A GOOD ENTERTAINMENT

Pupils of Mrs. Clyde Wright Give Excellent Program

No more enjoyable entertainment has been given in Hereford recently than the recital by the pupils of Mrs. Wright on Thursday evening at the high school auditorium.

The program was so varied that there was not the least suggestion of monotony and each number was given with a degree of ease and naturalness that was very marked.

In these modern days when our school curriculums contain so much that has lately come to be considered an essential part of an education, expression has necessarily lost much of the prominence it once had in the public school work and Hereford young people have a real opportunity in being a member of this class.

The musical numbers were also much appreciated, as was the piano work of Miss Betts.

The numbers represented only the work done in class. The Flame Worship, for instance, is a beautiful as well as beneficial type of physical culture adopted from the Eastern countries.

The girls' playette showed the pupils' work in dialect. The boys' sketch was a bit of history which the class had dramatized and it well displayed their oratorical talent.

The children deserve much credit for their originality in producing their own true to life sketch.

Hereford people needn't go away from home to enjoy a first-class entertainment and that they realize this fact was shown by the unusually large audience of more than six hundred that listened to this program.

Young People Walk to Summerfield

On Sunday afternoon, a jolly crowd of young people with aspirations for entering the ranks of professional pedestrians, made a hike to Summerfield, a distance of eight miles.

The party was hospitably entertained with luncheon at the home of Lawrence Johnson and returned home on the evening train, delighted with their outing.

In the party were: Mesdames Gibson, Thornbury and Elliott, Misses Belle and Mattie Woodburn, Mabel Betts, Clyde, Grace and Irmer Wilson, Susie Lackey, and Messrs. Elmer Dameron, Earl Wilson, Jerry Burkhalter, Barney Casteel and Buford Farmer.

Agricultural Club Meets

Everybody in Hereford, whether or not he is a member of the Boys' Agricultural Club, is invited to attend the Club meeting at the Court House on Saturday evening May 8th at 8 p. m.

Mr. Neill, whom all the boys know, and who always interests them, will be here and will help to make this one of the best meetings of the year. Don't miss it boys.

Little Girl Gets Broken Limb

Esther, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fox, had the misfortune to fall from the wagon during the "Ferguson of Troy" street parade Tuesday afternoon and was quite seriously injured. The wagon passed over her lower limbs, breaking the small bone of the right leg and crushing the left foot somewhat badly. Esther, many friends deplore the accident very much and hope for her speedy recovery.

Go to Austin

Messrs. Barney Casteel, Odin Weems and Euel Sullivan went to Austin Tuesday to attend the athletic meet.

Sullivan and Weems are both good material for the state championship in their respective lines and a good report from them is expected if they enter the contests as they probably will.

"FERGUSON OF TROY" IS WELL RECEIVED

Cemetery Association Put on Good Play Tuesday Evening

The ladies who had the play "Ferguson of Troy" in charge are to be congratulated upon the success of the entertainment which was given before a large audience at the Opera House on Tuesday evening.

The unusual ability of Hereford home talent companies to entertain has become so well known that the announcement of a program always insures a full house, and those composing the cast on Tuesday evening well sustained the reputation they had already achieved.

The play was full of opportunity for real acting, and considering the limited time for practice the parts were exceptionally well given.

Much favorable comment has been given the "International Clowns," who in representative costumes, danced with perfect rhythm and correct step some exceedingly intricate figures.

The Cemetery Association is a live body of women whose example of push, energy, and stick-to-it-iveness is worthy of emulation.

The play was put on by Miss Frankie Terrell and Chas. Earnest Terrell of Mineral Wells, and their work in Hereford is an excellent testimony of their ability.

I will continue my classes through the summer. If you desire the summer course please enroll now. Mrs. C. D. Wright 1tp

Roswell, N. M., 5-4-1914. Brand Publishing Co., Hereford, Texas.

