PROMINENT MEN

Speakers High in Cattle World Hold Interest Of Audience

Despite torrid weather and the busy season five hundred cattlemen, visitors local citizens interested in the industry, and their families fattered at the Jones & Dameron ranch on the Tierra Blanco Wednesday and celebrated the annual Barbecue and Picnic of the Registered Hereford Breeders' Association of Deaf Smith county.

The Association was signally honored by the presence of several very prominent men high in the industry, from Kansas City and other points, and many cattlemen from various points in West Texas. An excellent program of short speeches, the subject matter of all pertaining to the registered business, was rendered, and the tables literally groaned under the weight of good things to eat. The Association furnished the beef, coffee, pickles, bread, etc., while the ladies brought the sweets. Jones & Dameron furnished free to all plenty of ice, ice cream, lemonade, cigars, etc.

After the sumptuous repast at high noon, Secretary W. E. Dameron, acting as master of ceremonies, opened the program with a short, snappy introductory talk. Mr. Miller, of the Hereford Journal of Kansas City, gave a splendid boost to the whiteface industry. R. J. Kinzer, Secretary of the American Hereford Breeders' Association of Kansas City, and George Bowles, of Lubbock, former president of the Panhandle Breeders' Association, also made inspiring addresses.

W. E. Bennett, of Amarillo, secretary of the Panhandle Hereford Breeders, talked on cooperation and told of the splendid Auditorium now in prospect for Amarillo. J. Lynn Van Natta, a director in the American Hereford Breeders' Association, talked on the progress of the industry and in praise of the work done in Hereford. B. H. Connor, of Claude, and R. W. Dawson, of the Drovers Telegram of Kansas City, Wallace Good, formerly a resident of the Panhandle and a big breeder, and Fred Mann, of the Hereford Journal also made excellent addresses.

In conclusion the announcement was made that work on the new Sale Pavilion at Hereford had begun, and the crowd dispersed with cordial good will for each other and optimism for the future of the registered Hereford industry.

GRANARIES SOLUTION OF CAR FAMINE

Railroads Warn Farmers to Prepare to Care for Grain on Farm

With bumper crops in prospect all over the south, and with a big shortage of railway cars in which to move grain, the best brains of the railway and commercial world are being worked overtime in an effort to solve the puzzle. The situation is admittedly a serious one.

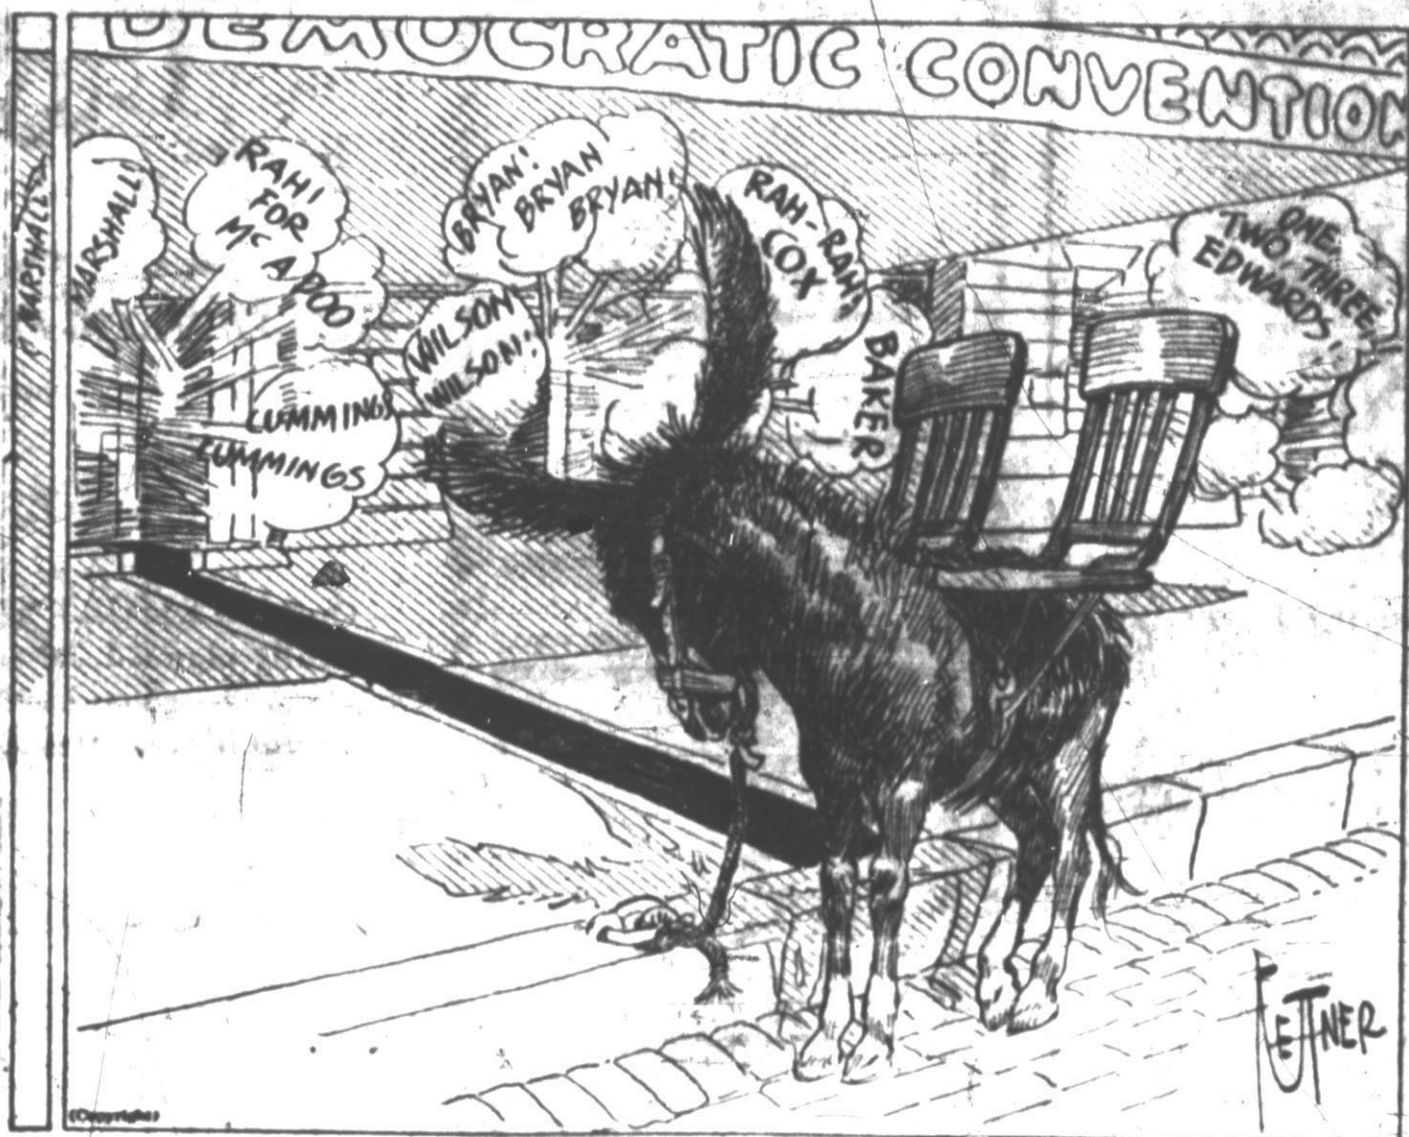

The Brand is in receipt of two communications from the publicity department of the Santa Fe railroad bearing on the situation. R. J. Parker, General Manager of the Santa Fe Western Lines, says, in part:

"The car shortage is nation wide," continued Mr. Parker. "The Interstate Commerce Commission estimates that the minimum and immediate needs are 100,000 additional freight cars. The country has advanced and produces much more freight. The railroads on the other hand have not been able to add much equipment since before the war.

