

35-Yard Field Goal In Final Second Is Difference

Pampa Clips Whitefaces, 24-22

By CHARLES RICHARDS
News Editor

Whiteface fans went from the valley of despair to the mountain and back to the valley again in the space of a few minutes Friday night.

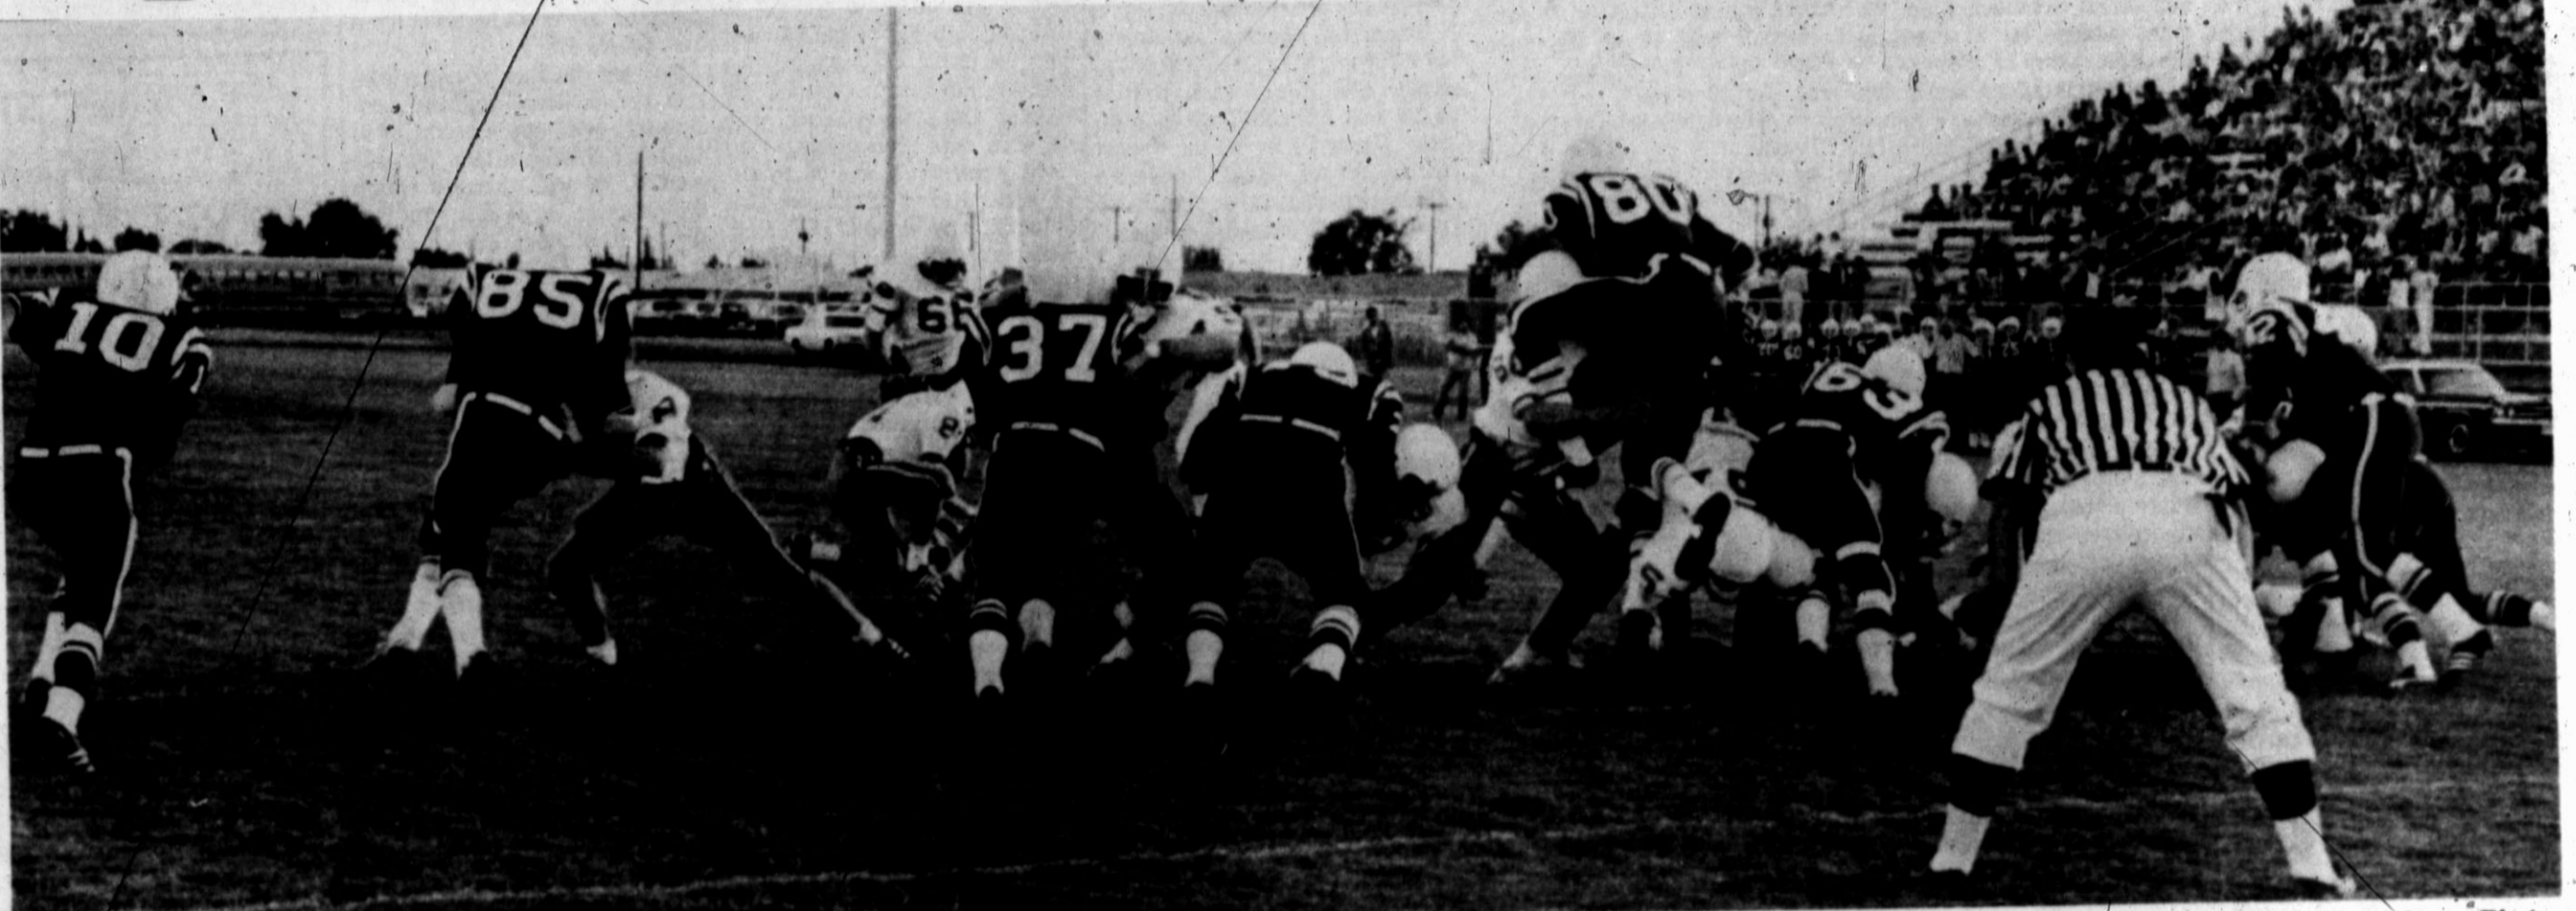

After squirming in their seats for three quarters and watching the Pampa Harvesters take advantage of three Herford fumbles for three touchdowns and a 21-6 lead, the Herford partisans cheered lustily for a bold comeback attempt that appeared successful.

Nearly all the action until the fourth quarter had been bad. The fans uncomfortably watched bruising Pampa fullback Johnny Clark tally twice on runs of 5 and 1 yd. and Pampa halfback John McCarroll score on a 15-yard straight-ahead spurt that left several Whiteface gridders on the ground behind him.

John Page's four-yard run off left end on a pitch out from quarterback Mike Wartes was Herford's only score of the first three-fourths of the game. Then sophomore running back Danny Harris capped long drives of 61 and 80 yards in the fourth quarter with one-yard TD plunges and subsequent runs for the two-point conversions that spurred a tie and sent Herford into an unbelievable 22-21 lead with only a minute left.

Whiteface fans didn't suspect at all that they were about to see a 35-yard field goal on the final play of the game that would turn the apparent victory into defeat.

Then Pampa quarterback Dale Ammons, the game's leading rusher with 129 yards on 17 carries, took over. After the Harvesters returned the short kickoff four yards to the 35, Ammons hit end Mike Reddell for 13 yards to the 48, out of bounds stopping the clock. Ammons kept it twice, first for eight yards to the Herford 44, out of bounds, and then for nine to the 35, where he called time out.

He connected with Reddell again, this time for nine yards to the 26, where Pampa called its last time out, with about 19 seconds remaining. On the next play Ammons couldn't find a receiver open and darted to the 18 and another first down, which automatically stopped the clock, with the game almost over.

While the officials were getting the chain in order at the new location, Pampa was quickly lining up for the next play. When the official stepped away from the ball and signaled the clock to resume, the center snapped the ball, and Ammons put his foot into a perfect 35-yard field goal attempt from the right hash mark that cleared the goal posts with three or four feet to spare.

The clock ran out while the ball was in the air and Pampa had a 24-22 victory, frustrating Herford's hope to win its first game as a Class AAAA team.

The time was kept on the field, since mechanical disorder rendered the scoreboard clock useless. Few persons other than the officials knew how much time was left in the last drive. "How much time? How much time?" circulated through the fans. They found out when, after the winning field goal, the players met in the center of the field, shook hands and went to the dressing rooms, instead of lining up for a kickoff.

