HOLD FOR BETTER PRICE

Farmers of the Rowe Vicinity Will Feed Their Kaffir Rather Than Sell at Prevailing Price.

Marion Winter, a prominent farmer from near Rowe, was here Saturday and made us a pleasant call. He reports farming interests in good shape in his section of the county. Asked as to the cause of the present shortage of kaffir corn complained of by local buyers, he stated that many farmers were keeping their kaffir for feeding purposes while they are shipping out their other products, finding this method more profitable. Cotton and other crops have also conspired to decrease the acreage in kaffir, and the crop this year is simply short in the number of acres planted. However, he says, several cars of grain could be bought around Rowe if the price was made right, but he did not think any of his neighbors would consider a bid of less than 75 cents.

College Banquet.

Rev. W. B. Wilson announces further about the banquet to be given, January 28th by the college people to the business men of the town, that is to be merely social and educational in its features, looking to arouse greater interest in our excellent institution here. There will be no admission charges, no collections taken, nor anything attempted in the way of raising finances on this occasion. Spreads for two hundred guests will be laid, and Hon. R. W. Hall of Vernon, Dr. G. C. Rankin of Dallas, and Rev. C. N. N. Ferguson, of Amarillo, will deliver addresses. Besides these speakers there will be toasts, music, recitations and good cheer dispensed by the splendid gentlemen and ladies who are to be with us.

Lee Blair, the busy, bustling lumberman of Rowe, is up against it this week. Mr. Blair is the manager of two yards, one at the old town and one at the new town, with a mile's distance intervening and under the most ordinary of circumstances his hands are full all day and up into the night. This week he is compelled to serve his country as petit juror, and in order to "serve two masters" acceptably he is compelled to go down to Rowe at six o'clock in the evening, returning on the 9:46 train, thus getting about two hours work at his business.

The congregation of the Presbyterian church have been observing the week of prayer this week. The series of services will be concluded by a sermon Sunday morning on "The Uplifting Power of Christ", after which the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered. You are invited to attend.

CLEARING SALE

Owing to weather conditions we have decided to continue our big Clearing Sale for an indefinite period. We have put out real bargains and the people seem to realize the fact, and our sales have been very satisfactory when conditions are taken into consideration. If you have not visited our store and figured the saving you will make by trading with us during this sale you should do so at once. Don't delay; do it now.

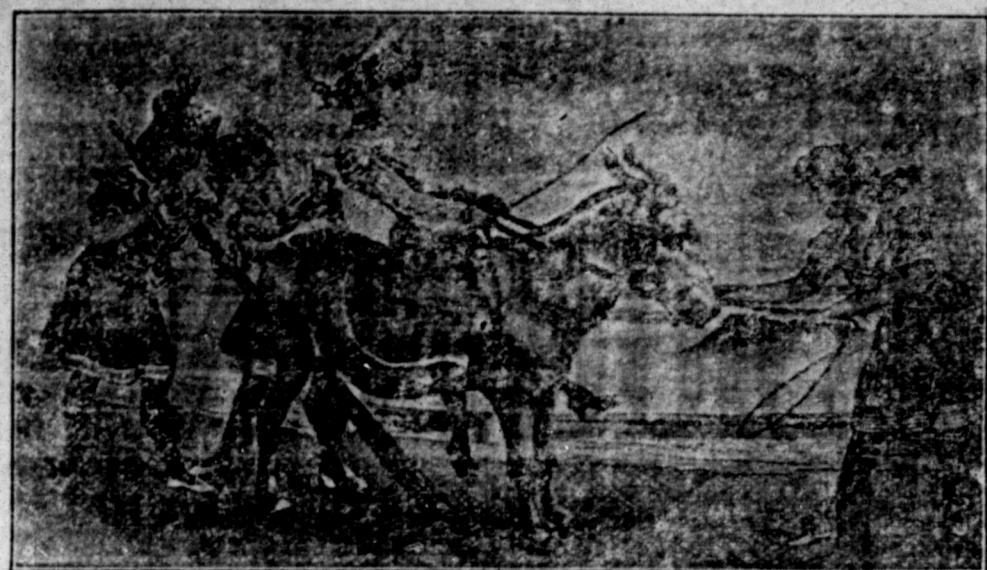

Frank Kendall, the Barton creek stock farmer, is on the grand jury this week, and in an unofficial capacity made us a call Monday. He sowed 12 acres of alfalfa last August, and says that the prospects look mighty good for getting three or four cutting off of it this year. He also pays some attention to hogs, and says that they are a sure winner on any man's farm, always provided they are given the proper attention.

