MARCH 25, 1988

Local election is May 7

Wednesday, March 23, was the deadline for candidates to file for election to local governing councils and boards. On May 7, three aldermen will be elected to the Muenster City Council; four trustees to the Muenster Independent School Board; and two trustees to Cooke County College's Board.

Robert Dale Walterscheid and Pat Dennis will compete for City Council place 1 formerly held by the late Ray Endres. Incumbent Aubrey Tuggle will be unchallenged in seeking another term as alderman, place 2.

Claude Klement is the incumbent and only candidate for council place 4.

Muenster ISD has a three-way contest for trustee position 7. Leon Klement, Gerald Walterscheid and Ray Wimmer will be the names on the ballot. They will seek the position held by Richard Pagel for six years. He will not seek re-election.

Other positions are filed for only by the incumbents: Tom Flusche in position 3; Harold Bindel in position 5; and D.J. Hellman in position 6.

Sharing the School Board ballot will be the election for Cooke County College Board of Trustees. Places 1 and 2 are up for re-election. Incumbents Don Gregory and Neil Tibbets are unchallenged for their respective offices.

Muenster area voters can fill out their school and city ballots in the Muenster Public School lobby on May 7. Absentee voting extends from April 18 until May 3.

Cooke County Home Hospice brings care to terminally ill

by Jean Pagel

A branch of Home Hospice, a worldwide organization that aims to ease the struggle of coping with death, was set up in Cooke County several months ago.

"The whole program is aimed toward the terminally ill," said Dr. John Kozura. "My experience in the past is that they work very well because they prepare the patient emotionally and physically for death. Hospices are good, too, because they work with the family as well."

The purpose of the hospice organization is care of the terminally ill and their families, care for those who grieve, and education and training through hospitals, churches, clubs and schools about dying, death and bereavement.

Linda Lira of the Cooke County Home Hospice office in Gainesville said the organization began developing in Cooke County in August 1987 and went into service here in January 1988.

"We're a branch of the Grayson County Home Hospice, and that speeded up our formulation from about two years to only six months," Lira said. "We started with just a few people who were committed, and now we've grown."

Lira said the organization's establishment and growth in Cooke County were made possible by donations from individuals and businesses including Muenster Telephone Corp., which donated a telephone system to the organization. "What money is raised in the county stays in the county," Lira said. Home Hospice is a non-profit organization.

The 1988 budget for the organization was set up to care for 20 patients, Lira said, but eight county patients are already using the service this year. Hospice bills Medicare, Medicaid, private insurance and the families when they are able to contribute, but no one is ever refused hospice care because of inability to pay, Lira said.

Hospice uses a team approach to combat a patient's physical, psychological, spiritual and social pains. Helping the patient and his family are hospice personnel including the attending physician, hospice medical director, nurses, social workers, home health aides, clergy members and volunteers. Hospice provides 24-hour call for the patients, and the service continues after the patient's death as long as the family needs support.

Cooke County residents interested in helping the hospice organization can become patient care volunteers, bereavement care volunteers, office helpers or make donations or memorials.

Upcoming seminars conducted by Home Hospice will be from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. April 9, 16, 23 and 30 at Cooke County College. Topics discussed at the seminars include the history of the hospice movement, death in our society, the grief process and legal considerations. Interested persons are asked to register in advance by calling 668-7731.

The Cooke County Home Hospice office is located at 1500 E. Hwy. 82 in Gainesville in the Plaza 82 Building. The office phone number is 665-9891.

Jaycees host Easter egg hunt April 3

Muenster Jaycees will host their annual Easter Egg Hunt on Easter Sunday, April 3, at 2 p.m. in Muenster City Park. There will be two divisions, small children up to six years of age; and six to twelve years of age. For more information, call Shawn Flusche at 759-4876 or Joe Pagel at 759-2897.

Vogels are champions! County show climaxes year

It wasn't hard to notice a few tears that came to the eyes of some Cooke County youngsters who had to part with animals they had been grooming and had come to love during the annual auction Saturday which ended another successful Cooke County Junior Livestock Show.

Muenster's only Grand Champion of the show was in the Breeding Sheep category. Scot Vogel, Muenster 4-H, showed his Suffolk ewe to take both Breed Champion and Grand Champion. He also won the Showmanship award. Scot's brother Rodney also showed his Suffolk ewe to take Reserve Breed Champ and overall Reserve Grand Champion. Scot and Rodney are sons of Larry and Kathy Vogel of Myra.

Sale participants grossed $146,657.55 including the floor and premium price. The floor is the current market price.