Gentlemen: Enclosed please find $1 for which please mark my subscription up one year from date of expiration. I have no excuse to offer for being so slow about paying up, but you have been kind enough to keep on sending me the paper. We are always glad to get the Brand, but still it makes us homesick to read it. I am a stranger to the new editor but not to the people of Hereford and Deaf Smith county, as I lived among them for fourteen years and I want to say that Hereford is not such a bad place to live after all, and as for the people and the water, they can't be beat.

With best wishes to the Brand and all my friends in Hereford, I am, Yours truly, Roscoe Davidson.

Car Pure Bred Porkers

Farm Demonstrator Boys is making arrangements whereby he can get a car load of pure bred Duroc pigs in here. He has an offer from a breeder to furnish a car load at weaning time, for $7.50 per head F. O. B. Hereford. Already a large per cent of the load has been spoken for.

He is also planning to have a car load or two of dairy cows brought in to distribute among farmers who want them. There is already considerable interest in this proposition. The cows will probably be brought about August if plans carry.

Will Give Recital

The pianoforte and violin pupils of Mrs. Earl Wilson and Miss Marsh will give a recital at the high school auditorium Thursday evening May 13th at 8:30 p. m. Everyone cordially invited.

You Can't Afford To Pay Less Anywhere

Section 3b. The Commissioners' Court of each county in this State shall have the power, and is hereby authorized, when a majority of the qualified voters of such county shall vote to create such fund, to create a fund to be known as a "Students' Loan Fund," for the purpose of enabling students of the public free schools of said county to borrow money to be used in their education for the purpose of graduating from the county public schools and after graduation to continue their education in any higher State institution of learning, such fund to be created and administered by the Commissioners' Court of each county as may be provided by law.

Section 2. And the Legislature may authorize an additional ad valorem tax to be levied and collected within such county for the purpose of raising said students' loan fund, said tax not to exceed in any one year twenty cents ($20c) on the one hundred dollars ($100.00) valuation of the property subject to taxation in each county; provided, that a majority of the qualified property tax paying voters of the county voting at an election to be held for that purpose shall vote such tax. Section 3. Section 1. That Section 52, of Article 3, of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows, to-wit:

Section 52. The Legislature shall have no power to authorize any county, city, town or other political corporation or subdivision of the State, to lend its credit or to grant public money or thing of value in aid of, or to, any individual, association or corporation whatsoever, or to become a stockholder in such corporation, association or company, provided, however, that under legislative provision any county, any political subdivision of a county, or any defined district now or hereafter to be described and defined within the State of Texas, and which may or may not include towns, villages or municipal corporations, upon a vote of two-thirds majority of the resident property tax payers voting thereon who are qualified electors of such district or territory to be affected thereby, in addition to all other debts may issue bonds or otherwise lend its credit in any amount not to exceed one-fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property of such district or territory; except that the total bonded indebtedness of any city or town shall never exceed the limits imposed by other provisions of this constitution; and levy and collect such taxes to pay the interest thereon and provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof as the Legislature may authorize, and in such manner as it may authorize the same, for the following purposes, to-wit:

(a) The improvement of rivers, creeks and streams to prevent overflows, and to permit of navigation thereof, or irrigation therefrom, or in aid of such purposes.

(b) The construction and maintenance of ponds, lakes, reservoirs, dams, canals and waterways for the purposes of irrigation, drainage or navigation, or in aid thereof.

(c) The construction, maintenance and operation of macadamized, gravelled or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof. Provided, however, that under legislative enactment any defined district now or hereafter to be described and defined within the State of Texas, which may be formed for the purpose of reclaiming and improving overflowed and swamp lands in this State, and maintaining the improvements thereof, may, upon a vote of two-thirds majority of the resident property tax payers voting thereon who are qualified electors of such district or territory, in addition to all other debts, issue bonds or otherwise lend its credit in any amount not to exceed fifty per cent of the assessed valuation of the real property in such district or territory.

Provided, further, that where a county, district or other political subdivision has issued bonds for improvements for the purposes named in this Section, the Legislature may authorize the levy and collection of taxes for the maintenance of such improvements, not to exceed fifty cents on the hundred dollars valuation in any one year.