"The shortage of cars has been intensified by labor troubles at ports and terminals and the lack of shipping. Long strings of car under load choke terminals or lie idle for weeks at the principal ports. Unfettered effort is now in progress to break the blockades under the supervision of the Interstate Commerce Commission and the car service commission of the American Railroad Association. Open top cars are

PLATFORM RECOMMENDED BY COMMITTEE IGNORES PROHIBITION; IS NOT UNCOM-PROMISING STAND FOR WILSON LEAGUE

The Amarillo Daily News, at 2:00 p. m. Thursday, says that the Democratic National Convention is listening to the reading of the platform presented by the committee.

Prohibition is not mentioned at all, and the League of Nations plank is not an emphatic demand for a League without reservations; rather, the plank seems to be a compromise and effort to satisfy all concerned.

Up to Wednesday night the Democratic National Convention at San Francisco had listened to the nominations of ten candidates for the Presidency, and then adjourned until eleven o'clock Thursday, when the platform committee was expected to make its report, after which balloting was expected to begin.

Those placed in nomination Wednesday were: Senator Owen, of Okla-ma, Attorney General Palmer, Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, Homer Cummings, chairman of the convention, William G. McAdoo, Governor Smith of New York, Governor Edwards of New Jersey, Secretary of Agriculture Meredith, Governor Cox of Ohio, and James W. Gerard, former Ambassador to Germany.

The feature of the day easily was the unexpected and overwhelming tribute paid Mr. McAdoo, following the shortest nominating speech on record. Dr.

Burriss Jenkins of Kansas City merely said: "I nominate William G. McAdoo, and pandemonium broke loose. Pat O'Keefe of Dallas led the procession, which included the standards of Washington, Delaware, Louisiana, Alabama, Utah, New Mexico, Arkansas, Oregon, Wyoming, Maine, Arizona Texas, Idaho, Michigan, Kansas, Nevada, Hawaii, Wisconsin and South Dakota.

Active balloting on these candidates will follow the adoption of the party platform, to be considered Thursday.

Whitefaces Take Two More Games; White Deer Next

Hereford's baseball team has added two victories to its record within the past week. On June 23 the team won of Vega and played a strong aggregation from Panhandle the contest being part of the attractions of the Okfus County Picnic. Panhandle was vanquished to the tune of 6 to 2. The outstanding feature of this game was the phenomenal second basing of Earl E. Wilson whose speedy work flashed across the score book all through the nine innings.

On Sunday, June 27, the Clovis Elks came over and were beaten in a tight argument, score 5 to 1. While no particular features were noticeable in this game, the entire Hereford team played a steady, classy exhibition.

On Thursday and Friday of this week, at the Roundup, the boys will tackle the husky White Deer outfit in two contests.

W. B. GREEN HAS STROKE PARALYSIS NOW IN COLORADO

W. B. Green, one of the oldest and best known citizens of this section suffered a stroke of paralysis about ten days ago and on Sunday last was taken to Boulder, Colorado, to a Sanitarium by his son-in-law, R. H. Dixon.

Mr. Green's limbs are affected and he is badly crippled. His many friends in this community and in Castro county are earnestly hoping that his recovery will be rapid and permanent.

PERKINS SECTION WEST OF HEREFORD SOLD TO G. C. OWEN

A section of land six miles west, belonging to J. J. Perkins, changed hands last Monday, the purchaser being G. C. Owen. The figures were not announced. The deal was handled by Ed Connell.

OIL TRUCK TURNS OVER WHEN STRUCK BY FREIGHT CAR

The Pioneer Oil Co. truck, driven by Agent J. B. McCord, had both hind wheels smashed up and the machine was turned over on its side on Monday of last week when a box car being switched in the Santa Fe yards was backed into the vehicle. Mr. McCord was not injured, but his truck was demolished, along with the truck, and 200 gallons of gas distributed over the landscape. Mr. McCord is being congratulated upon his lucky escape.

C. C. McNerney's Ranch Traded to Man From Vernon

Real estate activity continues. C. C. McNerney last week traded his ranch south of Hereford to W. M. Thompson of Vernon. The deal was handled by Wear & Elliston.

In the trade Mr. McNerney included everything on the place, including crop, even the poultry. He acquired cash and business property in Altus, Okla. in exchange. Mr. McNerney plans to visit his new holdings as soon as details of the trade are completed, and from there will go for a visit in Missouri.

AIRPLANE WILL BE ON HAND TO HELP WITH THE ROUNDUP

In all probability one of the planes of the fleet belonging to the Panhandle Aerial Company of Amarillo will be here Thursday and Friday of this week to carry passengers during the Roundup. A representative of the Company has been in communication with Manager Parcell, and promised to be on hand either Thursday or Friday, afterwards going to Clovis to take in the festivities there on July 5.

Two Local Boys Making Good with Our Uncle Samuel

The Brand this week has received two announcements from government departments concerning a couple of Hereford boys in the service of Uncle Sam. The first, from the Naval Department, concerns Ernest A. Corn, as follows:

Ernest A. Corn, U. S. N., whose home address is Hereford, Texas, has been named in the Honor Roll of the week ending June 12, 1920, of the U. S. Naval Training Station, San Francisco, Calif., as being one of the 20 men who have made the most progress in instruction, personal appearance and attention to duties. The Honor Roll states that Corn is considered one of the most efficient men now at the Training Station. He is attached to the Hospital school.

The second report is from the Army Olympic Committee as follows:

Williams, Alex., a cook in the 4th Aero Squadron of the Hawaiian Department, is entered in the 192 pound class of the boxing events of the Army Championships to be held here July 2 to 5, inclusive. He is Hawaiian Department champion at 192 pounds. He lives at Hereford, Texas.

George Guinn returned from La Junta, Colo., Wednesday, after an automobile trip across country. Mr. Guinn left his wife and daughter in La Junta where they will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Chamness.

SULTRY WEATHER AND THREATENING RAIN CONTINUES

Hot, sultry weather still prevails over this section, with daily threats of rain. On Monday a heavy downpour visited Amarillo and points northwest, not quite reaching Canyon on the Amarillo side but wetting a strip between Canyon and Hereford. Moisture right now would cool things off and freshen up grass, although the farmers are very busy and wheat men have their hands full with harvesting.

It is hoped that if it does rain the hall of two weeks ago to the west of Friona will be left out, just to even things up. In this hall the windmill on the old Parmerton section was torn down, and a strip about four miles wide and many miles long was beaten badly by hail stones. French Thurmmond lost a lot of valuable wheat, as did several other ranchmen and farmers.

BUCKNER'S ORPHAN HOME SECRETARY VISITING FRIENDS

H. F. Buckner, General Secretary of Buckner's Orphan Home at Dallas, arrived in Hereford last week for a "get acquainted" trip in the interests of his work. A special meeting was held at the Baptist church Monday night at which a goodly sum was raised for the orphan's home.

