tahoe. Try your hand at blackjack, craps, keno, roulette, baccarat or the slot machines.

After the slopes, come back to dinner at any of Harvey's seven restaurants. They feature a steakhouse, plus continental, island and Mexican cuisines. There's even a buffet. And if you find yourself getting hungry at odd hours, there's a restaurant open 24 hours a day. After dinner, head to the hotel lounges and order up a round of drinks with friends and discuss the day's skiing, or just sit back and enjoy the live entertainment.

Storytelling in the park despite chill in the air

Thursday night, Dec. 4, Patsy Wilson, librarian at Cooke County College, spent about an hour in Kiwanis Park telling Christmas stories to 25 enthralled children and a few adults. The stories heard were the traditional "T" was the Night Before Christmas," "The Gift of The Magi" and a lesser known work, "The Night Before Christmas, in Texas That Is." She also shared a story about her father meeting Santa and what happened to him.

After the storytelling, Mrs. Wilson wished each child a very merry Christmas. The children were then given hot dogs and apple cider to fill their tummies. Even though the air was chilled, the hot dogs and hot apple cider warmed them and they all had a delightful time.

Allison Endres was honoree of her fifth birthday party on Thursday, Dec. 4, in the home of Cliff and Kathy Sicking. Her cousins Ryan, Cody and Brent and her sister Da Lana helped with the celebration. Cookies and punch were served and gifts displayed.

Allison also observed her birthday on Thanksgiving Day with her cousin Jason Lutkenhaus, who was five years old on Dec. 2. Hosts were Don and Dorothy Endres, grandparents, who served a traditional Thanksgiving dinner, with birthday cake baked and decorated by the two honorees.

Other guests were Jim, Shirley and Da Lana Endres; Bobby and Linda Lutkenhaus and children Brandi and Crystal; and great-grandmother Catherine Walterscheid. Special birthday greetings were sent from the Danny Schmitt family in Prosser, Washington.

Sister Roberta Hesse arrives for vacation

Sister Roberta Hesse, a native of Muenster, member of the Order of St. Mary of Namur, and a missionary nun, arrived Sunday, Dec. 7, at DFW from Rwanda, Africa to spend three months on vacation after an absence of three years.

All of her brothers and sisters met her at the airport Sunday afternoon. They included Evelyn and Ramie Hesse and Caroline and Harold Neu, all of Denison; Jane and Jim Myrick and Jill, Julie and Jeff of Lindsay; Agnes and Bernard Hesse and David; Ethel Hesse, all of Muenster; Miss Chris Hesse and a friend of Dallas; and four nuns from O.L.V. Convent in Fort Worth, including her cousin, Sister Francesca Walterscheid.

After a joyous welcoming celebration at the airport, Sister Roberta left to spend several days at the convent for rest and reporting to her superiors. She will come to Muenster, Lindsay and Denison to spend most of her vacation with family members. She is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hesse. Enroute from Africa, Sr. Roberta spent two days at the convent's motherhouse in Namur, Belgium.

Correction

In the city council story last week, the new member on the library board should have named Mary Endres, not Marie Endres. The Enterprise regrets the error.

With a smile on our face and a song in our heart It's obvious that poetry is not our great art. But our intentions are true and our plan is just this To extend to you a "Happy Birthday Wish." You brought to our town many years back Many qualities that most of us lack. Your warmth, your love, your true concern Compassion & honesty - from which we all can learn. You spend days in the summer enjoying the beach

With a "stogie" in one hand and the other outreached For the fishing pole that never does sink - Your luck just has to be better next year - we think?! With the stories you tell and the laughter you spread We come to expect the question we dread - You ask who is 'Chief' - the 'Boss for the day' And we all point our fingers the opposite way. But now we must close with a more serious note We just want you to know, and this is no joke. We love you, we respect you, we think you're just great And we hope you're still here when you're one hundred & eight!

First Texas provides help for the hungry at Christmas

All First Texas Savings Association branches throughout the state will act as food collection points to help feed the hungry this holiday season. Working through local food banks and pantries, First Texas will help distribute the collected food to needy families in each community where branches are located.

"We have a commitment to those communities where we do business," said Geoffrey B. Johnston, Sr. Vice President of Marketing. "This food drive is a way for us to show our support of and appreciation to those communities that support us throughout the year. Therefore, one of the criteria of the drive was that food collected in a particular community would be distributed to the needy in that same area."

Collection bins will be placed in all First Texas Savings branches from Dec. 1 through Dec. 20. People who would like to contribute are asked to bring non-perishable food items to the branches during normal business hours. The most needed food items are canned meats and fish, canned fruit and vegetables, non-fat dry milk, cereals, beans, rice, baby food and formula, canned juices, soups, macaroni, peanut butter, flour or pancake mix, etc.

THE 4-H CLUB members had their hands full, just cleaning up litter apparently spread by the wind, although the Joe Walter Workshop crew cleaned the area thoroughly only the day before.

Muenster 4-H Club picks up litter on 82

Recently, the Muenster 4-H Club donated some time to community service by picking up litter along East Highway 82. The 4-H Club has adopted the first 2 miles immediately east of the city limits under the State's "Adopt-A-Highway" program. The club's goal is to spread the word that littering is a nasty habit which costs taxpayers over $25,000,000 each year.

Although the Joe Walter Workshop litter crews had already picked up all but the southern most right-of-way the day before, the 4-

H Club had their hands full. In less than 2 miles along the narrow southern side of the road, they collected a full pickup load of litter. They had previously cleaned the same section last June, and this accumulation appears to have been caused by light objects being blown from pickup trucks. In fact, shortly after this picture was taken, an ice bag blew from a local youth's pickup truck as he sped east after icing down his cooler. Oblivious to what he had done, he waved to the volunteers.

