Hereford, Texas, Thursday, August 14, 1952

SIGHTS, FACES SEEN

Around Town

A pamphlet entitled, "We Welcome You to School" is being sent out to all parents of new first-graders, according to Supt. George Graham. The addresses of all parents are not known, Graham said, and those who do not receive a pamphlet are asked to call 1387 or drop a note or visit the superintendent's office and pick up a copy.

On Monday night the Toastmasters club of Hereford visited the Plainview club and furnished the program. Francis Hardwick introduced the Hereford guests, George Heard served as topic master and Curtis Traveek had the job as toastmaster. Speeches were given by Dr. M. C. Adams, H. V. Stanton, Hardy Benson and Bill Phillips. Sidney Fuller and Bruce Miller just went along for the ride.

War veterans from the state of Montana can now receive their state bonus. They may get further information on the payment and forms for securing payment from Veterans Service Officer Ralph Smith on the third floor of the courthouse.

Mayor W. E. Dameron has returned to Hereford after being in Amarillo about two weeks for medical care.

Hereford's 17-member citizens' school building committee met last week and decided to adjourn until the second Thursday in September.

They discussed school construction viewed on their recent tour of schools and also interviewed N. D. Bartlett Jr., and Elmo Hicks, local contractors.

Ivan Yowell of Lampasas, is now employed by the Hereford theaters. He, with Calvin Hammond, are the two assistant managers. Yowell has 20 years experience in theater business.

Coker Funeral Rites Saturday In Oklahoma

Funeral services for Mrs. J. C. Coker, mother of Kenneth Coker of Hereford, were held Saturday, Aug. 9, from the Trinity Baptist church in El Reno, Okla., with Rev. Garland Anderson officiating.

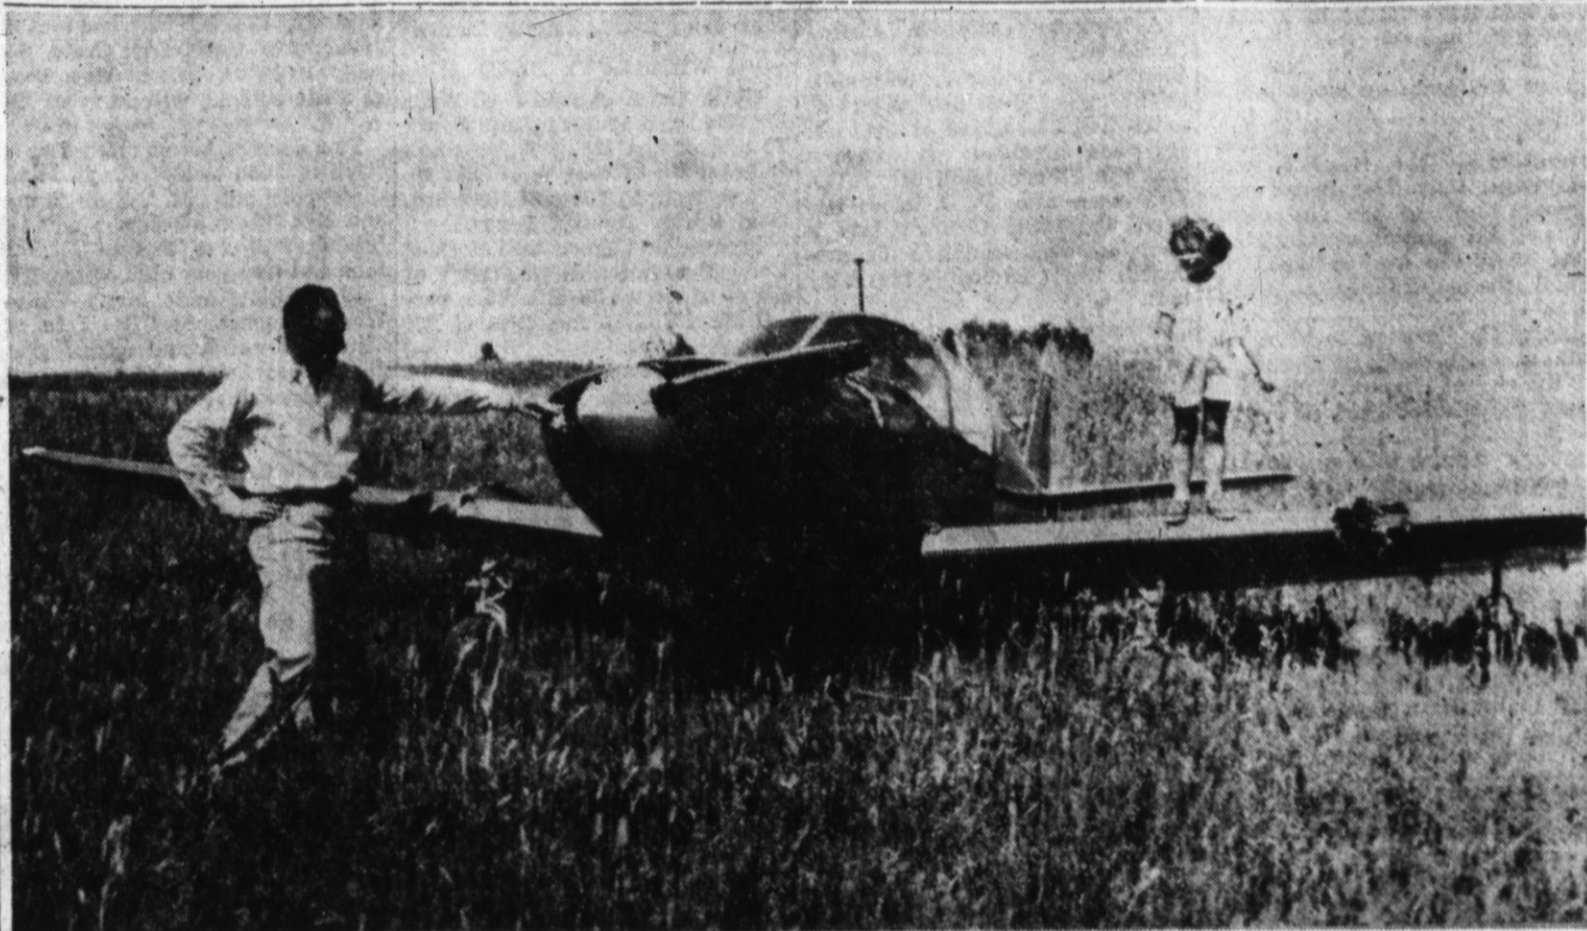

Interment was in the El Reno cemetery. Mrs. Coker died August 6 at 8 p.m. of a heart attack.

Born Valerie Proffitt near Sevierville, Tenn., on April 3, 1888, she was married at the age of 20 and moved to El Reno in 1937.

Survivors include her husband and the following sons: Kenneth of Hereford; James Cecil of El Reno; Frantz and Verlin of Maywood, Calif.; one sister, Mrs. Ola LaPlant of Hazel Park, Mich., and seven grandchildren. The Kenneth Cokers returned from El Reno Sunday.

The Jim Bob Allison family returned Monday from a five day vacation in Colorado.

