Fifteen More Irrigation Wells of Various Sizes to Announce Next Week

SENATOR BAILEY WILL NOT RUN

Announces Decision to Retire From Office Next Year—No Reasons Assigned.

From Daily News. Gainesville, Tex., Sept. 6.—Following Senator J. W. Bailey's announcement that he would not be a candidate again for United States Senator from Texas, it was learned authoritatively today that the Senator expects to remove to New York where he will reside permanently.

There he will become a member of one of the strongest law firms in the country and will devote most of his time to the practice of corporation law. His income will be ten times that of United States Senator. The name of the firm with which he will become associated has not been announced.

While Senator Bailey has not given definite reasons for his retirement, it has become known that during the last year he and other democratic leaders in Washington have not been in accord over important legislation and much legislation has been enacted over his vigorous protest. Only a few months ago it will be recalled, he resigned from the Senate, but leaders of that body insisted upon including the recall feature in the Arizona constitution. Friends prevailed upon him to withdraw his resignation.

Senator Bailey's announcement came suddenly, and while it causes great disappointment to his friends and supporters, it has not occasioned great surprise.

The Senator has not said whom he will favor to succeed him and he may not make any announcement in this direction.

F. P. Works to Amarillo.

In the professional column this week will be found the law card of Crudgington, Works & Umphres of Amarillo. Mr. Works having associated himself with the firm of Crudgington & Umphres the first of September.

Mr. Works, a citizen of Hillsboro and Hill county for some twenty years, and a native of Ellis county, is well known to many Hereford people. His state-wide prominence in educational, religious and temperance lines is well known, and the Panhandle and Amarillo is to be congratulated in securing this new citizen.

Mr. Works, who spoke in the interest of prohibition in Hereford during the state-wide campaign, makes the Panhandle his permanent home because of the boundless opportunities he then saw in the country, and the health giving abundance in its sunshine, water and air. His decision to locate at Amarillo was made from the fact of the new court of appeals being located there.

C. P. (Gus) Woodburn left today on the 11 o'clock train for El Paso, but when asked about the purpose of his journey said that it was none of our business. But he had a new suit case and also made a shipment of household goods. His address for a while will be Van Horn and it is told around that he will try to keep a few goats on 6 sections of land.

J. G. Harmon of Kansas City, representing the Witherspoon Commission Firm, was in Hereford today.

J. W. Gordon of Lubbock was in Hereford today on business.

Plenty of City Water.

The city has installed a new pumping outfit and now has plenty of water. A new 15 H-P engine and pump is doing the work. The outfit draws the water from the well and sends it up to the tower with ease.

Will Receive Time Daily.

W. H. Ray will receive the daily correct time direct from Washington, D. C., over a special wire run into his office and connected with a "ticker." One minute before 9 o'clock the "ticker" will say "look out!" and at the exact hour of nine, the "ticker" will dot the time. The Western Union will furnish the service.

Presbytery to Meet Here.

Amarillo Presbytery convenes here today at the Presbyterian church at 8:30 at which time the opening sermon will be preached. The business sessions will occupy Saturday and Monday, both morning and afternoon. The other services are as follows: Saturday at 11 a. m., sermon; Saturday at 8:30 p. m. service by Presbyterian Woman's Mission Society; Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8:30 p. m., preaching; Sunday at 4 p. m., Presbyterian communion.

We cordially invite every one to these services.

W. M. BAKER,

Moderator of Presbytery.

Revival Services.

The revival being held at the Methodist church is growing in interest. The house is filled each night and the evangelist, Rev. Kiker, is doing some good preaching. He is an interesting talker and forceful speaker. The morning services each day at 10 o'clock are also well attended.

Some Melon.

B. K. Nutter, who hails from the old Blue Grass state, takes the cake for raising the biggest melon so far reported this year. It was 28 inches long and weighed 51 pounds. It required the full capacity of nine men to dispose of its contents in the usual and satisfactory way. Mr. Nutter is also some pickle raiser. His patch has done so well that over half of the cucumbers are twins.