Unsafe toys are holiday hazards

Toys are part of the excitement of Christmas for children around the world, and nowhere but in the U.S. is there such variety. This time of year, stores display thousands of toys aimed at every age group.

But the Texas Department of Health's (TDH) Product Safety Branch, in conjunction with the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC), works hard to see that children will not get some toys - certain toys found to be dangerous or even life-threatening.

Throughout the year, CPSC and TDH must inspect and test thousands of kinds of toys made in this country as well as overseas. And each year, they find some toys that contain hazardous materials such as lead paint.

Other toys are poorly designed, with small parts that can be detached or broken from the larger toy and swallowed by young children. Brittle plastic and sharp metal in other toys, and inappropriate labeling for the intended age group, add to the possibility that a child may be hurt or killed.

In 1985, some 608,000 children were injured by hazardous or defective toys in the U.S. And 22 of them died.

So far in 1986, 55 different toys have been found to be unsafe, and their manufacturers were ordered to recall them. Among them are: an assortment of baby rattles and pacifiers which could cause choking; some stuffed animals with easily swallowed eyes, noses and ornaments; crib toys likely to cause strangulation; and a number of imported toys which contained lead paint.

Most recently publicized is the recall of 1.5 million Voltron Lions, toys imported from Taiwan. The metal toy robot, which transforms into other toys, contains lead paint, which is poisonous. It was offered in two sizes, 11 inches and six inches tall. The same toy, made of plastic and manufactured in Japan, is considered safe, but consumers are cautioned to double-check the packaging when buying the product.

Dan Sowards, chief of the TDH Product Safety Branch, said, "The majority (about 68 percent) of toys recalled as safety hazards each year are imported. American manufacturers are more conscious of safety regulations than some toy makers overseas. Some foreign manufacturers are known for making toys that have had to be recalled, and the U.S. Customs Service has begun alerting CPSC to the arrival of those products."

"There is only so much the regulatory agencies can do to ensure that toys are safe for the kids who get them," Sowards said. "The bulk of the responsibility will always lie with the adults who buy the toys."

Sowards explained that adults should check any toy for defective material, detachable parts, and age appropriateness. "Plain common sense on the part of a parent, such as not giving a two-year-old a toy meant for older kids, often can prevent tragedy," he said.

Sowards urged parents who find toys to be defective, dangerous or mislabeled to notify him at (512) 458-7519, or call the Consumer Product Safety Commission toll-free at 1-800-638-CPSC.

Two million servicemen are too many to forget

"I WISH TO EXPRESS MY GRATITUDE for the Christmas greetings this command received through ... Mail Call. We have distributed the Christmas greetings to soldiers assigned in the ... area as well as to patients and staff at the ... Hospital ... You have added a special touch to this Christmas that these soldiers will never forget ... Thank you for your good work," wrote a lieutenant general in the U.S. Army in response to a bundle of mail sent through the 1985 Christmas Mail Call.

Commented one of the USOs which receives mail each Christmas, "You are to be congratulated as well as deeply appreciated for your consistency. We were able to advertise the joy of cards and holiday wishes well in advance with the assurance you would once again, as in so many years past, shower us with seasons greetings."

These sentiments are extended in a special THANK YOU to those who have been so faithful over the years with Christmas mail. Concerned, thoughtful Americans have for a number of years shown that two million servicemen and women are too many to forget - especially at Christmas (as well as at other times during the year) through Military Mail Call. Mail received from across the nation this past Christmas was sorted into more than 650 bundles and sent to destinations all across the U.S. and around the world for distribution to members of our Armed Forces.

Nationally, American Legion Auxiliary #49 of ORANGE, TEXAS and Maudie Hensley, one of their members, were number one group and individual. The top four groups in the country were from Texas.

Other TEXAS leaders included the Youth Ministry of First Baptist Church, QUEEN CITY (#4 church nationwide); Military Council of Catholic Women, LAUGHLIN AFB Chapter (#5 military facility in the country); Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority, University of Texas-AUSTIN; John Powers' Students, Harrell Center for Vocational Training, WICHITA FALLS (#6 high school nationally); Pam Paddock's students, Lincoln Middle School, ABILENE (#7 junior high); and Jeanne Vander Roest's students, Tierra del Sol School, EL PASO (#9 elementary).

Our sincere thanks go to those mentioned as well as to all the other wonderful folks who had a part in making the 1985 Christmas Mail Call by far the most successful ever.

Mail Call is an exciting project for groups, organizations, churches, families, individuals, and schools from kindergarten through college ... in short, for just about everybody! For complete information on how you, your family, and your group can have a part in this unique, patriotic opportunity please send a self-addressed, stamped envelope (business-size if possible) to: MILITARY MAIL CALL, Box 14397, Norfolk VA 23518. Thank you!

For 2nd year, Kmart brings cheer to needy children

On Saturday, Dec. 13, 2,100 K mart stores nationwide will open their doors early to bring Christmas cheer to more than 42,000 underprivileged children. This is the second Christmas shopping spree sponsored by K mart's Good News Committee, groups of employee volunteers.

At 8 a.m., needy children will take to the aisles of K mart stores across the country and spend over $840,000 on gifts for their families, friends and themselves.

Each child will be able to pick out $20 worth of merchandise of their choice. In addition, children will be treated to breakfast and a gift-wrapped present from Santa.

K mart employees, who volunteered their early morning time, will assist kids with gift selections and with staying within their budget.

Locally, each K mart store will sponsor 20 needy children. Additional children may be sponsored by community organizations.

According to K mart's Chairman Bernard M. Fauber, holding the shopping spree for a second year is important for the children in each community where there is a K mart store.

