- Ten cents of the Road and Bridge fund is to be set aside for taking up the principal and interest on road and bridge warrants issued April 10, 1918.
- Special school funds, supplementing the state school funds, are to be raised by taxation as follows:
 - Summerfield District, No. 1 - 50c
 - District, No. 2 - 40c

 - District, No. 4 - 50c
 - District, No. 5 - 40c

Rev. J. M. Asbell Heads Red Cross

The Rev. Jno. M. Asbell, pastor of the First Christian Church, is the new Chairman of Deaf Smith County Chapter, American Red Cross. Rev. Asbell's elevation occurred last Saturday at a meeting of the Executive Committee held at the Courthouse.

The selection of a new head of the Chapter was necessitated by the removal from town of Rev. W. M. Baker and his consequent resignation of the post. Rev. Asbell is admirably fitted by training and disposition for the difficult duties of his new position; and his friends are confident of his unqualified success in the work.

Merchants Hold Organization Talk

A meeting of the merchants and business men of Hereford was held in the County Courtroom Thursday night, at which organization plans for the future in the way of securing more trade for Hereford, and other matters of interest were discussed. A more detailed account of the results of the meeting will be given next week.

Mrs. Humphrey Leaves

Mrs. T. B. Humphrey of Canadian, Texas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Morgan of Hereford, who has been visiting her parents for about three weeks, departed Wednesday morning for Wichita Falls, from where she will go to Corpus Christi for the remainder of the hot weather. Her husband, a merchant of Canadian, joined her here Sunday for the trip south. Mr. Humphrey is interested in oil at and near Wichita Falls.

Undergoes Operation

W. T. Smith went to Amarillo last Friday where he underwent an operation, and at last report was doing nicely. Mrs. Smith and son, Guy, went to Amarillo, Saturday to be with Mr. Smith for a few days.

Farm Loan Ass'n Has High Rating

The Hereford Federal Loan Association, as well as Secretary-Treasurer J. Frank Potts, got quite a boost in the last issue of "The Borrower's Bulletin," official organ of the Federal Farm Loan Board of the U. S. Treasury Department. The Bulletin says:

"The Houston bank has quite a number of thriving Associations, but none which stand out more conspicuously than the Capitol City of Austin, which has loaned up to April 30, the sum of $490,000; the Corsicana, aggregating $458,790; and the Hereford, aggregating $425,545. President Gossett describes them thus:

"The first is in Central Texas in the black land belt, the second is in north central Texas, also in the black land belt, and the other is in the northwest, or Amarillo, section. Austin and Corsicana are in a general farming territory, and Hereford is in a stock farming section where high grade cattle, wheat, and feed crops are the prevailing activities. The reasons for successful associations at these points are found in the fact of proven development, a safe standard in values, and active secretary-treasurers."

Mr. Potts states that since these figures were issued additional loans have been made here which raise the total for the Hereford association considerably.

There is no doubt at all but that the local association is doing splendid work for this section. The only improvement The Brand can see that would help immediately would be the recognition of the added value of irrigation farming.

Library Benefitted By Picture Show

As a result of the two evening performances of "The Shepherd of the Hills" at the Star Theatre this week the Public Library has been greatly benefitted. About seventy-five dollars was netted from the entertainments; this will of course mean a few more good books to be added to the collection already in the library. The library is public property and should be used by the public. A number of good books are now at the service of the people and more are being bought every week. There should be a public understanding that the Library is for everyone and a general interest should be felt and manifested in it.

W. B. Arnold Has Serious Operation

Information has been received here that W. B. Arnold, formerly a well known citizen of this place, and father of B. S. Arnold, recently became very ill and was hurried to the hospital of Mayo Brothers, New York State, where he underwent a very serious operation. Fears for his recovery were based somewhat on a supposed weakness of heart, but latest accounts state that he is doing nicely and is now able to sit up in an invalids' chair.

E. L. Woodburn Sells Drug Store in Lockney

A business change occurred in Lockney this week whereby V. N. Dillard becomes the owner of a half interest in the Lockney Drug Company's business, buying out Mr. E. L. Woodburn. The business will be continued under the old firm name of Lockney Drug Company with Dillard & Dillard as proprietors. The other half interest is owned by Mr. I. N. Dillard, father of V. N. Dillard.

While Mr. Woodburn has not made any announcement of his future plans we understand that he does not contemplate leaving Lockney and will doubtless engage in other lines of business.—Lockney Beacon.

E. L. Woodburn is the son of Colonel E. T. Woodburn of Hereford. His sister, Miss Belle, who has been with him in Lockney for some time, returned home last week.

MEN FOR CAVALRY WANTED

Attractive Inducements are Offered Recruits Who Enlist Now

The old-time slogan of "Join the Cavalry" is again to the front, and the husky young men of this community who desire an addition of $8.00 per month to their income, and have their shoes and many other valuable articles of wearing apparel furnished to them free—all for about six hours of pleasant work each month—have the opportunity of their lives.

For Uncle Sam is reorganizing the National Guard on a peace basis, and has allotted most of the cavalry of the national organization to the state of Texas. And the state of Texas has allotted Hereford one troop, to be maintained at a minimum of seventy men, who are to be equipped with everything from a large cavalry horse to a tin spoon to eat soup and beans with. And the best part of it is that all this complete equipment is already in Hereford, stored in the Armory, ready for use, with the exception of the horses, and these will be supplied when Uncle Sam is convinced that the local troop is down to work and means business.

Wes Bradley, Top Sergeant during the late unpleasantness, has been promoted to Captain and given the local reins. A. A. Holloway, our strapping big Express Agent, is First Lieutenant, and Glenn Sullivan has been recommended for Second Lieutenant. All the non-commissioned officers have not been appointed, but Captain Bradley will select them shortly.

About twenty men of this troop are now in Hereford or hereabouts, and drill will probably start next week. The officers are very anxious for recruits and have asked The Brand to call attention to the many advantages to be had from belonging to this organization.

The regulations call for one and one half hours of drill each week. That's all the work there is to it. And this drill will be good exercise and pleasant recreation for all. Guns, uniforms, mess kits, shoes, blankets, shirts, hats and a lot of other things are here ready, and the horses will come, together with a monthly allowance for their upkeep, as soon as the troop is properly recruited.

If the young men of this community show the proper interest Hereford can keep this troop; otherwise some other town will get it. The question is squarely up to us.

Troy Womble Oats Make 80 Bushels

The Brand is informed that sixteen acres of oats on the Troy Womble farm east of town, thrashed out a fraction over eighty bushels to the acre the past week. So far, this is believed to be the high yield in the vicinity.

Approved and Timely to—Us

The Jamestown Chamber of Commerce lately quoted in its bulletin the following verification which we now take to us for our betterment.

