REPORT RAINS THROUGHOUT AREA FOR PAST WEEK

Two-tenths of an inch of rain fell here in last night's shower. There was no rain in Hereford Tuesday, but there were spotted showers and in some instances heavy rains over the county late Tuesday.

Rain which fell here last Friday totalled a half inch and was fairly general throughout the immediate territory as well as in other portions of the Panhandle. Temperatures have been running well above 90 degrees every day.

Lions Name Group To Help With Road

A committee composed of Alex Thompson, Nestor Gass, Barnard Hicks and Claude Ricketts will represent the Lions Club in obtaining right-of-way on 25-Mile Avenue on which construction work as a relief project will be started soon.

Miss Ruby Faye Bennett, accompanied by Gordon Durham at the piano, sang several songs at the Wednesday luncheon of the Lions. Vigorous speeches for the various candidates for offices in the club were delivered by the campaign managers.

Amarillo's Races Will Start Friday Afternoon

Amarillo's nine-day race meet will start Friday afternoon with more than 200 fine horses entered. The first race will begin at 2:30 o'clock. Seven races, each with eight entries, will be run daily.

The track at the Tri-State Fairgrounds has been remodeled and put in top shape for the meeting. Sidney S. Bender, nationally known racing authority, will have charge. The entire meet, he said, will be conducted exactly as are the big time races.

The meeting will close with the Panhandle derby, the feature of the final day, on Monday, June 25. This race will attract the Southwest's best thoroughbreds, for a $500 added purse is being offered.

SATURDAY LAST DAY FOR CANDIDATES TO FILE

Saturday midnight will be the deadline for candidates for county and district offices within the county to file for places on the ballot in the Democratic Primary of July 28. C. G. Acher, county chairman, is taking the applications of candidates.

A. Walker and A. L. Carlton of Lawton, Oklahoma, were here Tuesday visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lusk, route 4.

A letter from Mrs. J. E. Garrison stated that she is located in Van Wert, Ohio, for the summer.

FIFTY CANDIDATES FOR STATE OFFICES WILL BE ON BALLOT

Fifty candidates have formally filed notice of entering the July Democratic primaries, seeking a state office.

Among the latest additions to the list was the name of R. D. Parker, chief enforcement officer of the Railroad Commission in the East Texas field, whose friends sent formal notice to J. K. Brim, chairman of the state executive committee. They placed the petition in the hands of Brim three hours before the deadline Monday night.

Manley H. Clary of Fort Worth filed for state comptroller and K. Terrell of Floydada for commissioner of agriculture. Both of these applications for places on the ballot were mailed before the deadline.

The following is the list of candidates who had formally notified either Brim or Miss Bertha Kuntz, secretary of the committee at Houston:

Governor: C. C. McDonald of Wichita Falls, Tom Hunter of Wichita Falls, James V. Allred of Dallas, Clint Small of Amarillo, Edgar E. Witt of Waco; Edward K. Russell of Red River county, W. W. Nance, Jr., of Fort Worth.

Lieutenant Governor: Walter Woodul of Houston, R. M. Johnson of Palestine, Benjamin F. Berkeley of Alpine, John W. Hornsby of Austin, J. P. Rogers of Houston, Joe Moore of Greenville.

Attorney General: Walter Woodward of Coleman, J. F. Hair of San Antonio, Clyde Smith of Woodville, William McGraw of Dallas, Senator: Joseph W. Bailey, Jr.,

First Car of Cattle In Relief Drive Is Sent Wednesday

Deaf Smith county's first carload of cattle bought by the Government in the relief program, was shipped to Amarillo Wednesday. Through yesterday noon 112 head had been purchased.

Farmers and stockmen wishing to sell cattle of any sort are urged to call at the agricultural office and file applications to sell. Buyers will then go to their farms to complete the deals. No cattle are barred, and no limit has been placed on the number either an individual or the county may sell.

Price range of the cattle begins at $4 per head and goes to $20 per head. Cattle are either condemned and killed on the farm or shipped to Amarillo for slaughtering and canning. Cattle killed on the farm may be used on the farm in any way seen fit and the farmer may sell the hide. In many cases cattle are fit to eat but are condemned because of age or lack of weight.

