Married.

Thursday, December 24th, at 8:30 p. m., Wm. W. Flenniken and Miss Myrtle R. Blake were married at the residence of C. S. Harrington, of Dalhart, Rev. Thomas Bowin, of the Presbyterian church, officiating. Only relatives and a few of the many friends of the contracting parties were invited. Among those present were: Mrs. W. P. Blake, of Clarendon, Texas, Mrs. E. M. Chapman, of Clovis, N. M., mother and sister of the bride, and Mrs. B. F. Flenniken, of Topeka, Kans., mother of the groom.
Mr. Flenniken during his residence in Dalhart has won many friends by his sterling qualities of upright manhood and gentlemanly demeanor. They predict for him a brilliant future, and congratulate him on his success in winning a splendid helpmate.
The bride is a daughter of W. P. Blake, of the Clarendon Chronicle. She has a host of friends in Dalhart who admire her especially for the fact that her rare personal beauty is but an outward index to her modest graces of refined womanhood. The Texan extends to the young couple the assurance of its best wishes for a long and happy life.—The Dalhart Texan.

Long Wanted a Railroad From Colorado Through the Panhandle.

No railroad proposition affecting Oklahoma City has had more enthusiastic support than that submitted yesterday to the Chamber of Commerce by Del W. Harrington, president of the Mountain-Valley & Plains Railroad company, and a party of associates. The whole northwest line from Oklahoma City that has been in contemplation for the past several years, is comprehended in the project submitted by Mr. Harrington.
The road has been chartered, lines surveyed and construction is promised to begin at an early day on the route from Cimarron, New Mexico, to Higgins, Texas, a distance of about 290 miles. Speaking of the opportunity for the road in traversing this territory, Mr. Harrington said that the accessible coal supply was practically inexhaustible, and that the thousands of acres of virgin forest would afford plenty of lumber tonnage. In the lower plains are the finest truck and farming land in the southwest, and the facilities for cattle and sheep raising are incomparable.

From Higgins, Texas, to Oklahoma City would be a matter of about 160 miles, coming over the proposed route through Arnet, in Ellis county; Seiling, in Dewey; Watonga, in Blain, and on through Kingfisher and Canadian counties to Oklahoma City.

Representatives from Arnet, Cestos, Watonga and other places were present at the meeting, and each expressed great belief in the future development of all towns touched by such a road.

Oklahoma City interests look with considerable favor on the proposition.

The officers of the Mountain Valley & Plains Railroad company are Del W. Harrington, Dalhart, Texas, president; Ben C. Boyce, Amistad, New Mexico, vice president; H. S. Wanamaker, Amistad, New Mexico, secretary and general manager, J. M. Cogan, Canton, Ohio, Treasurer.—Daily Oklahoman

Chas. W. Sachse.

On December 24th, 1908, Clarendon Lodge No 381 I. O. O. F. lost one of its choicest, most exemplary members. While mankind was singing "peace on earth, good will to men" the spirit of our brother Chas. W. Sachse, joined the choir invisible. A man of sterling quality, a noble devoted son and brother who left his post of duty having stood to the very last faithful.

Resolved: 1. That Clarendon Lodge suffers a keen sense of loss in his death and will sadly miss his presence in its weekly meetings. It will ever be grateful for the inspiration of his beautiful life, and will try to emulate his devotion to those he loved. 2. That as a body we bow in sorrow for the sudden bereavement that has come to us, realizing that one possessed of zeal and fidelity rarely equaled has been called from our ranks. 3. That we tender our deepest sympathy to those nearest to him, his mother, father, brothers and sisters and kindred whose sorrow we share. 4. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family, one each to the Banner Stockman and to the Memphis Democrat for publication, and that a copy be spread upon the minutes of this lodge.

Will Move to Clarendon.

We regret to note the fact that Dr. Jas. A. Odom of this city has made arrangements to move to Clarendon in the near future, where he will become associated with Dr. T. E. Standifer, of that city, in the practice of medicine. Dr. Odom is a man of sterling character, is a graduate of some of the best medical institutions of the country, and no doubt with his and Dr. Standifer's excellent ability, this will be one of the strongest practicing medical firms in the Panhandle. We join Dr. Odom's many friends in wishing for him and his most excellent family, much happiness and prosperity in their new location.—Hedley Herald.