SEVEN YEARS AFTER THE LIGHTS WENT ON AGAIN

AFTER PLOWING over the end of the Clover airport runway, through an irrigation ditch, over a field of lettuce and through a barbed wire fence, this Globe Swift piloted by two El Reno men came to rest as shown above in this listed field. The men were reported lost out of Roswell Sunday afternoon when they failed to report after their gas supply was exhausted. They got lost between Roswell and Hereford and landed here for gas, only to crack up when their craft failed to take off in the 2,600 feet of the local runway. In the picture above, Carl Kropff, airport manager, points to the propeller that was chopped off in the would-be takeoff. Below his arm is a gaping hole where one of the wooden fenceposts fell before the wing as it crashed through the fence. On the right side of the picture, Judy Knief points to a hole caused by another fence post when it hit the left wing of the craft. The bottom photo is a close-up of the wing damage on the left wing. Seeks Damages For Wreck At Tourist Court

Earl Plank filed a damage suit in district court against Elmer Lowery and C. B. Thomas on August 12 seeking a judgment for $1,569.45 against the defendants. Plank states in his petition that on March 12, 1951, a 1950 Hudson belonging to Lowery was out of control while traveling east on Highway 60 and smashed into a tourist court owned by the plaintiff.

His petition alleges that on March 12, 1951, at about 9 a.m., an old-model pick-up, driven by Thomas, was going east on the Highway by the Palo Duro tourist court at a speed of about 10 mph. Plank further alleges in his petition that Thomas turned left into a service station just east of the court without giving the proper hand signal.

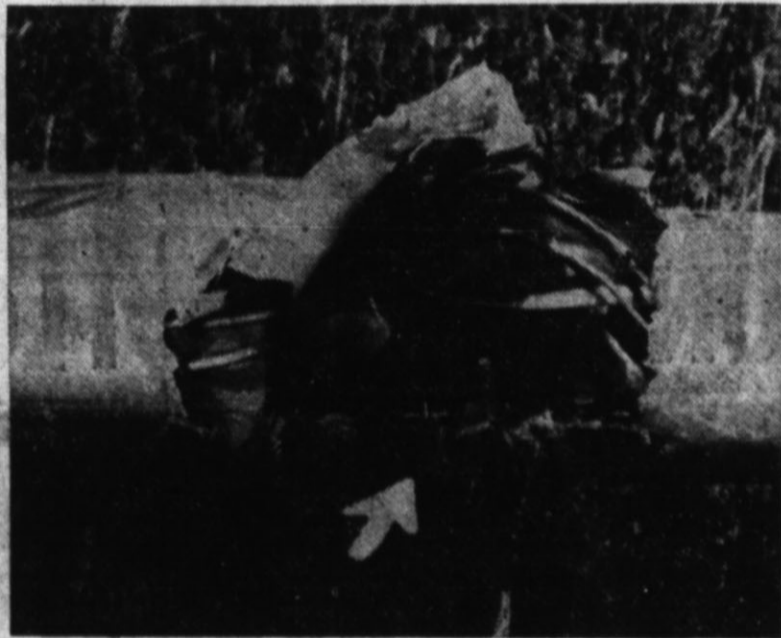

Plank charges that Lowery was coming up behind Thomas at a rate of over 60 mph and that, in order to avoid hitting Thomas, his auto went out of control to the left, hitting the property of the plaintiff.

Prior to the accident, Plank's petition says, the property was valued at $15,000. Immediately after the mishap, it was valued at $13,500. The furniture was damaged to the extent of $69.45, he said.

Plank seeks judgement against the two defendants in the amount of $1,569.45. His attorney is Tom M. Seay of Amarillo.

Fined $75, Costs

Frank Moreno was fined August 7 on a charge of driving while intoxicated, when he pled guilty in county court. He was fined $75 and $29.30 costs by County Judge Leonard H. Foster. The offense occurred on August 6.

"Lost" Fliers At Hereford Field

Two El Reno, Okla., men -- the object of an intensive three-hour aerial search -- were only slightly injured Sunday afternoon when their low-winged Globe-Swift monoplane crashed after failing to become airborne on a Clover airport runway here.

Burl Conner, pilot, and Leo M. Cordray, mechanic, landed at the Hereford field enroute to El Reno from El Paso, where they bought the small plane for re-sale in Oklahoma. On their departure from Clover airport, they used the field's longest (2,600 feet) runway, the northeast-southwest strip, and took off into the southwest.

Carl Kropff, manager of Clover airport, said that the small ship's "aeromatic" prop failed automatically to go into low pitch (comparable to low gear in a car where the motor revs up to allow power for the takeoff) at the take-off and the plane, going at about 65 miles per hour, ran off the runway, through a ditch, over a corner of the Raymond Paetzold lettuce field, through a woven and barbed wire fence and about 150 feet through a listed field.

Tears Down Fence

The metal craft plowed down two fence posts, putting holes in the two wings just outside the center sections and the barbed wire tangled around the prop, which also broke off, and twisted the motor mount.

Damage was estimated at $2,000.

The men told Kropff that as soon as the plane stopped rolling, they both jumped out of the windows on either side of the plane, fearing the craft would catch on fire.

Cordray suffered a bruised knee in the mishap, which occurred at about 1:30 p.m.

Tri-State Search

For three hours Sunday afternoon, low-flying planes and highway patrolmen of three states searched for the men and their small plane.

When the men arrived in Roswell from El Paso, they told airport officials that they had been lost for some time before getting to Roswell. Airport personnel there suggested they follow the main highway to Amarillo. They took off from Roswell at 10:50 a.m. with four hour's fuel aboard and the search for them started at 3:50 p.m. Texas time.

The two Oklahomans reported to the Civil Aeronautics Administration offices in Amarillo at 7 p.m. Sunday, stating they had been lost again and landed in Hereford for some gas and had take-off trouble upon leaving.

Passing, License Charges Filed In Highway Accident

No injuries were sustained in a two-car collision at about 8:45 p.m. Monday four miles east of Hereford on Highway 60.

A 1952 Ford pick-up driven by Mike George Huckert of Hereford hit the rear of a 1925 Maxwell (the former fire chief's car) driven by Albert A. Shirley, 22, also of Hereford.

Damage to the front of the Huckert truck was about $400. The Maxwell was a total loss, with the damage set at about $100. The Maxwell was overturned on the right shoulder of the road and Huckert's auto went off the highway to the left and came to rest in an open plowed field.

Both Huckert and Shirley were brought into town by passers by following the accident.

Highway Patrolman James R. Kirkwood, who investigated, wasn't able to talk to Huckert until Tuesday morning regarding the accident, he said.

Charges were filed in justice of the peace court on August 12 against Huckert for failing to pass on the left. He was fined $50 and $13 in costs.

Shirley was charged in justice of the peace court on August 12 with operating a vehicle without a valid license. He was fined $2 and $13 in costs.

Kirkwood said Huckert had a valid operator's license on his person when he questioned him regarding the accident. Huckert had pled guilty on June 2, 1952, in county court to a charge of driving while intoxicated. Driving licenses are required to be suspended for a period of six months following conviction of a DWI charge.

"Scat" Russell New Grid Coach

L. B. "SCAT" RUSSELL, Hereford's new football coach, looks over a copy of the August 7 sports page of The Brand at the 1952 schedule for the Whitefaces. Russell was hired Tuesday night by the board of education. A proponent of the "T" and spread formations, he will use an offensive to suit his material, he told The Brand. Staff Photo.

L. B. "Scat" Russell, 35, former Hereford high school and Hardin-Simmons backfield ace, was named coach of the Hereford Whitefaces by the board of education Tuesday night.

Russell, currently coach of the Cisco Junior college football team, is the son of Mrs. W. H. Russell of Hereford. "Scat" will succeed Dalton Criswell, who resigned a week ago Saturday to enter private business.

