Goodnight College.

Last Tuesday was the closing of the commencement exercises of the Goodnight College. Barbecue was given and invitations extended to the public to attend.

They came from the east, west, north and south. The train from the south brought in about 250—half, or more of these from Clarendon. The train from the north brought in about 200. About 200 came in carriages, wagons and on horse back. The day was ideal for such an occasion.

Col. Chas. Goodnight had given personal attention to the barbecue department, and Rev. Sebe Thomas had simply "spread himself" to have everything the best and an abundance of it. This department was a success. Everybody praised the quality, quantity and cooking of the meat. Col. Goodnight seemed to be one of the most happy boys on the ground. Mrs. Goodnight forgot her age and became young for the day.

Prof's. Webb and Thornton and their excellent teachers proved themselves "masters of ceremonies." Their program was well arranged and of the highest order. The exercises were "par excellence." Everything went off with the regularity of a "Seth Thomas" and "Sebe Thomas" clock. They would have done credit to any school, and Bro. Sebe Thomas and his noble faculty deserve the thanks of the public for their earnest, faithful and efficient work, and we feel sure will receive them.

A game of baseball was played in the afternoon. We know little about it, as we were busily engaged in business matters. The writer addressed a large and attentive audience on the "Future of Goodnight Baptist Industrial Institute."

At Amarillo on June 2, there was a meeting of representative brethren from the Panhandle, with J. M. Carroll, of Waco, and R. F. Jenkins, of Greenville, representing the Baptist Educational Commission.

At this meeting it was found that we would be ready in a few days to take charge of the property. A provisional board of directors was appointed to take charge of the school and property, pending the examination of titles and arranging of some details.

This board is composed of the following gentlemen: R. E. L. Farmer, Memphis, chairman. Wilson C. Rogers, Clarendon, sec. J. L. Smith, Amarillo; W. H. Fuqua, Amarillo; B. T. Ware, Amarillo; Bennett Hatcher, Amarillo; H. D. Ramsey, Clarendon, S. C. McCarty, Claude; W. B. Slaughter, Dalhart; Charles Goodnight, Goodnight; E. A. Wesson, Hereford; J. T. Burnett, Canyon City; Judge Q. Moore, Claude; L. T. Lester, Canyon City.

This board met at Goodnight on June 6, and elected the following faculty for the ensuing year: C. H. Webb, Pres.; A. H. Thornton, Miss B. M. McClendon and Miss Madora Chandler. Two and perhaps three others are to be added to this faculty.

Col. Goodnight, Judge Q. Moore and S. C. McCarty were elected as a committee to adjust all details for settlement between the out-going and in-coming managements and report at the next board meeting on June 17, for final adjudication. We wish to say to the public, that we deserve your full co-operation, and feel sure we will receive it, in putting this school on a solid footing from the beginning. We are going to give the Panhandle a school to be proud of.

Chas. Derrick returned Tuesday from Knox and King counties, where he received two bunches of cattle for Lewis & Molesworth, one from Roy Burnett, shipped from Estelline, the other from Frank Patton, sold and shipped from Childress. Does it pay to raise kaffir corn? Let the experience the past year of Capt. E. E. McGee, of Lelia, serve as an instance. He had 31 acres in kaffir, from which he threshed 1416 bushels and which he sold at 70 cents per hundred. There are 56 pounds to the bushel, and the total cost of making, harvesting, threshing and selling the crop was about $100. A little figuring will show that the crop netted Capt. McGee $14.50 per acre. It is only necessary to add that such land as his can be bought all over Donley county at from $8 to $12.50 per acre, thus showing that the first crop will pay for the land and leave a surplus of from $2 to $6.50 per acre. Hundreds of instances such as the above can be cited all over the Panhandle country. If the people of the lower sections of the state could be brought to a proper realization of these facts there would be a grand rush to purchase homes here.

While engaged in repairing the JA windmill at Southard Wednesday W. N. Weatherly got his left hand caught between the piston rod and the main casing. The result was a very badly mashed hand, all the bones of the member being crushed and broken. Mr. Weatherly came to town and Dr. Carroll dressed the wound. While quite serious the injury will not result in the loss of the hand.

Donley County Improvement Club.

Permanent Organization Effected and Officers Elected.

It was quite a rousing meeting that was held at the opera house Monday in response to a call for a mass meeting to effect the permanent organization of the Donley County Improvement Club, mention of which was made in these columns last week. There were some forty of our best citizens present. Messrs. F. P. Holland, Jr., Joel L. Levin and W. B. Whitman, of Texas Farm and Ranch were present and made talks to the meeting, setting forth some of the advantages of the organization and telling of the work of the 150,000 Club of Dallas.