Herford had fumble troubles in the first half that put it into a quick 14-0 deficit. Fullback Ricki Ward fumbled on the Herford 29 and Pampa's McCarroll bruised his way 15 yards for a touchdown five plays later, on the Harvesters' second possession of the game.

The Herd defense thwarted another Pampa attempt to score by recovering a stray pitchout at the Herford 10 in the second quarter. But three plays later, Ward and Harris collided in the backfield, the ball hit the turf, and Pampa recovered on the 7. McCarroll made two yards on Pampa's first try, and the 190-pound Clark bulldozed his way over for the score on the next carry.

Herford had its biggest success in the first half on two plays — a pitchout to either

Page got the only touchdown the first three quarters on the pitchout from four yards out in the second quarter, with the score capping a 53-yard drive that took seven plays. It was only the second time Herford kept the ball for more than four plays.

Midway through the first quarter, with Pampa leading 7-0, Loerwald got the handoff from Wartes and burst through a big hole for a 36-yard run to the Pampa 5. But there he was hit, the ball popped free and the Harvesters pounced on the ball in the end zone for a touch-back. Things looked bad when Pampa took the second half kickoff and went 70 yards in 12 plays for its 21-6 lead. The Harvesters' biggest break came on Ammons' high 28-yard punt from the Pampa 38 to the Herford 35, which Wagner tried to field without a fair catch and was separated from the ball by two oncoming tacklers. With the fumble recovery, Pampa Stolen Bicycles Go On Auction Soon Unless...

The Herford Police Department has a number of bicycles and other miscellaneous items it plans to auction off in the near future unless they are claimed.

Police Chief Don Brush said some of the items "were recovered from people who had stolen them. Some were found throughout town in places where they would have been stolen if we hadn't picked them up. Evidently, the owners have not bothered to report them stolen or have not bothered to come down and claim them."

Among the merchandise are about six bicycles, car stereos, one small portable stereo, a motorcycle helmet, a power-pack tool of some type, two all-vision mirrors for vehicles, and other various items.

"If anyone can make a proper identification of any of these articles as belonging to him, the items will be returned to the rightful owner," Brush said. "If these articles are not claimed, they will be put up for public auction in the near future."

Anyone wishing to claim any of the items should come to the information desk of the Police Department in City Hall.

Duncan, Nanninga Trial Comes Up In November

The district court cases of Prehn Nanninga and Neal Duncan, charged in the May 28 burglary of Spangler Diamonds Ltd., has been placed on the November docket on a date to be set later.

District Judge Archie McDonald and district attorney Jerry Tucker were in Herford last week to hear cases, but gave no indication when the burglary case will be handled.

Sheriff Travis McPherson said the trials of the two "will probably be sometime in November," and they will probably be tried separately. He said the grand jury is to meet Oct. 7, but no further action concerning the two youths is expected. Nanninga and Duncan were charged in the burglary of Spangler's jewelry store in Sugarland Mall in which an estimated $41,000 in watches and other jewelry was taken. The burglary and the arrest, came the day they were to have participated in high school commencement exercises.

Joe Carbajal, 26, Thursday was found guilty of burglary and sentenced to five years probation.

Carbajal was convicted of burglarizing a cafe in the Labor Camp in November of last year. He was arrested at his mobile home soon after the burglary where all the items taken from the cafe were found.

Sexto Cardova was found guilty Wednesday of assault with intent to rape and was sentenced to nine years in the penitentiary.

He was charged in connection with an incident involving his 13-year-old daughter last year. Wovencelado Tijerina, charged with possession of marijuana, pleaded guilty to the charges and McDonald placed him on four years probation.

Clearman will conduct a brief business session. Hostesses for the catered dinner will be members of the Woman's Society and Guild of the church. Mrs. Jack Renfro is chairman of arrangements for the meal.

Dr. John A. English is executive director of Kings Manor. Officers of the Founders Association now serving with Clearman are E. E. Foster of Hart, vice president, and Mrs. Ernest Wade, secretary-treasurer.

On the board of directors are Ed Jacobson of Adrian, J. T. Gee of Friona, Clyde Hudson of Claydon and Winfred Tucker of Meadow.

Payment of a $10 or more membership fee in the Association admits one person to the dinner, where the principal speaker will be John A. Murock of Evanston, Ill., a staff member of the United Methodist General Board of Health and Welfare Ministries as senior consultant.

Music directed by Bob Wert will add to the program. The Rev. Clifford Trotter, First United Methodist pastor, will be master of ceremonies and Three hundred diners are expected for the fifth annual Kings Manor Founders Association dinner, to begin at 7 p. m. Monday in the fellowship hall of First United Methodist Church.

Hugh Clearman is president of the association, which includes members from over West Texas and adjoining states. Purpose of the yearly dinner is to raise funds for the living endowment from which capital improvements are made at Kings Manor, the United Methodist retirement home here.

Goal for Founders Day this year is $30,000 and the current price of a year's membership remains at $10 and use of a membership card may be granted by the holder to another person in his family or a guest.

Herford members have an added advantage in reciprocity with the Canyon Community Concert Association so the holder of a local membership is admitted to the Canyon concerts also. Each city promises at least three programs in the 1970-71 season. As "hold" attractions: Herford CCA has already booked the Obernkirchen Children's Choir for its opening concert on Nov. 7 also a spring concert by Don Shirley pianist and his instrumental group.

Already scheduled at Canyon are Ma Si Hon and Tung Kwong Kwong piano and violin duo for Oct. 29 and the New York

Woodwind Quintet in mid-February, both to appear in Canyon High School auditorium. Remainder of the year's programs in both cities will be chosen at the end of the respective membership campaigns.

Goal of the local drive is a sellout of memberships to the seating capacity of Herford High School, where the programs are presented.

Herd: 'Made Too Many Mistakes'

By MARSHALL DAY
Staff Writer

Herford gave no excuses. Herford fumbled too many times, time just ran out on the Whitefaces, and Pampa won.

"We just made too many mistakes. We knew they could pass and run the ball, and we shouldn't have let them get down there where they could do what they did," said end John Sparks after Friday night's loss to Pampa.

Head coach Larry Wartes shared the team's disappointment but said if the scoreboard clock had been working things might have been a little different.

"If we'd had a clock we'd a beat 'em," he said.

The field scoreboard clock was not working throughout the entire game and the officials kept the time down on the field. The spectators and coaches were unaware of the official time left in the game, but Pampa knew time was running out on them when they booted the winning 35-yard field goal on the last play of the game.

The cause of the trouble with the scoreboard clock was still unknown Saturday. A coach said the clock had been working "a day or two ago. They got a man out here last night but it was too late by then, of course."

Coaches had experienced trouble with the press box-to-field phones on Thursday, when they were trying to hook them up for use during the game. There was communication from one team's phone upstairs to the other team's phone upstairs, but not to the field.

"We found that when they set up the P. A. system for graduation they cut those wires and wired them back up wrong. We got that straight, and I don't know if this (foulup with scoreboard clock) was caused by the same thing or what," assistant coach David Bornstein

Concert Association Begins Membership Drive Monday

Limited to one week, the annual membership drive of Herford Community Concert Association will begin at a kickoff dinner Monday evening.

Only members of the Association may attend the three or more concerts by widely known artists which CCA will bring here this season. Cards are not available after Sept. 19 and no single admissions are sold for the programs. Workers and captains who will conduct the membership sales drive will attend the kickoff dinner at the Caison House, where a representative of the national Community Concert organization is to be present to give information and answer questions.

Mrs. John E. Smith is campaign chairman this fall, and is assisted by about a dozen captains who have each enlisted a group of workers to call on area residents offering memberships.

Also involved in the campaign are the Association officers, headed by Mrs. Joe Reinauer as president, and the board of directors. Mrs. Bob Wert is chairman of kickoff dinner arrangements. Price of a year's membership remains at $10 and use of a membership card may be granted by the holder to another person in his family or a guest.

Hereford Comeback Try Falls Short, By One Second

Late in the third quarter, Hereford started its move. Page gained 22 yards in five carries. Ward added 2 yards, Loerwald made 7, Harris got 9 yards in three tries. But the big plays were a 15-yard piling-on penalty against Pampa and a 9-yard Wartes to Sparks strike on a quick jump pass over the middle.

There the Herd was, still trailing 21-6, but on the one-yard line with second and goal as the third quarter ended.

After Wartes tried the center for no gain, Harris took the pitchout around left end for the score and then worked the identical play for the two extra points that put the Whitefaces in striking distance at 21-14.

The fans began to take on new hope.

After an exchange of punts, Pampa made noises like it planned to put an end to all this rally-rally nonsense.

Ammons, working on a second-and-8 situation at the Harvester 45, cut off right tackle, stepped through the grasps of two would-be Whiteface tacklers and raced all alone in open field toward the goal. Eugene Suttle finally overtook him on the 12 after a 43-yard gain. After a five-yard penalty took the ball back to the 17, Ammons carried the ball 15 yards in two plays to the two.

The call on the next play went to Clark, usually Mr. Reliable for Pampa on short yardage situations. But the Hereford line smashed into him at the line of scrimmage, he fumbled into the end zone, and Alan Raley fell on the ball for the touchback.

With the crowd's audible support, Wartes then directed the 80-yard drive for what most people thought was a come-from-behind Hereford victory.

Page made first nine yards and then four more for a first down at the 33. Harris made four yards in two carries and then tailback Alan Wagner took a screen pass 16 yards to the Pampa 47. Two plays netted nothing and a pass was low to Schmucker, which made it 4th and 10.

Wartes went to the air again and found Schmucker on the right sideline for 21 yards and the first down on Pampa's 26. After Harris added three, Wartes dialed Schmucker's number again for 12 yards over the middle.

Now Hereford was on the 11, in scoring position. Harris made one to the 10 and Wartes' pass to the left flat in the end zone was just out of reach. Raley then set up a first-and-goal situation with his nine-yard carry to the one.

On the next play Page carried to the edge of the goal and fumbled into the end zone, where Pampa recovered it. But the referee ruled his knee had already hit the ground before the fumble.

Wartes then pitched out to Harris, who lunged over for the score that put Hereford only one point behind, with just about one minute remaining.

