Spearman crowns "Heart-throb" Queen

by Angela Jones Editor

Then Joy Gresham (Winger) arrives. She is an American writer with a harsh East Coast accent. Her forthrightness stuns Lewis. Both she and her son are fans of Lewis' writing, and she asks him to come and visit while in England. So a friendship begins. This continues for some time, but the audience is aware it will become more than that.

Spearman ISD has an enrollment of approximately eight hundred students, employs over one hundred professional and classified personnel and a budget of $4.4 million. As the largest employer in Hansford County, school board members are faced with a complexity of federal and state regulations effecting our community and youth. Decisions made are not to be taken lightly and foremost in their minds is the welfare of the young people within the available resources.

The task of moving into the twenty-first century is challenging. The path is not always clear and resources are more difficult to obtain. A special thank you is appropriate to the board as a whole and as individuals for all that they do. These dedicated men deserve our support and "thank you".

Exchange vows in traditional ceremony

Michelle Genine Royer, of San Antonio, and Tim Collins Vanderburg, of Lubbock, were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony officiated by Reverend Raymond Judd. The ceremony was held at Margarite B. Parker Chapel, Trinity University in San Antonio at 7 p.m. on January 29.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Michael Royer, of San Antonio. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Collins Vanderburg, of Dalhart.

Michelle's grandmother, Mrs. Lloyd Oberkirch, attended the wedding. Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. L.G. Royer, of Norfolk, Neb.

Tim is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Vanderburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Nelson, all of Spearman. His great-grandmother is Mary Ulmer of Green Ridge, Mo.

Michelle wore an elegant gown by the designers of the House of Bianchi. The traditionally styled gown featured an open sweetheart neckline and full length tapered sleeves. The princess bodice was richly adorned with imported Alencon lace embellished with pearls and sequins. The fashionable straight skirt, with a detachable train, featured Alencon lace motif in front with scalloped Alencon lace bordering the hemline of the gown.

For her hair Michelle chose a pearl and crystal garland that encircled her upsweep coiffure. A soft ripple edge pouff accented the back of the garland and from it cascaded the illusion veiling. She carried a cascade bouquet of orchids and oceana roses.

Tim wore a black Christian Dior tuxedo with a black paisley vest, black tie and a single orchid boutonniere. Nicole Royer of San Antonio, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. The bridesmaids included: sorority sisters, Nan Murfee (sister of the groom) of Dallas, Tracy Scott of Dallas and Julie Vogelbaugh of Lubbock; friends of the bride, Jeanne Barton of San Antonio and Cari Hamilton of Lubbock. They wore hunter green polyester shantung floor-length suits accented with rhinestone pearl earrings and button. They each carried french arm bouquets braided in gold ribbon with nine oceana roses.

Serving as best man was Troy Vanderburg of Lubbock, brother of the groom. The groomsmen who also served as ushers, included: fraternity brothers, Keith Clark of Denton (formerly of Spearman), Dal Cottrell of Lubbock, Michael Hutton of Lubbock and Jay Murfee (brother-in-law of the groom) of Dallas. The groomsmen and fathers of the bride and groom wore black Christian Dior tuxedos with black vests, black ties and a single oceana rose. Nan and Jay Murfee served as readers for the ceremony. The scriptures read were: I Corinthians 13:1-13 and Genesis 2:18-24. Providing music for the ceremony was soloist Dr. Linda McNeil of Trinity University. She was accompanied by organist Dr. David Heller also of Trinity University.

The mother of the bride wore a blush colored floor-length suit complementing the bridesmaids' dresses. Her suit was adorned with tulip and pearl lace on the sleeves. The mother of the groom wore a tea-length cobalt blue

The reception, held in the chapel parlor, had an English theme. A large bridal portrait on an easel was

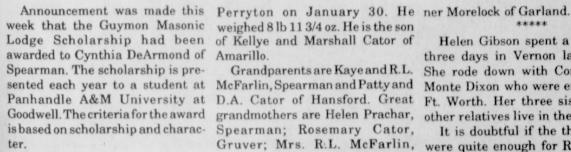

The bride's and groom's tables were covered with hunter green cloths with English lace overlays. The bride's cake was a four-tier Italian Cream cake with Amaretto filling. There were fresh flowers and swans between each tier. The cake was topped with a bride and groom Lladro given to the couple by the bride's father. The bride's table was accented with a large urn filled with white orchids, tulips, mums and oceana roses. The groom's cake was chocolate fudge with a Kaluha filling, topped with a beautiful gold lame bow

