Hereford Family Troubled in Iraq

The Hereford family is in the line of the trouble in Iraq. Through relatives and friends the George Heard family is not heard from them some time last week, but doubt any serious trouble has come to the family because of Heard's position and location.

Heard is employed by the Daura Refinery, a government installation which produces kerosene.

The family lives in a government housing district just outside Baghdad, center of the oil area.

Because Heard is a petroleum engineer, and the plant was designed and has been operated by American engineers, friends and relatives here feel no doubt that the Hereford family will come to the Hereford and his family.

The pro-West government of Iraq was reported overthrown Tuesday and immediately a request from Lebanon was answered and 3,600 U. S. Marines landed on its shores.

Heard and his family moved to Iraq 14 months ago. Several of their letters about traveling and living conditions have been published in The Brand.

In Baghdad are Mr. and Mrs. Heard, and their three daughters, Martha, Jane, 12, and Leslie, 4. George, the son, is at Texas Tech in Lubbock, where he is a freshman majoring in chemical engineering.

Martha, a graduate of Hereford High School and Texas Tech, joined her family in Iraq in February of this year. She has been employed by the Economic Corporation Administration of the U. S. government in that country and living with her family.

Primary concession for the fuel produced by Daura Refinery has been England.

A LETTER last week from Heard to Bruce Miller, local attorney, told of King Faisal's visit of the plant and the celebration held in his honor.

Heard's son said in a telephone conversation Tuesday that he had not heard from his family since last week, but appeared not to be disturbed over their welfare.

The Heards lived for a number of years on the Dimmitt Highway about a mile south of Hereford. Heard's father is Dr. G. W. Heard, 611 Main.

4-H Club Girls Sell Light Bulbs

"Light the 4-H way and buy bulbs," will be the slogan of the 4-H Girls when they sell light bulbs on July 22. The girls are selling light bulbs to replenish the Leaders' Council treasury, which is used to help send delegates to district and state meetings, besides caring for expenses of demonstrations and training programs.

There are 11 clubs in Deaf Smith County with an enrollment of 120 members.

Each package of bulbs will contain three 60-Watt bulbs, three 75-Watt bulbs, three 100-Watt bulbs and a free beauty bulb. The girls met Tuesday to package the bulbs and the packages will be distributed to each club.

Crash Kills Friona Man Walcott School Taxes Raised

One Friona man was killed and another seriously injured when an airplane in which they were flying crashed in a pasture about 13 miles northwest of Friona shortly before 8 a. m. yesterday.

Pronounced dead upon arrival at the Friona Community Hospital was Tiny Magness, 53, a real estate and investment businessman.

The plane's other passenger, Artie Fallwell, also a real estate man and farmer, received a severe scalp laceration and compound fracture on the left leg. He was not considered in critical condition by hospital authorities at noon yesterday.

Magness is a stock holder in the Hi-Plains Savings and Loan Assn. here. Mrs. Fallwell is the dental office receptionist at the Farwell hospital.

FISH IN COLORADO

Cliff Estes, his son, Clifford, and grandsons, Kenny and Scott, left Wednesday for Gunnison, Colo., where they will spend a week trout fishing.

Walcott School District taxes were approved to be raised to the maximum $1.50 from $1.35 by Deaf Smith County commissioners during a regular meeting in the court house Monday. The request was made by members of the Walcott school board.

In other business the court increased payment for prisoners' board from $1.25 to $1.50 per day; accepted a low bid by Jack Messer to pave around the Bull Barn; formerly signed a contract with the city for county fire protection; heard a request to increase the county hospital fund by one cent per tax dollar; heard a request to support a new boys detention home at Goodnight; and met with members of the Chamber of Commerce highway committee.

Sheriff Charles Skelton made the request that the per-day expense of feeding county prisoners in jail be raised from $1.25 to $1.50, due to the rising cost of food prices.

Skelton explained that almost every town in the area

Smith Looks to Tourny Opener

Manager Joe Smith revealed yesterday that his probable starting pitcher against Canyon in Pampa Tuesday would be his own Yankee stopper, Danny Cates.

It was Cates who started most of the Yankee tilts this year and stunned his opponents with his "junk" pitching. The right-hander was not one of the first picked on the all-star team, however, because one manager said, "I still can't see why they didn't hit him."

"We also have Balze, McNelly and Edwards to back him up. And this Duncan kid looks like he might come through," Smith said.

Ronnie Duncan, the Giants' .400 hitting shortstop didn't see much action as a pitcher during the campaign, but yesterday he looked like a veteran hurler. Smith had him throwing until late Tuesday afternoon and was very impressed with the boy's control and fast ball.

"I believe he is going to help us a lot. I only wish he had pitched more this year," said Smith.

Bad luck has hit the club early in the season of Van Smith, Little League's top hitter this year. Smith was expected to be one of the aces on the mound staff, but is now a question mark with the bad arm. He is sure to see action at shortstop, because the team needs his big bat.

On the whole the manager is very impressed with the team. "I think we'll do all right. We haven't got much, but we'll give them all we got."

pays more than Deaf Smith, giving Canyon, Farwell and Dimmitt as examples.

"One merchant told me groceries have increased 30 per cent in cost over the past year or so," Skelton stated. He also said he was feeding approximately 750 prisoners each month.

The request was granted. Skelton also told the court his department was, in the future, going to assist both the Highway Patrol and City Police Dept. in patrolling the increased summer traffic on streets and highways.

"Looks like we are going to have to get some ticket books printed up so we can help the other departments," he said. "But we won't do it exclusively by any means, just help when we can."

Jack Messer's bid of 55 cents per yard for a turn-key job of paving the area around the Bull Barn was accepted. The only other bid was from Parker Bros.

Messer bid 30 cents per yard if all preparatory work were done by the county and all he would have to do was paving. The county found that it could not afford the purchasing of caliche, hauling, and all machine work for the price offered.

