The petition was granted and the road ordered opened. Damage claims were allowed on this road as follows: J. H. O'Neill $75; R. A. Chamberlain $37.50; J. C. Scoggins $37.50; G. R. Doshier $37.50; W. W. Curnutte $18.75; M. D. Marcum $9.38; E. L. Kennedy $9.38; Mrs. C. Adair $1.

The Citizen's Cemetery was granted a donation of $65 out of the county funds for improvement work as explained in previous issues of the Banner-Stockman.

The tax levy for the ensuing year was placed at same figures as now in force. The total state and county tax rate will be as heretofore, 86 2-3c on the $100 valuation.

Miss Babb's pupils will give a piano recital at the opera house next Tuesday evening, May 16, at 8:30 o'clock.

Everybody cordially invited to attend.

The residence of F. D. Martin was entered by burglars last Saturday night while the family were all at the tent show. Four watches, several rings and a number of pieces of other jewelry were taken. The burglars effected an entrance in the usual manner—by cutting the screen door and then unhooking the door and walking in. So far there has been no clue to the guilty parties.

Public School Closing.

The closing exercises of Clarendon Public School have been in progress this week as per program printed last week. Large crowds have been in attendance and the pupils have uniformly acquitted themselves with credit. The drills and other exercises showed careful preparation and the examinations resulted in good grades.

The graduating exercises take place tonight at the opera house after which school will be "out" and young America free for the summer.

Our next issue will contain an account of the debate at Amarillo together with half tone pictures of the Clarendon speakers; also pictures of the boys who won from Decatur last week. We expected to present them this week but have been delayed in receiving one of the cuts.

BRANCHING OUT

The Martin-Bennett Company Establish a Branch House at Jericho, this County.

The Martin-Bennett Company, Incorporated, last week completed the purchase of the W. P. McKenzie stock of general merchandise at Jericho. The stock has been invoiced and possession given, and Mr. J. G. Martin is there in charge of the business for the present.

The firm announces that they will erect warehouses to store grain and will be prepared to take care of the entire grain crop of that locality, particularly oats. They will greatly increase the stock, handling goods in car lots, so that it will not be necessary for the people of that community to haul heavy merchandise from a distance.

CYCLONE AT SNYDER.

At 9:18 Wednesday night the town of Snyder, Oklahoma, was almost completely wiped off the map, and about 100 people were killed outright and 200 injured. Owing to the intense excitement prevailing at Snyder it is impossible to obtain full details of the horror.

The relatives of R. F. Wood and W. J. Parsons, who made their home in the doomed town, are uninjured.

The debate between the representatives of Clarendon College and Amarillo Academy has been postponed until next Monday night at request of the Amarillo boys. The Clarendon crowd will go up Monday morning in special cars. Messrs. Warlick and Garrison are the speakers for Clarendon and will bring home fresh laurels for their Alma Mater. There will also be a series of baseball games. A very low rate has been granted by the Denver for this occasion.

Miss Bessie Sloan is now stenographer for Attorney H. B. White. She will also undertake stenographic work for the general public and any one desiring her services can find her at Mr. White's office in the Borchers building, up stairs.

The insurance adjuster was here yesterday settling the loss on the Clarendon Hotel.

Two special coaches for the Amarillo debate will be set out for the Monday morning train. Rate $1.25, round trip.

This is a strong firm and we trust and believe their new venture will prove a big success.

The ladies of the Episcopal church will present a play entitled "The Union Depot" at the opera house Tuesday night, May 18. A graduate from King's School Of Oratory, Pittsburg, Pa., will have the entertainment in charge, and it promises to be the best ever given in the city.

LOST: A five dollar bill at the opera house door Thursday night. Reward for return to this office.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Wood ask us to say to the public that they deeply appreciate the excellent work done for them by the fire fighters Sunday morning. As it is impossible for them to thank all personally they wish this card to convey to one and all their earnest thanks for the valuable services rendered.