Section 2. The foregoing amendment of Section 52 of Article 3, of the Constitution of Texas, shall be submitted to the qualified electors of this State for its adoption or rejection, at a special election hereby ordered for the fourth Saturday in July, A. D. 1915, the same being the _____ day or said month. All voters on this proposed amendment at said election who favor its adoption shall have printed or written on their ballots the following: "For amendment of Section 52 of Article 3, of the Constitution, authorizing the issuance of bonds for levee, drainage, road and other public improvements, and for taxes therefor." Those voting against its adoption shall have printed or written on their ballots the following: "Against the amendment of Section 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution, authorizing the issuance of bonds for levee, drainage, road and other improvements, and for taxes therefor."

Previous to the election the Secretary of State shall cause to be printed and forwarded to the county judge of each county, for use in said election, a sufficient number of ballots for the use of the voters in each county, on which he shall have printed the form of ballot herein prescribed, for the convenient use of voters.

Section 3. The Governor of the State is hereby directed to issue his necessary proclamation ordering this election, and have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State. The sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated to defray the expenses of publishing said proclamation, and printing and distributing the necessary tickets and blanks for use in said election.

Anyone can smile when everything is going well; it takes a hero to smile and whistle when everything is going dead wrong.

China is threatening to go to war with Japan. Well, while the east is destroying property that it took centuries to create and killing half the population, the United States will go on producing bread and meat to feed them and supplying their other needs.

It is doubtful if in all Texas there is a prettier lawn than ours—the one around the court house at this place. And the trees, too, have reached the size to add very much to the beauty of the property. The building itself is one of the most beautiful and finest in the state and every effort has been made to give it the proper beautiful surroundings.

Mr. Elliott's Mother Dies
Mr. A. C. Elliott left last Sunday for Temple, Texas, in response to a message that his mother was quite ill and not expected to live. Mr. Elliott reached Temple Monday morning in time to see his mother just before she died that afternoon. Mrs. Elliott was 75 years old. She has visited here and was known by a few Hereford people.

Killing Frost Last Night
A heavy frost visited this section last night forming ice one-eighth inch thick in places. A bright warm sun is shining this morning making the effects of the freeze serious.

It is a little early to tell what damage has been done. The opinion is pretty general among orchard men that while a good deal of the fruit is killed, plenty is left to make a bountiful crop, as all the trees were entirely too full and can stand a loss of two-thirds. No reports have been received from other points.

A WONDERFUL HEALING INFLUENCE IN KIDNEY TROUBLE
A year and a half ago I was taken with a severe attack of kidney trouble that pained me to such an extent that morphine had to be given me. Was attended by a doctor who pronounced it as stone in the bladder and prescribed lithia water. I took lithia water and tablets for some time and got no relief from them. I stopped taking medicines for some time, later having some Swamp Root in the house I decided to try it and felt much relieved. While taking the second bottle commenced to pass gravel in urine until I had passed in all at least a half-dozen or more and have not suffered the slightest since—and in all have taken one bottle and a half and feel very grateful to Swamp-Root.
Yours very truly,
H. W. Spinks,
Camp Hill, Ala.
Personally appeared before me this 16th day of August, 1909, H. W. Spinks, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nothing but an inflamed condition which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

Mrs. Lovelace, wife of R. W. Lovelace, manager of the telephone exchange here, died Wednesday night about 9:30 of apoplexy following the birth of a baby boy.

The funeral services will be held today at 3 o'clock at the Presbyterian church, conducted by Rev. W. M. Baker.

Mrs. Lovelace was in seeming good health on the day of her death. After the physician had been called and had just arrived, she cried out with a pain in her head and never spoke after that, and died in a brief time. The boy born just before her death is living and apparently healthy.

This is one of the saddest deaths that has come to Hereford people. Mrs. Lovelace was a woman beloved by all, and in the bloom of youth yet. She leaves a daughter and husband beside the infant to miss her love and tender care.