"Last year about 42,000 boys and girls were able to share in the spirit of Christmas. Most of them unselfishly purchased gifts for their moms, dads, grandparents, brothers and sisters," Fauber said. "We're not just giving these children gifts, we're teaching them about caring and sharing," he added.

K mart Good News Committees are organized by employees in each store. The committees are actively involved in year-round outreach programs in the communities surrounding their K mart stores.

K mart Corporation is the second-largest retailer in the world, with 1985 sales of $22.4 billion.

In 1987 K mart will celebrate 25 years of service to millions of customers who have made it "America's Favorite Store."

HOW HONEY HURT HER HIP

Have you heard how "Honey" hurt her hip? Whether or not you have, don't bother to read this unless your sense of humor is as good as hers. Since no severe damage was done, Honey sees nothing but the funny side of the whole incident; however, it could have been far from funny.

In case you don't know who Honey is, permit us to advise that she is none other than the heart-throb of the cheese plant, the lovely lassie who smiles for the limburger lads and deals out diners to the dairymen.

Well,—to make a short story long—Honey was returning to the scene of her slavery shortly after her lunch hour. Her car was cranky and cold, and Honey was in a hurry, so she pulled out the throttle and choke and let 'er roar in second.

Opposite the High School something happened, she's not sure what it was but in the windup she found herself skidding down the slippery street and farther down was the car, still roaring in second.

Well, here was Honey in a heap, holding her hip and howling for help; no, not help for herself, but for the car crazily cruising 'cross cobbles and concrete corner and curb, fouling fences and leaving in its wake a row of debris.

Then anon, like the gallant young Lochinvar out of the West came Clarence and Richard out of the East, dashing after the mad machine. In hot pursuit they charged while the machine, still roaring in second, seemed doomed to die on a pile of pipe. But thanks to the speed of this galant pair the crash was averted just by a hair.

Casualties: To the car, not a blemish; to Honey, a few skinned places and lots of bruises on her ankle, knee, and hip. She calls the marks strawberries and plums; such is the slang of our modern maidens.

And now some killjoy comes around to spoil our fun, to remind us that Honey's name is not Honey, it's Sugar.

News Briefs

John Fisher, an employee on the Knabe lease—not the Meat Market John—is the father of a new son.

Perhaps some of the Muenster people who have been admiring the 1937 winch type Ford truck that Fluscho have been driving lately would be interested to know that the winch and all its attachments were installed in the Fluscho Garage. If anyone cannot appreciate the quality of work done in local machine shops, he would do well to look over that job.

Rudy is about ready to quit his beefing about the surplus of dogs in his neighborhood. Just at the time he was complaining most noisily his little screw tail pooch presented him with twin pups.

Eddie Streng, who underwent an operation for appendicitis about a month ago has recovered sufficiently to take part in a 'possum hunt.

The Enterprise is now ready for any news scoop and invites those who have hot tips to pick up a phone and give us a ring. Yes, Mr. Horn has just finished installing our phone. Another improvement is an additional magazine for our Linotype. From now on we can produce a better variety of type on the machine. We hope our readers will enjoy the improvement as much as we do.

Fox Hunting Not So Good At Marysville, Says Rudy

We have fox hunters in our midst. Of course they don't have the pretty little red jackets or the fox horns or the fancy horses and saddles, and neither does this section have any foxes; but what difference does that make when they have the yelping hounds and the urge to hunt foxes?

Last Tuesday the ambitious group, consisting of Albert Dangelmayer, Herman Dangelmayer, Rudy Hellman, Herman Swirezinski, and John Schmallekofer of Lindsay, went out to the Dangelmayer ranch near Marysville and turned loose Sir Schmallekofer's gamling hounds on the imaginary trail of the imaginary "Reynard." In hot pursuit they tramped until the wee hours of the morn but saw no trace of the wily fox were discovered.

However, the hunt was not entirely in vain—as was noticed as soon as they returned within smelling distance of civilization. They bagged one 'possum and two skunks—the skunk, it seems, saw them first.

Nevertheless, Rudy still insists that the ranch, which is draped over some of the worst hills and gulleys in the Red River area, is an ideal place for fox hunting—if only there were some foxes.

Pioneer Lady Suffers Hip Injury in Fall

Mrs. Klement, 84-year-old pioneer of Muenster, suffered a broken hip when she fell in her home last Sunday. Doctor Myrick, who is attending Mrs. Klement, advised that she will not be placed in a cast because it is unlikely that she would survive the discomfort and misery at her advanced age and also because bones seldom knit in a person of her age.

The doctor advises that at the present time she is resting as easily as could be expected under the circumstances but at the same time expresses his opinion that her injury is not likely to heal sufficiently to permit her leaving her bed again.

1987 Arbor Day kits available to teachers

To help Texas teachers and organizations conduct Arbor Day programs, the Texas Forest Service is again offering free program kits.

Each kit includes a loblolly pine seed packet with planting instructions, program aids for a local Arbor Day observance, suggested classroom activities for teachers, and a copy of the governor's proclamation.

Arbor Day is to be observed on Friday, Jan. 16, 1987 in Texas. It was first celebrated in Texas in 1889. Since 1949 it has been observed annually in Texas on the third Friday in January, although dates vary in other states. The purpose of the event is to promote a greater appreciation of the beauty and value of forests and trees in both rural and urban settings.

The official state observance for 1987 will be held in Euless. The public is invited to attend the state celebration, and hundreds of other public events will honor Arbor Day in other Texas locales.

Program chairpersons and teachers should address requests for Arbor Day kits (limited one per class) to: Texas Forest Service, College Station, TX 77843-2136. Distribution, on a first-come, first-serve basis, begins in mid-November.