Mr. Buckner, a son of the founder of the Home, was a missionary worker in China, where he spent seven years, when called home to take up the great work begun by his distinguished father. He states that while this trip is in the interest of getting better acquainted with the people and he is not primarily seeking money, at the same time he will not refuse donations to the Home, as money is always needed there, and needed badly.

BOWE BARN BEING TORN DOWN; MUCH BUILDING ACTIVITY

The sub-committee of the Registered Hereford Breeders' Association, consisting of President W. T. Womble and Secretary W. E. Dameron, have gotten busy and started the work of razing the old Bowe barn, opposite the depot. As soon as the structure is removed work will begin on the new feed barn and Sale Pavilion, stock for which has all been subscribed by local cattlemen and business men.

Work on the Methodist Church and the Filling Stations for the Magnolia Petroleum Co. and D. L. McDonald is also progressing merrily, and the city presents a busy scene these hot days.

MATHES ON VISIT HERE LOOKING AT POLITICAL FENCE

Hon. Burke Mathes, of Plainview, candidate for State Representative from this district, spent Wednesday in Hereford making pickets on his political fence. Mr. Mathes is a young man with ideals and vision, and promises to be a real representative for this section of the Panhandle if the voters give him the opportunity. While here he conferred with various individuals and reporters. He was accompanied by Green Wilson of Plainview who was the first district attorney for this section, way back there in 1888.

AL MILLER RETURNS FROM VACATION TRIP

Al Miller and family returned last Friday from a splendid automobile vacation in New Mexico and Colorado. Mr. Miller says that it rained a great deal while they were in Colorado, which spoiled the trip to a certain extent. While a little early in the season, the tourist stream has begun to pour into the mountain resorts, 600 cars being camped in Denver alone one night while he was there.

All preliminaries for the big Roundup, to be held Thursday and Friday, July 1 and 2, had been completed Wednesday afternoon and Manager Parcell stated that all was ready for the crowd and the opening hour.

A big string of outlaw and bucking horses from Silverton and other points arrived Tuesday, and tanned fellows from every point of the compass were beginning to arrive to participate in the festivities.

The Hereford Band has been practicing zealously for the occasion and promises some splendid music.

The Chihuahua steers, after a month's run on good grass, are in better shape this time than before to do some real fancy bucking and dodging and the boys expect to need some extra surcingle if no one is thrown this time.

A couple of lady riders have promised to vary the program with some fancy stunts, and another feature will be bull-dogging from automobiles as well as from horses.

And the clowns—there will be several of them, accompanied by the trained donkeys, to make the crowd laugh.

The White Deer ball team is billed to play the Whitefaces a game on each afternoon. This aggregation has a splendid record and is said to be a hard team to beat. Two dandy ball games are expected.

And then an airplane from Amarillo has also been advertised, for the benefit of those who like that sort of thing.

In spite of the fact that this is an unusually busy season for the ranchmen and farmers, the promoters of the Roundup are optimistic over the prospects, and confident that the second effort will far eclipse the first in point of attendance, attractions, and general satisfaction.

VALUATIONS IN THE CITY ARE RAISED

Increase of Nearly Three Hundred Thousand Over Last Year

The total property valuations within the corporate limits of the City of Hereford have been placed at the sum of two million, three hundred thousand dollars by the Board of Equalization, which has now finished its labors and has been finally discharged.

The Board, though changed in personnel several times, finally resolved itself into J. A. Pitman, J. O. Newell, and Ralph Barnett.

The figures for last year were two million and ten thousand dollars, which gives an increase of nearly three hundred thousand. This valuation will add about one thousand dollars to the general fund and will enable the city to do a lot of things the coming year that it never could have hoped to do without this increase.

ST. LOUIS BANKER AND OTHERS HERE FOR BIG BARBECUE

President Hammond, of the St. Louis Cattle Loan Company, who has friends and customers in this section, spent several days in the city and vicinity this week. Mr. Hammond took in the Breeders' Picnic.

Another prominent visitor for the Picnic and Barbecue was Geo. Bowles, of Lubbock, former president of the Panhandle Registered Breeders' Association. Mr. Bowles is one of the best known cattlemen in this entire section, and he has been kept busy shaking hands with his numerous friends and acquaintances.

R. W. LOVELACE IS VISITING FRIENDS

R. W. Lovelace, former manager of the Hereford Telephone exchange, now manager of the Sweetwater office, arrived in Hereford Wednesday night for a visit with friends and relatives.

BOOST YOUR TOWN

In another month an exodus of vacationists will be on in earnest, and a considerable portion of Vernon's population will be visiting in various parts of the country North, south, east, and west they will go in search of the pleasure which is a stimulus for hard work the year through, for business man or housewife. But there is something below the surface that is too often neglected by the traveler on his holiday, and that is the moral obligation he is under to the town which provides him with a living. His vacation can easily be made to serve a two-fold purpose, to provide him with mental and physical relaxation and enjoyment, and to furnish a decided recommendation for his home town.

Those who visit in other sections of the country will undoubtedly be questioned concerning the merits of the place of their residence, their interrogators often desiring the information for really practical purposes. The public spirited citizen can thus render a service to his community that will mean as much to it as that publicity which is usually obtained by a considerable outlay of money by civic organizations.

An enthusiastic endorsement of the community, its opportunities, its improvements and facilities for development, will be passed on from friend to friend. Citizens of many localities have heard or will hear of Vernon in due time. A favorable impression created now will prove a deciding factor in inducing many persons to come here when conditions warrant.

Tell of your city's possibilities, of the oil wells near it, of the rich farming country surrounding it. This course is due not only to the town, but due your friends here and your self-respect, as well.—Vernon Record.

LETTING GEORGE DO IT

In the opinion of the average foreign country America is one vast hive of agricultural industry. They seem to think that all they have to do is to ask and we will hand over the food.

America has been generous in the past in dividing its food supply with Europe, even when we had to deny ourselves to do it. But the war is over and war conditions and necessities no longer exist. The American farmer is very short of help and crop outlooks are not of the best, according to published reports. Experts predict a shortage of foodstuffs next winter, with the possibility of bread and soup lines in the cities of our own country. If this should happen, Europe cannot expect us to meekly hand over the food we need to sustain life among our own people.

Exporting profiteers would, of course take advantage of the situation and send food to Europe at enormous gains to themselves. But the public will not have it so. If such tactics are attempted the roar of protest will be long and deep and will engulf any person who attempts to starve American women and children for the sake of selling to Europe at great personal profit.

America asks neither alms nor favors from any country. We are ready at all times to relieve distress across the water when conditions and humanity permit, but we are not willing to send our own people to bed hungry in order to do it.

Europe can work and produce if it will. Let them quit their piddling and squabbling, chuck their coats and go to work, or do without. "Letting George do it" doesn't appeal very strongly to us from "here out," especially when we are expected to make ourselves a universal and perpetual "George."—Tuncumcar Sun.

"THE BEAST" IS AN UNUSUAL FEATURE

in "The Beast" with George Walsh, which will be shown at the Star Theatre Saturday night.

Rugged western life, echoes of high English society, adventures galore, and the refinement of a New York Society beauty, are blended with rare charm in this remarkable story. "The Beast" fights for possession of a woman to destroy her soul. Then to save her life, he struggles with death in the raging waters in a western river. At last he is tamed by something greater than mere desire, and becomes a real man at the feet of the girl of his dreams. It is an unusual picture, gripping in plot and theme, showing the star at his best.

A two reel Mack Bennett Comedy and a Mutt and Jeff comedy will also be shown at the Star Theatre Saturday night.