Mrs. Wilburn Ayers, of Memphis, is in the city on the part of her sister, Mrs. D. C. Priddy.

Old Farmer Hopkins.

Old Farmer Hopkins was the bill at the opera house Wednesday night that so delighted the largest crowd that has been present at a show in some time. The crowd was unusually large, and seemed to be in a humor to appreciate anything good the management cared to produce. And our farmer friend, Mr. Hopkins, was really very good and extremely laughable, and every one voted him a success.

THE BANNER - STOCKMAN

Would be a Most Appropriate and Appreciated Holiday Gift to "The Folks Back Home."

Last year about this time the Banner-Stockman made an offer whereby our subscribers were enabled to send the paper "back home" to some friend or relative for 50 cents a year. A large number took advantage of the offer, and now, as those subscriptions are expiring we have received numerous and pressing requests to again favor them with a similar plan. We know beyond doubt that the circulation thus obtained last year has been of inestimable benefit to Donley county and the Panhandle generally. We have ample proof to that effect, and while we lose money on this offer we make it simply to keep up the good work and will again accommodate those of our regular readers as may wish to send the paper away for the good it will do their county and country. The terms are:

Any regular subscriber may buy as many subscriptions as he chooses to be sent to different addresses outside the limits of the Panhandle proper at 50 cents each, the papers to be stopped promptly on Jan. 1, 1908.

Each subscription must be paid for in advance.

The offer expires Feb. 1st, 1907. If not a regular reader you may become one as stated below.

Start the paper now and get the full benefit of the year. Look up those names you subscribed for last year; they will expire Jan. 1st, and will be discontinued promptly; if you wish them continued for another year better make application NOW.

The Banner-Stockman each week, as an immigration puller, will do more good than all the letters you could write during the year. It will tell more about the country and its wonderful growth, development and possibilities than you could "think up" if you should put in your full time doing so. If you have a friend or relative whom you would like to see located here, send him the paper; if the Banner-Stockman don't bring him you needn't try.

To those new-comers in Donley and surrounding counties who have not yet subscribed for the Banner-Stockman we make this proposition: Bring or send us a dollar and we will enroll your name for one year and send the paper one year to any address you may give outside the Panhandle. This is a special offer to NEW citizens only, and this offer, too, expires Feb. 1st.

OUR GUARANTEE:—If after trying the Banner-Stockman three months you are not satisfied with it as a newspaper, come to the office and say so and we will give you your dollar back.

A Happy Christmas.

On December 25 at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jones five miles east of Claude gathered all the children of Mr. and Mrs. Jones to celebrate Christmas and a family reunion. Those present were Mrs. C. Pirtle, Mrs. Ella Agnew and daughter, Miss Maggie White, Mrs. Alice McMahan and daughter, Miss Margie Edwards of Fort Worth, Mrs. Lizzie Phillips and son, Master Houston Terry, of Childress, Mr. Barnett Jones and family, of Claude, Mr. Ralph Jones and family, of Claude, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Melton, of Clarendon, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Barnett and little daughter Lillie B., who reside with Mr. and Mrs. Jones. At about one p. m. the guests were called to the dining room where there were covers laid for 16. The table fairly groaned beneath its load of good things to eat, and all did justice thereto.

In the evening we all gathered in the parlor, where your scribe saw one of the smallest pianos ever manufactured, presided over by Miss Maggie White, who is an accomplished musician. She played some very difficult pieces, and finally started up a ragtime, and a ragtime it was, with nearly everyone present participating. Ye scribe has been in a great many homes on occasions like this, but I will say that I was never in a home where everyone seemed to enjoy themselves as did those who were present on this occasion.

On Christmas eve they had a Christmas tree which all say was a decided success, though ye scribe was not present. There was something like $250 in presents upon the tree.