For cattle two years and over which are edible the price is from $12 to $20; the same age but not fit for human consumption, $12. Animals between the ages of one and two that are edible bring $11 to $15; condemned, $10. Under a year old the price is $5 to $8 if edible, condemned, $4.

After a farmer sells cattle it is up to him to deliver them to the stock pens at Hereford where French Thurmond, representing the relief department, will take them over. The relief department handles the feeding and transportation to Amarillo where the animals are delivered to the Pinkney Packing Company for slaughtering, then sent to the government canning plant.

Ezra Norton, S. O. Wilson, Frank Barber and Henry Hastings are the appraisers for the county. Two veterinarians representing the Bureau of Animal Industry are here inspecting the cattle, determining if they are fit for human consumption. The owner and appraisers then agree on a price and the deal is closed. In signing a contract of sale the owner agrees to participate in any government cattle program that may be inaugurated.

holders of mortgages may participate in benefits from sales. In any case the owner is to receive $5 on cattle over two years old, $5 on cattle between one and two, and $3 on animals under a year old. The remainder may be apportioned to the mortgage holder and paid direct to him.

Every one of the county's 30,000 head of cattle is eligible for sale in the program and Dewey Reed, county agent, expects over 5,000 to be sold. In making an application to sell his cattle the owner incurs no obligation, and is not required to sell even after inspection and appraisal of his cattle. "This is a wonderful opportunity for stockmen to cull their herds and get a cash benefit as well," Reed declared.

Mary Broadwell Honor Student at University

Mary Broadwell of Hereford was one of the 65 students of Trinity University at Wapakong, Pa. who were named to the honor roll for the second semester which closed recently, according to Dean Edward F. Childs and Registrar C. H. Pera.

During her two years in Trinity, Miss Broadwell has been outstanding in student activities as well as in her scholastic work.

County Pushes Drive On Weeds

Farmers are still being urged by the commissioners' court to keep up their fight on Russian Thistles. The campaign of education along this line was started some weeks ago when the commissioners pointed out that vast sums of tax moneys are being wasted in maintaining roads.

The weeds grow in fields in the summer, die and are blown into ditches along the county roads and are covered with soil which also blows from the fields. This brings about great difficulty in grading out the ditches and increases costs of maintenance to a prohibitive degree.

Farmers are asked to plow out these weeds this summer and urge their neighbors to do the same so that they will neither attain full growth nor make seed. This prevention of weed growth will result in great saving in road machinery and maintenance labor costs to taxpayers as well as aid in conserving soil from wind erosion.

BEGIN HARVEST AS FIRST GRAIN DELIVERY MADE

Hereford's first load of wheat was delivered Wednesday afternoon. It was raised by C. V. Burgess on his farm in Westway community a few miles west of the city. The grain was No. 1 hard and tested 66 pounds to the bushel, with 13 1/2 per cent moisture.

It was delivered to the McLean & Pitman elevator where a premium of 15 cents per bushel was paid, making the selling price 85 cents. Mr. Burgess brought in several truck loads Wednesday afternoon.

Wheat harvest, usually the year's biggest event in Hereford and the surrounding territory, will start this week. It will be in full swing next week.

In place of a normal yield of more than two million bushels, production will do well to reach 200,000 bushels in Hereford's immediate territory, elevator men say. Majority of the cutting will be done along the southern and eastern edges of Deaf Smith county.

Out in the great area of the county north and west of Hereford where the bulk of production usually comes from only a few scattered patches will be cut.

Great sand dunes, monuments to the wind, line the fence rows and fill the fields where normally combines would be whirling. Farmers, nevertheless, are hard at work putting in row crops and summer fallowing wheat lands in hopes of a crop next year. Greatest activity in the wheat fields is that of crews of men measuring acres taken out of production in Government wheat reduction contracts. While Uncle Sam is paying farmers to reduce acreage, the drought and winds have arbitrarily cut production far below the Government's desired yield.

Oldest Citizen Dies On Monday

Emil Bowsler, 92 past, Deaf Smith county's oldest citizen, died at his home early Monday morning. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Methodist church, Rev. T. C. Willett officiating. The remains were laid to rest at West Park Cemetery late Tuesday afternoon after the arrival of a daughter, Miss Bonnie Bowsler from San Antonio.