DIMMITT

Farmers are beginning to harvest the grain and find it much better than was indicated early in the year. On the farm of A. Iten, one acre was threshed which yielded thirty-four bushels. It will not average that, however, but is estimated at thirty bushels.

The spring showers continue to come. They have not injured the wheat and are of great benefit to growing crops.

The Dimmitt people who attended the Olton Picnic and Barbecue were, Judge Woodlee and family, Harvey Cash and family, Judge Kerr and Dow Durre, and others whose names were not learned.

Mr. Ramey and family, of Oklahoma, are visiting at the Ramey Bros. ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Thaxton and son, Leon, spent Sunday in Dimmitt.

The young people's class of the Sunday School went to Sulphur Park on a picnic last Tuesday. There were eighteen in the party. They were chaperoned by Rev. and Mrs. Florence, and Mrs. Rosa McLean. The day was indeed ideal for a picnic and fishing was fine, enough being caught for all. After supper they drove into Hereford to the show and the drive home was a splendid finish for a day of pleasure.

Rev. Sharp preached an interesting sermon on Sunday afternoon. The text was, "Other Sheep Have I, Which are not of This Fold". We are grateful to Bro. Sharp for his thoughtfulness of us, leaving his congregation once a month and coming to be with us. He was accompanied here by Mr. Roy Nunn, who assisted in the services.

R. A. Holland and family are visiting Mrs. Hollings' sister, Mrs. Joe Elliott.

The Primary classes were entertained by their teachers, Mrs. Easter and Mrs. W. M. Gollehon, with a picnic Monday afternoon.

O. H. Reeves left for Indiana one day last week.

Frankie and Bettie Rose Kerr are visiting Mrs. C. W. Warwick, of Canyon, this week. They went to Hereford Sunday afternoon to attend the C. E. exercises that night and to Canyon Monday.

The young people were entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Knox Saturday night.

It is reported late Tuesday, that Henry Drerup, east of town, was killed by a horse. Particulars have not been learned.

Rea Gilbreath and Will S. Kerr spent last week in Hereford putting up and delivering two combination threshing machines, one to Ed Smith, the other, to Mr. Walker, of Big Square.

SUMMERFIELD

The Baptist Ladies Aid home shipped their box of supplies to the Orphan at Goodnight. The box contained the following articles:

4 shirts, 3 waists for small boys, 1 suit for small boy, 5 dresses for the larger girls, 6 dresses for small girls, 2 slips, 1 middie, 5 night shirts, 3 pair pants for large boys, 8 pair pants for small boys, 6 small suits, 2 pair hose, 2 vests, 2 camisoles, 3 handkerchiefs, 31 ties, 6 collars, 1 quilt.

The Summerfield Organization is small compared with many other places and they feel justly proud of their showing in this donation work. This little verse of Walt Mason's is appropriately applied here:

"You can get to any station if there's fire beneath the boiler of ambition's strong machine, And you'll reach the place called accomplishment at a rate of speed that's grand, If, through all the difficult places, You've a good supply of sand."

Summerfield has won for herself the distinction of being a community of letters and no leaners. This being the reason people like to dwell among us and are loth to depart when once in our midst.

The Methodist Missionary Society

met last Wednesday with Mrs. Lawrence Johnson.

While a light shower wouldn't hurt, the farmers want dry weather for a while until the wheat and oats have finished ripening and are harvested.

Veina Lance has been attending the summer session of school in Hereford, driving from home to town each morning in her Ford car. Last Saturday morning a short distance past the Tyce farm she met with an accident and miraculously escaped being seriously injured. The car turned over. She was riding alone and when she regained consciousness she crawled out from the back of the car. She cannot remember having trouble with the gears and was not driving fast when the accident occurred. And the supposition is that she possibly fainted. Fortunately for her no serious injuries were sustained. The broken wind shield made an ugly gash in her foot and she was badly bruised, but no bones were broken. Aside from the wind shield being broken, no damage was noticeable on the car although they have noticed in driving it since that the gears lock at times. This might have happened with her, causing the car to turn over.

W. B. Green, accompanied by his son-in-law, Richard Dixon, of Hereford, left Saturday morning for Boulder, Colorado in the hopes of finding the climate there beneficial to his health. He had a very severe attack of Flu during the epidemic here last winter and his limbs from the hips down seem to be partially paralyzed, as a result of his illness. His many friends in this community hope to soon hear of a marked improvement in his condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris are visiting their granddaughter, Mrs. I. V. Bell.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Winkler and children: Georgie and Martin, Bernard Roberson and Kathleen Alexander were at J. W. Hanlan's Monday.

Mrs. Frank Sparks left Wednesday for a visit with her parents in Panhandle. Mrs. Sparks' father, Mr. Kirksey, is an extensive wheat grower and has just commenced to harvest his crop. Mrs. Sparks expects to remain there and assist her mother until the harvest is finished.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Roberson went to Amarillo Sunday. Mr. Roberson returned Monday night. Mrs. Roberson will leave on Wednesday with a party of friends for a overland trip and outing to Las Vegas, San Jon and other points. She expects to be gone about three weeks. While on the trip she will visit with a brother in San Jon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Cannon are entertaining relatives from St. Louis this week.

Thomas Wales, a brother of Mrs. Will Vetter, visited here a few days recently. Mr. Wales was enroute to his home near Boulder, Colo.

Mr. Harris is the possessor of one of the new model Fords with the new lighting system and starter.

Joe Huckert and family and Mrs. Stadler were dinner guests in the Woskoeki home in Hereford last Sunday.

J. B. Nolaad received quite an ugly wound on his leg when he fell off the roof of the barn last Thursday, striking on the sharp edge of an old steel windmill. He is, however, getting along nicely at this writing.

Miss Lois Alexander is visiting this week with friends in Tulla.

Harvesting is in full blast with us at present. Headers and binders may be seen in all directions.

J. W. Sparks and Mrs. Frank Sparks visited Monday afternoon at the home of J. W. Hanlan.

Jim Florey is harvesting this week and threshing his wheat as it is cut.

Mr. Florey has the distinction of being the first of our farmers to get wheat on the market of this year's growing.

Mr. Nelson, of Panhandle, stopped off for a short visit the first of the week with his father-in-law, J. W. Sparks. Mr. Nelson was on his way from San Antonio to his home in Panhandle.

New George Walsh Drama "The Beast"

George Walsh as "The Beast" will be shown Saturday night at the Star Theatre. It is a vital, forceful photoplay produced by William Fox.

The action tells the story of a Western man who, impersonated by George Walsh, in his quest for the greatest thing in the world—love. From the free life of a ranch owner, through a dance hall and gambling den where chance and a fight—give him possession of a refined, beautiful young girl, a struggle for life in an angry, rushing river, violent adventures through which comes his final reformation and the love of the girl of his dreams, the "Beast" is a character which will appeal strongly to the hearts of those who follow his career.

George Walsh never has disappointed an audience in the quality of his work, and you are sure of seeing a crackin' good show Saturday night. A two reel Mack Bennett comedy and a Matt and Jeff comedy cartoon will also be shown.

Parent-Teacher Club

Dispensing with any other program on last Friday, the Parent-Teacher Club listened to an interesting and illuminating discussion of the question of public health by Dr. W. F. Gabbert, county health officer. Dr. Gabbert has given much study to the subject of sanitation and hygiene as they affect the public health and the club regrets that every member was not present to hear him.