But now Christmas is over and time is coming for all to part and take up their different avocations in life. They are leaving one at a time. So will it be when death shall claim us, and we drop out of ranks one at a time.

But it was a happy re-union and Mr. Jones and wife will ever be remembered as hospitable host and hostess. May God ever be watchful over them so long as they may live.

A PARTICIPANT.

Shrubbery.

I have now a very fine assortment ornamental shrubbery, evergreens, etc., suitable for cemetery purposes, and those wishing their cemetery lots beautified would do well to see me at once. Will plant the shrubs in person and see that they are bedded in balls of their own earth.

L. K. EGERTON.

Resolutions of Love and Respect.

Whereas, The Baptist Young People's Union of Clarendon, Texas, by its committee on resolutions, being cognizant of the death of Miss Lilla Woodward, an honored member of said B. Y. P. U., which occurred on Sunday morning, the 16th day of December, A. D. 1906; and

Whereas, the B. Y. P. U., of Clarendon, Texas this day mourns the untimely death of this young member, be it Resolved, That this union in behalf of the B. Y. P. U. of Texas, extend to the family of the deceased its heartfelt sympathy in this their hour of greatest bereavement.

Resolved, further, That the B. Y. P. U. of Clarendon has lost in the person of Miss Woodward an efficient member, the church and Sunday school a whole hearted co-worker and the community a bright and loving young woman, who was loved by everyone who knew her.

Resolved, further, that we as a union point her parents and family to an All-wise and ever mindful Creator who is ever watchful over those that love Him. Be ye therefore of good cheer, for her God is your God.

Resolved, further, That the secretary of the B. Y. P. U. of Clarendon, be, and is hereby directed to transmit to the bereaved family of the deceased member a copy of this resolution and that same be made a part of the minutes of this meeting, and also a copy be transmitted to one of our home papers for publication.

The Price of Inferiority

Gold is worth practically the same the world over, because its market value and its coin value is so nearly the same. However the stamp of a nation means value, and as a consequence Uncle Sam's fifty-three cent dollars are worth their face value. A big lumber mill figures that the people don't care to have fifty-three cent values thrust upon them and don't work "culls" over and sell them for finishing lumber. We buy from the big mills and get the best. When you buy inferior lumber you pay the price of inferiority, which is regret.

HARRY THAW seems to think that his mother-in-law is no joke.

THE Texas legislature is in session and T. B. Love, of Dallas, is speaker.

A MAN writes to the Banner-Stockman wanting to know if there is much wind in Clarendon. No, the Bailey fight has not made its appearance here to any appreciable extent yet.

MRS. KENNEDY, an author and "exclusive" society woman of Boston, will marry a coon. For the sake of decency it is to be hoped that race suicide will prevail in this instance, and that the lady will enjoy her close range study of deep shadows and high lights.

SECRETARY SHAW says this country is staggering under a load of prosperity. Fellows who are in the habit of meandering homeward in the early hours of the morning with a breath strong enough to float an armored cruiser will please take notice of this fact and incorporate it in their catalog of excuses.

THE shah of Persia is dead. The shah was about the most married man in the world at the time of his death and it is said his domestic life was not all rose colored. However that may be we extend our sympathy to the various Mrs. Shah and hope that the rent was paid up on the harem in advance so she will not have to move for some time.

W. J. Bost, proprietor of the Panhandle Steam Laundry, of this city, was married on December 28 to Miss Sallie Ledbetter, of Colorado City, Texas. They arrived at Clarendon last Thursday night. In behalf of Mr. Bost's many friends the Banner-Stockman extends a welcome to his life's partner, with congratulations and best wishes for a long and happy union.

The editor of the Banner-Stockman is wrestling with a case of grip this week, and again the paper is compelled to beg the indulgence of its readers for the dearth of reading matter. Contrary to popular belief a newspaper requires brains in the conduct of its business and when the devil dons the habiliments of the head quill-pusher he usually finds that the readers suffer for reading but gain in experience.

G. S. Paterson is buying threshed kafir corn, and reports having shipped several cars to date. Mr. Patterson is taking all grain offered for sale, and would be glad to get more, but he says there seems to be quite a shortage of kafir this year. This is explained by the fact that the farmers are more and more getting into the habit of diversification. Again, Indian corn this year took the place of a great deal of kafir, while the advent of cotton the past several years has been the reason for the farmers cutting down their acreage of their former standby.