Mr. Bowsler was born at Upper Sandusky, Ohio, July 16, 1841, and at the time of his death was nearly 93 years old. He was joined in marriage to Miss Ellen Wethered on September 20, 1870. To this union was born seven children of whom two daughters, Mrs. Clementine Batschelor, who has made her home with her parents for a number of years, and Miss Bonnie Bowsler of San Antonio, and H. C. Bowsler of this county, are yet living. He is also survived by his wife.

Mr. Bowsler became a member of the Methodist Church in his early married life, and remained an ardent Christian and church worker, having held many important offices in the church to the last. As early as 1906 Mr. Bowsler purchased a number of tracts of land near Hereford and came here with his family in 1919 from his home in Modena, Missouri.

Dick Dixon Seeks Constable Office

B. R. (Dick) Dixon is a candidate for Constable in the Hereford precinct, he announced today. He asks the Democratic nomination to the post in the primary of July 25.

"Not only am I qualified to handle the duties of this office, but I need the income that goes with it," Dixon pointed out. "I have lived in Deaf Smith county too many years to count and hope to see all my numerous friends between now and election time in regard to my candidacy."

"I ask the consideration of the voters entirely on my ability to handle the office. My promise is hereby given that if elected I will use common sense and judgment in enforcing the law and in handling other duties of the position."

Engle to Hold Sale.

Pete Engle announces that next Saturday will mark the opening of a sales day in Hereford and the surrounding trade territory. He says everyone is invited to bring livestock and farm machinery to the sales grounds near the site of the old cotton gin where an auctioneer will sell the offerings Saturday afternoon of each week.

Resume Work On Highway 33 As Relief Projects Start

FIREMEN TO MEET GOVERNORS IN BALL GAME HERE SUNDAY

Relief work started in Deaf Smith county Wednesday with the assignment of a crew of men to the Highway 33 project in the city. More than 20 have gone to work filling in the turns with caliche. They will begin excavations for curb and gutter at once. The whole mile within the city is to be given asphalt surface after the curb and gutter are finished.

More than 60 men will be employed on this project, Cooper Dewey, engineer in charge, said. Dewey and C. N. Harrison, highway department engineer, will direct this job. Other highway work will be started as quickly as possible, W. W. Chilton, administrator said.

Highway jobs and cattle buying activities constitute the Federal Government's special drought relief program. Other relief work will be state relief and will be handled as in the past. W. J. Van London, district highway engineer, was in Hereford Tuesday conferring with county officials concerning highway work. Officials will begin at once to obtain right-of-way for 25-Mile Avenue construction which will start shortly. There is also to be some building on Harrison Highway, according to present plans.

A. W. Errod, state relief supervisor for the district, was in the city Tuesday and aided in getting the road work started. He said it should have been under way several days earlier. Chilton said the state office had not sent him authority to begin.

Requirements for getting jobs have not been changed. Only persons eligible for relief work under the budgetary plan may get work. The following rule governing selection of workers has been sent out by State Director Marie Dresden:

"Workers shall be selected from relief rolls, after investigation. The responsibility of determining eligibility for relief is definitely that of the administrator. Those selected shall... work only to the extent of their budgetary needs..."

"This means," Chilton stated, "that only those who have applied at this office and who have been investigated shall be eligible. For this reason we want every person in the county whose income does not meet the needs of his family to come in and register and if his case justifies, he will be given work."

Projects upon which crews are at work include cleaning of ditches and repairing culverts on all county roads, community gardens, athletic field at the high school, repairing of bridge on 25-Mile Avenue and cattle buying.

Chilton received orders this morning to compile a list of all available farm labor in the county. He asks that persons living on farms who need work come in and register at the office and get further information. Workers are likely to be sent anywhere within the state. The employment service is keeping in touch with labor needs on farms and will fill vacancies from drought areas insofar as possible.

Wheat Measuring Nears Completion

More than 70 per cent of the county's farms have been measured for wheat acreage, according to County Agent Dewey Reed. Crews are still at work and figure to get through next week. About the same number have called at the agriculture office in the court house and completed the certificates of compliance with the contracts.

Farmers who have not made the certificates are urged to rush in and get them through. Deadline for completion of this work is June 20. Reed wants to finish as quickly as possible so that the contracts may be sent to Washington for payment of the second allotment.