The Grand Champion Steer, also Champion County Bred Steer, raised by Lucy Fuhrmann of Lindsay 4-H, was purchased by Muenster Milling Company for $2.10 per pound. Dereck West, Valley View 4-H, raised the Reserve Champ Steer and sold it to Parker Electric for the same $2.10 per pound. Muenster Milling Co. paid $1.40 per pound to Jessica Fuhrmann, Lindsay 4-H, for the Reserve Champion County Bred Steer.

Robbie Kemp, Valley View, sold his Grand Champion Hog to W.B. Hudspeth, Inc. for $3.00 per pound. The Reserve Champ Hog belonging to Stacie Kammerdiener of Valley View sold to Cedar Drive Dairy for $3.10. The Grand Champion Lamb award went to Shiann Howell, Silver Cedar 4-H, and sold to Gainesville Fuel for $7.00 per pound. Holly Howell sold the Reserve Champ to Osbornes for $4.25.

Valena Morse, Callisburg FFA, had the Grand Champ Market Rabbits. They sold to McDonald's for $150.00. The Reserve Champ, raised by Danny Hendry, Lindsay FFA, went to T.L. Davidson for $125.00.

Grand Champion pen of Broiler Hens, owned by William Bryant, Callisburg FFA, sold to McDonald's for $150.00 and the Reserve Champ pen of Broilers, raised by Dusty Wallace of Callisburg FFA, went to Valley View National Bank for $100.00.

Awards in breeding animal categories were as follows:

Dairy Cattle: Parker Friedrich, Grand Champ, Gainesville FFA; Todd Martindale, Reserve, Valley View 4-H.

Heifer: Kassica DePriest, Muenster's only Grand Champion of the show was in the Breeding Sheep category. Scot Vogel, Muenster 4-H, showed his Suffolk ewe to take both Breed Champion and Grand Champion. He also won the Showmanship award. Scot's brother Rodney also showed his Suffolk ewe to take Reserve Breed Champ and overall Reserve Grand Champion. Scot and Rodney are sons of Larry and Kathy Vogel of Myra.

Dairy Goats: Jodie Rehm, Grand Champ, Era FFA; Marty Rehm, Reserve, Era FFA.

Breeding Poultry: Rocky Barnes, Grand Champ, Lindsay 4-H; Richard Barnes, Reserve, Lindsay 4-H.

Breeding Swine: Ginger Andrew, Grand Champ, Valley View 4-H; Danny Sullivan, Reserve, Valley View FFA.

Breeding Rabbit: Elizabeth Cler, Grand Champ, Lindsay 4-H; Amy Cartwright, Reserve, Sivils Bend 4-H.

Showmanship, Class and Ribbon awards will be listed in next week's Muenster Enterprise.

County Agent Craig Rosenbaum expressed his thanks to Stock Show President Tommy Davidson and the many, many volunteers who make the show possible. "It's a very good show and the community is very supportive as shown by the premiums paid," he said. He indicated that the breeding show was a little larger this year and the market show a little smaller, indicating that more young people are keeping their projects to further work with.

In one of the few events held where very young children can compete on an even footing with high school seniors, the show was unreeled almost without a hitch during its three-day run, despite some drizzly weather Thursday coupled with evening temperatures that dipped below the 30-degree mark.

Many adults and youngsters alike are convinced the show, which is the final stop for most young people following months of hard work and preparation, provides some of the best opportunities available in teaching young people responsibility and commitment.

STACI WALTERSCHEID

BRIAN HESS

Walterscheid named All-State and Hess chosen All-Region

Muenster High School seniors Staci Walterscheid and Brian Hess became the first players in Big Red history to be chosen for the Texas Association of Basketball Coaches post-season honor teams. Both Walterscheid and Hess were named first team All Region III and Walterscheid was also selected third team All State.

"I'm in shock," said Staci when informed by Coach Ted Heers Monday afternoon.

Walterscheid helped Muenster to three district titles and was twice named District 33-A MVP.

Hess led the Hornets to a 46-11 record the past two seasons, being chosen District 33-A MVP this year, and leading the team to three championships.

Several of the Muenster opponents had players that were also honored: Sidney Johnson, JR, Roxton, 1st Team All-State; Brian Lemley, JR, Graford, 2nd Team All-State; Danford Stastny, JR, Slidell, 3rd team All State; D'Lynn Schertz, SR, Slidell, 2nd Team All-State; Melissa North, SR, Ponder, 1st Team All-Region; Kristen Kelly, JR, Ponder, 2nd Team All-Region; Angie Gentry, JR, Gunter, 2nd Team All-Region; Rebecca Freeman, SR, Slidell, 2nd Team All-Region; Penny Russell, SR, Gainesville, 3rd Team All-Region; Chris Richardson, SR, Ponder, 2nd Team All-Region; Todd Kincaid, SR, Graford, 2nd Team All-Region; Les Uselton, JR, Prairie Valley, 3rd Team All-Region.