Work was begun on the job Tuesday morning, and is expected to be completed by August.

Harvest In Full Swing For Potatoes, Onions

Potato and onion harvest has gotten underway in Deaf Smith county, with all but two processing sheds in operation for either one or the other crop the early part of this week.

OF 62 CARLOADS of potatoes shipped Tuesday from the entire district, which includes such points as Muleshoe and Plainview, 31 of the loads were from Hereford.

An accurate count of onions being shipped from the county was not available at presstime, however it was believed that as many or more carloads were shipped as were potatoes.

According to Austin Anson, executive vice president and general manager of the Texas Citrus and Vegetable Growers and Shippers who is working in Hereford as a central point for information to the produce harvesting district, market competition from Idaho should be relaxed within the next 10 days.

Idaho is the only other district in the nation presently harvesting potatoes. Anson said the Idaho people have been hurting the market by flooding prices as low as $1 less than local prices.

One source of information said yesterday the market price for local products was between $2.75 and $3, about 25 cents less than the previous week.

Prices are expected to climb and stabilize within the next week.

Tuesday evening's showers, authorities say, failed to slow harvest in the area more than an hour or so. Several growers have expressed concern about weather conditions.

Carrots, on a very small scale, have been dug in the county, but only the very early ones. Heavy digging is not expected until sometime around the first 10 days of August.

One seed sales house reported Tuesday that a grower had purchased his sixth supply Monday and would attempt another planting. All earlier crops had either been washed out by heavy rains or beaten by hail.

ANSON AGAIN warned growers not to harvest potatoes too early and let them fully mature. "I think the grower who makes haste slowly now and guards (Continued On Page 2)

Work began recently to move Hereford Rider Club headquarters and arena from its present location to directly south of Bull Barn. The area will be the east fence of the League park, and cover approximately six acres. The recently won third place Plainview and Morton Earth Annual Rodeo.

Several people became alarmed seeing the reflection of a blaze on the overhangs about 11 p. m. Tuesday the fire was burning stubble on the F. H. King land, two north on Highway 51.

County tax equalization will meet with the publishers of the commissioners court on the second floor of the court house, July 28, starting at 10 a. m.

Several courts have very little prospect for harvest season. Jay Boston this week has served the past two on federal court jury in Illinois and appears to be no less unhappy. Boston farms of Summerfield.

Members of the Hereford Trust School board of trustees met Tuesday.

Escaped Trustee Is Returned

"I DIDN'T THINK I cared if I left town or not," was a former county trustee's explanation of why he ran away while doing yard work June 6.

Lionie Thomas Andrews, 36, of Spur, is back in Deaf Smith County Jail after being arrested for misdemeanor drunk Saturday in Dalhart. Deputy Sheriff L. R. Cherrymores returned him to Hereford Monday.

Andrews had been let out of the jail last month with two other prisoners to do some spading in the jail yard. He was serving time in lieu of a $69.50 fine for misdemeanor drunk and the work was cutting down on his time.

"His days as a trusy are over here," Cherrymores said.

Auto Insurance Rates Up Aug. 1

ALL INSURANCE rates connected with automobiles will be raised as of Aug. 1, if written by any of the stock companies in the state and many of the state mutual companies, according to information sent out July 10 to agencies here in Hereford from the Texas Automobile Insurance Service Office.

The new rates, set by the State Board of Insurance, have been broken down for the individual counties, rather than dividing the state into four territories as in the past. Records of claims and accidents were used to determine the new rates.

All stock insurance companies in the state are effected by the new rate change. The changes are optional with mutual insurance agencies.

All Deaf Smith, Farmer and Castro county rates are the same. Randall rates, in some cases, are the same as here but differ in many instances.

The rate increase in all four counties for full comprehensive coverage will be 33.2 per cent.

Collision premiums for Deaf Smith, Farmer and Castro will be up 18 per cent for $50 deductible and 10.9 per cent for $100. Randall was raised only .9 per cent for $50 deductible and .02 per cent for $100.

Commercial automobile rates covering fire were raised 9.3 per cent over the entire state. Collision on trucks was upped .7 per cent in the three counties, but 10.9 per cent in Randall.

STATE AVERAGE increase for passenger car liability rates will be 18.6 per cent for bodily injury and 22.5 for property damage. Local rate increases are 16 per cent for bodily and 23.1 property. Randall increases are 13.3 and 14 per cent, respectively.

Liability rate increases for passenger cars operated by males under 25 years of age in the local three counties will be 22.6 per cent for bodily injuries and 11.8 for property damages. Randall rates will be increased 30.3 per cent for bodily and 19.8 for property damages.

State average covering under 25 years of age operators in passenger cars will be 22.3 per cent bodily injury and 14.9 property.

Medical payment rates were increased 23 per cent.

To give a more local and simpler example, take the case of a Hereford family automobile — say a 4-door, 1958 Chevrolet sedan in the middle-price field, used for pleasure and not business. Also, not to be driven by a male under 25 years of age.

Liability insurance covering bodily injury, $5,000 and $10,000, was $16 and will be $19; $5,000 property damage was $13 and will be $16; $2,000 medical coverage was $11 and will be $12; comprehensive was $37 and will be $49; $50 deductible was $4 and will be $4.

The total price was $131, but increased 23 per cent.

Lindsay Well To Be Closed

The contract depth of 8800 feet at the F. H. Lindsay No. 1 well was reached this week and drilling operations have stopped. The hole will be plugged and abandoned, according to J. H. Sears.

A test was run Tuesday at 8600 feet, where there was a show of saltwater, Sears said.

Last week sprinkles of granite wash were penetrated. A depth of 8770 feet had been reached Friday evening, and drilling was mainly in limestone and shale formations. Geologists had said they hoped to run into something favorable in some of the granite wash sections.