Farmers here were cheered by the news from Washington last week that the second allotment had been increased from eight to nine cents per bushel. This was done in the drought stricken areas as a relief measure. This will result in increased payments here of more than $25,000.

New Officers Are Named by Masons

Hereford Masons elected new officers at the meeting Monday night as follows: James W. Robinson, Worshipful Master; W. C. Nix, Senior Warden; M. D. Womble, Junior Warden; Miles Robinson, Treasurer; Egbert Brady, Secretary; Charles O'Dell, Tiler. Appointive officers are yet to be named.

Installation ceremonies will be held Monday night, June 25, at a closed meeting.

The Lodge meets this Thursday night for work in the E. A. degree, to which all members and visiting brethren have an invitation.

Band to Give Concert Next Friday Evening

An outdoor concert will be played Friday night by the Junior Band at the Texas Service Station, Ralph Smith, director, has announced. There are 35 pieces in the youngsters' band at this time, Smith said.

The city band is practicing on Monday and Thursday nights at the city hall with about 40 attending each rehearsal. They plan a number of concerts a little later in the season.

Fishermen Robbed; Return In Barrels

Ab Posey, Carl Jennings and A. C. Hales came home Tuesday night in the wee small hours from a fishing trip up in New Mexico wearing nothing but barrels. They intended to return Wednesday night, but made the forced landing when their camp was robbed of everything they weren't wearing—and that was very little. They even lost their shoes. Mexicans, they said, robbed their camp of clothing and duffel while they were out fishing. Friends reported that from the looks of things the robbery must have occurred while the victims were asleep. "If the nights were not so cold up there," Cliff Estes observed, "that they had to wear clothes while sleeping, they would have been nudists."

County to Purchase New Road Machinery

Bids for a tractor to use in road work are being asked by the county in this edition of the Brand. It has become necessary, commissioners said, to buy a new tractor or two because those now on hand are practically worn out. The machinery now on hand is five and six years old and during the past two years has been overworked in road maintenance as a result of weeds and soil blown into county roads.

"It would be false economy," said County Judge C. W. Humble, "to attempt to continue to use the machinery we have because of the high repair costs necessary when using this worn-out equipment."

Midgets, Odd Fellows Defeat Lions In Pair of Close Bouts

(BY HOMER FOX)

What another ball game, what another ball game! Last Thursday afternoon the fastest climbing, hardest hitting, ball kicking Midget ball club, finally tamed the Lions 9 to 7, after an hour and 20 minutes of growls, gripes, groans, grins and what have you.

The kids started off in the first like whirlwind. Kerr, first man up, tripped and some flathead yelled for him to come home, and he was out at the plate. Speegle was out, pitch to first. L. B. Russell was out, short to first.

The meat eaters scored one in their half, after two outs. Whattaman Robinson walked, Smith singled, Allison doubled, scoring Tubby, McWilliams was out, short to first.

In the second the kids tied the score. Brock popped out to short, Kester tripled, O boy, can that baby hit that ball. Carroll laid one down third base line and was safe at first, scoring Kester; food dumped one to first, Baker whiffed. The night prowlers made another one in their half after two outs. Patton was safe on an error at second. Toughy Acher crossed the whole team up—both sides—and hit a three bagger over center, scoring Patton. Close was out, pitch to first. The Midgets went out one-two-three in the third.

In their half the Lions scared us kids. Robinson was out short to first, Smith singled, Baker dropped Allison's pop, but caught Smith at second and the umpire was called everything but a gentleman. McWilliams singled and good old Posey was out to left field. We found our grin again. In the fourth the kids scored again and tied it up. Brock went out, short to first, Kester singled, stole second, Seed singled, scoring Kester. Patsy hit a high line drive to catcher.

The Leos were out in order in their half.

In the fifth the Midgets lost their temper again. B. Russell was out, pitch to first, Kerr was safe on an error. Speegle whiffed thinking about how he could get to the dance that night. L. B. Russell was safe on an error by third; Brock walked and the bases were loaded and two men out and Kester up. What a place for a lick, and did he hit it or did he hit it—a hard ball into left field. Smith let it get through him and he was for a HOME RUN. Carroll singled and Seed was out.