"It's quite an honor to be recognized in Texas, given the size of our state, and we're thankful we had two receive the acclaim," said Hornet Coach Ted Heers. "These two had some pretty impressive statistics, but the honors mean a lot to the entire program and all the players. Someone had to pass or catch the ball from Staci or Brian, play defense, etc. All of our seniors contributed towards leaving Muenster with a little tradition. We hope to keep it alive and well in '89. We'll miss them, but we have a lot of young players waiting who have paid their dues."

Good News!

Jesus looked at them and said, "For man it is impossible; but for God all things are possible."

Services held for Raymond Endres, 67

Raymond R. Endres, a lifelong resident of Muenster, died at his home here on March 17, 1988 at 8 a.m., at age 67, after a lengthy illness.

Mass of Christian Burial was held in Sacred Heart Church on Saturday, March 19, at 10:30 a.m. officiated by Father Victor Gillespie, Father Denis Soerries and Father Cletus Post, with Seminarian John Endres of Houston, a nephew, also present in the sanctuary.

Interment was in Sacred Heart Cemetery, directed by McCoy Funeral Home of Muenster, and officiated by Father Victor Gillespie.

Raymond R. Endres was born on Aug. 18, 1920 to Roy and Annie (Herr) Endres. He married the former Elitha Neu of Lindsay on Nov. 11, 1941 in St. Peter's Church.

Survivors include his wife, Elitha Endres; and four daughters Claudia Taylor of Plano, Rachael Endres of Dallas, Susan Metzler of Gainesville and Sally Ferguson of Whitesboro; and five sons Jerry Endres of Escondido, Calif., Ron Endres of Austin, Ted Endres of Gainesville, Tim Endres of Muenster and Pat Endres of Gainesville.

Also three sisters Rose Marie Hennigan of Albuquerque, N.M., Marjorie Endres of Fort Worth, and Floradell LaGesse of Austin; and four brothers Ed Endres and Donald Endres of Muenster, David Endres of Garland and Hugh Endres of Orange, Calif.; and 18 grandchildren.

Raymond R. Endres was a graduate of Subiaco Academy of Arkansas. He was a retired employee of the Upper Elm-Red Soil Conservation Service and a past member of the Muenster City Council, and an avid golfer.

Participants in the special funeral liturgy at the Mass Saturday morning, planned by daughter Susan, were a granddaughter, Erin Taylor of Plano, a nephew, John Endres, and a brother and godchild, David Endres of Garland, who presented Readings, Prayers of the Faithful and Petitions, respectively.

Grandchildren Heather Endres, Russell Endres, Ryan Endres, Scott Metzler, Trent Endres and Elisa Endres presented Offertory gifts at the altar.

Eucharistic ministers were a daughter and son-in-law, Claudia and Dennis Taylor, a granddaughter, Kristin Taylor, a nephew, John Endres, and Joanie Hartman.

Presenting music for the liturgy were Ruth Felderhoff, Christi Klement, Doug Yosten and Linda Flusche. Selections, with piano accompaniment, were "You Are Near," "God Gives His People Strength," "How Great Thou Art," "Wind Beneath My Wings," "Spirit of the Lord" and "And I Will Follow."

Pallbearers were nephews and nieces, Howard Endres, Robert Endres, Steve Neu, Tommy Henschel, Paultette Swirczynski and Sharlene Schilling.

In services preceding the funeral, a Rosary was prayed at the McCoy Chapel Friday at 4 p.m. and a Wake service was held at 8 p.m. with Father Victor Gillespie presiding. Included was a poem composed by a co-worker at SCS, "Footsteps in the Soil," read by Ted Endres at the Wake. It was originally read at the retirement dinner honoring his father. Expressions of thanks were given, in particular to Wilfred Reiter, who sat through the final night with his good friend, former classmate and co-worker.

The family requested memorials be sent to Home Hospice of Cooke County, in lieu of flowers.

A large number of former co-workers and officials of the Soil and Water Conservation District were present for the funeral services.

GAINESVILLE'S "GOLD COATS" and city officials attended the ribbon-cutting ceremony last Friday, officially opening the new Catfish Charlie's Restaurant. Chuck Strickland, with scissors, is the manager of the new business. To his right is assistant manager Susan Banks. Catfish Charlie's welcomes take-out orders, banquets, special groups and clubs. The hours are 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Sundays and from 4 p.m. to 10 p.m. Monday through Saturday. The restaurant is located at 901 E. Hwy. 82 in Gainesville. Janie Hartman Photo

TU Electric requests help to capture thieves

TU Electric is asking the public's help in apprehending persons responsible for stealing company equipment and is offering a reward for information leading to their arrest and conviction.