If you want to live in the kind of a town
Like the kind of a town you like
You needn't slip your clothes in a grip
And start on a long, long hike.
You'll only find what you've left behind,
For there's nothing that's really new.
It's a knock at yourself when you knock your town.
For it isn't the town, it's you!
Real towns are not made by fellows afraid
Lest somebody else gets ahead;
When everyone works and nobody strikes
You can raise a town from the dead.
And, if while you make your personal stake,
Your neighbors can make one, too,
Your town will be what you want to see.
It isn't the town, it's you!

NEW LOCAL OIL COMPANY IS ORGANIZED; OUTFIT FOR RICKETTS COMING

The oil development situation in this and adjoining counties is slowly unfolding and showing concrete organization. Following closely on the heels of the announcement in The Brand of last week of the preparations for drilling northwest comes the formal organization of another company known as the Guarantee Oil Production and Development Co., which was perfected last Wednesday. A detailed announcement of the personnel and plans of this new company is given on another page of this issue, in a statement issued by the officers of the company themselves.

Reports are that several additional companies are nearing a head and further developments may be looked for soon.

Information as to the progress being made by the promoters of the well contracted for by M. D. Ricketts is to the effect that three carloads of machinery for this well, held at Amarillo, are being loaded, and if nothing unforeseen happens, should be in Hereford by the end of the present week. It is also announced that distillate will be used as fuel instead of coal, owing to the difficulty of transportation, etc.

Mrs. Connell Now Pure Food Inspector

Mrs. E. F. Connell, of Hereford, has been appointed local Inspector for the Food and Drug Department of the state. Commissioner Hoffman's official notice, under date of July 11, says:

"This is to notify you that I have this day appointed you an Inspector in the Food and Drug Department with full authority to act for me in all matters pertaining to Food and Drug Inspection in the city of Hereford and vicinity, as outlined in Sections 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21 and 23 of the Texas Food and Drug Law, known as Chapter 47, of the Acts of the Thirty-second Legislature, which went into effect June 11, 1911."

No Accident Week Scores Big Success

Agent Garton of the Santa Fe has received the following official account of the "No Accident Week" campaign recently put on by the Central Western region of the United States Railway organization:

"With 55,000 miles of railroad and approximately 387,000 employees in varied climates, mountains, plains, and valleys, there were only 93 injured and 4 fatalities, compared with 447 injured and 9 fatalities during the same period in 1918, or a total decrease of 356 casualties or 79 per cent during No-Accident-Week."

Second Compliment In the Same Week

Another compliment received this week by the Canteen Service, this time official, was a letter from headquarters at St. Louis to Mrs. W. A. Price as follows:

"The canteen pictures are splendid. They are just what we want for our records. Thank you very much indeed for sending them to us."

"Your kindness in sending us the information contained in the canteen questionnaire is appreciated. The report indicates the service has been very much worth while. We are glad to note from your reports that you are still finding opportunities for canteen service, and that you are meeting these opportunities in just the right way."

"It is our opinion that the canteen service is just now perhaps more important than ever before. We do not want the last boys to come home and feel that they have been forgotten and their work is not appreciated."
"With kindest regards,
"Very truly yours,
"CHARLES P. PETTUS,
"Director, Canteen Service, Southwest Division."

Hereford 6, Texico 1

Hereford's ball team journeyed up to Texico last Sunday and gave our neighboring diamond friends a lesson in the National pastime to the tune of 6 to 1. Texico put up a stiff argument, but the local aggregation was too strong for them. Curtainer pitched his usual steady game.

Canteen Service Gets Compliment

H. K. Taylor, Professor of Social Economics and Public Welfare at the Texas Woman's College, of Fort Worth, who was in Hereford last week, has written The Brand the following nice appreciation of the work of our local Canteen service. Prof. Taylor himself served for eight months during the war in the S. A. T. C. service at various educational institutions and army camps in Texas, and is keenly appreciative of this kind of unrequited work. His letter follows:

Editor Brand:—
Among many other pleasing features of your enterprising town I was greatly interested in the excellent work of the Red Cross ladies under the efficient leadership of Mrs. W. A. Price. The work done is most highly creditable both in quantity and quality. The canteen has been in existence just a year and has been operated in a business-like as well as a most hospitable manner. Taking a period of six months of that time the record shows that at an expenditure of $100 canteens and other comforts have been supplied free of cost that at customary prices would cost $304.50. That is, these services have been supplied to the soldiers free by the Red Cross at a cost to the public who support the Red Cross of only 32 per cent of what is usually charged for such services. In that period of six months 4,431 men have been served and the best of all is that with the material service the cheery words and inspiring smiles of the faithful squads of canteen workers have encouraged many a man to a stronger faith in the genuine benevolence of others, and left in his memory the abiding vision of unselfish womanhood that will make him evermore a grateful and a better man.

TRADE TRIP IS SUCCESS

Nineteen Hereford Boosters Make Auto Trip Over State Line

Nineteen of Hereford's business men, in four cars, took all day off last Tuesday and made a second visit to our neighbors on the northwest and across the state line in the interest of neighborly good fellowship and closer business relations. The party left home about seven o'clock and made a thorough canvass of the farms across the line in the general neighborhood of Bellevue and nearby points, two cars returning by the southern and two by the western route. They went out via the Cap Rock road.

As a result of the first trip made over this road the week previously the hat had been passed and money raised with which four automobile gaps had been installed where gates had been heretofore. One gate remains, and this is to be replaced with a gap in the immediate future.

The excursionists found wheat in almost unbelievable quantities in the thickly settled territory across the line. Large quantities of it will probably never be harvested. The row and other crops are on a par with the wheat. A very friendly reception was given the excursionists and a most enjoyable and profitable day spent by all.

A telephone line to this neighborhood is badly needed, and the roads need fixing as well. A move is on foot to remedy both of these drawbacks.

These excursions are of great benefit and should be encouraged. Why not get up similar excursions to the southwest and southeast? Members of the party Tuesday were: Eli Dunlap, W. D. Kelleher, Roy Stoecking, John McLean, C. M. McGhee, C. O. Lee, E. K. Crouch, A. Herbst, Geo. E. Burns, E. W. Harrison, C. C. Rockwell, A. C. Thompson, J. W. McQueen, Geo. A. Stambaugh, J. M. Gilliland, C. C. Acker, C. D. Shaw, I. H. Spratt, T. K. Wilson.

All cattlemen and any others interested in the development of the industry, whether owners of registered cattle or not, are cordially invited to attend.

Herbert Rayzor Likes Simple Life of Natives of Phillipine Islands

U. S. S. Brooklyn, June 11, 1919.

Dear Mother,
I got the letters and the pictures the other day. The pictures were fine; sister looks lots better. The papers came also. You asked if I appreciated the papers—that goes without saying, when you think where I am and just how shut off from the states.