THEY SAVED THEIR SOIL

A number of years ago the Northwestern portion of Kansas was threatened with disaster through blowing of soil, much as Deaf Smith county and the Panhandle are now threatened. The Kansans discovered that if they go in their fields soon enough they could check and often entirely stop the shifting of the soil by plowing lister ridges from three to six rods apart crosswise the prevailing winds.

"We have never yet," says an article by Bea Hibbs in the May Country Gentleman, "failed to stop soil blowing by this method. After the wheat has attained a satisfactory growth, the ridges are cultivated back into the furrows. Some grain naturally is destroyed, but the wheat along the edges of the furrows—because it is able to get more moisture—gives an increased yield."

"The battle against erosion is definitely a community proposition," the article continues. "It is futile for one farmer to throw up ridges across his fields if his neighbors sit at home in despair and do nothing. The drifting sand from surrounding farms soon smooths over the rough surface of a properly prepared seed bed, covers the lister ridges which the wise farmer has plowed, and presently his fields are blowing too. The big job is to get all the wheat growers in a community aroused and active at the critical moment."

Around Colby, Kansas, the situation became so acute the state legislature passed a law giving the counties authority to take preventive measures. If a farmer failed to join in the lister-ridge movement the county could hire the work done and add the cost to the farmers' tax bill. This was frequently done and it worked, saving much land that was in dire danger.

UP TO WEST TEXAS

With each passing week it becomes increasingly apparent that it is squarely up to West Texas to name the run-off candidates in the race for Governor of Texas. Senator Slim C. Small is gaining strength throughout the state but especially is he gaining in South, East and Central Texas.

In fact, Small has gained sufficiently that his place as first or second man is conceded if he can carry as much as 80 per cent of the West Texas votes accorded him four years ago. That Alfred is slipping all agree. The last time he ran Small was the overwhelming choice of all West Texas but had no concentrated strength in other areas. Today he is assured pluralities in San Antonio, Fort Worth and El Paso. Dallas and Houston are also warming up to his campaign as are some of the other metropolitan districts. West Texas can put him at the head of the parade.

Senator Small offers no magic panacea for state's ills. He has no catch word or wolf cry upon which he is founding his campaign. He has not the subtlety of alleged administration support such as Tom Connally is using in his Senatorial race. Slim Small is a sand, sound and honest man who is presenting his case to the voters on that basis. And the voters are responding.

A LONG TIME AGO IN HEREFORD

(From The Hereford Brand, June 12, 1903.)

The Texico correspondent remarked that "The majesty of the law has been firmly established in Texico, and any silver-tongued follower of Blackstone who undertakes to defeat justice on a technical point will be cut off at the pockets. Horse thieves, highway, and others of that ilk have just about as much showing to get away from justice in Eastern New Mexico as a snowball has in a red hot pan. When such men as Ed Connell, Rat Jowell, Tom Reagan, Luke Blair, W. G. Ross and Ed Harwell, backed by other good and true citizens too numerous to mention, get on the trail of evil doers, a speedy capture—dead or alive—is the inevitable result."

Born, Monday, June 8, to Dr. and Mrs. C. P. Estes, a girl.

In June 2 elections, Castro county had gone dry by a large majority.

Saturday's election annulled incorporation for Hereford by a vote of 84 to 41.

Petitions from Hereford and Dimmitt had been sent the Post Office Department in Washington asking that the starting point of the Hereford-Dimmitt mail route be changed from Hereford to Dimmitt for the good of the service.

Rat Jowell, T. A. Cox and J. W. Hanna had been held up at their camp in New Mexico the previous Wednesday by two Oklahoma men. In the ensuing chase, Deputy Sheriff W. G. Ross was wounded and one of the accused men killed when Ross undertook to arrest him at Texico.

George L. Muse had been in town from his South Draw ranch.

A. O. Thompson reported heavy rains when he came in from his ranch northeast of Hereford.

The editor was wrought up by published reports that more than 100,000 hides had been shipped from Hereford, these alleged big shipments having been caused by cattle dying during the February storm. Investigation showed that 34,165 hides had been sent from Here.

(From The Hereford Brand, June 13, 1913.)

Trades Day had been inaugurated in Hereford and was attended by an extra large crowd. Among

"What on earth is the matter with you? Are you sick?" Learning good habits early is the best system in the world, but learning bad habits early is a serious handicap for life. And as a man's character is the sum total of his habits, he should by all means learn good habits early.—Old Times in McLean News.