You Should have been There.

Monday evening at three o'clock at the Methodist church because it was one of the most interesting meetings we have had for months. A short praise meeting was held, which resulted in an old-fashioned Methodist experience meeting before it closed.

Quite a number of new members were added.

We were also glad to have with us Bro. Hilburn, our pastor, and Mr. Wilson the financial agent of the College.

A most interesting business meeting was held afterward.

The first number of the "W. H. Mission Magazine" was read that afternoon by the press reporter and it was voted to have it a regular monthly paper.

The ladies are meeting with great success in the collection of dues, assessed the members instead of donations to dinners.

Don't forget the entertainment Thursday night, Jan. 17.

Dangers of a Cold and How to Avoid Them.

More fatalities have their origin in or result from a cold than from any other cause. This fact alone should make people more careful as there is no danger whatever from a cold when it is properly treated in the beginning. For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been recognized as the most prompt and effectual medicine in use for this disease. It acts on nature's plan, loosens the cough, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Sold at Dr. Stocking's store.

Having associated myself with Rowe Mercantile Company as their manager for the present. I hope to meet and serve the public in a way so as to continue and retain confidence of the firm which I represent. I realize I can accomplish this only by meeting my friend and the public in an appreciative and business way.

Thanking you in advance for favors shown me,

I am very truly yours,

J. T. MCHAN.

Bray Briefs.

EDITOR BANNER-STOCKMAN.

The Bray school began Monday morning, the 7th. A very good attendance. Patrons of the school are congratulating themselves on securing the services of Prof. Egerton.

Bro. Hudson of Memphis will hold services at the school house Saturday night and Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Be sure to attend.

Another farm house is going up on the Wilson section near Bray. We are ever ready to extend the hand of welcome to those who cast their lot with us.

Our farmers are among the most prosperous in the Panhandle. If you don't believe it, come and see.

We are having a good rain at this writing.
NESTOR.

The following land sales in the last few days were made by Davis & Alexander: J. G. Campbell to A. V. Neely 240 acres, $3600; J. I. Oldham to W. H. Clark, 160 acres, $3360; F. M. Kilman to J. I. Oldham, 158 acres, $2100; J. I. Oldham to Williams Bros., house and lot, $600; J. I. Oldham to J. A. Caldwell, house and lot, $750; W. C. Rogers to Ross Dunn house and lot, $425. Those parties are all moving in and will make good citizens and bespeaks much praise for this firm. It shows too that Donley county property is a good thing to own.

A grass fire last Friday night east of town came near destroying 400 tons of feed for T. S. Bugbee, the stacks being saved only after hard work by neighbors. The fire was started by a passing engine.

This is only one of the many of the same kind that were produced on this farm. Mr. Kimberlin purchased this land from the J A ranch twenty months ago for $6.00 an acre and says he now values it at $25, and considers it cheap at that.

PROGRAM COM.

Rev. W. C. Rogers has sold to Ross Dunn the old Singleton home across the track, price $425. T. R. Johnson has bought two lots from Dr. Gray on the same block and will build soon.

In District Court.

District court convened Monday with Judge J. N. Browning on the bench and disposed of the following cases.

State vs. Roy Taylor, dismissed by attorney.

State vs. Roy Sparks, dismissed by state's attorney.

G. D. Hunt vs. Lottie M. Hunt, suit for divorce, granted.

Mrs. M. McCormick vs. Inge McCormick, suit for divorce, granted.

Chas. A. Crawford civil disabilities removed.

Five delinquent tax suits disposed of.

M. M. Donahey vs. G. S. Patterson, non suit.

On account of the serious sickness of his wife Judge Browning left for his home in Amarillo Wednesday, Judge F. B. Stanley presiding during his absence.

We do not care to go on record as one opposed to rain, for rain is one of the best things going, but one of these kind of downpours that gets all the water out of the clouds that will possibly come and then turns the cloud upside down on one is carrying a thing too far. On Tuesday night a good rain fell, and Wednesday morning the trees were covered with a thin veneering of ice, the temperature having fallen considerable during the night. A peculiar thing about the rain was the heavy thunder and lighting that accompanied it. It is seldom that thunder and lightning are noticed during the winter months in this section.