After the close of the meeting a committee from the club went through a large part of the business district and adjacent alleys to investigate compliance with the city ordinances. The committee was pleased to find in a few instances, an evident regard for the city laws—which are also health laws—that was truly refreshing. The store rooms at the rear of these stores were clean. Flour was packed on platforms elevated above the floor. There was no filth or decaying vegetables. Containers in which fresh fruit and vegetables were displayed were also on elevated platforms and all refuse had been burned.

This was not true in a majority of cases, however, quite the reverse being found in many instances.

The club is anxious to have a full attendance on next Friday. Meetings are held in the club room every Friday at 3:30 p. m. Every woman in town is invited. The ladies of the Mothers' Club are especially invited to be present on next Friday in order that the very best co-operative work between these two clubs may be secured.

Surprise Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. McNeerney, having sold their ranch southeast of town and contemplating soon to depart for Mexico, Missouri for a visit with Mrs. McNeerney's parents before permanently locating, were honored with a surprise dinner Sunday given by their many friends and neighbors at their home. The table was loaded with good things to eat and there were eightyone present. The guests were:

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Curtis and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wear, Miss Bertha Wear, Dr. I. N. Wear of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bridges and three nieces, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Ricketts and children, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Ricketts of Texola, Okla., Mr. Ira Ricketts and children, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Brown and grandson, Mr. and Mrs. John Decker and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Betts and children, Mr. and Charles Slaughter and children, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Randall, Forrest Randall, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Axe and children, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Smith and children, Mrs. J. H. Shepler of Fredonia, Kansas, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Henry and children, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hicks and boys, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Neely, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Hooper and son, and the McNeerneys.

All report a splendid time and expressed deep regret at losing one more family of Hereford's good people.

Mothers' Club

The Mothers' Club has been especially active since the coming of the hot days, putting into effect its summer program of sanitation and enforcement of pure food laws.

A committee from this club will make a tour of inspection through the city each week in an effort to secure a general co-operation in complying with these safeguards of the public health. Together with the Parent-Teacher Club, and Mrs. E. F. Connell, pure food inspector for the county, the club hopes to arouse public sentiment in the interest of these vital matters.

The work of inspection has already begun, the committee visiting the business section last week.

Another movement that has been inaugurated by this club is a "Better Babies" contest which will be held in a few weeks. All of the local physicians have promised their aid and a nurse will be secured in order that a "health exhibit room" may be operated during the session.

With this equipment, practical measures in the proper physical care of young children can be demonstrated. The regulations governing the contest and full information will be published later.

Mrs. Curtis Entertains

Mrs. Fred Curtis was hostess on Wednesday to the ladies of her immediate neighborhood at an informal "thimble" party.

The guests brought their needle-work and gay voices kept pace with nimble fingers as the hours sped merrily away. A number of victrola selections also gave much pleasure.

The serving of a dainty ice course marked the close of a delightful afternoon.

Picnic

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cockrell, Mr. Douglas Fox, Mrs. Grace Lucas, Mrs. W. F. West and son, Jack, and Mrs. West's father, T. A. White, of Gault, Mo., made a party that enjoyed a fish-fry on a river Thursday evening.

After fishing until a late hour, the pleasure of the evening made a camp thoroughly enjoyable, and a steaming hot supper served to the accompaniment of songs, laughter, and camp fire riles completed an ideal outing.

Entertain Amarillo Guests

A party of out-of-town young people, consisting of Misses Litta Ball and Cornelia Wolfkin and Messrs. Joe Stallings and M. J. Patton, all of Amarillo, were honor-guests at a series of informal affairs which succeeded, one the other, with pleasurable promptness on Sunday, July 27th.

The first of these was a "seeing the Hereford country" excursion which took the pleasure seekers (in automobiles over a considerable part of the country in the vicinity of town. After attending eleven o'clock services, the party was entertained by Miss Clara Dunlap at a delightful buffet luncheon, the menu consisting of fried chicken, fruit salad, potato chips, sandwiches, ice cream and cake, and iced tea.

A kodaking party furnished the diversion of the afternoon and in the evening a dainty luncheon, served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Williams and consisting of meat sandwiches, vegetable salad, cheese balls and punch, was a fitting climax to a most delightful day.

The day's pleasures were shared by Misses Douglas Wilson, Bonnie Chambers, Clara Dunlap, Vivienne Steckman, and Mary Fox, Messrs. Jobsthan Pitman, Fred Oberthier, Bobo McLean, Arthur Lawrence and Clifford Acker, and Mr. and Mrs. John Williams.

Celebrate Birthday

Sincere regard for the sterling qualities of an appreciated neighbor was the inspiration of a delightful social function, which, on Monday, June twenty-first, honored Mr. F. H. Britain, in celebration of his sixty-fourth birthday.

The pleasant affair was planned by the neighbors without the knowledge of Mr. and Mrs. Britain, the surprise to both contributing to the general enjoyment.

The spacious lawn of the Britain home with its wealth of shade and borders and beds of bright-hued blossoms furnished an ideal spot in which to spend a summer afternoon and to enjoy the delicious picnic luncheon brought by the guests. The menu consisted of sandwiches, salad, cake, ice cream and coffee.

Besides the immediate neighbors, Mr. Britain's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Mauk, and Mr. Mauk's mother, of Plainview, enjoyed the pleasant occasion.

Junior B. Y. F. U.

The Junior B. Y. F. U. is indebted to Miss Dot Owen for one of the largest and jolliest picnics of the many that have been held in Mothers' Park of late.

Miss Owen planned the delightful program of games that, under her leadership, gave so much pleasure during the afternoon.

Just before sundown a bountiful picnic supper was spread concluding the afternoon's pleasures.

Wilson—Bixby

The following account of the wedding of Cecil Wilson and Miss Ada Bixby occurred in the Sierra Free Press, a newspaper of Hot Springs, N. M. Cecil Wilson, son of Mrs. R. L. Wilson, was born and raised near Hereford and has many friends in this section who will be interested in the account of his wedding:

"About the first of the year the Editor set the example. Cupid has probably had more to do with the outcome than this example. At any rate, our Local Editor, and chief compositor had a very pretty, quiet wedding Saturday night and now the Free Press Office looks like a lonesome place without Miss Ada.

"Miss Ada Bixby has been with us for almost two years and has done good faithful work. She is well known as a young woman of good character and real worth. Her place will be hard to fill in the printing office, but we are glad we shall still be able to keep her in Hot Springs.

"We are happy also to feel that she has chosen wisely in a genuine love affair. Mr. Cecil Wilson, the bridegroom is a young man of real worth, and has many good friends in Sierra County where he is well known. He is the head mechanic with the Hot Springs Motor Company, and is steady and efficient.

"The impression was abroad that this young couple were to be married about the 15th, and so in order to surprise their friends they slipped away Saturday night and as previously arranged with Pastor Gray, were married at 9 o'clock at his residence.

"No one except Miss Ada's mother and the little company at the parsonage knew of the happy event until Sunday morning.

"Pastor Gray and wife most heartily join in all best wishes for this estimable couple."

GRANARIES SOLUTION OF CARE FAMINE

being distributed to where they are most needed.

"Another feature adds seriously to the shortage," said Mr. Parker. "Many thousand cars are out of service undergoing repairs. Every repair track is crowded with bad order cars. Only about ten per cent of the box car on hand out here are fit for loading grain. The Santa Fe has only a small per cent of its box cars at home. Every day a car remains on the repair track adds to the car shortage."