The meeting was called to order by Chairman Bugbee and the secretary reported about 40 or 45 names on the membership rolls. After various suggestions the report of the committee on permanent organization was called for but the committee stated they had not made any recommendations and suggested that the matter be left to the body direct. The election of permanent officers was accordingly taken up with the following results:

President, E. Dubbs.
Vice President, W. P. Powell.
Secretary, John E. Cooke.
Treasurer, A. J. Williams.

A committee on by-laws and regulations was appointed as follows: D. C. Priddy, J. E. Cooke and A. M. Beville.

The first Monday of each month was decided on as time for regular meetings.

The chair appointed as executive board for the body Messrs. W. H. Patrick, T. S. Bugbee, J. D. Stocking, W. H. Cooke and A. M. Beville.

New members were added to the Club as follows: J. T. Patman, Richard Walsh, H. Gleason, F. P. Holland, Jr., of Dallas, J. M. Wattenbarger, J. A. Johnson, W. P. Powell, A. J. Williams.

Next Monday, June 12, was set for the next meeting, to be held at the opera house at 4 p. m., and the committee on by-laws will then make its report.

A few words as to the work the Club hopes to accomplish will perhaps be in order. To be brief, the Donley County Improvement Club will bend its energies and the energies of its members individually to the upbuilding of Donley county in particular and the Panhandle in general. By a systematic plan of advertising it is expected to bring this county and her advantages to the attention of those people in other states and localities who might be induced to emigrate to Donley county. It is the opinion of the Club that there is to be a flood of immigration to the Panhandle this year and Donley county must "get busy" and get her share of this influx. In union there is strength, so this Club has been organized in order to afford an opportunity for our people to all work together for the same end—the good of the county. It is expected to spend some money in this effort, and every man in Donley county who is interested in the development of the county should and must get behind this movement and push; he must join the Club and pay his dues, for it takes money to do things and without money the Club will be a useless incumbrance to the town and county. The dues are only 50 cents a month, and the Banner-Stockman urges every good citizen to hand in his name for membership at once.

J. H. Roberts made us a call Monday and reported having just finished cutting his alfalfa. He had 5 1/2 acres and got 6 tons of fine hay and will get two or three more cuttings this year. Another field of eight acres which Mr. Roberts planted this spring is doing finely and will soon be ready to cut. All who have tried alfalfa praise it highly as a never failing crop in this county and it is a mystery why more of it is not planted. We know of no crop which will begin to compare with it as a money-maker.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal conditions, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Clarendon, Tex., June 9, 1905

If Clarendon is to have a 4th of July celebration this year it is time the arrangements were being made. It requires some work and a good deal of worry to successfully carry out an entertainment of this character, and if we are to have a celebration let's begin to get busy on the proposition. We can hardly afford to pass up the celebration this year as it means a good deal of money to the town, besides the people have become accustomed to coming to Clarendon on this date and will be disappointed if they are not given a chance to again be our guests on the Nation's holiday.

SHERIFF PATMAN, who returned last week from a trip to Hopkins county, says there is much talk of the Panhandle in that section and it is his opinion that there will be a big flood of immigration to this country in the near future. Several parties of his acquaintance, after talking with Mr. Patman immediately placed their lands on the market with the expressed determination of selling out and coming west. Mr. Patman says it is astonishing to note the number of people who have a wrong impression of the Panhandle country. It would seem that the majority of the population of the older counties of the state consider the Panhandle a wilderness, where it never rains and where the only crops attempted are some dry weather forage or feed stuffs. The Panhandle country needs to be advertised to the world for what it is. The people must be told of our advantages, and in the opinion of the Banner-Stockman the best means of doing this is through organized agencies such as the Donley County Improvement Club which was organized this week for work along this line. Heretofore about all the information given out about the Panhandle has been done by the country newspapers of the territory, together with such printed matter as various real estate agents have been able to send out. A concerted action on the part of the people of the Panhandle, looking to the education of the masses in regard to our advantages, is necessary.

The Panhandle Summer Normal will open June 20, and we are informed that prospects are good for the best summer school for teachers ever held in the Panhandle. Correspondence indicates that the attendance will be a record breaker.

CLASS HISTORY.

Being the Paper of T. S. McClelland, Jr., Public School Graduating Class of 1905.