All-American

The new Hereford mentor was honorable mention All America back from H-SU in 1940. He has been in the coaching profession for 11 years.

While a Whiteface, Russell played in the backfield under Coach T. C. (Tommy) McCollum. He graduated from Hereford high in 1935.

Hereford's coaching staff personnel will remain the same as under Criswell with Wayne Stark as assistant football coach and head basketball coach with Medford Hammon as freshman coach and junior high and B team coach.

Russell told The Brand Wednesday morning he uses the "T" and spread formations. "I don't know what we will use here yet, as I will try to suit the material to the offense we think will be best."

Shifty Back

A shifty back both with the Whitefaces and later in his college days, Russell's backfield acumen is expected to be well placed with the Herd charges. Russell played at Hardin-Simmons under Frank Kimbrough and attained the All-American mention in his senior year. He played left half or tailback.

The new coach has a master's degree in education with 11 years' experience. His pay will be based on his experience and scholastic achievement the same as other instructors in the system.

Following his graduation from H-SU, Russell was made assistant under Coach Hilliard at Abilene high in 1941. He entered the Army, serving from 1942-1946 in the infantry in the European Theater of operations. He returned to the gridiron and coached under Pete Shotwell in Abilene for a year.

After that experience, Russell accepted a post as coach with Baird (Texas) high school, a position he held for three years. At Baird, his team won second in the regional, tied for second in the district and the third year was what Russell described as "mediocre".

During the past two years, he has been head coach at Cisco Junior college in what he termed a "fast league". His teams met with moderate success there.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell have three children -- a nine-year-old twin girl and a son, aged 2.

Three other instructors were hired by the school board in its meeting on Tuesday. They are: Mrs. Dennis Barnard, second grade at Central; Mrs. Ruth Warner, who taught five years in Waco, fourth grade instructor; and G. C. Adams, social science instructor in junior high school.

Two vacancies still remain on the local teaching force, one elementary teacher and a speech instructor.

Consolidation Of Precincts Okayed

A consolidation of voting precincts five and 10 -- both located in the extreme northeast part of the county -- was approved by the Commissioners Court this week, County Judge Leonard H. Foster said.

Precinct 10 votes at the Daniel school house and Precinct five at the Fairview school house.

The consolidation will not take place until after the August 23 runoff primary. Judge Foster said, but will be accomplished in time for the general elections November 4.

Residents of the two precincts had requested the move repeatedly, Foster said, although no petition had been presented to the Commission. Fairview school was considered unfit as an election place by many of them.

With the completion of the Dawn-Wildorado Farm-to-Market road, residents of Precinct 5 will have an all-weather drive to their new polling place, Daniel school.

This new move will give the county 10 voting precincts once again. The last change in precincts was when Precinct 2 was split into two different units, making a total of 11 for the county.

To become effective legally, the order setting forth the consolidation will be published in The Brand twice, the judge reported.

At Monday's Commissioners meeting, the court sat as a board of equalization, although no taxpayers were present to contest their evaluations.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newell are vacationing in New Mexico and Colorado.

Long Time Ago

45 Years Ago
(August 9, 1907)

Saturday night this section had a reported 3 1/4 inches of rainfall, though many say that an inch more fell than the gauge registered. The Tierra Blanco river was higher than in seven years, the new bridge across the stream at this place being washed away. The railroad fill of the Panhandle Short Line at the river was considerably damaged. Lakes are full.

Though our fair city received its name from the Hereford Whitefaces, the city marshal has issued warning that cattle are not to be driven nor are herds of cattle to be kept in the corporate limits of the city.

A good number of prospectors arrived this week in Hereford. Though this is the first excursion, there were enough people to predict that many more will be coming as the season progresses. The country is looking her best, this should help the land business.

Some weeks ago, through the work of the Civic League, the citizens of Hereford took a day off and had a general clean-up of the entire month of August last year. Row crops in this section will be materially benefitted and although the grain sorghums are much later this season than usual, the warm weather and continued moisture are expected to bring them to rapid maturity. Farmers and businessmen are optimistic over the outlook for a good crop of row stuff.

A "pick-up" campaign is being considered by members of the Chamber of Commerce, with nails as the object. Just how the campaign will be carried out has not yet been decided; however, a committee composed of A. O. Thompson and T. D. Moss has been appointed to formulate a plan that will eradicate the motorist's worst enemy -- the rusty nail.

Assessments of real and personal property for the Hereford Independent School District were completed this week by C. Benton, sheriff, and assessor for the district, and Joel Murchison, deputy.

O. L. Rutherford will soon be prepared to give the small unit irrigation system a thorough test in this section. He has just completed a small well on his 10-acre tract north of Hereford and a pumping plant and engine are being installed this week by a representative of the Roswell Pump and Supply company.

25 Years Ago
(August 11, 1927)

Two-tenths of an inch of rain fell in Hereford Saturday, 7/10 Monday night and one inch Tuesday night, for a total of 1 9/10 inches since August 1. This total comes within 1/10 of that for

How Can I?

By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I remove a tight ring?

A. Take a yard of cotton cord, soak it in soapsuds, glycerin, or oil, and wind snugly around the finger from near the fingertip to the knuckle joint. Then pass the end of the string under the ring, and pulling the string tight, unwind it. The string will lessen the blood pressure near the ring, and little by little the string presses the flesh and pulls off the ring.

Q. How can I make the flowers in a corsage last longer?

A. Wear the corsage with flowers pointing down. The sap that is still in the stems can then run down into the blossoms, thus prolonging their life.

Q. How can I prevent custard from soaking into pie crust?

A. Brush over the crust with the white of an egg before pouring in the custard.

Q. How can I rid the hair of dye?

A. There is no quick and easy method of doing this. The best thing is to cut off the dyed ends as much as possible and once a week to rub the scalp thoroughly with very warm olive oil. Saturate the hair with the olive oil and leave it on at least half an hour. Then shampoo with a pure mild soap.

Q. How can I avoid burning the hands when frying fish or anything that is liable to spatter grease?

A. It is a good idea to slip an ordinary paper bag over the hand holding the fork. This will avoid many a nasty burn.

Q. How can I give an antique effect to white candles?

A. Brush brown floor stain over white candles to obtain an antique effect.

Q. How can I remove cigarette stains from the fingers?

A. Obstinate cigarette stains on the fingers can be removed by means of well-soaked pumice stone and hot water. Plain lemon juice will remove lighter stains.

Q. How can I easily iron shirt collars?

A. Try ironing the collars on a Turkish towel doubled to four thicknesses. The collars will iron more easily, they will be smoother, and shine like new when finished.

Q. How can I give a better flavor to corn fritters when serving them with chicken?

A. Try adding some chopped, cooked bacon or ham to the batter.

Q. How can I clean soiled book covers?

A. They may be cleaned by applying with a clean cloth a solution consisting of two parts vinegar and one part water. Rub briskly until the dirt is removed; then place the book upright to dry. Do not use this on leather covers.

Mrs. W. F. Gillis left Monday for Joplin, Mo., to visit the Joe Longs, formerly of Amarillo and long-time friends.

USDA Announces Cotton Support For 1952 Crop

The U. S. Department of Agriculture announced this week that the average price support for middling 7/8 inch Upland cotton, gross weight, produced in 1952, will be 30.91 cents per pound, which is 90% of the parity price of cotton as of August 1, 1952. The August 1 parity price was announced at 34.35 cents per pound. Last year the average loan rate for middling 7/8 inch cotton, gross weight, was 30.46 cents per pound.