Then Harris carried it again from three yards out on the running conversion attempt that put Hereford into its shortlived 22-21 lead.

Loerwald was Hereford's leading rusher in the game, getting 78 yards in four carries. Harris and Ward both made 43 yards — Harris on 15 carries and Ward on nine. Page added 42 yards, Raley 11 and Wagner 10. Backing up the Pampa running attack, Clark carried 15 times for 78 yards, John McCarroll 12 times for 53 yards, Garvin McCarroll 5 times for 24 yards and Johnny Roth 2 times for 3 yards.

Wartes completed seven of 12 passes for 85 yards. Schmucker caught four for 49 yards, Sparks two for 30 and Wagner one for 16.

Ammons went to Reddell for four of his five completions that gained a total of 80 yards. Reddell had 60 of the yards, and Steve Scarborough caught one for 20 yards.

5,600 Is Record Number

The enrollment in local schools has increased by about 250 students since the first day of classes — more than enough to topple the previous high registration of 5,465 set on Sept. 29 of last year.

To date, some 5,600 students are in school, and another hundred students are expected in the fold by the time the enrollment hits its peak, probably next month.

From the opening enrollment of 5,348 this year, it increased to 5,595 after one week and to 5,579 last Tuesday, when Supt. Roy Hartman made the report to the School Board. He said Friday afternoon that "we're up about 25 to 30 more since then."

Through last Tuesday, the individual schools showed these enrollment totals:

Alkman Elementary 568, Bluebonnet Elementary 509, Central Elementary 458, Northwest Elementary 677, Shirley Elementary 571, Tierra Blanca Elementary 507, La Plata Junior High 652, Stanton Junior 629 and Hereford High School 1,008.

By grades, these totals emerged:

Pre-school 218, up from 116 a year ago.
Special education 141, up from 145 a year ago.
First grade 561, down from 596 a year ago.
Second grade 550, up from 489 a year ago.
Third grade 492, down from 510 a year ago.
Fourth grade 522, up from 448

a year ago.
Fifth grade 430, the same as a year ago.
Sixth grade 425, down from 431 a year ago.
Seventh grade 456, up from 389 a year ago.
Eighth grade 381, down from 412 a year ago.
Ninth grade 420, up from 394 a year ago.
Tenth grade 376, up from 348 a year ago.
Eleventh grade 318, up from 296 a year ago.
Twelfth grade 289, up from 273 a year ago.

The total for the six elementary schools is 2,980, 39 higher than the 2,941 of a year ago. The junior high enrollment is 1,257, which is 62 more than in 1969-70. The high school enrollment of 983 is 65 higher than last year's 918.

To get further comparison, you can contrast a grade's enrollment with the enrollment of the next lower grade a year earlier, to see changes within the same group of kids. The 10th grade enrollment, for example, is 27 students higher than last year's 10th grade class, but it has 18 fewer students than it did as a 9th grade class 12 months ago.

Herd

After losing the lead 22-21 with less than a minute remaining in the game, Harvestor quarterback Dale Ammons executed precise pass plays to take the ball out of bounds and stop the clock. On perhaps the biggest play of the game, he scooted along the sideline, with no time outs remaining, for eight yards from the 26 to the 18, enough for a first down that automatically stopped the clock. While the officials got the chain in order Pampa lined up, and as soon as the clock started again, the ball was snapped and Ammons made his kick.

"There wasn't a game we have ever deserved more than this one, but we'll get them, we'll come back," said quarterback Mike Wartes.

Being the first game of the season, many of the players suffered from muscle spasms and a few had their "teeth jarred" by the tackles laid on by the Harvestors.

Defensive lineman Dan Gorman was hit hard in the third quarter and taken out of the game for a short time. Sparks was another who felt the impact of the Harvestor defense. He "saw stars" after being hit late in the game.

Quick guard Donny McDermitt was taken out of the game in the first half and reportedly had suffered a small crack and a bruise on his right shoulder.

Despite the injuries and the loss, the Whitefaces were optimistic about the rest of the season.

"Pampa deserved to win because they played a good game," Wartes said, "but it's those last four games that count."

Accident Near School Injures 14-Year-Old Girl

A Stanton student was in satisfactory condition in an Amarillo hospital Saturday after being injured in an after-school accident Thursday.

Eugenia Fish, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Robbins, 806 East Third, received a broken left knee and multiple cuts when she became pinned between two cars near the intersection of Park Avenue and Avenue G, near the Dairy Queen.

The ninth grade student, crossing the street behind two cars stopped at the intersection, was struck by a third auto driven by Johnny Eugene House, 17, of Route 3.

The impact pushed the second vehicle, driven by Mrs. J. N. Grady, 116 Ave. J, into the first automobile driven by Mary Lynn Murphey, 501 Ave. K.

After an initial examination at Deaf Smith County Hospital, Miss Fish was transferred to High Plains Baptist Hospital in Amarillo, where she underwent surgery Thursday evening. Her room number is 567-B.

Board Ponders High Boots Ban For Girls

The new dress and hair code for students in the top six grades of the Hereford school system won approval in its entirety from the School Board last week, but only after extended discussion on the prohibition of high top boots for girls.

Several board members expressed doubt about that point. It was the only one of eight guidelines for acceptable attire that came under critical question.

"There must be a million pair of those around town," board member Ray White said. "As winter months come on, this is going to be more of a problem for you."

Lowell Sharp said he felt the code should be amended to give girls the right to wear the high top boots during the winter or in other times when snow is on the ground.

Supt. Roy Hartman assured the board that although the code doesn't expressly permit the wearing of the boots by girls, exceptions will be made when the weather necessitates it.

Hartman held out for keeping the code exactly like it came to the board. He pointed out that high school personnel who are familiar with the problems involved had drawn up the code, often with requests of the students themselves, in mind.

"I think this is a very lenient dress and hair code, the most lenient we've ever had, and it won't vary 40 words from the code presented by the Lubbock Public Schools," Hartman said.

"What they're talking about (high top boots) is something that associates them (girls) with an element that is not desirable," the superintendent added, referring to the hippie movement.

Students have accepted the dress code well so far, Hartman added. The only discipline met-

Friona Chamber Captures Award

Announcement has been made by the Texas Industrial Commission that Friona Chamber of Commerce's entry in Governor Preston Smith's Industrial Expansion contest is one of the five state-wide winners in the contest.

The chamber's entry was the expansion program at Missouri Beef Packers' Friona division in 1969, which saw the plant's payroll double from $1,250,000 in 1968. MBP's equipment investments also increased during the year from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000.

The sales value of products produced at the plant during 1969 totaled $111,000,000 compared to $31,000,000 in 1968, when it operated for only eight months.

The award will be presented on Tuesday, Oct. 13 in Austin at the Governor's Conference on five state-wide winners, will be Industrial Expansion.

Friona's entry, as one of the portrayed in a dramatic triple-screen, sound-on-film presentation. Governor Preston Smith will deliver the major address.

More than a thousand persons are expected to attend the day-long conference from throughout the state. In addition to honoring the state's expanding industries, the program will reveal the results of an interstate study on plant location incentives being offered by the nation's leading industrial states.

Steve Messenger, president of the Friona Chamber, states that plans are being made to have a good delegation from Friona at the conference.

August Mishaps Kill 3 Persons In Deaf Smith

Three persons were killed, six persons were injured and an estimated property loss of $11,265 were recorded in Deaf Smith County during the month of August.

According to Sgt. W. E. Wells Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area, some 14 accidents were investigated during August.

The August figure brought the year's total to six persons killed, 36 injured and an estimated property damage of $78,065.

Deaf Smith County is surpassed in traffic deaths only by six other counties in a 31-county area.

ed out because of the code he said, has been in connection with a boy who refused to abide by the regulations governing the length of hair.

As of the Tuesday board meeting, the boy was still out of school after being suspended until he could meet with the code's provisions. The youth came to school with a wig, giving officials an outward indication he had met conditions of the code. That also was ruled unacceptable.

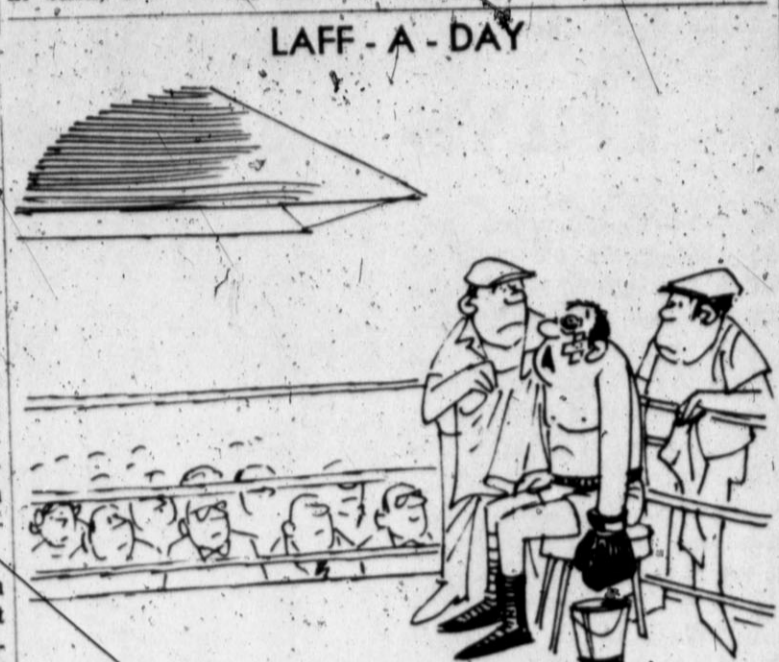

"Why, he was just testing you, seeing if he could get away with it," said Sharp. The board voted unanimously for the code, although Sharp said he felt the Supreme Court would say the school is denying the boy his education, if a case were made and ever carried that far.

"I don't think so," Hartman said, pointing out the recent case of the federal court upholding the Pampa School Board on its suspension of a youth for having long hair. "Whenever there's been a code, they've upheld it. And, I think enough people are fed up with this thing that things are beginning to change."