The voice of the people isn't often heard, but a good many ambitious fellows have heard the voice that the people sent out, much to their disgust and chagrin. We are referring to those who are willing to suffer for the salary, on the altar of their country.—Portales Valley News.

Poor Candidates.

This year as in other years the poor county candidates are getting a heavy shelling from all quarters. Pie suppers, donations, advertising fans, cards and circulars are being poked at them from all sides and with each is the threat of a withheld vote. But with the unfairness of all in my opinion is to give them a gruelling questionnaire on who they intend to vote for in the state races. That is an excellent way to pick the sorriest candidates possible, and it is a better way to invite still worse candidates to run two years from now. Who a man may select to vote for is not pertinent to his fitness to fill the office he seeks. Just to help the candidates, I want to give the proper answer for the candidates when confronted with such a question. The answer is: "I intend to vote just like you do." If that does not satisfy them and they demand an elaboration then come right out with it and tell them: "I intend to vote for whom I darn please, and that is the way I figure you would vote." If greater emphasis is desired the word darn can be supplanted with a more appropriate one.—Deskins Wells, Wellington Leader.

The editor was interviewing one of his advertisers the first of the week about why customers buy. He said: "There is usually only one reason why a man buys, but with a lady it might be any one of ten of the following reasons: Because her husband says she can't have it; because it will make her look thin; because it is on sale; because it comes from Paris; because her neighbors can afford it; because no one else has one; because everybody has one; because it's different; then, because!—Briscoe County News.

A whole lot of our best people fall or neglect to pay their city taxes and thus allow the credit of their home city to suffer for lack of funds to meet its obligations. Yet many of these same people most heartily and conscientiously condemn the operating of slot machines in the business houses of the city. And at the same time these slot machine operators come right up and toe the mark with their occupation tax money, which is an added tax that is not assessed upon other citizens. And my cogitation leads me still further to the extent that our city "dads" are often seriously criticised if they undertake to push the collection of all other taxes.—Jodok, in Friona Star.

We have finally figured out a way to end the drought in the Panhandle. Let some organization in each community plan a large picnic and there will be the largest general rain over the North Plains that these people have experienced in many a day.—State-Line Tribune.

By Their Words

What Panhandle Papers Say

More and more business men are coming to feel that the sales tax is the best solution of the state's problems of taxation. Few consumers seem to object to it. The distressing burden which real property has carried is being relieved, and a share of taxes paid by the large number who have not owned property, paid no taxes, yet enjoyed full benefit of the schools and other government functions. What objection these is arises principally from beginning the tax at a dime; the objection may not be an effective one excepting at state borders adjoining states where there is no sales tax in effect.—Curry County, (New Mexico), Times.

From observing child nature you will note with extreme uneasiness the tendency of small children to learn to swear, drink, smoke and get money by questionable methods and to view this world as a tremendous pleasure resort, and if a child accidentally gets to thinking seriously, its mother will say,

FOR JOE WORK, TRY THE SHANK

Money Will Be Saved

By Payment of Back Taxes Before July 1

On May 26, 1933, the Legislature enacted a measure suspending penalty and interest on DELINQUENT TAXES and fixed a graduated penalty in their stead. At the present time the penalty is six per cent and will remain so until the expiration of the measure on June 30.

This means delinquent taxes for 1932 and any prior years may be paid during this month with the addition of only a six per cent penalty and no interest. But on July 1 the old law prescribing ten per cent penalty and six per cent interest per year will again be in force.

AFTER JUNE 30 the Following Schedule Will Apply:

30 1/2% WILL BE ADDED TO 1930 DELINQUENT TAXES
24 1/2% WILL BE ADDED TO 1931 DELINQUENT TAXES
18 1/2% WILL BE ADDED TO 1932 DELINQUENT TAXES

A DELINQUENT COST WILL ALSO ACCRUE

There will probably never be another opportunity to save as much on your taxes as can be saved by paying this month.

The remission law does not apply to 1933 taxes. Neither does it apply to ANY taxes due the Hereford Independent School District. It concerns only the state and county levies.

CHEAPER METHOD OF KEEPING EGGS

The keeping of spring eggs until fall when egg prices are higher, has always been an interesting farm problem, says W. M. Ginn of the New Mexico State College.