There has been a typhoon blowing itself out for two days; some wind. The Panhandle wind doesn't know the first letter in blow. I guess you have heard of them; big twisters, like a cyclone only worse and on the water. We were forced to weigh anchor and pull further from the shore to keep from going aground. It rained oceans of water, both salt and fresh water. The salt water was picked up by the wind from the bay. We came back in the morning. I'm glad we were in the port when she hit us. I have had the pleasure of one before this and it was no joke at all. Ask J. V. when he gets there; he's coming home; must be about Honolulu now.

No, I guess I won't come for a while; might as well do my year and ten months. It won't be long.

I shouldn't wonder that some one is getting wise to Japan soon. They have Korea and China tied in a bag; did it since the world war and tried to get part of Siberia, but old Sammie stopped that. They will be settled with soon. They are just a second little Dutch Land; money is their God.

I lack 60 pictures for my album yet. It will contain about 320 or 400 when I get it filled. I'm going to send it soon. I mailed sister a silk scarf yesterday; when she gets it write and tell me if it's a good grade of silk or not, for I'm no expert on silk.

You complain of not getting my mail and so do other people. I guess I get all your mail, for it comes in bunches of from 5 to 20 and from two to three weeks old, though it is the best we can expect of the mail service out here. If you don't get mail from me just keep this in mind, that if anything should happen to me you would know of it in less than 24 hours. I am always strong and healthy so please don't be uneasy. I wish sister had some of my good health and strength. Tell Margie I fished all day Saturday for her a shark but can't catch one. There were some big ones swimming around my boat but they didn't seem to want to be caught.

Mother, I discovered one of the most picturesque and most oriental towns that I've seen yet; can't help but think about it since I left it. Its name is Subie and it is situated in a bay on the island of Luzon. On approaching it there seems to be no town at all; all that you can see is big Coconut and Palm trees. The streets are so well shaded by these trees that one can hardly see the sun. I started down the street between the rows of bamboo thatched houses, which were on stilts like some four legged animal, and almost forgot that there was a civilized world. There were little half naked brown children playing in the streets while their fathers stood around and talked of fought their game cocks to see whose rooster was boss. It was just a dreamy little oriental village unmolested by any white men, with the exception of occasional visits from sailors. Mother, I think these people should be left that way, because they are all contented and happy with their idle dreamy life until it is spoiled by white men; then it is the same old story—some are rich and some are poor and have to slave for a living. Just think, for centuries they have been living that way, taking what nature offered them to eat, none to bother them. I wish I could live like that, care free and not have to shove my way along. I can see why the natives of these countries try to murder the white men when they come to their country, for with them comes something that they never knew before. Now don't think I am Bolshevik, but that is just my view and I can't help it. I am going back and get some pictures of the town to send you. If it were near the states it would be just like Coney Island.

Give my love to all and write whether or not you hear from me. With love, Herbert.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 9 of Article 8 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be so amended that the same will hereafter read as follows:

Section 9. The State tax on property, exclusive of the tax necessary to pay public debt, and the taxes provided for the benefit of the public free schools, shall never exceed thirty-five cents on the One Hundred Dollars' valuation; and counties, cities and towns are authorized to levy not exceeding thirty-five cents for city or county purposes, and not exceeding thirty cents for roads and bridges, and not exceeding fifteen cents to pay jurors, on the One Hundred Dollars' valuation, exclusive of taxes levied for the payment of debts incurred prior to the adoption of the amendment September 25th, 1888; and for the erection of public buildings, streets, sewers, waterworks, improvement of cemeteries, and other permanent improvements not to exceed fifty cents on the One Hundred Dollars' valuation, in one year, and except as in this Constitution otherwise provided, and the qualified voters, who have been assessed or paid property tax, of any county or subdivision thereof now existing or that may hereafter be defined by the Commissioners' Court, may at an election called in accordance with the law authorizing the levy of a special road tax, by a majority vote levy a special tax of not exceeding sixty cents on the one hundred dollars' valuation on all property, for the further improvement and maintenance of public roads provided that this provision shall be self-enacting and that no part of such tax shall be available to pay an indebtedness incurred prior to the current year for which said tax is collected, except to pay indebtedness now existing, and provided further that such levy may be voted off or changed at any time by majority vote of those qualified to vote under this provision. And the Legislature may pass local laws for the maintenance of public roads and highways, without the local notice required for special or local laws.

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors at an election to be held for that purpose, on the fourth day of November, A. D. 1919; at said election the vote shall be by official ballot which shall have printed or written thereon the words "For the amendment to Article 8, Section 9 of the Constitution of the State of Texas providing for the levy of taxes not to exceed thirty cents for roads, streets and bridges and not to exceed fifty cents for the erection of public buildings, streets, sewers, waterworks, and other permanent improvements, and not to exceed sixty cents for maintenance of public roads in one year," and also the words "Against the amendment to Article 8, Section 9 of the Constitution of the State of Texas providing for the levy of taxes not to exceed thirty cents for roads, streets and bridges, and not to exceed fifty cents for the erection of public buildings, streets, sewers, waterworks and other permanent improvements, and not to exceed sixty cents for the maintenance of public roads, in any one year." All voters favoring this proposed constitutional amendment shall erase the words "against the amendment to Article 8, Section 9 of the Constitution," etc., and those opposing it shall erase the words "for the amendment to Article 8, Section 9 of the Constitution," etc., which erasure shall be made by making a mark with pencil or pen through said words. All ballots cast as above provided shall be counted as cast for or against this proposed amendment; and if a majority of the votes cast shall be for the amendment, it shall be declared adopted; if a majority of the votes cast shall be against the amendment, said amendment shall be lost.

Sec. 3. The Governor of this State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and to have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

Sec. 4. The sum of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of funds in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated to defray the expense of such publication and election.

GEORGE F. HOWARD,
Secretary of State.

When the Germans gave up, the United States had a large quantity of these grenades ready to send across. The War Department had no further need of these "weapons of war" so turned them over to the Savings Division of the Treasury Department and they have been transformed into "weapons of peace."

It is a simple matter to obtain one of these grenade banks. The boy or girl obtains one from the local bank so that he or she can save. When enough has been earned and saved to buy a $5 War Savings Stamp, and it is purchased, the grenade becomes the property of the boy or girl. Adults may also obtain these grenade banks by saving and investing in at least three $5 War Savings Stamps of the 1919 issue.

Only a limited number of these grenades could be obtained for Dimmitt. This will be an opportunity to earn a real weapon of war as a souvenir. When these grenades are gone, it will be impossible to secure any more. Those interested should arrange today to get their grenades, which can be obtained in Dimmitt from the First State Bank.

Fire Burns Wheat

One hundred acres of fine wheat a few miles northeast of town, was destroyed by fire on last Thursday afternoon. The wheat which was uncut, was the property of Dr. Fields of McPherson, Kansas. The origin of the fire is not known, but it is the general supposition that a match or cigarette had been dropped among the dry straw which quickly ignited. In spite of the fact that about 200 men were soon on hand and fighting the fire it could not be stamped out until the entire crop of standing grain was burned.—Panhandle Herald.