The Hereford code calls for hair length not to fall below eye level in front or the collar line in back, and leaving the ears fully exposed. It also calls on clean-shaven faces; and blocked sideburns, no lower than the ear lobe. The code says "extreme hair styles" are not acceptable.

The Good Old Days

We constantly hear people talking about the 'good old days' and we've been wondering what was so good about them.

What we remember best about the 'good old days' was having to get out of bed in the wee hours of the morning, stepping onto a cold wooden floor in our bare feet (couldn't afford house shoes) and all the children gathering around the old coal stove in the family room. That was the room where the parents slept and the only one with a heater.

We also remember fighting the flies and mosquitoes in the summer time and the lack of bathroom facilities in the house. What greater pleasure than taking a bath in a No. 10 wash tub? Or having to scour the pasture for dried cow chips to heat water for the wash? Which incidentally, was usually done on a rub board.

We also remember having to sit out on the front porch at night because it was too hot inside to sleep, and we can remember well that two-mile hike to school on cold winter mornings and having to keep our coats on most of the day because the old stove in the one-room country school didn't keep the place warm.

We remember also that the only newspapers we saw were those plastered on the walls and ceilings as wallpaper and when we finally managed to purchase a wind-charger to keep the batteries up we got a radio and one electric light.

That's what we remember best about the "Good old days" and frankly, you can have them. We'll rough it like it is today with wall-to-wall carpeting, a house with two baths, refrigerated air conditioning, a sanitary sewage system, city fly eradication programs, color television sets, modern automobiles, telephones, insulated and properly heated houses, and all the other things that we're so fortunate to enjoy.

We really consider these things necessities, but if you wish you can always give them up and go back to the "Good old days". But leave us here. We like it like it is.

We Need Idea Men

Our community and county have many needs, not the least of which is for more idea men.

Every good and worthwhile thing we have began with an idea!

Idea men are often in disrepute because not every idea advanced works. It's sort of like prospecting for oil. There are more dry holes than the other kind. And we remember the many failures longer than we remember the few successes.

Tulia is hungry for industry. We need it. We need it badly!

And when we think of industry, we think of a major meat packing establishment or something similar. We think of an outside concern coming in and setting up. And this is a worthy goal. We can well afford to pay the price of such industry.

But life isn't a bed of roses for a community even after such an industry has been secured.

Industry, in many instances, is ruthless. It is totally selfish. It thinks only of its own best interests. It often has a "community be damned" attitude.

Week after week we follow the accounts of new industry in other communities. We read where the community pays a big price to secure an industry, then the industry decides it likes some other location better... and it picks up its few personal belongings and takes off! The community is left with problems, not the least of which is finding a new industry to occupy a building and to give jobs to the people left jobless.

This is not intended to discourage the search for outside industry. With all the headaches, it's worth the cost and more too.

It's better to have loved and lost than never to have loved... so said the writer.

One town not far from Tulia voted bonds to construct a quite suitable air conditioned building for a garment manufacturer. It employed a number of people. Then without warning, the manufacturer moved out!

The community was left with its building and 100 to 200 people without jobs. But... because it had the building and the trained people, the community promptly secured a much better manufacturer than the first one.

Even more desirable than one from the outside is a home grown industry!

B. Raymond Evans... an idea man... and a partner had an idea right here in Tulia about 20 years ago. The idea clicked... and an industry was developed here which was the envy of any community in the state! It became Tulia's biggest payroll! It wasn't just a big company outpost in the boondocks employing a few low paid, uneducated workers. It was the headquarters. It employed all types of people, including many able to build new homes in Highland Park or Mackenzie.

Because this was Evans' county and home, we all knew where his interests and loyalty were. We didn't wake up each morning wondering if he had decided to move his business to some other community that perhaps offered a slightly better location.

Tulia has been fortunate in having other natives who have had ideas. Wylie Byrd, Elwood Bates... to name two. We have had local citizens who grabbed the ball and ran when the feedlot industry developed in this area.

This local 'industry'... and it really is industry... is industry at its best! Its owners care about what happens to Tulia and Swisher County. They are loyal, interested citizens.

One of these days, corporate farming... at its worst... is coming to Swisher County. It isn't going to shoot its way in. It's coming because the present generation of farmers have to throw in the towel... or because the sons of the next generation aren't going to want to farm when they can go to college, learn a profession and get a far greater return on their investment.

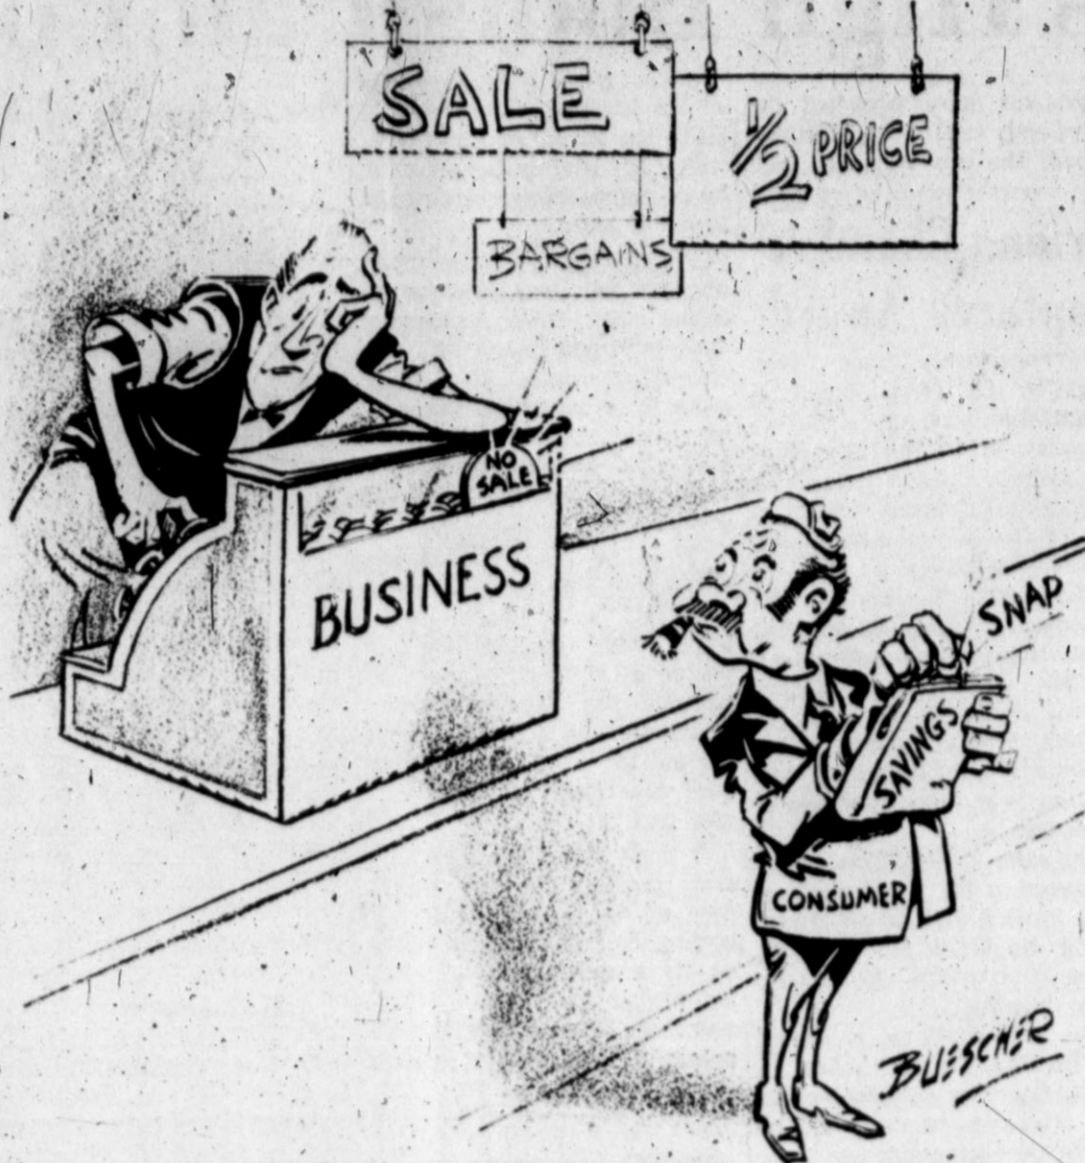

And the land will be for sale! Needed as never before is an idea man... someone who might figure out a way to keep out the corporate farmer. Several have mentioned a 'local corporation' if we must have corporate farming, if that is the only way farming can be made profitable. They suggest that a group of farmers consolidate their holdings, incorporate, and issue stock, much like any other corporation. They would then enjoy the benefits of bigness... and perhaps there are some.

The green spots on the economic maps of the future will be found where there are 'idea men.' —Tulia Herald

This country is so flat financially that now even the electric wire manufacturers are turning out flat wire.

Another reason why many men carry family snapshots in their wallets is that it helps them resist the urge to use the assortment of credit cards they also have therein.

Chamber Works For Defeat Of Big-Spending Legislators

by BERT MILLS

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Businessmen throughout the nation are being urged to help defeat for reelection 152 members of the House who have been labeled "Big Spenders" because they voted to override President Nixon's vetoes of four bills he considered too expensive.

The message was conveyed in an "Action Report for Business Leaders" sent by the Chamber of Commerce of the U. S. to 170,000 members, including executives of 2,700 local Chambers of Commerce, 1,100 trade and professional associations, and 39,000 firms, corporations and individuals. Underlying membership of the U. S. Chamber is more than 5 million.

The Chamber published an editorial entitled: "Remember: It's Your Money They're Spending." Accompanying it was a cartoon showing a fat politician emerging from the dome of the U. S. Capitol, casting dollar bills to the winds while a voter watched, ballot in hand.

The editorial said: "Every one's dollar is shrinking — fast. It will keep shrinking until deficit spending by our Federal government becomes unpopular. And that won't happen until the public demands that Washington become fiscally responsible and keeps the Big Spenders out of public office."

The problem, according to the Chamber, is that despite prosperity the U. S. has spent more than its income in nine of the last ten years, doubling the Federal debt since 1961. The interest on the debt cost taxpayers $19 billion last year.