A New Firm at Jericho

It gives us much pleasure to announce to the people of that portion of the Panhandle contiguous to the town of Jericho that we have bought the stock of W. P. McKenzie at that point and will at once add to the stock until it will be full and complete in all respects. We will carry a general line of merchandise, making a specialty of farm and ranch supplies, handling them in car load lots, thus being able at any time to fill any size order. We anticipate pleasant business relations with the good people of the Jericho country, and will endeavor to merit a good patronage. Please call and see us. We are desirous of becoming better acquainted with you. Yours very truly,

The Ex-Confederate Picnic at Rowe.

Last Saturday Witnessed a Big Day, a Big Crowd and a Big Time.

That the people of Rowe know how to entertain a crowd of invited guests was made evident Saturday in no uncertain manner.

The occasion was the quarterly meeting of Camp Sam Lanham, No. 1383, U. C. V., held at Rowe by reason of a long standing invitation by the people of the community and a special invitation to the camp at its last meeting by Capt. Isaac Smith (peace to his ashes), whose ambition had been to entertain his old comrades in his home community. The meeting of the old vets was one tinged with sadness at the thought that Uncle Ike had been called upon to cross over the river to his eternal reward before the time rolled around for the consummation of his brotherly desires.

The gathering of the old soldiers began early Saturday morning. And it was not only a meeting of ex-Confederates, but the invitation had gone out to everybody alike to come to Rowe that day and enjoy a regular old time picnic. The invitation was accepted by hundreds and the crowd in attendance must have numbered more than one thousand. Dinner in abundance and of a quality unsurpassed was served, and it was at the festal board that the hospitality of the people was made most manifest.

New Presbyterian Church at Rowe.

Supper was also served, there being plenty for all, with fresh hot coffee and a warm welcome to all the visitors to remain over for the second meal.

The sessions of the camp were held in the new Presbyterian church, which, by the way, is an edifice of which any community might well be proud. Capt. E. E. McGee was in the chair and called the meeting to order about 11 o'clock. After prayer the address of welcome was delivered by Nat-Smith. He made quite an eloquent effort, and his reference to the death of his brother, Uncle Ike, brought tears to the eyes of many of his listeners. He was responded to by W. H. Cooke, "not a veteran but the worthy son of a veteran," as announced by the chair. "Uncle Bill" was somewhat rattled but rose to the occasion in his usual modest style and made a rousing good speech, also paying a tribute to the memory of Uncle Ike, and thanking the populace for the hearty welcome extended the visitors.

Rollcall was then had and showed about thirty members present. The chair made a short talk and adjournment was taken for dinner. And such a dinner as it was! Tables had been erected from the lumber yard, they were piled high and wide with all manner of good things to eat. Our reporter fell in with the crowd and lined up at a double quick. He happened to fall heir to a share of the basket brought by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Owens, and did not fail to do justice to the many good things set before him, lack of capacity being his only regret.

After dinner an hour or two was devoted to speech making, recitations, etc. Prof. Bain of Rowe, D. R. Priddy of Memphis, and A. T. Cole of Clarendon, all made good talks, while Miss Marian Barnett, of Clarendon, and little Zoe Blair, of Rowe, entertained the crowd with recitations. Mr. Perine also furnished entertainment by playing Dixie, Bonny Blue Flag, and other old war tunes, on the organ.

Officers were elected for the next year as follows: E. E. McGee, Captain, B. T. Lane, 1st Lieutenant; G. W. Smith, 2nd Lieutenant; J. W. Ryan, 3rd Lieutenant; T. N. Naylor, Adjutant; P. D. Hudgins, Chaplain. A call was issued for a business meeting to be held in Clarendon on Saturday, May 20, and a good attendance was urged on account of important business to be attended to.

A game of baseball was played in the afternoon between Giles and Rowe in which the Rowe team was victorious by a decisive score. We dise, produce, proprietary medicines, etc. He is not yet fully straightened out but is getting in shape rapidly with a first-class stock of goods in a roomy, well situated building and says his prospects are very encouraging. Walter is a nice fellow and will command a good trade. Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Adamson are running the Rowe Hotel and report a good patronage. They have a large two-story house, with comfortable rooms, and their boarders say the table service is excellent. The blacksmith was taking a holiday and we did not get to meet him, but he should do a good business—and doubtless does. The gin is owned by Clark & Williams. The season is over but they had a fine run and ginned more cotton this year than both the other gins in the county. Rowe has a number of nice residences, a splendid school building, a fine church, and altogether presents a most creditable appearance. The surrounding country is dotted as far as the eye can see with comfortable looking homes. New settlers are coming in all the time and farming conditions are tip top in every respect.