"A Texas Ranger"

Hereford, Friday, June 25

The Mexican war situation is the thing of most importance now before the public, so the news that "A Texas Ranger" is soon to be seen in our city is of great interest to all, as the show depicts life along the Texas-Mexican border and gives an insight into conditions there at the present time. The character of the Mexicans, the Texas Rangers, the U. S. Soldiers, the Indians, and the Cowboys are all shown true to life. A big battle is staged during the show between the Mexicans and Indians attacking the stockade fort and the U. S. Soldiers and Texas Rangers defending it. The scenes in the Indian village; the Council of War; the Apache War Dance; the sports and pastimes of the Cowboys and Cowboy Girls; and the patrolling of the border along the Rio Grande by the Texas Rangers is also shown. This performance takes place in the big tent, which has seats for more than 2,000 people and lasts over 2 1-2 hours. The Cowboy Band plays a concert in front of the tent at 7 p. m. and the show starts at 8.30.

PERMITTING GALVESTON COUNTY AND CITY TO ISSUE BONDS FOR GRADE RAISING PURPOSES.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 23.

A Joint Resolution, proposing and submitting to the people of the State of Texas an amendment to Article sixteen of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding thereto a new section and authorizing the City of Galveston and County of Galveston to issue bonds for the protective works, irrespective of Constitutional limitation, in the aggregate of five million dollars for both city and county, as may be by the city or county deemed necessary for the raising of the grade, building seawalls and breakwaters and doing any and all kinds of protective works in said city and county, and to levy and collect taxes to retire said bonds, principal and interest, providing for a sinking fund and creating an emergency.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. The City of Galveston and the County of Galveston, and each of them are hereby authorized to issue bonds in such amounts not to exceed in the aggregate five million dollars, for both City and County, as may be by the city or county deemed necessary for the raising of the grade, building of seawalls and breakwaters, and doing any and all other kinds of protective works in said city and county, without regard to and irrespective of any provisions of the Constitution of the State of Texas limiting tax levies and governing bond issues, and for that purpose to levy and collect taxes to retire and pay same, principal and interest, but no debt shall ever be incurred for such purpose, unless provision is made at the collecting a sufficient tax to pay the interest thereon and to provide at least two per cent, as a sinking fund, this provision being cumulative, and authorizing the issuance of such bonds in addition to those heretofore issued for such purposes and still outstanding, the amount of such additional bonds to be issued by the county hereunder, not to exceed one million dollars, and the amount of such additional bonds to be issued by the city hereunder not to exceed four million dollars, but nothing herein shall apply to bonds heretofore or hereafter issued for purposes other than those herein defined, provided however, that that portion of Galveston County not lying within the corporate limits of the City of Galveston shall not be taxed for the purpose of issuing bonds for any of the purposes herein provided within the corporate limits of the City of Galveston, unless such bond issue and tax levy be authorized by a majority of all the tax paying voters residing in Galveston County outside of the Corporate limits of the City of Galveston; provided that no such bonds issued by the city of Galveston shall be valid unless such bond issue and tax levy be authorized by a majority of all qualified tax paying voters of the city of Galveston, voting at an election so be called for that purpose by the Mayor and Board of Commissioners of said City of Galveston.

Sec. 2. The Governor is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for submitting an amendment to the Constitution to the qualified electors of the State of Texas on the first Tuesday in November, 1919, being the fourth day of November 1919. Those favoring the amendment shall have written or printed on their ballots the words, "For the amendment to Article sixteen of the Constitution of the State of Texas, authorizing the issuance of bonds by the City and County of Galveston." And those opposed to the said amendment shall have written or printed on their ballots the words, "Against the amendment to Article sixteen of the Constitution of the State of Texas, authorizing the issuance of bonds by the City and County of Galveston."

Sec. 3. The sum of five thousand ($5,000.00) dollars, or so much thereof as is necessary out of the funds in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated, is hereby appropriated to pay expenses for the carrying out of the provisions of this Resolution.

GEORGE F. HOWARD,
Secretary of State.

MEXICAN AFFAIRS

Mexico continues as the fly in the ointment of our international relations. Congress, dominated by the republicans, has cut down the size of the army and reduced the money available for its use. A definite policy with respect to Mexico seems to be as remote as it was a dozen years ago.

What is the trouble? Why the delay? Could not the United States end the matter once and for all by demanding of Carranza that he produce Villa, dead or alive, within a specified time? If Carranza fails, let the United States go and get Villa and hand him over to Carranza, saying, "Here is the man who is the main interference to the peace and tranquility of your country; give him the treatment civilization demands shall be meted out to traitors."

Mexico should not be considered as a domestic political issue in the United States. A policy should be adopted and the entire country should get behind it.

Governor Hobby, of Texas and Governor Larrazole, of New Mexico both have notified Washington, in view of conditions along the border, that the demobilizing and discharging of all officers of the national army, which action will practically wipe out the air service, constitutes an improvident policy. The air service is a desperately necessary adjunct to the army on the frontier at this time.

The two governors were inclined to blame the War Department for making trained officers and soldiers unavailable for duty in connection with Mexican affairs. Senator Fall, of New Mexico, in the Senate the other day, threw some light on this phase of the subject. "If there is any blame whatsoever," said he, "it is the fault of the Congress of the United States and not the fault of the War Department."

"And may I interject," said Senator Wadsworth, of New York, chairman of the military affairs committee, "that it can hardly be said to be the fault of the Senate."

The blame, it would seem, rests upon the House of Representatives, where a policy of blind economy prevails. Instead of keeping a reasonable number of trained men in the national army until a permanent military policy has been established, the House would economize by reducing military protection along the border to a state of criminal inadequacy.

AN ECONOMY THAT AMERICA DOESN'T WANT

Truth is stranger than fiction, and on the other hand it is not unusual for a great truth to be told in fiction. In a current magazine a great writer, Rupert Hughes, has told a vivid story of the war—about a tattered remnant of a boy who survived "the hell of the firing line" to encounter later on "the purgatory of service in the rear." The story revolves around the task undertaken by the government to rehabilitate wounded soldiers by encouraging self-respect among them and by building up a grand army of contented toilers.

"A more perfect combination of good charity, public gratitude, and good business was surely never made," said Mr. Hughes, "though the angelic scheme was given the mouth-choking title of 'Federal Board of Vocational Education.'"

The words of the story writer are eloquent in their truthfulness. Pages of discussion in the Congressional Record on the same subject tell the story hardly as well.

Congress, at almost the moment Mr. Hughes' story was being published, passed the sundry civil appropriation bill containing a grossly inadequate allowance for the support of this "perfect combination of good charity, public gratitude, and good business."

The republican leaders had sought to economize at the expense of the wounded soldiers coming home from the bloody fields of France. President Wilson promptly wrote his veto across the face of the bill and sent it back to Congress.

"Give the soldier, handicapped by his wounds, a chance," demanded the President.