More Inflation Forecast

Value of the dollar has shrunk 24 cents since 1960 — a nickel of it just last year. Predicted deficit this fiscal year is $10 billion plus, and still higher in fiscal 1972. The Chamber estimates that even if the present Congress does no more spending, uncontrollable costs from past actions of prior Congresses will total $10 billion in the next two years, including the effects of inflation.

Rep. George H. Mahon (D., Tex.), Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, has warned Congress that the legislators will hear from taxpayers about excessive spending, saying: "We will have that matter called to our attention in November."

The Chamber published a list of 152 House members who voted to spend more than President Nixon thinks wise on all four of the vetoed bills. They came from 34 states, from Maine to Hawaii, from Washington to Florida. Most are from big cities, and all except eight are Democrats.

The Chamber asked: "Is your man in Congress a Big Spender? Does he vote for spending programs which benefit some of the people but really raise taxes and prices for all of us? If he has no regard for your tax dollar does he deserve your tax dollar? Or your vote?"

Half from 5 States

Nearly half of the Congressmen on the "spender" list are from five big states. There are 20 from New York, 17 from California, 13 from Pennsylvania, 12 from Texas, and 11 from Illinois. All except six Democrats from New York and four from California are on the list.

Only 13 from the deep South are on the list, including Reps. Jones (Ala.), Fassel, Gibbons and Sikes (Fla.), Boggs of Louisiana, Friedel, Garmatz and Gude (Md.), Galifianakis (N.C.), Dorn (S.C.), Blanton and Jones (Tenn.), and Whitehurst (Va.). The only Republicans in that group are Gude and Whitehurst.

Massachusetts has eight Democrats in its House delegation. Speaker McCormack does not vote and is not running for reelection, but the other seven are all listed as "spenders." New Jersey has nine House Democrats and only Rep. Daniels escaped the list. Six out of seven Michigan Democrats are listed, excluding Mrs. Griffiths, and 12 of 14 Pennsylvania Democrats, plus Republican Fulton. All four Wisconsin Democrats are named.

Majority Leader Carl Albert of Oklahoma is listed as a "spender," as is the only Democrat from Arizona, both from Hawaii, and all three from Colorado. Ohio has six Democrats, all except Kirwan on the list, which also includes Republican Whalen. Three of four Indiana Democrats are listed, excluding Hamilton.

Spending is only one criteria that voters should use in determining which candidates deserve support but the tabulation supplied by the Chamber is a useful guide for those who advocate economy in government.

Talk of Texas

BY JACK MAGUIRE

HOW IT BEGAN — Canton's famed "First Monday," a monthly outdoor shop-and-swap fair that has become one of the largest community trading markets in the U. S. had its beginnings in a courtroom!

On the first Monday in December, 1848, a circuit judge arrived in Canton to hold his first court. Since there was no courthouse, he ordered chairs and benches set out under a tree. Two farmers waiting for court to convene began discussing their favorite horses. After much discussion they decided to swap even.

Horse-trading continued thereafter on each circuit court day, which happened to be the first Monday of each month. Soon it became a major attraction in Canton.

Today "First Monday" (actually Sunday and Monday) draws some 800 dealers in almost everything to the Van Zandt County town. As many as 10,000 prospective buyers sometimes show up.

WHAT'S IN A NAME? — The only Texas town to be named for the American flag was settled by German immigrants.

It is Old Glory, in eastern Stonewall County. Settled in 1903, it was called New Brandenburg originally. During World War I, however, anti-German sentiment was so prevalent that the citizens decided to show their allegiance to the U. S. in a very practical way. They gave their town the nickname of the flag.

TRAVELING TEXAS — Franklin Delano Roosevelt's old "shooting stick seat" that the crippled President used to prop himself into a sitting position reposes today in a unique museum in Odessa.

Known simply as the Presidential Museum, the collection was started by John Ben Sheppard, former attorney general of Texas. His purpose: "To bring about a better understanding of, and respect for, to depict in a positive manner the fact that the Presidency of the United States is a great and noble responsibility."

Today the museum has on display more than 2,500 original documents and personal effects representing each of the 36 men who have served in the nation's highest office. The collection ranges from the buttons from one of George Washington's uniforms to a favorite red parasol that belonged to F. D. R.

LEGENDS THAT LIVE — One winter more than 100 years ago, an itinerant peddler came through the area south of Houston selling what he said were small magnolia trees.

Unsuspecting buyers wondered at their strange appearance but planted them anyway. The next spring the trees bore fruit — a new variety of fig never seen in the area. It was named appropriately, "Magnolia."

Today the Magnolia fig — which refuses to grow anywhere except in an area along, and 50 miles inland from, the upper Gulf coast — is a major industry. This year about 400 acres of the prize figs will be grown in a 20-mile radius of the Galveston County town of Friendswood.

65 YEARS AGO — 1905

All this part of the Panhandle was made so put on new life this week as a result of the copious rain which fell Tuesday morning. Aside from filling out the fast-maturing crops, the ground is left in splendid condition for sowing wheat. The cloudy, damp days which we have had since the rain fell have prevented rapid evaporation and hence the ground has had the full benefit of the moisture.

"I find Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets more beneficial than any other remedy I ever used for stomach trouble," says J. P. Klote, of Edina, Missouri. For any disorder of the stomach, biliousness or constipation, these tablets are without a peer.

30 YEARS AGO — 1929

The question of the county's issuing bonds for the erection of a County Hospital, agitated so extensively last year, was again brought up at Monday's luncheon, with the result that President McDonald was authorized to appoint a special committee to look into the matter. The opportunity to secure that much-desired modern hotel for Hereford has again bobbed up, and the Chamber of Commerce is working vigorously on it right now.

5 YEARS AGO — 1965

Awards to outstanding chapters and individuals in Area I Young Farmers and Young Homemakers of Texas were presented at a banquet here Saturday evening which closed the annual one-day area convention of both organizations. Some 500 persons from throughout the Panhandle were present to applaud recipients of the awards... Hereford Whitefaces put together a dazzling offense dominating the statistics charts but not the score board in a season-opening bout with Plainview Friday night. The Faces... who limited Plainview to only 31 yards of movement in 14 plays from scrimmage during the second half... unveiled a passing attack which offered the estimated 6,000 viewers thrill after thrill. Hereford went behind 13-8 just before the end of the first half then came back to camp at the edge of paydirt several times during the second half, but what are the Whitefaces to do could not manage a score.

25 YEARS AGO — 1935

Exploding under 125 pounds of pressure, an air compressor at the garage of Brumley Chevrolet Company blew up Wednesday afternoon, cracking across beams of the building and causing a tremor felt a block away. Jim Kirby, who was on the opposite side of the automobile from the compressor was thrown against the wall but was unhurt... Tradition is one of the strongest forces behind any athletic team. So what are the Whitefaces to do could not manage a score.

Couple At Home After Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. David Ronald Euler are at home at 6613 Lariat Drive on Mid-Continent campus at Amarillo, where both are students, after their recent marriage in First Baptist Church at Denver City.

The bride is the former Miss Linda Jayne Kent, daughter of James Kent, who gave her in marriage, and Mrs. Kent of Denver City. The afternoon the Rev. J. Wayland Edwards of Artesia, N. M.

Candle trees decorated with greenery and apricot satin ribbons were centered with ivy-twined columns holding a chevron container of white gladiolus as a background for the wedding party.

Bridal white peau de soie made Miss Kent's gown, with fitted lace sleeves and inverted lace scallops at the portrait neckline. The skirt, with front lace panel, spread into a circular train.

Her elbow length veil was held by a circlet of deed pearls, and pearlized orange blossoms on a white Bible, and her jewelry was a diamond drop, the bridegroom's gift.

Her maid of honor was a cousin, Miss Gail Bailey of Lubbock, and bridesmaids were Miss Kay Ann Euler, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Susie Pharr of Leon, Kansas. They were dressed in apricot organza over peau de soie and each carried a rose of the same color.

David Ruland of Hereford served as best man, Ken Bob Shannon of Hereford and Steve Smith of Dimmitt as groomsmen, Larry and Ricky Kent as ushers. The flower girls dressed like the bridesmaids but in lime green, was Debbie Smith of Panhandle, the bridegroom's cousin Brian Matthews of Killeen, carried the rings.

Donnie Pharr of Lubbock, vocalist, and Bill Woods of Seagraves presented wedding music.

A reception in the community building was held before the couple left for a short trip. An anniversary candle was set among apricot flowers to center the table which held the wedding cake with touches of apricot in the decoration.

The bridegroom's parents were hosts for the rehearsal dinner in the community building in the evening before the wedding. Wedding members and the bride's parents were guests, with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kenall, grandparents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Smith and Mrs. Bill Matthews.

Dogs Suffer In Hot Weather, Too

Many dogs are lost each year because of carelessness on the part of their owners and because people haven't taken time to consider their pets' well-being in relation to weather conditions, according to the Texas Veterinary Medical Association. Our companion animals, as well as their masters, have become so accustomed to air-conditioning that they have a difficult time living without it. Then, when we humans fail to "think," poor Rover may not have a chance, says Dr. A. B. Haws, small animal practitioner of Austin. The most obvious and common example of this is the plight of a dog left in a parked car while the driver dashes into the supermarket. It becomes a race against the clock, and sometimes the dog loses, he said.

ask ourselves if we would be comfortable in our pet's place, Dr. Haws describes. They have about the same tolerance for heat that we have. Another fallacy of pet care is to give long-haired dogs a close haircut which the owner thinks will make him cooler. This is usually a mistake. Unless the fur is badly matted, it should be left its natural length. The skin of the dog does not perspire, so it is unable to produce much cooling effect. Dogs eliminate excess heat by panting, and hair should be kept for insulation.

External parasites are another problem which is accentuated in the summer and fall. Fleas cause more discomfort than most people realize, and it takes a continuous program to control them. Flea collars, if used properly, are safe and helpful. Powders, dips, and baths are good if used often enough. However, a flea treatment once a week may have very little effect. This is because we are dealing with an entire flea colony. Some of the adult fleas will be on the dog at bath time, but most of them will be somewhere around the house and yard as will be the flea-eggs and nymphs. Therefore, as soon as the dog gets dry, he picks up another batch of free loaders. The most effective method is to treat the dog and the premises at the same time, and then to continue some treatment of the dog.