New Restaurant.

L. E. McBride has leased the Arcadian Cafe and has opened it for business serving the first meal Tuesday.

Who Saw the Flying Machine Fly?

A long list of Herefordites went to Amarillo Sunday and Monday to see the bird man fly. Among the number caught indulging in this past time were: Ed. Connell, Edgar Betts, Geo. Muse, J. P. Slaton, Chas. Dent, Bill Smith, O. J. Beene, E. E. Wilson, E. B. Posey, John Renfro, A. Kane and Carl Cockrell. J. J. Gallaher and family went up by private auto on Monday.

Tax Valuations.

The total tax valuation for the Hereford Independent School District for this year is $2,056,980. The tax rate being 40 cents on the $100 the total tax income from that amount will be $8,227.92. This with the county and state appropriations which is about $7.00 per capita will make ample funds for the school.

The Fruit and Truck Growers Association meets on the first Saturday of each month. You are invited to attend. The place—county court room; time 2:30 p. m.

DEATH CLAIMS ROGER Q. MILLS

Soldier, Statesman and Lawmaker Who has Served Texas Long and Well.

Corsicana, Sept. 2.—Col. Roger Quarles Mills, ex-United States senator and Corsicana's most distinguished citizens, died at his home here this morning at 10:30. His son, Major Charles H. Mills, and daughter, Mrs. Carrie Wood of California were with him at the time of his death. His other daughter Mrs. Fannie Richards is traveling abroad.

Colonel Mills was 79 years of age, being born in Todd county Kentucky, in 1832. He is survived by three children (his wife having died a few years ago), viz., Major Charles H. Mills and Mrs. Fannie Richards of this city and Mrs. Carrie Wood of California. He has also two grandsons, Roger and Elbert Maloney, living in Washington, D. C.

In private life Colonel Mills was loved, honored and esteemed by the whole community. He was a man above reproach and his kindly disposition and democratic manner won him friends in all classes. He so conducted himself, and such was the worth, integrity and uprightness of his character at home, where he has been known intimately from day to day by his friends, neighbors and fellow townsmen that he serves as an example for the youth of the community to emulate.

He came from Kentucky to Texas and stopped first at Palestine, the home in the early fifties of his uncle, Judge Reekan Reeves. His stay in Palestine was of short duration. He moved to Corsicana, Navarro county, where he ever since resided. He was a typical son of Kentucky, full of health and spirits, splendid constitution, well proportioned frame, a pleasing, intellectual face, prepossessing address, with an ambition to excel and make his mark in the state of his adoption. In his Corsicana home he industriously devoted himself to the profession of the law, and soon acquired a large practice, which extended to many of the counties in the Thirteenth Judicial District. He, characteristic of his Kentucky blood, took a keen interest in all the

A TRIBUTE TO LABOR

It is to labor, and to labor only, that man owes everything of exchangeable value.

Labor is the talisman that has raised him from the condition of the savages that has changed the desert and the forest into cultivated fields that has covered earth with cities and the ocean with ships; that has given us plenty, instead of want, misery and barbarism.

ROCK

political interests of the day, and being a fluent speaker, he embraced every opportunity to make his views known by public addresses. Being of the old Kentucky whig stock, he, on the first introduction of know-nothingism, fraternized with this new party, more, the writer presumes because it was in opposition to the Democratic party, than from any conscientious belief in the correctness of its principles. During the short career of this party Mills had many an oratorical bout with its opponents, and in those contests he was a foeman worthy of the steel of any of them and none of them could boast of having lowered the plume of the gallant gentleman from Navarro. On the breaking out of the civil war he entered the ranks of the Confederate army and rose to the rank of colonel. He remained in the service during the entire war, and was surrendered at Appomattox. At the close of the war he returned home, renewed his practice and helped to build up his devastated and impoverished country. The first Democratic state convention after the close of the war met in Corsicana and that convention nominated him as congressman for the state at large and he was elected. He was continued as congressman until he was elected to the United States senate; so he was congressman and senator without a break from the time of his first election until he was succeeded in the senate by Governor Culberson an official career almost unprecedented.