"We need reports of anyone seen climbing our poles or loading our equipment into a vehicle when a marked TU Electric vehicle is not nearby," Bill Bibby, TU Electric manager, explained. "There have been instances this year in which thieves took cable from our poles. When thieves take equipment from the company, they are increasing the cost of providing service to our customers."

Federal, state and local law enforcement officers are working to stop the thefts, Bibby said. However, the case will be solved more easily if the thieves are caught in the act.

Anyone seeing suspicious persons around TU Electric equipment or facilities should not attempt to talk with those people, but should call the local TU Electric office as soon as possible. Employees in the local office can then determine if the people have a reason to be around company facilities and can inform proper law enforcement authorities.

What is still the #1 killer in Texas?

If you said "AIDS" or "cancer," you're wrong. But you're not alone - most people do.

But the truth is that for every person in Texas who dies of AIDS or even cancer this year, two will die of heart disease and related disorders. That translates into roughly 51,000 lives - about the same number of lives lost to all other causes of death combined. Almost 11,000 of these people will not have reached the age of 65.

It's a surprising fact. And a sobering one.

The American Heart Association focuses all of its attention on reducing these numbers in preventing this deadly disease. With your help, these numbers can decline.

How? By pledging a jumper in this year's Jump Rope for Heart event, you'll be helping the American Heart Association to raise needed funds to support lifesaving research. You'll also be helping to educate our youth about health, fitness and the value of regular exercise.

To help us with this lifesaving program, contact any Sacred Heart 4th, 5th or 6th grade student and make your pledge. The Jump Rope for Heart event will be held March 29 in the Sacred Heart gymnasium at 12:15. Please make a pledge. The life you save may be your own.

Activity committee plans birthday calendar

Activities chairman Bertha Hamric and her committee members, Herb and Dolores Miller; Ruth Felderhoff; Lupe Evans; Evelyn Sickling; and Evelyn Felderhoff, met Friday night, March 18, to hold a planning session.

The committee has decided to publish a centennial birthday calendar featuring the birthdays and anniversaries of local residents.

The calendar will be highlighted with photos of Muenster dating back to 1889. Residents may place birthdays and anniversaries in the calendar for $1.00. Residents are urged to send in their dates as soon as possible. Deadline is May 31.

All members of the committee are available for sale of the calendar as well as date placements, and may be contacted at their homes or businesses: The Hut; Muenster Milling Co.; Red River Liquor; and Evelyn's Styleroom.

Committee members welcome any suggestions and any old pictures for the calendar. Suggestions should be referred to Bertha Hamric, activities chairman, or Juanita Bright, centennial chairman.

The 13-month calendar will be available on Nov. 1, 1988.

The word from the Activities Committee is "Don't Be Left Out! Get your special date on the centennial birthday calendar. This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity!"

To place birthdays on the calendar for $1.00 each, or to place calendar orders for $5.00 each, please contact any committee member or use the convenient order form that follows:

Promotion announced

JOHN J. FELDERHOFF

John J. Felderhoff of Garland has been promoted to Assistant Vice President of Warranty, by LOGIC, Inc., Financial Insurance Systems of Dallas.

Currently, he is in charge of research, development and support of LOGIC's Extended Service Contract Administration System.

LOGIC, Inc. is a provider of financial insurance data processing systems in three product areas: Credit Life, Collateral Protection, and Extended Service Contracts.

John Felderhoff joined LOGIC, Inc. in October 1982.

Prior to his appointment as Assistant Vice President of Warranty, he was Group Manager of Warranty/MBI Systems.

John Felderhoff is the son of Frank and Eleanor Felderhoff, a graduate of Muenster High School, and a graduate of NTSU with a BBA in May 1976.

He is married to the former Cheryl Otto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Reinart of Muenster and the late Ray Otto. They reside in Garland and are parents of a son, Raymond Frank, age 11, and a daughter, Leslie Anne, age 6.

Relatives come from distance for funeral rites

Among relatives and friends attending the funeral of John Kupper were Rupert and Jeanne Hoenic of Carrollton; Robert and Florene Kupper and Eric of Marlin; Andrew and Florence Kupper of Kaufman; Ann and Dick Bump; Nancy and Haley Gray; and Doyle Kupper, all of Arlington; Agnes and Elmer Gore of Big Sandy; Marlise (Kupper) Bnett and daughters of Switzerland; Ronnie Fuhrmann of Lewisville; Margie Bass; and Ray Cooper of Waco; Roy Cooper and family of Garland; and friends from Valley View, Lindsay, Gainesville, Plano, Saint Jo, Decatur, Denton, Krum, and Sherman.