Sacred Heart teams claim district openers

The Sacred Heart Tigers and Tigerettes opened their 1986-1987 district season in high fashion at the Tiger Den Tuesday evening. The Tigerettes opened the night with an impressive 72-36 dumping of the Lady Owls of Oakridge and the Tigers made it a sweep with a 45-32 victory.

The Tigerettes opened the game with a 28-point first period, paced by Vicki Walterscheid with 10. The Tigerettes continued to soar in the second frame as they posted a 47-13 half-time lead. "We played some defense tonight," said Coach LeBrasseur. The Tigerettes held the Owls to just 3 field goals in the first half. The second half saw the Tigerettes outscore their opponents 25-23 for the final of 72-36.

The win upped the Tigerettes record to 10-0 and their 22nd straight win and more importantly a 1-0 start in district. Scorers for the Tigerettes were Vicki Walterscheid 18, Danna Hamric 11 and 7 assists, Juline Bartel 8 points and 12 rebounds, Lisa Hamric 8, Noelle Hesse 7, LaBecca Hess 5, Vicki Schmitt 4, Michelle Walter 4, Molly Koelzer 4, Julie Rohmer 2 and Amy Walterscheid 1.

Seniors Craig Voth and Casey Houtchens got the Tigers off and running as Voth scored 7 and Houtchens 6 to give the Tigers a 17-13 half-time lead over the visiting Owls. After making a defensive change at half-time, the Tigers raised the margin to 29-16 as balanced defense and scoring sealed the victory.

"It's great to win that first district game," said Coach LeBrasseur. "We will be without Todd (Thorson) until after Christmas with that broken ankle so the rest of the boys made up their minds to pick up the load." "I am just real pleased." The victory brings the Tigers back to .500 and puts them atop the district with a 1-0 mark. Scorers for the Tigers were Craig Voth 17 and 14 rebounds, Casey Houtchens 9, Wayne Becker

7 and 5 steals, Darrell Dangelmayr 6 and Steve Knabe 5.

Next action for the Tigers and Tigerettes will be in the Forestburg Tournament with the Tigerettes and Tigers scheduled to play the winner of the Forestburg-Lindsay game Friday evening at 7 p.m. in Forestburg. The Sacred Heart teams resume district play next week at Denton Liberty Tuesday at 6 p.m. and at the home of last year's girls and boys T.A.P.S. State Champions Tyler Street Christian in Dallas on Friday.

Tigerettes capture tournament

The Sacred Heart Tigerettes took the sting out of the Muenster Hornets and pinned the Collinsville Lady Pirates enroute to the Championship prize at the Lindsay Tournament. The Tigerettes, now 9-0, open district action Tuesday against the Oakridge Lady Owls. (See district openers).

The Muenster Hornets were determined to pin the Tigerettes with their first loss of the season as they jumped out to a 16-0 first period lead and a 26-24 halftime advantage. Lisa Hamric and Vicki Walterscheid led the Tigerettes with 8 and 7 respectively. "We just haven't been playing very good defense," said Coach Jon. "Noelle came in the second half and picked up things for us." The second half saw the Hornets go cold as the Tigerettes picked up the defensive pressure led by Hesse. Lisa Hamric led the Tigerettes in scoring the second half with 11.

Scoring for the Tigerettes were

Lisa Hamric 19, Danna Hamric 12 points and 10 assists, Vicki Walterscheid 11 points, 18 rebounds and 10 blocked shots, Juline Bartel 10, and Noelle Hesse 2.

In the Championship contest, the Tigerettes met the undefeated Lady Pirates of Collinsville. The game opened up in a 10-10 first period tie and the Tigerettes picked up the defense in the second period to take a 28-17 lead into the locker room. Vicki Walterscheid paced the Tigerettes with 12 in the half.

The second half saw the Tigerettes raise their lead to 22 before the Pirates narrowed the score to the final margin of 61-47. Scoring for the Tigerettes were Vicki Walterscheid 18, Juline Bartel 12 and 15 rebounds, Lisa Hamric 10, Vicki Schmitt 5, Molly Koelzer, Danna Hamric and Michelle Walter 4 each, and Noelle Hesse and Julie Rohmer 2 apiece.

Sacred Heart juniors struggle

In the second game the girls played the host Gold-Burg team and lost 21-11. Scorers were Robin Greathouse 5, Kristen Klement 3, Sharon Fuhrmann 2 and Jennifer Walter 1.

The junior high boys opened the tournament against Saint Jo and lost by a 37-17 count. Scorers for the juniors were Nasche 5, Gary Hess 4, Arnie Hess 2, McCoy 3 and Gehrig 2. In the second game the boys tangled with the Indians of Terral. The junior boys took it on the chin 28-15. Scorers were Stevan Nasche 5, Gary Hess 2, Arnie Hess 2, Josh McCoy 2, Ryan Gehrig 2 and Mark Flusche 2.

The junior teams returned home Monday to host the Eagles of Montague and dropped two narrow games. In the girls' game, the Eagles held on to win a 39-31 contest. Scorers for the girls were Walter 13, Fuhrmann and Dowd 5 each, Klement 4, Greathouse 2 and Lisa Schilling 1. In the boys' game, the Cubs lost an overtime thriller 23-21. Scoring for the Cubs were Nasche 9, Endres 5, A. Hess 5, and Gehrig 2. Next action for the juniors will be this weekend in the Prairie Valley Tournament and then a conference game Dec. 15 at Prairie Valley.