The Republicans grumbled, or, as Champ Clark described it, they "growled." But they acceded to the President's demand; they were in a corner, and they had to accede.

HAVING EYES HE REFUSES TO SEE.

Several times recently in these columns reference has been made to the activity in Washington of Congressman Thomas L. Blanton, of the Abilene district. We are constrained to mention the gentleman again.

There is located at Louisville, Ky., an institution known as the American Printing House for the Blind. It is an eleemosynary organization, having no stock, making no profits, and existing wholly for the printing of books for the blind, including the Bible, to be distributed to the various schools for the blind. Congress established the custom in 1879, when there were only 2,180 pupils in the blind schools of the country, of subsidizing the Louisville concern by an annual appropriation of $10,000.

There are now in the United States 75,000 persons who cannot see. Of this number 5,347 are enrolled pupils in blind schools. These totals will be increased when the blinded men in Europe are taken into account.

A private or profit-making organization cannot publish the books for the blind, and sell them at prices which the blind can afford to pay, and remain self-sustaining.

It was proposed in the House the other day to increase the $10,000 appropriation to $50,000, annually. One man objected. He was Mr. Blanton, of Texas. A roll call showed that one other member, Mr. Huddleston, of Alabama, also was opposed to the appropriation for this worthy cause. The vote was 278 to 2.

In this connection it was brought out in the debate that Texas has the largest school for the blind of any state in the Union. The two schools of the state have a total of 300 pupils.

CONSTITUTIONAL GUNMEN

The constitutional lawyers are hammering away at the league of nations at Washington. A constitutional lawyer has been described as a person who can see a fly on the side of a barn without being able to see the barn.

Senator Knox, of Pennsylvania is one of the leading constitutional sharpshooters of the republican party. When it was decided by President Wilson's enemies that the ramparts of the league of nations should be shot full of holes the natural thing to do was to trot Mr. Knox to the front. He came forward with his trusty machine gun on his shoulder. He was full of confidence. He took deliberate aim, pulled the trigger and—missed the barn.

The trouble with the statesmen is that they shoot without broad consideration. The fact is, they shouldn't shoot at all, for public sentiment, ten to one, favors the league of nations.

A noted professor of analytic chemistry says that under certain conditions of fermentation, butter milk develops an unlawful alcoholic content. It is our natural tendency to be "dry," but right here we warn the prohibitionists not to attempt to push us too far.

It is difficult to believe, but it is true, that a man is running for mayor of Charleston, S. C., who openly declared himself for Germany and who avowed that "history will rate him (the kaiser) as the Lincoln of this war."

The problem of after-the-war readjustment is solving itself gradually. The legislature has decided that the Texas State University may rehire its German language professor and it is no longer necessary for us to refer to sauerkraut as liberty cabbage.

Is it possible that Winston Churchill, the English statesman, was looking out of the corner of his eye at our Senate when he said, "The war of giants is over, the war of pygmies is begun?"

The fact that only six members of the legislature voted in favor of having Governor Hobby resign, while 108 voted against the resignation, merely proves that a small crowd can make a big noise.

The former German kaiser has cut down 6,000 trees since he began his sojourn in Holland last November. It should be mentioned that a tree in Holland is a second cousin to a toothpick.

If war is necessary, then let us have war! Let it be ruthless war, a war to the sword—or to the knife, the scythe, the hoe, or the rake. Down with the weeds!

American financiers have arranged a $25,000,000 industrial loan to Finland. Just think what might be done for Mexico if she would only behave.

An idealist, says Henry Ford, is one who helps another to make a profit. Very bad, Henry. An idealist is one who thinks he can get 20 miles out of a gallon.

An effort is being made to discover a way to stop prize fighting. What's the matter with Dempsey's way?

THE FLAG

The flag! The flag!
Your flag! My flag!
That wind-whipped emblem of the free,
Is far the fairest flag to me.
She floats, she dips,
She curls, she whips,
O'er armed forts, and passing ships,
That symbol of a fearless race,
"Mong flags of nations ranks first place."

A flag, whose flag?
Our flag! Our flag!
Born of courage not to lag,
She flies o'er bloody battlefields,
And stirs with power the victor's wields.
She droops, 'neath mast,
For lives that cost
In vain against a fearful blast,
And rises nobly though she lost,
Upholds her standards at all cost.
Our flag! Our flag!
Your flag! My flag!
That faded, wind-torn piece of rag,
Through sun and shower still will be
The fairest of all flags to me.

MISS CECIL GILLILAND, Phone 22

Mrs. F. H. Oberthier's charming hospitality was never more delightfully expressed than on Thursday afternoon, when she was at home to a large number of friends in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Ben Allen, of Tulsa. Mrs. Allen, the bride of less than a year, who was Miss Louise Oberthier was one of the most beautiful, talented and popular young girls Hereford had ever had the honor of claiming as it's own, and has been greatly missed by her legion of friends since her marriage. To again meet her in the social circle, of which she was always one of the brightest members, was a pleasure her friends enjoyed to the utmost.

The beautiful Oberthier home, so attractive in its cool green setting, was no less attractive in its interior where garden flowers of beauty were so artistically arranged as to still further enhance their beauty. In the dining room under softly shaded lights a Japanese basket of glowing red geraniums graced the table, and lent color and beauty, while in the other receiving rooms the arrangement and color effects were equally beautiful. From an exquisitely decorated table punch was served by three modern graces, Misses Elizabeth Black, Elizabeth Oberthier and Lucy Crawford, of Vernon, Texas.

Musical numbers by Miss Mounts, Miss Gregg, and Mrs. Allen, added greatly to the pleasure of the occasion.

In the dining room little Misses Annie Wildy Lee, Eloise Pitman and Frances Oberthier served brick-ice cream and angel food cake, with sweet peas as favors.

The cordial atmosphere into which the hostess welcomed her guests, together with the refined simplicity and absence of formality made this one of the most delightful occasions of the year. Mrs. Oberthier was assisted by her three daughters, Mrs. Allen, Misses Elizabeth and Frances, also Mesdames T. F. Roloson, Seth B. Holman, J. E. Ferguson, Abbie Collins, and Miss Clara Dunlap.

It is with keenest regret that the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Allen learn that the young couple will soon remove to a distant part of the state to make their home, but before settling down in their new home they will make an extended Eastern tour, visiting Niagara, Washington, D. C., New York and other points of interest.

The Story Hour.

The Story Hour for the children, which is held at the Library on each Thursday afternoon from 3:30 to 4:30 o'clock will be in charge of Mrs. J. E. Ferguson on Thursday, July 31st and August 7. Mrs. Donald who has had charge for the past two weeks reports splendid attendance and much interest on the part of the children.

A most pleasant day was spent Saturday, July 19th, by a number of people when Mrs. Geo. E. Burns surprised her husband with a birthday dinner.

The noon hour passed very pleasantly as the guests enjoyed the delicious chicken dinner and all that goes to make a fried chicken dinner complete.