Elite Changes Hands.

D. B. Zimmerman, recently from Indiana, has bought from L. McBride the Elite Confectionery. His son, Otis Zimmerman, will be associated with him and they will put in a new stock of goods.

Public School Opens.

The Hereford Public School opened the session of 1911-12 last Monday with all the teachers present and 455 pupils enrolled the first day. The first and second grades are in the annex and all the others in the main building. There were no public exercises as the seats for the auditorium had not arrived. Supt. Ben Short announces that the seats will arrive next week and the general public will be invited to try them, the date of which will be set in due time. As compared with last year the enrollment has not fallen off as the first prophets had predicted.

AMARILLO GOES INTO DRY COLUMN

Central City of the Panhandle Changes Front by 27 Votes—Pros Jubilant.

As the result of an election in precinct No. 1, which includes the city of Amarillo, the Pros won a decisive victory on last Tuesday. The vote stood 727 to 700. The Daily News said:

The antis made a great gain over the showing of strength at the state-wide election. This was in the nature of a gain in the total vote, the increase being somewhat more than one hundred. The result came as a surprise to some, even of the pros, for they realized that the struggle was destined to be close, and an anti victory would not have surprised some of those who have been working in the campaign.

The campaigning was intense toward the close of the contest, ending in a burst of oratory Monday night, to be followed at the close with "personal work" by both sides. It is probable that the auto races, prevented some men from voting, but it is believed that this operated about equally against the antis and the pros.

While there was some talk of "contest" yesterday evening, there seems to be nothing tangible along this line of procedure, and for that reason no statement is made relative to the outlook. It is the contention of the pros that the election was pulled off on legitimate lines and there is no ground for contest, while it may be that some of the antis feel that they have not witnessed the showing that should have resulted from the count.

In this state affairs seem to linger, and the air of uncertainty hanging on the question of contest or the lack of it will prove absorbing. On the streets last evening, one not conversant with the fact that an election had been held, could hardly have told that anything unusual had happened.

Successful Meeting.

Rev. G. T. Bailey has closed a 8 day meeting on the Palo Duro in the Womble community with 6 baptisms. At the close of the revival a large crowd went over to a natural lake north of Wildorado where the baptismal services were held.

Some Fine Grapes.

This office is under lasting obligation to J. O. Lindsey, who lives over the line in Castro county, for a sack of fine grapes. They were of the large, white variety, perfect in form and good to the taste. Mr. Lindsey is one of Castro county's most successful farmers. He has been on his present farm about 10 years and has never made a failure, raising each year enough for his own use some to sell. His is one of the best improved places in this section. He has a fine orchard consisting of apples, plums, etc., and a large farm. Besides the farm he has a few stock which he f...

Obituary.

The death of Emily F. James Mathis at the home of her only daughter, Mrs. N. H. Highsmith of Hereford, Texas, Tuesday, July 18, 1911, removes another and the last old land mark of the James family of Jamestown, Virginia. Her grandfather, Capt. W. M. James, first settled in Jamestown, and her father, Rev. W. M. James, was among the first settlers of Alabama. Her one sister and only brother were pioneers of Texas. They were born in Paladigger county, the brother in 1825, and the sister in 1830. Mrs. E. F. Mathis was born April 24, 1835, and had therefore reached the ripe old age of 76 years. To depict truly what manner of men and women they really were it is only necessary to give a simple statement of their brother's, W. M. James, public career.