Pets are a pleasure to us, but also a responsibility and require some forethought and consideration for their comfort and safety, concludes Dr. Haws.

Sorghum Field Is Planned For Plainview Soon

Pioneer Sorghum Company is sponsoring a Field Day for anyone interested in grain sorghum production at the company's Plainview Plant and Research Station, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 10:30 a. m. to 2:30 p. m.

The Plainview Station is located two miles north of Plainview on Business 87 HIGHWAY. Sorghum breeders will conduct guided tours through the sorghum nursery and yield test plots where guests will observe sorghums, corns, and millets. Another item of interest includes a tour of the Plant showing how seed proceeds from the truck to the seed bag for storage — how it is carefully handled all the way to assure quality.

Facilities under construction include a new storage unit where temperature and humidity will be carefully controlled, and a larger capacity seed receiving and handling setup.

A barbeque lunch will be served from 11:30 a. m. to 1 p. m.

Tech Adopts Strict Policy On ID Cards

Texas Tech student affairs and athletic officials have announced a stepped up strict enforcement policy with regard to misuse of student identification cards.

The cards are used to admit students to football and basketball games and other events on campus.

"The use of a student identification card by anyone other than the person to whom it is issued will result in dismissal from the university," Dean of Students Lewis N. Jones quoted from the "Code of Student Affairs and Rules and Regulations."

Jones said any alterations to the card or stickers on it will subject the student to disciplinary action as provided by the "Code of Students Affairs" and on each student's ID card.

"Failure to present student identification cards to any member of the faculty, staff or administrative body when requested may subject the student to probation or to suspension from the university," Jones said.

If there is evidence a person other than the owner of the identification card is using it at a football or basketball game, the card will be taken at that time and turned over the proper authorities for further investigation.

"If an unauthorized person gains admission to a Tech football game by using a student's identification card, it simply robs the athletic department of $6," Jones said.

Students gaining admission on ID cards will enter Jones Stadium through Gate 4 at the southeast corner. Married students may buy season tickets to the six home football games for $15 for their spouses.

Students with off-campus dates may purchase "date tickets" for their guests in the student section at the regular price of $6 per game. For night games, the gates open at 5:30 p. m.

BLUE MONDAY

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa — Researchers at the Human Sciences Laboratory here have decided not to do comparative tests on Mondays. The tests are designed to evaluate the effects of certain conditions on humans.

Commenting on the "Blue Monday" effect, Dr. N. B. Nolte, deputy director of the lab, says "The subjects we use in the comparative tests are never quite up to it on that day. We cannot understand why, although it may be that they are still suffering from the physiological effects of the weekend."

"After all, don't we all feel bad on Monday mornings?" asks Nolte. The lab has not scheduled comparative tests on Mondays for 14 years.

Well, a field goal in the last seconds is a hard way to lose a football game but it's been done before. Regardless, it was an exciting game and we led for a short time. By the way, Worth Covington tells us that we were wrong about beating Pampa twice in a row. It seems that we lost the contest two years ago in the last few minutes of the game much like we did last night.

Anyway, one football game doesn't make a season. We have nine more to go.

Some of the towns in our area have been upset over the loss of their postmark, and we suppose it's natural, but after checking with Postmaster Nolan Grady, and looking over some of the savings to the post office department, we find it a little hard to criticize. Since the cancelling operations have been taken over by the sectional centers, there has been a tremendous savings in man hours for the post office department. For instance, in one 4-week accounting period in the Lubbock area, a saving of 800 man hours was made in the area post offices while adding only 43 hours in the sectional center.

Isn't that the kind of savings we've been wanting? We believe it is, and although we understand the thinking of the smaller towns concerning the post mark, we believe the ultimate savings in dollars is more important. Certainly, it hurts to have your mail bear an Amarillo or Lubbock post mark and we believe that it would be easier to take if a regional post mark were used rather than the city's. That idea has been presented to the post office department by the way, and could come about.

—HB—
Although we have retained our local post mark, we have learned that for the past two or three years, all mail going into the outside boxes after 6 p. m. has been picked up by the truck and taken directly to Amarillo to be cancelled there. And that practice continues.

In other words, if you want to delay your mail until the following morning just to get a local post mark, drop it into the slot inside the post office. But if you want it to leave that evening, then you simply deposit it in the outside box. By handling the mail this way, it eliminates an extra hand at the post office for those hours after 6 p. m.

Actually, it's the service that counts as far as we're concerned. If we can get overnight service into Lubbock, Dallas, Fort Worth,

MAKING SOMETHING OF HER LIFE — Viola Williams, volunteer representative for Girlstown, is shown with a certificate from the Cattle Rustlers Club for her successful scouting efforts this summer to ac-

Viola Williams Enjoys Scouting For Girlstown

By JANIE REINART
Staff Writer

Mrs. Viola Williams visited Girlstown six years ago with a Home Demonstration Club group and continues to return quite frequently.

WHY DOES SHE return and what is her purpose?

Mrs. Williams has devoted her time and efforts to building Girlstown into something uppermost in peoples' minds and keeping it well-cared for.

She visits the girls at the residence home in Whiteface often, and they all call her Aunt Vi.

She was appointed four years ago through recommendations by three board members to serve on the Girlstown Board of Directors. They meet quarterly and make any decisions necessary concerning Girlstown issues.

The board serves two and three year terms and members are often reappointed when their term expires.

WHEN MRS. WILLIAMS first visited Girlstown in 1964 she saw the great need for help. Since that time she has been scouting for food, clothing and money donations in the immediate area.

The home survives on donations made by area clubs, clothing and food stores, feedlots and vegetable sheds.

A few examples of her scouting ventures are making speeches at home demonstration and civic club meetings, visiting with managers of vegetable sheds and feedlots and once a week she collects a car load of goods from Amarillo stores.

"HOME DEMONSTRATION Clubs in Hereford sponsor a girl each year by selecting a name and on special occasions send gifts, clothing and spending money," she explained. "The girls have a very small money allowance."

"A local Lions club provided new coats and shoes for all 71 girls last winter," she said, "and schools and churches in Hereford and Deaf Smith County have been very good. We deeply appreciate their help."

There will be a dedication Saturday at Girlstown for 50 guest lights donated by the Federated Women's organization.

THE HOME AT WHITEFACE was started by Miss Amelia Anthony in 1949. More than 900 girls from broken homes have made their homes there.

Since it began they have had three infants reside here and have acquired the third, a 4-month-old baby, this week. "We need clothes for her if we can get them," she said.

With all the activities Mrs. Williams has found herself getting "deeper and deeper in it all the time" but says she thoroughly enjoys it.

"It involves a lot of traveling and includes a lot of work but I feel as though I'm doing something with my life. This is something good for me and for someone else also."

AN EXTENSION HOME was started in Borger four years ago with 14 girls presently living there. Mrs. Williams visits the Borger home, a branch of Girlstown which is operated much the same, on special occasions.

She meets with Marshall Cooper, executive director of both locations, about twice a month.

On holidays and during the summer months girls come to Hereford to stay with Mrs. Williams in her home at 404 Western. "The limit for girls staying with sponsors is two weeks,"

At The Library

Novel Tells Of The Nuclear Tomorrow.

Available at the Deaf Smith County Library this week is a chilling suspense story which tells of our military and leads up to a world of nuclear power, destruction, and fate for mankind. Check it out today.

FORCE RED.

By Milton R. Bass

Here is storytelling at its spellbinding, chilling best, set against a high-level military and political background.

In the not so distant future, Force Red, the elite nuclear police agency of the United States, is threatened with dissolution. Reluctant to relinquish power and position, General Breed, head of Force Red, resolves to take over the nuclear bases.

In an awesome conflict, the forces of savagery and violence (General Breed) confront the humanitarian voice of reason and restraint (The President and Senator Kenner). Hanging in the balance; nuclear destruction and the fate of mankind.

Force Red could be straight out of today's headlines. It is the story of "overtrained" men of the military—men who have cast off the bonds of civilization and the inhibitions drilled into them by society. Indeed, they are no longer social animals; they have become uncontrollable and function solely on instinct, robbing, killing, raping.

And here are brilliantly drawn characterizations of those who people the Pentagon, the White House, and Congress.

A lapsed liberal, attractive, cunning "chum" of the president but not subject to his orders, a demagogue who is himself a possible candidate for the office, General Breed is feared by the military and despised by conventional politicians.

Opposed to him is Senator Kenner, a high-minded and devoted public servant—a man who must balance principal against personal considerations when he learns that his beautiful young daughter is hopelessly in love with Breed.

Skillfully told and swiftly paced, this novel will provide both excitement and food for thought to everyone concerned with the world of tomorrow.

Special Review Of Books Set For Children

Young story lovers will have their innings again at the Tuesday morning On The Carpet review in Christian Book Store, when Mrs. Frances Tamez will present a book by Laura Wilder. A previous review of a children's book was given last month.

The public is invited to this, as to each of the weekly reviews beginning at 10 a. m., and a special invitation is given to children this week. Mrs. Wilder writes of her recollections as a child growing up in midwestern prairie states.

Reviews for the fall months are announced by Mrs. Earl Springer. Mrs. Joe Reinauer is to present The Prophet, by Gibran Kahlin, on Sept. 22 and Mrs. Dale Henson, president of Sweet and Fancy Decorating Club, will demonstrate Cake Decorator's Dream Sept. 29.

In October Miss Della Stagner will review Shantung Compound; Mrs. Walter Davies, Lit the Visits With God, and the Rev. Eugene Brink, the David Wilkerson books.

and pools and flashy cars. Close up it is a bizarre; an unreal world of restless, uprooted women and driven men where sex is another party game and alcohol the common household remedy for tension and loneliness. Dr. Michael Barnes gets an opportunity for some first-hand observations when he returns after eight years. He still bears the stigma of being the only astronaut whose mission was pronounced a failure; his is still haunted by the nightmare of being trapped in a space capsule with a faulty oxygen system.