The wheat crop cannot all be moved at harvest time and Mr. Parker considers the suggestions to provide farm storage or shocking grain practical. The Santa Fe has no box cars stored this year to move the crops when ready for market, because cars are not available.

New equipment has been ordered and Mr. Parker states that additional orders will be placed. In the mean time it is necessary to make the best possible use of cars at hand by loading heavy and unloading cars promptly.

C. C. Dana, General Freight Agent of the Santa Fe, says:

"The Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce has called the attention of the farmers to the difficulties encountered during the past season in marketing grain due to the serious shortage of equipment suitable for grain loading and suggested that to prevent a recurrence of losses this season the farmers construct granaries or secure storage bins to hold all or a portion of their crops."

"In normal times and under the most favorable conditions, it is and always will be a physical impossibility to move all the grain direct from the threshers through the elevators to the domestic points of final destination or the ports for export. There are not enough elevators to hold all the grain, or cars and ships to transport it as it comes from the harvest fields. This is a fact which all must face and the Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce has shown great wisdom in calling the matter to the attention of the farmers.

"Owing to the practical impossibility of securing equipment during the war and since then to the financial difficulties surrounding the railroads, only about enough car have been built to replace those retired from service. The result is according to the 'Railway Age' that the railroads of the country are short approximately 262,000 freight cars of all kinds at the present time and should during this and the next two years construct 712,400 freight cars to care for normal retirements, take care of increases in traffic and provide an adequate surplus.

"In the meantime we must all do what we can to keep the avenues of transportation open and the wheels of commerce moving. The railroads are anxious to do their part. The farmers can assist by providing themselves with storage and holding back a portion at least of their crops. Your personal assistance, therefore, is desired to the end that the matter may be brought to the attention of your farmers, bankers, grain dealers, newspapers, merchants, etc., and the active cooperation of all secured."

MRS. PARKER GOES TO FAMILY REUNION HELD AT TEMPLE

Mrs. G. A. F. Parker returned to Hereford last week after attending a big family reunion in Temple, Texas, the first time all her family have been together in seventeen years. The reunion was held at the home of Mrs. W. E. Wilson, Mrs. Parker's sister, on June 19 and 20. Among others present were Mrs. W. L. Wilson, of Austin, mother of Mrs. Parker, Mrs. C. D. Rice of Austin, a sister, and Frank Wilson of Los Angeles, Calif., who was enroute to New York and stopped off for the meeting.

Womack—Davis

Many people of Hereford were surprised when they received word that J. C. McDermitt and wife, of Cross Plains, had issued announcements of the marriage of their daughter, Mrs. Kate M. Davis, to Richard Homer Womack, of Hereford, on June 29.

Mrs. Womack will be remembered as being trimmer for several years at the Vogele Millinery.

CLEMENCEAU STORY A SCREEN TRIUMPH

Georges Clemenceau, "The Tiger of France," wrote "The Strongest," which will be presented at the Star next Wednesday and Thursday, July 7 and 8, and he has set a new standard for screen authors to follow. As in everything he undertakes, the great Frenchman here seems to be a leader.

The characters in the beautiful and convincing story—a real love-story—are human; the situations in which they find themselves, and the conclusion, the climax, are not forced. To the author there is some good in everyone and some bad in everyone. The hero is not a perfect man who can do no wrong, the villain is not always incapable of right. The heroine, charmingly portrayed by Renee Adoree, a beautiful French actress, makes mistakes.

Much of the great strength of the production undoubtedly lies in the finished performances given by the cast of international favorites William Fox has given to R. A. Walsh, the director. Carlo Litten—the Sir Henry Irving of Belgium—they call him in Europe—gives a powerful performance of the Marquis, and Harrison Hunter, who makes his screen debut, after thirty years of stage successes, as the steel king of France causes one to wonder why this sterling artist ever should leave the silent drama. The Gauthier de Trignys, Jean and his wife, as the villain and his companion in intrigue, each makes a marked hit: Florence Malone, who appears in the prologue only; J. A. Marcus and the rest of the cast do excellent work.

J. W. Malone

J. W. Malone, aged 58, died last Thursday night, June 24, and was buried Sunday afternoon at 3:00 p. m. Funeral services were conducted by the local Masonic Lodge, assisted by the Rev. J. E. McClurkin.

Mr. Malone had been a resident of Hereford for about two years, coming here from Clovis, although his former home had been at Decatur, Texas, where he was the owner of the Malone Cotton Gin Co. He owned a ranch northwest of Hereford.

A brother, J. Malone, of Decatur, a sister, Mrs. Taylor, of Clovis, and an old friend, M. P. Thurmond, of Decatur, were here for the last rites.

CLOVIS CELEBRATION TO BE HELD THERE ON JULY 3

CLOVIS, June 22.—Independence Day will be fittingly commemorated here on July 3, 1920, according to an announcement given out by the Clovis Chamber of Commerce today. Plans have already been completed for one of the most pleasing celebrations ever held in this city.

Features of the program so far arranged by the Chamber of Commerce include baseball games between rural team of the county, field sports for the participation of school children of both city and county; a parade in which old soldiers and veterans of the world war will feature, along with merchants displays and a clown section, and a baseball game between the Clovis Elks team and Hereford, Texas.

There will be one continuous round of music by Johnson's Band, one of the strongest musical organizations of New Mexico. An effort is being made to bring several carnival concessions here for that day. Negotiations are also under way for a passenger carrying airplane as an added attraction for those who like to join the birds.

Everything will be wide open in Clovis that day, and the latch string will be out to everyone, according to the invitation being extended by the Chamber of Commerce to all the surrounding country.

FORT SUMNER MAN LIKES OUR CATTLE AND LOOKS AT MORE

Nick Zweifel, of Fort Sumner, N. M., a breeder of registered Hereford cattle, was in Hereford last week, visiting around among the local cattlemen. Mr. Zweifel purchased some registered stock from Walter Lupton about three years ago and was so well pleased with his deal that he is contemplating the purchase of additional good blood from this section.

CHURCH NOTES

First Christian Church
Our Sunday services will be such that will appeal to you. Bible School at 9:45 and preaching by the Pastor at 11 a. m.

In the evening at 8 o'clock Mr. Asbell will give a sermon-lecture: "New America," and will illustrate it with pictures, showing the development of our Land from 1776 to 1921. The lecture will be given at the Presbyterian church. Sunday afternoon at 2:30 is the time for the regular Board Meeting.

Let every member be present and we will perfect the final arrangements for our Revival. W. C. Cole is a man who has had phenomenal success, both as an evangelist and a pastor. He is a man that will get next to you. He is entirely different from Dr. Chilton or Dr. Frank, our former Evangelists. He is in a class by himself and it's a good class too. We extend a cordial invitation to the musical people of our town to be present and give us a lift in the choir.

Baptist Church

Last Sunday was a good day for us. The Sunday School reached 175 present, but there should be more and we should all feel that way about it. Let's strive to double our attendance. Two new members were added at the eleven o'clock service. Next Sunday being the time to observe the Lord's Supper, let all the membership be present. We were delighted to have the large crowd of young men with us Sunday night, and remember, you will be welcome at all our services.

Regular services next Sunday. Come to Sunday School at 9:45 and stay for preaching at 11 a. m. Sunbeams and Junior B. Y. P. U. at 3 p. m. Senior B. Y. P. U. at 7 p. m. and preaching again at 8 p. m. "Come, come every one."