Strange Sights in Foreign Lands.

The Ladies Aid Society has been very fortunate in securing Rev. A. M. Lumpkin, A. M., in a series of three lectures, on "Strange Sights in Foreign Lands," on Dec. 10, 11 and 12.

He uses eight different costumes, of eight different countries. These costumes were made especially for Mr. Lumpkin during his travels in foreign lands. Mr. Lumpkin traveled more than 1,000 miles in Japan alone. For many years the Bedouin has been a terror to explorers. Mr. Lumpkin tells how he made his way among them, and of their customs and peculiarities. In his lectures he uses the costume used 2000 years ago.

In his description of Agra, India, which the lecturer says is the center of the world, he possibly reaches the climax of his descriptive powers in describing her ancient ruins, temples and palaces.

In three hours time $75 worth of season tickets were sold to the business men, which we appreciate very much. All children of the school age will be made a rate of 25 cents for the three lectures. Adults, season ticket of three nights $1. Single night 50 cents. This is not simply an entertainment, it is an educational factor; a miniature trip around the world. Mr. Lumpkin has also a large trunk full of curios which he will exhibit during his lectures at the Baptist church.

WHAT THE PRESS SAYS.

The lecture should be heard by every student and all others who are interested in knowing more about the different nations of the world.—Daily News, Trinidad, Colorado.

The lecture was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Its chief feature was its educational force, but it abounded in wit and humor and was full of interest from start to finish.—Prescott Arizona Daily Journal-Miner.

Trinity church was packed solid last night to hear Rev. A. M. Lumpkin's lecture and they were well paid for going. When the speaker had finished his description of Ancient Karnack and Luxor, there was not a man, woman or child present but inwardly determined to make a trip to Egypt some day if it took his last cent.—El Paso Daily Herald.

Nearly every seat in the First Methodist church was occupied last night, the large audience having been attracted there to listen to the second lecture course of the Epworth League. The lecture was delivered by Rev. A. M. Lumpkin who vividly and eloquently told of his travels in foreign lands. Those who failed to hear him missed a rare treat.—Pekin, Ill., Daily Tribune.

BANQUET TO BROWNING

Clarendon Citizens Do Honor to Former Friend and Neighbor Monday Evening.

The handsome and hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Beville was the scene Monday night of an occasion the character of which is not often duplicated. It was a meeting of old friends and representative citizens, called together by means of a banquet to do honor to a former citizen—a man who has climbed several rings higher on the ladder of fame than is usually permitted of one individual, and who in his exalted position is respected and honored by acquaintances, while he is loved and revered by his old-time neighbors and friends.

District Judge J. N. Browning was the honored guest of this brilliant occasion. The banquet was tendered by Mr. and Mrs. Beville to enable the old friends and neighbors of Judge Browning to greet him fittingly on the occasion of his first service in the office to which he has only lately been inducted.

Gentlemen only were invited, and at 7:30 o'clock the host as master of ceremonies announced the toasts in the spacious parlor which was comfortably filled with the guests, some of whom have known Judge Browning since he first came to the Panhandle.

County Judge George F. Morgan was first on the program, responding to the toast, "Our Guest". In behalf of the members of the "old guard", the host and hostess, the bar, and the representative citizenship of Clarendon, he bade the guest welcome. His remarks were hearty and showed a deep undercurrent of feeling. Then followed toast after toast in rapid succession, varying in character from humorous to serious, but all seeming striving to do honor to the distinguished guest without flattery or bombast. The editor is sorry he is not a shorthand writer and had unbounded space at his disposal; we would like to reproduce every word that was uttered. The program:

"Our Judiciary"—Judge A. L. Journeay.

"Our Bar Associate"—Hon. H. B. White.

"Our Statesman and Lawmaker"—Hon. A. T. Cole.

"Our Partner and Business Associate"—Hon. S. H. Madden, of Amarillo.

"Our Law Enforcer"—Hon. R. H. Curmatte, Hon. H. S. Bishop.

"Our Advisor and Friend"—H. W. Taylor and Dr. J. D. Stocking.

