SERVING HANSFORD COUNTY SINCE 1907

Surrounded by a rainbow of 101 balloons, Mary Jane Davis celebrates her 101st birthday. Born on June 26, 1899 in Old Field, West Virginia, Mrs. Davis has the distinction of having lived in three centuries. In a party at Hansford Manor on Monday, Mrs. Davis, the Manor's oldest resident, shared chocolate cake and ice cream with her friends and family. She joked about her ability to blow out 101 candles as she snatched a tad of icing from her cake. Mrs. Davis has two daughters, Pauline McGee of Spearman and Maxine Thompson of Houston, five grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren.

Mike and Clay Schnell (on windmill) proudly present the Dempster #11 Windmill that was adopted by First State Bank. The mill was placed outside the community room entrance and is easily visible from the street and post office. This is a wooden wheel windmill that was patented in 1924. Also pictured are members of the Southwestern Pioneer Windmill Association: (L-R) Roger Buchanan, Orville Latham, J.D. Wilbanks, Don Reed, and Sammy Don Jones.

Way of the Winds
 by D. R. Daniel, Jr.
 Class of 1942 Spearman High School

Funny thing about the wind,
 You never know whether it's your enemy or friend

One came by the other day,
 Brought the smell of new mowed hay.
 Pumped some water at the old windmill,
 The one up there on the side of the hill.

Cows and calves lie in the shade,
 With green grass and water they have it made.

It's been some time since the wind came by.
 The sun is fierce and not a cloud in the sky,
 Grass is burning and tanks are dry.
 Cows are thirsty, calves are too,
 Windmills are lonesome with nothing to do.

You go to town for pump jacks and feed,
 You must take care of the cattle's need.
 Spend all day to hook up the jacks,
 About that time the wind comes back.

This time he comes and brings some rain,
 The windmills are so happy again.
 They can't stay still,
 Especially the one on the side of the hill.

The wind and rain stay awhile,
 And when they leave you wave and smile.
 The wind will be back, but you just don't know,
 If he will come back as friend or foe.

Laugh
and Live

by Catherine R. Smith
CathyRSmit@aol.com

My mom sent me the following poem some time ago, and I recently ran across it again. I thought it was worth sharing with you. In our day and time, "wait" is not a very welcomed response, but maybe we can still learn.

Wait

Desperately, helplessly, longingly I cried;
quietly, patiently, lovingly God replied.
I pled and I wept for a clue to my fate,
and the Master so gently said, "Child you must wait."

Wait? You say, wait? My indignant reply.
Lord, I need answers, I need to know why!
Is your hand shortened? Or have you not heard?
By faith, I have asked, and am claiming your Word.

My future and all to which I can relate hangs in the balance and you tell me to WAIT?
I'm needing a "yes," a go-ahead sign,
or even a "no" to which I can resign.

And Lord, you promised that if we believe we need but to ask, and we shall receive.
And Lord, I've been asking, and this is my cry,
I'm weary of asking, I need a reply!

Then quietly, softly, I learned of my fate
as my Master replied once again, "You must wait."
So, I slumped in my chair, defeated and taut and grumbled to God, so I'm waiting...for what?

He seemed then to kneel, and His eyes wept with mine,
and He tenderly said, "I could give you a sign.
I could shake the heavens and darken the sun,
I could raise the dead and cause mountains to run.
All you seek I could give, and pleased you would be.
You would have what you want, but you would not know Me.

You'd not know the depth of My love for each saint,
You'd not know the power that I give to the faint.
You'd not learn to see through the clouds of despair,
You'd not learn to trust just by knowing I'm there.

You'd not know the joy of resting in Me,
when darkness and silence were all you could see.
You'd never experience that fullness of love
as the peace of My Spirit descends like a dove.
You'd know that I give and I save... (for a start), but you'd not know the depth of the beat of My heart.

The glow of My comfort late into the night.
The faith that I give when you walk without sign.
The depth that's beyond getting just what you asked of an infinite God, who makes what you have last.
You'd never know, should your pain quickly flee,
what it means that "My grace is sufficient for thee."