The Lindsay rig, owned by Royalty of America, Inc., is located on Gregg County School land, labor no. 18.

In other oil activity, drilling Monday evening at the Humble oil and Refining Co. well was at 3261 feet. Several circulation tests have been run, according to Joe Reinauer.

The Humble well is located on the Reinauer Bros. property, 35 miles west of Hereford near the New Mexico state line. Reinauer said tests are being run on every formation. He said drilling is mainly in limestone and clay, and that formations are running as expected.

... TELL THE STORY—A random coverage of trucks parked in and around Hereford this week disclosed the fact that all roads lead not only to Rome, but to Hereford.

It also is obvious that all market eyes are on Hereford, for these trucks were here to ship potatoes and onions to their home states and cities. These trucks, however, only took a portion of the produce sent out of the county, as much of the market supply is shipped by railway. Note the city and state names on the signs found on door and trailer-sides. (Staff Photo)

Industrious Minds, Hands Work at Day Center

The Hereford Brand
Hereford, Texas, Thursday, July 17, 1958 Section Two

Miss Vasquez On Day Center Staff

Children of migrant laborers have very little chance to get adequate education," says Eunice Vasquez, a missionary at the Day Center nursery labor camp. "They have grown up without roots and education."

Miss Vasquez, who completed high school at Nuevo Leon, Mexico, has been working for the Texas Council of Churches of Migrant Ministry for the past three summers. During that time, she has completed a special one-year course in English at Holding Institute and studied accounting at Nixon and Clay Commercial Business College in Austin.

She has always wanted to do missionary work, she says. "My mother didn't want me to become a missionary, but my father has encouraged me all along," she said. Her father is a minister of a Methodist Church just across the border from Eagle Pass.

Miss Vasquez is 23 years old, and since she began working for the Texas Migrant Ministry, she has worked at El Campo, Port Lavaca, Corpus Christi, Princeton and Sinton. She has already been offered a full-time job in missionary work by the Texas Council of Churches, but this fall she plans to go to the missionary school of Mexico City University.

Program Unites

In an effort to further educate and bring migrant children closer to God, the local United Council of Churches of Hereford is now sponsoring a Day Center program at the Labor Camp.

This is the fourth year that such a program has been held at the camp. It is financially supported locally by social, civic and study clubs and individuals, and by the Texas United Council.

Classes in education, hand craft and personal care for children of all ages are held five days a week. Included in the program is a two week period of classes for migrant wives. In the classes, the wives are instructed in sewing, cooking, diet, and other household matters.

The six-week annual program has been operating for the past two weeks. Classes have varied in number because of incoming and outgoing migrant families.

There are only two paid members of the staff at the Day Center. They are the Rev. Aureo Bispo dos Santos, exchange student from Brazil, and Miss Eunice Vasquez, missionary from Mexico. Both are planning to continue their studies in religion next fall.

God, Education

Miss Vasquez was assigned to the Day Center by the Texas Migrant Ministry. The Texas Migrant Ministry serves 19 Texas towns and cities each year with missionaries.

Donations toward the Day Center project last year amounted to $1467. The Texas United Council donated $240 of the total. The rest was donated locally. Figures on this year's donations are not available as all contributions have not been made.

The United Council of Churches of Hereford is made of five churches—First Methodist, Wesley Methodist, Presbyterian, St. Thomas Episcopal and First Christian. Each church supplies volunteer workers at the Day Center during its appointed week.

The Day Center committee includes A. Petersen, chairman, Bill Brady, vice-chairman, Mrs. Alton Fraser, publicity chairman, Mrs. Carl Hoff and Mrs. W. N. Rieger, refreshment chairman.

Day Center Work Is Part Of Studies

A native of the state of Bahia, Brazil, the Rev. Aureo Bispo dos Santos recently came to the Labor Camp Day Center after spending a month at the Brazos Presbyterian Camp in Livingston as counselor for young people.

The 28-years-old exchange student from Brazil was ordained as minister of the Presbyterian Church in Brazil in 1957.

A graduate of Colegio 2 de Julho high school and college and of Seminario Presbiteriano do Norte in Brazil, the Rev. Santos hopes to complete his Th. M. degree at San Francisco Theological Seminary next year.

He has studied in the Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary for one year. As a part of his field work, he is working as a member of the staff of the Day Center. At the present time, he is living in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Fraser, 301 Union.

He plans to return to Brazil next year, where he will serve as a minister in the Brazil Presbyterian Church. Born in Mundo Novo, Brazil, the Rev. Santos chose religion as his vocation 14 years ago. He especially likes working with children. He has taught vacation church schools in Brazil several times.

Fire Is Controlled By Bucket Brigade

By MRS. R. L. PINNELL

A hay stack ignited from a nearby trash barrel and was destroyed Saturday afternoon on the Bill Leslie farm. Coach Cullender and many small boys organized a bucket brigade from the small horse tank in the Leslie's cowlot to the site of the fire, and the fire was kept under control.

Mrs. Jo Wetzel, formerly Miss June Leslie, of Amarillo visited relatives this weekend.

versity and work as a missionary in Mexico.

Besides her duties at the Labor Camp of teaching children, she also teaches migrant wives how to sew and cook.

"They don't have the same cooking and sewing facilities that most women have," she said.

"The children can be somewhat of a problem," she said, "they just come and go at the Day Center whenever they please."

That, she explained, is because they have lived in so many different places that they feel they are strangers and unwelcome.

"At the Day Center, we try to make them feel at home and that they are wanted."

ish while in high school. Besides English, he can speak Portuguese, Spanish, and French, and he has studied Greek, Hebrew and Latin.

The greatest problem that migrant children have, he said, is that of social, intellectual and economical.

"We never know how many children to expect for classes at the Day Center," he said. "We may have 30 children one day, and only 15 the next."