"Our Citizen and Neighbor"—W. H. Cooke.

"Our Promoter and Fair Toter"—Hon. I. W. Carhart.

"Our Panhandle Pioneer who always gets there"—Judge E. Dnbbs.

"Honest Jim"—Prof. W. R. Silvey. Prof. Silvey read a most excellent original poem, as follows:

Honest Jim Browning.
Illustrious men are the pride of our land
Though riches and plenty are at its command,
And our broad acres yield a bountiful store
To bless and to nourish the rich and the poor;
Man is supreme; his success we are crowning,
When we grasp the hand of Honest Jim Browning.

Not now of Clarendon, but of Texas the great,
He belongs to the whole of our own broad state;
A product we claim, of this part of the West,
The land and country we all love best.
We hail him as friend and neighbor, you see,
Our distinguished citizen, J. N. B.

When a captain was wanted for the ship of State,
To direct her course through difficulties great,
Our own commonwealth offered men by the score
To save her from wreck on a dangerous shore;
Then was brought forth, all opponents downing,

Our Lieutenant Governor, J. N. Browning.

But the judicial robe, immaculate, clean,
On more honorable shoulders never was seen.

Than the noted jurist whom we honor tonight,
And have chosen to wear it in cause of the right.

The people's choice, is the fat frowning;
He is worthily titled, Judge J. N. Browning.

But it is not as governor we greet him now,
It is not the judge, to whom we would bow,
But a friend and neighbor of long ago,
When people were few, and travel slow,
That we extend our greetings, a welcome resounding—

To our former townsman, HONEST JIM BROWNING.

"Our Cow puncher and Maverick Rustler"—Col. T. S. Bugbee.

"Our Mirth Maker and Hand Shaker"—Judge F. B. Stanley, of Fort Worth.

"Our Brother and One-Thing and Another"—Hon T. H. Peebles.

Judge Browning was then given a chance to defend himself. He was very much moved, and his vibrant voice indicated the depth of his feelings. Never before, said he, had he had his soul so deeply stirred. He called attention to the invalid condition of his wife who on her last bed of illness was unable to be present, but who had insisted so strongly on his coming. His appreciation of the honors shown him this night was boundless, and the highest tribute which could be paid him after his death would be to have these same friends of Clarendon gather round his bier.

Then supper was announced. The dining room and table was decorated in the national colors, quite prettily, while a big bowl of violets graced the center of the table, from which each guest was supplied with a souvenir as he left the festal board. The banquet was such as only Mr. and Mrs. Beville know how to prepare. Six young ladies, the flower of the city's beauty, served the guests. They were: Misses Essie Scarborough, Lida Miller, Laura Kimberlin, Lelia Ross, Lizzie McMullan and Ruth Gage.

The rosy fingered morn had almost raised the eyelids of the sleep god when the banqueters left for their homes, time had fled on golden wings but tarried long enough to cement bands of friendship that will last until the Judge that always rules wisely shall have passed on our case.

To The People of Rowe and Adjacent Territory.

We will open at Rowe this week in temporary quarters at the post office a stock of groceries which we offer to you at prices to meet any legitimate competition.

We expect to handle all kinds of produce hides, furs, chickens, grain and such other produce as you may have to offer with the exception of cotton as the season is too near over to make any arrangements for it. We have no apologies to make for commencing this business and do not commence it with the idea of filling a long felt need. Just simply a plain, appreciative business at a close margin, on a cash basis to study and meet the demands of the people irrespective of their position in life or their preference for either the new or old town their race or their politics we want your trade and it will be our aim and effort to merit same by a courteous treatment and close margins. We are anxious to show you our willingness to please you,

Yours for service,

KEEP your eye on the railroad proposition.

YOUR poll tax must be paid this month if you are to vote during the ensuing year.

THERE is no more independent man on earth just now than the Donley county farmer.

C. E. EDWARDS is the new owner of the Hereford Brand. O. E. Thomas is editor. The Brand is the best patronized country newspaper in Texas, everything considered, and is, withal a newsy sheet.

THE county seat election in Wheeler county is not a settled thing after all. One box was thrown out in the official count, thus giving a majority to the old town of Mobeetie. A contest in the courts will likely follow.