On February 21, 1952, the USDA announced the average loan rate would not be less than 30.91 cents per pound basis middling 7/8 inch cotton, or 90% of parity as of August 1, 1952, whichever was higher. It so happens that the final loan rate is exactly the same as the rate announced earlier.

The average rate for middling 15/16 inch cotton will be 105 points (1.05 cents per pound) above the average rate for middling 7/8 inch cotton, or 31.96 cents per pound, gross weight.

Premiums and discounts for various grade and staple length combinations under the 1952 Price Support Program will be calculated in relation to the price support rate on middling 15/16 inch cotton. Price support rates will vary according to location. County PMA offices will be in a position to give farmers exact support price level for different grades and staple lengths for their area.

Loans will be made on cotton represented by warehouse receipts issued by warehouses approved by Commodity Credit Corporation, and on farm-stored cotton, secured by chattel mortgages, stored in structures approved by PMA county committees. Cotton producer's notes will bear interest at the rate of 3.5% per annum and will mature July 31, 1953, but can be called by the farmer at any time before maturity.

Purchase agreements will also be available to producers, for the first time, through the PMA county committee.

Loans will be made through lending agencies, principally banks, approved by CCC, or directly by the CCC through county committees.

Federal Income Tax "Bite" From Today's Wages Shown By WTCC

What high Federal taxes and inflation are doing to family incomes in Texas and other states is brought out today in a report by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Taking an average family of four (husband, wife and two children) as an example, the WTCC showed how today's family income at various levels compare with those earned in 1940 after Federal income taxes are deducted and due allowance is made for the reduced purchasing power of the dollar as the result of inflation. The study pointed out:

A family in the $3,000 net income group today has $2,886.80 for living expenses after federal income taxes. This has a purchasing power of $1,519.40 in 1940 dollars. But in 1940 this family had the use of all its $3,000 income.

A $4,000 family today has $3,644.80 left after taxes. This has a purchasing power of $1,964.80 in 100-cent dollars after taxes.

As for the $5,000 family today, it has left $4,433.60 after federal taxes. But this income is worth only $2,344.08 in 1940 purchasing power. In 1940, however, this family had $4,925.20 after federal income taxes.

A $10,000 family today has $8,226.40 after taxes. But its purchasing power is $4,259.99 in 1940 dollars. In 1940, this family had $9,560 after taxes.

The $100,000 family has $43,968 after Federal income taxes today and this income has the purchasing power of only $23,303.04 in 1940 dollars. But in 1940 this family had $57,051.60 after taxes.

Looking at the picture another way, the WTCC brought out these additional facts with due allowance for taxes and inflation:

A family of four today must earn a net income of $4,165 to equal a 1940 income of $2,000.

A $3,000 income earned in 1940 compares with $6,595 earned today.

A $4,000 income earned in 1940 compares with $9,010 today.

A family which earned $5,000 in 1940 must show a net income of $11,480 today to maintain the same standard of living.

And it takes a net income of $736,000 today to equal the purchasing power, after taxes, of a $100,000 income earned in 1940.

Dimmitt Juniors Win Monday, 11-8

Dimmitt's junior baseball team won over the Hereford nine in a return game at Dimmitt played Monday afternoon by a score of 11-8.

Hereford won the first game of the series played here, 8-2. The possibility of a junior league for next summer is being discussed. It had been suggested that Hereford, Dimmitt, Friona, Bovina and perhaps Canyon might be interested in forming such a league.

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Johns and family of San Francisco, Calif., are visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Paul. Mrs. Johns is a sister of Mrs. Paul. Homer Paul of Amarillo spent the weekend visiting the family.

WHO'S WHICH CONFUSION GOES ON—Friends of the James B. Klare family of Corpus Christi are right back where they started—confused about which of the Klare twins, Barbara or Beverly they're talking to. They thought they had it solved recently when Barbara (rig . . . cr., left) fell and cut her chin, inasmuch as the three stitches it took to fix her up would leave a permanent scar. It didn't last long, though, because Beverly fell and cut her chin a few days later. Yep, three stitches and doctors say the scars—like everything else about the twins—will be identical. The girls will be three in December. AP Photo.

Bill Stephens of the U. S. Air Corps, stationed at Sheppard field, Wichita Falls, has been visiting his mother, Mrs. Seale Stephens.

SOFTBALL—Hereford Hardware's coping of the playoffs in three straight, writes an end to Hereford Softball league activity for this year, although some of the league teams might play out-of-town competition at Vets park.

Those who saw the three games between Dawn and Hereford Hardware saw three of the finest games of the year. They were all close and all of them provided thrills.

There was excellent playing on both sides with the pitching, by Dub Hair, Marvin May and Walt Lemons furnishing the brightest spot in the playoffs.

Some of the hitting, too, caused hearts to skip a beat. Take Ray Hardy's slugging in the last game, two homers driving in five of the six winning runs. Ray started out the season with a bunch of goose eggs at the plate, but developed into a terror later in the season.

Duane Stewart, Dawn third sacker and catcher, deserves mention for his consistent hitting. Duane has a high playoff average and high season average with the stick.

I don't think any other team in the league could've put up as good a battle in three straight games as the Dawn fellows did. They played hard -- and good. Hereford Hardware just played a little better and any breaks that came along, they took advantage of them. That was the margin of victory.

Right now at the close of the season, we'd like to say something about the league winners. They repeated their 1951 performance of winning the league and playoff and came through the 1952 season with basically the same personnel.

The crowd is naturally with the underdog hence Hereford Hardware, as the strongest in the league, had to take a lot of abuse from the fans. They gave no quarter and certainly asked none.

All in all, they were good sports about the whole affair and, except for one or two lapses, proved to be top notch sportmen and all-around ball players.

We'd like to take our sombrero off to Bill Howard and his fine team. They won because they were the best team, and beat most of the league to prove it.

No one needs -- or has any right to expect -- excuses for their performances in Hereford Softball league in 1952. May 1953 be a bigger and better year. It's up to the fans.

A little more on the league in the way of finances. The league is "in the black" despite the cost of the field, lights, balls, trophies and pendants for individual players of the winning team of the loop.

The league used about 4 1/2 dozen softballs at $2.20 each. Trophies cost about $20. All these expenses were in addition to cost of umpiring and gate receipts collection.

People WANT softball in Hereford because they'll pay to get it. Plans should start now for an enlarged league for 1953. It CAN pay its own way. We have the talent here to warrant it, we believe.

One more word -- that golden-throated PA announced all this season was Shelby Whitfield, a budding sports announcer if we ever saw one.

WRESTLING—Next time you go to a wrestling match and you want to get your money's worth, the ring isn't the only place to look for it. Remember that!

If you want to have a little fun, let your eyes roam around the Bull Barn (if it's in Hereford) and watch the reaction of the fans. They're better than the wrestlers.

The wrestling activity can be pretty much left alone long enough to scan the ringsiders. That's where your most avid fans will set.

We've got most any type of fan you want to name: the hat and handkerchief twister, the groaner, the contortionist, the referee baiter, the advisor and the sympathetic sufferer.

This wrestling can be painful on some of the fans, as we've discovered during the past few weeks. Some go home as exhausted as the grapplers. Some go home too hoarse to talk.