J. E. McClurkin, Pastor.

Presbyterian Church

Did you attend the Pre-communion Service at the Presbyterian church last night? Well, if you did or didn't, maybe you want to know the subjects discussed, Wednesday, 8 p. m., Evolutions of the Bible; Thursday, 8 p. m., Inspiration; Friday, 8 p. m., The Bible in the Head, Heart and Hand.

Sunday School and Christian Endeavor Societies will be held as usual. At the eleven o'clock hour we will observe the Lord's Supper. We urge all members to be present. We invite the Public and do our best to extend a cordial welcome to all who attend.

J. R. Sharp, Pastor.

Methodist Church

We had a good day last Sunday—fine crowd at the morning hour, but a small crowd in the evening. The short speech by one of the young ladies at the opening of the morning service was fine. Come out next Sunday morning and hear another good one. Next Sunday will be our regular Communion day. Let all of our people come out.

At the opening of the morning service would like to administer baptism to any babies if desired.

Let us have a great day.

PARMER COUNTY

BOVINA

H. E. King and family spent the week-end with relatives at Portales. Harvesting is getting to be the order of the day. A fair yield is promised. From the patronage, it seems that the people appreciate the establishment conducted by Messrs. McGee and Wells. The later is a first-class barber and waits on the public in that capacity on Saturdays, and Mr. McGee furnishes ice, cold drinks, cigars, fresh bread, etc. Joe Wilson is "soda dispenser."

Nelson Pierce lost a good horse Thursday night of last week, the cause of its death being unknown.

Mrs. Jake McLean is enjoying a visit from her little sister, of near Hereford.

The work on the Santa Fe bunkhouse is progressing nicely.

The young people enjoyed a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McDonald Thursday night.

Norman Wilson and family and J. S. Potts took in the big Masonic meeting and feast at Farwell Thursday night of last week. They report a fine time.

The writer of these notes will have gone to Central Texas before this is in print, to assist in revival work for two or three weeks. In his absence his pulpit will be filled by different ministers and laymen. In the meantime the good readers will be patient until the "editor" returns.

Miss Julia Martin has been spending a few days visit here with friends and relatives.

BOVINA

(Delayed from last week.)

People are busy getting ready for wheat harvest, which will begin within a very short time.

The many friends of Hes Martin will be glad to learn that he is again at home from the hospital at Clovis, and is steadily improving.

Mrs. Almquist is here from Missouri, on a visit to Mrs. F. W. Jersig and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Berggren have returned from a stay at Mineral Wells.

Mrs. Dean, of Central Texas, is here for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Tom Hastings.

There was no preaching at Bovina last Sunday, but Sunday School and Epworth League were well attended, especially the latter, about fifty young people being present Sunday night.

Quite a hail storm, accompanied by a high wind, visited the Parmerton section Saturday, destroying quite an acreage of wheat, blowing down windmills, telegraph poles, etc.

The Santa Fe railroad is building a six-room concrete bunk-house for the section hands here. It will be modern in all its equipment, such rooms containing lavatories, etc.

CLEMENCEAU, WOUNDED, WORKED ON FOX FILM

When Georges Clemenceau, the brilliant French statesman, was recovering from the bullet wound of an assassin who paid the death penalty for his murderous attack on the aged "Tiger of France," the latter continued to arrange the story of "The Strongest," his only photodrama, which William Fox will present at the Star Theatre Wednesday and Thursday, July 7 and 8.

Passing off the attempt on his life as a mere trifle, Clemenceau disregarded the advice of his physicians, who prescribed absolute quiet for their patient, by spending every day and night completing "The Strongest," while at the same time he was working assiduously on the peace treaty in an effort to lift France from the tragic mire of the world war.

Previous to accepting William Fox's offer to screen his master story, Clemenceau had been besieged with offers to make a speaking production of "The Strongest" for the stage as well as to make of it a cinema drama. His answer, however, was always: "Wait." Clemenceau listened with interest to Mr. Fox's offer, for a cinema enthusiast he was cognizant of the popularity of Fox entertainers in France, England, Spain and South America, as well as the United States.

The publication of "The Strongest" as a novel, in English as well as in French, made a deep impression on the critics, and everywhere the book was hailed as a masterpiece. When "The Strongest" is shown on the screen it will give a new insight into the character of "The Tiger of France," not alone because of its tremendous power, but because of the momentous events that surrounded its preparation.

SUMMER ENCAMPMENT BAPTIST ASSEMBLY, TEAGUE, JULY

The second annual summer encampment of the Texas Baptist Assembly, July 7 to 15, is to be even larger than the first. Many reservations have been made ahead. A tent city, similar to the tent cities on the California coast last year is being laid out in the Municipal Park at Teague, Texas. J. Wedd Davis, President of the Commercial Club, working with the Assembly Grounds Committee under the leadership of L. B. Jenkins of Forney, Texas, announced that the Cafeteria, Athletic Field, Lecture Auditorium and Tent Accommodations are believed to be now enlarged sufficient to guarantee convenience to all. One of the feature speakers of the Texas Baptist Assembly at Teague this year is S. M. Brown, D. D. of Kansas City, Missouri. Dr. Brown for years has been Editor in Chief of the "Word and Way," one of the oldest and strongest Baptist papers in the world. His antiqua, Lecture and Pulpit ability recognized internationally. The first half of each day is divided into study periods. The afternoons are filled with items of recreation and athletics, such as Tennis, Volley ball, Kicking, etc. All young men and women are asked to bring every Kodak and piece of athletic equipment possible. A song address and a musical program which evening closes each day's full program.

Systematic courses in Sunday School, Y. P. U. Work and other church activities cover the study periods. In the evenings the hundreds present are divided for this purpose in classes or all congregations, several running at the same time. Twelve prominent preachers will conduct these courses. Diplomas from the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention are to be awarded to all who successfully pass the examinations on the last day of the Assembly. Rev. B. O. Arell, of Dallas, is Dean of the Assembly in charge of the courses and tutorage.

Rev. W. B. Hagby, from Brazil, a foreign Missionary and a Texan, is another of the feature speakers. Dr. Hagby, with his grown daughter, who was born in Brazil, is now touring the South before returning to South America. He will arrive in Teague, Texas, in time for the formal opening of the assembly July 7.

Singer Virgil O. Stamps, of Timpson, Texas, has charge of organizing the tire musical program. Miss Alma Emerson of Jacksonville, Texas, is the chief Pianist. "Music again this year being made a great feature of the program," says the State President, C. Hayley, of Dallas.

Rev. H. E. Antick, the State Field Secretary of B. Y. P. U. and Sunday School Work under the Board of Texas Baptist Missionary Association, has been designated as the Railroad Certificate Agent at the Assembly. He calls on all who do not come in automobiles purchase their tickets one-way to Teague on July 5th, 6th or 7th. He asks that the purchasers be sure to secure the necessary certificate from the ticket Agent to be O. K'd at Teague by him in order to secure the reduced rate on the return. All who come to the Texas Baptist Assembly, whether by rail or automobile, are to bring their own bedding. It is optional whether those who come bring their own cooking utensils. Anyone, regardless whether Baptists or not, will be welcome to participate with Baptists in all the benefits the same as last year.

GREAT FOX PHOTOPLAY MADE BY CLEMENCEAU

"The Strongest," the powerful William Fox production to be shown at the Star Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday, July 7-8, is of peculiarly imposing scope—not only in the elemental theme and composition, but in the international character of the execution. Here is a screen masterpiece built on a vital drama from the pen of the "Tiger of France."