Yes, your dreams for your loved one overnight would come true, but, oh the loss, if I lost what I'm doing in you!
So, be silent, My child, and in time you will see, that the greatest of gifts is to get to know Me.
And though oft' My answers seem terribly late,
My most precious answer of all is still, Wait.

May God bless and keep you; May He make his face to shine upon you, and be gracious to you; May the Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace.

Numbers 6:24-26

Donations Needed For SpearmanLynx.com
The Spearman Booster Club is needing donations from anyone that has enjoyed this web site and especially the streaming of the ball games over the internet. We are trying to take care of our problem of getting knocked off in the middle of the ball games. Any alumni, college kids, friends, or anybody that has enjoyed the games, we are raising money to pay for an ISDN line. This is an internet line that is digital that is just now becoming available in the Spearman area. Once connected to the internet, the chances of getting knocked off are very slim. This was a major problem this year and we want to alleviate the problem before next year. We also need to get started on this pretty soon so we will have all the bugs worked out before next fall. The cost of this project is going to cost about $600 a year. This web site has been a lot of fun and many people have enjoyed it. Tim and I want to continue to provide a good web site that every one can enjoy and this is a vital part of it's success. So anyone from out of town or parents that listen when they are out of town, or anyone else, we need your help. Please make checks payable to: Spearman Booster Club, Box 343, Spearman, TX 79081. Any donation that you could give would be greatly appreciated. Thanks for your support!

Among The Neighbors

by Helen Fisher

What would be an unrealized dream for most was the trip taken by Johnnie and Joan Lee this month. They flew to Waterloo, Belgium to visit their daughter and son-in-law, Johnette and Larry Boyles and their three daughters. (This is near Brussels.) Larry is with Southwestern Bell Communications.

The Lees left here on May 29th and returned on June 19th. The two younger daughters of the Boyles attend the International School in Waterloo, where instruction is in English. Since French is the language used in Belgium, they are learning it. The oldest daughter has been attending the University of Maryland, but is spending the summer with her family.

Johnnie stayed with the granddaughters in Waterloo while Joan, Johnette and Larry took a trip to Paris. They visited most of the places that are world-famous - the Louvre Art Gallery (including seeing the Mona Lisa), the Eiffel Tower, Notre Dame, etc.

They made a short side trip to Trier, Germany, for sight-seeing. Johnnie accompanied them to Bastogne and saw the elaborate monument commemorating the famous Battle of the Bulge. There was a beautiful, touching tribute to the Americans there.

The entire trip was fascinating for the Lees and they feel, upon reflection that the Belgium people are very grateful to America, and are cordial and hospitable. However, both Germany and France seemed more interested in tourist money than their visitors.

*****
Joe Lynn Leland, Class of 1957, came here for the school reunion, but came early to be with her mother, Joe Copeland, during her cataract surgery on June 19th.

Joe Lynn and husband Bob, both retired, moved from Broomfield, CO to be near their daughter in Las Vegas. She plans to be married in September and with her work spends much of her time in Dallas.

Joe Lynn enjoys living in Las Vegas. She has a cousin living there, Janis Pearson Bischoff, formerly of Perryton and Spearman.

*****
Claudine Clark is being entertained by grandchildren Emily and Lucas for about three weeks. Her daughter Carrie Tidwell, of Fayetteville, NC, is here for a couple of weeks. Carrie (class of '78) is looking forward to the school reunion.

*****
Pastor and Mrs. Rick Patrick attended the Southern Baptist Convention held in Orlando, FL the week ending June 18th. They report an uplifting and interesting convention.

The media over-emphasized some differences in various presentations, but over-all it was a positive and inspiring convention. Especially encouraging were the reports of the world-wide missions. A number of the missionaries now serving in foreign service were present at the convention.

Afterward the Patricks spent four days at Disney World in Orlando. This was most exciting for their sons, Tyler and Evan.

They returned last Tuesday, enjoying pleasant flights both ways.

*****
Dorcas Collard returned from San Antonio, where she spent several days. She attended the funeral for Harriet Collard Robb who had succumbed after surgery complications from five by-passes.