THE New Year special edition of the Dallas News was something immense. Consisting of 120 pages, it was the largest paper ever put out in Texas, or perhaps in the whole South. The contents were good, the illustrations profuse and excellent, and the issue in its entirety was something for the News and the entire state to be proud of.

Tax Collector Patman visited Jericho, Giles and Rowe last week as a matter of accommodation to tax payers, and that his trip was appreciated is shown by his receipts. He spent one day only in each place. At Jericho he collected about $300; at Giles, $500, while at Rowe his collections amounted to more than $1000.

Rev. C. C. Bearden has bought the newly constructed S. C. Chesnut home and Mr. Chesnut is building another residence on a nearby lot.

Experimental Feeding.

T. S. Bugbee is now feeding 150 big steers under the direction of the Agricultural Experimental Station people at Bryan. The steers are divided into three lots of fifty each. One fifty is being fed on ground kaffir corn with a small proportion of cotton seed; another bunch is getting ground kaffir with cotton seed meal, while the third section is being fed the ground kaffir alone. The experiment has only been under way about two weeks, and as yet comparative progress is hard to estimate.

Mr. Bugbee has shipped a car of threshed kaffir to the A. & M. College where it will be used in feeding experiments down there. He will thresh this year some 35,000 bushels of this grain, from an acreage of about 1500 acres. He has his own mills for grinding the grain, with steam power.

The Banner-Stockman will have more to say about his feeding operations as soon as results are perceptible.

Don't Neglect It

It is a serious mistake to neglect a weak heart. It is such a short step to chronic heart disease. When you notice irregularity of action, occasioning short breath, palpitation, fluttering, pain in chest or difficulty in lying on left side, your heart needs help—a strengthening tonic. There is no better remedy than Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. Its strengthening influence is felt almost at once.

"I have used 10 bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and can truthfully say it has done me more good than anything I have ever used, and I have tried nearly everything that I know of. The doctor who attended me asked me what I was taking and I told him Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, he said it was not going to do me any good, but it did. I have not taken any for a year now, and while there is occasionally a slight symptom of the old trouble, it is not enough for me to continue the use of the medicine. If I should get worse I would know what to do. Take Dr. Miles' Heart Cure as I did before, I consider myself practically cured of my heart trouble."
S. H. DUNNAM, Livingston, Texas.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money.

There's a Reason

There is a reason for everything. There is a reason for excellence in work that can easily be explained. If my work is just a little better than the other fellow's it is either because I understand it better, take more pains to make it perfect or buy better material than is common. In my case there are three reasons for the excellence of Mulkey photographs and those three reasons are given above. I try conscientiously to turn out just a little better piece of work each picture I make, and although I sometimes fall down, it is not my fault and if you are not satisfied I will try again to satisfy you.

WANTS PEOPLE AWAKENED

Clarendon Man Thinks People Are Sleeping on Their Rights and Offers an Eye-Opener.

EDITOR BANNER-STOCKMAN:

DEAR SIR:—I am requested by various citizens out of town to write of the wants and expectations of our beautiful little city. As merchants say, "If you want anything, ask for it." Ours is a modest little town, and at present we only ask for three things:

We want a new hotel on the south side of the railroad; a good, not a fine hotel. We have always needed one, but never so badly as at this time. Doubtless there are various sites, but the most eligible, it is generally thought, is the site now occupied by the Antrobus implement business, as it would make the best impression on the traveling public and be good for the business of Clarendon.

The second thing we want, (we are in the "want column" now) is a Chautauqua assembly. The whole town wants that. The churches, the college, merchants, professional men, and working men. We know this because all these classes above named have been approached and almost unanimously and with enthusiasm have given their names for the assembly. The prohibitionists are anxious to bring the Association here, and the people want the enterprise whether they agree with their principles or not. A splendid program is prepared of speakers. The ex-king (now in exile) of Poland, a splendid orator and patriot with no superior in all the country, is to give two addresses. "Ben Hur" is to be played; a fine orchestra. The last two days, the "farmers' day," the hope is that we may have a street fair. Another feature in the development of this assembly is that we hope that a "health resort" may grow out of it. And why not? No more healthy city in the state, nor beautiful, than our own little classic city of Clarendon. It will be remembered that we had an Assembly here; great speakers came from Dallas and Fort Worth—Gov. Hubbard and others. It netted the association $50 clear of all expenses and culminated in the final act of building Clarendon College.