But all go home pleased, apparently, because they all keep

Cowboy - Guerrero Draw, Freeman, Benito Lose

Cowboy Carlson and Gory Guerrero fought to an exciting last-minute draw in their main event wrestling match Saturday night at the Bull Barn.

Cowboy came within a split second of losing the bout to the nifty from south of the Border when Guerrero was ready to put the finishing touches on Carlson with a reverse surfbow.

Both Carlson and Guerrero made an excellent showing in the ring during the hour, they battled in spite of the hot weather. It was a clean match throughout, minus most of the slam-bang action usually attending a round-up with Cowboy.

Freeman-Belkas—Ace Freeman and Chris Belkas kept the audience in stitches in the first event, a one-fall, 20-minute affair. Both Freeman and Belkas must've wanted to go home without taking a shower because they didn't mix it up to any great degree in what could be termed a dull match.

As hot as it was at the Bull Barn Saturday, we don't say we blame them.

Belkas won the match just before the time deadline in a manner we'll describe later of the run-down of the bouts.

Whatever action was lacking in the first bout was amply supplied by Benito Gardini, the general, roly-poly Italian from Milan, when he fought a Judo jacket match with Japan's best Kinji Shibuya.

Benito Slumbers—Let it be said that Benito never fails to give the fans their money's worth. Saturday was no exception. Shibuya finally got to the "Little Flower" in their 30-minute event, putting him to sleep -- or apparently so -- with a jacket sleeper.

Back to the bout-by-bout action: Belkas, from Logan, O., won over Ace Freeman, Bronx, N. Y., in 16 minutes after wearing him down with a reverse nelson and slams into the turnbuckles. He finished him off with a top body press.

Most of the match was spent with the two wrestlers getting themselves -- and several times referee Johnny James -- into awkward tangles and pig piles.

The Alphonse and Gaston routine looked pretty tame for what was to follow.

Rowdy and reckless Benito, the Miscreant from Milan, provided the crowd with their share of thrills in the half-hour semi-windup when he met with Kinji Shibuya in a Judo jacket match.

Wrong Bout—This was more than Benito expected, for he thought it was to be a catch-as-catch-can bout. He didn't fail to register a protest, either, and had to be coaxed into slipping the jacket on.

Whether it was actually difficult for Benito to get the hang of Judo jacket work or not, he made it appear as though it were. But when the time came for him to start the slugging, no one had to point him in the right direction.

After six minutes, the irascible blooming Benito tore off his belt, twisted it around Shibuya's neck and began choking him.

Now Benito was fighting HIS way; But it didn't last long and Johnny James, after being knocked out of the ring, wrapped the belt around Benito's neck and went to town.

After that was over, Benito had Kinji in and out of the ring and was working on his eyes, all the time snarling in his best villainous manner.

The rest of the action was confined to two places -- in and out of the ring -- with the latter getting the edge slightly. After being knocked out of the ring by Benito, Shibuya came up behind the Flower and laid him to rest with a jacket sleeper. Gardini had to be brought to by Shibuya, but the real fight was gone from the "Little Flower".

It took 12 minutes for Shibuya to put the quietus on Benito.

Main Event Good—The main-eventers were Cowboy Carlson and Gory Guerrero of Mexico City. This match was good with both evenly matched. It took Cowboy 26 minutes to put number one on Gory as he wore him down with a "Flying Hoolihan" and finished the job

Hereford Golfers Beat Portales

Mildred Burke Will Defend Her World Championship Here Saturday

Hereford will have a world's championship woman's wrestling match Saturday night, Aug. 16 at the Bull Barn.

Mildred Burke, titleholder, will lay her 16-year-old crown on the line when she meets Betty Hawkins in an hour-long match.

The champ will wrestle in Amarillo on Thursday night, but lose or not, the world's champion woman grappler will headline the card at the Bull Barn.

Miss Burke hasn't been beaten in the 16 years she's held the crown. She was in an auto accident more than a year ago and injured her back. A physician said she wouldn't be able to wrestle again, but she has defended her title 14 times since then.

This is the first world's title match Hereford has had. Miss Burke has not been any closer to this area than Oklahoma City in her career as champion.

Guy Lawrence, local wrestling official, said the supporting card has not been released as yet, but that it would be an excellent card.

Portales linksters bit the dust at the hands of Hereford golfers here Sunday when the locals downed the New Mexico guests in team match play, 64-35.

Thirty-three matches were played throughout the afternoon with Hereford amassing their final score with one point for the first nine, one for the second and one for the 18.

A return match will be played at the Portales country club Sunday, Aug. 24, according to Pro Bud Posey.

Starting time for the match will be 1 p.m.—Texas time.

MORE PORK with LESS GRAIN

RED CHAIN WA-MO

A Scientifically Balanced Hog Supplement

You can raise hogs on grain alone... but it's mighty poor economy. Tests prove that it requires 12 bushels of corn alone to make 100 pounds of pork. Compare this with 6 bushels of corn and 50 pounds of RED CHAIN WA-MO to do the same job. It's mighty easy to figure that the RED CHAIN Way is the cheaper -- more efficient way to raise hogs.

RED CHAIN WA-MO provides high levels of animal and vegetable proteins, minerals, and vitamins including B₁₂ and Antibiotic Feed Supplements. These latter aid in speeding up the growth of hogs and promote better health in the digestive tract. They supplement the nutritional factors in grain and make for greater feeding efficiency.

While you're still in the softball and baseball mood, make plans to attend the Junior Baseball league game tomorrow night at Vets park between the youngest talent in Hereford. The kids will give you your money's worth and they'll be thrilled to death to be playing before an appreciative audience.

FOOTBALL
Won't be long before the gridiron starts warming up again. The Whitefaces will be working with a new mentor in 1952. As this column is written on Monday, we have no idea yet as to who Criswell's replacement will be. We'd like to do some guessing, but better stand in bed on that one. The new coach should have a good assortment of material to work with.

The bell stopped all action with a draw in the third fall just as Guerrero had Cowboy on his (Gory's) back putting him in shape for a reverse surfboard. Had the bell held off a little longer, Cowboy would've had to give in to Guerrero.

Approximately 600 persons attended the match, with 528 paid adult admissions and 100 youngsters.

Recommend Home Use Of Absorbents In Hot, Humid Weather

COLLEGE STATION — In hot, humid weather it is difficult for homemakers to keep the house and its contents dry and fresh smelling. Bernice Claytor, home management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, suggests that the use of the new electrical drying equipment or chemicals that absorb moisture from the air will help to dry out the house.

Mrs. Claytor explains that the electrical dehumidifiers draw in damp air, condense the moisture and then draw it off. This equipment should be used with doors and windows closed where condensation causes moisture damage.

Two chemicals that absorb moisture from the air are silica gel and calcium chloride. These are available in department stores and drug stores. Silica gel is not harmful to fabrics, does not drip and may be used again after it has been dried in a verified oven to 300 degrees. Hang it in a cloth bag or place in an open container in closets with the doors closed. Silica gel is blue when dry and pink when full of moisture. To use calcium chloride, the specialist says place this chemical on a non-rusting piece of screen wire over an enamel ware container placed in closed closets. As the moisture is absorbed the calcium chloride liquefies and should be replaced with new material. Do not let this liquid come in contact with clothes because it is harmful to fabrics.

Lettuce-Spraying Underway In Many Fields Around Community

By Mrs. R. C. Childers
The lettuce in this vicinity has suffered a setback. The cause of this setback is not known for sure. Lettuce authorities are puzzled and are taking the only precaution they know, spraying. Some think it might be insects, while others think it might be the way the seed was treated before it was planted. Planes can be seen all over the community, early in the mornings and late in the evenings spraying lettuce. Some of the crops have been sprayed as many as three times already. The odor from this spraying can be detected several days later when passing a lettuce field.