Sure-footed Man Serves Texas

The colorful language of the ranch and trail seems to fit Bill Blakley, who made his start in life as a working cowboy. He still rides and ropes with the hands on his ranch at roundup time.

Speaking of Blakley's service as U. S. Senator in 1957, the Dallas News said: "... If he was as unassuming as an old boot, it was nevertheless a well polished boot that never wobbled or wavered from its purposeful path. For this man Blakley is a sure-footed man who knows exactly where he stands and what he believes."

Texans will vote to return William A. Blakley to the Senate on July 26 because he truly represents the spirit, traditions and views of all Texas.

How many trucks would you figure are necessary to handle an average potato crop? A bunch of fellows were talking the other morning and this question came up: Jess Stanford says they passed the puzzler along to Jack Renfro, who surprised them with some startling figures. Jack estimated 450 bob-tails to haul to and from fields, and between 450 and 500 of those big jobs which deliver Hereford produce all over the nation. Sounds like a lot of trucks, but Renfro would have about as good an estimate as anyone I know.

The trucks haven't really started rolling yet, but it won't be long now. Digging got underway pretty well this week, and the tempo will increase right along.

J. P. Brogdon and family (Mrs. Brogdon, James and Margaret Kay) just returned from vacationing in Florida. Mr. Brogdon, being a devout Rotarian, made up his attendance last week in Pensacola. He says that the club had around 200 members in attendance, and when they came to his name with the guests, the president remarked:

"Hereford, Texas! Isn't that the town where they grow all of the onions, potatoes and lettuce?"

Brogdon assured him that he was right. He says it gives a fellow a feeling of pride to have his hometown recognized 1,100 miles away from home.

The elevator boys, meanwhile, are either vacationing or talking about vacations. It was the first wheat harvest in quite a while, but it's pretty well a thing of the past, and the boys have a nice break before the grain sorghum harvest gets underway. This was the forerunner of three or four nice wheat crops for this area. Next year will probably be better — and we might even run on into 1963. If you don't believe me, just ask Jim Lipscomb. He is even

Blakley Story Is Typically Texan

The typical American story is of the poor boy who made good through his own efforts. This is the story of Bill Blakley, born in a covered wagon while his parents were on their way to homestead in Oklahoma territory. He has come a long way in 59 years. Said the Austin American-Statesman, when William A. Blakley announced for the Senate:

... He was a top-hand cowboy; he was a crackerjack bank clerk; he was an exceptionally good accountant and lawyer. We have an idea that he is going to be a refreshing, able political candidate. He would make a great United States Senator.

Vote for Bill Blakley on July 26 — an able man whose only ambition is to serve all of Texas.

(Pol. Adv. Paid for by Jim Blundell)

like Jim Black, F. H. Oberthier, John McLean, Jim Witherspoon, Pack London and Marlin Gilliland will be glad to explain. Lem Carlyle used to sell a lot of it in his grocery store and, in all probability, can remember when the situation here was much like that in Iraq.

However, kerosene is coming back these days all decked out in a new set of modern clothing. It is a primary fuel for jet missiles and jet planes.

Joe Smith, Hereford teacher and coach of the Little League "Yankees" may have decided, meanwhile, that Congressman Walter Rogers is a better guy than he figured. Joe considered a junkie into Iraq on a flight out of Clovis air base; incidentally, they have been making Iran and Iraq every week or so. Rogers wrote back some months ago turning thumbs down on the trip and pointing out that politics were "unsettled" in Iraq. Right now, I'll bet Joe would just about as soon be taking his all star boys to the tournament in Pampa next Tuesday.

Old saying: "Speak when you're angry and you'll make a speech you'll ever regret."

Joel Hodges says the Little League still needs funds to send our kids to the area tournament in Pampa. They have to pay for transportation, motels and probably three or four meals for each of the 16 kids. Leave your money with Joel, or with Ansel McDowell at his drug store. Only two donations. . . so far.

LIONS CLUB members are whooping it up about their annual carnival, slated to open Saturday night at the Bull Barn. I am trying to get them to put Lavina Hodges, the Meter Maid, on the dunking board — but I think they are all afraid to ask her. She is a mighty nice gal but, somehow or other, a lot of people would like to have a chance to get her on that dunking board. I might even spend a dime or two myself. Besides, even if you didn't sink her, it goes for a good cause.

Mrs. A. Petersen called to say that she sure misses the bus service. When the draftees are sent to Amarillo for examinations they now have to go by train, leaving at 5:12 p.m., remaining overnight and costing the board three extra meals per man. She adds that Santa Fe is making a non-scheduled stop here, or it would be still another night.

ATTEND FUNERAL
Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hasehoff left Sunday night to attend the funeral of a grandmother, Mrs. Boyd McClendon, to be held Wednesday in Vernon.

Just as a matter of background on the people, Bruce Miller says he recently had a letter from George in which George pointed out that, while they refined gasoline, lube oil and other types of petroleum products, the most prized item in the Daura output was kerosene or, as the old timers used to say, "Coal Oil." Most people in the country use kerosene for heating, cooking, and lights, whereas there are few automobiles and a not so heavy demand for gasoline. I guess a lot of youngsters do not even know what kerosene is, but fellows

OFF THE Shelf

By V. J. SANDERS

The Human Element, written by John Fores, is the story of a commercial airliner forced to crash land in the desert of Africa.

The blame for the crash rests solely in the incompetence of the crew. Having flown the same route hundreds of times before, the crew allowed boredom and overconfidence to overtake their duties.

The captain slept, the co-pilot wanted a good report and kept his mouth shut, the radioman was too lazy to do more than the barest necessities, and the navigator, through boredom, permitted chance after chance for a bearing to slip by.

As a result, the plane — in perfect flying condition — belly landed in the arid wastes of the desert. At this point, Fores attempts to give complete understanding to his characters, the passengers and the crew, but except for one character, he falls short of his purpose.