The following was received too late to be included in the obituary in last week's paper.

Father Cooney, pastor of St. John's Church in Valley View, was also present in the sanctuary, and concelebrated the Mass of Christian Burial with pastors of Sacred Heart Church.

The special liturgy included the following songs, "Fill My House" for the entrance procession; "Be Not Afraid" at the Offertory; "Wherever You Go, I Will Go" at Communion; "How Great Thou Art" for the Communion Meditation, sung by Leroy Kupper and Joan Walterscheid, accompanied on the piano by Ruth Felderhoff; and "On Eagle's Wings" for the recessional.

All were presented by Emily Klement, Pam Fette and Dana Dankesreiter with guitar accompaniment, except the Communion Meditation.

A Reading was given by Leigh Ann Walterscheid when one of the grandchildren was unable to participate.

John Walterscheid was one of the pallbearers when another grandchild was prevented from attending by distance.

Library awarded classic literature set

The Muenster Public Library has been awarded a 60-volume set of The Library of America, the series that American Heritage magazine called "The most ambitious effort ever undertaken to put the best of American literature into the hands of the general reader."

The Muenster Library is receiving the award after submitting an application to The Library of America and $250 from the Estate of Catherine Dumraese. The Muenster Library is one of more than 1000 across the country that have already acquired this important collection of American literature with funds from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation and matching funds pledged in their local communities. For libraries in Texas, each $250 from a library is being matched by $250 from the Texas Committee for the Humanities and by $500 from the Mellon Foundation.

The Muenster Library will receive the 36-volumes already published in the Library of America, over 46,000 pages of the best writing our country has produced. Thereafter, the remaining 24 volumes will be sent in regular shipments over the next five years for an average total of five volumes a year. Each volume will have a bookplate acknowledging the generosity of the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, the Texas Committee for the Humanities, and the Estate of Catherine Dumraese. Certificates will also be sent to the library for display and for presentation to its donors.

The Library of America is a nonprofit publishing program that began in 1982 in an unprecedented effort to restore America's literary heritage by publishing the collected works of America's major authors in a uniform, hardcover series. Seed money for the program was provided by the National Endowment for the Humanities and the Ford Foundation. Volumes already published include the works of Henry Adams, Willa Cather, James Fenimore Cooper, Stephen Crane, Theodore Dreiser, W.E.B. Du Bois, Ralph Waldo Emerson, William Faulkner, Benjamin Franklin, Nathaniel Hawthorne, William Dean Howells, Washington Irving, Henry James, Thomas Jefferson, Jack London, Herman Melville, Frank Norris, Francis Parkman, Edgar Allan Poe, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Henry David Thoreau, Mark Twain, Edith Wharton, Walt Whitman.

Each volume in the series includes a number of works by a single author and contains between 1000 and 1600 pages. In many cases, an author's complete writings will be published in as few as three or four compact volumes. The books are printed on acid-free paper, have sewn bindings covered in cloth, and are extremely durable. Texts are accurate, unabridged, and authoritative.

The Library of America volumes are generally sold through bookstores at $27.50 per volume, except for the Jefferson, Parkman and Franklin volumes which are $30.00 each, and by subscription for $21.95 per volume. All volumes in the series include a detailed chronology of the author's life and career, a brief essay explaining the choice of texts and some useful notes for the general reader.

Secular Franciscans hold Lenten service

The Secular Franciscan Order of St. Peter's Parish, Lindsay, met in the home of William and Elvira Flusche on March 8 at 1:30 p.m., to hold the official Secular Franciscan Liturgy for Lent.

Following the opening ritual, Mrs. Theresa Hermes, president, read the introduction; with all members giving the Response; Mrs. Mary Stoffels read No. 7 from the New Rule Book; followed by the hymn, "How Great Thou Art."

Veronica Klement gave the First Reading, Mrs. Hermes the Response, and Mrs. Marie Badgett gave the Second Reading; Marie Zimmerer read verses from the Gospel according to Matthew; and the president read a homily, "A Franciscan Lent."

Taken from a script from the SFO Communicator, the homily related to countless possibilities a Secular Franciscan can reflect on to have a healthy, fulfilling Lent. For instance: visiting the sick or at rest homes; spending time with elderly relatives or taking them shopping, or out to lunch. Also writing that letter that has remained unanswered much too long, etc.