Capt. James was a remarkable man. His character was moulded in the heroic, hardy, sturdy pioneer period of Texas. He was a man of the character of the times of Sam Houston, Three-legged Willie Rusk, Hemphill and A. J. Hamilton. His face and head, with its thick suit of hair tinged with gold, have a striking resemblance to John C. Calhoun, and his courage and determination were not exceeded by those distinguishing traits of old Hickory Jackson. With no school advantages he had reached his majority before he could read or write, but without aid and by his own endeavor, he succeeded in hammering out an education. For a time he taught school, and in 1850 he was elected justice of the peace in Madison county, his commission bearing the signature of Gov. P. H. Bell. In 1852 he was elected district surveyor for the Houston district. He was elected in 1854 sheriff of Houston county and his commission was signed by Gov. E. M. Pease. In 1862 he was elected district attorney and was elected to that office three times thereafter, in 1880, 1886 and 1892. His commissions for district attorney were signed by Governors Frank R. Lubbock, O. M. Roberts, L. S. Ross and J. S. Hogg. It was during the years of 1881-2 while district attorney that he made a state-wide reputation as a prosecutor. He succeeded in breaking up some of the most powerful bands of horse and cow thieves that were ever formed in Texas, convicting some of the most notorious criminals ever brought to justice in the state. At that time Texas was overrun with a lawless element which had given the state an unsavory reputation abroad and held the lives and property of our good citizens in a condition of dread and insecurity. The fearless and vigorous discharge of his duty at that time was of great value to this portion of Texas. Indeed his services in every position in which he was placed were rendered with great credit to himself and resulted in great value to the state. In all his public service no suspicion was ever cast upon his honesty or integrity while courageous and determined in the discharge of duty his heart was always filled with the "milk of human kindness."

There are thousands of friends and many relatives throughout Texas, Alabama and Mississippi who will be filled with genuine sorrow at the departure of the last surviving sister of Col. Washington M. James. Though she had drifted to the far west, she found hosts of hospitable friends who administered to her and the bereaved family in the last sad hours. They extend their best wishes to the good people of Hereford.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for anyone who can cure a case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, Free. F. J. "Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of the party" and cut their weeds. It's awful the way they (the weeds) are growing.

THE Hereford Public Schools opens this year with a splendid corps of teachers and under the most favorable conditions, all of which, with the proper co-operation of the patrons, assures a successful school year.

DON'T ask your boy that old thread-bear question, "How do you like your teacher," but ask him how the teacher likes the boy, or better still ask the teacher how he likes the pupils you have sent him.

EVERYBODY in Hereford will have all the preserves, jellies and jams they can eat this winter.

The readers of the Brand will feel interested in the information that the Santa Fe System has made a special appropriation for advertising the Panhandle and South Plains country quite in excess of the usual amount set apart for advertising purposes in this section and which will be expended in advertising the resources of this section of Texas, principally in farm journals, including some papers in foreign languages, with perhaps a few magazines, the campaign to be started early in September and to continue for four months. This is in addition to the space in "The Earth" allotted to this section and which is recognized as one of the best advertising mediums for farm lands, the distribution of land folders and stereopticon lectures descriptive of the country.

The effect of this advertising will no doubt be to invite immigration and attract investors.

J. G. CALLENS

The Amusement Committee of the Roswell Products Exposition to be held in Roswell on the 5th, 6th and 7th of October, has signed a contract with an eastern aviation company calling for one flight daily of Curtiss aeroplanes. These machines will be operated by Aviators McCarty and Wetzig, the latter being an aviator of national repute, who starred in the recent aviation meet at St. Louis. These machines will be the first ever exhibited and flown in New Mexico and will be of great interest to the large number of people on this side of the new state who have never seen an aeroplane fly. The flights will be held daily at the Fair Grounds at Roswell all three days of the big Exposition, and the contract calls for a genuine flight or money back.

Small Blaze.
 This morning about 10 o'clock the fire company was called to put out a small blaze of unknown origin in the Cummins residence near the College. A large number of citizens responded to the call a wild rush of autos, buggies and dray wagons were seen to "fly" up the streets. In a few minutes they all came back. Not much damage was done.