Our reporter is indebted to all the business institutions for substantial favors, and also to a number of our subscribers who took occasion to renew their subscriptions and speak a good word for the paper. We took along a big bunch of sample copies but failed to get many new subscribers as they are all on the list already. We wish to state to them all that we made arrangements for an improved news service from their town and hereafter we expect to have items from Rowe every issue. Mrs. S. L. Adamson is our correspondent and any favors shown her in the way of helping her to get up items will be appreciated both by her and the management. Our little visit was most pleasant and we hope to repeat it in the near future.

Clarendon, Tex., May 12, 1905

THE Banner-Stockman is indebted to Harwood Beville for a very interesting report of the Decatur debate and baseball games. The reports will be found in other columns of this issue.

THE Banner-Stockman extends its heartiest congratulations to the representatives of Clarendon College in the inter-collegiate debate at Decatur last week. The judges gave them a unanimous decision. The College has had another feather placed in her cap in this victory and we join with her in hurrahing for D. B. Doak and James A. Hall. Their battle was hard fought and well won.

THERE has developed considerable opposition to the foregoing of the Fourth of July celebration in Clarendon this year. It was at first thought that on account of the city undertaking a county fair this fall it would be best to give up the celebration of the nation's holiday this year, but it seems this does not meet the approval of the public. Clarendon has had a Fourth of July celebration every year for the past fifteen years, and it is quite likely that this year will witness no change in the program. Definite announcement will be made through these columns at the proper time.

SOME of the boys from Clarendon College missed a grand opportunity for selecting a wife while at Decatur. After winning all the ball games and the debate the Clarendon delegation was waited on by a committee who told them that if they had not procured everything for which they had come, to say so, name whatever else they wanted and take it home with them. We can't see why George Harris, Fletch Isbell and some of the others didn't pick her out right there and bring her back with them.

WHEN A. M. Beville quit the newspaper business in Clarendon to embark in the banking business the fraternity over the entire Panhandle expressed surprise at one of the craft raking up the necessary "kail seed" to join the money lenders. Now another brother, J. B. Goodlett, has departed from the path of rectitude and right and has followed Mr. Beville's suit by establishing a bank at Quanah to be known as J. B. Goodlett Banking Co. The new concern takes over the business of C. H. Harwell, Banker.

WHAT do the freight cars haul as we see them pass on their trips north and south? A train was standing in the yards here the first of the week bound for the south. It was an ordinary length of train; yet if one had walked along the train he would have seen a car on which was tacked a card with the following: "Bullion from Salida, Colo., to New York." Other cars had spuds from Colorado. There were five cars of that description. Four cars had hay. Other cars had hardware and implements and then there were the usual number of Swift as well as Armour refrigerator cars. The question is—why can't Texas raise enough spuds and hay without having to have carloads shipped in from hundreds of miles away?

CLARENDON is now in the midst of her annual commencement exercises, and the crowds that have been attending the public school's closing this week bear witness to the esteem in which the cause of education is held in our city. Clarendon College and St. Mary's Academy come next and the interest will be just as great. The reason Clarendon is a school center is because her people take a deep and personal interest in the schools and support them in every way possible. The Banner-Stockman doffs its hat to the educational institutions of the city and congratulates the public on having them within our bounds, wishing for them continued prosperity.

BOB EDGEEL has come down off the plains to where he can get a windbreak, and is now publishing the McLean News in Gray county. As usual his first issue is a dandy and looks like it will be a winner in spite of the smallness of the town. Here's best wishes for success.

$1.25 to Amarillo and return Monday, account debate.

The Banner-Stockman force on Wednesday enjoyed a treat at the hands of Messrs. E. Dubbs & Sons, the confectioners and racket goods people. The treat consisted of a quart of their famous Steffens ice cream and the boys have no hesitancy in saying it was just about the best cream they ever smacked their lips over. "Here's to their good health, their family's good health, and may they live long and prosper."

Rowe Ramblings.

ROWE, TEXAS, May 10.