(The following "Class History" was prepared and read by Stanhope McClelland, a member of the graduating class of the public school this year. As it deals briefly with each member of the class it is of interest to all concerned in the Clarendon Public School. The picture of the graduating class and Supt. Silvey is also presented in this issue in a supplement form which makes it valuable as a keepsake.)—Ed.

History has been defined as a narration of events, giving the causes and results. Such a history may be of either nations or individuals. A mere record of bare facts does not attain to the dignity of history proper, for it must be a narration fully told, with the most accurate regard for dates and documentary evidence. In compiling the following history we have had access to family Bibles, consulted parents and grand-parents, and have thus obtained much of this information from what seems to us very good sources. If, however, some incidents herein related seem improbable we disclaim any responsibility, for we have trusted to the above named sources.

As our salutatorian is the first speaker tonight it is proper that his history should be first given. James Bruce McClelland, Jr., was born the 1st day of January, 1889, near the boys' haven of delight, Kelley Creek. He is a direct descendant of Patrick Henry, and, has, I hope shown you tonight that he is not altogether unworthy of this great orator. In 1904 he became an advocate of the extemporaneous method of speaking, and made such a good speech for it and gave such a good example of it that the Silvonian Society adopted it. This is to be his pillar of fame throughout the coming years. An early incident of his life has come to my knowledge, to be given to the public for the first time: On one occasion Bruce was electioneering for a candidate with the prospect in view of a "set-'em-up," and as a consequence he was yelling the candidate's name very loudly. A man who happened to be standing near him remarked: "Oh, hurrah for a donkey." "Oh, all right," answered the young hopeful, "you yell for your candidate and I'll yell for mine." Bruce's father is the well-known cattle and business man of Clarendon, J. B. McClelland, Sr. Bruce intends to take a university education, and consequently a bright and useful career should be before him.

Rhame, Texas, is now before the attention of the public, it being the birth-place of our valedictorian, Miss Millie Baker. She first opened her eyes to the problems of this life on the 21st of Dec., 1888, and has lived in Clarendon ever since 1894. Her father is the popular politician and livery stable man, Mr. Green Baker. His wife's maiden name was Miss Alice Crowley. Millie has full faith in the charms of music, so much so, in fact, that she has based all her future hopes upon it. She intends to go to the Kansas City Musical Conservatory for her finishing, and there is little doubt but that she will soon be heard from in that line.

A. H. Stevens, vice president of the Confederacy, is worthily represented here tonight, and that by one of our brightest scholars, Roy Randolph Stevens. There was an uproar in Oakwood, Texas, when he was born and he has been pretty successful at keeping the roar going ever since. His father, W. M. Stevens, is well known in town. His mother's maiden name was Miss Mattie Manning, first cousin of Daniel Manning, Secretary of the Treasury under Grover Cleveland, but for all these celebrated ancestors Roy is going to become a civil engineer and make a name for himself. Roy used to study the effects of liquor a good deal and one night after he had been in bed some time he called his mother. When she had gotten in talking distance Roy yelled out, "Mama, don't wine make headaches?" "Yes, Roy, what do you want to know that for?" "Well, and why wouldn't headaches make wine?" There was a stillness in his room then, but in the distance Mrs. Stevens could be heard saying, "If that little scamp ever wakes me again to ask any of his foolish questions, I'll—" A snore from Roy's room was the only answer. Mathematics is his favorite study and he has always led his class in it. He is going to the State University and if he keeps up the same record there as he has here he will soon finish the course with and honor ready to enter upon his profession.

We now come to the star graduate, and she may be called without exaggeration the soul of the class. Miss May Lumpkin has been with us for only two years. During that time however, she has become such a general favorite, that we think of her as one of our oldest scholars. The city of Hutte, Texas, became incorporated the same day she was born, May 6, 1886. Narrow minded people say it just happened that way but we know better. From the earliest time she has been very religious and every night she would come and say her prayers to her mother. After one especially mischievous day, when she had finished her prayers, there was a pause, then, "God bless the Bad Man, too." Before her mother could say anything she was told by her young pet, "I had better make friends with him, too." She, too, is going to study music, and is even now thinking of some day rivaling Paderewski. Baylor College is going to have benefit of her presence next year, but wherever she may go or whatever she may do she will always be well-liked on account of her pleasant disposition.