Very Serious
 It is a very serious matter to ask for one medicine and have the wrong one given you. For this reason we urge you in buying to be careful to get the genuine—

THE HEREFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT Liver Medicine

The reputation of this old, reliable medicine, for constipation, indigestion and liver trouble, is firmly established. It does not imitate other medicines. It is better than others, or it would not be the favorite liver powder, with a larger sale than all others combined.

Bulles.
 The opening of school has developed a few would-be scrappers. It appears that it is the disposition of a few boys among the middle sizes to impose on those of smaller size on the way from school. One case has come to light in which a small boy was pounded around and his lunch scattered on the ground. Sometimes two boys will "jump on" one of equal or smaller size. Don't be cowards boys, but be men. Defend your rights, but don't try to play the "bully." No body likes a bully and sooner or later he will meet his "match."

COMPLIMENTARY TO MISS VAUGHN.

A pleasant afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock was given by Miss Willia Elliott last Friday complimentary to Miss Mildred Vaughn. In the reception rooms were placed large vases of golden rod and bowls of tube roses carrying out a color scheme of yellow and white. After a lively game of "hearts" the score cards, of which contained appropriate quotations which the guests read and commented upon, light refreshments of cream and nabiscos were served. Several piano numbers were enjoyed, Miss Percy Gallaher performing. Those present were, Mesdames Arnold, Miller, Elliott, Misses Vaughn, the bride-to-be, Wilson, Gallaher, Gregg, Arthur, Jowell, Woodburn and Mate Hunt of Canyon.

C. F. Little and Miss Lottie Banks who live west of town, came in Saturday evening and while Lottie brushed up a little, Mr. Little stepped over to the county clerk's office and procured a marriage license. They then proceeded to Justice Cook's office where that gentlemen spoke the words which made them man and wife. Mr. and Mrs. Little stayed over night at one of the local hotels, and on Sunday morning they went their way rejoicing and seemed to be as happy as two big sunflowers.

Parrott Paragraphs.

God has been very gracious to us. For two weeks we have had the most beautiful meetings that it has ever been our privilege to attend. Our whole community has been touched, revived and quickened. Whole families have been brought to the Lord. There are only five who have not made open profession and we know that they are very near to the Lord. Brother Edwards assisted by Brother Bailey of Hereford the first Sunday and Monday, has carried on the services. Brother Edwards has been so nobly assisted by his family. Miss Nellie Turber of Dimmitt has endeared herself to us all by her noble work among us in her playing and singing. Miss Turner came to us a stranger, but this is so no more. She is now one of our family.

Last Sunday it was our great pleasure and benefit to have Brother and Sister Shore with us. It was a treat indeed to listen to Brother Shore's discourse. He baptized Waldo and Ethel Jenhings while here.

We meet Wednesday night for prayer meeting to be led by Carl Jennings. Our topic being lives of great men, taking Daniel as our example.

Next Sunday Brother Edwards will be with us all day. We take our dinners and have three services. We want all the dear people who have been praying for us to know that we owe them much, for our victory could never have been so great without prayer.

A most delightful gathering assembled at Brother Edward's Monday night to help Calvin celebrate his twenty-first birthday. Ice cream and cake were served. It was a great pleasure to have some of the young people of Dimmitt with us. It was the first time our young people have been together since we have been so wonderfully blessed and it was a joy to see their shining faces.

Brother Shephard will represent our Sunday school at the Sunday School Convention at Amarillo this week. We feel that God has been good to us by giving us such a representative.

Mrs. Grant, the mother of A. C. and I. D. Grant, is here visiting her sons.

All come and help us rejoice Sunday. Jack.

Plow Fire Guards.