Only Mr. Burn's mother, Mesdames Hooper and Godwin, his sisters, a few friends and neighbors enjoyed the occasion.

Davis-Kearns.
Mr. Paul R. Davis and Miss Rosa Lee Kearns were quietly united in marriage Wednesday, July 16th, at the home of the groom, Rev. J. E. McClurkin officiating. Only the immediate families of the contracting parties, and a few friends were present.

Canadian Paving

The City Council last week at the regular meeting completed most of the preliminaries, except the selling of the warrants, incident to the paving of Main Street. There are three concerns that are bidding on the warrants and no doubt they will be sold in a few days. The contractor and the engineer were both here a short time ago and assured us they were ready to go to work when we were ready for them. Actual work will probably begin in the next thirty days and will be finished before the freezes of next winter.—Canadian Record.

Oldham County Crop

Most of the wheat and oats in Oldham county have been put in the shock and stack, and it is estimated that the wheat will average 20 bushels per acre, and oats 50 bushels per acre. Thrashing will begin next week.—Vega Sentinel.

Even when the geographers finish making new maps of Europe, the war will not be over. The lexicographers and the encyclopedists must rewrite the dictionary and the encyclopedia to make room for more than 2,000 words and terms that crept into the English language as a result of the war.

Our own private opinion is that the war will not end until the United States Senate is demobilized.

Famous Goodnight Ranch Sells to Rich Oil Man from Texas

Col. Chas. Goodnight has sold his ranch and buffalo herd, but the purchasers retain Col. Goodnight at a good salary for the remainder of his life to continue his scientific research in cross breeding of live stock. As is well known, Col. Goodnight has very successfully crossed the buffalo with the black Poll Angus cow and has a very fine animal, which he has named "cattalo". This "cattalo" is a very fine type of beef, a grown cow weighing fifteen and sixteen hundred pounds. The dressed robe from one of these cows will sell from $250 to $500.

Col. Goodnight is also cross breeding the Karakule sheep and red Jersey hogs. He has a number of these cross bred hogs and thinks he will develop a hog type that will produce a larger amount of meat and a grade of lard that will not be so greasy, having in it a percentage of tallow that will reduce its greasy effects, which so often is offensive to a delicate constitution.

On account of this splendid progress of cross breeding and the desire for perpetuating the herd of buffalo on the Goodnight ranch, a proposition was before the Texas Legislature last winter to buy the ranch and buffalo and establish there a breeding and feeding station under the supervision of the A. & M. College. The property was offered to the State for a consideration of $120,000 and had the session of the Legislature been prolonged three weeks we believe the deal would have been consummated. Since the regular session, however, the ranch lands have been leased for oil development and a test well is now being put down on the ranch. This has had a tendency to increase the demand for the land and the sale consummated a few days ago was for a consideration of $160,000.—Panhandle Herald.

NURSES TO SPEAK ON HEALTH BETTERMENT

Red Cross Plans to Educate Public Through Chautauqua Circuit

To place the public health on a higher plane than it has ever been is the object of a national program undertaken by the American Red Cross as part of its peace time plan. Fifty nurses, returned from active overseas duty, will tour the United States on a Chautauqua circuit, spreading the gospel of good health and of the proper care of the sick by fostering the study and practice of nursing.

Through the Chautauqua an official representative of the Red Cross Department of Nursing will tell the people of the Southwestern Division the story of what is being done and will ask their cooperation. All of these nurses have had actual experiences abroad. Not only have they served maimed and wounded, but they have also come in constant touch with refugees, the repatriates, the sick, the famished, and the tubercular.

The addresses of the nurses will take in five general topics, three of which take public health education into each home of the community. The first of these topics pleads for the employment of a public health nurse in every community. This work will be carried on in co-operation with State Boards of Health and Education, State Anti-Tubercular Leagues and other State health organizations. In communities where no such organizations exist the Red Cross will establish a nursing service, financed by chapter funds.

The second part of the nurses' message will be that of home hygiene and care of the sick. They will explain the importance of taking the course of basic education on these subjects, so that the general public will know how to combat contagion in the home, how to keep the health of the family at the highest hygienic point, how to care for minor illness, and when serious sickness occurs, how to assist the physician and nurse.

This year's State convention of the stockmen of Washington was in every respect the most successful meeting of live-stock owners and breeders held in the Northwest in many years. Plans were made, and are now being carried out, for developing the Spokane stock yards and for building up a live-stock exposition at Spokane. County-agent work was supported and encouraged by resolutions urging all stockmen to assist in having their county commissioners make adequate appropriation for maintaining county-agent offices in each county in the State.

The Guarantee Oil Production & Development Company's Plans

The Guarantee Oil Production and Development Company of Hereford, which has been in process of formation for some time, became a verity Wednesday afternoon, when members of the company met at the Star Theatre and perfected permanent organization with the following well-known and prominent citizens at the head of its official family—

G. M. Suggs, president;
C. H. Barrett, vice president;
E. B. Posey, secretary-treasurer;
O. K. Higgins, W. A. Miller and C. C. Ferguson, Board of Managers.

The personnel of the company shows it to be composed of some of the best known and influential citizens of the county:

E. B. Posey;
F. T. Roloson;
S. G. Moore;
P. J. Spencer;
W. W. Bennett;
Luther Locker;
G. M. Suggs;
E. H. Fullwood;
W. A. Miller;
W. C. Fallwell;
E. Renfro;
R. J. Kibbe;
J. E. Gyles;
O. K. Higgins;
A. C. Barnhart;
E. F. Connell;
"Buck" Green;
C. C. Ferguson;
C. H. Barrett;
C. P. Brady;
J. D. Thompson;
C. H. Carl;
Dan S. Greene;
J. H. Foster.

With the exceptions of C. P. Brady and Dan S. Greene, the former of Georgetown, Texas, and the latter of Nawata, Okla., the company is composed of well-known and successful business men, farmers and stockmen of the Hereford country, each one recognized for his probity and business sagacity.

Uppermost in the mind of each member of the new company, four things are paramount—

A fair, square, honest deal with those who lease their lands to it;

Actual development of the latent mineral resources of the country;

Equitable proration of all production between the lessors and the company;

And last, but not least, yet perhaps its finest feature—its lease contract forbids the sale of leases prior to the production of oil or gas.