Miss Lila E. McClelland has the distinction of being the youngest member of the class, and has always excelled in the study of the dead languages. She possesses the poetic genius in no small degree, having written poetry on several topics before. This is her first appearance, however, in public, to recite one of her own productions. The current of her past life has been smooth and almost uneventful, but she has always been fond of reading and study. She was born July 18, 1890. When on her visit to the world's fair she was so charmed by the beautiful music which everywhere greeted the ears of the visitors that she has determined to make that her special study, and is going to St. Mary's College in Dallas next year, and there is no doubt but that she will show what a graduate of the public school can do with better opportunities.

America was discovered Dec. 21, 1887, by the pet of the class, Miss Minnie Louise Thorp. She is not only generally well liked but has always been one of the independent members of the class. Her father was a Mr. Thomas Thorp; his wife was a Miss Valentine. Minnie has been with the class three years and has experienced some of her hardest work. I will give an early incident of her life, but it will have to be given anonymously: Her mother used to have something which she would always give Minnie when she had hurt herself or when she was feeling badly; so one day Minnie was picking wild flowers and a bee stung her on her hand. After it had been bound up she asked for the usual medicine. Her mother then gave it to her, but Minnie did not seem exactly satisfied with the amount and asked for more. "Why, Minnie," said her mother, "that is all I generally give you." "Yes, but this was a great big bee" answered Minnie. She picked out Cooper's Institute in New York to pursue the study of art, at which she is even now quite an adept; and if she applies herself to the study of art as zealously as she has to her work in the public school, she may some day be a second Rosa Bonheur.

We now have the task of tracing the career of the most widely known and the jolliest member of the class. His abilities as a scholar are of the highest order. His presence on the school ground was generally known by the crowd which surrounded him listening to his jokes or finding out his views on some of the current topics of the day. He was never known to be solemn except when there a prospect of work in view. John Pope Brinley is this bright young man's full name, but he is familiarly known as "Pope." He has been with the class for full ten years and has fully shown what a capable boy can do. Mr. William Ryan Brinley, a distinguished Confederate soldier, feeds this youngster, and a lady whose maiden name was Miss Matilda Atteberry, mends his pants. Sept. 24 will soon be a legal holiday, being the day upon which Pope was born—that is if he fulfills all promises. He intends to be a mechanic and will go to the A. & M. College of Texas, where his natural talents and abilities will soon become known.

Miss Mattie Mae Trigg is the last girl whose history we have to trace tonight. She is another one of our later scholars, having been with the class three years; we point her out as our star graduate in looks. Eules, Texas, has the prominence of being the original place from whence this young lady came. Her father moved to Clarendon in 1901, and is the jolly lightning rod agent, W. H. Trigg. He married a cousin, a Miss Susie Trigg. An early incident of her life:—On one occasion she was returning home from a neighbor's house with her mother who was carrying a vase which she prized highly. A small dog frisking in front of them caused Mrs. Trigg to drop and break the vase. The lady was lamenting the broken article when young Miss Mattie who was standing near by with deep regret in her large hazel eyes, remarked: "Well, mother, why don't you try to catch the dog?" Thus began her life on the good motto, "never cry over spilt milk, but go for what tripped you." Mattie was always led the class in literature which is her favorite study. She intends to be a stenographer and will go to the Alamo Business College at San Antonio, where she hopes soon to be keeping books and taking letters with the best of them.

A brilliant comet was seen in the city of El Paso on Nov. 11, 1889, thus foretelling the birth of another great man, for Shakespeare says, "Comets are not seen when beggars are born." With this initial distinction the subject of this sketch, Ralph Collinson, began his existence. The young man is certainly great in respect to size, but we do not know whether Shakespeare meant it in this respect or not. Ralph is the last member whose life we have to trace, but having by no means ever been the last in his studies he has the distinction of being the only one of the class who has ever worn a medal—which he wore for good deportment. Ralph has great plans for a fine herd of cattle which he hopes very soon to be trailing across the plains, and is even now quite well known as a good judge of cattle and horses. History has always been his forte, together with the study of physics.

We have thus traced the life of each member of the class. It has been necessarily brief, as the span of life of each is brief, the oldest member in the class being Miss

May Lumpkin, born May 6, 1897, and the youngest Miss Lila McClelland, born July 18, 1890. Every member is a native Texan. As we all come to this jumping-off place of our lives, we look back to see what we have done. It is no small accomplishment to have learned to read and write the greatest language of the world; to have gone to the same place for ten long years, and as we are assembled here tonight each and every member of this class has deep down in the heart the silent opinion that he or she at least knows a little bit.

Wedding invitations printed at the Banner-Stockman office will be found just as up-to-date and neat in every respect as the more costly product of city engravers. We have the latest type faces for this class of work and a line of stationery equal to the best. Don't chase out of town for something foreign when you can get the same thing at home for less money. tf

Rowe Ramblings.