Spontaneous Intercessions were followed by the concluding prayer and blessing. The Lenten Liturgy closed with the hymn, "Holy God, We Praise Thy Name."

The business meeting included announcement of the Triennial Convention at Quincy College, Ill., on July 7-10. Deadline for registration and deposit of $25 is June 15.

Members plan a garage sale in early summer, after close of school. All were also reminded to continue saving stamps.

Ritual closing and Peace Prayer were followed by the Litany of Blessed Virgin Mary, led by Veronica Klement, a commitment made by members to observe the Marian Year.

After adjournment, the hostess, Elvira Flusche, served cake and coffee.

Invitation given to join Cub Scouts

Cub Scouting is a program of the Boy Scouts of America for parents, leaders to use with boys 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 years of age for influencing the development of character and encouraging spiritual growth. Cub Scouts encourages good sportsmanship and pride in growing strong in mind and body.

The Muenster Cub Scout Pack is in the process of recruiting new boys and leaders for the local program. The boys have yearly organized events, some of which are a one-week summer camp, where they have swimming, hiking, BB guns, bow and arrow, crafts and new skills.

In the summer, they participate in two family watermelon swim parties at the Muenster Pool.

March is the month for Pinewood Derby, where the boys race wooden cars they have made.

April is Bridgeover, where the Webelos Scouts cross over into Boy Scouting.

May is Graduation, where all the boys graduate in rank.

September is the beginning of the new year. November includes the Turkey Shoot where they shoot at targets with BB guns and the one with the most hits wins a turkey.

One den is in its second year of participating in the Pushmobile Derby. The boys and parents build a vehicle for all the boys to race and push. They have their finals in Denton.

December is the Christmas Parade and Party. This year the boys had their Christmas Party at the Gainesville Skating Rink. They also toured the Denison Dam on Lake Texoma for an excursion.

February is the annual Blue & Gold Banquet. The boys and leaders entertain with skits and there is leader recognition along with a pot luck dinner. This also is the month in which religious medals are presented to recipients from the Bishop in Fort Worth.

Muenster Cub Scout Pack 664 invites all boys and their parents who are interested in learning a little about Cub Scouts to attend the Pinewood Derby on Sunday, March 27, at the VFW. The program will begin at 2 p.m. There will be a registration table for registration of all interested boys.

POLICE CHIEF Helen Tompkins and McGruff last week discussed with the MPS elementary students what to do if you're at home alone and a stranger calls or comes to the door. Janie Hartman Photo

Baptism

Rohmer

Nicole Erin Rohmer, infant daughter of Steve and Kim Rohmer, was baptized March 13 at St. Ann Catholic Church in Coppell.

Rev. Killian Broderick, pastor, was celebrant. Kelly Zwinggi of Lindsay and Renee Schniederjan of Muenster are Nicole's godparents.

The baby wore the baptismal gown also worn by her mother, and a gold cross necklace and ring which was a gift from the godmother.

Dinner followed the church service, hosted by the baby's parents in their home. Special guests included great-grandmother, Mary Grewing of Lindsay; and grandparents, Kenneth and Rose Zwinggi of Lindsay and Tony and Marjorie Rohmer of Muenster.

Other guests included the godparents, and Adam Schniederjan; Lisa Rohmer; Bill, Laurie and Daniel Rohmer; and Kenny and Cindy Rohmer, all of Muenster.

Men in Service

Johnny C. Wolf, son of Mrs. Mary Wolf of 1207 Throckmorton St., Gainesville, has been promoted in the U.S. Air Force to the rank of senior master sergeant.

Wolf is a Fabrication Branch Chief at Bergstrom Air Force Base, Texas, with the 67th Equipment Maintenance Squadron.

He is a 1962 graduate of Sacred Heart School, Muenster, Texas, and a 1982 graduate of Eastern Illinois University, Charleston, Ill.

Grandchildren visit during spring break

Spring Break was just the opportunity several grandchildren needed to spend a few days on the farm with their grandparents, Wilfred and Betty Sicking.

Dalas Cunningham of Gordonville, an eighth grader at Whitesboro School, was brought to the farm by his parents, Rose and Wayne Brown, and his sister, Lacey, of Gordonville during the weekend. They returned the following weekend, visited part of the day, and all returned home together.

The Sicking's daughter, Karla Wilson, and her children Jeremy, Melanie, April and Valerie of Weatherford spent several days with them at the same time.

Eggs are a "best buy" for Easter!

Eggs are always a bargain protein food, and prices are going even lower just in time for Easter.