This company has several features in its lease contract which distinguishes it from every other contract, and these distinctive features are bases upon which the contract is founded, and are as follows:

1st. That the company shall secure a minimum lease acreage of 20,000 acres within a radius of twenty miles of Hereford, Texas by the first day of September 1919;

2nd. That on or before the first day of September 1920, the company shall have installed, or in process of installation machinery to drill for oil or gas, and of capacity to drill a well to the maximum depth of 4,200 feet;

3rd. That one-eighth of the oil production shall be prorated among the lessors as a whole;

4th. That twenty per cent of the gas production shall be prorated among the lessors as a whole;

5th. That should coal be found, ten per cent of its value shall be paid the lessor upon whose lands it is found, and twenty per cent prorated among the lessors as a whole;

6th. That should metals or minerals be found, the lessor upon whose land it is found shall have ten per cent of the net value and twenty per cent prorated among the lessors as a whole;

7th. That when the sale of leases is authorized ten per cent of the net moneys received from the sale of leases shall be paid the individual lessor and twenty per cent prorated among the lessors as a whole;

8th. That the company shall not be authorized to sell any leases prior to the finding of oil or gas, provided, that the company shall be authorized to sublet the lease in whole or in part for immediate development, the work to begin within ninety days from the date of the sublease; and provided further, that the company shall be authorized to assign not to exceed the one-half of its leased acreage to secure drilling contract, it to be especially understood and agreed that all moneys received by reason of such assignment shall be used solely for the purpose of drilling a well or wells for oil or gas.

seen that this company offers its lessors a fair, square, honest proposition and makes each one of them a sharer in all of its production.

The ordinary contract offers the lessor but little, if anything outside the meagre yearly rental of a few cents per acre, and the remote possibility of a royalty when production is had on his premises.

The ordinary lease contains a clause which says:

"The discovery of oil or gas in such test well, whether drilled on this or other lands, as aforesaid, will enhance the value of the premises herein demised; and the procuring of said other leases and the commencement of drilling said test well as aforesaid by lessee, associates or assigns, shall operate fully and conclusively to establish the right of the lessee to hold and maintain this lease in full force and effect, without drilling on the lands herein demised, upon and by the payment of the rentals at the time and in the manner and for the purposes hereinbefore provided and set out."

This company grants that the production of oil or gas will enhance the value of the leased lands, provided the owner desires to sell, but he has leased away his rights to oil or gas, and is promised nothing whatever in return, except his meagre rental and his royalty, if production is had on his premises. And should the lease on his premises be assigned he does not share in any money received by reason of said assignment although the acreage price may be hundreds or thousands of dollars.

With this company lessor shares in all. It is not so much that this company may make money as it is to help develop the country and at the same time be just, fair and honest with the land owners and be fair and honest with itself.

To those who have not leased only a fair and dispassionate consideration of its contract; it asks that deliberate judgment be the determining factor, and if in favor of leasing to this company, it promises to fulfill its contract within the year beginning September 1st, 1919 and ending September 1st, 1920.

President Suggs has called another meeting for Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock, in the Star Theatre, and urges all of the members to be present and take part in the deliberations, as several matters of importance are to be considered. (adv.)

Rain water for the family wash

The ideal water for washing clothes is rain water. Under its velvety, soothing action dirt vanishes magically. This cleansing virtue in rain water is due to its purity. Ordinary water lacks this quality because of its hardness, making necessary more of the rubbing that shortens the life of clothes. Most housewives must of necessity use this more or less hard water for the family wash.

WE can give you SOFT WATER LAUNDRY SERVICE, for in our modern laundry all cleansing is done with water equally as pure as that which comes to us from the clouds. We secure our supply by a special filtering process.

Our clothes-washing method is one the housewives endorse,—no rubbing and wringing; just soaking and rinsing in soft water and suds of pure white soap. Leave word with us and our driver will call for your family bundle.

RELATING TO CONFEDERATE PENSIONS AND INCREASING TAX RATES FOR PAYMENT OF SAME.

House Joint Resolution No. 35.

Proposing an amendment to Section 51 of Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Texas to provide that the Legislature may grant pensions to Confederate Soldiers, sailors and their widows, who have been citizens of Texas prior to Jan. 1, 1910, providing that all soldiers, sailors and their widows eligible under the provisions hereof shall be entitled to be placed upon the rolls and participate in the pension fund created hereunder; levying a tax of seven ($0.07) cents on the $100.00 valuation of property in this State for the payment of such pension, providing that the Legislature may reduce the rate of pension for such purpose, fixing a time for the election to be held on such amendment, and making appropriation to pay the expenses thereof.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 51 of Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Texas shall be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

Sec. 51. The Legislature shall have no power to make any grant or authorize the making of any grant of public money to any individual, association of individuals, municipalities or other corporations whatsoever, provided however, the Legislature may grant aid to indigent or disabled Confederate soldiers and sailors, who came to Texas prior to January 1, 1910, and to their widows in indigent circumstances and who have been bona fide residents of this State since January 1, 1910, and who were married to such soldiers or sailors prior to January 1, 1910, and to indigent and disabled soldiers who under special laws of the State of Texas during the war between the States served in organizations for the protection of the Frontier against Indian raiders or Mexican marauders and to indigent and disabled soldiers of the militia of the State of Texas who were in active service during the war between the States and to widows of such soldiers who are in indigent circumstances and who were married to such soldiers prior to January 1, 1910, provided that the word "widow" in the preceding lines of this section shall not apply to women born since the year 1866, and all soldiers and sailors and widows of soldiers and sailors eligible under the above conditions shall be entitled to be placed upon the pension rolls and participate in the distribution of the pension fund of this State under existing law or laws hereafter passed by the Legislature, and also to grant aid for the establishment and maintenance of a home for said soldiers and sailors, their wives and widows and women who aided in the confederacy under such regulations and limitations as may be provided by law, provided the Legislature may provide for husband and wife to remain together in the home. There is hereby levied in addition to all other taxes heretofore permitted by the Constitution of Texas a State ad valorem tax on property of seven ($0.07) cents on the $100 valuation for the purpose of creating a special fund for the payment of pensions for services in the Confederate army and navy, frontier organizations and the militia of the State of Texas, and for the widows of such soldiers serving in said armies, navies, organizations or militia; provided that the Legislature may reduce the tax rate herein levied. And provided further that the provisions of this section shall not be construed so as to prevent the grant of aid in cases of public calamity.

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified voters of this State at an election to be held on Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1918, at which all voters shall have printed or written on their ballots: "For amendment of Section 51 of Article 3 of the Constitution authorizing the Legislature to grant aid to Confederate soldiers, sailors and their widows who have been residents of this State since January 1, 1910," and "Against amendment to Section 51 of Article 3 of the Constitution, authorizing the Legislature to grant aid to Confederate soldiers and their widows."

The Cleveland Tractor

Why the Cleveland Speed is Right

Greater Crop Production. In the ordinary plowing of slow tractors you will find that the furrow slice is turned over so slowly that it is merely set up on edge.

Then when it is harrowed the trash is scattered, instead of being confined to the corner of the furrow, and this trash, together with the unbroken clods interferes seriously with plant growth by keeping moisture from the reach of the tender roots of the young plants.

The Cleveland, on the other hand, plowing at 3 1/2 miles per hour, turns over the furrow slice with such force that the soil is thoroughly pulverized throughout the depth of the plowed ground, often saving one or more workings with the harrow or the drag.

Then, too, it is often necessary on account of the weather or some other condition, that a farmer plow and fit his seed bed in a very short time. In such cases, also, speed is an important element.