Rowe, Texas, June 9.
EDITOR BANNER-STOCKMAN:

Everything here is on a boom. The drug store house of Dr. Guest, is fast going up; carpenters from Memphis are doing the work.

Farmers busy in their crops; crops are looking fine as we have had good rains, with prospects of more.

There is no sickness of any moment in the community.

Rowe was well represented at the Goodnight picnic; the agent here sold seventy-five tickets; how is that for a place like this?

Ere this is in print the marriage of Mr. Willie Frame, and Miss Viola Eldrege, will have taken place this Wednesday night at the church. The writer joins in wishing for them a happy life.

The song goes thus: "There is only one girl in the world for me," but Charley Frame sings, "there is only one girl in Rowe for me."

Dr. Guest was called to Umbarger, this week on account of his father being sick.

There is a blacksmith from Fannin county working in the shop at this place. Rev. Sherman preached here Sunday to a large crowd.

Dr. Cooke, the dentist, is now at home again and his patrons can find him regularly in his office. tf

Baptist Church Reunion.

We again call attention to the reunion of the membership of the Baptist church, together with its former pastors, on next Sunday.

The membership is urgently requested to attend; and all other Baptists are kindly invited to come and take part with us. Our friends are cordially invited to come and enjoy the day with us. Let all come praying for a great spiritual feast.

Dinner will be provided for all out-of-town folks who come.

Bro. F. J. Harrell, the singer, will be here on time.

Rev. J. W. Brice and W. H. Younger have notified us they will be here. The following is the program for the day:

Sunday School 9:45 a. m.

Sermon by J. W. Brice, Seymour, Texas, at 11 a. m.

Testimony and praise service, followed by reading of Church Covenant and roll call of membership at 3:30 p. m.

Sermon by W. H. Younger, of Channing, Texas, at 8:15 p. m.

We would rejoice in the co-operation of the other pastors and their congregations in our meeting which begins on this day. Let all who will assist in the choir report to

WILSON C. ROGERS, Pastor.

The Stewards of the M. E. Church, South, have granted Rev. B. W. Dodson, their pastor, a vacation of three or four weeks, and that gentleman with his wife will leave Monday for Louisville, Ky., where they will attend the ex-Confederate reunion, going from there to Middle Tennessee and Indianapolis, Ind. Bro. Dodson a number of years ago held a pastorate in Tennessee and it is a noteworthy indication of the esteem in which he was held to say that his old parishioners have offered to bear half the expenses of his trip in order to get him to come and visit them and preach to them again. The Banner-Stockman trusts Bro. Dodson and lady will have a most pleasant trip, and will reach their old home in ample time for the ripening crop of spring chickens.

The City Barber Shop, W. J. Berry, proprietor, is now in full blast in the Barnett building. Mr. Berry has put in new and stylish fixtures, including a bath room, and invites the patronage of the public through an ad in this issue.

Miss Pearl Paschal, of Fort Sill, I. T., is visiting the family of Robert Sawyer this week.

Cards are out announcing the wedding of Mr. Walter W. Taylor and Miss Minnie Beverly at the Methodist church next Wednesday evening, June 14, at 8 o'clock. The Banner-Stockman extends advance congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Connelly, of Jericho, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Connelly, of Waco, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Martin the past week. They all attended the Goodnight picnic Tuesday.

Mrs. Swift and daughter, Miss Katie, will leave Monday for a visit to their old home in Tennessee.

R. S. Kimberlin has purchased the Mart Coyne residence on "Cupola Hill," consideration $3000. This is one of Clarendon's nicest homes and we are glad to have Mr. Kimberlin buy and locate with us.

Commissioners court meets next Monday in its regular annual session as a board of equalization.

A Word To KURUS KUSS

Yes, Kurus, that was a very Kurius piece of news you gave us about those Duck eggs—very Kurius indeed. But, listen! Its easier for ten Duck Eggs to hatch out 12 turkeys than for you to get Groceries anywhere else in the Pan-handle as cheap as at Williams Like the Duck eggs you'll find that Williams' Groceries generally "hatch" out more—that is, in full weight and good quality, than you had anticipated. Generally you'll find that these "big eggs" don't hatch but you just try a setting at Williams and see if you don't get the best results you've ever had before Cuban Diarrhoea.