Seniors Enjoy Picnic

The Senior Class of the high school, accompanied by the high school faculty, chartered a hay wagon on Friday evening, and flinging dull care to the winds, hied themselves to Sulphur Park to eat, drink and be merry together one more time before they shall have ceased to be dignified Seniors and shall have become merely individuals.

Boating and fishing were to have been the chief diversions of the outing. The former had been provided for by taking a boat along, but as they neglected to take the fish, that part of the program failed to materialize.

The supper, a la picnic was a success and included every sort of luncheon luxury—no one really cared for fish.

A shower came up just in time to give the boys an opportunity to prove that knighthood is still in flower by going coatless in order that the girls might be protected from the elements.

Of the many Senior festivities, this was one of the most enjoyable.

This is what a brick manufacturer in Illinois said when he had used one barrel of Texaco Crater Compound for the heavy gearing of his brick-making machinery.

Before this we have had to buy new gears every spring because the difficult work imposed upon them caused them to wear out very rapidly.

I do not know just how much longer these will last, but we won't need any new ones this year, and that saving will pay a good many oil bills.

TEXACO QUALITY

was responsible. Working under these difficult conditions, as it operates under any circumstances, performing service second to none, saving more in the wear and tear upon this heavy gearing than many times its cost.

A COTTAGE AND LOVE

By ROSE DUNDONALD

Copyright, 1915, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

The black pony had an inconvenient habit of suddenly pausing in the road and attempting a stolen trot winks. Old age and a liberal diet did much to foster this custom. For the third time that morning Freda Mason slapped the reins over the snaky flanks and scolded the black pony.

"Nemo Mason! You are the laziest, good-for-nothing little beast! Please—please get along!" The last words were accompanied by a vicious little slap of the reins.

Nemo opened lazy eyes, blinked and broke into a startled trot that carried the little cart and its pretty driver through the woods and into the road that ended in the village.

Suddenly Nemo stopped short before a pair of large iron gates. Beyond the gates were the beautiful gardens that surrounded the Lennox estate.

"Oh, bother!" she murmured. "I wish I did not have to decide. Don't be splendid, but I do wish that he wasn't so rich—and altogether desirable." She sighed and slapped the reins.

Nemo responded soberly and resumed his way.

Nemo suddenly halted again, this time before the most white gate of a cottage. A young man who was trimming a rose vine above the porch, turned quickly and then came eagerly forward. It was Frank Deane.

"Good morning, Freda," he greeted her, leaning into the cart to shake hands. "I was thinking about you at the very instant you stopped."

"You must thank Nemo for this call," said Freda with a little blush. "He stops anywhere at the most inopportune moment."

"It is opportune for me, because, Freda—" he laid his hand over her little gloved one, "I was coming around to tell you something this afternoon. Let me tell you now, dear. I've been promoted in the bank, and now I can offer you something more than bread and cheese and roses in a cottage! You know I've always loved you!"

"I know it," murmured Freda, "but, oh, Frank, I am not sure about myself—and—and—oh, don't look that way. It isn't the cottage and the bread and butter—you mustn't think that!"

"How can I help thinking that has something to do with it when I know—when I know that Lennox has—"

"Please don't say anything about that!" interrupted Freda sharply. "We are speaking of you—"

"Me and my cottage," laughed Frank bitterly.

Nemo was surprised by a tingling lash from the whip.

"Good morning, Frank," smiled Freda over her shoulder.

The next morning when he entered the bank Frank learned that the Lennox millions had been reduced to a few thousands, and that Don Lennox would retire to a little farm beyond the village and become a market gardener.

In the afternoon came a telephone summons from Freda. "Come over at five," she said; "I have something to say to you, Frank."

His hands were full of late flowers from his garden when he turned into the gate of the modest house where the Masons lived.

"A message from the cottage!" he said significantly as he gave the chrysanthemums to Freda.

"I am sorry, Frank, but my answer is not what you hope. I am fond of you—but not that way. I have promised to marry Don."