Working with a Cleveland Tractor at 3 1/2 miles per hour means about an acre an hour with two 14-inch bottoms.

With the Cleveland a new standard is set for the perfect pulverization of the soil and the fitting of the sort of seed beds that facilitates proper moisture conditions.

Up to the present time it has been well recognized among farmers that plowing was about 25 per cent of seed bed preparation.

The Cleveland Tractor with the right implements behind it has made plowing 50 per cent or half the job and the tractor that does this is the tractor that you should have.

40 per cent to 50 per cent More Work. The 40 per cent greater plowing speed of the Cleveland—the speed that breaks up the soil and leaves it in the finest possible condition—is a matter of vital importance to any farmer who is thinking tractor.

It makes it possible to cover as much or more ground per day as slower moving, heavier tractors pulling more plow bottoms—and it does this work at less expense.

This not only applies to plowing, which most Cleveland owners do at the rate of from 8 to 10 acres per day, and to discing 20 to 30 acres per day, but other operations in which the tractor is used.

The Cleveland is the all-purpose tractor—the year-round tractor—and it is proving every day that it is the tractor that enables one man to do the work previously done by three men and eight or nine horses.

See the Cleveland in action. It is its own best salesman.

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and set the general system right. It is the only medicine that will kill the worms, and the child will then be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 50c per bottle.

A Booze Still

A private whiskey still was discovered last week in operation in a wheat field near Hale Center. It was a small affair, though complete in every detail, from the corn cooker to the drain, and container, with a coil etc. It was in actual operation, and the juice was actually flowing through at the time.

The Federal officers came down from Amarillo and took charge of the outfit, and we understand that several well known citizens of the community have either been arrested or will be at once. With the still was found a booklet from a San Antonio firm telling the process by which the still was to be operated.—Plainview News.

lands heretofore made, or hereafter to be made, for the support and benefit of either institution, shall constitute a permanent fund for the University of Texas, the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas, and for the Prairie View State Normal and Industrial College; provided, that when the permanent University endowment shall, by constitutional and statutory authority, be apportioned to the institutions named it shall be divided between the University of Texas, the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas, and the Prairie View State Normal and Industrial College in the following manner: To the University of Texas, sixty-six and two-thirds (66 2/3) per cent, and the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas, thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3) per cent; and the governing board of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas shall apportion to the Prairie View State Normal and Industrial College for colored youths such part of, or interest in, the said thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3) per cent as may be determined equitably by said governing board. The principal of all funds accruing to each institution from the division of the University endowment under the provisions of this section shall, whenever the said endowment is divided, constitute the permanent fund of each, and shall be invested as the permanent public free school fund is now or may hereafter be authorized by law to be invested; and the governing board of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas shall be authorized, with the approval of the Governor, and in the manner to be provided by law, to issue bonds for permanent improvements, such bond issues to be based upon the permanent funds of the institution issuing them; and the governing board of each institution shall make provision from the income derivable from its permanent fund for the payment of all bonds issued under its authority as may be provided by law.

Sec. 12. The lands set apart to the University fund shall be sold under such regulations, at such times, and on such terms as may be provided by law; and the Legislature shall provide for the prompt collection, at maturity, of all debts due on account of University lands heretofore sold, or that may hereafter may be sold, and shall in neither event have the power to grant relief to the purchasers. And, until such time as the University endowment fund shall be divided, in accordance with constitutional and statutory authority, the proceeds from the sale of lands, as realized and received into the Treasury of the State, together with such sum belonging to the funds as may now be in the Treasury, shall be invested as the permanent public free school fund is now or may hereafter be authorized by law to be invested; and the interest accruing thereon, and any income from the use of the said University lands, shall be subject to appropriation by the Legislature, and may be available for the redemption of bonds based on the University endowment and to be redeemed from the said interest and income from the use of the land, as may be provided by law, to aid in the construction, equipment and maintenance of the University of Texas and the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas, and the total of such bond issues outstanding shall at no time exceed four and one-half million dollars; and the Legislature is hereby authorized to appropriate out of the general revenues of the State such money as may be necessary to cover deficiencies in the interest and sinking fund accounts of the bond issues herein provided for. Provided, that the one-fourth of the alternate sections of the lands granted to railroads, reserved by the State, which were set apart and appropriated to the establishment of "The University of Texas" by an Act of the Legislature of February 11, 1858, entitled "An Act to Establish 'The University of Texas,'" shall not be included in or constitute a part of the permanent University fund.

Sec. 13. The Legislature shall provide by appropriation for the equipment, maintenance and development of the University of Texas, and the branches of the said institutions named in this Article and such other branches as may be hereafter established by law; for the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas and its branches as now or hereafter may be established by law; for the College of Industrial Arts for the education of white girls; for State Normal Schools; and for the Prairie View State Normal and Industrial College for colored youths.

Sec. 14. The Legislature shall give encouragement and direction to and make provision for the educational activities of the respective State institutions provided for in this Article, and as may be adequate for the promotion of literature and the arts and sciences, pure and applied, and for instruction in the professions, of a University of the first class; and for instruction in all those branches of learning which relate to agriculture, animal husbandry, the natural sciences, pure and applied, connected therewith, the mechanic arts and military science and tactics, requisite to the development of an Agricultural and Mechanical College of the first class; and for the education of white girls in the literary branches, the arts and sciences, and in social and domestic economy of the age, as may be necessary to establish and maintain a College of Industrial Arts of the first class for white girls, and for instruction in all branches requisite to the development of normal schools of the first class.

Sec. 15. The Prairie View State Normal and Industrial College for the instruction of colored youths of the State, Walker County, as a branch of the University of Texas, is hereby declared a branch of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas. And in lieu of the separate apportionment of a part of the University endowment, as authorized in Section 11 hereof, the said Board of Directors of the Agricultural and Mechanical College may apportion to the Prairie View State Normal and Industrial College such part of any fund realized from any authorized bond issue by the Board for the purpose of permanent improvements as the Board may determine to be equitable and the fund so apportioned shall be available only for the purpose of constructing permanent improvements for the said Prairie View State Normal and Industrial College.

CAN'T DO THE WORK

It's too much to try to work every day against a constant, dull backache, or sudden darting pain in the small of the back. Be rid of it. Try Doan's Kidney Pills. Your neighbors recommend them.

J. W. Beck, farmer, Hereford, says: "At one time I was a blacksmith but my back and kidneys were in such bad shape I had to give up the work. My back was sore and lame mornings and ached so severely I couldn't stoop over to do my work. When I bent over a sharp pain would shoot through the small of my back and I could hardly straighten up again. My back was also weak. I did not sleep well at night. My kidneys were irregular in action and bothered me at night as I often had to get up two or three times to pass the kidney secretions. Another member of my family had used Doan's Kidney Pills with such good results I began using them. Two boxes relieved me of the trouble and fixed me up in good shape."