EDITOR BANNER-STOCKMAN:

Items have been slow coming in as everybody and his wife has been busy getting ready for the Old Soldiers Reunion. They came, and oh! what a meeting it was; their locks white with the frost of many winters but their hearts are still young enough to be filled with mirth and their eyes still bright enough to sparkle when beholding the beauties of earth God in his goodness placed here for pleasure; and their appetites are still able to partake of the good things of which the land abounds.

The Reunion was a grand success in every sense of the word. There was plenty to eat for dinner and supper and lots to take home. The crowd was estimated at seven or eight hundred.

For the benefit of their comrades in battle I would like to give the names of all that answered the roll call but I failed to get the list. Their faces would wreath in smiles when speakers would tell of the great and grand things the south has done since the struggles of war has reared them again. Their eyes would speak of those of their number who have crossed the tide. May they all be ready with pure hearts to meet God and answer to roll call in heaven is the prayer of the writer.

Those who spoke were: Uncle Nat Smith; he made an able address and to the point. Next was W. H. Cooke of Clarendon. Then lawyer Cole, of same place.

Miss Barnett, of Clarendon recited a most appropriate piece for the occasion and was highly applauded. A young student of Clarendon College made a good speech; we failed to learn his name.

Then we had music by Mr. Perine—the Bonny Blue Flag—which was enjoyed by all. Next a recitation by little Zue Blair, which was pronounced by everybody to be fine.

While at the table Mrs. Perine made a snap shot of the Old Veterans. Mr. Price, of Memphis also took pictures of them.

In the evening the baseball team at this place played Giles.

Then came the girls basket ball game which was said by some to be the best treat of the day.

Prof. Bain had an ice cream and lemonade stand for the benefit of the public school library that was, too, a success as they cleared thirty dollars.

Dr. Brown was able to be taken to dinner which is more than anyone thought possible a few months ago.

Uncle Nat Smith had two cows killed by the train this week.

The girls will meet next Saturday to play basket ball.

Mr. L. F. Harvey has just returned from New Mexico well pleased with the country.

Clarendon is Victorious at Decatur.

Carries off all Honors as Debaters and Ball Players.

It was a jolly crowd that left Clarendon Thursday night, May, 4th, for Decatur. A special car was used for the trip, hung with Clarendon College banners and comfortably filled with College students and teachers.

As the train rolled in, the Decatur Baptist College Rooting Club began singing songs of welcome and waving yellow and black flags. After giving a few college yells the "parade", headed by the three judges of the debate, started up the street to the International Hotel, where the Clarendon delegation took quarters. In the procession, the Clarendon crowd came after the Judges, then the D. B. C. Club singing, followed by the Decatur citizens. When we arrived at the hotel the Decatur crowd lined up on the side walk and sang college songs and yelled college yells for awhile, interrupted by the Clarendon crowd's yells now and then. We then ate breakfast and "rolled in" and slept.

In the afternoon we attended the first ball game between Clarendon College and Decatur teams, an account of which will be found in another place.

After the ball game a reception was given to the visitors in the college auditorium. Here we made new acquaintances and met again those whom we met at the debate in Clarendon last year. Some of the boys and girls say they made "lasting friendships" at the reception.

At eight o'clock in the evening we arrived at the college for the debate, after a little over half a mile walk. When we entered the auditorium, the D. B. C. students gave us a cheer. The hall was decorated on one side with yellow and black, Decatur colors; on the other side with pink and blue, Clarendon colors.