"Don't be hasty, Freda! The—the Lennox fortune has dissolved into nothingness—he is a pauper compared with me—and—"

Freda's hand was lifted in protest. A strange smile curled her lips.

"I love him, Frank," she explained gently. "He can never be a pauper with the wealth of my love! I was afraid to admit it before—I was afraid of all that money, but now that it has vanished I can see clearly—that it is Don Lennox I love after all."

Old-Fashioned.

John Henry had been calling at the home of Myrtle Marie for many months without making much headway toward matrimony, but eventually little cupid chased him out of the bashful gloom.

"Dearest," suddenly remarked John Henry one night, going over quickly and sitting close by the side of the beautiful girl. "I intend to see your father tonight and ask him for your hand."

"You make me sigh," wearily responded the fair one. "Why will you insist on being so old-fashioned?"

"Old-fashioned?" wonderingly rejoined John. "I don't get you, dearest."

"Don't go and ask him," imperiously answered dearest. "Go tell him." Philadelphia Telegraph.

Strategy.

"How do you feel about this political contest?"

"First rate," replied Senator Borah. "I have a great advantage."

"But you haven't refuted the charges made against you."

"There lies my advantage. I have let them exhaust their political arguments and mine aren't a bit tired."

FACTS AND FICTION

Experiences of Hereford Citizens Are Easily Proven to Be Facts

The most superficial investigation will prove that the following statement from a resident of Hereford is true. Read it and compare evidence from Hereford people with testimony of strangers living so far away you cannot investigate the facts of the case. Many more citizens of Hereford endorse Doan's Kidney Pills.

B. W. Miller, E. Eleventh and F. Sts., Hereford, says: "I got a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills from Woodburn & Son's Drug Store when I was suffering from pain in my back and they quickly relieved me. Now when I stoop or lift I don't have that pain in my loins and the trouble with my kidneys has also been removed."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Miller had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Bell Connection

Adds to Farm Cheer

It was a blustery March evening, but inside the cozy sitting-room of the Brown's all was cheery and bright.

Mrs. Brown stepped to the telephone. Her husband smiled—for he knew the pleasant custom for years had been to call the daughter, in the distant village, each week.

COULD SCARCELY WALK ABOUT

And For Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Housework.

Pleasant Hill, N. C.—"I suffered for three summers," writes Mrs. Walter Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time, was my worst."

"I had dreadful nervous headaches and prostration, and was scarcely able to walk about. Could not do any of my housework."

"I also had dreadful pains in my back and sides and when one of those weak, sinking spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, until it wore off."

"I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I firmly believe I would have died if I hadn't taken it.

After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely.

I fattened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether."

Cardui is purely vegetable and gentle-acting. Its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, sallow cheeks, fresh and rosy.

Cardui has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years. It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardui today.

She Knows What She Wants

The well informed housekeeper objects to the use of alum in food. She might read in an advertisement or be told that it was all right in the quantities used, but in the end she would merely ask, "Do you mean to say that these baking powders contain alum?"

The answer, however qualified, was in the affirmative, that would be enough. She would not buy it. Why?

Because she knows that cream of tartar has always been accepted as the most wholesome product for raising cake and biscuit, and she wants a baking powder made of cream of tartar, like Dr. Price's.

This conclusion is the result of unconscious absorption, either her own or her mother's, of the opinions of the highest authorities on hygiene and home cooking.

The prudent housekeeper looks at the ingredients printed on the label. She knows what she wants.

TELLS SCHOOLS NEEDS

Inspector for High Schools Makes Creditable Report on Hereford

W. S. Taylor, State school inspector, who visited the Hereford school recently, has made a report to the University that is creditable to the work being done. He makes some timely suggestions that the people of Hereford will do well to think over. Following is his report substantially:

The school is crowded and running over now, and prospects are good for a more crowded condition next year. The good school spirit of the town keeps every grade full. The Senior Class has an enrollment of twenty-three this year. This go-to-school movement is going to compel the board to provide additional space for the grades or high school. It should have been done this year. It will have to be done another year if the present eighth grade holds its own and the seventh grade does not fall off seriously in transforming itself into a high school grade.