A cheaper method than any other tried before has been reported as satisfactory. This method is the paraffin-lard method. Of course, eggs have been successfully stored in water glass during the past several years, but that method is more expensive than the paraffin treatment. Probably more eggs are successfully stored in large cold storage plants than in any other place, but such plants are not available to the small poultry farmer.

The cheapest method of storing a few farm eggs is as follows: One pound lard, 1/2 pound paraffin, 4 ounces dry boric acid (this may be secured at a drug store).

Mix all ingredients well while heating slightly. Allow to cool. Take a small lump about the size of a pea in the palm of the hand and work well over the egg. Wrap each egg in paper and store in a cool place. A basement of cellar makes a good storage place. It is reported by most persons who have tried this method that the eggs kept well for several months. It is also reported that the whites stood up well and no bad odors developed.

Use clean infertile eggs for storage. Eggs keep better if no males are left with the hens. Fertile eggs should not be stored as the germ may begin to develop and spoil the egg.

This may be a good year to preserve a few eggs for home use next fall and winter, since there will be fewer layers next fall about it in their half. Two whiffed and one popped to pitch. The kids were still in there in the seventh. L. B. Russell was out, short to first. Brock walked. Kester forced Brock at second, then stole second—catcher threw the ball away and it rolled into center field. Kester going home. Carroll was safe when first booted his grounder, stole second and came home when left erred on Seed's fly. Baker struck out. Two runs and nary hit, but we were awfully glad it happened that way a little later.

BALL GAME

Robinson, first man up, singled; Smith was safe on an error at second, Allison hit into a fast double, getting Robinson at third and Allison at first. McWilliams singled, scoring Smith, Posey was safe on an error at third, Landis made it to first when Seed booted his grounder. McWilliams scored, Patton, good old Speed, took us out of our misery with a no-trump and popped out to short, and we were two runs ahead and feeling mighty good.

This fire outfit had just as well move over, cause us Midgets will be sitting on that top round with them next Thursday, and we don't mean mebbe.

Tuesday's Game.

Tuesday afternoon those up-and-coming Odd Fellows sent that old goat ramming through the Lions den for the winning run after two extra frames and won 4 to 3.

It was a peach of a ball game, in fact it was a dinger, with very little firing on the battle front, even if there was a lot of smoke several times. The Lions scored one run in the first inning, after one out. Close singled, Robinson was out, third to first, advancing Close; Allison singled, scoring Close.

The Oddies tied it up in their half after two were out. Dean tripled and scored when Judge dropped Hussey's fly. Nunn flew out to center.

The meat eaters made another in the second on two errors and a P. C. The Odds couldn't get to first in their half.

The Lions made one more in the third on three singles, but Robinson, Allison and Posey—yes sir, Old Pose has been up twice and crashed out two licks, guess the pitcher had the headache.

In their half the goat herder went into a huddle; went into a wing back formation, with Kingfish Paddock astride the old goat, and they smashed their way thru the Lions' mighty forward wall, tore up the goal line for two touchdowns and tied the old game up again, after one was out. Wilson tripled, Sowell walked, Dean singled, Hussey and Nunn singled; Murchison popped to third and Dean was doubled at third, Smith getting the double unassisted. We looked at the score book. What! Goodness, goodness, two runs on a triple, a walk and three hits? Where have those flat heads been that were on bases, surely must have been a fumble out there—even Hop could run better than that—those guys run bases like the Odds, whiffed, then old Ted staggered into the box with blood in his eye. Bob had a little grin on his face—he knew he could get that big horse out, cause he hadn't seen first all day. Ted missed the first one two feet; he missed the next one four feet. Kingfish led the old goat out on first base line. Ted heard that little, low, pleading bleat and dug in. Bob turned out a high fast ball and BANG! sounded like a shotgun. Ted jumped on the goat and tore out. Landis in the left field also tore out. The ball sailed over Landis' head, and looked like a pea and when Judge got back with the ball everybody had gone and he had to walk to town. No use to get sore, though, he was gone so long they all forgot he was down there.

GIRL SCOUT NOTES

At Whiteface Troop meeting last Wednesday the girls hemmed curtains for the windows of their room. When varnished the room will be as one scout expressed it, "scrumbunctious." It is planned to dye burlap and braid it for rugs. Next week will be time for Cardinal Patrol to clear the room. Fern Patrol did a nice job this week of cleaning the room and hanging the curtains.