Housewives in this vicinity have been canning and freezing fresh garden vegetables this week. Mrs. C. S. Barclay reports putting 47 pints and 11 quarts of green beans in her deep freeze. Mrs. F. G. Witherspoon has canned over two bushels of green beans. Mrs. Childers has canned and frozen 54 pints of green beans and 22 pints of black-eyed peas.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Higginbotham spent the week-end with relatives in Chillicothe, Texas, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Braly of Abernathy, Texas, and Mrs. Morris Wallace and daughter Joanna from Stillwater, Okla., were guests in the Jack Renfro home last week. They are relatives of Mrs. Renfro.

Marvin Hershey has been visiting relatives in Abilene the last week. He accompanied his aunt, Mrs. Horace Hershey and family. Plans have been completed for the Hereford Church of Christ Bible school. Mrs. R. C. Childers and Mrs. F. G. Witherspoon have been selected to teach the six and seven-year-old group. The school will start August 18 and run through August 22. Classes will begin at 9:30 and dismiss at 10:45 a.m.

The thundershowers have been fine on the lettuce crops and other row crops. It gives lawns and flowers that perk-up look. A person can irrigate and keep growing crops wet, but when a little shower comes along it does more good than all the watering you can give it.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tiegiet and daughters Patty and Gayle of Morton have been guests in the C. S. Barclay home over the week-end.

Mr. C. S. Barclay, Walter, Bob and Knute Tiegiet went to Conchas Dam for over night fishing Saturday, returning Sunday afternoon. They report that fishing was not too good as they did not bring any fish home.

Out-of-town visitors in the R. C. Childers home Sunday and Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Tilton and children, Peggy Ruth and Kenneth Lee of Mount Belview, Texas. They had been to Colorado on a sight-seeing tour. They left Monday for their home. Mount Belview which is a small town on the bay southeast of Houston.

Other guests in the Childers home Sunday were Mrs. Walter Tiegiet and daughters Patty and Gayle and Mrs. C. S. Barclay, Larry and David. Supper on the lawn was served to the Tiltons, Tiegiet and Barclay families by Mrs. Childers Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Renfro and Jack Calville of Altus, Okla., left Hereford Monday morning for the northern part of the United States to buy seed potatoes for the coming year.

Patsy Childers finished her work at the Jack Renfro onion shed Friday afternoon. The shed also closed Friday except for the sale of a few hundred sacks of onions left on the floor of the shed.

Raymon Childers Jr., returned Tuesday from a week's visiting with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johnson in Harrison,

Mrs. D. J. Tilson, Bob Tilson, Joe Roland Winners

Bob Tilson won first place in the weekly putting tournament held Friday night at the Hereford Golf course, with a five-under-par 67.

In the ladies division, Mrs. D. J. Tilson took first place and a prize of two golf balls with her 76, four over par.

Joe Roland won first place in the boys' division with 78.

Other winners in the men's division were (prize one ball each): Joe Kerr, 70; Urlin Streu, 70; W. W. Gilbreath, 70; Dr. J. H. Channer, 71 (Channer won after an eight-hole playoff with Ed Young and J. H. Brooks).

Other participants and their scores were:

Keith Rogers, 72; Earl Stagner, 72; J. M. Posey, 74; D. W. Roberson, 77; Bill Davis, 78; D. J. Tilson, 78; Truitt Johnson, 79.

Ladies' Division
Mrs. D. J. Tilson, winner; Meredith Ireland, 78; Lucille Posey, 80; Mrs. D. W. Roberson, 86; Mrs. Ray Hardy, 88; Mrs. L. L. Jenkins, 88; Mrs. W. W. Gilbreath, 88; Mrs. Marie Cogdell, 90; and Mrs. J. H. Channer, 93.

Joe Roland had first with 78 in the boys' division and Norman Kerr was second with 81. There will not be a putting tournament on Friday night as Pro Bud Posey will be competing in the pro division of the Clovis invitational tournament August 15, 16 and 17.

The next putting tournament will be Friday night, Aug. 22 and will be a match play affair. Names of entries and 50c entry fee must be in prior to 8 p.m. No entries will be accepted after that time.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Formby returned last week from Denver where he attended a radio seminar.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Williams and children of San Angelo were week-end guests in the home of his brother, C. E. Williams and family.

Ark.

He was met by his family in Canyon Tuesday morning at 10:30. Junior Melton was a caller in the R. C. Childers home Monday. Mr. Melton is principle of the high school at McLean. He has been employed by Jack Renfro during the summer months.

SOIL BUILDER CONFUSION
The recent boom in synthetic soil conditioners is one of the most interesting commercial phenomena in many years.
Ever since last December, when one of the world's largest chemical companies announced the development of a synthetic soil conditioner, the number of alleged "conditioners" has grown rapidly. Claims and counterclaims for these conflicting brands can easily confuse the purchaser.
A "magic chemical" to treat the soil has long been needed. It is a well known fact that soil may be well limed and have an abundant supply of fertilizers and yet not be very productive because of bad crusting on top, and poor physical condition underneath. Small wonder then, that the announcement of an effective soil conditioner late last year caused such a stir.
Many people swamped agricultural agencies with requests for this new product even before the discovering company was ready for full production. It was only natural that other companies rushed to "get on the band wagon."
But a good soil conditioner is not as easy to produce as it might seem. The original company's research staff had been working on its product for many years before any mention was made to the public. When it was announced, they had a fully tested organic substance whose characteristics were known. This substance, a grayish white powder, was recommended for use at one pound to 100 square feet of soil. It worked in the soil, doing away with crusting and gave the treated area the characteristics of good garden loam, manufacturers said.
In the first few months after the initial announcement, the Soils Department of the New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station tested more than two dozen possible substitutes that were brought in by producers for examination. Of these, only three were found to be effective. Some of the quickly developed products

Old Sunday School Student Calls On Former Teacher, Mrs. J. F. Ward

Mrs. J. F. Ward, who is way past 80, hasn't reached the place where she is living in the past yet, but almost every week thrills out of the past every springing to life to bring new joys and happiness. She has taught a Sunday school class for over 40 years and out of those many years of church service - come story after story from people she has helped along the way.
Friday morning a Bible salesman knocked at her door, but Mrs. Ward was busy canning pickles and she thought she'd send "that man on his way in a hurry because she had all the Bibles she wanted."
But the Bible salesman lingered, apparently amused by her abruptness, and asked, "Mrs. Ward, do you remember a kid by the name of Emmett Garren who was in your SC class in Dumas in 1918?"
She remembered him then and what a thrill it was to hear him recall the class parties, her advice about his girl whom he was too shy to court and her influence as she tried to point to a better way of life.
"What if I hadn't taught that SC class of young people - how much I would be missing now," she said.
Last week another member of that class visited here. He was Marvin Beauchamp of Dumas and he had his son Howard with him. He was on his way to Roswell, N. M. to buy cattle but stopped here long enough for his son to meet his favorite Sunday school teacher. "I did my courting in your class" he said, "I'll never forget you and your influence for good and thought I'd like to say "Thank You" again.
Doing for others is just Mrs. Ward's way of life. It's her religion as she lives it day after day. She has written a book in which is found much of the history of Methodist churches of the Panhandle.