He tries to impress upon the reader that the way the people acted in the book was very normal and what anybody else would have done. But all the characters are merely word descriptions, except the little man called Edward Brindle. Of all Fores' characters, Brindle alone lives between the covers of the book and is remembered as a definite, all-too-human individual.

Although he fell short on his characters, Fores' description of mounting thirst is excellent. The reader finds himself constantly reaching for ice water. Well, when everything seems hopeless, — four men are dead, they're out of food and water (even the gin has vanished), and they realize they are 100 miles from the search planes — whoop! rescue arrives. Won't we ever find a book that has a logical, if depressing, ending? Another book this week is The Healer, by Frank G. Slaughter, which doesn't seem to hold up to the standard of his other books.

Dr. Slaughter himself is a study for anyone. He is very successful as a writer of novels about doctors, but some of you may be surprised to find that he is equally good, if not better, in his biographies of biblical characters. Through his writing we realize that a doctor and a minister are very much alike, the only big difference being that a doctor's field of practice is the human body instead of the soul. Slaughter is the kind of writer who writes of himself — once

President Of Wayland College To Speak At Services Sunday

Dr. A. Hope Owen, president of Wayland Baptist College in Plainview, will be guest speaker at both worship services at the First Baptist Church Sunday, July 20, according to Howard E. Scott, pastor.

Following the study to be made in three areas the college plans to push forward its Design for a Decade, after launching it in 1958-59, Wayland's Golden Anniversary year which will be filled with outstanding programs.

During the past five years since he became president, Wayland Baptist College has almost completed a five-year program of progress. At the mid-winter meeting of the Board of Trustees, they approved Dr. Owen's recommendation of a trustee-administration - faculty study leading toward the adoption of a "Design for a Decade Program" for the 1958-68 period.

Working with Owen and W. A. Mays, Amarillo, Board chairman, in the surveys will be: Dean Cecil Cosper, Dr. Carl Bates of Amarillo, Rev. Howard Scott of Hereford, and Edward McMillian, of the faculty. Tom Parrish, director of development, Dr. Lee Hemphill of Littlefield, J. D. McPhaul of Lamesa, Miss Florrie Conway, librarian, H. L. Mitchusson, business manager, E. M. Osborne, of Plainview, Dr. J. R. Grant of Lubbock, and Dr. J. Ivylo Bishop of the faculty.

Dr. Owen became president of Wayland after 30 years in pastures at such areas as Plainview, Shawnee, Okla., Santa Fe and Albuquerque, N. M., Quantah, and Clinton, Okla. He is a graduate of Oklahoma Baptist University, which conferred on him an honorary degree. Southwestern and Southern Baptist Seminars.

City Officer Waits Long Time for Job

By DAVID STOKER
Arthur L. Findt, patrolman of the Hereford Police Department, took a long time in changing to the line of work he loved best. After 28 years with the Texas Fish and Wildlife Service, from 1928 to 1956, he went to his first love - police work.

He received his retirement from the Texas Fish and Wildlife Service and immediately decided to do something about his love for law enforcement. His first job as a policeman was in Brownfield, where he served as an officer until the latter part of 1956. He then packed his grip and moved to Tahoka.

He moved to Hereford the second of this month and he and his wife, Edna, currently make their home at 305 Ave. K. They were married Feb. 11, 1935 and have two daughters, Sue and Betty. Sue, married, is society editor of the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, and Betty works as a private secretary at the Veterans Administration in Lubbock.

Findt, who just recently moved to Hereford, was born in Braden, Tex., Jan. 14, 1905, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Findt. His father was a rancher and owner of a wagon yard.

At Tahoka, Findt stayed long enough to become chief of the department. He was there until May of 1958, when he came to Hereford.

The Findts haven't been settled in Hereford long enough to begin attending church regularly, but they plan to begin soon. They are Baptists.

In 1911 his parents moved to Sterling City, the town where Findt grew up and got his high school education. He received his diploma in 1923. Following high school, Findt ran a cafe and skating rink in Sterling City until 1928.

"I wanted to work with a larger department, and I think I made a wise choice moving here," he said.

The good natured, smiling officer says he really likes Hereford and feels that his move here was a fortunate one. "The people here are nice and friendly and they quickly make you feel like one of them. The department here seems to be very well organized too."