The servers for the reception included: sorority sisters, Shaeli Look of El Paso and Patty Tomlinson of Dallas; friends of the bride and groom, Rhonda Anz of Lubbock, Lori Clark of Denton and Jennifer Wagner of Lubbock. Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Joe L. Murfee, III, Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Price, San Angelo; Mr. and Mrs. John O. Colquitt, III, Dalhart; Miss Katie Colquitt, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Jason Rehm, San Antonio; Mr. and Mrs. H.L. Gallegly, Dalhart; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pharis, Dalhart; Mr. and Mrs. Jay Pharis, Corpus Christi; Mr. Craig Pharis, San Antonio; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wilcoxson, Dalhart; Mr. and Mrs. Rob Hicks, San Antonio; Miss Jena Lovelady, Arlington; and Miss Michelle Gill, Arlington. Fraternity brothers attending were: Tom Eynon and fiancee, Caroline, Dallas; Jamie Kerns, Addison; Sam Sowders and wife Lisa, San Antonio; and Rob Rambeau, San Antonio.

After their honeymoon in Maui, Hawaii, the couple will reside in Lubbock where Tim is the Marketing Manager for KAN-TV 40 and Michelle is the Marketing Coordinator of Methodist Hospital.

Gruver Lady Hounds - District Champs; Hounds hammered

by Bob Bort

The Gruver Lady Hounds are the 1993-94 District 1-AA Girls basketball champions, after shellacking the Highland Park Lady Hornets this past Friday night at Highland Park, 55-27. The win improved the Lady Hounds record to 9-0 in district play. Meanwhile, the Hounds were hammered 72-49, but still hold slim hopes of making the playoffs. It is possible a 7-5 record could be good enough for a tie for second place. The Hounds would finish 7-5 if they beat Sunray Tuesday night at Gruver's Greyhound Gym.

In Stratford Friday night, the Lynx played what appeared to be a football game in basketball uniforms. Regardless of the unnecessary roughness, the Lynx came away with a 45-29 victory. The Lynx put forth a good defensive effort, holding the Elks to only four points in the second and third quarters. The best performance of the game was the sportsmanship and composure the Lynx demonstrated in a hard-to-control situation.

The Spearman Lynx and Lynxettes faced off against Highland Park Tuesday night where the seniors played their last game in front of the home crowd. The Lynxettes are continuing to play with the intensity that is needed to take them into the playoffs. Their team, however, will not be back to full force until playoff time as Samantha Beasley has an injured foot and Traci Martin is still recovering from her hand injury. Even against these odds, the Lynxettes defeated the Highland Park Lady Hornets by a score of 41-26. Scoring in double figures for the Lynxettes were Kara Townsen, who was featured in Tuesday's Amarillo Daily News, and Carrie Pearson. These two girls combined hauled in 15 rebounds, seven steals and eight assists. Ashly Shieldknight also chalked up a strong performance with seven points, four assists and one steal.

assigned a report to write about Indians of the United States.

Each student picked out one tribe of Indians to write about. Then they had to construct a habitat to represent their tribe of Indians.

Some of these models are now on display at the Fort Zulu Museum. 28-4 in the second quarter to put I was most impressed by the results of the students' lessons. They used all kinds of materials and a lot of imagination to accomplish tors, Coaches Garland and Myatt, their projects.

On display now are the projects of these students:

Chelsea Nollner - Blackfoot paper sack; Glen Powers - Cherokee - twigs; David Holt - Iroquois tree bark; Micah Edwards - Eskimos - sugar cubes; Juan Reza -Iroquois - cardboard boxes; Travis Atwood - Seminole - tongue depressors, grass; Daniel Ellis - Sioux - a chamois; and Beau Binsinger -Barrera-2, Crystal Christian-2, Pueblo or Hopi - pink adobe.

Be sure to take the time to go by the Museum to see what our younger generation is doing. You will be most pleasantly surprised.

"Dog...gone! It's Valentine's Day and my sweetheart has left me...our love toppled into ruins. What am I to do?'

Don't despair, my canine Casanova, spring is in the air and love is on the horizon. There's a Valentine for you. You'll see.

Love is indeed "a splendid thing"...most of the time. In this case, perhaps it was only "puppy love," but most of us have suffered a broken heart, only later to realize a more appropriate choice. This Valentine's Day, if you are happily in love with "the one," celebrate your treasure. If you are not in that "special relationship," but would like to be, worship God, have faith and celebrate the constant love that He bestows upon us each moment.

God's love should make you smile...and that's wonderful. Someone who needs your smile just might be looking ... right now. So smile and have a Happy Valentine's Day!