Extensionist Says Lease Forms Are Out Of Date Now

COLLEGE STATION — Tenant operations are still an important part of Texas agriculture. Some 30 per cent of all Texas farms are operated by tenants. Like most other farming practices, says C. H. Bates, farm management specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, many leasing arrangements are out-of-date. He points out that lease arrangements set up for cash-crop systems of farming do not fit the situations brought about by the shifts in livestock production. Therefore, new rental agreements are needed between the tenants and landlords that clearly define the part each is to play in this livestock-crop system of farming.

During the past several years farm management specialists from the southern states, cooperating with those from the U. S. Department of Agriculture, have been studying the existing rental arrangements and seeking possible solutions to tenure problems. The economists have found that both tenants and landlords improve their lot when leases are used that really cover present day farming and livestock production. The use of up-to-date leasing arrangements meant more income to both tenants and landlords as well as better soil maintenance and improvement programs.

The latest findings of the cooperating economists are reported in the publication "Rental Arrangements for Progressive Farming" which is available at your local county agent's office. Other material on the subject of rental agreements, prepared by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and Extension Service are also available.

Bates says the specialists, through studies and actual experience, have come to the conclusion that a good rental agreement should always be written. It should cover more than a single year or contain an automatic renewal clause. It should specify how the expenses, upkeep and labor as well as income are to be shared. It should encourage the tenant to produce livestock as well as crops wherever possible and profitable. Finally the lease should provide for permanent improvements on the land and in the home.

Bates believes the use of rental agreement containing the above items will improve landlord-tenant relations and add stability to the agricultural economy in the areas where farms are operated by tenants.

Four Species Of Snakes In Texas Are Poisonous, Specialist Says

COLLEGE STATION -- Someday your life may depend upon how quickly and accurately you identify a snake. Only four of the 103 species of snakes known in Texas are considered dangerously poisonous, says R. E. Callender, specialist in wildlife conservation for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. He urges Texans to become familiar with these poisonous snakes so that positive identification can be made quickly in case a member of the family is bitten.

The four species of snakes that are poisonous are the rattlesnakes, copperheads, cottonmouth moccasin and the deadly little coral snake. Rattlesnakes are easily identified by their rattles; the copperhead by its chestnut-brown hour glass markings over light brown or brownish gray background color... the cottonmouth moccasin is a dirty brown in color and is usually found around water — or old logs or driftwood and they can bite under water. The coral snake is the beauty of the group, but adds Callender, it's also the most deadly. Don't, says the specialist, confuse it with the more commonly found king snake because the mistake could be fatal. The color rings of the coral snake are red, yellow and black and completely circle the body and if the red ring touches the yellow, you've found a coral snake. Treat him with care.

Fangs for ejecting the poison are common to all poisonous snakes. The marks left by the fangs are a sure identification sign. The venom injected by the rattlers, copperheads and water moccasins is known as hemotoxic venom because it effects the blood cells. The coral snake, on the other hand, injects a neurotoxic venom and it effects the nervous system. Antivenins which are available at most drug stores, are ineffective for treating the bite of a coral snake.

Snakes can be discouraged from moving in on the home lot, says Callender, by keeping the place clean. Rubbish should not be allowed to accumulate and trash should be removed for such debris are favorite food for snakes and unless kept under control, snakes will move in to clean them up.

Here's a word of advice from Callender on what to do in case a person is bitten by a poisonous snake. Keep the victim quiet; don't let them walk, become over-heated or take alcoholic stimulants. Don't cauterize the wound with strong acids nor inject potassium permanganate. Get the victim to a doctor as soon as possible but first aid measures will help. Apply a tourniquet above the bite and make cross cut incisions at bite and on the advancing edges of the swelling. Apply suction with the mouth or a suction cup but release the tourniquet every 15 minutes to keep up circulation. Inject antivenin, if available, as soon as possible. After the injection, release the tourniquet and continue the suction. In the meantime have the patient on the way to a doctor or the doctor on the way to the patient.

Callender warns that hunters and campers should never go to the woods without a snake kit. He urges home owners to keep their premises clean and to be on the look out at all times for the poisonous snakes. All except the rattler strike without warning—and the rattler sometimes does his biting before sounding off — so the safe thing to do is stay out of the way of all snakes and discourage them to stay out of your way.

An Aquarium WORLD

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

Williams Newspaper Features P. O. Box 211, Ft. Worth, Tex.

It's a little world for these fish caged in an aquarium. The oceans and the seven seas may seem prisons enough. But when their home is reduced to a small pittance of the space God made, then that is very different. Of course, they give passing visitors a bit of pleasure. They sport their gleaming fins and put on "big fish shows," but they are imprisoned. They are homeless and ill at ease.

Are you and I like the caged fish? Are we confined to small man-made prisons? Do we serve the Almighty in the great world He made? Or do we live only for what we eat? How many people are affected by what we say or do? Are we examples for better citizenship in this world and the world to which we are going? Have we ever suggested the eternal, the abiding... do we love humanity enough?

We are rich in the relationships of human living but many are blind to the goodness of God. We live day after day without offering one thankful prayer for the bounties He gave. Many of us have chosen an aquarium world to live in. Like the fish, we live for what we eat. God is long-suffering, but He expects us to attend His church and help bring His Kingdom in. Will you be a worker?

Friona Parents Hear Of Olympic Game Coverage

(Ed. Note—This article is the second to be written by the daughter of Revs. Mrs. and Mrs. George E. Meyer, pastors of the Friona Congregational church. The girl is a student at Oslo university, where she is a candidate for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy. She covered the Olympic games for Reuters News Agency, British counterpart of AP, UP or INS in America. In the first article, she told mostly of her trip to Helsinki, Finland, from Oslo. In this letter to her parents, she tells of the games themselves and some of her experiences and impressions.)

Dear Family:
J. Sigfred Edstrom, retiring president of the International

Olympic committee, pronounced the Fifteenth Olympiad closed. The huge military band played the Olympic fanfare, the great crowd standing in silence, not a few in tears and then the congregated world all about us began to dissolve and the huge crowd of many thousands wended its way to the various exits looking toward their various and sundry homes.

And I, well, after not a few almost - if not completely - tearful farewells, will seek out my way back to our special ship, the D. S. Soma which had brought a ship load from Oslo, Norway, to the great games. The Soma will be a gala craft for Norway won but hours since, the gold medal in yachting. The Soma has been home to me since I left Oslo, as I have lived on it during the games. Before long - before you get this - I will be on that little old boat as it pounds the waves back to Oslo.

What a joy this reporting of the Olympic has been, reporting for Reuters News Agency, London during my time-out from my work at the university. The life of a newspaper person has been something here. Our office has been room 134, Olympic stadium. It has been a wonderful office even though it has been a veritable mad-house with its six teletypes, nine typewriters, not silent one either, four telephones with round-the-world connections, London in particular; its one editor, three editors, 17 reporters, not to mention the host of errand boys. Girl Scout messengers and sundry other people.

Hours? You ask. What are those things? Yesterday I began work at 9 A. M. and was at it until 2 A. M. and did not get back to my stateroom until 3 A. M. and had to be up and at work the morning following - at 8 A. M. And that isn't all.

Water polo games were scheduled for 6 A. M. on the days they were held. Can you imagine what it is like at 6 A. M. in Finland? After looking the situation over my personal opinion was that they should give anyone who would jump into that icy blue cold water at that unholy hour a gold medal. It was desperately cold. The sun wasn't even up. We who were fully clothed shivered. We had all available clothing that we could call our own on, but those boys floundering around in that water reminded us of polar bears. The thermometer ranged between 6 and 8 degrees in what ever system Finland uses. It seemed about that cold by our standards, believe me.