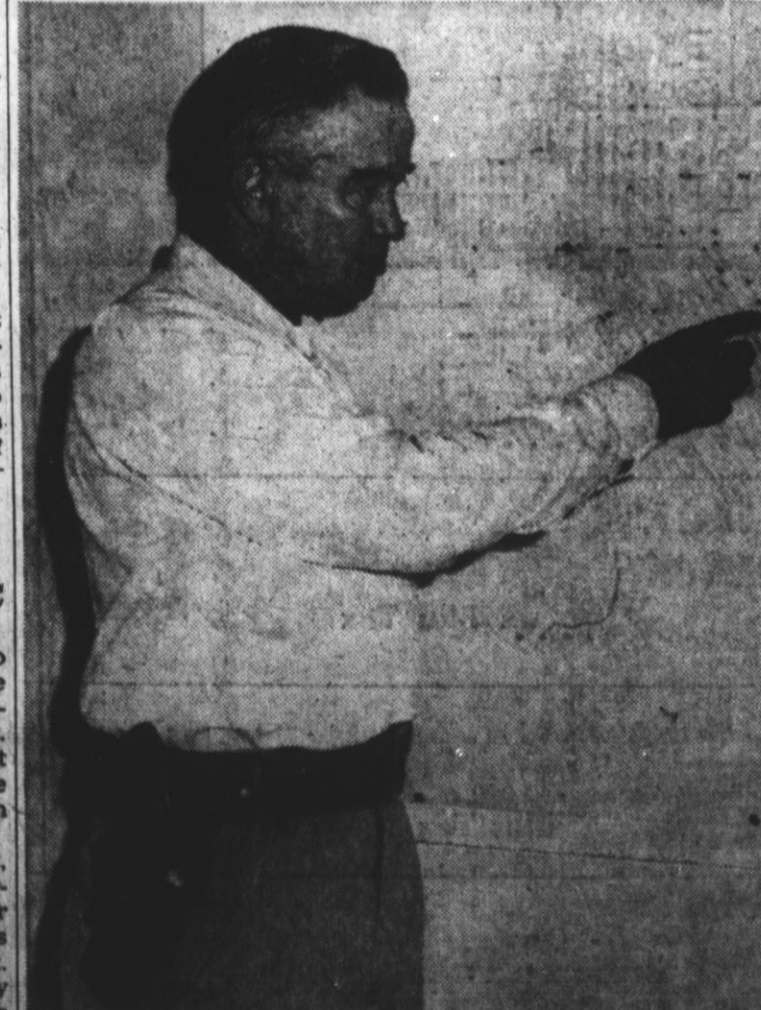

Findt was also associated with various game wardens throughout the state. "This association may have been an influence on my wanting to be an officer," he says.

Besides the actual experience he has received, Findt has attended three police schools, two in Lubbock and the one at the Texas A&M Municipal Police School at College Station.

But Findt had other reasons too. "I had always had my mind set on becoming a policeman. I had always thought they were friendly people - the best friends most of us have. And I always liked to be around people, and on this job you are around lots of people."

Dory and Ricky To Settle Dispute

Dory Funk and Ricky Romero are getting a chance to settle the ill feelings which have developed between them recently. The two will battle in a two out of three falls or one hour time limit match at the Bull Barn Saturday night.

NEW OFFICER—Patrolman Arthur L. Findt, new officer of the Hereford Police Department, goes over a map of the town in order to acquaint himself with the busiest traffic sections. Findt and his wife, Edna, moved to Hereford July 2. They are now living at 305 Avenue K. (Staff Photo)

Texans Say Constitution A Development Bottleneck

By VERN SANFORD
STIN—In 1876 a wagon team of oxen was good transportation in Texas. But today's city streets and highways, the ox wagon is but just a traffic bottleneck.

Texans now are saying an 82-year-old ox wagon-era constitution is a bottleneck on the road to development of 20th-century government. Constitutional revision is not the currently sizzling campaign issues. But, quietly and patiently, numerous people in government, in the bar, in professional and civic groups, the press and in private and public educational institutions are plugging away in a make-haste-slowly campaign. Principal objective now is to get Texans thinking about what they want and need in a state constitution today.

Their campaign gained official blessing last year when the Legislature passed a resolution instructing the Legislative Council to do research on the subject and report back in 1959. An 18-member citizens advisory committee was appointed to counsel with the legislative study group. Dean Robert G. Storey of the SMU Law School is chairman; C. Y. Mills of Mission and Mrs. Horton Wayne Smith of Austin, vice chairmen; and Dan Moody Jr. of Austin, secretary.

CHATTER

Families Order 1,500 Windbreaks

By ARGEN DRAPER
report from the Texas Service shows that Deaf County had seven farms ordering 1,500 trees and eaks.

Does that sound like anything that happened here? Results of a two-year survey, made by the North Carolina Industrial Commission, reveals that in a large textile plant, three out of the four workers who had accidents at the plant had eaten no breakfast. So, to play it safe, eat a breakfast of fruit, cereal and milk or an egg, enriched or whole grain toast, and the beverage of your choice. These simple, easy-to-prepare foods may be the life-savers which keep you from being a vital statistic.

Legislative Council, with a staff of seven, and 11 studies under way, can't go all-out on this one thing, but is doing some fact gathering during the summer. Both Council and committee hope to get money for the work, perhaps by next year, from the Legislature and/or some private foundation.

There are plenty of bulletins in the office on Canning Fruits and Vegetables. Call or come by for one. The 4-H girls have a big deal on. They are selling light bulbs. The package will contain three 60 watt, three 75 watt and three 100 watt bulbs. The free bulb is a beauty bulb.

Advocates of Constitutional revision advance these points, among others, as reasons for concern: 1. It's a staggering document, 47,000 words long, patched up with 23 amendments. If nine more proposed amendments are approved next November, it'll be 54,000 words. Much of it is regarded by lawyers as properly belonging in the statutes rather than in a basic document like the Constitution. Much is cited as totally useless, such as provisions for repelling Indian raids.

2. Like Topsy, Texas' huge conglomeration of agencies, departments, commissions and divisions. (Continued On Page 2)

CHIP SHOTS

Max Drever, playing steady golf and coming from behind after the first 9 holes on which he was 1 down, took a 1 up decision over Charles Seed to win the 1958 City Golf Crown. Both players shot 1 over par 73's for the 18 holes that were played. Never was there over 1 hole difference between the two players. Drever had a 38-35-73 and Seed had a 38-37-73. Max, always a strong contender and beaten twice in recent years by Seed, finally broke the jinx and after holing an eagle 3 on number 11 held on to his 1 up lead the rest of the way.

visions, "just grew." It's all so loosely put together, say critics, that folks don't know who to blame when things don't suit them. Same indictment is applied to the fiscal set-up. It's a billion-dollar-a-year business, but control is mincemeat among many. State has more than 100 special funds, representing about 85 per cent of state revenue. These can't be touched by the Legislature, even if they are not needed for the purpose for which they're earmarked and are desperately needed elsewhere.

3. Another argument made is that increasing concentration of government in Washington can be halted only if state governments are sufficiently vigorous and adaptable to meet peoples' changing and growing needs. Some suggest that Texas' present Constitution may be a "strait jacket" on state government.

Texas drivers will have to "pay the piper" next year in higher auto insurance.