A group of scouts who believe "the early work catches the worm" have been arising each morning and going to the home of Miss Ella Broadwell, lieutenant, for bird study. This course has been interesting and well attended. Next week Miss Fern Williams will conduct a course in signalling for second class test. All scouts who are qualified or who expect to attend are requested to learn the code.

In case Scouts desire to make a flag for signalling the usual size is 24 inches square, red material with white center eight inches square, on a staff 42 inches long and half an inch in diameter.

As the Girl Scouts contribution to the City Beautiful project they will work by patrols in policing these neighborhoods: Swastika Patrol, the neighborhood north of the Methodist church as far north as Lake Park and east to the Church of Christ. Red Squirrel patrol, from Court house south to creek. Antelope patrol, from court house east to hospital. Cardinal patrol, neighborhood around the Central school. Fern patrol, neighborhood around high school.

Scouts will endeavor by personal example to influence other children to appreciate the beauty of their surroundings. To use their influence against walking across lawns, pulling up flowers, trampling fruit from trees. Will aid in keeping these places clean by not throwing down papers, fruit peelings or junk of any kind. Each Scout will hold herself personally responsible for her own premises by keeping the yard clean and the lawn and flowers watered and cared for. Each Scout will try to be an example to others in her neighborhood in keeping the city clean and beautiful.

Last but not least, we wish to add as Andy says, "a memorandum." The time of the meeting has been changed to 4 instead of 4:30 as formerly. The place is the Scouts' room in the court house. Visitors are always welcome.

AGRICULTURE INCOME CLIMBS DURING YEAR

Cash income of American agriculture increased more than 39 per cent during the year which ended May 1, 1934. This marked improvement was cited by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration last week in a general summary of the first 12 months' operation under the Agricultural Adjustment Act passed May 12, 1933.

Estimated farm income, exclusive of the value of products used on the farm was $3,979,000,000 for the year ending May 1, 1933. For the year just ended the cash income was estimated at $5,530,000,000. The increased income was more than one and one-half billion dollars. Rental and benefit payments to farmers who cooperated in adjustment programs accounted for more than 12% of this increase.

At the close of the first year under the Adjustment Act, farmers have signed more than 2,960,000 contracts to restrict acreage. In addition about 8000 farmers are benefitting from marketing agreements put into effect during the year.

Definite progress has been made toward "parity" for farm prices, which is the object of the Adjustment Act. A year ago the ratio of prices the farmer received to the price he paid was 52. It now has advanced to 62.

Dean News

BY MARY LOUISE-ELSIE FRIEMEL

B. R. Fulkerson made a business trip to Amarillo Monday of last week.

The Plow Boys played a Hereford ball team recently, winning the game 14 to 1.

CARL'S Cash and Carry GROCERY

THE TOUGHEST TEST A MOTOR OIL COULD TAKE!

NEW AND IMPROVED CONOCO GERM PROCESSED MOTOR OIL WINS THE TERRIFIC "DESTRUCTION" TEST!

These six new strictly stock cars were used in the "destruction" test, under AAA supervision.

A DARING, competitive test—and what a result! New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil outdistanced five worthy rivals, thanks to the extraordinary film strength and penetrativeness our recently patented process gives it. Five quarts of this remarkable new oil lubricated a motor for the almost unbelievable distance of 4,729 miles before the motor was wrecked!

Five other oils, all nationally known, competed with New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil in this test. All cars were driven under AAA supervision, under exactly the same conditions until the motors could no longer operate. The notable thing is that five quarts of New and Improved Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil went more than 3,000 miles farther than the first oil to fail, and over 1,400 miles farther than the best of its competitors!

The results of this test should guide your motor oil purchases from now on. Look for the Red Triangle Sign.

NEW AND IMPROVED CONOCO GERM PROCESSED MOTOR OIL
EXCLUSIVE NEW FEATURES PROTECTED UNDER RECENT U. S. PATENTS

Five quarts of each brand of oil of the same S.A.E. grade from measures checked by the Bureau of Weights and Measures, State of Indiana, were carefully put in the cars by AAA officials.

The official sealing of crankcases after all of five quarts was put in. No addition of oil was permitted in this "destruction" test.