"We haven't seen the low egg prices that are in the markets now for some time," says Dr. David Mellor, a poultry specialist with the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service.

"Eggs are selling at 30-50 cents per dozen in sales and there will probably be many store specials before Easter," he adds.

If you're tempted to color baskets and baskets full of eggs for Easter, remember to store them properly, or to not eat them. Mellor says a recent study in the Poultry Science Journal showed that hard-cooked eggs stored at room temperature spoil in less than a week. But eggs put in the refrigerator after two days at room temperature keep for three weeks.

Hard-cooked eggs kept in their shells and stored the whole time in the refrigerator show the least bacterial growth, he reports.

"It's best to remove the Easter eggs from the baskets as soon as possible, refrigerate them and use them within a few days," according to the specialist.

"If your children like to carry their Easter baskets around for days, include some plastic eggs for play and refrigerate the real eggs that the family will eat," Mellor advises.

Party shared by cousins

STEVEN STEWART

The fourth birthday of Steven Stewart was observed with a party at McDonald's in Gainesville.

The guests included his sister and brother, Holly and Justin Stewart, twins, and the hosts, the parents Renee and Larry Don Stewart of Gainesville; the grandparents, Jerry and Louise Wimmer of Muenster and Carolyn Stewart of Myra; aunts, uncles and cousins, Shannon Wimmer of Gainesville; Sharon and Steve Muller and sons Gary and Wayne of Myra; Ruby and Dennis Stewart, and Shelly and Lindy of Muenster.

Jake; her grandparents, Jerry and Louise Wimmer of Muenster and Junior and Lou Hudgins of Gainesville; also Michael Hudgins; Shannon Wimmer; the great-grandmother, Mrs. Christina Hudgins; Bobby Simmell; and great-aunt, Ginger Dieter, all of Gainesville; Pam and Terry Willis and son Forrest; Susan and Lindzie Barthold; Shannon Moore; Kirk and Donna Klement and Karime, all of Gainesville.

The third honoree was Lindy Stewart, a cousin, age two.

There was one large, decorated birthday cake, decorated with their names and birthdays: Steven, Feb. 18; Kristina, Feb. 19; and Lindy, Feb. 25.

Gifts were opened and displayed, and many pictures were made.

KRISTINA WIMMER

Steven's party was shared with his cousin, Kristina Wimmer, daughter of Monte and Natalie Wimmer of Gainesville. Kristina was observing her second birthday.

Her guests were her brother,

Mrs. John Hacker feted on birthday

Children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren helped Mrs. John Hacker (Bertha) celebrate her birthday, Sunday, March 20. The party was held in the home of the honoree's son and family, Maurus and Lynn Hacker and Cheryl, Michael and Maurus, Jr.

A covered dish dinner was served at noon. In the afternoon, gifting, visiting and reminiscing were enjoyed.

Guests included the honoree's husband, John; and Jerry and Shirley Wilson and Tammy, Jeffrey and Jennifer of Gainesville; Jim and Joyce Strittmatter and Jeanna, Steven, Donna and Brian of Pilot Point; Donald and JoAnn Pelzel and Denise and Becky of Pilot Point; Clyde and Helen Muller and Dale and Renee and a friend Scott of Bedford; David and Debbie Lain and Kyle and Kevin of Fort Worth; and Monty and Vicky Brouse of North Richland Hills.

Era BBQ set for March 26

The annual barbecue to raise funds for the Era Volunteer Fire Department will be Saturday, March 26, at the Era School cafeteria.

The dinner will be served from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. Tickets can be purchased at the door and are $5 for adults and $3 for children. Door prizes will be awarded, including a television to be given to an adult and a jam box to a child.

The dinner is the department's major annual fundraising event, and proceeds will go toward the continued upkeep and expenses.

FARM AND RANCH NEWS

Crop insurance deadline is set

The deadline to apply for crop insurance protection for cotton, grain sorghum, peanuts and other Spring crops in North Texas are as follows: March 31 for Northwestern Texas counties and April 15 for Northeastern Texas counties; according to Bruce Hottel, a representative of the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation (FCIC).

Crop insurance covers unavoidable loss of production resulting from adverse weather and natural conditions, wildlife, earthquake or fire, and provides the highest average yield guarantee and lowest premium rates possible on the basis of individual production experience and records.

The Actual Production History (APH) is determined for each producer's production yield history. Rates have been developed to offer reduced premium costs for producers with above-average yields. "With the high cost of producing a crop and the ever-present risk from weather-related losses, it makes good sense to take a look at protecting your investment, based on the average yield concept," says Hottel.