State Insurance Board has announced that, effective Aug. 1, auto insurance rates will be substantially higher in most parts of Texas. Average hike will be 32 per cent on comprehensive coverage, 19 per cent on liability and 17 per cent on collision. In Dallas County, for example, a policy which now costs $108 will jump to $142.

A. O. THOMPSON ABSTRACT CO.

Premiums paid on the old rate schedule have not nearly met accident claims, said Penn Jackson, chairman of the Insurance Board. He attributed the insurance companies' "tremendous losses" to four factors:

1. An increasing number of collisions.
2. Higher cost of repairing today's swanky cars.
3. Higher cost of hospital and medical care.
4. Generosity of juries in awarding damages to claimants.

Auto owners, said Jackson, must realize they set their own insurance rates by the way they drive.

Hope for an ever-more-prosperous Texas is found in the recently completed state-federal survey of Texas' water resources and needs.

Contents of the study were made public by U. S. Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, who requested the survey a year ago. Texas Board of Water Engineers and three federal agencies collaborated in compiling data.

Each major river basin was studied and the possibility of switching floodwaters from one basin to another discussed at length.

"The scope of the economic impact of large-scale water exchange in Texas is impressive," said the report. "If exploited to its logical conclusion, there is solid evidence to indicate that the increase in Texas income would be of great magnitude." A how-to-do-it booklet for communities wanting to attract new industry is now in circulation.

It was published by the new Texas Industrial Commission with private donations. In 66 pages, the book tells how a community should analyze itself, correct any inadequacies and bring all good points to the fore in a promotional effort.

Commission members expressed hope that passage next November of a constitutional amendment to permit use of state funds for advertising would make continuation of their efforts possible.

State Board of Education has gone on record as officially — and positively — opposing any plan to tamper with the permanent school fund.

Last legislature voted to make one per cent of the permanent fund available annually for current expenses. State Auditor C. H. Cavness has proposed making part of future income from school lands available for pressing present needs and putting only part into the multi-million-dollar school trust fund. But the school board declared the fund should be "inviolate."

At the same meeting the board learned the school fund had run $6,091,905 in the red for 1957-58. Reduction in oil production, a prime source of school revenue, was blamed.

Per student state payments for next year were cut from $82 to $75.

In a news dispatch from Hereford under date of July 7, to the Amarillo Daily News, the statement is made that "there is an agitation on foot to change the name of Hereford to Water-town."

In the next paragraph the correspondent begins: "Water — next to air — being the most precious thing in the world and the Hereford country being so bountifully supplied with both, etc., etc.," therefore the name should be changed. Evidently the correspondent was suffering from too much "air on the brain" when he reports that there is an agitation on foot to change the name of Hereford.

The correspondent being of that trend of mind which enables him to imagine things easily. The Brand suggests that he just stretch his scientific mind and "imagine" the name already changed and it will do as well for him and the rest of the Hereford folks won't know the difference. No, Hereford will not change its name.

One full credit was allowed in world history and a half credit each in third year foods and third year clothing. The history was taught by Miss Fern Carlisle and the home economics by Miss Thalia Parker. These teachers and students concerned are to be commended for doing a high standard of work that merited recognition by the accrediting agency.

LOOKING AT THE BRIGHT SIDE

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — County Attorney J. Howard Edmondson is accustomed to letters from irate citizens but he got the surprise of his life when he read a letter from the wife of a traffic offender.

The wife thanked officials for arresting her husband and noted it was the "cheapest insurance I have that my husband will return home safely." She added that every traffic ticket reminded her truck-driver husband "he has been flirting with death."

JURY OF PEERS

Representatives of 10 bull County schools deliberated 20 minutes, then recommended that a high school freshman from nearby Southington be suspended for 60 days.

The Ohio Highway Patrol youth failed to observe stop sign, caused a traffic accident and left the accident scene.

IAN BROWN— Gypsy Rose Lee, famous strip-teaser, has a charming sitting room in a study in contrasts. A nude painting dominates one wall, and there are a great many others including a Picasso, and one by the late Fannie Brice. Furniture includes an Empire sofa.

In her role as author, Gypsy travels on lecture tours or is likely to be traveling in the theater, such as the recent movie she made in Florida, "Across the Everglades." But best of all she enjoys being home with her very own kitchen.

STARS. STUDYING. SHAKESPEARE NEW YORK (AP) — A number of prominent players have banded to learn Shakespearean acting style on Broadway this season under the direction of Richard Burton, British star of the Old Vic company and veteran of performances at Stratford-upon-Avon.

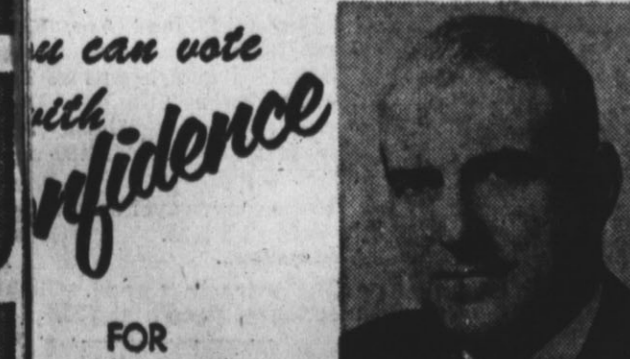

Burton, currently appearing in "Tim Remembered," is tutoring the group one afternoon a week. Members later are to enact scenes from the bard's repertoire. Included among those studying are Sam Levene, starring in "Fair Game," Ton Perkins of "Look Homeward, Angel," and Josephine Premice of "Jamaica," Susan Strasberg of "Time Remembered" and Maureen Stapleton. For most of the band, the study is their first workout with Shakespeare.

BROADWAY REQUEST NEW YORK (AP) — Grace Valentine, veteran actress who has made a hobby as well as a career out of the theater, is giving a rich file of memorabilia to the New York Public Library.