In the nightcap of Monday's action, the Sacred Heart Junior Varsity ended their one-game losing streak with a 31-22 victory over the Hornets of Muenster. The future Tigerettes claimed an 11-10 half-time lead and took charge in the third period as they outscored their visitors 13-3 for a 24-14 third period edge. Amy Walterscheid led the girls with 10, LaBecca Hess 9, Debbie Schmitt 5, Jennifer Fuhrmann 3, Angela Endres 2, and Tina Schilling 2.

UT coach tells kids to not smoke

Jody Conratt, coach of the national champion University of Texas Lady Longhorn Basketball team, wants to warn young people against the dangers of cigarette smoking.

"As the coach of a nationally competitive college sports team, I know the kind of shape a student athlete must be in to compete at their best," she said. "I can't stress to young people enough that you can't be in top physical shape when you smoke or do any kind of drugs."

At a press conference Saturday at which she was presented as the 1986 Christmas Seals Campaign State chairman, Conratt said, "I feel it is a special privilege to be able to lead the Christmas Seals Campaign for the American Lung Association of Texas. I don't know of a more worthwhile effort to be involved with."

The fight against lung diseases is one of our society's most important battles and I want to be able to do all I can to support the fight," she said.

As chairman, Conratt will act as spokesperson for the annual fundraising campaign. She will appear at local Lung Association functions and on radio and TV talk shows.

Ninety percent of the funds raised through Christmas Seals will remain within the community and help support efforts toward creating a smoke-free society and local projects such as the Family Asthma Programs, Better Breathing Clubs and smoking cessation programs.

Regarding the basketball season ahead for the Lady Longhorns Basketball team, Conratt said, "no one is really sure what to expect from this team. There is no doubt we have as much talent as we have ever had, but we have so many newcomers that you're not sure what to expect."

"The response I have received around Austin, the state and the country after last season has been incredible, but it appears that everyone is expecting those same kinds of results this year. We certainly strive for those results, but we have a lot of games to play and a lot of learning to do before we can expect those results," she said.

Tigers claim consolation prize 42-38

The Sacred Heart Tigers took a narrow 42-38 win from the Lindsay Knights to claim the consolation trophy at the Lindsay Tournament. In the opening game, the Tigers were downed by the Hornets of Muenster 59-26. The Tigers jumped out to a 5-2 lead only to see the Hornets outscore the Tigers 25-6 to take a 27-11 half-time lead. The Tigers made a fourth period charge at the Hornets by closing the gap to 39-26 but the Hornets answered with the final 20 points of the game. Scoring for the Tigers were Todd Thorson 9 points and 15 rebounds, Darrell Dangelmayr 6, Craig Voth and Wayne Becker 4 each, Steve Knabe 2, and Casey Houtchens 1.

THE HORNET BOOSTER CLUB purchased this "Supercat" last week for the Muenster basketball program. Kevin Anderle is pictured here as he works to improve his vertical jump and speed. "We're grateful to have such a responsive parent group," said Coach Heers. "We've already had one dunk and three more who are very close." Photo by Dave Fette

Klement, Hess make all tourney as Hornets win championship

The Muenster Hornets, led by all-tournament selections Ryan Klement and Brian Hess, won first place in the Lindsay Tournament this past weekend. They downed cross-street rival Sacred Heart in the opening game Friday evening 59-26, and turned back the Collinsville Pirates on Saturday 53-30.

Klement had 5 assists and 14 points (7 of 12) against the Tigers. Hess hauled down 10 rebounds and scored 15 points (6 of 8). Joe Pagel added 6 points and 8 rebounds. Junior guard Kevin Anderle hit 7 of 13 shots and totaled 15 points. For the game, the Hornets' fastbreak offense connected on 26 of 54 shots and pulled away from Sacred Heart after a 7-5 first quarter score by shooting 9 of 15 in the second quarter.

"Our transition from defense to offense gets better every game," said Hornet Coach Heers, "and so does our shot selection. We are still getting too many turnovers, which we expect with the break. But we get the turnover numbers down, look out, because we will be tough to handle."

Collinsville might say they're tough enough right now as Muenster rolled over them 53-30 for the tournament championship. Klement paced the Hornet attack with 13 points and 5 assists. Stuart Hess, Brian Hess and Kevin Anderle each hit 8 points. Muenster also got a season-high 20 steals. "We're proud of Ryan and Brian. They played well, and we all thought Kevin deserved all-tournament, too," Heers added. "The selection committee only picked two from the champions. The way Kevin is shooting the ball, he'll win plenty of awards before he graduates." After 6 games, Anderle presently leads the Hornets with 28 of 52 from the field for a shooting percentage of 54%.

The Muenster starters retired to the bench in the final frame and J. Shane Wimmer, Chris Klement, James Hennigan and Dale Reiter came on to hit 4, 4, 2 and 4 points respectively. Damie Hellman also hit 2.

"Everybody is contributing and improving," said an excited Heers, "and yesterday Stuart dunked for the first time. He got excited and kept dunking over and over and said, 'This is fun, Coach.' Maybe he'll show up early for school tomorrow and dunk a few before class."

Staci Walterscheid named all tourney

The Muenster Hornettes traveled to Lindsay this past weekend and lost games to Sacred Heart 54-37 and Lindsay 39-31. Junior Staci Walterscheid was the bright spot for the 3-3 Hornettes as she was named to the all-tournament team. Walterscheid scored 9 and 13 points, had 6 rebounds each game, and committed only 3 turnovers during the tournament despite handling the ball 70% of the time.

"Staci has been consistent all season long," said Coach Heers, "and everyone is real proud of her. She deserved the award. She's averaged 16 points a game so far and her ballhandling gets better every day."

Friday afternoon, the Hornettes met cross-street foe Sacred Heart, and the Tigerettes displayed a tough man-to-man defense to take a 54-37 win. Meredith McDaniel hit for 10 points, Walterscheid 9, Dana Wimmer and Melody Klement each chipped in 8.