He comes back, at the behest of an old friend in the Senate, to investigate the Pegasus Space Program. Barnes is appalled by what he finds.

In his new novel Frank Slaughter looks into the private lives of the men who publicly probe the mysteries of outer space. Men like Paul Taggart, dynamic head of Taggart Aircraft, with his alcoholic wife and doomed teen-age daughter; Asa Childs, the homosexual technician; Hal Brennan, former astronaut who will do almost anything to become Governor of Florida.

Dr. Slaughter combines his skill as a writer with his expertise in space technology in a tale that builds to one of fiction's most shattering climaxes. In the last moments of the countdown, television cameras trained on the giant Pegasus spacecraft pick up a strange figure moving toward the launching pad.

memo to advertisers

What is the A.B.C.?

Chatting with a merchant the other day, we mentioned our "ABC figure."

"What," he asked, "is an ABC figure?"

Perhaps what we told him will also interest you.

This newspaper is a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations, an independent, nonprofit organization of nearly 4,000 advertisers, advertising agencies, and publishers.

Its purpose is to provide accurate and factual reports on the circulations of member publishers. In the advertising and publishing industry, the ABC insignia is often referred to as the "hallmark of circulation values."

At regular intervals, an ABC traveling auditor visits our office to check our records. The findings of this physical audit are embodied in an Audit Report published by ABC — the report literally tells us what our circulation is:

Virtually everything an advertiser should know about our circulation is found in this report, facts and figures without opinions.

Few retailers bother to ask to see a copy of our report; yet we want you to know one is available anytime you're interested in the quality and quantity of our circulation audience — the audience for your advertising messages.

What is an ABC figure?

It is our way of assuring you that you get full measure for your advertising dollar in this newspaper.

-Small Talk-

BY SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

There was a popular song some years ago that - I think maybe should have been more popular because its title gave advice all of us need at times - "If You Have To Take It, Take It Easy."

A LOT OF PEOPLE say admiringly, "He sure can take it" or brag that "I can take it" when bad luck comes along, but the trouble is, most of them take it hard, and complain so loudly and long they annoy everyone within earshot.

Seems like Corinne Neely follows directions of the song title, whether or not she ever heard it. She even decided to make a good thing of a long session in the hospital.

Feeling better, she expects to be able to go home soon, but must spend much of her time in bed there for a few weeks.

Most of Corinne's friends know she underwent surgery in the summer, but many don't know that after she was out of the hospital, practically well, she was hit from another direction, by hepatitis, and had to go back to the hospital for a longer stay.

"THIS IS MY VACATION," she said cheerfully the first time in. "Where else could I spend two weeks in a room nicer than those in most hotels, with a view like that," as she gestured to the tree-studded lawn and blooming shrubs outside her big window, "and no work to do, meals served by waiters I like to talk with?"

But when she had to come back, there was an excuse for impatience even resentment. If she feels that, she doesn't express it.

"During the years I got up early and went to work all day every day my idea of bliss was to have nothing to do, time to lie in bed or sit at ease, reading, watching television or talking with friends. Now every day that I must stay in is one of those blissful days."

Weekend Bride Complimented

Miss Brenda Keener, who became the bride of Richard Kuper this weekend, was honored with a shower recently in the Community Room of First National Bank.

Miss Stacy Keener, sister of the honoree, registered 23 guests while Mrs. Charles Short of Friona and Mrs. Marcel Fischbacher served refreshments from a table laid with white net over satin with lace trim.

The table was centered with yellow and white roses and gladiolas around candelabra with yellow candles.

Hostesses were Meses, A. F. Marnell, Johnnie Dupnik, Short, Fischbacher, Henry Kuper, Gerald Banner, Herschel Burus, Lester Wagner and Allen Evers.

Mum corsages were presented to the honoree, her sister and mother, Mrs. W. M. Keener of Clovis and Mrs. Walter Kuper, mother of the bridegroom-to-be. Out-of-town guests included Miss Keener's grandmother, Mrs. O. M. Keener of Chatsworth, Ga.

don and Clark.

Out-of-town wedding guests included Mrs. O. M. Keener, grandmother of the bride from Chatsworth, Georgia.

Mrs. James Paetzold and Miss Mary Lynn Short served cake and Misses Diane and Doris Fangman laded punch and served coffee.

The reception table was laid with a yellow cloth and centered with the bride's bouquet and her attendants' flowers.

For a wedding trip to Colorado Springs the bride wore a brown chiffon frock with matching accessories.

The couple will make their home at 112 Northwest Drive. The bride is a 1969 graduate of West Side High School in Rocky Fare, Georgia and is employed at Taylors and Sons.

College Trustees Meet Wednesday

The Rev. Clifford Trotter of Hereford and the eight other of town, a CCA member can get his money's worth at the concerts here.

Probably many TV viewers saw a recent program where Don Shirley, the pianist who is to play here next March, was featured. My report came from Barbara and Hazen Woods, who were enthusiastic about his ability. He is one of the "hold" artists booked in advance this year.

THE CAWTHON BRYANTS, the John David Bryants and the Bob Veigels were in Santa Fe for the recent Fiesta, where each year in that celebration with a Spanish flavor the figure of Old Man Gloom is burned to get rid of the bad spirits.

The Hereford couples visited the Ray Smiths in Santa Fe and enjoyed Fiesta events down to the pet parade. They said they went to see the Indians but saw hippies instead.

High Plains area trustees of McMurry College are scheduled to attend an orientation meeting in Amarillo Wednesday.

At the seminar, trustees are briefed on the background of McMurry, its relationship to the United Methodist Church, and its role in the education of ministers.

The meeting at the Polk Street United Methodist Church, begins at 3:30 p. m. and will close with a 6:30 p. m. dinner. Other trustees invited to the meeting are Dr. J. Walter Browers Jr., Dr. Charles E. Lutrick, and Mr. Farris Oden, all of Amarillo; the Rev. Ted J. Dotts of Pampa; the Rev. Davis Edens of Dalhart; Mr. L. D. Patton of Borger; Mr. Jim Waterfield of Canadian; and Mr. Gaston Wells of Dumas.

Miss Brenda Sue Keener Bride Of Richard Kuper

Miss Brenda Sue Keener became the bride of Richard John Kuper Friday evening in St. Anthony's Catholic Church with the Rev. Father Michael Graham officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Keener of Clovis. Kuper is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kuper, west of Hereford.

Vows were read as the couple knelt before two baskets of mums. Along the white bridal aisle were streamers attached to the pews.

Presenting the program of nuptial music were Mrs. Allen Evers, organist, and Larry Kuper vocalists. Selections included "More, The Lord's Prayer and Twelfth of Never.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a fitted gown of silk organza and chantilly lace featuring a Victorian neckline and sheer full sleeves caught at the wrists by deep cuffs. The A-line lace skirt was overlaid with a full sheer organza skirt edged in scalloped lace and cascading into a chapel train.

Her matching camelot cap of chantilly lace re-embroidered in seed pearls was accented by a satin ribbon bow. The chapel veil was trimmed in lace.

Keeping the "something old, something new" tradition the bride wore her grandmothers wedding ring, a blue garter, and carried the handkerchief of a friend, Mrs. B. B. Noyes.

Miss Rose Mary Fangman was maid of honor; Misses Evelyn Kuper, sister of the bridegroom, and Robin Keener, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids.

Miss Kermer's younger sister, Juliana, was flower girl and

The attendants wore gold satin gowns overlaid with yellow chiffon and carried yellow carnations.

Rick Fangman served as best man and Johnny Kuper and Johnny Husmann were groomsmen. Ushers were Roy Kuper, brother of the bridegroom; Charles D. Short of Friona, cousin of the bride; Nick Milburn and Bill Johnson.

Misses Stacy Keener and Alice Kuper registered guests at the reception in the Knights of Columbus Hall following the ceremony.

Mrs. James Paetzold and Miss Mary Lynn Short served cake and Misses Diane and Doris Fangman laded punch and served coffee.

THOSE CRAZY EPISCOPALIANS! imagine kneeling in public! It's true. A lot of Episcopalians (not all) kneel during parts of the service. They have a funny way of looking at worship. They don't attend church for the primary purpose of enjoying stirring sermons or beautiful hymns. "This is no spectator sport," they say. Worship, to them, means offering a bit of themselves to God. Their first thought is one of giving... not receiving. Kneeling - sometimes helps. Sure! Episcopalians, too, have music and "messages from the pulpit." But if the choir is lousy - or the sermon something less than eloquent - the hour isn't really wasted. Every individual gives a bit of himself. And if kneeling seems to help, then God probably doesn't mind. Maybe you wouldn't mind, either, if you learned the reasons behind some of the Episcopalian peculiarities: "formal" services, refraining from chit-chat, reading from a prayer book, and offering guidelines - not straight-jackets - for Christian living. Your nearby Episcopal minister would be flattered to discuss them... without even "twisting your arm." One of a series presented by "Those Crazy Episcopalians" in your area. St. Thomas' Episcopal Church 601 West Park 364-0146 The Rev. Fred J. Howard, Vicar Come by for a visit. Or better still, come to the "Crazy Seminar" Wednesday night at 8. We meet at the Church, have coffee, and talk about Episcopal Church. And no one gets their arm twisted.

Recipes To Cook Rabbit

By Mrs. Argen Draper
Home Demonstration Agent

Our sincere thanks to Mrs. Bud Fisher for the cookbook of rabbit recipes. It is compiled by the Texas Hi-Plains Commercial Rabbit Raisers Association. Mrs. Fisher's recipes follow:

RABBIT MEXICAN STYLE
2 rabbits (1 to 1 1/2 lbs. each)
1 C. peanut oil
Flour
2 small chili peppers
2 garlic cloves, crushed
Cut legs from rabbits and cut backs in three pieces. Preheat heavy kettle, add oil and heat. Drop in chili peppers, and let them fry until brown, pressing them occasionally with a fork to extract the pepper juice, then discard.

Rub each piece of rabbit with the crushed garlic and then flour lightly. Sauté pieces in the chili flavored oil. When golden brown, remove from kettle and put into casserole or covered baking dish. Put in oven turned low to keep warm while the sauce is being prepared.