OUR ANNUAL DISCOUNT SALE

It has never been our policy to put on fake discount sales, but each year about this season we desire to clean up stock and have been in the habit of placing our entire stock on special sale at a discount of 15%

When we say 15 per cent we mean 15 per cent; no more, no less. And the people have come to realize that a Genuine 15 Per Cent Discount Sale At Rathjen's means something. It means that you actually get the 15 cents off of each dollar and that no prices are ever marked up nor any other fake indulged in. It means a genuine saving to our patrons. For that reason our previous sales have been successes, every time. And now we announce that for the entire month of January our entire stock will be put on sale at 15 per cent discount. The sale includes everything in boots and shoes for men, women, children and babies. All rubber goods included. Everything marked in plain figures. Now is the time to fit out yourself, your wife, and entire family.

EASTERN STAR BANQUET

Members and Friends of the Eastern Star Very Pleasantly Entertained Last Night.

Last night at the lodge rooms a large number of the members and friends of the Eastern Star were very pleasantly entertained. Some visitors were present from Claude and Judge Browning, of Amarillo, who made an interesting address explaining the connecting links between masonry and the Eastern Star. Miss Beulah Dodson added to the pleasure of the occasion by singing in her usual charming way. Mrs. Beach gave an interesting reading. After exemplifying the floral work of the Eastern Star lodge, the guests were invited to partake of a delicious two course luncheon.

The rooms had been decorated in the lodge colors and looked very attractive indeed with palms and ferns scattered around in appropriate places, and none the less so during the serving of the refreshments, which consisted of peanut sandwiches, nut salad, pickles and coffee for the first course and fruit salad, cake and whipped cream for the second course, served by Mesdames Clarke, Williams, Gray, Talley and J. A. Barnett.

Dainty handpainted souvenirs, five pointed stars in the lodge colors, were pinned on each guest by Misses Helen Talley and Helen Powell, and then the guests departed loud in their praise of the delightful manner in which the Eastern Star entertained.

BUSINESS NOTICE.

With this issue the ownership of the Banner-Stockman passes into the hands of Mr. R. C. Dial, of Greenville, Texas, who with his family arrived Tuesday and are now citizens of Clarendon. Mr. Dial is a man of large experience in the newspaper business, having been owner and editor of the Daily and Weekly Greenville Banner for fifteen years. He will give the people of Clarendon and Donley county a good paper, and we feel sure that the high standard we have set for the Banner-Stockman will be maintained, and the news features of the paper will be even bettered. We bespeak for him a continuance of the excellent patronage with which we have been favored, feeling sure that he will be faithful to every trust imposed upon him. All subscription contracts will be fulfilled by the new management and he will also collect all back due subscriptions, which are now due him. Special advertising and job contracts in force will also be fulfilled to the letter. All other accounts due the paper are the property of the undersigned, who will also pay any outstanding claims of the old management.

JOHN E. COOKE.

As stated above we are in charge of the Banner-Stockman which has been, under the splendid management of Mr. Cooke, one of the best papers in the Panhandle, and we hope by your encouragement and help to keep it up to the high standard raised by the excellent gentleman who has just retired. It is the purpose of the present management to conduct the business of the paper in a straightforward way, just as Mr. Cooke has done, and to labor unceasingly for the best interests of Clarendon and Donley county. Now if the good people of this splendid little city and this grand county will not expect too much of us, and will wait till we get good in the harness we hope to make you a paper of which you will not be ashamed. We think it not best to make too many promises but to prove by our work what we will do.

R. C. DIAL.

GOODBYE.