The third enterprise (and we are modest people and don't want the world) is a railroad. This is the city's necessity.
Those who know say that the road planned and expected will multiply the town by two—some say three. Well, as we don't want the whole earth, two will do, and people will be satisfied with 6,000 population. When we get that we will ask for more. The railroad committee is very sanguine; every member says,
"we can raise the sum of $50,000," and offer splendid contributions. Mr. Montgomery says he will give the most beautiful grounds; "they are ready and waiting." He thinks it is the Prisco enterprise. We want now the enthusiasm of every man, woman, boy and girl.
MUNICIPAL PRIDE. Opie Read, our Tennessee philosopher and humorist, says municipal pride built up Chicago,
that 7th wonder of the 19th century;
that a man who won't talk about himself, his wife or his mother-in-law, will stop in the rain bareheaded and talk of Chicago. So it was with Fort Worth and every other town or city. To us Clarendon should be the most important place on earth. More so than Austin, New York or Washington City, because this is our home. For us the sun rises and sets in this little forest city—the most beautiful in Texas.

This is the future. I firmly believe we have but to reach forth the strong hand and take them. What of the past? We built the churches, the public school, the courthouse, all when we were poor.
We are not poor now; we are rich. The new comers must throw aside that modesty which tells them they are strangers, and take hold as though they were veterans. Clarendon never grew and expanded before as she did the last year. Such stores and banks, with their buildings.
We have eight factories—Cold Storage, electric lights, two mills, two concrete works, cotton gin, laundry; well, some of them are in their infancy, but double the town and you will treble the business of every interest in the city of Clarendon.

The Grip.

"Before we can sympathize with others, we must have suffered ourselves."
No one can realize the suffering attendant upon an attack of the grip, unless he has had the actual experience. There is probably no disease that causes so much physical and mental agony, or which so successfully defies medical aid. All danger from the grip, however, may be avoided by the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy, not one case has ever been reported that has resulted in pneumonia or that has not recovered. For sale by Dr. Stocking.

Mrs. Gus Jacques Dead.

Mrs. Effie May Jacques, wife of Gus Jacques, died Thursday evening, Dec. 27, at 6:30 o'clock. Funeral services were held at the Methodist church conducted by Revs. Cartwright and Turnage, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Dalhart cemetery.

Mrs. Jacques had been slowly fading away for some time, a victim of that dread disease, consumption. Everything that human hands could do to alleviate her suffering and make her last days peaceful was done. Through all her sickness her husband and mother were untiring in their devotion and attention. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to them in their sad bereavement.—Dalhart Texan.

The Donley County State Bank has opened its doors for business. The fixtures ordered some time ago have not yet arrived, but temporary fixtures have been installed and the bank is taking care of its trade in as good manner as is possible under existing circumstances.

Sol Owens' Big Trade.

ROSWELL, N. M., Dec. 27.
Mr. JOHN E. COOKE,
Clarendon, Texas.

DEAR SIR:—You will find enclosed a clipping from the Roswell Record concerning a land deal which Mr. Owens has made. Forty acres of this land sold for $650 an acre. Of this 40, 23 acres was in apple orchard and 17 acres in alfalfa. I wanted our old friends to see what Mr. Owens was doing, and I knew that the Banner-Stockman would be a good way to reach them.

Respectfully,

MRS. S. B. OWENS.

The clipping in question is produced below. The Banner-Stockman is glad to hear that Mr. Owens is doing so well in "the valley," and in behalf of many Panhandle friends extends greetings and congratulations to himself and family:

S. B. Owens has traded 120 acres of the Medley farm east of town for 17,712 acres in Bailey county, Texas. He valued the 120 acres at $42,000 in the trade. In the 120 acres traded are 57 acres of alfalfa, 23 acres of grown orchard and 13 acres of young orchard.

—Ladies, have you registered? If not, why not? It's free. Ask Tucker and Tax, at the Clarendon Bakery. tf

—Go To the Globe during the next week and see the many special bargains. tf