SAUCE

- 2 T., butter
- 1 large carrot, finely diced
- 1/2 C. finely chopped onion
- 3 T. chopped green pepper
- 1 C. chopped mushrooms
- 1 T. flour
- 2 C. chicken broth
- Juice of 1 small orange
- 1 heaping T. peanut butter
- 1/2 t. cumin seeds
- 1 T. toasted sesame seeds
- 3 cloves
- 3 slices orange peel
- Dash of nutmeg
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 1 T. chopped parsley

Pour off the oil in which the rabbit was cooked and add the butter. When hot, add carrots, onion, green pepper and mushrooms. Cook over a slow fire until almost done. Keep stirring and be careful not to let brown. Add the flour and mix well with vegetables, then add the broth and stir until slightly thickened. Add all of the rest of the ingredients except the parsley.

Let mixture simmer until thoroughly blended, about 10 minutes. Salt the rabbit in the casserole and pour over it the cooked sauce. Sprinkle with parsley, cover and bake in moderate oven for 1 hour, or until meat is tender.

1/4 C. all purpose flour
1 t. pepper
4 lbs. rabbit cut in serving pieces
2 t. salt
1/2 C. shortening
1 bay leaf
1 C. milk
1 small onion, sliced
Dredge rabbit with seasoned flour. Heat shortening in skillet, brown rabbit. When rabbit is brown and crisp, pour off all but 3 tablespoons shortening. Add bay leaf, onion, milk, turn heat to lower setting and simmer until meat is tender. Serves 4 to 6.

THE BOOK HAS lots of information and hints which you will appreciate.

It has recipes for rabbit, hot d'oeuvres, pickles, relishes, soups, salads, meat, vegetables, fish, poultry, breads, desserts, candy, jelly and preserves. Also, a caloric and diet section.

There is a soda fountain or restaurant reducing diet for the benefit of those who eat away from home. In fact, I have read the diets several times and haven't lost an ounce.

Incidentally, if you want to buy a book call Mrs. Fisher at 364-0269.

WHEN ATTENDING Westway Home Demonstration Club with Mrs. Andrew Kershen, we were highly impressed with a fall arrangement which she had made. It was tritacale, which was gathered dry, sprayed with clear plastic and arranged in a rustic vase.

You know Ronald Kershen sells and supervises the growing of tritacale. It is reported by farmers that this has proved to be a good crop.

GOOD NEWS FROM Atlanta; Patti Ragsdale has told us that she has recently been employed by Richey's. She will be working in the boutique department. This is only part time until November, then the job will be training in various departments until her graduation from Fashion Institute of America in February.

The exciting part is she will have a full time employment after graduation. It is always good to hear from Patti as she makes things so exciting.

HERE'S AN EXCERPT from a national financial prediction service. It is very shocking, but here it is:

"Now's the time to check your family living costs. If they are running higher than earlier expected, you have some time to get them back into line before the end of the year. This is important to avoid cash flow problems, and to have the income for debt repayment and investment which you had planned.

"Inflation is pushing prices and family living costs higher. Michigan record keeping families say their living expenses increased $1,000 per year — two years in a row. That's a large increase and must be considered in credit and financial plans for the future.

"Larger families normally spend more on family living than small families. But the Michigan records showed a wide range within family size. They ranged from under $3,000 to over $16,000 a year for a family of five or six. Knowing and managing family expenses will make planning much more valuable."

GATES BEGAN IN 1930

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — A forerunner of the modern race track starting gate was first used at Kentucky's Churchill Downs in 1930.

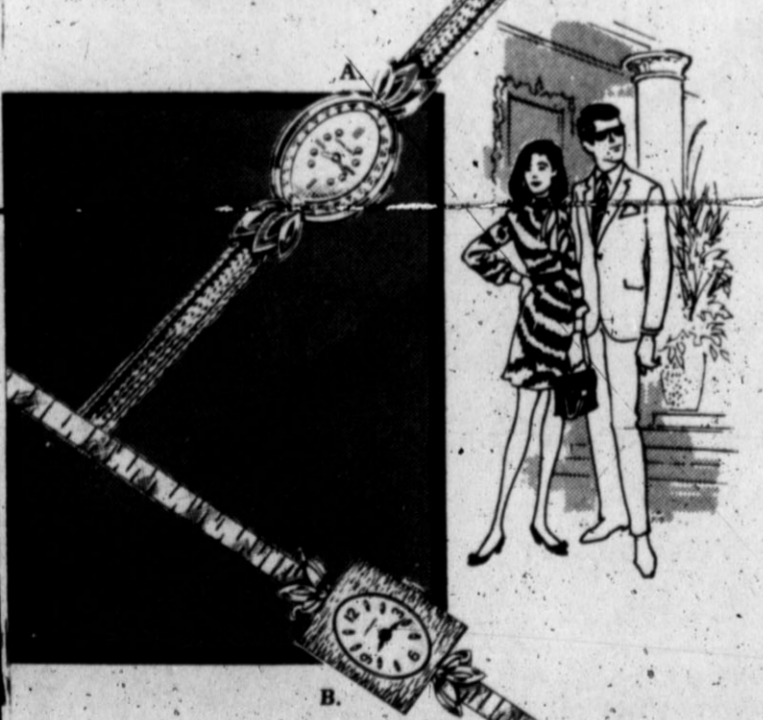

The device was called a "starting machine" and consisted of separate open stalls for the horses.

Owners were leary of putting their horses in stalls with closed gates for fear they wouldn't open. Gates were added to the stalls several years later.

SUPPORTING

YOUR TOWN

No business man in any town should allow a newspaper published in his town to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. This does not mean you should have a whole, half or even a quarter page ad in each issue of the paper, but your name and business should be mentioned if you do not use more than a two-line space.

A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a town by looking at the paper. This is the best possible town advertising. The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and the town. The man who insists on sharing the business that comes to town, but refuses to advertise his own, is not a valuable addition to any town. The life of a town depends on the live, wide-awake and liberal advertising business man.

P. S. How many new residents and out of town shoppers saw your name and business today; this week?

WHAT A BREAK! — High School principal Jerry Don George looks perplexed at the sight of ceiling tiles strewn about the school hallway recently. A water main between the first and second floors broke, causing considerable damage to the hallway, but due to quick detection and control by faculty, students and the Hereford Fire Department, offices and classroom were only slightly damaged. George and other officials seen in the background were later harassed for not abiding the recently proclaimed dress policies. —Photo courtesy The Whiteface

HANDSOME HOMES TO OPEN FOR BENEFIT TOUR

KINGS MANOR AUXILIARY will sponsor a benefit tour of homes from 2 to 7 p.m. Tuesday, inviting the public to see three of the city's most beautiful houses, furnishings and decor. Visitors may begin the tour at any of the homes, as tickets will be on sale at all three.

OPEN HOMES will be those of the Frank Fords, 405 Centre; the Gaylord Newells, 123 Liveoak, and the Keith Jordes, on Harrison Highway.

CRAFTS MATERIAL to be used by residents of Westgate, the hospital unit of Kings Manor retirement home here, will be the principal purchase from tour proceeds, Mrs. Hilton Higgins, Auxiliary president, has announced.

THE AUXILIARY, organized earlier this year, has as its chief purpose the contribution of time and materials to make life more pleasant for residents of the United Methodist retirement home. This is its first benefit event.

VOLUNTEER SERVICE in the Auxiliary is open to any interested woman, and those who would like to join the group are invited to telephone Kings Manor office or Mrs. Higgins and leave their names. In addition to the crafts program, volunteers visit residents, help them write letters, read to them or supply transportation.

FINANCE COMMITTEE of the Auxiliary is in charge of tour arrangements. Its members are Mmes. J. H. McCrary, Ray Carille, Rudy Metz and C. P. Worthan.

HOMELIKE ATMOSPHERE is evident in the fireplace and early American furniture in the Newell's living room, where Mrs. Newell relaxes in a rocking chair with Patti McCrary, daughter of the J. H. McCrarys, occupying a smaller rocker and the Newell's granddaughter, Kerl Ayn Callaway of McAllen, standing between.

WESTERN PAINTINGS in an extensive collection are featured in the new home of the Frank Ford family. The one above the polished table where Mrs. Ford sits to sip a glass of tea is typical of those to be seen.

CHEERFUL WELCOME to the Newell home is given by beds of flowers backed by green shrubs, which won for it the Beauty Spot of the Month award made recently by the beautification committee of Deaf Smith Chamber of Commerce Women's Division.

BRAND NEW, the Ford house is just getting plantings started in the yard on Centre Street. The story-and-a-half ranch style brick is one of a group of houses in a new addition to the northwest part of the city.

GROWING GREENERY beneath a skylight is seen first by a visitor to the Jordes' home, in the foyer where stained glass panels from an old house at Amarillo flank the doorway. From left, Mrs. McCrary, Mrs. Jorde and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Warren Jorde stand just inside the dining area, located across the foyer from the living room.

A new meeting place for Merry Mixers Square Dance Club will be the Elks Lodge building on Country Club drive. All interested residents are invited to join members in dancing on second, third and fourth Tuesday evenings each month. Lessons for beginners are scheduled to begin at 8 p. m. Tech Graduates Lead The Field In Bar Exam

LUBBOCK — The Texas State Board of Law Examiners said Wednesday that, of the 499 persons taking the June Bar Examination, graduates of Texas Tech University School of Law made the top five grades.

High scorers were Mrs. Ruth Kirby of Littlefield and Marwin Brakebill, a Ralls farmer. Mrs. Kirby's husband is a lawyer and their daughter was an honor graduate from the University of California at Los Angeles School of Law last June. Mrs. Kirby and Brakebill tied for high score with 92, according to Howard Steiny, secretary of the Board of Law Examiners.

In a tie for second place, with grades of 89, were Mrs. Leota

She previously served as state treasurer, and before that head area and county THDA.

Mrs. Alexander is working now in the office of Lubbock County Attorney Tom Purdom. Shaw will engage in private practice in El Paso. Segrest is now clerk to Judge Byron Skelton in the U. S. Court of Claims in Washington, D. C.