In a few minutes the speakers came upon the stage amid the applause of the great crowd present, after which an invocation was offered by President Hardy of Clarendon College. After a chorus, and an excellent recitation by Miss Patterson, the debate began. The question was, "Resolved, that all negroes within the continental bounds of the United States should be colonized some where without those bounds." Decatur had the affirmative, Clarendon the negative. The first speaker on the affirmative was W. W. Melton, who spoke with vim and enthusiasm. He stressed the points that the negroes should be colonized on political and moral standpoints. Next came James A. Hall, the first speaker on the negative, who made a strong speech. He showed that the negro is capable of business and educational qualifications and closed with beautiful word pictures of ante-bellum days. The second speaker on the affirmative, T. L. Vance, viewed the colonization of the negroes from the financial standpoint. He had a blackboard covered with figures showing the cost of keeping the negroes for thirty years and the cost of colonizing them. D. B. Doak, the second speaker on the negative, made a fine speech full of logical reasoning and facts that could not be turned down. Then followed the reply speech of the negative by Mr. Hall, who reviewed the argument of the negative and answered that of the affirmative. Mr. Melton made a hot, enthusiastic rejoinder for the Affirmative. When he finished the Decatur students rose up and gave a college yell. Then we listened to a beautiful song by the D. B. C. Glee Club, after which District Judge Patterson made a short talk concluding with the words, "The Judges have rendered a unanimous decision in favor of the negative." Then there was a rush for the platform and Hall and Doak were hoisted upon strong shoulders and carried across the stage. The Decatur speakers were lifted up too but not for long. The D. B. C. Rooting Club tried to yell Clarendon down but didn't.

After some yelling and singing Bro. Hardy pronounced the benediction and we dispersed to meet again next May.

This is the first star in the crown of Clarendon College's inter-collegiate debate victories. May she add many more until her crown is full of shining gems standing out so prominently as to make her the greatest college in the Lone Star state.

GENERAL STOCK NEWS

A General Opinion.

The sixth annual meeting of the Panhandle Stockmen's Association is now a matter of history, and interesting history it is, too. The attendance was larger than was anticipated by even the most sanguine, while the secretary's books show a most remarkable growth in membership and power. From a humble beginning six years ago has sprung a powerful organization, destined to make history not only for the Panhandle, but for all Texas as well. The members are the men with whom the northwestern buyers do business, and the attendance of these buyers at this convention indicate that they recognize the importance of the organization. More cattle were sold at this meeting than at any other live stock convention which has been held in Texas in recent years.—Clarendon Banner-Stockman.

The Panhandle Stockmen's Association is doing a great work for the live stock industry in the Texas Panhandle and deserves the success and prosperity that it is enjoying. Its membership is largely composed of small stockmen and stock farmers—the class which is engaged in working out the salvation of the Panhandle country. The Panhandle Association does not put on much dog and is making no great noise over what it has accomplished, but the fact remains that it is a very live institution, and is doing a monumental work for its people. Its growth is rapid and it has become a powerful factor in the live stock situation.—Fort Worth Telegram.

W. J. Lewis passed through town Wednesday with a herd of a thousand and cattle which he was moving to the Diamond Tail pasture from some point south of here.—Hall County Herald.

Finch Bros., we understand, have incorporated the 96 ranch and will put considerable energy back of it. The property is a very desirable one and we believe the managers will make it one of the money makers of this part of the state. We wish them success in their undertaking.—Hall County Herald.

Why Suffer From Rheumatism?

Why suffer from rheumatism when one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm will relieve the pain? The quick relief which this liniment affords makes rest and sleep possible, and that alone is worth many times its cost. Many who have used it hoping only for a short relief from suffering have been happily surprised to find that after awhile the relief became permanent. Mrs. V. H. Leggett of Yum Yum, Tennessee, U. S. A., writes: "I am a great sufferer from rheumatism, all over from head to foot, and Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the only thing that will relieve the pain." For sale at Dr. Stocking's drug store.

A letter from Frank Son, formerly an employee of this office, tells of a bad accident to which he recently happened. In a runaway he was thrown to the ground, sustaining a very bad fracture of the jaw bone. The bandage being removed too soon he suffered another slip of the same fracture and is now in a serious condition.

The annual entertainment of Miss Annie Babb's music class will be given next Tuesday night at the opera house. Miss Annie's pupils always show up well in these entertainments, and a good house will undoubtedly greet her. This will be her last class in Clarendon as the family will soon remove to Amarillo to the great regret of scores of friends.

CLARENDON COLLEGE WINS.

Capt. Fletcher Isbell's Baseball Boys Bear Off Three Straight Victories From Decatur Team.

FIRST GAME.

The first game of ball between Clarendon College and Decatur on Friday evening was not attended by a very large crowd, though the few who were there enjoyed a fine game.

About three o'clock Umpire Spencer called "play ball" and Decatur took the field.