Dorcas is the sole survivor of the local generation of the Collard family. She remained in San Antonio to visit her aunt who was ill. Neither of her children will be able to attend the school reunion as had been planned. Other guests she was expecting then also cancelled.

*****
Martha Haden spent a long weekend in Amarillo in the home of her son Billy Ray and family in order to properly celebrate the second birthday of her grandson, Roy. She also visited her brother and sister-in-law Wally and Jane Cayton.

Martha returned late Sunday in order to prepare for expected company for the school reunion.

*****
For the week of June 19th to 7 a.m. June 26th, Dwayne's weather report shows the highest temperature was on the 19th at 98, the lowest also on 19th at 57. Rain measured 1.05 on 24th; 1.75 on 25th, .54 on 26th, for a weekend total of 3.34.

How about that - Palo Duro Lake rising five feet!!

*****
Information is scarce regarding the serious accident on Thursday at a drilling rig east of Spearman in Ochiltree County injuring Spearman resident, Samuel Chivera.

A crew for the Service Oil Co. was working at the rig when a hose forcing cement in the well came out and struck Chivera. He suffered numerous broken bones, and was medivaced directly to an Amarillo hospital.

*****
The hullabaloo raised and fueled by national politics in the liberal media over the recent execution of a brutal murderer caused so much weeping, wailing, and gnashing of teeth that their tears have washed across the oceans - as evidenced by letters to the news from around the world.

Most were lambasting Governor Bush and Texans as cold-blooded murderers who delight in killing innocents. This was in spite of proof of 20 long years of legal wrangling, appeals, stays, etc. Not one, even one, case has proven that an innocent person has been executed. The media is inundating the public with pressure to eliminate the death penalty - and will probably succeed.

How about placing signs on all roads leading into Texas "If you don't want to be executed, commit your murders outside of Texas."

Engagement Announcement

Out At The Lake

by Dorothy Hudson

Orie Cooksey is pictured holding a 5 pound and a 7 pound catfish caught 2 or 3 weeks ago while he was fishing with Steve Bishop. submitted by Dorothy Hudson

Lake Level--June 26, 2000--51.75 ft.

The Lake level has risen almost 5 feet since last Monday's report of 46.94 feet. Water is still coming in, as Hanna Draw is up big. We all get excited--could we set a new record? Some of us have trouble keeping the record in mind. As I am one of those, I looked it up and found that a May 4, 1999 it was 66.5 feet. The water runs into the morning glory at 77 feet.

As of this morning, Jim didn't know of any big fish being caught. Monte George and Troy Brown, fishing from a boat in the Lake Sunday, caught an abundance of channel cats that were keepers (above 12 inches), but none of them weighed over 3 to 4#. Lynn Cook and a fishing buddy had a similar experience.

There were several campers during the week and weekend on both sides. The Beck family had a reunion at the shelter Saturday and Sunday noon. The First Baptist Church of Spearman used it 6 o'clock Sunday evening. Jim has spotted medium size twin fawns on the office side. Last year the short eared doe had twins, but he didn't see the doe with the twins.

*****
R. L. McClellan has sent me a map of the DCD Road along with some history. Albert Graves had found it and passed it on to R. L. The date on the material is 1915. Later when I have more space, we will use it.

Leona Stavlo has given me a story from her daughter Alice Stavlo Satrum of Battleground, WA that illustrates a squirrel characteristic that was new to me. She had noticed a squirrel with a ruff around its neck running across her deck. A better look showed her a mother squirrel carrying a baby as a cat carries a kitten. The small squirrel had wrapped its tail around the mother's neck for more support.

Frank and Lucy Pittman found a stunned female American Kestrel in their barn. They gave it to Daniel and Anna Harris to see if they could get it well. A rabbit cage made a temporary home for the injured bird. They would put bits of raw beef liver on a stick and present it to the bird. She caught on and would take the food. Later they turned her out, and she began flying short distances and then longer. In two days she turned up with a male companion. She will still fly back to take liver from a stick when either Daniel or Anna take it out to her. They are wondering if the male will learn to do the same. The birds have a high pitched kle-kle-kle voice that the whole family enjoys hearing.