This and adjoining counties are in great danger of fire. The heavy growth of grass this year makes the danger of a big prairie fire something fearful to contemplate. All remember the big fire of November 1906 when 3 million acres of grass were burned over and how the people of Hereford became frightened on account of the near approach of the blazing billows. A fire would be a great calamity to the stockmen and farmers, the loss of the grass being equal to the loss of a feed crop. Therefore every body should plow fire guards right now. Another thing which may make the danger of fire more certain is the presence of the tumble weeds. Let every one be careful about burning these weeds. Don't attempt to burn weeds on a windy day. One of these big tumblers might get away and start something that you couldn't stop. The railroad men burned weeds along the right-away last winter and they will use every precaution to prevent the engine sparks from firing the pastures. Let every body be careful. A few signs of warning put along the roads throughout the county and other counties might prevent some camper from leaving a fire which would become a burning brand in case the wind came up.

Slap Shots.

To practice what we preach is more difficult to reach than the highest permisson on the free. The man who flares up at what a newspaper may say about his conduct, should thank the reporter for what he did not say. To be good is often to be lonesome. Don't wait around like a loafer for a hand-out—pitch into the game if you can't play anything but "pig-tale."

A lie told on you will not hurt, but the truth is powerful inconvenient to the guilty. Six days shalt thou labor to skin thy neighbor, but the seventh shall be kept "wholly" for more business. The Soap Shots of the Dallas News made a blunder in a recent issue presumably on account of his lack of knowledge of vaccination customs. Hesays: "Percy Noodles says that the only engagement he ever broke outright was with a girl who was so careful of her complexion she would permit him to kiss her only on her vaccination mark." Do the high falutin doctors always vaccinate on the arm? Be careful Percy!

Problems of the Fireside

The American home is the throne and fountain head of greatness and the destinies of the human race must depend upon the wisdom of the fireside. Politicians may make party platforms; legislatures may pass laws, but the fundamental questions of public importance must be finally settled by the man of toll as he quietly sits by the fireside after the day's work is over.

The Struggle for Power.

The outstanding ambition of the human race today is power. Financiers, with the inventive genius of an Edison, are seeking to associate capital in such a way as to multiply power. Labor, with the mighty trend of a nation marshaling its army, is seeking to arrange its forces so as to increase power. The farmer, with the patient and honest endeavor typical of his occupation, is seeking by organized methods to gain power. Each is endeavoring to combine two or more economic units of their class in such a way as to increase the power of both. The purposes are laudable, but the methods each must employ present problems in which all humanity is involved and they must be finally settled at the fireside.

The Problems Upon Us.

We are well into these problems with capital in the foreground. Numerous solutions have been suggested, but the most primitive one is that of prohibiting by law the extension and multiplication of power through organized effort. This solution is manifestly impracticable. No one would for a moment tolerate a law that would prevent the invention or use of an appliance which would multiply the power of steam or any other potential energy, because perchance it might also increase the danger—in growth the element of danger always increases at the same ratio as other component parts. To destroy or limit power is to strike down progress and return to the dark ages, and is an acknowledgment of our incapacity to cope with human affairs. We must quickly recede from this position or pass rapidly on to government ownership.

To acquire the highest degree of efficiency in civilization, we must develop every pound of energy and power for usefulness there is in all things and multiply this power as many times as human ingenuity can devise, minimizing, as far as possible, the element of danger without weakening the source of power.

The problems in the industrial horizon today are gigantic and their solution awaits the patriotic and careful consideration of men of noble minds and big hearts as they sit by the fireside.

The Beach Congress.

This organization is purely local and has superseded the Soda Box Congress of the Corner Grocery. It holds its sessions nearly every afternoon on the side walk in front of Woodburn's drug store and the sole furniture used for the comfort of the members consists of two once-painted green benches, but badly scarred by the loafers and whittlers. The Congress, in which all sorts of subjects may be discussed without fear of political ostracism or favor of office pie, meets at any convenient hour from 2:30 to 4 o'clock and continues until the chairman finds some one to haul him home. The present members have all been self-appointed, but as the brand has been forbidden to publish their doings or their names, the only pain of lynching, only the names are given: E. T. W., C. R. M., Capt. W., W. J. D. B. and Capt. T. By right offowning the aforesaid benches E. T. W. is chairman and big war talker; E. B. O. is the chaplain and bible authority; C. R. M. is chief historian of the late scrap with the Yankees; Capt. W. is the constitutional lawyer and arbitration judge; J. D. B. is the high priest in the political temple burning incense on the Bailey alter, while W. B. D. is a publican standing near by, squirting cool water on the oil fumes from the aforesaid alter. Capt. T. holds an independent office being a long lost member of Quantrell's gang.