"Three coverage levels (50, 65, or 75 percent) are again available on the individual's APH yield history for insurance protection. Additionally, FCIC offers three optional price elections to value production that is lost or damaged," Hottel states.

To find out more about the APH plan and insurance protection available to individuals in a specific county, producers should contact an authorized crop insurance agent. To select an agent, producers only need to check at their local ASCS office for names of qualified agents.

Dairy policy is topic of meeting

The long-term direction for national dairy policy will be a chief topic of discussion during the 19th Annual Meeting of Associated Milk Producers, Inc., scheduled March 28-30 in Milwaukee, Wis.

A highlight of the meeting will be a panel discussion of the recommendations of the National Commission on Dairy Policy that has just completed a comprehensive study of dairy price support policy. David Dyer, the commission's executive director, will outline the recommendations, and Jim Barr, chief executive officer of the National Milk Producers Federation, and Linwood Tipton, president of the Milk Industry Foundation and the International Ice Cream Association, will respond to the findings.

Some 2,000 AMPI delegates, elected officials, management staff and guests will convene to review past progress and chart the future direction of the nation's largest dairy farmer cooperative. AMPI has more than 22,000 member farms in 21 states located throughout the Midwest, South and Southwest, who produce about 12 percent of the nation's milk supply.

"For nearly 19 years, AMPI has been enabling milk producers to respond effectively to changes occurring on the farm, in the marketplace and in the development of national policy," said AMPI President Irvin Elkin, a dairy farmer from Amery, Wis.

"The ability to respond to change is an essential element of AMPI's work to maximize milk producers' long-term return from their total investment in their dairy farms and their cooperative."

The theme of this year's meeting is "Responding to Change."

Also during the meeting corporate board and management reports will be presented. AMPI's three operating regions, Morning Glory Farms, North Central and Southern, will conduct their annual business meetings.

The meeting culminates with a grassroots policy making process as delegates consider resolutions on a wide range of issues.

"I'm just really impressed with the caliber of the young people who participate in the show," said David Taylor, Gainesville Middle School Science teacher who was helping his son, Craig, prepare a sheep entry for the show. "Somehow, they seem to have a sense of responsibility that others don't seem to possess."

Craig, a freshman at Gainesville High School, was participating in the county show for the first time with his two sheep. "He was the only freshman interested in getting a project, and we've just had a barrel of fun," said the elder Taylor. "It keeps his time occupied and this will help him because he wants to become a vet someday."

Craig said he plans to show a steer next year. "I just want to get experience with different types of animals," he said.

The show also featured its first Children's Barnyard, sponsored by the Valley View Young Farmers. The family of the late Cecil Ward, longtime county auctioneer who was a mainstay at the show's annual auction finale, was presented a special memorial plaque in honor of Ward's contributions in not only helping to establish the Junior Livestock Show and running the annual auction, but in assisting with building the show throughout the years.

County Agent's Report

by Craig Rosenbaum

Although the threat of wheat leaf rust is not as great this season as it has been for the past several years, growers should be aware that the organism is present and that future conditions may be ideal for rapid development.

Wheat leaf rust is less threatening this season because there is less wheat acreage in South and Central Texas, more varieties are being planted rather than one predominant variety, more slow-rusting varieties are being planted and weather conditions have been rather dry. In some areas, rust was more pronounced earlier this winter than it is now.

Producers are urged to keep an eye on their fields and watch for increases in wheat leaf occurrence. There is still plenty of time for an epidemic to develop if weather conditions favor such an event.

Some producers may want to use fungicides this year, since wheat prices have increased and another highly effective fungicide is on the market. Chemical control may pay in many situations, but will not likely be cost-effective for everyone.

Producers who have a 40-bushel yield potential and reside where leaf rust represents a serious limiting production factor may want to consider fungicide use. They also should be certain they have a wheat variety that will respond to a fungicide.

Growers should watch their wheat fields closely from now until heading time to determine the potential for leaf rust damage. Fungicides are available if yield levels and disease potentials warrant use of this practice.

State funds for brucellosis calfhood vaccinations are expected to be depleted sometime in May.

During the current fiscal year ending Aug. 31, $450,000 was appropriated by the Legislature for calfhood vaccinations. Commissioners of the Texas Animal Health Commission voted to pay $1 per head for vaccinations in 211 of the state's 254 counties.

It is anticipated that the $1 payment fee will be reinstated at the beginning of the 1989 fiscal year on Sept. 1, 1988.

In the meantime, federal funds will continue available in the 43 highest incidence counties of Texas. Counties continuing to receive federal funds include Anderson, Aransas, Austin, Bee, Brazoria, Brazos, Calhoun, Chambers, Colorado, DeWitt,