U. S. soldiers who served in Cuba during the Spanish war know what this disease is, and that ordinary remedies have little more effect than so much water. Cuban diarrhoea is almost as severe and dangerous as a mild attack of cholera. There is one remedy, however, that can always be depended upon as will be seen by the following certificate from Mrs. Minnie Jacobs of Houston, Texas: "I hereby certify that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured my husband of a severe attack of Cuban diarrhoea, which he brought home from Cuba. We had several doctors but they did him no good. One bottle of this remedy cured him, as our neighbors will testify. I thank God for so valuable a medicine." For sale at Dr. Stocking's drug store.

GENERAL STOCK NEWS

Mr. Scaggs, last Saturday bought 65 head of cows; consideration, $14.75.—Claude News.

R. T. Harvick and Jack Wilmoth this week bought of R. S. Crawford 56 head of three-year-old steers. Will Dye also bought from the same party thirty-one head yearling steers. Private terms.—Claude News.

Sam Isaacs, of Canadian, was in Clarendon the latter part of last week to receive for the firm of W. C. Isaacs & Bro., 1300 three-year-old steers bought from Bush & Tillar of Colorado City. The price paid for this stuff was $23 around, and the herd was trailed through to Clarendon and from here to the Isaacs pasture on the Canadian.

The condition of the Panhandle range is the very best. Plenty of snow throughout the winter and an abundance of rain has put the range in excellent condition. There are very few two and three-year-old steers left, not more than a thousand that will go on the market, while the three's are so scarce as to be inconsequential. No four's at all. There will be quite a number of fat cows shipped out from here this fall to make room for better stuff. The cowman has arrived at the full knowledge of the fact that only high grade cattle pays, and he is meeting this condition by heading his herd with registered bulls, and by selling all off-colors in his bunch.—Silverton Enterprise.

E. W. Bromley informs us that he closed out his entire stock of cattle last week to Klutz & Dial of Hall county, and that his nine-section pasture is now in the hands of Godfrey & Williamson, of this city, for sale in 160 acre tracts.—Collingsworth Courier.

Jackson Bros. last week sold for Wheeler county parties 350 head of 2-year-old steers at $18 and $20. The purchaser was J. W. Todd of Canadian.—Miami Chief.

Huge Task.

It was a huge task, to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease, as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Ia., but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone, I could not sit on a chair without a cushion; and suffered from dreadful headache, headache, and depression. In Electric Bitters, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver or stomach. Guaranteed by Fleming & Maulfair druggists; price 50c."

Miss Pearl Stone visited friends in Memphis last week.

J. S. Jefferies, of Boydston, was here Saturday, and in conversation with the editor stated that the people of his precinct were very much dissatisfied with the present condition of the roads. In places the road to Clarendon is almost impassable and they are anxious to know when the new road grader is to start work over there. Mr. Jefferies says Clarendon is losing considerable trade from that section of the county on account of these bad roads. The Banner-Stockman understands that the county money in the road and bridge fund is to be expended in the betterment of the roads, the money obtained from each precinct to be used in that precinct, and we presume that the grader will be put to work in the Boydston precinct, soon as the workmen can get to it.

The Banner-Stockman is very anxious for its correspondents to "get busy" now, and we will appreciate it if every one will send in items each week. Our readers at the various postoffices demand a weekly budget of news from their locality and we want to gratify them as much as possible. We have an excellent corps of correspondents, all capable writers, but all inclined to be a little slow about writing. We would appreciate a letter from each correspondent every week. Let all our correspondents begin at once to take a new pride in having their community represented in their county paper and strive to see that the representation is such as to command attention from all readers of the paper.

The Great Contest About to Close.

Forty-five members of the W. H. M. Society met at the church Monday afternoon for their regular business meeting.

Out of those 45, 28 were on the Gold side and 17 on the Lavender, which within itself ought to be a call for more Lavenders to be out next time. Those who were fortunate enough to be there had the opportunity of listening to a splendid talk by Miss Nellie Miller, our Deaconess, who has lately had a call to Pensacola, Florida.

We were further entertained by talks from Miss Gabie Betts, Mesdames Hardy and Eddins.

The next meeting will be Monday, June 18, and promises to be a treat, as Miss Miller has charge of the devotional exercises. That meeting will close the contest. Let everybody come.

A 12-pound boy put in his appearance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Anthony this week.

At the last regular meeting of the Rathbone Sisters the same officers were elected for the ensuing year, except that Mrs. W. H. Cooke succeeds Mrs. Kelley as Mistress of Finance. The lodge expects to have Mrs. Frankie Housels of Childress here the latter part of the month to conduct a school of instruction.