Isbell, the first man at bat for Clarendon singled. Davis sacrificed and Genheimer flied out. Cocke singled bringing Isbell in with the first score. Atteberry struck out. Decatur's first batters made outs. Until the third inning both sides went down in one, two, three order. In the fourth Clarendon scored again, Cocke singling and being advanced by bunts.

Decatur scored in the sixth, three singles netting them the run. In the fifth Isbell again scored and after that Clarendon went down in one, two, three order.

Decatur scored her second and last run in the eighth.

SECOND GAME.

A larger crowd was present Saturday than the day before. The rivalry and enthusiasm was higher and another good game was played. Decatur took the field, and Clarendon's first three batters went out. In Decatur's half, after two men were out, Collins put a three-bagger in left-center, but Davis fanned the next batter.

Clarendon went down in almost one, two, three order until the seventh, when Genheimer, first up, started trouble for Decatur with a single. Isbell sacrificed him to third, he having pilfered second. Cocke singled, Genheimer scoring. Warlick sacrificed Cocke to third from second, Atteberry singled, Cocke scoring. Self and Walker both singled scoring Atteberry and Isbell was thrown out.

Decatur scored her only run in the eighth on two clean singles.

To Whom it May Concern

It seems to be the impression with some of the residents of Clarendon, that the Water Co. was either out of water in their storage tank on the tower, or that they purposely shut the water off during the fire that consumed the Clarendon Hotel on Sunday, May 7. Either of these assumptions is very wrong. The tower-tank was full at the outbreak of the fire, and over half full at the end. The company takes this means of informing the people that any statements going the rounds to the above effect are mistakes. That the hydrants at the hotels did not furnish an abundant supply at each particular bibb may be true. But this matter is easily explained to anyone who can see why water cannot pour in the bung-hole of a barrel faster than it can escape at both ends when the heads are out. The explanation is this.

The three consumers in proximity to the fire are connected to the mains in a way that the present management does not approve of, and in fact, would not allow in new construction. It is this: There are six or seven 3/4-inch hydrants belonging to three consumers, all connected to a 3/4-inch line. This anyone can readily see would not supply an abundant stream at all six hydrants at the same time, as was the case at the fire. While the company is in no wise responsible, and is under no contract either verbal or written to furnish water for the fire fighting at the present, it was glad to give all the water it could and did so with a free heart. All of the employees of the company did all they could to get the water there and even started all of the pumping machinery at the plant, to hold water in the tower in case the fire should be of long duration. The company certainly has no cause for any regrets as to its action in the matter, and hastens to make this explanation in order that it might not be misjudged.

game was a farce. Clarendon made three runs in the first inning, two in the second and four in the third besides knocking the pitcher out of the box.

It was goose eggs for Decatur until the third when Kenebrew knocked a home run over right field, and then more eggs until the seventh. They scored every inning there after.

In the fourth Decatur put Collins in the box and Clarendon drew blanks till the ninth when they scored twice.

Score by inning:
Clarendon ..... 3 2 4 0 0 0 0 2—11
Decatur ..... 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 1 2—5

NOTES.

All stores in Decatur were decorated in yellow and black, in honor of the debate. At one large dry goods store a form in the show window had on a yellow dress and was trimmed up with black lace and other goods. Clarendon merchants should take a hint and decorate when anything of that kind comes to Clarendon. It not only shows the progressive spirit with them but is an advertisement for the town as well.

As the ball games progressed, Captain Fletcher Isbell's smile broadened and he seems not to have yet gotten over the effects of his smiling, for several times since his return, he has been seen wandering up and down the street repeating aloud to himself, "we took them in!"

Davis is a crackerjack pitcher and a "heady" ball player. To him in no small degree belongs credit for the victories.

In the third game Short Stop Warlick had fourteen chances, most of them being very hard ones too; he accepted every chance and made only three errors, and they were not very bad ones.

Pitcher Spencer's one handed catch of Davis' hard liner, in the second game was one of the features of the series.

Collins and Kinibrew's three baggers in the second game were batting features of that game.

The Clarendon players whose work was praised most by Decatur fans were, Davis and Isbell's battery work, Cocke on first, Genheimer on second and Warlick at short. They all played good ball, and the other boys played well, too.

Keener Isbell played the two games Saturday with Clarendon and held down his old position in right field. He played with the team last year.