For 45 years, Miss Valentine has been collecting clippings, data and theatrical odds and ends. She has been on the boards a half century, starting as a pianist with a touring repertory company, and currently is in the off-Broadway production of "A Palm Tree in a Rose Garden."

Miss Valentine is making the gift in her will at the suggestion of George Freedley, curator of the Library's theater collection.

APPETITES IN ORBIT FREEMONT, Ohio (AP) — Consumption of rice and hamburger balls rose 100 per cent in the cafeteria of nearby Helena school after their menu listings were changed from "porcupines" to "sputniks." It was reported by the school cook, Mrs. Fred Fisher.

A CHRISTIAN MOTTO: SERVICE TO OTHER

in Judea

This is he of whom it is written, the voice of one crying in the wilderness and saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom is at hand. Here John, a great preacher, warned the throng to prepare the way of the Lord, to make His paths straight. Great preachers today plead with us to be ready, for we know not the hour when the son of man cometh. Here, as in Judea where John spoke, men openly defy God, attack His church and its program of service and display contempt for His cause on the earth. Woe be it to those who take Him lightly, or to those who never take Him at all. Worldly gain at the expense of Heavenly loss, isn't much gain. You may be sure, Brother, at the opportune hour, His chosen moment, — He, whose fan is in His hand, will thoroughly purge His floor.

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions stronger and more influential for a better citizenship and a molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we on Sunday, "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

 Let's We Forget: God will aundantly pardon transgressions, however multiplied they may have been. Those whose in-iquities have been heinous and long-continued, are apt to des-pond and to imagine themselves beyond the reach of His mercy.

 But none need despair: God's mercy in Christ is infinite; though our sins have been as numerous as the sands upon the sea-shore, His mercies far exceed them. "As the heaven is high above the earth, so great is His mercy toward them that fear Him." See what sinners have been forgiven! Mark the transgressions of David, Nanaseh, Peter, and others; see the peculiar aggravation of their guilt! And then see whether God will not multiply His pardon to the very utmost of our necessities.

A most cordial welcome to you.

REP. ROGERS WRITES

University Participation In Atomic Research Considered

To the people of the 18th District:

It looked for awhile as though many state universities and schools would not be permitted to participate in atomic energy research and development.

This was due to some provisions contained in the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended in 1957. The Act requires the proper licensing of those organizations desiring to operate a nuclear reactor. The Amendment of 1957 provided, in effect, that an organization could not get a license unless it met certain requirements with regard to waiving any immunity from liability it might have as a state, and to meet certain other requirements in the nature of indemnity agreements, and the purchase and maintaining of liability insurance.

All of this was intended to protect the public, and interested parties and organizations were so advised. However, the states, state universities and other state schools probably did not realize the situation in which they would be placed. The University of the State of Texas would be barred from operating a nuclear reactor. This was because the Constitution of the State of Texas in Article Three,
 Section 50, provides as follows:

"The Legislature shall have no power to give or to lend, or to authorize the giving or lending, of the credit of the State in aid of, or to any person, association or corporation, whether municipal or other, or to pledge the credit of the State in any manner whatsoever, for the payment of the liabilities, present or prospective, of any individual, association of individuals,
 municipal or other corporations whatsoever."

This meant if the University of Texas and other state schools in many other states in this country were to be able to operate nuclear reactors and engage in research and development in the atomic energy field, something had to be done.
 Either the state constitutions and statutory laws has to be changed or the federal law had to be changed.

To change the state constitutions and laws, in order to meet these licensing requirements, could and probably would open a virtual Pandora's Box of confusion and trouble in many other activities of the states. Such action would also add to further encroachment by the federal government toward tearing down state constitutions and laws, a practice to which I am violently opposed.

Under the circumstances, several of us who realized the tremendous contributions that could be made in the research and development programs in the atomic energy field proposed an amendment to the law which would exempt non-profit educational institutions under certain circumstances from these burdensome requirements.
 These bills were introduced by four Members of the House of Representatives — Congressman Melvin Price of Illinois, who is a Member of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, myself, and Congressmen Moulder of Missouri and Matthews of Florida.

Although we are in the late days of this session, it is my feeling that these bills will pass both the House and Senate and be signed by the President.

The age-old, but never solved,
 problem is the old age problem.
 True, great strides have been made during recent years to ward partial solution; however, we are still a long way from the proper answer.

It was thought that the Social Security program would be the perfect solution. It has been a solution in many cases, but it has not and cannot provide for the needs of so very many of our aged citizens who find themselves in extreme economic difficulties in the late years of their lives. Many of them are unwanted, have no loved ones, and no one to care for them.

They are, in many instances, tragic figures of ill health susceptible, by reason of their frailties, to crippling diseases and maladies. Many of them have dependents, such as disabled children who are either mentally or physically crippled, and remain dependent upon their aged mother or father. It would be impossible to put into words the feeling of complete despair that must engulf these tragic figures when they discover that many of the basic laws, under which they have lived all of their lives, are discarded and cast aside in determining their eligibility for participation in the Social Security program.

I have reference to several particular occasions in which the Social Security Administration has actually repealed
 the Community Property Laws of the State of Texas and replaced them by a bureaucratic directive in order to deny eligibility of a disabled child to participate in the Social Security program.

In other words, they are wholly disregarding the basic property laws of many of the states and thereby resolving any doubt against a mentally or physically disabled child in order to deny contributions that were intended to go to the child. How crass can you get?

I wish I had the space to tell you more about this situation. I can tell you that I intend to try began: "I wish to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to the state trooper who so courageously assisted me on Highway 60 out of Huntington on Feb. 20."

The letter, containing no other details of the incident, was signed, "Uncle Joe Santa — J. W. B." Enclosed was a $5 bill for the "Santa Claus Fund."
 Because the State Police Department has no such fund, the money was deposited in the State Police Disability and Retirement Fund.