Heers had praise for both teams. "The Tigerettes were impressive," he said, "they've got more weapons than the Red Army. We were geared to stop Lisa and Vicki and they still got their points. Vicki is a defense by herself. Her shot blocking and intimidation certainly make them the top team in this area."

The Hornettes played hard against the highly favored Tigerettes (10-10) and Coach Heers took pride in their effort. "We have very little experience on the floor this year and there are times it is very evident, but you can't beat our girls for desire. They give their best."

Muenster took a 26-24 halftime lead over Sacred Heart behind 8 points each from Klement and Walterscheid. The Tigerettes came out in the second half and outscored the Hornettes 30 to 11, holding Muenster to no field goals in the fourth quarter. Klement paced Muenster in rebounds with 11 for the night.

In Saturday's consolation game Muenster could manage only 11 of 45 shots from the field, and were upset by the Lindsay girls 39-31 for third place. It was an unexpected loss for the Hornettes. "The girls took them lightly, the bus driver took them lightly, even our fans probably took them lightly," commented a surprised Coach Heers, "we expected to win, shot poorly and didn't win." Muenster made only 9 of 23 free throws. "We seemed emotionally subdued after Friday's game, but at least now we will be ready for Lindsay in district play."

Walterscheid scored 13 points, Wimmer had 6, McDaniel scored 4, and Jennifer Carroll hit 5 points. The Knightettes hit 17 of 21 free throws to spell the difference.

Hornets and Hornettes win three each

Spliced on both sides of the Lindsay Tournament were 6 wins for Muenster High School basketball teams. Prior to the tournament, the boys beat Gold-Burg 65-43, Valley View 62-42 and the girls beat Gold-Burg 46-34 and Valley View 46-40. Tuesday they traveled to the Bear Cave at Gold-Burg and won both games. The boys cruised to a 70-44 victory and the girls recovered from two consecutive losses to win 51-25.

The first Gold-Burg meeting saw four Hornets hit for double figures as Stuart Hess paced the attack on a 9 of 14 shooting performance for 18 points. Ryan Klement added 12, Brian Hess 13, and Kevin Anderle scored 12 points. Hess also hauled down 14 rebounds.

Valley View brought a cold-shooting Eagle team to town, fresh off the football field, on Dec. 2 and the Hornets raced to a 20-point win despite a season-high 44 turnovers.

Stuart Hess hauled down a team-high 18 caroms and put in 6 points. Joe Pagel, recovered from a cracked tibia suffered in the gridiron finale at Collinsville, got 11 rebounds and 8 points. Kevin Anderle led the Hornet scoring with 15 points, followed by Ryan Klement with 12, and Brian Hess with 11.

Tuesday at Gold-Burg the Muenster hoopsters were again led by Anderle with 16 points, followed by Klement with 10, Mike Pagel with 9, Stuart Hess with 7, and Joe Pagel with 6. J. S. Wimmer also scored 5 and Damie Hellman added 8 points. J. Pagel and S. Hess each had 10 rebounds. The win was the fifth in a row for the Hornets and put their record at 5-2.

"We play a tough Chico squad at Forestburg tonight (5:30 p.m.)," said Hornet Coach Ted Heers, "and it will be a challenge. They are disciplined and play very good defense. We have our work cut out for us."

The Hornettes meet a strong Chico girls' team at 4 p.m. at Forestburg this afternoon.

Muenster JV teams split games

Muenster Hornet JV basketball teams won one and lost one this past week. The boys' team defeated the Valley View Eagles 44-34 at Muenster gym, and the girls met the Sacred Heart Tigers at Tiger Den and lost 31-22.

The boys built a 38-18 lead and held off an Eagle rally for the 10-point win. Mike Pagel scored 9 points, Chris Klement 11, J. Shane Wimmer 4, Weldon Hermes 5, Alan Hudspeth 1, Erin Perkins 2, James Hennigan 4 and Dale Reiter scored 8.

The Hornettes made the short trip to Muenster Sacred Heart and saw a cold-shooting performance parlayed into a 31-22 defeat. Gaylia Brunson scored 6, Tara Walterscheid 4, Jenny Wimmer 3, Denise Anderle 2, Teddi Oakley 2, Kim Hess 2, Michelle Prigmore 2 and Stephanie Bynum scored 1 point.

FARM AND RANCH NEWS

Bureau makes key policy moves

McALLEN - "We are part of the world market whether we like it or not," Texas Farm Bureau President S.M. True told delegates to the organization's 53rd annual meeting Monday night, Dec. 1.

"Since World War II, agricultural productivity has grown twice as fast as our domestic markets," True said. "So far, we've been able to export most of our surplus. We must now export to survive."

The Plainview farmer said farmers and ranchers cannot expect all of the conditions to come together as they did in the 1970s to provide the rapid growth experienced then.

"We must adjust to a period of slower growth," he said.

The farm leader told TFB delegates that one of the big problems facing farmers is the large carryover of most crops in the federal farm program.

"The good news is that these stocks are coming down," he said.

True said agriculture is vitally affected by the landmark legislation passed by the 99th congress including Gramm-Rudman, tax reform, immigration reform and the 1985 Farm Bill.

"In the case of the Farm Bill," he said, "we already see evidence of it working. We need to give it time to work."

The farm leader told the delegates that other major industries in this country have had problems similar to those in agriculture.

"Their troubles were caused by the same factors that hurt agriculture," he said, "including inflation, federal deficit spending and increased competition from abroad."

The cotton and grain farmer said the greatest test farmers face on the state level is the threat to agriculture's sales tax exemptions in the upcoming Legislature.