Harvest Reaps Tourism In County

Michaela Davis has her eye on apple pie as she and her grandmother Jan Stedje serve a harvest meal to their guests from Southwest Tours.

A bumper crop of Stedje young adorn the combine of Sam Watson (top) who demonstrated his harvest machine to tourists in the Oslo area. From top to bottom are Callie Stedje, Travis Stedje, Lori Watson, Bailey Stedje, and Megan Stedje.

Ada Joyce Stedje, center, displays her new great-grandson Tyler James Stedje, to Margaret Evans of Columbus, Ohio (right) and Ona Mae Hedgins of Maine who toured the Stedje wheat harvest with Southwest Tours while Bailey Stedje (far left) tries her hand at driving a restored John Deere tractor. Brent and Julie Stedje are parents of the children.

Lori Watson welcomes Frank Gilner of Washington to the Stedje Farm.

"You're kidding! Flour comes from this!" Bob Gulling of Bucyrus, Ohio, kids with Dennis Stedje on the tour of the Stedje wheat harvest.

Like precision soldiers, the combines marched with headers whirling through the glistening grain.

For the farmers, it was a day's work, but for the audience it was a parade.

With the coming of the Southwest Tours to Hansford County, the commonplace became the extraordinary as visitors from northern states descended from their bus onto the wheat field of northern Hansford County.

The young children of the Stedje host families, sensing the uniqueness of the occasion, welcomed the visitors with open arms and big Texas "hellos."

Then to the delight of their viewers, a trio of "wheat eaters" driven by Dennis Stedje, Mike Stedje, and Sam Watson rippled through the grain in alignment and stretched out their machines' augers to deliver their gleanings to an awaiting grain cart. The harvesters rounded the field and then returned to park their machines to give their guests a closer look at the green giants.

Having been briefed on the harvest undertaking by Lynn Stedje, who boarded the bus in Gruver, 22 miles previous, the travel group inspected the massive machinery and plucked heads of the golden wheat.

The extended family composed of James and Ada Joyce Stedje, Mike and Judy Stedje, Lynn and Jan Stedje, Dennis and Cari Stedje, Brent and Julie Stedje and children, Tim and Julie Stedje and children, Lee and Becky Stedje, Krista and Buster Davis and children, and Sam and Jill Watson and daughter, mingled with their guests to explain their family farm operation and answer a plethora of questions.

Before serving an authentic "in the field" harvest meal, the Stedje family bowed in prayer with the travelers to sing a blessing for the bounty of their table and of their land.

Heaping mounds of mashed potatoes, chicken fried steak, cream gravy, green beans, marinated cucumbers, hot rolls and apple pie—all made from scratch—filled tin pie plates and hungry travelers while fruit jars of ice tea quenched their thirst.

The Panhandle weather was kind, and the wind was well-behaved inviting the tourists to linger, learn, and share their life's stories. Some travelers had come from far away—Maine, Ohio, and Washington while a few as Bob Izzard had come from Amarillo. The tour, planned by Oslo resident Melyn Johnson of the Guymon Chamber of Commerce and submitted to the tour agency, seemed to be a great success.

Soon it was time for the touring group to make their way to the bus which would take them to the nearby historic Oslo Lutheran Church where a bevy of talented artists awaited them. A quilting demonstration by ladies of the Oslo church, spinning by Mary Olsen, hardanger by Jill Watson, harp selections by Laurie Beth and Brianna Stedje, krumkake Norwegian desserts by Oslo residents, spur making by Ronnie Jones of Hooker, and saddle making by Glen Hamilton of Texhoma.

As time neared for the group's departure to other points on the tour in Guymon, Kenton, and Dodge City; it was evident that their stop in Hansford County was to be memorable. Not only had the travelers been introduced to agriculture in the Texas Panhandle and the people involved in farming, they left sensing they had been a part of something unique and vanishing on the American landscape—a family farm with sons and fathers and mothers and daughters all working together to achieve a mutual goal.

As for the Stedje family, the event escalated into something much more than being a stop for tourists, it became a celebration of a fruitful harvest, a way of life, and the sheer joy of a farm family sharing work and love.

Lori Watson give Mattie Anderson, of southwest tours, from North Dakota a parting hug.