The thing that the school really needs is a new high school building. The recent expansions demand more room and the splendid enrollment in the high school will necessitate more recitation room. The eighth grade has forty-eight students in it and is handled in one section except in English. It has not been possible to divide it on account of rooms, the superintendent says, and he seems to be right. It is not fair to the teachers nor to the teachers nor to the grade that it isn't divided. The same type of work cannot be done in a class of forty-eight that can be done in a class of thirty or less. Arrangements must be made to avoid these large classes next year. The superintendent suggested converting the auditorium into a study hall as a temporary makeshift. This seems to be the most feasible plan for getting the classes down to normal size but is not at all desirable, because of the poor light in the auditorium.

The school is requiring 18 units for graduation at present. The visitor does not believe this is wise. Under the present arrangement every student in the school must take two years of Latin. Latin should not be required of any student. Let those students who want Latin elect it, and let those students who do not want it elect manual training or domestic science in the first two years and physiology, physiography, and physics in the last two years. The requirement for graduation should be sixteen units. Strong students should be allowed to elect two extra units under the direction and advice of the superintendent.

Physiography is not an eleventh grade subject. It should be given in one of the lower grades. Most schools give it in the eighth or ninth. It may be given satisfactorily in either the ninth or tenth. The work in science can be greatly improved with additional equipment for the laboratories and the placing of the work in the proper grades. Mr. Firtch is doing some good work in physics but his work in physiology and physiography cannot be made strong until the laboratories are better equipped for work.

History is good. The work deserves none but favorable comment. The work in Latin is thorough. The students are doing good work in every year. The instructor demands thoroughness first and his work shows good results in every grade.

The work in mathematics is good.

The geometry was especially good in the tenth grade. The first year algebra class is doing good work also. The Visitor did not see any ninth grade work in algebra and the solid geometry has been completed.

Manual training is new this year. The school has bought some very excellent machinery for the work and the students are doing some practical work.

Domestic science is splendidly equipped in a very pretty, attractive room. The art department is not so well equipped. It has but two sewing machines and one table.

The following is recommended:

1. That arrangements be made to divide the eighth grade into two sections.
2. That physics be made an eleventh grade subject and be done in one year.
3. That only sixteen units be required for graduation and that four or more of these be done in the senior year.
4. That physiography be given in the ninth or tenth.
5. That better equipment be provided for physiology, physiography and physics laboratories.

Brown Chief

This is an actual photograph of our four-year-old, saddle bred stallion, Brown Chief. He was sired by Blue Chief and out of Queen of the West. He is a descendant from an unbroken line of winning ancestry. Having inherited his wonderful style and beauty, he transmits them as a natural consequence to his colts. Brown Chief is an excellent son of Blue Chief, who has held the title of Champion Saddle, Light Hrnness and Model Stallion of the Panhandle for six years, in which classes he has never been defeated. Furthermore, Galloway Chief, grand sire of Brown Chief, made the greatest showing as a three-year-old, of any colt ever bred in Missouri. He won at Kansas City, St. Louis, Chicago, and at the Missouri, Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin State Fairs.

Brown Chief has the richest seal brown color imaginable, being slightly dappled. He has a clean cut head with a mild eye, and his neck is a rare beauty, being true to his type of horse. He has a short back and a long belly, which gives a good reach and insures smooth gaits. He has good knee and hock action and picks his feet up and places them with that snap which is characteristic with the ideal saddle horse. He is fifteen and one-half hands high and weighs about 1150 as a four-year-old.

Being a saddle bred horse he has inherited that style and action which makes him a most admirable light harness horse.

This excellent son of Blue Chief will make the season at OUR RANCH, 1-2 MILE SOUTH OF BLACK, TEXAS, and at BOWE'S LIVERY BARN, HEREFORD, at $10.00 to insure living colt. He will be at Bowe's Barn every Saturday during the season. This is an extremely low fee for a stallion of such royal breeding, great style and conformation.