"There is talk of revamping the entire tax system," he said. "One idea is to remove all exemptions except for food and medicine and then lower the rate substantially. Such a move could cause agriculture's exemptions to be lost in the shuffle."

Since the sales tax was enacted in Texas, the Legislature has acted in accordance with the State Constitution and exempted feed, seed, fertilizer, machinery and other inputs.

True said exemptions from the sales tax on raw inputs to the manufacturing process is a common rule in Texas to encourage a positive economic climate.

"Farmers and ranchers vitally need an effective farm organization to represent them in this uncertain future," True told the delegates. "It is in your hands to decide what kind of Farm Bureau we will have for the job at hand."

McALLEN - In what Texas Farm Bureau President S.M. True called a "landmark meeting," delegates to the 53rd Annual Convention of the organization held last week made several key policy moves.

One of those was the creation of a political action committee, which the delegates approved in an attempt to offset the loss of rural representation in the Texas Legislature in the last few years.

The other was the approval of a 10-year plan of action for Texas Farm Bureau, which calls for expanded programs in legislative activities, marketing, public education and information. To provide financing for the expanded programs and existing programs, the delegates increased annual dues to the state organization by $4 per member per year.

In other action, True was elected by acclamation to his fifth consecutive one-year term as president of the state's largest farm organization. True is a cotton, soybean, grain sorghum and wheat farmer from Plainview.

Following the convention, the board of directors re-elected John Baker of Temple as vice-president and Neal Burnett of Plainview as secretary-treasurer.

The 1,150 voting delegates to the convention addressed several issues relating to state and national policies. The newly adopted state policies will become part of the state organization's lobbying efforts in Austin. The national policy recommendations will be forwarded to the American Farm Bureau for consideration at its annual convention in January in Anaheim, California.

Under state policies, Farm Bureau delegates considered several resolutions concerning taxes and financing of state government. Included in those was a call for a statewide referendum on a lottery, parimutuel betting on a local option basis, returning state spending to 1984-85 levels and broadening the sales tax base.

The group also passed several resolutions which seek legislation preventing nuclear and toxic waste from being stored on or beneath productive agricultural land and in areas with large underground water reservoirs.

In the area of government farm programs, the delegates affirmed their support for the 1985 Farm Bill, with some changes. They prefer a marketing loan program for "major exporting commodities," and would like to see sodbuster and swampbuster provisions removed or drastically altered.

The delegates approved resolutions supporting the National Beef Promotion and Research Program and a national mandatory production control program for dairy.

Several awards were presented at the convention, including the Outstanding Young Farmer and Rancher Award, which went to dairy farmer Russell Boerning and his wife, Margie, of Floresville. Runners-up were Bryan and Cecilia Dishman of Beaumont and Steve and Joyce Patman of Waxahachie.

In other TFB convention contests, Carrie Hart, 18, of Gruver, was crowned Miss TFB. She is a freshman at Texas Tech University and will receive a $1,500 scholarship and a wardrobe from Texas Farm Bureau.

Brian Christian of Lampasas won the talent find competition. The sophomore music major at Abilene Christian College received a $1,500 scholarship for winning the contest.

Ronnie Temple of Colmesneil won the free enterprise speech contest. Temple, 16, received a $2,000 scholarship.

AMPI reports "win ratio" during election

The Committee for Thorough Agricultural Political Education of Associated Milk Producers, Inc. (C-TAPE), has reported a "win ratio" of 93 percent for the 283 U.S. Senate and House races which it participated in during the 1986 elections. This ranks among the highest success ratios achieved by any political action committee in the nation.

"This is a very positive and tangible step forward for dairy farm families," commented C-TAPE Chairman Keith Kerr, a dairy farmer from Postville, Iowa. "We look forward to working with the new 100th Congress on the critical challenges facing dairy farmers and rural Americans in general."

AMPI is the nation's leading dairy farmer cooperative with over 27,000 member farms in 20 states located throughout the Midwest, South and Southwest, producing more than 13 percent of the nation's milk supply. C-TAPE is funded by voluntary contributions from AMPI members and is bipartisan in its approach.

C-TAPE participated in the campaign efforts of a total of 283 U.S. Congressional candidates in 44 states: 262 of these candidates won and 21 lost for a win ratio of 93 percent. For the Senate, 20 out of 25 C-TAPE supported candidates won. For the House of Representatives, 242 out of 258 C-TAPE supported candidates were elected.

School program

Let's not forget the Elementary School Christmas Program at 7 p.m. Dec. 17 in the School Gym. Everyone is invited to attend.

Christmas lights

The Jack C. Dills and the Larry Dills have once again had the Christmas street lights put up in the 'Burg. This is their way of showing their appreciation and saying a big "Thank You" to their customers and friends. They do this every year in lieu of sending Christmas cards.

All spruced up

Don't you like the way Junior Landers has spruced up his place of business? It really is neat and has improved the looks of things. Forestburg could stand some more sprucing up like that.

Country Bazaar

The Forestburg Country Bazaar had many folks present with their arts and crafts and seemingly it was a fairly productive day for all. There certainly were many beautiful things there to purchase or drool over. Much, much work went into all the crafts there plus it took much planning, etc. to get it all together. If you missed it - well, you just shouldn't have.

Wedding bells

Mashelle Hudspeth was united in holy matrimony to Richard Seymour Saturday night, Dec. 6, at 7:30 p.m. in the First Christian Church in Fort Worth. A reception followed at the Caravan of Dreams in the Performing Arts Center in Fort Worth.

The young couple will reside in Huntsville where both are students at Sam Houston State University.

Attending the wedding from Forestburg were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hudspeth, Chad and Leah, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hudspeth, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Wilson and two children, and Rev. and Mrs. Barry Fikes.