There was a press restaurant—a red and white striped tent behind the stadium where all the journalists were fed at a more or less minimum price. There were a few more than a thousand of us. Outside the flaps of this press restaurant the other day a Finnish newsreel photographer was trying to set up a camera on top of a truck. Something told me that he would have gotten along much better without all the help that he was getting from below. Well, he got the tripod set—next came the camera. More fun. The one on top had his own idea, those below, each of them, had his own.

The argument started with three and ended with at least nine giving advice etc. The man on the truck insisted on doing as he pleased much to the consternation of all others concerned. It was most interesting. It livened up the breakfast hour for a couple of hundred of us. It might have had its international complications had there been any others involved save Finns. Speaking of breakfast—I ordered two eggs, over light, bread and butter, two cups of coffee—bill, 205 marks.

We newspaper folks had a special entrance. We have about the best seats in the stands—directly above the finish line for all racing events. If you should see the right news reel of the many American made reels of the races—if you look closely, you might see me just behind the finish line. I'd be on a direct line with the tape for that's where my "special" seat was.

Chances are that you would see me behind a telephone as that is where I spent a lot of my time. In order to get in we must show our press passes, various identifications, walk up three flights of stairs, argue for fifteen minutes more or less, every time we do go in, with the Finnish guards, then we push, shove and persuade our way to our assigned seats. And oh yes! We ride the street cars "for free" by the mere showing of our press cards.

The "stadium," that's what the host folks call it—is an amazing place. Very modern and very huge, gray and brown. The temporary enlargements were blended so skillfully into the permanent part of the structure that it is more an "aesthetic" addition rather than a temporary make-shift. The great arena was always like a giant three-ring circus with activity in its every corner and races on its track. The tower on which the Olympic flame burned is 210 feet high, high above anything, and everything else in Helsinki. There is an elevator in it for "lazy" folks but on the opening day of the games a relay of three runners raced up the outside staircase carrying the flaming torch like a relay baton. Unfortunately a steady drizzle was chilling everyone and all we could see from below, was a dark cloud of smoke struggling up through the wet. When it was not raining—and it rained a part of every day of the games—the flame burns brightly and licks out over the edges of the tower with every gust of wind.

Those men of the world of games: they ran, swam, wrestled, high-jumped, pole vaulted and all the rest, rain or sun, and broke an amazing number of records every day. They had stamina and courage and tackled anything and everything regardless of weather or the way they happened to feel at the moment. Looking back, I recall as outstanding, the 50 kilometer race—a bit more than 26 miles. Zatopak, a Czech, won it breaking a world's record. He finished a full five minutes ahead of his nearest rival and having finished first, had enough energy left to run around the 400 meter track to receive the applause of the crowd.

Loving the good old USA as I do, it was a great moment when the music was "The Star Spangled Banner" and the day was a great one when that grand old tune was the tune of the day; its playing a victory for our beloved land.

Believe it or not. The Russians held a caviar and vodka press conference for "western" journalists and they talked.

There had been some fussing about the judging in certain events like the ladies' gymnastics and they wished to explain their position. Naturally, like all Russian Press Conferences, they talked a lot and didn't say anything, at least anything constructive.

They tried to explain, or rather to put the blame on the Finnish Olympic committee in Helsinki for the fact that the Russian contestants lived, not in the Olympic Village with the other contestants, but in a small town of their own on the outskirts of Helsinki all by themselves. The contestants seemed friendly enough in the actual contests and when the occasion demanded were graceful losers.

National School Lunch Funds Are Apportioned

Apportionment of funds to States and Territories for operation of the National School Lunch Program during the 1952-53 school year was announced July 28 by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The Production and Marketing Administration stated that of a total appropriation of $83,367,491 provided for this year's program, $65,875,000 has been apportioned among the 48 states, District of Columbia, and the territories of Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands. Funds are apportioned among the States and Territories on the basis of the number of children of school age and the per capita income. These funds are used to reimburse schools in part for their local food purchases. Texas' share in the School Lunch Program for 1953 amounts to $3,590,015.

In addition to the funds apportioned to States and Territories, $18,000,000 is available to the Department for the purchase and distribution to schools of foods which help to meet the nutritional requirements of school children.

The law requires that each dollar of federal funds disbursed by State Agencies to schools this year must be matched by $1.50 from sources within the State if the per capita income in the state equals or exceeds the national average. The matching requirement for any State with a per capita income below the national average is decreased by the percentage which the State's per capita income is below the national average of the United States as a whole.

The National School Lunch Program enlarges the market for farm products, and improves the diet of the Nation's school children by helping participating schools to serve nutritionally balanced lunches. The program is administered jointly by the U. S. Department of Agriculture and State Departments of Education. Last year 1 1/2 billion meals were served to 9.3 million children attending 56,000 participating schools.

They accepted congratulations of the other athletes when they won, but I have noticed that in all the events I've witnessed, that the Russians—men and women—always left the field alone or with their own countrymen, never arm in arm with those of other nationalities as most of the other youngsters did.

There is also "pomp" of other than that of the athletes. A few days ago the Dukes of Edinburgh and Kent came for a part of the afternoon. I think I got a couple of very good pictures. In one the Duke of Edinburgh is looking and smiling directly at my camera. I do hope that nothing happened to the film, or the distance, or the shutter, or the speed lens or whatever else might be wrong with the camera—because if that picture doesn't turn out just perfect I'm going to be broken-hearted.

What a picture it could be and what value as a news picture. Here's hoping. The day the dukes came to the stadium it stopped raining. Of course his countrymen thought it was for him. I did get a honey of a picture—for sure—of the Duke of Edinburgh, the Duke of Kent, and princess Martha of Norway, the latter you see because I have a Norway Press bag etc. These were sitting and watching the games and not far from me and I'm sure I got a great picture of them. I got a dandy of "Phillip" just as he got off his yacht "Patricia" too.

And so it was and so it is and so I must be on my way. Loads of love—
Jane.

BUICK'S POWER STEERING?

It's the big NEWS of the year

THERE is a host of things that endear a ROADMASTER to anyone who loves to drive.

There's the might of its Fireball 8 Engine—most powerful ever put in a Buick.

There's the thrift of its Airpower carburetor—a four-barrel automatic that literally brings increased power right out of thin air.

There's its hushed and luxurious silence—its poised and level ride that cost a million dollars to develop—and the infinite smoothness of its Dynaflo Drive.

But the thing that has brought the most cheers for this big and obedient beauty is Buick's version of Power Steering.

Gone is the tug of turning, parking, maneuvering in small space.

Power Steering takes over the effort of turning the front wheels—makes it a one-hand operation.

Do you have to learn to drive all over again if you have this new Buick feature?

You definitely do not. On the open road, you have that same sure sense of command that you've always had. Coming out of a curve, you can loosen your grip, and the front wheels right themselves just as they do on every Buick.

But you'll notice this: When, you suddenly hit loose dirt or sand—or a stretch of rough road—Power Steering smoothly goes into action—helps take up the jerk—makes control of the wheel easier and driving safer.

Wouldn't you like to try out this newest wonder—on a ROADMASTER or a SUPER? You say the word, and we'll do the rest.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subjects to change without notice. *Optional at extra cost on Roadmaster and Super only.