It is with a full heart that the undersigned this week says "good-bye" to the Banner-Stockman and its many readers and business friends. For more than nine years I have labored among you, endeavoring to build up a good business, a good newspaper, and a better town and county. To my work I have ever been actuated by a desire to see Clarendon and Donley county bettered and improved, and at this time I may be pardoned for saying that my hopes have been in a great measure realized. I took the paper when its equipment consisted of a Washington hand press and a half of type. I leave it one of the best equipped printing offices on the Fort Worth & Denver railroad, with an editorial and commercial standing of which I can but be proud. I have seen Clarendon grow from a village to a thriving, hustling, queenly little city, with many institutions and advantages only found in much larger towns. At this time the Banner-Stockman stands as the third oldest business institution in the city without a change of name or management. There are only two business concerns here now which are still doing business under the same name and management as existed when I took charge of this paper; they are the firms of H. W. Taylor and J. D. Stocking. The patronage accorded the paper during these nine years has been such as to merit my heartiest thanks. The service rendered in turn has been such as to cause no blush of shame on my part. The friends I have made have been so many and so true that my very heart aches when I think of leaving them. And I would not leave them if fate had not decreed otherwise. I would ask for no greater feeling of satisfaction than to know that I could remain a permanent fixture in Clarendon. I believe it the best town, and Donley county the best county, in the world to make a home, and it will always be my deepest regret that the health of my family demands a lower altitude. But wherever I go, and whatever may be my future lot, there will always be a tender spot in my heart for Clarendon and her people, and the attachments I have formed will be lasting.

I earnestly desire that the Banner-Stockman may forever continue in public favor, and I ask for my successor that same consideration which has been shown me. To those who have given me business I would say, "Abide with the new man; he will treat you right." To those firms who have not seen fit to become patrons of the paper under my management I would say, "Get acquainted with the new proprietor; give him your business, and thus help him to get out a better paper; when you help him you help the entire town and county, for he will be ever found working for the best interests of you all." He is a man of wide experience, and a citizen of whom Clarendon may well feel proud. I feel that the paper is in good hands. Indeed, I could not give it up did I feel otherwise, for the Banner-Stockman has become to me even as one of my children, and it grieves me to have to part with it. May it live long and flourish, always found in the front rank of Panhandle papers, always giving value received, always working in the lead for the betterment and development of the town and county. Under Mr. Dial's management I am sure this will be the case.

And now in saying goodbye it is my earnest wish—a wish in which I am joined by Mrs. Cooke—that the richest blessings of an Allwise Providence may ever attend you all. You have been our friends; indeed, we leave some of the truest friends that were ever made, and we love you.

Sincerely,
JOHN E. COOKE.

Recital at the College.

At the hour appointed for the recital by the Faculty of Special departments of Clarendon College, on New Year's night, the new and spacious College Auditorium was notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather—well filled by an expectant assembly of friends, patrons and lovers of music.

The program was opened by Mr. Frederick A. Herrmann, musical director and head of the piano department. As, softly at first, then with increasing sonority, the noble strains of Liszt's 5th "Rhapsodie Hongroise" assumed life and color under his powerful touch, one became aware of the presence of a master possessed, if not with genius, with talent and ability of exceptional superiority. As the closing chords of this superbly rendered composition fell upon the ear the audience responded by paying to the performer that unconscious tribute accorded to only the true artist; the profound silence which precedes, by several seconds, any audible applause—a tribute which more plainly than words, showed their recognition of his power.

Next on the program came Miss Richerson's number "Robert" a pathetic recitation, delivered with a simplicity and depth of feeling immediately attracting and absorbing the interest of her thoroughly appreciative listeners.

Subsequent to the hearty applause which greeted this selection came Miss Miller's appearance upon the stage, and her laudable rendition of Godard's "Valse Chromatique," in which, as in the lengthy and difficult technical passages of her latter number—Liszt's 6th Rhapsodie, she acquitted herself most creditably, displaying strength and endurance to a degree remarkable in a pianist of her sex. Her number was followed by two vocal selections by Miss Williams who, with much sweetness and purity of tone, revealed in her very first notes of Schumann's "As Fair as any Flower," a voice of finished and remarkable cultivation. Perhaps the most enjoyed of her numbers was a latter one, "Violets" by Roma, which chosen with all a musician's finesse in contrast to the succeeding—"Maids of Cadiz," was rendered with touching pathos and tenderness, the effect of which was enhanced by Mr. Herrman's exquisitely blended and sympathetic accompaniment.

In pleasing variance with the richly classical setting of the musical selections, was Miss Richerson's inimitable delivery of her humorous and peculiarly appropriately chosen recitation, "A Leap Year Mishap," followed by an equally appreciated encore.

The program was concluded by Mr. Herrmann, who in his splendid and dramatic interpretation of one of the most difficult of masterpieces—Grieg's "Aus dem Carne-