Mashelle is the daughter of Dale and Linda Hudspeth and the granddaughter of Clifford and Merle Hudspeth.

Funeral

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a.m. Monday, Dec. 8, at the Owens and Brumley Funeral Home in Bowie for Bob Freeman. Burial was in the New Harp Cemetery. He was the son of the late Sim and Cona Freeman and a brother of Willard Freeman.

Moves to Forestburg

Jack Goodwrench has moved from Gainesville into the Larry Dill house in the 'Burg. Mr. Goodwrench is a teacher in the Forestburg school system. We all welcome him to the community.

Fire School

Texas Forest Rangers put on a Fire School at the Forestburg Community Center Wednesday and Thursday nights of last week.

Anyone missing a dog?

While chatting with Billie Anderson Monday morning, I learned she has a stray dog at her home. She says the dog is wearing a nice collar. So, if your dog is missing...

Jackson Christmas party

The children, grandchildren, etc. of the late Albert and Ada Jackson had their annual Christmas party in the Forestburg Community Center with Laura Belle and Ted Jackson as host and hostess. The event took place on Sunday, Dec. 7, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Flinn and daughters of Wichita Falls, Mrs. Teddy Conrad and children of Windthorst, Mrs. Randy Jackson and son, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Brogdon of Miami, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jackson of Decatur, Mrs. Vatori Selby of Denton, Mr. and Mrs. W.G. Jackson of Fort Worth, Mrs. Vera Jackson of Nocona, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Eason of Era, Mr. and Mrs. Jack C. Dill, Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Dill and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Dill and Brady, all of the 'Burg.

Veda and Barney Brogdon news

Mrs. Lina Bogges of Saint Jo came a-calling on Monday.

Charles Wilson and Imogene Links each dropped by for a visit at various times on Tuesday.

Mrs. Ova Mann and son Spike were Thursday callers.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Coy Lee Brogdon of Irving, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Brogdon of Miami and the Larry Scott family were all visitors.

Veda's report on Barney for this week is that he is just about the same.

Personal items

Kenneth and Peggy Holland made a drive up to Kingston, Okla. to the Oak Ridge Development area where they took a tour. This was on Monday, Dec. 1. Peggy says they first got in some shopping in Gainesville, then took the tour and had supper before returning home.

Mrs. Dorothy Hunt of New Harp returned home recently after spending several days in Sunset visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wallace and Vivian Barnett of Sunset.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Sandusky drove over to the 'Burg Sunday evening to visit with his mom, Faith Sandusky.

Mrs. Joe Denham of Bowie and Mrs. Millie Reynolds of Dewey spent the day Wednesday visiting with their cousin, Mrs. Imogene Links.

My partner, Perryman, turned me loose Tuesday, so I jumped in the car with Elaine Truitt and we headed for Denton for the day. We really had us a day out and managed to spend some of Perryman's and Price's money.

Dorothy Foster took her husband, Cecil, in tow Wednesday and headed to Denton with him. I hear Cecil got to push the shopping carts while Dorothy filled 'em.

Mrs. Jewell Dill and Mrs. Laura Belle Jackson attended funeral services for Mrs. Lillian Martin on Wednesday at the Vernie Keel Funeral Home in Gainesville. Burial was in the Dye Mound Cemetery.

Susan Hatcher, Megan and Morgan and Kerry Smith and friend Dustin, all of Euless, spent the past weekend with the Rex Andersons. On Sunday, Kim and Tony Desmuke drove up to visit awhile and pick up Ian.

Bobbie Wylie reports she spent the past weekend in Sanger with her dad, Ollie Tipton. Bobbie says all they did was watch TV and eat.

Seems little Miss Kimberly Vannoy has herself a good case of measles.

Liz Johnson has been on the sick list as have Veronica and Chris Greenead.

Ellen (Wellstood) and Rick Thompson and their friends Laura and Robert Davis, all of Plano, visited with Millie and W.T. Reynolds Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale McGee of Kemp drove up Saturday to spend the weekend in Montague with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S.D. Hoover. The McGees returned home Sunday. They stopped by to visit with his mom, Vera Mae, both coming and going.

Wanda Magee, Jo Ann Greenwood, Wynona Riddles, Betty Greenwood, Kristie and Bonnie visited with Betty's mother, Mrs. Bonnie Pearson, Calvin Greenwood and Lizzie Clark, who are all residents of the Bellmire Home in Bowie.

Mrs. Peggy Cain and daughter and Mrs. Velestar Cain, all of Thackerville, Okla., visited with Bula Mae and Dude Berry one day last week. Bula Mae and Velestar worked together at Weber Aircraft, so had much "remembering" to do.

Joe Tinney of Waco visited with Buford Greenwood and his mother, Georgia, Sunday.

Debra Dill and her grandmother, Mrs. Emma Steadham, made a trip to Gainesville Monday to get in some shopping.

Mrs. Jewell Dill and her mother, Laura Belle Jackson, took off early Monday morning for Saint Jo. There they visited awhile with Mrs. Eula Steen at the nursing center, then on to Muenster for business and shopping, next it was Gainesville where it was more of the same, then back to Muenster to shop some more. The two finally made it home about "dark thirty."

A friend of Perryman Denham's had this to say about him here of late - "Here is a feller that had a good bottom land farm, good job and registered Charolais cattle at one time. Then he got rid of them one by one. Last was his farm, after he sold it he ended up on a rock hill out of Forestburg with a bunch of goats. At least he hung on to his wife, dog and cats."

This is it for this week. Sorry there is no more. Even though it was very wet and rainy out this Monday, I sure ended up with a dry hole when it came to news to report. Either folks were gone or they had nothing to report. So it goes...