The picture is framed in a French setting, and is based on a story born in the mind of Georges Clemenceau, a colossus of international politics. It is produced by the largest of motion picture companies, Fox Film Corporation, and under the direction of Raoul A. Walsh, who holds a leading place among directors.

The cast, too, is international in its origin, each member being drawn with a view to exceptional fitness for the picture, regardless of national boundary lines. Thus we have the exquisite favorite for the Parisian footlights, Renee Adoree and the dignified tragedienne, Carlo Lilien, of Belgium, supported by famous stars of the United States and France.

The result is a play that sounds the very essential notes of life—that boundless, fundamental life that is common to all nations and all races—love and struggle for power.

The only rational treatment for common sheep scab consists in using some external application which will kill the parasites. Feeding sulphur and salt and various other preparations to sheep will not destroy the parasites and consequently will not effect a cure.

Dedication of Memorial Park of United Daughters of Confederacy

Delivered by Miss Edith Rayzor, Sunday, June 28, 1920.

Sons and daughters of America, rudy with the bloom of youth, soldiers and sailors, worthy of the uniform you wear, fathers and mothers, in the bright noontide of life's summer, veterans of the old south, in life's declining glory:

Since time began, when man has distinguished himself through deed of valor or bravery; when he has won fame and honor, his race has builded for him monuments of poetry, prose and marble. Ever the hero has been exalted to preserve the memory of his life and deed, structures have been erected; capable of withstanding the retreating power of time. These monuments have changed from the crude to the perfect; from the ancient to the modern; from the ornamental to the useful.

One of the first stories we recall from childhood is that of David. We marvel at how the resolute young shepherd went forth to meet Goliath, the giant, armed only with the sling and small stone. David slew the giant and became one of the Bible heroes.

In Florence, Italy, is a beautiful statue of David, by one of the world's renowned sculptors, the famous Michelangelo, a monument to the superb courage and bravery displayed by the young shepherd lad. Ancient Greek artists spent their entire lives erecting temples, shrines and statues to the heroes of their myths. Many of these monuments are standing today as a tribute to Greek mythology. In Rome we find marble likenesses of Julius Caesar, Cicero, Brutus, Pompey, and Marc Anthony, commemorating the lives of these great statesmen and the influence they brought to bear upon civilization.

Throughout the world is told in sculpture, art and literature, in palace and hovel the story of a peasant girl, who, mounted on a milk white bull, led an army to victory and became the savior of France. Only a poor girl, yet today as a monument to her matchless courage, all the world honors the courage of Joan of Arc.

Did you ever pause to think that this beautiful country of yours, your America, was a monument to its discoverer?

In Boston has been erected a public drinking fountain, worthy of note. It represents a Norse Viking, standing on the prow of an ancient boat, gazing with rapt expression upon the land he is nearing, a monument to that first to sail upon unknown seas in search of unexplored lands, a monument to Lief Ericson, history's first discoverer.

After our country comes Liberty. Just outside of New York Harbor stands an imposing figure. The Goddess of Liberty holds aloft her flaming torch, championing that which is most dear to every true American heart, Liberty!

And passing on, we find rising out of the Capitol city of Washington, a high shaft, five hundred and fifty-five feet from its base. To one of the bulwarks of America, the first president of the United States, to George Washington, is erected this imposing monument. "First in peace, first in war and first in the hearts of his countrymen," it is fitting that to his memory the world's greatest cenotaph is given.

Dear to every heart is the melody, "Home, Sweet Home." Who has not felt the thrill of longing its simple words have stirred? Who has not been drawn a little closer to that hallowed spot called "home" by its sentiments? Lo, to its author, John Howard Payne, is erected in Oak Hill Cemetery, in Washington, D. C., an interesting piece of statuary, a tablet bearing the bust likeness of Mr. Payne, with the simple inscription, "Home Sweet Home."

Honoring the memory of Abraham Lincoln, that lonely man so sorely tried by a torn nation, a war of sections, a turmoil of parties, has lately been erected a national memorial, a beautiful piece of art carved from the purest marble, stands silent and lone as did President Lincoln. This monument is placed at the extreme end of Potomac Park, on the Potomac River, in direct line with the Capitol and Washington Monument. This monument is destined to become one of the most frequently visited public buildings in the United States.

Down here in Texas, in San Antonio, stands a monument to Texas heroes and Texas civilization, an old building, blood stained and battle scarred, around which still lingers the memory of Davie Crockett, Travis and Bowie. It is with a feeling akin to reverence that we speak of the Alamo.

Throughout the south are monuments to the confederacy and the southern soldier. But the passing of the long gray column has left a mightier monument than could white shafts of marble or tablets of bronze. It has left a greater monument than history or literature; a grander tribute than blood stained battle fields.

"The old Regiment is passing, Grim old warriors, bent and grey, Monuments they leave behind them In the haki of today."

When that vast herd of German cattle stampeded Europe, when they exhausted her resources, butchered her men and trampled her women, all eyes turned to the stalwart sons of America. Therein lay the salvation of the world. Across the ocean flashed the word which thrilled America's blood, "Come." Nobly her sons responded. Fearlessly they went, lady scarce more than children, young men, the strength of our nation, mature men, all answered that call. They laid down the school book and pig skin, they dropped the plow share and branding iron, closed the ledger and office. Men from every walk of life, thousands upon thousands, sailed across the sea. Bravely and courageously they faced German atrocities. They experienced the most barbarous warfare ever waged upon civilized manhood. They met it unflinchingly, and they conquered!

What a glorious victory was the winning of the World War! But of those bright promising youths we sent to France, not all returned. War exacts her toll from the arms of men, and we too, paid a price. Five brave lads, who went forth from our midst, went west with the din and glory of battle. Bravely and smilingly they answered the call of war, and made life's noblest sacrifice; they died for their country.

It is a nation wide movement to erect living monuments to our soldier boys there. Long highways are being planted with trees, park are being beautified and bridges and buildings erected to their memory.

Friends, for the dedication of this, the U. D. C. Memorial Park, we have gathered here this afternoon. This Park is to be a living monument to the Deaf Smith county war heroes, keeping fresh in our memory their names and lives. May this little spot become dear to you, just as those boys have been dear to you. May each and every one of you feel a personal interest in this park and its improvement.

To the war heroes, to those lads who paid the supreme price, giving their lives for their country, Joe Owen, Wilbur Renfro, John Gilliland, Clei Cotchel and James Hennington, we dedicate this U. D. C. Memorial Park as a monument to their memory and a tribute to their bravery.

DOROTHY DALTON

THE IDEAL MAN AND THE VAMPIRE

The name of Dorothy Dalton's latest Paramount picture is "The Home Breaker" which will be presented at the Star Theatre next Monday night, July 5th.

But Miss Dalton isn't the homebreaker. Gracious no! She breaks up a couple of prospective homes, however.

There was the artistic vampire who thought she had Dorothy's sweetheart successfully stolen. She vamped him while Dorothy, who plays a traveling saleswoman, was out on the road. When Dorothy got through with the would-be Cleopatra, said vampire wasn't any more dangerous than Bevo. There is also a he-vamp in the picture, who has an artistic soul, and he is looking for a mate for same. But he don't find said mate, but something he wasn't looking for.

It's an awfully good picture and you'll like it. "The Adventures of Ruth" and Pathe Review will also be shown Monday at the Star.

"A Cool, Tall One" these sultry days will make you forget your trials and tribulations.