The principal subject discussed this week was: Resolved that hoop-skirts were in fashion from an unknown date up to about the year '75. The chairman and big war talker sprung the subject and affirmed while the chaplain took the negative.

Each tried to prove by divers references and citations that they were right, the chaplain claiming that the said springy affairs were worn as late as '82." To prove his point, the chairman, after cutting off an extra chunk of Battle Axe and storing it in the recesses of his jaw, began to call in witnesses. The first one called was J. H. Wilson, who testified that in Collin county the women quit wearin' 'em when the boys could get close enough to the girls to see the powder on their faces and "take holts" for the round dances without prizin' up their dresses on the opposite side, and he thought that was somewhere in the '70's. The chaplain agreed to call Wilson and said he was a fair minded man, yet after he had testified, he filed objection to his partial testimony as irrelevant and immaterial. The next witness called was J. P. Wood, who agreed with the first witness and set the date when hoop-skirts went out of fashion about '78. The chairman chuckled as he saw the chaplain bite his Tinsley harder, and shift it to the port side. Capt. W. then joined the Congress and after due recognition was put on the stand by the chaplain, who tried to lead the witness and get him to say that the first Dallas Fair was in 1882, but the Capt. wouldn't be bulldozed and tried to jog his memory to say that the hoop-skirts found their demise in the '70's. But the chaplain would not stay beat. He took the matter seriously and going home asked his wife about the affairs of fashion. The next day, which was Tuesday, he (the chaplain) returned loaded to the guards. He tried to lead the chairman to admit that the first Dallas Fair was held in 1882, the

Louis R. Bradley.
Died at his residence in Hereford on Wednesday, September 6, at 6 a. m., Louis R. Bradley. Such was the simple notice of the death of one Deaf Smith's county's most worthy citizens. His taking away was sudden. He arose in the early morning a few minutes before six o'clock and complained of being uncomfortable, and before any aid could be given, the summons came, only the members of his family being present. The sad news was carried swiftly to his neighbors and friends. The remains were turned over to Funeral Director O. E. Thomas, who prepared the body for burial. On Thursday afternoon the funeral services were held, the Masonic Order, of which he was a member, using their beautiful and impressive ceremony. The Masons formed a line of march at their hall on Main street where it was joined by the hearse and a long line of carriages. The procession passed up Main street, turning into 4th street to the Methodist church where the pastor, Rev. J. M. Sherman, preached the funeral sermon. A large number of friends and relatives were present. After the services at the church the procession was again formed and the body removed to the City Cemetery where interment was made. Louis R. Bradley was born in Grayson county, Texas, April 21, 1863, and hence was 48 years, 4 months and 15 days old, being in the prime of his life. At the age of 21 years he came to the Plains and worked as a trusted cowboy on the T Anchor Ranch for a number of years. Afterwards and up to his death he was engaged in stock raising and ranching. On 1896 he was married to Mrs. O. Palmer, nee Womble, they were born four children, Wesley, Ola, Brucie and Egbert, all of whom survive him. One brother, J. Walk Bradley, and two sisters also survive him, one sister living in Grayson county and the other in California, neither of whom were able to attend his funeral. A step-daughter, Mrs. L. H. Shore lives in Kansas. In the death of Mr. Bradley the county loses one of its most useful men. He was a man of a quiet and retiring disposition, doing many kind acts of charity of which his friends little knew. He was a devout member of the Methodist church. The friends sympathize with the family in the loss of husband, father and brother.
